Mrs. Leland White from New Home, vice chairman of the county home demonstration council, was the commentator for the event. Mrs. W. C. Maeker, home demonstration council chairman, presented ribbons to the girls, and Lynnetta Cain accompanied the girls with the piano in a soft medley of songs.

Senior division winner was Sarah Wells, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Wells. She will represent the county in the District 4-H Dress Revue on July 25 to be held in the Student Ball Room at Texas Tech. She will be escorted by Lester Ford.

Miss Wells's winning garment is a school dress of shagbark in 100 percent cotton. It is a muted stripe of orchid and browns. She will wear flats with the dress, and with change of accessories it can easily go shopping or to church.

LaNita Wood, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wood, O'Donnell, was winner in the junior division. She modeled a school skirt and blouse of multi-color plaid with light blue dominating and a metallic stripe. Both are buttoned down the front with pearlized blue buttons and gives the appearance of a one-piece ensemble. The 100 percent cotton garment will be worn for school wear with bone tie oxforde. Irrigation Survey Lists 1,525 Wells In Lynn

Lynn county has 80,000 acres, mostly cotton, under irrigation with 1,525 wells on 585 farms, according to a survey recently completed by Dave Sherrill, irrigation specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, and sent to County Agent Bill Griffin.

The survey estimates Lynn county has 75,000 acres of cotton under irrigation, 3,000 acres of grain sorghums, 300 acres alfalfa, 500 acres pasture, 100 acres sudan, 100 acres vegetables, and 1,300 miscellaneous. There is a total of 76,550 acres irrigated by gravity flow. To conserve water, 425 of the 585 irrigated farms have underground pipe totaling 150 miles. Eighty-five farms use sprinkler systems to water 3,459 acres. Bench leveling of irrigated land totals 3,200 acres.

Of the 1,525 wells in Lynn county, 815 have a lift of under 125 feet, and 710 of more than 125 feet. All are listed as having a pumping capacity of under 700 gallons per minute.

Fuel used on 330 wells is butane, only 60 are on natural gas, and there are 1,135 on electricity. (Cont'd. on Back Page)

Attending funeral services there on Thursday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Pennington and son, Garland Pennington and niece, Mrs. Corene Izard. The group returned home Saturday.

Lost Clothes Are Returned To Owner

Last week Pete Dorman came to Tahoka to pick up some ironing for his wife, and on his way home lost a bundle of flat ironing.

Pug Parker found the bundle near Shamburgen-Gee Lumber Co. and not knowing to whom it belonged took it to one of the local laundries.

Tuesday morning Mrs. Dorman came to town to do her washing and upon her arrival at the laundry told the attendants of her "lost ironing." It just so happened that Mr. Parker had taken the bundle to that laundry and Mrs. Dorman was returned the bundle.

Such proves that there are still some honest "injuins" in the world today.

Wilson Students At Twirling School

Five high school students from Wilson attended twirling camp at East Texas State College Monday through Friday of this week.

425 Lynn County "Capitalists" Hold Stock In Corporations of Nation

(Special To The News) New York, July 20—Lynn County, it appears, has its full quota of capitalists.

The number of local residents owning stock in publicly-held corporations adds up to 425, according to the latest tabulation, based on data gathered in 1959 and 1960.

This represents a considerable increase in the county's share-owning population since 1956, when similar surveys were made. At that time, there were not more than 186 stockholders locally.

The findings represent breakdowns that were made of national surveys taken by the New York Stock Exchange, the University of Michigan and others to discover who owns American business.

As of 1959, they show, there were 12 and a half million people in the country with money invested

Monday, he addressed the South-west Rotary Club, and Tuesday he spoke before the students of the Lubbock supper school at Dupre School.

Thursday afternoon, he left with Floyd Tubb to visit Carlsbad Cavern, White Sands, and Santa Fe.

ZEDLITZ LOSES LEG

Otto Zedletz, ill for several years, recently had a leg amputated about six inches above the knee at the Veterans Hospital in Big Spring. He is reported to be doing only fairly well.

Hail Damage Bad At Wilson

Hail damage at Wilson Thursday morning of last week turned out to be much more extensive than indicated by meager reports in the last issue of The News.

Some crops north and east of Wilson, a strip about a mile wide and four miles long were completely destroyed. Damage to many other crops was reported.

The hop and jump hail storm started up near the Lubbock county line and extended southeast of Wilson.

Those in the area receiving hail damage or completely destroyed crops include Urcie Clem, "Runt" Moore, Edgar Ahrens, Floyd Heck, Harold Key, Bill Lumsden, Arlis Ehlers, Grover Coleman, Jasper Campbell, Chester Campbell, Willie Schneider, and Walter Ray Steen, and others in this general area.

Of course, the season is too late for replanting cotton, and those in the feed-grain program can not plant the lost acreage in maize.

Also on Thursday, many farms east and southeast of Tahoka received hail and water damage, as reported in The News last week.

Permits Issued For New Homes

Tahoka building permits issued in the past three weeks have brought the year's construction total here to $287,713.00, an increase of $30,250.00, since a report made by The News late in June.

These include the following: L. L. Miller, addition of two rooms to home on West Lockwood, the Brownfield highway, $2,500.00; H. B. McCord Jr., one room addition and remodeling of home on North Third, $2,000.00.

Dr. C. Skiles Thomas, addition of two rooms and bath and remodeling home on North Fifth, $10,000.00.

West Texas Builders and Frank Thomas, new three bedroom home on North Third, west of high school, $11,250.00.

Crowd Attends Draw Reunion

Between 140 and 150 people attended the annual Draw school and community reunion held last Sunday in the Tahoka City-Legion building.

Lunch was served 132 people at noon with L. D. Jackson of O'Donnell doing the catering. There was no program, and the group just spent the day visiting.

Many people were here from out of the county, some of them coming from as far away as Fort Worth and out in New Mexico.

The same committee will be in charge of next year's meeting. This committee is composed of Weldon Martin, Milton Uzie, "Buck" Martin, and Charley Ellis of Abernathy.

Two Ladies Hurt In Cart Accident

Believe it or not, in this space-age two Lynn county ladies are on crutches because of a runaway horse. The accident occurred two weeks ago this Thursday.

They are Mmes. Arlys and Bertice Askew, both of Wells, sisters-in-law. Mrs. Arlys Askew had a leader in her left foot cut in two and 13 stitches were required to close the wound. Mrs. Bertice Askew received a severe bruise to her left foot that requires her to walk on crutches.

The two ladies, along with Debbie, daughter of Mrs. Arlys Askew, and a nephew, Dennis Martin from the Amarada oil camp over in Terry county, had gone for a ride in a home-made two-wheeled cart pulled by "Puffy," the Arlys Askew's white half-Shetland pony.

They were driving serenely along the road between the two ladies' homes, when all of a sudden the framework of the cart underneath the seat broke throwing the women and children over in front of the vehicle and almost under the horses' feet. In some way, the ladies received their injuries, but the children were unscratched.

"Puffy" became scared, and took off in a high run with the shafts and part of the running gear. The frantic pony ran two or three miles, finally circling back to the Bertice Askew home, where she stopped, trembling and exhausted. Really, the women were not hurt in a run-away, but the accident caused the run-away. Fifty years ago similar accidents were not uncommon, as files of The News in the early days reveal many news items about people hurt in run aways.

Bertice had built the cart, using some rubber-tired wheelbarrow wheels and axel, springs, and a four-foot wide seat. Holes drilled in three half-inch pipes weakened the frame, doubtless broken by vibration.

Bertice Loyd was admitted to Tahoka Hospital Saturday as a medical patient. She was dismissed Monday.

E. J. Tanner was an overnight patient in the local hospital Friday.

HOSPITAL REMODELED The interior of Tahoka Hospital is being repainted, the new color scheme being pebble beach. Hospital attendants state that all of the rooms and halls will be redone.

Approximately seventy Tahoka community farmers attended the cotton promotion meeting held Friday night in the City-Legion building. About eighty percent of those attending signed up for the program.

The plan to promote cotton use through research and advertising, to compete with synthetics and other cotton substitutes, was presented by John F. Thomas, local chairman, and John Gregg, Lowell Richardson and a Mr. Peddy, all of the National Cotton Council.

A new organization, called the Cotton Producers Institute, is being formed over the cotton belt limited strictly to cotton farmers and administered strictly by representatives elected by farmers. A fund of up to $13 million is proposed with producers contributing at the rate of $1.00 per bale.

Mr. Thomas said most of the farmers in this area will be contacted on the plan, but farmer committeemen are so busy with their crops at this time that they can not make the calls until later.

So far, the plan has met almost unanimous approval where it has been presented.

Ahids Bother Young Cotton

Serious cotton insect problems were isolated according to reports from County Agricultural Agents during the past week. County Agents in the Red Rolling Plains reported an increase in damage and populations of the boll weevil. Bollworms continue to cause concern in the Permian Basin region, according to agents in that area.

After cotton has set some larger squares and blooms begin to appear in the field, fleahopper populations and their damage should both be considered in determining when control measures are needed, cautioned Bill Griffin, Lynn County Agricultural Agent.

"If three out of every four squares set by the cotton plant are 'sticking,' little damage is being done by fleahoppers regardless of the number observed," states Mr. W. L. Owen, Jr., Associate Entomologist, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. Owen emphasized the importance of considering both the damage observed and the number of fleahoppers present before starting a spray program.

Bollworm populations have remained low in most counties, but fields should be checked regularly for the appearance of bollworm eggs and small worms, cautioned John G. Thomas, Extension Area Entomologist.

Insect situation in Lynn county is very light this week with the exception of cotton aphids that are damaging young cotton.

Two Local Girls Working At Camp

Fred McGinty says his daughter, Montie, and friend Kathy Pirtle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Pirtle of O'Donnell, are having a great time this summer at Camp Blue Haven, in the mountains 18 miles northwest of Las Vegas, New Mexico.

Recently, the girls went on a hike to Hermit Peak, a total of 26 miles in a day. One week end, they went to Santa Fe to see the sights and also Los Alamos, where scientists developed the atom bomb.

Montie has attended the two weeks camp several times in the past, but this year she is working at the camp the entire period it is open, from June 11 until August 11.

SPORTS

Yankees Win Top Game 1-0

The Yankees were winners of the Little League second half in a game ending Monday night, one of the finest baseball games one would see anywhere. They defeated the Cubs 1 to 0 in 10 innings, the game having started Thursday night of last week.

The winning run was made by Buz Owens in the top of the 10th after he had drawn a walk and then advanced to third. Doyle Scheider drove him in on a hit too hot to handle by the Cub third baseman. Tim Walker was the winning pitcher and Chris Roberts got credit for the loss.

Last Thursday, the two teams played nine innings to an 0-0 tie, and weather forced continuing the game until Monday. In the first nine innings there were only two errors, one by each team, and only three men reached third.

Pitching for the Yankees were Mike Burk, John Tyler, and Rett Patterson, and for the Cubs were Pedro Guterres, Mitchell Williams, and Chris Roberts. Each of the three pitchers on each team was on the mound three innings.

The Cubs had tied the Yankees in the first half of the split season, but team managers say the tie will probably not be played off now that the tournament is being held in Aspermont this week end.

In other Little League action Thursday, the Giants defeated the Cards 12-2 with Charley Brown on the mound for the Giants and Gregg

Pony All-Stars Lose Play-Off

Lynn county Pony League All-stars lost out in the district tournament at Denver City early this week, losing to Lovington, N. M., in the first game and to Denver City in the second.

However Dean Taylor says the boys played excellent ball in both games.

Monday night against Lovington, Lynn county was holding a three-run lead going into the last of the fifth inning, when Lovington pushed across three runs to tie the score. The New Mexico boys added two runs in the bottom of the sixth, but the local boys failed to score in the top of the seventh. Larry Jolly went five innings on the mound for Lynn county, and Steve Greer finished it out.

In the double elimination tournament, the Lynn county boys still had hopes when they went up against Denver City Tuesday night in a game that turned out to be a top performance.

At the end of the regular seven inning game, the score was tied 0-0, but in the ninth inning Denver City scored to win the game 1 to 0. Marvin Utecht pitched all the way except for the last out, pitched by Terry Brown.

New Home Wins Over Indians

The Tahoka Indians were defeated Monday night by the New Home team 20 to 10. Bill Kopecky was the winning pitcher and Jack Burk the loser.

Brown, Rogers and Roper hit home runs for New Home, Rogers' being a grand slam. Robert Hood drove in four runs for Tahoka, and the remainder of the local score was made from singles and walks. No one from Tahoka got a double.

The two teams were playing again tonight, Friday.

Today's MEDITATION from The World's Most Widely Used Devotional Guide

The Upper Room

Read Luke 6:6-12

It came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God. (Luke 6:12)

The Gospels tell us stories about Jesus' seeking the presence of the Father outside the temple doors. In the wilderness He sought God for strength to fight temptation. After a busy day, He prayed in the mountain. At the hour of His greatest need, He went to a secluded garden. Jesus felt that out of doors He could be close to the Father.

During a summer workcamp located on a hilltop, the young people made what they called their "Chapel in the Woods." The walls of the "Chapel" were the foliage and its roof was the open sky. The campers held their dedication service there. They felt the presence of God in this open chapel.

We, too, can be with the Almighty when we seek Him outdoors. He is always there. He whispers to us through the flowers and birds, through the wind, the rain, and running waters. When we appreciate God's handiwork, we exalt Him and rejoice in His presence.

PRAYER: Under the canopy of the sky, O God, we come to Thee. Teach us to be appreciative of Thy works around us. Teach us to become more aware of Thy presence in the beautiful out of doors. Through Christ, who prayed in the garden, we pray. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
The presence of God is manifested in His creation. Henry B. Pablo (Philippines)

STRIKE COST DEFENSE

King Ferry, N. Y., Turbine: It has become apparent, after 322 major work stoppages, strikes and boycotts at 22 sites that have cost the U. S. millile program 162,000 man-days of time and extorted uncountable millions of dollars from U. S. taxpayers, that new, clear-cut legislation is needed to put the national defense program back on the track. Only the most forthright and specific legal restraints can put an end to the wholesale sabotage that has even so, for the most part, violated existing law."

QUESTIONS, PLEASE

QUESTION: Does The Holy Spirit Enter The Heart To Make a Believer?

ANSWER: Certainly not, for Paul to the Ephesians says: "That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ. In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard of the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise." (Eph. 1:12, 13.) This passage shows that it was after these Ephesians believed that they received the Holy Spirit; and not only that it was after they believed that they received the Spirit, but shows that they were in Christ when they received it. "In whom"—that is, in Christ. The word of God teaches that we enter into Christ by baptism; that we are baptized into Christ. None are ready to be baptized into him till they have believed and repented. Hence it is perfectly and positively certain that the Holy Spirit does not enter into the hearts of sinners to make them believers. Besides, the word of God teaches that "faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God." Faith comes by hearing the word of God; and since it comes by hearing God's word, it is again certain that it does not come by the Spirit's entering into the heart to produce it.

Again, Peter, in Acts 15:7, says: "Ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe." The Gentiles were to hear the word of the gospel, and believe; hence not made believers by the Spirit entering the heart.

Again, John said of the miracles of Christ: "These are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." (John 20:31.) The word of God, the gospel, through which faith comes, is written down, as also the miracles that Christ performed, as evidence of the truths and facts of the gospel, so that the people may read these, or hear them proclaimed, and believe and be saved.

You are invited to send your questions to: Don Browning, Box 812, Tahoka, Texas. You are also invited to attend the services of the Church of Christ st.

Don Browning may be heard Sunday mornings at 11:00 and evenings at 7:00 at 750 on your radio dial.

Time often plays tricks on a person stunned by such an honor as that awarded me last week.

Shortly after I was told that the Texas Senate had elected me third man in line for office of Governor, my memories condensed all of my 49 years within a few moments for me to see.

The prospect of my being Governor of Texas, if even for only one day, seemed the greatest honor in my life. I realized how lucky I had been to live in such an age and such a state.

Another vivid part of my memories, perhaps because of contrast, was occupied by the years I spent as a boy on our lonely, sandy Gaines County farm. Those days, for me, the seventh child of a family of 13, held little hope of success. They were hard days.

But the years after those were very good to me. I got an education, got married, had two fine children, and have been able to serve my state, an honor any man should be proud of. It could only have happened in this country.

And I'm certainly not forgetting that all the people of the 28th Senatorial District are primarily responsible for my honor in serving as Senate president pro tempore of this session. I want all who care to come visit me and my family during the day I serve as Governor, Aug. 4, when Gov. Daniel and Lt. Gov. Ramsey are both out of the state.

We will be happy to see all of you, either in the morning or in the afternoon, in the Governor's office.

There will be other events, too, during the day that will interest visitors to Austin from this district. We'll have more definite information on these later.

The mail has been especially gratifying, too. It's always good to hear from the people of the district, and especially when they are sending congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Bradford and three children of Ventura, Calif. visited briefly with the Welch Flippin family on Wednesday of last week. The two men served in the Air Force at Altus, Okla. 17 years ago and had not seen each other since.

It is better to drive slowly than to be driven that way.

Grassland News

(By Mrs. O. H. Hoover)

Due to illness of the correspondent, Grassland has been silent these past two weeks. Mrs. Hoover is out of the hospital and we hope on the road to recovery although she is still confined to her bed.

Farmers in this community are groaning too, the rains were very welcome and hoe hands are hard to find. Crops are growing too—so we are very thankful.

People are still going places and receiving visitors, weeds or no weeds. Mrs. E. A. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. W. Fox visited in Oklahoma recently with Mr. Fox's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Porterfield have just returned from a 10-day trip to Yellowstone National Park and report a wonderful time. They went through New Mexico and Colorado stopping along the way to visit interesting places such as the Museum of Natural History at Denver, Sulphur Springs and Hell's Half Acre near Casper, Wyoming.

They also fished in Yellowstone Lake and caught plenty of trout. They returned home through Utah, stopping at Salt Lake City to visit the Temple square of the Mormon Church and went through the Mormon tabernacle. From there they went to the Royal Gorge in Colorado and home to Texas.

Mrs. Spears is at home again. Her son, Gene from Virginia and her daughter, Naomi and their families have been visiting and helping out. Mr. Spears stepped on a nail and has been home too.

Dr. and Mrs. D. D. Dennison were at Methodist Church Sunday where he preached and held quarterly conference.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fox were very pleasantly surprised on their sixtieth wedding anniversary recently when their daughter, Mrs. E. A. Thomas entertained with a dinner in their honor and invited friends to call in the afternoon.

A bridal shower was given in the home of Mrs. W. A. King last week honoring Miss Laverne Lauderdale who will marry Pat Pennell in the near future.

Mrs. O. R. Cook has been on the sick list. We hope she has recovered by now.

Visiting in the home of Mrs. Ada Oden are her sister, Belle and sister-in-law, Mrs. Oden from California.

Recent visitors in the Hoover home were her sons, Huston and wife of Littlefield, and Herbert and wife of Shallowater, also Rev. and Mrs. Cleveland, Mrs. Ada Oden, Mrs. Edna Morris, Mrs. Inkleberger and Mae Norma.

Mrs. Alvin Morris visited Mrs. Bob Young in Lubbock last week and they made a business trip to Alamogordo, N. M.

THOUGHT CONTROL Corvallis, Ore. Geyette-Times: "We would like to launch a vigorous protest against a ruling by the U. S. Internal Revenue Service which will not permit a privately owned business—corporation, partnership or individually owned—to charge off as an expense any advertising which attempts to sell the opinions of its owners if these opinions are contrary to those held or a policy set by the Federal government."

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" By C. WILSON HARDER

There are some who claim that if a law had not been passed providing for income tax deductions from pay checks, that the costs of government would have declined, instead of steadily increasing.

In addition, there is quite some concern in certain quarters in Washington over the trend of the past few years to increase deductions for social security.

Congressman Harold Osterberg of northern New York recently pointed out that without any further items tagged onto social security, social security taxes on already passed legislation will continue to increase each year up to 1969 when the employer and employee both will be paying 4 1/2% each on the first $4800 of wages and salaries each year.

This means, then, if there is no further broadening of benefits, by 1969 8 1/2% of wages up to $4800 per year will be going into this fund. On top of this, in some states, the employer pays as high as 3 1/2% on the first $3000 paid per year in unemployment taxes.

This, then, means that on employees making $125 per week or less, for the first six months of each year, the employer will be paying a tax on this payroll over more than 7%.

In a business such as retailing, or some other enterprise where labor is the biggest cost of doing business, these welfare taxes on the employer can be well equal, if not exceeded, the average net profit by a given line of commerce or industry.

Without going into the merits or demerits of any proposals to extend welfare benefits, it is perhaps well to consider that from one standpoint alone the peril point may have been already reached.

That standpoint is the supply of jobs. Inasmuch as business, unlike government, cannot look to outside sources of income to make up increases in costs, every time either government or union actions makes the cost of labor higher, great thought and study is given to finding methods, means, or equipment to replace the need for a part of the workers.

Spurred by past actions, many industries have already replaced workers, many more developments are in the preparation stage and will become operative in the near future, to further aggravate the unemployment problem.

Of course, there is quite an emotional pull to provide the fuller, richer, more carefree life for older citizens. Yet it's kind of a futile activity if it results in less and less job opportunity for the younger citizens.

This concentration by politicians on greater and greater welfare benefits, especially around times of elections, could well result in killing the goose that lays the golden egg.

After all, a sound, logical argument can be made that the father of any young family should carry at least a quarter of million dollars in life insurance. However, if in order to pay the premiums, the family has to stop eating, the arguments that sound so logical become rather silly.

Several West Texas relatives left Monday morning for Earlsboro, Okla., where funeral services were held for John W. Simmons, 59, of Earlsboro, who died there early Sunday afternoon.

Services were read at mid-morning Tuesday in the First Methodist Church, Earlsboro.

Simmons is survived by his widow, formerly Miss Eva Dell Harris of O'Donnell; a son, John L. Simmons, 15, of the home; a brother, C. L. Simmons of Iraan, and a sister in Hawaii.

He was reared in Pecos. Those who attended services included these relatives of Mrs. Simmons: O. D. Harris of Lamesa, O. L. Harris of Hobbs and Otis Harris of O'Donnell, all brothers; Miss Mabel Harris of O'Donnell and Mrs. J. W. Ford of 3303 29th St., Lubbock, sisters.

Mrs. Mitchell Williams has been gone the past week to Hope, Ark., from which place she accompanied her mother, Mrs. A. K. Holloway, to St. Louis for a medical check-up. They were to arrive back in Tahoka Thursday. In the meantime, Mr. Williams and Mitchell Jr. have been baby sitting with the youngster, Stuart.

Gaignets Tell Of Trip To Europe

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Gaignat and two of their granddaughters, Dawn Gaignat of Lubbock and Paige Verner of Tahoka, returned Tuesday evening from a five weeks tour of Europe. Their daughter, Mrs. Chas. Verner, accompanied them on the first two weeks of the trip.

The party visited Spain, France, Italy, Switzerland, Germany, Belgium, Holland, and England on a tight travel schedule which enabled them to see the principal cities and spots of historic and scenic interest.

Mr. Gaignat said they were especially impressed by the many ornate churches and cathedrals. Among the most friendly peoples they found were the Italians and the Swiss. He says the Italian people didn't seem to be able to do enough to make them feel welcome. In some of the other countries, the people seemed cold and indifferent to the tourists.

He said most of the towns, even the small ones, seem busy and prosperous. He hinted that he didn't think some of the countries need the huge sums of foreign aid we are pouring into them.

They also visited the little village of Chosail, France, where the Gaignat's son and Dawn's father, Capt. Charles Gaignat of the U.S. Airforce and a graduate of West Point, was shot down in World War II while flying a P-38 fighter plane over France. Although his body was later brought back to Tahoka, he was given a fine burial there. They talked with a Frenchman who was the first to arrive at the spot where Charles had unsuccessfully parachuted to earth from his low-flying crippled plane, and this man was very kind in recounting the circumstances. A schoolmaster of the village had written them extensively about circumstances following Charles' death and had sent Mrs. Gaignat a hand painted picture of the little church there, but they failed to contact this schoolmaster who had been so kind to them.

The Gaignats greatly enjoyed the trip but say they are glad to get home and believe they had rather live in Tahoka

Mr. and Mrs. John Price went to Borger Friday and remained until Sunday visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. John Rakestraw, and children. Mr. Price says the Wesley Methodist Church, of which Rev. Rakestraw is pastor, is building a new education building.

Manuel Sandoval underwent an appendectomy in Tahoka Hospital Tuesday and is making satisfactory improvement.

Everyday Religion

By J. B. Thompson

Our lives are a mosaic of minor parts—of little things—washing dishes, mending clothes, writing letters, answering the phone, visiting the sick, having coffee with friends, seeing to the details of our jobs. How we play the role in this daily drama of little, commonplace things, determines what our lives really are.

A brief comment on the passing of a little known actor read: "He played minor parts like a master." It is not great opportunities that make us great but the ability to do little things in a great way. Those who are bored with life and whom their fate are those who fail to see the romances in life's minor parts.

It is not the absence of money that makes us poor, but the poor spirit with which we play our part. The richest people in the world are those who invest themselves in the daily round of little things and thereby achieve true greatness.

An old Chinese philosopher when asked what was the greatest joy in life replied "a child going down the road singing after asking me the way."

Mrs. W. H. Robinson and two granddaughters from Corpus Christi are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Freeman en route back home after spending several weeks at Lake City, Colo., where her son-in-law is interested in a mine.

Mrs. W. N. Stone, Anne and Charley, accompanied her sister from Fort Worth to El Paso last Saturday for a visit.

Irrigation . . .

There are an estimated 2,000 playa lakes, and eight recharge wells are reported to be in use in Lynn county.

Sherrill reveals that in 42 North-west Texas and High Plains counties there are a total of 47,502 irrigation wells on 19,568 farms watering 4,888,500 acres. This represents about 48 percent of the cropland. Cotton land under irrigation in the 42 counties totals 1,629,800, or an increase of 121,800 acres over the year before.

Grain sorghum, the area's top irrigated crop, most of which is in the northern tier of counties, totals 1,715,500 acres under irrigation. This is a drop of 3:7 acres from last year, largely because of the acreage taken out of production under the feed grain program. Other crops include alfalfa, pasture, sudan, oats, wheat, barley, legumes and vegetables.

The survey reveals that 600 units of underground irrigation pipeline were installed during the past year and 754 units installed the year before. Weather this year was a determining factor in keeping farmers from installing more of these systems. He says the High Plains now has 8,232 miles of underground irrigation pipe on 9,176 farms watering 1,976,633 acres.

The number of sprinkler systems jumped from 4,967 in 1960 to 5,451 in 1961, and acres irrigated by this method now total 521,493 acres. Most of which is sandy soil where sprinklers will give a more even distribution of water.

Sherrill says farmers are becoming more conscious of the value of water conservation, since the loss to seepage and evaporation in open ditches is about 35 percent of the water turned into the ditches.

Another water conservation practice coming into water use is the pumping of water from playa lakes for irrigation. Farmers pumped from 1,859 such lakes during the past year. Also, seven more recharge wells were drilled to put water that collects in playa lakes back into the underground formations.

His report shows water tables did not drop appreciably last year, largely because of heavy rains contributed an above normal amount of natural recharge to underground formations, and less pre-planting irrigation was necessary.

About 62 percent of the irrigation wells show a pumping capacity of less than 700 gallons per minute, and 79 percent had a lift of more than 125 feet.

Lynn county has a large percentage of small to very small irrigation wells. W. L. Broadhurst of the High Plains Underground Water District has frequently said the Lynn county farmers do the most with the least water of any county on the South Plains. Because most of the wells are small ones and the water is limited, farmers are water conservation conscious and allow for as little waste of water as possible.

Mr. Sherrill's survey covers all the 42 counties of Districts I and II of the Extension Service, extending from the Oklahoma line south to include Howard and Mitchell counties, and from the New Mexico line east to the Caprock, plus Scurry and Borden counties off the Caprock.

Congratulations:

the investment process. Added to this, he says, has been the concern over inflation.

The studies show, on a national basis, from what income groups the shareowners come. Almost half of them are in households that have incomes of $5,000 to $10,000. Another fourth, roughly, are in the over-$10,000 household bracket. The remaining 25 percent are in households with incomes not exceeding $5,000.

Among those who do own stock, it is found, two out of five have shares in only one corporation. As to the average investor, he holds 3.5 different stock issues. Less than one out of five has a diversified group of holdings comprising seven or more issues.

Life In Holland Is Battle With Sea, Guest Student Tells Rotary Club

Hendrick (Hank) Arendse, summer foreign student guest of Tahoka Rotarians from The Netherlands (Holland), was the speaker at the club Thursday noon of last week.

Hank, age 25, is teacher of a small school, and is the son of a retired mechanical engineer of the Royal Navy.

An American flying into the airport would be surprised to read a sign that says "13 feet below sealevel," the speaker declared.

The lowlands of Holland have been reclaimed from the sea, and Hank spent most of his time telling of this wonderful accomplishment and the projects now underway to increase the size of the country by taking in more land from the sea. Located on the Rhine river delta land, much of the country is below sealevel and created by dikes.

There's a popular saying, "The Lord created the earth; the Dutch created Holland."

REV. J. C. ALLEN

Allen Conducting O'Donnell Revival

Rev. J. C. Allen of Lubbock, formerly of Lynn county, is the evangelist for a revival meeting which will be held at O'Donnell Church of the Nazarene Sunday, July 23, through Sunday, July 30.

Rev. Allen has held meetings in Texas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico. He formerly was a resident of the Grassland community.

Services will be held at 7:30 p. m. The public has a cordial invitation to any or all of the services.

MILCHING THE COW

Shelby, Mont., Promoter: "An old and very wise Frenchman remarked after the collapse of his country in World War II: 'My country fell because we had come to consider France as a cow to be milked rather than a watchdog to be fed.' This was after France had been burdened with all manner of social subsidies and benefits."

and very economical for those wishing to study further. A youth doing well in high school has no trouble entering college.

Church membership is about 40 percent Protestant, 30 percent Catholic.

Hank didn't say so, but the World Book says Holland is one of the best governed countries of the world and ranks close behind the U. S. and England in commerce.

He was introduced by Charles Townes, in charge of the program. Horace Rogers was introduced as a new member of the club.

Thuren Installs New Equipment

Dale Thuren Farm Store has just completed installation of bulk feed handling equipment for the grinding of milo or any other grains and mixing them with Purina supplements according to Purina's Chick-R-Mim formulas and deliver to farm.

This system features the following, Mr. Thuren says:

Pampco bag or bulk bed that has hydraulically operated augers allows the loading and unloading of bulk feeds and whole grains.

Seven Butler storage tanks, three of which are inside the building, into which ground grain can be blown and stored.

A weigh-buggy in which all grain and supplements are taken from storage tanks, accurately weighed, and deposited in mixer.

Three tanks outside of the building hold bulk supplements brought from Purina Mills in the bulk by Thuren's truck and put in top of tanks. Discharge augers from supplement tanks are inside the building and are operated by electric motors.

One discharge tank outside the building holds mixed feeds which are augered directly from mixer to the tank. Another auger takes these mixed feeds directly from the tank and discharges them into bulk truck for delivery to the feed buyer.

The system is designed to deliver up to three different rations at one time to the farmer's feed lot holding bins and load and bring back his whole grain to be deposited in Thuren's grain bins for credit.

All the transfer of whole grain from the farmer's bin to the bulk truck, from truck to Thuren's grain bin and to the grinder, from the grain and supplement storage tanks to the mixer, from the mixer to the discharge tank, from the discharge tank to the truck, and from the truck back to the feed lot storage bins is completed by a system of electrical and hydraulic operated augers. Very little hand scooping and no sacks or bags are involved.

Mr. Thuren feels that this whole system will allow him to conveniently service his customers, thus allowing them to reduce their labor and overhead costs in their feeding operations. He also feels that this will in turn induce feed-

ATTEND TRAUTWEIN RITES

Robert Lamb and Clarence Church, both of Wilson, attended the funeral services for Louis Trautwein, 94, father of Mrs. H. B. Crosby and grandfather of Mrs. Elmer Blankenship, in Shiner last Friday. Bob says crops are spotted "down state," and most cotton is very late on account of the excessive rains preventing early planting.

Mrs. Tom Cloe, who recently underwent surgery, is reported to be recovering.

ers to increase the size of their cattle, hog, and poultry projects, thus helping to bring more income to this area.

Nine Accidents In Rural Lynn

The Highway Patrol investigated nine accidents on Rural Highways in Lynn County during the month of June, according to Sgt. E. L. Stroud, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These wrecks accounted for four persons injured, and a property damage of $4,158.00.

The Rural Traffic Accident Summary for Lynn County during January through June of 1961 shows a total of 32 crashes. As a result of these crashes there were 18 persons injured and no persons killed. The estimated property damage amounted to $20,353.00. This compares with the first six months of 1960's total of 38 Rural crashes injuring 22 people, killing two persons and causing an estimated property damage of $33,615.00.

The Sgt. advised that the summer Slow Down and Live campaign emphasizes the need for motorists to control their driving speed. Speed control is vital to safety, because of the overcrowded conditions of the highways caused by thousands and thousands of vacation travelers, most of whom are in a big hurry, since vacation time is usually all too short. That hurry attitude frequently steers them into speeding violations—or, worse than that, a serious accident—even death itself!

The mood is Thunderbird...the economy is Falcon...

...it's the new Falcon Futura by Ford

COMPACT COUSIN OF THE THUNDERBIRD

And, it's the nicest thing that ever happened to America's best-loved compact! Now... step aboard! Relax in the foam-padded comfort of individually contoured twin front seats (styled by the men who designed the Thunderbird!) Rest your lucky feet on the thick wall-to-wall carpeting. Look down beside you: there's a handy console between the front seats for your personal effects.

Be sure to check the back seat, too—plenty of room there for 3 people. And, in Futura everyone's luggage goes in the vacation-size trunk—where it belongs. Futura gives you true compact gas economy, too. Finally, when it's time to check the price sticker—surprise! Because—for all its luxury, all its economy—

Futura's actually America's lowest-priced luxury compact!

A Falcon Makes Economy Run History! A 1961 Falcon with standard transmission got 32.6 mpg under the cross-country test conditions of this year's Mobilgas Economy Run... the best gas mileage ever recorded by a "6" or "8" in the Run's 25-year history! Even more impressive... was the competition... a group of expert drivers really out to win. But Falcon topped them all!

More good news! Ford sales are booming! One reason: Falcon, America's best-selling compact has increased its 1961 lead over its nearest competitor to nearly 50,000 cars!

Printer's Ink-lings

By F. P. H.

We often recall some statements Walter Slaton once made to us concerning the establishment of a good credit rating. (Probably, he was issuing a personal hint, for our bank account was a liability to the bank.) Said Walter something like this: It's strange how many people fail to realize the importance of establishing a good credit rating. It's so easy for anyone to build up a name for himself. All one has to do is pay the bills he owes when they are due. If he can't pay them, he should go to the firm who gave him credit, explain his situation, and make a small payment on his bill. The businessman will usually understand, appreciate the fellow's frankness and play ball with him until he can pay. All he has to do is to be careful not to overdraw his account habitually. All he has to do, when he borrows money, is to meet the obligation he has made, or, when something happens to prevent his doing so, come to his banker in advance to the due date and explain his plight to the banker. Credit extended to anyone is a favor to the buyer, or borrower. But, some people seem to think they are doing a firm a favor when they buy on credit. The reverse is true, and the customer owes a little extra obligation to his creditor.

It's rumored down in Austin that the ultra-liberal Democrats of Texas, smarting under the sting of defeat in the senatorial election, are planning on going all-out next election to elect their candidates. They have singled out, among others, Congressman George Mahon, for retirement. Well, we have taken a few swipes at George, ourselves, because we thought he was leaning, at times, too far to the left, not right. And, we've heard talk that Republicans and ultra-conservative Democrats, are going after George's seat in Congress. But, that is a pretty big order for either faction to accomplish. Incidentally the ultra-liberals are said to look with favor on Jim Wright of Fort Worth, a loser in the senate race, for governor or re-election to his office, and hope to put Henry Gonzales and Maury Maverick Jr. in office somewhere.

Some more rumor is that the reason a missile base is planned at Lubbock is to use as a club over the head of Mahon, a powerful man in the House, to keep him in line with the New Frontier plans.

thing about a preacher, a doctor, and a newspaper that is alike. A preacher will work to save your soul. A doctor will work to save your body. A newspaper will work to save your community. The trouble with most of us is that we pay no attention to either.

Here of late we have noticed that the television newscasters seem to be taking more than the usual side-swipes at the newspapers. We have a sneaking suspicion the reason is the large number of national advertisers who are cutting their television advertising budgets, now that the new has worn off television, and going back to the newspapers, in which advertising has long proven most successful. Many people resent long television commercials and prefer to read advertising on the printed page at their leisure. We watch television mostly for entertainment. We read newspapers mostly for information.

Incidentally, virtually all the news broadcast by television stations is gathered by newspapers and sold to television through the Associated Press, owned by the daily newspapers.

If ever a new Statue of Liberty is designed, it will be holding the bag instead of the torch.—Gulf Breeze.

In a Sunday School class discussion of temperance, one mother related that she learned how well she had taught her children the evil of liquor when her youngster, a TV cowboy fan, brought her a picture he had drawn of a cowboy in a saloon.

"But don't worry, mother," he quickly assured her. "He isn't going to drink anything. He just went in there to shoot a man."

Since there has been some controversy about whether a pioneer street scene published in The News on June 23 is O'Donnell or Tahoka, "Skip" Taylor has come forward to definitely identify the picture as old-time O'Donnell. Not only this, but "Skip" can identify the five business buildings pictured. He was there, and he should know. He says there are Roy Miles and Claude Tomlinson Barber shop, Bill Treadway's drug store, L. G. Phillips general merchandise, Dr. Thompson's office, and Eubanks grocery and dry goods.

Herbert S. Watson of Abernathy writes: Please continue our subscription to the Lynn County News. We would be lost without it. We keep up with most of our friends through your paper. The first thing I look at is Printer's Inkings, which I enjoy very much. Although I don't always agree with you in what you say, I agree with your right to say it. Yours for free speech!

Thanks, Herbert! We don't expect everyone to agree with us. In fact, we don't expect anyone to agree with everything. We would think there was something wrong if everyone agreed with us all the time. If we do nothing more than cause a few people to think for themselves, our mission will be accomplished.

J. L. Cunningham of 731 W. 8th, Freeport, a long-time Tahoka citizen, writes his health is fine. He has been having some eye trouble, but says they are better now. We miss J. L. since he moved away, as he was a frequent visitor to our office for many years.

John Heck of Wilson, "the daddy of Lyntegar" and one of the greatest citizens Lynn county has ever had, sends his regards by Garland Pennington to The News. Mr. Heck stays pretty close to home now because his health has not been the best the last few years, but his influence is still felt, his counsel highly regarded, and his friendship cherished by many of our citizens. John Heck has long been a standard bearer for everything that is for the good, every decent move for progress. Without his foresight and dogged determination, there may have never been a Lyntegar—at least, in its present successful state. We believe in flowers for the living, and there's no bouquet quite adequate for John Heck and his loyal wife and companion.

And, while we're at it, we'd like to congratulate Mrs. J. O. King, also of Wilson, another of our great friends and citizens, on her 80th birthday last Friday. She has spent 60 of her 80 years in Lynn county, and is still going strong. She came to town Monday to wash. The Printer owes a lot to Mr. and Mrs. King for their friendship, and the encouragement they have given us over the years.

Johnny Reasonover asks: Have you heard about Mr. Metreval winning the "nobelli" prize?

Gulf Breeze says: He may have a greasy hat and his trousers may be shiny, but if his children have their noses flattened against the windowpane a half hour before he is due home for supper, you can trust him with anything you have.

Little Mary's father had denied her a pleasure that she had confidently expected. That night, when she said her prayers she concluded with this petition: "And please don't give my papa any more children. He don't know how to treat the ones he's got now."

The following "teenager code" was written by a girl named Virginia Cole of Dallas and appeared in Dr. Norman Vincent Peale's column:

1. Don't let your parents down; they brought you up.
2. Stop and think before you drink.
3. Ditch dirty thoughts fast or they'll ditch you.
4. Show-off driving is juvenile. Don't act your age.
5. Be smart; obey. You'll give orders yourself some day.
6. Choose your friends carefully. You are what they are.
7. Choose a date fit for a mate.
8. Don't go steady unless you are ready.
9. Go to church regularly; God gives you a week; give Him back an hour.
10. Live carefully... the soul you save may be your own.

BAKING CHAMPION COMBINES COOKING SKILL WITH ELECTRIC RANGE AND HOME FREEZER FOR PRIZE-WINNING RESULTS.

Mrs. Michael is a Tri-State Fair baking champion in many classifications. Her white bread, French bread, sweet rolls and cup cakes have all brought her top honors. And, of course, she bakes electrically.

Mrs. Michael bakes in quantity and freezes the bread and rolls in her home freezer so that her family can enjoy these delicious home made pastries at all times.

The Michaels have had a home freezer for 15 years and find that it makes it possible for them to buy in quantity when prices are low — and save money. As Mrs. Michael says: "We couldn't get along without our home freezer."

You won't want to after you buy yours.

Mrs. Michael has been baking bread since she was 10 years old.

How about a Fair Break for Railroads?

we're asking your support for equal treatment by government of all carriers, including the railroads

The Association of American Railroads has drawn up a document called "Magna Carta for Transportation."

We're asking for public support of this common-sense statement on public transportation policy, hoping citizens will recognize that an entire industry that serves them is being deprived of its natural rights—and will want to help.

What to do? Ask your congressman to help restore to the railroads these "four freedoms":

- Freedom from discriminatory regulation
- Freedom from discriminatory taxation
- Freedom from subsidized competition
- Freedom to provide a diversified transportation service

Businesses that Make Our Town "Tops"!

As hard-working townspeople, we are apt to overlook many personalities and programs that aid in making Tahoka a fine and prosperous place in which to live.

Among the folks who deserve recognition and reward for outstanding help in reaching our town goals are the businesses and business men that serve our town and area.

To acquaint you with the folks and firms that mean much to us, The Lynn County News is printing a series of stories about these people and places. We know you will be interested in the stories we tell. We also feel that when you have need for what these friends and their firms sell, you will reward them with your purchases.

Forrester Insurance Agency is "going on 30 years" in business in Tahoka serving the insurance needs of the people of Lynn county.

"We are proud of the fact that we are now writing about $100,000 a year in premiums," states J. A. Biggerstaff, "and that we have tripled our volume in the past 16 years."

He does not take all the credit for this, although the firm has worked to increase its business, but says this increase is largely due to two factors—natural growth of the community, and people have become a little more conscious of the need to carry fire insurance protection.

The Forresters bought the firm in the spring of 1932 from A. J. Glasgow. However, it had been established much earlier and among the early-day operators were Marshall Swann, followed by C. L. Dickson and next Mr. Glasgow.

But, the Forresters were among the first settlers of the county. The late R. C. Forrester came to Lynn county in 1902, and he and his dad and brother operated the Forrester Ranch, north of West Lumsden & Greer ranch.

Point, which later became the Annie Mae Hughes had come to Graham Chapel, Garza county, with her parents, and she and R. C. were married in 1905. They lived on the ranch for some years, then moved to Tahoka in 1914. After living here a year, they moved to Wilson, where he was a partner with Mr. Fertsch in Wilson Lumber Co. Later he sold life insurance, and for about two years was editor and owner of the Wilson Pointer, a weekly newspaper.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrester bought the insurance agency here in 1932 from Mr. Glasgow, and moved to Tahoka a few months later. Mr. Forrester passed away in 1933, and Mrs. Forrester and her daughter, O'Ber, continued to operate the firm.

O'Ber was married in 1943 to J. A. Biggerstaff of Bowie, and after spending two years overseas in the service, "Big" came to Tahoka and joined the firm as manager.

"Big" says he has never regretted the move. He likes the country and the people and wouldn't even return to his old home town.

The Biggerstaffs have four adopted children who are their pride and joy—Jim, now 14; Anna Lee, 14; Robbie, 10; and Linda, also 10. Grandma Forrester and Papa and Mama Biggerstaff just hope to live long enough to see some of these children take an interest in this business, or do anything else honorable they want to do. Next to their kids, their business is the most important thing.

They feel they are rendering a worthwhile service in the insurance business, and are ever ready to advise with property owners on their insurance needs.

Fire and windstorm losses sometimes are so devastating that the person suffering the loss is hurt financially. Even though the property owner is financially able to stand the loss, most people have come to agree that insurance against such losses is smart business.

In the last five years, 1956 through 1960, fire losses in Tahoka have totaled $149,221.00.

More than a half million homes catch fire in America every year. That is nearly 1,400 buildings every week. Fire strikes all alike—the town home, the farm home, the little shack and the mansion alike.

Property loss from fire is in excess of $250 million a year in the nation.

Without presuming to tell people what they should or should not do, "Big" does call attention to some facts pointed out by the State Fire Insurance Department.

Many home fires are caused by smoking in bed, dropping a cigarette in wastepaper basket, flipping a smoke out the door or window, laying a "fag" on a ledge or table or windowsill.

One major cause of home fires is defective heating units; another is overloading of electric circuits with too many appliances; another is putting a penny behind a blown fuse.

Of course there are many others, such as placing oily rags in a closet, use of combustible cleaning fluids, use of gasoline in household processes, children playing with matches, matches dropped in closets and ignited by mice.

"We in the insurance business hear of so many fires started by such innocent little acts of carelessness that we feel, it our duty to call attention to these dangers at every opportunity possible for staff says.

"We are proud of our fire department—the safety of our friends, "Biggerment and the boys who give their time to serve in this department," he says, "but let's all of us try to be a little more careful so that we will not have to turn in the fire alarm."

"We are glad to go over any Lynn county citizen's insurance program at any time," Mr. Biggerstaff told the writer. "In fact, we welcome anyone interested to come see us about your problems, whether you buy insurance from us or from someone else. A part of our business is to advise with you people of our area."

WASTE IN GOVERNMENT

Ellsworth, Wis., Herald: "The Defense Dept. spends half of the national budget, $42 billion. Half of that is for the procurement of goods . . . One provoking figure is that 86 per cent of the $21 billion spent on materials is being handed out by military officers to industry without competitive bidding.

Since 1947 Congress has been recommending that the system of awarding contracts without competitive bidding be abandoned save in extremely rare instances. But the practice continues. You can't blame the military for wanting it to continue. It makes things

'more flexible'. It's also one of those reasons you'll whistle a long time for a tax reduction."

FREEDOM OF CHOICE

Dallas, Tex., News: "Freedom of choice should apply to labor unions the same as to anything else. If a man is FORCED to join a union in order to get a job, then allow deduction of union dues from his pay envelope in order to keep his job—THAT ISN'T AMERICANISM!"
