STANDING ON THE CORNER

Thou that hast given so much to us,
Give one thing more—a grateful heart.—George Herbert, 1630.

Have you decided this past week what you have to be thankful for? If it's hard to find something that you have been blessed with, just tiptoe into your child's room some night and hear his simple, but sincere, prayer and you will have to search no more.

Or compare your life with that of a Hungarian rebel who is desperately trying to reach the Austrian border where he will find—not security—but safety.

Let us all thank God that we are blessed with freedom, and with all those things that make life sweet and wonderful.

Well, Tuesday is really the unofficial deadline for this column to be in, and with the ending of the above, my thoughts are somewhat scattered.

We'll plunge into it though, and come up with a prediction (I always did want to join the ranks of Walter Winchell and Drew Pearson). I predict another dry winter. However, I have often predicted (to myself, of course) and so far I have never been right. Therefore, we'll probably have a white Christmas.

A college senior dated a young lady from a nearby girls' school a few times. Then some weeks passed, and when she hadn't heard from him, she sent a telegram reading: DEAD, DELAYED OR DISINTERESTED?

To which the young man promptly wired back: HUNTING, FISHING OR TRAPPING?

"One of the delights known to age and beyond the grasp of youth is that of Not Going. When we are young it is almost agony not to go. We feel we are being left out of life, that the whole wonderful procession is sweeping by, probably forever, while we are weeping or sulking behind bars. Not to have an invitation—for the dance, the party, the match, the picnic, the excursion, the gang on holiday—is to be diminished, perhaps kept at midge's height for years. To have an invitation, and then not to be able to go—oh cursed spite! Thus we torment ourselves in the April of our time. Now in my early (Cont'd. on Back Page)

C. Peel Banister Dies Suddenly

C. Peel Banister, 54, of 5454 NW 12th, Oklahoma City, field representative of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service, died of a heart ailment Monday, Nov. 12, in Mercy Hospital in that city. He was stricken the day before with a heart ailment.

He was the son of Jim Banister of Tahoka. He had visited here many times and had made a lot of friends in Tahoka. His last visit here was last April.

Born in Texas, Banister had been with the Internal Revenue department since moving to Oklahoma City from Norman in 1936. He was a World War II Navy veteran, was a member of the First Baptist Church of Oklahoma City and was a Mason.

Surviving are his wife, Mildred, and one daughter, Linda, 12, both at home; a brother, Roy Banister, 5804 Wheatland Road, Oklahoma City; a step-sister, Mrs. Opal Myberry; and his father and stepmother, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Manis of Tahoka.

Local Thanksgiving Observance Nov. 29

Tahoka schools will be dismissed Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 28, at the regular time for Thanksgiving holidays, according to High School Principal John Shepherd. Classes will resume Monday morning.

In conjunction with the schools most business institutions are also expected to observe Nov. 29 as Thanksgiving Day in Tahoka although the post office was expected to close Nov. 22, the legal holiday.

Although President Dwight D. Eisenhower asked that the fourth Thursday, Nov. 22, the traditional Thanksgiving, be observed, a previous declaration of the holiday for Nov. 29 had been issued by Governor Allen Shivers to all Texas schools because of a fifth Thursday in the month. The local school had already made plans for the later before the president's statement was made known.

City Files Suit On Butane Company

The City of Tahoka has filed suit against Keystone-Fleming Transport Inc. for damages on a City fire truck for damages on a firemen were working at the scene of an accident between two butane trucks from that company.

The accident took place on April 26, 1953, west of Tahoka when one of the trucks ran into the back of the other. Both caught fire and the fire department was summoned. On the men's arrival, they were told the drivers were still in the trucks. After extinguishing the fire in one truck the men were attempting to remove it to a safer distance when one of the trucks exploded causing severe damage to the fire truck. None of the firemen were injured, although some of them narrowly escaped being burned and being struck by flying metal.

Earl Cecil Calvin and William M. Jenkins, drivers of the trucks, were both killed.

The trucks operated by Keystone-Fleming were taking fuel from near Hobbs to a point near O'Donnell at the time of the accident.

Suit was filed in Judge Victor H. Lindsey's 72nd District Court in Lubbock, and the City alleges that damage on the fire truck amounted to $6,000.

Calloway Huffaker is attorney for the City in the case.

Boys Kill Bobcat West of Tahoka

A bobcat was killed by two Tahoka High School boys at the R. W. Fenton Jr. tank about four miles west of town late Wednesday afternoon.

David Bray and Johnny Wheeler had gone to the tank to hunt ducks, and were laying in wait for some ducks to fly in to the tank. One of them saw what they thought was a rabbit in some brush nearby. When one of them took a shot and missed, the cat ran out to the tank, and David fired a shotgun blast at him and Johnny followed with another.

The cat was a fairly big one, possibly weighing more than 25 pounds. The boys brought him to town, and skinned him that night.

About three weeks before, the News editor, Frank Hill, reported seeing a bobcat in the road near the old Claude Wells farm, and was the object of some good-natured kidding from friends. Then, Cody Bragg reported he had seen a bobcat cross the road near the Krause farm.

So far as The News knows, this is the first bobcat killed in Lynn county this far from the "break" in many years.

William Jennings Bryan ran for president four times.

Union Service Is Next Wednesday

Rev. Clifford Harris, pastor of the First Baptist Church here, will be the speaker at a joint Thanksgiving service to be held at the First Methodist Church on Wednesday, 7:00 p. m., Nov. 28.

Bob Lewis, educational director of the Baptist Church, will lead the joint choir in singing Thanksgiving hymns. The two choirs are also working together in preparing a Christmas cantata to be presented during that holiday season.

The two churches began several years ago meeting together for the Thanksgiving service.

The location alternates each year and the visiting minister delivers the message each year. The visiting choir director is also in charge of the music at the services. Rev. J. B. Stewart is pastor of the First Methodist Church.

All members of both congregations are urged to attend and others in the community and area are also invited.

New Home Youth Thrown By Horse, Seriously Injured

While riding the horse, the animal began running and threw the youth into a barbed wire fence.

Clarence is a son of Jim Phelps, who lives in New Home and is employed by New Home Gin Co.

Cotton Harvest Near Completion

Cotton harvest in Lynn county is almost complete, except for scrapping, ginners report, with not more than 5,000 to 7,000 bales remaining to be ginned.

Many farmers have completely finished their harvest. Some are delaying the use of boll pulling machines by reason of the fact that some late bolls have been slow in opening since the recent freezes.

Texas Employment Commission estimates 84,000 bales had been ginned in Lynn county through Wednesday. This figure is about in line with an estimate made by The News Thursday of last week of between 80,000 and 82,000 bales.

Lynn county had ginned 67,097 bales on November 1, according to the U. S. Bureau of Census report received by The News Thursday morning. The report reveals that The News was way low on its November 2 estimate of 63,000 bales ginned at that time.

Following are the official ginings of leading Plains counties up to Nov. 1:

Lubbock	132,542
Hockley	102,162

Former Citizen Dies In Wreck

Capt. Fred Littlepage, 57 year old veteran San Antonio police officer who at one time lived in Tahoka, was killed last Friday night in an automobile accident near Medina Lake.

He was returning home from a hunting trip when his car plunged into a dry creek bed after failing to make a sharp curve. The accident was discovered by a passing motorist but Littlepage was pronounced dead on arrival at Santa Rosa hospital.

A well-known police officer of that city who was many times recognized for outstanding duty, he was reported to be one of the most feared by criminals of that area.

Littlepage came to Tahoka as a boy in 1909 with his late parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Littlepage, and lived here about seven years before moving away in 1916. He had many old time friends here.

He had been a member of the police force in San Antonio since 1925 and had served in the vic division, had helped organize the homicide department where he (Cont'd. on Back Page)

L. F. Craft Added To List of Mayors From Lynn County

The list of former Tahoka citizens who have become mayor of the city in which they now live continues to grow, and now boasts a total of eight.

The latest addition to the list is Leonard F. Craft, who for many years operated a dry cleaning shop here. Craft lived here for over 25 years before moving to Andrews where he was named mayor there in a special election Tuesday. His late wife, Mrs. Lucy Craft, was first grade teacher in Tahoka for about as many years as the couple lived here.

Craft received 261 out of 352 votes cast in the election. Four other candidates were seeking the office vacated by the resignation of the former mayor.

Other mayors on Tahoka's list include Clint Walker, who is mayor of Tahoka; W. T. Bovell, mayor of Muleshoe; James Minor, mayor of Post; J. E. Sherrill, Jr., mayor of Bovine; M. B. Hood, mayor of Plainview; Henry Heck, mayor of Idalou, and Bob Cook, former mayor of the same town; and Sumner Clayton, mayor of O'Donnell.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Kemp of Monterey Park, Calif., were here Friday until Monday visiting his sister, Mrs. S. R. Kemp.

Marion G. Bradley Post of the American Legion sponsored the setting up of committees from Tahoka to work with Post on the League. The League officials will be elected at the joint meeting of the committees from the two towns.

Mrs. J. Lankford Dies On Sunday

Mrs. Jennie Lankford, 81 years old, died Sunday in Tahoka Hospital at 8:00 a. m. following an illness of several years.

She had suffered a severe heart attack about five years ago and since that time had been partially inactive.

Funeral services were held here Monday morning at the Sweet Street Baptist Church with Rev. Ray Cunningham, pastor, and Rev. Clifford Harris, pastor of the First Baptist Church officiating. Graveside services were held that afternoon at the Cedar Hill Cemetery in Abilene. Both Tahoka pastors officiated at the afternoon rites.

Mrs. Lankford was born Jan. 7, 1875 in Hohenwald, Tenn. The family later moved to Deport, Texas before going to Abilene. ## MR. AND MRS. CAVENESS HOME FROM CABIN RETREAT

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Caveness recently returned from a week's stay in their cabin on the banks of the Colorado River in San Saba county, just resting and enjoying the scenery, which Mr. Caveness says is really magnificent in Turkey Valley. It is a really wild and rugged gorge through which the turbulent waters of the Colorado River flow.

He declares that the scenery beats that of Stampede Valley all to pieces about which E. I. the Elder has been using so much space in his column recently. He really made the Stampeder want to go down and see that Turkey gorge and possibly bring back a piece of the turkey.

CYNTHIA ANN PARKER IS CONTEST WINNER

Cynthia Ann Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reid Parker, was named winner in the recent Tex'n' Jean "Name the Pet" contest, and was awarded a new pair of Tex N' Jeans by the local dealer, Rutherford & Co.

Cynthia Ann's award was considered quite remarkable since her entry was only one in several hundred thousand entries over an eight state area. College professors in Waco, Texas, were the official judges in Tex N' Jeans "Name the Pet" contest and were hard pressed in considering the unexpectedly large number of entries in this contest.

Tahoka Ends Football Year With Defeat By Lockney

Tahoka Bulldogs, accustomed to winning most of their games over the past eight or ten years, finished a dismal football season by losing its season-ending game here last Friday night to the Lockney Longhorns 26 to 0.

The Longhorns completely dominated the play all the way, with Halfback Jerry Williams and Fullback Bill Race almost running the Bulldogs ragged.

However, there was one bright spot for Tahoka. Some of Coaches Bill Haralson and Dean Wright's next-year boys looked good, and prospects are brighter for the next two years.

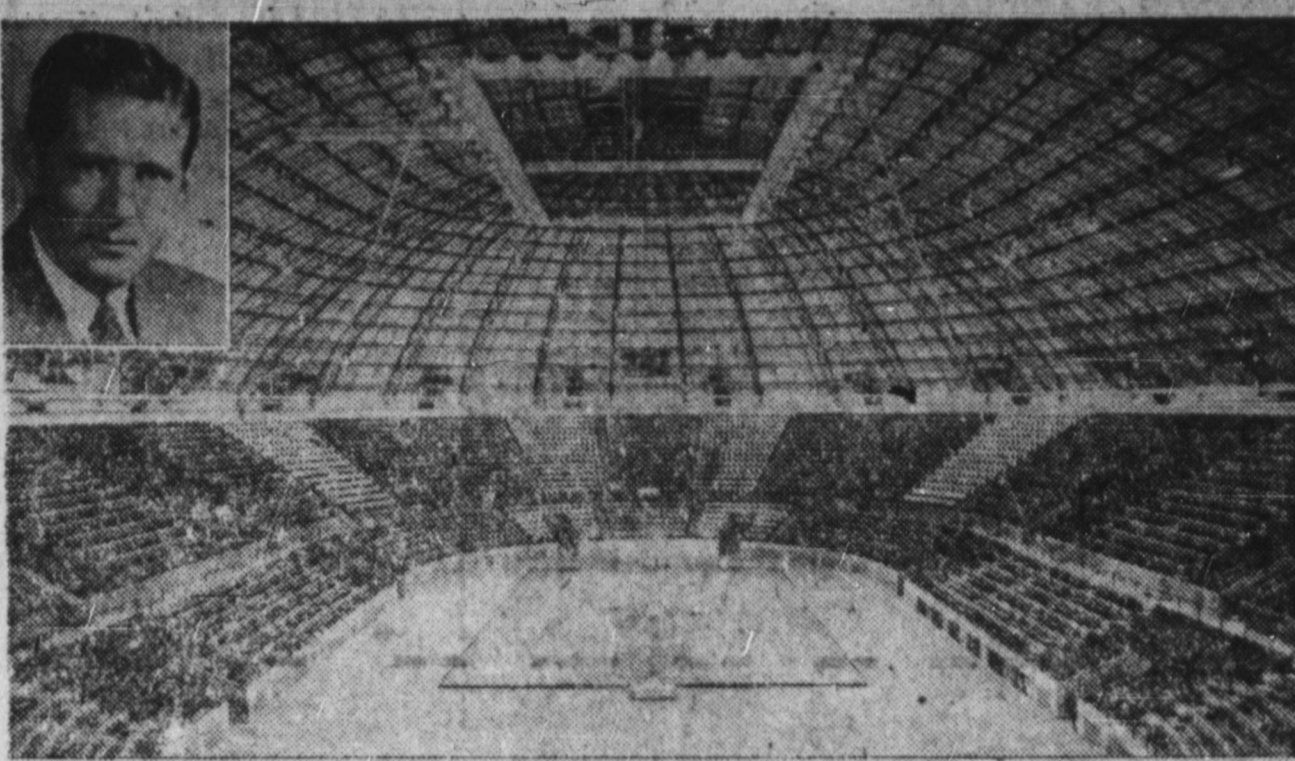

Tahoka played Friday night without the services of Quarterback Karl Prohl, who has been the key to both Tahoka's offense and defense all season, out with a leg injury; and sophomore center Cecil Hammonds, also out with an injury.

The Bulldogs received the kickoff, couldn't move, Jerry Brown got off a very short punt and Lockney took over on the Tahoka 35. Nine plays later, QB Gene Handley slipped around end four yards to score. Race failed on the conversion.

Tahoka moved out to its 48, but fumbled and Guard Byron Brock recovered for the Longhorns, and the visitors took 11 plays to score their second TD in the first quarter, with Williams going the last four through the middle of the line, and Williams then carried for the extra point. Score 13-0.

TEXAS TECH BASKETBALL FANS get a combination of spectator comfort and power-laden schedule this season as the Red Raiders move into the 10,000-capacity Lubbock Municipal Coliseum on the Tech Campus. Coach Polk Robinson (inset), in his 14th season at the Raiders' helm, sends his team through this home schedule: Dec. 3—Kansas State, Dec. 5—Texas Christian, Dec. 10—Tulsa, Dec. 14—Iowa State, Dec. 20—Nebraska, Jan. 12—Arizona State, Jan. 19—Phillips 66 Oilers, Jan. 30—Baylor, Feb. 7—Hardin-Simmons, Feb. 9—Southern Methodist, Feb. 16—Texas Western, Feb. 25—Arizona, Feb. 28—West Texas State, Mar. 4—New Mexico A&M. Registered from the Border Conference after winning that league's title for the past three years, Texas Tech must wait until 1957-58 before competing for the Southwest Conference championship.

In the second quarter, Tahoka got a scoring opportunity when Jimmy Harter, playing quarterback for Prohl and linebacker, intercepted a Handley pass on the Tahoka 45 and moved to the Lockney 41. However, Tahoka could move only nine yards in four plays. Lockney bounced back on a 38 yard run by Race to set up another score and Williams again went the last four yards to score, and then carried around right end for the extra point. Score, 20-0.

The two teams played to a stand-off in the third period, but near the end of the quarter Tahoka got pushed back to its own one. Brown punted out to the 29, and on the very next play Williams broke through the line and raced 29 yards to score the final TD. The rest of the game was also a stand-off.

John Hegi did a good job at center in place of Hammonds and got in on several tackles. Jerry Adams, Billy Tomlinson, Kent Gibson, Jerry Brown, Larry Simmons, and Jimmy Harter got most of the tackles. On defense for Lockney, John Hanst, Byron Brock and Bill Race did a great job in stopping the Bulldogs.

Playing their last game for Tahoka were six seniors: Bobby Paris and Larry Simmons, the two big tackles who have done good at times; backs Jimmy Harter, Don Renfro, and W. H. McNeely, all of whom, although light, have done a good job; and Kent Gibson, who has played a consistently good game at guard.

Among the boys who are expected to show much improvement next year are: Prohl, and his quarterback understudy, Freshman George Adams; Center Cecil Hammonds and John Hegi, both sophomores; End Jerry Adams, soph., and Guard James Adams, junior; Marcelino Madrid, soph halfback; Robert Cloe, soph, halfback; Virgil Hicks, soph., tackle; Richard Brooks, junior, halfback and lineman; Jerry Brown and Jay Gurley, junior ends; Gayland Teckell, junior, end; David Bray and Roy Arnold, soph. guards; Billy Tomlinson, soph, halfback and a tough little defensive boy; Don-

Wilson Mustangs Close Out Season

Wilson Mustangs, disheartened by losses to Whiteface and Meadow and hurt by injuries, folded up before the onslaught of the New Deal Lions Friday night, taking a 37 to 7 drubbing.

However, the Mustangs, coached the first year by Rick Spinks, former Texas Tech star, ended the season with a .500 record. Wilson had a 5-5 all-season record and 3-3 District 4-B record.

The Mustangs won over Amherst 19 to 6, Petersburg 26 to 19, Lorenzo 38 to 0; New Home 25 to 7, and Cooper 39 to 13. They dropped games to Ropesville 46 to 40, Frenship 6 to 0, Whiteface 36 to 26, Meadow 33 to 0, and New Deal 37 to 7.

In the game at New Deal Friday, Wilson took a brief 7-6 lead in the first quarter but the Lions scored again. The halftime score was 7-12, but New Deal came back strong in the second half to score twice in each quarter. Wilson's score came on a 60-yard run by Dan Lamb, and Kenneth Ethridge ran over the extra point.

Spur Plays Canyon At Plainview

Spur Bulldogs, who finished in a tie with Lockney Longhorns and the Abernathy Antelopes for the District 2-AA title, will meet Canyon Eagles of District 1-AA in the Interscholastic League play-off in the Plainview High School stadium today, Friday, at 2:00 p. m.

The three 2-AA teams finished in a tie with five games won and one game lost each. Officials from the three schools met Saturday in Ralls and decided by lot the team to advance, and Spur drew the lucky number.

O'Donnell Wins Final Contest

Coach Joe Palmer's O'Donnell Eagles closed out their first season under his tutoring Friday with a 19 to 13 victory over Ropesville. The win put Ropes in the cellar in District 5-A conference play.

O'Donnell finished the season with a 1-4 record in conference competition and a 3-7 record over the entire season.

The Eagles won games early in the season over Cooper 45 to 7 and over Stanton 25 to 6. Losses were to Tahoka, Post, Coahoma, Sundawn, Plains, Frenship, and Seagraves.

Coach Palmer, a former O'Donnell star himself, has started building for the future, and hopes to get the Eagles back into the victory column in a year or two.

New Home Drops Meadow Game

New Home Leopards, playing their second year of 11-man football, turned in a very creditable performance last Friday in holding Meadow Bronchos to a 25 to 13 win on the New Home field.

However, Meadow ran up a 25 to 0 lead before the Leopards got in on the scoring in the fourth quarter. C. L. Rogers broke away on a 50 yard gallop to score the first New Home touchdown, and a few minutes later passed to Ronnie Nettles, the play-netting 60 yards and another touchdown. Rogers ran over one of the extra points.

New Home, short on reserves to start with, was badly hurt this year by injuries and illness, and ended the season with only 14 boys in uniform.
 The Leopards won two games, Hart 7 to 0 and over Lorenzo 7 to 6, and lost seven, to Farwell, Lazbuddie, Frenship, New Deal, Wilson, Cooper, and Meadow. The win over Lorenzo enabled them to finish out of the cellar in 4-B conference play.

Local VFW Post Holds Banquet

The local VFW Post No. 3905 held its annual Thanksgiving dinner here Monday night at the American Legion Hall when District Commander and Mrs. N. T. Conner of Tahoka were honored. Mrs. R. L. Richardson, a long time Auxiliary member, recognized the honorees, Conner being the first man from Tahoka to ever serve as district commander. The couple was presented a gift. Conner is a past commander of the local post, which is now occupied by C. W. Conway.

Conner spoke to the group on the condition of the local post and challenged the members with a goal of 70 members for the coming year.

All past Auxiliary unit presidents were also recognized at the occasion and included Mmes. J. D. Oliver, Albert Curry, Dan Curry and Preston Buchanan. Mrs. Conner is the present president.

Others recognized were the four oldest VFW members in the post, W. S. Taylor, R. L. Richardson, N. W. Smith, and J. B. Oliver. Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. W. S. Taylor arranged the program and Mrs. Minnie Conwill and Mrs. I. I. Gattis were in charge of the turkey dinner, which was served to about 30 members and guests.

Baptists Seek Aid On Building Fund

Sunday is the date which has been set aside by the First Baptist Church to receive a Thanksgiving offering for the debt retirement on the Educational Building which has recently been constructed.

A goal of $9,000.00 was set last January to be raised during 1956 and approximately $3,000.00 has already been given during the year, some of it early enough to be included in the payment made last January. It is the desire of the deacons of the church to keep ahead at least one year on the payments.

Since the building has been opened, the church reached the Advanced Standard rating during 1956 and has a probable chance of reaching it again this year. The highest attendance months in the history of the church were during September and October when the Sunday school average attendance reached 462 and 460, respectively. These averages are running 50 above last year's average attendance.

If the church again accomplishes its goal of attaining the Advanced Standard rating, it may be the first in the Southern Baptist Convention to reach it in 1957, according to the pastor, Rev. Clifford Harris.

Pythian Sisters Hold Meeting

Annual roll call was answered by 37 members. Hostesses were Lucille Wright, Peggy Huey, Jean Freeman, and Lessie Cawthron.

The next meeting will be Dec. 4, when the group will elect new officers.

The ways and means committee wishes to thank all members for making this year an outstanding one.

Since 1902 when President McKinley was assassinated, the U.S. Secret Service has been charged with guarding the President.

SURVIVAL 'HARDWARE'

FCDA Stockpiles Would Aid U. S. After Huge Attack

One of the world's largest "hardware dealers" sells no merchandise, has an 80,000-ton "inventory" which is constantly increasing, and hopes that none of the "hardware" will ever be used.

The cities of Esston, Stroudsburg, and Scranton, Pa., depended on emergency pumps and purifiers for their city water in August 1955. FCDA medical supplies and 600 cots alleviated human suffering in Marysville and Yuba City, Calif., in December 1955, while pumps bailed out inundated Yuba City.

IT INCLUDES such widely diverse items as medical supplies and blood "expanders" (chemicals which augment whole blood), portable emergency hospitals, gasoline-operated pumps, generators and water purifiers, and radiological "survey meters" for detecting fallout.

FCDA warehouses of all types are located from 20 to 100 miles from most major target areas in the nation, the size of the stockpile depending on the size and potential need of the target city.

While FCDA stockpiles are primarily for man-made disaster, they have also played a vital role in some recent floods.

STOCKPILE of emergency supplies in Federal Civil Defense Administration warehouse is carefully marked and stored, so that supplies most urgently needed after an attack can be moved more quickly. (FCDA Photo)

STANDING

November not only do I not care the rottenest fig whether I receive an invitation or not, but after having carelessly accepted the invitation I can find delight in knowing that I am Not Going. I arrived at this by two stages. At first, after years of illusion, I finally decided I was missing nothing by not going. Now at the second and, I hope, final stage, I stay away, and no longer care whether I am missing anything or not. But don't I like to enjoy myself? On the contrary, by Not Going, that is just what I am trying to do.—J. B. Priestley.

It's a wonderful thing the way our local ministers work together in our community. It hasn't been too many years ago that things were not so congenial.

It is also gratifying the way the churches are working together for the success of their program. We are especially glad that congregations now meet together for special services, support each other's revivals, etc. What would be more wonderful if they would join together in sponsoring and promoting community projects that would enable others a few more of the comforts of life.

Back to our banker's magazine, a statement is made that poverty is an age-old problem, one that the Bible warns will be with us always. Like sin, poverty can always be safely denounced. Even in this election year, amid the greatest prosperity this nation has ever known, candidates were tempted to seek political advantage by blaming their opponents for not "doing enough" for the unfortunate.

What are we doing? It isn't just up to the administration.

Tahoka Is Giving Support To World Movement on International Good-Will

Rotary Foundation Week was observed by the Tahoka Rotary Club Thursday noon of last week when Dr. Emil Prohl talked on the Foundation and its purposes.

Dr. Prohl is a member of the 183rd District committee which selects a graduate student each two years for a year's study in some foreign country.

Citing the fourth object of Rotary, which is to promote better international good-will and understanding as a basis for peace, Dr. Prohl stated support of this foundation is one way a small community can help promote peace.

The local club is a 100 percent member of the International Foundation, each member having contributed at least $10.00 to the fund. In addition, the club is contributing $1.00 per member per year.

The Foundation was set-up in 1947 as a memorial to Paul Harris, Chicago lawyer, originator of the service club idea and founder of Rotary. More than four million dollars have been contributed to the cause. The fund is used to exchange graduate students among the nations of the world.

This district has had two such students, Flozelle Jones of Sweetwater, who studied a year in England and Scotland; and Gerre Hancock, a former Tahoka boy, who studied last year in France. Both have been speakers at the local club.

In his talk, he also called attention to other small parts the local club is taking in promoting better international understanding.

One of these is the bringing of foreign graduate students to Tahoka for eight or ten weeks in the summer to live in homes of Tahoka Rotarians and to come to know and understand us better.

Last year, Bernard Debonne of Paris, France, was brought to Tahoka for eight weeks. As a result, he returned to America this fall to study in UCLA in Los Angeles, and hopes to spend his Christmas vacation in Texas. This year, Fred Mauhart of Linz, Austria, was brought over for ten weeks.

He also told of the success of a Latin American through a boost from a Tahoka Rotarian.

Several years ago, Miss Median Hidalgo of New Home, came to the office of Dr. Skiles Thomas suffering with curvature of the spine and other ailments. Through efforts of Dr. Thomas, she was given aide by the Texas Rehabilitation Program to learn a vocation. After studying dress designing in San Angelo Junior College, she was able to do a year of study in Paris, France, in dress designing. Returning home two weeks ago, she came to see the Doctor, and told him she lived in a private home in France, came in close contact with the people and believed she did a lot of good in promoting a better understanding of the American way of life.

Dr. Prohl stated that since war, financial aid, rebuilding of war-torn cities and factories, and the furnishing of arms to needy nations do not seem to be the answer to world peace, maybe the promotion of better understanding among the peoples might be the answer.

The report of Secretary W. M. Mathis showed the Tahoka Club had reached its 15th consecutive meeting of 100 percent attendance. L. C. Haney and A. M. Bray introduced the Junior Rotarians for the month, Homer Morse and Joe Patterson, both High School seniors.

Derwood Howard and Ted Allen were in charge of the program.

Early Thanksgiving Observed Bu Wilson Methodist Church

The Wilson Methodist Church observed Thanksgiving Nov. 14th in order that families could observe Thanksgiving in the home Nov. 22nd or 29th.

The program for the night was called Thanksgiving, Fellowship, Worship, Dedication Service. It began in the basement of the Church with a fellowship supper at 7:00. This was in keeping with our forefathers who prepared a meal, although a very meager one, they ate. At 8:00 the entire group moved to the sanctuary of the Church for worship and dedication of their tithes.

The theme of the service was developed by the singing of two choirs. The adult choir sang praise and thanksgiving hymns, and the children's choir added to the service with their praise and prayer hymns. The pastor, Billy Wilkinson, gave the Thanksgiving devotional and then led the choir and congregation to the altar for the dedication of tithes.

The Church did not have a Lord's acre program this year, but the pastor and the laymen kept emphasizing the fact that the whole farm belongs to God. As a result, $3,240.00 was placed on the altar.

The offering is to retire the indebtedness on a new parsonage and the redecoration of the Church building inside and out. There remains a balance of only $900.00 against the $11,000.00 building program, done since last June.

"The pastor is sincerely grateful for the response of the membership and believes this is an expression of deep appreciation to God for their blessings which have been much greater than many peoples in other areas," states Rev. Billy Wilkinson, pastor.

There is no law requiring Justices of the Supreme Court to be lawyers.

Officially, the high seas begin three miles from shore.

Dr. K. R. Durham, Tahoka dentist, is the author of a recent six-page feature article in the Texas Dental Journal, official monthly magazine of the Texas Dental Association.

Entitled "Better Cavity Preparation," the article is profusely illustrated and deals with technical aspects of preparing a cavity for filling.

Dr. Durham has long been recognized over the Southwest as one of the outstanding dental surgeons and is considered an authority on many phases of his profession.

He frequently conducts clinics at dental meetings, the most recent having been at Lubbock a few days ago before the South Plains Dental Society.

Making Survey On Farm Stock

Rural mail carriers this week left some cards along their routes that they will want back in a few days.

"These cards are used in making the yearly survey of the number of livestock on Texas farms," Mr. V. C. Childs of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, explained.

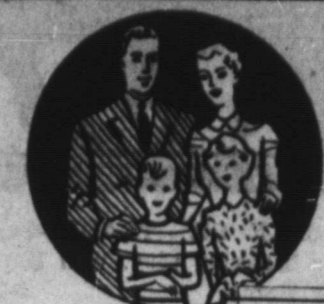

Every year at this time the post office cooperates with the U. S. Department of Agriculture in getting reports from farmers and ranchers about their livestock holdings.

In distributing these survey cards, rural carriers pick boxes at random along their routes.

"This means that no, every box will get a card," Mr. Childs said. "For this reason, it's important for everyone who gets a card to return it filled out so that USDA can get a true sample of the nation's livestock holdings."

The facts and figures secured in this survey are the basis for the state and national pig crop report and inventories of livestock and poultry on farms as of the first of the year.

The material is analyzed and reported by the Crop Reporting Board of the Agricultural Marketing Service, and agency of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Letters From News Readers—

(The News welcomes letters from its readers on any current subject, not libelous, of course. All communications must be of reasonable length and must be signed. On request, the signature will not be printed. The Editor.)

E. I. Hill,
Tahoka, Texas,
Dear Sir:

Congratulations on your comments on the recent election. I too have voted a Democrat ticket in state elections all my life but not in the national elections.

For over fifteen years I have been a great admirer of our present President and his diplomatic abilities. I made the remark I would vote for him if he ran for President, regardless of what ticket. I too think we should regard the character of the man and then his ability for the job regardless of his political standing. I voted for Hoover and I also voted against F. D. R. three times—never did like his dealing with Russia and other policies, including whiskey dealings.

You may have included the Governor of Oregon's speech at the Republican convention as to mudslinging, Stevenson, Kefauver, and Truman had said enough about each other; no use to say more. Again Congratulations.

R. W. Allen, Rt. 4, Tahoka,

Miss Wilda Shockley Marries Sunday

Miss Wilda Ann Shockley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee M. Shockley of New Home became the bride of Herman Douglas Haynes, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Haynes of Lubbock, in vows read in the New Home Methodist Church Sunday at 7:00 p. m.

Rev. Hugh B. Daniels read the double-ring services before an altar banked with tropical palm foliage and large white chrysanthemums, flanked by white cathedral tapers.

Boswell Edwards of New Home sang "Because," "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Miss Sylvia Edwards.

Today's MEDITATION from The World's Most Widely Used Devotional Guide

The Upper Room

Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and we shall be satisfied." Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you so long, and yet you do not know me, Philip?" (John 14:8, 9 RSV.)

At a family conference in a secluded woodland area, our five-year-old son became separated from his age group. I found him in tears. "What happened?" I asked. "I just stopped for a minute to look up," he cried. "I heard the trees brushing the clouds, and I saw a bird flying. When I looked down, everybody had gone."

The world does not wait while we pause to look around. Like Philip, many of us walk in the presence of God unaware of Him. Made by God, we live in His setting. His gifts surround us, and we use them every moment of our lives. Yet we are so ungrateful. The secret of thanksgiving lies in our awareness of God. Christ's spirit in us teaches us appreciation and love for God, and sheds a magic glow over our attitudes and actions.

PRAYER Our Father, we have frequently failed in our praise of Thee because we have not learned the secret of awareness. Help us to become aware of Thy presence in us, in others, and in Thy gifts to us, through Christ. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY The secret of giving thanks is awareness of God. —Mary Edith Barron (California)

J. Fred Muggs, noted TV chimpanzee, and Bobby Wilkinson, national Muscular Dystrophy Child, seem to wonder how this gobble will look on a platter as they pose to publicize Thanksgiving March for Muscular Dystrophy conducted by Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America, Inc., for funds to fight the crippling and fatal malady which strikes children mostly.

Ahrens Will Have 50th Anniversary

The Ahrens were married at Shiner, Lavaca county, on December 27, 1909. He was born and reared at Moravia, in the same county. Mrs. Ahrens, whose maiden name was Hulda Dreyer, was born and reared at Shiner.

The couple have seven living children, namely: Edgar of Grand Prairie, Henry of Olton, Weldon of Lubbock, Mrs. A. C. (Natalie) Minzenmayer of Winters, Mrs. David (Gladys) McLean of Crane, and Mrs. Walter (LaVerne) Gardner of Ropesville. There are 13 grandchildren.

The Ahrens are members of the St. John Lutheran Church of Wilson and are among Lynn county's finest citizens.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Shaffer and Mr. and Mrs. John Fleming spent last week end in Dallas visiting Laylan McMahan and family. G. C. Shaffer and family of Madisonville met them there for a visit. Laylan, son of Mrs. Fleming and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Shaffer, is a ticket agent for the airlines in Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Follis recently had as their guests two nephews and a niece and a nephew's wife from California who were enroute to Texarkana to visit their father, who had recently been in a car wreck.

Mr. and Mrs. Coughran Ketner and two children of Seminole were here Sunday visiting his father, J. E. Ketner. Coughran was raised in Tahoka and is now in the furniture business in Seminole.

Odds and Ends

(By E. I. The Elder)

I feel that I just must talk politics a little more this week. There are several political matters that I want to give a little attention. The first one I mention is the controversy which has sprung up between Senator Price Daniel and Governor Alan Shivers respecting the former's resignation as United States Senator. Daniel has tendered his resignation to Governor Shivers to take effect January 15, and has requested Shivers to call an election immediately to fill the prospective vacancy. Shivers has thus far refused to do so on the grounds that as yet there is no vacancy and that he has no authority under the Constitution and laws of Texas to call an election to fill a vacancy resulting from a resignation until the vacancy actually exists, and he is therefore requesting Daniel to tender a resignation to take effect immediately so that he may thereupon legally call an election at such time as the law prescribes, according to his interpretation of it, so that nobody can question the validity of the election. Governor Shivers may be correct in his interpretation of the law, and if so he can not be blamed for refusing to call the election until Daniel tenders his resignation from the U. S. Senate to take effect immediately or abandons the office on January 2 or 3 by taking the oath of office as governor of Texas, or soon thereafter, the usual time for a governor to be sworn in. We are prone to say that Governor Daniel should have resigned as U. S. Senator several weeks ago, or at least as soon as he was legally declared to have been elected governor of Texas.

But there is another side to that position, which elicits the sympathy of thousands of voters. It takes a barrel of money for a man to make a race for governor—many thousands of dollars, however economical the candidate may be. It seems rather brutal to say that in addition to these campaign expenses he must give up his salary as U. S. Senator also. His term of office does not expire, even when he resigns, until a date named by him or when he is sworn into some other office. Senator Daniel evidently did not feel that he should be required to give up the salary of U. S. Senator as long as he legally occupied that position, and at least not until he could take his office as governor of Texas. If he had resigned as soon as his election to the governorship was legally declared, which was on or before November 12, he could have drawn no salary from that date until January 2, either as Senator or as Governor, a period of at least six or seven weeks, involving a personal financial sacrifice which evidently he believed that he should not be required to make.

So, while Shivers was probably correct in his interpretation of the law and while Daniel might have been influenced to some extent in his interpretation of the law by his financial interest in the matter, yet it is possible that he believed that fairness and justice were on his side and that the law should be liberally construed in order that justice might be done.

So, obviously, this is not just a trivial controversy between two peevish or picayunish politicians but apparently an honest difference of opinion as to the proper interpretation of the law, in the matter of filling vacancies such as this.

From the opposing arguments which the two disputants present, one must conclude that the law is either not clear or not just. Whether the one contender or the other is right, it seems to me that the law needs to be amended so as to make it both clear and just. To me, it seems that the legislature must have been at fault in the first place, if indeed it has ever enacted any law at all covering this situation. For many years there has been too much shoddy legislation, and in recent years too many shoddily written constitutional amendments have been submitted to the people for adoption. A notable example of carelessness in the submission of an amendment was that amendment on which the people were required to vote on Tuesday of last week instead of a week earlier at the general election as, presumably, was intended, a mistake which cost the people possibly as much as $200,000.00. Possibly the only way to insure better legislation is for the people to adopt a new Constitution providing for fewer but better-paid legislators. But nothing like that is in prospect, and so our best remedy seems to be the exercise of more care in the selection of state senators and representatives. Surely the legislature which is to convene in January will give careful and adequate attention to the matter of passing a clear, fair, and just law that will prevent the recurrence of a situation such as we now have.

It was with deep regret and disappointment that I read a few mornings ago of an additional decree of the United States Supreme Court to the effect that there must be no longer any segregation of the Negroes and Whites on busses being operated in the city of Montgomery, Alabama. Negroes must be allowed to sit on any seats they please in busses operated by the Whites. The decision makes no distinctions between neat, cultured, well-behaved Negroes and the other kind. Under the decision of the Court, a big, burly, greasy sweating, churlish Negro buck, may go into a car occupied by refined white ladies and gentlemen and take a seat beside a white lady—perhaps your wife or daughter if you live in Montgomery—and neither you nor the car conductor can do anything about it without getting into trouble with the NAACP or with the Supreme Court or both. Doesn't that Court have sufficient judicial acumen to know that offensive conduct like that will provoke physical encounters and probably riots and blood-shed. Perhaps the Court could not take judicial knowledge of the rumpus created at the University of Alabama by Autherine Lucy, nor the killing of that Chicago Negro boy who came down to Mississippi and insulted a young white woman, nor the Bedlam created at Mansfield, Texas, near Fort Worth when Negro students attempted to enroll in a hitherto white children's school, nor other riotous scenes provoked in several other places where whites resisted de segregation of the races; but the august Court seems determined not to be moved by any of these things, regardless of the consequences. Gov. Allan Shivers is no "butt-in-sky" and I am sure that he would not personally dare to attempt in any unethical way to influence the action or the attitude of the Supreme Court, but as a United States Senator he would naturally become immediately a national figure and could doubtless help mightily many Northern people to understand and tolerate, even sympathize with the people of the South in their opposition to racial integration. To my thinking, we need Allan Shivers in the Senate.

I do not think the race problem will give us much trouble here in Tahoka. I believe the colored children would rather attend a school taught by colored teachers. There are probably not more than fifty or sixty colored children in the Tahoka School district and very few of them will be ready to enter high school in any one year. If desegregation is put into effect next year, all the grade pupils will probably prefer to attend school in the colored grade school building situated at a place in the midst of the homes of most of the colored scholastics, where they are taught by competent teachers of their own race. The parents of these colored school children have voluntarily segregated themselves in a district near the big cotton compress, where most of the colored men are employed by Mr. Arch Underwood, white, owner of the big industrial plant, and where the employees are paid good salaries. As just a few of the pupils will want to enter the big high school in the western part of the town at the beginning of each school session, it is not believed any serious objection to their attendance will be made, although again I am not authorized or informed by the School board what will be its policy.

Without wishing to stick my nose into any school matters about which I am uninformed, yet I hope that I may state what seems to me to be the best thing to do under all the circumstances. Transfer all the colored school children in the county into the Tahoka school district, build a high school building for Negroes adjacent to the present grade school building, buy an extra bus or two and transport all the colored school children in Lynn County into Tahoka, employ the best colored high school teacher that can be found, and then enforce the compulsory attendance law. Let's give the Negro children in Lynn county opportunities for a public grade school and high school education as nearly equal to that of the whites as these colored children are prepared to receive.

Next week I hope to be able to give the readers of this Col-

 AND A RECORD!

A meaningful achievement
 in automobile performance

Most automobile performance records are pretty difficult to relate to the kind of day-in, day-out driving most of us do. Running at safe and legal speeds, a '57 Chevrolet recently chalked up an important new coast-to-coast record on the road. And the way it set this record is even more important than the record itself!

A new '57 Chevrolet recently proved it has the qualities most people look for in a car—and proved it on the roads you travel. It set a new record of less than 57 hours for the run from New York to Los Angeles (certified by NASCAR). It was a strictly stock, V8-powered Chevy. It was driven by two young ladies.

When you consider that all the driving was done by 98-pound Betty Skelton and her friend Caroline Russ, the true significance of this record run becomes apparent. It's a tribute to Chevrolet's great-hearted V8 engine and solid road-worthiness that it could travel day and night for 2,913 miles at safe and legal speeds—and better the existing record for the trip by more than three hours. And when a pair of young ladies step into a car and drive it round the clock to a new transcontinental record, you know that car is easy to drive. Come try a Chevy.

Today's MEDITATION

The Upper Room
© THE UPPER ROOM, NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and we shall be satisfied." Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you so long, and yet you do not know me, Philip?" (John 14:8, 9 RSV.)

At a family conference in a secluded woodland area, our five-year-old son became separated from his age group. I found him in tears. "What happened?" I asked. "I just stopped for a minute to look up," he cried. "I heard the trees brushing the clouds, and I saw a bird flying. When I looked down, everybody had gone."

The world does not wait while we pause to look around. Like Philip, many of us walk in the presence of God unaware of Him. Made by God, we live in His setting. His gifts surround us, and we use them every moment of our lives. Yet we are so ungrateful.

The secret of thanksgiving lies in our awareness of God. Christ's spirit in us teaches us appreciation and love for God, and sheds a magic glow over our attitudes and actions.

PRAYER
Our Father, we have frequently failed in our praise of Thee because we have not learned the secret of awareness. Help us to become aware of Thy presence in us, in others, and in Thy gifts to us, through Christ. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
The secret of giving thanks is awareness of God. —Mary Edith Barron (California)

Ahrens Will Have 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Ahrens, residents of the Wilson area of Lynn county for 41 years, are making plans for celebration of their golden wedding anniversary on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 23, at the Slaton Club House.

Mr. and Mrs. Ahrens came to Lynn county in 1915, when they bought 180 acres of land a mile north of Wilson from the late William Green. They have lived on the farm ever since, and for the most part raised their family there. They now have another 100 acres of land and three small irrigation wells.

The Ahrens were married at Shiner, Lavaca county, on December 27, 1909. He was born and reared at Moravia, in the same county. Mrs. Ahrens, whose maiden name was Hulda Dreyer, was born and reared at Shiner.

The couple have seven living children, namely: Edgar of the family home; Emmitt of Grand Prairie, Henry of Olton, Weldon of Lubbock, Mrs. A. C. (Natalie) Minzenmayer of Winters, Mrs. David (Gladys) McLean of Crane, and Mrs. Walter (LaVerne) Gardner of Ropesville. There are 13 grandchildren.

The Ahrens are members of the St. John Lutheran Church of Wilson and are among Lynn county's finest citizens.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Shaffer and Mr. and Mrs. John Fleming spent last week end in Dallas visiting Laylan McMahan and family. G. C. Shaffer and family of Madisonville met them there for a visit. Laylan, son of Mrs. Fleming and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Shaffer, is a ticket agent for the airlines in Dallas.

Odds AND Ends

(By E. I. The Elder)

I feel that I just must talk politics a little more this week. There are several political matters that I want to give a little attention. The first one I mention is the controversy which has sprung up between Senator Price Daniel and Governor Alan Shivers respecting the former's resignation as United States Senator. Daniel has tendered his resignation to Governor Shivers to take effect January 15, and has requested Shivers to call an election immediately to fill the prospective vacancy. Shivers has thus far refused to do so on the grounds that as yet there is no vacancy and that he has no authority under the Constitution and laws of Texas to call an election to fill a vacancy resulting from a resignation until the vacancy actually exists, and he is therefore requesting Daniel to tender a resignation to take effect immediately so that he may thereupon legally call an election at such time as the law prescribes, according to his interpretation of it, so that nobody can question the validity of the election. Governor Shivers may be correct in his interpretation of the law, and if so he can not be blamed for refusing to call the election until Daniel tenders his resignation from the U. S. Senate to take effect immediately or abandons the office on January 2 or 3 by taking the oath of office as governor of Texas, or soon thereafter, the usual time for a governor to be sworn in. We are prone to say that Governor Daniel should have resigned as U. S. Senator several weeks ago, or at least as soon as he was legally declared to have been elected governor of Texas.

But there is another side to that position, which elicits the sympathy of thousands of voters. It takes a barrel of money for a man to make a race for governor—many thousands of dollars, however economical the candidate may be. It seems rather brutal to say that in addition to these campaign expenses he must give up his salary as U. S. Senator also. His term of office does not expire, even when he resigns, until a date named by him or when he is sworn into some other office. Senator Daniel evidently did not feel that he should be required to give up the salary of U. S. Senator as long as he legally occupied that position, and at least not until he could take his office as governor of Texas. If he had resigned as soon as his election to the governorship was legally declared, which was on or before November 12, he could have drawn no salary from that date until January 2, either as Senator or as Governor, a period of at least six or seven weeks, involving a personal financial sacrifice which evidently he believed that he should not be required to make.

So, while Shivers was probably correct in his interpretation of the law and while Daniel might have been influenced to some extent in his interpretation of the law by his financial interest in the matter, yet it is possible that he believed that fairness and justice were on his side and that the law should be liberally construed in order that justice might be done.

So, obviously, this is not just a trivial controversy between two peevish or picaresque politicians but apparently an honest difference of opinion as to the proper interpretation of the law, in the matter of filling vacancies such as this.

From the opposing arguments which the two disputants present, one must conclude that the law is either not clear or not just. Whether the one contender or the other is right, it seems to me that the law needs to be amended so as to make it both clear and just. To me, it seems that the legislature must have been at fault in the first place, if indeed it has ever enacted any law at all covering this situation. For many years there has been too much shoddy legislation, and in recent years too many shoddily written constitutional amendments have been submitted to the people for adoption. A notable example of carelessness in the submission of an amendment was that amendment on which the people were required to vote on Tuesday of last week instead of a week earlier at the general election as, presumably, was intended, a mistake which cost the people possibly as much as $200,000.00. Possibly the only way to insure better legislation is for the people to adopt a new Constitution providing for fewer but better-paid legislators. But nothing like that is in prospect, and so our best remedy seems to be the exercise of more care in the selection of state senators and representatives. Surely the legislature which is to convene in January will give careful and adequate attention to the matter of passing a clear, fair, and just law that will prevent the recurrence of a situation such as we now have.

It was with deep regret and disappointment that I read a few mornings ago an additional decree of the United States Supreme Court to the effect that there must be no longer any segregation of the Negroes and Whites on busses being operated in the city of Montgomery, Alabama. Negroes must be allowed to sit on any seats they please in busses operated by the Whites. The decision makes no distinctions between neat, cultured, well-behaved Negroes and the other kind. Under the decision of the Court, a big burly, greasy sweating, churlish Negro buck, may go into a car occupied by refined white ladies and gentlemen and take a seat beside a white lady—perhaps your wife or daughter if you live in Montgomery—and neither you nor the car conductor can do anything about it without getting into trouble with the NAACP or with the Supreme Court or both. Doesn't that Court have sufficient judicial acumen to know that offensive conduct like that will provoke physical encounters and probably riots and bloodshed. Perhaps the Court could not take judicial knowledge of the rumpus created at the University of Alabama by Autherine Lucy, nor the killing of that Chicago Negro boy who came down to Mississippi and insulted a young white woman, nor the Bedlam created at Mansfield, Texas, near Fort Worth when Negro students attempted to enroll in a hitherto white children's school, nor other riotous scenes provoked in several other places where whites resisted desegregation of the races; but the august Court seems determined not to be moved by any of these things, regardless of the consequences.

Gov. Allan Shivers is no "but-in-sky" and I am sure that he would not personally dare to attempt in any unethical way to influence the action or the attitude of the Supreme Court, but as a United States Senator he would naturally become immediately a national figure and could doubtless help mightily many Northern people to understand and tolerate, even sympathize with the people of the South in their opposition to racial integration. To my thinking, we need Allan Shivers in the Senate.

I do not think the race problem will give us much trouble here in Tahoka. I believe the colored children would rather attend a school taught by colored teachers. There are probably not more than fifty or sixty colored children in the Tahoka School district and very few of them will be ready to enter high school in any one year. If desegregation is put into effect next year, all the grade pupils will probably prefer to attend school in the colored grade school building situated at a place in the midst of the homes of most of the colored scholastics, where they are taught by competent teachers of their own race. The parents of these colored school children have voluntarily segregated themselves in a district near the big cotton compress, where most of the colored men are employed by Mr. Arch Underwood, white, owner of the big industrial plant, and where the employees are paid good salaries. As just a few of the pupils will want to enter the big high school in the western part of the town at the beginning of each school session, it is not believed any serious objection to their attendance will be made, although again I am not authorized or informed by the School board what will be its policy.

Without wishing to stick my nose into any school matters about which I am uninformed, yet I hope that I may state what seems to me to be the best thing to do under all the circumstances. Transfer all the colored school children in the county into the Tahoka school district, build a high school building for Negroes adjacent to the present grade school building, buy an extra bus or two and transport all the colored school children in Lynn County into Tahoka, employ the best colored high school teacher that can be found, and then enforce the compulsory attendance law. Let's give the Negro children in Lynn county opportunities for a public grade school and high school education as nearly equal to that of the whites as these colored children are prepared to receive.

Next week I hope to be able to give the readers of this Col-

 AND A RECORD!

*A meaningful achievement
 in automobile performance*

Most automobile performance records are pretty difficult to relate to the kind of day-in, day-out driving most of us do. Running at safe and legal speeds, a '57 Chevrolet recently chalked up an important new coast-to-coast record on the road. And the way it set this record is even more important than the record itself!

A new '57 Chevrolet recently proved it has the qualities most people look for in a car—and proved it on the roads you travel. It set a new record of less than 57 hours for the run from New York to Los Angeles (certified by NASCAR). It was a strictly stock, V8-powered Chevy. It was driven by two young ladies.

When you consider that all the driving was done by 98-pound Betty Skelton and her friend Caroline Russ, the true significance of this record run becomes apparent. It's a tribute to Chevrolet's great-hearted V8 engine and solid road-worthiness that it could travel day and night for 2,913 miles at safe and legal speeds—and better the existing record for the trip by more than three hours. And when a pair of young ladies step into a car and drive it round the clock to a new transcontinental record, you know that car is easy to drive. Come try a Chevy.

Lynn County Soil Conservation District News

ROY L. WILLIAMS    ELLIS BARNES
O. E. TERRY        W. L. (Cap) ROWE
ELMER BLANKENSHIP

One of the most effective methods of reducing wind erosion is the utilization of high residue producing crops as a surface litter. Litter made up of standing stubble along with the leaves that fall on the ground furnish such a protective cover as to reduce wind velocity at the soil surface and in turn reduce wind erosion. This is especially true where moisture is limited for listing to reduce wind erosion. Several farmers in the District are chiseling feed stubble while others are listing in the middles to leave sorghums standing. The chiseled land could be planted in the spring with listers using only the point of the lister attachments, with wide sweeps, or with loose ground planter attachments making a furrow deep enough for one knifing and cultivating with wide sweeps to clear litter. On land that is listed in middles, planting could be done in bottom of furrow and this method would leave residue on the surface to reduce wind erosion. Surface mulches of crop residue aids moisture conditions by holding rainfall where it falls and reducing evaporation which is very high in this area due to the many days of hot sunshine and high winds. On fields where cotton burrs have been applied the moisture is better because surface evaporation has been held to a minimum.

Soil Conservation Service personnel filed several requests for underground pipe on the farms of W. N. Williams northeast of Wilson, R. S. Schestueman east of Wayside, Roy Kahlich near Wilson, and Cony and May and Lloyd McCormick southeast of Wilson.

Careful Addressing, Wrapping, Will Insure Prompt Christmas Deliveries

In anticipation of the largest holiday mail volume in history, attention is called to ten basic points outlined this week by Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield for users of the mails to follow in order to assure prompt and safe delivery of their Christmas cards and gifts.

1. Address mail fully and clearly. Write legibly or print plainly. Where applicable, use zone numbers on the address and return address. Avoid using abbreviations which might confuse mail handlers.
2. Be certain that a return address is printed on the upper left hand corner of both Christmas cards and parcels. This will prevent any undelivered mail ending up in a "dead letter" office.
3. Do not enclose coins or hard objects of any kind in letters, without marking the envelope for hand stamping. High speed cancelling machines cannot process such letters, often jam and damage letters.
4. Do not mail cash in any Christmas gift. For safety's sake, use Postal Money Orders or checks.
5. Make sure parcels are well packed and securely wrapped in strong containers. Cushioning material, such as excelsior, shredded newspapers or tissue paper should be evenly and firmly placed on all sides of the Christmas gift. The carton should be wrapped in heavy paper and securely tied with strong twine.

6. Gifts of a delicate nature, such as glass, china, electrical appliances, radios and musical instruments, must be marked "Fragile" by the mailer. Food stuffs should be marked "Perishable" if subject to spoilage.
7. Insure parcels. Register letters of real value. Where only proof of delivery is required for letters of no intrinsic value use Certified Mail. Use Combination Mail where a letter or message—other than a gift tag—is to be enclosed inside a Christmas package.
8. Ask at any post office for the free pamphlet, "Post Office Department Publication No. 3" which contains rates of postage and limits of size and weight for domestic mail. Another free pamphlet at post offices entitled "Packaging and Wrapping Parcels For Mailing."
9. Mail Christmas cards and parcels early to avoid the last minute rush and waiting in line at the post office. The best times to avoid crowds in most post offices are before 10 A. M. and between 1:30 and 3:30 p. m.

10. Every postal employee is happy to answer questions on postal rules and regulations. Anyone with problems about mailing his Christmas parcels should avail himself of the opportunity of discussing the problems with postal employees, and taking advantage of their experience.

Mr. Summerfield further emphasized how important it is to start planning now to shop early and mail early for Christmas.

NAME IS CORRECTED

Last week The News, in reporting the New Home FFA team's winning of the District Chapter Conducting contest, one of the contestants was listed as "R. G. Reese." The name should have been Archie Reece. The item was taken over the telephone and, no doubt, "Archie" sounded something like "R. G." Archie Mack, a student at New Home High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Reece Sr.
