FROM THE AGRICULTURAL DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT
SOUTHWESTERN PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY

A few junk parts and considerable ingenuity is all it took for Harold Dunson of Seagraves, Texas, to make an automatic electric water trough cleaner. This unit makes cleaning the water troughs in his caged layer house an easy silent job. Mr. Dunson finds this advantage important in caring for his 1,140 laying hens.

For the power unit he used a discarded portable ironer. After removing the ironer roll and cylinder, he mounted a 12" squirrel cage blower from a discarded evaporative cooler.

To make the cleaner unit, he took a 10-inch bolt on which he mounted three cubes of sponge by forcing the bolt through the centers. To separate the sponges he used a one-half inch water pipe cut in lengths of about 1 1/2 inches for spacers between the sponge cubes. Also, as an additional aid to cleaning, he placed a one-half inch wide square steel wool at the forward end of the center sponge.

One length of fishing string connects the forward end of the bolt to the drum on the power unit. The other length of string connects the opposite end of the bolt to the rewind reel. When the power is turned on, the electric motor silently and efficiently pulls the bolt cleaner through the trough by winding the string around the drum. When the cleaner has travelled the length of the trough, it is removed; and the two strings are tied together for re-winding. The rewind reel simply pulls the fishing strings back through the trough to the starting position, where they are then in position for the next cleaning operation.

Mr. Dunson exhibits his automatic trough cleaning machine. The laying hens are not disturbed in any way when this equipment is in operation.

This hand operated rewind reel keeps the fishing string from tangling and keeps it ready to be used again. One length of the string remains in the trough between cleanings.

Profanity is seldom a convincing argument except to the man who practices it.

Mother Nature takes care of her foolish sons by providing wives to watch over them.

The old world has too many church members and too few Christians.

ELMER BLANKENSHIP

Benefits of stubble mulch farming and crop residue on the soil surface again were evident during last Friday's high wind. Fields with adequate stubble had relatively little soil movement while those with no protection were suffering some loss. The finer soil particles, silt and organic friction, once suspended in air is forever lost to our soil and may settle many miles down state and in some instances may reach the Gulf of Mexico to make up what is referred to as a "Dust Fall." With each wind storm this is repeated leaving a coarser surface layer that becomes susceptible to movement by wind. The problems involved in stubble mulch farming is the study or research and experiments.

Engineers of the Soil Conservation Service Assigned to the district designed a new underground pipe system for J. W. Sewell. This pipe is made up of compounds and meets the requirements for A. C. P. payments through the local office. This pipe may be confused with a pipe called Orangeburg which was not originally manufactured to withstand the pressures of an irrigation system and does not qualify for payments.

Personnel of the local S. C. S. office checked underground irrigation pipe for completion to design specifications and assistance through A. S. C. on the farms of Elmer McAlister, A. Gickhorn, B. G. Guin and R. W. Overstreet.

Two Homemaker Winners Named

Jerry Sue Milliken of New Hope High School and Bonnie Fay White of Tahoka High School have been named local winners in the General Mills Homemakers of Tomorrow contest.

They will represent their respective schools in the state contest for scholarships of $1,500 and along with 582 school winners. State winners will compete in the national contest for a $5,000 scholarship.

Each girl demonstrated her homemaking knowledge and attitude by receiving the highest score for her school in a written examination which was given graduating senior girls.

FLOWER ARRANGEMENTS PRESENTED AT DRAW H. D.

The Draw Demonstration Club met Friday, Feb. 17 in the home of Mrs. J. W. Martin with fourteen members and one guest.

Mrs. Ivan Cathcart, Mrs. W. C. Jones, Mrs. Skiles Thomas and Mrs. Roy Edwards of Tahoka brought very interesting talks on flowers arrangement and care before and after the flowers had been arranged. They brought five arrangements for showing and Mrs. Roy Edwards made two at the club meet. It was enjoyed by all. —Reporter.

Some people are afraid that they won't hold out until their money is gone. But most of us are afraid that the money won't hold out until we are gone.

Emmett Fleming Buried At Slaton

Emmett Fleming, 65, a resident of Tahoka for many years, died at 9 p. m. Thursday of last week in the Santa Fe Railroad Hospital at Albuquerque, N. M.

Funeral services were held at 3:30 p. m. Monday at the First Methodist Church of Slaton, with Rev. J. B. Sharp, pastor, officiating, assisted by Rev. W. F. Ferguson, retired minister of Lubbock. Burial was in Englewood Cemetery of Slaton.

Fleming came to Tahoka in about 1912 with his late father, Uncle Jimmy Fleming, who died in 1932. In about 1916, he went to work for the Santa Fe here under the late Joe L. Heare, agent. He left Tahoka about 1932, worked a while at Lamesa, and then went to the Slaton division offices, where he worked until his retirement last December after 39 years service with the railroad.

He and his wife, whom he married after moving to Slaton, moved to a ranch at Hondo, N. M., following his retirement. He had been in the Santa Fe Hospital several weeks.

Mrs. W. H. May and daughter, Mrs. B. W. Baker, both of Lubbock but pioneer citizens of Lynn county, were here Tuesday on business.

People who don't realize the value of money seldom have any.

NOW Give your chicks a Super-Start!

Your chicks should grow up to 5.4% faster on 7.6% less feed per pound of gain than ever before on Purina Startena!

Purina scientists have done it again! They have improved even last year's wonderful formula so much that you can see the faster growth—the better coloring—the extra fine feathering.

97% LIVABILITY. Last year over 11,000 folks who kept records on 2,364,891 chicks proved that they could get 97% livability. That's 97 chicks raised out of every 100 bought.

LOW IN COST. It costs so little to give your chicks a wonderful start on Super Startena. Feed just 2 lbs. per small breed chick or 3 lbs. for heavies. That is all it takes—just a few pennies—to grow big, well-feathered young pullets about 5 weeks old.

The ceremony was read in the Jefferson Street Church of Christ at Hobbs by Bill Parson, minister. The bride wore a suit of tan with rust accessories and an orchid.

Mrs. Dorothy Locke, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a brown tweed suit and a corsage of white carnations.

The tiered wedding cake was on a serving table covered with a white linen cloth. Red candles and red and white carnations were used in the table decorations.

The bride is a 1951 graduate of Tahoka High School. She received her degree from Texas Tech in the spring of 1935, and now is a teacher in the Hobbs schools.

The bridegroom is a 1952 Tahoka graduate, following which he attended Texas Tech two years. He has been in the Army 11 months, and was serving in Germany when called home by the death of his mother several weeks ago. He left Thursday night of last week to

Miss Fenton Bridal Shower Honoree

Miss Mary Louise Fenton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fenton of Tahoka and bride-elect of Charles Louder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Louder of Lubbock, was honored Thursday afternoon with a bridal shower in the home of Mrs. K. R. Durham.

Carrying out the chosen colors of blue and white, the table was laid with a white cloth and centered with blue and white carnations arranged before a fan of blue net and flanked with white tapers. Written on a mirror overhanging the mantle were the couple's names and the wedding date, March 2. Other floral arrangements completed the blue and white theme.

The receiving line was composed of Mrs. Fenton, mother of the honoree, the bride elect, Mrs. Louder, mother of the prospective bridegroom, Mrs. J. W. Koontz and Mrs. Bill Louder, sister and sister-in-law of the groom, respectively, and Mrs. R. W. Fenton, Sr., grandmother of the bride-elect.

Mrs. Harry Short, Miss Emily Slover and Mrs. Gene Sparks presided at the tea table, and Mrs. Marcus Edwards played piano selections during the receiving hours. Mrs. Roy Edwards, a co-hostess, registered the guests.

Other co-hostesses included Mesdames C. E. Woodworth, Harley Henderson, E. A. Park, Frank Hill, A. C. Weaver, and A. J. Kaddatz. Out of town guests were Mesdames Jesse Louder, J. H. Koontz, Bill Louder, Jack Ray, Glenn Hearn, Frank Veasey and Miss Slover, all of Lubbock; Mrs. Dee Hull and Mrs. Billy Jack of Lamesa and Mrs. Billy McNeely of Seagraves.

Baptists' Goal 500 In School

The First Baptist Church Sunday School campaign to reach a normal attendance of 500 is progressing, according to the pastor, Rev. Clifford Harris.

Total attendance the last two Sundays has been 442 and 450. The School is getting closer to the "Advanced Standard" of Excellence. If the School reaches this by April 20, it will probably be one of three in the State to reach it. Last year, only one church reached this standard.

On Wednesday night, the Church adopted a Building Fund goal of $9,000.00 for 1956, on which $2,050.00 has already been paid in since January 1.

Monday night at 7:30 will be the date for the Sweetheart Banquet. The two Intermediate and one Young Peoples department are contesting to see who will be chosen Sweetheart of the banquet. The winner will not be announced until Monday night.

This banquet is one of the nicest affairs the Church has ever planned for its youth, and one hundred young people are expected to attend. Rev. Cecil Ray of Lubbock will be the guest speaker.

Banquet Is Given Cubs At Wilson

Wilson Cub Scouts held their first annual Blue and Gold banquet Tuesday night in the school cafeteria celebrating the 46th year of Scouting.

Fifteen Cubs of the two dens presented a program, following which Rev. Bill Porterfield, Methodist pastor at Post, presented a program of magic and also made a brief talk of encouragement to the Cubs.

J. A. Rogers, Lions zone chairman, also from Post, was present. Erwin Sander, Cub master, acted as master of ceremonies.

Cubs and their parents and several Lions attended the banquet, which was sponsored by Wilson Lions Club.

Organized only a year ago, the Wilson Cubs have had no sponsoring organization, but this coming year the Cubs will be sponsored by the Lions. Tom Mason, Lions Club president, said the club was to renew the charter at a meeting Thursday night at Wilson Methodist Church.

Any question settled by force invariably comes up for settlement.

C. T. Tankersley Owns Farm Home Near West Point

Last week's "Mystery Farm," pictured above, is the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Tankersley, immediately north of West Point gin and store, which they have owned for 36 years.

The modern home shown in the picture was built by the Tankersleys in 1950, as their fiftieth wedding anniversary present to themselves.

Frank Greathouse and Cody Bragg were the first to identify the picture. Others included Oran Ramsey, Mrs. Dee Green, Borden Davis, Mrs. Newt Barham, E. B. Gaither, Mrs. Buddy Bragg, Mrs. Hubert Tankersley, and Mrs. Jack Stark.

Mr. Tankersley originally bought the entire section. Later, he sold a quarter to his son-in-law, Cody Bragg, who now works the entire place. Also, about 10 acres has been sold off to West Point gin and store.

Both were reared in Hamilton county, and they were married there August 1, 1900. They lived in several places, and finally moved from Dickens county to West Point in 1920, buying the section from Mrs. Ham. The late Judge Elliott once lived on the farm.

This is a dry land place, but it has long been considered one of the better farms of Lynn county. Mr. and Mrs. Tankersley, now retired, have long been leading citizens of their community and of the county. They have been active in church, school, and almost every activity for the betterment of the country.

The couple have seven children,

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Askew of Wells Have Open House On Fiftieth Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Askew, residents of Lynn county for 35 years, celebrated their golden Wedding anniversary at an open house held their seven sons and three daughters as host. The latter are Mrs. Vera Etter, O. Donnell; Miss Helen Askew, Long Beach, Calif.; Mrs. Charles L. Shanklin, Lubbock; Roy, Bertice, R. B., and Arlys Askew, O'Donnell; Dalton Askew Elida, N. M.; Kenneth Askew Long Beach and Cleatus Askew Brownfield.

There are 19 grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Cake and punch were served from a refreshment table centered with a miniature bridal couple seated in a horse-drawn buggy and flanked with yellow roses.

The couple's children presented them with a set of china and their grandchildren gave them a crystal water set.

Approximately 120 guests called during the afternoon, with relatives from Lubbock and Gordon including Mrs. Askew's sisters, Mrs. Alice Roberson and Mrs. Emma Segares.

Mrs. Askew is hte former Miss Hettie Layne Holder. Their wedding took place in an open-top buggy at Gordon on Feb. 12, 1906 with the Rev. A. S. Bunting officiating.

After a 14 years' residence at Gordon, the Askews moved to O'Donnell, settling in the Wells community where they were active in church work and he was a progressive farmer until his retirement. He helped toward the betterment of the schools, having served on the board of trustees for many years. He was one of the organizers of the Wells Co-Op Gin and served as a director until his retirement.

The children are: Mrs. Leta Williamson, Plainview; Mrs. Terry (Beatrice) Noble, Tahoka; Hubert Tankersley, Tahoka; Mrs. Cody (Violet) Bragg, Tahoka; Mrs. Roy (Geneva) Taylor, Seymour; Mrs. R. M. (Nola B.) Munson, Estherville, Iowa; and Mrs. Roy (Pansy) Ruthland, Waco.

Junior Class Play Friday, March 2

A three act comedy by Le Roma Ross will be presented by the junior class Friday, March 2, at 8:00 p. m. in the Tahoka High School auditorium.

Admission price will be 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for students.

Usherettes will be Norma Hufaker, Joy Riley, Jeanette Melton, Jo Ann Bradshaw, and Betty Williams.

The success of this hillbilly play depends upon the action of the play and the humorous dress of the characters. The hero is Homer Hollowbone, who has fallen in love with a girl whose picture he found in a newspaper wrapped around some fish. Homer writes to the girl and tells her that he lives in a mansion, is very refined, and will be vacationing in Europe in the summer. He really lives in a shack in the mountains with his lazy and dirty family. Maw and Fanny Jane work hard, but Paw only eats, sleeps, and teaches Gloria his pet skunk, to do tricks. Sarah Jo and Gracie May are always teasing Homer and chasing boys. In the midst of the winter is a snowstorm. Homer is caught writing his girl friend. Gracie Mae grabs it and reads it aloud. The family jumps to the conclusion that the letter was written to Bertha Blairhouse. Just then Bertha, her Maw and her brother arrive to take refuge from the storm. Homer is busy ducking Bertha when another unexpected guest, Melissa Dugan, Homer's girl, arrives. She became lost in the storm while on her way to marry a handsome, well educated gentleman to whom she has been writing. Homer almost chokes because he didn't intend his letters to sound so serious. While Homer tries to keep Melissa from discovering the truth, he becomes engaged to Bertha. Melissa's method of revenge will tickle everyone. Gracie May tells Bertha Homer suffers periods of unconsciousness during which he thinks he is a dog. Homer knows nothing of this until Bertha gives him a bone to chew. There's a bit of feuding, too, followed by a "happy surprise" ending.

Homer Hollowbone will be played by Lynn Strickland, Maw Hollowbone, Carolyn Duckett, Paw Hollowbone, Don Renfro, Sarah Jo Hollowbone, Sandra Warren, Gracie May Hollowbone, Johnnee Glem, Fannie Jane Hollowbone, Betty Phipps, Pepper Hollowbone, Lendell Norman, Sir Hollowbone, Retha Mores, Gran-

Bulldogs 5-AA Co-Champions In Spite Of Abernathy Loss

Abernathy Antelopes, favored a lot of luck in the fading moments, nosed out the co-champion Tahoka Bulldogs 69-68 Saturday night for the right to represent this district in the bi-district play-offs.

The game was played before a near-capacity crowd of 2,500 howling fans in the old Texas Tech gym.

But, some edge was taken off the loss for Tahoka by the sensational and amazing show put on by Junior Fitts of the Bulldogs, who scored 48 points and turned in the greatest individual performance ever seen in the Tech gym, according to coaches, newspaper writers, and longtime fans.

Tahoka and Abernathy had tied regular season 5-AA conference play and were declared co-champions of 1956. Each had won eight and lost two games in regular season play.

Win Two Of Three

Three play-off games were decided upon by Coaches Jake Jacobs of Tahoka and Wayne Presn of Abernathy and other school officials to determine who would advance in Interscholastic League play. It was also agreed that the winning team would get the district trophy, and the loser would have to buy its own trophy.

Furthermore, each coach selected an official, each of which had to meet the other coach's approval.

The two men selected did a fine job, most Tahokans thought, but there were storms of disapproval from Abernathy on many points in the third, but at the end the visitors held a 46-44 margin. The game remained just as close for five and a half minutes. Leading 50-49, Abernathy's Manley hit a field goal, Sons two free shots, and the Antelopes went into a semi-freeze. Tahoka made five field goals and three free shots in the last two and a half minutes, but in trying to get possession of the ball committed six fouls, which gave 9 points on free shots, to which they added two field goals to bring the final score to 67-62 in favor of Abernathy.

The score in the game was tied 11 times, which indicates its closeness most of the way.

Fitts scored 34 points in this one.

Bulldogs Lose Heart-Breaker

The climax came Saturday night in Tech gym, when Abernathy nosed-out the Bulldogs 69-68 in a thrilling finish as one will ever see.

Except for one brief moment in the first quarter, the Bulldogs led all the way to the last 24 seconds, when Roy Sons of Abernathy hit a difficult shot to put the Antelopes into a 69-68 lead. But, there was lots of action left for those 24 seconds.

Abernathy's Baumgart was fouled by a Tahoka player, but the foul nearly proved a blessing in disguise for Tahoka, Baumgart missed his free shot, Tahoka took the ball down court, Castleberry missed a shot, and in a mad scramble under the Tahoka basket, one shot by Smith and two or three attempted tip-ins by Tahoka missed, and a jump ball was called between Fitts and an Abernathy boy. With one second remaining, Fitts attempted to tip the ball in from the free throw line but missed.

The game was tied 16 times, and the lead changed hands 26 times.

Even in defeat, Tahoka played a great game. Fitts was sensational, playing the greatest game of his career and setting a new scoring record for the Tech gym, both college and high school. His repertoire of shots included most of them in the books, including accurate jump shots from the free throw circle while hemmed-in by as many as three or four defenders. His rebounding and defensive play, as well as dribbling and passing, were equally as great, and his game was highly praised by

The foul called on Abernathy coach.

This was possibly the greatest team ever turned out by Tahoka, but it came on a year when every team in this district had a good ball club and when the Bulldogs had to go up against the Antelope jinx with one of the best players in West Texas high school annals matching shots with five Abernathy players who could score in the double-figures.

This was the final basketball play in Tahoka High for four regular starters, Fitts, L. W. Castleberry, Gordon Smith, and Carlton Bell. Jerry Williams, a regular until forced out by Jaundice a few weeks ago, is also a senior. Other seniors on the squad include Ted Pridmore, Tommy Paris, and Jerry Slover.

Tahoka Wins First

Tahoka played what was perhaps its best defensive game of the season Thursday night when they defeated the Antelopes on their home court 53 to 47. Abernathy fans said the crowd, which almost filled the huge new gym there, was one of the largest ever to see a game there.

Abernathy led 9-8 at end of the first, but Tahoka went ahead early in the second period to stay. After Tahoka gained an eight point lead in that period, A cut it to 24-20 at halftime, the Bulldogs held on 35-32 at end of the third, and then breezed in at lath for the victory, leading by nine points at one time in the fourth. The margin might have been wider, but Tahoka committed six fouls in the last four minutes.

Both teams missed many shots, but Tahoka hit 25 field goals, and only three free shots, while Abernathy hit only 18 field goals and made 11 free shots.

Fitts, who scored an amazing total of 110 points in the three games, had 28 in this one.

Abernathy Takes Second.

Stung by the defeat on their home floor, Abernathy came to Tahoka the next night, Friday, with vengeance and succeeded in downing the Bulldogs 67 to 62 in a very close game, before a cramp-packed house.

Tahoka led 12-11 at end of the first period. In the second, the Bulldogs went into a seven-point lead, but by end of the quarter Abernathy had pulled up to a 30-30 tie. Tahoka led once by two

Farmers Attend Wilson Meeting

About forty farmers attended the meeting at Wilson High School Tuesday night sponsored by Wilson Lions for discussion of the new Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. H. G. Cook, Wilson banker, presided at the meeting.

Joe D. Unfred, county chairman, and Wilmer Smith and A. C. Verner, Lynn county directors of the organization, explained the organization and its purposes.

Kay K. Moore was presented his plaque which went with the $500.00 cash prize for being selected the outstanding Soil Conservation District supervisor in Texas for 1955. H. G. Cook made the presentation on behalf of the bankers of the District. Moore had also been presented the check for $500 and also a silver serving tray at the recent state convention of Soil Conservation leaders held in Lubbock by the Texas Bank and Trust Company of Dallas.

Memberships in the new Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., is based on 10 cents per bale for cotton grown by the farmer in 1955. Farmers who have not already done so, are asked to mail their checks to the organization at Tahoka, or give them to any of the above named men.

Some times the fellow who save he's satisfied with married life really means that he's had all he wants of it.

Sweetheart Banquet Is Monday Night

Rev. Cecil Ray, pastor of the Arnett Benson Baptist Church in Lubbock, is to be the inspirational speaker for the program.

Congratulations:

It won't strain your eyes to look on the bright side of things.

THE AMERICAN WAY

A Friendly Gesture Misunderstood

Junior Fitts . . .

(Con't. from Front Page) out but once in his career. He has been a fine team man, frequently passing off to other players when he should shoot himself.

Following quotations help give an indication of the play of the Tahoka youth at Tech gym Saturday night:

Polk Robinson, head basketball coach at Texas Tech, to The News man: "The greatest performance by a high school player I ever saw!"

Joe McLaughlin, Avalanche Journal sports writer:

"One of the greatest players in South Plains high school history, proved he was nothing but great."

"Junior Fitts, Tahoka's sensational 6-5 shooting wizard, drilled in an amazing 48 points—that on a foreign court. It was also one of the highest point totals ever made in the old Tech 'barn.'"

"Fitts repeatedly dropped in difficult driving side shots, connected on numerous jump-shots around the circle, and also showed his stuff at dribbling and driving in for crisp shots."

"Besides that, the curly-headed scoring magician dunked in 14 of 15 free throws and he hit 17 field goals."

Charles Gillespie, in Avalanche "Words and Music" column:

"Abernathy won . . . but for everyone except partisan fans of the two teams, the final score was almost incidental."

"Most eyes were squarely on Tahoka's Junior Fitts . . . Records probably haven't been kept on the item, but his 48 point performance is probably the greatest individual show the old Tech scoreboard has ever recorded."

"Sudan's Leon 'Podd' Hill scored 42 points in the regional semifinals against McCamey last year, but those came in a comparatively easy net victory. Fitts, a 17-year old now standing 6-5 but young enough to climb another inch or two, was pumping his in during a losing effort. . . Fitts (was) rebounding, driving, jump-shooting, and possibly above all—a confident attitude even in the face of a one-point deficit with only a bare second or two remaining on the clock."

Gillespie goes on to nominate Fitts for the North all-star team in the coaching school game in the new coliseum in Lubbock in August.

Joe Kelley, sports editor in his Journal "Between the Lines" column:

"The better team won, but it's too bad fans at the Region 1 basketball tournament in Tech Gym this weekend will be robbed of seeing one of Texas' finest high school basketball players. We're speaking of Junior Fitts, the fine Tahoka star . . ."

"The 6-5 senior Bulldog staged a remarkable one man demonstration. He scored 48 points of Tahoka's 68 points, but that wasn't the most impressive thing. More outstanding was his all-around court behavior and ability."

"In Fitts, the South Plains has a fine future star . . . He gave a remarkable demonstration, one that coaches tell us is typical of his work all year . . . He doesn't seem to get flustered. He moves well, dribbles adequately, has spring for legs, shows calculating feather touch when shooting, and appears intelligent in his basketball actions."

"Fitts is going to make some college a great hand and we hope that it's Tech."

No man can pull the wool over a woman's eyes without using a mighty good yarn.

Farm Bureau . . . Style Show Set For March 8th

Leonard Crawford, vice-president; Melvin Wuensche, secretary, Lewis Allsup, Bertice Askew, Alton Greer, T. L. Weaver, N. E. Wood, Roy Lee Williams, and Buford Jones, directors; and Mrs. Cleo Havins, office secretary.

John A. Roberts was introduced as a new service agent, who will work along with Earl Cummings.

Wilmer Smith, a former president of the Farm Bureau and now president of Plains Co-op. Oil Mill, was the principal speaker.

Calling attention to the fact that most local farmers are not in agreement with some of the policies of the National organization, he declared this to be even more reason why local farmers should sign membership cards and help the Plains and Texas put up a fight to get the kind of program we need.

The Texas Farm Bureau has and is doing much for the farmer through organized effort.

He said the Bureau dues really should be $10.00 per month instead of $10.00 per year to present the kind of representation in Washington and Austin the farmer needs.

He said one labor organization has a huge and fine building in Washington from which it carries on an extensive lobbying program. Compared with this kind of representation in our nation's capital, five farm organizations have one little unpretentious headquarters building.

If we are to get the kind of legislation representative of the farming industry and hold our own against labor, we have got to put out more effort, he hinted.

Mr. Smith also reviewed the current problems of the Plains cotton grower in a similar manner as reported in the Rotary Club story elsewhere in this issue.

Lewis Allsup, membership chairman, passed out some materials and information of the drive just starting.

It takes a winning smile to cop beauty contest awards. But it also takes the right kind of legs to walk off with the prizes.

When a fellow is single he runs around and gets into a lot of trouble. After he is married he doesn't have to run around.

The Tahoka Garden Club will present its annual style show in the high school auditorium on March 8 at 8:00 p. m.

Music will be furnished by Bernie Howell at the organ.

An oriental theme in colors of pink and black will be carried out in the decorations. Teen-age girls dressed in oriental costumes will serve as ushers.

This year four Tahoka merchants will be represented in the style show by models ranging from small children to adults. The business houses participating include King's Department Store, Robinson's Ready-to-Wear, Abbie's Fashion Shop, and Marshall-Brown Department Store.

Mrs. Charles Verner is writing the script for the annual show, and Mrs. Pete Hegi will be the narrator. Mrs. Calloway Huffaker is in charge of decorations.

This will be the fifth style show sponsored here by the Garden Club. Profits from these events have been spent on landscaping the local school grounds in addition to work done on the City Park. Approximately $1,100 has been spent by the organization on the school grounds alone.

Tickets are on sale at the four stores participating in the event, and are being sold for $1.00 for adults and 35 cents for children under 12 years of age. Various members of the Garden Club are also selling tickets.

Mrs. Ivan Cathcart is president of the organization, and Mrs. Skiles Thomas is vice-president.

Wilmer Smith Talks On Farm Problems

Wilmer Smith of New Home, Lynn County farmer director on the board of the new Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., spoke on some of the problems of the cotton producer at Tahoka Rotary Club last Thursday noon.

He declared business men of the area should be just as much interested in the plight of cotton as is the farmer, for every time a farmer spends $1.00, that dollar is spent again seven times before it finds a home.

This 22-county Plains area is the largest producer of cotton of any one section in the world. Farmers of the Plains have been prosperous for several years. As a result, now that there is a surplus and the market is unfavorable, all other areas are "sniping" at the Plains growers and are jealous of us and our great farming section.

Heretofore, we have had no organized voice, no one to speak for us on matters of legislation except for the industry as a whole. Almost every other cotton-growing area is organized. As a result, our acreage is being diminished, and legislation is unfavorable to Plains cotton.

For example, Senator Ellender's bill now before the Senate discriminates against the staple and grade of Plains cotton.

Smith believes we need to think in terms of a two-price system on cotton—one price for domestic consumption and one price for export to the world market.

Our price supports have priced us out of the world market because we are not meeting the world market price by two cents or more.

He has reason to believe the U. S. Department of Agriculture is now ready to admit there is no such thing as a "sorry" bale of American cotton. It had argued that the throwing of our surplus cotton into world trade channels would depress the world market and eventually our home market.

This has recently been proven false. The Department, under pressure, recently offered a million bales of "poor" cotton, 15-16th and less, for sale with the prediction that not more than 400,000 bales would be taken at the world market price. However, in five weeks, 600,000 were sold, the market was not depressed, and prospects are that the rest of it is going. Possibly another million bales could be offered for sale at the present time without depressing the market.

Senator Ellender's bill would change by law, the basis limit from 7-8th to 1-inch, the basis being the price premium or discount is taken. Since most of the Plains cotton is less than an inch, because of the short growing season and the type of cotton it is necessary to raise here, this could mean $15.00 per bale loss across the board to the farmer for his cotton.

He urged his hearers to write anyone in Congress they have any contact with seeking their support

Fenton-Louder Rites March 2nd

Miss Mary Louise Fenton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fenton, and Charles Louder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Louder of Lubbock, will be married in a ceremony at the First Methodist Church of Tahoka Friday of next week, March 2, at 6 p. m.

Friends of the two families are invited to the ceremony and the reception which will follow in the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. R. W. Fenton Sr. at 1905 North Fifth.

on any just break for Plains cotton.

Smith also spoke briefly on the Soil Bank plan, which he does not think will work on the Plains.

The Soil Bank plan, briefly, encourages the farmer (1) to put tillable acres in grass or trees, or (2) to take out of production basic allotment acres (cotton acres in Lynn county) at the rate of 10 acres, or 50 percent, whichever is larger. It is assumed from interpretation of the bill, that for such compliance, the farmer would be paid one-half loan value of cotton produced on his type of land, based on the production history.

Rotarians were convinced that Wilmer Smith knows a lot about cotton and its problems. He is known over the nation among the cotton men by reason of his activities the last few years. Several times he has appeared to give testimony on cotton problems before Congressional committees.

Smith was introduced by Joe D. Unfred, temporary chairman of the Lynn county unit of the Plains Cotton Growers.

The program was arranged by Rev. J. B. Stewart.

Larry E. Russell Completes Training

Camp Pendleton, Calif.—Marine Pvt. Larry E. Russell, son of Mrs. Effie F. Russell of route 4, Tahoka, and husband of the former Miss Carolyn O. Dinsmore of Dallas, completed four weeks of individual training Feb. 3, at the Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton, Calif.

The course of instruction included the latest infantry tactics, first aid, demolitions, field fortifications, and advanced schooling on weapons.

The trainees learned that all Marines are basically infantrymen, whether they serve as cooks, typists, truck drivers, or with aviation units.

The training is given to Marines scheduled for duty overseas and to all graduates of recruit training before they are assigned to new duty stations.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Reagan and their son, Wilburn, and wife and son, all of Portales, N. M., spent the week end here visiting A. W.'s parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wyatt.

Odds AND Ends

(By E. I. The Elder)

Last week, upon request, I tried to explain to my readers the meaning of the term "Interposition" then being applied by newspaper commentators and magazine writers to a proposed political remedy for the radical and highly objectionable policies of integration and an enforced general mixture of the races in the public schools and colleges of every state in the Union, including Southern States, in which the Negro population is relatively large, against which policies the white inhabitants are bitterly protesting.

To be fair, I set forth what I understood to be the position of the Supreme Court, namely, that it has Constitutional jurisdiction over the matter of the rights of the two races respecting attendance upon the various public schools and colleges in the States by reason of the adoption by the States of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and by reason of the "implied powers" given to it by the Constitution to interpret and thereby make the Constitution itself and the laws enacted thereunder enforceable and effective.

But the Tenth Amendment specifically limited the powers of the Federal Government, and was adopted for that specific purpose soon after the main body of the Constitution was adopted, and now the protesting Southern States claim that they have never surrendered specifically or otherwise the rights reserved to the mand to all of us in that Tenth Amendment, and they are building their claims today on that same Amendment.

But, even if the Supreme Court has this authority, it certainly was not compulsory upon the Court, as I see the matter, for them to hold that there could be no equal rights in the procuring of an education unless, in addition to or aside from every other consideration, whites and colored students should be compelled or at least permitted to attend the same educational institutions, if they desired and made application to do so.

In fact, there is no such thing as either the State or the Federal Government or both combined being able to offer "equal" educational opportunities to any two pupils; nor does any provision of our Constitution as originally written or as it exists today promise to do so, for, what is an educational opportunity for one person may be no opportunity at all for another person. Some persons by inclination and temperament are naturally book-worms, others care nothing for "book-learning" and would not take an education if it were offered to them on a platter. Let me give you an excellent example in these United States. I knew two brothers long ago living in my community. The older one for various reasons had little opportunity to attend college and married without having done so, but he was naturally literary-minded and was constantly writing pretty good poems and songs but earning a living in other puits. When the other boy had grown up a little later, his father decided to send him to college, although he had shown little love for books. He liked to hear the click and whir and buzz of machinery and at every opportunity he spent hours in fooling with some old worn-out, worthless model-T Ford. He failed in his college studies but many students and a teacher or two at college recognized him as a mechanical genius, and advised the father to send the boy to the A. and M. College, but the father, miffed, refused to do so. Now that boy had talent but the opportunity given him to attend that college was practically no opportunity at all. It would have been a marvelous opportunity for the older boy if he could have taken advantage of it at the proper time. Different types and different degrees of talent among the hundreds or the thousands of students that attend a modern college make it impossible for that college to offer equal opportunities.

What other schools do I have in mind? Well, for one, there is the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute, situated some forty miles due east of Montgomery the capital of the state, and generally recognized as the greatest institution for the education of colored people in the United States. It is the institution that Booker T. Washington and George Washington Carver have made great and famous. Although it had a lowly start, it now has more than a hundred buildings and a student body that is among the largest in the South. Let's see what the World Book had to say about it twenty-seven years ago when that great school encyclopedia first came off the press. I quote.

"Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute, at Tuskegee, is an industrial school for Negroes which has probably done more to lessen the seriousness of the race problem than any other agency in the United States. It was established in 1881 by act of the Alabama Legislature, which appropriated $2,000.00. The State makes an annual appropriation for the school, but does not control its policies.

"In a rented shanty church, school opened July 4, 1881, with thirty pupils and one teacher, Booker T. Washington, a graduate of Hampton Institute, Virginia. As principal and instructor of the new school, he began then a service extended over a period of thirty-three years. Under his administration, Tuskegee became an institution owning 2,300 acres of land, more than a hundred buildings, and various other properties, including livestock and farm implements, the whole valued at over a million and a half dollars; it bids fair soon to reach a value of two million dollars.

"The Institute gives students preparatory and high school and college courses, as well as training them to earn their living in some skilled labor after leaving school. Training in religious and social work is furnished in the Phelps Hale Bible Training School. The practical good that is being accomplished by Tuskegee Institute can not be over-estimated. It is aiding students from every state in the Union and from over twenty foreign countries."

But of course there is nothing at Tuskegee good enough for Authorine Lucy. It would probably insult her to suggest that there is a state Normal College for colored women in connection with the great Tuskegee Institute there; also a State Normal College for Colored students in Montgomery, the capitol of the state; and still another state Normal College for colored students up in the northern portion of Alabama which is cut off from the remainder of the State by that big bend in the Tennessee River which dips down into Alabama and cuts off virtually four counties from the rest of the state. That may be a rather small Normal College but I judge that there must be many white people, looking after those dams and the big mantries that have been built up along the River. Authorine would probably enjoy that sort of environment while attending the College.

Furthermore, since this Column came out last week, Authorine has made charges to the effect that the President of the University of Alabama had conspired with others connected with the University and with others to create that riot on its campus the other night for political purposes, but she produced no proof, and the University President has pronounced the charge as utterly false and declares that there is not a word of truth in it. As for me, I believe that the President was telling the truth. I think that Authorine is the one that is playing politics at the behest of the N. A. A. C. P. and of certain labor organizations. So I have lost all sympathy for her.

But now, I do not want to be misunderstood. I am not against the education of the Negroes. I am for it; and I am sure that many Southern people have lent no encouragement to those who have favored the spending of tax money to educate them. In this, I think they have made a mistake. I hope that Southern States, which are now enjoying more prosperous times, will seriously and vigorously begin the building of better school buildings for the Negroes unless they are forced to in-

Wilson Crowns Kings, Queens

The crowning of the Wilson School's Kings and Queens was held Monday night, February 13, in the new gym. Their majesties were chosen first as class favorites, and then were elected to be Kings and Queens through the auctioning of cakes at the annual carnival.

The valentine theme was chosen as theme. A huge heart of red and white paper was in center of the floor, with several smaller hearts on either side. A green carpet of grass topped off by a white picket fence marked off the scene. Cupids were placed on end goals, shooting arrows at hearts, which were attached to side goals.

Dutchess Vynoma Clem and Duke Donald Sales entered, one from each side, meeting at the center. Followed by Dutchess Nell Nolan and Duke Kenneth Ethridge, Dutchess Frances Moczgamba and Duke Jimmy Blankenship. Their majesties of High School then entered, Queen Dolores Rhoads and King Delvin Berhend. They were crowned by Mutt Bruedigam. Bugler was Ronnie Foster.

Chosen to reign over Junior High were Queen Betty Jo Hanes and King David Bishop. Their court consisted of Dutchess Jo Carolyn Williamson and Duke Curtis Christopher.

Primary School royalty were Queen Kay Davis and King Billy Hatchell. Their court consisted of Dutchess Elizabeth Martin and Duke Harry Hewlett, Dutchess Jeanette Gindorf and Duke Ted Bartley.

Chosen to reign over elementary grades were Loyce Baker and Joe Mason. Their court were Dutchess Carolyn Clary and Duke Gary Williamson, Dutchess Vicki Rhoads and Duke Danny Gatzki.

Music was furnished by Joyce Church. She also accompanied Mary Lou Lichey, Ida Mason, and Deana Ward as they sang several numbers. Other entertainment was furnished by tap-dancers from Tahoka.

tegrate with them, in which case the Negroes, of course, will attend the same schools as the whites.

However, I believe that the whites would have been building better schools for the Negroes long ago if they had not been so completely impoverished by the Civil War, if I may call it that.

Have you forgotten that when the South was virtually whipped and the Northern armies swept down into Georgia and Alabama, they acted more like Vandals than civilized white men? The University of Alabama, founded in 1831 and now under fire, as it were, was burned to the ground by an invading Northern Army in 1865, the last year of the Civil War. Not only was that institution burned to the ground but a number of other institutions of the rank of academies were burned also—acts of sheer Vandalism. This was followed by a period of "Carpenter" and "Scalawag" rule—notorious crooks who further fleeced the people and kept them poor. Real recovery was not begun till the dawn of the twentieth century, and for years it continued to be slow even after that.

Personally, I have never been an admirer of such men as William L. Yancey of Alabama, Bob Toombs of Georgia, Jefferson Davis of Mississippi and other Southern firebrands, who were largely responsible for bringing on the Civil War. I have never felt that Secession was justifiable nor the destruction either desirable or wise. If I had been living as a mature man in those days I would have stood with Sam Houston and Andrew Jackson and even with Daniel Webster for the preservation of the Union—but I would not have favored vandalism even in the midst of bloody war.—Good Night.
