Lynn County Jail Nears Completion

The new $125,000 Lynn County jail building is almost complete, according to Sheriff Norvell Redwine, but will not be occupied until furnishings are installed.

Construction started in September with W. B. Abbott & Co. of Lubbock the contractor. The building itself was constructed at a cost of $75,000 and the jail equipment contract with Southern Steel Co. of San Antonio was $50,000.

However, kitchen and office furnishings are still to be bought and installed.

The county built the new building on the southwest corner of the courthouse square by issuing 20-year warrants against the Permanent Improvement Fund without a raise in taxes after the present jail, located on the third floor of the court house, faced condemnation under a state law that goes into effect in May, 1961, defining minimum health and security standards for jails.

The new two story jail building covers 66 by 44 feet on the ground floor plus a covered driveway on the north. The second floor is 44 by 40 feet in size.

Construction is brick, concrete and steel with a reddish-brown face brick and Carthage stone exterior.

Provisions are made for 18 prisoners without crowding. West half of the ground floor contains the sheriff's office, deputy's office, a public waiting room, interrogation and records room, kitchen and storage room.

East half of the ground floor, separated from the west half by a hallway, contains juvenile boys and girls wards, a hospital cell, a witness room, and a drunk tank. Cell blocks are in the upper story, including cells for felons, first offenders to which a day room is connected, cells for women, and also a padded cell and a corridor.

Maximum health and safety provisions are made in the arrangement and jail equipment. Haynes & Kirby of Lubbock were the architects.

Senior Play Is Here Tonight

Tonight, Friday, the Tahoka senior class will present the play "The People vs. Maxine Lowe" in the high school auditorium at 8:00 p. m. Admission has been placed at 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for students. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

The play is a tense and exciting court room drama with the jury sitting in the room. It is enacted before the audience's eyes as if the viewers themselves were in the courtroom.

This three-act play, written by Luella E. McMahon is the story of Maxine Lowe who is on trial for her life for the murder of her husband. She is defended by an untried attorney, ably abetted by a girl lawyer, fresh out of law school. The girl appeals to the jury, and the prosecuting attorney impresses them. From the very first, it seems like an open-and-shut case—one character witness

Poka-Lambro Co-Op Annual Meeting And Open House Will Be Tuesday

Poka-Lambro Rural Telephone Cooperative will hold its annual meeting and open house at its new location in Tahoka on Tuesday, April 18, at 3:00 p. m. according to W. D. Harmon, manager.

The new building located on North Main Street, was recently purchased by the co-op and completely remodeled to provide top efficiency in serving about 2100 members in nine counties.

The meeting held here will include the election of three members to the board of directors, of which Lee Bartlett of Meadow is chairman, Harmon stated. Door prizes will be given throughout the event.

Poka-Lambro has grown from a struggling operation of 17 members in 1951 to its present membership. It covers the counties of Lynn, Garza, Dawson and Terry and also has lines in Martin, Borden, Gaines, Yoakum and Hockley counties. The co-op has over 2,000 miles of telephone lines that are expanding every month.

With headquarters in Tahoka, the co-op has 15 employees with a monthly payroll of $5,000.00. The new location, remodeled at a cost of approximately $10,000, provides a director's room of brick and mahogany paneling, six offices also paneled or partially paneled, a kitchen, rest rooms, a large reception room, rooms for mapping, filming and storage. In addition, over half of the floor space is given to the storing of cable, trucks, etc. The building contains a fire proof vault, acoustical ceilings, refrigerated air conditioning and central heating, recessed lighting and some new furniture.

All members of the rural telephone cooperative are urged to attend the meeting, Harmon said.

Cancer Drive Planned Here

April is Cancer drive month in Lynn county and Mrs. Beulah Applewhite will serve this year as drive chairman.

H. W. Carter, the county chairman of the American Cancer Society, is urging all citizens to give special attention to information dealing with the disease and to give generously to the campaign.

Others who have been secured to help with the drive include Pat Campbell of Wilson, Mrs. Alex Sanders of Wayside and Mr. Jones of Odonnell. Other community chairmen will be named also.

Carter points out that the cancer program can be aided in many ways. Money is used for research in finding ways to prevent and combat the dread disease, but regular physical check ups by a physician is the surest way to stop the disease before it becomes too advanced to be arrested or cured.

More information on the drive will be announced next week. Mrs. Applewhite states.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill were in Irving early this week visiting Supt. and Mrs. Travis Hanes and were expecting to visit other friends and relatives during the week before returning home this week end.

Lynn-Garza Farm Bureau Proposed

State Farm Bureau officials and Lynn County Farm Bureau officials will meet with interested persons of Garza county on Friday night, April 21 at 8:00 p. m. in the First National Bank meeting room at Post, to discuss the possibilities of organizing a Lynn-Garza Farm Bureau.

If the proposal is met favorably, the enlistment of members in Garza county will begin following the organizational meeting, according to Charles Reid, manager of the Lynn county Farm Bureau.

Garza County does not have a Farm Bureau and does not have the potentials of organizing its own to support an office manager and other workers. Because of this, Lynn county is inviting Garza to join this county, giving them use of the local office and in return furnishing directors from Garza county to serve in and with the Lynn county board of directors.

State officials will be present to discuss with interested Garza persons the policies of the Farm Bureau, its structure, and the current farm problems.

Reid asks that all Lynn county citizens interested in the merger to attend the meeting and show their support for such an action.

Feed And Grain Program To Be Discussed In Meeting Tuesday

A county-wide meeting will be conducted in the district courtroom Tuesday, April 18, at 8:00 p. m. to furnish information on the feed grain program, announces County Agent Bill Griffin.

All who can be urged to attend the meeting. Following are questions and answers on the 1961 Feed Grain Program:

1. When can producers sign-up for compliance with the feed grain program?

Ans. As soon as their County

ASC office has the forms and payment information available for individual farms — possibly about April 20.

2. Will there be a deadline date by which producers must express intent to comply?

Ans. Yes, the dates for final sign-up will be announced by County ASC offices—a tentative date of not earlier than May 10 has been indicated.

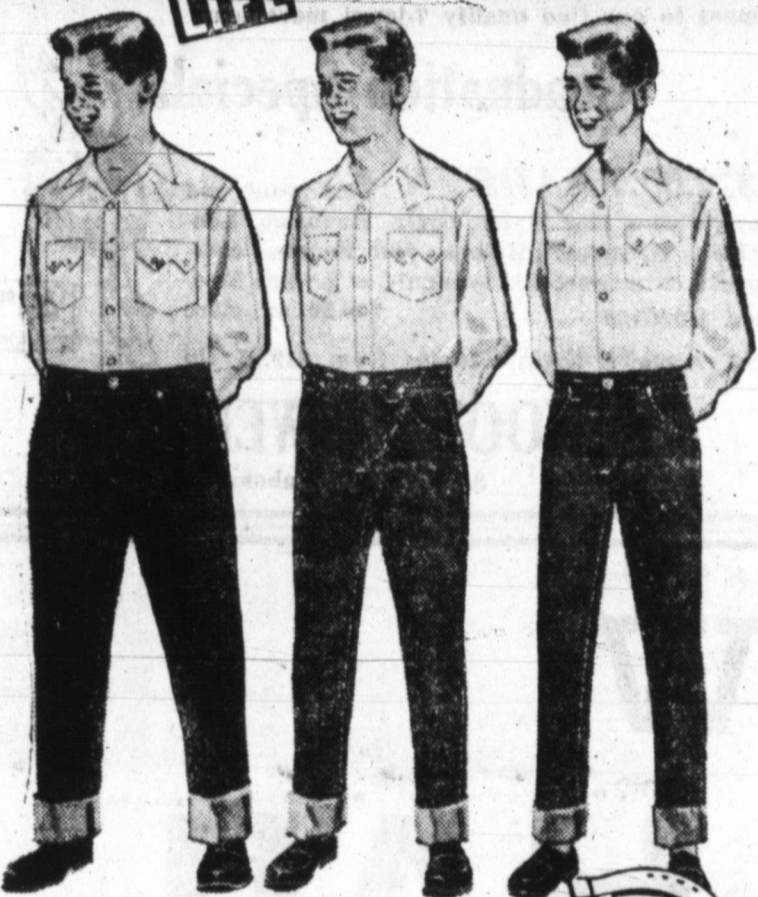

3. If a producer has signed forms for compliance but when his corn and grain sorghum (planted) acreage is measured he has two acres over his permitted maximum feed grain acreage, is he out of compliance?

Ans. Yes, any acreage over that permitted for the farm nullifies the compliance contract. Producers should strive to stay within the acreage permitted by avoiding "hewing to the line" too closely.

4. If a producer decides to comply and his 1961 grain yields are larger than normal, what about disposition of the surplus grain?

Ans. The grain above normal production is ineligible for price support but may be either fed or sold on the open market.

5. If a producer does not comply with the 1961 feed grain program, is he eligible for price supports on crops other than feed grains?

Ans. Yes, the production of cotton, rice, wheat, flax, peanuts and soybeans are not affected by his status on feed grains.

6. A normal production of grain sorghum and corn is all that is eligible for price supports this year, does the normal production apply to oats and barley also?

Ans. No, the total amount of 1961 production of these grains can get price support loans, so long as the producer is in compliance on corn and sorghum.

7. Generally, the crops planted on diverted acreage cannot be harvested or grazed before January 1, 1962, is there any exception?

Ans. Yes, where wheat is fall planted on this land and the normal practice is to graze the crop, it may be grazed.

8. How will the diversion payments be divided on rented farms?

Ans. As a rule the division should be as the crops are shared. Other divisions may be agreed upon so long as the County ASC Committee determines such division to be fair to both parties.

9. Does the producer have any recourse on decisions made by his County Committee on payment rates or other vital provision for his farm?

Ans. Yes, he may appeal within 15 days mailing date of notice on acreage and payment rates to the State ASC Committee, whose decision is final.

10. Can other cash crops be planted on the acreage diverted from feed grains?

Ans. Yes, the Secretary of Agriculture has designated castor beans, sesame, safflower and sunflower as crops which may be planted. If this is done the producer will receive no diversion payment on such acreage.

11. If a producer has no corn and/or grain sorghum base, but has small grain (oats, barley or rye) will he be eligible for price supports on his 1961 small grain?

Ans. Yes, he is in compliance hence eligible for price supports.

12. Does sweet corn or popcorn

GRASSROOTS

By BILL GRIFFIN
County Agent

WATER IS NEEDED

Abundant soil moisture is especially important during the first growing season, and the trees should be watered whenever they need it. Pecan trees should be pruned to a central trunk with the side branches ultimately 6 to 8 feet above ground level. This provides good air movement in the grove, and eliminates the low limbs that could interfere with harvest. Where grazing is practiced, livestock eat the leaves from low hanging limbs and this results in poor quality pecans being mixed with good ones at harvest time.

A common plan is to plant permanent trees in 70-foot squares, with filler trees, usually of an early-bearing and prolific variety, in the center of each square. This provides an approximate spacing of 50 feet between trees. When the trees begin to crowd the center tree can be cut down, leaving the remaining trees 70 feet apart. The grower can decide at this time whether to cut out the so-called permanent trees or the fillers since the removal of either will leave the remaining trees in 70 foot squares. Planted trees often produce a few pecans by the eighth year, they may be expected to begin commercial bearing by the tenth year, to produce 100 to 150 pounds per tree by the fifteenth year, and annual yields will increase progressively as the trees increase in age and size.

Cover crops in a pecan orchard are helpful in maintaining soil fertility and they also provide grazing. Summer crops should be avoided because of competition with the pecan trees at a critical time. Winter cover crops are favored, but they should be grown during occasional years when the trees do not make a crop, or be planted late in the fall so that the pecan can be harvested before the cover crop makes substantial growth.

count in the base as feed grains, or affect 1961 planted acreage?

Ans. No, these are not considered as field corn.

13. Was cost-share for conservation practices on diverted acreage provided under the feed grain program?

Ans. Cost-share is permitted if ACP funds for a particular county are available and is approved by the County ASC Committee. No additional funds were provided for cost-share use.

That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you. (1 John 1:3)

Recently I read the story of Sardon Masih a sweeper in one of the hotels of a hill city among the mountains of Kashmir. Every afternoon he gathers around him the servants and cooks of that hotel and holds a sort of Bible class with them. He tells them about Jesus, the Savior of mankind.

We, too, are called to witness the love of God, and this is our great commission. When we have the divine light shining in our lives, we radiate it to others. We want to tell the story of what we have seen and known and experienced. We can tell what Christ has done for us. We experience overflowing joy when we witness about the redeeming love of the Son of God.

PRAYER: Our heavenly Father, give us strength and insight to use our wisdom and experience not for ourselves, but for others. Help us that they may become strong through our witness. Use us as witnesses to Thy Holy Word and to the redemptive power of Thy love. May Thy divine light shine on all who are still in darkness, that all men may accept Christ as their Redeemer and pray as He taught us, "Our Father who art in heaven... Amen."

Three Win 3-AA Track Events

Three Tahoka tracksters qualified for the regional track meet by winning first and second places in the 3-AA track meet held at Denver City Saturday.

Lester Ford won the mile run with a time of 5:07.6, and Buddy Chestnutt came in first in the 440-yard dash clocked at 57.6. Frank Greathouse qualified for regional by winning second in the 800-yard dash.

The meet was hampered by high wind, which slowed down the times in the racing events.

Tahoka placed in other events as well, although Denver City outclassed all other schools by qualifying for regionals in every event except those won by Chestnutt and Ford.

Greathouse took third place in high hurdles; Craig Leslie tied for fifth with David Pruitt of Stanton in pole vault; Chestnutt placed fifth and Merrill Cloe sixth in low hurdles; and Leslie came in fourth in broad jump.

The Tahoka relay team, composed of Chestnutt, Ford, Andy Bray and Fred Hegi, placed third in the mile relay.

O. A. Corley of Glenrose visited over the week end with his daughter, Mrs. Jimmy Dulin who is a patient in Tahoka Hospital. He was accompanied by Elder A. D. Wood who preached Sunday at the Primitive Baptist Church. The two returned to Glenrose Monday. Also visiting Mrs. Dulin Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Carley Puckett, Paula and Agnes of Abilene.

Linda Caswell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noel Caswell, was dismissed from Tahoka Hospital Tuesday where she had been hospitalized with pneumonia.

Rev. Patschke To Speak At Wilson

The Rev. Arbie Patschke of Thorndale, Texas and a missionary for the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod in Japan, is home on furlough and will speak Sunday, April 16, at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Wilson.

He will give a colored slide lecture at 9:30 a. m. of the mission work in Japan, and at 10:30 a. m. will deliver the message in the church service on the theme "The Church's Task in a World of Crisis."

Missionary Patschke has spent seven years in the Japan mission field. He was responsible for the evangelization of the northern and northeastern areas of Hokkaido. By following up Lutheran Hour in Asahigawa has now developed to the point where they were able to call their first national pastor. It is hoped that one of the 1960 Tokyo Seminary graduates will take this assignment.

Mrs. Patschke has assisted her husband in teaching English Bible classes, and conducting cooking classes for the ladies of the church.

Missionary Patschke is a native son of Texas being born and raised in the Thorndale area. He is a cousin to August Patschke and Mrs. Johnny Moerbe of the St. Paul congregation in Wilson.

Mrs. Jimmy Dulin is a medical patient in Tahoka Hospital where she was admitted Thursday of last week. She is expected to be released in a few days.

Wilson Church Opens "Lord's Acre Plan"

The official board of the Wilson Methodist Church has endorsed the "Lord's Acre Plan" which includes personal and financial dedication. A committee composed of Clarence Church chairman, Chester Swope and David Peterson has been appointed to work out details of the plan.

"Certain parts of a crop, certain acres of a farm, livestock or personal earnings will be dedicated to God," Rev. Thomas Bandy, pastor, said. "We can not do these things without also dedicating ourselves."

Church, Swope, and Peterson will study the possibilities of building a new church under this plan. The committee is ready to accept commitments at any time.

The Wilson Methodists used the same plan to build a new parsonage five years ago.

"The members of the church know the plan can work if each is dedicated," Rev. Bandy said.

Jackie Henry is a medical patient in Tahoka Hospital where he was admitted this week.

Local Shriners Attend Meeting

The Plaza Motel in Brownfield was the site of a dinner meeting held Wednesday, March 29, for area Shriners of Khiva Temple. Attending were special representatives, ambassadors and potentate's aides from Cochran, Lynn, Terry, Yoakum and Lubbock counties.

Attending from Tahoka were Lewis Allsup and Natt Park.

Also in attendance was the membership committee and members of the Divan of the Temple, including illustrious Potentate, Noble Mel Kruse of Amarillo.

Presiding at the meeting was Noble A. Earl Jones of Brownfield. Potentate Kruse made the principal address, pointing out that Khiva Temple is advancing on a broad front to do more for humanity, especially crippled children, in Khiva Temple's jurisdiction. Plans were made for a spring ceremonial to be held in Amarillo in May, and a fall ceremonial in Lubbock in November to initiate new candidates for the Shrine. Details on the Texas All-State Ceremonial to be held in Galveston May 11 to 14 were revealed. Many area Shriners and their ladies are expected to be aboard the special Santa Fe Train when it carries the Khiva delegation of about 300 to Galveston. Plans were also discussed for the special bus trip to the Imperial Session of the Shrine of North America to be held in Miami, Florida in June.

As Potentate Kruse explained, "We in the Shrine enjoy lots of fun and fellowship in our ceremonial, social affairs, trips, etc., but we each feel that we must do something to earn the privilege of that fun and fellowship, through helping crippled children to walk. Remember, a Shriner never stood so straight as when he bent over to help a crippled child."

Noble Ralph Krebbs, membership chairman from Lubbock, who arranged the meeting, explained "The best way the Shriners in this area can help Khiva Temple in its wonderful work, is by getting new members which is the life's blood of any organization."

Mrs. Zella McCoy was admitted to Tahoka Hospital Tuesday where she is a medical patient.

George Short was admitted as a medical patient to Tahoka Hospital Monday.

DROUTH ERASES PUEBLOS

The Pueblo Indians who lived in Colorado's Wetherill Mesa before America was colonized, apparently were skilled farmers and hunters. Excavators have unearthed thousands of corn kernels, cobs and stalks, squash rinds and seeds, beans, and animal and bird bones. But the time of plenty did not last. A great drouth came at the end of the 13th century, and the cliff-dwellers soon faded into oblivion.

Check Snakes, Birds And Boats

Austin-Spring is here in full bloom. Birds are pairing off, snakes are coming out and boats are being put into the water.

These things are of special significance to the Game and Fish Commission, according to Howard Dodgen, executive secretary.

Concerning birds, he suggests every person who is interested in bird life get a copy of the "Field Guide to the Birds of Texas" by Roger Tory Peterson, who prepared this handbook especially for bird lovers of Texas. It contains pictures and descriptions of 592 Texas birds. There also are many color plates. These books are available now from the Game Commission in Austin at the publication price of $3 each, post-paid. Fewer than 7,000 copies remain of the first printing of 25,000. After they are gone, the book will be published again for retail trade at $4.95 each. If you are interested in a book on "The Mammals of Texas," the Commission has one for 50 cents postpaid. It was prepared by Dr. William Davis of Texas A&M College.

The subject of snakes and boats also bring a warning from the secretary. Not all snakes are poisonous, but extreme care should be used when going into the woods. And as to boats, every person getting into a boat should be certain there is an adequate life preserver in it for his personal use. This one bit of caution might save a life.

School Board Poll Results Are Told

A summary of a survey of local school board attitudes toward education legislation conducted by the "Texas Committee of Ten" has been submitted to the Tahoka school board, showing the outcome. The committee is one appointed by Governor Price Daniel several years ago to conduct such a survey.

The issues facing the legislature and the schools in Texas were those that were presented 1,050 public school districts in Texas which provide a 12-grade school program. A total of 561 of these district boards (53 percent of total) from 219 counties, governing about two-thirds of Texas Public School scholastics and teachers, responded to the survey.

Supt. Otis Spears said that the local school board participated in the program and voted with the majority on every issue. New Home and Wilson boards in Lynn county also participated.

Following were the issues involved and the way the board voted:

Minimum salary increase: 359 (64 percent) favored $800 increase; 132 (23 1/2 percent) favored $600 increase; 47 (8 percent) $400 increase; and 20 (3 1/2 percent) favored some other amount. Over 99 percent favored a pay raise of some kind.

Administrators' Salary increase: 176 (31 percent) boards favored increase; 32 (6 percent) boards opposed.

Assistant superintendents: 141 (25 percent) boards favored adding this position to the personnel. 249 (44 percent) boards reported that they are presently paying teachers above state minimum salary in their school districts).

Transportation: 472 (84 percent) boards favored increasing the per bus allotment by $380 per year.

Foundation school funds: 428 boards (76 percent) favored the allocation of foundation funds on the basis of current average daily attendance. 420 (75 percent) favored increasing the professional unit reimbursement to $500 while retaining the present $100 per unit credit.

Definition of Scholastic: 444 boards (79 percent) favored re-defining a scholastic as a "pupil within scholastic age in ADA the next preceding scholastic year" and the distribution of per capita apportionment on this basis.

Compulsory attendance: 433 (77 percent) favored extending the period of compulsory attendance to the full school year.

Permanent school fund: 289 51 1/2 percent favored expanding the investment authorization for the PSF to include corporate stock and bonds. 195 boards (35 percent) favored retaining the present limitations on the investment of the fund.

School district consolidation: 349 (62 percent) favored a consolidation incentive payment for school building or retirement of bonded indebtedness for a 10 year period.

State Department of Education: 307 (55 percent) favored financing the operation of the State Department from Foundation Program Funds.

Sick leave: 458 (82 percent) favored accumulating to 30 days, to the provisions of the minimum foundation school program.

Special service personnel: 444 boards (79 percent) favored amending the MFP personnel formulas to provide more special service personnel (librarians, nurses, counselors, etc).

Frontier Days Plans Parade

Plans are being made for the Frontier Days parade to be held on Thursday, April 27, the first day of the three-day rodeo.

Businessmen and individuals are urged to enter floats in the parade. Contrary to a statement made in the News last week, floats entered by business institutions are invited to use any advertising they desire.

Entered in the parade are five sheriff's posses, three bands, four schools, boats, jeeps, golf carts, cowboys, and 50 contestants in the rodeo events, as well as "pretty girls and old maids," according to Chamber of Commerce officials.

Also riding in the parade will be the six candidates for rodeo queen, Sandra Lumsden, a new entry of Wilson, Sharon Blakney of New Home, Linda Applewhite, Mary Jane McCord, Iris Gayle Tyler and Nedra Roberts, all of Tahoka.

At the rodeo arena, seating capacity will be available for 750 people. Advance tickets may be bought from the queen candidates at a lower price than those sold at the gate.

Making an advance visit to Tahoka this week was Billy Gene King, who will be the clown during the three-day rodeo. He will come here with the HK Rodeo Co. of Snyder, which is furnishing the stock. King was featured in the recent San Antonio Livestock Show and Rodeo, along with Roy Rogers and Dale Evans, which appeared on television, has worked with the Rodeo Cowboys Association and will continue to work with it again this fall. He has also worked with a company in Eugene, Ore. and recently appeared at a rodeo in Middletown, Ohio. He is also contracted to appear at the Odessa and Big Spring events later this spring. King was born in Colorado, and was raised in South Dakota and Calico Rock, Ark. He is presently making his home in Anton.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon in Pueblo, Colo. for Paul Cathcart, 59, who died there Sunday at 8:00 p. m.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Cathcart of Tahoka, he was raised in Tahoka and lived here until moving away about 35 years ago. He visited here with his parents and relatives about two years ago.

Mr. Cathcart was a mechanic in Pueblo and was a member of the Masonic Lodge.

Survivors include his wife and four sons; four brothers, Ivan, Bill, and Coy of Tahoka, and Rob of Dallas; and three sisters, Mrs. Myrtle Hardy of San Angelo, Mrs. Ruby Pace of San Diego, Calif., and Mrs. Janell Fleming of Roswell, N. M.

Those attending the funeral services were his three brothers from Tahoka and Mrs. Hardy of San Angelo.

after another piles up the damning evidence against Maxine and draws the noose tighter around her neck. Furthermore, Maxine seems ready to admit guilt rather than to reveal her past. But something in Maxine catches the sympathy of the girl prosecutor although she is trying to send her to the chair. Then, as the young attorney for the defense continues her probing, events begin to break. There's a sudden and dramatic shift of roles, and when things look blackest for Maxine, a surprise witness takes the stand, and the mysterious past begins to clear up. But over Maxine's protests and objections! This fascinating play holds the interest from curtain rise to end.

The cast is as follows: Maxine Lowe, the defendant, Mary Jane McCord; Warren Cass, State's Attorney, Stanley Krause; Jessalyn Meredith, assistant to State's Attorney, Gail Phillips; James Hathaway attorney for the defense, Buddy Chestnutt; The Honorable John Weston, Judge of Superior Court, Frank Greathouse; Eve Vignon, night club entertainer, Peggy Polk; Vincent Barclay, a hotel proprietor, Billy Cain; Minnie Strauss, a maid, Kay Parker; Dr. Fredrick Milgrim, medical examiner, James Ghormley; Rose Malone, from the South, Susan Thomas;

Rev. Conrad Tells Rotary Of "Cuba, Communism And Us"

"Cuba, Communism and US," was the subject of an address at Tahoka Rotary Club Thursday noon of last week by Rev. Howard Conrad, who with his family spent three years in that country before having to leave last July. He was back there in December on a business mission. A missionary for the Nazarene Church, he expects to be sent to Peru, within the next few weeks.

Rev. Conrad has spent much time at Grassland since returning, his wife being a Murray, but he is a native of Kansas.

Cuba is definitely Communist, he declared, despite the efforts of some news men, casual visitors, and others to raise doubts about this fact.

He said Fidel Castro's whole background is Communist. And Rev. Conrad was there and saw the break-down following the revolution which brought Castro to power. To know what the real Cuba is thinking and doing, he said, one has to know the common man. When he went there the people were very friendly, happy, carefree. Now they are serious, speak to know one, look behind them as they walk down the street to see if someone is following.

There is distrust everywhere, there are secret police everywhere, even children are acting as spies on each other, and there is little freedom of any kind. There is controlled thinking through press, radio and television, the truth is suppressed, news is slanted to the Communist line, and outright lies are fed the people constantly.

He says the Communist devaluation of the individual, making the state supreme, should have some political significance to us. Everything is controlled by the government. The purpose of education, state controlled, has become to indoctrinate the people. The whole economy is controlled; people are starved into submission. Communism advances best on an empty

Former Resident Dies In San Antonio

Mrs. Minnie Parker, 67, formerly of Tahoka died in San Antonio more than a month ago, and was buried there on March 2, according to Mrs. Cubanna Keltner Daniel, a sister-in-law.

Mrs. Parker left here more than a year ago after having lived here several years. She was a sister of the late D. Daniel, a nephew and two nieces live in San Antonio.

stomach. It makes people absolutely dependent on the State for food and clothing. Man is an animal and has no rights except as he can be used by the State. Traditional standards of morality are undermined.

Economically, the low classes are little better off than before Communism, but middle and upper classes have been reduced to poverty. Politically, everything is absolutely run by Communists. There is fear on every hand.

He said Fidel Castro is not running Cuba today. The rebble-rouser has lost his charm. An Argentine Communist is the real power, along with the Russian Embassy. Hundreds of Russian Communists have come into the country and may be seen all over the land in charge of every activity.

"What lessons could we learn from Cuba?" he asked, and proceeded to outline a few of his thoughts on the subject.

America has a lack of purpose, he believes. We have reached a peak, we are a proud people, smug, rich, and have achieved the

RA's Meet For Work On Ranks

The Royal Ambassadors of Tahoka First Baptist Church met Wednesday night of last week at 7:00 p. m. at the church with five present.

Each RA worked on ranks. Present were Ronnie Eford, Stanley Price, P. D. Kenley, Johnny Hillhouse, and the counselor, J. T. Miller.

All boys between the ages of 13 and 17 are all urged to attend.

utmost. Now we are defending the "status quo." You begin to fail when you reach this state, he declared. We must find some purpose for an offensive.

We lack the proper propaganda, and we are missing the point a long way. Our propaganda, our foreign aid programs, our good will ambassadors all aim at the intellectual, the upper classes. We're in a battle for the minds of the poor, the ignorant, the common man—not the upper crust. Television and washing machines mean nothing to a hungry man.

We need to work with these lower classes, the ones ripe for Communism, and offer help on a realistic level. Our government has gotten in trouble siding with some international leaders simply because the men in power opposed Communism, when in fact these leaders were corrupt—a fact the poor people realized.

Our best ambassadors are not the professional government ambassadors and the play-boy sight-seers, but those who are associated with missions and schools.

Cuba, with help from Russia, he declared is pouring millions into a program to Communize other Latin American countries, and is preparing for possible revolution in any number of other Latin countries.

Rev. J. B. Thompson and Leighton Knox arranged the program, and Knox introduced the speaker.

Student guests for the month are Fred Hegi and Perry Flippin, and these young men were introduced by Granvel Ayer and Pete Hegi, respectively.

Blankenship Is Water Director

Three area men were recently sworn in as members of the Board of Directors of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District.

LIQUID FERTILIZER Applicator - Cultivator

GAUGE-WHEEL DRIVE UNIT—This is just one of the many types of Liquid Fertilizer Applicator-Cultivator units you'll find at your local Liquid Fertilizer Dealer. A highly versatile piece of equipment—with it you can fertilize before you plant, you can rig-up to fertilize and plant at the same time, side-dress and cultivate, and you can even apply insecticides as you cultivate and side-dress. See your local Liquid Fertilizer dealer and let him show you how easy it is to own a multiple-use unit.

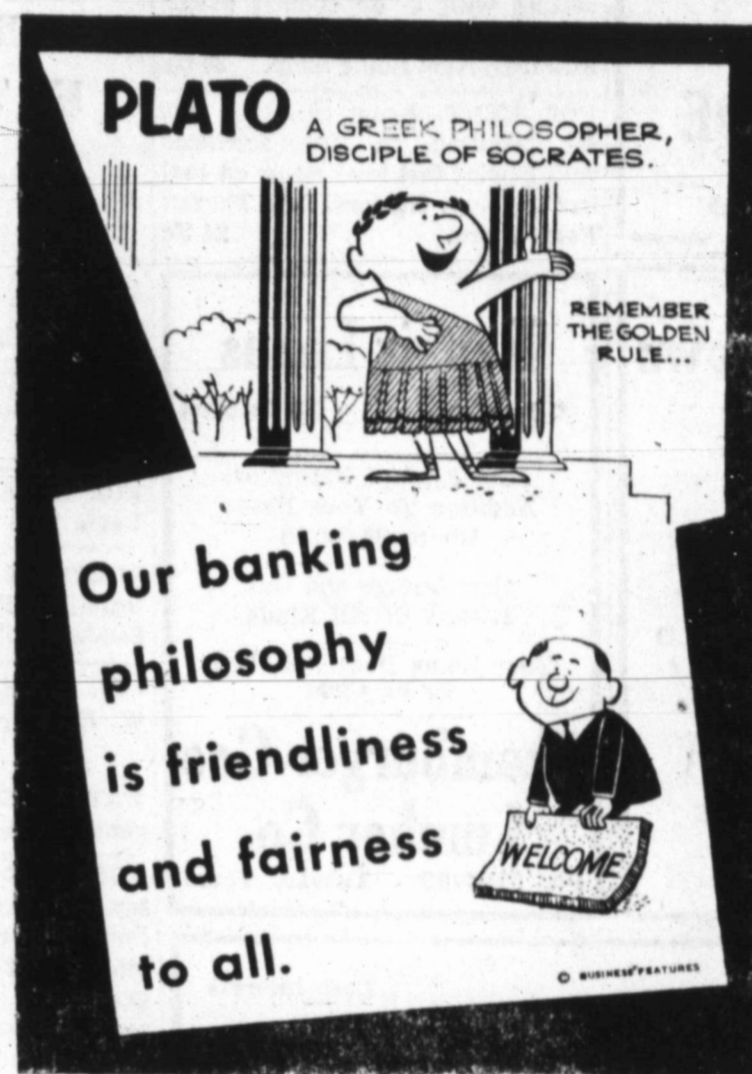

THE WORKHORSE—This tank takes the work out of fertilizing. It is loaned to the farmer to haul his fertilizer to the field. Mounted on the tank is a pump and gasoline motor. The nozzle, which weighs about fifteen pounds, on the end of the hose, is the heaviest thing the farmer has to lift when he is loading his Liquid Fertilizer applicator. Why be old-fashioned in modern day farming . . . use Liquid Fertilizers and let pumps and motor do the work for you. Liquid Fertilizer is never under pressure and it is not dangerous to handle.

Winston Redwine, who has been here visiting his mother and other relatives, is leaving this week end for California. Talking with him the other day brought back many old memories, as it always does when one sees an old class mate.

Winston, who was "one of the gang," provided our crowd with more entertainment than all the movies, parties, and school activities combined. Not only was he always filled with wit, he was filled with music. When there was nothing to do (which was often), we gathered at someone's house—the Fenton's, Applewhite's, Redwine's and our own—any place that had a piano.

We still think no one could play the piano like Winston. He would begin playing (once we had convinced him he should—for he was a modest boy) and would play continuously for hours, going from one current hit to another, throwing in some Bach and Chopin and boogie, without ever looking at a sheet of music.

Then there were the days when we congregated at the Redwine's and warmed up the old reed organ. Everyone took turns pumping while Winston pulled out everything that organ had to offer. Incidentally, Mrs. Redwine still has the 70-year old organ, which has been in their family 54 years.

What Tahoka needs is more Winston Redwines. We can truthfully say he did more back in the 1940's to keep young people off the streets and out of cars than any other single factor.

Newspapers were defined thusly by the little six-year-old girl named Diana in a letter to a West Coast newspaper:

"Newspapers. We need them so we can know who reks and who drowns and who shoots somebody. And who wants a house or who died or gets a baby. It tells if your dog is lost. They are good on shelves and to make bond fires. They also do good under a baby's plate to keep dogs offa things. You can wrap potato peelings in em. You tell one when you defrost. They tell about shows and how much things are."

To which the editor of the paper added: "P. S. Diana, they also are good to swat things with, like flies and public officials and things."

A sign in front of a church at Brady: "CH - CH—What is missing?" Answer is UR.

Election Sidelights: Sonny and Dot Roberts were coming out of City Hall Tuesday of last week after casting their votes in the City election, in which Sonny's name appeared on the ballot for councilman. They met Mrs. Billie Thuren and six-year-old Shannon going to the polls. Said Shannon to her second cousin, "I'm sorry I can't vote for you, Sonny. I'm going to vote for Nixon."

Farm Facts

It has been said that a modern supermarket stocks food from each of the 50 states, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands.

Wherever we live, we depend on farms and ranches from other sections, providing an important market for their products.

Farms in the nine North-eastern states contain only 6/10 of an acre of crop and pasture land per capita, as compared with the national average of 3.3 acres.

These are the states of Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, and Vermont.

People in these states consume 27% of the nation's meat, vegetables, fruits, and nuts, and 28% of the poultry, eggs, and dairy products.

They produce only 3% of the meat, 15% of the vegetables and melons, 10% of the fruits and nuts, and about 20% of the poultry, eggs, and dairy products.

They provide a market for the 12 North Central states which produce more than they can use. The North Central states produce 63% of the meat, 35% of the poultry and eggs, and 44% of the dairy products, while consuming 35%, 30%, and 34%, respectively.

But the point is, our entire attention is focused upon climbing on the box and not upon its original purpose.

The soap box was made to carry soap. Soap was made for the purpose of sanitation and cleanliness.

Before we try to clean up the rest of the world or just a small corner of it, standing on the carrier of soap, maybe we had better give the bathtubs a little of our own business first.

At first glance, a stranger in town might assume that he is travelling through a portion of the old Wild West and would be only mildly surprised to see Matt Dillon stalk down the middle of the street and drop a lawless cowboy.

But them days is gone fo-evah, strangah. It's just the boys whooping it up and getting ready for Frontier Days in Tahoka later this month.

Never have we seen such growths of chin whiskers. Some of our law abiding citizens look positively terrifying.

My vote goes to Otis Hillhouse for being absolutely the blindest barber in town. In fact, these days, he'd look much more at home on a "Wanted" poster than behind that chair.

There's just one way to keep that face showing and at the same time stay out of the tank, boys. You can plunk down two and a half bucks for a permit to use your straight-edge.

Congratulations to our long-time friend, A. I. Thomas, who will be 91 years old on Friday, April 21. He is not only one of Tahoka's finest senior citizens but has lived in Tahoka for a total of 53 years, having come here in 1908. So happy birthday to you.

Several years ago, Joe D. was on the food committee when the dedication ceremonies were held for New Home Community Center. It was early summer, and nearly all the farmers were busy planting. As luck would have it, most of those attending the ceremonies were from out-of-town. Joe D. had bought boxes and boxes of cookies for the event, most of which were left over.

The next morning Dale was called to the Unfred farm to service a sprayer, and as he arrived, Joe D. rushed out of the house and insisted over and over again that Dale sky-high with breakfast—left-over colored cookies.

Finally Dale consented to have a cup of coffee, but did a little tinkering with the sprayer before going in. In the meantime, Joe D. rushed inside, got his wife and children out of bed and into their robes. When Dale entered, wife and children were drowsily sitting around the kitchen table piled sky-high with breakfast—colored cookies.

What this country has is a good five cent soap box. Having no particular reason to stand on one this week, and also having been given the job of filling up this column in the absence of its writer, let's take a look at the box itself.

A soap box is approximately two feet square and is made from unfinished, splintery wood. It is not ornate, polished, or even painted. And yet it has held more people in its time than a bathtub has.

Most of us run from an invitation to make a speech, but all of us welcome the opportunity to climb upon the well-worn soap box. We all have a crow to pick, a cause to proclaim or an egg to hatch. And rarely has anyone ever climbed down from one without taking with him some of the splinters from its boards.

The soap box is the essence of the American way of life—Democracy. But some of us don't seem to realize the responsibility we assume when we climb upon it.

The politicians use it to every advantage. They plead, they shout, and they promise. The rest of us use the soap box because we are either for something or against it.

Farm Facts

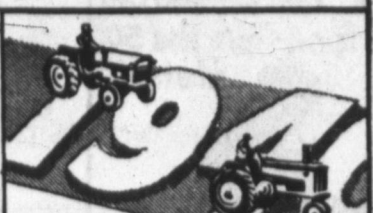

In 1960 there were some 4,770,000 tractors on U. S. farms. This compares with 3,567,000 in 1940 and 3,394,000 in 1950. The value of these tractors totaled almost $3.4 billion in 1960 as compared with $503 million in 1940.

The average man is rated at 1/10 horsepower, but when he drives a 20 h.p. tractor he is able to do the work of 200 men.

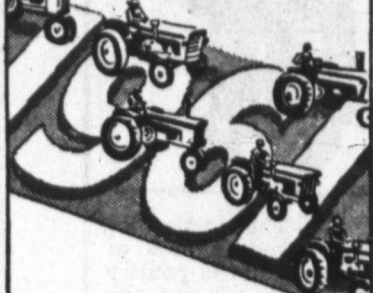

The tractor era had its beginning in this country in 1889 when a single cylinder Charter engine was installed on a steam traction engine chassis. There were about 1,000 tractors in the U. S. in 1910—huge 10-ton machines used for prairie plowing.

Henry Ford placed a car engine on a light tractor chassis in 1908 and when he mass produced a low cost tractor in 1919, he captured 75% of the market. The independent power takeoff shaft was added in 1941, greatly increasing the tractor's usefulness.

Greater maneuverability, easier transportation, lower cost, and ease of attachment of mounted implements have stepped up their use since World War II. Tractors, too, have been designed for greater adaptability. They range in size from small garden tractors to giant crawler types.

Steady Dating Problems Aired

Steady dating among youth of our community has declined during the past four years. Young people are beginning to realize that going steady limits their opportunity of choice, limits friendships and puts a ceiling on their development.

Going steady tends to lead to earlier marriage. The longer a couple dates, the harder it is to branch out into new friendships. One of the reasons for going steady is the security of always having a date. Belonging to someone is also important during the dating years. Often a couple will marry after going steady simply out of habit. When steady dating is started too soon you deprive yourself of the opportunity of associating with others. You get settled so soon that you may later look wistfully at the kinds of people whom you might have dated had you not been in such a hurry to go steady.

Dangers of going steady are that one or the other may become too possessive, you begin to feel fenced in, and it is hard to break up without hurting someone. But the greatest danger in steady dating is emotional involvement. A couple cannot be constantly together without a great emotional strain. The dating period should be started only after the boy or girl understands the emotional changes that take place during the growing up period. Mate selection is an important part of happy marriages. To limit your choice by not having a variety of possibilities is limiting your chances for happiness in marriage. —Citizens Committee for Youth.

Pre-School Day Is Friday, April 21

Next Friday, April 21, is pre-school day in Tahoka when prospective first graders go to school for one morning to get acquainted with the teachers, the rooms and the school plant itself.

All children who will be six years old on or before Sept. 1, 1961 should attend the event. J. B. Howell, principal of South Elementary, said.

However, the orientation program will end at 11:45 a. m., immediately following the children's lunch hour, and no bus room will be provided for them. They must be picked up at that time.

Also, either a parent or other responsible adult should accompany the youngsters to pre-school day. Children may eat in the cafeteria for 25 cents and parents for 30 cents.

TOWER PORTABLE TYPEWRITER, nearly new, a trade-in, only $55.00 at The News.

Sarah Wells, Mrs. H. H. Hewlett, and Mrs. Cleve Littlepage were in charge of registration.

The group would like to express their gratitude to the First Methodist Church for the use of its kitchen and to Lyntegar Electric Co-op for the use of kitchen and assembly room.

Ribbons were presented by the Home Demonstration Council.

Special School Has Party Recently

The Lynn County Special School had an Easter party for the children on Thursday, March 30. Mrs. Bob Woodrum of Lamesa was the hostess for this occasion.

Mrs. Natt Park made a beautiful Easter tree for the event. It was a real tree about four feet tall and decorated with bird's nest and Easter eggs with the children's names on them.

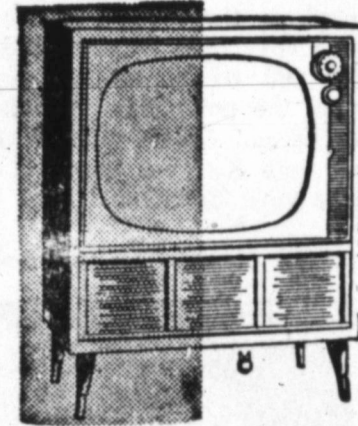

The weather was too damp to go to the park so the children and teacher played the piano and sang Easter songs in the music room while the mothers hid the Easter eggs in the class room and work shop. Every child filled his basket with eggs and rabbits. Then the children were seated at a long decorated table and served cupcakes topped with rabbits, soda pop and other goodies following which games were played and every body went home happy and inspired.—Margaret Renfro, teacher.
