Tournament Next Week Will Feature Opening Of New School Gymnasium

Tahoka's new and modern gymnasium will be opened to the public at the tournament Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week, although the formal opening will not be until Dec. 14, when West Texas State meets Eastern New Mexico University here.

Virtually complete for several weeks, the gym has already been put into use by the school.

Workmen will complete the job this week end with the installation of the fold-away bleachers and the public address system.

Already the new gymnasium is being crowded throughout most of the school days by physical education classes, states Supt. Otis Spears, with about 240 students using the building. One High School physical education class still uses the old gym, which is also used by about 250 students from North Elementary.

Decision to call the bond vote for the gymnasium was made by the Tahoka board because of the sub-standard old gymnasium and because of demands of the State for the local schools to meet requirements in physical education.

The semi-modernistic virtually windowless building has 17,000 feet of floor space, and it cost $155,000, including the adjacent paved parking lot which is also used for cars of both students and teachers during school hours.

Tahoka now has one of the most modern gymnasiums in this entire section. Built of steel, brick, tile, concrete and pre-fabricated concrete wall on the north and south ends, it has acoustical and insulated tectum deck roofing the same material used in the Lubbock Municipal Coliseum.

There are large and commodious dressing rooms for home and visiting boys and girls, complete with showers, clothes washing facilities, individual lock baskets for all physical education students, and rest rooms in each of the four dressing rooms. Dressing room walls, as well as the rest of the building, have wainscoting of ceramic tile.

The main gym meets all standards for high school or college games. About 600 fans can be seated in the permanent bleachers and about 300 fans in the fold-away bleachers, the former on the east and the latter on the west.

For spectator sports, there is one basketball court and one volleyball court. For gym classes, when the west bleachers are folded against the wall, there are two basketball courts running east and west, or two volleyball courts, or two badminton courts.

The large room has a "floating floor" for resiliency and to prevent buckling. There are several ventilating fans, heating units, and lighting by many electric lights, augmented by plastic bubbles in the ceiling. Only windows in the building are in the foyer.

The gym has two glass and four wooden goals, an electric scoreboard, and a public address system.

Main entrance of the building is at the northeast, and the large foyer has public rest rooms adjacent, drinking fountains, a large trophy case, and a large concessions stand. The latter will be operated most of the time by the Homemaking Department.

There is also an office for coaches at the northwest corner of the

Absentee Voting Ends On Dec. 1

Absentee voting is possible until December 1 in the $190,000 right-of-way bond election called for December 5, but only two absentee votes had been cast up until Tuesday of this week.

Qualified voters may cast their ballots at the office of County Clerk C. W. Roberts.

The bonds would be for the purpose of buying the rest of the right-of-way for the new four-lane highway across the county. The county already has nearly $100,000 invested in the right-of-way for the northern sector.

County Judge W. M. Mathis says this will be far more economical than issuing warrants to buy the right-of-way, as the latter would necessitate a raise in property valuations.

He also pointed out that this proposal has nothing to do with the route through or around Tahoka, as the money will be needed whichever route is taken.

Christmas Choir Music Planned

Choir practices began last week for the annual Christmas Cantata, "The Music of Bethlehem," which will be presented on the night of December 20 by singers from the First Methodist, First Baptist, and Sweet Street Baptist Churches.

Another program of Christmas music will be the appearance in the Tahoka Methodist Church of the Chanters from McMurry College, Abilene, on the night of December 15.

The annual Christmas program for the children of the Methodist Church and any other children who wish to attend has been scheduled for December 20, according to Rev. J. B. Thompson, pastor of the church.

ASC Mailing Checks On Farm Soil Bank

Wilmer Smith Is Producers Head

Cotton producer delegates to the American Cotton Producers Association in Memphis Friday elected Wilmer Smith, Lynn county cotton farmer, as the 1959-60 president of ACPA.

Smith, who is vice president of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., has long been active in agricultural organizations. On his election he announced a six-point program for ACPA.

It includes: 1. A membership drive to unite cotton producers in all states from South Carolina to California; 2. A review of all present policies of ACPA and the revision of such policies to bring them up to date; 3. Development of a present and future stand on farm legislation for cotton producers; 4. To establish a system of rotating meeting places of ACPA representatives, with the next meeting to be held in Lubbock, probably in late January or early February; 5. To put ACPA on a sound financial basis; and 6. ACPA will strive to work with other agricultural groups in any and all matters pertaining to improvement of the cotton industry.

American Cotton Producers Association is governed by a president and six vice presidents, one from each of the member organizations—Louisiana, Mississippi, Arkansas, Missouri, Tennessee, North Carolina and the Texas High Plains. Vice presidents are named by member organizations and will be announced at the next meeting, Smith explained.

Smith, who produces cotton on some 1,200 acres in Lynn county, also is president of the Plains Coop Oil Mill, Lubbock; a director of Texas Tech College, Lubbock; a director of the Federal Land Bank, and a director of the Texas Federation of Cooperatives.

Lynn county farmers are now "harvesting" their annual and practice payments for land leased to the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Soil Bank program, according to Charles G. Bragg, Lynn County ASC Office Manager.

More than three hundred farmers have received $322,754 in payment of annual rental on the 262 contracts in effect in the county. An additional $20,551 has been paid to establish cover crops on the 41 farms contracted this last year.

As the Soil Bank program heads toward its fifth year—1960—a national total of 22.4 million acres have been contracted under the program. Texas, naturally, leads all states in the amount of acreage, with a total of 3.2 million acres. Slightly over one-half of this is whole-farm contracts, under which all the cropland on the farm is retired from production. Lynn county, while one of the smaller counties from the standpoint of program participation, has placed 29,421 acres in the Bank, a figure equal to approximately 7 percent of total cropland.

Preliminary figures indicate that around 25 new contracts will be accepted for 1960, representing additional annual payments amounting to another $30,000.

In addition to benefits derived from the supplemental income, sportsmen and conservationists alike are pleased to note that grass is again covering vast areas of the Great Plains where grain and cotton were planted to meet wartime needs. In 1958, 4,418,000 acres were succeeded in 423 Great Plains counties. Some 2 million acres are going into forest trees. Many farmers are adapting practices designed to encourage and protect wildlife.

It is significant to note that this is one of the few agricultural programs offered today which meet with the approval of both major farm organizations and the Government. On November 10, after a discussion of the general farm situation and the need for further legislation, President Eisenhower and Secretary of Agriculture Benson issued a joint memorandum declaring one of the essential aspects of a sound farm program was "an expanded program for the voluntary retirement of land from crop production under the Conservation Reserve."

Jimmy Whorton Writes On Second Leg of Travels Over Europe

A few weeks ago, The News published an interesting letter from James T. (Jimmy) Whorton telling of his travels in Europe with Ronnie Parker, youth director of the local Methodist Church summer before last.

Here is a second letter from Jimmy written from Paris, France, on November 17:

The last article, Ron and I had been to Austria, Italy, Switzerland, and back to Frankfurt. This time, we travel to Berlin, Scandinavia, United Kingdom, and Paris, France.

Staying one week in Frankfurt, Germany, the second phase of our travels began by a free hop on a DC-3 to Berlin. This further proved how lucky and thankful we two Texans should be for the help of others on our unpredictable journey.

Berlin, the divided area that the world watches, proved to be of interesting contrasts—physically and socially. From our "park bench hotel," located in a tree shaded clearing, Ron and I walked from the free sector to the Communist controlled side in a matter of minutes. Crossing the border was accomplished quickly with no stamping of credentials or the usual formalities. Armed security police from both sectors patrolled this area to prevent the entrance of the refugees or suspicious persons.

After entering the Eastern Zone of Berlin, we were surprised to find the structures of war-torn buildings still standing, whereas West Berlin had cleared and rebuilt the largest part with new modern and up-to-date shopping districts. East Berlin seemed to have a sombre existence in contrast to the busy West Sector.

After arriving back in Frankfurt, we started on our next trip by motor bikes to Hamburg. During the ride across the countryside, we spent our nights in youth hostels, barns, and of course, in open. By the time we reached Hamburg, our funds were in terrible shape. Well, after staying two nights in the city park, Ron and I decided to sell the motor bikes for traveling cash and continue our wayward travels by hitch-hiking with all our belongings on our backs.

We hitched rides to Copenhagen, Denmark. While there, we visited the famous Tivoli, the entertainment spot of Denmark. Fredericksborg Castle and Hamlet's Castle also proved to be interesting. Copenhagen is truly an enjoyable place to be, and the girls are pretty and friendly.

Leaving Copenhagen, we hitchhiked to Oslo, Norway, where the weather was becoming quite cold. The largest part of our stay was spent on the water front talking to "old sea dogs" and anyone connected with sea travel or cargo shipping. After four days of stalling, we finally found a captain who would allow us to work our way to London on his ship. We met the "Gunhild K." in Gotenborg, Sweden, and started for England. At this time, we found that our jobs were to wash dishes, scrub deck, and clean cabins. Sounds back-breaking, but was really quite enjoyable, especially when combined with excellent Norwegian food.

As the "Gunhild K." came up to dock, Ron and I crawled to the port holes and looked out upon London. After a long three-day crossing of the North Sea, it was good to be in an English speaking country.

We spent a week seeing such places as the Tower of London and Tower Bridge, St. Paul's Cathedral, the Houses of Parliament, Westminster Abbey, Wesley Chapel, and a distant look at Scotland Yard. Our very enjoyable last evening in London, we went to the Drury Lane Theatre to see "My Fair Lady."

Our next stop was Stratford-on-Avon, where we saw five Shakespearean plays with Charles Laughton and Sir Lawrence Olivier.

We moved on to Scotland and stayed five days in Glasgow, where we helped to paint a church for free room and board. Our next stop was Dover, England. From there, we crossed into France and traveled to Paris.

Ron and I spent our final week together seeing gay Paris, its beautiful buildings and atmosphere of fun and excitement. We have been traveling for six months, and France has brought our interesting trip to an end.

We have been through fourteen countries and covered over 12,000 miles. In every country, the people have certainly made us feel at home. I hope that some day those people will come to America and receive some of that good old Texas hospitality.

Sincerely yours, James T. Whorton.

Wilson Host To Teachers Meet

The Lynn County Unit of TSTA held their second group meeting of the year at 7:00 p. m. Monday, Nov. 23, at the Wilson High School auditorium with Johnny Clark, president, presiding. Approximately 85 members were present at the meeting, according to J. P. Hewlett, county superintendent.

The Lynn County teachers are 100 per cent in membership in both the local unit and the state organization. H. L. After the meeting adjourned, the group toured Wilson's excellent science lab and home making departments. They were then served sandwiches, cokes, coffee and hot chocolate by Mrs. McWhirter's homemaking girls in the school lunchroom.

Luncheon Meeting For Ladies Class

The Ladies Bible Class of Tahoka Church of Christ will be entertained at a luncheon meeting next Tuesday, Dec. 1, in the home of Mrs. L. A. Forsythe.

There are 47 members of the class and usually there are about forty present at the weekly meetings on Tuesday morning at 9:00 a. m.

Bob Barnes, minister of the church, says visitors are welcome at all times.

Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Thompson left Tuesday for Irving to spend Thanksgiving with their children and grandchildren.

God for Jesus Christ, for His life here on earth. His sacrificial death and glorious resurrection, and for His daily guidance of our lives.

PRAYER: Heavenly Father, forgive us for our ungratefulness for all Thy goodness of us. Instill in us the spirit of thanksgiving so that we may be mindful always of Thy daily, loving care, as was Jesus. In His name we pray. Amen.

Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. (Ephesians 5:20.)
How good to count our blessings! We need to thank God for our beautiful country and for our homes and loved ones. We need to say thanks for friends, for they know much about us, but love us just the same.
An old, deaf lady told me once that she could not hear a word of the sermons, but she was so grateful to God that she could walk and see. So she found her place in church every Sunday. We need to say thanks for friends, for they know much about us, but love us just the same.
For food, the beauty of the earth, the skies, the lakes, and trees, and flowers, we need to give God thanks.
We need to say thanks for chastening, for it can strengthen our faith.

Printer's Ink-lings . . .

By F. P. H.

At this Thanksgiving season, most Lynn county people are thankful, no doubt, that this year's crop finally turned out as well as it did.

First it was too dry, then it rained too much in certain sections and not enough in others, there followed burning winds, hail storm after hail storm, more rain, more dry weather and burning winds, and then more rain and hail. But, in the end, nearly every one has made a fair crop and some have made good crops in spite of the battering. Remember last March; the future looked dark! Old Lynn can still promise less and produce more than nearly any section.

The Texas Interscholastic League is celebrating its 50th anniversary. Nowhere in the world is there such an organization. Started in 1910, it has more school members and more students participating than any similar organization in America.

The Texas League program has been the model followed by most other states, but no other state in the Union has yet measured up to its program in scope of work or in number of participants.

We remember when it started. It was about then, or a little later, that old Roscoe started playing football, and some of its opponents in those and succeeding days were Sweetwater, Abilene, San Angelo, Colorado City, Pecos, Midland and Snyder. There was debating and declaiming and spelling and track. They used to say that district basketball championship would be decided when Roscoe and Loraine got together. And George (Herman) Mahon was a member of one famed Loraine team. Played basketball on an outdoor court, and gravel and cinders were poured into the mud spots to improve the court. The girls played too, and wore middies and bloomers. Everybody bought their own suits and chipped-in to buy a basketball.

The football field was scraped off with a road grader, fans roamed the sidelines, linemen wore nose-guards that sometimes knocked their teeth out, and most players wore shin guards in which there were wooden slats and rib-protectors, also with wooden slats, and shoulder pads that fit about like a horse collar would fit a man. And, we remember the day that a Roscoe football star kicked three drop-kick field goals to defeat Sweetwater 9 to 6, we think it was.

They claim the late Knute Rockne invented the T-formation, but we know Coach and Principal E. J. Woodard was running the same formation—only not called that—back in the early Teens.

Remember the Friday afternoon Literary Society meetings? . . . Looked forward all week to Friday afternoon . . . There were recitations, declamations, debates, spelling and arithmetic matches. . . . And everybody had a lot of fun. . . . And after the program there was a football game or a basketball game, track meet, or baseball game. . . . At recess, there was a run for the football field, basketball court, or baseball diamond and every lasting second was utilized . . . hard on clothes but good on kids . . . and a boy seen even talking to a girl was a sissy.

L. C. Unfred out at New Home is threatening to cancel his subscription. The News carried one story about Tahoka girls defeating New Home, but in the return practice game at New Home the Leopards won both ends of a double-header and The News never had a word about it. Well, L. C., Tahoka has lost so much lately (like New Home), we just don't want the word to get around. Honestly, Connolly, we had so many things to do last week we just didn't hear about it in time.

This is not very cheering news, but coming January 1, another bite will come out of the old pay check. Social Security is going up again. Three percent will be withheld from the employee's check, and the employer must match this amount with another three percent. That six percent used to be pretty good profit in a business.

Another cheering note. Our congressmen are home preaching the necessity of cutting down on governmental expenses to halt the run-away inflation spiral. But, they're the same boys who voted the multi-million "pork barrel" bill with hardly the blink of an eye.

Our old friend Boyce House, the Fort Worth humorist who has written six books of humor and jokes, says he doesn't know what humor is—and then goes on to tell this story:

While he was editor of the Ranger Times back in 1929-1931, a middle-aged Latin American woman entered the Western Union office and, in broken English, asked, "You telegraph flowers?" When the operator answered "Yes," she left, but in a minute was back with a potted plant in her hands, and said, "Telegraph this to my son in Sweetwater."

But House says: "Amusing? Yes. And I laughed. Then I saw the simple trust and faith of that woman and I saw the manifestation of a mother's love, and then it was amusing no longer."

Cal Farley of Boys' Ranch says: Every 24 hours in this nation, 5500 teen-agers become delinquent. At the present rate of increase, within five years, one boy in every five will be delinquent.

"At Boys' Ranch," he says, we turn 96 percent of the kids around and get them headed in the right direction—the other four percent we fall on."

Sign on passing car: Made in Arkansas from Old Ark Parts. (Irving won three, lost seven.)

The Scouts were in camp. In an inspection, the scoutmaster found an umbrella neatly rolled inside the bed roll of a small Scout. As an umbrella was not listed as a necessary item, the man asked the boy to explain. "Sir," answered the young Scout with a weary sigh, "Did you ever have a mother?"

Then, there was Sammy, who told his mother he wanted to become a preacher. "Why, Sammy," said his mother, "That's wonderful. What made you decide that?" Sammy shrugged, "Well I've got to go to church all my life, anyway, and I think it's harder to sit still and be quiet than to stand up and holler."

Supt. "Trap" Hanes of Irving sends this one: A coach had lost all his games and was being hung in effigy each week. After losing the last game, he was stoned and cussed and pushed by the fans. As he was leaving the field, someone stuck a knife in his back and left it. He wandered on outside the stadium and leaned over on a car with his head down, and then his only real friend came by and asked, "Coach, how do you feel?" The coach replied, "I feel

Junior Fitts Picked As One of Top Cage Players in Nation

Milt (Junior) Fitts, former Tahoka High School basketball star and now a senior player at West Texas State, has been picked by the editors of Dell Sports Magazine as one of the outstanding basketball players in the nation.

The Magazine, now on the newsstands, names him as one of the top players in the Southwest and Mountain States areas, along with Wayne Lawrence of Texas A & M, Bill Price of New Mexico State, Jim Peay of Denver U., Chuck Newcomb of Colorado State, Clyde Rhoden of Arkansas, Max Williams of Southern Methodist, Larry Chanay of Montana State, Dan Ballo of Montana, and Dennis Boone of Regis.

Along with Junior's picture, the Magazine says: "Milt Fitts, West Texas State, does everything for the Buffs but inflate the basketball. He led the team in scoring and rebounding and gets the toughest defensive assignment each time out. The 6-5 senior is one of the finest all-around players in the conference and was All-Border first team choice last year. He has a powerful spring and is adept at getting up against much taller opponents and blocking shots. He averages 15.8 points per game, shot 42.5 percent last year."

Junior will be seen in action in Tahoka's new gymnasium on Dec. 14 when West Texas State meets Eastern New Mexico University. Jay Gurley is a starter on the ENMU team.

Plains Crop Is Past Million

The Texas High Plains' gigantic cotton harvest surged past the one million bale mark during the third week of November and is moving on toward the predicted estimated total production of 1,828,000 bales, which would be the second largest crop in history for High Plains farmers.

W. K. Palmer of the USDA's cotton classing office in Lubbock, reported Nov. 21 that classings were approximately 1,150,000 bales at the three High Plains offices. Lubbock, Lamesa and Brownfield. Stripping operators are in full swing throughout the Plains area and farmers in the Southern portion are finishing with harvest operations.

G. W. Pfeifferberger, executive vice president of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., released quality statistics on the Plains crop in the PCG's fourth Cotton Quality Report, Nov. 21, which showed a slight improvement in staple length and fiber strength over the third report, issued earlier.

Pfeifferberger pointed out white cotton accounted for about 68 1/2 percent of the crop, representing 911,000 bales as of this report, with 46 percent being middling and above. Light spotted-cotton totaled only 30 1/4 percent and 27 1/2 percent of that was middling light spot and above. Full spots averaged less than 0.1 percent.

Average staple is 31.1-32 inch with 35 percent measuring one inch and longer. Only 9 percent of the crop fell below 15-16 inch.

Micronaire average is 3.7 with about 67 percent above the tenderable limit of 3.5 and 91 percent of the crop is above 3.0. Pressley fiber strength averaged 75,000 pounds with 45 percent above 75,000 pounds.

Observers estimate that 90 percent of the Plains crop will be harvested by December 1.

Are you leasing land for hunting or fishing, or do you have land to lease? If so, Ed Cooper, extension wildlife specialist, says the lease should be in writing. A written lease will provide a basis for discussion of all the provisions that affect both hunter and landowner, and a signed copy should be kept by each. "Hunting Leases," a new extension leaflet, discuss the many provisions that may be written into leases, and also samples of both hunting and fishing leases. Your local county agent has copies.

DAIRYMAN'S COURSE SET FOR DECEMBER 3 AND 4

New developments in DHIA record keeping should be a topic of interest to all dairymen attending the Dairyman's Short Course to be held at Texas A & M December 3-4, says A. M. Meekma, extension dairy husbandman. This new system of record keeping involves the use of IBM machines for tabulation. The presentation will be given by J. W. Davis, extension dairy husbandman.

The Short Course is designed to serve the needs of all dairymen, milk plant field, commercial feed company fieldman and others directly or indirectly interested in the future of the Texas dairy industry.

Speakers include outstanding men in their field. Other topics to be discussed, Meekma adds, include selling milk on a protein basis, the new brucellosis law and its enforcement, and what is good quality forage for dairy cows.

If you are planning to get your soil tested before planting next year's crops, now is a good time to get the tests made, according to Extension Soil Chemist, W. F. Bennett. Soil laboratories are usually not rushed at this time and recommended grades of fertilizer are readily available.

Eight Boys, Eight Girls Teams Enter Tournaments Set For Next Week

For the first time in many years, Tahoka will hold an invitational basketball tournament here next week, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, Dec. 3, 4 and 5. Several hundred school kids and basketball fans will be in town for the tournament in Tahoka's new gymnasium.

No tournament has been held here because of Tahoka's inadequate gymnasium. Trophies will be presented first, second and consolation winners in both boys' and girls' tournaments, states Athletic Director Jake Jacobs, who is also the Bulldog boys coach.

Also, a traveling trophy will be presented the Lynn county champion in boys and girls play by Tahoka Chamber of Commerce. In the future, any team that wins the trophy three years in succession will get to keep it. Tahoka, O'Donnell, Wilson, and New Home boys are in the same bracket and the girls from the same schools are in the same bracket.

Other teams entered in the boys' division are Seagraves, Gail, Loop, Slaton, and Ropesville.

Five Boys and six girls will also be selected for all-tournament teams. Schedule for the first rounds on Thursday of next week follow:

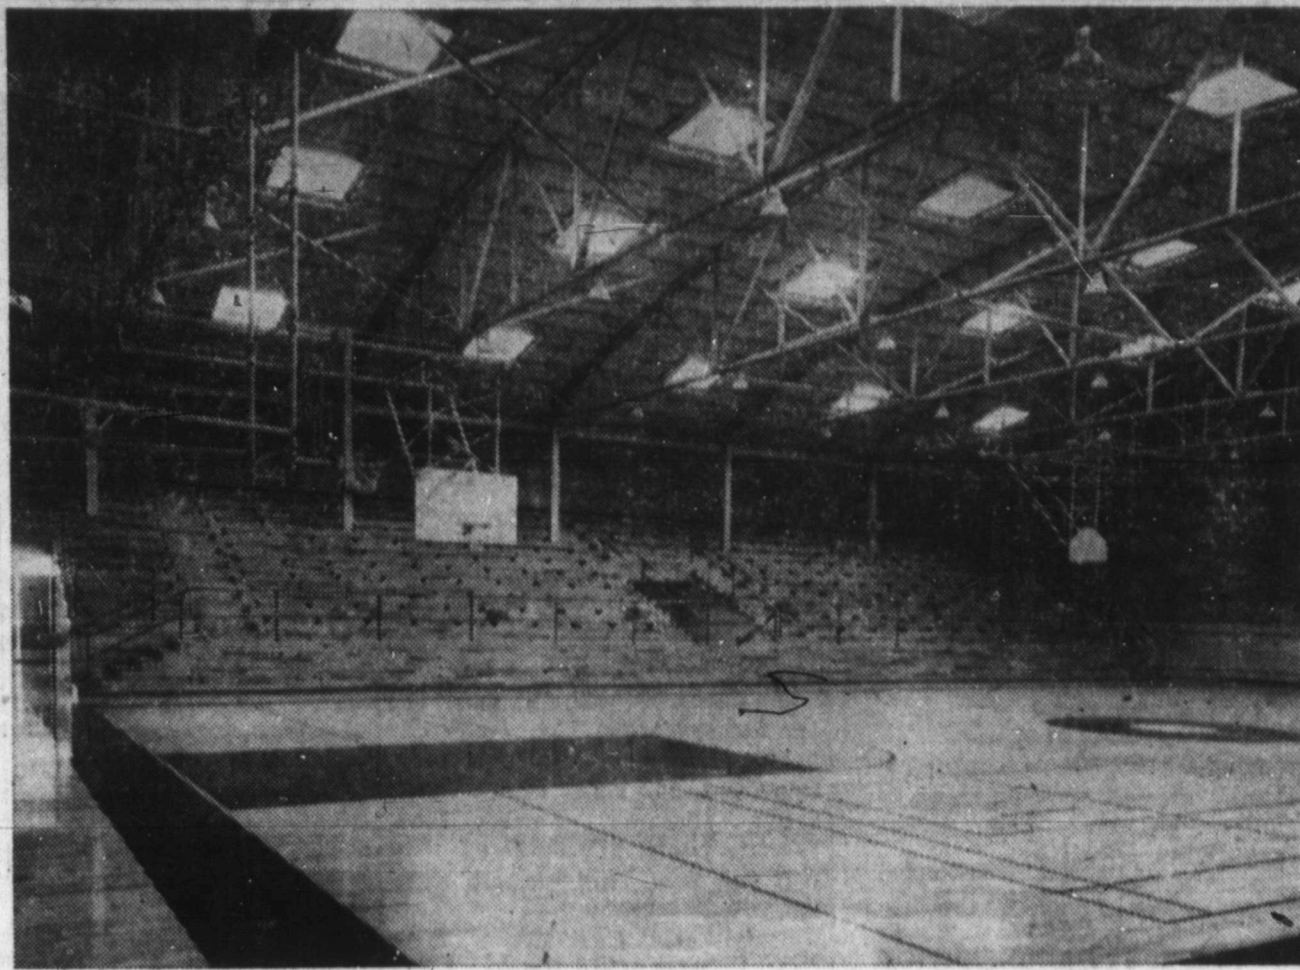

1:00 p. m., Loop girls and Slaton girls; 2:15, Loop boys and Slaton boys; 3:30, Wilson girls and O'Donnell girls; 4:15, Seagraves boys and Gail boys; 6:00, Ropesville girls and Gail girls; 7:15, Wilson boys and O'Donnell boys; 8:30, New Home boys and O'Donnell boys; 8:30, New Home girls and Tahoka girls; 9:45, Tahoka boys and New Home boys. Second round will start at 5:00 p. m. Friday.

Saturday consolation games start at 9:30 a. m., semifinals at 1:00 p. m., and beginning at 5:30 p. m. Saturday will be two consolation games, followed by the finals in both boys' and girls tournaments.

GIRLS TEAMS WIN ONE OUT OF THREE

Tahoka High School girls basketball teams won one out of three basketball games last week. Thursday night, the A team girls lost a practice game at O'Donnell 43 to 35, but the B team girls won over O'Donnell 28 to 14. Tuesday night of last week, at New Home, the A team girls lost 38 to 26 and the B team girls lost 29 to 27.

Boys Win, Girls Lose Openers

Tahoka split basketball wins in boys and girls play at Wilson Tuesday night. Tahoka boys won a close game 39 to 37, and Wilson girls took an easy 41 to 25 victory over Tahoka girls.

This was the first game for both boys teams. Tahoka girls had played three practice games, while Wilson girls had recently defeated Post by about 10 points.

In the boys game, the Bulldogs held a five to seven point lead over the Mustangs most of the way until the Wilson boys almost caught up at 29-29 with six and a half minutes to go. From then on out it was very close to the final buzzer.

Coach Jake Jacobs used a number of boys in his line-up trying to find a combination that worked well, but found that the Bulldogs still need a lot of work.

Coach Grover Watkins of Wilson stayed with his starters most of the way, and they gave the Bulldogs a real battle.

Tahoka led in scoring 12-7 at the quarter, 22-15 at the half, and 29-26 at the end of the third quarter.

Box scores were:

Tahoka	FG	FT	F	TP
Frank Greathouse	7	2	1	16

About 1870, Frank Meana, a Cheyenne saddlemaker, made a saddle with a leather flange extending over the cantleboard, at the rear, which became known as a "Cheyenne roll."

When a white snip on a horse's face increases in size to include part of the lower lip, it is called a "chin spot."

When a cowboy uses his spurs freely, it's known as "throwing the steel."

Teams Will Play At Abernathy

Idalou boys and girls will not play at Tahoka Monday night of next week as scheduled, Coach Jake Jacobs announces, since Idalou is in the Class A football playoffs and can not get ready for the game.

Instead, Tahoka will take the place of Idalou, which had games scheduled at Abernathy for Tuesday night, Dec. 1. Tahoka A team boys and A team girls will play at Abernathy Tuesday night, the girls game starting at 7:00 p. m. Abernathy comes to Tahoka December 8.

Fanning the horse with a hat used to be considered spectacular at rodeos, but modern rodeos forbid quirting, fanning or even touching the animal with the hand.

A colorful cowboy term for catching hold of the saddle horn during a ride is "reaching for the apple."

A Great Plains contract is being prepared for Alex Sanders, who farms near Tahoka. His farm section will be terraced and a part of it will be planted to permanent type grass. Management practices to be carried out include crop rotation, residue utilization and contour farming.

For the first 20 years of a man's life, it's his mother who asks him where he's going. His wife asks him the same question for the next 40 years. And in the end, the mourners wonder about it.

Terraces are being constructed by Wayman Smith, who farms near New Home. Cost share is being supplied by A. C. P.

By the time a man understands women, he's no longer interested.

Terrace construction is scheduled to begin for Audavee Vaughn. Vaughn is a new district operator who farms near Draw. Next spring he plans to plant several acres of weeping lovegrass seed production.

It's a woman's world. When man is borne, people ask, "How is the mother?" When he marries, "Isn't the bride beautiful?" And when he dies, "How much did he leave her?"

The first water storage facility has been constructed on the T-Bar Ranch. The Great Plains contract on this ranch calls for nine such structures to be installed. In conjunction with these is the construction of five water wells. This contract will be in effect for the next ten years and will include a complete conservation program.

Would you like to join the world's largest Bible reading class? Well, you can do just that by taking part in the 18th annual world-wide Bible Reading program which includes Christians across the globe and is sponsored by the American Bible Society.

Lists of Scripture selections, in book-mark form, to be read daily from Thanksgiving through Christmas have been distributed all over the world. Over 60 million copies of this list, to be used by peoples of all lands, will introduce the Bible to new thousands who have never before read it.

Began in 1943 by the request of an unknown marine on Guadalcanal for a Bible-reading fellowship with his family in this country, the world-wide effort has had the significance of joining Christians of various nationalities and races in reading the same Bible selections.

Over 1500 newspapers ran stories about world-wide Bible Reading or printed the selections last year. Many radio and television stations announce the daily readings.

This program is sponsored by a distinguished committee of laymen from all denominations headed by President Eisenhower.

If you desire to join this vast Bible Reading class you can clip the list which is given below.

The Tahoka schools can now meet State requirements in the field of physical education, which training is required of all students except certain ones exempt because of physical deficiencies or those who play in the band or work in offices.

No other school in the area, except oil field schools, has more modern gymnasium facilities. Except for the band hall, which is a former Army barracks, the entire school plant is now complete for the present enrollment.

Last year, a modern building was erected for Dunbar school, South Elementary was enlarged to include a modern five-room primary department, North Elementary was repaired and had new lighting installed, and the High School science department was remodeled to meet State requirements.

Cotton Ginnings 72,332 on Nov. 1

Although a little old news now, here are some interesting comparisons in the November 1 cotton census of the U. S. Bureau of Census.

At that time, Dawson county was leading the 14 South Plains counties with 114,708 bales of 1959 cotton ginned. Terry was second with 86,284, and Lynn third with 72,332. Harvest to the north of here was much slower, and several counties are to pass these three or have possibly already done so.

It now seems likely that Dawson county's production may exceed Lynn's for about the third time in history and that Terry's may pass Lynn for the second time in the history of cotton production on the Plains.

Following are the figures for November 1 as compared with the ginnings for the same date last year.

County	1959	1958
Dawson	114,708	72,151
Terry	86,284	43,917
Lynn	72,332	75,999
Hockley	60,470	60,367
Lubbock	54,137	64,712
Lamb	45,323	52,753
Floyd	43,668	42,788
Hale	38,176	47,256
Gaines	33,780	14,757
Crosby	26,936	37,816
Bailey	21,854	22,265
Yoakum	17,729	9,380
Cochran	14,565	15,145
	5,922	4,743

The News estimated Lynn county's ginnings at a little over 80,000 bales, on November 5. Therefore, the guess of this newspaper was a little low at that time.

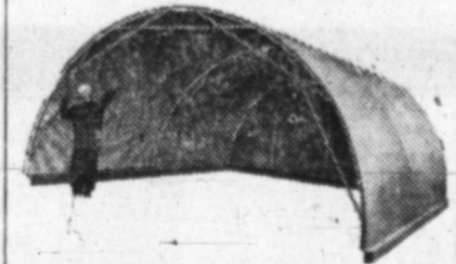

With ginning complete in South Texas, Hidalgo county ginned, 200,414 as compared to 178,796 last year. Only other counties over 100,000 bales were Cameron with 144,936 and Willacy with 112,064.

South Plains ginnings in Texas alone are leading such states as Tennessee, South Carolina, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Missouri, New Mexico, Louisiana, Georgia, Arkansas and Virginia.
