First Bale 1954 Cotton Will Sell Saturday

The first bale of 1954 Lynn county cotton, raised by Mrs. Beatrice McLaurin of Wells, will be sold at auction at 4:00 p. m. Saturday on the First National Bank corner in Tahoka, and she will receive about $600.00 in premiums.

State Cotton Specialists Will Speak At New Home Meeting Monday Eve

New Home Civic Club will hold the big agricultural meeting it has been planning a year on next Monday night at 8 p. m. on its school football field, according to Joe D. Unfried.

All farmers and businessmen and all other people interested from the entire county and adjoining counties are invited and urged to attend the program.

Don Jones of the Lubbock Experiment Station has assisted in scheduling three top cotton experts as speakers on the program to deal with subjects in which every farmer should be interested.

These speakers are Fred Elliott, cotton growing specialist, Ed Bush, cotton ginning specialist, and Dr. Fuller, entomologist, of the Texas Extension Service.

Wilmer Smith will be the master of ceremonies.

Refreshments will be served through courtesy of New Home Farmers Co-op, New Home Gin Company, and Petty Gin.

The Civic Club has been planning this meeting a long time, and the speakers have classified much information that will be of direct interest to local farmers and businessmen.

Preceding the open meeting on the football field, the Civic Club members will meet at 7:30 p. m. in the school lunch room.

A spool of thread is known as a "reel of cotton" in England.

Grassland Church Meeting Is Set

Grassland Church of Christ will hold a 10-day Gospel Meeting beginning Friday, Sept. 10, and ending Sunday, Sept. 19, with services each night at 8 o'clock.

Melton Bruster, minister of the Meadow Church of Christ, will do the preaching. Earl Danley of Lubbock is serving as minister of the Grassland Church.

A cordial invitation has been issued to everyone to attend these services.

Shivers Carries Lynn County

Conservative Texans out-voted the liberals in Saturday's Democratic primary run-off election, and re-elected Governor Allan Shivers to a third term in the State's highest office, bringing to an end the most bitter political campaign in recent years.

With only about 2,500 votes to be counted, Texas Election Bureau reported Tuesday its final tabulation gave Shivers a 92,403 vote edge over Judge Ralph Yarborough. The vote was 773,690 to 681,284, and to total vote cast was 1,454,974.

Shivers will be the first man ever to serve three terms as governor of Texas.

In the same run-off primary, Associate Justice Few Brewster was nominated for re-election over Attorney Alfred Scott by a vote of 777,478 to 428,301.

Shivers carried Lynn County by 18 votes, the vote being 1011 to 993. In the first primary, Yarborough carried Lynn by margin of 39 votes, 1130 to 1091.

In Lynn, Brewster received a total of 1219 votes to Scott's 620.

Judge Loyd W. Davidson's name appeared on the ballot for Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, but was unopposed. Alan Haley of Wichita Falls having withdrawn.

The Lynn county vote by precinct in the governor's race as tabulated by County Chairman John Salek and canvassed by the County Democratic Committee Tuesday follows:

TO POLIO CLINIC

Billy Birdwell, little son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Birdwell, was rushed to the Plainview Polio Clinic early Thursday morning.

Local physicians believe his illness to be encephalitis, a form of "sleeping sickness" and closely related to polio. He was not believed to be in a dangerous condition.

Clayton Beard, who recently had a heart attack, was able to leave Tahoka Hospital Tuesday and go home.

The Shetland Islands are off the coast of Scotland.

Connect Phones Near O'Donnell

Telephones sets are being installed for about 150 customers of Puka-Lambro Rural Telephone Cooperative in the east and west O'Donnell exchange areas, and service is promised at an early date, according to W. D. Harmon, cooperative manager.

All telephones have been set already east of O'Donnell, and workmen are now installing telephones to the west.

Mr. Bill Davis, owner of the O'Donnell Telephone Co., has told Mr. Harmon her contractor has promised connection with the O'Donnell exchange and, Cooperative lines by Sept. 15.

More Showers Benefit Crops

Spotted showers fell over Lynn county Monday and Tuesday to further improve crop prospects.

Rainfall in Tahoka measured only .05 of an inch Monday, but on Tuesday the fall measured .70.

Heaviest rainfall was reported near New Lynn, where over two inches fell over a small area and where many farms received an inch or more.

Ben Moore, government weather observer at O'Donnell reported .95 Monday and 1.25 on Tuesday both showers growing lighter toward T-Bar. Good showers fell from north of Wilson to Tahoka, south of Tahoka a piece, and from Tahoka southeast to Redwine. Parts of the West Point, Newmoore and other sections also received showers.

Tahoka's rainfall for August totaled 3.26 inches, and the total for the year is 11.45 inches, but feed crops suffered intensely during dry June and July.

Bulldogs Make Slow Progress

Tahoka Bulldogs have a lot of work to do if they get ready for the Littlefield Wildcats, whom they are scheduled to play here Friday night, Sept. 10.

The local boys looked none too good in workouts during the past week with Seagraves on Friday and with Sundown on Wednesday.

Coach Bill Haralson and his new assistant, Dean Wright, have 50 boys working out, possibly the largest in numbers of any squad Tahoka has ever had.

But most of the boys are small and inexperienced, and seemed to lack hustle and fighting spirit, especially against Sundown. The Bulldogs have not yet developed an offensive that will click, and showed some weakness in stopping outside plays. On the other hand, the defense looked good at times.

The Bulldogs showed much more power and ability than Seagraves, but were outscored by Sundown, although no scoring was counted in the scrimmage sessions.

However, the coaches were not trying to make a showing in the practice scrimmages, but gave most of the boys a chance to get some experience in an effort to teach them some fundamentals of the game. The boys should come along nicely now that they can see some of their mistakes.

The Bulldogs meet Littlefield in Tahoka at 8 p. m. Friday of next week.

Reserved Seats Are Nearly All Gone

Only a few reserve seat football tickets remain, but if demand is sufficient another block of seats will be reserved, Maurice Small, Tahoka schools tax office manager states.

Holders of tickets last year were given an option on the same seats they held last year if paid for by Sept. 1. A few of these seats have not been redeemed, and there are also a few other good reserved seats available.

Anyone desiring the same should see Small at his office in the Nowlin building as soon as possible. Those reserved seats remaining are going to first-comers.

The price for a reserved season ticket is $6.00 for the five home games, or only $1.00 above the price of five general admission tickets.

Mrs. J. M. Locke underwent major surgery at Tahoka Hospital Monday.

Nell Gwynne was an orange seller.

Negro Kills Deputy, Takes Own Life

Henderson Rites Held On Tuesday

Frank Henderson, 52, of Wilson, Lynn county deputy sheriff and member of a pioneer family, who was murdered by a Negro in that town Sunday at about 6 p. m., was buried in Tahoka Cemetery Tuesday.

Funeral services were held at 3 p. m. Tuesday in the Wilson First Baptist Church, of which he was a member, with the pastor, Rev. J. A. Martin, assisted by the Wilson Methodist pastor, Rev. Lynward Harrison, officiating. Rites were under direction of Stanley Jones Funeral Home.

William Francis Henderson was born at Seymour on July 21, 1902. He came to Lynn county more than forty years ago with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harve Henderson, and was reared in the Redwine community. He was married here on Dec. 28, 1930, to Miss Josie Barrington.

After farming a number of years he retired from this occupation about two years ago because of severe burns received in a tractor accident and became deputy sheriff at Wilson. He was a conscientious officer and a devoted husband and father, literally worshipped by his wife and four daughters.

Among the survivors are his wife; the four daughters, Mrs. Billy Ray (Peggy Ann) Kelley of Hobbs, N. M., Mrs. Bill (Jane) Morrison of Abilene, Mrs. John (Frances) Shepherd of Lubbock, and Mrs. Earl (Carolyn) Bartley of Levelland, all of whom attended school in Tahoka before their marriage; one grandson, William Lynn Kelley; the mother, Mrs. Harve Henderson of McComb, Okla.; three brothers, Harley of Tahoka, John of Sundown, and Coleman of Ackerly; and three sisters, Mrs. Mattie Whittington of Lubbock, Miss Lola Belle of McComb, and Miss Claudia of Roswell, N. M.

Baptist Revival Opens Tonight

Dr. Earl Allen will deliver his first of a series of messages in the revival services opening tonight at 8 o'clock at the First Baptist Church. There will be services each evening through Sept. 1 and each morning next week at 10 o'clock.

Frank Carpenter of Columbus, Ga., will lead the singing.

Sunday School, under the leadership of A. L. Smith, is working to break the record in attendance on Sept. 12 with at least 502 in attendance.

The Training Union, under the leadership of Ray Adams, will strive to have 250 in attendance on the night of Sept. 12, at which time Dr. Allen will show pictures of this travels in the Holy Land and European countries.

Rev. Clifford Harris, pastor, says the public is cordially invited to attend all these services.

ASC Committee Members Named

The delegates to the Lynn County ASC Convention met Monday August 30th, 1954, in the Lynn County ASC Office. At this convention, the following people were elected to the Lynn County ASC Committee for the year 1955: Mr. Roy O. Nettles, chairman; Mr. S. L. Walters, vice-chairman; Mr. R. A. Kahlisch, regular member; Mr. W. W. Hagood, 1st alternate; Mr. Guion Cobb, 2nd alternate. These officials take office September 1, 1955.

Have News? Phone 33.

Tragedy struck Lynn county Sunday at about 5:50 p. m. at Wilson, when a Negro man wrested a .38 caliber revolver from the person of Deputy Sheriff Frank Henderson, 52, and shot the officer to death.

The Negro, R. C. Stansberry, 27, of Tahoka, fled the murder scene in the deputy's new red 1954 Pontiac car. Possibly a half hour later, the Negro took his own life with the same gun in a field 12 miles northwest of Tahoka.

There were several witnesses to the shooting at Wilson. No one saw the Negro take his own life. Stansberry was accompanied by his brother, H. B. Stansberry, Harvey Shields, Willie Mae Payne, and Amie Lee Payne, all of Tahoka.

H. B. Stansberry was later charged with drunkenness, and the other man and two women with disturbance of the peace.

Sheriff Norvell Redwine, and other officers, County Attorney Mitchell Williams, and District Attorney Karl Cayton conducted a thorough investigation, and their findings were presented to the Lynn county grand jury Monday but no further grounds for indictments were found.

Justice of the Peace A. L. Dunagan, following inquests, held that Deputy Henderson's death was caused by a bullet wound in the head from a gun fired by R. C. Stansberry, and that Stansberry's death was from a gunshot wound in the head, self-inflicted.

County Attorney Williams and Sheriff Redwine pieced together the following account, in substance, of the murder and suicide:

Saturday night, the three Negro men went to Slaton. As they were returning to Tahoka, Deputy Henderson, on duty at Wilson, stopped the men near the store light there and searched their car. He found an iron pipe in the car, one end of which was wrapped with tape and the other end weighted for possible use as a club. He took the pipe away from them and threw it away. R. C. Stansberry claimed the pipe belonged to his boss and threatened that he would get the pipe back.

Sunday noon, the same three men went back to Slaton, this (Cont'd. On Back Page)

Grassland Revival Now In Progress

Mrs. H. C. Mayo will work with the children, and Mrs. Roy LeMond with the youth.

Prayer services will be held for all groups beginning at 7:30 each evening. Congregational singing and special musical numbers will feature the regular revival services which begin at 8:00 p. m. each evening.

Everyone is invited to all services, Rev. Mayo says.

Odds AND Ends

(BY E. L. THE ELDER)

Since I must write this column not later than Monday and not quite all of the election returns have been reported yet, and none of them officially, and since I am expecting to be vacationing with one of my daughters and two grand-daughters for a few days after Wednesday, I can give only meager comments this week on the results and significance of the election. While many of us were greatly elated Saturday night as the results came in over the radio, many of our neighbors and friends were just as keenly disappointed and chagrined.

While I can not think of any statement I have made in this column that I regret or feel that I should retract, yet I have said a few things outside the paper that I am sure were harsh and cutting and caused others to suffer pain. I regret this, for the time has long since passed with me when I delighted to offend or "sting" any one. And so now, I am not going to try to "rub it in" on anybody.

I am glad, however, that the victory of Allan Shivers was overwhelming. A mere majority might have left many issues unsettled. The stupendous majority of about 100,000 votes has settled most of them decisively and right, as I see it.

Of special interest to me, as all of those who have read this column of last week will understand, that rotten murderous group of gangsters operating for many years in Duval and Jim Wells counties, are surely doomed to eventual and probably pretty early dethronement, but I will leave that matter for discussion a little later.

This election means not only that the Farr gang are doomed to eventual political dethronement but that Yarborough's goose is thoroughly cooked also. His friends, it is true, are rallying to him now, but that is a natural but only a temporary reaction. The Democratic politicians of Texas are too wise to back him again. There are better men and far better campaigners among them in Texas than Ralph Yarborough. He was too lavish with promises that people generally knew that he could not possibly fulfill and with charges that many of them found out were flimsy and without any substantial foundation in fact. Yarborough seems never to have learned that all that character of campaigning is bad politics as well as wrong with in itself. If is Ralph Yarborough and not Allan Shivers who came out of this campaign as a "dead duck" in the pond.

One other little defect that I noticed in the campaign methods employed by the supporters of Ralph Yarborough was their disposition to apply offensive names to those who were supporting Governor Shivers: "Shivercrats," "turn-coats," "Shivercrat Cry-Babies," etc. Now there have been a few Texas politicians who were experts in the use of opprobrious epithets and in the art of name-calling, but the ordinary politician hurts only himself when he undertakes to blast his opponen in any such way. Far more this was done by Yarborough and his supporters than was done by the "Shivercrats." And it reacted against them.

I called some names myself but these names were applied only to convicted or notorious criminals, none of them to honorable men. And I told nothing but the truth or obviously correct conclusions in every such case.

Now, I wish to give my conclusion as to why Shivers won by such a tremendous majority, the size of which was a surprise to me. I thought it was going to be a much closer race. There was a time when it looked as if the people had gone "hog-wild" for Yarborough and I doubted if Shivers could win under the circumstances. But in addition to the reasons I have already mentioned, the tide turned in favor of Shivers only a few days prior to the election or the people who had been rather quiet in their intentions to support Shivers "came alive" and began to express themselves more freely. They had not only begun to doubt the merits of Yarborough as proclaimed by his ardent supporters, but they began to see that Shivers, in the main, stood for the things that Texans believed in and opposed those things that most Texans generally oppose.

Current events as they happened strengthened them in this opinion. As the stars in their courses more than 3,000 years ago are said to have fought against Sisera, so they seem to have fought against Ralph Yarborough in the closing days of his campaign. Just at the most inopportune time for him came the CIO-inspired strike at Port Arthur; came also the threat of Union Labor organizations from the North to Unionize farm laborers from Mexico throughout all Texas and other states; came also increased threats of trouble if anti-segregation laws were not put into immediate effect in the public schools of Texas; and lastly came rain. I do not say that the rain came as an aid to the Shivers campaign, but the reviving showers came in time to revive scorched crops and to put fresh hope into the hearts and fresh smiles on the faces of farmers over wide sections of our state. That feeling of desperation which had been settling down upon them was driven away by the damp breezes, and they began to feel that may be they had better "let well enough alone" after all and put Shivers back into the Governor's chair. All these and other developments dealt a withering blow to the Yarborough cause.

But possibly the strongest reason for the great Shivers victory, as I have already hinted, is found in the fact that the great mass of Texas people, deep down in their hearts, believe as Shivers believes. They do not want Texas to be ruled by CIO-inspired labor unions from the North and East.

They do not want the ships that carry their corn and wheat, and beef and cotton and oil to the marts of the world to be paralyzed and locked up in our ports by labor bosses who would enrich their own coffers at the expense of the whole country.

They do not want their farm laborers limited in number or driven out of their fields at five o'clock or at any other hour in the afternoon when their fields are white unto harvest.

They do not want to be compelled to comply with anti-segregation laws in the public schools, public conveyances, or elsewhere, except by their own consent or in compliance with their own regulations.

They talk about Shivers and the "Shivercrats" being disloyal to the Democratic party, what worries us is the disloyalty to the South and all of the Southern people, white and colored, of Mr. Justice Clark of Texas and Mr. Justice Black of Alabama in holding that there can be no equality of Educational opportunities or facilities except in public schools, colleges, and Universities which admit both races into their student bodies. The necessary corollary to that is that under the FEPC laws both white and colored teachers must be employed without discrimination, to teach in the faculties of these public institutions. This Roosevelt-Truman Court is the first court in this country to find out that there can be no equality of opportunity without making every public institution of learning a mixed institution.

Governor Shivers maintains and most Southern people, white and colored, agree with him that it is best to maintain separate schools for the white and colored races.

Furthermore, most Southern people are Democrats but they are not yellowdog Democrats. They are not political peons. They are not canines nor Canaanites that just eat the crumbs that fall from the master's table. They regard themselves as Free Men. They have consciences. They believe in worshipping God as their con-sciences dictate and not as some great political light in Washington dictates. They love their party, the great Democratic party, but they love their country more. Great men often conscientiously disagree but no man can be a great democrat who would seal the lips of any honest fellow citizen or put the mark of Cain on any other one of Adam's sons.

Those Texans who went to the polls last Saturday and voted for Allan Shivers nearly 800,000 strong were delighted in the consciousness that men can still vote in Texas according to their consciences without waiting for the consent or approval of any Senator So-and-So who may sit Close up to some political throne. Senators are still just servants of the people, or should be.

Mrs. Mollie Edwards In Beautiful Home At Fort Worth

J. E. (Red) Brown, O. C. Elliott, and Frank Hill of The News were in Fort Worth last Friday and Saturday to consult with Mrs. Cass O. (Mollie) Edwards in regard to possibilities of a county park. They found Mrs. Edwards definitely interested, and she promised she would consider the matter and assured the men she would "do her part."

Mrs. Edwards, or "Miss Mollie" as she is affectionately known to many people here, sent her regards to many friends.

Friends here will be interested in knowing that she has built a very beautiful home in one of the finer residential districts.

In fact, she moved, remodeled and added to the old home which Mr. Edwards bought from another cowman, John B. Slaughter. The home, built about fifty years ago, was itself a pretentious one in its day, and had handcarved mantles, and doors, inlaid wood floors, imported tiles, and contained many imported rare woods and much fine workmanship.

Much of the house was torn down, moved across town, and rebuilt including every little piece of inlaid wood and paneling and tile replaced, in a beautiful setting on a hill facing Valley Ridge Road. The large new home is of colonial design, artfully decorated and furnished, with most of the furniture coming from the original home.

Mrs. Edwards has every right to be proud of her fine home.

Mr. Edwards played an important part in the development of the west. Born in 1851 before there was any town in Tarrant county, he grew up on the frontier, began raising cattle at 10, and took over as head of the family at about 18 when his father died. He started further west with his cattle in about 1875, ranched on the Clear Fork and the Double Mountain and then in Crosby County along with the Slaughter boys.

In 1883, he bought the herd of Boyd and Frank Porter, camped at Double Lakes, Lynn county. Taking charge in 1884, he became the first permanent rancher on the lower South Plains, and established the Tahoka Cattle Company—the T-Bar—a ranch that was to graze 6,000 to 10,000 head of cattle on 160 sections he bought and filed on. That ranch remained in his hands more years than any ranch on the Plains, possibly in Texas, ever remained in the hands of any one man. "Uncle Cass" lived to 90 years of age, passing away in April, 1941, and at the age of 86 rode in the saddle all day at a round up here, a feat that many men 30 to 50 years younger could not do.

A score or more of old T-Bar cowboys still live here today who respect the name of the fine old gentleman. "Uncle Cass" was a cowman of the old school—ever thrifty and saving on any business deal, but with a heart as big as all outdoors for a friend in need or some unfortunate soul, a kind regard for women and children. Though he saw little of a school room, he was a man of much acquired learning, plain, honest and just. He was a great factor in the development of Lynn county and the South Plains.

"Miss Mollie" was his devoted companion many years of his life, and carried on as a fine lady of the old school, a gracious hostess, kind and considerate, full of joy of living, and interested in the new generation. She enjoys the company of her sisters and of two nephews, the Bibb boys, one of whom has just graduated in architecture at the University of Texas.

Her brother, the late Dave Childers, whose widow lives in Lubbock, was foreman of the T-Bar for many years.

GI's GO BACK TO SCHOOL AT USO

GI's learn bridge in course offered in USO club.

Teacher at USO helps GI's with conversational German.

Greenville, N. C.—Educational activities are being stressed at many USO clubs today and are winning enthusiastic GI approval.

In Greenville, recognizing this demand, the USO club is concentrating on two courses that are proving popular with GI's—a course in conversational German and one in beginner's bridge.

Many of the Air Force personnel stationed nearby expect to be transferred overseas to Germany and believe they will be able to adjust themselves much more readily in an unfamiliar land if they know its language.

The bridge class was started when several airmen who had started learning bridge before entering service wanted to continue the game.

USO activities are made possible by United Defense Fund through Community Chest or United Fund drives.

The 13 girls will appear in the district contest in Lubbock on Sept. 18.

During the War of 1812, Stephen Girard, Philadelphia banker, assumed an entire Government loan of $5,000,000.

Open House In New Band Hall

Open house will be held at Tahoka's newly remodeled band hall next Tuesday, Sept. 7, from 11 a. m. to 7 p. m. according to the new band-director, Myron Gilstrap.

The interior has been completely remodeled, with new walls and ceiling installed.

A musical instrument firm will have on display a number of instruments for those interested, and all those interested in the beginning band program are urged to visit the Band Hall during the day. In fact, everyone has a cordial invitation to inspect the hall.

Mr. Gilstrap says he has 53 students in the varsity band this year, and 25 in the beginners band. However, he would like to have more students in the latter.

He is also instituting choral work in the High School, and 56 students have enrolled in the class.

Joe Raindl Child Will Leave Hospital

MRS. ROBERT DEAN BECKWITH

Miss Tommie Whorton Weds Robert Dean Beckwith in Church Ceremony Here

Miss Tommie Louise Whorton and Robert Dean Beckwith were united in marriage in vows read in the First Methodist Church of Tahoka Thursday evening, Aug. 26.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Whorton. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Hazel Beckwith of Watervliet, Mich., and Glen Beckwith of South Haven, Mich. Both the bride and groom are students at Texas Tech.

The Rev. David Zacharias read the double ring ceremony, before an arch of white candles flanked by arrangements of yellow chrysanthemums and greenery. Mrs. Sam Reid, organist, played traditional wedding music and accompanied Robert Green, soloist, who sang "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional gown of white lace and tulle over satin. The Chantilly lace bodice featured a tiny collar of lace and a tucked yoke of tulle outlined with scalloped lace. The lace extended in a handkerchief pattern over the tulle skirt, which swept into a train.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a small bonnet-type cape covered with seed pearls. She carried an organically covered Bible with a bouquet of feathered chrysanthemums.

Miss Earlane Curb, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a waltz-length gown of maize, designed with a bolero of Chantilly lace and a small upstanding collar. She carried a white basket of yellow daisies.

Bridesmaids wore identical dresses and carried bouquets of daisies. They were Misses Elma Dunagan, Patsy Locke and Wanda Norman.

Miss Barbara Whittenburg of Sweetwater and Richard Payns Suffel of Harper, cousins of the bride, lighted the candles. Miss Whittenburg wore a maize dress fashioned like those of the attendants.

Best man was Frank Latta of Lubbock, and ushers were James Whorton, brother to the bride, Freddy Briggs of Lubbock and Delbert Henry of Lubbock.

A reception followed the ceremony in the home of the bride's parents. In the houseparty were Mrs. Harry Short, Mrs. Leland White, Miss Janille Toler and Miss Sylvia High.

The bride's going away suit was of red and black cotton with black accessories. The couple is at home at 2703-A 44th St. in Lubbock.

The bride is a junior at Texas Tech, where she is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta. She is a graduate of Tahoka High School.

The bridegroom graduated from Lubbock High School and is a junior at Tech, where he is a member of Phi Delta Theta. He is employed by Hester's Office Supply in Lubbock.

Among the out-of-town guests here for the wedding were: Mrs. W. T. Whorton of Albany and Mrs. Lucy Whittenburg of Sweetwater, grandmothers of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Otis Whorton and Barbara, Albany; Mrs. D. G. Curb and Jo Betsy, Waco; Mrs. Paul Suffel and Richard, Harper; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Whittenburg, Wendel and Barbara, and Mrs. S. W. Bonner and Royce all of Sweetwater; all these people being relatives of the bride.

Miss Patricia McKibben and A. W. McClellan were united in marriage Friday night at 8:00 o'clock in the home of his brother, Charles McClellan, on North Sixth Street.

Rev. Bill Wadley of Street Baptist Church read the single ring ceremony.

Mrs. Peggy McClellan served as matron of honor, and Charles served his brother as best man.

Only close relatives of the two parties attended the ceremony and the reception which followed. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat McKibben of the T-Bar community, O'Donnell, route 3. She attended O'Donnell High School, where she was a popular student.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McClellan. He attended Tahoka High School. For several years, he has been with The Lynn County News as floorman in the mechanical department.

Following a brief wedding trip to Carlsbad, New Mexico, the couple are making their home on North Sixth Street.

POLK FAMILIES HAVE REUNION AT LUBBOCK

Members of the Polk families held a reunion in Mackenzie State Park, Lubbock, Sunday, attended by relatives from all over West Texas.

Among those known here, who attended, were: Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Polk, D. L. Polk, Mr. and Mrs. Dennie Polk, all of Tahoka; Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Polk and children, Denver City; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Polk, Littlefield; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ray Polk and Deborah of Lubbock; and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Polk and children of O'Donnell. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Trammell of Tahoka were guests.

DONALD PARIS WILL ENTER TEXAS TECH

Donald Paris, apprentice printer for The News for about three years, went to work Monday for a Lubbock printing firm. He expects to work part time while attending Texas Tech this fall.

He hopes to work his way through college as a printer.

The News has trained nearly a dozen boys in printing who are still in the printing trades, one of whom in a university professor and director of the School's printing plant. Another owns his own newspaper, one owns a plant in Dallas, and all the others hold responsible jobs in larger towns and cities.

Most of these boys started working for The News while attending high school. Naturally, The News is proud of the successes made by the boys it has trained.

Tommy Paris, brother of Donald, is now a "devil" in The News shop.

Two other employees, the McClellan brothers, have never worked anywhere else as printers except for The News. Charles McClellan is our linotype operator, and A. W. McClellan is our floorman and job printer.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank everyone for the help given us during my wife's last illness, for the words and cards of sympathy, and for the beautiful floral offering. My thanks also are extended to the good women who brought dinners for three days and to Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Curry for opening their home to us in this sad hour. May the good Lord bless each of you.—W. M. (Bill) Thompson.

W. S. C. S. To Present Mission Film

The W. S. C. S. and Board of Missions of the Methodist Church will present a film Sunday evening Sept. 5, in the interest of foreign missions. The movie "The Village of the Poor" will be shown during the Sunday evening worship hour. The church and public are cordially invited.

The film is being shown at this time as the W. S. C. S. opens their first study of the Church year Monday, Sept. 6th at their monthly luncheon.

The text book to be used is "Under Three Flags," the story of the Christian church in India, Pakistan, and Ceylon. The history, the social, political and economic conditions in India will be studied as well as the church there. The study leader will be Mrs. A. M. Bray and the course continues for five consecutive Mondays.

4 Important Reasons why you should buy a PONTIAC RIGHT NOW!

- 1 Pontiac is One of the Greatest Cars Ever Built!
Match today's Pontiac with America's finest cars and you'll get a dramatic picture of Pontiac value. First of all, Pontiac is bigger, in fact, than many cars costing hundreds of dollars more. Pontiac is beautiful—with its distinctive Silver Streak styling. Inside, you'll find genuine fine-car luxury and appointments—along with the roominess and comfort that come only with a long wheelbase. But the big surprise comes when you test Pontiac's performance. See how alert it is to every demand in traffic, how it handles and corners almost without effort, how it takes to the open road with plenty of power to spare and saves money every mile.
- 2 Pontiac has the Best Resale Value in its Price Class!
Along with all its fine-car size, luxury and performance, Pontiac has a very special attribute no car at any price can beat—its unsurpassed reputation for year-in, year-out dependability. Pontiac's carefree, economical long life and its proved record of amazingly low maintenance expense are so widely known and acknowledged that it commands the highest resale value in its price class. Because Pontiac is America's most desirable used car, your original investment comes back in greater measure when you trade.
- 3 Pontiac is Priced Just Above the Lowest!
After you've convinced yourself of Pontiac's value, after you've considered all the good things you've heard about its dependability—see how it compares dollar-wise. Despite the fact that it's a fine car in every sense of the term, Pontiac is priced so near the lowest that if you can afford any new car you can afford a Pontiac.
- 4 We'll Make You a Deal You Can't Afford to Miss!
Right now we're making such liberal trade-in allowances that you just can't afford to pass up the greatest opportunity you ever had to become a fine-car owner. Come in and get the facts.

Gene Payne of Wells Owns Mystery Farm No. 8

Mystery Farm
Although there should have been more, six people correctly identified last week's "Mystery Farm" as being that of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Payne.
Donald Rentro of Tahoka was the first town reader to identify the place correctly, and Roy Askew was the first rural reader. Each gets free six months credit on a subscription to The News. Mrs. Buster Phipps, Hilton Wood, Dale Thuren, and C. T. Ingle were the others.
The Payne farm home is located in the Wells community, O'Donnell route 3, six miles west and about eight miles south of Tahoka on the Wells pavement road. The Roy Ledbetter farm home. Mr. Payne is a good farmer, his neighbors say. In spite of the dry weather the past few years, he has done a fine job with his half section of land.

Although he has owned this place only a few years, he has improved the farming practices and at the same time has improved the farm residence. He has terraces and contours and plows as deeply as he can.
The Paynes have two married sons, Harold and Wayne, who farm a section and a half in the same community. Harold has two children and Wayne one.

OUR LETTER FROM MEXICO
And now our Mexico correspondent, Senorita Aurora Gutierrez, will give us another "article" on the "China Poblana," the exact meaning of which I do not know, but it seems to be a representation or personification of some character of ornamentation for a dress. I have asked Senorita Aurora to give us the meaning of that word "Poblana," for I do not find it anywhere in either Spanish or English dictionaries. The women, particularly, may be interested in her description of it, and the men too. So here goes.
"The China Poblana is attractive at first sight. Like the poppy, her bright colors attract all eyes. The spangles of her dark red and green skirt shine like sparks of fire—green satin above shapely hips and then the flair of intense dark red which falls in heavy spangled and embroidered folds to slender ankles. The skirt is usually flowered in yellow, white and black. Above the waistline a blouse of fine white or light cream-colored cloth, also beautifully embroidered in brilliant silk, leaves bare slender arms and graceful throat—a blouse such as is used today in the hot southern part of the country. Around the throat are necklaces of coral or of locketts and bright beads. Many bracelets adorn smooth brown arms. A 'rebozo' or thin shawl is wound around the waist, the ends crossed at the back and hung over the shoulders. Sometimes it may be unfolded and used to cover the head of the wearer, as is the custom when attending mass.
"The China Poblana wears green silk taffeta slippers over bare feet. Her hair is parted evenly in front and plaited into two thick braids, tied with green or red ribbons. She is neither pure English nor pure Spanish but 'Mestiza' with hair like midnight, the bloom of dark roses stain the brown of her cheek; great black eyes sparkle with life and fun, pouting red lips which make the poets sing.—A. The recent tour sponsored by the Lynn County Soil Conservation District stimulated much interest in regard to planting cover crops and soil building crops. Very fine examples of soil building crops, such as guar and peas planted in different arrangements were noted with interest.

District Board of Supervisors is hopeful that many farmers in our area will plant winter cover crops and winter legumes. Many benefits are to be received from such plantings. Vetch and winter peas are legumes, and put nitrogen into the soil, as well as reduce wind erosion and help the land to hold the rainfall. A growing crop will keep the ground open with its root system and allow water to go into soil that would ordinarily run off of uning cover crops which will be protected soil.

Vetch and peas may be planted with a legume seeder that plants two rows of the legume in the cotton middle. The planting rate for both peas and vetch is about 15 pounds per acre. The seed should be inoculated with the proper inoculant, and an application of 200 pounds of 0-20-0 fertilizer per acre, or its equivalent should be applied for each acre planted.

Several farmers have indicated that they would like to sow peas or vetch in their milo stubble after combining. Very little preparation, if any is needed. The legume may be sown with regular drill and fertilizer attachments at a rate of 25 pounds per acre with time accompanied by the two women, and did some drinking at that town, members of the party told officers.

Negro Kills . . .

They started home about 5 p. m., and about three or four miles north of Wilson R. C. Shields, and Willie Mae, all riding in the front seat, got in an argument, then got out at the side of the road and argued and fought. They drove down the road further and fought again. At this time, H. B. Stansberry was asleep or drunk in the car.

Some passer-by is believed to have called Deputy Henderson.

A brother-in-law, Curtis Stevens and little seven year old son, visiting in the Henderson home at Wilson, went with Frank, who told them some Negroes were having some trouble.

They intercepted the Negro car just north of the business section of Wilson, and Frank got out and asked the Negroes what they were fighting about. Two or three Negro men got out of the car. The quest of the iron pipe came up again, and R. C. said he wanted it back and started cursing Henderson. R. C. clinched with Henderson, possibly unexpectedly, and grabbed the officer's gun from its holster.

Stepping back, he fired one shot at Henderson which missed. The second shot hit him just above the left ear. The Negro then waved the cocked gun over his head menacingly. As the shots were fired, Curtis rushed with his small son for protection behind a near-by building.

R. C. Stansberry jumped in Henderson's car and fled south. Shields fled north down the road, and was picked up a few minutes later by Pat Campbell, Wilson postmaster, and brought to Tahoka. H. B. Stansberry and the two women were picked up by officers in short time walking down the road toward Tahoka.

Elbert Gumm and possibly some other Wilson citizens, in addition to Stevens, witnessed the shooting, as did the Negroes with the murderer. County Attorney Williams said the stories of the

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

Some Congressmen privately say one of the discouraging factors of their job is fact there is too little tendency for independent businessmen to stand on their own feet; too much dependence upon Congress acting on every situation.

It is impossible, they say, for Congress to legislate for every abuse that crops up. There should be more action along old maximum "The Lord helps those that help themselves."

Illustrative is present growth of discount sales clubs formed for use of employees of large companies whereby they can buy at near wholesale, eliminating legitimate retailer.

This involves weird facts. Corporations promoting cut rate clubs often refuse to stop practice on ground "they build morale and improve public relations."

And there is a fat paradox. Because many of these corporations depend on retailers for distribution and sale of their own products. Yet, they will cut throats of retailers to "improve public relations."

In addition, manufacturers depending on retailers, are aggressively selling these discount clubs, wondering why their legitimate retail volume falls off.

"There's something wrong with the system" they say, ignoring fact they are actively wrecking the system.

Congress has also been asked to step into chaotic auto situation.

tion to stop "bootlegging" new cars as used cars.

Branches dealers of Big Autos have little, or nothing to say, about how many cars they will take from the factory.

But major makers racing to drive others out of business are paying little attention to the needs of the market.

Result has been that new car dealers to avoid drowning in sea of cars forced on them, wholesale to use car dealers. This practice is not a remedy; merely postpones day of reckoning.

It is understood factories have made veiled threats to remove new car advertising from newspapers not making certain classified ads for used cars are bona fide used cars.

Yet it is not duty of a newspaper to police handling of products. And there is something smacking of Kremlin methods in threats of reprisals for not conforming.

So many Congressmen would like to see both Federal Trade Commission and Justice Department snowed under with requests to enforce anti-trust laws quickly, effectively.

In addition, many in Washington feel it is high time for some agency, against which reprisals cannot be launched, to give adequate publicity to the firms who depend on retailers, yet encourage employee discount club, and on firms who depend on retailers, yet sell discount houses. While the principle of the "blacklist" is not an American one, it has already been demonstrated that some neo-monopolistic corporations do not hesitate to employ tactics of Kremlin. This poses a moral question. "Is it better to slowly starve as gentlemen, or fight fire with fire?"

Jay W. Moore Is Gone To Canada

The homes of L. H. Moore Sr., Lit H. Moore Jr., and K. K. Moore at Lakeview were a bustle of activity Friday and Saturday.

The J. M. Moore family came in at 11 p. m. Thursday to visit and to see his brother, Jay W. Moore, and family off to their new home in Canada.

Most of the meals were served in the Lit H. Jr. and K. K. Moore homes.

Mrs. L. H. Sr. reports the get-together was a very pleasant one, although the elder Moores were a bit sad on the leaving of their son, Jay, and family.

Some say that Canada is a fisherman's paradise. If so, L. H. Sr. will be going that way, come warm weather.

The whole community sent their good wishes, along with those of the Moore clan, that the Kay Moores' move will be happy and prosperous.

The J. M. Moores left at 8 a. m. Sunday for their home.

The Jay W. Moores left at 7 a. m. Monday for their new home in Canada, after a delicious breakfast served to the Moore clan by Mmes. K. K. and Lit H. Jr.

Wilson Baseball Team Has Good Season's Record

The Wilson State Bankers closed their 1954 baseball season with a 16-4 victory over the St. Paul's Lutheran Church team. Playing without the services of their two star pitchers, Thomas Mason and Leonard Brieger, and only seven players, the Bankers overcame a 4-0 deficit in the third inning to win with ease. Gilbert Stenhauser started the mound duties for Wilson, but was relieved by Pete Bruedigam who received the winning honors. Elmer Wuensche was the losing pitcher, but was handicapped due to errors by his team mates. Mason Davidson led the hitting attack for the Bankers with a triple, two singles and two walks.

The Wilson team would like to take this opportunity to thank Mr. H. G. Cook, president of the Wilson State Bank for his continuous support during the just ended baseball season.

Samuel Colt invented the revolver in 1835.
