The crops team which had previously placed second in the district placed fifth in the area.

Judging Teams In Area Meet

Tahoka FFA judging teams competed with the top teams in this area at the Future Farmers of America judging contests held in Lubbock Saturday but were able to place in two of the events.

Local teams entered in the regional contests were livestock, dairy cattle, grass and crops. They were coached by vocational agriculture teachers Lester Adams and V. P. Carter who were assisted by Owen Young and Albert Taylor, senior agriculture students from Tech.

The houses will be small three-bedroom homes of 960 square feet of floor space, carpeted, and may be financed for about $250.00 down plus closing costs.

Construction is scheduled to begin in the next week or two, Walker has informed.

Cherry is a native of Dallas and graduate of McMurry College at Abilene. He has served as summer youth director at Phillips and Levelland and is finishing his first year in the seminary. He will assume his duties the first week in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Williams will be Counselors for the Youth Fellowship.

Mrs. Carl Pritchard was an overnight patient in the hospital Sunday.

Junior-Senior Banquet May 2

The annual Junior-Senior Banquet of Tahoka High School will be Saturday, May 2, in the school cafeteria. Theme of the occasion will be "Moonlight and Roses."

Members of the graduating class are honored with such a banquet each year by the Junior Class. Included in the guests will be members of the school faculty and school board.

Following the dinner a program will be presented at which time the prophecy, will and history of the Senior Class will be given. Invocation will be by David Copeland, and Sharon Applewhite will give the welcome. David Bray will respond with the senior toast of thanks. Entertainment will be furnished by Mrs. E. W. Patterson.

One of the humorous episodes of the banquet will occur when the prophecy of the Senior Class is read by Gerald Huffaker. Virginia Willhoit and Linda Jones will present the Senior Class will.

Many of the seniors will capture the sense of graduation from high school as Peggy Halameick and Jerry Adams reads the class's history. The history will include incidents that have occurred to members of the class from the first day of school twelve years ago up until the present date.

The banquet will draw to a close when Benny Thorpe, senior class sponsor, will give the Sum Total. Other class sponsors are Mrs. Johnny Hamilton, senior, and Coaches Deane Wright and Bill Haralson, junior.

Methodists Select Youth Leader

Preparations are going forward for a full program of junior baseball this summer for Lynn county boys, states C. W. Conway, county chairman, including Pony League, Little League, and Minor League.

Fifty-five new boys turned out Monday for the first Little League work-out.

Little League player auction will be held Monday night at the meeting of team managers and League officials. Boys will then be notified of their team assignments.

The time is growing short, and work-out time is limited. Officials hope to have the season schedule ready next week.

Pony League schedule will open a little later than Little League because of the shorter season necessary. Conway says managers and coaches are badly needed by the Pony League.

Minor League teams will be operated and coached by the managers of the four Little League teams. There are yet a few uniforms which have not been turned in. Any boy or parent having one of these uniforms is requested to notify Conway or turn the uniform in at City Hall.

Saturday morning at 9:00 o'clock, men interested in the junior baseball program who can get off are asked to meet Dean Taylor at Little League Park, bringing hoes, rakes, and shovels. At this time, such volunteers are asked to help prepare the field for play.

Life is long to the miserable, but short to be happy.

Survivors include the one daughter, Mrs. Violet; one brother, W. L. Williamson of Delight, Ark.; four grandsons, Neal Armstrong of Idaho, Glynn Armstrong of Petersburg, Don Armstrong of Littlefield and Billy Ross Armstrong of Seagraves; and eight great grandchildren.

In addition to his wife, two daughters preceded him in death.

The date has been set early this year, before school is out and vacations start, for the convenience of the public.

Little League player auction will be held Monday night at the meeting of team managers and League officials. Boys will then be notified of their team assignments.

The time is growing short, and work-out time is limited. Officials hope to have the season schedule ready next week.

Pony League schedule will open a little later than Little League because of the shorter season necessary. Conway says managers and coaches are badly needed by the Pony League.

Water Pressure Low While Standpipe Is Being Painted

If your water pressure seems low during this week, or for the next few days, it's not because of a water shortage. Pressure is down about seven pounds, states City Secretary J. M. Uzzle.

The reason is that inside and outside of the newer overhead reservoir of the City is receiving a new coat of paint being applied by Kurtz Steeplejack Co.

Lynn Teachers Elect Officers

Four Lynn county girls will participate in the District 4-H contests which will be held Saturday, May 2, in Lubbock. The first two places will enter the state contest in June at the 4-H Round-Up.

Gail Phillips, Tahoka, 1958 Gold Star Award winner, has entered the public speaking contest. She will be judged on the content of her speech, presentation of her speech and records.

JoAnn Lacy, O'Donnell, will participate in the Dairy Foods individual contest. JoAnn was the county winner in the contest held in Tahoka April 11. In 1957 she represented Lynn county in Dairy Foods at the district eliminations.

Two Wilson girls, Helen and Jane Schneider, will participate in the Dairy Foods Team contest. Helen was alternate county winner.

The contests begin at 9:00 a. m. on the Tech campus with winners announced at 2:00 p. m.

Pythian Sisters Plan Bake Sale

Lynn Temple Pythian Sisters are planning a bake sale all day Saturday, May 9, at D & H, according to Mrs. Bill (Corene) Cathcart.

Money raised will be applied to a fund to help pay expenses of twenty or more local Pythian Sisters to the state convention in Dallas the second week in June. The local ladies plan to charter a bus to the meeting.

The local Temple has the Grand Chief of Texas, Mrs. J. B. (Thelma) Oliver.

DALE CARNEGIE WINNERS

Three members of the Dale Carnegie class received three equal awards in Tuesday night's session. The winners, Helen Ellis, Nita Wood and A. W. McClellan, each received a book, "Don't Grow Old - Grow Up," by Dorothy Carnegie.

The best way to win an argument is to avoid it.

Two of Tahoka's new city water wells have been tied-in, and two more will soon be tied-in and ready for operation, states Pat Hines, City water superintendent.

As a result, there should now be plenty of water for this summer and the next few to come.

Last year, the City drilled four new wells along the north city limits on Eighth Street, one of which tested 250 gallons per minute, two 150 and one 130 gpm.

Wells in the waterfield north of town had been failing from constant pumping, and last summer Tahoka on several occasions came desperately near the bottom of the barrel (or standpipe).

With the four new wells, Mr. Hines says the city will be able to inaugurate a pumping program which will give all wells rest and help conserve the underground supply for a much longer period. In the future, he does not expect to pump any one well more than 12 hours at a time, rotating the procedure with all the wells as needed.

4-H Teams In Area Contests

Two 4-H judging teams and the tractor operator contestant have been announced by County Agent Bill Griffin to compete in the Area II elimination contests at Texas Tech in Lubbock Saturday.

Winners in the Area contest will compete in the State contests.

Burnell Lowrey of New Home is the Lynn county representative in the tractor operator's contest.

Members of the entomology team include two girls, Lynetta Cain of Tahoka and Marchetta Wood of O'Donnell, and two boys, Lester Ford of Tahoka and Ronnie Wood of O'Donnell.

The livestock judging team will be made up of Tommy Gardenhire, Robert and David Bessire, and Sammy Anderson, all of O'Donnell.

Dean Elliott To State Meet

Dean Elliott, a junior in Tahoka High School, will be the school's lone entry in the State Track and Field event in Austin.

He hurled the discus a distance of 138 feet and two inches to win second place in the Class AA regional meet Saturday at Lubbock, which qualifies him for the state meet.

Kenneth Stice, also a junior, placed fourth in the 440-yard dash, and Jerry Adams, a senior, placed fourth in the 880-yard run.

Tahoka's total points were five which tied for tenth place with Morton and Quanah.

In the Class B contest Ronald Wyatt of New Home won fourth place in the broad jump with a leap of 20-9.

Senate Modifies New Labor Bill

Since last week's issue of The News, in which it was reported that the U. S. Senate had passed Senator John L. McClellan's "bill of rights" amendment to the Kennedy Labor regulation bill 47-46, with Senators Lyndon Johnson and Ralph Yarborough of Texas "voting with the labor bosses," there has been a modification.

Later, probably because of the narrow margin of McClellan's victory, a compromise was later reached, the bill of rights provisions modified to become more agreeable to labor leaders, and the Senate then approved the toned-down substitute to the bill of rights amendment by a vote of 77-14, with the support of McClellan, Johnson, and Yarborough.

Advertising doesn't cost, it pays.

THE AMERICAN WAY

The Legacy

Wilson Minister At Lutheran Meet

Rev. James P. Burnett and Mrs. Burnett of St. John's Lutheran Church of Wilson were two of the 316 clerical and lay delegates representing more than 87,000 members of the American Lutheran Church, Texas District, at its last official convention April 21-24 at the First Lutheran Church in Galveston.

They met in numerous study sessions and voted on a multitude of items affecting the work in more than 220 congregations throughout Texas, Louisiana and Arkansas.

The convention authorized the Bible Camp Committee to build a new swimming pool at Camp Chrysalis, the District Bible Camp near Kerrville and approved the action and plans of various committees of the district during the coming year.

An important vote was taken upon the merger of the American Lutheran Church, which has a membership of over 1,000,000 baptized members, Evangelical Lutheran Church, which has a membership of over 900,000 and the United Evangelical Lutheran Church which has a membership of over 60,000. This will be the first merger of Lutheran bodies with different nationalistic backgrounds since these churches are of German, Norwegian and Danish extractions. This merger was begun in 1953, has been approved by the three bodies and is now being ratified by the districts.

The convention, which met in the new $400,000 edifice of the First Lutheran Church, is actually the last full-term convention of the district before next year. A short convention, dissolving the district, will be held in Austin on May 9, 1960. The next day the representatives of the merging church bodies will meet to form the new Southwestern District of The American Lutheran Church, which will number about 2,225,000 baptized members.

Everyday Religion

By J. B. Thompson

What do you say when you talk to yourself. One writer has said we should be careful what we say to ourselves. Some will say they do not talk to themselves but most people do. One wag, when asked if he talked to himself so much, replied that it was because he loved to talk to a smart person and loved to hear a smart person talk. Be careful what you say to yourself.

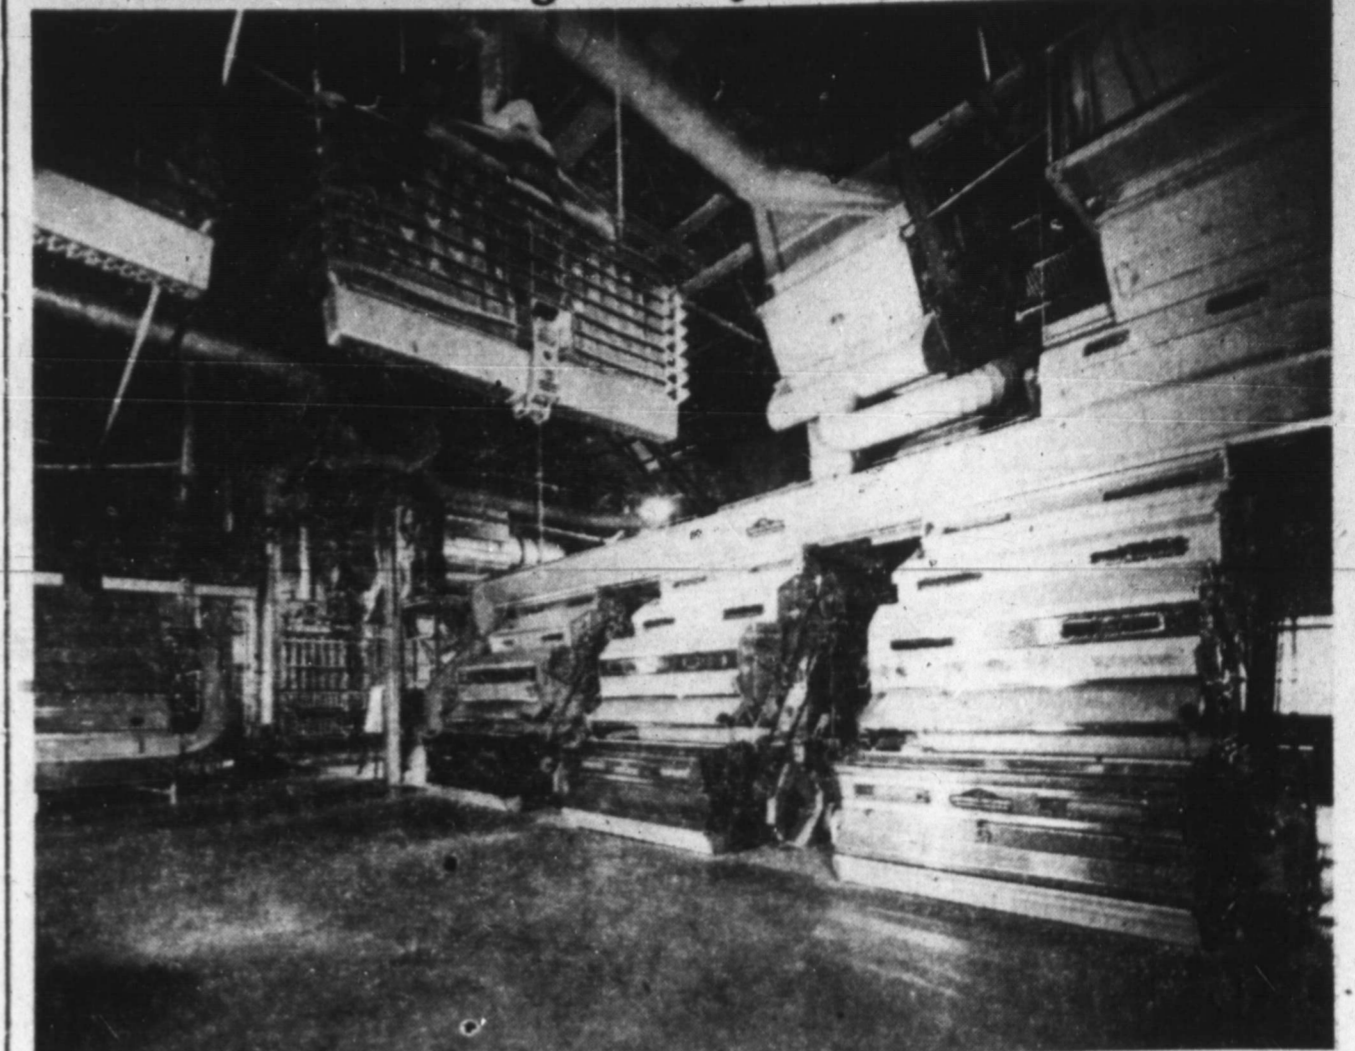

This is good advice, because we are prone to be too complimentary when talking to ourselves.

That was a great job you did, old boy. Really, you are wonderful," we say as we pat ourselves on the back. It does not take many doses of that poisonous stuff to make a person swell up like a pouter pigeon.

Then it also gives one an excellent opportunity to wallow in self pity. "You poor thing," we wail to ourselves. "You have had a tough time of it. Everything is against you," we moan in a deluge of convincing self pity.

But the ever-ready alibis we can

Included in the plant are 120-saw gins, 96-inch perfection feeders, impact cleaners, counterflow driers, individual Diamond FP-500 combing-type lint cleaners, and a Moss Gordon super constellation unit lint cleaners.

In purchasing this equipment, the Association also has taken into consideration the automation facilities available and has included as much automation as possible in their new outfit to assure the proper processing of the cotton of their customers, states Curtis Stevens, manager.

The accompanying picture shows the new type gin and feeder, as well as the latest type installation that is now in the process of being erected in Tahoka.

Officers and directors are: John F. Thomas, president; T. D. Dunlap, vice president; J. O. Allen, secretary; Charlie Lichey, O. E. Terry, Cleve Littlepage, and Lois Smelser.

Senator Preston Smith

First major bill to go down in defeat this session in the House of Representatives was the Governor's so-called "abandoned property law," which drew the fire of bankers from all over the state.

The bill was no stranger to the house, having been considered before as a revenue-producing measure, but this was the first session in which the "abandoned property law" really came into focus as an issue.

Since that activity, legislators have been bombarded with many telegrams and phone calls since announcement of the most recent tax program. Hectic contacts were made in many cases to urge action against certain tax measures, or for certain tax measures.

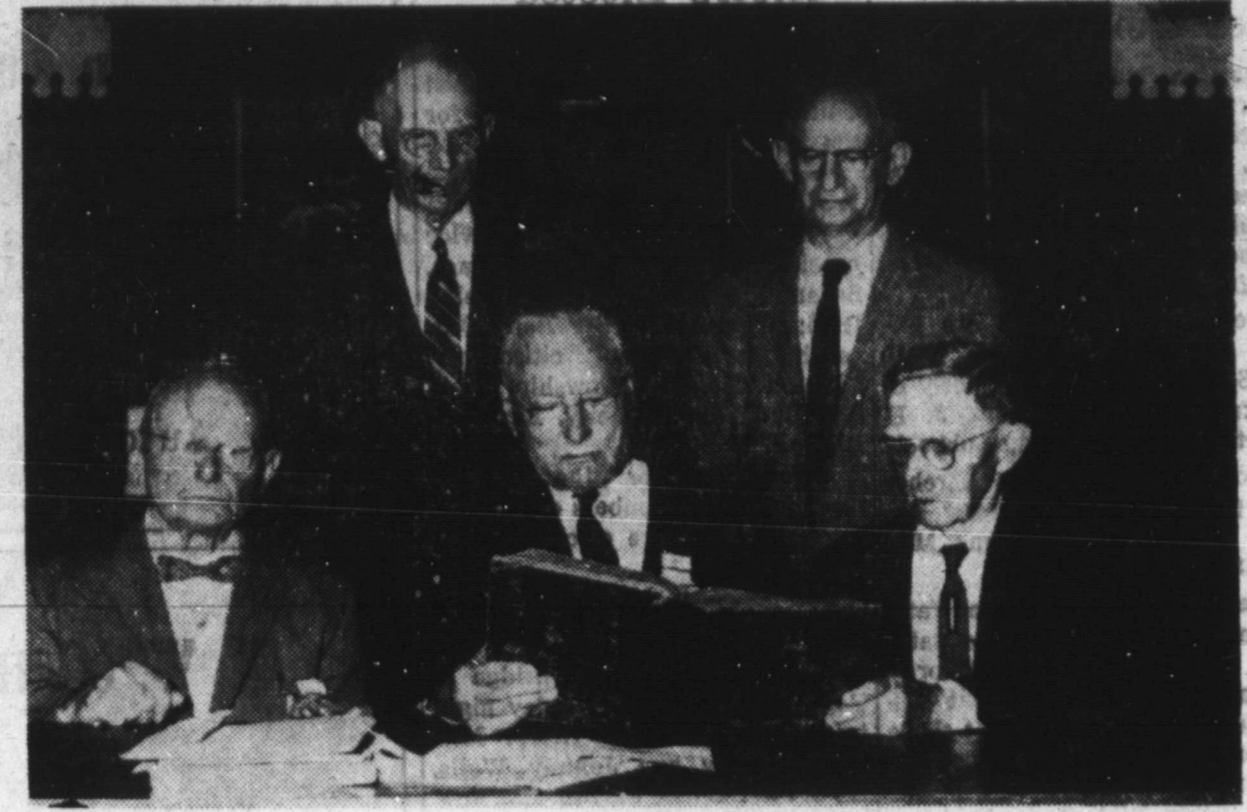

Publicity on some of the items to be taxed under this bill was credited with bringing more response from Texans than anything else that has happened in this session.

The public is still apparently very much interested in taxation measures under study. And they are certainly not the only ones.

With taxes certain to be increased, the tax legislation has been delayed time and time again. When the proposals become public future action here at the capitol pines the program here and there, and as a result, millions of dollars are cut from the tax bill. This means only one thing, mathematically speaking. With each new idea on how to raise taxes, subsequent action cancels out the majority portions of such increases by eliminating portions of the bills. Ground is being lost in attempts to provide much needed increase in state revenue. Just what steps are to be considered next is a matter of differing opinion here.

It's beginning to look like another session . . . a special session to finish up the financial problems of the state . . . will be called this year, say capitol observers. It's almost sure that a special session is predictable unless something is decided on a tax measure that will pass enough increases to meet the needs the legislature has outlined as necessary. We're all against increased taxes . . . but many months of work here show taxes are sure to be increased. Which taxes? Nobody knows right now.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Edwards returned home Friday from a trip to South Texas, attending the compress convention in Galveston and visiting relatives in cities en route to and from the Coast.

Five senior pastors of the Texas District of the American Lutheran Church examine the century-old parish records of First Evangelical Lutheran Church, Galveston, host church to the convention of the district completed last week. The pastors pictured have served the church almost 250 years in the cumulative record of service. Seated (left to right) is the Rev. F. A. Bracher of Fredricksburg, Dr. E. A. Sagebiel of Seguin, longtime district president, the Rev. Paul Gogolia of Brenham who holds the longest record of service with 59 years in the ministry; (standing) The Rev. A. M. Two-Year-Old Gets In Trouble Aplenty

Following is an article taken from an Oklahoma paper of a two-year-old boy who had the misfortune of getting snake bit, eating poison and being involved in a car wreck all in one week. The little fellow is the grandson of L. E. Thompson Sr. of Tahoka and of Mrs. Fannie McLaughlin of Lubbock.

"I guess you can expect things to happen when you're raising a bunch of boys," Mrs. L. B. Thompson of Tishomingo says resignedly. "But maybe it just happened because Mark—he's our middle-sized boy, you know—is so active."

Two-year-old Mark put his share of grey hairs in his mother's head last week. For the record, Mark managed to get snake bit, eat poison and get in a car wreck. It wasn't much of a snake bite, Mrs. Thompson admits. "Just a brown snake a few feet long coiled up and Mark all excited hopping around it. There was a red spot on his leg where maybe the snake bit him—he claims it did—but the skin wasn't broken."

Two days later the youngster got into some poison used in cattle treatment and tried to make a lunch of it. A hurried trip to the doctor's office resulted in Mark being little the worse for wear, just some burns around his mouth.

Mark really wasn't the direct cause of the car wreck that afternoon. Mrs. Thompson just doesn't recall what happened, maybe she had her mind on how to keep accidents from happening to Mark. She turned off Highway 99 two miles north of Tishomingo. First thing she knew the car was off the road and into a 15-foot bar ditch.

She and Mark received only bruises, but the car was banged up to the tune of $150.

One thing about it, Mrs. Thompson declares, life is never dull with three boys. Mark's brothers, Bill, 4, and David, six months, seem to manage to present their share of problems whenever Mark has an off day.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" BY C. WILSON HARDER

Sooner or later, and perhaps the sooner the better, Congress is going to have to take bold steps in the labor situation.

For some months now the committee headed by Sen. McClellan has been bringing forth disclosures in the operation of unions that rival in brutality and arrogance anything that took place in any era of recorded history.

In addition, in several instances the Justice Dept. is seeking to C. W. Harder apply the nation's anti-trust laws to labor unions where there is some suspicion they have combined with predatory employers to stifle competition.

But perhaps the most significant trend in Big Labor's constant drive for greater economic and political power is the announced determination by the A. F. L.-C. I. O. Executive Council to put union representatives on the Federal Reserve Board and on the board of each of the twelve regional Federal Reserve Banks.

As is generally known, the Federal Reserve Board of Governors is perhaps the most influential group in the national economic picture, as it is their decisions on discount rates, margin and reserve requirements which regulates the supply of money.

Obviously, the Federal Reserve Board is just the place for a fellow like Dave Beck, Hoffa, and some of the other boys with whom the McClellan committee has been occupied.

The Big Labor group charges that the Federal Reserve Board is dominated by bankers. Now this perhaps may be a mistake.

While bankers may know something about money, they are not too familiar with operating secondary boycotts, throwing up a picket line around a place of business on short notice, or even the mechanics of collecting dues by compelling employers to deduct them from the checks of the workers.

Thus, it is easy to see that the members of the Federal Reserve Board need new faces.

And with union leaders on all twelve of the boards of the regional Federal Reserve Banks there could undoubtedly spring into being some spirited jurisdictional fights between regions which might not do anything to stabilize the dollar, but it would make headlines.

But the mere fact that by formal resolution Big Labor would announce this goal as a serious aim is a very serious indication of how far labor is trying to go in drive to dominate the U. S.

And there is no doubt that the leaders of Big Labor will gain some support, both in and out of Congress.

There is no end to this line of attack. It is just as logical to demand a certain number of the justices in the United States Supreme Court be picked from ranks of union walking delegates.

And while the working man undeniably has his right to the protective benefits of collective bargaining, the entire nation and its institutions cannot become permeated with the one-sided philosophies of Big Labor.

It is going to take in the months and years ahead, a great deal of organized business opinion and work to keep labor from taking over. In toto, the entire conduct of the United States. It could be already much later than anyone thinks.

When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; when I became a man, I gave up childish ways. (1 Corinthians 13:11.)

As a child ten years of age, the daughter of Leo Solstoi, the famous Russian author, was once playing with the neighborhood children. A boy rudely struck her on the arm with a stick. Angerly, she dashed into the house. She cried, "That naughty boy has bruised my arm. . . . Go out and whip him."

Calmly, the father took the little girl on his knee and said: "What good would it do if I went out and beat him? . . . Wouldn't it be better to make him love us?" Then the good man told his daughter to make a jam sandwich and take it to the boy.

When others act crudely and selfishly against us, many of us strike back with a kind of childish spirit behind our actions. The Bible makes a distinction between child-likeness—an open mind and heart—and childishness—littleness and immaturity. We would be happier and human relations would be better if we would grow up spiritually—be slow to wrath, and return good for evil.

PRAYER
Help us, O God, to grow in Christlikeness this day. Strengthen in us the mind of Christ and instill in us the compassion of His heart that we may cease speaking and acting in petty, unbecoming ways. Grant that we may become full-size, mature Christians. In our

Dr. K. R. Durham Is Speaker At Annual Tahoka FFA Banquet

Fully 110 fathers and guests attended the annual Father-Son banquet of the Tahoka Future Farmers of America held Friday night in the local school cafeteria.

Principal speaker for the occasion was Dr. K. R. Durham, who delighted the crowd with a lot of humor, ending his talk on a brief serious note in which he emphasized the fact that today's farmer must be well educated to succeed.

He pointed out that some of the things a farmer needs to know today are entomology, poisons, and economics. He needs to know how to read well and to be well-read to keep up with latest agricultural methods, as well as to understand contracts and various government directives, regulations, and forms. And, too, he must have a sense of religious and moral values.

The meeting, in its entirety, was conducted by the Senior Chapter Conducting Team, second place winner in area II for the 1953-1959 school year.

Benny Martin acted as president and master of ceremonies, Falcon McAllister as vice president, John Hegi as secretary, Billy Tomlinson as treasurer, Virgil Hocks a sentinel, Terry Dockery as reporter, and Lester Adams as sponsor. Actually, Kenneth Stice is president of the Chapter. Teachers of vocational agriculture and sponsors of the group are V. P. Carter and Adams.

One of the highlights of the occasion was the announcement by John Hegi of the special awards to Chapter members.

Billy Davis received the award as Greenhand (first year) best all-around farm program of the year. Kenneth Stice, president, received the award for the Chapter's best all-around farm program of the year.

Three awards were made to the swine production division to Larry Forsythe, Mickey Owens, and Raymond Bagby. Phillip Havins was presented the award for the best record in beef production.

Another highlight was the awarding of honorary membership in the FFA to three men, Dale Thuren and Leighton Knox, local businessmen, and John Shepherd, high school principal, for recognition for the help they have given the boys in their work.

The Chapter Conducting team also formally presented a model meeting of the group which should have made every dad present proud of the work being done by these boys.

Decorating the head table were FFA banners won this year by the Tahoka FFA Chapter; first in the Senior Chapter Conducting; first in Quiz, first in Grass Judging, second in Livestock Judging, third in Radio, fourth in Crops; all in the Mesa district; first in Dairy Cattle judging, Brownfield district; second in Greenhand Quiz and second in Senior Chapter Conducting, 1958-1959, Area II.

Special guests in addition to fathers included members of the school board members, school administrators, and Texas Tech senior agriculture students doing prac-

Richard Havens To Become Editor Of Abernathy Review

Richard Havens, reared at Tahoka, on about June 1 will become the new editor of The Abernathy Review following his release from the Army, according to announcement of his father-in-law, Buford Davenport, editor and publisher of the weekly newspaper.

Richard is currently on Army duty in Orleans, France, but expects to receive his discharge on May 21. He entered the service in May, 1957.

He is a son of Mrs. W. T. Havens, a graduate of Tahoka High School, and was employed by the First National Bank of Tahoka until his marriage in 1956 to the daughter of the Abernathy Review publisher, at which time he entered the newspaper business.

Davenport also announces that "gradually as Havens assumes the responsibilities as editor, he (Davenport) will 'move over' in favor of young men, young ideas, and a better newspaper for Review readers. After hitting this beat since 1932, BFD is about ready to be turned out to pasture."

SCOUT TO JAMBOREE

Eagle Scout Belverd Needles Jr., a grandson of Mrs. W. P. Anderson of Tahoka, will go from Lubbock to the tenth World Scout-Jamboree in the Philippines during July, representing South Plains Boy Scout Council.

Guy Smith, manager of the Wilson Farm Association, which handles bracero labor, has moved his office from Wilson to Tahoka Coop Gin, Phone WY 8-4090. Those desiring bracero labor may contact him there.

Rev. C. T. Aly of Wichita Falls, a former pastor of the First Baptist Church of Tahoka, has been conducting a revival meeting at Roaring Springs Baptist Church, according to The Texas Spur.

Music teaching in Tahoka, Albert Taylor and Owen Young.

The invocation was by Gerald Huffaker, and Sunny Gibson furnished organ music preceding and during the dinner which was fried chicken served by mothers of the FFA boys.

Student Council Plans Election

At this time each year students at Tahoka High School make preparations for the election of Student Council officers for the following school year.

Following is a list of the nominations announced by the Student Council for the new officers:

President: Carol Smith, Gerald Short and George Adams.

Vice president: Gerald Huffaker, Sunny Gibson and the two other candidates on the ballot for president not elected.

Secretary-treasurer: Sharon Applewhite, Barbara Thomas and Gail Phillips.

Parliamentarian: Larry Forsythe, Martha Collard and Mickey Owens.

Reporter: Frank Greathouse, Susan Thomas, Mary Jane McCord and David Copeland.

Campaign speeches were made in an assembly program Tuesday to really get the election into full swing. The president was to be elected by secret ballot Wednesday and the remainder of the officers to be elected on Thursday.

All candidates for the offices of the Student Council must be a sophomore or a junior and must have at least a 70 grade average in all subjects.

Results of the elections will be in the paper next week.

TELL FISH STORY

Grady Lankford had good evidence for his absence from church last Sunday. Pastor W. A. Brooks states that Grady and Sam Miller were fishing last Friday and caught a 21 pound catfish at Lake Brownwood on a trotline. A good catch of crappie was added to the string of fish.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Luttrell and Mr. and Mrs. Joel Holloway, Leah Beth, Becky and Keith spent the week end at Jefferson in East Texas. They visited Mrs. Luttrell's sister, Mrs. Earl Youngblood, and two brothers, H. S. and Hugh Morrow. Thirty-five relatives gathered at Mrs. Youngblood's for Sunday dinner.

County's Bond Sales Are High

"March sales in Lynn county were $52,366.00 and sales for the first three months of 1959 totaled $179,880.00 which is 69.4 percent of our 1959 goal of $259,000.00," Chairman A. C. Verner said.

Sales in Texas during March were $14,096,269 and sales for the first three months of 1959 totaled $45,196,598, which is 24.8 percent of the state's 1959 goal of $185,200,000.

"Every American who buys a Savings Bond is providing for his own future, adding to the strength of his country, both military and economical, and is putting real meaning in the slogan 'Share-in-America'," Verner concluded.

"I planted earlier than ever using ORTHOCIDE Soil Treater X...."

reports Lloyd Hahn, Brownfield, Texas

"I planted earlier than ever — and under very cold and wet conditions. I treated my entire 170 acres with ORTHOCIDE Soil Treater X and got an excellent stand." Mr. Hahn (right) with ORTHO Fieldman Jim McCarty, adds enthusiastically: "I'm going to use it again this year — I can't afford not to, planting as early as I do."

Growers prove ORTHOCIDE Soil Treater X brings higher yields, greater profits. ORTHOCIDE Soil Treater X is the best insurance against the high cost of replanting. It creates a protected zone in the furrow allowing the tender seedling to develop normally in spite of cold, wet, infected soil. The early maturity and better stands which result can bring greater profits from higher yields of top grade cotton.

"How To Destroy A Democracy" Is Subject of Talk Heard by Rotarians

"How to Destroy a Democracy" was the subject of a thought-provoking talk made by Dr. Bryce Campbell, dentist associated with Dr. K. R. Durham, at Tahoka Rotary Club Thursday noon of last week as a part of the Lubbock "Project Alert" program.

Dr. Campbell said the Project Alert program is in two parts. One deals with the strength of America. The other deals with the Communist conspiracy.

He quoted Karl Marx, the original Russian Communist, who said, "Capitalism has within itself the seed of its own destruction."

"The Communists do not use total war as a means of subduing a strong enemy," Dr. Campbell said, "but use war of punitive violence as the final blow in the subjugation of an already weakened foe."

He declared the Communists lean on every door, continually applying pressure, promote gradual subversion of the American way of life through moral, economic, political and social assets of the community. They attack democracy from within. He asked the question, "Does our country now have the spirit, attitude, and atmosphere of success that it had in its younger days? Does our country now have the young, vigorous, growing spirit upon which it grew to eminence?"

Using the six steps of Karl Marx's formula for converting a country to Communism, he asked that we look them over and see how they apply to America today.

1. Make security more attractive than the possibility of excelling. He pointed out that our fathers didn't get their positions, businesses and farms without working for them, and cited a trend of younger people to expect something for nothing—the government and society owes them a living.

2. Foment class and group dissension. We are now being pitted race against race, labor against employer, religion against religion, by insidious influences and according to the Communist plan. We are beginning to see the influx of organized labor into this area, not in a friendly and helpful manner but to gain power for leaders and causing more economic loss in the end. The depressed areas of this nation now are those which are Union strongholds, he declared.

3. Don't equip the younger generation with patriotism, zeal, vigor, and mental ability to get out in life and "make a go of it." He cited some of our "progressive education" ideals fomented and advocated by the liberals which preach against rigid discipline, but advocate adjustments— young people learning to adjust to the group and majority—the tearing down of individual initiative and thinking and standing up for what one believes.

4. Inculcate the spirit of corruption in the people. We today see corruption in many phases of life, including government, leading to mistrust in government, mistrust in business and labor.

5. The power to tax is the power to destroy. Karl Marx said, "They will tax themselves out of existence. When the income tax was first put into being, we were told it would never exceed 10 percent. Today, it varies from 20 to 91 plus percent of what a man makes. The graduated income tax is destroying the ability of people to set aside capital; it is destroying the incentive to succeed financially. You may raise the minimum wage all you want to, but when things get out of balance and there is no job, there is just no job and we all suffer."

6. Practice politics for expedience. "How many genuine statesmen do we have in elected office today? Dr. Campbell asked, "who really know something and have got the guts to do it? How many sacrifice integrity—and principle for votes?"

Granvel Ayer, institutional representative on the Boy Scout committee, announced the Quana Parker District scouters banquet will be held in Tahoka on May 11. Mitchell Williams is district president. All people interested in Scouting are invited to attend, he said.

Alton Cain, rural-urban chairman of the club, announced each Rotarian would be expected to bring a farmer guest this Thursday.

Mrs. Charles (Boggie) Stewart of 1401 Hampton Street, Columbia, South Carolina, sends greetings and best wishes to Tahoka friends in a note to The News while sending her renewal to "the old home paper."

ELMER BLANKENSHIP

Midland bermuda grass is gaining in popularity as a pasture grass. There is no visible difference between Midland and Coastal bermuda. The main difference is in winter hardiness. Midland bermuda is much more cold hardy. Sod may be bought from Bruce Gentry Jr. in Lubbock. For further information concerning Midland bermuda grass contact local Soil Conservation Service.

A Great Plains Conservation Plan is being prepared for T. C. Beard. Beard farms south of Tahoka.

Supplemental pastures during the summer growing season are to native grassland what that summer fishing trip is to its owner. Give your rangeland a vacation break and it can work harder to store up food for the winter.

plan is being developed for Benny W. Edwards of O'Donnell.

A cow knows better than man which plants are most palatable to her taste, but man has the responsibility of managing these plants to preserve them for future use. A cow has no concern for tomorrow.

lena Park. Tour repertoire includes works by Handel, Bach, Hayden, Beethoven and Christiansen. Upon returning to Waco, the choir completed preparations for the Annual Formal Concert of the Chapel Choir combined with the A Cappella Choir also directed by Dr. Porter, May 8, at 8:15 p. m.

"We Like This Liquid Fertilizer!"

"By using LIQUID FERTILIZER, we are saving work and money and time," states Melvin and Martin (Junior) Wuensche, who farm northwest of Wilson and who are recognized as being among Lynn county's best and most progressive young farmers.

They are saving money on the actual fertilizer. They are saving time and work because they make just one trip over and because the proper mixture they want is delivered to their turn-row in one of our tank trailers. Liquid fertilizer is easily mixed, stays in the proper proportions, and the applicator such as that shown in the picture is easy to adjust for proper amount and depth of application.

The Wuensches are ever looking for the better farming methods, and this is probably the reason they have switched to liquid fertilizer.

If you are interested in raising more cotton per acre and saving money on your fertilizing operations with the proper type fertilizer for your land, contact us today.

Martin (Junior) Wuensche and Melvin Wuensche, well-known farmers, are shown above inspecting the job being done by Junior's tractor driver in putting down liquid fertilizer. Anyone who can drive a tractor has no trouble applying fertilizer in this method.

Liquids Are Neutral Solutions and Should Not Be Confused With Fertilizers That Are Applied as a Gas Under Pressure!
