New Oil Test East of Wilson

Wheeler Oil Company of Fort Worth has announced it will drill the No. 1-Clara Cewes wildcat as a northwest offset to the new discovery well four miles east of Wilson, the Windham No. 1 Guinn.

The test is for 4,800 feet, and is located 2,310 feet from the north and 890 feet from the west lines of Section 3, Block L, TRR survey. It is one mile southeast of the Block L (Glorieta) Field but separated from it by a 6,300-foot failure.

However, the Guinn well to the southeast was potential for 1120 barrels per day pumping, plus 17 percent water from perforations, 4,031-34 feet after acidizing with 1,000 gallons.

Auction Dollar Day Is Success

The "Auction Dollar" promotion ending with the auction sale of merchandise Saturday afternoon seems to have been pleasing to almost everyone. The event was sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, and 42 merchants participated.

Only a fair crowd was present for the morning entertainment, but a large crowd turned out for the afternoon program and auction. Fictitious money had been issued the past three week-ends by Tahoka merchants on cash sales, and this was used to buy-in merchandise donated by merchants.

Eighty items valued at a total of about $800 were auctioned off for a total of about $50,000 in Auction Dollars. Earl Grider did the auction work, and was assisted by E. L. Short, Dale Thuren, and H. B. McCord Jr.

Some items sold for fantastic "prices," while others went for a "song." A $5.00 bill was sold for $100.00 in fake money, and 600 pennies brought only $130.

A group of high school students pooled their money and bought-in a chair for $1700. A member of the group said they would give the chair to a mother who was going to give them a party.

Items given by merchants covered a wide range, including wearing apparel, table lamps, fishing rods, stock feed, kitchen utensils, cameras, automobile tires and batteries, was spirited on almost every item. Ladies hat and dresses, shoes, portraits, grease jobs, plow points, etc. Bidding was spirited on almost every item.

Only complaint registered to sponsors was that some merchants issued too many money coupons to youths some being given out after the auction started.

Tahoka Chamber of Commerce will start its membership drive Monday, and hopes to add several new members to the organization working for the benefit of the town-and county.

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Tekell, Darlene and Elwanda visited in Novice over the week end with her parents and other relatives.

English Class For Mexican Students

Supl. Otis Spears announces the opening of a class on June 26 for non-English speaking children who will enter the Tahoka schools for the first time next fall.

Mrs. Thelma Dewbre will be teacher.

Classes are to be conducted from 8:00 to 11:00 a. m. each day through August 18, which will make the event a 40-day school course.

No lunches will be served and no transportation will be provided.

Women Golfers Will Play Here

South Plains Women's Golf Association will hold its monthly tournament at T-Bar Country Club in Tahoka on July 12, Mrs. Jewel Smith reports.

Housing Project For Elderly People May Be Built Here

Application has been made to Public Housing Administration for a new 12-unit housing project in Tahoka, this one for white elderly couples and to be located within walking distance of the business section of town.

The new project would be similar to the present low-rent housing project of 14 units completed early this year by the Housing Authority of Tahoka from funds provided by Public Housing Authority. One-bedroom duplex apartments are proposed that would rent in the neighborhood of $25 per month including water bill.

Tahoka City Council and Housing Authority have both passed resolutions approving the proposal, which is necessary to start par-

Man Has Narrow Escape From High Water Near Wells

Bill McKenzie of Wells had a harrowing experience and came very near being drowned following the heavy rain Friday. The News is informed.

Accompanied by his children, Mr. McKenzie went to a place he farms south of Wells Baptist Church to see how much rain he had gotten there.

About a mile and a half south of the church, he ran into high water rushing into a lake and his pickup slipped sideways and stalled in the road.

When he got out of the vehicle to check on his predicament, the force of the rushing water against the pickup was so great as to throw him down and he was washed under the machine. For a time that must have seemed like ages, he fought to get out before he drowned. In the pickup, the children began crying and yelling.

Getting free, he went to Dick Franklin's for a pickup to free his vehicle.

It's true that there's a possibility of a grown man getting drowned in the middle of the road right here in Lynn county.

SQUARES IN COTTON

Robert Edwards reports he found some squares in his cotton Tuesday on the place he farms for his dad, Carroll Edwards, east of town. The cotton was planted on April 17, 18 and 19.

RAINDL IS NEW DEPUTY

Joe Raindl began work Monday as the new deputy sheriff at Wilson, succeeding Argyle McNeely, who resigned. Mr. McNeely has been on the job since O. D. Woody became seriously ill a few weeks back.

RAINDL IS NEW DEPUTY

Joe Raindl began work Monday as the new deputy sheriff at Wilson, succeeding Argyle McNeely, who resigned. Mr. McNeely has been on the job since O. D. Woody became seriously ill a few weeks back.

Hail storms and torrential rains Friday night and again Wednesday night wiped out several thousand acres of Lynn county cotton and feed, principally in the Draw, Joe Bailey, O'Donnell, T-Bar and Wells communities on Friday night, and on Wednesday night in the New Home, Petty, Lakeview, and West Point areas.

The hail area Wednesday night was worst from a point about a short distance west of New Home on west to beyond Lakeview, north from this road up in to Lubbock county, from this line south covering the Petty community, back east to the Dan Carpenter farm and back northwest of there to the J. R. Strain place; also south from Petty to the western part of West Point community and south past the Edward Bartley farm. Much of this area is irrigated. Joe D. Unfred said this was the fifth time his cotton at Petty has been hailed on and it appears to be gone this time.

Bobby Carroll, New Home gin manager, said some farmers in the area would probably leave cotton, but most of it was hailed-out or washed out in the area described above. Rainfall ranged from one inch to 2.5 inches.

Rest of the county Wednesday received moderate to light rains, mostly an inch or less.

Rain for the week was lighter in Tahoka than most places. Rainfall Thursday was .10, Friday .98, and Wednesday .19, bringing the total for the week to 1.27 inches and the total for the year to 5.49.

One local insurance agent estimated that approximately 20 percent of the county's crops were destroyed in Friday evening's storms.

On Friday night, Draw was the hardest hit area of the county. Torrential rain, hail, high winds, and even a possible tornado or two had a hand in the damage.

Hail, rain and wind destroyed crops over a wide area south and southeast of Tahoka, also all the way to the Draw community, although the damage was spotted in some areas.

Hail damaged or destroyed crops in parts of the Lakeview, Petty, and West Point communities, and just north of Tahoka crops were washed out.

Other hail also damaged crops in the Three Lakes, Newmoore, Wells, and T-Bar areas.

Much young cotton was simply covered with silt, and some was blown out or burned by sand or high winds Saturday afternoon and Sunday.

Several freakish circumstances were reported. In some areas where the hail was the heaviest, cotton will not have to be replanted because rain possibly covered the small cotton plants sufficiently before the heavy hail started falling. Some farmers had heavy rain and cotton was either washed out

Payment Made On Right-of-Way

Austin—A check for $11,259.32 for right of way partial payment has been sent to Lynn County by the Texas Highway Department.

The sum forwarded is the state's share of the cost of the land needed on U. S. Hwy. 87, between Lubbock county line and a point 2.0 miles north of Tahoka.

The check will be transmitted by District Engineer Oscar L. Crain of Lubbock to the Lynn County Commissioners Court.

While county and state share the cost of the right of way, the Texas Highway Department bears the cost of title insurance and pays the entire cost of appraisal work ordered by the department. Checks for these items have already been forwarded from the Texas Highway Department to the parties concerned.

A Great Plains conservation plan is being developed on the Gus Walters farm located 14 miles north of Tahoka. The farm is operated by Lynn Maeker. on the T-Bar Ranch for livestock water. Half the cost of the 5,000 cubic yard pond is being shared through the Great Plains conservation program.

A basic conservation plan is being developed on the Newman Bartley farm northeast of Tahoka. The plan consists of a conservation cropping system, terracing, contour farming and crop residue use.

A pond was constructed on the C. C. Donaldson Estate located seven miles southeast of Tahoka. The pond, which will be used principally for irrigation, amounted to 4,300 cubic yards. The farm is operated by J. A. Pebsworth.

An underground pipe line was installed on the C. L. Littlepage farm located five miles south of Tahoka. The 1 1/4 inch plastic line will be used to transport livestock water a distance of 1,809 feet from a farm pond to a concrete storage tank in another pasture.

The new Feed Grain Program provides an excellent opportunity for planting a soil improving crop. This area should be planted to mung beans or any variety of cow peas. For the best results crops should be left until beans or peas are almost mature, then shredded and turned under as a green manure crop.

TREE DEATH CAUSES

Man-made situations can cause shade tree troubles. Soil added or moved by bulldozers or graders may be responsible for the death of many shade trees. Too much fill soil around new homes may cause trees to die after three to five years or even longer, says Harlan Smith, extension plant pathologist.

Everyday Religion

By I. R. Thompson

Someone has reported the competitive advertising efforts of several bakery shops on the same street of a certain city. One boasted of having "the best doughnuts in town." Another, not to be out classed, displayed a sign offering "the best dough-nuts in the world." A third shop, close by claimed "the best dough-nuts in the universe." Up the street from the three a small shop put up a huge sign that could be seen all up and down the street which all but shouted its invitation to come and get "the best dough-nuts on this street."

Life can get too far away from home base; from the street we live on. We dream of touching the world and overlook the slums of our own city. We engage in long and impassioned discussions about religion and the church universal and do nothing to help strengthen and extend the life and service of the church on the corner down the street from our house.

We dream of felling Goliaths on far flung battlefields when a thousand little tasks crowd our own lives. We dream of sailing off to some far away land but refuse to lift a hand to help the needy at our own doors. We sit in comfort discussing the giving of our whole heart and mind and strength to the Lord but refuse to give an hour of our time or a dollar of our income to the needs of our own community. The best way to make our lives count is to begin where we are. Henry Ford used to tell his workers to "start where you stand." Make the best dough-nuts on your street. Serve the Lord where you are with what you have and great blessings will come.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Smith and boys from Seminole visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Harper Sunday.

NIKE-HERCULES missiles stand poised against the sky, as part of a practice alert in which every missile on the island of Taiwan was in firing position. A May 6 test-firing of a NIKE-HERCULES by the Chinese Nationalists marked the first time the U. S. Army-developed NIKE-HERCULES was ever fired by foreign troops on foreign soil. The launching came just 21 months after the Nationalist Government, in August 1959, assumed operational control of the facilities of the U. S. Army's 2nd Missile Battalion. The Western Electric Co. is prime contractor for the missile.

Today's MEDITATION from The World's Most Widely Used Devotional Guide

The Upper Room THE UPPER ROOM, NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand. (Revelation 1:3.)

During the past two years in my nursing field, I have been through many temptations and hardships. It was so great a burden on me that I almost forgot there was a God. Suddenly, a change came to my mind; instead of studying my lessons one rainy night, I took my Bible and opened it to the book of Revelation. After reading part of the Bible, I was frightened because I had forgotten God's book which is meant to be everybody's guide.

Accepting the Lord as my Savior and reading the Bible as my guide-book, I have now become very happy. Many changes have come into my life since then. I have overcome the many temptations that confronted me. The Bible is the key to all my doings. My advice is to believe in Jesus and read the Bible every day.

EVINRUDE BOATING FOUNDATION

By RUDY EVINS

Are you the kind of fisherman who passes the buck when it comes time to clean your catch?

Well, Mr. Fisherman listen closely and take heed. Cleaning fish doesn't have to be a problem any longer, says the Evinrude Boating Foundation. It's a lot of fun catching fish and it can be almost as much fun to clean them... if it's done properly.

Using a sharp, narrow-blade knife, cut through the back bone of the fish just behind the head and gills. Take up the fish in one hand and cut the skin around the dorsal fin and all of the way back to the tail along the spine. Take hold of the dorsal fin and pull it out. Don't cut off or cut out the dorsal fin because there would be a good chance that many needle-sharp bones would remain in the flesh of the fish.

Now grab hold of the skin just behind the head and pull it from the flesh of the fish. A pair of pliers can be used to make the job easier on larger fish. Stick your finger in the "incision" behind the head and pull the flesh from the skin.

Follow these directions and you will stay clear of cleaning up a mess of scales. I've been cleaning all of my lunkers this way for a long time and have found this method to be sound... sound if you follow directions!

Fishing is a lot of fun and a good, clean sport. Cleaning the mess afterward was a chore usually passed on to other members of the family. Now it's easy and simple.

Happy boating... and fishing, too. Rudy

Mr. O. D. Orr, route 1, Tahoka, planted 60 acres of Dekalb E-56 in April.

His statement follows:

"There was nothing wrong with the seed. I go a perfect stand; in fact, a good stand. I have lost quite a bit of this field due to high winds and sand covering up the plants. If and when it rains, I will probably plant over about 40 acres.

"Mr. Thuren has already been out and checked with me. He has assured me I will be furnished DeKalb seed to repant this field FREE OF CHARGE. This is the first time I have ever received free seed for replanting. It is a fine thing."

Giants Hold Lead In Little League

Thursday night, June 1, the Yanks whipped the Cards 13 to 2 in the first game and the Cubs blanked the Giants 9 to 0 in the final game.

In the 6:00 p. m. game John Tyler was credited with the win for the Yankees. Losing pitcher for the Cards was Gregg Thomas. In the 8:00 p. m. game Mitchell Williams was the winning pitcher for the Cubs and Charles Sayles the loser for the Giants.

On Monday night in the first game the Yanks broke loose to defeat the Cubs 12 to 1. Winning pitcher for the Yanks was Rett Patterson. In the final game of the night the Giants downed the Cards 8 to 5. Kep Sayles was the winning pitcher for the Giants and Emory Stokes the loser.

Thursday night the Cards were playing the Cubs and the Giants were playing the Yanks.

C. E. Gannaway, who lives nearly five miles east of Lakeview, reports some hail was received in that area but the damage was not serious. However, to the south of him, crops were destroyed or badly damaged.

Eldon Carroll and Bonnie Brown, farmers north of West Point, both report their crops were completely hailed out Friday night.

Joe Phil Inman, who has just completed his freshman year at Texas A&M, has returned to Tahoka to spend the summer months.

Orioles Maintain Undefeated Record

Friday night there were no Pony League games played due to the heavy rains. All will be made up later.

Tuesday night a double header was played on the Tahoka field. Both games were played and were close down to the wire. In the first game the Tahoka Braves fell victims to the O'Donnell Pirates with a final score of 6 to 5. The Braves led by two points going into the top of the seventh, but in that same inning, three Pirate runs scored dropping the Braves one run behind. The Braves were unable to regain their lead during their last time at bat and the game ended with the Pirates winning by one run.

Ray Casarez was on the mound for the Pirates and Brit Robinson for the Braves.

The second game of the evening was one to remember. At the end of ten innings of play, the Tahoka Orioles defeated the Wilson Red Sox 6 to 5. Going into the bottom of the seventh inning the Orioles trailed by one run. In that inning the Orioles scored a run to tie the score and forced the game into extra innings.

Both the eighth and ninth innings were scoreless for both teams, and the score remained at 5 to 5. The Pirates failed to score in the top of the tenth, but the second batter for the Orioles was hit by a pitched ball and went to first. Crawford later crossed the plate for the winning score behind the batting of Steve Greer.

So the Orioles still remain undefeated. Larry Jolly was the winning pitcher, and Joe Rodriguez the loser.

Pressure Used On Farm Bill

(From the Memphis Commercial Appeal)

Agriculture owes a debt to John H. Todd, executive vice president of the National Cotton Compress & Cotton Warehouse Association, and to his board of directors who encouraged him, for resisting efforts to prevent opposition to the Administration's farm bill.

Revelation by Mr. Todd that unless the voice of the National Cotton Council was silenced in Senate hearings, the warehousemen whom he represented would be denied the rate increases which a Department of Agriculture study had indicated were justified, opened the door to investigation of tactics used to ram legislation through Congress.

It is a felony to attempt to coerce or intimidate a witness before a congressional committee. There should be a complete and thorough investigation into the tactics used in fostering the dictatorial legislation being attempted.

There has been the warning to feed grain growers that they should sign up under the program or the Commodity Credit Corporation stocks would be sold at such low prices that they would be destroyed. The reductions in production sought were obtained, but many farmers refused to be intimidated and did not sign.

There have been reports that broiler growers were warned that they must climb on the bandwagon, or broilers would be removed from the school lunch programs. A similar threat to beef cattle growers is under investigation.

Civil service workers have been warned in a speech by one of the assistant secretaries that they should practice and preach the party line or resign or be displaced.

A college dean, listed as a witness against the Administration farm bill, suddenly finds that the pressure of business is too severe for him to make his appearance. The report of his economists, which would have been the basis of his testimony, is about to be published, but will not have the impact it would have had before the Senate committee.

Retaliation is used when coercion fails. The Delta Council of Mississippi had a firm commitment from Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman that he would address the group's annual meeting last Thursday. A week ago Friday a spokesman for the council spoke out before the Senate Agriculture Committee against the provisions of Title I of the farm bill. That night there was word that the Freeman engagement might be canceled. Saturday it was confirmed Monday it was announced.

The head of the Tennessee Agricultural Council spoke out strongly against the provisions of the bill. Before he had returned to his home state, one of those who had conferred with Secretary Freeman in Charleston, Mo., had called to warn that because of his testimony farmers from Tennessee could expect nothing from the Administration.

These are not the tactics of a free, democratic community. They smack of Hitlerism, Stalinism, of government by force and coercion. Is this the bright, bold New Frontier?

The solution appears to be a complete and thorough airing of the things that have happened in the past, overwhelming defeat and repudiation of Title I of the farm bill, and a development of a new program, by the Congress, under the normal democratic processes of a free, un-intimidated people.

New Gas Light On The Market

A new line of dual-mantle gas lights is being introduced throughout the area served by Pioneer Natural Gas Company, officials of the company have announced.

Manufactured by Brust, Inc., one of the country's major producers of gas lights, the new light has been named "The Pioneer" as a result of improvements suggested by Pioneer Natural Gas Company. The major innovation is a distinctive dual-mantle which increases the amount of soft, diffused illumination characteristic of gas light, with no increase in the cost of operation over the present single-mantle lights, according to Dean Taylor, local PNG manager. Taylor also states that the prices on "Pioneer" gas lights will remain the same as on present models. The dual-mantle light is expected to further increase the demand for Gas Lights which have experienced a phenomenal rise in popularity since being introduced some three years ago.

The new dual-mantle featured in "The Pioneer" light is such an improvement that it will be incorporated in other models.

Initially, the new "Pioneer" light will be introduced through Pioneer Natural Gas Company offices. However, the manufacturer will mark these lights on a nationwide scale in the near future.

Grassland News

(By Mrs. O. H. Hoover)

It seems like we have a lot of news this week.

Mrs. R. M. Cash of Abilene passed away and was buried Thursday, June 1. Mrs. Cash had been in bad health for quite some time. The family lived in the Grassland community for a lot of years and was loved by everyone. They moved to Abilene when Mr. Cash retired and was close to their daughter. They also have one son. Those attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. White, Mr. and Mrs. Bishop Mathis and Mr. and Mrs. Lowell White.

Mrs. H. A. Roberts is ill. She is in the Garza Hospital.

Mr. Taylor recently of this community who had been living near Ardmore for some years, was found dead in his car at 9:30 a. m. Sunday, May 28. He had been dead since about 2:00 a. m. The doctor said he died from a heart attack. The car was a complete wreck. He leaves a daughter, Mrs. Juanita Key of Dallas and a son, Bill Cook of Levelland and seven grandchildren.

Mrs. Ada Oden and Truitt Babb of Slaton went to Fort Worth and visited the H. M. Hazlewoods and the N. C. Potters. Truitt's sister, Mrs. Mike Watkins met them there. She lives in Newton, Kansas.

Mrs. W. A. Morris spent last week end with the Donald Carpenters in Slaton. Donna came home with her grandparents for a lengthy visit.

The members of the Grassland Nazarene Church gave the Howard Conrads a supper at the Tahoka Park. The Conrads leave for their mission in Peru soon.

Mrs. Bobby Huffaker's mother and grandmother have returned to Baton Rouge, La.

Mac Ritchey is not doing so well. The W. G. and C. O. McCleskeys visited him Sunday afternoon.

Rev. R. L. Richards and family visited Friday afternoon in the O. H. Hoover home on their way home from conference. They have moved to Becton and will finish their schooling at Tech.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" BY C. WILSON HARDER

Now that the Federal Trade Commission is no longer headed by Earl Kintner who made such splashy headlines unearthing who gave disc jockeys $10 neckties for Christmas, it would appear the FTC is getting down to serious business.

The FTC is now questioning some 213 department stores across the nation on the acceptance of allowances of discounts usually made under the guise of promotion or advertising.

At a recent meeting of the Super Market Institute, the director of research released some very challenging facts, showing all is not well in the so-called "modern method" of food retailing.

As a matter of fact, he established some points which a special sub committee of the Senate Small Business Committee, headed by Sen. Hubert Humphrey had long been trying to get the FTC to unearthing.

The report to the Super Market Institute stated flatly that of the super markets opened in 1960, two out of three are doing less volume than anticipated.

The report further shows that sales per square foot in the average super market have dropped 27% in one year.

Yet it seems to be evident that the big super markets must average a 21% mark up on the sales of foods to break even.

This, then, explains why so many supers are constantly seeking special deals, display allowances, discounts.

Far from being efficient operations, the super markets are plagued with high priced organized help, with big administrative overhead loads.

The peak hour jam at the checkout counters is becoming more and more an aggravation to consumers especially as they learn they are not saving money.

This trend seems nationwide. For example, in California, one major chain which five years ago led the nation in sales per square foot, last year did $100 million in 100 stores, showed a profit of only $38 thousand, or less than 2-5ths of 1%.

This breakdown of huge super-market system over past five years, and rapidly accelerated in 1960, is one of the most encouraging things to happen for the independent retailer.

It is quite apparent if the Federal Trade Commission will quickly and energetically enforce the anti-trust laws so that there is no favoritism at the wholesale level in the market place, the pendulum will swing back very rapidly in favor of the soundly operated independent retail outlet. This is quite an exciting trend to contemplate.

Costs Increase As State Grows

At one time in the U. S., one person out of five was busy providing food for our population by working on a farm.

Better farming and processing methods have seen a tremendous change. According to Tax Foundation, Inc., figures, fewer people are now working on the farm than for the federal, state and local governments.

By actual figures in 1960, one out of each 11 persons was working on a farm, and one out of each eight was working for government. Most recent comparable figures show more than eight and one-half million civilians working for some branch of the government—including those in education—as against six million persons as working on farms.

The number employed by government has not substantially increased since 1947-1960 range. However, on an annual per person basis, the cost of all government civilian payrolls has climbed $123, or from $99 to $222 from fiscal 1947-1960.

The annual per person cost of all state and local payrolls grew $89, or from $59 in fiscal 1947 to $148 in fiscal 1961.

And, it is the individual tax payer who eventually foots the bill.

DAIRYING IMPORTANT

The dairy industry is big; it's essential, modern, diversified and has stability, said A. M. Meekma, extension dairy husbandman, as June Dairy Month gets underway. Dairying, he added, is the greatest single source of farm income in the nation. One out of every five dollars in cash receipts from farm products comes from dairying.

Hail, Rain . . .

er hailed out, and still dry dirt remained in the beds to make replanting difficult. Some farmers reported as much as two inches of rain and still had to replant in the water furrow.

Burl Moore, manager of the Paymaster gin at Draw, said hail in some form fell there for an hour and 25 minutes. Some of this hail was from the size of golf balls to the size of tennis balls and some were just large slugs of ice.

Some of the hailstones, Moore said, bounced as high as a man's head on hitting the ground. Some windows were broken and roofs damaged. Fields were washed badly in places, and lakes filled up.

No accurate gauge of the rain fall was made because the hail broke plastic and glass gauges, but Mr. Moore said it seemed there was as much water as during the big rain of 1955, when up to 12 inches was measured in that area and lakes overflowed until the water ran off the caprock.

Several Draw citizens reported seeing a tornado funnel east of the gin, but did not believe it touched the ground.

High winds did damage at the L. B. Jones place four miles south of Draw. Some outbuildings were destroyed and three large cotton trailers were blown away. Mr. Jones also reported seeing a funnel cloud, but thought his principal damage was from a straight wind.

Heavy rain also extended over to O'Donnell, where Ben Moore Jr., who keeps the U. S. Weather Bureau gauge, reported 4.5 inches of rain between 8 and 9:30 p. m. and three inches or more were received in parts of the T-Bar and Wells communities. A. W. Snider reported one inch north of Newmoore.

Most of the New Home, Wayside, and Wilson areas received lighter rainfall and no damage, but north of Tahoka to west of Dixie some crops were washed out and there was lighter hail in spots. For the most part, the fall was light in the eastern and northeastern part of the county, but some farmers in all areas were replanting.

However, most farmers welcomed the rains, even though crops were destroyed, for many of them had barely enough or not enough moisture to get crops up and keep them growing.

As a result of the water, crops are in all stages in the county. Much of the dryland cotton and some of the irrigated cotton will be late this year, because the comfortable deadline for planting cotton is not hand.

Plan School For Cotton Reporters

A training school for cotton measuring reporters will be held at the Lynn County Court House June 14-16 beginning each day at 9:00 a. m., announces Charles Bragg, officer manager of the Lynn County ASC office.

A competitive examination will be given those in attendance during the last day. The 30 highest ranking men will be offered jobs measuring land this summer for the ASC Office. Cotton measuring is scheduled to begin June 19 and will probably continue through September 15.

The tentative rate of pay has been set at $3.00 per farm plus 2 1/2 cents per acre of cotton allotment. Pay for a normal 320 acre farm would amount to $6.75, a farm of one section would pay $10.00. The ASC office will furnish all equipment necessary, except transportation. Applicants are asked to observe the following:

1. Only men who will work full time will be hired.
2. Applicants must be graduates of high school or similar recognized school.
3. Applicants must not be kin to the County Committee, Office Manager or an employee of the County Office.
4. A person cannot be employed who has been removed from any public office for cause, been convicted of any fraud or felony, or during the year have been an elected official of a county, federal, or state government or a candidate for such an office.

Bragg states that no previous experience is necessary. Physical requirements of the position are good eyesight, steady nerves, and the ability to walk long distances daily. Employees are expected to perform duties assigned cheerfully and courteously, using tact and diplomacy with the public and fellow employees. Only those willing to exchange a full day's work for day's pay are asked to apply.

Those interested in such work should contact the ASC office.

Pfc. Jerry D. Ross Now In Korea

1st Cav. Div., Korea—Pfc. Jerry D. Ross, 24, whose wife, Nancy, lives in Wilson, Texas, recently participated with other personnel from the 1st Cavalry Division's 19th Artillery in annual Army training tests in Korea.

The tests, conducted under realistic combat conditions, were designed to determine the unit's combat efficiency.

The 1st Cavalry Division is the only U. S. Division presently manning a front line position in Korea. Ross, a truck driver in the artillery's Battery B, entered the Army in 1960, completed basic training at Fort Ord, Calif., and arrived overseas last month.

Rev. Geo. Small Rotary Speaker

Rev. George M. Small, Episcopal Church chaplain at the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville and a native of Tahoka, was the speaker at the Rotary Club last Thursday noon.

He refuted a popular notion that when young people go to college they tend to lose their religion. He said there is no typical college student, but that religiously students can be placed in three classes—those who come to college with little or no religious background, those attracted to religion while in college, and those with a religious background who get "shaken up" while in college.

Rev. Small said young people at this age are naturally at the growing-up stage, the "age of questioning," when they are trying search out problems and decide things for themselves. He drew from his experiences as a chaplain to cite the problems of young people in college.

His daddy, Maurice Small, was in charge of the program.

The club gave permission for use of the Scout Hall by the newly organized Girl Scouts, and Gravel Ayer said General Telephone Co. is giving some discarded telephone poles to the Scouts and called for help in moving them to Camp Post.

E. L. Short urged members to vote in the election Tuesday of this week.

Don't overheat a sauce made with natural cheddar cheese; too much heat may produce a curdled look or stringiness.

The climate couldn't be better for buying a new JET-SMOOTH CHEVROLET

(and that's the car more people are buying!) Take those June skies and breezes. Add a spankin' new Jet-smooth Chevy. Presto, you've got all the makings of a roamin' holiday. That low-loading deep-well trunk swallows up most everything you'd want to pack along. The carefully crafted Body by Fisher has you livin' in luxury (and in comfort-high seats where the sight-seein' comes easy). That Jet-smooth Chevy ride, with a sinewy Full Coil spring at each wheel, gentles you past all the wrinkles and ruts in the roads (there's even a team of over 700 behind-the-scenes "shock absorbers" to hush up road surface mumbblings and grumbblings). All in all, Chevy's light-steerin', easy-go'in' ways just don't leave much for you to do but feel good. And that's exactly the way your Chevrolet dealer wants you to feel —as you can plainly see in those beautiful June buys he's got bustin' out all over.

Impala Convertible—just as easy as you please and wide open for fun.

Printer's Ink-lings

By F. P. H.

During the Auction Dollar sale Saturday when people were buying merchandise with play money given by local merchants on sales, the bidding had gotten up to a hundred or two dollars on a ham. Then, Mrs. Ray Hopkins and Mrs. Charles Oliver heard two men standing behind them talking. "Well," said one, "I've heard of the Texas oil millionaires, but I never dreamed these Texans would bid $150.00 for a ham." Curious, the two ladies engaged the two strangers in conversation and found they were Yankees, were driving south from Denver through Tahoka that day, saw the big crowd, and stopped to investigate. The ladies explained the fictitious money deal, but the two men stayed on for awhile amused at the proceedings.

One of our favorite stories is about the old West Texas cowboy who walked into the Harvey House over at Slaton for a cuppa coffee. He got his order about the time a Santa Fe passenger train crowded poured in to the eating establishment. A high-falutin' lady, apparently from the East, unable to find a seat, was standing behind him. "Oh," she remarked, "I'm afraid I'll never get even a cup of coffee before the train leaves." With true West Texas chivalry, the old cowboy got up, offered the lady his seat, and remarked, "Here, lady, you can have my coffee. It's already been sauced and blowed."

John Ray, our old friend from Eastern Lynn, is 77 years of age and underwent an appendicitis operation on May 20. He was in for a visit last week end, and says he is getting back to normal. Had about an inch of rain in all, was partly hailed out, and has planted over. Mr. and Mrs. Ray are among our county's finest citizens.

If Castro takes those 500 tractors in trade for 1,200 prisoners, what will be asked for the other 20,000 prisoners he is reputed to hold? Will he demand ransom for them? In place of paying homage to this Communist gangster, the United States should demand return of these prisoners with the threat of further economic and military pressure if he doesn't comply. We should be holding the big stick, not Castro. That's the reason we're in trouble around the world now!

What has happened to we Americans? Have we become "pussyfooters" and appeasers? We should have learned long ago—at least as far back as the day we gave Russia most of Berlin—that we can't do business with the Communists. What has happened to the once proud United States? Are we afraid, or have we just gotten soft?

The attorney general of the United States has come very close to law violation himself—inciting riot. The "Freedom Riders" set out for the South with the avowed purpose of causing trouble, including riots, if necessary, to focus attention on their demands for a place in the white man's world. They have the blessings of the attorney general of our country, among other promoters of the Negro cause.

The new Cochrane-Freeman Omnibus Farm Bill permits the Secretary of Agriculture to set quotas on ALL Agriculture, including cotton, grain, cows, hens, everything. Stiff penalties will apply for seller and buyer. It proposes limiting production to so many bales, bushels, dozen eggs, pounds of butter and milk, etc. per farm. If you don't want this type legislation, you better be writing Congressman George Mahon, Senator Ralph Yarborough, and other representatives in Congress. The latter has already come out in favor of these controls.

Khrushchev made this statement shortly before he came to the U. S. in 1959 as the guest of President Eisenhower: "We cannot expect the Americans to jump from Capitalism to Communism, but we can assist their elected leaders in giving Americans small doses of Socialism until they suddenly awake to find that they have Communism."

The "One World" advocates are gaining ground in a hurry. And, our government is playing into their hands. The United States is importing 20 million pounds of beef from New Zealand and 10 million pounds from Australia. While Texas oil pumps stand idle, we are importing oil from Venezuela, Arabia, and a score of other countries. Tahoka variety stores have trouble buying American made toys; they come from Japan and Europe. While local automobile dealers have their backs to the wall, we are bringing in foreign made cars. We are still importing sugar from Cuba, but we will not let American farmers have much of this new business but will give these quotas to other foreign nations in our attempt to pacify them. We have farm experts around the world, in Egypt, Turkey, India, Argentina, Brazil, Mexico, Burma and Indonesia teaching these people how to raise cotton. We are helping manufacturers in Japan, France, Germany, Belgium, and even in Communist dominated countries. We even import wheat from Canada. Good old big-hearted Uncle Sam will continue to cut off his nose to help somebody else until we, as citizens, rise up and demand that Congress put a stop to a lot of this Tom-foolishness!

"The family that plays together, stays together."

We continue to hear complaints about poor service being given Tahoka by General Telephone. Sunday night, a local lady tried for more than two hours to get an important long distance call through. First, she was a long time getting an operator to answer to place the call. On failing to get the call through, she asked the operator to keep trying and call her in an hour. The operator never called back. After repeatedly trying to get an operator, she finally got an answer, but failed to get cooperation from her, and finally gave up and canceled the call in disgust.

Something is bad the matter with Gen-Tel's service. The Printer frequently has the same trouble getting an operator. What would happen if some one needed help in an emergency? We shudder to think! Does Gen-Tel have insufficient lines between Tahoka and Brownfield, or does it have an insufficient number of operators to answer these calls? Are you listening, "Dusty" Kemper? We appeal to you—please, please give Tahoka some relief, or some explanation.

Some people in South Tahoka complain that North Tahoka gets all the grapes. City of Tahoka has offered again to do some paving in South Tahoka, and is most anxious to do so. The City has had no response to its most recent offer. The City is anxious to see this part of town develop, and it is developing. Some nice new homes have been built in South Tahoka the last few years, including six nice

A. J. Stricklin Writes On Clay Hughes

Jack Stricklin, pioneer Brownfield publisher, writes as follows concerning the late Clay Hughes, recently buried here:

We hope that some from here, attended the funeral of Clay Hughes over at Tahoka, as some intended to do. His elder brother, Dr. H. H. Hughes, dentist of this city attended. But we can hardly get it in our heads that Clay was 70. It is true we became 29 the year we came here, and Clay worked for us as a printer, that he could not have been over 15 or 16 at that brick housing units, and the park and swimming pool.

This saying by Mark Twain applies to us: Have a place for everything and keep the thing some where else; this is not advice, it is merely custom.

time. His younger brother, Elbert, or "White" to most of us old timers, also worked at the Herald office after school and Saturdays, and vacation time. The public school here at that time only carried one to the 9th grade, so they got out of school rather young. But Clay was the most dependable and honest person we ever had to work for us. We pray for God's blessing upon his faithful wife, who had him buried at Tahoka, where they married and where most of her people now live. While born in Coleman county, the Hughes family moved to a farm 12 miles north of Snyder, where they lived several years, then on to Brownfield. Later on the Hughes family began to scatter out from here to Lubbock, Tahoka and Wilson. Only Dr. Hughes still remains a citizen of Brownfield.

Use more cotton and help the farmers of our area!

In a true luxury compact... BUCKET SEATS ARE JUST THE BEGINNING!

THE BUCKET SEATS in Futura—individually contoured and thickly foam-padded—were created by the men who designed the Thunderbird's fabulous interior. No luxury compact ever got off to a better start than this!

A HANDY CONSOLE is another Futura feature. Positioned right at your finger tips between the front seats... for convenient storage of gloves, maps, sunglasses, etc. (Only Futura in its price class offers you this!)

ROOM FOR 3 IN THE BACK SEAT of the Futura (as in every Falcon)... and what room! Futura gives its passengers the luxury of thick wall-to-wall carpeting, the comfort of thick foam padding in the spacious rear seat... surrounds them with rich appointments, glowing colors and gleaming trim.

A VACATION-SIZE TRUNK, TOO, with room for all your luggage. Because of this, you don't have to choose between carrying passengers or luggage in the back seat (as you do in some other luxury compacts!)

FALCON SIX ECONOMY is yours, too, in the Futura... the kind of economy that was proved when a Falcon with standard shift got 32.6 mpg under the cross-country test conditions of the 1961 Mobilgas Economy Run. Drivers of all cars in the Run were experts, but Falcon topped them all with the best gas mileage ever recorded by a "6" or "8" in the Run's 25-year history!

P. S. The new Falcon Futura—America's lowest-priced luxury compact—is at your Ford Dealer's now. Shouldn't you be there too?

necessity of calling in another workman or contractor in this line. He also sells and installs storm doors and windows.

Maurice King will be glad to call on you and make a free estimate on your next roofing or repair job.

You deserve the best . . . you deserve "A Roof Fit For A King." You may phone Lamesa 3464 daytime or Lamesa 4728 nights, and King will be ready to serve you.

He has a little extra special interest in serving the people of Lynn county in the lines mentioned above. Give him a trial.

HOME TRADE PAYS!

A community such as ours is built and maintained and prospers by trading that goes on within it; not by the dollars which we allow ourselves to be persuaded to send off or carry off to some other community.

Our schools, our churches, most of our homes and jobs or businesses, the number and sort of neighbors we have, the ability of our stores and service establishments to take care of our daily and emergency needs—all of these depend upon local trade—money spent here at home.

EVERYTHING FOR THE HOME AT— Alton Cain Hardware & Furniture

Alton Cain Hardware & Furniture store in Tahoka is one of the largest and most complete stores of its kind on the South Plains.

Alton Cain is no new comer to Tahoka, although he has owned the store only three years. After finishing school at West Texas State, he came to Tahoka in 1933 to work for D. W. Gaignat. He was married the next year to Miss Geneva Cooper. In 1958, he bought out the D. W. Gaignat business.

This friendly couple operates a personalized business and attempts to help customers make their selections for service, quality and beauty to fit individual needs. They intend to stay here and they want their customers to be completely satisfied with every purchase.

Cain's can furnish the home from front door to back, from utility room to living room.

They feature fine furniture such as Colony Arts Maple, Bassett, McCoy-Couch, Hungerford, and B. F. Huntley. They furnish complete installation service on carpets in quality lines such as Mohawk, McGee and Aldon.

They feature the famous Tappan stoves, gas and electric, and now have 13 models on display to choose from. Kelvinator appliances include ranges, refrigerators, washers and dryers, freezers, and dish washers. Another line carried is the Motorola brand of television and radio sets.

You can go to Cain's for almost anything from tacks to hot water heaters and mattresses, fine china and cookware, mirrors and pictures, sporting goods for the hunter and fisherman, gift goods, farm supplies, self hardware and small tools, power tools, lawn and garden supplies, etc.

Alton Cain's is another firm that gives its time and help to various civic affairs and is deserving of the patronage of the people of Lynn county.

All the firm asks is that people of the area give them a chance when in need of any of the lines it carries. Mr. Cain operates his business on the principle that relations do not stop with the sale—he wants his customers to be pleased.

The progressive businesses advertising in The News appreciate an opportunity to serve you at any and all times.

Mothers worry when drivers hurry.
