STANDING ON THE CORNER

With P. J.

American men, they say, never know what to do with themselves when they retire from business, according to this month's issue of Texas Outlook. As one of them put it, "I get up early, read the obituary column, and if my name isn't there I go back to bed."

You'd better stop here. Except for a joke or two, it's gonna be kinda' dull from now on.

No matter what the office, political candidates gladly welcome gossip when it involves their opponents.—Gladys Miller.

With the presidential campaign getting underway we are beginning to realize how true that statement is. It's getting so you don't know which of the slander to believe. If one candidate isn't throwing mud in his opponent's face, he's getting his spit in.

If we believe everything that's said about our candidates, we'd come to the conclusion that everyone in politics is rotten to the core, and just wouldn't vote for anyone. However, that's another wonderful thing about democracy. And brother, do use your freedom of speech!

Some people call the mud slinging just calling attention to the facts, but what's happened to the statement, "Don't say anything about anyone if you can't say something good?"

Wonder what would happen if a candidate, for a change, bragged on his opponent?

A person isn't really an old-timer unless he was raised in a home which had no can opener.

Every effort is being made to make the T-Bar Country Club a place that families will enjoy taking their young children and teenagers for good, clean and wholesome recreation.

In fact officers and members have made it quite clear that anything that can't be printed is strictly taboo. It's wonderful, too, the way everyone is cooperating. We've learned that Doyle Kelcy, Ch. of Christ minister, Rev. Clifford Harris of the First Baptist Church and Rev. J. B. Stewart of the First Methodist Church (Cont'd. on back page)

Mauhart Leaves For Linz, Austria

Gottfried (Fred) Mauhart, 22 year old agriculture student from Austria who has been in Tahoka about six weeks, left Wednesday to return to his home in Linz. His stay here was sponsored by the Rotary Club and he has been guest in the homes of various Rotarians.

Upon his return home he will enter the University of Vienna where he is working toward his Master Degree in agriculture.

He left here by bus Wednesday evening. In Chicago he will meet Iraj (Joe) Masters of Iran, an agricultural student who has been visiting in Slaton, and together they are going by bus to New York City where they will fly to Europe with other students visiting in the United States.

Mauhart left about two days early in order that he might go by way of Chicago and Niagara Falls before he leaves this country about Sept. 26.

As a going-away gift, the Rotarians of Tahoka presented Mauhart with cowboy boots and hat. While here, he traveled over much of the surrounding area, visiting the state of Colorado, Ruidoso, N. M. and El Paso. He not only became acquainted with farming practices in Lynn County, but with those in surrounding counties as well.

This is the second year the Tahoka Rotary Club has sponsored a foreign agriculture student, the first being Bernard Debonne of France last year.

Breeder Hen Project Is Proposed For Tahoka Area By Hatchery

Tahoka Chamber of Commerce directors in a meeting Monday night heard a proposal for a breeder hen project for Lynn county, voted to contribute $150.00 to the Boy Scouts bus fund, and attending to routine business.

Dale Thuren, local feed dealer, and Ken Looper of Lubbock told of Western Hatcheries proposal to place 50,000 breeder hens on the South Plains in November to produce hatching eggs for their network of 24 chick hatcheries. The same firm also plans a new hatchery in this area by January 1st.

The firm desires at least ten breeder hen projects of 1,000 hens each near Tahoka. Western would take the eggs produced at 65 cents per dozen, or the Lubbock market, whichever is higher on the basis of 75 percent hatchability. An additional one cent per dozen per percentage point would be paid for eggs testing above 75 percent.

Mr. Looper said the average operator should be able to make about $2,000 on each 1,000 hen flock.

Each farmer joining the project would need about $1,000 cash, or be able to make arrangements for the same, but his total outlay per unit would be about $5,000.

The 1,000 bird building, costing about $3,000 can be erected under a Title 1 FHA loan of five years, repayable at about $65.00 per month. About $500.00 would be necessary for equipment. Specially bred pullets would be furnished at $1.85 each, and the chicks (Cont'd. on back page)

The British-American No. 1-L Green test north of Wilson was reported drilling below 4,200 feet Wednesday.

Rotary Banquet Thursday Night

The Tahoka Rotary Club last night was to have entertained the Rotary Anns and the faculty and school board of the local schools with a banquet.

Rex Webster, Governor of District 183, Rotary International, was the principal speaker at the affair held in the school cafeteria.

The banquet has become an annual event, primarily for the purpose for the teachers and Rotarians and wives to get acquainted.

Disaster Feed Is Available

Walter T. McKay, State Director, Farmers Home Administration, today advised Perry W. Walker, FHA County Supervisor, of the designation of Lynn county under the Hay and Roughage Program for Texas.

Application to participate in the Hay and Roughage program will be received by county Farmers Home Administration committees immediately at the Farmers Home Administration office located at Tahoka, Texas.

The Hay and Roughage Program was worked out between the Governor and the Secretary of Agriculture to provide emergency assistance to farmers and ranchers in the State's designated disaster counties. Under the program the local county FHA committee will determine each applicant's eligibility and will issue a certificate good for $7.50 per ton on roughage actually purchased. The applicant will then apply the certificate on the purchase price of roughage from any dealer he chooses. The dealer endorses the certificate and draws a draft on the Emergency Drought Committee's account.

Applications may be filed through December 3, 1956 for a supply of roughage needed to last through December 31, 1956. Roughage under the program includes hay either baled or loose, cotton seed hulls, peanut hulls, corn cobs, sorghum bundles or ensilage.

T-Bar Club Is Completed; New Directors Are Named

Sixty-odd members of T-Bar Country Club attended the first membership meeting of the organization Tuesday night on the terrace of the club house, adopted a set of by-laws for operation of the club, and elected six new members of the board of directors.

At a meeting of the new board Wednesday morning, A. N. Norman, Jr., president for the last four months, was unanimously re-elected to the office; Reble Thomas was elected vice president; Mrs. O. C. Elliott was re-elected secretary-treasurer of the club; and Frank Hill was elected secretary of the board.

Members of the board elected Tuesday night are: "Sonny" Roberts, Irvin Dunagan, O. C. Elliott, Frank Hill, Lester Strech, and Reble Thomas.

All present committees of the club will remain as recently appointed until the board deems a change necessary.

David Ramirez, greenskeeper at Plainview the last ten years, was officially hired as the pro of T-Bar, and will also be in charge of (Cont'd. On Back Page)

O'Donnell Plays Bulldogs Tonight

Tahoka Bulldogs meet the high-flying O'Donnell Eagles on Kelley Field here tonight at 8:00, and a big crowd is expected to be on hand. Tahoka and O'Donnell did not meet last year because of schedule difficulties.

The Class A Eagles are coached this year by Joe S. Palmer, once a Tahoka student and later a great all-around athlete at O'Donnell and still later at New Mexico Western of Silver City, and Bob L. Agnew, a co-captain with Palmer in college.

The Eagles humiliated Cooper last week 45 to 7. Tahoka opened the season with a 13 to 6 loss to Plains, and last Friday dropped and 18 to 7 decision to Denver City. O'Donnell has its best team in many years. Probable starters in the backfield are: Leo Bairrington, 172, senior half back; Ben Richbourg, 145, sophomore halfback; Johnny McLaurin, 187, senior fullback; and Mack Forbes, 135, senior quarterback.

In the line will be: Kenneth White, 145, sophomore, and Jerald Barton, 166, junior, ends; Kent Thompson, 195, sophomore, and Larry James, 174, freshman, tackles; Maurice Jackson, 137, junior, and Johnny Billingsley, 141, senior, guards; and Dan Seely, 139, junior, center. There are 34 boys on the squad.

Coaches Bill Haralson, and Dean Wright, with a light backfield and a fairly sizeable line, have a task before them tonight. Not only is Tahoka outweighed, but O'Donnell is out for revenge for defeats of the past several years.

The Bulldogs have been playing good ball, but were not good enough. They hope to put out a special effort tonight to get into the victory column.

REV. PAUL ELBRECHT

St. Paul, Wilson, Plans Meetings

Fall evangelism services are scheduled to begin at the St. Paul Lutheran Church in Wilson on Sunday, Sept. 26, when Rev. Paul Elbrecht of Chast Lutheran Church in Lubbock will be the guest speaker.

These services are unique in the fact that they will be held on Sunday evenings only at 7:30 p. m. for four consecutive Sundays ending on Oct. 17.

Themes of the meetings will be "The World of Our God," Sept. 26; "The Christ of Revelation," Oct. 3; "Christian Worship," Oct. 10; and "The Blessedness of Church Membership," Oct. 17.

In preparation to the services three films will be shown on Sept. 16, 23, and 30 at 7:30 p. m. "Win Friends," "Win Strangers," and "Win the Community."

Other special events scheduled which will follow the four main services include a mission festival on Oct. 21 when Rev. H. Stroebel will be the guest speaker; special callers week, Oct. 22-27; and pastor's class for adults, from Oct. 28 to Dec. 16 at 7:30 p. m. Rev. G. W. Heinemeier is pastor of the Wilson church.

Post, Tahoka Plan League

Further plans for organization of a Post-Tahoka Pony League for next summer were worked out at a meeting at Tahoka City Hall Monday night of representatives of the two towns.

Each team plans to have two teams in the proposed junior baseball league for boys 13 and 14 years of age.

Pony League is a national organization similar to Little League, and is a follow-up to the latter organization. This year, each town had about 20 boys graduating out of Little League. Marion G. Bradley Post of the American Legion is sponsoring the organization in Tahoka, and Commander Dan Brookshire, Adjutant "Sonny" Roberts, and E. R. Edwards met with the group from Post. Several local Chamber of Commerce officials, meeting at the same place, sat in on the meeting.

The local Post will appoint a local executive committee, and from this committee four men will be named to serve with a like number from Post on the League board. From the league board of eight men, the officers will be elected.

Also, Tahoka will have to get two team sponsors to furnish funds for uniforms and equipment. Each town will finance its own two teams.

League organization must be complete by December 15 of this year, if the league becomes eligible for a franchise to enter the official play-offs next summer.

Members of the Post executive committee in the meeting here Monday night were: Leo M. Acker, temporary chairman; Phil Boucher, Shelley Camp, Bryan Williams, Jr. Jess Cornell, S. C. Storie, Bernie Francis, and Pat Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nixon and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Biggerstaff were in Dallas last week end on business.

George M. Reid Is Heart Victim

Funeral services were held yesterday at 3:00 p. m. in the First Methodist Church for George Matheus Reid, 61 year old rural mail carrier, who died at about 6:30 p. m. in Crosbyton Hospital and Clinic.

Rev. J. B. Stewart, pastor and Rev. H. A. Nichols, former pastor now of Abilene, officiated at the services. Burial was in Tahoka Cemetery under direction of Stanley Funeral Home.

Mr. Reid died as a result of a heart attack suffered near Crosbyton several days ago when he was returning from Arkansas where he had been visiting relatives. He had been in the Crosbyton Hospital about 10 days at the time of his death.

Born Nov. 9, 1894 in New Hope, Ark., he came to Tahoka in 1924 from Colorado Springs, Colo. He worked in the post office here for about ten years and then became a rural mail carrier. He had carried mail on the same route for the last 22 years. Reid has been a long time member of the Texas Rural Letter Carrier Ass'n. and served as State Chaplain in the organization last year.

A member of the Methodist Church here for 32 years, he had served on the Board of Stewards for 26 years and had been Sunday School superintendent. He was a member of Masonic Lodge and Eastern Star.

He was first married to Miss Ozalee Strasser, who died about 20 years ago. The couple had one child, Mrs. Eva Jo Burkley of Slaton.

On April 5, 1941 he married Miss Etta Lorene Harms in Aspermont and the couple had one daughter, Marihelen of the family home.

He is survived by his wife of Tahoka, two daughters; one grandchild, Mark Reid Burkley of Slaton; his mother, Mrs. J. M. Reid of DeQueen, Ark.; four sisters, Mrs. Dell Wiedman and Mrs. John Phillips, both of DeQueen, Ark., Mrs. Fred Elliott of Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs. Delia Jackson of El Paso; and three brothers, J. N. of Brownfield, H. W. of Dierks, Ark., and Thomas of Tahoka.

One sister, Mrs. Laura McClure of Shallowater, died less than two months ago. Two brothers and his father also preceded him in death.

Pall bearers included Charles Townes, Jess Gurley, Eldon Carroll, Vernon Willhoit, D. C. Carroll, A. C. Weaver, H. L. Roddy, and W. A. Reddell. Honorary pallbearers were the other postal employees.

Grain Program Is Set Up Here

Walter T. McKay, State Director, Farmers Home Administration, today advised Perry Walker, County Supervisor, of the designation of Lynn County for assistance under the Emergency Fee Grain Program. Farmers Home Administration County Committees may now take application from farmers and ranchers through October 1, 1956 to provide feed for basic livestock herds through October 31, 1956.

The emergency feed grain program is now authorized in 185 counties in Texas. Mr. McKay advised.

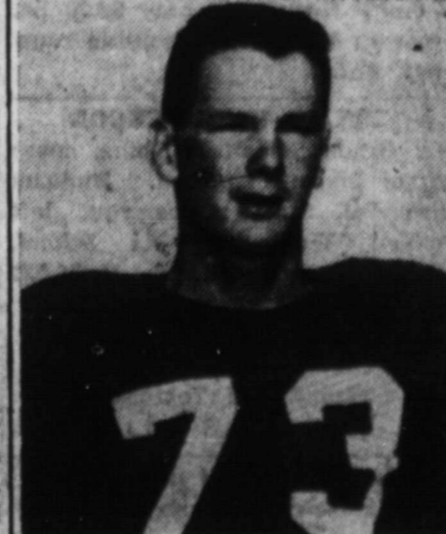

Cemetery Body Will Elect Officers

All people who have relatives buried in Tahoka Cemetery are asked to attend a meeting Sunday at 2:00 p. m. in the county court room of the courthouse for the purpose of electing new officers and directors and attending to other business.

Present officers and directors are: Garland Pennington, president; Mrs. Ethel Robinson, vice-president; Mrs. Helen Ellis, secretary; and Maurice Small and Borden Davis, directors.

Atomic airliner planning is predicted by 1965.

C. N. "Shorty" Woods won the Medalist trophy with a score of 76, but was unable to complete the tournament.

In a championship and six other flights pairings and results to Wednesday night were:

Winners Named In Ladies Golf

Mrs. A. N. (Audie) Norman won the trophy flight and Miss Echo Milliken the first flight in the first annual T-Bar Country Club Women's Golf Tournament, the finals of which were played Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Otis (Irene) Spears was second in the trophy flight. Mrs. Jack Alley (Jo Belle) Robinson and Mrs. Jack (Jewel) Smith tied for third, and Mrs. Robinson won out in an extra-hole play-off. Others playing in the flight were Mrs. G. W. (Dot) White, Mrs. James (Jerry) Applewhite, Mrs. Irvin (Glenda) Dunagan, Mrs. Berry (Lois) Fischer, and Mrs. Truett (Lucille) Smith.

Miss Milliken and Mrs. R. W. (Melba) Clem tied for first in the other flight, and Miss Milliken won out in a one-hole play-off. Mrs. C. W. (Margie) Conway was third. Others in the flight were Mrs. H. B. (Jean) McCord, Jr., Mrs. E. L. (Dink) Short, Mrs. Bill (Eloise) Griffin, and two other ladies who failed to finish the tournament.

Mrs. Lester Strech was in charge of the tournament. Trophies will be presented the three top winners in each flight following the close of the men's finals this coming Sunday afternoon.

With 17 ladies entered in the tournament, the turn-out was considered excellent. Several other ladies, experienced golf players would have entered but felt it would not be fair to the others, since all of these have taken up golf just this year.

Bulldogs Drop 18-7 Game To Denver City Mustangs

Tahoka Bulldogs lost to Denver City Mustangs 18 to 7 at that city last Friday night, being unable to cope with the Mustangs' stiff defense coupled with the strong running game.

The Bulldogs outplayed Denver City the first half, statistically, and led 7-6 on the scoreboard, but in the second half the Mustangs came back strong to score once in the third quarter and once in the fourth as the Bulldogs weakened both offensively and defensively.

Tahoka received the opening kickoff, moved up to their 45, and on fourth down there was a bad pass from center which gave the ball to DC on Tahoka's 27. Two running plays netted five yards to the 22, and then Quarterback Bob Tinley hit Halfback J. M. Nelson with a pass good for the first TD. The big 232-pound tackle, Vernon Singleton missed the field goal try.

Late in the first quarter, Tahoka Quarterback Karl Prohl intercepted a DC pass on the Tahoka 23 and returned it to the 42 to start the drive for Tahoka's lone score. Halfbacks W. H. McNeely and Jimmy Harter and Fullback Donald Renfro moved to four first downs in a row. With the ball on the DC one early in the second quarter, Prohl sneaked over for the TD, and then passed to end Jay Gurley for the conversion.

A few minutes later, Tahoka moved to the DC five before losing the ball. And, Tahoka stopped a DC drive when Renfro intercepted a pass on the Tahoka 14.

A mistake in judgment by Tahoka in the third on failure to make two yards needed for a first, gave DC the ball on Tahoka's 31. Five plays were required before Nelson went the last yard for DC's second TD.

Tahoka had another drive going in the third, but bogged down on the DC 32, from which point the Mustangs marched downfield for the final score, with John Johnson going the last yard.

The game was marred by many penalties.

Frenship Wins At New Home
New Home Leopards lost 24 to 0 Friday night to the Frenship Tigers on the Lynn county field, with the visitors scoring once in each quarter. New Home had opened its season the week before with a win over Hart.

Coach Williams New Home boys are gaining experience, however, and hope to win some more games as the season develops. The boys are reported to have done well, and Tackle Leon Blackman and Guard Wendell Morrow are said to have shown up especially well on defense.

This Friday night, New Home entertains Lazbuddy on the home field, and the boys declare they are going all out for victory.

Benches Donated T-Bar Country Club
Ten substantial benches, each six feet long, have been built for the T-Bar Country Club the past week by C. W. Conway, J. E. (Red) Brown, and Jack Alley Robinson.

Cost of the benches was donated by ten men, and their names or businesses are painted on the benches they donated. Higginbotham-Bartlett, Cicero Smith and Shamberger Gee gave the materials.

Also, each bench, two at No. 1 tee box and one at eight of the other eight, carries the hole number, yardage, and par score.

O'Donnell Wins Over Cooper

Coach Joe Palmer's revitalized 1956 edition of the O'Donnell Eagles served notice they expect to take the Tahoka Bulldogs to-night by trouncing the Cooper Pirates 45 to 7 last Friday night at Cooper.

Bennie Richbourg, O'Donnell back, returned the Pirates' first kickoff 75 yards for the first score. Later in the game, he returned a punt 50 yards to score and also scored on a 35-yard pass play. Leo Bairrington also turned in a 92-yard touchdown gallop from scrimmage and scored again on the three-yard plunge. Johnny McLaurin scored on a five-yard run off tackle, and Gerald Barton did the same from six yards away. Bairrington converted once, Barton twice.

Cooper's lone score came in the first quarter, and the Pirates led 7 to 6 for a brief period.

Wilson Loser In 46-40 Game
The 46-40 score sounds like a basketball game score, but that's the score rolled up in the Wilson-Ropesville game at Ropes Friday night, in which the Lynn county Mustangs were nosed out in the last minute of play.

In the wild offensive battle, Wilson led 40 to 39 with 55 seconds left, after having led all the way to that point. Then, a Ropesville pass was good for 30 yards and the winning touchdown.

Coach Rick Spinks' Wilson Mustangs had taken a 19 - 12 half-time lead. Each team scored 21 points in the third to bring the score to 40-39, which stood until Ropes exploded in the last minute.

Fullback Dewey Corley led the Mustangs with three touchdowns and four of six extra points. Don Lamb made two and Billy Ethridge one.

However, Ropesville's Halfback Johnny Valentine made four TD's for his team, Larry Moreland two, and Quarterback Jimmy Bevers one.

Wilson hopes to bounce back against Frenship at Frenship to-night.

Tom B. Auburg Dies Suddenly

Tom B. Auburg, 36, died at his home in San Antonio at 3:00 a. m. Friday as a result of a brain tumor. He was the husband of the former Miss Joyce Kenley of Tahoka and Post, and the brother-in-law of Dub Kenley of Tahoka.

Funeral services were held at the First Baptist Church in Lubbock Sunday afternoon with Rev. Wayland Edwards and Rev. Clifford Harris officiating. Burial was in the Brownfield cemetery.

Auburg awakened his wife during the early morning hours Friday and before she could assist him in any way, he had died. An autopsy revealed the cause of death.

He was born July 22, 1920 in Lovington, N. M. and was raised in Brownfield where he attended school before entering Texas Tech. He moved to San Antonio about two months ago from Lubbock where he had lived for three years and was general manager of General Tank and Equipment Co. He was also an ordained Baptist minister and was a member of the San Antonio First Baptist Church.

Survivors include his wife, two daughters, Jan, 11, and Sherry, nine, all of San Antonio; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Auburg of Brownfield; one sister, Mrs. R. A. Brown of Brownfield; two brothers, Paul of Odessa, and Ernest of Stockton, Calif.

Labor Advisory Board Named
Two Lynn County citizens, E. L. Blankenship of Wilson and Frank Hill of Tahoka, will serve as a County Farm Labor Committee and meet with Mr. Dayton Carrell, manager of the Texas Employment Commission office, Lamesa, and E. G. Travis, field man, Amarillo District, to review the total seasonal employment needs developed by the TEC.

The Committee will function under Public Law 78, obtaining facts relevant to the supply of domestic farm workers existing in Lynn County and the shortage of workers, if any, which must be met by importing Mexican Nationals to harvest the cotton crop.

Under Public Law 78 the TEC must supply this information to the Secretary of Labor who must limit the number of Mexican Nationals to be used in this county by granting a "ceiling." The Committee consults with the Local Office Manager to assist him in estimating the number of workers who will be needed, based on current local conditions affecting the cotton crop.

"Ceilings" granted by the Secretary of Labor limiting the importation of Mexican Nationals into this area will be posted in Post Offices in Tahoka, O'Donnell, Wilson, in the County Agent's Office, and in the County Courthouse.

The TEC has estimated that 5200 number of Mexican Nationals will have to be imported into this county to harvest this year's cotton crop.

Bland Draper In New S. C. S. Job

Bland Draper has moved from Abilene to Crystal City, where he is associated with the Soil Conservation Service. He recently graduated from Abilene Christian College in agriculture.
He is also a Tahoka High graduate and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Draper of Tahoka.

Advertising doesn't cost, it pays.

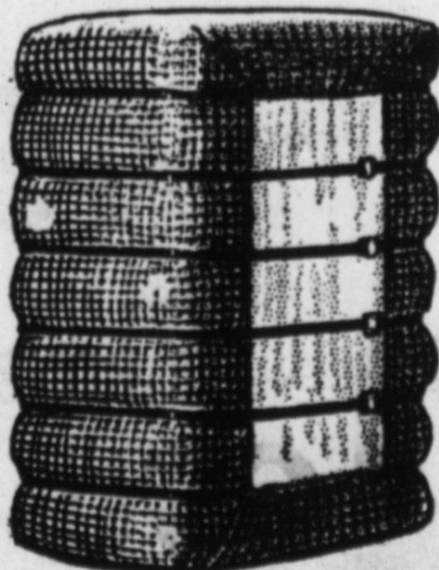

Mr. Farmer:

If Farm Bureau is to be an effective "Voice for Agriculture" composed of farmers, run by farmers, do for what farmers want done—It Must Be Financed by Farmers.

Mr. Farmer

Let us store your 1956 cotton and keep it at home as long as you have any equity in it. We have the facilities to do this.

When you send your cotton to us, it furnishes some Lynn county citizen work, and he spends his wages here. We are sure your ginner will deliver your cotton to any compress you request.

So, why not help home industry by keeping your cotton at home. Such helps all of us by building a bigger payroll in Tahoka and Lynn county—instead of building a payroll in an out of county town.

Today's MEDITATION from The World's Most Widely Used Devotional Guide

The Upper Room

Make love your aim (Corinthians 14:1. RSV.)

A young woman told the story of her married life. Her husband had been an orphan who never had a chance to go to school or to learn a trade. He earned little money. He trusted her with all he earned. He did not drink, and never went out for pleasure without her.

She said, "Do you think it hurts me because he cannot give me fine clothes, when every day he tells me I am the best gift God ever gave to him? Do you suppose I mind working to help a man like that? His love makes everything worth while."

Paul says much the same thing—love makes everything worth while. Jesus summed up religion in the word love—love to God and love to man. Christianity places love at the apex of life. It is the highest and noblest of all virtues. Indeed, all virtues are included in love. Faith is its foundation, hope its incentive. Love believes to the uttermost, and always hopes for the best.

PRAYER

Our Father, we pray that Thou wilt shed Thy love in our hearts. Use us to encourage and lead others and find Thee also. Help us all to learn to love Thee with heart and mind and soul and strength, and our neighbor as ourselves. In Jesus' name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

"Love is the fulfilling of the law."

the pro shop beginning next Monday.

Mrs. Elliott reports that there are now 124 members of the club, 59 of which are dues-paying members and the others inactive, or honorary members.

Club House Complete

Finishing touches were put on the club house last week, construction of which was started seven weeks ago, and all who have seen the place are greatly surprised at both the club house and golf course.

The 20 x 40-foot building has been built at minimum cost largely by donated labor and by materials furnished by Higginbotham-Bartlett Co. Finished in white stucco with green roof, the building has a 12 by 40 foot porch and 30 by 40-foot terrace overlooking the entire 9-hole grass greens course from the top of the hill.

Inside, the building is one big room with hardwood floors, textured walls and ceiling decorated tastefully by Mrs. Charles Verner and others, and two large plate glass windows afford a view of the course. There are rest rooms for men and women. The pro shop in the north end is already stocked with some golf goods and has cold drink and candy vendors. The building is also furnished with modern living room furniture, bridge and "42" tables and chairs.

East of the club house, caliche is being laid over a large parking area and also on the road to the property line. It will be topped with an oil sealer coat.

There probably never was a community project in Tahoka that has had as many people working together for such a long period of time donating their labor and means to build T-Bar Country Club.

and equipment both could be collateral for a loan.

Pullets would lay in six months, would be kept in production 10 months, then replaced by the company or sold at market price and the money applied on new pullets on a rotating basis.

Both Mr. Looper and Dale Thuren pointed out that the project may be expected to bring in $700.00 weekly to farmers of the territory.

They also told of the broiler projects at O'Donnell and Lubbock and the one just starting at Spur. In spite of some criticism of the project, 28 of the 30 broiler houses starting operation are still going and showing a profit. One 4,000 bird house has paid its operator $2,000 profit in a little over a year.

The proposed project will be explained to farmers at a mass meeting here on Tuesday, Oct. 2, at 2:00 p. m.

The C. of C. directors voted $150.00 to the Tahoka Fire Department's project to buy and rebuild a school bus for use of Tahoka Boy Scouts. The Firemen are putting up $150.00, and the Rotary Club and Lions Club have both indicated they will help out.

Plan Dinner At T-Bar Sunday

Dinner will be served at T-Bar Country Club Sunday evening at 6:00 o'clock immediately preceding presentation of trophies to winners in both the men's and women's divisions of the first annual club tournament.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Strech, in charge of the two tournaments, state that everyone is invited to the dinner and presentation of trophies, which will be over in time for church.

Each plate will be 75 cents, and will consist of baked ham, new creamed potatoes, beans, green salad, apple sauce, and iced tea. Proceeds will go to the club.

sniffles, squirmings, stomach aches, spills, sloth and sauciness. Neither does she disintegrate before tears, trifles, fights, futility, excuses, parents who spout, little boys who shout, and little girls who pout.

Most of all, a teacher is somebody who likes somebody else's children—and still has enough strength left to teach a Sunday School class.

Thank heavens for teachers.

There is a small portion of the Salvation Army's magazine, "War Cry," that impresses the people who notice it. It is a list of those who have served in the Salvation Army that have died in the past month. However, it is not the leading workers in signing up club members. Ray Adams acted as secretary-treasurer for more than a year, and Mrs. O. C. Elliott has been attending to these duties the past year.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLINIC

Rev. Clifford Harris and Terry Noble attended the state Sunday School Clinic in El Paso Monday and Tuesday conducted for the West Texas area.

Mrs. H. L. Ritter of Lees Summit, Mo. arrived here Monday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Lamb. Her father has been ill for several months.

Water A Big Problem

The first necessary item was water, and much of the money was spent first trying to get sufficient water, then building the greens and piping the water to them. Finally, sufficient water was secured, but not until after several dry holes had been drilled. Even much of the drilling work was donated by Rebel and R. M. Thomas, Albert Curry, J. W. Edwards of New Home, Jack P. Robinson, and Bill and Leslie McNeely. Just recently, Jack Robinson Drilling Co. put down still another hole, which caved in and could not be used. Leslie McNeely last week cleaned out one of the wells and increased the water flow.

Work, Materials Donated

During all last year, O. C. Elliott bore the brunt of the work, and this year A. N. Norman took over as president when Truett Smith resigned and he has been largely responsible for much of the work of late. He has had help from J. T. Whorton, Sonny Roberts, E. L. Short, the H. B. McCords, Lester Strech, C. W. Conway, G. W. White, Bill Griffin, "Shorty" Woods, Robert Harvick, Sam Edwards, Reble and R. M. Thomas, Irvin Dunagan, Wade Holland, Jack Smith, and at least 30 others. In the club house, Mrs. Dale Thuren and other ladies have helped Mrs. Verner.

A. R. Milliken has helped the club on the materials, and G. W. White gave the electrical wiring.

In addition to these workers, West Texas Gas Co. donated 2,000 feet of one and one-half inch pipe to the club and sold it more pipe at mill prices. Southwestern Public Service Co. cooperated by running power lines to and over the site. Other businesses have also been generous, and many individual members have contributed cash to keep the work going.

Valued At $35,000

As a result, the club already has some of the best greens in West Texas, grass is growing on the fairways, the club house is sufficient for immediate needs, and the T-Bar gives promise of becoming one of the better small town lay-outs on the Plains. Leaders estimate that the club has a value of $35,000 to $40,000, built for an outlay of about $13,000.

Trees and shrubs will be planted this winter, and more grass will be put out in the spring. Tahoka Garden Club on Tuesday of this week voted to take as a long-range project the landscaping of the club grounds.

Since opening the course a few weeks ago, about 20 new members have come in, and more are expected in the immediate future now that the club house is complete and the course is improving so fast.

Two weeks ago, more than ninety people attended a family picnic supper on the terrace of the club house.

Power Company Names Agriculture Development Man For Plains Area

SAM A. THOMAS

Sam A. Thomas has been named manager of agricultural development for the Southwestern Public Service Company. Mr. Thomas will be headquartered at the company's Amarillo office.

He will be responsible for coordinating the Company's program for bringing more of the benefits and efficiency of electricity to farm production and rural homes with all interested agricultural agencies in the company's 45,000 square mile service area. Special attention will be given to working with County Agents, Home Demonstration Agents, 4-H and Future Farmer groups, and school and college agriculture teachers.

A native West Texan, Mr. Thomas has been with the production department of the electric light and power company since 1932. He is a graduate of West Texas State College, taking his degree in agriculture. Prior to joining Southwestern Public Service, he taught agriculture for more than six years in the Wheeler County Vocational School at Mobeetie, Texas. He is a major in the Air Force Reserve.

In announcing the new appointment, W. L. Pearson, industrial manager for the Public Service Company, said: "Agriculture is still the dominant element in the economy of our service area. Electricity can increase farm production, lower production costs, and bring more comfort and convenience to rural homes. Sam Thomas has spent all his life in this region, and brings to his new position a knowledge of electricity, and the part it can play in a more modern and productive farm and farm home which will be of great value to many people in our service area."

REV. ELLIS TODD IN HAITI

Rev. Ellis Todd Will Be Speaker At Methodist Church Sunday

Rev. Ellis Todd, West Texas supervisor of the Christian Rural Overseas Program who will speak at the First Methodist Church here during the morning worship service Sunday, is shown above receiving a gift from a Methodist preacher in Haiti.

Rev. Todd is well-known in this area, having been guest speaker in the local church before. He is a former pastor of the Wilson Methodist Church.

The picture above was taken recently while he was in Haiti surveying relief work carried out by C. R. O. P. and Church World Service and distribution by local church missionary agencies in Haiti. The native Methodist minister shown with Rev. Todd had walked eight hours through the jungles in order to present the gift consisting of a large pineapple, a cluster of bananas and a sack of green coffee. The gift was presented as a token of appreciation for what American Christians have done in helping to relieve suffering in Haiti.

Rev. Todd was in Haiti for 10 days riding in jeeps, on horseback and in an airplane. He saw many people starving to death. He saw little children with bodies swollen, and in some cases the skin on their arms and legs had burst.

C. R. O. P. and Church World Service have been doing a wonderful job feeding the needy in Haiti and in helping them to become self-sustaining. Suffering and hardship have been very acute since the Hurricane Hazel passed over the island in October of 1954.

In commenting on his experiences in Haiti, Rev. Todd said, "Never in my life have I heard so many personal expressions of gratitude. Thousands of lives have been spared by food and clothing sent to these people through the Christian Rural Overseas Program and Church World Service."

Following the Sunday evening service, Rev. Vernon Henderson, district superintendent will conduct the first quarterly conference of the year. All church members are urged to attend, Rev. J. B. Stewart pastor, said.

John A. Larsson, missionary to India from Sweden, filled the pulpit last Sunday when he challenged Christians to keep the road open around the world for the spread of the religion to all countries and to all people.

GAS TAX REFUNDS MUST BE CLAIMED BEFORE SEPT. 30

Farmers are reminded that they have only until Sept. 30 to file claims for refunds on the gasoline used off the highways during the first six months of this year.

Tax officials state that farmers are not taking full advantage of the refund which Congress granted in a bill passed last Spring.

Towards the end of August, only 400,000 of an estimated three million eligible farmers had filed claims for refunds, the Internal Revenue Service reported.

The Lynn County Farm Bureau would be glad to fix the papers for any farmer who hasn't filed for his yet.

Dates Are Set For Vehicle Inspection

The Texas Public Safety Commission has set Sept. 15, 1956, until April 15, 1957 as the period during which automobiles and other motor vehicles must be inspected under provisions of the State's Motor Vehicle Inspection law.

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said in announcing the Commission's action that motorists should avail themselves of the opportunity to have their autos inspected as soon after September 15 as possible in order to avoid the inconvenience and delay which is usually associated with the end of the seven-month period by the "log jam" of car owners who wait until just before the deadline to have their vehicles safety checked.

George W. Busby, Chief of the DPS Motor Vehicle Inspection Division, stated that the more than 4,200 licensed inspection stations in the State would have sufficient supplies of stickers on hand by the starting date and would be equipped to check vehicles without delay.

The less one has to do, the less time he finds in which to do it.

Odds AND Ends

(By E. I. The Elder)

Several weeks ago, for several consecutive issues of this newspaper, I found pleasure in presenting to the readers of this Column, some of the outstanding episodes, some of them heroic and glorious, some of them regretful and shameful, in the life of that strange, inimitable, mysterious Man of Destiny, Sam Houston. I found pleasure merely in studying this unique, talented, imperious man, whether you did or not; but so many other matters gradually crowded into my thinking that almost unconsciously I finally left Houston off without having finished the story.

Recently when Eva and I came home from Waco and Chilton, where we had been visiting, we brought home with us a mutilated old book which was written eighty years ago, which even in its mutilated condition, contains more Texas history than any other book I have ever read. George B. Erath, who is himself a strange and remarkable character, for whom Erath county and one of the streets of Waco are named—a survivor in his day and time—who took pains to learn about that region which we now call Central Texas than most Texans learn in a life-time, he personally wrote much of the contents of this old book or furnished the facts to other writers who have preserved them as a part of the history of Texas.

This week I propose to give you two strange or important and little-known episodes that I found in this old book, one being a tragic Indian story, and the other constituting an important chapter in the history of this country. Some of you may have seen both of them in print, but as for me I had never heard of either of them until I read them in this old book; but I am convinced that both of them are true; and doubtless you will be too after reading this Column. I shall present the human-interest story first.

This story has to do with the kidnapping of a child. It is true that the news papers today are filled with kidnapping cases. Why should I mess up this Column with another one? Well, the kidnapers in this case were Comanche Indians, and the little victim was a white child. It reminds one of the noted Cynthia Ann Parker case, about which all of you have read.

When she was eight years old, you remember, she and her little brother Johnny were stolen by a band of Comanche Indians from her parents' barricaded home situated on the banks of the Navasota River near Groesbeck and carried far away and reared as an Indian. She and her brother were kidnapped in 1836, you will remember, and it was twenty-four years before she was found and rescued.

Well it was in 1836 when little Johnny McLennan was stolen by Comanche Indians here near Waco when he was only six years old and nobody but the Indians knew what had become of him, for they murdered his parents when they stole little Johnny.

He was found by relatives some years later dressed in the garb of an Indian. It is not explained what disposition was immediately made of him but in some way at some time he had come to be known as "Bosque John," but apparently he had remained in the possession of the Indians; for we are told that in December, 1845, when Texas was going through the process of being annexed to the United States, the last of the prisoners held by either side (the Whites and the Indians) were surrendered.

Of the exchange of prisoners after the treaty with the Indians, and of "Bosque John's" return to the McLennans, Mr. W. J. Stokes, a pioneer of Ellis county shows the action as seen by an eye witness:

"In December, 1845," he writes, "I was sent out as one of a detachment of soldiers belonging to Thomas I. Smith's company, then stationed at Grapevine Springs (now in Tarrant county) near the head of the Clear Fork of the Trinity River, after John McLennan, (Bosque John) a nephew of old Captain McLennan, for whom McLennan county is named, Bosque John then being a young man about twenty years of age"—so estimated here, but if he was only six years old when his parents were murdered in 1836 he could not have been more than sixteen years of age in 1845.

"He was so thoroughly Indianized," Mr. Stokes stated, "that he refused to come in with us, and we had to tie him, much to the displeasure of the young warriors who strummed their bows as an intimation that we should not force him off." The old Chief persuaded John that he had better go, as he had many friends and relatives down the Brazos, and then he could afterward come back if he chose.

"The night after we started with him, it snowed," Mr. Stokes continued. We put a shirt on him (a hickory shirt) but after a little while he complained that it scratched his arms. We gave him pants, but he cut off the waist and wore them as leggings. He refused to have his hair cut but persisted in wearing a long cue of buffalo hair plaited into his own.

"So, young McLennan ('Bosque John') returned to his friends and became a valuable interpreter," says the author.

In September, 1846, a little company started up the Brazos in search of a home. These were Neill McLennan Sr., his son, Neill Jr., his nephew "Bosque John," two Negro boys, and two other men, who were out roughing it for their health, one of whom was later killed by the Indians and the other of whom finally located in Bosque county as a permanent citizen.

But "Bosque John" McLennan, the interpreter, stayed in his Uncle's home only two years, at the end of which time he went back to live with the Waco

(Hueco) Indians, with whom he spent the rest of his life, which was not long. "His death occurred at Waco in a peculiar manner. He was sleeping in the upper hall of the old courthouse, before the wide doors, and arose in the night and started out as if it were the ground floor, when he fell and broke his neck. He never overcame his Indian training."

Poor old Bosque John. His Indian training ruined him. I can hardly think of a sadder case. Here was this boy, born no doubt of normal, intelligent, well-behaved American parents, stolen by the Comanche Indians at the age of six, nurtured and trained in the culture and the cruelties of savages, so dwarfed mentally and morally as to prefer that kind of life to the life of cultured and well-to-do white kin-folks.

It is true that one must conclude that that boy must have been injured physically and mentally by the Indians who kidnapped him, but obviously he had mentality enough left to make choices and to know what the result of any such choice might be. Sad, sad, too sad to contemplate, is the fate of this unfortunate boy, of whose misfortune comparatively few people seemingly have ever heard.

The second story which I proposed to give in this Column this week is one of great historical importance, for it is the story of the most thrilling impeachment trial ever heard in the halls of Congress except that of Andrew Johnson. Johnson, as most people know, had been elected Vice-President on the Republican ticket with Abraham Lincoln, and succeeded to the Presidency upon Lincoln's death. Passions ran high at that time, provoked not only by the War but also by the Assassination of Lincoln. Johnson differed from the Radical Republicans respecting his attitude toward the Southern States which had seceded and he was very untactful in the matter of dealing with the Post-War problems, and these differences soon led to the filing of impeachment charges against him. Of course the trial was most fervid and exciting.

Well, the writer of this story of the impeachment proceedings which I am about to relate declares that this trial is "second in importance only to the impeachment of President Johnson." "General Houston," he continues, "was the leading spirit in the prosecution of the accused man, Judge Watrous, before the United States Senate," where Federal Impeachment trials must be conducted. "His speech, for philippic and caustic invective is without parallel, save that of Cicero against Cataline. It is due to the memory of Judge Watrous (the Federal Judge who was being impeached) to say that not only was he acquitted, despite the vigor, energy, and great ability of the prosecution but that under the law he did nothing wrong," in the opinion of the narrator of this trial.

Now this story reports all the pertinent facts in the case, but only Lawyers perhaps would be interested in them. To the laymen who read this Column, the facts might be tedious and boring. It might be well to state, however, that Federal charges of impeachment must be tried in the Senate after the House, sitting as a kind of Grand Jury, has presented these charges as Bills of Indictment as presented in the Courts.

Somebody of course first presented this matter to the House for its investigation. Judge Watrous had served under President M. B. Lamar of the Republic of Texas as his Attorney General. There was not always a kindly feeling existing between President Sam Houston and his successor, President Lamar, and on that account some prejudice might have crept into the consideration of this case. The whole controversy was started in a violent outburst however, when John W. Lapsley, a citizen of Alabama, in 1851, filed suit against ten Texas Citizens for title to a large tract of valuable land near Waco. Judge Watrous at that time was serving as a federal judge for that district.

Judge Watrous thereupon filed an order stating that he was not qualified to sit as a Judge in this case for the reason that he had an interest in the land and he therefore transferred the case to New Orleans for trial.

His disclosure that he had an interest in the land became the basis for charges that he had been acting illegally if not corruptly in passing orders in the case when he had an interest in the land.

The Alabama plaintiff won title to the land, a decision which of course irked the Texas claimants to the land, and so one can well imagine how the matter got before Congress. These claimants, we presume, employed Sam Houston to prosecute the impeachment charges. They based their claims of title to certain land certificates issued to them by apparently proper authorities.

The land in controversy consisted of a grant known as the Eleven League Grant, consisting of the greater portion of the tract of 48,708 acres of very fertile land situated in the Brazos River Valley immediately across the river east from the city of Waco, just a village. But if valued at only $10.00 per acre that league nearly a half million dollars.

Of course the ten Texas claimants were knocked cold, first, when the Alabama man filed suit for title to the land and sought to oust them or their vendees from possession of it. He claimed and proved that he held title direct from the original owner.

It seems that Judge Watrous was a silent owner of a one-fourth interest in the land and did not feel that there was any need for him to reveal that fact until suit was filed to be tried in his Court. But many of the claimants felt outraged and were determined to get revenge if they could not get their land back, and so they laid the matter before Congress. The Lower House filed impeachment charges in the Senate, and Sam Houston was employed to prosecute. And it was an eloquent argument and a vitriolic plea for conviction that he made before the Senate.

And that was the most famous impeachment trial that had ever been staged up to that time in the U. S. Senate, but I had never heard of it till I read of it in this old book. President Andrew Johnson's trial did not come of course until after the Civil War.

Quarrels would never last long if the fault was only on one side. —Rochefoucauld

Irrigation wells were checked by Soil Conservation Service personell on the farms of Silas Rush west of Draw, and Carl Sanders north of O'Donnell. The gallons per minute gaged on wells is used in designing irrigation systems for improved water application and eventually irrigation water management which is making the most efficient use of water and applying according to the soil and crop needs.

Carl Sanders also made a small trial planting of blue panic grass that is to be watered with sprinklers. It is quite possible that this grass will have enough time to become established before a killing frost occurs.

Soil improving benefits of guar are in evidence on Jiggs Swann's farm northwest of Wilson. Bolls following last year's guar appear to be some better than bolls following cotton. On fields where there is sufficient amounts of sorghum stubble this residue should remain on the surface for protection against erosion throughout the windy winter and spring seasons. Tests have found that sorghum stubble dissipated the energy of the wind and at one inch above the ground wind velocity may be reduced by ninety per cent. This is in keeping with the fact that in passing fields with sorghum stubble during the blow season there is not as much soil movement as clean fields. Even listed fields tend to break loose and smoothe over more than fields with sorghum residues.

Coach Haralson Rotary Speaker

Coach Bill Haralson made his annual talk to Tahoka Rotary Club Thursday noon of last week on the prospects of the 1956 football season.

Coach Haralson said his boys have the right spirit, are working hard and with eagerness.

With 14 boys gone from last year's squad and only two returning starters from that team on this year's squad, the coaches and boys face a tough job of building a winning team. However, Coach Haralson said he has every confidence in his boys and says Tahoka's club is doing all right and may be a better team than had been anticipated.

The boys lost their first game to a sound, well coached and experienced ball club, Plains. The same is true in the second game with Denver City.

Coach Haralson asked hte fans to give the boys encouragement at every opportunity and to refrain from criticizing the boys, especially when they lose. The coaches and boys know best their abilities and limitations—at least more than do "grand-stand coaches" and "Monday morning quarterbacks."

Coach Wright was also present as a guest.

Herman Heck introduced the speaker.

Ray Hopkins and Lawrence Harvick, a guest who is chief of the Fire Department, presented the latter's plan for buying a school bus for use of Tahoka Boy Scout troops.

President Johnny Reasonover announced the Tahoka club was one of three in the 183rd District of Rotary with 100 percent attendance during the month of August.

Dr. K. R. Durham introduced Jimmy Harter, and Martin White presented Kent Gibson, Junior Rotarians for the Month of September. Both are seniors and members of hte football team.

"Maybe the country is in good shape, after all—a lot of people want to be President."—J. E. Jewett.

Annual Report On S. S. For Farmers

Farmers are no longer required to file Social Security returns on a quarterly basis, according to Mr. H. O. Nichols, Administrative Officer of the Lubbock office. During 1955 farmers were required to file a quarterly Social Security return with the District Director of Internal Revenue. Due to a change in procedure, farmers now file one return in January covering all taxable wages paid to farm-employees during the preceding calendar year.

A farmer must file a Social Security return during the year when he quits farming before the end of the year and has paid taxable wages during the year.
