Need No Tax Raise If Bonds Approved

Judge W. M. Mathis told The News this week the Lynn County Commissioners Court has figured out a means whereby the $200,000.00 bond issue for purchase of right of way for making U. S. 87 a four-lane divided pavement may be voted without raising the county's tax rate.

Property owning taxpayers of the county will vote on the proposed bond issue on Saturday, Sept. 24.

Since there is a surplus building up in 1946 Road Bond Sinking Fund, he says the Commissioners Court can next year reduce the tax rate from the present 75 cents per $100.00 valuation to 55 cents, or a reduction of 20 cents.

The proposed new issue will require a tax of 20 cents per $100.00 valuation.

Therefore, the saving on the old issue would be sufficient to take care of the proposed new issue of $200,000.00 to acquire right of way through Lynn County for the new super highway, and the over-all county tax rate could, therefore, be maintained at the present rate of $1.55.

The Commissioners are worried lest failure to vote the new issue might jeopardize awarding of funds by the Highway Department for building more farm-to-market and lateral roads.

The State Highway Department already has money allocated for building the four lane road from the Dawson county line to a point two miles south of Tahoka, and has announced its intention of following this with a four-lane project all the way to the Lubbock county line— if Lynn County furnishes the right of way.

The Department requires a right-of-way of 240 feet for the four lane road. The present right-of-way is 100 feet.

No decision has been reached on a route through or around Tahoka. The Highway Department it is understood, is agreeable to leaving the route as it is temporarily. However, it desires to build the road west of the city, or as an alternate, build it two blocks east of the courthouse square.

Miss Johnece Clem, 1955 Farm Bureau Queen of Lynn County, will enter the district contest in Lubbock Monday, Sept. 12, in competition against girls from other counties of the area.

Judging will be at 8 p. m. in the O. L. Slaton Junior High School. Also, there will be a dinner for all the Queens and their sponsors at the Lubbock Hotel.

Miss Clem, a student in Tahoka High School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Clem, route 1.

On the same day, beginning at 1 p. m. in the Lubbock Hotel, Farm Bureau members of the area will hold a meeting at which local, state, and national agricultural problems will be talked. N. E. Wood, Lynn county president, urges local members to attend.

Court Will Have Budget Hearing

Hearing on the proposed 1956 budget of Lynn County will be held before the Commissioners Court in the county court room next Monday at 2 p. m., Judge W. M. Mathis announces. All citizens are invited to be present.

The budget as prepared is $291,241.50, which is a slight increase over the estimated budget for 1955, $5,781.00 to be exact.

HAS IRRIGATION WELL

Ira Vaughn has a new five-inch irrigation well in a previously dry area six miles east of Tahoka.

O'Donnell Man Shooting Victim

Moody Gibson, about 40, of O'Donnell was seriously injured in the right shoulder by a single shot from a 12-gauge shotgun at about 10 p. m. Saturday in front of the home of his father-in-law, R. O. Brown, 69, also of O'Donnell.

Brown was charged here early Sunday with assault with intent to murder and released on $1,500.00 bond.

Gibson was taken to a Lamesa hospital, where on Monday he was reported to be out of danger and improving nicely. He was later taken to Veterans Hospital in Big Spring.

Sheriff Norvell Redwine, County Attorney Harold Green, and District Attorney Mitchell Williams investigated the shooting.

The News is informed by investigating officers that Gibson, a well driller, and his wife had separated last May. Saturday she was spending the night with her parents.

Gibson is alleged to have been taking a friend home that night when he noticed his wife's car in front of the Brown home. He asked Mr. Brown to see his wife, and on being told she was asleep, Gibson threatened to burn the car. He was in the act of throwing lighted matches in the car when Brown fired the shot from the gun.

County And State Taxes Not Due Until October 1

County and state taxes and also poll taxes are not due and payable until the first day of October, states J. E. Brown, county tax assessor and collector. Due to state law, receipts can not be issued for such taxes until that date.

This statement is being made to taxpayers because of the fact that some confusion has arisen. The same law does not apply to school district and city taxes, which may be paid now.

City of Tahoka and Tahoka School District recently mailed out tax statements, and these taxes for 1955 may be paid now, but state law prohibits issuance of receipts for state, county and poll taxes until October 1, Brown explains.

Some people, following receipts of City and School tax statements have been paying these now and also desire to pay their State and County taxes now. Mr. Brown says he regrets that he can not take the money now, but will be glad to accept such taxes beginning Oct. 1.

Mrs. W. A. Armes was undergoing surgery in Tahoka Hospital Thursday morning.

LYNN'S FIRST BALE BRINGS $1,111.80—Sold at auction Monday, the high figure includes premiums and the 90 cents per pound paid for the cotton. Pictured with the bale are Troy Copelin, the grower; John Reasonover, president, and Otis Spears, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce; Bill Chancy, Jaycee, president; and C. O. Carmack, ginner and buyer of the cotton.

Tahoka Edges Seagraves, Playing At Crane Tonight

Tahoka Bulldogs journey to Crane tonight to meet the powerful Golden Cranes at 8 p. m., a tough team they had difficulty in defeating 27 to 20 here last year.

Many fans will follow the team, 41 of them going on a chartered bus to leave the north side of the square at 4:30 p. m.

Two buses will also carry the TBS Band, which will be chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Louise Weathers and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McNeely, who state the Band Boosters will have sandwiches, cookies and drinks on the bus for sale to students for their supper.

Tahoka Bulldogs, 1954 champions of District 5-A, barely nosed out the Seagraves Eagles, expected to be the top team in District 4-A this year, Friday night on Kelley Field here before a capacity crowd of 2,500 fans by the narrow margin of 13 to 12.

However, the Bulldogs had two touchdown scampers called back by penalties and played an alert game in covering Seagraves' fumbles to turn back the threat of the invaders.

Had it not been for the fine defensive work of Bobby Mc-

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Slover and children of Fort Worth were here last week end visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Slover.

Claude has recently been employed as a part-time instructor of mechanical drawing at Texas Christian University for the fall semester.

He is an engineer at Consolidated Convair Aircraft Corporation, and will continue to hold his job there while teaching at TCU. Claude is a graduate of Tahoka High and of Texas Tech.

Truett Cooper Is Home For Game

Lieut. Col. Truett Cooper and family of San Antonio were here last week end visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cooper, and other relatives.

Colonel Cooper, who was rearred here and played football with the Bulldogs when in High school made a hard drive to get here by 7:45 Tuesday night, just in time to see the Tahoka-Seagraves game.

He is a graduate of Texas A. and M., and is making the Army a career.

Conservation Tour Is Set For Tuesday

Plan Gilt Show Here Saturday

Lynn county 4-H Club boys will have their annual Sears Gilt Show Saturday morning at 9 a. m. at the Lynn County Fair barns, when eight hogs will be entered in competition.

Winner of the show will enter the District contest to be held at Texas Tech on Sept. 17.

B. L. Hatchell and Ward Eakin, Wilson and Tahoka hog breeders, will judge the gilts, County Agent Bill Griffin states.

$1111.80 Is Paid For First Bale

The first bale of 1955 cotton brought the grower, Troy Copelin who lives seven miles west of Tahoka, a total of $1,111.80 as a result of the auction held here Monday at 4 p. m. on "First Bale Day" and as a result of premiums offered by the ginner of the county and the merchants of Tahoka.

C. O. Carmack was high bidder, and paid 90 cents per pound for the 435-pound bale, or $391.50 for the lint. He also bought the 800 pounds of seed for $18.80, and donated the ginning, bagging and ties, valued at about $12.50.

Ginners of the county had made up a premium of $360.00, and a check for this amount was given Mr. Copelin by John Reasonover, president of the Chamber of Commerce, one of the sponsors of the event. Another check of $329.00 was presented him by Bill Chancy, president of the Jaycees, who raised this amount of premium from Tahoka merchants.

The bale was auctioned by Col. G. C. Grider, and three men participated in the spirited bidding.

Preceding the auction, Mayor Clint Walker stated the cotton was picked from 15 acres of irrigated cotton on the Copelin farm. It was ginned by Carmack gin on Friday, August 26.

Last year's first bale grown by Mrs. Beatrice McLaurin of O'Donnell, county commissioner of precinct 3, was ginned at Wells and brought a total of $1,069.00.

Until last year, the premium was offered by merchants of this town. Last year the policy was changed on request of gins over the county so that the first bale may be grown and ginned anywhere in the county to receive the premium.

Rural Phones Can Be Installed Now

Poka-Lambro Rural Telephone Cooperative is now in position to take on new customers along its lines, and telephones can be hooked up in a reasonably short time, states W. D. Harmon, the manager.

The Co-op. has a new set-up whereby telephones may be installed near existing lines without the customer having to put up the full $50.00 membership fee.

JAYCEE-ETTES MEETING

Tahoka Jaycee-Ettes will meet next Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Birch Larsen. All members are urged to be present, and prospective members are invited.

NEGRO CHOIR AT NAZARENE CHURCH

The Pleasant Grove Baptist Church Choir will sing at the Church of the Nazarene Sunday, Sept. 18, at 7 a. m., under the direction of Mrs. Erma Sayles Coleman.

The pastor, Ray Smith, extends the public a cordial invitation.

The annual Lynn County Conservation Field Tour, sponsored by Lynn County Soil Conservation District, will be held next Tuesday, Sept. 13, according to K. K. Moore, chairman of the SCD Board of Supervisors.

The tour will begin at 8:30 in the morning and will be concluded with the serving of a barbecue dinner by several gins of Lynn county.

Speaker on the program following the dinner will be Mr. Armstrong, planning engineer of the State Soil Conservation Board.

The tour will start from the court house in Tahoka at 8:30 a. m., and will make five stops to inspect various vegetation and mechanical conservation practices and also insect control practices.

There will be a "coke" stop and a big barbecue at noon for all those making the tour.

The speaker, Mr. Armstrong, who lives in Abilene, is well known throughout West Texas in the field of conservation. In his capacity as planning engineer for the State Soil Conservation Board, he has worked with most of the district boards in West Texas and is well acquainted with the problems facing West Texas farmers.

Cooperating with the Board of Supervisors on the tour are Bill Griffin, county agent, and Bill Thomson, Soil Conservation Service.

The tour is open to everyone, and the Board is hoping that a good crowd will be on hand to look over some of the farming practices in the county and to help eat the barbecue the gins are going to furnish.

Stops on the trip are: Joe D. Unfred farm: Grain sorghum in 20-inch rows. K. K. Moore: Peas and sorghum, cotton burr land.

George Williamson: Vetch in grain sorghum and "coke" stop.

Alton Greer: Guar. Leroy Davis: Blue panic grass. Thomas Brothers: Blue panic, and early season insect control. Barbecue lunch.

Greens Growing At Golf Course

Greens on the new T-Bar Country Club are now growing and going nicely and Bermuda grass planted on the hill, the clubhouse site, is coming up to a good stand, J. E. (Red) Brown reports.

Another well was put in operation last week end by J. W. Edwards of New Home, and three wells are now being used for irrigation purposes. The club has another well for use when needed.

All the wells are small ones, but members of the club now feel they have the water problem whipped.

Greens are looking good, following recent fertilization and reseeding of spots, and have been mowed twice. "Froghair" around the greens is a winter grass and will be planted soon.

The club has had all kinds of trouble this summer in building the course, but hopes to have the 9-hole grass greens course in playable shape next spring.

First, was a very dry, windy spring and summer. Then heavy rain in July washed out much of the grass. Added to this has been trouble all along in getting sufficient water, and next in getting the water to the right places.

Club members doing most of the work now feel they have the project almost "made" if membership holders will bear with them and lend a little help in the coming months.

Mrs. Lawrence May of Wilson is a medical patient in Tahoka Hospital.

Odds and Ends

(BY E. I. HILL, ELDER)

Well, folks, I had intended to fill this Column again this week with the story of other Texas heroes similar to those who have gone before, but another string of events, very important to me personally, has caused me to change my mind. I am going to tell you, instead, of my Great-Grandma Pocahontas. She is reputed to be my great, great, great, great, Grandmother—I do not know how many times great, (probably ten or twelve times)—but for as long as the memory of my ancestors runneth not to the contrary, she has been reputed to be one of my ancient grandmothers. One of my sisters, who now lives in Waco, Miss Mary Hill has long been interested in the family tree and has become quite a genealogist herself, and she just lacks one link in being able to confirm beyond all reasonable doubt the long-standing family tradition that Princess Pocahontas, who married an Englishman, John Rolfe, is in fact one of our ancient ancestors.

We know positively that our great-grandmother, Susannah Randolph Witt, whose grave may be seen today in the Old Perry cemetery near Moody in McLennan county, was, before her marriage, a Randolph—one of the members of the numerous Randolph group of families that lived in the state of Virginia, some of whom became famous in American history, and many of whom were undoubtedly descendants of Pocahontas and her husband, John Rolfe. Members of my mother's family have pictures of Great Grandma Susannah Randolph Witt and of her husband, Rev. Silas Witt, both of whom died more than seventy years ago. I myself distinctly remember seeing both of them on one occasion when I was a little child, and four years ago, with a little granddaughter in my arms, I stood by the graves of these two honored ancestors of mine in Old Perry cemetery near Moody and had our picture taken, together with their tombstones.

Our great-grandmother always claimed to be a descendent of Pocahontas, and all of us descendants of hers, particularly the older ones among us, have always believed it. Sister Mary can prove it except for one ancient missing link.

But why should I be filling this Column with all that ancient lore now? Of what concern is that to our readers? Doubtless most of you do care little about it. But, we are all interested to some extent in Jamestown, the first permanent English settlement ever made in America. When that little band of 105 fair-complected English people came all the way across the Atlantic Ocean in three sail boats, entered the mouth of the James River where it empties into Chesapeake Bay, sailed thence some 32 miles up the James River and there landed at a scenic tranquil point on its banks to make their home, there was not a soul to meet them except some dark-skinned scowling Indians. It was thirteen years after that that the English Puritans landed at Plymouth Rock in Massachusetts.

Immediately out before those Jamestown colonists lay many almost unbearable hardships—disease, hunger, uncleared forests, Indian attacks. A great, powerful, cruel, and murderous Indian chief, Powhatan, who was the sachem or king of a vast territory populated by some thirty tribes of Indians was to be reckoned with.

One of the regrettable set of facts involved in underfaking to prove that Pocahontas was an ancestor of ours proves also that Old Chief, Powhatan, her father, was also an ancestor. He was a bad Indian. While the story of Captain John Smith to the effect that when old Chief Powhatan had raised a heavy club to crush Smith's brains out his daughter Pocahontas, 13 or 14 years of age, fell across his body and saved Smith's life, has been discredited by many historians, yet it is a fact that Smith was a shrewd and versatile man and actually saved the colony from utter destruction.

In some old historical works that I have recently re-discovered in my little library, I find much information, authentic and otherwise, about Captain John Smith, old Chief Powhatan, his daughter Pocahontas, her husband John Rolfe, and other prominent characters involved in the founding and preservation of Jamestown from utter destruction, but which I can not use here and now.

Now, my decision to give all the foregoing facts, skimpy though they are, about the founding and the precarious existence for several years of the first permanent English colony in America, was prompted by the receipt of a folder of eighteen of the most beautiful and most historic picture cards a few days ago, that I have ever seen. This folder was sent to me by a friend who is now visiting a son who is serving in the Navy at Yorktown, and of course he and his wife are taking his mother on various sidetrips in that historic old state. One of the places visited recently was Jamestown and its environs, and immediately thereafter my good friend sent to me this folder of pictures. It would be impossible for me to adequately describe them but I am going to mention them one by one with a few explanatory remarks.

First, there are two pictures on the covers of the folder:

1. Jamestown Island, Va. (Large Ornate Lettering) Site of the First Permanent English Settlement in America.
2. Aerial View of Jamestown, Va.
3. (Inside the folder) View of Island from Wharf.
4. The Three Ships. (Sail boats).
The Goodspeed, 40 tons; Sarah Constant, 100 tons; The Discovery, 20 tons. These are the three ships in which the immigrants, 105 in number, sailed from England across the Atlantic to Jamestown, Va.
5. Colonists Leaving England for Jamestown.
6. Landing in Jamestown in 1607.
7. Pocahontas Saving the Life of Capt. John Smith.
8. Baptism of Pocahontas, Jamestown, Va., 1613. (The form of baptism used, of course, was that required by the Church of England.)

9. The Marriage of Pocahontas to John Rolfe.
10. Portrait of Pocahontas and her Son.
11. Seawall and Lone Cypress Tree.
12. Excavations With Cypress Tree.
13. Excavations Without Cypress Tree.
14. Robert Hunt Memorial Shrine. Distant View.
15. Capt. John Smith Monument.
16. Princess Pocahontas Monument.
17. Old Church and Graveyard.
18. Ancient Graveyard Showing Blair Tomb.
19. Services in the Old Church.
20. U. S. Government Monument.

All of these pictures are brilliantly colored and artistically designed and finished and constitute the finest series of postcard pictures I have ever seen.

Now I am going to give the several paragraphs of interesting items imprinted on this beautiful and instructive Jamestown folder.

See First Things First

Only 7 miles from Colonial Williamsburg is Jamestown Island, site of the first permanent English settlement in America, 1607-1608.

"Of all historic shrines, the most impressive."

Here Sir Walter Raleigh's dream of colonization at last came true, and English civilization in America was established; here amid famine, massacre, war, and pestilence, the soul of the nation was born.

Here, on the 13th of May, 1607, thirteen years before the Mayflower sailed for America, the three small ships, the Susan (Sarah) Constant, the Goodspeed (Goodspeed), and the Discovery arrived in the late afternoon of a beautiful Spring day with 105 men on board. Here the colonists established themselves and built a town, calling it James Towne in honor of King James I, as Virginia years before had been named for the Virgin Queen, Elizabeth.

Here the first Protestant Church in America was established. Here its first communion was celebrated on the third Sunday after Trinity in 1607. It was to Jamestown that the Indian princess, Pocahontas, daughter of the mighty chief, Powhatan, came as a child, bringing food to the colonists, and here in 1614 she was baptized at the font in the church, taking the name Rebecca, and here on April 5, 1614, she was married to John Rolfe, an English gentleman.

Here the first legislative Assembly ever held in America was convened on July 30, 1619.

Here in 1660, with great rejoicing, the restoration of King Charles II was proclaimed, and here in 1678 the most stirring scenes of Bacon's Rebellion took place, just 100 years before the successful American Revolution.

Here at old Jamestown the lover of history and the lover of beauty will alike find satisfaction and experience a thrill felt nowhere else.

The last paragraph is an invitation: "Come and see these hallowed grounds in their present beauty enshrined in a glorious past."

Davy Crockett is buried in the marble sarcophagus of San Fernando cathedral at San Antonio, Texas.

Mexico Cotton Competition Serious Threat To Market

Deep-sea fishing, a tour of the Lower Rio Grande Valley, and a visit to the fabulous King Ranch were highlights of a trip made by 144 Plains farmers, 23 of them from Lynn county, as guests of Co-op. oil mills, compress, and gins.

Last week, The News told of the trip down and the visit to the King Ranch, where the Santa Gertrudis cattle, race horses, pastures, and housing projects were inspected.

Following dinner in a Kingsville cafeteria, the four TNMCO buses drove the party south through more of the ranch to Harlingen, where the Valley Co-op Oil Mill was inspected, and a tour was made west of that city to see cotton, citrus groves, vegetables, etc., in the semi-tropical irrigation district.

"Red" Stewart, driver of the bus on which The News man rode, was reared in the Valley and his explanations of the crops and farming methods added much to the interest.

Following the tour, at supper in a Harlingen cafe, Fred Vining, "grand old man of the Valley," talked to the visitors. He said the Valley crop was good this year because of the added water available from the new Falcon Dam below Laredo. Until the dam was built, most water used for irrigation in the Valley was ditched out to the Rio Grande. So much land had been put in cultivation that there was not enough water to go around, but conditions are improved since the dam has been built.

Vining told the Plains farmers that Valley cotton growers get a premium price for their cotton because it comes on the market early. This year they received 38 to 36.75 cents for early cotton, although after a heavy rain the price dropped to about 34.30.

Pink bollworms are a major threat, along with other insects. The Plainsmen had been shown live pink boll worms at Corpus Christi, in bolls of cotton, and saw what this worm can do by eating up the seed inside the cotton boll.

After supper, the party drove about 35 miles east to Port Isabel, on the Gulf Coast behind Padre Island, where the 140 men had about all the tourist court and hotel rooms reserved for two nights and all the charter boats hired for Wednesday.

This was the big event most of the men had been looking forward to. About 120 of the 140-odd men went out on the Gulf, while the others remained on shore to fish from the jetties, either from choice or because of lack of boat room. The men who remained behind, reported catching plenty of sand and speckled trout.

Leaving the docks at 8 a. m., 14 cabin cruisers of fishermen went out 25 and 30 miles to the redsnapper banks, where the men fished on the bottom in about 125 feet of water.

The Tahoka boys, Bobby Carroll, John Thomas, Clint Walker, Charles Oliver, T. D. Dunlap, and Otis Curry of Farmers Co-op and Tahoka Co-op, were fortunate to get on the same boat. They caught fish until they gave out, with Charley catching the biggest fish of the entire party, a 22-pound redsnapper, which someone later stole.

New Home men also got a boat together, going out on the Julia. On this boat were Lewis Allison, E. R. Blakney, Dick Turner, Morris Renfro, K. K. and L. H. Moore Jr., and their guest, Frank Hill of The News, Ross Hart of Plainview, and "Red" Stewart, the bus driver.

Trolling on the way out, The News man hooked and landed a bonita, variously estimated to weigh from 12 to 20 pounds, but almost lost his pants in landing him to the hilarity of the rest of the party. Lewis, L. H., and possibly others landed king mackerel trolling.

At the redsnapper banks, the party caught fish until the gave out, and came in with about 300 pounds of redsnappers, king and Spanish mackerel.

Morris Renfro furnished one humorous incident. He had never fished before. After about 10 minutes fishing, he had not had a bite, threw his rod down in disgust with the remark, "Darned if I'm going to yo-yo for fish all day." However, E. R. finally got him back on the job and Morris soon landed a good one. From then on, he wouldn't quit until he gave out. Dick Turner also finally admitted he had all the fishing he wanted for awhile.

The bus driver caught the first and the largest fish of any man on the boat, although Morris and L. H. gave him close competition. The News man was disappointed, for although he actually caught the first one and the largest one, rules were that the first fish to count in the contest must be caught after all men let down their bait at the same time at the snapper banks.

About three hours were required for the 25 mile trip out and about three hours coming in. The party arrived back at the docks about 6 p. m.

The fishermen shipped home by truck 2,600 pounds of fish, and the Tahoka and New Home fishing parties each shipped home about 200 pounds by express.

Although almost exhausted by the trip, the buses loaded again at 7:30 p. m. and drove to Brownsville, crossed the border to Matamoros, Mexico, and enjoyed a feast of quail and barbecued goat at the large Drive-In Supper Club. However, some of the Plainsmen had an aversion to the goat and did not enjoy the meal too well. The men were too tired to get much kick out of the floor show, and were glad of the opportunity to "hit the hay" at about midnight at Port Isabel.

Up again Thursday morning at 6:30, the party was gone again—this time on a visit to the farming section of Mexico's side of the Rio Grande.

Crossing the border again at Matamoros, we saw hundreds of trucks of ginned cotton lined up trying to get across the border to the Port of Brownsville for shipment to foreign markets.

The buses drove 50 miles up the Mexican side of the Valley to the booming new town of Rio Bravo, created by reason of the new Falcon Dam which opened up thousands of acres of new cotton land on the Mexico side to irrigation. On much of this land, this year's crop was the first in irrigated cotton.

We were impressed with the growing competition Mexico is giving the United States in cotton production. Backed by the Mexican government, gins, and others, the Mexican farmer farms from 20 to 100 acres.

He sells seed cotton in burlap bags of 100 to 150 pounds to the gins from fields producing a "ton to a ton and a half" per acre, as they figure the crop, at the equivalent of about $100.00 per bale. Only about 40 cents is paid for picking 250 pounds. The gin plants (the party visited one) are very modern. Top hands at the gins draw about $2.00 per day. Mexican cotton goes on the world market at about 10 cents per pound below the price of United States Cotton, which may be one reason for loss of our foreign market.

"We can produce cotton in the Matamoros area cheaper than anywhere else in the world," Senor Alfonso Pecheco, president of the Matamoros Cotton Association, told the group during the tour. About 90 percent of the cotton produced in the area is exported.

Back to the United States for a late lunch at Harlingen, Idris Traylor, an independent cotton merchant, told the party the U. S. side of the Valley produced about 400,000 bales this year, the Mexican side about 350,000 bales. He said the Falcon Dam is the life-blood of the Valley.

The visitors were impressed by the number of well American tractors being reconitioned at Rio Bravo and put into the fields.

Then, the long trip home started up through the rich irrigated section of Mercedes, Weslaco, Donna, Alamo, San Juan, Pharr, McAllen, and Mission, all in a span of less than 30 miles to Rio Grande City, and thence to the great Falcon Dam spanning the Rio Grande below Laredo.

We were told the U. S. furnished 95 percent of the cost of building the dam, gets 52 percent of the water, and Mexico 48 percent of the water. Incidentally, the U. S. side already has most of its canals, but Mexico is still in process of building its canal system from the dam.

The night was spent at Laredo, with some of the boys going across the border to Nuevo Laredo that night the first and only time they had any free time during the trip.

Buses left at 7:45 next morning, and the men were guest of L. D. Nixon of Producers Wool and Mohair Co. at Del Rio for dinner. From there, the buses drove home by way of San Angelo and Big Spring, arriving at Lubbock before sundown.

Others on the trip from Lynn county, in addition to those mentioned above included Charley Campbell and C. C. Swope of Wilson; L. S. Turner and C. W. Roberts of Grassland; H. F. Lindly and B. J. McLaurin of Wells; Weldon Martin, H. W. Hancock, M. E. Greenlee, and G. C. Wilson of O'Donnell; and Moman Johnson of Lubbock, formerly of Lynn county.

The News man was invited on the trip by Wilmer Smith, president of New Home Co-op Gin and also of the Plains Oil Mill; and through the courtesy of other officers of New Home, Roy Lee Williams, vice president; L. C. Unfred, secretary; Blakney, Renfro, B. A. Morrow, Turner, and the manager, H. Q. Sharp, some of whom could not make the trip.

Those making the trip were a fine bunch of fellows, conducted ed themselves as gentlemen, and wherever they went drew compliments and praises from the Valley folks for their behavior, for it is not often that many men get together, for five days without a "bad apple" spoiling a part of the trip.

Unfreds Tell Of California Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Joe D. Unfred and three children recently made a nine-day trip to Los Angeles, where they visited Mrs. Unfred's uncle, R. H. Flickinger, and his uncle, Paul Hawkins.

They were met there by his brother, L. C. Unfred, wife and two children.

One of the highlights of their trip was a visit to Disneyland, and Joe D. says it is everything it is "cracked up" to be, and may be enjoyed by both young and old at little expense or at big expense. He says one may see about everything for $2.00, or he could spend $75.00 or more in a day. His family took in nearly everything for only $4.75.

They also got a big kick out of a visit to Knott's Berry Farm, where is located the replica of the old Ghost Town, a revival of the Old West.

Clark Farr Here With His Bride

Clark Farr and his new bride of Clayton, New Mexico, were here Monday visiting relatives and friends.

He was married in Clayton Sunday to Miss Bonny Bobbitt, and they were on their wedding trip. The couple will make their home in Pueblo, Colorado, where both will be students this fall in Pueblo College.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bobbitt of Clayton. Clark is the son of Mrs. Willie Mae Farr of Clayton, formerly of Tahoka, and is a brother of James Farr of New Home, with whom they spent Sunday night.

Clark attended Tahoka High School and was a backfield star in football while here. He moved to Clayton in 1949, where he made the all-star team in New Mexico. After attended college at West Texas State, he was called into the Army for service.

He and his bride were en route to Andrews to visit his sister, Mrs. Joe Dillard, who is a teacher in the schools there. Congrats.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Banister, celebrated their birthdays this past week end with a surprise party, when many of their close friends and neighbors dropped in with gifts and flowers.

Mrs. Banister was 71 on Saturday, and Mr. Banister was 88 years of age on Sunday.

"Uncle Jim" and "Miss Tennie" came to the Plains in the spring of 1924, and have lived in Lynn county ever since.

They remarked that this was the nicest birthday they had ever had.

In 1926, Gertrude Ederle of New York City became the first woman to swim the English Channel.

Robert E. Lee was once stationed at Fort Clark, Brackettville Texas.

The area of Texas is one-eleventh of the entire United States.

Flying Farmers Originated Here

J. Emory Nance and two sons, J. E. Jr., and Billy, recently attended the 10th annual convention of the National Flying Farmers held in Lansing, Michigan.

Nance recalls that the very first Flying Farmer unit in the United States was organized at Tahoka, and from the local club came the Texas Flying Farmers, and also the American Flying Farmers. The local unit was the first chartered member of the national organization.

Furthermore, the club had the largest representation at the first meeting of the new national organization in 1945 in Oklahoma, and received national publicity because the Tahoka club had the oldest Flying Farmers in the nation, the late R. L. (Kid) Gibson.

The National emblem, still in use, was designed by Wm. E. (Billy) Hill of Tahoka and The News, now with the Bent County Democrat at Las Animas, Colorado.

Manual Ayers, then county agent here and now in business at Plainview, was a leader in organizing the Flying Farmers, and Clayton Beard was the first president of the Tahoka club and also the first president of the Texas Flying Farmers.

The National organization now has 5,000 members in 43 states and Canada, and 1,000 of them flew to Lansing in 400 planes for this year's convention.

J. E. says the convention was held at Michigan State College, which was observing its 100th anniversary. At the meeting, he says, was assembled the biggest display of farm machinery ever gotten together. They also visited the Henry Ford Dearborn Museum and the Oldsmobile factory.

June Marie Lowrey, Charles Ware Wed

Miss June Marie Lowrey of San Antonio and Charles Arthur Ware of Tahoka were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony Sunday at 3 p. m. in the First Methodist Church, with the pastor, Rev. J. B. Stewart, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Lowrey of Ashtabula, Ohio, and the bridegroom is the son of A. E. Ware of Tahoka.

Given in marriage by Wm. C. Thomson of Tahoka, the bride wore a ballerina length white satin gown with white sequin encrusted bodice and a balero jacket of imported Chantilly lace with three-quarter length sleeves and Queen Ann collar. Her fingertip illusion veil was held in place by a coronet of imported Chantilly lace, studded with seed pearls.

She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis, and a white lace handkerchief, a gift of her grandmother. She wore a single pearl necklace which belonged to the groom's mother.

The vows were taken before an archway of candles flanked by large baskets of white gladioli. Pink nylon net aisle markers reserved the family pews.

Miss Martha Jane Ware, sister of the groom, was the bride's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Patricia Williams and Nancy Isham.

Attendants wore waltz length gowns of nylon net over taffeta in pastel shades of pink and green the bride's colors. Their headpieces were rows of small pink rosebuds. Each carried pink carnations on pink Japanese fans with long pink streamers. They also carried matching lace handkerchiefs, gifts of the bride.

Master Richard Williams was ring bearer. Ushers were Jimmy Uzzle and Ronald Roberts, and they also acted as candle lighters.

Mrs. S. E. Reid, organist, played "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," as candles were being lit, accompanied the vocalist, Mrs. E. W. Patterson as she sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly," and also played "The Bridal Chorus" from Lehengrin and "Ave Maria."

At the reception which followed in Fellowship Hall, the table was laid with a white linen cloth, and the bridesmaid's flowers were used as decorations. Crystal punch service and crystal candelabra bearing pink tapers were used.

The reception was given by the WSCS of the church. Miss Marie Potts presided at the bride's book, while Mrs. Roy Edwards and Mrs. G. M. Stewart ladled the punch.

Following a wedding trip to New Mexico, the couple will be at home in San Antonio after Sept. 15.

The bride is a 1954 graduate of Ashtabula, Ohio, High School, and currently is secretary to a medical doctor in San Antonio.

The bridegroom is a 1952 graduate of Tahoka High School, and attended Texas Tech before entering military service. He received his service discharge August 31, and will enter the insurance field.

Miss Sherry Cecile Hendrick of Lubbock and J. B. Ables of Tahoka were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony read at the Colgate Street Church of Christ in Lubbock recently.

Charles Brookshire Farms Place West of Grassland

Charles Brookshire lives on and works the above farm, which is owned by Jimmy Napier of Lubbock. It is located two miles west of Grassland, and is adjoined on the north by the Alton Greer farm.

Mrs. Jim (Avis) Henry was the first to identify the place and M. M. Connel was the second. Others calling included Roy Appling, Charles Brookshire, and Mrs. J. B. Greer.

The place is sometimes known as the Timmons farm, but was once owned by John Warrick, and later by Jess Propst, who lived on the place many years, finally bought it. About ten years ago, Propst traded it to Mr. Napier for the place he now lives on east of Grassland.

Mr. Napier, a Lubbock brick mason, is an old time citizen of Post, who came to that town about 35 years ago when the late C. W. Post began his development. Mr. Napier is a native of Scotland, and came to America with "Scottie" Sampson of Post. Charles says Mr. Napier is a wonderful man and a fine landlord.

Charles has been farming the place, which consist of 335 acres for two years. He has two small irrigation wells, 3-and 4-inches, from which he waters about 80 acres. He says the wells are good insurance. However, he has a pretty fair dry land crop this year, although his feed is very late and will have to have everything just right to make.

Charles had a few beef cattle last year, but it got so dry he sold them. He wishes now he had kept them, although he came out pretty fair on them financially.

All his farm is terraced except the 80 acres, where he had to tear down the terraces to irrigate.

His friends say Charles is doing a fine job for a young farmer. Actually Lynn county farming is all Charles knows, but he has no desire to go elsewhere. "We've got the finest land anywhere, if we could just get a little more rain," Charles says.

Charles was born and reared in the Grassland community, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Brookshire, having come to the area about 30 years ago from East Texas. Their place is also a part of the Post development project.

Charles attended Tahoka High School, where he played football, and graduated in 1951. He says football (watching the game now) is his only hobby, for farming keeps him pretty busy.

In May, 1953, Charles was married to Miss Frances Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. (Buck) Martin of Draw. Frances had graduated from Tahoka High School in the spring of 1952. Until recently, she has been working for Forrester Insurance in Tahoka.

They attend the Methodist Churches at Grassland and Draw.

TWIN MUSKMELO

J. C. Gandy of Redwine last week was displaying a large twin muskmelon he had raised in his garden. His dad brought the peculiar specimen to The News office as an example of such a product as may be grown in Lynn county.

Harrisons Visit Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Harrison and daughter, Dottie Gene, of Grassland, and Mrs. Harrison's mother Mrs. E. G. Fortenberry of Welch came home last week from a very interesting trip to Washington, D. C., and vicinity.

They were in that area when the hurricane "Connie" came in off the Atlantic and did much damage on the east coast. Mrs. Harrison says 11 inches of rain fell in the Washington area. The night the storm struck, they were in a court in the Blue Ridge Mountains. The wind was high, blew off a tourist court door, but was not sufficiently high to unduly alarm the party.

They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Kelton Russell, Mrs. Russell being a sister of Mrs. Harrison and a daughter of Mrs. Fortenberry. She is also a sister of Mrs. E. L. Short of Grassland.

Kelton Russell, reared at Welch and a student in Sul Ross College, Alpine, majoring in geology, is a baseball pitcher owned by the Cardinals and farmed out to the Lynchburg team. In fact, Kelton is doing quite well as one of the top rookies of the year, and they saw the left-hander win a 10-inning game in which he gave up only two hits.

His manager told the Harrisons Kelton is the highest paid man on the team and has great promise that he intends to take Kelton with him to the Rochester club next year.

MRS. KIDWELL HAS SOMEONE'S DISHES

Mrs. W. T. Kidwell says she has some dishes at her home and does not know to whom they belong. They were left there when food was brought for relatives of the late Billy Tong. The rightful owners may pick them up at her home on North Second.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin (Tiny) Jolly and two children of Arlington were here last week end visiting his mother, Mrs. Rosa Jolly, and Mrs. Ruth Jolly and family. Edwin works for Chance-Voight Aircraft.

New Zealand was discovered in 1642 by Abel Tasman, a Dutch navigator.

GMC's new Hydra-Matic V8 runabout

Your key to Blue Chip makes

New school of thought about trucks

This smart Blue Chip GMC runabout is as handy at exploding traditions as it is for delivering the youngsters to classrooms.

It denies that a truck must be just a hard-fisted work vehicle—and proves the point with its obvious fitness for family use and playtime fun.

Mighty V8 power gives it spirited agility as well as brawn; Hydra-Matic Drive* gives it easy flexibility as well as remarkable economy. And the sweeping visibility through that panoramic windshield makes it safer, too.

Best of all, perhaps, is that this Blue Chip GMC quickly writes off its slightly higher cost with its greater efficiency and rugged stamina that insure longer life. And it commands a higher trade-in with its outstanding modernity.

There you have it. A Blue Chip GMC will bring distinction to your business, and serve your family too. Come in and see us about one.

French Youth Gives Last Talk

Bernard Debonne, the young man from Paris, France, who has been the guest of Tahoka Rotary Club for seven weeks, made his last appearance at the club Thursday noon of last week before starting his voyage home Thursday of his week to resume his graduate work in agriculture.

Dr. K. R. Durham, a member of the club, in a brief talk of commendation and appreciation for Bernard and his visit, presented him with a solid gold 12 carat souvenir spoon bearing the engraving, "To Bernard Debonne, from Rotary Club of Tahoka, Texas, USA, 9-1-55". Durham explained that the gift was in keeping with Bernard's hobby of collecting spoons.

The spoon was made in its entirety by Dr. Durham in his local dental laboratory.

Almost overcome by emotion, the young Frenchman expressed his thanks to Tahoka Rotarians for making it possible for him to come to America for a visit, to see and to evaluate our agriculture, industry, religious, political and social life, and to learn to know the American family. He said he believed his stay in local homes enabled him "to see the soul of the Nation."

A. M. Bray, program chairman of the day, also expressed the pleasure of the club in having him and revealed that Debonne was selected this year as one of the top ten college students of France.

Debonne, who has had ambitions to do soil conservation work in the North African French colonies, revealed that he now has a desire to come to the United States or Canada to do some such work, or related activity.

President Harold Green added his remarks, on behalf of the club, on the pleasure of having the Frenchman here and stated that he believed the club and the entire community had profited from his visit. Green also called attention to the signal honor paid Wynne Collier by the Texas Pharmaceutical Association in electing the Tahoka man its vice president.

He also announced the Rotary Ann-Teachers banquet which was scheduled for Thursday night of this week and the Lubbock Inter-City meeting two weeks from now.

Collier gave the official welcome to a new member, Martin White, mortician with Stanley Funeral Home.

Many guests were present for the meeting, including several visiting Rotarians and several local Rotary Anns.

New Home Wins First Grid Game

New Home Leopards, playing their first game of 11-man football, opened the season last Friday night by trouncing Hart 25 to 7. The game was also Hart's first time to participate in football; while heretofore New Home has been playing six-man ball.

New Home scored twice in the first quarter, once in the second and once in the fourth, while Hart scored its only touchdown in the second.

Halfback Jimmy Brown made two of New Home's touchdowns, and Jimmy Dean and Joe Don Milliken scored the others.

The Leopards ran up 306 net yards to 171 for Hart from scrimmage, but each team had eight first downs. New Home tried only one pass, while Hart scored on a pass.

The Leopards are idle this week.

Charley E. Clinton, critically ill, was taken back to Tahoka Hospital Wednesday.

Highway . . .

Latest part of the Colorado-Tahoka road to go under contract was 8.1 miles of road along the north side of Lake Thomas, in Borden and Scurry counties.

Colorado City has been the principal instigator behind the paving of the road. Since the Chamber of Commerce began work on the project three years ago, 100 miles of road has been paved, the Record states.

Cooperating have been San Angelo, Robert Lee, Mitchell, Scurry, Borden, and Lynn counties.

One small strip of right of way for the final highway segment is within the Colorado River Municipal Water Authority (Lake Thomas), but this body has now authorized the right of way easement.

Completion of the road will give Lynn county, Tahoka, and cities to the north and west a paved route to Lake Thomas, as well as a new paved access to Colorado City, San Angelo, and San Antonio.

Cities and counties along the route will now seek designation of the entire route as a State Highway, whereas the designations now are as farm to market roads. In turn, this would possibly bring about an improvement of the paved road to Draw and into Borden county.

Senior Class Elects Officers For Year

The Senior class of Tahoka High School elected class officers Tuesday, August 30. The following were elected.

President, Junior Pitts; vice-president, Ware High; Secretary, Othelda Freeman; Treasurer, Margie Curry; Reporter, Kenny Durham; Parliamentarian, Don Blair; Student Council Representatives, Ann Reasonover, Jake Dunlap.

The class elected Mr. Shepherd and Mr. Wortham as class sponsors.

The class expects the rings, which were ordered Thursday, September 1, to be delivered in late October.

Goal Reached On Disaster Fund

Although local response to the call was very light, Bill Griffin, Lynn county Red Cross chairman, says he has been informed by the National organization that the $10 million fund for Disaster Relief has been raised.

The special fund is to aid victims of the recent storms in the East.

HILL AND BULLOCK FAMILIES IN REUNION

The J. L. Hill and J. E. Bullock families held a reunion last Sunday at the American Legion Hall in Tahoka, attended by 105 people.

There was a big dinner at noon, and the afternoon was enjoyed by visiting, group singing, and music furnished by a local "colored" boy.

Two of Mrs. Hill's brothers and one of her sisters were among the out-of-town visitors here, these being L. M. Bullock and wife of Weatherford, E. A. Bullock and wife of Wellman, and Mrs. Effie Burton of Bashton, Washington; also a nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rhodes of Weatherford.

Other relatives and friends were here from Post, Slaton, Lubbock, Levelland, New Home, Grassland, Draw, Lovington, Hobbs, and Abilene.

YOUTHS ARE WARNED ON TAMPERING WITH PLANES

Youths of the area have been tampering with and damaging some of the airplanes parked near here for use in dusting crops.

Not only has damage been done to some of the planes, but such tampering could very easily cause some pilot to lose his life.

Also, there is the possibility that a youth tampering with a plane could start the plane motor and cause damage or loss of life.

An appeal is being made to youths to refrain from bothering these planes, and to parents to warn their children of the danger of playing around them.

NIECE WITH CHOIR

Miss Peggy Holmes of Baylor University, Waco, and her friend, Miss Rosemary Walthall of North Texas State, whose home is in Granbury, visited here last week end with the former's aunt, Mrs. Denny Polk.

The two girls were with the 60-voice BSU Choir, made up of students from 25 Texas colleges representing 35,000 Baptist students, which appeared in Lubbock last week for a performance.

Mr. and Mrs. Polk and Mr. and Mrs. Clay Bennett attended the affair in Lubbock.

Daniel, Eagle left halfback, as well as his driving runs, the margin of victory would likely have been wider.

This year, Coaches Bill Haralson and Dean Wright have been faced with rebuilding their line, and considering the inexperience of some of the linemen the Bulldogs turned in a fine performance. In fact, Center Stanley Stone was the only Bulldog lineman who was a full time regular last season, and he turned in a great game and was the cause of some of the Eagles' fumbles.

Fullback Donald Blair was the leading ground-gainer with 94 yards in 13 tries, Jerry Williams made 64 on 15 carries, Gordon Smith 40 on 10, and Ted Pridmore 29 on seven, two of them 10-yard runs, and Jimmy Harter 8 yards on three carries. Smith had a 43-yard gallop called back by a clipping penalty, and Blair had a 65-yard touchdown spree called back on a holding penalty. Williams, in addition to carrying the ball, got away two 40-yard punts.

Neither team could gain consistently early in the first quarter until Seagraves' Middleton covered a Tahoka fumble late in the quarter on their own 45. Quarterback Lawrence Barber and McDaniel alternated in carrying the ball to Tahoka's five yard line as the quarter ended.

Seagraves Scores First
On third down after the quarter, Barber went the last one foot for the TD. He then faked a place-kick and attempted a pass to McDaniel for the extra point, but the pass was incomplete.

Smith brought the kickoff from the 15 to the 40, and Williams, Blair, Smith, and Pridmore alternated in marching to four first downs to the Seagraves 5, from which point Smith took the ball over left guard to tie the score.

A few minutes later, Williams stole the ball from Barber and four plays later Smith broke a way after a fake hand-off, went across the left side of the line, cut to his left, and side-stepped all the way for a touchdown, but clipping was called on a Tahoka boy on the S. 21, placing the ball on the 36. With seconds remaining Smith passed to Bell in the coffin-corner, but McDaniel intercepted the ball and ran out to the 38 as the half ended.

Tahoka Scores Again
Whereas the first half had been well played, the second was marred by fumbles. Stone covered a Seagraves fumble on the S. 47 to set up, indirectly, Tahoka's second score.

Tahoka carried down to the 10, but lost the ball to McDaniel on a fumble. On the next play Williams hit Barber hard and recovered his fumble. Tahoka returned the favor, and Hamilton covered the ball for the visitors on their 5. Then, Seagraves fumbled again, Castleberry covering on the Seagraves 12. On the next play, Williams went over left tackle 12 yards scarcely touched to score. Smith kicked the extra point.

A few minutes later, Simmons covered another Seagraves fumble, and it was then that Blair got away on a 65-yard gallop to pay dirt, but the play was called back and Tahoka penalized to its 22 for holding.

Barber returned Williams punt 33 yards to Tahoka's 42, and Seagraves had another touchdown drive strated.

Seagraves had begun using the jump pass, Barber to End Kennison with success, and after moving to the Tahoka 13, the visiting quarterback tossed a pass to Kennison 13 yards in the end zone for the last score early in the fourth quarter. Barber's kick was wide. Score 13 to 12.

Tahoka moved down to Seagraves 11; but lost the ball on downs, and Seagraves then began a desperate attempt to score again, but the Bulldog defense was sufficient, and Bobby Paris covered a fumble with seconds left to end the threat.

Ronnie Brooks and Ware High Jr., played the guard positions, Larry Simmons and Bobby Paris, tackles; Castleberry and Bell, ends.

Cecil Hammonds, a freshman, saw action and showed great promise. Kent Gibson and N. E. Wood also saw action in the line.

Karl Prohl, subbing for Smith, looked like a natural, playing some on both offense and defense, and Jimmy Harter gave notice that he wanted to see some more action.

Barring injuries, as the team is short on top reserves, the team should be in fine shape in two or three more games of experience.
