Goodpasture had previously taken out a $10,000 permit for four such tanks. This will make a total of 12 steel grain tanks being erected here by the firm.

Fine Rains Save Many County Crops, But Hail And Floods Destroy Others

Although heavy rains and hail which started falling Monday night did damage to many Lynn County crops, the moisture came in the nick of time to save many other crops. Again, the county has a chance for an average or better crop.

Total rainfall in Tahoka at 2:00 p. m. Thursday had reached 4.02 inches, and the end of wet spell was not yet in sight. Probably no part of the county had received less than this amount, and some areas had much more.

Two or three hailstorms Monday destroyed or damaged many crops, and one of the heaviest rains ever to fall in this county damaged crops, lands, and other property Tuesday night in the area extending from New Home to Wilson and Slaton. Some spots in the Wilson area reported up to 12 inches or more total rainfall and five to nine inches in the one downpour Tuesday night.

Much of the New Home area also received up to 10 inches and also had damage to soil from washing and to crops which are under water.

Soil Washes Away Possibly more crops were lost in the north part of the county by being covered with water than were lost in the hail storms.

But, for the most part, farmers were happy over the wet spell. Much of the county's dryland crops, especially in the east and south portions, were barely hanging on.

County Agent Bill Griffin states it is problematical how much of the hailed-out cotton has a chance to make a comeback. Since it is too late to replant cotton, most farmers with hail damage say they will plow out their damaged cotton and see what it will do.

Two and possibly three separate hail storms hit the county.

Much Cotton Insured Local insurance agents estimate 60 to 75 percent of the cotton was insured and not more than 2,000 acres will be a total loss.

Greatest damage was in a strip from Draw to Wilson. Another area was in the South Ward-Midway area and still another was the Bethel Church-Joe Bailey area.

The long strip across the county probably began southeast of Draw, and extended north northwest through parts of the Redwine, Edith, Gandy Station, New Lynn and Wilson areas. Some farms were probably completely hailed out, some only partially damaged.

Hail Starts At Draw Starting near Draw, at about 7:30 p. m., the hail hit these farms: J. E. Sherrill, Lee Roy Knight and the Gagnats farm, T. M. Phillips on the Carl Williams farm, G. W. Lankford, Leonard Autry, Lewis Bonham, G. C. Watson, Rayford Smith, Boyd Barnes.

Then, skipping a few farms, the hail struck again in the general area six and eight miles east of town, damaging the farms of Cecil Clem, Ward Eakin, Clyde Allen, R. B. Hinkle on the C. O. Carmack place, Orville Havens, O. E. Eubanks, Jack Caveness, Clint Sikes, J. R. Lambert, Earnest Cawthron, Alloway and Wayne Huffaker, who last 760 acres of cotton, T. A. Stone, C. B. Terry, F. E. Redwine, C. O.

Mexican Thieves Caught In Rain

Two Hobbs, New Mexico, Mexicans, one a juvenile, were arrested in Slaton Wednesday as the result of action by local officers during the rainstorm near Wilson. They are wanted at Hobbs for theft of a 1956 Chevrolet station wagon.

In the early hours of Wednesday, about 3:00 a. m., Deputy Sheriff Glenn Woody of Wilson apprehended the two in the car at Wilson, and followed them south down FM 400.

At the Tahoka Lake draw, the Mexicans in the stolen car managed to get through the stream of water flowing over the highway, but Woody drowned out his car on the north side of the draw.

However, he had called Tahoka for help, and the night Policeman Jack Willier met the car some distance south of the draw, the Mexicans abandoned the vehicle and took to the pasture. Sheriff "Booger" Redwine, got across the draw in an attempt to help Woody but drowned out his car further north in an attempt to reach Wilson.

The Mexicans, following a wet morning in the pasture, managed to get to Slaton, where they were arrested. Sheriff Redwine's car was damaged by water.

Car Swept Away In Flood Near Wilson Wednesday

A 1957 Ford car owned by Chas. Velasquez, who lives on the Wilson road just north of Tahoka Lake Draw, was almost totally wrecked in the early hours of Wednesday when floodwaters came down the road rolled the car 200 yards to the south. Velasquez is employed by Clifton Hamilton.

The car evidently was rolled end over end by the rushing waters and finally came to rest a short distance from the concrete culvert in the draw.

Velasquez said he had parked the car near the roadside because he was afraid he couldn't make it across the bar ditch to his home. As the flood in the road grew worse, he watched his car start to float off and when it got into the main stream it began to tumble over and over until it was finally hidden in the swirling waters. En route, the top of the car evidently was crushed lengthwise when it hit a Lyntegar pole.

The flood toward Tahoka Lake was so great at this place that his house, which seems to be on high ground, even caught some of the overflow water that the road and bar ditches couldn't carry.

Those who saw these flooding waters say anyone could not believe their intensity unless they saw it. Drifted trash, however, offers some evidence.

Rain Puts Halt To Ball Games

Junior baseball play was disrupted this week by the heavy rains.

Last Thursday night, the Cardinals defeated the Cubs 2 to 1, with Britt Robinson the winning pitcher.

Friday night, the Giants upset the League-leading Yankees 7 to 2 behind the pitching of Stanley Renfro.

The Yankees won the first half of the split season, but in the second half all four teams are tied with three wins and three losses.

Incidentally, Stanley Renfro of the Giants and Mitchell Williams of the Cubs have four home runs to their credit. Mike Smith of the Yankees and Dean Hamilton of the Cubs each have three. All are pitchers.

Only one game has been played locally in the Pony League, the O'Donnell Dodgers, who have the league title sewed up, defeated the Orioles here last Thursday night 6 to 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Rogers and son Johnny visited last week, returning July 4, at Belen, New Mexico, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Elmore, formerly of Lynn county. They also saw several former Tahokans, including J. D. Hodge, Mart Smith, and the former Miss Elwayne Redwine.

GLENN BUYS SHOP

George Glenn has bought out the interest of his partner, Berry Fischer, in the Fischer & Glenn Barber Shop. In the future, the shop will be known as the Glenn Barber Shop.

In 1816, known as the year without a summer, ice formed on the lakes of New England every month of the year.

Wayman Smith of New Home says one man out there claims he had ten inches of rain—he had two gauges and each had five inches of water in it.

Wayman says he knows they had a lot of rain because he had a calf halter hanging on a fence post and it was half full of water.

Anton Ahrens of Wilson said he has a lot more water than during the big rain of 1941. He now has 70 acres of crops under water. In 1941, he lost no crops by high-water. He has lived a mile north of Wilson 45 years and says this is the biggest rain he ever saw.

Oldtimers in the Wilson area, say the lakes are much fuller than they were in 1941. Up to 14 inches of rain was reported in some spots the two nights, Monday and Tuesday.

Tom Moore, D. F. Menzer, and possibly others in the Wilson area had to move out of their homes when water got up to them.

Postmaster Pat Campbell, a man usually known for his veracity, who never told a lie about the size of a fish he caught, said it rained so hard at his house the water came through a knot-hole faster than it could run out the door.

A car belonging to a Mexican farm hand at Clifton Hamilton's place south of Wilson was washed about 200 yards down the barrow ditch along FM 400.

Robert Lamb, up on US 87 west of Wilson, said he had a total of 8 inches Monday night until Wednesday noon, but just a mile and a half away Howard Moerbe measured 12.75 inches. Robert said a lot of land was washed in the area, some crops lost by high water and washing.

Lamb said the Little League ball park fence at Wilson was blown away, some porches were reported blown off and outbuildings blown down or damaged. About 15 inches of water ran into the basement of Wilson Methodist Church building, and a pump was required to remove it.

The Santa Fe railroad dump was washed out adjacent to the Kahlich field, and trains can not run over the track until the dump can be rebuilt. Eleven crossties are reported to have been washed away, leaving only the rails.

The new road was completely blocked by high water adjacent to the S. A. and Earl Cummings places.

A river of water was running under the railroad trestle in the draw which crosses FM 400, headed for Tahoka Lake.

North of Wilson, Commissioner Curtis Morgan said piles of caliche on the new road, which is in the process of being rebuilt, together with lakes of water further on toward Slaton, had tied up traffic in that direction.

He says the road contractor obviously has been a heavy loser (Cont'd On Back Page)

NEEDS HELP

Dramatic proof of the need for aid for Chilean earthquake victims is evidenced by this Puerto Montt orphan—his only belongings heaped in a string bag—shown waiting a mercy plane trip to a refugee reception center in Santiago.

Nations throughout the world are responding to appeals for help. President Eisenhower appointed American Red Cross President, General Alfred M. Gruenther, as coordinator of U. S. voluntary relief efforts. Numerous religious and welfare organizations are engaged in the massive relief project. The Red Cross, which is conducting a nationwide fund appeal, made an initial allocation of $175,000 and provided $250,000 worth of donated medical and other supplies.

Eager To Enable It

In his book "New Creations in Plant Life," W. S. Harwood tells the story of Luther Burbank's experiments with the wild beach plum. This plum was hard and sour, dull-colored and bitter. It was not as large as a cherry, the pit was abnormally large and surrounded by a thin layer of bitter fruit. But it would grow anywhere—on sand dunes, on beaches covered with salt water, in the desert. It was also remarkably prolific.

Mr. Harwood makes this significant statement about this outcast plum. "It was this insignificant fruit that Mr. Burbank took under his care one day, seeing its possibilities, and eager to enable it."

Mr. Burbank crossed this small, bitter wild beach plum with a Japanese plum, and developed out of this crossing a sweet plum that is many times the size of the original.

"Eager to enable it." This he did. By utmost care and selecting through a series of years, the homely little outcast was made into a beautiful deep purple plum, dotted with white, averaging three inches in circumference, without a trace of the old bitter taste in its rich yellow meat.

This and many other stories given by Mr. Harwood shows how Mr. Burbank took outcast plants—cactus, desert potatoes, field daisies and even weeds, and enabled them into plants of beauty and lusciousness. To him every weed was a potential flower and every herb a delicious fruit.

There is a spiritual lesson here. You can make the application for yourself.

Misses Jerre Wyatt and Patricia Hunt visited their grandfather, John Anderson at O'Donnell a few days the past week.

MRS. DON GASS

Margaret Hoskins Weds Don Gass

In a home ceremony performed Thursday afternoon, June 30, Miss Margaret Hoskins became the bride of Don Gass at 2:00 p. m. when the Rev. D. W. Copeland, pastor of Redwine Baptist Church, read the double ring vows before an arch of flowers and greenery.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hoskins, route 3, O'Donnell, in the Wells community, and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Gass, route 2, Tahoka, in the Draw community.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length dress of beige and white and carried a bouquet of mums. A stock arrangement completed the flower arrangement.

Maid of honor was Miss Sue Hoskins, cousin of the bride from Lubbock.

Charles Gass, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Jolene Bolch of O'Donnell poured punch at the subsequent reception and was assisted by Mrs. A. G. Crutcher, also of O'Donnell, and Mrs. C. W. Hoskins, aunt of the bride from Lamesa. Homer Vaughn of O'Donnell took wedding pictures.

Following a short trip the couple are now at home in the Wells community where the bridegroom is engaged in farming. Mr. and Mrs. Gass attended O'Donnell High School.

Weaver-Campbell Rites At Wilson

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Campbell was the scene of the marriage of their daughter, Fannie Sue, to Billy Fred Weaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Weaver of Slaton at 7:00 p. m. Saturday, July 2.

The double ring service was read by Harold Mobley, minister of Slaton Church of Christ. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride's street length dress was of white silk organza over white cotton satin. The fitted bodice was made with a portrait neckline and short sleeves trimmed with cored pipings. The full skirt was accented by a deep hem. The bride's bouquet was of white roses atop a white Bible.

Miss Judy Bishop was maid of honor, and Cherry Campbell, sister of the bride, was candlelighter. The attendants wore sheath dresses of blue embroidered cotton satin styled with portrait neckline.

Best man was Sinky Weaver of Slaton. Chester Campbell, brother of the bride seated guests, and Cindy Campbell, sister of the bride, was ring bearer.

Wedding music was presented by a chorus composed of Mmes. Harold Mobley, Roy Lynn Wells and Mrs. Carlton Wilke, cousin of the bride.

Members of the house party following the ceremony were Mmes. Chester Campbell, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and Miss Florence Ann Weaver, sister of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white bridal gown of satin and Chantilly lace. The floor length gown featured a lace overskirt with applique lace and seed pearls on the bodice, a scalloped neckline and long pointed sleeves. She carried an orchid atop a white Bible.

Mrs. Jerry Don Ross of Wilson was matron of honor, and Mrs. Dickie Thomas, College Station, and Miss Debra Ferguson, Lockney, were bridesmaids. They wore street length dresses of light pink cotton with full gathered skirts, bateau necklines and short sleeves. They carried nosegays of white carnations with pink trimmings.

Miss Margaret Walsh of Tuscola, sister of the bridegroom and Miss LuAnn McCoy, bridegroom's cousin, lighted candles.

Mrs. Tom Harkey, organist, accompanied Loyd McCormick as he sang "Whither Thou Goest" and the "Wedding Prayer."

For traveling the bride chose a navy linen suit with navy and white accessories. They will make their home in Floydada this summer where Walsh is employed by the Soil Conservation Service of the U. S. Government.

The bride is a graduate of Wilson High School and is a student at Texas Tech majoring in business administration. Her husband is a graduate of South Taylor High School in Tuscola and is a senior student at Tech majoring in agricultural education. SGT. THOMAS G. GLORIA IS STATIONED IN GERMANY

Sandhofen, Germany—Army Sgt. Thomas G. Gloria Jr., 25, whose father lives in O'Donnell, recently participated with other personnel from the 8th Infantry Division in a week-long river crossing exercise at the Wertheim (Germany) Training Area.

The exercise, conducted in three phases, was designed to familiarize the participants with the Army's modern river crossing techniques and equipment, afforded the opportunity to apply the knowledge in trial exercises and culminated in an actual crossing under simulated combat conditions.

Sergeant Gloria, whose wife, Polly, lives on Route 3, is a gunner in Battery C of the division's 2nd Artillery. He entered the Army in tour of duty in December 1956.

The sergeant attended O'Donnell High School.

Long Walk Is Short Ride

The long walk from the center field bull-pen to the pitcher's mound at Milwaukee County Stadium, home of the Milwaukee Braves, is actually just a short ride on a motor scooter with a special sidcar. Shown here is Don McMahon, ace right-handed relief pitcher, as he heads into action on the Harley-Davidson "Tupper" with the regular uniformed chauffeur, George Wasechek. The motorized member of the bull-pen was ordered by General Manager John McHale to speed up Braves' National League games. He estimates that each trip with the scooter, which always produces an enthusiastic crowd reaction, saves up to four minutes from the time usually required to make the long walk. In games with four or five pitching changes for the Braves and visiting team, the time saved is considerable. Because of the scooter's light weight and large tires, pitchers can be driven directly across the outfield turf to the mound. Heavier vehicles would have to take the longer route on the cinder path bordering the fences to the first-base dugout, where the pitcher would still have to walk to the center of the diamond.

Tell Advantages Stubble Mulch

Stubble mulching has advantages in the long time farming programs in the High Plains that outweigh the immediate and temporary gains from burning the wheat stubble, Delbert Langford, associate agronomist at the High Plains Research Foundation, stated in a recent interview.

The advantages of plowing under the stubble are (1) maintaining the organic matter of the soil which facilitates water penetration by improving the tilth and structure of the soil; (2) returning plant food to the soil; (3) better aeration of the soil; and (4) prevention of diseases.

Temporary advantages of burning are (1) killing weeds, (2) killing insects, (3) immediate effect of released potash, and (4) double cropping.

Research tests have shown that burning stubble for a period of 5 years results in a considerable reduction in wheat yields as well as crops used in rotation. The loss in production from continuous burning of stubble over a period of time is very high.

Mr. Langford emphasized that the return of crop residues to the soil is a sound conservation practice in maintaining soil productivity. It will become more important as our underground water level declines, and we are more dependent upon rainfall for crop production. Soil with poor physical structure and low organic matter is much less effective in absorbing and holding rainfall than soil with adequate humus.

Misses Sudie and Shelley Turner, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Turner of San Antonio, are spending a month's vacation with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cade, and the families of Jno. T. Tippit and R. W. Rutherford. Their mother is the former Iris Dean Cade.

Farming Becomes More Competitive

College Station—The financial position of farmers at the beginning of 1960 was favorable. But now the prospects are less encouraging, reports John McHaney, extension economist. Farm income has dropped substantially from 1958 levels and a further decline is likely in 1960.

Farm assets and equities continued to increase in 1959, but by the lowest percentage since 1955. The rise in farm assets and equities may stop for a time in 1960 or 1961. Also, farm debts rose during 1959 and are likely to increase further in 1960, the economist says.

Even though the farm financial outlook is less favorable, it varies considerably by types of farming and by areas of production. The outlook for operators of the larger and more productive farms and of those operators who have been able to expand their volume of business is much better than for the operators of smaller and less productive farms.

The production and marketing of agricultural products is becoming more and more competitive between farmers and areas of production. Agriculture is becoming more commercialized and specialized with larger investments. This is not only true in agriculture but also in most businesses outside agriculture, McHaney points out.

One way the individual farmer may solve the price-cost squeeze is through the proper amount and use of land, labor, capital and management. Some farmers have the resources to be efficient and others do not, the economist emphasizes. Every farmer should study and evaluate his own resource situation and determine what he should do as a farm manager to stay competitive in a business that is getting more competitive every day.

Little Mary's father had denied her a pleasure that she had confidently expected. That night, when she said her prayers she concluded with this petition: "And please don't give my papa any more children. He don't know how to treat the one he's already got, to treat the one he's got now."

QUESTIONS, PLEASE

QUESTION: "Is there any authority in the New Testament for the use of mechanical instruments of music in the worship?"

Answer: No authority is found in the New Testament for instruments of music. The Old Law (the Law of God through Moses) is not binding upon us today (Rom. 7:1-6; Gal. 3:24-25; Col. 2:14; Heb. 8:7, 9, 13; and many others). God condoned the mechanical instrument of music under the Old Law, during the days of David and after. But, without one single exception the command for music in the church today is to SING. Now most every body knows what sing means. Some of the passages of scripture concerning music in the New Testament are: 1 Cor. 14:15; Col. 3:16; and Eph. 5:19. The argument is always made that God did not say, "Thou shalt not use the instrument." By this argument one can get most anything he wants into the church. God never did say, "Thou shalt not use chicken and gravy on the Lord's Supper table." Why are they not used? Because God told us what to use. Nadeb and Abihu offered a "fire that God commanded not" in Leviticus 10:1-2. God had not commanded them not to use the strange fire. He had told them WHAT to use! What he had told them to use excluded everything else. The same is true with singing. It excludes all other forms of music. This is not a new doctrine, to condemn the use of instruments in worship. The Catholics fought it for almost 600 years before they finally allowed it in their worship. Adam Clarke, one of the greatest Methodists who ever lived, said, "... I never knew them (instruments) productive of any good in the worship of God... instruments of music in the house of God I abominate and abhor." Charles Wesley, the founder of the Methodist church, said, "I have no objection to instruments of music being introduced into our chapels, provided THEY ARE NEITHER HEARD NOR SEEN." Charles Spurgeon, the English preacher of Baptist fame, said, "I had just as soon pray to God with an instrument as to sing with one." This is not something new. Different ones who did oppose the instrument have let down the guard.

You are invited to send your questions to: Bob Barnes, Box 812, Tahoka, Texas. You are also invited to attend all the services of the church of Christ.

Today's MEDITATION

The Upper Room

THE UPPER ROOM, NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. (II Corinthians 5:17).

Our baby had just begun to crawl. Upon the floor she had found a new world amid chair and table legs. Contented at first with the mere wonder of these objects, they later became impediments to her progress as she gained confidence to venture on.

One day a large chair blocked her way. Her struggle to push it aside ended with a bumped head and loud screams of protest. Picking her up, I was surprised when suddenly her sobbing ceased. She was looking down with renewed interest. The chair looked different, now that she was above it.

How like that baby we sometimes are! We move about in our little realms, pushing, bumping, and crying out against the trials of life. Yet lifted up in our Father's arms of love, we no longer

What Does It Cost To Produce Beef?

The annual cost for producing beef averaged $99 per mother cow according to a recent master's thesis by J. E. Wright. Mr. Wright is a graduate student in Farm and Ranch Management in the Agricultural Economics and Sociology Dept. This thesis was written under the supervision of Dr. Vance Edmondson, Associate Professor, Agricultural Economics and Sociology Department.

The $99 cost included interest on investment, operator's labor, depreciation, and all other annual costs. The study shows that the average pounds of beef produced per mother cow was 378 pounds per year. This means that for the operators to break even he must receive slightly above 26¢ per pound for beef produced per cow.

When operator's labor charge is not included the cost is $82 per year. If the operator receives about 21¢ per pound, he would be covering all costs but would receive nothing for his labor. The 21¢ per pound would give the operator a good return on investment.

If interest on investment was not included as a charge, it was found that the operator's labor cost, depreciation, and all other cost totaled $65. If the operator received slightly over 17¢ per pound he would be receiving a fair wage but not receiving funds to pay for any interest charge that might need to be covered.

When labor and interest on investment costs are not included but depreciation and all other costs are, the total annual cost was $47 per mother cow. This means that over a short period of time he could receive 12½¢ per pound of beef produced and continue to operate. However he would be receiving no return for labor and investment. Yet, rather than liquidate the operation this might be the best alternative.

These costs indicate the items and factors that must be considered in operating a beef operation and indicate the importance of constant study of the individual operation and the necessity for good records.

This information is based on research being done by Mr. A. C. Magee, Professor, Dr. Vance Edmondson, and Mr. Bob Stone, Junior Economist, all of the Agricultural Economics and Sociology Department and Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. The study is being conducted in East Texas.

Hail Hits Wilson

The hail strip proceeded across south of Wilson and evidently ended west or northwest of Wilson. Damaged in this area were Buford Powers, John Gayle, W. C. Fellds, Clifton and John Hamilton, Earl and S. A. Cummings, Roy Lynn Kahl, Leonard Dube, Bill Corley, Bill Klaus, Warner Maeker, George Williamson, Judd Hewlett, Pete Bruedigam, Joe White, and Felix Nolte's Wilson farm.

There were probably many others damaged, but these were reported to The News as having received damage. Some think they were completely wiped out.

Others Are Hit

Another hailstorm at about 4:15 p. m. Monday damaged crops in the Joe Bailey-Bethel area for Jack, Ode, and Houston Brewer, Butch Ingle, Bill Williams, Joe Beckham, Paul Mansell, Graham Tyler, Mr. Thornton, and possibly others.

North of this area in the old South Ward-Midway territory, receiving destructive or damaging hail were Claude Pyron, Roy Ford, C. E. Birdwell, the Draper farms, Cleve Littlepage, Fred McGinty, Dan Curry, and a portion of Leonard Crawford's crop.

As noted above, some of these crops were destroyed, others damaged in varying degrees.

Deluge At Wilson

The deluge at Wilson was one of the biggest in the history of Lynn county, or at least since records were started in 1913. It rivals the big rain at Draw and Berry Flat of July 18 and 19, 1955, when 10 inches fell, most of it in a very short period.

Some farmers in the Wilson area have reported up to 12 inches or more, much of which fell Tuesday night and Wednesday morning.

At any rate, farms from the area just east of New Home all the way over to Wilson, north to the Lubbock county line and to Slaton and over toward Southland, had a terrific downpour.

Melvin and Junior Wuensch and

Cecil Wied reported their territory northwest of Wilson didn't receive damaging hail, but the land washed very badly. Junior expressed the opinion Lynn county soil damage was a million dollars or more.

Tahoka Lake Filling

Lakes are reported fuller than they were from the rains in 1941, and Tahoka Lake is reported already to have more water in it than ever known before, and water is continuing to run into it from all points north and east. Incidentally, Tahoka Lake is nearly three miles long and a mile wide.

A great river all day Wednesday flowed into the lake down the draw to the northwest which crosses FM 400 and also from down Ne barrow ditches along FM 400 from the north. Early Wednesday, the stream was reported to have flowed about eight feet deep under the railroad trestle. That night it was still flowing three feet or more deep. Water washed out a part of the new highway dump, but the concrete culvert on the road remained intact. However, the flow was so great that it ran over the high dump.

Railroad Washes Out

Clifton Hamilton, who visited the scene early Wednesday, said the area south of Wilson was covered with more water that he had ever seen. He crawled over the railroad bridge and walked the ties to his parent's home.

Near the Kahlich place, water washed out the railroad dump, even washing away some of the crossties. Also, between Wilson and Slaton the railroad dump was washed out in at least one place.

In Wilson, A. A. Teinert reported water got into practically all the business houses, but no serious damage was done to the stores. Water also got in the basement of the Methodist Church. High winds blew down the fence of the ball park, destroyed outbuildings, and blew away a few porches. Several farmers had to leave their homes because of high water getting in the houses. At Slaton, a number of people had to be evacuated from their homes.

One of Biggest Rains

Much damage over this area of the deluge was also done to farm land by washing and to crops both from washing and being covered with water.

Farmers and others were fearful that additional rain might cause further damage in this area.

Tahoka's rainfall, which began at about 9:00 p. m. July 4th, 3.29 inches had fallen by 6:30 p. m. Tuesday, followed by 1.19 from then until 6:30 p. m. Wednesday, .20 during Wednesday night, and .34 up until The News went to press at 2:00 p. m. Thursday for a total of 4.02 inches.

Incidentally, Tahoka has never officially recorded as much as four inches in a 12 hour period in the 47 years since 1913.

Some of the biggest rains in town in recent years were 3.28 inches on May 11, 1964, the 3.85

Biggest News . . .

by reason of the rain. After a survey of the rain, Morgan reported the heaviest fall apparently extended from about two miles west of Wayside to Wilson, some distance south of Wilson, only a short distance directly east of the town, but possibly all the way to Slaton and Southland on the northeast.

Donnie Morris, a mile west of Wayside, said his field washed badly and crop loss was probably heavy therefrom. He reported a total of 10 inches, about eight of which came Tuesday night.

"Shorty" Rushing over at Loop, northeastern Gaines county called in and said he would like to buy a motor boat that would fit a four-row cultivator. He said there was little crop damage in that area, however.

Wilson was blocked Wednesday on all roads leading into town from the West, South, and North. Going from Tahoka to Wilson, one had to go out to the New Lynn paving and proceed north to the Wilson-Post paving, and enter from the east.

Claude Pyron, who lost his crop from hail, had water to get up in his house and also do damage. Mrs. Florence Davies of New Home, who owns the place, part of the old Cowan lands, said this was the first time in 20 years or more water had gotten up to the house.

Joe Stone, out in the New Lynn country, reported hail fell for 25 minutes and ranged from pea-size to golf-ball size.

Carl Williams, who received destructive hail to his "homeplace" at Draw, said he had 135 acres of crops under water at his place adjoining the Double U.

Othell Meeks said his crop on Mrs. W. O. Thomas' place was destroyed by hail, and either hail or wind destroyed a substantial barn on the place.

Sam Bartley says The News misquoted him about the recent West Point-Petty rain, wind and hail. He says he did not receive damage to his Petty place.

Dewey Brown of northwest of New Home had to go to Ropes and Meadow to get back to New Home and on into Tahoka.

George Baker of eight miles east of Wilson told The News he had in two days on July 18 and 19, 1955, the 2.14 inches on May 11, 1957, and the four day total of 3.56 on June 19 to 22, 1959.

had four inches of rain up to Wednesday mid-morning. He said the rain was really a life-saver to crops between his place and Central Church.

Paul McDonald of Midway, who missed the hail, had six inches of rain up to Wednesday mid-morning. He had showers of .35 and .45 inches, then the big rain ran his 4 1/2-inch gauge over, and the rain Tuesday night amounted to .70

A. W. Snider of north of Newmore reported a heavy 1.25 inch shower early Sunday afternoon that was so hard his windshield wiper would not wipe fast enough so that he could see to drive.

O'Donnell Will Get Dial Phones

O'Donnell is scheduled to receive dial telephones, target date for completion being January of next year, depending largely on the supply of materials and weather conditions.

Announcement was made by Mrs. Bill Davis, owner of the O'Donnell telephone system, at a public meeting of the City Council June 24. Estimated cost of the change over is 25 million dollars. A new brick building will be built on lots just south of the O'Donnell Assembly of God Church. Work is to begin in the near future.

The dial system will be among the most modern of any in the nation and the plant is being built as a show place of modern telephonic equipment. The system will feature several new items not being used anywhere, even in the most modern plants.

The system will remain entirely of the City Council and Mrs. Davis, owner of the firm for 17 years.

Rates will be increased on the conversion date next January, rates to be worked out in a conference of the City Council and Mrs. Davis.

Real popularity is priceless—the kind you buy is worthless.

New Pension Law Affects Dependents Of Recent Wars

Several thousand widows and children of deceased veterans of World War II and the Korean Conflict became eligible to receive pension payments on July 1.

Prior to passage of the new law, known as the Veterans Pension Act of 1958, dependents of deceased World War II and Korean Conflict veterans were entitled to pension only if the veteran had a disability which resulted from his active military service.

The new law provides benefits to the dependents of deceased veterans of World War II and the Korean Conflict if the dependents meet certain limitations with regard to income and the size of their estate.

A small percentage of the widows and children in Texas who could benefit from this law have applied to the Veterans Administration for the benefits to which they are entitled.

Only one-fifth of the land area of Massachusetts is used for farming and three-fourths of that is used to grow hay.

The Lynn County News

TAHOCA, TEXAS "Heart of the South Plains" FRIDAY, JULY 8, 1960

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

Every ship that sails the seas has designed life. It will resist to storms. If it lists to one side to say a 60 degree angle, or so, it is built to recover from this list and come back on an even keel. However, if it lists over beyond the limits the hull was designed for, the ship is in trouble.

And there is considerable doubt at present over the wisdom of the many of the measures of credit the past few years by the Federal Reserve Board. As expressed by the observation, there is always the danger the Federal Reserve Board governors can take action that will founder the economy.

For some time, the nation's independent businessmen, voting through the National Federation of Independent Business, have been in favor of there being small business representatives on the Federal Reserve Board.

The Federal Reserve Board is a fairly new-fangled thing. It was not started until 1913, about the same time the income tax law was passed.

In the past few years, with taxes to finance foreign give aways holding down business reserves, credit, in one sense of the word, has become more important than cash.

The Federal Reserve Board has in actuality become national business managers. When the governors feel business activity will be high, credit is made scarce to hold off inflationary forces. If economy declines, credit is loosened.

In the three business recessions of the past ten years, 1954-1958 and the first part of 1960, several months prior to the slump taking place, credit was made scarce. In 1954 and 1958 the ship was put back on an even keel by loosening credit. It is too early to tell what will happen in 1960, but it is felt by many there is the danger that this frequent listing of the ship may result in a situation where it cannot right itself.

The governors of the Federal Reserve Board are, by and large, men of integrity. But they are usually drawn from the varnished atmosphere of major financing.

Grandiose plans by a few big industrialists mean nothing if Main Street cannot sell the products of these factories.

It is also possible that to combat inflation, credit should be made scarce for purpose of building more productive capacity. But that does not necessarily mean that low cost credit is not needed to expand distribution facilities in the nation.

It is quite possible for the controlling body of a nation's credit to get so engrossed in one segment of the economy that it loses sight of the other.

And after all, the furnaces of Pittsburgh, the assembly lines of Detroit, are useless junk unless there are healthy distribution facilities on Main Street. Thus, handling of a nation's credit is too vital a thing to be left with a restricted viewpoint. Small Business representation on Federal Reserve Board appears to be long over due.

Farm Labor Bill Advances

Four representatives of the West Texas Agriculture Employers Group were in Washington June 20-25 working in behalf of the Farm Labor bill, which was passed by the House last Thursday. This bill called for the extension of Public Law No. 78 which governs the use of Braceros in agriculture labor in this country.

The House version of this bill called for a two-year extension and Washington representatives indicated the House version would probably be passed by the Senate later this summer, when congress reconvenes.

Representing the WTAEG were A. M. Muldrow, Brownfield; W. G. Boyd, Lamesa; C. E. Jackson, O'Donnell; and Ed Dean, Lubbock, Secretary.

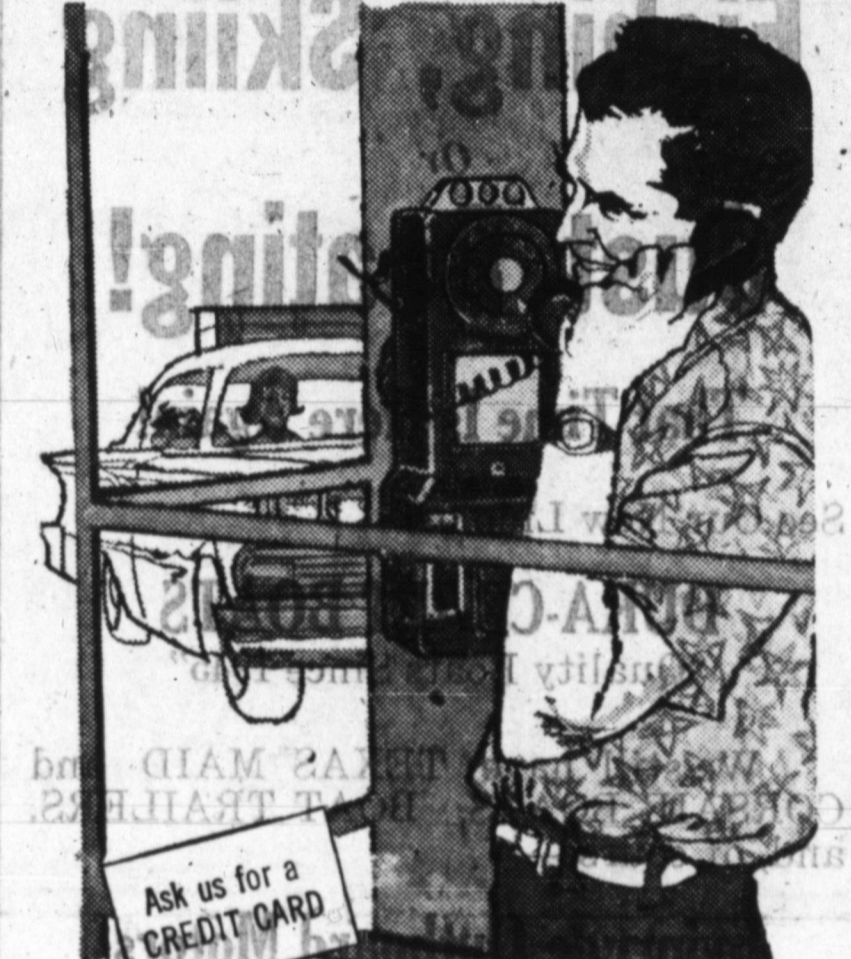

The group worked through Congressman George Mahon and with other congressional representatives and met with the National Users Group to consider including legislation which called for curtailing Secretary of Labor Mitchell's power over domestic labor. Representatives from Arizona, California and Wisconsin opposed such action and the National Users Group voted to work for the two year extension although WTAEG representatives voted to stand firm to try and curb Secretary Mitchell's powers over domestic agricultural labor.

If the Senate passes the House version calling for an extension of Public Law No. 78 it will insure Bracero labor for agriculture for two more years, from June 1961 until June 1963.

LOCAL PREACHER TO BISMARCK NORTH DAKOTA
 Bob Barnes, local preacher for the Church of Christ, will be engaged in a mission meeting in Bismarck, North Dakota, July 6-10.

The other preachers of this area will be working in the meeting also. Bob Hoover of Lubbock, Jud Whitefield of Pflugmann, and Ardin McIlroy of Petersburg are the three that will be working jointly with Bob Barnes.

MRS. CHANCY TELLS OF TRIP TO ALASKA

Hi, you Texas guys! What's going on there? Oh, nothing. Some 16 or 18 months ago I was here in Anchorage when the snow was very deep. The news started at that time, they had 84 inches of snow and it was beautiful at the time. But where the lawns, green spruce trees, and flowers were, rock gardens are there now.

Lubbock hasn't a thing on this town where there are some of the most beautiful homes a person could wish for.

Arlene Meadows and I left Tahoka Monday night, May 20, at 8:45, reached Denver at 10:10 p. m., arrived at Seattle around 3:00 a. m., left out of Seattle at 7:00 a. m., and arrived in Anchorage at 1:05 p. m.

People here are very friendly. Arnold and myself have had lots of fun. They really go out for the teenagers here—so many activities. They play softball and can play anytime at night without lights.

The sun sets at 9:42 p. m. and rises at 2:19 a. m. Wednesday, June 22, daytime was 19 hours 23 minutes—can't tell when to go to bed here. Son asked me what I was waiting for. I told him I was waiting for the dark so I could go to bed. He said I wouldn't get any sleep then because it didn't get dark here. So I pulled the blinds and made it a little darker and went to bed.

Has been raining here. Am going to see lots of sights and take movie pictures. This place has so many business places, schools and churches, and places to entertain the children and teenagers to keep them off the streets.

We went last evening to see Velda May, my granddaughter play ball with her team and there were three or four ball grounds in a row, one after another. But there are also lots of children here.

Snow covered mountains are all around Anchorage, but on one side is the Pacific Ocean. Saw a moon yesterday while we were out driving. We were catching the train one day and going up to Seward. Can get a round trip for $5.00.

Most everything grows here—strawberries, gooseberries, cranberries, blueberries and mushrooms. They grow wild and are sure nice.

Want to midget races, the kids sure do know their driving here. But everything is done to try to keep them safe.

So for this time, Mrs. Ted Chancy

It is always a great mistake to command when you are not sure you will be obeyed.—Marquess.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our deepest appreciation to all in Tahoka for the many prayers, cards, flowers, gifts, interest and concern shown us during our stay at respective hospitals in Lubbock. We will always love you Tahoka people. Again we say "Thank you!"—Miriam and Pat Hutchison.

Some fellows pay a compliment like they expected a receipt—Kin Hubbard.

SUNSHINE and RAIN ...

What a difference each can make at the proper time in a farming country! What a difference one rain can make in our economy!

But neither can be the complete answer to the individual's financial standing if the individual fails to use them to his advantage. ... if he fails to practice sound business management in his operations or to save a little of his income when the opportunity presents itself.

Printer's Ink-lings . . .

By F. P. R.

The crops are "blowed up" on Sweet Street a long time before they are out in the field.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. A. J. (Jack) Strickland of Brownfield on their 50th wedding anniversary, which they will celebrate at their home in that city Sunday, July 10, from 2 to 5 p. m. Jack published the Terry County Herald for 50 years before selling out to Curtis Sterling and the Brownfield News a few years back. Fine folks!

Regardless of who is elected president, the poor old American taxpayer is going to get it in the neck. In fact, he's already getting more and more obligations thrown on his shoulders every week Congress stays in session.

Even if all the socialistic programs promulgated by our liberal-minded lawmakers do not meet the approval of the common citizen of this area, most of them are going on the books anyway, at least in some modified form.

All the candidates for president are pledged to socialistic programs that would have made Eugene V. Debs and Earl Browder blush with shame—and not many years ago we called these boys radical nuts.

But, we still think Lyndon B. Johnson is the best hope, but it will take some political shenanigans for him to get the nomination.

By some of its unprecedented rulings, the U. S. Supreme Court is getting itself all mixed up. This body, which we were taught to revere as something almost sacred, has degenerated to the point where today members of the court very obviously juggle their rulings around to coincide with their individual thinking and to meet personal preferences. And, it doesn't take a lawyer to figure this out. Even we unlettered little citizens in the hinterlands can figure this much.

Last year, the Supreme Court ruled in a case involving security in defense plants that a man could not be deprived of his job, even though his actions may have been subversive, unless he was "afforded the safeguards of confrontation and cross-examination." Now, a year later, the Supreme Court reverses itself on another matter, regarding actions of the Civil Rights Commission, and refuses a man to cross-examine his accuser or witness for the accuser. Maybe, the next step will be to refuse a defendant the right to defend himself in any court. However, let it be noted, that Justice Douglas has castigated his fellow-members of the court for this latter decision.

The United States is in a pitiable plight when it makes political appointments to the Supreme Court, and this has been done by both Democratic and Republican presidents. Chief Justice Earl Warren, for example, before becoming a Chief Justice of the highest court in the nation, had had practically no experience as a lawyer or as a judge, but had been a professional politician all his adult life.

This little newspaper cannot change the trend of our government, but let it not be said we are failing to do our duty in calling this trend to the attention of our readers.

Some Legionnaires are reported to have come home a recent morning in "the wee hours." The News is informed, and had some explaining to do to their wives. Some say they were checking for bugs in the Grover Stewart pasture. Some say the fish were biting, and the boys just couldn't leave. But, it is a fact that some practical joker locked the very substantial gate to the pasture while the Legionnaires were engaged in their barbecue and officer-electing meeting. Result was that the boys had to take the gate apart screw by screw and bolt by bolt to get out of the pasture, and then had to put it back together again.

S. J. Neyland Jr., the new general manager of the Wallace Theatres, accompanied by Jack Waldrip, was in Tahoka one day recently getting acquainted with the people of the town. Mr. Neyland is a very personable fellow, likes people and our town, and says he is going to do the best possible to send the highest type pictures our way.

This column gets a few fan letters, but we never did get one more complimentary than one we received the other day from N. O. Townsen. Among other things, he writes, "I like your stand on publicizing dirty things about anyone. . . . Too many folks are always ready to hand out, or point out, dirty things but slow on worthwhile praise." Thank you, N. O.—and it's fine to have such a bunch of great people as our friends and subscribers.

"Gus Says" in the Graham Scandal Sheet: A committee meeting is a place where folks talk about what they ought to be out doing, then decide not to do it. . . . A worthless friendship sure is expensive. . . . There ought to be a law that will let a voter sue a candidate for breach of promise. . . . Everybody makes mistakes but some folks give them to much assistance. . . . Worse than being on the wrong side of an argument is to be in the middle of it.

Have you heard this one? A married couple obtained a divorce. The court awarded her alimony but the ex-husband had trouble keeping up the payments. She finally cornered him on the street one day, planted herself firmly in front of him and announced, "Look heah big boy, if y'all don't catch up on dem payments, I've gonna repossess you!"

Ad Fluffs
It goes without saying that the newspaper is a serious contribution to the American way of life. But, on the lighter side, it also provides many an inadvertent belly laugh, especially in the classified advertisement. As an example, look at these recent slips that passed in the type in various sections of the country.

Miss Sue Cowan of Dallas, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. B. J. (Jake) Leedy of Lubbock, were recent visitors here with Mr. and Mrs. Joe VanDyke. She is a niece of Mrs. Leedy and Mrs. VanDyke and the daughter of the late Bart Cowan.
Sue, now 13, reports her three older brothers are all married. Her mother, Mrs. Grace Cowan, is doing fine.
The Cowan families were among the first settlers in Lynn county.

"FREEZE"

FOOD COSTS WITH AN ELECTRIC HOME FREEZER

Can't bear food costs? A freezer will help you freeze your food costs at levels that help your household budget. Meats can be bought in quantity at lower per pound prices. Vegetables from your garden or from the store, during season, cost less and can be quick frozen, locking in natural nutrition and goodness. . . . Keeping flavor garden-fresh. Ask your Reddy Kilowatt dealer for a demonstration.
