Tahoka To Host Rotary Assembly

The District Assembly of District 573 Rotary International will meet in Tahoka Saturday in the high school auditorium, according to H. B. McCord, Jr., president of Tahoka Rotary Club. It is the first district meeting to be held here since about 1942.

About 100 out-of-town Rotarians from 43 clubs in Northwest Texas, are expected to attend. Bruce M. Pember of Slaton is District Governor and is in charge of the all day event.

Registration will begin at 8:00 a. m. followed by a get acquainted coffee. Various addresses will be made throughout the day, and lunch will be served at 12:00 noon at the City-Legion Hall.

The program includes the invocation by Robert J. Hearn, president elect of Southwest Lubbock Rotary Club; a song session led by Fred Carpenter, president elect, Dumas Rotary Club, accompanied by Don Baugos, pianist, of Hereford.

District Governor Pember will speak on "Getting Organized for the Year," Fredric DeVries of Slaton on "Using Rotary Tools Effectively," C. H. Smith of Plainview, "Special Techniques in Giving Rotary Information to Club Members," L. E. "Pat" Patterson, Midland, District Governor nominee, "The Need for a Well Balanced Program."

McCord will preside at the luncheon and Rev. J. B. Thompson of Tahoka will give the invocation. Fred Hegl, Tahoka, will provide organ music introduced by Dale Thuren with "The Making of a Rotarian." Other entertainment will be provided, including a square dance group from North Elementary School.

Discussion groups will follow the noon hour with the presidents elect of the various clubs participating with Pember acting as moderator. At the same time secretaries elect will hold discussion groups with J.-J. Maxey of Slaton as moderator.

The general assembly will be held at 3:30 p. m., beginning with a sing song led by Fred McGinty of Tahoka and accompanied by Susan Thomas, pianist and Tahoka Rotary Sweetheart. The group will select the location of the 1962 conference city. Rex Webster of Lubbock, past District Governor, will discuss "Our Magazine."

The meeting will be climaxed by an address by C. L. Kay of Lubbock Christian College at 4:20 p. m. The public is invited to attend this final session.

George Short, 84, Dies Saturday

George Walter Short, 84, one of the last of the West Texas old-time cowboys, died at 8:40 p. m. Saturday in Tahoka Hospital. He had been in failing health for several months.

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p. m. Monday in the First Methodist Church with Rev. J. B. Thompson, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Tahoka Cemetery under direction of Stanley Funeral Home.

Mr. Short was born March 31, 1877 at Mount Airey, North Carolina. He married Miss Ora L. Caton on June 24, 1902 in Jones county and the couple came from there to Lynn county in 1907. A retired farmer and cowboy, Short was one of the few remaining colorful people that pioneered this area. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

Survivors include his wife of Tahoka; one daughter, Mrs. Lelia McMillan of Tahoka; one son, Oran W. of Tahoka; one sister, Mrs. Emma Anderson of Fort Worth; four brothers, Alfred E. of Meadow, Jim, Marcus and Oscar, three grandchildren, and four great grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Roy White, Vernon Wilhoit, Garland Pennington, John Fulford, J. E. Nance and Beecher Sherrod.

The J. O. Allens have gone to Lampasas for the annual family reunion which is held in the park there.

County Faces Necessity Of More Money For Operation

Petitions are being circulated calling for an election in Lynn county proposing an election on a proposal for a 15-cent special road and bridge fund tax to meet an emergency in county finances.

For ten years, states County Judge W. M. Mathis, the county has been operating on virtually the same amount of tax money. Rising costs in just about every field during this period have finally caught up with the county budget, and something has to be done.

Most counties in this area have this tax, and some have another 30-cent tax in addition.

The Commissioners Court has two alternatives. It can either call for an election for an increased tax, which should raise about $16,000 in new money, or it will have to raise property valuations to get this amount.

The latter is not feasible, because to get the $16,000 for the county by a raise in valuations, will cost taxpayers an additional $30,000.

Here's what happens when a county raises its valuations. Under the state school aid law, when

Little League Meeting Sunday

"The time of the year calls for 'play ball' and our Little League is far from ready," according to Charles Reid.

To begin making preparations for Little League play, a special meeting has been called at 2:00 p. m. Sunday in the City Legion Building, and everyone is urged to attend.

"Unless a sincere effort is made by Tahoka citizens now, we may be back to sand lot ball this year," Reid continued. He issued an urgent appeal to sponsors, men, women, high school boys and girls to attend the meeting Sunday.

Workers are needed for Little League play this summer, including umpires, coaches, managers, score keepers, announcers, as well as concessions stand operators. A special instruction class will be up for the workers before league play begins.

All boys who have not registered are asked to see Johnny Wells at Tahoka Drug, who will enroll them in Little League. Boys must bring their birth certificates with them. However, boys who have registered before do not have to register again, either for Little League or Fony League.

Pony League Meeting Monday

All men of the county interested in Pony League baseball, fathers, sponsors, coaches, managers, and others, are asked to meet next Monday night at 7:30 o'clock in Tahoka City Hall for the purpose of getting the program started this year.

Representatives are requested from Tahoka, O'Donnell, Wilson, and New Home especially, according to Harold Green and Dean Taylor.

New officers, including president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and player agent, are to be elected.

Play must start on May 9, and a tentative schedule has already been set up for games on Thursday and Friday nights.

There will be six teams in play this year, two each from Tahoka and O'Donnell and one each from New Home and Wilson.

MRS. DONALDSON INJURED

Mrs. J. D. Donaldson Sr. fell at her home April 13 when she received a broken pelvis. She was admitted to Tahoka Hospital where she remained until Monday when she returned to her home. However, she will be confined to her bed several days.

Clean-Up Drive Will Be Revived

Since Tahoka's recent city clean-up campaign was interfered with by the weather, a renewed effort to clean up the town will be made soon, states Mayor Meldon Leslie. Dates for a major trash pick-up will be announced soon.

In the meantime, citizens are asked to cooperate by placing everything they want hauled to the alley and to remove everything they want saved from these alleys. Old trees, car carcasses, cans, discarded and broken furniture, etc. will be picked up by city trucks.

Cleaning up premises now will not only help beautify the city but will also help prevent flies and mosquitoes later on, Mr. Leslie points out.

C. of C. Initiates Active Program

Reports were heard from committee chairmen on nine Chamber of Commerce projects Tuesday night at a meeting of directors. Under the direction of E. L. Short, president, the C. of C. has launched the most active program in years.

H. B. McCord Jr. reported on the Rotary Assembly being held here this Saturday, and declared at least 90 officers from 43 clubs in District 573, which extends from Dalhart, Dumas and Borger on the north to Odessa, Midland and Big Spring on the south, will be here. The C. of C. has sent these prospective visitors letters of welcome, will issue them rodeo tickets, and asks that citizens of Tahoka do everything possible to make the guests welcome.

Short reported on help being given the Rodeo Association in the staging of the show, booster trips, parade, etc.

Progress of a drive for a livestock show barn was reported on by W. T. Kidwell. Petitions have been circulated by several county groups for a bond election for a $35,000 project, provided Lynn County Fair Association puts proceeds from sale of its Highway 87 right-of-way property into a county fund.

Rodeo Boosters Visit 16 Towns

Eleven cars of boosters in cowboy and cowgirl regalia advertising the Frontier Days rodeo here next week on Wednesday visited Post, Snyder, Gail, Lamesa, Seminole, Seagraves, and Brownfield.

Thursday, a similar group was visiting Wilson, Slaton, Idalou, New Deal, Shallowater, Levelland, Sundown, Meadow and New Home.

In each town a fake robbery was pulled by "outlaw" Jimmy McMillan, who was "gunned down" as he ran from a store with some lady's "unmentionables," two stretcher bearers picked up the "corpse," and the group pulled out for the next stop. Mrs. Mary Jean Holloway played the part of "Kitty," Butch Ingle played "Chester," but Matt Dillon must have been some other place.

The group reported a big time, no trouble except one flat tire, a safe driving bunch with no drinking, and a fine welcome was given in each town visited. In fact, the party was given police escort in each town.

MARCH OF DIMES

Some March of Dime containers used in the recent drive were overlooked when Boy Scouts were out collecting them, states H. B. McCord Jr., county chairman. Anyone having such containers in their places of business are asked to notify McCord, or send them to him.

The drive this year brought in a total of $2,600.00, McCord says.

Farmers Concerned About Grain Sorghum Program

Approximately 225 farmers attended a grain sorghum program meeting here Tuesday night in the District Court Room. Charles (Bud) Bragg, ASC office manager, and County Agent Bill Griffin discussed the different phases of the program and answered what questions they could in regard to it.

Interest and concern in the program is indicated by the fact that the meeting lasted about two and a half hours.

Most farmers seemed dissatisfied with the program, but most of them will probably go along with it for fear of penalties for non-compliance.

Three principal phases of the program seemed to worry the farmers the most.

First, is the low production rate assigned the county, based on yield for the years 1959 and 1960, which is only 1,221 acres, and most farmers claim they made much more than this. Average total acreage for the two years is listed at 198,828 acres for this county.

Complying farmers would get about $1.88 per hundred weight for their grain, while non-complying farmers will have to take their chances on the market, which Secretary of Agriculture Freeman proposes to keep at a low rate by throwing government surplus grain on the market.

Average farmers complying would draw $11.60 per acre for the first 20 percent of their grain acreage held out of production. If they elect to hold out another 20 percent acreage, the average farmer would draw $13.90 per acre on this grain held out.

Landowners who own more than one farm face another problem. If one of his tenants does not comply, the landlord will not be eligible for compliance on his other farms.

The third principal objection is the fear of farmers that such a program will be extended to cotton.

On retired acreage farmers will be permitted to plant sesame, castor-beans, safflower or sunflowers on land they take out of production and harvest these crops. No other crop on this land would be permitted to be harvested or grazed.

Airplane Rides For Cub Scouts

Tahoka Cub Scouts will meet at the local airport Saturday, April 22, at 10:00 a. m., when Seth Lewis will furnish a plane and pilot to take the boys on an airplane joy ride.

The boys must have a written permission signed by their parents or else a parent may go to the airport Saturday morning and give permission before take-off time, states John Ed Redwine, Cubmaster.

Mrs. Mary Stuart is a medical patient in Tahoka Hospital where she was admitted last week.

Lonnie Isbell was admitted to Tahoka Hospital Tuesday as a medical patient.

Plans Complete For Rodeo Next Week

Men are donning their 10-gallon hats, boots, guns and holsters, and women their blue jeans in preparation for the three-day Frontier Days rodeo to be held here Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 27, 28, 29.

Rodeo performances will be held each night at 8:00 p. m. in the arena on the southwest edge of Tahoka, and a parade will kick-off the event on Thursday at 6:00 p. m.

Highlighting the day's activities will be the naming of a rodeo queen who will reign over the three-day celebration. The winner will be determined by the number of tickets the candidates sell, which must be turned in no later than Thursday noon. That is also the deadline for contestants to enter the various rodeo events.

Headquarters have been set up on Sweet Street for the steering of the various activities.

Six entries have been announced in the queen contest, including Nedra Roberts, Iris Tyler, Linda Applewhite, Mary Jane McCord, all of Tahoka, Saundra Lumsden of Wilson, and Sharon Blakney of New Home.

Floats and other entries will appear in the parade, which will begin two blocks west of the post office, travel north on Sweet Street to the First Methodist Church, go to Main Street and return through town, ending on the O'Donnell Highway near Lewis Construction Company.

Eight riding groups have entered the parade, six sheriff's posses and one ladies riding group from out of town, and the Lynn county Sheriff's Posse.

Tahoka, Wilson, and possibly O'Donnell High School bands will join the parade, in addition to floats, cars, trucks, jeeps, and many other vehicles.

H&K Stock Producers will furnish stock, pick-up men, and the clowns for the rodeo events, which will feature bareback bronc riding, saddle-brone riding, tie-down calf roping, double mugging, Brahma bull riding, girls barrel race, ribbon roping for youths 16 years and under, and goat sacking for girls and boys 12 years and under.

Entry fee is $15.00 in the events except the barrel race, which is $10.00. These fees will be turned back to the contestants in prizes.

Billy King, professional clown and widely known in rodeo circles, will entertain those attending the rodeo performances. He will be assisted by Jim Rodent.

Tickets may be purchased from queen contestants for $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children. They will be sold at the gate for $1.25 for adults and 60 cents for children.

Oran Short will serve as arena director, "Son" Guinn will be flagman for ropers, timekeepers will be Welch Flippin and Mel Leslie. Lee Roy Knight will be in charge of barrel racing, ribbon roping and goat sacking. Rodeo judges will be picked by the contestants.

Sheriff's Posse members will direct traffic at the parking grounds and Tahoka Rodea Ass'n. wives will operate the concessions.

Jack Miller, Tahoka police chief, is president of the Tahoka Rodeo Ass'n., which has made plans for the rodeo in conjunction with Tahoka Chamber of Commerce. Harold Rowe is vice president of the association and Reuben McElroy is secretary.

Because this is the first rodeo to be held here in many years, officials ask that all area residents support the event so that it may become an annual affair.

A dance will be held each night following the rodeo at the City Legion building with music furnished by Jimmy Mackey and his band.

R. L. Richardson Is Buried Sunday

Rafe Lindzy Richardson, 69, retired Tahoka businessman, died at his home at 4:00 p. m. Friday, April 14. He had been in ill health several years with a heart condition.

Funeral services were held at the First Baptist Church Sunday at 2:30 p. m. with Rev. T. James Efford, pastor, Bob Barnes, minister of the Church of Christ, and Garnie Atkinson of Ropesville, officiating. Burial was in Tahoka Cemetery under direction of Stanley Funeral Home.

Born Aug. 9, 1891 at May, Texas. (Cont'd on Page 4)

Farm Meeting Next Tuesday

Tuesday, April 25, at 8:00 p. m. will be the final meeting in a five-session series of farm meetings held in Tahoka for area farmers when various problems have been discussed.

This last meeting will concern "Agricultural Outlook" and discussion will be held and information told on the trends of prices of crops and costs of operating a farm in conjunction with the current farm programs.

John Seibert, area farm management specialist, and Miss Mildred Webb, area home management specialist, both of Lubbock, will speak to the group on these topics.

All farmers in this area are urged to attend, according to County Agent Bill Griffin.

New Home Buys Lakeview Gin

A deal was consummated Tuesday whereby the Lakeview gin, owned by Ray Combs, has been sold to New Home Cooperative Gin for a reported $180,000. The News is informed. Farmers of the Lakeview area put up a substantial fund for the purchase.

In the future, the gin will be known as the Lakeview plant of the New Home Co-op.

The Cooperative will hold its annual membership meeting Tuesday night of next week, beginning with a dinner at 6:30 p. m. followed by the business meeting at 7:30 o'clock.

Officers and directors are: Wilmer Smith, president; E. R. Blakney, vice president; L. C. Unfried, secretary; Dick Turner, Walter Gasper, Morris Renfro, and Burr Morrow, directors. Terms of Blakney and Turner expire at this time. Bobby Carroll is the manager.

This past season, the gin handled a little more than 12,000 bales of cotton.

Morton Man Buys J. R. Autry Store

Mr. and Mrs. D. Boone from Morton have bought the grocery and market business of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Autry and Mr. and Mrs. Gail Estep on the west side of the square.

The Boones lived in Lubbock before moving to Morton. They are members of the Baptist Church, and are moving a mobil home to the lots just west of the Presbyterian Church.

The Autrys and Esteps have not announced their plans for the future, but expect to rest and fish before going back to work.

LITTLE LEAGUE FLOAT

All Tahoka Little League boys will ride in the rodeo parade next Thursday on a float provided by W. T. Kidwell of Piggly Wiggly. Boys are asked to come to the front of the City Hall at 4:30 p. m. and to be in the team uniforms if at all possible.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Stewart this week moved into their new home on North Seventh Street.

Insects And Diseases

Management also involves the control of insects and diseases. These pests either destroy the nuts, or they lower the capacity of the tree to produce and develop the nuts properly.

The most serious insect pest of the pecan is the pecan nut casebearer. It occurs nearly everywhere pecans are grown, but can be controlled by spraying. DDT, parathion, malathion, toxaphene and nicotine sulphate are recommended. The time to spray is during the 4 or 5 day period, usually in May, when young larvae first emerge and begin to attack nuts. The specific time to spray varies with the locality. Control is effective if the poison is applied to the pecan clusters.

WHAT'S NEW IN BOATING

By RUDY EVINS

Whether you're piloting a runabout, a cruising skipper or a fisherman it pays to have an anchor aboard at all times.

I guess many of us have been caught without an anchor or with a faulty line at one time or another and found ourselves in a bad way. The Evinrude Boating Foundation says that no matter what type of boat you use you need an anchor. What size and type you need depends on the size of your boat and the type of bottom you generally anchor in.

No matter what kind of anchor you have, be sure to have a well conditioned line secured to it and ready for use. You must always take into consideration the length of line you need. In moderate weather a safe ratio is six feet of line for every foot of water, although if your boat is light and there isn't much of a breeze or current, a ratio of three to one is sufficient for a time.

Before you anchor be sure that your line is attached to the anchor properly and that the other end is secured to the boat. Don't throw your anchor out, just lower it alongside your boat—"drop anchor." Be sure that your line doesn't have any knots in it and never stand in or on the coil unless you want to go with it. Sometimes you're going to want to beach your boat. If this is the case always bury your anchor in the sand on the beach a good distance from the boat or tie up to a tree. Never count on the beach alone. A good size wave or high tide might carry your boat to sea if you don't take the proper precautions.

Anchoring is important if you want your boat to stay in a certain place for any length of time. Always carry an anchor and a well-conditioned line because you never know when you'll need it.

Happy boating... and fishing, too.

ters. Spraying the leaves and limbs has little effect.

The pecan shuckworm damages pecans by tunneling in the shuck, which interferes with the proper nutrition of the developing nut. No satisfactory control is known, but covering by plow or otherwise destroying the first nuts that fall in midsummer reduces the chances of injury.

Pecan weevils, of the same group as the cotton boll weevil, attack pecans, and the punctured nuts either fall off or the kernel is destroyed by the developing larvae. Spraying with DDT solution prepared by adding 6 pounds of 50 percent wettable powder to 100 gallons of water whenever damage is being inflicted during the summer and early fall is the most effective treatment for weevils.

Destroy Leaves

Many leaf-injuring insects do serious damage to pecans. The walnut caterpillar, saw fly, leaf casebearer, fall webworm and different kinds of aphids are examples. They destroy leaves and reduce the capacity of the tree to manufacture the plant food necessary for growth, fruit bud formation and the formation, growth and maturity of the nuts.

Obscure scale sucks the sap from the tissues of limbs of pecan trees. It occurs generally on trees in most areas in Texas where pecans are grown. The small, scale-like insects completely cover the limbs, weakening them and, in extreme cases, causing death. This pest can be controlled by spraying in the late dormant season with 3 percent dormant oil emulsion.

Pecan scab, vein spot, downy spot, leaf blotch, liver spot and other diseases attack pecans. They are more destructive in humid areas, under conditions of poor ventilation, and some varieties are more susceptible than others. Plowing under old leaves, husks and nuts during the dormant season, and a well planned spray program using Bordeaux mixture, Zerlate, Karbam White, Dithane Z-78, Parzate and other preparations, are effective means of combating these diseases.

Deficiency of available zinc in the soil results in a serious and common physiological disease of pecan trees known as rosette. Soil applications of zinc sulphate are effective on acid or neutral soils, but spraying the leaves with dilute solutions of zinc sulphate is more satisfactory on basic soils.

Senator Preston Smith

The highway speed limit bill which I introduced in the Senate, and which the Senate passed, has resulted in gratifying comments from throughout the district.

The bill would permit turnpike authorities, county commissioners courts and the State Highway Department to zone up or down from the present speed limit of 60 miles per hour, depending on the type, condition and safety attributes of each road or highway.

I have always been convinced that highway safety factors could be improved by such a measure. There are many roads that cannot be safely traveled at 60 m. p. h. And there are many other new, modern four-lane-divided highways where 60 m. p. h. is not furnishing Texas motorists the most efficient and safe use of these modern facilities.

One public supporter of the bill is the Midland Reporter-Telegram, which editorially announced April 5:

"Congratulations to Senator Preston Smith of Lubbock for introducing his highway speed limit bill, and three cheers for the Texas Senate for passing it.

"This is sound, basic, up-to-date legislation which should become law during the current legislative session. It makes sense most any way one looks at it. It is difficult to understand the controversial aspects of the proposed measure.

"The Reporter-Telegram long has contended the speed limit should and must be based on the road and other factors, instead of a state-wide limit regardless of highway conditions.

"Why should the speed limit be the same on the straight, smooth, four-lane, divided highways through this particular section of state as on a winding, narrow, often slippery highway through the heavily wooded sections of East Texas?"

"Opponents of the measure surely must not be familiar with highway conditions as they exist in many sections of Texas, particularly in the wide-open spaces of West Texas. Perhaps a tour of the state should be arranged for the legislators who haven't had occasion to travel the Texas highways on which millions of dollars have been spent in recent years to make them safe for more and faster traffic. Let them travel U. S. 80 Highway through Midland and neighboring cities in order that they may see for themselves why Senator Smith's bill is practical."

Jerry Cain May Run For Office

Jerry Cain, 23, senior student in the University of Texas, is considering making the race next year for State Representative and reports he has been receiving encouragement from a number of people over the district. Counties in this district are Lynn, Dawson, Gaines, and Andrews.

For two years, while attending school, Cain has been assistant sergeant-at-arms of the Texas House of Representatives. As such he has had opportunity to work both on the floor and in committee rooms, gaining experience.

A graduate of Tahoka High School in 1956, he expects to get his degree this spring, following which he will enter Law School.

A new soil and water conservation plan is being developed on the L. B. Burk farm northeast of Grassland. The plan includes land leveling, proper use of irrigation water will be obtained by applying water to meet the needs of soils and crops. Fields being dry land farmed will be terraced and farmed on the contour.

An automobile invention that is greatly needed—brakes that get tight when the driver does.

More than 2,000 farmers and ranchers in 352 counties in the 10 Great Plains states made contracts with the U. S. Department of Agriculture to develop soil and water conservation plans for their lands during this fiscal year of 1960. These contracts covered more than 5 1/2 million acres. The program is designed to speed up soil and water conservation through a complete farm or ranch plan.

In carrying out their conservation plans under contracts ranging from three to 10 years, participants establish one or more of 24 practices eligible for cost sharing.

Farmers and ranchers interested in developing Great Plains contracts on their farms or ranches are urged to contact the Soil Conservation Service.

Farm Facts

There was a time when a "chicken in every pot" was held out as the goal of prosperity. Thanks to research and its application to poultry production, a chicken is no longer regarded as a luxury item on the food bill.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture points out that the broiler chick is the most efficient converter of grain and other food into flesh, requiring 2 1/2 pounds of feed to produce a pound of gain.

Many producers specialize the year-around in growing broilers. Processors use assembly line methods. Cut-quality chickens of uniform high quality is a large volume seller in supermarkets.

Between 1950 and 1958, when prices of most food products increased, the retail price of frying chickens dropped an average of 12c a pound.

And in 1959, as compared with the average for the years 1925-39, each of us was consuming 34.8 pounds of poultry instead of 15.8. It took researchers about

We're eating twice as much poultry as 25 years ago.

10 years to perfect a small, meaty turkey, and now some 12 million are sold a year. In 1959, we ate 6 pounds of turkey per person—twice as much as in 1940.

Everyday Religion

By R. Thompson

Henry Sloan Coffin once referred to the Bible as a drama; to God as the leading character and the plot as the redemption of mankind. All other Bible characters were pictured as playing supporting rolls. Salvation, then, is the chief aim of God and the chief end of man. All of the action and all of the teaching of the Book centers around this drama of salvation. This drama has been called the Romance of Redemption.

The dictionary defines the word "romance" as "That which heightens and colors the common place qualities of life." This is in sharp contrast to the grim drama we often enact in our lives. Too often we think of our relationship to God as a fearful and mysterious thing. But the real nature of salvation is that of romance—of adventure. Redemption rescues us from the morbid obsession with human frailty and the fearfulness of God and opens our lives to the beautiful fellowship. Personal guilt is sublimated in joyful self abandonment and life becomes an adventure in unselfish service.

Evelyn Underhill writes that St. Francis of Assisi "ran away to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Yates and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morris Monday evening.

Mr. Bartlett is still in the hospital. He has been very sick during the week and improvement is slow.

God as some boys ran away to sea." There is a sense of excitement in it all that "heightens and colors the commonplace qualities of life." It is the romance of redemption.

Neighbors Knife Land For Bagbys

Last week following a West Texas sand storm, Meldon Leslie and Andy Aycox took their three tractors and two farm hands to the farm of R. E. Bagby, four miles northeast of Tahoka where they worked a full day knifing 170 acres.

Mrs. Bagby said the deed was greatly appreciated, and was a great help to them.

Raymond Bagby, their son, was in Methodist Hospital undergoing tests to determine the cause of his illness. He had previously been in Slaton's Mercy Hospital. Mrs. Bag-by reported that doctors diagnosed the cause of Raymond's illness as spasms of the muscle. He was released Tuesday and is expected to return to school Monday.

Poka-Lambro Holds Annual Meet Here

Nearly 200 people attended the first annual membership meeting held in the new building of Poka-Lambro Rural Telephone Cooperative here Tuesday afternoon.

Joe D. Unfred of New Home, a director, acted as master of ceremonies, and Mitchell Williams, attorney for the cooperative, presided during the business session.

Members re-elected V. H. Wheatley of Brownfield, Hubert Green of Lamesa, and C. W. Roberts of Tahoka to the board of directors. They also voted a change in the by-laws setting the annual meeting date on the last Thursday in March, beginning in 1962.

Officers are elected by the board. Present officers and directors are: Lee Bartlett of Meadow, president, who could not be present on account of the critical illness of his father; Roberts, vice president; Wheatley, secretary-treasurer; Green, Lamesa; Irvin Snell, Lamesa; Unfred, and George A. Sealy, route 4, Tahoka.

Rev. Paul McClung, Baptist pastor at New Home, gave the invocation; Mr. Wheatley read the notice of meeting; and Clint Walker, chairman of the nominating committee, presented the nominees for directors.

Unfred made the president's report for Mr. Bartlett, outlining the growth of the organization since its inception.

First organization meeting to form a telephone cooperative, he said, was held on Nov. 2, 1950. First action after forming the organization was purchase of the Southland exchange. Construction of the original rural telephone system began in 1952, and first service was begun in Lynn county's four exchanges in April, 1953, Borden and Dawson counties were added in 1954, and Terry county in 1956. The Loop exchange of Gaines county was opened last year, and exchange in Southern Terry county in the vicinity of Union is now under construction. There are now 2078 telephone connections, a growth of 250 since January 1, 1960. The plant has a value of about $2 million.

The present headquarters building was acquired last year, and has been remodeled into a modern office building for the organization. Acquisition of the building permits a saving on rents of more than $2,000 the cooperative has been paying. Fourteen persons are employed, six of whom work in the office and eight of whom are outside men.

Wilmer Smith of New Home, principal speaker for the occasion, pointed out that since REA was set up 95 percent of the farm homes now have electricity, but only one-third of the farm homes have modern telephone facilities.

As an example of the situation before the building of the cooperative, he said New Home community had 15 telephones all on one line in 1950, six of these being business phones and one a school phone. Under this condition, it was almost impossible to receive service.

"You have seen more changes since the date of your birth," Smith said in pointing out the progress mankind is making, "than took place from the beginning of time to the date of your birth."

He also spoke briefly on proposed agriculture legislation and declared a bill now being proposed in congress, if it becomes law, will bring about a complete change in the farm program. He said he couldn't agree with some of the philosophy now being proposed for agriculture, but he was glad the new administration has taken a positive and optimistic approach that is picturing the farmer in a better light instead of blaming him for the ills of agriculture.

He also said President Kennedy has said he expects REA and RTA to function as originally planned. But, he added, "We farmers can do a lot of things for ourselves better than the Government can do them for us."

At intervals during the meeting, Manager W. D. Harmon supervised the presentation of door prizes to members.

These prizes included: Paul Young of Brownfield, radio; Mrs. Buel Draper, Tahoka, cooker; Jess Merrick of Lamesa, electric iron; Mrs. W. T. Luttrell of Tahoka, electric percolator; F. H. Sharp of Meadow, two sacks of peatmoss; W. C. Orson of Lamesa, S. C. Motley of Lamesa, Hugo Wuensche of Slaton, and Derrall Merrick of Lamesa, each 100 pounds of hybrid maize seed; C. W. Roberts of Tahoka, 100 pounds of cottonseed; and George Sealy of Tahoka, 50 pounds of cottonseed.

Congratulations: Mr. and Mrs. Billy Jolly, Tahoka, on birth of a daughter at 6:22 p. m. April 9 in Medical Arts Hospital in Lamesa. Weighing 7 pounds 11 ounces she has been named Sharon Denise. The couple also has three boys. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Jolly of Tahoka. Mrs. A. G. Britton of Brownfield is the maternal grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Wesley Coker, Tahoka, on birth of a daughter in Tahoka Hospital at 5:20 a. m. Wednesday, April 19. Weighing 6 pounds 8 ounces she has been named Joyce Maydean.

REMODELING SALON
Miss Echo Milliken is redecorating her beauty salon at Sweet Street and Brownfield Hwy. The walls are being painted in a shell pink and a new booth is being installed which now makes five working units in the salon.

County Taxes . . .

county valuations are raised the state reduces its aid to schools. This, in turn, makes it necessary for the schools to raise this added amount (about $30,000 in Lynn county's case) from local funds. This would make necessary the school districts raising their valuations. Thus, raising valuations would cost county taxpayers about $45,000 a year.

If the special road tax is voted, this would not be necessary, since the state school aid index would not be changed.

If voted, the 15-cent road tax would be used only for roads, according to law. However, this would release funds from the 80-cent county tax now being transferred to road funds for use for other necessary purposes.

This has nothing to do with the proposed bonds for the county livestock barn, exhibition hall and meeting place.

More funds are needed because of the rise in prices the last ten years of everything the county buys, wages, upkeep of buildings and roads. In fact, Lynn county has finally got caught in the cost-price squeeze.

QUESTIONS, PLEASE
QUESTION: "What Is The Church Of Christ?"
ANSWER: God's word is the seek of the kingdom (Lk. 8:11). When this word is planted in the mind of a person the result is, if it produces anything at all, a Christian. A group of these Christians constitute the church. The church was established on the first Pentecost after the resurrection of Christ (Acts 2). This church was established in Jerusalem (Lk. 24:47; Acts 2). The church of Christ was built by Jesus Christ of Nazareth (Matt. 16:18). The church has only ONE head (Col. 1:18; Eph. 1:22, 23). It is entered by gospel obedience, the obedient one being saved and added to the church (Acts 2:38, 41, 47). The church of Christ uses every name given by inspiration to address her and no other. It has no creed but Christ, and only one discipline—the words of Christ. The church of Christ has bishops and deacons as officers (1 Tim. 3; Tit. 1). This is the church for which Christ died (Acts 20:28). Paul said that Christ would save the church. (Eph. 5:23). Since it is a blood bought institution and Christ will save it, it is very important.
You are invited to send your questions to: Bob Barnes, Box 812, Tahoka, Texas. You are also invited to attend all the services of the church of Christ.

Support Given Zoning Board

Tahoka's Zoning Commission has been assured complete backing by the City Council in its efforts to prevent erection or moving of shacks to property that may depreciate the value of nearby property, states Mayor Melton Leslie.

Recently the Council ran into a snag in this respect when it discovered a legally appointed building inspector was necessary to enforce the zoning ordinance. As a result, Police Chief Jack Miller has been appointed inspector.

A building permit and authority is necessary in Tahoka to erect any structure or to move any structure to a new site in the city. Penalty for failure to comply with the ordinance is a fine of $100 plus a fine of $100 for every day the violation exists.

This ordinance is designed to protect every property owner of the town and to protect the values on his property by preventing the erection or moving of shacks to certain areas or the erection of commercial building adjacent to residence properties outside the commercial zone.

Citizens who wish to build any structure, to erect an addition, or to move any structure, are warned that they should secure a building permit from City Secretary J. M. Uzzle at City Hall before starting such construction.

Members of the Zoning Commission are A. C. Verner, Charles Townes, Dr. Emil Prohl, B. R. Taylor, and J. M. Small.

This was the second hole-in-one to be made at T-Bar, Irving Dunagan making the first one several years ago on the same green.

Winning the Pro-Am tournament was a foursome composed of Ros

Illinois Couple Visit In Tahoka

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cook of Champaign, Illinois have been here visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reagan Reed.

The Reeds took the visiting couple to Carlsbad Caverns and all enjoyed the trip. Although Reagan and Veda have lived here all their lives, they had never been to visit the Caverns and state that it is wonderful.

Reagan met the Cooks in World War II while being in the Navy and stationed at the University of Illinois. They had four sons in the service and they turned their home over to the service men at the University. Even having children at home besides the sons in service they would never take money from the boys, Reagan said.

A lot of times he would be sitting around the house and Dad Cook would give him money to go to town on and have fun.

They hear from men and their families all over the world and are known by all as Dad and Mom Cook.

The Reeds enjoyed having the Cooks here and hope they can return again. Reagan and Veda hope to go visit them next summer.

At least they know we have a lot of something and that is sand—it blew nearly everyday they were here.

cot Treadaway, Dot White, Joe Harvick, and Thomas Jolly. Second place went to Aleta Thomas, Rebel Thomas, Jack Smith and Jewel Smith. Third place foursome was Jimmy Applewhite, Jackie Applewhite, Walton Terry, and Bill Singleton.

Prizes of merchandise were given the winners from the pro shop.

Woods hole-in-one sets some kind of record, for some top golfers playing thirty years or more have not been able to turn the trick.

He scored his first ace in 1935 on the 150-yard No. 9 hole at Lubbock Country Club, his second in 1937 on the old sand greens Tahoka course southwest of town on the 200-yard No. 7 hole with a No. 3 wood, and his third in 1945 at Lubbock Country Club's 135-yard No. 3 hole.

Special School Work Outlined

It's nearly time for the Lynn County Special School to close for the fourth year.

We parents and the teachers are proud of the school, our children and their accomplishments. They are precious blessings and have helped us to be bigger, better and more compassionate people. We have learned many things counseling and working together. We have learned to work as a unit to stand ready to help each other and others and to be happy with God's blessings and gifts.

We have learned that everybody has troubles, they just differ that's all. We know that mental and/or physical hurts can and does destroy many people. So we have learned to take whatever comes our way before it takes us. We know too that we must correct any defect, disorder, misunderstanding or heartaches in this world as much as possible then learn to live with and appreciate what we have left—after all, we could have nothing.

The teacher gives thanks for the privilege of teaching these courteous, well-mannered children who have taught her more than she has them and for the cooperation, help, understanding and friendship of the parents, the school officials and Lynn county people. Without such there could be no special school here.

In order to work successfully with these children we need a sense of humor, a sense of proportion, to be honest, have a code of ethics, strive to reach our potential and feel a personal satisfaction and peace of mind.

TO RELIEVE SORE THROAT

WYNNE COLLIER, DRUGGIST

It's great to feel loved, needed, appreciated and to know that we are contributing. We must love in order to be loved and be a friend in order to help friends and share ourselves and our worldly materials. We who help others with their pains, needs and heartaches know celestial music which cannot be felt by those who do not.—Margaret Renfro, teacher.

Birthday Party For Sam Lindsey

Sam Lindsey of Tahoka was given a birthday party recently at the Lynn County Special School. His mother baked his cake. Mrs. Robert Crain of O'Donnell served as his substitute mother.

Sam was crowned king of his party. He opened up all of his gifts then the children were seated at the long table covered with a birthday table cloth. The honoree gave thanks for the food and our many blessings. He made a wish and blew out the 15 candles and cut and served his cake and other refreshments.

After his celebration, the teacher, who didn't know that she still had birthdays, received a pleasant surprise. She was presented with a beautifully decorated white cake and box of lovely birthday gifts. No teacher was ever more happy and appreciative. All there was to say was "thanks a million to my precious children and their wonderful parents."—Margaret Renfro, teacher.

Cleaner Quotes

Finally warm weather is here. Three very pretty days in a row and not followed by a snow. But just to be sure, keep out a warm jacket for a while yet.

Putting up or storing clothing is something we should give careful attention to.

To store soiled clothing is asking for many problems. Moths, silverfish and stains are just a few. Although the moth gets lots of credit for clothing damage, in our locality the silverfish does most of our damage. Both the moth and silverfish depend on food spots and soiled fabrics for part of their diet. Just the price of one coat will more than pay the cost of cleaning and storing the average family's wardrobe.

For the second year we here at the Ayer Way will clean, seal in plastic bags, and store your out of the season clothing. The bags and storing will be without extra charge. We will offer two types of this service. Clean only and clean, bag and then press just before fall season. Clean only will be thoroughly cleaned and spotted and bagged without pressing.

There will be several new treatments in our new fall lines of cottons, wools, and synthetics. These new processes will be worth watching.

A new tourist court in Tahoka? Well, yes. One day there is no walls, the next they're up. Looks real good to see Tahoka growing.

With beards getting longer, rodeo banners flying and several floats in the making, we are looking forward to the 27th, 28th, and 29th of this month for a fine rodeo in Tahoka.

Minister Makes Humorous Talk At Rotary; Raise In Taxes Discussed

Rev. Bervin Caswell, reared at Draw and now pastor of the Methodist Church at Carlsbad, N. M., holding a revival at the local Methodist Church, was speaker at the Rotary Club Thursday noon of last week. His talk was mostly of a humorous nature.

Supt. Otis Spears called attention to the proposed election in Lynn county of a 15 cent special road tax. For the past 10 years the county has been getting along on virtually the same amount of tax money while costs in all fields have increased.

He had just attended a meeting called by the Commissioners Court on the problem of county finances, and those attending had agreed that the tax increase would be better than an increase in valuations. The proposed 15 cent road tax would bring in about $16,000 a year in increased income and get the county out of a jam. However, if valuations were increased, schools of the county would be placed in a tight place, their valuations would have to be increased because of requirements of state laws, state aid would be decreased, and Lynn county citizens would have to dig up about $45,000 for schools and county instead of the $16,000 that could be raised by increase in the tax rate.

Petitions are being circulated in the county for the proposed tax rate. Judge W. M. Mathis says rising costs have finally caught up with the county and he sees no other alternative.

Club president H. B. McCord Jr. called attention to the District 573 Rotary Assembly which will be held here this Saturday. There will be no club meeting this Thursday, but local Rotarians will attend the dinner Saturday noon at City-Legion building for visiting and local Rotarians.

All people of the county are invited to hear the feature speaker, C. L. Kay of Lubbock Christian College, when he addresses the closing Rotary session at 4:20 p. m. Saturday afternoon in the Tahoka High School auditorium.

F. E. Redwine was present for the first time as a new member of the Rotary Club.

Twins Adopted By Billy G. Smiths

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Smith of Seagraves, formerly of New Home, are the new parents of identical twin daughters, Mary Marguerite and Martha Monique. The 20-month old sisters were adopted by the couple, and arrived recently by jet plane from Italy, where they were born.

The twins came from Italy through the National Catholic Refugee program, arriving in New York City just before Easter with other children. They do not understand English and look so much alike they must wear identification bracelets.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayman Smith of New Home and Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Kreidler of Waukesha, Wis. are the grandparents.

The couple has one son, Mark, whom they adopted when he was three months old. Mark is now nine years old.

The family met their two new additions in Dallas. They had looked forward to their arrival here since last fall.

Four Car Wrecks During March

The Highway Patrol investigated four rural accidents in Lynn County during the month of March, according to Sergeant E. L. Stroud, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These wrecks accounted for three persons injured and a property damage of $2,485.

This brings the total for 1961 in this county to none killed, nine injured, and a property damage of $9,195.

"Knowing and obeying traffic laws is a must in traffic safety," the sergeant added. "If all motorists would obey traffic laws, our accidents and fatalities would decrease sharply."

"For instance, the driver of a vehicle about to enter or cross a highway from a private road or driveway shall yield the right-of-way to all vehicles approaching on said highway. The driver can safely perform this maneuver by waiting until he can enter the roadway without interfering with other vehicles and accelerating immediately to the normal safe driving speed and blend with the flow of traffic in the area," the sergeant explained.

Coach and Mrs. J. D. Atwell, Jeff and Lisa, spent last week end in Graham visiting his parents.

Arkansas has an annual average of 48 inches of rainfall.

Don Morton at Okinawa

Okinawa — Marine Pfc. Don W. Morton, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morton of Wilson, Texas, is serving with the Third Marine Division, on Okinawa.

Mrs. Bertha Minor underwent surgery on her left leg April 6 in a Lubbock hospital, according to a daughter, Mrs. Cleve Bairrington of O'Donnell.

Arkanas has an annual average of 48 inches of rainfall.

Lt. Bob Cleckler In Special Training

Fort Sill, Okla.—Army 2nd Lt. Bob C. Cleckler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer D. Cleckler, Wilson, completed the eight week field artillery officer orientation course April 5 at The Artillery and Missile School, Fort Sill, Okla.

The course, designated from newly-commissioned officers, trained Lieutenant Cleckler in communications artillery transport, tactics and target acquisition.

The school, which has as its motto, "Skill is better than luck," emphasizes leadership and the practical application of field artillery tactics and techniques in the employment of artillery mortars, conventional cannon, free rockets and guided missiles.

The 25-year-old lieutenant is a 1954 graduate of Abilene High School and a 1961 graduate of the University of Texas.

Spring must be nearly here. Mesquite leaf-buds are swelling, and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Moore Sr. are making plans to go to their summer camp on the Perdenales.

Maybe there are some, but we haven't seen a farmer yet who is satisfied with the new feed grain program. Brother, you haven't seen anything yet, if Secretary Freeman and his advisor, Dr. Cochrane, have their way and Congress doesn't throw a monkey wrench into the plans. Their philosophy of agriculture is for complete government control of everything connected with farming. Don't take our word—just read some of their stuff written in past years. It now appears (Monday) the B-plan cotton grower will be penalized, and the new milo grower is completely out in the cold.

We believe a lot of those votes for Blakley and Tower were protests against the trend of our government. We believe people are beginning to wake up as to the trend of things. At least, this is the impression we have gathered from talking with some good all-the-way Democrats right here on the streets of Tahoka. The ultra-liberals received quite a jolt from the fact that the two conservative candidates received as many votes as all the 69 other candidates in the race for senator, some of whom claimed to be middle-of-the-roads. But, Republican Tower can be elected if the liberals and supporters of Wilson and Wright fail to get behind Blakley.

We've been preaching the fact that you can't buy friends with money. Tahoka visitors from foreign countries have been saying as much for ten years. But Congress has not yet learned this truth. President Kennedy does not know this, neither did Eisenhower, or Truman. Since World War II we have spent $85 billion trying to buy friends abroad, $138 billion since the beginning of World War II. Yet, Kennedy wants to spend more. And, we have fewer friends abroad than ever before in history.

The Albert Currys and John F. Thomas's were among about 30 Tahoka and Lynn county people down at Buchanan Lake recently for a fishing trip. John was fishing for bass with a spoon and landed a five pound yellow cat fish. However, Albert says that fish has grown so fast as to be phenomenal. It has grown 10 pounds since it was first pulled out of the water, and now weighs 15 pounds.

The older a man gets the farther he had to walk to school as a boy.—The Growl.

When a person works in an office six (sometimes, seven) days a week year in and year out, there comes a time when he can no longer take it.

Just before he blew his top, the old Printer and Mae took off a week ago last Friday for parts unknown and didn't come back until last week end. Just roamed around down in Central Texas, visited a few kinfolks and friends, rested, and saw that section of the state in all its Spring beauty. Grass is greener than usual, even the mesquites are out in fresh green, the bluebonnets and Indian paintbrushes are in full bloom, the soil is wet from recent rains, some corn is up and much cotton is planted or up. But old Central Texas, once a leading cotton area, is largely turned to pasture and herds of cattle now graze where once there were rich farms.

Among our stops were at Roscoe, headquarters of the Run Slow & Particular Railroad, and Sweetwater, scenes of our boyhood pranks; Merkel, to visit Mae's sister-in-law, Mrs. J. P. Howard; Stephenville, to visit an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Monroe, who taught us a few tricks about the game of "84", and Uncle Sam did a lot of bragging to us about his quarterhorses, sheep, and cattle, and three very successful sons and their kids, and also about his friendship with old Paul Pittman, former Tahokan.

Spending a couple of days at Waco with our Aunt Mary Hill and Aunt Alice Martin and at Moody with Aunt Cena McCauley, Mae learned a lot of things about The Printer she never knew before. Sometimes, it's a mistake to take your wife to visit kinfolks, for some truths are bound to leak out. Had a pleasant visit with Mrs. Eva Eakin Hill, who sent best regards to her Tahoka friends. Spent a few hours at the ranch of Cousin Ray McCauley, near the Leon and Mother Neff Park, and enjoyed inspecting fine cattle, sheep and goats. Visited the homestead of our grandparents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Hill, who settled in Stampede Valley 85 years ago.

Our next visit was at Temple, place of our birth too many years ago, with our Aunt Nettie Berry, last surviving child of our mother's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Evetts, pioneer settlers of Bell county. This grandad of the Printer, a Scotchman, arrived in Texas in 1928 as a child, later married an Irish-Welch girl. He remembered San Jacinto and the Alamo, and Gen. Sam Houston visited in their home many times. Although he died before we were born, our grandmother used to tell us many tales of early day Texas. Incidentally, both our grandfathers fought in the Civil War. Thus, The Printer has reason to be a Texan all the way, an unreconstructed rebel who won't swallow all this socialistic government stuff.

Coming north, we got lost in the 5:00 p. m. traffic of Big D but found refuge a couple of nights in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T.

(Trap) Hanes, formerly of Tahoka, in Irving. Not many years ago, Irving had a "blow-up" in its school system, and old "Trap" was called up from Cameron to take over and straighten out the mess. He must have done a good job, because the other day he was given a new five-year contract as superintendent at better than $17,000 a year. The town now has 17 schools, and is building a $2.5 million high school that will be too small before it is completed. Ann is teaching in an elementary school and still beaming over with pride in her kids. Billy, wife and two children live in near-by Dallas. Leo Jackson, former coach here, is athletic director and assistant high school principal. They say he could be elected mayor of Irving. His wife Mary is a secretary in the Administration building, and Myrna Gayle is married but will graduate in Homemaking soon from East Texas State.

Finally, we visited a sister-in-law, Mrs. Minnie Crausby, near Crosbyton, and got home in time to enjoy (?) a good old sandstorm.

Jack Stricklin of Brownfield writes some more on the old time songs, as follows:

Well, it appears that our friend, Printer's Ink Hill of the Lynn County News is about to get started on those old play and love songs he heard back in the olden days past and gone, when the old square dance was all the rage, if they danced at all, or could do so without being turned out of the church.

There were some that were not play songs, but the saddest old love songs one ever heard. One was, "For the Love of Barbara Allen." We have forgotten most of this old song, as we were just a mall chap when it was sung around in the old Newhope community in Tennessee. But it seems Barbara's fellow had been badly hurt or killed. So she sang, "Oh bring him here and lay him down, where I may look upon him." Then there was "Brown's Old Buggy," that went: Brown's old buggy, and sail away, sail away soon in the morning. Choose your partner and sail away," etc.

Then there was: "Ise goin' to build me a fine brick house, and also me a parlor, and when it's all complete, Ise goin' to see my darling. Swing Jennie Rinctum, swing her all around you. So fare you well, my darling." And lest we forget, there was Green, Grows the Willow Trees, and many others. Perhaps we'll remember snatches of them one of these days.

Ed Hamilton was telling about a colored man who lives in Central Texas on his brother's farm. The man's wife died on a Tuesday and later that week he was asked when she would be buried. "We ain't gonna bury her till Sunday," he said, "because they can't funeralize her 'cept on that day."

A woman waiting at the door ready to go to the store had her arms full of coats and four little children at her side. Her husband, coming down the stairs, asked why she was standing there. She replied, handing him the coats: "This time you put the children's coats on and I'll go honk the horn."—Santa Fe Magazine.

"Work" Lessons Are Important

John Ruskin once wrote—"Education does not mean teaching people what they do not know. It means teaching them to behave as they do not behave. It is not teaching the youth the shapes of letters and the tricks of numbers, and then leaving them to turn their arithmetic to roguery and their literature to lust. It means, on the contrary, training them into the perfect exercise and kingly continence of their bodies and souls. It is a painful, continual and difficult work to be done by kindness, by watching, by warning, by precept, by praise but above all, by example.

Growing... growing... gone

All too soon the years of bare summer feet, sugar-and-butter sandwiches and cartwheels are yesteryears. But fine photographs capture and hold the growing years, become more cherished as childhood slips into memory.

Such a record will be yours, if you start it today. We would like to show you how it's done with photographs of

If you are following our trend of thought in these articles, and we hope you are, you already know that we see a definite and current need for offering our youth good clean movies and character building reading materials. We feel that each of you share with us in recognizing the value of wholesome recreation and safe, sane, past time for our children and youth. We are not alone in asking for and striving for the better things in these departments. Our neighboring towns, by the score, have beat us to the draw in organizing and working for improving the thinking and activities of youth.

Along with all this we are mindful, as we know you must be too that just as All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy—"All play and no work makes Jill a poor matrimonial rist." Let us keep in mind that a sprinkle of manual labor, and responsibility must be mixed with recreation and play to build a well adjusted citizen. These young hopefuls that we are guiding and molding are not going to live with us, and us alone, very many years. Jack must learn, and his teen years are the best time to teach him, that it takes more to operate a home of his own than it does to fill the tank of a hot rod with his dad's courtesy card. Jill must be taught, and it should be done by her parents, that the span between strapless formals and cook aprons is a big one and not easy to make.

The hurdle Jill must surmount between roasting weiners in the back yard or at camp, and planning,

Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? or who shall stand in his holy place? He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully. (Psalm 24:3, 4.)

We soon become like our daily companions. Since our thoughts are our closest companions the only way to live a clean life is to cultivate purity of mind and heart. As a man "thinketh in his heart so is he." We read in Proverbs, "The thought of foolishness is sin." Isaiah holds out the hope to us that God will forgive the man who for sakes his sinful way and his unrighteous thoughts.

An air conditioner can change the air in a room by drawing out stale air and bringing in fresh pure air. Thus the atmosphere of the room is changed.

Changing impure thoughts for pure thoughts can alter life. We can fill our minds with the teachings of Christ. Before we know it, our lives will be free from anxiety and worry. We know the peace which comes from inner confidence. We shall have the power that comes to those who are at peace with God, with man, and with themselves.

PRAYER: Our Father, we pray that Thou wilt cleanse our thoughts of doubts, worries, and fears. Fill our minds with thoughts of Thee, that we may be pure in heart, clean in mind, and Christlike in our living. In Jesus' name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Clean thoughts produce clean lives.—Ada B. Hoelscher (New Mexico).

preparing and serving dinner to the in-laws is a dangerous hurdle. The danger can be lessened if the loving hand of Jill's mother has taught her gradually to accept this responsibility. If Jack has been operating under his own steam, having a hand in operating the family business or the farming—keeping a set of books pertaining to living costs he will have a hint of an idea of the cost of college or just living—

Citizens Committee for Youth. A math equation may seem hard but not nearly so puzzling as a budget for a young couple trying to make their own way under their own steam. A term theme may seem like a mountain but fades into a mole hill as compared to a grocery shopping list, coming out of a tight budget, when the sweet, young thing has never had any practice in grocery shopping. The busy schedule of teen age parties, picnics, movies, fun and frolic may all seem in harmony with the life and times—but let us start early mixing a little bit of practical education and responsibility into this schedule and we will be doing our boys and girls the biggest favor possible.

A few denials from parents will acquaint young folks with the meaning of denials, and save a husband or wife the pain of having to be the first one to deny his or her companion. In other words if we will keep in our minds continually that we are preparing these young people to live in a world separate and apart from their original nests—that we are training them to live with someone other than us—that we are responsible for their emotional adjustment in an adult world—we will season their fun and frolic with labor and responsibility—their past time will be lessened and their labor increase—their wastefulness discouraged and their thriftiness encouraged.—Let's face it. Every truly happy, worthwhile, well-adjusted, congenial adult we know is a person that was taught to work, as well as to play, during his or her formative years.

Letters From News Readers—

(The News welcomes letters from its readers on any current subject, not libelous, of course. All communications must be of reasonable length and must be signed. On request, the signature will not be printed. The Editor.)

Adult Movies
Dear Sir: This letter is to inform interested parents that the movie, "Butterfield 8" which is to be shown this next Sunday, is rated by the movie industry as "Adult Entertainment. Not Recommended for Children."

After the comparatively good calendar of films last month, the showing of this film comes as a disappointment. When the movie industry labels a film "not recommended for children," you may be sure it is not only definitely unsuitable, but actually harmful.

Let's speak at the box-office where our voice is truly heard. Let's support the good ones, and stay away from the undesirable ones.

Sincerely, Mrs. A. M. Bray, Vice Chairman, Citizens Committee for Youth.

Jack Stricklin Writes
Lynn county friends and acquaintances of A. J. (Jack) Stricklin, pioneer Brownfield publisher, now retired and confined to his bed for many weeks, will be interested in the following note to 'The Printer from the Old Rascal':

Well, I see by the "Snews" you and lady slipped off down in the Dallas settlement on a visit and left the column up to a substitute, who did well—tell them. I'm getting about over the house some now, but have scarcely been out of doors since last September, when I had my accident, the rupture of ligaments in my old bad knee.

Just wanted to guy you a bit about the new Tahoka Liquor store that Pinkie is opening up on Highway 87 between Tahoka and "Hubbock". Hope you—Tahoka.

ites don't spend too much of your time up there.
Fraternally, Old He.

(Ed. Note: We take it this is a couple of line from one of the old time party songs, Jack.)

Adams in California
Editor, The News:
We, my wife and I, purchased a reasonably new six room (1720 sq. ft.) home (located at 4904 Art St., San Diego 15, Calif.) and received possession of it on April 10, one month to a day from date of our arrival here, and expect to do quite a bit of living here from now on.

We are near the State College, which has an enrollment of near 12,000 students and is considered one of the small colleges in California.

We leave here in a few days for House, N. M., where we stage a farm sale and dispose of our extras that won't be usable out here, gather up some things that we wish to use on the Texas farm, take them down there via truck, then gather up other things that we wish to use out here and take them back to N. M., call a van and load out our entire household affairs and bid adieu to the Land of Sunshine and head for California where there's a heck of a lot of sunshine, too, and divide our time between California and Texas—but always calling Texas and Lynn County home and headquarters.

Please change our paper to above address. Always a Texan! Thanks!

R. R. (Roy) Adams.
