Eight officials took the oaths of office in brief ceremonies Monday morning in the county court room with County Clerk C. W. Roberts in charge.

Only new county official is George D. McCracken, tax assessor and collector, succeeding J. E. (Red) Brown.

However, H. J. Castleberry and T. F. (Pete) Edsbridge took the oaths of office as constables at O'Donnell and Tahoka, respectively. The latter was elected by write-in.

Present officers, who were re-elected to office, taking the oath were: Norvell (Booger) Redwine, sheriff; Harold Green, county attorney; J. P. Hewlett, county superintendent of schools; Curtis Morgan, commissioner of Precinct 1; and Mrs. Beatrice McLaurin, commissioner of Precinct 3.

All other elective officials in the county have two more years to serve on their four-year terms.

Mr. McCracken, the new tax officer, announced that Mrs. Ruth Akin will be retained as chief deputy and Mrs. Martha Thompson as assistant deputy.

Mrs. C. A. Clem Dies Suddenly

Mrs. Nevada Clem was born Feb. 28, 1888 in Pocahontas, Ark. and there she was married to Charlie A. Clem on April 25, 1906. The couple came to this area in 1923 from Hugo, Oklahoma and farmed alternately at Close City and Magnolia communities until 1938, when they moved to New Home. They moved to Tahoka in 1946. Mr. Clem is justice of the peace here.

Brewer Cleared Snow From Roads

The News has been informed by a couple of citizens that County Commissioner Woodrow (Ode) Brewer and his men of Precinct 2 did a good job during the recent snow storm before Christmas in opening up the roads.

Following the heavy snowfall on Friday, he had maintainers at work immediately clearing roads of his precinct, both paved and unpaved roads, and the maintainers were kept busy Saturday, Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday.

Also, local maintenance men of the Texas Highway Department were on the job immediately to clear the highways of the county.

D. J. Pennington, 82 years of age, was admitted to Tahoka Hospital Tuesday as a medical patient.

County Ginnings Are Near 140,000

Lynn county has ginned a little more than 140,000 bales, The News estimates, based on local ginnings and previous reports from other gins over the county.

Up to Thursday morning, Tahoka's gins had turned out 28,200 bales, according to local ginner.

The ginner says it's hard to tell where the cotton is coming from, but it is still coming in slowly, most of it "bollies".

A New Home farmer reported that there is still a good deal of cotton to be stripped in that area, and there is also some at Wilson.

Bond Sales Are Short Of Goal

Savings Bonds sales in Lynn county were $7,779 during November. Purchases for the first eleven months of 1960 totaled $224,368 or 89.8 percent of the yearly goal. A. C. Verper Chairman of the Lynn County Savings Bonds Committee said today.

E and H 1960 sales in Texas amounted to $139,283,903. This represents 84.2 percent of the Texas 1960 goal of $165.5 million.

According to Mr. William H. Neal, National Director of the Treasury Bond Program, "November marked the eleventh consecutive month in which Savings Bonds Program has shown growth. We are especially encouraged by the continued downward growth in redemptions, a major factor contributing to this sustained growth," Neal concluded.

Tommie White Dies At Lubbock

T. W. (Tommie) White, 62, former Tahoka restaurant operator of 5418 50th street, Lubbock, died Wednesday at 5:40 p. m. of a heart attack after being stricken a short time previously.

Born in Alabama June 4, 1898, Tommie and wife came to Tahoka in the early 1920's and operated restaurants here until 1932, when he moved to Lubbock. He operated a restaurant on College Avenue several years, and since has been operating a catering service in that city. He also had farming interests.

He was active in Lubbock Optimist Club and last month was honored at the organization's 22nd annual charter night banquet. He was made an honorary member of the Texas Beef Council in 1955 at a special ceremony in Lubbock, being cited for having served 12,000 pounds of beef in six months.

Wilmer Smith At Farm Conference

Wilmer Smith of New Home was attending President-elect John F. Kennedy's farm conference Thursday in New York City, which was called Saturday of nine leaders of farm organizations and Orville L. Freeman of Minnesota, whom Kennedy has appointed Secretary of Agriculture.

The conference was expected to be an informal one and was scheduled to last for one hour. Smith left here Wednesday to attend the conference.

Smith is president of the American Cotton Producers Association and will represent the organization along with Hensel Newsome, master of the National Grange; James Patton of the National Farmers Union; Charles B. Shuman, American Farm Bureau Federation; Homer L. Brinkley, National Council of Cooperatives; Carl Bruns, Wheat Growers Ass'n.; Walter W. Copping, Feed Grain Council; Glen Lake, National Milk Producers Federation; and Orven L. Staley, National Farmers Organization.

Many of these organizations are in disagreement over farm policy and during the one hour meeting will probably have time to only "air their views" in a general way. However, it was hopeful that the nine man conference would be able to meet again with Freeman for a more lengthy discussion.

March of Dimes Drive Will Aid Local Crippled Children's Fund

The annual March of Dimes drive in Lynn county will be held within the next few days, states H. B. McCord Jr., county chairman.

Although no definite quota has been assigned the county, from $3,000 to $4,000 is usually raised in the drive for the National Foundation.

In spite of generous contributions from this county, Lynn is "in the hole" on its local fund.

The reason for this, McCord says, is because a six year old

Lynn county boy afflicted with polio has cost for treatment during 1960 a total of $6,872.50.

Of this amount, Lynn county has paid out $3,000 from its fund. In order to help the child, Midland county permitted the transfer of $2,500 from its fund for his treatment, and Crane transferred $750 for the same purpose.

Since polio is not as prevalent as it was before use of the Salk polio vaccine, The National Foundation is also working now to prevent and treat other crippling diseases, birth defects, arthritis, etc., in addition to polio.

Mr. McCord seeks the cooperation of workers and donors in the drive which will start soon.

Three Lutheran Churches Unite

A "new" church began one minute after midnight January 1.

At 12:01 a. m. Jan. 1, 1961, The American Lutheran began from the merging churches, the American Lutheran Church, whose membership was 1,034,377 baptized members; the Evangelical Lutheran Church whose membership was 1,152,943; and the United Evangelical Lutheran Church whose membership was 70,149. The "new" church's membership is over 2,225,000 baptized members.

This merger marks the first time that churches with different national backgrounds have merged since the old American Lutheran Church was of German ancestry, the Evangelical Lutheran Church was of Norwegian ancestry and the United Evangelical Lutheran Church was of Danish ancestry. In the next few years there will be another merger of four other branches of the Lutheran Church, so this is the first of several mergers that will take place in the Lutheran Church of America.

The local churches affected by this merger are St. John's Lutheran Church in Wilson, St. Paul Lutheran Church in Lamesa, Grace Lutheran Church in Slaton, Shepherd King Lutheran in Lubbock, and Immanuel Lutheran Church in Post.

The dedication service of the new church furniture, etc. which was slated for Dec. 11 at 3:00 p. m. and was called off due to the weather will be Jan. 8 at 3:00 p. m.

QUESTIONS, PLEASE

QUESTION: "Is the Conscience A Safe Guide In Matters Of Religion?"

ANSWER: The word "conscience" is composed of two words. One of these is "con" which means "with"; the other is "science" which means "knowledge." We have, for example, natural science which deals with knowledge about nature. There is political science which deals with knowledge about politics. A person's conscience, or "with knowledge," then, is what he has learned. It is not against a canibal's conscience to eat another human being but this does not make it right. Some people have been taught from infancy that stealing and killing is alright but this does not make it right! In these matters we can readily understand that the conscience is not a safe guide but when it comes to religion people will swallow most anything and cover it up with "it doesn't violate my conscience." Paul speaks of the conscience being seared with a hot iron (1 Tim. 4:2) not being able to discern right from wrong. We know that it is important not to violate the conscience (1 Cor. 8:7, 9; Jas. 4:17; 1 Jno. 3:20, 21) but the conscience within itself makes nothing right or wrong. God's word is to be our guide. If a man's conscience is to be his guide then every man becomes a law unto himself, and there would be as many standards as there are people. The idolater, who offers human sacrifices to false gods, does not violate his conscience. Does this make it right? Let us follow God's word and our conscience will be educated properly.

Miss Ginger Riddle Is Married Recently To Bobby Lee Hays In Church Ceremony

Wedding vows were read before an archway of greenery and gladoli for Miss Ginger Riddle and Bobby Lee Hays Friday, Dec. 16, at 8:00 p. m. in the First Baptist Church in Tahoka. Rev. T. James Efrid, pastor, read the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Riddle of Tahoka. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Noel Hays of route 5, Tahoka.

Mrs. Clay Bennett, organist, played traditional wedding music and accompanied Bill Choate as he sang "O Promise Me," "Walk Hand in Hand," and "The Lord's Prayer." The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white lace over satin featuring a neckline and sleeves trimmed with satin. Her tulle veil was attached to a tiara of pearls and rhinestones, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations atop a white

Bible. Miss Linda Riddle was her sister's maid of honor and candlelighters were Misses Donna Riddle and Marilyn Hays. Miss Pam Riddle served as flower and Steve Miller as ring bearer. The attendants wore identical dresses of pink cotton satin with full skirts, cummerbunds and bell sleeves and carried white carnations.

Serving his brother as best man was Jerry Hays. Ushers were Ray Hays and Brenda Riddle.

A reception followed in Fellowship Hall of the church. Presiding at the serving table were Mrs. Kenneth Renfro and Miss Janette Wood. Mrs. Joe Coffey, sister of the bride, registered guests. Also assisting with hospitalities were Misses A. D. Riddle and Otha Wood.

For a wedding trip to New Mexico, the bride chose a red dress with black fringe and black accessories.

The bride is employed by the First Baptist Church and Tahoka Auto Supply. Hays is employed by Herman Renfro.

Beginning this Sunday night at 6:00 p. m. children of the primary and junior departments of the First Methodist Church Sunday School will meet for 10 consecutive weeks for an hour of fellowship and study.

The children will be offered mission studies in both departments. Title of the study for the primary department is "Into All the World With the Bible," and "Adventures With the Bible" will be presented the Junior department.

Mrs. Maurice Huffaker will teach the primary department with the aid of the regular Sunday School teachers, Mrs. James Roberts, Sharon Patterson, and Mrs. Otis Spears. Mrs. Dale Thuren is in charge of activities.

Mrs. Skiles Thomas is the teacher for the Junior department and Mrs. James Brookshire will direct activities.

All children of the two departments are urged to attend.

Winners Named In Duplicate Play

Members of T-Bar Country Club Duplicate Bridge Club met Tuesday night at the club house for their regular game with three and one-half tables of players participating.

Winners were Mrs. L. C. Haney and Mrs. Jack Smith, first; Mrs. A. N. Norman, Jr. and Mrs. Eldon Carroll, second; and Mrs. Oscar Roberts and Mrs. D. W. Gaignat, third.

Mason Davidson Will Be Married

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Ayres, Pampa, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Dorothy Ann, to Mason Davidson, son of Mrs. Pearl Davidson of Wilson, and the late W. Fred Davidson.

The wedding is planned for February 11 at the First Christian Church in Pampa.

Christmas Program At Special School

The Lynn County Special School presented their Christmas program and tree at noon on Dec. 23. Mrs. L. B. Thompson was hostess for this occasion and presented a short picture show depicting the birth of Christ.

Nedra Roberts, member of the Rainbows, assisted the teacher with the piano music while the children sang several Christmas songs, then marched to music. Every child took part in the program.

At the close of the program the children greeted Santa Claus at the front door and escorted him to their beautiful Christmas tree where he gave out gifts to all of them, also gifts that the children had made in their workshop for their parents.

After this the children had their bouquet at their long dining table decorated with a Christmas cloth and a small Santa Claus and his reindeer. All the guests were served coffee and fruit cake.

The children and all of the guests had a most enjoyable time. Gifts were given to the children and the Christmas stockings were made by Madeline Hegi's homemaking classes. The stockings were filled with toys and goodies by the Tahoka National Honor Society.

We were very proud to have Christmas visit our school before Christmas and present these lovely gifts to a million to you young men and women for your interest and understanding. It helped the children and teacher to feel that "we are not alone." Please come back to visit us.—Margaret Renfro, teacher.

Everyday Religion

By I. B. Thompson

Percy Ainsworth in the poem "And The Life Everlasting" says, "It dwells not in innumerable years. It is the breath of God in timeless things; in love's red pulses and in faith's white wings."

As we begin the New Year we are made aware of time and its passing. But we are also reminded of those timeless realities which are the very breath of God. Percy Ainsworth names some of these timeless things. "In love's red pulses and in faith's white wings." Love and faith endure forever and each one may cling to these everlasting realities as we march on through the years.

With love one may triumph over the despotism of time and weave the passing years into a fabric, fair and unfading. Faith fills the vacuity of time with shapes of beauty and peoples it with images of warm fellowship. Or, to follow his figure, "faith gives wings, white wings to life. Wings to soar above the sordid and the unlovely and catch the broader and the more enchanting view."

But St. Paul added yet another timeless reality to his list—hope. Hope outruns time. The new year brings hope anew to all mankind. Let us pray the prayer Dr. Peter Marshall used at the opening of a daily session of the U. S. Senate: "In the name of Jesus Christ, who was never in a hurry, we pray, O God, that thou wilt slow us down. With all eternity before us, help us to take time to live—time to get acquainted with Thee—time to know each other. Amen."

Don't "wreck" your chance for happiness.

Atomic Energy Rotary Subject

"Reaching for the Stars," a color-sound film on the work being done to develop use of the atom to produce electric power, was shown at Tahoka Rotary Club Thursday noon of last week by Nolan Swain and Bill Pope of the Southwestern Public Service Co. of Lubbock. Southwestern Public Service is cooperating with other power companies in research leading to development of these fission power plants to split the atom, a gigantic task in which the nation's electric companies are spending 650 million dollars. Southwestern in cooperating with 10 other Texas companies in the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation and General Dynamics Cooperation in experiments in this field. Preceding showing of the film, Johnny Reasonover, local manager of the firm, briefly outlined the history of electrical energy and the almost unbelievable plans for the future atomic age. He cited the increased electric power needs in a nation now growing at the rate of three million people a year. The program was arranged by Dr. K. R. Durham. Dr. Ralph Wells of Brandon, Vermont, here visiting his daughter, Mrs. Wayne Huffaker, told how he got sold on Rotary and his maintained a perfect attendance record for 25 years. President H. B. McCard Jr. announced that Dr. Durham is responsible for arranging a part of the program from Tahoka at the District Rotary Conference in Pampa this spring. He also said Tahoka will be given the opportunity of entertaining the District Assembly of the Rotary District this year if it desires to do so.

POLITICS AND OIL DON'T MIX
 (Industrial News Review)

During one of their campaign TV debates presidential candidates Nixon and Kennedy devoted a substantial amount of time to the question of the tax credit or depletion allowance granted to oil producers. Under the present tax law the allowance is 27 1/2 percent — this is the amount of the tax credit allowed for discovering and taking crude oil from the earth. It does not apply to other branches of the industry—refining, transportation, by-products, etc.

The depletion law is a complicated subject. In spite of this it becomes a national political issue periodically because it seems to be good politics to go after the man who looks like he might be making money. However, sometimes looks can be deceiving. The U. S. Bureau of Mines in its Mineral Facts and Problems, 1960 Edition, comes up with some hard figures. The cost of finding and producing a barrel of crude oil in 1958 was 35 cents higher than the value of the oil at average well, head prices, and today while costs have continued to climb the well-head price of oil has dropped still further. The average selling price of crude in the U. S. during 1958 was $3.03 a barrel. (Today it is $2.79). The cost of replacing that barrel of oil was $3.38. Replacement costs have risen because the search for oil has moved into less accessible areas, wells are being drilled deeper and material prices have soared. The constant competition of oil companies for a share of the market places an effective ceiling on prices for oil products. This competition, of course, also places a ceiling on the price of crude oil at the well. These are facts that should be kept in mind because we all consume petroleum in one form or another. They are facts that the politicians should also keep in mind. The average "sales" tax on gasoline, federal and state combined, is almost 50 percent of its retail price at the service station. A sick oil industry is a luxury the nation cannot afford.

FARMING FOR A PROFIT?

Soil Testing Is Important Tool!

Farming is a business. And like any successful business many factors of management are involved. In farming a very important one of this is soil management. Good soil management is simply using each acre of land within its capabilities and treating the land in accordance with its needs to keep it permanently productive so as to yield the greatest continuous profit.

Why Should You Have a Soil Test?

A soil test will not answer all fertility problems. It does give information about the soil that will help in planning and maintaining a good soil management program. The results of a soil test will aid in determining whether there is a deficiency of one or more plant nutrients, and give the information needed to help you plan and carry out a balanced fertility program. Together, all this information will help to make sound fertilizer recommendations and to point out problems where they exist.

To get correct soil samples, follow the recommendations of the illustration shown here. See your County Agent for additional information about soil testing. Take your soil samples to your County Agent and he will send them off for you.

Tahoka Winner Over Frenship

Tahoka took three basketball games from Frenship here Tuesday night in boys' A and B battles and the girls' A game.

The Bulldogs won 56 to 48, the girls 60-50, and the B team boys 40-34.

The varsity boys were tied 10-10 at the end of the first quarter but Frenship had pulled ahead to lead 30-21 at halftime. Although they inactively during the holidays showed in the first half, the Bulldogs came back in the third quarter in a thrilling stanza to overtake Frenship and pass them in scoring 23 points. At the end of the third the Bulldogs led 44-35, after displaying some of the smoothest action of the year. They were able to maintain their lead during the final quarter to win the game.

Frank Greathouse led the Bulldogs with 16 points, but was given substantial support by all the players. Andy Bray, Billy Clinton and Douglas McClellan each made 8 points and Fred Hegi hit some good outside shots. As in almost all the games this year, the entire squad saw action. Mike Burgamy made 15 for Frenship and Jim Stapleton 13. Kay Halamicek couldn't miss in

CALIFORNIA VISITORS

Price and Drucilla Richey arrived early Christmas morning from Placerville, Calif. to visit Mrs. Richey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samie Norwood and sister, Mrs. C. J. Renfro, and Mrs. Winford Craig, and brother Samie Ewell. They are also visiting Mr. Richey's grandfather and mother, Mack Richey at Grassland. Also Mack Richey's son, Elmer Richey from Sacramento, Calif came to visit. Mrs. Norwood saw her eight-week-old granddaughter for the first time.

the girls game, scoring 32 points, many of them with her outstanding "straight" shot. Judy Thomas added another 20 points to make the total 60 points, a high final score in a girls battle. Kay Conrad led Frenship with 25. Tahoka led 30-25, at halftime.

The "B" boys also had an outstanding quarter in winning their game. They led 8-6 at the end of the first but the game was tied up 16-16 at halftime. Then Frenship came back to take over 28-18 at the end of the third. Not to be outdone the "B" team scored 22 points in the fourth quarter to win. Gary Grogan made 10 for Tahoka and Tony Spruiell and Billy Wallace 8 each. Steve Simmons sunk 10 for Frenship.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" By C. WILSON HARDER

The Federal Trade Commission has awakened to the fact that there is some hanky panky in the baking business, and has charged two bakers with giving discounts to favored customers.

Huber Baking Company, selling over 4,000 accounts in the states near its home base in Wilmington, Delaware, is charged with giving a few favored chain store accounts discounts of 5%.

C. W. Harder, Continental Baking, the nation's largest bakery combine, is charged with giving discounts to some chains of up to 7%.

The steps taken by Continental Baking Company in the past few years are most interesting, and would seem to explode the oft-held theory that big monopoly type operations have a higher level of ethics, and are operated by a much smarter management group than independent businessmen.

It was not too long ago that Continental was advertising its wonder bread over the radio with the startling story that "if your child has stopped growing, start feeding him Wonder bread and in just eight days he will resume normal growth."

Eventually the FTC stepped in on this, but in the meantime the big baking combine made themselves and their brand ridiculous in the minds of hundreds of thousands of mothers, who just couldn't seem to buy this story that a couple of slices of any bread would start Junior growing like a weed.

Continental also launched with huge sums of advertising a so-called diet bread named Profile. The advertising was based on the premise that bread is fattening. But a slice of Profile had less calories than ordinary white bread, including presumably their own Wonder bread.

Of course, they completely neglected to mention that their Profile bread was sliced much thinner than ordinary bread.

Now, actually, Profile and all the other diet breads haven't created enough volume to make any inroads into the market. But it cannot be said the advertising was not successful.

As a matter of fact it was so successful that the sales of everybody's white bread went into a decline, and has not come back up yet, with the resulting loss to wheat farmers, or rather the wheat support price payments.

So here is a perfect example of the astuteness of huge corporation management.

Now, apparently, according to FTC allegations it would very much appear that this great corporate brain decided the only avenue left open to them to hold up volume was to give special cut prices to the bigger retail outlets.

The Continental Baking story is an interesting one. If anything is ever needed to explode the myth of the higher competence of huge corporation methods over independent businessmen, this story should furnish it. And for this result, hundreds, or perhaps thousands, of good, sound independent bakers were driven out of business. It would perhaps be comical, if it were not so tragical.

Federal Land Bank Lowers Loan Rates

The board of directors of the Federal Land Bank of Houston has approved a reduction of 1/2 of one percent in the interest rate which the bank will charge on its new loans beginning January 1, 1961. In making the announcement Hal Weatherford, president of the bank, stated that the board also authorized a reduction of 1/2 of one percent beginning January 1 and until further notice on some $24,000,000 of loans which bear an interest rate of 6 percent.

According to Weatherford, this is the third time the Houston bank has been able to voluntarily reduce the interest on loans already on the books. The Federal Land Bank makes its loans through 73 Federal Land Bank Associations located throughout Texas. It has over 235 million dollars of loans in force and obtains funds to make loans through the sale of bonds to the investing public. This reduction in interest rates will mean substantial savings each year to many farm and ranch owners in Texas.

Land Bank loans in this area are made and serviced through the Federal Land Bank Association of Tahoka which serves Lynn, Garza, and part of Borden counties. According to its manager, Ross Smith, there are 477 loans in force for about $3,300,000. The officers and directors other than Manager Smith are Fred McGinty of Tahoka, president; Avery Moore of Post, Texas, vice president. Other directors are: J. M. Small of Tahoka, Vernon Willhoit of Tahoka, and J. D. McCampbell Jr. of Post.

Tahoka Playing In Tournament

Tahoka boys and girls begin play this afternoon in Slaton's first invitational basketball tournament, which began on Tuesday and will continue through Saturday.

Boys play Lorenzo today at 5:45 p. m. while the girls meet Lakeview of San Angelo at 7:00 p. m.

Games scheduled with Abernathy here tonight were changed because of the Slaton tournament and were played Thursday night.

Seventh and eighth grade games set for Thursday night at Slaton have been changed also because of the tournament, as well as those scheduled here next Thursday night with Frenship. The latter were postponed because of midterm examinations.

However, eighth grade girls and boys will participate in the Union tournament, which was interrupted in December because of snow. On Thursday the two teams were meeting Klondike, the boys in the championship bracket and the girls in the consolation bracket.

The Slaton tournament in the boys division is made up of teams from Lorenzo, Shallowater, Spur, Floydada, Stanton, Crosbyton, Slaton and Tahoka. Girls teams entered in the event are Lakeview of San Angelo, Tahoka, Shallowater, Spur, Floydada, Stanton, Crosbyton and Slaton.

Second round and play off games are scheduled for Thursday and Friday nights and Saturday.

Cotton terry washcloths get harder wear than bath towels. When buying these items in matching colors, it's a good idea to buy extra washcloths, as later they may be hard to match.

Cotton draperies will hang best if all hems are put in by hand with long, loose slip-stitches. For a trim, square effect, corners should be mitered. It's also a good idea to let the drapery hang from the rod for a week before putting in the bottom hem.

Many Texans Over Age 65

College Station, Jan. 5—Texas' population now includes more than half a million persons over 65 years of age. This, according to Reagan Brown, extension rural sociologist, represents about 7 per cent of the total population or about one out of 11. The ratio is even higher in rural areas, he adds.

The sociologist says the increase has caused leaders in many towns and rural communities to take a longer look at the situation. Interest is growing in programs aimed at helping these senior citizens. Brown points out that research studies have and are furnishing valuable information for planning work.

The older persons prefer to live as independently as possible and in familiar surroundings among their friends and associates. They like to be near married children or grandchildren but live to themselves. Elderly persons like to be where they can watch adults work and children play instead of with aged people only.

Most older farm folks like rural surroundings with open space, room for animals, or where they can garden and watch things grow, says Brown. But they don't want to be isolated. They'd like to be in walking distance of relatives, friends, church and shopping facilities; have help if needed and be out-of-doors when weather permits.

Whether in cities, towns or rural areas, older folks have much in common when living facilities are discussed, Brown says they want a safe home—one floor level with few steps to the outside. They don't like hazards which could mean a fire or fall but express a desire for automatically controlled heat for the winter months, adequate lighting, windows that open and close easily and a comfortable place for a daytime nap.

But most important, Brown emphasizes, older folks want to feel needed and have an opportunity to carry on a useful, pleasant day to day schedule of activity.

Walter Kahl returned Saturday from a Christmas visit with his sister at Fredricksburg and other relatives in and near San Antonio.

Today's MEDITATION

The Upper Room

Peter therefore was kept in prison; but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him. (Acts 12:5.)

When Herod imprisoned Peter, the church prayed without ceasing unto God for him. The prison doors were opened, and Peter gained his liberty. His fearless witnessing for Christ was used to change other lives.

In his book "Wellsprings of Immortality," Starr Daily tells of an incorrigible prisoner thought to be beyond redemption from a life of crime. But through prayer he began to examine his life and seek for a way of recovery from bondage to crime. He decided that in every situation he would do the thing that led to the most reasonable and beneficial results. He prayerfully made this choice in each situation and carried through.

His life was changed. At length he was set free from prison and became a useful citizen. Here prayer changed a life and opened prison doors.

PRAYER: Dear Father, we thank

These for forgiving us of the sin that once made us prisoners. We thank Thee for Jesus Christ, Thy Son, who has come into our hearts in answer to prayer and set us free and at liberty to serve Thee. Thanks be unto Thee, through Him, our Redeemer. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
Prayer is the key by which we obtain our liberty in Christ. —B. M. Ketchersid (Tennessee)

Mrs. G. W. Forsythe was admitted to the hospital Wednesday where she was undergoing examination for an injury, possibly a fracture in the pelvis, received in a fall about 10 days ago.

W. A. Reddell was dismissed from the hospital Monday where he had been a medical patient over the week end.

Another good question to think about is just how much more city, state, county and federal taxes can the people stand.

The population of the United States 100 years ago was 31 1/2 million. It has since increased more than five fold.

The first white men in Nebraska were French fur traders who began wandering through about 1700.

DEPTH OF PENETRATION

UNLESS you are using your local newspaper as a regular part of your advertising program, you are very likely doing little more than scratching the surface of the important and rich market which it covers. Your newspaper commands the attention and respect of the community, and will carry your sales message with force and dignity.

The Strongest Force in Business Today Is Newspaper Advertising

Your local newspaper has the "depth of penetration" that gets beneath the surface interest of its readers, down to where the sales action really starts. Your business will profit from a program of planned newspaper advertising.

Southwestern Public Service Expands To Keep Pace With Growth of Area

To keep electrically ahead of the continuing growth of its 45,000 square mile service area, Southwestern Public Service Company will invest more than $22,000,000 in construction and new equipment in 1961, it has been announced by A. R. Watson, Executive Vice President and General Manager of the electric light and power company.

Watson added that the company's five year construction and improvement budget anticipates a new equipment investment of $117,000,000 between now and 1965. He also pointed out that the $117,000,000 expansion figure equals the total amount that the company had invested in plant and equipment less than 10 years ago, and adds up to more than 45 percent of plant and equipment of nearly $260,000,000.

Looking at the national picture in the electric light and power industry, Watson pointed out that, contrary to a number of "scare" rumors that were prevalent during 1960, the United States had added more electric generating capability this last year than had Russia.

"We frequently heard during 1960, usually from advocates of socialized government power, that Russia was overtaking the United States in the generation of electric power. The fact of the matter is that the United States has more than 2 1/2 times as much generating capability as Russia, and we increased our lead in 1960," he said.

Electric service took another giant stride in 1960 to bulwark its claim as the biggest bargain in the family budget. Southwestern's average rate for a residential kilowatt-hour dropped to 2.96c in 1960, as compared to 3.05c in 1959. The reduction in the last 10 years in the average cost of a residential kilowatt-hour to a Southwestern customer is 21.49 percent. Only 1.3c of each dollar spent by American families goes for electric service, less than the ladies spend for cosmetics.

"Our customers naturally find their bills for electric service higher than they were 10 years ago, because they are using, on the average, 11 percent more electric service than they did in 1951. A major factor in this increased use, in addition to the many services electricity perform, has been the fact that the unit cost has lowered in the face of increasing prices for everything else, including the things we must use to make the power," Watson pointed out.

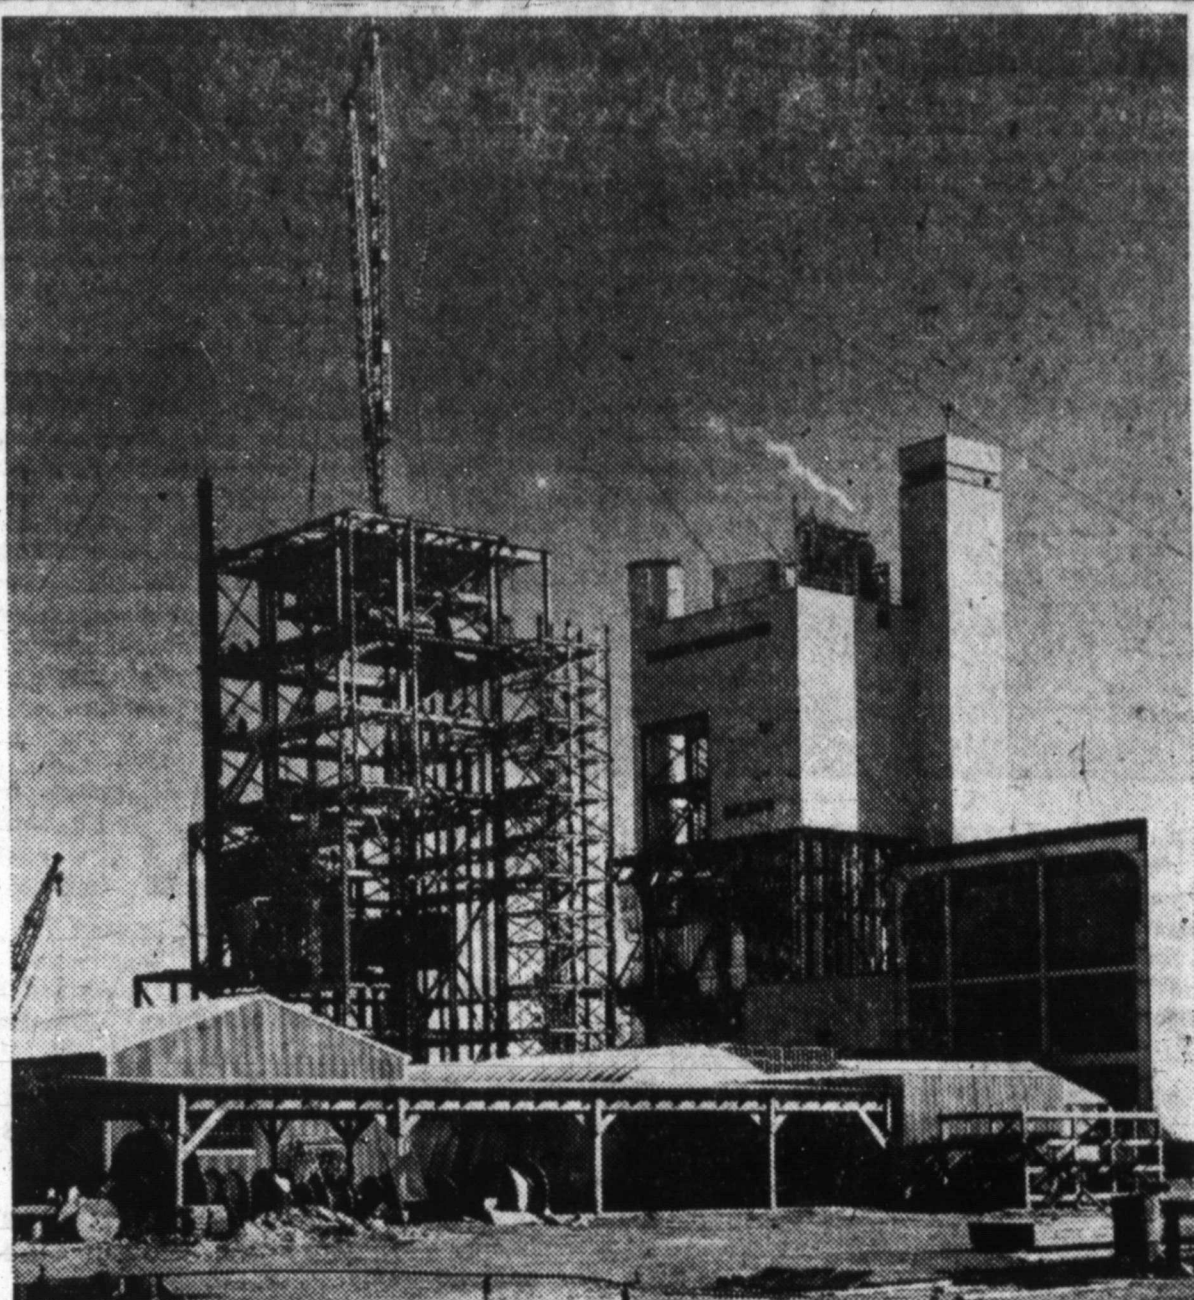

Southwestern, along with 10 other investor-owned electric companies in Texas, continues its research activities in atomic energy, through the program of the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation.

"Present day atomic plants don't come close to the economy of the modern fuel-powered generating stations we are using in our area. What's more, we have the advantage of a plentiful, although not inexhaustible, natural gas fuel supply. This gives us the opportunity for fusion research in atomic power which offers the possibility that ordinary sea water, which is certainly inexhaustible, would provide the fuel for electric generation," Watson said.

The nation's investor-owned electric companies paid nearly 2 1/2-billion dollars in federal, state and local taxes in 1960. In Southwestern's case, more than 24c of every dollar taken in is paid out in taxes.

The Lynn County News

TAHOKA, TEXAS "Heart of the South Plains" FRIDAY, JANUARY 6, 1961

One project in Southwestern Public Service Company's $22,000,000 improvement program for 1961, will be continued work on Nichols Station, northeast of Amarillo. The generating capability of the plant is being doubled.

he moved to Sterley community near Lockney. He was a veteran of World War I and a member of Trinity Lutheran Church.

"It is fortunate that the electric industry continued to grow in 1960, especially in the face of slowdowns in other business fields. The increased tax payments by the electric industry—they were 160-million dollars more than in 1959—helping strengthen our nation's defenses and contribute to other governmental services," Watson concluded.

Tempest puts safety-minded performance in a gas-saving 4!

(Range of horsepower choices from 110 to 155)

Take a Tempest out on the highway and put it through its paces. This car is a whiz at moving into fast-stepping company on an expressway. Takes you from a standing start to a safe operating speed in seconds... gets you up a steep hill in high gear.

Run the Tempest over the roughest road you can find. It rides like the big ones because it's balanced! The engine's up front—the transmission's in the rear. And it's got independent suspension at all four wheels. Tires dig in firm on curves and turns. Full 15-inch wheels make car look big. Tires last. Brakes run cooler.

Before it hit the market, Tempest had 3,000,000 miles of testing by engineers, pro drivers and a team of teenagers. Its reliability checked out 100%. Owners have rolled up millions more. The only kick is the one it puts back in driving. Try it!

Printer's Ink-lings

By F. P. H.

Well, here it is 1961, bringing new hopes. The Printer was counting his blessings and dreaming of a happy new year. Then, the mail came in with the usual batch of first of the month bills, plus bills for those Christmas gifts, and a bunch more bills we had forgotten about.

Then, there was that bunch of official-looking envelopes from Federal, State, and local governments—and we turned pale around the gills, sloped down in the chair, depressed and shaken, sick and disgusted, sad and forlorn, weak, bilious, rundown, and with that what's-the-use feeling. Judge Mathis, can't your court commit us to the State Hospital or send us to the pore farm or even to Boys' Ranch? Woe is me!

Here are four envelopes from the Internal Revenue Service. We haven't even opened them, but we know what's in 'em. Uncle Sam wants a detailed report on our business the past year which will take hours and hours to work up. He wants a check for our income tax which will take just about all our profits, if there are any, and if there ain't he wants a check anyway. He wants our fourth quarterly report and check, and he wants an estimate of next year's income (now, who can figure that?), and he wants a report on the partnership returns, and he wants the annual report on employee withholdings and another check, and he wants the W-2 forms showing withholding taxes and Social Security for employees plus an annual recapitulation (and don't forget the check). If we under-pay or are late with the return, he says, we will have to pay penalty and interest, but if we overpay it'll take a year or more to get our money back (and no interest). If we make a mistake, we may be subject to a check-up, and if we fail to pay at all or false by our return there's a neat little cell we can go to up at Leavenworth. Then, here's an envelope from the Texas Employment Commission calling for similar reports and a check for unemployment taxes. Then, there's the U. S. Postal report, and we gotta count our subscribers and figure out in what zone each lives and pay the postage accordingly. And, there's the employee insurance. (There's another bunch of envelopes from the county city and school district, and we don't have to guess what they want. Oh, me, oh my! Does some one know a nice, neat way to end it all?)

Spent a pleasant Sunday afternoon reading all those Christmas cards again—read every one. Makes one think life is worthwhile, after all, with such nice friends to greet one.

Local merchants report fall and Christmas business was very good, for which they are very thankful.

Several have commented on the patronizing home businesses instead of going to Lubbock or elsewhere to do their shopping. Which is good. Most local merchants give active support to the things that make this a desirable place in which to live, and they deserve our patronage.

And, several subscribers have voluntarily told or written us they really enjoyed sitting down and reading the greetings from merchants in our Christmas issue, which we really appreciate and which we are sure the advertisers do also.

By the way, did you see Fred McGinty's Christmas tree this year? We doubt if there's a bigger tree in this area decorated at Christmas-time, and few more beautiful.

Fredda Townes received an interesting Christmas message which said in part "What can we do to make 1961 better? We can have the courage to always do the RIGHT thing while, God willing, we still know right from wrong. The greatest force in the world—the power of right—practiced by all of us for one year—would make us healthier, happier, wiser and stronger than we have ever been."

We'd like to publicly thank Lillian McCord for helping out on the news last week. She's quite a gal—can do nearly anything, is a willing worker, and sincerely enjoys helping people, especially the unfortunate. Tahoka could not be quite the town without Lillian and others of her kind.

Although some of the appointees of President-elect John Kennedy are of questioned ability or fitness and are made purely to pay political debts, most of his men for cabinet posts and other key positions seem to be of top calibre. At least, he passed by the ultra-liberals such as Adlai Stevenson, "Soapy" Williams, and Chester Bowles for the key positions in favor of men well qualified to fill them. Kennedy is a smart man and a good organizer, and many conservatives now feel he may not lead quite such a radically liberal program of government as had been feared for a time. However, he is surrounding himself with a number of Harvard and other college "experts" who have had little practical experience in digging out a living by the sweat of their brow or by individual initiative. We hope they are sound thinkers and not visionaries.

It remains to be seen what the new agricultural program will be. Many Southern agriculturalists are fearful of the results from the naming of Gov. Freeman of Minnesota as Secretary of Agriculture, a man from a state devoted largely to dairying and vegetable growing who has close connections with the radical Farmers Union. But, such men as Wilmer Smith of New Home, a middle of the road thinker, a dirt farmer, and a man who knows much about the cotton problems, is being called in to consult on the program. We know Wilmer well enough to know that he will work for a sensible program for Southwestern and national agriculture. He has sensible ideas and a vast store of knowledge of agriculture and its problems. His experience as an advisor to Senate and House agriculture committees, to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, to the President, and as head of various local and national farm organizations will, no doubt, carry weight with the new administration.

Editor Charles DeWitt of Jim Cornish's Post Dispatch reports he has somewhere the following "recipe" written by a Kentucky hill woman on "How to Wash Clothes":

1. Build fire in back yard to get little of rain water.
2. Set tubs so smoke won't blow in eyes if wind is west.
3. Shave 1/2 loaf cake lie soap in boiling water.
4. Sort things. Make three piles. 1 pile white, 1 pile colored, 1 pile switches and rags.
5. Stir flour in cold water to smooth, then wash down with boiling water.
6. Rub dirty spots on board. Scrub hard. Then take dish colored but don't bite. Just rub and starch.
7. Take white things out of kettle with broom handle, then scrub, blow and starch.
8. Spread tea towels on grass.
9. Hang old rags on fence.
10. Pour ranch water in flower pot.
11. Scrub porch with soap water.
12. Take things outside down.
13. Go on when done. Wash up and starch.

Don't "wreck" your chances for happiness.

Hot Water in Ten Minutes

A SOLDIER PREPARES TO TEST THE Quartermaster Research and Engineering Center's experimental Modular Combustion Water Heater, capable of producing 6 quarts of hot water in 10 minutes at 10 degrees below zero. The heater consists of a burner assembly, a windshield and a burner head with three hinged metal supports in which the water container is placed. The burner assembly contains 9 ounces of leaded gasoline. Weighing only 5 pounds, it folds into a package 12 1/2 inches long by 9 inches wide and 4 inches thick.

FORMER CITIZEN DIED RECENTLY AT AMARILLO

Willie Jones, former Lynn county citizen, died in the Amarillo Veterans' Hospital on Christmas Day following a long illness, and was buried in that city the following day. Mrs. Jim Dulin has been informed.

Mr. Jones formerly farmed west of O'Donnell, and his wife is the former Miss Mary Moffat, daughter of the late J. A. Moffat of Tahoka. He is survived by his wife and eight children.
