Swimming Pool Now Operating

Tahoka's municipal swimming pool is now open for the season. The pool opened temporarily last weekend, but will now be open every day except during cool or rainy weather.

On week days, the pool is open from 2 p. m. to dark, or as late as there are sufficient patrons.

On Saturdays and Sundays, the pool will be open at 1:30 p. m. On Sundays, the pool will close at 6 p. m.

The pool will be operated again this summer by Bill Haralson and Jake Jacobs, who will also operate the concessions stand. A life guard will be on duty at all times.

However, the operators will not be responsible for small children using the wading pool. Parents or other responsible chaperones are required to accompany small children using the wading pool, to which there is no admission charge.

The same prices will be in effect this summer as were charged last summer. Children up to 12 years of age swim for 15 cents and all people 12 or older will be charged 35 cents.

Everyone using the pool must abide by the rules of safety, good conduct and dress.

Johnson Grass Control Studied

New methods of Johnson grass control featured the two-county cotton meeting conducted here last Saturday afternoon by specialists from the Texas Extension Service.

Thirty-five farmers from Lynn and Garza counties attended the meeting.

Fred C. Elliott talked on cotton varieties, defoliation, and weed control.

He told of late experiments in the use of herbicidal oils to kill Johnson grass. Application of the oil is made by spraying at intervals of 10 to 15 days to the stems and the first few inches of stems of established Johnson grass to eradicate root-stock in a single season. Six or more consecutive treatments are needed.

Among the oils used are Lion 1, Esso 38, Lightfoot 23, Varsol 1, Lion 7, Tulsa, Toxisol and others. A knapsack spray has proven to be satisfactory.

F. M. Fuller Jr. discussed the insect control program; and Ed. H. Bush, spoke of machine harvesting.

County Agent Bill Griffin can furnish detailed instruction on the use of herbicidal oils in the control of Johnson grass.

Methodist Meet Is Next Week

All Lynn County Methodist pastors and several laymen will attend the 45th Northwest Texas Methodist Conference which will open at Polk Street Church in Amarillo next Wednesday.

Bishop Wm. C. Martin, who is also president of the National Council of Churches of Christ, will preside at the session. Conference preacher will be Dr. W. M. Abbey or Ann Arbor, Michigan. Another speaker of note will be Bishop Shot K. Mondol of Hyderabad, Southern India.

Appointments of pastors for the coming year will be made at the closing session Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Jim Sharp, Tahoka pastor, expects to make an excellent report for the local church at the conference. The Church has met all financial obligations, and has enjoyed an increase in membership and interest during the past year.

Mrs. M. D. Hallmark, 65, was admitted to Tahoka Hospital on Wednesday night for medical treatment. She has been confined to her bed at the Elmer Sproules home for a year and a week.

Rainfall of Year Now 6.48 Inches

More rain fell on drenched Lynn county during Monday night and Tuesday.

Precipitation in Tahoka was .56 of an inch, bringing the total rainfall in town to 3.84 inches for May and 6.48 for the year.

The long drought was broken in mid-April. Only .02 of an inch was recorded in January, February, and March.

The rains Monday night and Tuesday were much heavier over portions of the county, especially to the south.

Most farmers will have to replant practically everything washed out May 11. Except in the sand, planting will be delayed until next week except on limited acreage.

L. R. Brooks Is Death Victim

L. R. Brooks, 61, a resident of Tahoka for 27 years, died early Wednesday morning of a heart attack at his home at 2012 South First street. He had been in ill health about six years, and had grown worse since October.

Funeral services were held at 3:00 p. m. Thursday in the First Methodist Church with the pastor, Rev. J. H. Sharp, assisted by Rev. Clifford Harris, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating. Burial followed in Tahoka Cemetery under direction of the Stanley-Jones Funeral Home.

Lee Roy Brooks was born on May 1, 1893, in Kaufman county. He was married to Miss Ola Tidwell at Kemp on October 13, 1912. The couple came to Lynn county to live in November, 1927, and had resided here ever since.

Before he was forced to quit because of his health, Mr. Brooks engaged in farming and in the trucking business. He left a host of friends over this section.

Survivors include the wife; two sons, Neely of Tahoka and Leo of Brownwood; two daughters, Mrs. W. C. Cline and Mrs. Glenn Jackson, both of Lubbock; two brothers, Hubert and Tom Brooks, both of Kaufman county; one sister, Mrs. E. H. Winn of Kaufman county; and ten grandchildren.

New Assistant Coach Selected

Dean Wright, formerly of Spur, will be the new assistant coach at Tahoka High School next fall, according to Coach Bill Haralson.

He succeeds Bill Sharpley, who is moving to Lubbock.

Wright is a graduate of Spur High School and of West Texas State at Canyon. At West Texas, he played all line positions from center to end, and following his graduation in 1951 there, served one year as assistant at Amherst before called for service in the Navy.

He and his wife expect to move to Tahoka soon.

New Home Students Name New Officers

New officers of the New Home High School student body were elected Friday in a spirited election. They will serve next school term.

James Barnett was elected president over Ann Moore, and Gary George won out for vice president over Joann Peek and Erin Moore. A run-off was necessary in the secretary-treasurer race, with Mary Allison winning over Martha Roper. Peggy Hemmelins was the other nominee.

Outgoing officers are: Nita Fortenberry, president; Pat Caudle, vice president; and Ann Moore, secretary and treasurer.

Neighbors Plant Patterson Farm In Short Time

Twenty tractors were used Monday to plant 296 acres of the J. O. (Ott) Patterson farm in the record time of two and a half hours. In spite of the large number of tractors in the field at one time, S. B. (Sam) Miller says that apparently a very good job of planting was done.

The neighborly act was designed to help out Mr. Patterson, whose wife is critically ill.

Those actually driving or furnishing tractors were: S. B. Miller, Lee Martin, Robert Lambert, Roy Miller, Horace Daniels, Guy Smith, H. O. Hargett, John Sliver, Clayton Beard, Lester Miller, J. Escobedo, Jack Miller, J. T. Miller, Marion Hall, Albert Curry, Harold Smith, G. B. Sherrod, Ewing Tippitt, Earl Terry, Garland Pennington, Wiley Curry, C. B. Terry, L. A. Forsythe, C. O. Carmack, Herbert Watson, Frank Sales, Peyton Perkins, Jim Hinkle, Jay Womack, Grady Lanford, Vester Botkin, and George Wright.

Elementary Choir On TV Program

Tahoka's 73-voice Elementary school choir, directed by Mrs. Harold Green, presented a 20-minute program over KDUB-TV, Lubbock, Tuesday evening at 6:00 o'clock, that has been drawing compliments from many viewers.

The choir sang seven numbers, including sacred and secular selections. Some of them were sung in French and Spanish.

Twenty seventh grade members, making their last appearance with the choir, sang two numbers.

"Tell Me Why" was also sung by a girls' octet composed of Sunny Gibson, Barbara Thomas, Sharon Applowhite, Jill McGee, Sandra McNeely, Linda Williams, Carol Smith, and Marjehelen Reid. Accompanists were Diana Hensley and Barbara Thomas.

Following their appearance on television, the group had dinner at a drive-in cafe.

Mrs. D. W. Gaignat returned home last Saturday from Rochester, Minn., where she underwent a check-up in the Mayo Clinic.

TAHOKA'S HONOR STUDENTS of the '54 Class include Jane Shepherd, left, valedictorian, and Billy Tong, right, salutatorian. Jane is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Shepherd of Grassland, and won the highest honor with a 96.05 average grade. Billy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Casper of Tahoka and had an average grade of 94.18 percent.

Oldtimer Parade Planned June 24; Four-Lane Highway Is Discussed

Plans for a parade during the Lynn County Pioneers Reunion on June 24 and the possibility of a four-lane highway across Lynn county were discussed at a meeting of Tahoka Chamber of Commerce directors Thursday night.

The annual reunion is open to citizens who came to Lynn county thirty or more years ago, but the afternoon parade will be open to everybody. It will be sponsored by the C. of C. in cooperation with the Pioneers organization.

Loving cups are being offered for the first three best entries. Entries may be made by merchants, civic organizations, individuals, or families. It is hoped some buggies, covered wagons, and floats indicative of early day life in this section will be brought out for the parade. Entries in the parade are open to everyone, and people are urged to begin thinking about an entry now.

Herman Heck, Fred McGinty and Alton Cain compose the committee in charge of the parade.

An engineer from the Texas Highway Department was present to explain tentative plans for a divided four-lane highway north and south across Lynn county.

Although the Highway Department is not yet pushing such a project, he said Lynn county could get in on the present program by furnishing the right-of-way. The Federal and State program is being set up on a two-year basis. Under the program, the county must furnish the right-of-way, with the Federal and State governments paying all the paving and other costs.

A temporary survey has already been made from Tahoka south, and Dawson county already has plans ready for a four-lane highway.

School Transfers Necessary Now

The time is growing short for the transfer of school students from one district to another for next year's term. All transfers must be made by June 1.

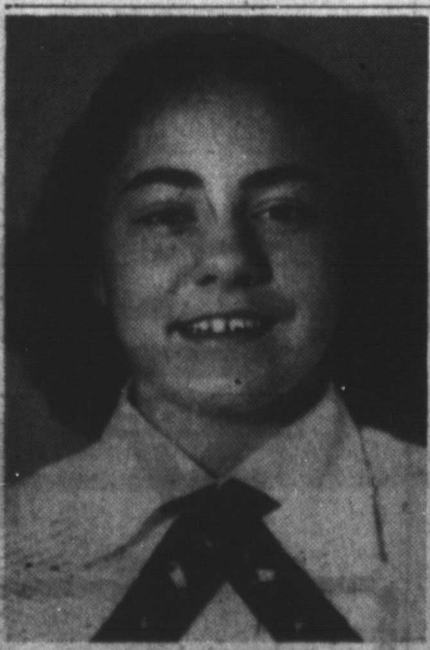

Parents of students wishing to transfer should see Mrs. Lenore M. Tunnell, county superintendent, immediately.

Lynn County Farm Bureau will move its office on June 1 from its present location at Tahoka Co-op. Gin to the McElroy building on Sweet street recently vacated by Abbie's Fashion Shop.

Guy Smith is president of the Farm Bureau, and Margaret Stone is office manager.

Mrs. Cabot Doyser and daughter, Cathy, of Roswell, N. M., are here visiting Mrs. Doyser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Carmack.

HONOR STUDENTS of the Grassland elementary school are Jan Thomas, left, valedictorian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Thomas, and Shirley Lauderdale, right, salutatorian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vic Lauderdale.

Other members of the Seventh Grade class, for which graduation exercises were held Wednesday night, are: Patsy Norman, Beverly Norman, Charles Richey, Dale Briggs, Teddy Dockney, and Cecil Walters.

The smallest class in many years will receive their diplomas of graduation from Tahoka High School in exercises in the auditorium at 8 o'clock tonight.

The 1954 Senior class is composed of only 26 graduates.

Capacity Crowd At Class Sermon

"America's Hope" was the subject of the 1954 Class Sermon delivered by Rev. Clifford Harris, in the High School auditorium Sunday night before a capacity crowd.

The basic thought of Rev. Harris' discourse was: "Righteousness exalteth the nation, but sin is a reproach to any people."

He declared that history reveals that internal weakness has caused more nations to fall than has external enemies. America's hope lies not in military might nor in education, but in a people whose hearts are right, he said.

J. B. Ables, a member of the class, sang a solo, accompanied at the piano by Jerry LeMond.

The invocation was by Doyle Kelcy, minister of the Church of Christ, and the benediction was by Rev. Jim Sharp, pastor of the Methodist Church.

Mrs. Beth Chapman and Floyd Tubb are the class sponsors.

Bible School Clinic Held In Tahoka

Terry county churches met at First Baptist Church in Brownfield with a total of over 50 present from eleven churches. It is hoped that every Baptist church will have vacation bible school this summer with several mission schools.

In 1952 there was a total of 21,714 Bible schools in the churches of the Southern Baptist convention with a total enrollment of 2,058,163 children enrolled. These schools reported 40,141 professions of faith with the children bringing offerings for missions totaling $295,284.00. It is interesting to note that the total cost of these schools was per pupil. In 1925, there were 233 Vacation Bible Schools reported.

CLOWN TO VANISH BEFORE YOUR EYES AT GRAHAM RODEO

Graham, Texas, May 13—while there will be plenty of exciting action, comedy will play a part too, in the Possum Kingdom Wilbur Plaugher of Prather Roundup, May 26-29.

California, who was featured in the 1954 Fort Worth Fat Stock Show rodeo, will be one of the clowns and bullfighters. He will do a laugh-provoking act in which three ducks are rounded up by a collie and herded into a sack.

His mystifying disappearing act will also be presented. Wilbur enters a little shed in the middle of the arena and a pickup truck smashes it to kindling—but no wilbur is found! To let you in on a secret: he shows up later.

Plaugher also is a rodeo contestant and at the Fort Worth show he won the steer-wrestling championship.

Another top-notch crowd pleaser is Fess Reynolds of North Hollywood, California, who, besides being a clown and bull-fighter, is noted as an animal trainer.

The barrelman will be Pete Lundford of Ponca City, Oklahoma, who is new in this section but is one of the best.

Happy Smith Puts Many Extras Into Tahoka's Postal Service

"Every town has a postmaster, but there's not a town anywhere that has one like Happy Smith." The above statement was made in jest by a friend at a recent service club meeting, but most of the audience knew there was more "truth than poetry" in the statement. W. B. (Happy) Smith, Tahoka postmaster for nearly 18 years, puts a lot more into his job than the Postal regulations require. And although appreciated by the general public, Old Hap deserves more than passing credit for his service to the patrons of the Tahoka postoffice.

Smith was long ago nicknamed "Happy" because of his disposition. And he has spent much of his life spreading a little cheer here and there. In fact, he takes great joy in being of service to others, especially to the aged and ill.

As a result, he was rightfully honored in 1949, when he received the "good neighbor" designation on a Hollywood breakfast club radio program, broadcast over a nation-wide network.

Happy really enjoys being of service to the people he lives among. One of the little "extras" in his service has long been the delivering, in person, of letters, cards, and newspapers to patients in Tahoka Hospital.

A stranger to the area, a Californian, injured in an automobile accident near Tahoka, nominated him for the "good neighbor" orchid, and characteristically Happy presented the orchid to a hospital patient.

Another "extra" is the extraordinary service he gives which makes the Tahoka postoffice service a little bit better than that found in most postoffices.

That service includes putting up the mail in the early morning hours. Although he is not required to come to work until 8 a. m., he is always down by 6:30 or 7:00 a. m. to put up the daily papers so that patrons can get them when they come to work.

Thirty-one times during the war, he drove to Post to get the mail because irregular train service delivered it there too late for star route service.

Many a time, on Sundays or after the rural carriers had left the postoffice, he personally delivered letters from men in service to anxious mothers as far as 20 miles from Tahoka.

He has delivered a "gillion" telegrams and telephone messages to such rural patrons.

Almost every day, he goes to see and carry the mail to some infirm or ill patron.

Hap is a little reticent to talk about these little "extras," and passes off any mention of them with the answer, "Why not, I've lived here fifty years and I count most everyone a friend."

He likes his job because "it puts me in a position to contact people and to do things people appreciate." The job is fascinating to him "because the postoffice has a monopoly on the deal; they have got to do business with you."

O'Donnell Man Dies Wednesday

Taylor of O'Donnell; three sisters, Mrs. E. W. Summers of O'Donnell, Mrs. Q. C. Morris of Lubbock, and Mrs. Gladys Nelson of Lovington, N. M.; four brothers, J. C. of Odessa; Chester and George W. Jr. of Houston, and Earl of Lovington; and three grandchildren.

DIXIE CLUB MET WITH MRS. AYCOX WEDNESDAY
Members of the Dixie Home Demonstration Club met May 19 in the home of Mrs. A. C. Aycox. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Buel Draper. Roll call was answered with "My Most Comfortable Shoes and Why."

Mrs. E. J. Cooper presented an interesting talk on the care of the feet. Minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. T. D. Dunlap. Refreshments of sandwiches, cookies, and punch were served to nine club members.

The next regular meeting will be held on June 2 in the home of Mrs. E. R. Tunnell at 1901 N. Second street in Tahoka.

CARD OF THANKS
Our sincere thanks are extended to all kind friends for the words of condolence, the floral offering, the food brought in, and the many other courtesies that have made our burden of grief a little easier to bear. May God bless each of you, is our prayer.—Mrs. Dale Williams and daughters.

CARD OF THANKS
We want to thank each one who has been so sweet and good to us during my sickness, for every prayer, kind word and deed, flowers, and cards; our neighbors who replanted our crop. We just want you to know how much we appreciate everything. May you never have the suffering we are having. May God bless and keep each and every one, is our humble prayer.—Ot and Etta Patterson.

Mrs. Audrey Swanson of Iowa Park, who was critically injured in the head-on crash of two cars south of Tahoka on April 22, is reported to be improving slowly at Tahoka Hospital. She has multiple fractures of the right leg, and will remain in the hospital for at least three more weeks.

Curt Wilcox of Lamesa, Scout Executive for the Tejas and Quanah Parker districts, is reported to be improving in a Dallas hospital from a stroke of paralysis suffered while on a fishing trip to San Angelo last week.

Haste makes waste is a good description of what usually happens when the operator of farm machinery or motorized equipment becomes careless. The Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Committee says it's all right to hurry if the safety guard is always up. To be safe, the operator must always be in complete control of the equipment he operates.

and everybody, from the lowest to the highest, comes in to transact business."

Smith came to Lynn county with his late parents in 1903 from Abilene. He and his wife, also of a pioneer family, have three daughters and one grandson. He has done "about everything" including farm work, day labor, school teaching, operating businesses. He served six years as county clerk and three years as county judge. He is a veteran of World War I.

For longer than a lot of people can remember, he has been a Lynn county leader in civic affairs, finds time for work in Sunday School and Church, the Masonic Lodge, the Boy Scouts, and many, many others.

When Happy became postmaster in 1936, the receipts of the office that year were only $12,289.76. They grew gradually to $36,747.75 for the year 1953, although the receipts dropped back to $29,041.37 in 1953 because of the drought. Ten people are now employed by Uncle Sam's Tahoka postoffice.

Brownfield Lady Publishes Novel

"With God's Help" is the title of a new historical novel by a prominent Brownfield club woman just off the presses of Dorrance and Co., Philadelphia.
The authoress is Frances Estes Gillham, wife of J. E. (Buddy) Gillham, Brownfield banker. The book is dedicated to her daughter, Teena, age 7.

Mrs. Gillham was born in Oklahoma in 1921, moved to Texas at the age of 14, attended Draughon's Business College of San Antonio, served as a stenographer and as a practical nurse in the Department of Public Welfare. She is an active member of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority.

The novel, which she began writing a year ago, is her first. The story is set in the South in the reconstruction days following the Civil war. It is the tender and conflicting love story of Mark Defoe, owner of Defoe Mansion, a large and beautiful southern plantation.

Mark and his lovely wife, Louise, are happy until the ravishing dark-haired Yonette comes to the plantation and changes the lives of both. It is then that Mark is faced with the impossible decision he loves, until fate makes the choice for him in a fiery climax.

The book is expected to enjoy good sales, especially in this area, and Mrs. Gillham is already working on her second novel, "Pandana."

The women of the Baptist Church entertained the Seniors Friday night, May 14, with a Hobo Party. They went from one home to another picking up a part of their supper, and ending up at the church where they ate around a campfire, Hobo style. Their theme song during the whole evening was "Hallelulah I'm a Bum." Games were played in each home and then a serious note of the evening entertainment was given by Bro. Harris, in a talk on "Important Choices in Life," and Mrs. Hegi who told the story "I Was a Hobo Kid." A song was rendered by Mrs. Ray Adams, Mrs. Dub Fulford and Mrs. K. R. Durham, accompanied by Mrs. Hutchison at the piano. Mrs. Hutchison played the piano during the meal and for group singing.

U. S. Real Estate Deal Big Bargain

One hundred and fifty-one years ago, on April 30, America made one of the greatest real estate buys in history—the Louisiana Purchase. In need of cash, Napoleon Bonaparte sold us the Louisiana Territory for $15,000,000!

This windfall for America included what are now the states of Louisiana, Arkansas, Missouri, Iowa, North and South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Montana, most of Minnesota, and parts of Wyoming and Colorado.

When we bought that immense piece of land in 1803 it was thought it might take a century to settle it. As it turned out, however, by 1884 the tide of westward migration had rolled beyond this vast area to the Pacific.

The money paid for the Louisiana Purchase was raised by Treasury securities sold to Americans who had no hesitation about subscribing to this loan. With interest accruals, the total cost came to $27,267,822 or four cents an acre—without question one of the greatest buys of all time.

Through the hard work and enterprise of the original settlers of the Louisiana Purchase and the men and women who followed them, the states carved out of the territory have attained a prosperity undreamed of in 1803. A striking illustration of this is the fact that in one year, 1953, citizens of these 13 states bought $713,276,000 in Series E and H United States Saving Bonds, or 26 times the original cost of the area they live in!

Like their forefathers of 1803 who had confidence in the future of the United States and settled in the Louisiana Territory to eventually make it a great part of our nation, Americans today are buying Savings Bonds as a symbol of their faith in the still greater future of our country.

Park And Pool Rotary Subject

The City Park and Municipal Swimming pool were subjects of talks at Tahoka Rotary Club Thursday noon of last week. Mayor E. R. Edwards talked on the park project. He said that, although there is little or no shade yet, the grass has grown off beautifully, picnic units have been installed, and the park is ready for use.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Dunagan and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brice went to Midland Sunday night to see the latter's new grandson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Brice. Lloyd George Huddleston of Wilson was scheduled to leave Thursday to take his physical examination for entrance into the Armed Services.

Coach Bill Haralson and Jack Jacobs will again operate the swimming pool. In his talk, Haralson told of plans for operation this summer. He said there were no accidents of any consequence last summer, which he attributed to excellent cooperation from the patrons. Strict rules will be observed by swimmers at all times, and a life guard will be on hand at all times.

Staff Is Named For Year Book

New members of the Kennel staff, Tahoka High School yearbook, have been named for the 1955 edition.

Rose Marie Yandell will be editor of the Kennel next school term. She served as assistant editor this year.

New additions to the staff include Othelda Freema and Virginia Gable, junior students; Patsy Roberts and Gwena Lewis, sophomore students. Holdovers from the 1954 staff are Betty Carroll Martin, Ann Reasonover, Margie Curry and Sue Sargent.

Staff members will be assigned positions at a later date.

The group along with Mrs. Paul Pittman, yearbook sponsor, plan to attend a workshop course in Denton this summer. Plans for the coming edition of the Kennel are also expected to be laid during the vacation months.

Jane Shepherd, senior student, was editor of this year's edition. Other seniors graduating from the staff are Joy Tomlinson, who was an organization editor; Villa Phillips, a class editor; and Jerry Al-bridge, a sports editor.

Money for the 1954 Kennel was raised by selling advertisements, annual covers, annuals, and pictures.

Post Stampede Dates Are Set

Post—The annual four-day Post Stampede and Rodeo, tops in rodeo entertainment, will open here Wednesday, May 26, and continue through the following Saturday, with night-only performances scheduled.

More than $3,500 in cash prizes is being offered this year to contestants in bareback riding, calf roping, cowgirl sponsor, saddle bronc riding, ribbon roping, wild steer riding and cutting horse contest.

The cutting horse contest is being presented as a brand-new event at this year's rodeo. Approved by the American Cutting Horse association, it is expected to draw topnotch horses and riders from throughout the Southwest.

Added attractions at the rodeo will include specialty acts and dances each night at the rodeo grounds.

The Post Stampede inc.'s $40,000 arena, which seats more than 6,000, has been put in tip-top shape for this year's show, according to J. E. Birdwell, president.

Rodeo activities will open at 6:30 p. m. May 26, with a parade through the city's business section. At least 12 area riding groups and more than twice as many floats will be in the parade. Each rodeo performance is to begin at 8 o'clock sharp.

Some alligators have as many as forty sets of teeth during their lifetime.

Pastor Invites Kids To Attend Bible School

Dear Parents: Let me take this means of inviting you to allow your child, or children, from the ages of 4 through 16, to attend the sweet Street Baptist Church Vacation day morning, May 24, at 8:30, and will end with the Commencement Exercises Friday evening, June 4. It will actually be a ten-day school, Monday through Friday, for two weeks, and lasting for three hours each day. In other words, your child will come to the school at 8:30 every morning and will be out at 11:30. However, we do ask that you have your child, or children, at the church at 7:30 this Saturday morning, the 22, in order to register for the school and to receive preliminary instructions as to the order of the daily services and work in the school. We anticipate a glorious time together with your children, and we know that you want them to have the very best that a Vacation Bible School can give them. So, we're looking forward to having your child in the Sweet Street Baptist Church Vacation Bible School. Sincerely yours, Bill Wadley, Pastor.

ODds AND EndS

(BY E. L. TWR EIDER)

You perhaps recall that Senorita Aurora wound up her contribution to this Column last week on "Acapulco" with this statement respecting the hardships and sufferings that passengers on ships coming from the Philippines to Acapulco had to undergo: "The unhappy passengers on these vessels enroute to the Promised Land of New Spain suffered no less than the Biblical Children of Israel on their pilgrimage from Egypt to Palestine. Hunger, pestilence, thirst, cold, continuous worry and other troubles were added to the terrible battering of the furious waves." End of Quote.

Here Senorita Aurora this week picks up the narrative with this statement: "Perhaps it would be better to say that they suffered no less than Pharaoh under the plagues which God sent upon him to soften his heart, because, if he was infected with leprosy, those on the ships (bound for Mexico) were victims of skin diseases, and in place of the Egyptian locust the passengers on the sea suffered from every species of vile vermin which live as parasites on human blood. The lack of fruits and vegetables caused scurvy; the water carried in scant quantities because of lack of space never was sufficient unless much rain fell and the ship was gradually changed into a floating hospital before it reached the coast of America, and over its rail were thrown corpses in concenterating (shocking) numbers. The only diversions aboard ships were card games and cock fights, the latter a worthy substitute for the bull fights enjoyed by those fortunate Spaniards who remained on dry land.

"Sometimes sharks were caught and thrown back alive into the sea, some bound to a beam of wood which they could not carry under the water, others lashed tail to tail and thrown overboard after the eyes of one of the unfortunates had been dug out so that the victim might fight with greater desperation against its companion in tragedy. Terrible amusements of our 'maternal' grandfathers, but one must recollect that we are children of Tauromaquia on one side and of Huichilobos on the other.

"And now the tourist who goes down to Acapulco, like those who in long past years went down to the famous fairs when the galleons from China arrived at the ancient port, may contrast his pleasure with the tribulations of the companions of Genelli Careri whose memory he may invoke when he views the palatial steamers which come to Acapulco from all the world, and the luxuriant automobiles which travel over the highways connecting this modern city with her sister cities of the great Republic.

"The end of this brief article on Acapulco. The next week, if God wills, I will send the first article about Jalisco or Guadalajara.—Aurora Gutierrez."

Personally, I do not catch the significance of the statement made by Senorita Aurora that we "are children of Tauromaquia on one side and of Huichilobos on the other." I do not know whether that is a reference to something found in Spanish literature or to some mythical or legendary belief held by Indian tribes. It sounds more like something of Indian origin than of Spanish. Possibly Aurora can enlighten us in some future article. The two "articles" which she has sent in respecting infestation of our oceans years ago with pirates, who were uncontrolled and unrestrained desperadoes running loose on all the seas and attacking and robbing the ships of all nations engaged in lawful commerce, indicates or at least suggests that every age of this old world has had its own perils and problems, and in my opinion it would be well for all those conscientious but pessimistic individuals who believe that our nation and the whole world are rapidly and continually growing worse and are going to the dogs morally and spiritually as fast as automobiles and airplanes can carry them, would do well to take another brief look into history.

While agreeing that there is much corruption and immorality in high places, politically and socially, in our own country and in most of the nations of the world, yet I believe that this is the best age this old world has ever seen. While Christianity has not yet made our own country entirely Christian by a long shot, it has gone a long way in leaving the lump. I think that a study of both biblical history and of profane history would convince any unbiased and thoughtful student of history that this is true.

I think that we are living in a better age than that of Abraham and the world of ignorance and heathenism that existed in his day.

I think that we are living in a better age than that of Moses and the Pharaohs and of the Sun-worship and the Moon-worship and the paganism that existed practically everywhere in their day.

I think that we are living in a better age than that of Solomon and his thousand concubines and the kings that followed him—of Ahab and Jezabel, for example.

I think that we are living in a better world than that into which Christ came. His life, and his death on a cross inflicted in a most cruel manner at the hands of wicked, murderous-minded men, intent on offering him coarse insults even as he died; the heroic manner in which he died; the teachings, the philosophy, and the gospel of salvation which he gave to the world; his resurrection as attested by the empty tomb—all these have combined to convince men that he was in truth the Son of God and came to earth to make the world better. I believe that these things have made the world better.

I believe that our country today is composed of a higher type of men and women than that group of men and women who established that first English colony in America, Jamestown, Virginia.

I believe that our country today, on the whole, is composed of a higher type of men and women than the so-called Pilgrim Fathers who established that first English Colony in Massachusetts at Plymouth Rock in 1620. While they came seeking religious liberty for themselves, they were not willing to grant it to others. In the 1630's they banished Roger Williams, Mrs. Anne Hutchinson, and others from Massachusetts because of their "peculiar" religious beliefs. The peculiarity of their beliefs consisted of the fact that they believed in religious liberty and that civil authorities had no right to regulate or to attempt to control the religious beliefs of any individual as long as the same were not immoral and did not transgress the rights of others.

The people of Massachusetts had become so "nosey" and "finicky" respecting the religious beliefs of others and so intent on preventing the migration of any witches or evil spirits into the sacred precincts of Massachusetts that in about 1635 the colonial legislature enacted laws against the practice of witchcraft. Along about the end of that century, 1692, I believe—one Rev. Cotton Mather, who had been a very precocious youth and had contracted a bad case of the big-head by reason of the many honors which had been showered upon him, got all wrought-up over the activities of alleged witches which were reported to be working here and there under cover, cesretly, as the Communists are alleged to have been doing in Uncle Sam's domain during the past few years, and so the young minister, who was then 29, decided that he must institute a witch-hunting campaign, and so pretty soon he was making the welkin ring, or possibly it was courthous domes and churches that rang, with his eloquence. At any rate, he was stirring up the people into a frenzy in opposition to the witches. Charges were filed against many persons as witches, or of being in cahoots with the witches, and the lawyers evidently were raking in some fat fees, for the court trials at Salem, Massachusetts, were attracting crowds from all over the Colony.

Nineteen of the witch culprits were convicted and hanged. Convictions were obtained on false evidence of course. And finally the people began to sicken at the tragical farce and juries quit convicting. The witchcraft craze was over. There has not been a single conviction for witchcraft in Massachusetts or any other colony or state of this Union since those lectic good old witchcraft days ended. I think that America is a better place morally and spiritually today than it was in the days of Massachusetts Puritanism.

Incidentally, it might be remarked that Cotton Mather, got all his ideas about the suppression of witchcraft from various countries of Eroupe.

Away back yonder in 1484, eight years before one Christopher Columbus started out on his first land-hunt, searching for the shores of India and the most direct route leading to it, Pope Innocent VIII instituted the first witch-hunting campaign. A Pope can't lie, you know, and surely he can never make a mistake respecting religion, for he is Christ's representative on earth—he admits it himself, and all good Catholics believe it.

Now I quote from THE WORLD BOOK, Vol. 12, page 7,814:

"The historical persecutions for witchcraft owed their incentive to the zeal of the guardians of the Church. The most notable document was the bull of Innocent VIII (1484), which is said to have destroyed more guiltless lives than any other similar pronouncement. Historians estimate that 100,000 persons perished under the charge of witchcraft between the middle of the fifteenth and the middle of the sixteenth century. A typical charge is the investigation of James I, as to why tempests beset his bride on her voyage from Denmark. Under torture, a Dr. Fian confessed that several hundred witches took to sea in a sieve from Leith and caused the storm. The use of torture was unlimited, and the confessions thus extorted added to the belief in the reality of the crime. In the sixteenth, seventeenth, and eighteenth centuries, under the leadership of churchmen, outbreaks of accusation of witchcraft arose from time to time in Germany, England, France, Spain, and Italy; while the last occurred in Salem, Mass., and is the great blot on Puritanism."

We have much ignorance of the Bible, much senseless superstition, and some hypocrisy and corruption mixed up with the church life and the church activities of our day, but I am glad that such evils as faced the people of this country in its early days, religiously, do not face us today. Our people may not be as pious today as they were in Colonial days but neither is there as much false piety today as there was then.

Furthermore, in colonial days, religious bigots, put Quakers and Baptists in jail for heresy. I am glad that they don't do that today. Otherwise a lot of us might be in jail now. I prefer America, religiously, today over the America of the witchcraft era of the 1680's to the early years of the 1700's.

The greatest danger that faces this country today, in my humble opinion, in the liquor traffic and its attendant evils. Its greatly increased use on the part of our young people in recent years and the complacency with which we adults accept this increased use and permit such use without apparent protest or objection, has really become alarming. If the trend keeps up for another generation, I am afraid that we shall have become a nation of hard drinkers just as we have already become a nation of inveterate smokers. Excessive drinking has greatly weakened and almost destroyed both France and Great Britain, and I fear we are already traveling the same road.

Do you ask me then if I am not more concerned about the danger of being destroyed by some other strong nation that is armed, like us, with the Atomic or the Hydrogen Bomb? My answer is that I do not believe that God intends to destroy his world in that way. A bomb war, according to what our statesmen and our military leaders tell us, would mean the utter destruction of nearly everything worth-while on this earth including possibly a major portion of enlightened Christian people.

It would be well however, bomb war or no bomb war, for us to heed the promise once given to the people of Israel by the Divine Father, as recorded in the seventh chapter of II Chronicles: "If my people, who are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

This was a promise made to Solomon to avert destruction from drouth, the ravages by locusts, and pestilence sent upon the people, but if it was good for Solomon, I figure that it would be good for us also.

I intended to give you folks a closing chapter on the Tahoka

Daisy this week, but space is running out on me. The Daisies will be with us all summer anyway, I am guessing.

Senorita Aurora has promised to give us an article next week on the state of Jalisco and its capital Guadalajara in Mexico. She is a native of that city, the second largest in Mexico. Good Night.

World's First!

Phillips 66 presents the first All-Weather Motor Oil which has proved it meets the most exacting standard ever established for automobile lubrication... Mil-0-2104, Supplement 1 level.

The toughest standard ever set up for automobile lubrication is the Mil-0-2104 Supplement 1 test. New Trop-Artic is the first all-weather motor oil to meet the requirements of this test. It is an oil which will serve you winter and summer... an oil so good it can double the life of an automobile engine!

Compared to ordinary motor oils, new Trop-Artic reduces ring wear 40% or more. It cuts oil consumption 15% to 45%. It keeps pistons and bearings cleaner... longer-lasting. It saves you money by increasing gasoline mileage. This has been demonstrated in tests representing over 150,000 miles of driving.

TROP-ARTIC is truly an all-weather oil... S.A.E. 10W through S.A.E. 30. Therefore it flows instantly for easy starting at sub-zero temperatures, and yet it retains the film strength necessary to prevent engine wear under high temperature driving conditions. It isn't just heavy duty. It's double duty.

Any car, in any climate, at any time of the year will perform better with Phillips 66 Trop-Artic. It is a worthy companion product to Phillips 66 Flite-Fuel, the new high performance gasoline recently introduced by Phillips. It pays to stop at the station where you see the Phillips 66 Shield.
