Lyntegar Gets Loan To Expand System

Lyntegar Rural Electric Cooperative has been granted a loan of $442,000 for the construction of 140 miles of line to serve about 725 rural consumers.

The loan is being made through the Rural Electrification Administration, and was officially announced Tuesday through the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Garland Pennington, manager of Lyntegar, says most of the extension will be to serve about 600 users of electrical power for irrigation well pumping. Part of the funds will be used to increase capacity of transformers and power lines.

Lyntegar, which has its headquarters in Tahoka, has about 7,000 customers in ten counties of this area. Frank Harris, of Lamesa is president of the cooperative.

Ruffins Guilty Of Murder Charge

Jessie Lee Ruffins, 31, was found guilty of murder and assessed a sentence of 18 years in the Texas penitentiary by a jury in the District Court here last Friday.

Ruffins is the Negro man who stabbed to death with an "East Dallas Special," a long bladed pocket knife, another Negro, Clarence F. Frazier, about 40, in northeast Tahoka Sunday morning, September 18.

Both Negroes were from Lubbock. The killing, which took place out in the street at about 10 a. m., was the outgrowth of an argument between the two men over their return trip to Lubbock.

Mitchell Williams, district attorney, was assisted in the prosecution by Harold Green, county attorney.

Wilson Farmers Harvest Crop For Neighbor Hanes

A group of Wilson farmers Monday afternoon harvested most of the grain crop on the farm of D. F. Hanes, who lives three miles southeast of that town.

Jasper Campbell and Gene Spears, A. N. Crowson, and Swann and Swann furnished three large self-propelled combines, and C. C. Swope and R. A. Guinn furnished regular type tractor-drawn Combines, and the Swanns, Mr. Crowson, Mr. Campbell, and B. L. Thomas furnished trucks in which to haul the grain.

In about three hours time, the men had the grain from about 80 acres in the elevator.

The neighborly act was performed by reason of Mrs. Hanes being seriously ill. She has undergone two operations on her jaw, a malignant disease developed, and she is now in a Houston hospital for treatment. Friends report she is doing well, and expects to come home at an early date.

Post, Tahoka Play October 21

Tahoka Bulldogs have another open date this week end, but Friday of next week they will open the District 5-AA season by entertaining the Post Antelopes on Kelley Field here.

The Bulldogs will be the favorites to win this one. However, fans will remember that Tahoka went to Post last year the heavy favorites and were surprised by the Antelopes in the form of a 13-13 tie, with the decision awarded to Post on the basis of penetrations.

When Tahoka and Post play, all past records mean nothing, and when one team or the other is "doped" as a heavy favorite the "underdog" sometimes comes out on top.

Such was the case four years ago. Jack Kirkpatrick, now quarterback on the Texas Tech team, was the star quarterback of Post and the Antelopes offense was built around him. Post was supposed to win by any score they might name. But, the Bulldogs paid no attention to press notices; and the result was 20 to 6 in favor of Tahoka. An amazing thing about the game was that Kirkpatrick was held to a minus-11 yards from scrimmage, and the entire Post team had a minus-7 yards from scrimmage.

Fans can look for a good game when the Bulldogs and Antelopes meet Friday night of next week, the Tahoka Homecoming day.

Two Pictures Are Identified

The last two "Mystery Farm" pictures which have appeared in The News are farms which had previously been pictured in the farm series.

Last week's picture was of the R. C. Wood place in the T-Bar community, farmed by Howard Moore, and sometimes known as the old George Short place. Marvin Wood and Lee Roy Edwards both identified the picture.

The picture which appeared week before last had also appeared earlier in the series, and is the farm of Gene Payne, in the Wells community, and was identified by Miss Myrtle Ledbetter and Roy Askew.

The aerial photographs evidently got fouled up and took two pictures each of these farms.

There are only four perceptible tastes; sweet, salt, bitter and sour.

The News Is 52 Years Of Age

This week The News begins a new year, Volume 52, Number 1.

Born on October 8, 1903, except for a year or two in the early days of Lynn County, the newspaper has managed to come out every week for 52 years.

The News claims to be the oldest business institution, not under the same management, however, both in Tahoka and Lynn county. It is also the oldest business institution of the South Plains south of Lubbock.

The present management has been in charge since November, 1923.

New Oil Test On Denton Farm

Sun Oil Company has announced a new 4,600 foot test of the Glorietta to be made on the Ed Denton farm in the Gordon community of northeast Lynn county.

The test is between the two eastern Lynn county oilfields, the PHD-Glorietta field at Gordon, in which there are now six producers, and the San Andreas field to the northwest in the Morgan community, where there are two producers.

To be known as the Sun Oil Co. No. 1 Ed Denton, the venture has been located 330 feet from the north and west line of section 1253, in the AB&M survey.

Mr. Denton, owner of the land, is a pioneer citizen of Lynn county.

Boy Scouts Set Court Of Honor

Exes Of Tahoka Plan Reunion

Special efforts are being made to make this year's Tahoka High School ex-students' reunion, set for Friday, Oct. 21, the biggest and best ever held.

Gerald Wayne Tippit of San Antonio will be the principal speaker at a program at 2 p. m. in the High School auditorium.

At 5 p. m., there will be a banquet in the school cafeteria for ex-students (and ex-teachers) and their families. Tickets for the affair are $1.50 each, which includes membership dues.

All who expect to attend are asked to get their tickets, on sale at both drug stores, so the committee in charge will have some idea of the number for which to prepare the meal.

At 8 p. m., will be the annual football game between Tahoka and Post.

H. B. McCord Jr. is president of the Ex-Students Association; Johnny Wells is vice president; and Mrs. Jack (Frankie) Penton is secretary and treasurer.

Seeking Toys For Needy Children

Each year the Tahoka Jaycees gather old toys and repair them for needy children for Christmas.

This year they do not have near enough toys to go around. If you have some old toys around the house that your child has outgrown, or doesn't want any longer, the Jaycees would like to have these toys to repair, and give to the children who are less fortunate than some of us, for Christmas.

There will be a trailer parked on the Court House square each Saturday for the toys to be dropped in, and will be taken to the Jaycee Hall for repairs and repainting, and later given away at Christmas time.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY ARE GUESTS AT DINNER

Members of the National Honor Society of Tahoka High School were guests at a fried chicken dinner Tuesday night in the home of Mrs. Fred B. (Madeline) Hegl, homemaking teacher.

Floyd Tubb, a high school teacher was a special guest.

1,052 Bales New Cotton Ginned

Cotton ginnings from the 1955 crop totaled 1,052 at 11 a. m. Thursday in Tahoka, according to reports made by the five gins to The News.

O'Donnell gins had turned out 1,014 bales up to Tuesday afternoon, The Index-Press reports.

The crop is now reported to be opening up fairly well, and cotton is expected to begin coming in at a more rapid rate if the weather remains favorable.

Some farmers are also cutting irrigated and early dryland grain, but most of the grain is very late and needs at least two or three weeks of dry weather, without killing frost, to insure maturity.

Date Is Set For Bureau Meeting

Annual meeting of the Lynn County Farm Bureau will be held Tuesday night, Oct. 25, at 8 o'clock, N. E. Wood, president, announces.

At this time, new officers for the coming year will be elected, and new Resolutions for 1956 written.

"The Serenaders," Lubbock TV entertainers, will appear on the program.

"Every member of the Farm Bureau is urged to attend, because this will be your meeting, and you will be the one to elect the new officers for the coming year," Wood states.

Ben Moore Has Heart Attack

Ben Moore Sr., 69, of O'Donnell, pioneer citizen of Lynn county, naturalist, historian, and writer, suffered a heart attack Monday and is reported "holding his own" in a Lamesa hospital.

His physician, according to the Lamesa Reporter, stated Moore was suffering from a coronary thrombosis, very similar to that which struck down President Eisenhower about a month ago.

His attack occurred while he was on a trip down in the "brakes," which expeditions were his first love.

Mr. Moore is the author of one book, is a frequent contributor to The News, the Lamesa Reporter, the Texas Game and Fish Magazine, and other publications, on the subjects of wildlife and history and folklore.

Moore probably knows more about West Texas wildlife than any layman living in this area. He spends much time in the "brakes" of the Plains and adjoining areas.

Jaycees Planning Turkey Shoot

At the regular Tahoka Jaycee meeting Tuesday night the members elected Bob Dunlap as their new Sergeant of Arms.

His duty will be to see that the meetings are carried on in an orderly manner.

Next Tuesday night at the meeting, Bob will present a talk to the Club on Parliamentary Procedures which will be obtained from Roberts Rules of Order.

In the future, the Tahoka Jaycees will have a guest speaker once each month.

Also at the meeting plans were discussed for the Turkey Shoot which the Jaycees will sponsor Saturday, November 19, at the caliche pit south of Tahoka. The cost is $1.00 and the Jaycees will furnish the guns and ammo, or you may bring your own gun if it has open sights.

The Jaycees meet each Tuesday night at 8:00 p. m. in the McElroy building across the street east of D. and H. Super Market. New members and guests are cordially invited to attend the meetings.—Reporter.

TV Entertainers Will Give Program

Darrell Taylor, well known for his "Songs From the Country Chapel" over a Lubbock TV station, will present the program at the monthly meeting of the First Baptist Brotherhood here Monday night, Oct. 17, in Fellowship Hall of the Educational Building.

Mr. Taylor became a Baptist preacher only a few months ago, but already is in great demand as a speaker in churches.

Every man is welcome to attend the meeting and enjoy his songs and sermon.

BUILDING GOING UP

Brick and tile walls are going up this week on the new Production Credit building on North Main Street. Completion of the structure is expected before the first of the year.

Tahoka, along with eight other Plains towns, will vote November 8 on the proposal to issue $74,800,000 in revenue bonds of the Canadian River Municipal Water Authority to finance construction of a dam on the Canadian river, treatment plant, and pipeline facilities for distribution of the water to the present member cities, along with other cities and industries that may contract for purchase of water from the project.

A brief review of the work and progress on the Canadian River project might be interesting to our readers at this time. Investigations of the possibility of using the Canadian River water supply source began by the U. S. Government through its Bureau of Reclamation in 1941. Further investigations were made in 1947. The work was further expedited in the year 1949 at the request of Amarillo and Lubbock, interested in the project as a source of municipal and industrial water supply for the Panhandle-Plains area.

The Bureau of Reclamation filed a reconnaissance report with the cities at Plainville, Texas, June 17, 1949, declaring the project feasible as a source of municipal industrial water supply.

It was on June 17, 1949 that eleven cities of the Panhandle-High Plains of Texas organized themselves into what was then known as the Canadian River Water Users Association to sponsor legislation needed to accomplish the project. Later the City of Brownfield joined, making the total twelve cities participating. Littlefield withdrew at the time of confirmation election. Both Amarillo and Pampa have recently withdrawn from the Authority, leaving nine cities sponsoring the project.

The Compact was necessary for the division of the Canadian River waters between the three states, namely: New Mexico, Texas and Oklahoma. After a year and seven months work this was finally accomplished, was adopted by the Legislatures of the three states and finally ratified by Congress on June 2, 1952 (Public Law 345, 82nd Congress, 2nd Session).

The Bureau of the Budget, U. S. Government, approved the project on June 19, 1950 and it was authorized by Public Law 896, 81st Congress, 2nd Session and was signed by the President, December 29, 1950.

Random Shots . . .

(By Ben Moore)
If any man has a right to say that he has grown up, and remained on the cattle range, that man must be B. L. ("Mack") McClure. Mack can hardly talk about anything further east than Austin, where he admits that he does have a few relatives.

As one of the best cowhands ever to grace a saddle, he has been sought after by a lot of cattlemen in West Texas and Eastern New Mexico thru the years. Of course, this is the writer talking, not Mack—he is more of a listener, probably accounting for his wide knowledge of, not only livestock, but Nature in general. When a man has set the saddle until he is quite greyheaded, as is Mack, he is bound to have had some mighty interesting experiences. He is on speaking terms with just about every brand from Colorado City, west to the Monument, N. M. area. (He is a former cowboy on the Henry Record ranch, at Monument—and if you are a rancher, you know Henry, the loveable bachelor, now in his '80's).

Mack is much impressed at the methodical immigration of wild turkeys in the country to the north of Carrizozo, N. M., each year passing from one section where acorns abound, to other such places, many miles across country.

A thousand interesting observations could be mentioned by him, but a most comical one is here mentioned:

Riding the range in the Dalhart country for some years, in 1927, there appeared a bald eagle which was wearing a sheepbell about its neck. A good many eagles were then on the range. This eagle had evidently been taken in some steel trap, belled and liberated, as coyotes, deer, etc. are sometimes treated by trappers.

Anyway, Mack reports that within a very short time after the arrival of the disgraced eagle, all other of the species left the country.

The writer, when young, saw buzzards sailing about, wearing a little bell—but that was back when his hearing was much better than at present.

Jim Wetsel and A. N. Loflin of Cross Plains were here from Sunday until Tuesday on business and visiting old friends.

Roberts; Come, Wide, Proclaim, by Mrs. Walthal Littlepage; Come, Follow in Their Train, by Mrs. Clifford Harris; Come, Clasp Children's Hands, by Mrs. Dave Polk; Come, Your Love Outpour, by Mrs. T. R. Riddle; Come, Sisters from Many Lands, by Mrs. Paul Cox; and Come, Christ Your Reward Shall Speak, by Mrs. H. B. Howell.

We were dismissed in prayer by Mrs. K. R. Durham.

A. M. Bray of Tahoka will be the speaker Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at Layman's Day services of the Draw Methodist Church, Rev. Silas Dixon, the pastor, announces.

Attending the ceremony were only the parents and close relatives of the couple.

The bride is a graduate of O'Donnell High School Class of 1955, and worked in Tahoka prior to her marriage. Mr. Snider attended the Lamesa schools.

Following a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N. M., the young people are making their home at 412 Avenue L in Lamesa.

Seniors Selling Magazine Subs.

On Oct. 26, the Tahoka Senior Class is starting their annual drive for subscriptions through the cooperation of the Crowell-Collier Pub. Co.

This is the fifth year that this project has been conducted through the Tahoka school system. The profits from this year's program will be used to finance the Senior Trip.

The list this year contains approximately 100 National Magazines which are known favorites in the home. Some of the outstanding magazines offered are American, Colliers, Woman's Home Companion, Life, Time, Look, Fortune, McCall's, Seventeen, Charm, Better Homes & Gardens, Popular Mechanics, etc. Your attention is called to the "Big Three Special" offer. This offer embraces three National magazines for the price of $6.00. The profit of this offer is 50 percent, therefore only one dollar is returned to the company for each magazine.

This project offers our school and community many benefits besides the 30 to 50 per cent profit that is made on the sale of them. Outstanding are the educational opportunities whereby our students can learn to present themselves as salesmen to the people in the community and likewise make your acquaintance.

Likewise because of this project our town is protected from groups of itinerant (and sometimes unscrupulous) agents who make their way periodically through the community as it gives our citizens a chance to purchase their magazines in the manner that they wish through a source they can trust and still have the satisfaction that from 30 to 50 per cent of their magazine dollar is remaining right here in Tahoka. Guaranteed delivery of all subscriptions is made by the Crowell-Collier Publishing Co.

Here are the potentials of the program: The average family now takes four magazines. If EACH family should renew just one of these for about $5.00, we would have a total sale of $2500.00. Your cooperation will be appreciated.

In re: "A Christian Reader" of Tahoka, Sept. 15.

Dear Christian Reader: Are you gifted with a "white" complexion? Snow is white. Is your complexion like "snow"? Will Christians join the Communists by yielding to the Communist doctrine? Do we fight Communism by becoming Communists and degrading our Aryan stock to mulatto mongrelism?

Is that what your Christian Reader means? God forbid! Aryan Christianity does NOT demand racial degradation and miscegenation for total (dis)-integration and suicide.

There are many reasons for Racial Privacy of Segregation and NOT one valid or sane reason for changing from the wise Southern Way to total (dis)-integration.

Research Paces Oil's Progress

There are three reasons why America's petroleum industry has been able to supply the ever-increasing demand for energy called for by our mechanized way of life: 1, it has fearlessly invested its capital in the hazardous search for oil and gas; 2, it has steadily expanded its facilities; and 3, it has conducted endless research to find better, more efficient ways to make the oil products America needs.

Research! That's the key to the petroleum industry's progress. And the Humble Company assures itself a place of leadership in this field with two great research laboratories.

In the Humble Research Center in Houston scientists and engineers study all phases of finding, producing, and conserving oil and gas.

In the Research Laboratory at Humble's Baytown, Texas, Refinery, highly skilled technicians seek to develop new and better petroleum products, to improve those we already have, and to develop methods for making these products more efficiently.

Just as America's progress depends on oil, so oil's progress depends on research.

(Cont'd. from Page 1) division and a body politic in the State of Texas, was created under special act of the 53rd Legislature of Texas, Regular Session, 1953, and signed by the Governor on May 27, 1953.

By a vote of the people, the cities confirmed the Authority and became members at the canvass of the election returns on November 30, 1955 at Plainview, Texas.

In January, 1954 the Board of Directors of the Canadian River Municipal Water Authority decided to explore every possibility of obtaining private funds by the sale of bonds for the construction of the Canadian River Project. A firm of private engineers was employed to prepare a feasibility report on the project for private financing. Investment bankers were appointed to formulate a financing plan.

The financing proposal was delivered to the Board of the Authority, October 11, 1954. The Board has now decided to submit the proposal for private financing of the Canadian River project to qualified, taxpaying voters of the remaining nine member cities.

Details of the proposed bond election will be found in the published notice carried elsewhere in this paper.

Tahoka Bulldogs Take Littlefield 26-12

For the first time in many years, Tahoka Bulldogs last Friday night defeated the Littlefield Wildcats of District 2-AA on the Wildcats home field by a score of 26 to 12.

The Bulldogs played this game for keeps, and from the opening kick-off there was never much doubt about which team should win.

Tahoka scored once in each quarter, and was never behind, while Littlefield scored in each of the first two quarters. The score was 14-12 at halftime in favor of the Bulldogs.

Tahoka Scores Early
Halfback Jerry Williams scored the first on a 7-yard run to end a 61-yard drive as a culmination of the opening kickoff.

Littlefield came right back on a 60 yard drive to score, with Fullback John Clayton fumbling over the goal and Halfback Max Morris covering. In the second, Williams got away on a beautiful Bulldog Fullback Don Blair scored in the third on a 25-yard run, and in the fourth End L. W. Castleberry made a sensational catch of a 13-yard pass in the end zone for the last score.

The Bulldogs turned in one of their finest defensive jobs of the year, as well as offensive. (Con't on back page, Sec. 2)

Wilson Victor Over Lorenzo

Wilson Mustangs joined Ropes in the favorite's role of District 4-B by defeating the high-flying Lorenzo Hornets last Friday night at Lorenzo by a score of 25 to 18.

Until Friday, many had considered Lorenzo the favorite to win the district title this year.

However, Wilson had to come from behind to win the thrilling game.

Lorenzo received the opening kick-off and immediately marched for a score. The conversion, as did all of Lorenzo's failed. Gryder ran the kick-off back to the Lorenzo 40, and a few plays later HB "Mutt" Bruedigam, plunged over for the score, and Fullback Dewey Corley hit the line for the extra point. Still in the first period, Lorenzo scored in a 30-yard pass play, to take the lead again, 12 to 7.

In the second period, Wilson again went ahead when Corley bucked over for a TD after a 60 yard drive, but the Hornets came right back to score again, their last however, and led 18 to 13 at halftime.

Wilson put together a 70 yard drive in the third period, with QB Daniel Verkamp crossing the double strip. Then in the fourth, he intercepted a Lorenzo pass and ran 30-yards to the 2-foot line, from which point HB Eugene Gryder bucked it over.

End Larry Maeker played an outstanding game, and Bruedigam's fine offensive and defensive work helped keep Wilson in the ball game.

In a regular game, Tahoka Eighth Grade defeated Post Eighth 13 to 0, with Fullback Kenneth Stice scoring twice.

The Seventh Grade game was won by Tahoka, with Tony Chappa scoring both the touchdowns.

Thursday night, the B team and Eighth Grade went to Spur for two games.

Next Tuesday night, at 7 p. m., Abernathy Eighth Grade will play here, and next Thursday night at 6:30, Crosbyton B team will play here.

New Home Falls Before Ropes

New Home Leopards ran up against a tough customer Friday night in the Ropesville team, and lost 70 to 0.

One New Home fan remarked, "Ropes backs just ran away from us. We couldn't catch them. And, when one of our boys got started they just ran him down."

This Friday, New Home must meet another "toughie," as they will journey to Lorenzo to battle the Hornets; and Friday of next week they will go over to Wilson to play the other district leader, the Mustangs.

ODDS AND ENDS

(BY E. I. HILL)

Although I have not traveled anything like as much as some folks seem to think, I had thought until some three weeks ago that I had seen most of the wonders of the state of New Mexico, proclaimed by its people, with good reason to be "The Land of Enchantment." Of course I knew that there were many scenic spots that I had not seen and also many historic places that my eyes had never beheld. But three times I had explored the indescribable Carlsbad Caverns, the largest, the grandest, and the most marvelous underground scenery in all the world. Several times I had seen practically every thing that was to be seen at Ruidoso. On two different trips, I had seen Santa Fe from every conceivable angle. Twice I had visited Glorieta, the new Baptist encampment for Southern and Western Baptists, though I had never attended an encampment there. I had followed the Rio Grande River from Santa Fe up to Espanola, Santa Cruz, and Taos, from Taos had gone on up to Questa and Red River; had gone to Eagle Nest and thence down the Cimarron Valley through the great gulch walled in on each side by the strangely rugged and magnificent Palisades and, finally reaching Raton, where the highway ascends a great mountain range and, on the very top of the ridge, passed over into Colorado, where some of the grand scenery of that state burst into view.

Having been enraptured by some of the grandest scenery in that state, I had encountered the head waters of the Rio Grande high up in the mountains in that state, and after following the Rio Grande and San Juan valleys, had come back into New Mexico near Chama, where A. I. Thomas has a recreation home in plain view of some of the grandest mountain scenery in the whole Rocky Mountain region. I have come from Chama through a long stretch of rugged beauty down to Espanola, and from Espanola back down to Santa Fe.

From Santa Fe, I have come down through the ever scenic Rio Grande valley to New Mexico's largest and most beautiful city, Albuquerque. From Albuquerque, I have followed the Rio Grande on down to Elephant Butte Dam and the great body of water which it impounds and to the famous health and recreation center, "Truth or Consequences." I have come on down the rich irrigated valley from Elephant Butte Lake to Las Cruces, a valley as productive as any like section of the Nile. I dare say, owned and cultivated by progressive American farmers.

I have visited two of the largest and most interesting Indian Pueblos in New Mexico, the great five-story pueblo at Taos, and the Santo Domingo Pueblo near the Rio Grande River some thirty miles up-stream from Albuquerque. This latter pueblo, instead of having just one or two large buildings for the Indians to inhabit, has a hundred or more little houses for them to occupy. As I remember it more than 800 Santo Domingo Indians live in the village. It has an interesting story behind it, having been founded hundreds of years ago. I have alluded to it before in this Column and will not repeat the story now.

I have seen the "White Sands"—penetrated them for a distance of about eight miles, on two occasions—I have seen also the aged lava beds, and other wonders; but A. L. Dunagan a few weeks ago put me next to one of the ancient marvels of that state which I had never heard of or read about, so far as I can remember now. He had recently visited out at Farmington, New Mexico, and near that town he was shown some ancient ruins that have served as an "eye-opener" for many visitors in the past, and undoubtedly will prove to be an eye-opener for any thoughtful future visitor. He told me that these were the ruins of an ancient Aztec pueblo consisting of 500 rooms. It was situated near Farmington, which is a small town out near the northwest corner of the state. It had been a vast building, of course, as evidenced by the ruins.

This information which Mr. Dunagan had given me excited my curiosity, and so I got out of one of my book-cases a volume of The World Book containing the story of New Mexico to see what information it might give concerning these ruins, and I found much more than I was looking for.

I found that it described not only the Aztec ruins but several others also, some of which are more amazing as to size and age, than are the Aztec ruins. So, from this point on, I am going to let the World Book speak for me. If you have access to this valuable encyclopedia now used by many schools and colleges and individuals—the original issue—and will turn to pages 4040-4041 in Vol. VIII, you will find the information I am about to give you.

National Monuments—New Mexico has eight National Monuments, all of historic and scientific value:

Aztec Ruin National Monument contains the ruins of a 500-room pueblo, much of it in good condition.

Bandelier National Monument, northwest of Santa Fe, is the largest in the state and contains the Rejarito Cliff Dwellers' Park and the Rito de los Frijoles. The latter is world famous for its prehistoric villages. Here also is the Ceremonial Cave, carved in the Cliff 150 feet above the stream, containing wall pictures made ages before America was discovered. Near Los Frijoles are the stone lions of Cochiti, the oldest stone sculpture in North America.

Chaco Canyon National Monument, eighty-three miles northeast of Gallup, contains prehistoric ruins unequalled in the United States. Relics over 1,000 years old have been unearthed. Maps of New Mexico also show that Pueblo Bonito is still there.

El Morro National Monument, fifty miles southeast of Gallup, is the site of the Inscription Rock, containing Indian and Spanish inscriptions many centuries old. Two ancient villages upon the Rock, are believed to be over 1,000 years old. It should be added that the Cibola National Forest covers a large area immediately north of El Morro Monument; the Zuni Indian reservation lies west of El Morro Monument and south of Gallup.

Gila Cliff Dwellings in the Gila National Forest are well preserved ruins of cliff dwellings.

Gran Quivira National Monument contains the ruins of the earliest Spanish mission in the Southwest, established about the time the Pilgrims landed on the other side of the continent.

The Puye Cliffs, just above Santa Fe, are considered to be perhaps the most interesting in the state. The ruins of the community house on the top of the mesa, show that it was a building of approximately a thousand rooms. In point of age, it is estimated to date back to 600 B. C.

That was a long time ago, folks. Six hundred years before the angels announced the birth of Christ to the group of shepherds tending their flocks on the hills of Bethlehem and a little more than six hundred years before he went to the cross in Jerusalem!

Why, that was just about the time that Daniel was being cast into the lions' den and also into the fiery furnace and coming out unharmed in each instance.

It was nearly a hundred years before that courageous young Jewish woman Esther risked her life by standing unbidden before King Ahasuerus and pleading for the lives of her people.

It was before some of the Minor Prophets of the Old Testament had even been born, and two hundred years before the Book of Malachi was written.

And yet in those ancient days, the Indians in New Mexico, according to modern archaeologists, were erecting building of stupendous size and with perfect precision as dwelling places.

These ruins reveal a skill and a knowledge of mathematics and architecture almost as astounding as that of the ancient Egyptians who built the pyramids or of the Toltecs of Mexico who built their own marvelous pyramids at Teotihuacan and one at Cholula and other smaller ones at other places in their country in honor of their gods. Strange peoples have inhabited this old world, folks.

In enumerating the National Monuments in New Mexico set forth in the World Book, I omitted the Carlsbad Cavern and that extinct volcano, the Capulin Mountain near Raton Pass for the reason that they are not the works of men, and also for the reason that most of our folks in west Texas have seen these natural wonders.

Now here are two news items that tend to show what a little world this is after all.

Mrs. Tom Garrard, whose maiden name was Linnie Bigham and whose girlhood home was at Benjamin, Texas, told me rather enthusiastically that at Benjamin she went to school to my New Mexico friend A. L. Williamson, who taught there in the pioneer days of West Texas. She correctly thinks that he was an excellent teacher and a fine gentleman.

Then, a few days later Mr. I. M. Draper met me on the street and informed me that his friends and my friends Mr. and Mrs. John Yarbrough, who lived in Belton a long time ago but now live at San Jose, California, to whom he sends The Lynn County News, had sent word to me that they certainly do enjoy reading the paper and especially my ODDS & ENDS column. Fifty years ago we were fellow townsmen in Belton and now we are still enjoying one another's friendship even though I am out here in Tahoka, and they are away out yonder in California somewhere not far from the Golden Gate. The Drapers, who are related to the Yarbroughs, came from Florence in Williamson county to Tahoka. It's good to have friends, for you never know when nor where you are going to meet up with one of them.

(Cont'd. From Page 1, Sec. 2) holding Wildcat Halfback Max Morris, 177 pounds, to 43 yards on 12 tries, 174-pound Fullback John Clayton to 40 yards on 11 carries, and fleet little Halfback Mike Green to only 88 yards on 14 attempts; all in spite of the fact that QB Presley was about the slickest ball-handler the Bulldogs have encountered this season.

In the meantime, Williams carried 13 times for 106 yards, Blair 15 times for 104, Pridmore 5 for 5, Renfro 2 for 5, and Smith 10 for 36 while calling a fine game, passing for one TD, and making some fine kick run-backs that do not go into the yardage from scrimmage.

First Quarter

Smith brought the opening kick from the Tahoka 5 to the 42, and then the Bulldogs, evidencing every confidence, marched right down the field on three first downs to Littlefield's 7, from which point Williams skirted left end to score. Prohl holding, Smith's kick was perfect. Score, Tahoka 7-0.

Wildcats Halfback Jimmy McShan brought the kickoff ball back from the 15 to the 40, and in four firsts marched for a score, with Green turning in one 21 yard run around his left end. With the ball on the four yard line and third down, Clayton fumbled in the line of scrimmage, the ball squirted into the end zone, and Morris covered it for the TD. On the attempted conversion, the ball was fumbled and Greer failed to run it over for the extra point. Score, Tahoka 7-6.

Score Again in Second

Blair brought the kickoff from the 15 to the 33, two plays later took a punt from Smith and went 16 yards after a penalty and a 7-yard loss had set Tahoka back on its 31. Tahoka moved to Littlefield's 40, and then Tahoka drew another penalty on an illegal pass Smith to Williams, in which it was ruled Smith was across the line of scrimmage when he passed. On fourth down, Williams punted 52-yards to the Littlefield 3, and Greer was nailed on the 13.

The Bulldogs now began to savvy the Wildcats offense and 7 plays netted only 13 yards following which RE Wayne Wicker punted 40 yards out of bounds on Tahoka's 40.

Blair went 15 yards around his right end, Williams made 6 to the Lit. 39, and it was then that Jerry Williams broke away around his right end, received some good blocking, and then weaved and wove his way through a half dozen would-be tacklers for the goal-line 39-yards away. Again Smith's kick was perfect. Score, Tahoka 14-6.

Littlefield Scores

Greer brought the kick-off from the 5 to the 38, Clayton and Morris made it a first on the Tahoka, 48, a pass to Clayton was good for 7, and two plays later the ball was on the Tahoka 32. It was then, many Tahoka fans were disturbed over a call by one of the officials. What appeared to be a pitch-out by Presley was actually a forward pass, which was fumbled by the receiver and covered by a Tahoka lad. This was ruled an incomplete pass. On the next play, Greer skirted his left end on Littlefield's best run of the ball game to the Tahoka 1, and on the next play QB Presley sneaked over the TD. An attempted pass for the extra point was knocked down. Score, Tahoka 14-12.

Time Runs Out

Smith brought the kick-off out to the 36. Three plays netted nothing, and with 56 seconds left, Jerry Williams faked a punt, ran with the ball and handed off to Smith, who went 18 yards for a first on the Wildcat 48. Blair went for 6. Then Smith tossed a 24-yard pass complete to End Castleberry on the 18, as the half ended.

Greer got away on the opening kickoff of the second half to the 45, the Wildcats made a first on three plays to the Tahoka 42. Two plays netted nothing, and then Tackle Larry Simmons covered a Littlefield fumble on the 42. Blair went for 13 on the first play and alternated with Smith and Williams in carrying to the Lit. 25 on seven plays. Then Blair went around left end, and Guard Ronnie Brooks threw a block on two Wildcats that turned Blair loose for a touchdown. Smith's kick failed. Score, Tahoka 20-12.

Bulldogs Stop Wildcats

Littlefield had just one more threat in the game, and that fizzled. They moved to Tahoka 46, but Tackle Leon Davis covered a fumble on the Tahoka 41. On fourth down, Williams kicked 55 yards over the goal, but the Wildcats couldn't move either, and punted to Safety Karl Prohl on the Tahoka 45, and on the Tahoka series, Williams punted 25 yards out of bounds.

On the Wildcats' first play, Tackle Bobby Paris speared Greer on a vicious tackle. With Bob Orr, a star last year, in at quarterback, Littlefield started a desperate passing attack, which fizzle ed for the time being. Wicker kicked 42 yards to the Tahoka 15. Now playing a safe defense game, Tahoka ran three plays and punted to midfield. Two plays later End Carlton Bell covered another Wildcat fumble on the 50.

Blair is Injured

Blair went 17 yards to the Littlefield 33, and was injured on the tackle and removed from the game, with Donald Renfro going in, and the Wildcats were penalized to their 18 for roughing. Pridmore, Williams, Smith, and Renfro moved the ball to the 8, but a fumble and a penalty moved it back to the 13. On third down and goal to go, Smith passed to Castleberry in the end zone. The Tahoka end was well covered by a Littlefield back, the two juggled the ball in the air two or three times, and Castleberry finally came down with it on an almost impossible catch.

Final Drive Fizzles

After an exchange of punts, Littlefield had the ball on its own 49. A pass was broken up, Greer made 6, a pass to Clayton was good for 7. Less than a minute was left. Greer made only a yard on a pitchout, then a pass was complete for 12 to Green on the Tahoka 25.

With seconds left, Presley faded to pass, a red flag went down, but he hit End Jimmy Jamison with a running pass, and Jamison crossed the goal line. But, another red flag went down and an official ruled the passer was across the line of scrimmage when he threw the ball—an illegal pass. The time had run out and the game automatically ended. Littlefield would have had another play had Tahoka had to exercise its opinion of the TD or the penalty, which option was nulled by the passer being across the scrimmage-line.

Played Fine Game

The Tahoka tackles played a fine game, as did Guards Ware High and Ronnie Brooks. Center Stanley Stone saw limited service but did a fine job at defensive end, and his replacement, N. E. Wood. Also seeing action were Jimmy Harter, Tommy Paris, and James Adams.
