(Special to The News) New York, Sept. 28.—Farms in Lynn county yielded more in 1960, in the way of gross income, than did farms in most parts of the United States.

With improved efficiency, thanks to greater mechanization and to more intensive use of fertilizers and insecticides, the average farmer was able to produce and market more than he did in prior years.

Just how he made out, compared with farmers elsewhere, is revealed in a county-by-county survey of farm incomes, conducted by the Standard Rate and Data Service. Every section of the country is included.

It shows that the gross receipts in the year for all farms in Lynn county amounted to $30,375,000. The total in 1959 was $30,298,000.

Related to the local farm population, it was equal to $6,075 per person.

That was a larger per capita return than was recorded in most parts of the United States, the average being $1,805 per farm resident. It also topped the State of Texas, $2,252.

The figures take into account the cash proceeds from farm marketings, together with "income in kind," which is the value of products raised and used on the farm, and Government subsidies.

Of the money received from the sale of farm products, a breakdown shows that approximately 96 percent of it represented receipts from crops and an estimated two percent, the returns from livestock.

Costs continue to be the fly in the ointment. They have failed to level off sufficiently to give the farmer a significant increase in net income. He is, however, approaching that goal by virtue of his ability to cut his labor costs through the use of his newly-acquired equipment.

"Even with its problems, agriculture's future is bright," according to Dr. Charles E. Palm, dean of Cornell University's College of Agriculture.

"To achieve a higher return for their labor and investment, farmers need increased market power."

This is beginning to happen, he said, as they are being called upon to feed a rapidly expanding population at home and abroad. Their role is already growing in importance.

Bracero Hit By Car In O'Donnell

A bracero was injured in a hit-and-run accident in O'Donnell Wednesday night of last week and a Lynn county man, driver of the car, has been released on $750 bond.

The bracero, Paulino Villagoz, had just arrived in O'Donnell under the Bolynda Co-op Labor Association, when he was hit by the car and received possible fractures of the hip or pelvis and elbow, in addition to other contusions and abrasions. He is in a Lamesa hospital, where his condition is described as fair.

The man driving the car is alleged to have fled from the scene of the accident but later surrendered to officers in Tahoka. His case will be presented to the grand jury.

HAVE NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Thomas have moved a new three-bedroom home to their lot at 1314 Petty K in Tahoka. They expect to move in soon when the interior work is completed.

Living Blower was a patient in Lamesa Hospital from Saturday until Wednesday where he was being treated for the flu.

SCD District's Election Tuesday

An election will be held on Tuesday, Oct. 3, to select a supervisor for Zone 3 of the Lynn County Soil Conservation District. Zone 3 includes area within the boundaries of Midway, Redwine, Draw and Joe Bailey school districts.

Election boxes will be placed at the gin and grocery store at Draw. Any landowner living in the area is eligible to vote and hold office. Women may also vote as well as men.

These supervisors serve without pay. Their responsibility is to direct and promote soil conservation activities within the district. A soil conservation district is a legal sub-division of state government. These districts are truly grass-roots government where farmers themselves make policy and plans for carrying out conservation activities.

W. L. (Cap) Rowe is the outgoing supervisor. Cap is presently the board secretary and has served long and faithfully in the position, other members of the body declare, and is to be commended for the contribution to conservation activities in the district. Other board members include Melvin Wuensche, E. R. Blakney, Ellis Barnes and Ward Eakin.

All eligible residents of Zone 3 are urged to vote Tuesday.

New Manager For Local Office

Harold Roberts from Levelland will assume his duties as Tahoka manager of Southwestern Public Service Company on Monday, and Johnny Reasonover, manager here for the past ten years, is moving to a similar position at Ralls.

A native of Gatesville, Roberts, who is 37, is a graduate of Levelland schools and a business college, served in the Air Force from 1942 to 1946, and has been with the company since 1948, recently as chief clerk of the Levelland office.

He and his wife Anna Margaret, have three daughters, Pamela, Jan and Rebecca, and expect to move here as soon as they can find a place to live.

Roberts is past president of the Levelland Jaycees, has served as county chairman of the National Foundation, and has been active in other civic affairs. They are members of the Baptist Church.

Reasonover and wife, Charlotte, who has been employed in the local ASC office, are moving to Ralls this week end. Since coming to Tahoka, Johnny has held just about every civic office in Tahoka, having been head of the Rotary Club, Chamber of Commerce, Methodist Men, Men's Sunday School Class, has directed several charity drives, and has also been on the Boy Scout committee. A believer in thorough organization, in every instance his leadership has resulted in outstanding success in every project he has handled in Tahoka and Lynn county.

Pioneer Killed In Highway Crash

A truck-tractor collision one and a half miles north of O'Donnell resulted in the death of Otis Claude Harris, 59, on route 3, O'Donnell at about 2:20 p. m. Monday. Patrick McKibben, Jr., 39, of Lamesa, formerly of O'Donnell and Tahoka, received internal injuries and underwent surgery in Medical Arts Hospital in Lamesa.

Harris was driving his tractor south toward O'Donnell on Highway 87 near his home north of O'Donnell when he was struck from behind by a flatbed truck driven by McKibben, investigating highway patrolmen stated. The impact sent the vehicles 200 feet into the barrow ditch where Harris was pinned beneath the wreckage.

The two vehicles were "welded together" by the impact with the motor of the truck pushed into the cab. Highway Patrolman Leroy C. Melton said it was difficult to tell where the tractor stopped and the (Cont'd. On Back Page)

Cotton Harvest Is Picking Up Speed

German Youth In Local School

Birger Ollrogge, 17-year-old youth from West Germany, arrived in Tahoka Tuesday night to spend the next few months in the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Boyd.

He is entering Tahoka High School this week, where he expects to complete his high school education.

Birger is the brother-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd's son, Capt. Bobby Boyd, who is currently stationed in Fort Benning, Ga. The story of his trip to the United States began several years ago.

While stationed in Berlin, Bobby married Miss Monika Ollrogge of that city. She followed her husband to the United States after he was transferred back to this country.

In May of 1960, both Boyd families and School Supt. Otis Spears began work, along with Birger, in obtaining for him a student's visa to this country. Several times, they almost gave up all hopes for obtaining such a visa for the youth, but finally it came through. The German youth arrived in New York City on September 14.

Birger must report to authorities every three months and his visa has been issued until 1965 so that his education may be completed. He was in the 10th grade in Berlin, but how he will be classified in Tahoka High School is, as yet, undetermined.

His mother and brother are still in Germany, his mother in West Berlin and his older brother is a member of the Merchant Marine.

Motel Operator Dies Suddenly

Earl W. Wrestler, 49 year old motel owner of Tahoka, died at his home Tuesday morning, apparently from a heart attack. He had moved here a few months ago after completing the new Echo Motel on Highway 87.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday at the First Methodist Church in Post with Rev. Charles Gates of Sweetwater and Rev. Oscar Bruce, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Humboldt, Kansas, Thursday, where graveside services were held. Hudman Funeral Home in Post was in charge of local arrangements.

Wrestler came to Tahoka from Post, where he had operated several motels. He came to Post in 1949, and was employed there by the Service Pipeline Co. as connection foreman for a number of years. He retired from the company in August after 27 years of service. Wrestler was reared in Kansas.

He was a past president of the Post Lions Club, was a member of the First Methodist Church in Post, and was a member of the Masonic Lodge.

Survivors include his wife, Helen; one daughter, Mrs. Guy E. Stom of Albany; his mother, Mrs. V. L. Wrestler of Tahoka; and two grand children.

Jerry McNeely's Filley Wins Prize

One prize-winning Lynn county quarterhorse was not mentioned in the story in The News last week.

This horse is Mabel's Misty, owned by Jerry McNeely of New Home, which recently placed second among 1961 fillies in the show held at Levelland. The filly was trained and shown by David Evans.

Tahoka gins had processed a total of 1,585 bales of 1961 cotton Thursday morning, according to a survey made by The News. Through Tuesday, 975 bales had been ginned in O'Donnell, according to the Index-Press.

Showers Tuesday and Wednesday affected some areas, and on Thursday the skies were cloudy, which limited harvest in some areas.

Because of recent cool weather, farmers with late cotton are fearful an early freeze this year may hurt their production. The weather is also causing some other cotton to be slow in maturing.

Ginning is off to a slow start, and some of this is due to the fact that more and more farmers are going to machine their crops due to the uncertainty of sufficient labor.

Some farmers with mature cotton are already beginning to defoliate for use of strippers, and others expect to defoliate in the next week or two.

Elevators report that grain is also coming in slowly following a fair-sized rush of the early harvested crop. Like cotton, maize is in all stages of development this year.

Cotton production will probably exceed last year, but some estimate the maize production will not be so great.

Wilson Girl's Lost Purse Is Returned By Amarillo Man

W. H. McDaniel of Amarillo, who is connected with Pierless Equipment Corporation in that city, brought a lady's purse to The News Tuesday morning that he had found on Ave. Q in Lubbock Monday night.

The purse belonged to Miss Carolyn Schneider of route 1, Wilson.

Not knowing where Wilson was, Mr. McDaniel brought the purse to Tahoka when he called on Lewis Construction Co., and was brought to The News office by Jimmy Dykes. Mr. McDaniel said the purse was lying in the street, apparently lost from a car or other vehicle.

The purse was returned to Carolyn by her cousin in Tahoka, Mrs. JoAnn Adamson.

Although Carolyn's purse contained no money, a similar incident occurred last week when four boys returned a purse containing money, etc., valued at $400 to its owner.

Load Shifts, Causes Truck To Overturn

A large trailer-truck van used for hauling flour overturned early Tuesday morning just off Highway 380 as it turned onto Petty Street. One rider received a knee injury.

Driver of the flour truck was Oscar Starbuck, 20, of Clovis, N. M. Receiving the knee injury was Carroll Robinson, also about 20, of the same city.

The truck had unloaded about half of its contents in Brownfield, but the driver failed to balance the remainder of the load inside the van, the result being that the biggest portion of the load was on one side. The truck turned off the highway on Petty to unload an order at Piggy Wiggy, and as it did, the flour in the van shifted and caused the truck to overturn. It hit the front of a new tractor belonging to Tahoka Implement Co., causing minor damage.

Farm Facts

Prices of food have risen less than most other items in the consumer's budget. This is pointed out by the Agricultural Marketing Service of the Department of Agriculture.

In 1960, retail food prices were about a sixth higher than their average in 1947-49, but the Consumer Price Index—the average of prices paid by consumers for all goods and services—was up by more than a fourth. Declining food prices helped keep the Price Index from climbing higher during this period.

Retail prices of foods originating on American farms rose less than the average for all retail food prices, which includes prices of imported foods and non-farm foods. The slower rise in retail food prices than in the Price Index resulted entirely from the decline in farm prices, since charges for marketing these products increased at a faster rate than the Price Index.

The consumer's food dollar pays for the services of many different groups in the economy that produce, process, and

Planting Seed Weather Affects

College Station—Due to the recent weather conditions, many Texas farmers have had stored supplies of cottonseed damaged while others have been unable to harvest good quality seed from this year's crop. As a result, seed for next year's planting will very likely be in short supply, points out Fred Elliott, extension cotton specialist.

Some growers do have a supply of good quality seed which they carried over and which were harvested under favorable weather conditions. Also, some of the stored supplies that have been damaged may still contain some salvageable seed. These supplies will help take up some of the shortage.

Since there will be a shortage, however, people who do have stored seed should take every precaution to make sure these supplies are not damaged. C. F. Garner, extension entomologist, says the stored supplies should be checked for insect infestation, and the storage bins and surrounding area should be kept clean. If a stored supply has been partially damaged, the seed should be removed from the bin and separated. Before the undamaged seed is returned to storage, the bin should be thoroughly cleaned and dried.

After the bin and area have been thoroughly cleaned, they should be sprayed with either methoxychlor, TDE or premium grade malathion. A 2 percent formulation of one of these insecticides should be used at the rate of about two gallons per 100 square feet of surface area, says Garner. Methoxychlor and TDE are also available as wettable powders and emulsion concentrates.

The cottonseed may be treated with a 20 percent toxaphene, 5 percent DDT or 5 percent malathion dust. The dust material should be mixed thoroughly with the seed at the rate of 2 ounces per bushel. This treatment should give satisfactory control against stored-grain pests for at least one storage season. Garner cautions that seed so treated should not be crushed or used for feed under any circumstances.

Nearly all drivers know right from wrong in traffic, but some of them just hate to make a decision.

THE NEWS

Joe Patterson Wins Honor At Ft. Hood

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Patterson, route 2, Tahoka, received the following letter from Major R. E. Tobin, commanding officer of the 2nd Armored Rifle Battalion, Fort Hood, concerning their son, Joe, who has been in the Army six months:

I am very pleased to inform you that your son was selected as "Colonel's Orderly" on 24 September, 1961.

Each day the Battalion constitutes a guard for the purpose of safeguarding government property in its area of responsibility. The guard consists of one Officer of the Day, a Sergeant of the Guard, three non-commissioned officers who are Commanders of Relief, and three Privates of the Guard for each post for which the Battalion is responsible.

Prior to the posting of the Guard the Officer of the Day conducts inspection to ascertain the qualifications of each individual. From the personnel assigned as Privates of the Guard he selects the most outstanding soldier considering appearance, bearing and military knowledge as "Colonel's Orderly."

The "Colonel's Orderly" receives credit for Guard Duty but does not perform as a sentinel on post. The following day he is interviewed by the Battalion Commander and released to his duties in his company. On special occasions, such as a Battalion Parade or the graduation of a Company from training, the Orderly may accompany the Battalion Commander during the ceremony.

Your son is to be complimented on being selected as "Colonel's Orderly." His selection is indicative of the manner in which he is presently performing his military service.

Sincerely, R. E. Tobin, Major, Infantry.

And that means wholesome and delicious food because we have garden-fresh fruits and vegetables all year 'round."

Archaeology Show Set Next Week

The Terry Chapter of the South Plains Archaeological Society, which is based at West Texas Museum on the Texas Tech campus, announces that the Brownfield chapter is presenting a hobby show to explain the sciences and purpose of the group with displays of the various types of artifacts recorded from local sites which are common to the South Plains.

Purpose of the show is to illustrate how the area developed from Early Man down through the Modern Indian by using miniature scenes, maps, pictures, records, artifacts, etc.

Archaeology is the study and story of man, his culture and civilizations, from the first known (at the present time 600,000 years old) to Modern Indian. To study archaeology one must have a basic knowledge of religions, paleontology, geology, anthropology, biology and many other sciences.

The show will be held in Brownfield's recently completed Oak Grove School Library and will be free of charge. Dates and time follow: Thursday, October 5, 4:00 to 6:00 p. m.; Friday, Oct. 6, 4:00 to 6:00 p. m.; and Sunday, Oct. 8, 2:00 to 6:00 p. m.

LUTHERAN LAYMEN BEGIN NEW MAJOR PROJECT

The Lutheran Laymen's League, which has seen The Lutheran Hour grow under its sponsorship into the most widespread non-government-supported broadcast in the world, has launched a major new project, Preaching Through the Press.

Provocatively designed advertisements are appearing in more than 225 Sunday newspaper supplements in the United States and Canada, reaching an estimated 70,000,000 readers.

"Preaching Through the Press" tells in print the Good News of God's redeeming action in Christ, Harry G. Barr, president of the 129,000-member LLL, said. "As God has blessed the message of The Lutheran Hour, we pray that He will supply His power to this project."

Barr outlined the following goals for Preaching Through the Press: "We want to publish the Gospel as widely as possible, contacting the greatest possible readership. Through the advertisements, we hope to prompt a request from readers for a series of booklets dealing with central Christian themes. Behind the entire project is the desire to help with the message of God's love and life in Christ."

The hardy pioneers who once blazed the trails now have hard-bled descendants who burn up the roads.

The coating of civilization is so thin that it often comes off with a little alcohol.

One reason for many traffic violations is the fact that the long arm of the law is often short-handed.

Time Right For Safety Inspection

Austin—Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, suggested today the start of fall "is an excellent time to have motor vehicles safety inspected" in preparation for hard winter driving.

The new 1962 Texas Vehicle Inspection Sticker is now available at the 5,000 official inspection stations in compliance with orders issued by the Texas Public Safety Commission. The order states that all vehicles coming under the provisions of the Vehicle Inspection Act must display the new sticker by April 16, 1962.

Garrison said that during the past three months mechanics at inspection stations over the state have undergone an intensive training program on the inspection of vehicles under the law.

"There have been no changes in the Inspection Law from last year," he explained, "but we have re-examined every mechanic in the program to be certain he knows the procedure."

The DPS director noted that since the beginning of the inspec-

Boy Scouts Have Archery Range

Troop 721 of Tahoka Boy Scouts has completed a new archery range on the Jack Miller farm south of town. The range consists of a 14 target course built to National Field Archery Association specifications.

Shooting distances range from 20 feet to 80 yards.

Archery, a age old sport, was started by the troop about a month ago as an effort to revive interest in troop meetings. All Scouts will now have a chance to qualify for the Archery merit badge. Plans are being made to buy equipment for making arrows. Each boy will make his own arrows, each to his own liking, and each adding personal marks for identification.

The troop will run the range according to NFAA safety rules. Each archer will know and use the safety rules and will at all times protect the property of the landowner and others.

Boys active in the troop at present are: Jack Jaquess, Reti Patterson, James Moffett, Joe Ja-quess, Ralph and Billy Brock, Johnny Hillhouse, and Ronnie Swedish.

The troop is grateful to all who had any part in the making of the range, especially Mr. Miller for the use of the land; Leighton Knox of Tatum Bros. Elevators for donation of 18 bales of "bale litter" for use as backstops; Vernon Redwine for use of his pickup; Oran Short for the use of a trailer.

All shooting will be done under the supervision of Rush Dudgeon, scoutmaster; Ed Redwine, assistant scoutmaster; or Ralph Davis, experienced field archer.

Regular troop meetings are held Monday nights at 7:00 o'clock.

A car sped off the road, tore down the guard rail, rolled down the ditch, bounced off a tree, shuddered to a stop. A passing motorist raced to the scene and said to the driver, "Say, are you drunk?" Said the unhurt, "Of course, I'm drunk! What do you think I am—a stunt driver?"

If you want to live to see 70—stop looking for it on the speedometer.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" BY C. WILSON HARDER

There are rumors of a new Federal agency being set up along the Potomac. It would be called the TDFACWMLTC.

This new agency would be an adjunct of the one already set up to administer the foreign give-aways. The full name will be "Taxpayers' Dough For American Citizens Who May Loan Toward Communism."

The proposed plan is that any American citizen can go to TDFACWMLTC section of the foreign give-away and simply state that "while I am a great believer in democracy, unless I get $10,000 I may have to become a communist." In due time, the citizen would get the $10,000, to keep a belief in democracy from turning to communism.

This proposal, of course, is not receiving serious consideration but many think it is no more far fetched than the device whereby nations all over the world have separated the American taxpayer from more than $50 billion.

As Rep. Richard Roudebush, World War veteran with six battle stars says "Then came communist infiltration of South America. Our answer was $500 million more in aid with the thought expressed 'Maybe if we pay off, they will go away.' Sen. Wayne Morse says 'Much of our trouble in Latin America stems from military aid we gave to many of its dictators.'"

And Congressman Richard Poff of Virginia, recently let loose quite a "strong blast" on the foreign give-aways which are taking via taxes, money from independent business needed to modernize and expand to meet in competition.

Rep. Poff says that the U.S. has given Communist Tito's Yugoslavia over $2 billion including such items as $14 million for locomotives, $10 million for a plastics factory, $127 million for other "industrial projects" and, surprise of surprises, funds to build a nuclear research reactor.

Now in this case, it was known that Tito is a communist. But it was felt by buttering him up, he would keep Yugoslavia a little less communist than Moscow.

So what support has Tito given for more than $2 billion according to Rep Poff.

On the Cuban question Tito supported Castro, is trading with him, openly rebuked the U.S. Stand. Tito openly advocates seating Red China in the UN, when Lumumba was slain on the Congo organized demonstrations against the west, allows Soviet engineers to operate the Iron Curtain's biggest uranium mines, is now permitting Russia to build 10 missile bases in Yugoslavia.

And despite this record, even now there is a drive on in Washington to get even more give away billions of dollars for Tito to preserve this "friendship."

Thus, the facetious proposal to give money to scorn American citizens to keep them from being friendly with Moscow is not so far-fetched, perhaps after all. If a fellow like Tito can blackmail Washington, why shouldn't the home folks have the same opportunity?

Miss Berta Hill Tells Of Work in Area Hit By Hurricane Carla

Miss Berta Hill of Seguin and formerly of Tanoka, writes that she has been in Aransas Pass since Hurricane Carla moved out working with the Red Cross on a loan basis from the State Welfare. She has been head of the State Welfare Department office in Seguin for several years, and is among 60 workers loaned to the Red Cross to help in the storm damaged area. She says it is quite an experience.

At Aransas Pass, Miss Hill says there has been lots of roof, window, mattress and boat damage but few homes or businesses were totally destroyed. She says the causeway to Port Aransas was partly blown away, but has been patched and the quarantine of the island has been lifted.

Today's MEDITATION from The World's Most Widely Used Devotional Guide

The Upper Room

Read Matthew 23:1-12 We know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are called according to his purpose. (Romans 8:28.)

In my home town in Argentina, we used one of the rooms of an old two-roomed house as a sanctuary for worship. It proved too small for the congregation. We decided to enlarge it by tearing down the partition.

There was not enough money to hire men for the job. Therefore, some men of the congregation gave of their time and work to do it. Many of the women did their share by painting the ceiling and walls and cleaning the floor. Thus both men and women took part in changing the interior of our place of worship.

At the same time we were doing something for our church, we had a chance to get much better acquainted with one another. By this experience we have improved the worshipful atmosphere of our church and deepened our feeling of brotherhood in Christ.

PRAYER: Our Father, we thank Thee for every opportunity we have to do something in Thy name. We rejoice in having many and varied ways by which we can express our gratitude for all the blessings we receive from Thee. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Blessed are those who work together for good and to God's honor and glory. —Esther Oss (Argentina).

Birthday Party At Special School

Sandra Gayle Traweek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Traweek of Wilson, was given a birthday party Wednesday, Sept. 27. The party was held in the work shop and music room of the Lynn County Special School.

The honoree's mother furnished decorations and was hostess for the occasion. Her birthday cake was topped with burning candles.

As queen of the party, Sandra Gayle was a happy and gracious young lady. She received many lovely gifts and remembered each child with a party favor, and chose the songs and games played.

This is Sandra Gayle's fifth year in the Special School. All of the children have made progress toward a happy and successful life. Sandra Gayle can talk, read, even television programs and newspapers. She can write, spell, do arts and crafts, sew, sing and serve as a charming hostess or be a courteous, well-mannered guest. She, as well as the other children, can do and enjoy many other things that will enlighten and enrich their lives.

Each student is taught as a "whole child." They are motivated to reach their highest potential and to carry over their accomplishments to their homes and social lives. Mrs. Margaret Renfro, teacher, says there is not an unhappy child in the Lynn County Special School.

QUESTIONS, PLEASE

MUST I FORGIVE?

Christ taught that forgiveness is a duty. No limit can be set to the extent of forgiveness (Lk. 17:4) and it must be granted without reserve. Jesus will not admit that there is any wrong so gross nor so often repeated that it is beyond forgiveness. To Him an unforgiving spirit is one of the most heinous of sins. This gets very near embodying the essence of the unpardonable sin (Mk. 3:22-30). It was the one blemish of the elder son which marred an otherwise irreplicable life (Lk. 15:28-30). This natural, pagan spirit of implacability Jesus sought to displace by a generous, forgiving spirit. It is so far the essence of His teaching that in popular language "a Christian spirit" is not inappropriately understood to be synonymous with a forgiving disposition. His answer to Peter that one should forgive not merely seven times in a day, but seventy times seven (Mt. 18:21-22), not only shows that He thought of no limit to one's forgiveness, but that the principle could not be reduced to a definite formula.

Jesus recognized that there are conditions to be fulfilled before forgiveness can be granted. Forgiveness is part of a mutual relationship; the other part is the repentance of the offender. God does not forgive without repentance, nor is it required of man. The effect of forgiveness is to restore to its former state the relationship which was broken by sin. Such a restoration requires the cooperation of both parties. There must be a granting and an acceptance of the forgiveness.

It is not to be supposed, however, that failure to repent up on the part of the offender releases the offended from all obligation to extend forgiveness.

You are invited to send your questions to: Don Browning Box 812, Tahoka, Texas. You are also invited to attend the services of the Church of Christ.

Don Browning may be heard Sunday mornings at 11:00 and evenings at 7:00 at 750 on your radio dial.

Let Me Die With Dignity!

by Kathryn Morris
TD AS SOON be killed and eaten by cannibals as to die in an automobile accident.
 Like anyone else who never will elect to become a suicide, I shall not be able to choose the time, the place, or the means of my own death. But, like anyone else, I have preferences.
 And I can think of no more repugnantly undignified a way for my life to end than to become one of the thousands who die annually on our streets and highways.
 What impresses itself indelibly upon my mind as I see the aftermath of serious injury and death in traffic crashes is the fact that an accident victim is denied the personal privacy and public sympathy most of us aspire to when we consider our own deaths.
 With the exception of mishaps which take place in remote or inaccessible spots, any crash immediately draws a crowd of spectators, some of them officially concerned, most of them simply morbidly curious.

 Victims, be they innocent babies, once-vibrant teen-agers, well-behaved adults, or sedate elderly persons, are subjected to the avid scrutiny of those who will regale listeners for days with lurid details of what they saw.
 Bleeding, broken, clothing pulled indecently awry, limbs grotesquely sprawled, senses befuddled, or faces mirroring the shocking finality of sudden death, the accident victim has lost, in the moment of impact, that intangible but precious commodity known as human dignity.
 It is my profound conviction that every individual is entitled to look forward to inevitable death with serenity, with the assurance that when his time comes to die, he can "wrap the draperies of his couch about him and lie down to pleasant dreams" without an audience of gaping strangers surrounding him.

Almost anyone, whatever his station in life, whatever his education, his religion, or his personal philosophy, will concede a certain attitude of respect toward the newly dead—except on the highway.
 After a wreck, all canons of good taste, good conduct, and good sense are relaxed, and the mob instinct prevails.
 Death on a public thoroughfare provides much the same sort of spectacle as a lynching. I want none of it, for myself, or for anyone I love.
 I'd like to die with dignity.

Plucky Stevie Helps Science Toward Answer to Arthritis

Stevie Vardol gives blood sample to laboratory nurse.

For plucky Stevie Vardol, 10, life much of the time is just an unhappy succession of giving samples of his body to science.

But Stevie, who would rather be swimming and roller skating in Minneapolis (if he only could) than spending endless hours in the Children's Rheumatic Clinic of the University of Minnesota Medical School, doesn't feel sorry for himself. He knows he is doing a job that must be done: that the doctors' appraisal of the tissue samples from his swollen knees, specimens of knee-joint fluid, and of his blood may in time prevent in other children the affliction that befell him three painful years ago.

Stevie has juvenile rheumatoid arthritis in the knees, hands, wrists.
 Throughout the nation, another 30,000 Stevies—or their small sisters—also suffer each year from this excruciating disease. With March of Dimes funds, The National Foundation (which made possible development of the Salk polio vaccine) is today supporting the University of Minnesota's Children's Rheumatism Clinic with a research grant. Other arthritis research projects are under way at the Rockefeller Institute, at New York University, the University of Buffalo at other famed scientific institutions, all financed by the March of Dimes.

Additionally, The National Foundation has established arthritis study centers at Columbia University, the University of Rochester (N. Y.), the University of Texas at Dallas and the University of California at San Francisco.
 The doctors confidently tell Stevie they will solve the stigma of rheumatoid arthritis in time, and find a preventive, given enough support. But they don't delude this valiant little boy or his puzzled father and mother who ask, despairingly, "Why should this happen to us, to Stevie?" The medical scientists look him squarely in the eye and say, "We just can't promise we'll make you well again. But then again, perhaps eventually we will."

Stevie's stout answer is to roll up his sleeve for another ten cc's of his blood (which contains an abnormal protein, a mark of his disease); or to pull up his trouser leg to give up another specimen of lubricating fluid from his knee.
 In the laboratory, Stevie's blood is compared painstakingly to normal blood in the incessant search for an answer to what is wrong with Stevie and with the other 30,000 children. Perhaps what is wrong is an abnormal development of antibodies. Antibodies are the substance that combat bacteria. Then, samples of the connective tissue around his knees are studied and photographed under the giant electron microscope and compared to normal tissue.

Stevie doesn't cry although his doctors say that the pain he suffers at times beggars description. He is not a "guinea pig" in the full medical sense of the term. But the resolute and uncomplaining bearing of this young gentleman of only 10 is evidence that he knows he is a volunteer of the fight against the nation's No. 1 Crippler—arthritis which, in one or another form, strikes at 11 million Americans.

"Frosty" Bowers Thanks Friends

"Frosty" Bowers of Pecos, who has been doing deep-breaking work here, has requested The News to thank a number of people who recently gave him their help. Bowers was implicated in burglary of the Lynn county court house by a woman who admitted the act in a statement, then later retracted the part involving Mr. Bowers after being confronted with affidavits from a number of prominent Pecos citizens attesting the fact that he, Bowers, was in Pecos at the time the burglary is alleged to have taken place.

He expresses thanks to G. M. Stewart, R. W. Fenton Jr., and Bert Dollins for help given him, and to Police Chief Jack Miller and Policeman Leon Anderson, who went to Pecos and picked up the affidavits absolving Bowers from participation in the alleged crime.

Kind words never die—they just become victims of ingratitude.

Bulldogs Turn In Fine Performance To Defeat Idalou Wildcats 14 to 6

The biggest news in Tahoka sports circles in a long time was the way the Tahoka Bulldogs got up off the ground Friday night to out-battle the tough Idalou Wildcats 14 to 6 before a highly elated home crowd—a game dedicated to the Bulldog Mothers, who sat in places of honor on the sidelines while their sons showed the home folks they could really play football.

After battling through two and a half quarters, the visitors finally scored and added a 2-point conversion. In some past games the Bulldog squad may have folded up—but, not so Friday, for they rose up in the final quarter to force some favorable breaks in the game and go on to win.

For four or five years, Tahoka football has been "down." It's no secret that the boys have not had the fight, the desire, the know-how, the leadership, or something that it takes to win ball games. The Bulldogs once were championship contenders almost every year, then came a long losing streak. After being beaten and tromped around so long, it's hard for a team to get started again. Then, two weeks ago, Tahoka boys showed they could play the game against O'Donnell, although losing 0 to 6. With two good games played in a row, the win Friday may be the spark that will get Tahoka's football fortunes started the other way. The boys have showed the fans that they can go—if they put out all the way.

The game Friday was a team victory, although several boys stood out, and Quarterback Fred Hegi led a versatile attack and a stubborn defense that paid off. It was his finest game, as he had nine clear-cut tackles, covered an Idalou fumble, carried the ball 16 times for 63 yards, completed 5 passes for 62 yards and another for a conversion, and scored two touchdowns.

But, it was not all Hegi. Andy Bray, although still crippled, bulldozed through the line for 30 yards on 11 tries; Tommy Jones carried nine times for 30 yards, caught two passes, one for the conversion; Steve Greer, sophomore, carried five times for 10 yards, caught two passes, nearly got away twice, and showed improvement on defense. Big Glenn "Moose" Hopkins did a fine job, although unfortunate in having two costly penalties called on him, as offensive tackle, defensive end, and then as a "secret weapon" at fullback. He carried four times for 27 yards, did the punting, covered two fumbles, and got at least one key tackle. Billy Davis, "old reliable," did a fine job in the line and covered the other Idalou fumble. Perry Flippin caught one pass and did his job at end; Jerry Forsythe saved a possible touchdown with one key tackle; and Craig Leslie, who sent two kick-offs booming clear out of the end zone, was a thorn in the side of the Wildcats on defense also. Curtis Harvick, Mike Taylor, Johnny Rogers, Jimmy White, Larry Price, Macky Joe McWhirter, Gary Grogan, and others carried their part of the load.

Freshmen Lose To Post By 14-12

The freshman team was nosed out by Post here Thursday night of last week 14-12 in a thrilling game from start to finish, studded with spectacular runs on the behalf of Jerry Brown's local eleven.

Post opened the scoring with their first touchdown and added a successful try for two points. With Tahoka behind 8-0 Jesse Lomon broke away at the Bulldog's 35 yard line and ran 65 yards for pay dirt. The conversion attempt failed and Tahoka trailed 8-6.

Still in the ball game, and watching for breaks, Adolph Chaps intercepted an Antelope pass and scampered 55 yards for a touchdown, but the conversion failed again. Post came back for a final touchdown to win by two points.

Outstanding on defense for the freshmen were Terry Harvick, Jack Edwards and Dennis Clem.

To the person undecided just what to do, he might try work. It's good for the body, mind and soul.

New Home Plays At Meadow Today

The New Home Leopards take on the Meadow Broncos Friday night at Meadow after resting last week during an open date.

A mistake was made in The News last week in stating that the Meadow game was last Friday night. In fact, the Leopard schedule published earlier this year was incorrect, and the correct one from here on out follows:

- Sept. 29, at Meadow.
- Oct. 6, at Lazbuddie.
- *Oct. 13, at Cooper.
- *Oct. 21, at Wilson, 2:00 p. m.
- *Oct. 27, Sands.
- *Nov. 3, New Deal.
- *Nov. 10, Lorenzo.

Charles Yarbrough is football coach, and Billy Harwell is assistant coach.

The Leopards have had three losses to date. However, the junior team coached by Harwell, has won its two games played this year, defeating Ropes 20-6 and Wilson 50-20.

If all the automobiles in the U. S. were placed end to end—it would be Sunday afternoon.

Wilson Mustangs Prospect Better

Wilson Mustangs will entertain Whiteface tonight, a team that lost to powerful Seagraves 56 to 6 last Friday.

Things are looking up for the Mustangs, who now have 24 boys out after having started the season with only 13 boys. Injured Billy Baker is back in the line-up and Schneider saw limited service last Friday. Spirit is high, and the team hopes to give somebody a tussle for the district title.

The new scoreboard bought by the Lions Club is expected to be in operation for tonight's game.

Last Friday, Wilson lost to the strong Anton Bulldogs 22-6, although the Mustangs scored first, in the first quarter, when Fullback Bill Baker drove the final five yards to paydirt. Anton tied it up in the second quarter, and in the third went out front 14-6 on another touchdown and conversion.

An Anton Bulldog got away later in the quarter on a 72-yard scoring run, the conversion was added,

 The 24-year-old soldier attended Hamlin High School.

O'Donnell Team Goes To Happy

After losing to the Tulia Harrets there 24 to 6, the O'Donnell Eagles go back to Swisher county this Friday to try the Happy Casboys, who have won three and lost one game.

O'Donnell was just out-manned at Tulia, fans from that town report, but managed to score in the fourth quarter on a 30-yard pass play with Quarterback Buster Snellgrove throwing to Right End Wendell White.

Printer's Ink-lings . . .

By F. P. R.

J. Evetts Haley, Canyon rancher, historian, and writer who has been in many controversies in Texas as an ultra-conservative, is back in the news. Although some of his methods and some of his activities may be subject to question, no one can question the fact that he is a fighter for the preservation of the American concept of Democracy as laid down by our founding fathers. He is now making a fight to prevent the approval of certain textbooks to be used in our schools. Some of these textbooks, he says, contain un-American statements and some actually contain misrepresentations and lies, some contain Communist propaganda, advocate the one-world theory, and some even contain articles and poems by known Communists. All textbooks should be gone over with a fine-tooth comb. We can not afford to let some of these radical theories of government be dished out to our young people. Just the printing of a little poem written by a known Communist may be inferential approval to some child that all the writings of this Communist are well and good. We, as parents, know little or nothing of what camouflaged doctrines may be fed innocently to our children by textbooks.

For example, some of the poetry of the man who wrote "Goodbye, Christ" is contained in one school textbook. No matter how good are his other writings, no works of such an author should be used in a textbook for our children.

Not long ago, many were saying, "Wait until we get rid of Benson, and the Democrats will bring prosperity to the farmer." What do we get? A man with a radical program that would turn all control of agriculture over to the government. Don't kid yourself. Secretary Freeman has not given up yet. This last week, this newspaper began receiving new propaganda from Freeman and the Department of Agriculture which advocates limiting individual farms to so many bales of cotton, so many pigs, cows, etc. Now that Congress has adjourned, Freeman is again making his pitch—seeking support for his plan in the metropolitan areas. Freeman says acreage controls are no longer effective because farmers are using fertilizer and irrigation to produce just as much as they formerly did with no controls. Our Democratic Secretary of Agriculture wants the authority (as in the compromise measure on maize and corn, now in effect) to tell you how many bales of cotton, how many pigs, how many cows, how many pounds of butter, you may sell—and the price at which you may sell them!

The days of individual initiative and ambition, and freedom to drive for success are not gone, but they are slipping!

Harold and Kathryn Edwards, 6112 Dashwood, Houston 36, old Lynn county boy and girl, sent us a copy of the Houston Press "Hurricane Carla Pictorial Edition" which gives one a slight shock at the damage done and misery inflicted to the Gulf Coast area. The astounding thing to us is the comparatively small loss of human lives—due largely to advance preparations and the exodus of people from the coast. The Edwards write: "We thought this issue might interest you. Our damage was nil, but many were not so fortunate. You would have to see some of the destruction and smell the stench to know what happened."

"Big City Beat by Maxine," a gossip column in the Houston Press, starts her column with this statement: "Have tongue, will taste!"

"I'll bet everyone in Lynn county was proud young people still make GOOD headlines," says Joe D. Unfried in reference to the four Tahoka college boys who found and returned the widow's purse containing her "entire fortune."

We love to write of people's successes, joys, and happy things of life. We hate to have to write of crime, broken families, the seamy side of life, tragedy, sickness, and death. Although some papers do it, we try to refrain as much as possible from making a sensation of news concerning other people's heartbreaks. It is really pleasing when we can print a story about four honest young men, each of whom doubtless needed that money very badly to pay their college bills. But, the money didn't belong to them, and they simply hunted up the owner and that was that!

Eck Robertson, 73, of Amarillo, who claims to be "the world's greatest break-down fiddler," went to a local cafe at about 8:30 p. m. Thursday and ordered ham and eggs. The cook put the ham on the grill, and to her chagrin found there was not an egg in the house. She told Robertson her predicament, and he replied, "Oh, that's all right, go ahead and cook the ham. I'll go get some of my own eggs." He got the eggs and had a late supper of ham and eggs. He was en route to Odessa to do some "fiddlin' around."

Some one asked Eck to play a tune or two. He got his fiddle and was joined by guitar pickers A. W. McClellan and Wendell Norman. As he played and played, the crowd grew and grew until the cafe was packed. The music went on until 1:30 a. m., and then Eck took off to sleep a few hours.

Gossip is a sort of smoke that comes from the dirty tobacco pipes of those who diffuse it. It proves nothing but the bad taste of the smoker.—George Eliot.

The hard-luck story of the sad, sorrowful fellow so touched the heart of the food store man that he filled up a large sack with groceries and said, "These are on me—hope they help." Misty-eyed the fellow started out, then turned back and asked, "How about my Green Stamps?"

Bulldogs Win . . .

Seeing limited action because of illness were Tony Spruiell, Billy Miller and Jack Wood. Out with injuries were Kenneth Scott, Billy Clinton, Allen Cox, and Merrell Cloe.

The game started with Idalou moving from its own 20 to the Tahoka 34 on fine runs by 175-pound fullback Miley O'Neal (the visitors' top ball carrier with 18 runs for 83 yards in the game), and a 19-yard pass QB Tony Rodriguez to Left End Lee Everitt. Rodriguez was Idalou's top threat, however, with speed to burn and a good passing arm. In the game, Everitt caught five of the six completed passes for 82 yards.

After stopping Idalou's drive on Tahoka's 34, the Bulldogs moved to a first down on the Idalou 24, with Bray, Jones, Greer and Hegi carrying, including a 26-yard run by Hegi and a 4-yard pass to Greer. Then, a 15-yard penalty on Tahoka, followed by one for five, set Tahoka back and the drive fizzled.

The Bulldogs held Idalou kick ed, Bray and Hegi made it a first on the Idalou 36, but Tahoka was set back again by a 15-yard penalty. A 22-yard pass to Jones, a 4-yard drive by Bray and a right end run by Jones put the ball on Idalou's 23 for Tahoka's second threat. Here, however, Hegi's attempted pitch-out was fumbled and Idalou's Roger Sage recovered on the 27.

Late in the second quarter, Hegi stopped Rodriguez on a fourth down one-yard try at center on the Tahoka 49 and also stole the ball. A deflected pass to Greer was good for 11, and then Flippin caught one for 17 on the Idalou 29 for Tahoka's third threat. Two plays later, Rodriguez intercepted Hegi's pass on the Idalou 20 and ran it back to the Tahoka 48, where the half ended two plays later after Idalou had lost seven yards.

Opening the third quarter, Grogan brought the kick-off from the 32 to the 45, Billy Miller covered Tahoka's fumble, but on the next play Tahoka fumbled again and Idalou recovered. Except for a pass knocked down by Greer and runs of 8 and 4 yards by Rodriguez, workhorse O'Neal carried the ball on other plays to the Tahoka one-yard line, and then he rumbled over right guard for the first score. On the conversion, J. T. Benton ran around right end to the goal line. Score, Tahoka 0, Idalou 8.

On the kick-off, Jones brought the ball to the 38, and he and Hegi, Greer and Bray all had a hand in moving to the Idalou 40, where Tahoka was forced to kick and Hopkins, trying for the corner, kicked over the goal line.

Rodriguez lost six to the Idalou 14, and on the next play Billy Davis covered O'Neal's fumble on the 14. Bray hit the line for 2, Hegi went around right end on a keeper for 7, then in the same place for a first down on the Idalou 3. Jones lost a couple at right end, but Bray made 1, and Hegi was stopped on the 4.

It was then that Hopkins moved to fullback. Hegi faked to Hopkins, and the Idalou tacklers converged on the big "Moose" while Hegi raced around right end untouched for the first Tahoka score of the season on the third play of the fourth quarter. Hegi then passed to Tommy Jones in the end zone to tie the score, 8-8.

Tahoka's Leslie kicked-off short to the 35, and Idalou's John Respondek ran it back to the 47, but on the first play from scrimmage, Hopkins covered a fumble for Tahoka on the 47. On Tahoka's third play, Benton intercepted a Hegi pass on the Idalou 26, four plays gained 22 yards, and Hopkins covered an Idalou fumble back on their 43, and Tahoka was off on another scoring drive.

Hopkins, now at fullback, rumbled over right guard for 5 yards, Jones picked up 6 around right end, Hegi made one, then Hopkins bulled his way like a fast freight through the middle down to the Idalou 14, and 3 yards on the next carry, Hegi went for 7, and then again skirted right end for the touchdown while the Wildcat defenders ganged Hopkins. Leslie's place kick was wide, and the scoreboard read "Tahoka 14, Idalou 8."

With only about two minutes left, Leslie zoomed another kick-off out of the end zone, and Rodriguez started throwing side-line passes to Leveritt. The first was good for 8, the second for 7, one was incomplete, and another was good for 39 to place the ball on Tahoka's 26 with about a minute to go. Three more passes were incomplete, and Sage was thrown for a four yard loss on the Tahoka 30, where the Bulldogs took over to run out the clock.

It was a slam-bang ball game from start to finish, and the Bulldogs said Idalou had the hardest hitting, hardest driving team they have met. Outstanding on defense for Idalou were Manuel Hinojosa, John Respondek, and Bobby Jones, right end. The latter prevented Tahoka from making but one appreciable gain on his end.

Consideration for others may delay traffic, but it also permits a few people to live out the full length of the normal lives.

A Canton, Pa., motorist bought a horse and buggy after losing his driver's license for speeding. He hung this sign on the buggy: "Drive slow, or you, too, will ride this way!"

Berl Huffman Is Rotary Speaker

Tahoka Rotary Club will observe its 25th anniversary with a banquet on the night of November 1 and the speaker will be District Governor Pat Patterson of Midland, Dr. Skiles Thomas, club president announces.

Speaker last Thursday was Berl Huffman, freshman coach at Texas Tech, who dished out a lot of wit and wisdom along with telling of Tech's football prospects.

Berl declared that Tech has fewer lettermen and less experience on this year's varsity than any team in the Southwest Conference. But the boys who "do not like to hit" have been eliminated, and he promised the kids will "go out there on Saturdays and give a good account of themselves." He says the squad has good spirit and should please the crowds even in losing.

On the other hand, Huffman frankly predicted that Tech's prospects for the future are fine. The varsity is a "sophomore" ball club, and there are a fine bunch of freshmen out this year, many of them the best high school boys in the state. He has 54 freshmen on scholarship and about 15 others on their own.

Huffman lived up to his reputation as being one of the better speakers on the South Plains. Otis Spears, who introduced the speaker, said Huffman was at Tech 12 years starting in 1935, later became head coach of University of New Mexico, and has spent 15 years in public relations work in that state before returning to Tech last year.

Dr. Thomas, in announcing the anniversary night program to which the ladies are invited, appointed Fred McGinty, F. E. Redwine, and Mel Leslie to the committee on tables, and Clint Walker and Charles Townes and their wives to the committee on decorations.

Following the banquet, the District Governor will meet with club officers and committee chairmen to discuss operations of the club.

A New World of Worth from Chevrolet for '62!

'62 Impala Sport Coupe—with a roof line that looks like a convertible's

'62 CHEVROLET Rich new styling with Jet-smooth ride!

Here's everything a car fancier could want. Fresh-minted style that comes to a climax in the sportiest sport coupe you've seen yet. A road-gentling Jet-smooth ride. A new choice of V8 skedaddle. Rich Body by Fisher interiors. Beauty that's specially built to stay beautiful. Here in '62 is more than ever to please you from the make that pleases most people.

It's like owning an expensive car without the expense. Check it over from its clean-thrusting prow to its rakish rear deck. Look inside the deep-well trunk. Then—head for the open highway. That sittin'-on-satin feeling you get is Chevrolet's famous Jet-smooth ride at work—with a pliant Full Coil spring cushioning at each wheel. The standard six and V8 are triggered to do special things on regular gas, and for real hair-trigger reflexes you have a choice of four optional-at-extra-cost V8's with output all the way up to 409 hp. ■ Hard-working helpers (like the new steel front fender underskirts that guard against corrosion) give this '62 its built-for-keeps beauty. Even the heater and defroster come as standard equipment this year. This is the kind of car that will make you feel luxurious all over, and your Chevrolet dealer will be only too happy to show you how easy it is to have one of your own. CHEVROLET

Corvair Monza Club Coupe

THE '62 CORVAIR MONZA

Meet the car that puts sport in the driver's seat! Bigger new brakes and Corvair's renowned rear-engine traction offer just about the surest footed going on the road. A new Monza Station Wagon makes its debut. And all models sport freshly tailored upholstery inside matched by sassy new styling accents outside.

This jim-dandy's got the stuff that drivers dote on. ■ Backstage you have a standard aluminum air-cooled engine that turns up 80 hp. (or if you like more razzamatazz, one that uncorks 102 hp?). ■ Sure enough, there's independent suspension on all four wheels to keep the ride as amiable as ever. Inside, you'll find a heater and defroster, cigarette lighter, dual sunshades, front-door armrests and automatic choke as standard equipment on most models. ■ There are lots of reasons for liking what's new—and tried and true—in the '62 Corvair. And your dealer's eager to tick 'em off for you. *Optional at extra cost.

Chevy II 300 2-Door Sedan

HERE'S THE NEW CHEVY II

Here's modern basic transportation in a totally new line of cars with all the solid, time-tested Chevrolet virtues—plus some surprises you've never seen on any car before. A full line of saucy new-size models. Thrifty? Choice of a frugal 4- or spunky 6-cylinder engine (in most models). Roomy? Sedans seat six solid citizens. Price? A real pleasant surprise!

This plucky new Chevy II comes about as close as a car can to perpetual motion. ■ All nine models (station wagons, a hardtop, even a convertible will soon be available in the lineup) are designed to save you money and service. Major front-end sections, including fenders, bolt on for easy replacement in case of damage. The heater and defroster are yours as standard equipment. Tough—but ever-so-gentle—Mono-Plate rear springs eliminate the friction of old-fashioned multi-leaf springs. ■ And, maneuverable and sensibly sized as this Chevy II is, it gives you the kind of room that'll make many a "big" car wonder how it's done.
