STANDING ON THE CORNER

With P. J.

No man stands as straight as he who stoops to help a crippled child.

Well! Well! The day has arrived. Beginning Sunday, the Nation is going to observe Mother-in-Law Week. As a news release on the subject stated, "I never pushed the matter or fretted about it because it occurred to me that most mothers-in-law are also mothers and this would be sort of like starching the same shirt twice."

"A scientific survey would probably show that most mothers-in-law, outside of being frightfully blind to the shortcomings of their own offspring and therefore needlessly critical of the shortcomings of their offspring's spouses, are a fairly decent lot.

"Much of the trouble, I feel, lies in the unfortunate use of the phrase 'in-law' which gives the whole matter a cold and harsh legalistic air. It puts your mother-in-law in about the same category as the federal income tax—it's the law and just you try to escape it."

"I think the little boy who asked his father, 'Is Grandmother your mother-in-law?' had a much better idea. It was love that started this whole relationship, and perhaps this 'in-law' business was a mistake all along."

The writer has a point, but it's still nice to say "I love you" to your mother-in-law—after all, sometimes the offspring's spouse is a little hard on the old gal, too.

A pessimist is a woman who thinks she'll be unable to fit her car into a certain space.

An optimist is her husband who thinks she won't try.

Citizens here have fretted long over some kind of a project that would give the teen-agers something to do. Really, a community center is badly needed. But there's more than one way to stir the soup.

You might take, for example, the town of Seagraves. One of Tahoka's own ex-natives, so we hear, instigated something there that promises to turn out very well. Rev. Boyce Evans, along with (Cont'd. On Back Page)

Donald Caudle Dies Suddenly

Donald C. Caudle, well-known former New Home farmer and prominent Lynn county citizen, died Saturday at about 1:30 p. m. in a grocery store in Clifton, near Lake Whitney where he owned and operated King Creek Lodge.

He and his son, Pat, had gone to the store to buy groceries and Pat had just left the store when Caudle suffered a heart attack. Although he had suffered several attacks, his death was unexpected.

Caudle, who was 48 years old, had farmed in the New Home area about 17 years before moving to Lake Whitney four years ago. He was an active citizen in the New Home community, having served on the school board. A member of the Methodist Church, he served as Sunday school superintendent, taught a class, and was a member of the official board.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon in the Clifton Methodist Church with Rev. Flynn of Fort Worth and Rev. Hugh Daniel of New Home officiating. Boswell Edwards of New Home arranged the special music. Burial was in Carlton Cemetery.

Survivors include his wife of Lake Whitney; four sons, Pfc. Donald J. of Ft. Bliss, Pat, Mackie and Brodie, all of Lake Whitney; his mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. John Armontrout of New Home; two half-brothers, Charles Armontrout of New Home and Joe Maek Armontrout of Lubbock; and one step-brother, Roy Armontrout of Dallas.

Honor Students For 1957 Class Named

Honor students, including the valedictorian and salutatorian, and three next in line, in the graduating senior class of 1957 in Tahoka High School have been announced by Principal John Shepherd.

Miss Carolyn Duckett, is valedictorian of the senior class with a grade average of 95.94. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Duckett.

Miss Betsy Rowe, with an average of 95.11, is the class salutatorian and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cap Rowe.

Other honor students include Misses Charlene Riddle, 94.94; Wilma Scott, 93; and Jeanette Melton, 92.75.

All five of these honor students will make addresses during the commencement exercises held at the end of school this spring.

Shepherd said that the school would also like to give recognition to Miss Marilyn Calloway, who moved here from Phillips. Her average is 94.5 and she would be listed as an honor student except that one must have attended Tahoka High School for two years and she has only been enrolled here for one year.

Red Cross Roll Call Over Top

Roll call for the Red Cross in Lynn county has been completed, according to Dean Taylor, county campaign chairman.

A total of $2655.49 has been turned over to the Red Cross, or $32 above the goal for the county which was set at $2623.

Taylor said that he would like to express his appreciation to every contributor in the county, as well as the workers who gave their time.

Grand Jury In Session Here

Three indictments were returned Wednesday in Grand Jury here before District Judge Louis B. Reed.

Bobby Joe Cook and Robert Lee, Jr., both of Abilene, and Clyde White of Lubbock have been indicted for burglary. They are charged with breaking and entering Winan's Hardware Store in O'Donnell on Dec. 20, 1956, when eight guns, cartridges and small change were taken from the place of business.

They will visit with their son, Ken, at Baylor University in Waco as they go to Houston and on their return trip they plan to visit with their daughter, Margaret McMeans, her husband and little daughter in Dallas.

At the convention, Dr. Durham will give a clinic along with other dentists the last day of the meeting.

Tractor School Here Saturday

The Lynn county tractor maintenance school will be held in Tahoka at the Lynn County Tractor Company on Saturday, April 27, according to County Agent Bill Griffin.

The school will begin at 8:30 a. m. when Griffin gives the 4-H records to the group. At 8:45 Denver Ford, club member of Tahoka, will discuss "Safety."

The boys will then separate into two units for the remainder of the morning. "A" unit, which consists of boys under 13 years old will hear B. L. Hatchel speak and demonstrate on the topic, "What Makes an Engine Run," at 9:15. At 10:15 "General Lubrication Oil for Engines" will be discussed by John Hansard, Phillips representative, and at 11:15 "Clean Air, Mixing Fuel and Air, and Cooling System" will be presented by Gene Roper, a 4-H leader.

At 9:15 a. m. "B" unit, made up of boys over 13 years old, will hear Hansard speak on "Saving Fuel"; at 9:45 "Steering and Front Wheels, Care of Tires," will be discussed by H. B. McCord of McCord Motor Co.; at 10:15, "Power Transmission" by a representative of Gilmore-Jaquess; at 11:00 "Engine Ignition," B. L. Hatchel; and at 11:30, "Valve Service," Jack A. Robinson of Lynn County Tractor Company.

Lunch will be served at 12:00 noon by McCord Motor Company of Tahoka, Clary Phillips Station of Wilson, and Bill Balch Phillips Station of New Home.

Following the noon recess Doc Dockery of McCord Butane Co. will speak on "Trouble Shooting" to the "B" unit. These older 4-H club members will then take part in the 4-H tractor operators contest to be held at the fair grounds, the winner of which will represent Lynn County in the district elimination contest to be held in Lubbock on May 4.

New Home Men Hear A. M. Bray

A. M. Bray, Tahoka layman, was the speaker Wednesday morning at the monthly 7:00 a. m. breakfast of the New Home Methodist Men, and made a very interesting talk, according to Leland White.

The program was arranged by George Sealy, Hugh Smith, and White.

The breakfast was prepared and served to 15 men by Gene Roper, Willie Nieman, and Walter Gasper.

Next meeting of the New Home Men will be the last Wednesday in May.

Prohls Leave On Trip To Europe

Dr. and Mrs. Emil Prohl and son, Karl, leave Sunday for the Rotary International Convention, Switzerland, and also for a tour of Europe, including England and the Scandinavian countries.

They will travel by train to New York City, from which port they will sail to Europe aboard the Queen Elizabeth, leaving next Wednesday, May 1. The convention is May 19 to 24. They expect to be gone two months.

THOMPSON IMPROVING

W. M. (Bill) Thompson, who had a leg amputated a few weeks ago and later suffered a stroke, was reported to be showing improvement early this week.

BIRTH OF A TORNADO occurs when a cold and a warm air mass collide, and the heavier cold air is deflected above the lighter warm air. In this topsy-turvy situation, a tongue of cold air dips into the warm air, which in turn moves upward to fill the void thus created. As the warm air rushes upward in a spiral motion, other warm air is sucked upward from lower levels, until the ground is reached. The funnel is made visible by condensing moist air, dirt and debris. As the twister leaves its trail, Red Cross, civil defense and other public services rush in to care for victims, while the Federal Civil Defense Administration stands ready with financial aid to assist in temporary repair of devastated public facilities in a major disaster. Managers Are Named For Pony, Little League Teams

Little League and Pony League is getting underway here after over 100 players met Monday afternoon for instructions.

Workouts are being planned by the managers and plans are being made for the buying of new members for the teams.

Managers have been secured for the Little League, although the Pony League is still in the process of obtaining theirs. In the Little League Gordon Smith will be manager of the Giants, which is sponsored by the First National Bank and the Lynn County News; E. W. (Pat) Patterson will manage the Yankees, sponsored by Piggly Wiggly; Dean Taylor, Cubs, Wynne Collier Drugist; and Charles Reid, Cardinals, Tahoka Compress. Coaches have not all been secured and their names will be announced later, according to C. W. Conway, president of the local organization.

Only one manager, Wiley Lee Curry, has been obtained for the two Pony League teams, the Braves sponsored by Goodpasture Grain Company, and the Orioles sponsored by the Co-op Gins. Coaches are also yet to be named.

Conway says that all boys who have not registered must do so by May 4 and turn in their cards to Johnny Wells, along with their birth certificates. He also states that more money is needed to pay for the lights for the ball park. The leagues hope to fill the fence with advertisement and Conway asks that anyone wanting the remaining space to contact him.

Little League teams will be made up of the same boys who played on them last year. However, each team lost as many as four or five players because of age and each manager is allowed 10,000 points for buying new boys to replace them.

WILEY CURRY IN DALLAS

Wiley Curry, ill for several months, was taken to Baylor Hospital in Dallas Wednesday by Mrs. Curry and their son, Albert, for a check-up.

Mrs. J. H. Cobb's condition remains about the same this week, attendants at Tahoka Hospital report. She has been a patient since breaking her hip several weeks ago.

Charles Ray Isbell, seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Isbell, underwent a tonsillectomy in Tahoka Hospital Thursday of last week.

Carlton Bell, freshman at West Texas State, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Bell, last week end.

Mrs. Ray Cunningham was a medical patient in Tahoka Hospital from Friday until Sunday.

Boys Are Urged Not To Play On League Field

Boys are again urged to stay off the Little League ball park, according to C. W. Conway, president of the league.

Many boys have been practicing on the field, the results of which have been detrimental to its condition.

A great deal of work has and is being put out on the field-trying to get it into good shape for the forthcoming season, but unless the boys cooperate in staying off of it, this will be impossible.

Boys are asked to practice elsewhere.

Tahoka Band In District Meet

Tahoka High School Bulldog Band is among 40 bands appearing in the Region I, University Interscholastic League contest being held in Brownfield today and tomorrow.

Don Wortham is director of the Tahoka band.

Bob Tate returned home Thursday of last week after a two-week's stay in a Temple hospital following surgery there. He is reported to be feeling much better.

What To Do In a Tornado

- People in open country can view the approach of a tornado and move at right angles to its path. If there is no time to escape, lie flat in the nearest depression, such as a ditch or ravine.
- In towns or cities, seek shelter inside, preferably in a substantial building. Stay away from windows.
- The southwest corner of the basement of a frame house is safer than in a brick or stone house. If there is no basement, lie down on the first floor under a table or bed (preferably in the southwest corner).
- Urban schools: Stay inside, away from windows; remain near an inside wall on a lower floor. Avoid auditoriums and gymnasiums.
- Rural schools of frame construction: Teachers should remove children to a ravine or ditch if storm shelter is not available.

JOYCE EARLEY MAKES WAYLAND HONOR ROLL

Joyce Early, formerly of Tahoka, has been named on the honor roll at Wayland College, according to Dean Henson Harris.

Thursday afternoon, as The News went to press, scattered showers were falling over Lynn county, particularly to the east and south of Tahoka, and prospects were good for more rain. Rain and light hail in Tahoka between 1:00 and 2:00 p. m. measured .58 in the U. S. Government rain gauge.

Showers, sandstorms, and tornadoes have featured the past week's weather, but most of Lynn county failed to get sufficient rain for planting.

However, the county did miss receiving severe damage from any of the numerous tornadoes reported over the South Plains. One twister is reported to have been sighted between Wilson and Slaton Saturday. East of Wilson, Lewis Manley's large hay barn was badly damaged as the roof was blown off.

Tahoka received .32 of an inch of rainfall Thursday of last week, .11 on Saturday, and .17 on Monday for a total of .60, bringing the total for April to .72 inch and for the year 1957 to 3.41 inches.

Rainfall was somewhat heavier in some areas and less in others. A section north of town received up to an inch, and east of town a large area is said to have received an inch or more.

Tahoka has officially measured so far this year .18 in January, 1.82 in February, .89 in March, and .72 so far in April.

Farmers report the county has fairly good underground moisture, but most of the dry land will need more rain for planting.

This area has gotten by with fewer sandstorms than usual this year up until the past few days. Saturday, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, Old Man Weather was trying to make up for lost time with either reasonably bad sandstorms or blowing dust.

New Home Co-op Pays Dividend

Earnings of $90,000 were reported from the 1956 season by New Home Cooperative Gin at its annual membership meeting Tuesday night and $80,000 in checks were issued in dividends.

A fish supper was served 612 people at the meeting, the financial report was given, and talks were made by several regional cooperative leaders.

Walter Gasper was elected a new member of the board, succeeding Roy Lee Williams, and Morris Renfro and L. C. Unfried were re-elected to the board. Hold-over members are Dick Turner, B. A. Morrow, E. R. Blakney, and Wilmer Smith.

Bobby Carroll of Tahoka was recently employed as the new gin manager, succeeding H. Q. Sharp, who has bought the Petty Gin. Curtis Stevens is the new manager of the Farmers Co-op of Tahoka, succeeding Carroll.

Wilmer Smith At National Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Smith of New Home and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith of Slaton left Thursday morning by plane for Washington, D. C. where Wilmer will attend a meeting of the Central Bank board, of which he is a member.

The meeting will be held on Friday and Saturday, and on Monday and Tuesday he plans to attend to business prevalent to the cotton situation here.

They also plan to visit with their nephew who has recently returned from Germany and is now stationed in the Pentagon.

TORNADO WARNING in time can spell the difference between heavy loss of life and light casualties when the twisters sweep into populated areas. Under the experimental Weather Bureau program for tornado tracking by radar and telephoned visual reports, adequate warning could be broadcast so that local civil defense, police and firemen could evacuate residents or advise them to seek cover in basements. This drawing shows how such a warning station at Lincoln, Neb., might alert the inhabitants of Dorchester, Neb., in the expected path of a twister. The twin funnels are an unusual phenomenon—most tornadoes occur singly. (Courtesy A. Leydenstrom)

INKS LAKE STATE PARK is so famed for its fishing that many people overlook its fine sanded beach and other recreation features. It has the most constant level of the six Highland Lakes. The park road intersects U.S. Highway 281 south of Burnet and State Highway 29, near Buchanan Dam. Photo by Roger Parker.

Reports from Mr. and Mrs. Milton Gardner of Fort Worth, formerly of Tahoka, say that their two-year-old daughter, Jan, is in good condition. She underwent surgery a year ago for a malignant tumor. Gardner says the doctors are very optimistic about her condition. He is now attending seminary in Fort Worth and teaching in Texas Wesleyan College, where Mrs. Gardner is also attending classes.

Larry Jack Stevens underwent surgery on his foot Thursday of last week at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock but is back in school this week. Larry Jack was a victim of polio almost six years ago and the disease left the muscles in his left foot paralyzed. The muscles were clipped and his foot placed in a cast where it will remain for about six weeks.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all of our friends for their flowers, cards and many acts of kindness during my illness and stay in the hospital in Temple, and since I have been home. —Mr. and Mrs. Bob Tate.

Skin grafts were begun Monday over the severely burned areas suffered by Anita Joe Rochelle in Methodist Hospital, where she has been a patient for over six weeks. She was badly burned when her clothes caught fire from an open stove. The grafting was expected to be completed this week, but she will remain in the hospital for some time.

Don Carroway left last Friday to return to Ft. Bliss, Texas after visiting here with his parents for two weeks. Prior to his leave he had just completed basic training. He will remain in Ft. Bliss about eight more weeks, his mother reports.

Jerry Cain, student in the University of Texas, was among the college students home for the Easter holidays.

G. M. Stewart is now able to be out, and has made several trips out to his farms and ranch.

Passenger cars were involved in nearly 80 percent of all U. S. traffic fatalities in 1956—85 percent of traffic injuries.

Time of the Twister

Springtime is tornado time. In the unstable transition from winter cold to summer heat, great masses of cold and warm air collide. When the heavier cold air is forced above the lighter warm air, funnels sometimes form to relieve the tizzy-hurry situation. This is the twister.

SOME 800 TORNADOES boil up each year in the United States. When they strike, local civil defense and the Red Cross speed to the rescue.

Spring is the time for a special weather eye to the tornado-spawning southwest. Last year, for instance, every major tornado occurred between February and May. On one day—April 3—four giant twisters killed 30 persons, injured 415 and caused an estimated $1,700,000 damage. There is no way to prevent a tornado. But early warning, proper precautions and speedy rescue of victims can save lives. In addition, disaster funds administered by the Federal Civil Defense Administration can provide emergency repairs and restoration of vital community facilities when Federal assistance is authorized by the President to augment State and local efforts.

"Odds and Ends" has not appeared in the Lynn County News the past two weeks because the senior editor, E. I. Hill, has been ill. Although, he has been confined to his bed most of the time, he is now beginning to feel better.

Gilbert Ford was released from Tahoka Hospital Tuesday, where he had been a medical patient.

Nearly 28 percent of the U. S. drivers involved in fatalities in 1956 were under 25 years of age.

Speed was blamed for 13,830 deaths on U. S. highways in 1956.

Mrs. E. W. Patterson, soloist, sang "Through The Years" and "The Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied by Miss Jan Collier, organist, who also played the traditional wedding marches.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a waltz-length princess-style gown of white peau de sole with white velvet sash and topped with a jacket of imported lace. The bodice featured a bateau neckline trimmed with seed pearls and sequins with three-quarter length sleeves. Her veil was of imported French silk illusion and extended from a halo trimmed in pearls and sequins. White lace mitts completed the ensemble, and the bridal bouquet was of white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Susie Smith, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Deanie Edwards of Tahoka and Miss Margaret Jackson of Amarillo. They wore dresses of Dresden blue silk organza over taffeta designed like the bridal gown, with blue velvet sashes, matching

The curtain of the temple was torn in two. (Matthew 27:51, RSV.)
When Jesus said, "It is finished," the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom. The holy of holies was no more, the ceremonial law of Moses of no effect. Instead, grace now abounds to him who believes in the Son of man and Son of God who died on the cross. Because of His death and resurrection, fear has given way to faith in love and in the power of the new birth.

On the cross, Jesus exemplified the new gospel—forgiveness and love, seassurance and help, fellowship and stewardship, pain and prayer, earnestness and faith, vision and victory, and surrender and obedience.

Thus the power of sin has been broken. To him who accepts Christ as Lord and Savior, Christ becomes alive in him. To him Christ becomes a Friend and a Brother, faithful unto the end. The believer himself becomes a priest, a son, and an heir of life eternal—both here and hereafter.

PRAYER
O Lord, destroy the curtain of sin which separates us from Thee. So may we always behold Thy loving face. Teach us to love Thee rather than to fear Thee, to trust and obey our Lord and Savior. In His name. Amen.

Fund Drive For Lubbock College

J. W. Pirtle has been named county chairman of the solicitation drive for Lubbock Christian College campaign fund, according to C. T. Shipp of Lubbock, area chairman. Doyle Keley is minister of the Tahoka Church of Christ.

With only 13 of the 104 participating groups of members of the Churches of Christ in West Texas and Eastern New Mexico having completed their solicitation, over $260,000 has already been subscribed for the new college.

Approximately $500,000 has been raised among the congregations of ten churches in Lubbock, and it is the object of the area campaign to raise a similar $500,000 goal, making a total of $1,000,000 in all.

In a statement made by Dr. E. W. Mattox, president of the new school, regarding the area total of over $260,000 he said, "With 37 groups having turned in only partial reports, 27 more working but having made no report, and 28 groups yet to begin their campaign, there is no doubt of our reaching our objective."

Paul Sherrod, chairman of the Board of Trustees, believes that the area solicitation can easily reach $600,000 to $750,000.

Oxidation Ponds For Poultry Flocks

Austin —A California poultry-processing plant disposes of its waste products in an oxidation pond. The waste in the water and sunlight playing on it combine to make algae grow. Then the algae is harvested and fed to the plant's new crop of young chicks. It is the only feed they get.

Oxidation ponds are among the most recent developments in the science of domestic waste disposal. Not to be confused with haphazard sewage lagoons, oxidation ponds conform to regular shapes and uniform depths. They work on this principle:

When partially treated domestic sewage is discharged into shallow ponds, algae—a type of tiny vegetable growth—will flourish in the water. In the presence of sunshine, the algae releases oxygen into the water. The oxygen acts to convert organic matter in the sewage to carbon dioxide, which in turn is used by the algae in its growth processes.

State Health Department water pollution control engineers say oxidation ponds, besides creating favorable environments for biological treatment of city wastes, are probably easier on the city's pocket book than any other method of sewage disposal. And they are at least a partial answer to Texas' perennial water shortages. Instead of risking stream pollution by discharging partially treated effluent into streams, why not capture that effluent in oxidation ponds and use it for irrigating feed crops or for cooling processes in industry?

More than 200 Texas cities are presently doing this very thing. Lubbock is irrigating 1860 acres of grass and pastureland. Big Springs and Amarillo supply several millions of gallons of water daily to local refineries for use in cooling. Brady grazes 100 head of cattle on 36 acres irrigated with reclaimed water.

Arizona, Wyoming, North and South Dakota, Missouri and other states are becoming increasingly interested in this method of sewage treatment and use, following Texas' lead.

While further research will be necessary before the use of effluent can be recommended for irrigating crops for human consumption, its value for feed crop irrigation is indisputable.

Besides their usefulness for waste disposal and irrigation, a move is afoot to see if the ponds can be used for fish culture. Since effluent can readily be made to support fish in limited numbers, State Health Department engineers and Fish and Game Commission biologists believe there may be a possibility of cultivating fish in sufficient quantities for commercial sale as dog and cat food and fertilizer. If so, the ponds could become an additional important source of city revenue.

Of drivers in 1956 highway accidents, 96.7 per cent had more than one year's driving experience.

Men were drivers in 89.7 per cent of fatal accidents in U. S. highways in 1956.

Fountain of Freedoms... a Free Press

The history of the press, since its development five centuries ago, has been a history of restraint. It is natural for men in authority to resent the sting of criticism. It is human for them to be ambitious, and to seek to entrench themselves. Hence rulers often avoid criticism and disagreement by stifling it. But the courageous men who founded this new nation sought here full freedom for each individual. When they established a constitution, aware of the human frailty even of rulers elected from among them, their First Amendment provided that "Congress shall make no law...abridging the freedom of speech and of the press..." With the widespread education and enlightenment that resulted, the people here have advanced farther toward all freedoms than the people of any other nation. The beacon of this Western World, marks for all nations the start of the path to Freedoms: Freedom of Speech and of the Press.

COOPERS HOME FROM TRIP TO CALIFORNIA
Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cooper returned home Thursday of last week from a four weeks trip to California for a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Mildred Harris in Compton, and other relatives. While there, they attended a birthday dinner with Mr. Cooper's brother, J. R. Cooper, at which 37 people were present. Mr. Cooper saw a brother-in-law he had not seen in 50 years. Five of the group, including Mr. Cooper, had gone to school together as children and all were now over seventy years of age. They were all reared in Baxter County, Arkansas. They also visited in Riverside with Mrs. Cooper's sister, Mrs. Raymond Rainwater, and family.

MAJOR TORNADOES of 1956, as compiled from preliminary Weather Bureau data clearly point to Spring as a time for special watchfulness by residents of the central United States—the world's most dangerous tornado area. Civil defense units are on special call throughout this vast region for possible rescue work. In addition, if a tornado-hit locality is declared a major disaster area by the President, as happened in Numbers 1, 3, 6, and 10 above, the Federal Civil Defense Administration can provide funds to aid communities in temporary repair of public facilities. (FCDA Photo)

TYPICAL TORNADO funnel sweeps across the plains near Manhattan, Kan., located in the worst tornado belt in the world, according to Weather Bureau records. Twisters such as this have figured prominently in the total of 75 major natural disasters in which the Federal Civil Defense Administration has directed relief since FCDA got the job of coordinating Federal assistance in January 1953. other citizens, polled the teenagers on what they would like to do.

As a result, various civic, church and such organizations have each adopted one such activity to sponsor. For instance, one civic club will sponsor a mechanic workshop where the boys will learn what makes the old hooped tick instead of how fast it'll run. Another took on a rifle-range project and even have Texas Rangers 'coming in' to show the kids how to shoot a gun in the way it should be shot.

Another is sponsoring a golf club, and so on. It's a good idea, and it's results will bear watching.

There's no reason it couldn't work here, too.

A couple of ladies of matronly age and dowager size stepped out the door of a store into the sunlight recently.

"You have a big run in your stocking," one of them remarked. The other woman said she knew about it and didn't particularly care.

"At my age," she said, with a chuckle, "it's the only way to get a man to look."—Paul Crume.

We see in the Brownfield News that Mr. and Mrs. Sam Privitt (she is the former Miss Greta Applewhite) are back from a vacation to Mexico City. Sam won the trip in a contest based on the point system of Chevrolet salesmen over the country—and incidentally, was competing with over 1,000 in this area of West Texas, Oklahoma and Eastern New Mexico.

"Gee Gee" works for the Brownfield News in about the same capacity as mine—and no doubt enjoyed getting away from the "grime."

—and the greatest of these is love.

A very poor woman in Paris, who had been blind for many years, put 27 francs into a plate at a missionary meeting.

"You cannot afford so much," a friend advised.

"Yes, sir, I can," she explained. "I am blind and I said to my fellow straw workers, 'How much money do you spend a year for oil in your lamps when it is too dark to work nights?' They replied '27 francs.' 'So,' she said, 'I found that I save so much in the year because I am blind and do not need a lamp, and I give it to shed light to the lands that are in darkness.'"

Bill McNeely Devises New Method Of Conserving Irrigation Waters

Bill McNeely has developed a revolutionary new device for conserving irrigation water on his farm in the Dixie community about ten miles north of town.

With the help of a son, Leslie McNeely, he has devised a method of reclaiming tail water for re-use in watering his field.

Bill has seven or eight wells on his intensively irrigated farm. He is now reclaiming the tail water from three of his wells, and has a plan worked out whereby he will soon be reclaiming the tail water from the remainder of his wells.

It works like this: After the water reaches the end of the row, the excess is allowed to over flow

BAPTIST CHURCH GETS GOOD WATER WELL

The First Baptist Church has recently brought in a good water well on its property, and a two-inch pump is bringing up about 60 gallons per minute, enough to run eight regular irrigation sprinklers.

Everything for the well was donated except the pump, which was bought at cost. Located behind the parsonage, the well will be used to irrigate the lawn of the half block of church property.

Former Citizen's Home Destroyed

Harvey Jordan, former O'Donnell ginners now managing a gin near Spade, lost his home Sunday evening in one of the tornadoes which visited that area.

Mr. Jordan was standing on the porch watching a funnel go by his place blowing in from the southwest, when suddenly he looked to the southeast just as another funnel came in to sweep away his home. He was uninjured, but Mrs. Jordan, who was in the house, received minor injuries when a board with nails in it struck her inflicting wounds to one of her legs.

The gin office was also blown away. Their two children were uninjured.

PCG Proposes New Program On Cotton

Lubbock — Directors of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., recently voted to affiliate with the American Cotton Producers Associates, Memphis, Wilmer Smith, Lynn county director, reports. Fifty-three directors and guests heard proposed plans of the ACPA explained by Geo. W. Pfeiffenberger, executive vice-president, and W. L. Edelman, Friona, who attended a recent meeting of the ACPA in Memphis.

Twelve principals of the ACPA cotton program that were adopted by the Plains growers were to be presented to representatives of all segments of the cotton industry for approval at an April 18 meeting in Memphis.

The ACPA has obtained a hearing in Washington May 7 for presentation of this industry-wide program to Congress.

The principles in brief are:

1. Prepare the 1956 loan stocks for sale as soon as possible after August 1, 1957.
 2. Adjust the export program after August 1, 1958, to improve marketing and still keep it competitive.
 3. Curtail the soil bank program drastically.
 4. Permit a reasonable increase in acreage annually for the next five years.
 5. Continue acreage allotments and marketing quotas for the purpose of preventing unlimited acreage increases but adequate to provide for demand.
 6. Continue a loan program for orderly marketing thus giving stability to the price structure.
 7. Extension of Public Law 480 which provides for sales of surplus stocks for foreign currency or trade.
 8. Intensified research and quality improvement program be an essential part of any long term program.
 9. We oppose any form of discrimination within the framework of any farm program.
 9. We oppose any form of cross-compliance or of total compliance in any farm program.
 11. We continue to urge passage of the Smith bill or textile labeling act.
 12. We support the Stennis bill, which re-defines the original intent of Congress on the wage and hour bill concerning agricultural workers.
- W. O. Fortenberry, Lubbock, president of the PCG, explained that in affiliating with the ACPA, the Plains group was not in any way sacrificing its individuality as a separate organization. "However, we do believe that by affiliating with the ACPA, both organizations can become stronger and we can contribute something together for the good of a cotton program," Fortenberry said.
- In other action at the board meeting the PCG directors endorsed a one-price cotton legislative program over a two-price program and will oppose any change from the present acre basis to a pound or bale basis in figuring allotments.

Junior Baseball Rotary Topic

Pony and Little League baseball was the program subject at Tahoka Rotary Club Thursday noon of last week. C. W. Conway, Clint Walker, and E. R. Edwards all talked on the subject, outlining plans for the summer, including the field improvements planned. Tom Gill arranged the program and presided.

The club voted unanimously to again sponsor the visit of a foreign graduate student for eight or ten weeks in Tahoka this summer, and voted as a preference a student from either Mexico, Norway, or Switzerland. This will be the third year the club has sponsored such a visitor to America and Tahoka. Two years ago, Bernard DeBonne of Paris, France, was the guest, and last year Fred Mauhart of Linz, Austria, was brought to Tahoka.

During the student's stay here, he lives in the homes of local Rotarians, learns something of our life, customs, and democracy, as well as inspecting our farming methods. The students seem to enjoy the experience very much, and local people gain much from association with them. The program is a part of an effort to promote better international understanding.

Junior Rotarians for the month, Donald Riley and Wayne Cloe, were introduced by Ronald Sherrill and Calloway Huffaker, respectively.

President J. E. Reasonover states that this meeting was the 37th consecutive one that the club has had 100 percent perfect attendance, granting those absent had made up by this Thursday.

A total of 40,000 Americans were killed in 1956 traffic accidents.

"April showers bring May flow-ers." At the present time we haven't had an over amount of "April showers" but the amount is greater than we have had in the last several Aprils. Lynn County Soil Conservation District News

ROY L. WILLIAMS ELLIS BARNES
O. E. TERRY W. L. (Cap) ROWE
FLMER BLANKENSHIP

What is your Lynn Soil Conservation District? It is a sub-division of the "State of Texas." It is not a State Agency. The District is run by you... The farmers and ranchers. It is not controlled by rules or regulations or political pressure. It has been truthfully said—a Soil Conservation District is the only important movement farmers and ranchers really run direct from top to bottom.

Who is the Soil Conservation Service? They are the Technical Staff of the District. By request from the District Board to the U. S. Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., the technical staff is furnished the District Board (to work with the District members.) We have a contract with the Secretary of Agriculture that outlines their functions to the board. This contract can be cancelled by us on a 60 day notice.

Who is the Extension Service (or County Agent)? They are the Educational Staff. They have a wide range of functions, but the most important one to your District Board is to inform all people on what the District is, what it is supposed to do, how it functions, etc. When you find anyone who does not thoroughly understand what a soil conservation district is, etc., then the Extension Service has not reached or impressed him. Due to the fact that we have so many people and so few Extension Service personnel, we all need to assist on the Educational part of the District program.

Requests for underground pipe lines for the conservation of irrigation water were field serviced on Howard Draper, L. C. Unfred, Richard Wyatt, Binnie Edwards, Winton Jones and R. J. Maeker farms.

"And the Lord God planted a garden eastward in Eden... and took the man... and put him into the garden of Eden to dress it and keep it."—Gen. 2:8,15... "And the heaven gave him rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit."—James 5:18.

Binnie Edwards of O'Donnell is planning on planting several acres this fall to vetch and small grain for soil improvement, winter cover and to furnish winter grazing. For grazing and seed production, Edwards is going to plant blue panic or sorghum alnum.

The proof of soil improvement is planting soil improving crops. To a soil improving crop it must improve the soil chemically or physically. Deep rooted legumes or grasses meet these prerequisites. Adopted summer legumes for this area are guar, sesbania, mung beans, soy beans or cowpeas. These crops can be planted in rows, drilled or interplanted with grain or forage sorghums.

Are you interested in having wild life on your place? Now is the time to do something about it, if you do. Nearly all farms in the District could have at least a small covey of quail if food and cover were present. Wild plum

Grandson Lost In Snow Storm

Jimmy Harris, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles (Mildred) Harris of Compton, Calif., and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cooper of Tahoka, was among the 54 California Boy Scouts trapped in a blizzard 8,600 feet up on Mt. Baden-Powell in San Gabriel Mountains of that state three days.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper had just left to return to Tahoka from a visit there when the boys became stranded in the mountains.

The missing boys, their hardships, and the final rescue on Friday, April 19, made sensational news in the West Coast newspapers, in fact over the nation.

The boys and their leaders clung together much of the time for warmth in the 20 degree weather during the snow, sleet and rain, until finally three leaders instructed the boys to stay bedded down and went for help.

Originally 159 Scouts were stranded in the unexpected spring blizzard, but 105 of them were able to make it out Thursday. A new blizzard prevented the others from coming out.

Mrs. Harris writes her parents that her husband, Charles Harris, and son Fred, 8, went to the base of rescue operations Wednesday at 5:30 a. m. No one knew exactly where the boys were located until the three Scoutmasters came down the mountainside.

At first rescuers were unable to get back up the mountain, but finally experienced mountaineers with three horses made it and guided the boys to safety. Mrs. Harris says Jimmy walked all the way down, and had only one blister and tiredness to show for the experience. And, of all things, when he got home Friday night, he wanted ice cream!

bushes and skunk bushes can be dug and reset where more cover is desired. Russian olive will do exceptionally well in this locality and provides both food and cover. Sorghum alnum can be planted in those odd acres around the farm. We suggest that you contact your Soil Conservation Service technicians for details on how easy and cheap it would be to provide food and cover for wild life on your place.

Harold Warren plans to plant Groehler variety of guar.

Cromers Tell Of Seeing Tornadoes

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Cromer and son, Noah Lee, of Shallowater, formerly of Petty, were here Tuesday.

They witnessed several of the tornadoes which struck in that area late Sunday. In fact, two of them came near their farm, which is located four and a half miles northwest of the Reese Airforce Base. One of the funnels went about three miles west of them and one went about three miles east. In fact, with every flash of lightning, they said they could see one or more funnels. They believe that there were at least four or five funnels in the area, and some of them may not have touched the ground. Mr. Cromer said they sat in their car and watched the funnels, prepared to take off in case one started toward their home. They declared that the twisters fortunately missed a lot of farm places, as well as towns. Where they did strike, the destruction was terrific.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reddell left Monday for Rockport, down on the Gulf coast, to spend about ten days fishing and resting. They were accompanied by some friends from Roscoe.

The South Elementary teachers spent Thursday with the consultant and the teachers in the North Elementary are working with her today. Teachers in the lower grades were replaced yesterday by future teachers in the local high school. Parents are replacing the other teachers today.

The school has adopted readers in the McKee series published by Houghton-Mifflin Company and the consultant has been sent to Tahoka by the publishing house.

New Well Permits Will Be Issued

On May 1 the District Office of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District will begin issuing certificates of valid water well permits.

A situation has developed lately which we think requires some protection for purchasers of land or mortgages advancing money on land on the strength of existing wells. For example, suppose a land owner drilled a well in violation of the District rules, and before appropriate action could be taken to close the well, the violator either sold or mortgaged the land. This would give the District the unpleasant task of proceeding against the party who was misled.

The District, to prevent the occurrence of this situation and prevent a cloud on the land title, will begin issuing certificates to abstractors and attorneys to show what permits have been granted on a particular tract of land. The interested parties may then determine whether or not the wells are at the correct location as specified on the well permits.

The District is perfecting its records so it may furnish certificates on permits of wells drilled after February 1953. This service has been requested many times by people in the legal and abstracting professions.

It is planned to charge $1.00 for each permit certificate to offset the costs involved.

Letters From News Readers—

(The News welcomes letters from its readers on any current subject, not libelous, of course. All communications must be of reasonable length and must be signed. On request, the signature will not be printed. The Editor.)

Dear Editor:

If you will please permit, may I take a few lines of your newspaper to thank the people of Tahoka, of Lynn County, and of the wonderful State of Texas for your most kind considerations during the recent bereavement of the Carpenter families. I only spent thirty-six hours in Tahoka, therefore it was impossible for me to see a lot of people and to personally thank each of you for all the kindnesses you wonderful people extended.

As my plane winged its way from Lubbock to El Paso, and I sat alone with my thoughts looking down on the miles upon miles of freshly plowed soil (millions of acres, I'm sure, because on a clean day at twelve thousand feet over the Plains of Texas one may observe just about everything from the Caprock to the border of New Mexico), thinking of my life in Tahoka. I thought of my high school days, my family's first years in Tahoka—years when the economic situation was pretty thin. Now, it seems very long ago, twenty-seven years to be exact, since my Mother and Dad brought us kids to Tahoka.

My thoughts were interrupted by several plane landings, but after leaving Lubbock at 12:55 p. m., Texas time, I was home at 8:20 that evening, West Coast time.

Friends met me at the airport in Bakersfield, friends of many years standing, people who like to "dig" me about Texas, but people who respect me enough to drive twelve miles to see that I got home safely.

As I retired that evening, I said a silent prayer for the greatest people on earth—friends—and there are no greater or dearer friends than Texas friends. You people of Tahoka have brought back to me the value of friends, indeed.

Your generosity and kindness lightened the burden for all of us so much. May I thank all of you from the very bottom of my heart? Gratefully yours, L. L. (Slim) Carpenter, 611 Barlow St., Bakersfield, California.
