Large Crowd At C. of C. Banquet

Approximately 265 business men, and wives, a near-capacity crowd, attended the annual Tahoka Chamber of Commerce Farmer-Businessman banquet Saturday night in the school cafeteria at which Louie Throgmorton, a vice president of Republic National Life Insurance Co. of Dallas, was the principal speaker.

E. L. Short was installed as the new president of the body by Jack Jaquess, the outgoing president. Jaquess thanked the people for cooperating during the past year, and Short said he would expect cooperation in jutting over an active program of work in the coming year. Both made short but fitting talks. C. of C. Secretary Dean T. Taylor also made a very brief report, and announced a financial statement will be mailed members.

Tommy Sterling Jr., who farms north of West Point, was honored as "conservation farmer of the year" in the Fort Worth Press awards program. D. M. (Mack) Mauldin of the local SCS office, in making the presentation on behalf of the board of the Lynn County Soil Conservation District, cited Sterlings fine record in the four years he has been on his farm in developing and carrying out a farming plan that includes caring for the land.

In his talk, Mauldin cited a statement made by Khrushchev that Communism will over-run Capitalism when their food production overtake that of the U. S.

Cash awards of $5.00 each were also presented by the District to three high school students entering essays on Soil Conservation, namely, Miss Ann Gasper of New Home, daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gasper; Miss Becky Gress of New (Cont'd On Back Page)

Sterling Selected As Outstanding Farmer

Tommy Sterling Jr., who farms 655 acres of land two miles north of West Point, 18 miles from Tahoka, is the "conservation farmer of the year" of Lynn County Soil Conservation District.

This is a part of the "Save the Soil and Save Texas" program participated in by the Fort Worth Press. He is being entered by local SCS officials in the regional program, and the winner in the regional will be entered in the state contest.

Tommy was reared at Snyder and farmed with his dad before moving to Lynn county in January, 1956, when he bought the section of land from Wesley Reed of Lubbock. Mrs. Sterling was Doris Beckham, reared at Graham, before her marriage. She was working in a bank at Snyder when the two met later and married. There are two daughters, Ginger, age five, and Gwen, age three.

The next year after coming to the farm, Tommy became a cooperator with the Lynn County Soil Conservation District, and in these four years has completed a com- (Cont'd On Back Page)

E. L. Short New C. of C. President

A stepped-up program of work for the betterment of the entire county is planned for Tahoka Chamber of Commerce for the coming year by the new president, E. L. Short, installed at the annual Farmer-Businessman banquet Saturday night. (See story of back page.)

"My idea of a Chamber of Commerce is that it should be for all people of the town and county—not just for the members," Short states. "With this in mind, we expect to work for the betterment of all and we will expect help from anyone interested in a better community and county."

"We are open to ideals for such betterment and growth, and will welcome any idea for any citizen of Tahoka or Lynn county on any subject, whether the project or problem be little or big. Please feel free to present your ideas to any member of the board or to me.

Short, age 35, was born and reared in Lynn county, the third generation of his family as Lynn county citizens. He attended Grassland and Tahoka schools, served in the Navy during World War II, farmed until entering business in Tahoka and moving to town a few years ago. He has been active in junior baseball leadership, veterans affairs, and various civic projects. He is married to the former "Dink" Fortenberry, reared at Welch. He is a partner in Cottonseed Delinters, Inc., and owns Tahoka Auto Supply.

Jack Jaquess, a partner in Gilmore & Jaquess, had a very successful year as head of the Chamber of Commerce.

Three Are Entered In Queen Contest

Three Lynn county girls will represent the county in the princess contest of the 28th annual South Plains Junior Fat Stock Show.

Entries include: Jackie Alexander, Tahoka FFA chapter, niece of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Allen; Lynetta Cain, Lynn county 4-H Club, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Cain; and Marcheta Wood, O'Donnell 4-H, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wood, Rt. 3, O'Donnell.

Both princesses of 4-H clubs and FFA chapters will be named March 18. The show will open to the public March 20-22.

Wednesday morning there was a total of 32 entries in the princess contest.

FARM HAND BURNED

Pablo Taylor, farm hand on the Clint Sikes place, received second degree butane burns on the face and right hand while working with a tractor last week end. He received treatment at Tahoka Hospital.

Texas' 57 refineries processed 778 million barrels of crude oil in 1959, an amount equal to 79 percent of state crude production.

Tahoka Granted 20 Percent Reduction In Insurance Rate

New Motel To Be Built Here

Construction will start in a few days on a new motel at the north outskirts of Tahoka on US 87, Earl W. Wrestler of Post announced Tuesday.

The motel will be built on property Mr. Wrestler has bought from Mrs. Lela Mae Green, known as the Kuykendall place, just outside the city limits. The property will probably be taken in by the city and connected with city utilities.

At this time, 10 units will be constructed, plus living quarters, on lots 200 by 140 feet facing west. The structure will be of brick veneer. Each unit will have refrigerated air, television, telephone, and ceramic tile showers. There will be three double units and seven singles. Design is such that other units may be added later.

The living quarters, office, and utility room for Mr. and Mrs. Wrestler and her mother, who lives with them, will have 1400 square feet of floor space. There will be a driveway in car port joining the office. The parking area for motel guests will be paved.

The Wrestlers are experienced motel people, having formerly operated both the Gateway and Rocket motels in Post. They sold the latter last October, and have been negotiating for the Kuykendall property for some time.

WEBB TO TEACH MEN'S CLASS

Rev. Joe Webb will teach the Men's Downtown Bible Class Sunday morning at 9:45 a. m. in the WOW Hall. He is pastor of the Sweet Street Baptist Church.

DR. FLOYD GOLDEN

School Men In Tahoka Meeting

The administrator's sections of Districts IV and XIII, Texas State Teachers Association, will hold their annual joint banquet in the Tahoka school cafeteria on Wednesday, March 22, at 7:00 p. m.

Approximately 200 members of the administrators sections are expected to attend when Dr. Floyd D. Golden of Amarillo will be the principal speaker. His information on education in the Soviet Union, which will be his topic, was acquired when he was one of 30 educational administrators chosen to tour the Soviet Union.

As President Emeritus of Eastern New Mexico University in Portales, Dr. Golden is widely known in this area and has spoken to groups on various phases of life in Russia.

Otis Spears, superintendent of the Tahoka schools, who is president of the administrator's section of District IV and J. P. Hewlett, county superintendent in Lynn county, secretary of the section of District IV, are serving as hosts to the annual event.

City Clean-Up Dates Are Set

City of Tahoka is asking citizens of the town to join in the biggest clean-up campaign ever held during the week of March 27 to April 1.

City employees and trucks will be available to haul off all junk, dead trees and trash that citizens pile in alleys to be picked up. In fact, citizens may start their clean-ups now, states Mayor H. B. McCord Sr.

Most alleys of the town have already had one "going-over", and a city maintainer will be used on most of the others to level ground, kill weeds, and scrape up trash.

Absentee Votes May Be Cast

Absentee voting in three elections set for April is now possible.

School trustee elections in all Lynn county districts will continue absentee voting until three days before election date of April 1.

Voting absentee also is possible in the special election to name a new United States Senator for Texas and also in the city elections set for April 4.

Persons who will be out of the county on either or both of the election days or who can not get to the polls for reasons of health are eligible to cast absentee ballots.

Persons going to the polls are reminded of the new state law which requires them to bring along their poll tax receipts or exemption receipts in all elections.

Fire Near Wilson Destroys House

A frame hand house, two cotton trailers and a quantity of bundle hedges burned at about 2:00 a. m. Wednesday on a farm owned by Clarence Church about four miles southwest of Wilson. The house was unoccupied.

Mr. Church said one of the cotton trailers was loaded with the bundles. Had the wind not been from the southwest, a large barn immediately south of the house and three big feed stacks to the east may have burned.

As it was, Tahoka Fire Department made a run to the fire and possibly saved the flames from spreading to this more valuable property.

"I sincerely thank the Tahoka fire boys," Mr. Church says, "for their fine response and work in preventing the fire from spreading. We don't know how to appreciate these fellows until such a need strikes us personally."

Revival Services At Bethel Church

Rev. O. N. Reed, pastor of Lakeview Baptist Church in Abernathy, will do the preaching in a week end revival at Bethel Baptist Church beginning Thursday night, March 23, and continuing through Sunday night, March 26.

The visiting evangelist is well known in this area. He grew up here and is a former pastor of Bethel Church.

Services will begin each evening at 7:30 p. m.

The church is located 12 miles southeast of Tahoka.

Everyone is urged to attend these services, according to Norris Willborn, pastor of the church.

Tahoka has received a rate reduction of three cents on fire insurance key rate, according to Fire Chief Pat Patterson, and has been advanced to a Class One town.

Under the new rating, Tahoka will receive a 20 percent reduction on fire insurance premiums on the key rate, that given Class One towns, instead of the 10 percent reduction given Class Two towns, which Tahoka previously was.

The new reduction dropped the key rate from 41 cents to 38 cents, Patterson said. For instance, a business institution carrying approximately $30,000 fire insurance policies, will save about $100 yearly on premiums.

This has been brought about by the service of Fire Marshall Johnny Raindl, who makes monthly and quarterly inspections of business buildings, schools, churches, theatres, etc., and who gives much of his time in addition to serving on the Volunteer Fire Department. Patterson said the cooperation of the local citizens in helping Raindl work out various problems is also attributed to the rate reduction.

Coaches Select District Teams

One Tahoka boy and two girls were named to the District 3-AAA All-District basketball teams here Wednesday night when district officials met. Frank Greathouse, senior standout was placed on the first team and Loretta Short, junior forward, and Sharon Drager, sophomore guard, were chosen for the girls' first team.

Sharing the first team honors were Tommy Claiborne of Slaton, Thad Koonce of Stanton, and Dennis King and George Curtis, both of Denver City. Others placed on the girls' first team were Frances Graves of Stanton, Nita Wilson of Post, and Elaine Pickens, Judy Bishop and Judy Dunn of Slaton.

Fred Hegi, Tahoka junior, was placed on the second team with Billy Trout and Mike Hubbard of Denver City, Jimmy Minor of Post, Herb Sorley of Stanton and Larry Burk of Slaton.

Three Tahoka girls made the second team, Judy Thomas, Kay Halamicck, juniors, and Jerry Ann Wyatt, sophomore, along with Eida Reyna of Stanton, Jeanette Price and Pat Pettigrew of Slaton, Beth Kemp and Judy Clay of Post.

Four Tahoka boys received honorable mention, Perry Flippin, junior, Billy Clinton, Andy Bray and Craig Leslie, all sophomores, Donnie Hays of Post, Ronnie Jones, and others were Leslie Ackner and Donnie Hays of Post, Ronnie Jones, Webber Tefertiller, and Neely Comer of Slaton, David Pruitt, Ronnie McReynolds and Jerry Polson of Stanton, and Lloyd Hodges of Denver City.

Brooksie Reece and Bonnie Hale, sophomores, of Tahoka received honorable mention along with Nina Yater, Janice Sims, Marilyn Sale all of Stanton, Ronda Pettigrew and Glenda Bounds of Slaton and Ann Morris and Sandra Stewart of Post.

Mexican Woman Dies in Childbirth

Mrs. Julia Jaramillo died Tuesday, March 14, in her home in southeast Tahoka and funeral services are pending at Stanley Funeral Home.

She had given birth to a baby when complications arose. Dr. C. Skiles Thomas was called to the home, but Mrs. Jaramillo was dead upon his arrival there.

Mrs. Jaramillo came here from Woodboro, Texas, about five months ago.

She is survived by her husband and two children, including the baby born on Tuesday.

Lubbock Show Opens Monday

The South Plains Junior Livestock Show will open its gates Monday when many Lynn county FFA and 4-H members will enter stock in the event.

The livestock show this year will be open to the public Monday through Wednesday, March 20, 21, and 22.

Somewhere in the neighborhood of 225 entries are expected from Lynn county 4-H and Tahoka FFA in the swine, calf and lamb divisions. Of this number, 34 Tahoka FFA members will enter 69 barrows and five calves. 4-H Club entries will be approximately 110 barrows, 31 lambs and 16 calves.

Mrs. Campbell's Rites Sunday

Mrs. Pat Campbell, 60, wife of the Wilson postmaster, died Friday night in Methodist Hospital in Lubbock following a long illness. She had been in ill health since suffering a stroke six or seven years ago, and since that time had developed other ailments.

Funeral services were held at 3:00 p. m. Sunday in the First Baptist Church of Wilson, with the pastor, Rev. H. F. Scott, officiating, and burial followed in Englewood Cemetery in Slaton.

The former Miss Beulah Glynn Coburn was born July 12, 1900, at Blum, and was married to Pat Campbell there on December 23, 1922. The couple moved to Wilson in 1938, where they have resided since. She was a member of the Baptist Church.

Mrs. Campbell had been confined to her home since her first attack, and had recently been in the hospital two or three times, the last time for about two weeks.

Survivors include the husband; one daughter, Mrs. Carlton Wilke; and one son, Theo Campbell, all of Wilson; one sister, Mrs. Ruth Heirer of Clifton; three brothers, Emmett and Ewell Coburn of Cleburne, and Theo Coburn of Blum; and eight grandchildren.

Spelling Bee Next Thursday

Lynn county's Spelling Bee, held in conjunction with the Avalanche Journal, will be held in the Tahoka High School auditorium at 2:00 p. m. Thursday, March 23, according to County Superintendent J. P. Hewlett.

Schools entering the county bee will be Tahoka, New Home and Wilson.

In preparation for the county bee, the Tahoka schools will hold their local spelling bee at 9:00 a. m. Tuesday when several boys and girls from each grade, fifth through eighth, will compete for the honor of representing the school in the county event.

Youth Burned In Farm Accident

Van Duren, 16 received burns covering his face last Saturday while working on the H. W. Williams farm near Draw when a boiling tractor radiator "exploded."

The youth was burned when he removed the radiator cap from the tractor. Mr. Williams brought him to Tahoka Hospital, where he received treatment.

The youth lives on the Noel Caswell farm near Redwine. He had been employed as a tractor driver cutting stalks for Mr. Williams.

Elmer Harvick of Monahans visited in the W. C. Harvick Sr. home Saturday. He came to visit his dad who is ill in Tahoka Hospital.

Legion Baseball Starting Soon

Delbert Mouser of New Home will act as manager of the American Legion baseball team this season and is in need of a coach to assist with the program.

Mouser has been working with Little League and Pony League for five years and has done a marvelous job with both.

All county boys within the age of 16 years and nine months from Sept. 1 are eligible to participate as all county boys are only eligible to play in the nearest Post team. A schedule has not yet been worked out for the team, but last year the Legion played all area towns, including Lubbock, Denver City, Andrews, Big Spring and others.

All rules and regulations are the same as those in the big leagues. The local field is being prepared for practice and play and about 50 boys are expected to participate in tryouts which will be announced later.

FIRE DAMAGES SMITH HOME

When a skillet of grease on the cook stove caught fire Friday morning at the Jack Smith home, the Fire Department had to be called to extinguish the resulting blaze. Smoke damage will require redecorating the entire interior of the home, Mrs. Smith says.

SMITH IN HOSPITAL

N. W. Smith, who suffered a mild heart attack Thursday of last week, was moved Monday from Tahoka Hospital to Big Spring Veterans Hospital and is reported to be doing fairly well.

Austin Man Praises Basketball Boys

B. L. Parker, in a letter to Coach Jake Jacobs this week, states that "in the past seven years I don't believe we have ever had a nicer group of young people than you had down this week."

B. L., who is sergeant-at-arms at the House of Representatives was speaking of the group of basketball boys and others who attended the state basketball tournament in Austin recently.

However, Jacobs says, B. L. is also to be commended. Parker not only made advance arrangements for some of the boys, but took some of them on a tour of the Capitol building, introduced them to Governor Price Daniel, took them out to dinner, and as usual, extended the Tahoka group many other courtesies. All of these "extras" were done during this session of the legislature, B. L.'s busiest time.

Parker's letter continues: "Tell Rufus (Slover) I'm sorry he didn't get to see me and I realize that this alone probably ruined his entire trip. However, tell him I will certainly make it a point on my next visit home to look him up and buy him a cup of coffee, provided he has the money."

"Please pass on my regards to Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Gattis, Meldon Leslie and the other fine people who made the trip to the tournament and extend to them an open invitation, such as the one you have, to visit us at any time."

"In closing I again want to compliment your boys and girls on their fine behavior while visiting the Capitol."

Flippin, Linda Edwards, Wanda Nixon, Charlotte Warren, Nelma Gandy.

Loaf bread: Jolene Balch, Jean Flippin, Wanda Nixon, Nelma Gandy, Pat Sartan.

White ribbons were awarded to: Elementary, cookies: Debra Webb.

Juniors, cornbread, Vickie Young; loaf bread, Linda Edwards.

Judges were Mrs. Betty Moore, home demonstration agent from Brownfield, the Miss Judy Pool, home demonstration agent from Plains.

J. B. Reece, recently very ill with an ulcer, is able to be out again and says he is feeling much better.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" BY C. WILSON HARDER

There are some strong indications along the Potomac that the hey days of the internationalists, the foreign monopolists, and other do gooders who stamped the nation into an expenditure of more than $70 billion in all manner of foreign give away schemes, may just about be over.

For some time, on numerous occasions, the nation's independent business men, voting through the National C. W. Harder Federation of Independent Business, have pointed out the fallacy of this nation attempting to establish a new order by throwing money around like it is going out of style.

This viewpoint is gaining in support. For example, Rep. D. R. Matthews reported on his recent attendance at the Latin American agricultural conference held in Lima, Peru.

Congressman Matthews says "I am positive that the nations of the world must solve their own problems. America isn't smart enough and big enough and rich enough to solve all the problems of the world. We can help, I think, other nations to help themselves, but basically, the great problems of other nations are going to have to be solved by themselves."

He went on to say "I am confirmed more than ever before of the opinion that in many nations of the world the rich live better than the rich in America while the poor live in far worse conditions than do the poor in our own country."

Banquet Is Held At First Baptist

"Hitch Your Wagon to a Star" was the theme of the Sweetheart banquet at the First Baptist Church Thursday of last week when 130 young people and intermediates attended.

The pastor, Rev. T. James Efird, was speaker for the group when his topic was "Following the Star of Stars." The program also included a dinner, group singing, special singing and recognitions.

Banquet sweethearts were Stella Howle and George Adams. First runners-up were Carolyn and Ed die Howard, and Joyce Huey and Ronnie Efird were second runners-up. They were awarded the honor because of their Sunday School attendance and church activities.

Table decorations consisted of pink wagons filled with daisies hitched to stars to carry out the theme for the evening. Stars were also hung from the ceiling. Mrs. Joe Bob Billman and Mrs. Everton Nevill were in charge of the decorations.

Ticket chairmen were Mmes. Urban Brown, Lester Adams, and V. P. Carter.

Bill J. Choate and Mrs. Clyde Allen arranged the program, and in charge of the food were Mmes. Garland Pennington, Walthal Littlepage, and J. C. Womack.

Of total Texas gas production 73 percent came from 16,000 gas wells; 27 percent from 123,000 oil wells (casinghead gas).

"House Warming" Given McDonalds

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin McDonald and family were honored with a housewarming Monday night, March 12, when the Intermediate Girls Class No. 2 of Sweet Street Baptist Church acted as hostesses.

The McDonalds received many gifts for their new home in the Lockwood Addition at 1810 North Eighth. Approximately 40 people attended the occasion.

Mrs. McDonald is Sunday school teacher of the girls class that acted as hostess.

Mrs. Annetta Caudle Married Recently

Mrs. Annetta Caudle or foute 1, Clifton, was recently married to C. Y. Davis, dirt contractor and ranch owner at Lake Whitney, according to Mrs. John R. Armontrout of New Home.

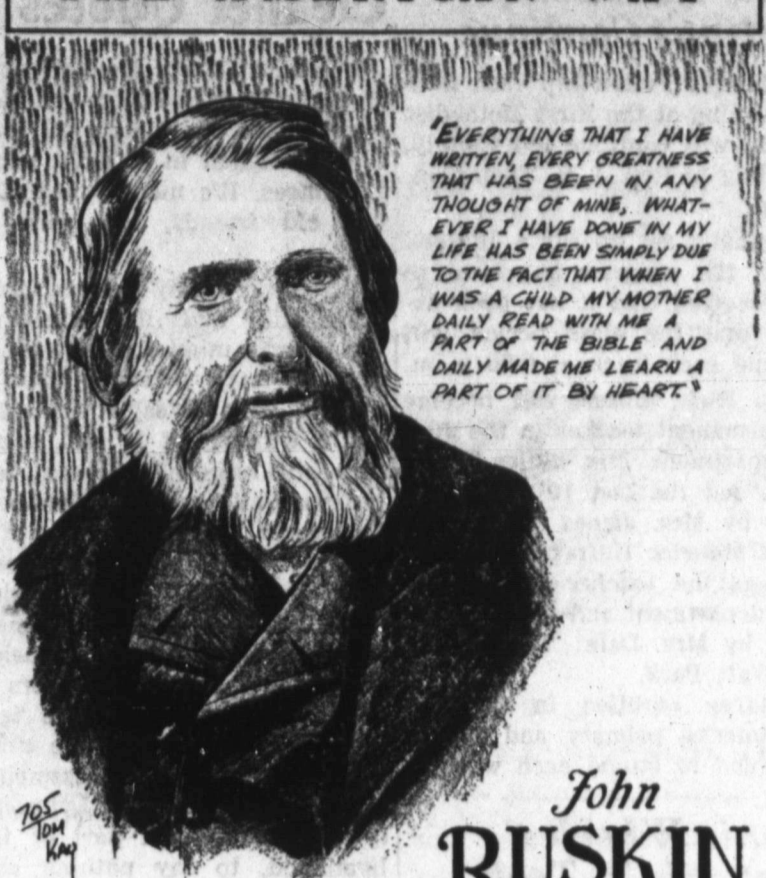

Mrs. Davis was the widow of the late Donald Caudle, and both formerly lived at New Home. She owns and operates King Creek Lodge on Lake Whitney.

WEDDING DATE CHANGED

Wedding vows will be exchanged by Miss Jeanette Wood and Don Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Young, at 6:00 p. m. Saturday, March 18, in Sweet Street Baptist Church instead of 8:00 p. m. as announced earlier by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otho Wood.

Miss Iris Bryan Plans Marriage

Mrs. Frank Bryan of Siloam Springs, Ark. and formerly of Tahoka announces the engagement of her daughter, Iris, to Robert Hillhouse, Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hillhouse, Sr. of Siloam Springs.

The couple plan to be married in 1962 following Iris' graduation from high school there.

She attended school here for many years before moving to Arkansas.

Lubbock Lady Is NHS Speaker

National Honor Society of Tahoka High School presented Mrs. R. E. Pollard, art department head at Lubbock Christian College, in an assembly Tuesday, March 14, at 10:30 a. m.

Mrs. Pollard, who has done graduate study at Chicago Art Institute, University of California, as well as at Texas University holds a B. A. and M. A. degree from Abilene Christian College and Texas Woman's University, respectively.

In stressing the importance of art in our everyday lives, the speaker stated that in the future, historians can learn of our culture, our buildings, our clothing, our means of livelihood by looking at our art. In the last war hundreds of drawings had to be made before an airplane, ship or submarine could be built.

There are many new frontiers for artists—in advertising, interior decorating, business establishments, and in TV.

She encouraged the students by saying that everybody has the talent necessary for enjoying art, and that work and keen observation will make for success in this field. More men students than women are now taking art in college classes.

Today's MEDITATION

The Upper Room
THE UPPER ROOM, NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

This my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. (Luke 15:24.)

The most famous of all the parables, the Prodigal Son, should be named the Parable of Parenthood. Jesus revealed in it, as could be done only by a heart-warming story, the dimensions of God's fatherhood and the qualities of His fatherliness. He does not forget our sins with a shrug, saying, "Never mind; it's nothing." He does not erase the hurt, or cancel out the injury, or blot out the guilt. Instead, He forgives, without taking away an ounce of the enormity of the sin.

He removes the power of sin over us—loosing its hold upon us, releases us from the guilt complex—so that we can find our way back to fellowship with Him.

We do not deserve it, and we cannot hope to understand it; but like the blessedly good parent He is, our heavenly Father assures us that, seeking forgiveness and fellowship, we belong to His household of faith. There we can be at home with Him.

PRAYER: Eternal Father, we thank Thee in Thy wisdom Thou has placed the solitary in families, and that Thy loving-kindness provides for our every need, comfort, and counsel. Guide us as we go through the growing pains of becoming mature members of Thy family. In Jesus Name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY—In mercy and by grace, God forgives us our sin. —T. Otto Nall (Minnesota.)

LOCAL LADIES PLAYING IN NATIONAL TOURNAMENT

Mrs. D. W. Gagnat, Mrs. Chas. Verner, and Mrs. A. N. Norman are in Denver this week playing in the Spring National tournament of the American Contract Bridge League.

According to a report early this week, Mrs. Verner and partner had placed first in a section of mixed pairs, and playing with Mrs. Norman in woman's pairs had placed sixth in a section.

DAUGHTER OF TAHOKA LADY IS IN ALASKA

Mrs. K. M. Moore, daughter of Mrs. Imogene Lynch and granddaughter of Mrs. Amelia Turner, left March 9 to join her husband, a staff sergeant in the Army Airforce stationed at Eielson Field, Fairbanks, Alaska.

Mrs. Moore is the former Bobbie Lynch, who attended Tahoka High School. She was married to Sgt. Moore in Lubbock last December.

Relatives Visit Charlie Stewarts

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Stewart had several visitors over the weekend, all relatives that the couple had not seen for many years.

1/Sgt. and Mrs. H. P. Lee and two daughters of Alaska visited here, Mrs. Lee being the Stewart's daughter. They had not seen one another in three years.

Mr. Stewart's brother and sister of Dallas, whom he has seen only twice in the last 40 years were also here. They are T. J. Stewart and Mrs. Carrie Hall. Until only recently, when Mrs. Hall visited here it had been 25 years since their last visit.

Record In Mile Lester Ford Sets

Lester Ford set a new record in the AA one-mile run at the third annual Whirlwind Relays held at Texas Tech track Saturday with a time of 4:51.

Previous record, which Ford easily broke, was 5:09.1 set by Davis of Tulia in 1960.

Muleshoe won the track meet in Class AA, barely edging out Floydada 93-89 in team points.

Craig Leslie took third place in broad jump with a measurement of 18-10 3/4, and sixth in discus with 105-11.

Jackie Gage placed fourth in discus, throwing 106-8.

Glen Hopkins took sixth place in shot put with 40-6.

To break the one mile record, Ford outran Richard Bates of Tulia, who came in second; Mike Cabera, Muleshoe, third; Jimmy Howell (school unknown) fourth; Tommy Musser, Lockney, fifth; and Curtis Parson, Spur, sixth.

Slaton track team came to Tahoka Wednesday for a practice day with the local team.

This Saturday, Tahoka, enters the Crosbyton relays.

MRS. POER HOME

Mrs. Kate Poer returned home Sunday after being in Fort Worth and Houston for over a month.

She was called to Fort Worth Feb. 1 upon the death of her youngest sister, Mrs. Ruth Dunlap. She spent three weeks in Fort Worth and then went on to Houston to visit her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Edwards.

Mrs. John Minor was admitted to the hospital Wednesday morning as a medical patient.

Wharton Seeking Ambassador Trip

James Whorton, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Whorton of Tahoka, is a candidate for the 1961 title of Lubbock's Community Ambassador.

There are now 16 applications for the title, and the top four will be chosen to be sent to a national committee for the final selection, which will be announced in about one month.

A graduate of Tahoka High School, Jimmy, who is 25 years old, has attended San Angelo Junior College and Texas Tech, where he is presently a part-time student. He has served in the Marines and traveled in the Pacific, and spent seven months touring Europe, making his own way as he went.

MISFORTUNE STRIKES AGAIN FOR OLIVERS

Another misfortune occurred in the Oliver family this week.

J. B. Oliver was loading seed on the Terry Noble farm Wednesday morning and was using an elevator with a cut-off switch. While the motor was off, J. B. placed his left hand on the elevator and the motor came back on so quickly he couldn't move the limb. The belt caught and cut the end off his forefinger and severely damaged his index finger. An employee, Emilio Florez, brought Mr. Oliver to Tahoka Hospital where he was hospitalized.

RODDY IN FRATERNITY

Harry (Leighton) Roddy of Tahoka, freshman engineering student in Texas Tech, is one of 15 new pledges of Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity.

A graduate of Tahoka High School, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Roddy.

Congratulations—

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lee Bednarz of Slaton on the birth of a daughter weighing 7 3/4 pounds at about 2:30 p. m. March 10 in Mercy Hospital. She has been named Deborah Sue. Mrs. Bednarz is the former Miss Sue Dollins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Dollins. The couple has two sons.

ASSEMBLY OF GOD

Revival services are continuing at the Assembly of God Church in Tahoka with Rev. John and Elsie McAteer, national evangelists, conducting the services.

This is the fourth week of the revival. Services are held each evening at 7:30 p. m. except Mondays and Saturdays.

BILL WARE IN SLATON

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ware and two children have recently moved from Kermit to Slaton where he has purchased a pharmacy at 245 W. Lubbock Rd. Before going to Slaton, Ware was associated with the Keystone Pharmacy in Kermit.

Mrs. Paul Larson of Jayton is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Urban Brown, and her mother, Mrs. Stella Throckmorton, who has recently moved here. Mrs. Larson's husband is technician of the Soil Conservation District at Jayton. Mrs. Throckmorton moved here after buying the Urban Brown home on North Sixth Street.

Mrs. Bonnie Adamson returned home Sunday night from a two month's trip to California and Oregon. She accompanied Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Townsen on their visit to relatives in those states. The Townsens have not returned home and are now in California.

Child Fellowship Meetings Continue

Children's Fellowship each Sunday evening at the First Methodist Church, will continue indefinitely, according to Rev. J. B. Thompson, pastor.

Originally set up for a 10-week period, the program has been so well received that it has been decided that the class period will continue each week at 8:00 p. m.

Mrs. Hick Gibson will become the permanent teacher in the Junior department. Mrs. Skiles Thomas has led the last 10 weeks' as assisted by Mrs. James Brookshire.

Mrs. Maurice Huffaker will continue as the teacher in the primary department and has been assisted by Mrs. Dale Thuren and Mrs. Natt Park.

Children enrolled in the two departments, primary and junior, are urged to attend each week.

Lounie Wheeler Honored At Tech

Lounie Wheeler, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wheeler, 906 E. Repetto in Brownfield, formerly of Tahoka, is to be recognized at Texas Tech's annual All-College Recognition Service this year. A junior history education major, this is Lounie's second time to receive the award.

Cleaner Quotes

Fredrick Randol Hodges, son of Moe and Sandra Hodges of Monahans, discovered America March 9. He weighed in at eight pounds 11 ounces. It's nice to hear from our old friends, Moe and Sandra.

Contrary to my beliefs, proper drycleaning adds life to clothing. We have in mind a good wool suit that we have cleaned over 520 times. I will not say it isn't worn, but I will say it is still a good suit—still has good color and form.

Beyond all doubt our Chamber of Commerce banquet was one of the finest. A real after dinner speaker who expressed every business man's feelings to "our farmers." Truly, farming today is a business all its own and our farmers are good businessmen. There is no doubt since 1953 and the drought how much Tahoka businessmen depend on the farmers of Lynn county for the greatest part of their livelihood, to say nothing about our daily bread. Our local Soil Conservation Agent, Mac Mauldin also did a fine job of commending our Soil Conservationist of the year, Tommy Sterling of West Point, for outstanding practices in Soil Conservation.

OUR HATS ARE OFF TO YOU, OUR FARMERS OF LYNN COUNTY.

"Wear 'em twice, they clean real nice," is a good, honest motto. After two wearings any spot, soil or perspiration has not become set. Therefore, they are easily removed without any damage to garment. This is especially true of our more fragile dresses, blouses and suits.

Left over cleaning is comparable to leftover dishes. Good dryclean habits will keep your clothing with that "new look" for many seasons. We have recently installed a new

Application Of Gypsum to Evans Farm Increases Cotton Production

Results of the tests on use of cotton fertilizer and gypsum by Glenn Evans last year on his farm three miles east and five miles south of Tahoka, have been announced by County Agent Bill Griffin.

The four two-acre test plots were on Amarillo fine sandy loam on which cotton had been planted the two previous years.

Soil test data. Laboratory 74,445 Ph 8.5; organic matter, 1.0; Nitrogen, 1; phosphorus, 14; potassium, 480; calcium, 5600; with soluble salts very low.

The laboratory recommended application of 40-60-0 (nitrogen-phosphorus) and 100 pounds of gypsum per acre. Fertilizer was applied in April with a broadcast spreader.

Lankart cotton was planted on May 16 and harvested November 1. A three inch rain came on July 4. Other moisture was by irrigation on July 25, August 9 and August 23.

Application of gypsum added materially to the production but when fertilizer was added to the gypsum-treated land production was not nearly so high, for some unknown reason.

Following are the results of the four test plots.

No. 1, no treatment, yielded 500 pounds of lint cotton per acre.

No. 2, with 20-60-0 treatment, yielded 527.5 pounds of lint, an increase of 27.5 pounds. Fertilizer cost $7.00, increased the value $8.97, leaving a profit of $1.97 per acre and a return of $1.28 per dollar spent.

No. 3, with 1,000 pounds of gypsum applied, increased the yield to 700 pounds of lint per acre, or an increase of 200 pounds per acre. This increased the value of cotton produced to $58.00 per acre, a profit of $50.50 per acre and a return of $7.73 for each dollar spent on gypsum. Cost of the application was $7.50 per acre.

No. 4, 1,000 pounds of gypsum plus 20-50-0, yielded 567.5 pounds of lint, an increase of 67.5 pounds, increased the value by $19.57, but the fertilizer had cost $14.50, leaving a profit per acre of $5.07 and $1.37 return per dollar spent.

Treatment effect on lint on the four plots was: No. 1, 27.20 percent lint; No. 2, 26.9 percent; No. 3, 27.8 percent; No. 4, 38.2 percent.

Highest 4-H Honor Bestowed On Former Texas Club Member

A former Texas 4-H Club girl has just received the highest honor the 4-H program has for former members.

Sallie Fletcher Hill

She is Miss Sally Fletcher Hill, of Dallas, senior home editor of the Progressive Farmer. She has been named one of eight national winners of the 4-H alumni recognition award for 1961.

Miss Hill will be honored at the annual alumni banquet during the 40th National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago next November.

There she will receive a gold alumni key, presented each year to eight outstanding 4-H graduates, selected from throughout the nation, who have "continued to live by 4-H ideals."

Miss Hill has been editor of the magazine's home department for 27 years, and has resided in Birmingham, Ala., until recently. Her latest accomplishment, authoring the Progressive Farmer Southern Cookbook, is just off the press.

As a girl she spent two years in 4-H Club work in Whittie, Parker county, and became a club leader. Her projects were tomato culture and canning, the major interests of the early clubs.

Now this 4-H alumna owns 525 acres of Texas farmland and raises a small herd of Hereford cattle.

Before entering journalism, Miss Hill was a district home demonstration agent in West Texas and several southern states. From 1909 to 1917 she taught at rural schools in Palo Pinto and Parker counties, Texas.

Born and reared on a Texas farm, Miss Hill was graduated from Palo Pinto Academy, attended West Texas State College, then earned a bachelor of science degree in home economics at George Peabody College. She later took graduate work in home economics and journalism at Columbia University, New York City.

In 1955 Miss Hill received the National Headliner award for distinguished contribution to the field of journalism from Theta Sigma Phi, national fraternity for women in journalism.

During her magazine career she has been third vice president of the National League of American Pen Women; president of the National Farm and Home Editors Association, and was on the editorial staff of Matrix, national publication of Theta Sigma Phi.

The 4-H alumni program, conducted nationally by the Cooperative Extension Service, and the National 4-H Service Committee, is supported by Olin Mathieson Chemical Corp., Chemicals Division, Agricultural, Little Rock, Ark.

Fire Chief Asks Citizens Help

Fire Chief Pat Patterson has announced that he is urging all Tahoka citizens to refrain from telephoning the fire department following the blowing of the fire alarm.

Such calling not only ties up the communication lines that may be needed for emergency calls, but sometimes demands the attendance of one of the Volunteer Fire Department members that might otherwise be needed.

Patterson also said that when out-of-town fires occur, only the fire truck and panel truck, containing all emergency equipment, will be taken on calls. There will now be left in Tahoka a larger percentage of members of the department in case a local fire should break out. However, this group will stand by in case its help is needed on the out-of-town fire and will be called in such an occasion.

The City Council has authorized the purchasing of some new personal equipment for fire fighting, efficient service to Tahoka and Patterson stated, including helmets.

He said that he hopes the new proposals to the citizens of Tahoka, as well as members of the fire department, will enable the department to render better and more

Youth Problem Questions Asked

Those who work with youth in Tahoka and are the recipients of their confidences are asked the following questions over and over through the years. These are your children's questions. Can you answer them?

What are some of the dangers in going steady?

Why can't teen-agers talk to their parents?

How can we get newspapers to emphasize the good teen-agers do?

Why do parents expect churches and schools to teach moral values?

Does going steady lead to trouble?

Are teen-age morals lower today than in our parents' time?

How can we overcome resentment and rebellion put on by restriction and discipline?

Why do parents censure everything we say and do?

How can a girl maintain high moral standards and still be a good date?

What should you do when you like a boy and you would not do anything to hurt him, but he wants to park?

Who should set the standards—the boy or girl?

To pet or not to pet—that is the question.

Should young people determine their moral standards before starting to date?

Who will help us in knowing what is right and what is wrong?

Should girls call boys on the telephone and drive by and pick them up?

How late should students stay out at night?

Why do parents differ so much in standards for their children?

Why do boys fall for girls who are below their standards, yet want to marry a girl with high standards? Is this fair to the girl who holds her standards?

How can you handle feelings of hatred?

What is the difference between necking and petting?

Is it all right for a high school girl to go steady with a boy who is four years older than she?

If you are going steady, how can you break off if the boy or girl does not want to?

Do you think you should park in the country?

What should you do if the other couple in the car insists on telling off-colored jokes or insists on parking?

If a boy respects a girl enough, will he help her hold her standards?

Have teen-age morals and ethical values degenerated?

Does going steady put a ceiling on your development?

Why don't our parents, today, take more responsibility toward their children?

Why are parents afraid to listen to teenage sons and daughters?

Methodists Plan Special Services

Rev. J. B. Thompson has announced the remainder of the calendar for Lent and Easter at the First Methodist Church which includes mid-week Bible study, children's-membership class, choir rehearsals, and the topics for the worship services for the next three Sunday mornings and evenings.

Beginning last Wednesday, the mid-week Bible studies will continue through March 29 at 7:30 p. m. Topic last Wednesday was "I Am the Truth." On March 22, the topic will be "I Am the True Vine," and on March 29 "I Am the Resurrection."

Membership classes for those children planning to become church members will be held during Holy Week, beginning Monday, March 27 at 4:00 p. m.

The choir will rehearse each Wednesday at 7:00 p. m. for the special Easter music and Rev. Thompson points out that only two rehearsals remain for the preparation.

On Passion Sunday, March 19, sermon topics will be "The Glory of the Cross" at the morning worship and "Take a Look At Yourself" in the evening.

Palm Sunday on March 26 will include "Triumphant Humility" in the morning and "The Soul's Upper Rooms" in the evening.

Easter Sunday services will include two morning worship services at 9:00 and 11:00 a. m. when the topic will be "This Is Life Eternal." The two services will be identical and are being made available so that there will be plenty of room for everyone wishing to attend. The evening service will be the Easter Evening Communion Service.

Terrace lines have been run and construction started on the J. P. Scott farm northeast of Tahoka. A portion of Scott's terraces and waterways will be completed this year. Waterways will be shaped and sodded. The terrace system will be completed next year. This system is part of a complete soil and water conservation plan being established with cost share assistance through the Great Plains Conservation program.

Herbert Ehlers has started constructing terraces on his farm northeast of Tahoka. Ehlers also plans to seed approximately 50 acres of Class IV upland back to native grass, also install a cropping system that will meet the need of the soil. Ehlers developed the plan on his farm and is installing the permanent type practices with cost share assistance through the Great Plains Conservation program.

Measuring the worth of a message

Today's telephone is a far cry from the old pony express — an enormous advance in communications.

There it is, available for use around the clock. And the call you make can be local, across the continent, or overseas.

What's more, the lines and the intricate electronic equipment behind your telephone are maintained continuously, as an unseen part of the service you get.

Any way you measure it, the modern telephone is one of today's big bargains.

OTHER VARIETIES: The MAHAN variety is popular because it produces heavily and because the nuts are extremely large. It is subject to serious criticism because the nuts often are imperfectly filled with shriveled kernels. Nuts of the SCHLEY variety are excellent, but the trees bear irregular crops and are subject to diseases which attack the leaves and nuts. The BURKETT, formerly a most popular variety, is subject to disease and is now being grown principally in the upland sandy soil and dry climate of the West Cross Timbers. MOORE is a heavy yielding variety of small nuts, and the trees are good pollinators. Nuts of the NUGGETT variety are small, but they have excellent shelling qualities and most of the kernels can be extracted readily in halves. Pecans of the EVANS variety are superb in quality. The trees produce well, although they bear late. SAN SABA IMPROVED is a western variety that produces heavily of medium-size nuts that are excellent in quality. It grows best in dry climate. The TEXHAN is an early and heavy bearer of nuts that have good quality. BARTON and COMANCHE are new varieties that are promising.

Farm Facts

The U. S. farmer is the most highly mechanized and most efficient farmer in the world. He owns $18.4 billion worth of machinery and motor vehicles.

According to the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Balance Sheet for Agriculture, 1960, value of machinery on farms has increased six-fold since 1940. It more than doubled from 1945 to 1960.

In 1960, gross expenditures for all farm machinery were $86 million more than in 1958. Expenditures were up for tractors (15%) and other machinery (10%) as farmers continued the trend toward larger and more efficient units.

The value of machinery and motor vehicles on farms in 1940 was slightly more than $3 billion as compared with $18.4 billion in 1960. Tractors were valued at $503 million as compared with $3.4 billion; automobiles at $958 million as compared with $4 billion; trucks at $232 million as compared with $2.3 billion; and other farm machinery at $1.3 billion as compared with $8.7 billion.

While there has been a large increase in total machinery and vehicles during these years, rising prices also have been partially accountable for the big jump in value.

Also, we thank our friends and neighbors for the flowers, cards and visits during Vernon's illness. Of course we don't want to forget the doctors and nurses for all they did. Thanks!—Vernon Wilma and Billy Davis. ltc

Home, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Gregg; and Miss Jolen Balch of O'Donnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Balch.

Wilmer Smith, selected by Progressive Farmer as Man of the Year in Texas agriculture, was recognized by Clint Walker, who served as master of ceremonies for the occasion.

Directors and their wives were introduced by the new president, Mr. Short. New directors are Short, A. M. Bray, Frank Hill, W. T. Kidwell, Johnny Reasonover, Charles Townes, Charles Verner, directors are Jaquess, who becomes vice president automatically, Ray Adams, E. R. Edwards, Harold Green, H. B. McCord Jr., Wilton Payne, Herman Renfro, C. W. Roberts, and Clint Walker. Also recognized were Martin White and Wynne Collier for their work.

In a talk filled with wit and humor, Mr. Throgmorton threw in a lot of his philosophy of life and gems of inspiration for a higher life, a better farming business and community life with all working together.

"The hopes and fears of all civilization are wrapped up in our farmers," he declared. "Just eight inches of soil separate us from starvation." Citing the importance of agriculture, he said the farmer alone keeps us going.

"Where the spirit of the Lord is the people are free. Our good farmers are free—they get right down with Nature working the good soil."

He said we are 70 years ahead of Russia in farming. They pay 75 cents for a loaf of bread that costs us about 20 cents. In Russia, he declared, every other person is a farmer and still they do not raise enough food. Over here, eight percent of our people produce the food for the other 92 percent.

Mr. Throgmorton pointed out the fact that farming had farmers have changed in the last few generations. Today they are participating in chambers of commerce, civic clubs, and are leaders in their communities.

Turning to his subject, "The Tale of Two Cities," he cited two Arkansas towns, in the state where he was raised. One grew and prospered because it had leaders working together to build a better community. The other failed to develop because of lack of interest on the part of its people.

"Community service is a gilt-edge investment," he declared, which helps workers individually and the community as a whole. A town must be more than nice buildings, and a chamber of complete soil and water conservation program. The conservation work is scheduled on a year to year basis and is being accelerated by using the Great Plains Conservation Program, according to D. M. (Mack) Mauldin, work unit technician, with the District.

Sterling's dryland farm grows 220 acres of cotton and 86 acres of grain sorghum. He has 278 acres planted in the Soil Bank with sorghum alumum. The Soil Bank acreage runs out this year, and this will be planted to other crops, part of it in Sudan.

All of the cotton land is broadcast to rye about the time of the last cultivation in the summer. The cover crop is undercut with knives in March and left on the surface of the soil to prevent wind erosion and loss of valuable water through evaporation. The practice of planting on flat beds, used by Sterling, leaves the residue of rye and grain sorghum on or near the surface of the soil throughout the year.

All farming operations are on the contour following terraces. He maintains his 14 miles of terraces with regular farm equipment.

The 85 acres of native rangeland on the Sterling farm was rooted-plowed in 1958 and reseeded to a mixture of native grasses.

As a supplemental program to his row crops, Sterling has 14 registered Angus yearlings bought in January, 1960, to graze on his improved pasture and supplemental land.

In his Farm and Home Development project, several buildings located around the headquarters have been rearranged by the Sterling family to improve the farm appearance and better fit the convenience of the operator.

One building was moved and remodeled to be used to house feeder cattle. The corral and cattle feeders were constructed following the remodeling of the cattle bar, and all of the facilities to be used in the cattle program were completed before the purchase of cattle. A trench silo was built last year, but Sterling plans to move it to a more suitable location.

Most of the work on the home-stead improvement was done during the time that crop responsibilities were not so heavy so as to reduce labor costs.

Sterling and wife were presented their award Saturday night at the annual Tahoka Chamber of Commerce Farmer-Businessman banquet, with Mr. Mauldin making the presentation.

merce is a training ground—more than brick and mortar. Miracles came to communities because of teamwork. "A cow never GIVES milk, you have to TAKE it."

He admonished his listeners, in closing to be G-Men—go men. Go and grow! Go right on working! Go with the community and you grow with the community!

The speaker was introduced by Wynne Collier, who has known him for several years.

Prior to the talk, Mrs. Harold (Bettye) Green sang two solos, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Ray Adams.

The invocation was by Rev. J. B. Thompson and the benediction by Johnny Reasonover.

Special Service At Sweet Street

A special service will be held Sunday morning at Sweet Street Baptist Church, announces Joe Webb, pastor, when Youth Day will be observed in the church.

The "Life Service Band" of Howard Payne College in Brownwood composed of six members will be in charge of the program. Included in the band are Jerry Perkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Payton Perkins, Tahoka; Jack Walton, die Anderson, Decatur, devotional; Kent Berry, Houston, message; Anne Stovall, Barksdale, organ, and testimony on "What Howard Payne Means to Me"; Glenda Rogers, Highlands, piano.

Rev. Webb states that the church moved into a part of the new educational building Sunday and hope to have use of all of it for the Sunday services. Open house will be announced at a later date.

A fellowship hour will be held Saturday night at 7:30 p. m. when the Howard Payne group and all young people of the church will attend.

Plant More Trees At T-Bar Club

During the past week, 63 new trees have been planted on the grounds of T-Bar Country Club and several more are yet to be set out, according to Meldon Leslie, club president.

These include fifty nursery trees, all American Elms, and twelve large trees several years old moved from US Highway 87 right-of-way. Among the latter are seven honey locus and five chinese elm trees. Several more trees are yet to be moved from the highway. The former were made possible through donations from members, the latter by donation from the State Highway Department.

Some new grass is being sodded, tee boxes improved, some leveling done to fairways, and other work done in the beautification program.

Peggy Halamicek On Honor Roll

Miss Peggy Halamicek, junior student in Texas Woman's University at Denton, has made the Dean's Honor Roll. Peggy completed her sophomore year this last semester.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Emma Halamicek and is a graduate of Tahoka High School.

Tech Recognition For Terry Spears

Terry Spears, son of Supt. and Mrs. Otis Spears, will be given two outstanding recognitions Sunday, March 19, at 2:00 p. m. in the Lubbock Municipal Auditorium at Texas Tech's annual All-College Recognition Service.

Terry will be recognized for his excellence in scholarship during the preceding two regular semesters at Texas Tech, and for holding a high school valedictorian scholarship. Other students will be recognized for distinction in fields of scholarship, athletics and leadership.

Following the recognition service, an informal tea in honor of the students will be held in the student Union Ballroom. Parents, families and friends of students are invited to attend the service.

Terry was one of four Tahoka Tech students named on the honor roll last week.

W. C. Harvick Sr. is a patient in Tahoka Hospital where he has been hospitalized with a severe case of pneumonia. He had been ill about two weeks before being confined to the hospital. His condition is considered serious.

QUESTIONS, PLEASE

QUESTION: "Would It Be Possible To Unite All Existing Religious Bodies?"

ANSWER: Yes, it would be possible. Not only would it be possible but it would be pleasing to the Lord. He prayed for unity in His followers (Jno. 17: 20-23). We cannot afford to unite upon my plan or your plan but we can, and must, unite on the Lord's plan. Here are some things that would unite us religiously:

1. A Saviour we can all serve (Acts 20:19). There is only one Saviour (Acts 4:12) and this one Saviour has given only one plan of salvation. He is not the author of confusion.
2. A book we can all understand and that book is the Bible (Isa. 35:8). All existing creeds, books, written by man, were done away with, and all turn to the Bible we could be united.
3. A gospel we can all obey (Acts 18:8). There is only one

4. A creed we can all believe. "Creed" means "I believe." We must believe something. But what must we believe? We must believe the creed of Christ and not the doctrines and commands of men (Matt. 15:9). Who can misunderstand Mark 16:16?
5. A race we can all run will unite us (Heb. 12:1).
6. A path we can all walk will also unite us (Rom. 4:12; 1 Pet. 2:21).
7. A battle we can all win would be helpful (Rom. 12:21; 1 Jno. 5:4).
8. A common foe is also helpful (Jas. 4:7).
9. A common faith we can all keep will reconcile us (2 Tim. 4:7; Rom. 10:17).
10. A work we can all engage in will weld us together (Matt. 21:28-31).
11. All striving for the one great goal will unify us (2 Tim. 4:8; Rev. 2:10).

You are invited to send your questions to: Bob Barnes, Box 812, Tahoka, Texas. You are also invited to attend all the services of the church of Christ.

TAHOKA, TEXAS "Heart of the South Plains" FRIDAY MARCH 17, 1961

Ed Hamiltons Back In School

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hamilton, grandparents, have started back to school.

They have enrolled in an adult class in conversation Spanish which meets Wednesday nights at the Mary Watson Private School in Lubbock.

With their four children grown, the Hamiltons recently decided to return to school in order to learn Spanish and improve relations with some of the people with whom they do business.

All at the same time they have both children and grandchildren attending school.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitfield, she being the former Eddie Lois Hamilton, both are college graduates and now are teaching in the Lubbock city schools and also working on their Master's degrees at Texas Tech. The two Whitfield boys, Charles Eddie and Larry, are attending Lubbock schools.

The Hamiltons' youngest daughter, Vickey, graduates from Tahoka High this spring, following which she expects to enroll in Tech.

Their second daughter, Joy, is now Mrs. J. W. Rainey and she and her husband and daughter, Misty, live on an irrigated farm near Olton.

Their son is Lt. (j. g.) Harold Hamilton, a Navy pilot, stationed at Argencia, Newfoundland. He is a Tech graduate. Incidentally, Harold expects to be married in July to an Ottawa, Canada, girl who has her B. A. degree and also R. N., registered nurse. The couple expect to return here and he will enroll in Tech to work on his Master's degree after being released from the Airforce.

Estate Planning Rotary Subject

"Estate Planning" was the subject of a talk by J. B. Robertson of Lubbock, an insurance man, at Tahoka Rotary Club Thursday noon of last week.

"More than any nation in the world," the speaker declared, "the people of this nation have the greatest ability to accumulate wealth and the least ability to take care of it."

He pointed out the value of a person planning the disposition of his estate as early in life as possible in order that his heirs would realize the maximum from his work and earnings. A large majority of people who die have much of their estate dissipated before it gets into the hands of the rightful heirs.

Poor estate planning, he said is the reason for this loss. Average for the nation are 16.8 percent loss on an estate valued at $50,000; on a $100,000 estate, 19.3 percent loss; $250,000, 27.9 percent; $500,000, 32.5 percent.

These losses consist of inheritance taxes, cost of probation of will, court proceedings, lawyers fees, forced sale of assets, administration expenses and administrator's fees, etc.

Some of these, he declared, can be cut materially by estate planning by an expert in the field.

The program was arranged by Dr. Emil Prohl, and Clint Walker introduced the speaker.

Student guests for the month Billy Davis and Jerry Pebsworth, both juniors in Tahoka High School, were introduced by Granvel Ayer and Leighton Knox.

Auto Inspections Are Due Now

"Motorists who wish to avoid the long lines to obtain annual motor vehicle inspection stickers should take advantage of empty stalls at inspection stations," Captain Alan Johnson, Motor Vehicle Inspection supervisor of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said this week.

"With the April 15 deadline for obtaining inspection stickers, only 2,963 of the 7,055 vehicles in Lynn county have been inspected," Johnson pointed out.

"Any drivers operating vehicles registered in Texas on public roads after April 15 without the 1961 inspection sticker will be subject to arrest and a fine of up to $200.00, plus court cost," Johnson added.

The captain explained that trailers with a gross weight exceeding 4,000 pounds also must be inspected.

The safety inspection sticker which must be on all registered vehicles operated over public streets, roads, and highways by midnight, April 15 may be obtained at any of the 12 approved vehicle inspection stations in this county.

Texas received more than a quarter-billion dollars a year for gas sold to other states.

Methodist Men Hear Preacher

"Life Just Isn't What It Ought To Be," was the subject of a talk by Rev. A. L. Mitchell, pastor of New Home Methodist Church, at the monthly meeting of Tahoka Methodist Men Monday night at the local church.

The program was arranged by Clint Walker and Walter Mathis, and the meal was served by Pat Patterson and Oran Ramsey.

J. M. Uzzle reported that 36 men had signed to pay into the club $1.00 a month to graduate finance for operation.

A. M. Bray and Rev. J. B. Thompson talked briefly on the campaign of a local committee to improve entertainment facilities for youth of the community. They said local drug stores are cooperating in elimination objectionable literature from the newsstands and the local theatre management is cooperating in trying to get better movies scheduled.

The club will hold its regular meeting next month at a breakfast, one of five which will be held for men during the Methodist revival. President Louie Weathers appointed Maurice Bray and Maurice Huffaker in charge of preparing the meals during the revival breakfast meetings.

An average of 750 rotary drilling rigs operated in Texas during 1959.

It's True!

This big, roomy 4-door
1961 FORD FAIRLANE SIX will cost you less to buy...less to run than some
"new-name" compacts!

1961 Ford Fairlane—costs least* when equipped the way most people want, saves most of any big car on the American Road.

HERE'S HOW THE '61 FORD TAKES CARE OF ITSELF

Lubricates itself—You'll normally go 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications (which cost only about $4.00 and take about 20 minutes) because Ford has replaced conventional grease fittings with a sealed-in lubrication system.

Cleans its own oil—You'll go 4,000 miles between oil changes because Ford's full-flow oil filter gives you filtration through fibers...trapping more dirt than any other type of filter made.

Adjusts its own brakes—New Truck Size brakes adjust themselves automatically.

Guards its own muffler—Ford mufflers are double-wrapped and slanted to last three times as long as ordinary mufflers.

Protects its own body—All vital underbody parts are specially processed to resist rust and corrosion, even to galvanizing the body panels beneath the door.

Takes care of its own dash—Just wash and clean Ford's new Diamond Lustre Finish to make it glisten like new. It never needs waxing.

Here's the BIG car that saves like the small ones. Actually saves more . . . up to $84 more* on purchase price alone . . . than some of the "new-name" compacts. Come in. Let your Ford Dealer explain why you get terrific mileage on "regular" gas. Let us show you how you save on a '61 Ford Fairlane all the while you own it, because it's so beautifully built to take care of itself!

Beginning with its low initial cost, the '61 Ford Fairlane can save you plenty.

For instance, the Fairlane has the only modern "over square" 6-cylinder engine in its field. Ford's new Mileage Maker Six—with its short-stroke, low friction design—squeezes amazing mileage out of each gallon of fuel.

The 1961 Ford Fairlane, like every '61 Ford, can cut your operating and service costs nearly $100 a year. It is built to take care of itself—see features listed in square at left.

And here's the most amazing fact of all: On top of the greatest money-saving combination in the nation, this Fairlane gives you more value than any other car in its field! All the big and little "extras" that Ford knows how to build into a car. Add up the facts for yourself. Then hurry to your Ford Dealer.

By F. P. H.

Jimmy Hoffa and his buddies send us "The International Teamster" every month, which publication we sometimes peruse to get this segment of Labor's viewpoint. The last issue is rejoicing over Hoffa's latest victories. Hoffa isn't whipped, yet. In fact, he's won just about every court round so far with the Government. He is still bigger than the entire U. S. government—bigger than Congress, the Courts, and the President—until proven otherwise. Here's one fault of a democracy—a hoodlum labor boss with millions in money and thousands of virtually conscripted members behind him is virtually immune from the law and consistently wins concessions from his government while the public suffers.

Congratulations to Tommy Ster-

The high court is not so supreme . . . I'm a graduate of Little Rock High School.

After complimenting Mrs. Bettye Green's singing, he said, "You don't have to know music to fiddle around."

An old hen was watching her master scramble some eggs and when she peered over the edge of the frying pan she said, "Those poor mixed-up kids."

Here's another story on "Uncle Ike" Metcalf, early day Tahoka justice of the peace: Judge G. E. Lockhart and Judge B. P. Maddox (most of us used to call all lawyers "judge") were on opposite sides in a case being tried before the Judge Metcalf in Justice Court. The case was hotly contested and tempers were on edge. After a certain ruling by the J. P., Judge Lockhart arose and said, "But Judge, your ruling is not in compliance with the court of law." And "Uncle Ike" pounded the bench with his fist to emphasize his five-foot-two, 108-pound judicial authority, and yelled back, "To hell with the law, I'll have you know this is a court of justice."

Irving Stewart is threatening to sue The News. Last week, we had him in the hospital. Actually it was Era.

Horse sense is that faculty which keeps horses from betting on people.

Cass O. Edwards (II or III, we've forgotten which, anyway the son of the late Crawford Edwards and grandson of the late pioneer rancher) of Fort Worth, was in for a visit last week and we enjoyed swapping stories about his granddad. Cass is a swell young fellow. Not only does he claim to enjoy reading this column, but he also says he passes the paper around down in Fort Worth and claims that some of his friends enjoy it. He is always interested in stories about the T-Bar Ranch, naturally since he is one of the owners of this spread established by Cass O. Edwards in 1884. This is one of the oldest ranches in West Texas, probably the oldest, under the management and ownership of the same family.

When "Uncle Cass" came to Double Lakes in Lynn county in 1884 from Crosby county with a small herd of about 300 cattle, some other stockmen were grazing a herd at Tahoka Lake, but "Uncle Cass" stayed on and came to own 125 sections of land west of Tahoka, and at the peak grazed 12,000 to 15,000 head of cattle on the land.

We have at least two things in common with young Cass. Both of us are fans of George Dolan, who writes the "This is West Texas" column in the Star-Telegram, and the late J. R. Williams, who drew the "Out Our Way" cartoons until his death a few years ago. Cass thinks Williams' cartoons most accurately represent the old time cowboys. The Printer met the late J. R. Williams once. He told us he got many of the ideas for his cartoons while working in the Santa Fe shops at Clovis, N. M., and on ranches in that area, one of which we believe was the Muleshoe ranch, back early in the century.

Does anyone know who it was that had a "cutting horse" mule out in the West Texas ranch country back in the early days? We've heard the story but forgotten it. Maybe George Short or John Fulford or some other old ranch hand knows about him.

By the way, did you ever ride a sweaty mule (or horse) bareback for a few hours? There's nothing like such an experience to make a man bow-legged in a hurry.

One of the things we have to be thankful for is that we don't get as much government as we pay for.—Anonymous.

The current trend of our government toward a socialistic state is graphically illustrated in the following parable about the farmer and his mule, told in the current

REA MANAGER TAKES ISSUE WITH STATEMENT IN NEWS

Garland Pennington, manager of Lyntegar, says we were misinformed and gave some incorrect impressions last week in the "Printer's Inkings" concerning H. B. 2 in the Texas Legislature, defeated last week in the House 75 to 64. He says such erroneous impressions as we expressed hurt the cause of electric cooperatives.

After checking a copy of the bill brought us by Garland, we find that the proposal as drafted is not proposing to go into cities served by private companies, but only allows the cooperatives to protect the investment they have made developing areas not served by private companies before cities expanded—with which we are in agreement.

Both Representatives Olen Petty and Wesley Roberts of this area supported the measure.

"All we have been asking," he says, "is for a city or town to have the right to grant a franchise, if the city so desires, in an annexed area where REA already exists and has developed a territory to continue serving those people in the area they are already serving up to 1,500 feet from their lines."

Under the present law, he says, the electric cooperatives can serve only the customers they now have on the lines, can add no new ones, and even lose the customers they have as they drop from the lines. A person dropping service in an annexed area can not return to REA.

This creates a hardship on rural electric, as they have invested to build these lines and develop these territories not being served by private companies. Eventually, the REA is thereby frozen out. All the rural electric boys want is equal rights with private power companies to serve rural areas they have developed and are annexed by growing towns that extend their city limits.

Even then, the city itself would have the right to decide what should be done about the electric co-op's operation within the newly extended city limits. The city has no option now, because state law prohibits the connection by the co-op of any new meter, regardless of the wishes of the city, co-op, or potential customer. The city would still be restricted by law from allowing the co-op a franchise area larger than the area served by the co-op prior to annexation.

Garland says the proposed law does not authorize cooperatives to invade a city. It does not restrict the city from granting franchises to private power companies for the same area, or from extending city limits to the same area. It does not violate the original purpose of REA, namely, to carry electric energy to people not having it.

If a city wishes it may permit, under the proposal, REA to continue serving customers in the annexed area of the city only where the lines existed when the annexation took place, and then only at the will of the governing body of the town.

"Some opponents of the bill," Pennington says, "also infer that the electric cooperatives pay little or no taxes. Cooperatives pay all taxes except a Federal income tax. A cooperative has no income to tax. For, after paying all operating expenses, interest and principal payments, anything left is credited to the account of its member-owners as patronage capital."

"If this bill is not democracy, I don't know what democracy is," he declares.

Here's why you'll profit planting cotton seed treated with Du Pont CERESAN LIQUIDS

1. When you plant seed treated with "Ceresan", it helps to assure maximum cotton stands and plant-growth vigor by protecting against seed rot. "Ceresan" also reduces sore shin and controls seed-borne anthracnose boll rot and angular leaf spot.

2. Pick upwards of 328 extra pounds of cotton per acre at a cost for treating with "Ceresan" of only 20 cents an acre. This is an average return of $603 on every 10 acres you grow. You'll get crop insurance plus bonus yields for extra profits when you treat with Du Pont "Ceresan".

3. "Ceresan" colors seed red. One look tells you the seed has been treated. And you'll like the way seed treated with "Ceresan" stores: stays clean and viable . . . longer.

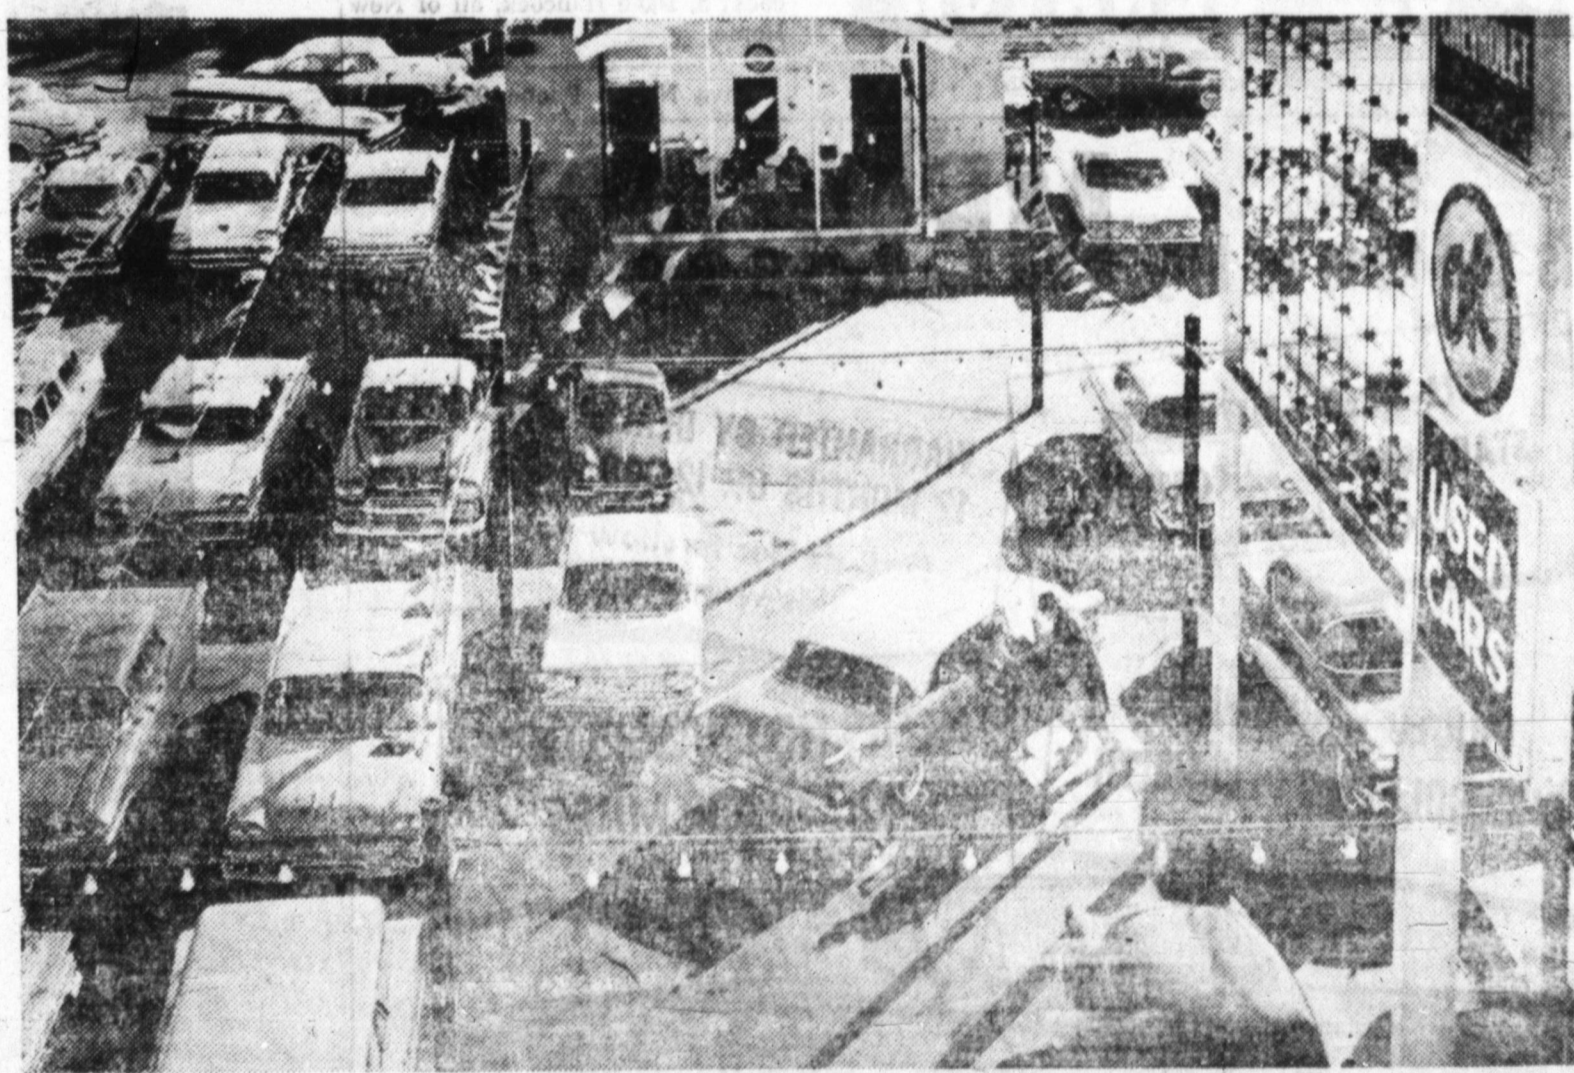

Seed treatment with Du Pont "Ceresan" liquid seed disinfectants has proven itself in all the major cotton growing centers. Don't wait for the busy season. Take your seed to your local trader now—and get in on the big bonus profits.

On all chemicals follow labeling instructions and warnings carefully

Howard Cowarts Are Visitors Here

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cowart, formerly of Petty, were here last week from McIntosh, New Mexico, north of Willard in the Estancia Valley.

After selling their farm at Petty, the Cowarts bought 2,200 acres of land in the valley, 1,500 acres of which is in pasture and 800 acres in cultivation under irrigation.

Howard thinks that is a fine country, but the growing season is a little short for milo and corn.
Mostly, they produce hay, and their production was about 22 tons per acre. Cattle do well there, and when snow is on the ground the cattle feed on chenise bushes and do well.

Their place is in the shallow water belt, and their irrigation wells are only 30 to 40 feet deep.
The altitude is 6,200 feet. Their place is just off the highway a half mile from McIntosh.

Of all Texas wells ("wildcat" and field development wells added together) drilled in 1959 about 37 percent were dry.
