Hold-over directors are: Reasonover, who automatically becomes vice president, L. C. Haney, W. B. Slaton, Frank Hill, Wynne Collier, Fred McGinty, Otis Spears, Alton Cain, and R. H. Gibson. Directors were elected by members on a ballot taken by mail. The president was elected by the board Thursday night of last week.

Slight Loss In Lynn Scholastics

Lynn county has lost slightly in scholastics in 1956 over 1955, according to figures compiled by Mrs. Ruth Jolly, county superintendent.

The census this spring shows a total of 2531 children who will be of school age for the 1956-57 term, as compared to 2566 last year, a loss of 35 students. Tahoka district has lost 28, Grassland 9, and Wilson 3, while New Home gained 9 and O'Donnell 2 students.

However, some adjustments are due to be made in the state office, which could alter the final total.

Following are the comparative census figures by districts:

Wilson	329	532
Grassland	54	65
O'Donnell	737	735
New Home	356	347
Tahoka	855	883
Total	2531	2566

Of the total, 118 Negro children were enumerated, 52 in the Tahoka district, 24 at New Home, 42 at O'Donnell, none at Grassland and Wilson.

Chas. B. Hays, 71, Dies At Midland

Charles B. Hays, 71, of Midland, who lived around Tahoka for 13 years, died at about 3:15 a. m. Thursday of last week, and funeral rites were held in that city.

Mr. Hays and his family came to Lynn county in 1925. He farmed in the Dixie community and later in the T-Bar community before moving to Midland in 1938. He was born in Wood county on November 15, 1884.

Survivors include his wife; three sons, Odas Hays of Denton, Howard and Bill Hays, both of Midland; three daughters, Mrs. Albia McMillan of Tahoka, Mrs. Charlene Aldridge of Lovington, N. M., and Mrs. Velma Moore of Brownfield; one brother, W. H. Hays of Quitman; and 15 grand-children.

Big Crowd Visits New Tractor Firm

Nearly 500 people visited the new Gilmore-Jaquess firm last Thursday for its John Deere day. A light lunch was served at noon, farm implements were displayed, and several moving pictures were shown during the afternoon.

Red Cross Still Short of Goal

Lynn county is about to come up short of its quota in the Red Cross drive unless citizens make their contributions promptly, states W. A. Reddell, drive chairman. OADD Red Cross.

Since last week, Claude Johns of Grassland has reported his community total at $100.10, Wells has sent in an additional $16.00, and new Tahoka contributions have added $30.00.

Mrs. Tom Russell and Mrs. H. A. Parris have raised $29.00 at Joe Stokes.

New Home, New Lynn, and Edith still have failed to report, Mr. Reddell says.

Mr. Reddell says he knows a lot of people have not been seen, and he hopes citizens will see their community workers or mail their contributions to him at Tahoka so Lynn county will be able to say "We have done our part."

"Since the extremely critical need for funds in this campaign has been brought about by tremendous expenditures in the flood-ravaged areas," writes Tom Davis of Vernon, National Vice Chairman, "I feel that the citizens of this state are given a wonderful opportunity to say 'Thank You' to the American Red Cross for all the assistance that has been given our people who have suffered in tornadoes and floods."

"Texans have always responded to the call in emergency. With your help, I am confident that we will carry our fair share of the responsibility in this most vital humanitarian drive."

Local Teachers Are Re-elected

The entire faculty of the Tahoka Schools have been offered new contracts as a result of action taken by the school board last week.

However, two teachers, J. C. Koen and Don Seely, teachers of science and math in High School, do not expect to return. Mr. Koen expects to teach at Lubbock and Mr. Seely expects to return to college.

All teachers were re-elected subject to placement and subject to their meeting all state requirements.

Supt. Otis Spears was given a new three-year contract in January and all principals were re-elected in February.

THOMAS IN HOSPITAL

W. O. (Otho) Thomas entered Tahoka Hospital Tuesday for treatment of his heart ailment. He was under an oxygen tent a couple of days, but was reported improving on Thursday morning.

Rev. Eugene Slone of San Diego, Calif., will bring the evangelistic messages during the revival which opens at the First Baptist Church tonight and continues through Easter Sunday, April 1.

Fitts Will Play In All-Star Game

Junior Fitts of Tahoka has been selected to play in the Texas Schoolboy All-Star Basketball Classic, a game between two squads of outstanding players of the state at the annual Texas High School Coaches' Association coaching school, which will be held in Lubbock August 5-11.

The invitation came from Jas. W. "Rosy" Adkinson of Dallas, who said he had been selected for the honor by the state board.

Fitts, 6-foot 5-inch Tahoka senior, was named to the all-state second team in both his junior and senior years in high school. He had a 29.5 average per game during the season just closed.

Most members of the Southwest Conference, Texas Tech, and West Texas State are offering him college athletic scholarships, but he has not yet announced the college he will play with.

W. B. Slaton Still Critically Ill

W. B. Slaton, local banker who suffered a stroke Sunday, March 11, is still in a critical condition in Methodist Hospital, Lubbock, where he is a patient.

Although still in a coma, doctors gave the family encouragement Wednesday. The News is informed, when they reported he seemed some better and had a chance to recover. He is reported to have rested better Wednesday than at any time since he was stricken.

Second Scout Troop Planned

A second Boy Scout troop is in the process of being formed in Tahoka, according to E. B. Galtier, local district commissioner.

Parents and boys were meeting this Thursday night at the Scout Hall to complete plans for organization.

Next Thursday night, all boys and their parents interested in the new troop are urged to come to the Scout Hall. The new troop is believed necessary because of the fact that Troop 21 is now filled and several other boys are waiting in Scout work.

The Tahoka Fire Department agreed to sponsor the troop, with Lawrence Harvick serving as scoutmaster and Tom Bartley as assistant scoutmaster.

The troop committee is composed of Roy Harvick, Dean Taylor, Clyde Spruell, Herman Renfro, and James Huey.

The new troop plans to meet at the Scout Hall each Thursday night. Troop 21 meets each Monday night, and the Explorer Post meets on Tuesday nights twice a month.

Jaycees Building Softball Park

Work is well underway on the new softball park being built by Tahoka Jaycees at City Park in south Tahoka.

The playing field, in the northwest sector of the park, has been leveled and backstops are nearing completion. Poles and wire have been secured for the lighting system. The Jaycees hope to have the park ready for night play by May 1.

Teams wishing to join a league or participate in tournaments this summer are asked to contact John Houk or Bill Chancy of the Jaycees.

Deadline Is Near For Car Licenses

Only a few more days remain for securing 1956 license plates for motor vehicles. Tax Assessor and Collector J. E. (Red) Brown reminds the public. The law requires that 1956 plates be on all vehicles in operation on April 1. Car owners who have not already registered their vehicles are requested to do so as quickly as possible so as to avoid the last minute rush.

Dodge leads all pick-ups on all 4 counts!

1 HIGHEST V-8 HORSEPOWER-TO-WEIGHT RATIO... Greater Hauling Power

2 BIGGEST CAB Extra Room For Extra Comfort

3 HIGHEST PAYLOAD CAPACITY For Bigger, More Profitable Hauls

4 DODGE COSTS LESS Than Any Other Truck With Automatic Transmission

Don't buy a truck blindfolded...
Check Dodge before you buy, and get more truck per dollar!

Choose any yardstick of comparison you can name—you'll find no other truck measures up to today's bigger, more powerful DODGE.

Prove it yourself. Give the new truck you may be thinking of buying a good, thorough going over. Dig into its payload rating, horsepower-to-weight ratio, cab size, performance, and price. Get the facts, right from the engineers' specification book. Then take time to...

Check Dodge. Match every one of these points against what you get in a DODGE truck, and see how much more Dodge gives you for each dollar you invest.

You owe it to yourself to get the best buy for your money, so be sure to get your Dodge dealer's deal before you decide—before you make the unfortunate mistake of paying more for your next truck and getting less.

Easier on driver—especially with automatic transmission. You get the largest cab for greater comfort, largest wrap-around windshield for greater safety.

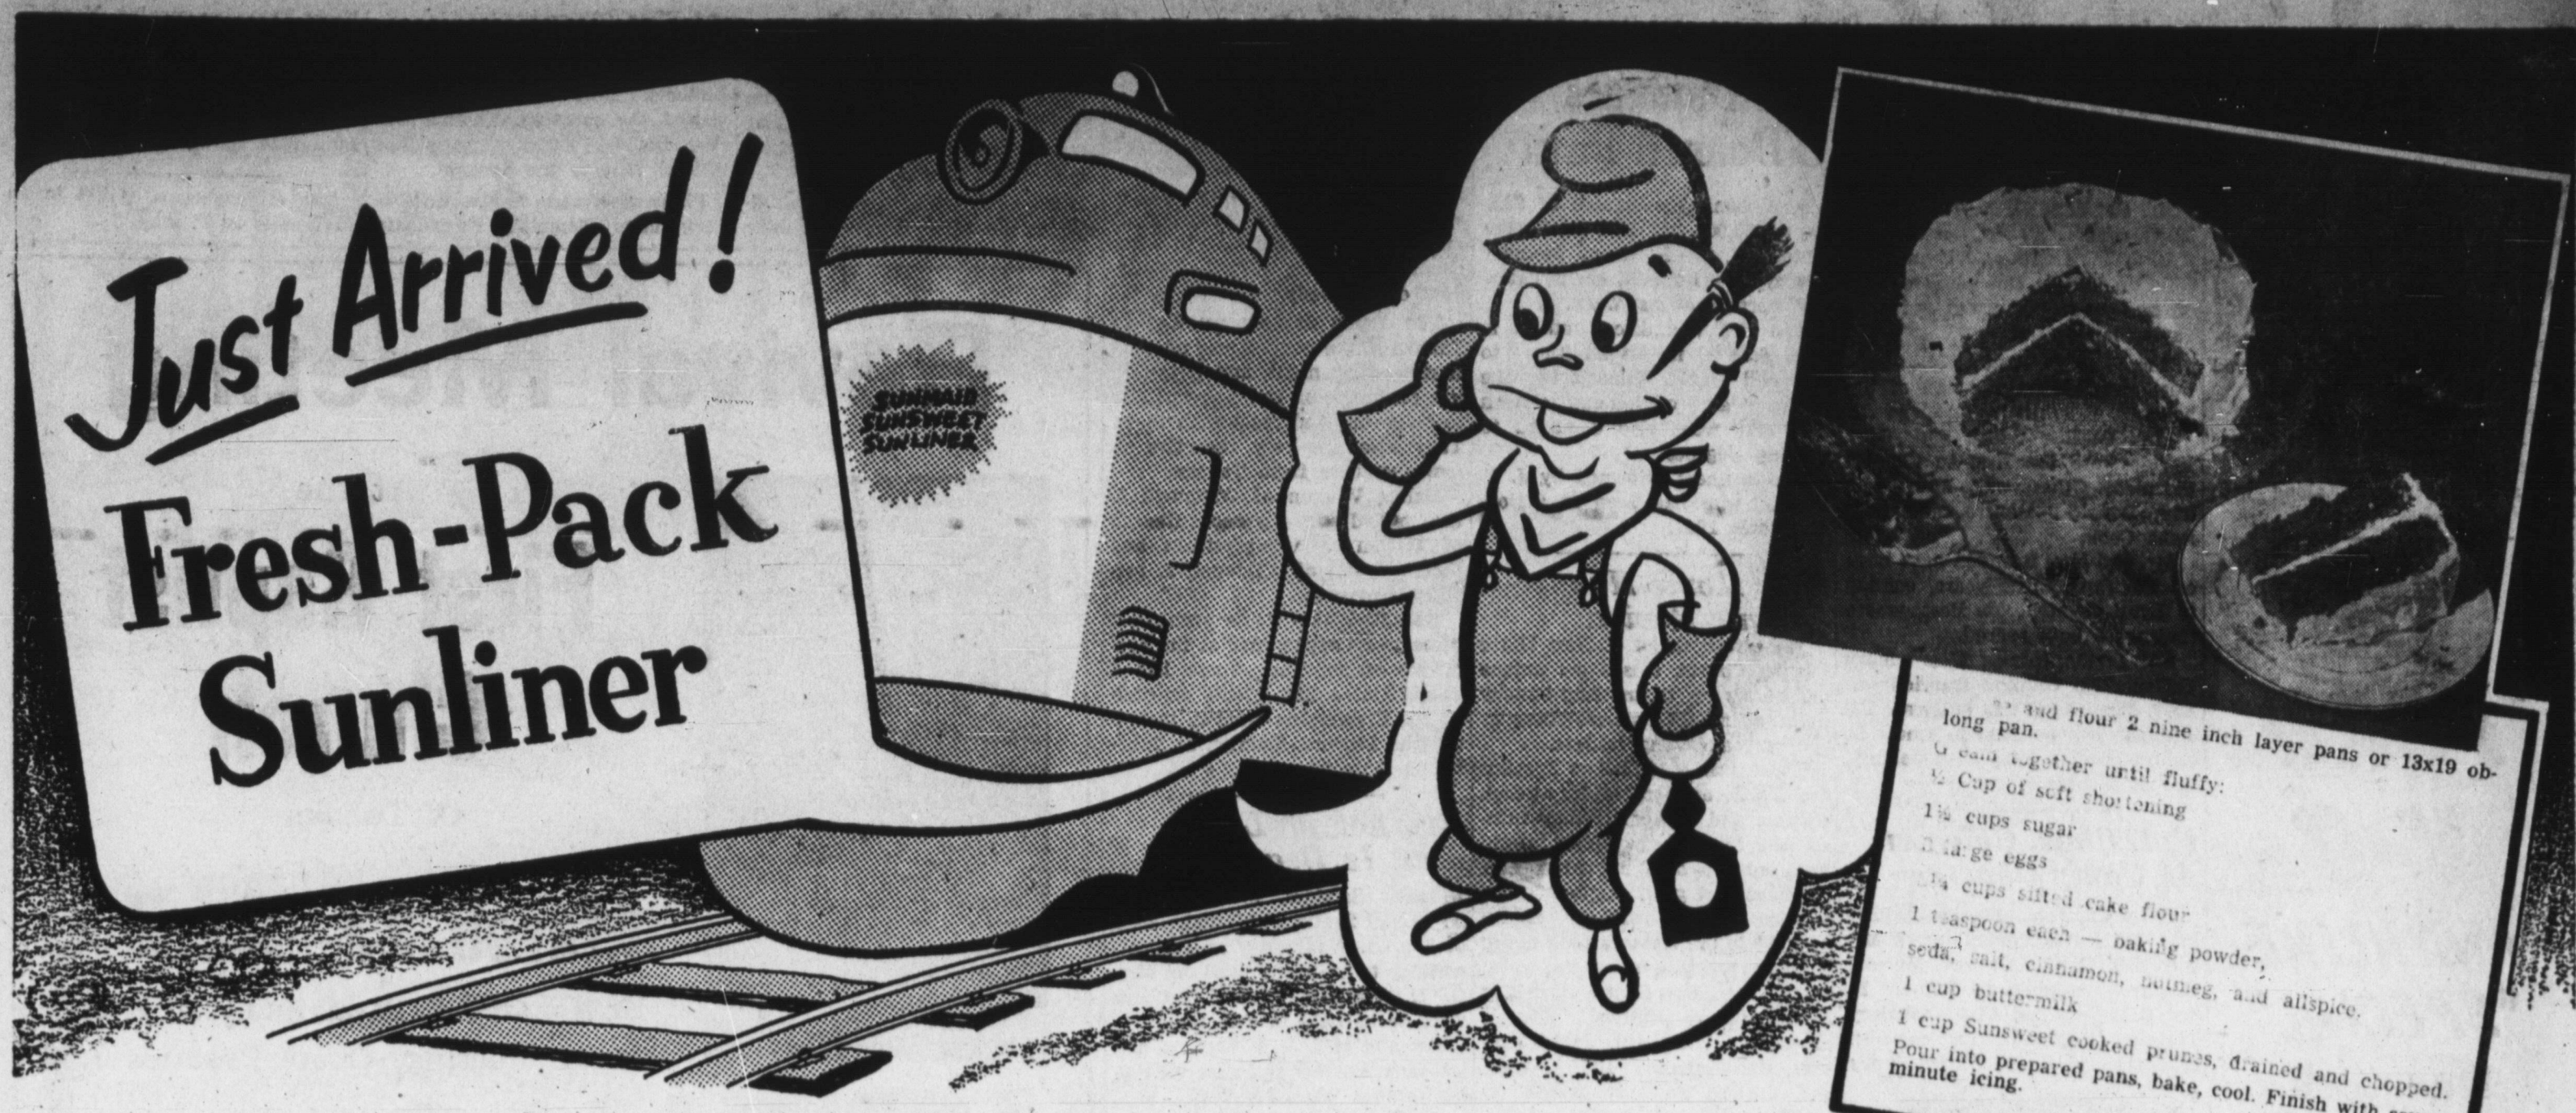

Easier to turn. Dodge has industry's shortest turning radius—requires much less effort to park, make U-turns, maneuver through heavy downtown traffic.

Easier to load. Low body-floor means just an easy lift from ground to truck, saves you work every time you load, every time you unload.

Easier on gas. Dodge higher horsepower-to-weight ratio means less pulling effort required of engine, assures greater efficiency, maximum gas economy.

Blair Places In Meet At Snyder

Tahoka Bulldogs scored only three points in the tough competition of the Canyon Reefs Relays at Snyder last Saturday, but Coach Bill Haralson says his boys showed improvement in almost every event entered.

However, winner of the meet was Amarillo with 19½ points, followed by such teams as San Angelo, Stamford, Colorado City, Midland, Big Spring, Lubbock, Levelland and a number of teams failed to score at all. Twelve records were broken in the 16 events of the meet.

Donald Blair scored all Tahoka's points, winning three fourth places, in the 100 yard dash, the 220 yard dash, and the broad jump.

In the morning preliminaries, Blair led the field in breaking the old record in the broadjump with a jump of 20 feet 11½ inches (old mark 20' 5¼"), but in the finals three other boys went ahead of him to set a new mark of 21' 9¼".

Also, in the preliminaries, Don tied the 100-yard dash record of 10 seconds, which was battered to 9.9 in the finals.

Denver Ford ran the mile in 4 minutes 57 seconds, his best time this year, and the competition was too tough for this low mark to place.

Tahoka is entered in the equally tough Odessa Relays being run this Friday and Saturday.

Power-Packs End Fine Season

The Bray "Power-Packs" were defeated in the Petersburg Tournament last Thursday night and again Monday night, thus being eliminated. However, they did tie for fourth place with Petersburg Independent team by winning one and losing two games.

The Power-Packs played their best game of the season last Thursday night against the Armstrong Independent Co. of Hart, but were beaten in the closing seconds of the game by a long shot from the hands of Charles Bernard, a 6-ft. 8-inch senior at Wayland College. The Power-Packs trailed by 8 points at half time and were behind 4 points at the end of the 3rd period. With one minute to play the Bray team was trailing by 5 points; 40 seconds to play 3 points; and with five seconds remaining in the game were ahead 57 to 56. Hart called a time out after throwing the ball in, which gave them possession of the ball at mid-court. With about 2 seconds left, Charles Bernard raised the ball over his head and fired. It was good. Thus Hart won 58 to 57. Hart went on to win the tournament.

Junior Fitts was high point man for the Bray team with 15 points. Steve Slover had 12; Tommy Murray 10, Charles Hyles 10, Gainerd McNeely 4, Richard Havens 4, John Curry 2, and Jake Jacobs 0.

Charles Bernard was high point man for Hart with 24 points. Scott Young had 16, Ed Savage 8, Bill Hill 6, Davis 2.

Monday night the Power-Packs were defeated 64 to 56 by the Plainview Independent team in the semi-finals of the tournament. The Power-Packs played without the aid of Junior Fitts who was ill.

Steve Slover took high point honors with 24 points. Tommy Murray had 14, Gainerd McNeely 8, Charles Hyles 4, Richard Havens 4, John Curry 2, and Harold Crump 0.

Davis was high point man for Plainview with 19 points, Markman had 10, Bryant 10, Campbell 8, Smalts 7, Craig 7, and Henry 3. During the season the Power-Packs won 11 games and lost 6. They scored 1194 points (70 4/17 avg.) to their opponents 991 points (58 8/17 avg.)

Bureau Head Blasts Editor

Waco—The president of the Texas Farm Bureau has branded as an "inexcusable misstatement of facts" a charge that he testified before the Senate Agriculture committee in favor of flexible price supports.

J. Walter Hammond made the statement in a letter to Ernest Joiner, editor of The Ralls (Crosby County) Banner. Joiner had charged in his paper that Hammond had double-crossed Texas Farm Bureau members by testifying in favor of flexible price supports in Washington.

Hammond emphatically denied this. "Had you bothered to check the Senate Agriculture Committee records, which are public property, you would have known that I did not testify as you so stated in your column," Hammond said in his letter to the West Texas editor.

The Texas Farm Bureau leader told Joiner that "The real tragedy of your prevarication is that you have apparently fallen into the hands of those who would like to set farmer against farmer. This is the old technique of 'divide and conquer.'"

Hammond further stated that regardless of what farm organization farmers belong to, it is important for them "to think for themselves, using facts, instead of blindly following some rabble-rouser whose chief concern is increased circulation instead of increased farm income."

Production Credit Has Open House

A good-sized crowd attended the formal opening of the new local office building of the Production Credit Association here last Saturday afternoon.

Among officials present from out of town were: E. R. Davis, president, Alton Strickland, secretary-treasurer, and J. B. Potts, assistant secretary, all from Lubbock; Hugh Snodgrass, Brownfield office manager; Preston Marcom and Neil Brown, from the Levelland office; and Clay Henry, secretary-treasurer of the Plainview Production Credit.

Dorwood Howard is the local office manager, and Mrs. Clovis McElroy is his secretary. Fred McGinty is the Lynn county director.

Coffee, soda water, and doughnuts were served the visitors who came to inspect the beautiful new building.

Letters From News Readers—

Addressing the Columnist of this newspaper, J. B. Walker of Lubbock writes: "I am having H—I with the so-called Eisenhower Democrats."

I saw this statement either in the Lubbock paper or The Lynn County News: During the 4 years of the Harry Truman administration, the national debt was reduced $12,000,000 million—$12,000,000,000 Billion Dollars. During Eisenhower's 4 years, it has been increased this amount. As I've always considered you a walking Encyclopedia, so get me straight on this, please. Your friend, J. B. Walker."

Answer: I doubt if anybody could straighten you out on this statement, J. B. I don't think either of us knows the difference between twelve million dollars and twelve billion dollars. That much money is so high up above our financial levels that we would get lost high up in the atmosphere if we were to try to reach it. Don't think we could ever get to it even if we were traveling in one of these jet airplanes shooting straight up. Come down and ask me about that last dollar and fifteen cents I sent to Washington, and I will tell you all about it. Ask Charley Guy about that Million dollar statement.

T. G. Dulin, now of Amarillo but long a resident of Lynn county is here visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dulin.

Brotherhood Has Fine Program

One of the best Brotherhood meetings in the history of the organization was held in the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church here Monday night when the men entertained the ladies of the Church as their guests. In the hall, which is also used as a dining room on such occasions, a sumptuous meal was served to the members and their guests, the long and capacious room being filled to its capacity.

The guest speaker of the occasion was Dr. Harlan Harris, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Plainview, who brought one of the greatest messages ever delivered on such an occasion in this Church. He held his audience spell-bound from start to finish.

The congregation first gathered in the main auditorium, where Urban Brown pronounced the invocation, and then marched down into the dining room where the meal was served and the program rendered.

Preceding the program proper, Dr. K. R. Durham delivered the address of welcome to the ladies, one of his characteristic and inimitable humorous deliverances; and the response was given briefly by Mrs. Dorothy Kenley in behalf of the ladies.

Prayer was offered by A. L. Smith and special music was given by the Choir Director Bob Lewis, accompanied by Mrs. Hutchison at the piano.

A few items of business were presented by the pastor, Rev. Clifford Harris, relating to the Revival meeting to begin tonight at the Church.

Dub Fulford, president of the Brotherhood, presided throughout the program. A group of men prepared and served the dinner, and they did a most commendable job of it.

Large Enrollment In Dance Classes

Mozell Ratliff's square dancing class at New Home Community Center Friday night was just like Spring—"It was bursting out all over."

There were so many young people present, those in charge decided they would have to be divided to get the proper benefit from the instruction.

This is the way the new classes will meet: All those from Eighth grade up will meet on Thursday night, March 22, and on consecutive Thursday nights at 8:00 o'clock. From the Seventh grade down, the young people will meet on Friday night.

There will not be a lesson on Friday night, March 23, as Mr. Ratliff will be away on business. This class will meet Friday night, March 30, for their next lesson.

All classes are being held in the Community Center at New Home. Cokes and coffee were served to 65 square dancers by hostesses, Mrs. Delbert Mouser and Mrs. Roy L. Williams.

We would like to urge all the parents to attend and watch the youngsters enjoy themselves.—Reporter.

Try the BIG ECONOMY PACKAGE

This 1956 Buick SPECIAL
2-Door, 6-Passenger Sedan delivers locally for less than some models of the well-known smaller cars.
Come in and check!

THIS is the one that measures BIG—by any yardstick you choose...

BIG in solid pounds and honest inches...

BIG in high-compression horsepower...

BIG, best of all, in the way it makes small money talk.

For this strapping beauty is the 1956 Buick SPECIAL—biggest package of high-fashion luxury and high-stepping performance ever offered in Buick's lowest-priced Series.

What that boils down to is just this:

You can call this brawny Buick your own for only a few dollars more than the price of the well-known smaller cars—for even less than some models of those very same cars. And the price we'll proudly show you backs up that statement.

But low price, alone, doesn't explain why Buick outsells every other car in America except the two well-known smaller ones.

The big reason, you will find, is because Buick gives you so much more pure automobile for the money.

You'll find it in the bigger thrill you get from commanding the agile might of Buick's big new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine.

You'll find it in the greater smoothness of Buick's superb new ride—in the utter serenity of Buick's new handling ease—in the bigger satisfaction of Buick size and roominess and steadiness and styling.

You'll find it, too, in the fact that here you can get the matchless smoothness of the world's most modern transmission. For, at your option, you can also have the new double-action take-off—and the extra gas-saving mileage—of Buick's advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflow.

So, how about it? Will you come in real soon? We've got the facts and the figures—and the car—to prove everything we've told you—waiting for you.

†New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

ceived a silver platter and a check for $300.00 as the outstanding soil conservation district supervisor in Texas in 1955.

On behalf of the Soil Conservation District and Tahoka C. of C., Moore presented cash awards of $15.00, $10.00, and $5.00 to winners of the essay contest, "Why Soil Conservation is Important to Everyone."

First place went to Garene Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Harris, New Home; second to Sylvia Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boswell Edwards, New Home; third to Walter Gasper Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gasper Sr., New Home. Judging of essays was by an impartial county-wide committee.

Joe D. Unfred was presented the award as the SCD most outstanding conservation farmer, and Boswell Edwards was honored with the award for the business man who had made the greatest unselfish contribution to soil conservation during the past year.

Mr. Unfred has taken a leading role in soil and water conservation and finds time for much civic and church work and for work as a committeeman of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District.

Mr. Edwards, also a church and community worker, is manager of New Home Gin, has cooperated with farmers in returning cotton bolls to the soil and in every project of his area for the conservation of soil and water. Both young men were reared in this county.

All these winners have been entered in the State contest, "Save the Soil and Save Texas," sponsored annually by the Fort Worth Press.

Jerry Cain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Cain of Tahoka, was presented the Santa Fe award as one of the outstanding youths in Texas 4-H club work. Along with the award went a trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, which trip Jerry took last year. The presentation was made by I. W. "Rocky" Janssen of Amarillo, assistant agricultural agent of the Santa Fe Railway.

Charles Verner, businessman director from Lynn county on the board of the Plains Cotton Growers, urged local businessmen to turn in their membership fees immediately for furtherance of the fight for a better deal for Plains cotton.

Otis Spears, secretary, made a brief financial report and recounted some of the activities of the Chamber of Commerce during the past year.

Reasonover introduced the hold-over and the new directors and the new president, Herman Heck.

Mr. Heck stated members will shortly be asked for suggestions on projects which they desire the C. of C. to work on this year.

The meeting was opened with an invocation, by Rev. Clifford Harris, and closed with the benediction by Rev. J. B. Stewart.

the country became infuriated. That decision seemed to hold property rights to be more important than human rights, and I think that decision was heartless and wrong. So, this was an instance in which the Supreme Court was bitterly denounced by the North and the East rather than by the South.

While this decision favored the slave-owner wherever he might be found, either in the South or the North, yet the slave-owners of the South were not the cruel monsters that they were often represented to be; most of them were kind to their slaves and in countless numbers of Southern homes and plantations genuine affection between the housewife and the servants in the house and on the plantation existed. Such men as Abraham Lincoln, Robert E. Lee, Sam Houston, Alexander H. Stephens, Henry Clay, and even Daniel Webster would have found a way to solve the slavery problem and at the same time preserve the Union had it not been for the hot-heads North and South who were bent on using extreme measures and refused to compromise. Many at the South joined the Confederacy not because they favored slavery but because they wished to preserve "States Rights" unimpaired.

GMC brings you the most impressive improvements of all 1956 trucks

Now we can show you these great new GMC's that are further than ever ahead of all others. Their advances not only clinch power supremacy—but reach into fields still unexplored by other truck-makers.

For example, GMC's Road Shock Damper Suspension*—plus a unique new stabilizer—produces in half-ton models a ride comparable to the finest passenger car.

An optional new fast-ratio cruising axle in light-duty GMC's gives you an overdrive's pace and economy without its cost.

Sharply increased engine displacement in both sixes and V8's gives you a power family unsurpassed the light-duty field. Specifically, we offer GREATER displacement on 6-cyl: under models, 16.2% on V8's than our nearest competitors. And GMC V8's, mind you, match the shortest stroke ratios in the truck industry.

Styling is well into the future—panoramic windshield to sand-tight all gate. Tubefless tires, of course. And electrical system is standard.

These are some of the strides presented in new Blue Chip trucks we now have on view. The value are even more notable. Come in and get the facts!

New Home Girl Winner of Essay Award

Winners of the awards in the essay contest for school students on the subject, "Why Soil Conservation is Important to Everyone," were announced Tuesday night at the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce Farmer-Businessman banquet.

All three winners are from New Home High School.

Garene Harris, a sophomore and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Harris, won first place; Sylvia Edwards, a senior and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boswell Edwards, placed second; and Walter Gasper Jr., freshman and son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gasper, was third.

The winning essay is published elsewhere in this issue of The News, and the other two will follow in succeeding issues.

The contest is sponsored jointly by the Lynn County Soil Conservation District and the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce. Awards are $15.00 for first, $10.00 for second, and $5.00 for third place.

The winning essay by Miss Harris has been entered in the state contest sponsored by the Fort Worth Press, known as "Save the Soil and Save Texas."

A cash prize and a plaque will be presented regional winners, and the state winner will receive a $100.00 cash award.

Wilson Coach To Petersburg

Ralph Huntington, coach at Wilson High School the past three years, has been named the new coach at Petersburg, succeeding Wayne Hill, resigned. He has been given a two year contract at Petersburg, beginning this June.

His Wilson Mustangs this year won the district and bi-district titles in Class B football before losing to Matador in the regional finals.

He is a graduate of Abilene Christian College, and coached at Van Horn and at Hale Center before moving to Wilson.

At Petersburg, he will coach football and girls basketball and teach mathematics. He and his wife and two sons and three daughters will move from Wilson in June.

Following is the winning essay on "Why Soil Conservation is Important to Everyone," written by Garene Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Harris and a sophomore in New Home High School. Garene's essay was judged best in the contest sponsored by Lynn County Soil Conservation District and Tahoka Chamber of Commerce:

WHY SOIL CONSERVATION IS IMPORTANT TO EVERYONE

(By Garene Harris)

The wise use of natural resources is called conservation. Conservation prevents the waste and makes sure of a supply for the future.

Nearly everything we need for comfortable living today comes from one of the natural resources. Our food comes from the soil. The grasslands feed the animals that give us our meat, wool, and leather. From forests comes the lumber for our houses and furniture.

Our existence depends upon using our resources wisely. Individuals have no right to destroy natural resources for their own profit. Conservation is the responsibility of everyone, but in many cases it must be enforced by law to prevent waste and destruction. Conservation pays well in making a community a more beautiful place in which to live. When the land is mistreated the countryside is unattractive.

When we find a land stripped of its plant cover the soil is being ruined by erosion. Topsoil is perhaps the most valuable of our possessions.

Erosion is caused by two different agents, wind and water. Growing cover crops is the most practical prevention of wind erosion. Planting different crops each year keeps the soil productive and helps the crop next year.

If this nation is to hold the basis for its future greatness, each generation must preserve the soil resources for the use of generations to come.

ELMER BLANKENSHIP

Several farmers in the District are making plans for seeding legumes and grasses this spring. Maize clover is a biennial if planted in late February to early March but acts as an annual when fall planted. Huban clover is an annual and should be planted from February 15th to March 15th. The seeding for these two sweetclovers is three to five pounds in regular rows and ten to fifteen pounds broadcast. Blue panic grass has a wide range seeding period from April to August fifteenth. This allows for planting before or after planting cotton and grain sorghums. Early plantings are made because of better chances of showers while plantings have less weed competition. Growing or leaving crop residues on the soil surface as a seed bed for planting small seed plants has been successful over wide areas and varying weather conditions. This method allows planting on a flat surface, lessening the possibility of seed being covered too deep from rain and furnishing protection against wind erosion.

Engineers of the Soil Conservation Service Assigned to the district designed a system of underground pipe on James Savell farm north east of Wilson. A part of the system will be installed this year while the remainder will be in future years. To determine future pipe size it was necessary to know gallons per minute from each well and relative elevations of all points of the system. Designs were also worked out for Walter Meaker's place east of Wilson, and for B. H. Jones east of Gordon. K

Underground irrigation pipe was checked for completion for Walter Lichey north of Tahoka, and one system for Morris Huff northeast of Grassland.

The Tahoka Work Unit personnel made final checks on terraces for Ellis Martin's farm west of town, on Mrs. E. E. Calloway's place south of Draw and for B. L. Thomas northeast of Redwine. A division terrace was also installed on Mr. Thomas' place.

Color Pictures At Rotary Club

An interesting color-sound film on Philadelphia, the 1956 convention city of Rotary International, was presented by Fred McGinty at the meeting of Tahoka Rotary Club Thursday noon of last week.

R. Dan Johnston, new Ford dealer here, was officially inducted into the club as a new member by Wynne Collier.

President Harold Green announced the 183rd district Rotary Conference which will be held in Levelland April 15, 16, and 17. Roy Edwards is the attendance chairman from the local club.

Considering the earnestness and the regularity with which I have been filling this column recently with arguments against integration and the forced mixing of the races in the schools and other public places and against usurped powers by the supreme court and in favor of states' rights as prescribed in the U. S. Constitution, most folks who have the time, the patience, or the curiosity to read this weekly Column probably will suppose that I was brought up as a rank Secessionist or in a Secessionist environment. Not so. My father preceding and during "Civil War" days lived in the "hill country" of northwest Georgia and of northeast Ala., where the soil was thin and there were few cotton plantations. The big cotton plantations were all situated in the great river bottoms or in the lower and more fertile areas of the state. For the first seven or eight years of his life he lived in Georgia, then moved into Alabama with his father's family, at 16 enlisted in the Confederate Army and served till the end of the War. But before the War, his father freed the only slave that he ever owned. My father did not believe in slavery nor in secession. But as a boy of 16, he enlisted in a Cavalry regiment in the Confederate Army. I am sure he would have been considered a "slacker" and would have felt the sting of disgrace if he had not done so. At the end of the War he was honorably discharged. Soon thereafter he and the young woman of Oxford, Alabama, who had learned to love each other only as Mountain young people, I fancy, can love, were married, and without money or property they set out to make a living and raise a family on those poor old Alabama hills. Three children were born in Alabama, and then they and a company of kin-folks hitched their ponies up to covered wagons filled with children and with such furniture as they had collected, bade old Alabama good-bye, and started out for Texas. This is all hearsay, you understand, I have never seen an Alabama hill or stream unto this day, but I have heard a lot about old Oxford and Chulafinny Creek. Secession had brought my parents a lot of trouble. I learned to hate it at my mother's breast. The erstwhile Alabama family stopped and began unloading their household goods almost as soon as they drove into Texas. I imagine the kids had already piled out of the wagon and had made tracks in the sand to the door of the Texas box house that they were about to occupy.

Tired and weary, I suspect that Pa and Ma were already hoping for better times ahead, with no more war, no more cannons roaring down yonder at Chattanooga under the bluffs of Lookout Mountain, Missionary Ridge, or Chickamauga, or at Kenesaw Mountain—mightily close to where you were born, Pa—over there in Georgia and no more secession out here in Texas. So they settled down there in Cass county far away from the war and the sorrow that Secession had brought to them. But their happiness was not to remain long unbroken. Little Lucy, a second daughter, was to come along and perish at a little aw-mill town a few miles out from Atlanta, Texas. Then at the end of three years residence there they decided to come out to the black lands of Bell county of which they had been hearing much.

So, I was born in Bell county. The Civil War was behind us. The Carpetbag days were over. Texas had won her independence from Mexico and had rejoined the Union. Richard Coke, regularly elected Democratic Governor, had driven Carpetbagger E. J. Davis out of the State House in Austin, and political conditions were returning to normalcy. Old Confederates were having their great annual gatherings and were fighting the Civil War over again—only it still wasn't very civil. I certainly did like those Bell county people as I began to grow up, but I had learned so much from my parents about the heart-aches and the hardships that they had suffered on account of Secession and of that bloody, cruel war, that I could not enjoy the great ex-Confederate meetings as wholeheartedly as the old soldiers themselves seemed to enjoy them.

It was not until I had started to school and had advanced through several readers, through the fourth and fifth readers, I guess, that we began to study Texas history. The text that all the public schools used then was Mrs. Pennybacker's school history. It was a thriller. She told the story of Texas in dramatic fashion. She pictured for us the horrors of the Alamo and Goliad. She painted in glowing colors the victory at San Jacinto. At once we fell in love with Texas history and grew proud of Texas itself. We came to admire Stephen F. Austin and almost to worship old Sam Houston.

Furthermore Houston and Austin were not as far back in the past then as they are now. Texas was just about fifty years old as a free and independent sovereignty when we began to read about it in school. And I remember that Frank's Grandma Evetts or some of the family told Frank about Sam Houston taking Frank's Grandfather Evetts upon his (Houston's) horse behind him once when Mr. Evetts was a little boy and giving him a friendly ride. Of course that made a permanent friend of that boy.

Prior to hearing that story, I had attended the Thomas Arnold High School at Salado three years, in which town stood the historic old hotel, "Shady Villa" where many of the prominent men of Texas had lodged in the early days of Texas history, and Sam Houston had lodged there more than once. He had also made a ringing political speech in the county seat town of Belton on one occasion. Houston was one of the great orators of Texas and could sway an audience as few men could. But when the question of Secession from this Union arose, Houston lost much of his popularity, for he took a firm stand against Secession and for the preservation of this Union. I have always thought that Houston was right and that his detractors and maligners were wrong, terribly wrong. Houston had come to Texas as just in time to save the state from the wrath and power of cruel and ambitious tyrants who just then were ruling Mexico with iron hands and were in the very act of crushing the Anglo-Americans whom they had originally invited to come to Texas to make their homes and to develop the resources of the millions of acres of idle land. Houston took charge of the volunteer but untrained forces of Texas just at the time when nearly all the ablest men of the embryo republic were being slain to a man in the Alamo and led the little army to victory at San Jacinto. Then he had been the wisest and safest administrator of the affairs of the Republic that was formed and ten years later had secured the admission of Texas into the Union as a state, and now, within fifteen more years, good but impassioned men were crying out against Houston and asking the people to "Crucify Him! Crucify Him!" And they actually kicked him out of the governorship of the state which he had snatched from the hands of murderous tyrants and had presented to the Government at Washington as a loyal state in this great Union. I think that Houston had a right and a sacred duty to oppose Secession and to strive with all his might for the preservation of the Union. If I had been living here in Texas then, I think I should have stood by Sam Houston against Secession and for the preservation of the Union.

No, I have never been a Secessionist. But I have ever been for the preservation of this Union on the one hand and the preservation of states' rights as guaranteed to them in the U. S. Constitution, on the other hand. Just as Secession was designed for the breaking up and destruction of this American Republic, so, continued and unrestrained centralization of power in Washington will eventually bring about the same destruction of this same Republic in a different but equally effective way.

Possibly some of our colored friends have gotten the idea that I am also against them just because I have been opposing some of the activities of the N. A. A. C. P. — I am not against them. I am for them. I want to see them advance educationally, financially, industrially, and socially as a race of people. I am against slavery. I think it was a curse to this nation white and black, as long as it existed. I think that Abraham Lincoln was one of the greatest men that America has ever produced. I think that he performed a great service to the people of this country when he issued that Emancipation Proclamation on September 22, 1862, and later led in the adoption of the Thirteenth Amendment to the Constitution abolishing slavery. I believe in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments' rightly interpreted. But I am opposed to Secession even now or at any time in the foreseeable future. I only favor each department of government staying in its own corner. So I still believe in States Rights as prescribed in the Tenth Amendment to the Constitution. I think the Supreme Court is getting out of its corner when it undertakes to dictate or to legislate in such matters as the operation of our state public schools, and the segregation or integration of the white and colored races. I do not believe in legislation under the guise of adjudication.

In the beginning of this Republic, the powers of government were divided into three distinct departments, the Legislative, the Judicial, and the Executive. It was made the function and duty of Congress to enact the laws; the function and duty of the Supreme Court and other Federal Courts to interpret them; and the duty of the President and administrative officials to enforce them.

I think we should stay with that general arrangement. Many of the Southern leaders, of course, joined the Secessionists at the outbreak of the Civil War because they wanted to perpetuate slavery. The big plantation owners of the South thought they had to have slaves in order to maintain their plantations. They foresaw that they would be ruined financially if deprived of their slaves. Some of these were cruel slave-masters but most of them treated their slaves kindly and provided well for their physical needs. Little provision was made for their education or moral elevation. As a rule it was the slaves of cruel task-masters who ran away, and hence they were often punished when returned to their masters. It was for this reason that the Fugitive Slave Law was so bitterly detested by so many people and it was probably the most effective weapon that the Abolitionists had for the promotion and spread of anti-slavery sentiment at the North. When the validity of the law was upheld by Chief Justice Taney in favor of the slave-holder, people all over

Surely you've read or heard recently how a '36 Dodge stock car shattered 306 AAA records for endurance and speed in that sensational 14-day, non-stop run. In this officially witnessed performance, Dodge covered the first 10,000 miles at an average speed of 105.43 miles per hour... then went on to cover more than 31,000 miles of round-the-clock driving at a record-breaking clip. This is the greatest distance at the fastest pace any car has ever travelled.
