General Asking For Another Increase

Here they come again! General Telephone is seeking another raise in rates in Tahoka—and without a promise of dial service.

J. E. King, revenue requirements manager of San Angelo, J. L. Kemper, division manager of Brownfield, and Bob Saunders, district manager of Lamesa, were here Tuesday and presented briefs to members of the Tahoka City Council asking a raise in rates.

The rate increase asked would raise one-party business telephones from $11.25 to $13.50, two-party from $9.50 to $11.40; one-party residence phones from $4.50 to $5.00, and two-party from $3.75 to $4.00; all less taxes.

Two members of the Tahoka City Council told The News Wednesday as far as they are concerned the only way General Telephone Company will get another raise now will be by court action.

In its brief for consideration by the Council, General points out the mounting costs of operation, including rising taxes, increased wages, increased facilities, and increased use of telephones.

Tahoka granted General Telephone an increase in rates effective December 11, 1951. Then, on September 9, the Council granted a rate increase on business telephones, which went into effect February 1, 1954, to take care of added cost of extended area service to Poka-Lambro Rural Co-operative lines.

However, General Telephone points out it has granted three wage increases totaling 23.8 percent since 1951. In 1940, the brief states, a Tahoka subscriber could talk to 332 other telephones in talk to 332 other telephones. Today, he can talk to 824 other telephones plus 300 to 400 telephones in Fletcher-Carter, New Home, New Lynn, and West Lakes.

The company presents a number of tables in making its contention for higher rates which show operating costs, income, an analysis of subscriber rent revenues, plant investment, and rate base.

Total plant value is placed at $125,505.67, and at a fair value of 80 percent of condition at $100,427.95.

Members of the Tahoka City Council told The News they had agreed to study the proposal, but "that is all."

Mrs. Ernestine Hermine Lichey, 82 years of age, died at her home at Wilson Monday afternoon.

Phone Plant Is Being Remodeled

The local exchange building of General Telephone company is being remodeled on its interior for greater convenience of employees and customers.

Two walls have been moved to give more space in the lobby, where the cashier's desk is now located and to re-arrange the switchboard room, according to Mrs. Iva Elliott. A lounge for use of operators has been fitted out just west of the switchboard room. The entire interior will be redecorated.

Due to the recent connection with Poka-Lambro Rural Telephone Cooperative for extended area service, two positions have been added to the switchboard, making a total of six. Eighteen operators are now used at the exchange.

The office of D. G. McClellan, plant man, will remain in the northeast corner of the building. For around the clock convenience of the public, an outside telephone booth was recently installed at the corner of the telephone company lot.

County Baptists Will Meet Here

Next week will be a busy week at the First Baptist Church! People from the Baptist Churches of Lynn County will come together there for a week of study together in a Group Training School preceding the Simultaneous reunions, according to Rev. J. Clifford Harris, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Tahoka.

The services will begin at 7:30 each evening Monday through Friday. The following courses will be offered for adults and young people: "How to Win to Christ", Teacher Rev. J. A. Martin, Wilson.

"The Pull of the People", Teacher Rev. Otis Holliday, O'Donnell. "Outlines of Bible History" Teacher, Rev. J. Clifford Harris, Tahoka.

"Jesus the Teacher", Teacher Rev. Bill Wadley, Tahoka. The following book will be offered for Intermediates: "The Faith they Kept" Teacher, Rev. Robt. Clements, New Home.

Each night there will be a special emphasis period between the two class periods. Various pastors of our area will speak during his period: Monday night; Publicity for a Revival, Rev. A. T. Nixon. Tuesday night; Prayers for a Revival, Rev. Albert Gage. Wednesday night; (a film) Thursday night; People and a Revival, Rev. Gene Grace. Friday night; Evangelistic Service, Rev. Abe Hester, pastor, College Ave. Baptist Church, Lubbock, Texas.

Bids Asked On New Pavement

Texas Highway Department is advertising for bids on 13 miles of new farm-to-market road paving which it expects to build in the southwest part of Lynn County this summer.

The new paving will begin at a corner of present paving four miles west of O'Donnell, extend south one mile, thence west seven miles, thence north four miles to present paving at Newmoore.

From a point on the paving nine miles west of O'Donnell, a short spur to the south will connect up with a Dawson county farm road, which in turn connects with Welch and Seagraves to the west.

Bureau Starting Member Drive

The Lynn County Farm Bureau will have a kick-off supper for all workers in the membership drive at the American Legion hall on Monday night, Mar. 8, at 7:30 o'clock.

The Lynn County Bureau had 427 members last year, and the quota for this year is 500 members. It the local unit gets its quota, it hopes to build its own office in Tahoka.

The speakers on the program for that night will be: O. K. Hoyle, regional organization director; Hub King, State director; Gene Leach, field representative for this area; Guy Smith, president of the Lynn County Farm Bureau.

Member Lois Smelser, board member of the Farm Bureau, and Mrs. Margaret Stone, Office Secretary, were in Lubbock Saturday Feb. 27, for the Policy Execution meeting held at the Lubbock Hotel. There were 18 counties represented. In the morning session, Mr. Loys Barber, State Director from District 6, spoke on the fundamental democratic principals of the organization, C. H. Devaney, Vice-President of the Texas Farm Bureau, spoke on issues dealing with International affairs.

In the afternoon session, Mr. Barber spoke on the ways to be effective on the legislative program. The last speaker of the day was W. G. Arnold, Regional Director for the Alabama Farm Bureau. He spoke on "Is Farm Bureau the Answer?" All of the talks were very interesting and informative and thoroughly enjoyed by the 200 Farm Bureau people who heard them.

Three File For City Councilmen

Three names were filed this week for as many places on the Tahoka City Council, according to Tom Bartley, City secretary.

Winston C. Wharton and Albert Curry have filed for re-election, and Everton Nevill has filed for the place left by R. H. (Hick) Gibson, who does not choose to serve longer.

This Saturday, March 6, is the last day for filing. The election will be Tuesday, April 6. Hold-over members of the Council are Mayor E. R. Edwards and Councilmen Herman Heck and Lewis Allsup.

Red Cross Fund Short of Quota

Incomplete reports received up until mid-morning Thursday indicated that Lynn county is short of its quota in the annual Red Cross drive.

However, reports had not been received from several communities. Indications were that Tahoka was lagging badly, with only $554.98 turned in to Ross Smith, treasurer.

O'Donnell had raised $670.00 up to Thursday, according to County Chairman Bill Griffin, and workers in that city assured him they would get their quota of $710.00.

West Point reported $125.00; Newmoore, $66.50; Wells, $60.28; Wayside, $55.02; Midway, $51.10; and Grassland, $64.00.

Partial reports had been made by New Lynn and Dixie, but no reports had been received from Wilson, New Home, Petty, Lakeview, Gordon, Redwine and Draw.

Mrs. John Witt, drive chairman, asked that workers turn in their contributions lists as soon as convenient to Ross Smith. Those who have been missed should contact their community committee members or give or mail their checks to Ross Smith at Tahoka.

The quota for Lynn county this year is $2,600.00.

Scouts Plan Trip To Camp Post

Boy Scout Troop 21 met in regular Monday night meeting with approximately forty boys present.

This is conservation month for the Scouts. One of the troop's projects is to go to Camp Post March 12 to prepare the ground to plant trees. On the following Saturday, March 20, they will go to the camp and plant the trees.

All the patrols are working on events for the Camporee at Camp Post May 22-23. Such events include fire by fint and steel, fire building, and water boiling. Camp reading, and first aid.

Work Is Delayed On New Warehouse

Work on the huge new 50,000 square foot Union Compress warehouse, started Monday of last week, have been delayed by the weather. E. R. Edwards, local manager, states.

However, the building will be nearly complete by Saturday night. Workmen had hoped to complete the big construction job in eight working days, but windy weather caused loss of time and a delay in the completion date.

Mrs. A. McMillan Died On Tuesday

Mrs. Archie McMillan, 81, long time resident of Lynn county, died at 8:50 a. m. Tuesday in a Lubbock hospital after a long illness.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Thursday in the First Methodist Church of O'Donnell with Rev. Floyd Dawson, pastor of the Foursquare Gospel Church of Lubbock, and Rev. H. A. Longino, O'Donnell Methodist pastor, officiating. Burial followed in the O'Donnell Cemetery.

Mrs. McMillan became seriously ill about three weeks ago. Then, a week ago, Mr. McMillan contracted pneumonia and was a patient in Tahoka Hospital at the time of her death. The couple farmed in the southwest part of Lynn county before moving to Tahoka four years ago.

She is survived by her husband, five sons, Lloyd of Tahoka, Otis and Delbert of Lorenzo, Pete of O'Donnell, and Weldon of Lubbock; two daughters, Mrs. Rosie Davis of Tahoka and Mrs. Ethel Aldridge of Santa Ana, Calif.; a brother, Turner Stephens of Tulsa, Okla.; 26 grandchildren and 28 great grandchildren.

Grassland Revival Set For March 17

Plans are being made for "Everybody's Revival" at the Grassland Church of the Nazarene on March 17 through March 23.

Rev. L. D. Sharp of Wichita, Kansas, will do the preaching, and M. C. Richey will direct the song services.

Mrs. Jean Riley of Lubbock was here Tuesday. She has been on the Lubbock Memorial Hospital staff the past several years.

Two Boys Place In Odessa Show

Two Tahoka FFA boys entered their fat calves in the Sand Hills Hereford Show at Odessa this week and won high honors in the tough competition of a show which is said to be one of the best Junior shows in the nation.

Walton Terry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Terry, placed second in the lightweight division with his calf; and Harold Rowe, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. (Cap) Rowe, placed fourth on his calf in the medium weight class.

Walton's calf will be sold in the sale on Saturday, but Harold will bring his calf home for the Lynn County Show this week end.

Lester Adams, vocational agriculture teacher in Tahoka High School, who returned from the show Wednesday night, said that both the grand champion and the reserve champion calves came out of the medium weight class. Walton's calf was selected to compete for the highest honors as one of two representatives of the lightweight class.

Dr. K. R. Durham Rotary Speaker

Using the subject, "My First 25 Years in Tahoka," Dr. K. R. Durham brought one of the most interesting and humorous talks heard in a long time at Tahoka Rotary Club Thursday noon of last week.

He recounted his experiences here as a citizen and as a professional man, the trials of a young dentist in a new country, telling many anecdotes connected therewith, paying tribute to the pioneer citizens, and expressing his love for this country and its people in spite of the droughts, winds, and depressions.

The speaker was introduced by the program chairman for the day, Wynne Collier, who also delivered the charge and welcome to Rev. Clifford Harris, a new member.

President Winslow Wharton announced that the Tahoka Club's attendance for January was 94.29 percent, and in spite of this high average the local club was 18th in the district in attendance.

Several members of the Tahoka Club and their wives will attend the annual district conference being held in Childress this week end.

COACH AND BOYS AT STATE TOURNAMENT

Basketball Coach Jake Jacobs and five of his boys left Wednesday afternoon for Austin, where they are attending the State basketball tournament.

Lynn county 4-H and FFA boys will participate in the annual Junior Live Stock Show at the county fair barns Saturday, a show which County Agent Bill Griffin hopes will be one of the best ever held here.

Winners in the local show will be eligible to compete in the area show at Lubbock. Mr. Griffin urges citizens to turn out and see the high quality livestock raised by the boys and also to lend them encouragement.

Prizes ranging from $10.00 to $2.00 will be awarded for the first ten places in each of four calf divisions, heavy and lightweight milk fed and dry lot; from $6.50 down to $1.00 for the first five places in thirteen fat barrow classes and the same prizes in three fat lamb classes. Other prizes go to the grand champions.

Prize money is furnished by Tahoka Chamber of Commerce and Tahoka Rotary Club. Bonuses will also be paid each boy for each animal shown. This fund has been raised by business men and other citizens.

Judging of swine will begin at 9 a. m. Saturday and will be done by Stanley Anderson of Texas Tech, Robert Lamb, Ward Eakin and Leonard Crawford are superintendents of the division.

Judging of Lambs will be at 2 p. m. by Ray C. Mowery, also of Texas Tech. B. L. Hatchell is superintendent of the Lamb division. Fat calf judging will begin at 3 p. m. and will again be done by Dean W. L. Stangel of Texas Tech. George Claude Wells is superintendent of the fat calf division.

Boys may bring their entries to the livestock barns from 1 to 5 p. m. today, or may bring them at 8 a. m. Saturday. No entries will be accepted after 9 a. m.

Ask Cooperation On New Wells

Three points are called to the attention of Lynn county irrigation farmers that are of importance to the farmers themselves, their neighbors, the county, and the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District, according to Joe D. Unfred.

The County has requested that farmers not drill wells closer than 60 feet to original section lines. This will facilitate the improving and building of roads in the future.

Farmers having abandoned uncapped irrigation wells are urged to fill or cap these holes as a protection against some child falling into the same. "A little life is worth more than a little time," is the District's motto in its current drive to get such holes covered up.

The third point is the importance of turning in to the District complete information of all wells drilled or contemplated. Forms are available for furnishing this information to show locations, sizes, etc. Irrigation farmers in the District who have not already done so and those making application for new wells in the District may secure these blanks from any one of the committeemen, namely Elmer Blankenship, A. E. Hagens, Wayman Smith, Joe D. Unfred, and D. W. Hancock. Cooperations of all farmers in these respects will be a big help, Unfred states.

Congratulations:

Mr. and Mrs. Clois Leverett on the birth of a daughter weighing 7 pounds 3 ounces at 9:40 a. m. Sunday in a Lubbock hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Peck of New Home on the birth of a daughter weighing 8 pounds 15 ounces at 3:25 a. m. Wednesday in a Lubbock hospital.

Complete Plans On New Scout Building

Work of remodeling the old Tahoka City hall into a modern Scout and Library building is due to be resumed in a few days, according to H. W. Carter, chairman of a committee sponsoring the project.

Funds totaling $1,200.00 and a substantial amount of building materials have been contributed to a reconstruction program. The remodeling will be done by Billy Jo Oliver and Johnny Raindl.

A new roof has already been put on the building. A. R. Milliken of Higginbotham-Bartlett has donated red faced brick, mortar, and sand for the project, and other materials will be contributed by Herman Heck of Shamburger-Gee and Ronald Sherrill of Cicero Smith lumber companies.

Mr. Carter says the building will be completely remodeled and modernized to conform with the new city hall building. The front will be in red faced brick, with brick planter boxes nearly half way up, and the remainder will be re-stuccoed. New windows and doors will be installed, and the entire interior refinished.

The office formerly used as the city office will be used by Lynn County Library, and the remainder of the 40 by 50 foot building will be used by the Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, and Girl Scouts.

Odds AND Ends

(BY E. I. THR ELDER)

History has many useful lessons for the people of the world today if we only had time or would take time to read and study history. But there are so many nations that have made history that none of us can find time to learn thoroughly the history of any country, however thrilling and useful that history might be. I plead guilty to being woefully ignorant of the history of most of the nations of the world. It would take hundreds of years, I am sure, for me to acquaint myself with all the thrilling and potentially useful histories that have been written, but I often think, the Lord willing, that I should like to use a large part of eternity in surveying the nations of the world and reading their life stories right on the ground. Now that as a perfectly foolish wish, I know, but it is just as good as many of us make many times almost every day.

I spent quite a bit of time last week writing about the beautiful little country of Galilee, and didn't get through, so I am going to take another whack at it this week.

I have been told by people who have visited the country in recent years that it is now a country of filth and ruins, ignorance and superstition, of idolatry and immorality, of Mohammedanism and fierce hatreds and prejudices.

What a terrible contrast to the Galilee of Christ's Day, if historians and Bible students and ethnologists have been giving us true accounts and true pictures of Ancient Galilee. It was by no means an ideal country either spiritually, socially, or otherwise, in those ancient days, to be sure, but it was doubtless the finest and cleanest and best little country on the face of the earth at that time just the same.

Now this week I am going just as far back in the history of Galilee as the written records, sacred and profane will enable us to go.

The land which later came to be known as Galilee was the northern portion of Palestine, the "Promised Land," to the borders of which Moses led the children of Israel out of Egypt, the land of servitude. Upon his death and burial on Nebo, one of the peaks of Mount Pisgah, Joshua was assigned the task of leading the Israelites across the Jordan River from its east bank to its west bank near Jericho into the promised land with instructions to conquer the peoples that resided west of the River clear on back to the eastern shores of the Mediterranean Sea, all of whom were immoral and wicked idol-worshippers, to take possession of all this land, to destroy or drive out all its inhabitants, and to settle the Israelites upon it as the permanent home according to directions which their God had given to Moses before his death.

This mighty host of men, women, and children that came from Egypt to Sinai and finally up to and around the south end of the Dead Sea and on to the east bank of the Jordan River is generally reputed to have numbered around two million persons, doubtless the greatest migration of human beings in the history of the world. Many Bible scholars, however, are doubtful that the number in fact exceeded one million. But that is a mighty host.

The circumstances surrounding the departure of these people from Egypt, their wanderings through the desert for nearly forty years, the dramatic occurrences at Mount Sinai where they received the law from the hand of Moses, and their final arrival at Mount Nebo in the land of Moab, where Moses died, are all set forth in much detail in the Bible.

The great host consisted virtually of twelve tribes. Before his death Moses had assigned two of these tribes to allotments of land east of the Jordan. This is virtually but not exactly correct.

The land allotted to the tribes of Judah and Benjamin, eventually became the Kingdom of Judah or the land of Judea. These lay in the extreme southern part of Palestine with Jerusalem as their capital city and west of the Dead Sea.

Immediately north of the Kingdom of Judah and Benjamin, or the land of Judea, was the discredited land of Samaria. Originally settled there were the half tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh, named for the two sons of Joseph, and the tribe of Dan. Samaria later included some additional territory along the Mediterranean seacoast to the southwest.

And now we come to Galilee, the land now under consideration. We have just mentioned Judea and Samaria because originally they constituted two of the three main divisions of Palestine, the promised land.

Galilee consisted of the descendants of four of the twelve tribes of Israel. These four were named for four of the sons of Jacob, being Issachar, Asher, Zebulun and Naphtali. As we pointed out last week, they constitute the home land of Jesus of Nazareth, of every one of his twelve apostles, of nearly all of the leading women disciples of Jesus—those who followed him on his great campaigns of preaching, teaching, and healing throughout Galilee and those who contributed to their means to the financing of these campaigns and finally followed him up to Jerusalem, where they sorrowfully saw him crucified; and some of them were the first to discover his resurrection.

It had been a long, long time, however, after those Israelite tribes settled in Galilee before Christ was born in the manger in Bethlehem and a little longer still before he went to the Cross in Jerusalem—just about fourteen and one-half centuries. Just think. It has been only three and one-half centuries since Jamestown, Virginia, was founded. It was more than four times that long between the settlement of Galilee and the birth of Christ. If we knew all of that history, it would take a book of many pages to write it down in. So we can only touch on a few of the high spots.

According to Ussher, it was about the year 1444 B. C., when the tribes of Israel were settled by Joshua in the land that was called Galilee in the days of Christ. Other chronologists differ but slightly from Ussher respecting that date. There were four of these tribes and all of them were settled at the same time.

Now let us take a brief look at the land of Galilee as a whole, as it was first constituted when Joshua made allotments of the land to the various tribes of Israel who had not already been assigned to their portions of land in accordance with Divine instructions given through Moses before his death.

We are not sure of the origin or the original name of Galilee. It was used by Isaiah with respect to this very region, who prophesied about 700 years before the birth of Christ, but that was more than 700 years after the settlement of the four tribes of Israel was made by Joshua. I do not know whether the name was ever used prior to Isaiah's prophecy or not. But the Bible Dictionary before me says that the name means "circuit" and refers to a little circuit of land surrounding Kedesh-Naphtali, given by King Solomon to Hiram, king of Tyre, during their reign, which contained 20 cities and which was given in payment for services rendered by Hiram to Solomon in connection with the building of Solomon's Temple. If that was the origin of the name Galilee, the country was not so named until more than 700 years after it was established by Joshua as an Israelite possession.

By whatever name the country may have been known prior to Isaiah's time, it was occupied as the home land of those four tribes of Israel just the same, except as countless thousands of them were captured and taken as slaves to Babylonia during the latter years of this era.

We do know that the four allotments of land which Joshua originally made to the four tribes of Issachar, Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali, were known by those names respectively and that for more than 1444 years they were known collectively as the land of Galilee.

Galilee as thus composed was about 80 miles long from north to south and had an average width of about 40 miles, its area therefore being about 3,200 square miles, about the size of four counties the size of Lynn County. A very small country, you would say. Yes, but not the insignificant, poverty-stricken, miserable little country that it is often pictured. Its boundaries were changed at various times during its long history but never greatly from the original boundaries set out above.

The Bible Dictionary which I have before me quotes the historian Josephus as saying: "There were 204 cities and villages in Galilee, the smallest of which numbered 15,000 inhabitants. That would count up to 3,060,000 people, a seemingly impossible number. But the Dictionary itself pictures Galilee as a country with a teeming population. In portraying the Sea of Galilee, it says: "The surrounding region was then the most densely peopled in all Palestine. . . . Not only Jews but people of many races have praised the beauty of the Sea of Galilee. Now it is bleak and barren and the shores lined with ruins. . . . The water of the lake is sweet, cool, and transparent; and as the beach is everywhere pebbly, it has a beautiful sparkling look. It abounds in fish now as in ancient times. There were large fisheries on the lake, and much commerce was carried on upon it (in the days of Christ.)"

Speaking of the land areas, the Dictionary says: "Galilee was a region of great natural fertility. Such is the fertility of the soil that it rejects no plant, for the air is so genial that it suits every variety. The walnut, which delights above other trees in a wintry climate, grows here luxuriantly, together with the palm tree, which is nourished by heat."

Fruits of every kind are produced in abundance; pastures, meadows, and grains flourish in the broad valleys, and rich forests cover the mountains.

The inference is that if up-to-the-minute progressive farmers with modern farm implements like those in the United States were in charge of that Turkish-ridden, Arab-infested country, today, Galilee would still be one of the most beautiful and productive countries on the face of the earth.

One of the other factors, in addition to the fisheries, the fertile soil, and the commerce that emanated from the little sea of Galilee in Bible days, was the fact that Galilee lay on the crossroads of the world, as we pointed out in our story of Phoenicia. The commerce from all the Mediterranean countries to the west of Galilee, and all of that which came from India and the East, crossed Galilee. Scores of camel caravans, travelers on burros, footmen, must have come by Nazareth almost every day in endless processions. The boy Jesus doubtless had a chance to meet and did meet people of many countries and races and religions every week. Even if he had not been the divine and sympathetic and anointed savior of the world, these contacts doubtless would have broadened his sympathies and his knowledge of human instincts, aspirations, evil tendencies, capabilities, limitations, and needs of every kind and would have made of him a wise and beneficent leader. But if it is needless for us to speculate as to what he might have been if he had not been the Anointed Savior.

We can guess at any rate, that as a boy, he stood often on one of the hills of the Lebanon Mountains back of Nazareth, and looked across to the distant waters of the Mediterranean to the right of old Mount Carmel in the far southwest, or to the heights of old Mt. Hermon to the northeast, or to Pisgah or Nebo in the land of Moab east and southeast of Jericho, or in fancy to Bethlehem and Mt. Zion in the great capital city beyond Bethel and Samaria, and as he looked Himself pondered in his heart all those strange things that surely his mother must have told him about the angels and the shepherds of Bethlehem and the wise men who came from the East to bring right gifts, soon after his birth. For from the hills back of Nazareth, on a clear day, he could see all over Galilee and far beyond.

Now, we just did not have room to tell about the Cedars of Lebanon, the great stones hewn out of the quarries of the Lebanon Mountains hundreds of years before Christ was born with which to build the great Temple on old Mount Zion in which he sat as a boy of twelve and astounded and confounded the doctors of the law with his questions and answers; nor did we have space to tell about the Galileans in captivity; but we must explain that many of them were never brought back nor permitted to come back to their homeland but were replaced with other Semitic races, and therefore were not of pure Jewish blood in the eyes of the Judaites proper, and that fact doubtless accounts for the contempt with which the Jerusalem Jews were prone to regard the Galileans.

Neither did we have space to do more than allude to their captivity in Assyria and Babylon and other experiences which they had under the rule of the Persians.

Let us remark that we think that it is the shame of ages that the true followers of Christ now have little authority or influence in the very land in which he lived and taught and where he launched the faith that has done more to civilize and Christianize the world than all other forces combined, and possibly than all other nations combined.

"By just opening my dryer door, and putting in the clothes, I save an hour and a half every washday. My trips to the clothesline are over, which saves one hour, and I no longer have to sprinkle the clothes for ironing, and that frees me from a half-hour of work."

"Because washing and drying is no longer back-breaking work, I wash more often. This saves money for me, because I can buy fewer clothes for the children. The dryer passes all the tests of true economy, it saves time, money, work, effort, and the clothes."

WALTER DUBREE

Recently the Board of Supervisors selected the winners of the District in the Fort Worth Press Awards program.

L. A. Coleman, who lives two miles east of Wilson, was selected as the Outstanding Conservation Farmer in the District.

The Northwest Wilson Group, composed of Pat and Jiggs Swann, B. L. Hatchell, Arthur Hagens, Pat Patterson, F. R. Nolte, and Hugo Maeker, was selected as the District's Most Outstanding Conservation Group.

These winners will compete in Region One, which includes 51 counties of the Panhandle and South Plains, for Regional honors and then, possibly, on to State honors.

The Outstanding Farmer in the Region will receive $100, and the State winner will receive $500.

The Regional winner in the Outstanding Group contest will receive $200, and the State winner gets $500.

The Supervisors also are going to enter the entire District in the Regional and State contests in hopes of winning the $300 Regional award of the $1000 State award.

Mr. Coleman has been a co-operator in the Lynn County Soil Conservation District since 1943, and has continually worked to improve his farm. He has a well rounded farm program which includes conservation practices from irrigated pastures to dryland terraces. He believes in diversified farming and at present he has about 15 acres of wheat and barley for his livestock. He has three irrigation wells for his 135 acres of irrigated land and has 190 acres of dryland completely terraced and contoured.

On his irrigated land, 35 acres are bench leveled and he has 2,110 feet of underground pipe. In the future, Mr. Coleman plans to expand his hog program and plant about 15 acres more alfalfa. He believes that the farmer who can haul a load of hogs to town every month or so and produce his own meat, milk, and eggs will come out all right even during rough years.

The Outstanding Conservation Group of Pat and Jiggs Swann, B. L. Hatchell, Arthur Hagens, Pat Patterson, Felix Nolte, and Hugo Maeker, has an impressive record of conservation practices applied. The group farms a total of 1,537 acres on which they have applied 18 miles of terraces, 1 1/2 miles of diversion terraces, 772 acres of contour farming, 12,300 feet of underground pipe, 135 acres of stubble mulching, and 100 acres of irrigated pasture or

LOCAL MAN MARCHES WITH ROSS VOLUNTEERS

COLLEGE STATION, Texas.—March 4.—The Ross Volunteers, crack military drill unit of Texas A. & M. College, marched in the King Rex parade on the Mardi Gras in New Orleans last Tuesday, March 2. It marks the third straight year the cadets have appeared in the parade.

Approximately 120 ROTC students are members of this elite drill company, which traditionally serves as honor guard for Texas governors. It is the oldest organized student activity at Texas A. & M.

The first company was organized in 1877 and known as the Scott Volunteers in honor of Col. T. M. Scott, business manager of the college at that time. Later the name was changed to Ross Volunteers in tribute to Lawrence Sullivan Ross, who became president of the school in 1891. William M. Reed of San Antonio is commander of the Ross Volunteers. Stanton P. Bell of Corpus Christi is executive officer. Platoon leaders are B. K. (Bobby) Boyd of Tahoka, R. D. (Danny) Cole of Houston, and C. D. (Buddy) Foxworth of Beaumont. Dale Dowell of Austin is first sergeant and Charles E. (Chuck) Fenner of Pasadena is administrative officer.

Rigid regulations govern each Volunteer. An invitation to become a member is considered one of the highest campus honors. Members wear white duck uniforms with white military caps and gold ornaments.

How Mercury's new power gives you greater ease and control

New 161-Horsepower, overhead valve, V-8 engine is the most efficient power plant yet developed in Mercury's exclusively V-8 history. It delivers 28% more power—and Mercury's famous economy is greater than ever.

Extra power always in reserve. This new Mercury has a 4-barrel carburetor with two barrels vacuum operated. Thus Mercury's extra reserve power cuts in at any speed automatically—the instant you need it.

Smooth riding, better control on curves, thanks to new ball-joint front wheel suspension (only on Mercury in its class). You'll love the ease, the wonderfully secure feeling of safe, sure command it gives you.

To increase visibility, lessen fatigue, Mercury offers the optional 4-way power seat that moves up or down, forward or back—to just the right position for maximum visibility, minimum fatigue.

Easier steering, stopping, when you choose Mercury's optional power steering and power brakes. Power steering solves the tightest parking problems effortlessly. And power brakes cut leg work more than half.

Easy on the eyes. Longer, more beautiful than ever! And inside, delightfully different fabrics, designs, colors. Years-ahead styling gives Mercury extra value when you trade it.

Abandoned Wells Should Be Capped

By JIM COMPTON
One of the major projects of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District for 1954 is concerned with the preservation of human life.

This year the district will sponsor a drive designed to promote a movement on the part of the property owners to fill or cap as prescribed by law, all the old abandoned holes which potentially are killers in their own right.

Manager Tom McFarland says that a recent survey throughout the Plains area revealed an average of about three uncovered open holes per section of land. He says: also, that a number of partially covered holes were discovered in the survey.

McFarland says it is the specific duty of each property owner to fill or properly cap such holes—it is the moral obligation of each citizen to call to the attention of the land owner or the Water District every open hole known to exist in the Plains. "What if your child were to fall into one of those holes?" he said. "The child would have little chance to survive."

The District's project theme is "A Little Life Is Worth More than a Little Time."

Educational programs, sponsored by the District and conducted throughout the area by McFarland, will be designed to enlighten the public on the importance of this life saving program.

The filling and capping of the old abandoned wells will not only save the lives of children, but will reduce water pollution and livestock accidents, McFarland said.

McFarland referred to Rule 5 of the High Plains Rule and Regulations which concerns the covering or filling of old wells. This rule applies to all property owners in the 19 High Plains counties actively participating in the District activities. The rule says in effect, that "Immediately upon completion of a replacement well the old well shall be filled and abandoned; properly equipped in such a manner that it cannot produce more than 100,000 gallons of water a day; or without exception, closed to comply with Article 1721 of the Penal Code passed by the 51st Legislature. Violation of such offense is punishable by fine of not less than $100 and not more than $500."

The manager said the District Board of Directors hopes it does not become necessary to press charges against anyone simply because they won't eradicate a death trap. It will only take a few minutes to fill it, he said.

McFarland mentioned public response to an appeal last year to get rid of old ice-boxes and refrigerators, after several children

Jesus Was Lifted Up On the Cross To Help You!

JUST TRY TO LIFT YOURSELF

Did you ever hear the story of the man who tried to lift himself? Of course, he found that it couldn't be done.

For instance, try wheeling yourself in a wheelbarrow! Or try lifting yourself by your own boot strap!

It can't be done, so why not quit trying?

You say, you never did try it? Don't be too sure. Many people try to lift themselves to Heaven by their own efforts.

You've heard them. They say, "I never steal, I support my family, I don't get drunk, I treat everybody right, I'm as good a man as any church member. If anybody goes to heaven, I will."

No chance, sir. You will not. Not that way.

The only way to Heaven is by accepting Jesus Christ as your Savior. He said so:

"I am the way, the truth, and the life. No man cometh unto the Father but by me."

That teaching was the heart of the Reformation; it is the heart of the Gospel; it is the heart of our Church's preaching. Find the true way to eternal salvation. Come and worship with us this Sunday!

Identical?—Not Quite

The Red Cross blood program discovered a rarity in these identical twins, Geraldine (left) and Genevieve Lowrey of Akron, Ohio. Both have "O" blood, but one is "negative," the other "positive." The girls were among 2,600,000 Red Cross donors last year.

across the country had died of suffocation when they crawled in them to play and the door slammed shut. "People went to work and got rid of many of the old ice boxes," he said. "They can do as much for the old abandoned wells. It might save the life of a child."
