March Of Dimes Short Of Goal

Only about $785.00 has been collected in Tahoka during the annual March of Dimes drive and a county-wide report is not available now, states H. B. McCord, Jr., county chairman.

Of that amount $636.57 was collected during the Mother's March Tuesday night when the Pythian Sisters, and members of the Garden Club, Jaycee Ettes, Rebekah Lodge, Phebe K. Warner Club, and Rainbow Assembly made a door-to-door canvas in Tahoka.

About $150.00 has been received from mail-in cards and school cards.

However, the above amount does not include the coin containers that are located in downtown business houses. These containers will be left on counters until sometime between Feb. 15 and 20, McCord said.

Many Tahoka citizens were out-of-town or away from home on the night of the Mothers March and were missed by the canvas, but the results were fairly good in spite of that fact. The march was held from 7:00 until 9:00 p. m. and refreshments were served the workers following the drive.

O'Donnell will hold its annual March of Dimes variety show Friday, Feb. 16, at 8:00 p. m. in the high school auditorium when a two-hour musical program is being planned. A portion of the proceeds from a spaghetti supper being held by the O'Donnell Chapter of the Eastern Star on the same night at 6:00 p. m. in the school cafeteria will go to the March of Dimes.

The 1946 Study Club was holding a Mother's March Thursday night in O'Donnell.

The members of the O'Donnell Fire Department and Lions Club are in charge of ticket sales for the variety show, which is being arranged by Miss Carol Lambert and Mrs. Pat Swinney.

Fallout Shelter Survey Made

The fallout shelter survey in Lynn county has been completed but no report will be forthcoming for several weeks, according to E. L. Short, Tahoka's Civil Defense director.

However, in Tahoka there is practically no protection against fallout. Included in the inspection were about 40 buildings and five basements, including the court house and schools. No homes, basements or cellars in the residential section were inspected.

Actually there is no structure in Tahoka that meets civil defense standards, which includes construction, space, ventilation, etc. Tahoka is a typical town, inspectors say, but point out that any building affords some protection, some better than others. No building above ground, however, offers much protection from fallout.

The survey was made by civil defense through the Department of Defense and was conducted by two Lubbock firms, Parkhill, Smith and Cooper, engineers, and Atchison, Atkinson and Cartwright, architects.

A report will be received in several weeks stating what can be done to make some of the local basements comply to some degree for fallout protection.

Short states that Tahoka is eligible to receive any compensations in the form of supplies, shelters, etc. that the Federal or State governments make available. A surplus property list of items that can be used here, or would be needed in case of an emergency, has been approved and ordered, Short announced.

The local civil defense is working out a local plan in coordination with State approved plans to organize every phase of operation in case of an emergency.

Mrs. Bill White of New Home was released from Tahoka Hospital Wednesday where she had been a patient for about a week.

He has been active in 4-H Club (Cont'd. On Back Page)

Mrs. P. W. Goad Dies Last Week

Mrs. P. W. (Clara) Goad, 67, of 2021 Huntington Lane, Fort Worth, formerly of Lynn county, died Wednesday of last week at 1:50 a. m.

Funeral services were held Thursday at 3:00 p. m. in Travis Avenue Baptist Church, and interment followed in Laurel Land.

Born in Kentucky, she was married to P. W. Goad on October 23, 1909, and the couple had observed their Golden Wedding anniversary just a little more than two years ago.

The Goads moved to New Home, Lynn county, in 1924, and moved from there to Tahoka in 1936. Mr. Goad served two terms as county judge of this county. They have lived in Fort Worth since 1941.

Survivors include her husband; three sons, Lester W. and Floyd Goad of Lubbock and Grady Goad of Arlington; three daughters, Mrs. Cecil Bradshaw of Lubbock, and Mrs. Harry McElfresh and Mrs. Ethel Oswalt of Fort Worth; five brothers, three sisters, 13 grandchildren, and 10 great grandchildren.

Marvin Wood Has Stroke Wednesday

Marvin Wood is in Tahoka Hospital after suffering a stroke at his home Wednesday afternoon, and is in serious condition, attendants report.

He had been released from the hospital on Monday after a lengthy siege of pneumonia and was improving when the stroke occurred.

Stanton Man Is Hurt In Wreck

James Albert Wilson, 38 year old farmer of Stanton, was in fair condition in Tahoka Hospital following a car-truck collision at 11:15 a. m. Tuesday just north of the Lubbock county line on Highway 87.

Driver of the truck was Gordon Taylor Pursley of Merkel, who was turning left onto Farm Road 211 when the vehicles collided. Highway Patrolman John Cowan said the station wagon, driven by Wilson, was attempting to pass the truck.

New Families Moving Here

About 20 new families moved into Tahoka Thursday and many are still seeking housing facilities, according to Mrs. Eldon Carroll, secretary of the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce.

The group is employed by Atlantic Oil Company.

In addition to this group of people, about 20 others have stated their intention of coming here within the next two weeks. A third group has expressed desire to locate its offices here if possible.

E. L. Short, president of the Chamber of Commerce, says that there is a desperate need for rental property in Tahoka. He urges that all citizens having vacant apartments, houses, etc. that have not been rented to try to fix them into livable quarters and place them on the available rental property list with Mrs. Carroll.

For the past several years, Tahoka has lost prospective citizens because there is no housing available. Short says that if residents will make such dwellings available, the Chamber of Commerce can almost guarantee the owner to keep them rented all of the time. The rental situation in Tahoka has reached the desperation stage, and property owners are urged to join the Chamber in easing the situation if possible.

DON GRIMES

Gaines Man For Representative

Don Grimes of Seagraves announces he is a candidate for State Representative of the 75th District comprising Lynn, Dawson, Gaines, and Andrews counties subject to action of the Democratic Primary May 5.

Grimes, 25, was reared in Seagraves and graduated from high school there with honors. He is also a graduate of Texas Tech, attended University of Texas law school one year, and has been teaching social studies in Hutchinson Junior-High in Lubbock two years.

Running as a "conservative Democrat," Grimes said he was of "The Jeffersonian school of thought in that the government which governs less governs best."

He said he would like to see "the inequities of the present 2 per cent sales tax smoothed out" (Cont'd. on Back Page)

Methodists Start Building Plans

Steps were taken Monday night by the board of the First Methodist Church to start in motion a proposed building program.

Rev. Hugh Hunt of Lubbock, Northwest Methodist Conference architect, was authorized to initiate a survey of the present and future building needs of the local church and to make preliminary suggestions for expansion of the physical plant.

The Church plans a new sanctuary which will blend in with the old building erected in 1924 and remodeled several times since. Approximately $46,000 is already in the church building fund.

Maurice Huffaker is chairman of the building committee, states the pastor, Rev. J. B. Thompson.

Local Landmark Has Been Moved To Boys Ranch

The old S. N. McDaniel home, which has stood on the corner south of the First Baptist Church for more years than most Tahoka residents can remember, was moved Monday from its native location to the new South Plains Boys Ranch two miles southeast of Tahoka.

The two-story structure was built some time around 1920 and was occupied by Mrs. McDaniel until only a few months ago.

It was purchased by the Boys Ranch, which has been organized for homeless boys, and has been moved to the ranch located on the old G. W. Slover stock farm. It will house approximately 25 boys when ready for occupancy. The house will stand at the top of the hill and overlook the 330-acre farm, which was purchased by Jack Miller last year. The ranch is stocked with Black Angus cattle, lambs, horses and even a buffalo, has 160 acres in cultivation, and will provide many projects for the boys living there.

Charles Gifford is superintendent of the ranch. He has been director of Otto's Boys Ranch at Odessa, and he and his wife and two daughters will live at the ranch.

Williams Seeks Prec. 2 Office

Clarence Williams announces this week he is a candidate for Commissioner of Precinct 2, the southeast one-quarter of Lynn county.

Clarence was born and reared at Draw, attended Redwine and Draw schools, is married and has one son. He worked in Tahoka for a time after his marriage, and formerly managed a gin and grain elevator in O'Donnell, but practically all his life has been spent in farming.

During World War II, Williams spent a little over three years in the service with the Navy Seabees.

He is well acquainted with most people of the precinct, their problems and desires, and feels he is capable and qualified to carry out the duties of the office, supervise the road work, and attend to the business of the county.

He says he will try to see every voter personally before the Democratic Primary election on May 5, but in the meantime asks all citizens to give his candidacy their careful consideration.

New Directors For Tahoka C. C.

Ballots have been mailed Tahoka Chamber of Commerce members for the election of 10 new directors, according to Mrs. Eloise Carroll, secretary.

Fifteen people have been nominated for the ten places on the board, namely: Harold Roberts, Wilton Payne, H. B. McCord Jr., Jack Jaquess, Turner Rogers, James F. Roberts, Charles Brock, Mrs. Abbie Whorton, Leighton Knox, Tom Hale Jr., G. H. Chestnutt, Elbert H. King, Clint Walker, and Roy Edwards.

Hold-over directors are: E. L. Short, president this year; W. T. Kidwell, A. C. Verner, Frank Hill, A. M. Bray, Charles Townes, and Mitchell Williams.

Mr. Short requests that ballots be returned by members as soon as possible.

The annual banquet will be held on Friday, Feb. 2, in the school cafeteria, when Berl Huffman of Texas Tech will be the featured speaker.

Death Penalty Is Upheld By Court

Texas Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin on Wednesday affirmed the sentence of Bennie Lee McIntyre, 18, Negro, given the death penalty last May for criminal attack on a young Lynn county farm housewife near Redwine.

The case was tried in District Court here the week of May 15, following which the decision was appealed to the higher court.

The boys will exhibit all breeds of swine.

The group will return home this week end.

LEG IS AMPUTATED

G. R. Gage of Tahoka underwent surgery Friday of last week for the amputation of his left foot and leg. The amputation was made several inches below the knee. Mr. Gage lost his other leg several years ago.

Only 2,333 people paid poll taxes in Lynn county this year as a qualification for voting, according to a close estimate made Thursday morning by George McCracken, county tax assessor and collector.

This is above the figure of 2,061 for last year but far short of the 3,061 total two years ago, a presidential election year.

The 2,333 total this year includes 27 under-age exemptions. In Lynn county, over-age citizens, or those 60 years of age before January 1 last year, are not required to obtain a poll tax or exemption.

There is no way to estimate accurately the number of people in the county eligible to vote this year because of the fact that these over-age people do not have to register.

McCracken said there may be a few more poll tax applications in the mail postmarked yesterday.

A last week rush resulted in about 800 poll tax receipts being issued in the county.

License Plates Now Available

Vehicle license plates for 1962 went on sale Thursday, and tags must be attached to vehicles not later than April 1, states George McCracken, county tax assessor and collector.

A license plate and registration receipt is required for practically every vehicle operating on the roads and highways in Texas.

When making application for tags, vehicle owners are requested to bring along their titles and their 1961 registration receipts.

In addition to the Lynn county tax office, motor vehicle owners may secure their license plates at Wilson Co-op Gin office, New Home Co-op gin office, or Moore Insurance Agency in O'Donnell.

Printer's Ink-lings

By F. P. H.

You've heard of getting a bear by the tail and not knowing what to do with him. This happened to two T-Bar cowboys one day recently—only this was a bobcat instead of a bear. Jake Dunlap and Don Dockery found a bobcat had stepped into a steel trap they had set about a mile south of the old ranch headquarters. After quite a battle, they took the cat home alive, thinking they might arrange a dog-cat fight. But, they couldn't find a dog interested. Jake had already received several scratches and lacerations trying to manhandle the animal, so they finally gave up and shot him between the eyes. Mr. Bobcat weighed 37 pounds.

Mrs. Tom (Eula) Hale had a right to be thrilled about the annual 4-H Club awards meeting at Lyntegar. She had three granddaughters honored at the meeting, Sarah Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Claude Wells; Arlene Stephens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stephens; and Allah Hale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom "T" Hale.

At the recent basketball game here with the Plains Cowboys, four generations of one family were spectators. There were Mrs. W. T. Clinton of Tahoka, Mrs. R. B. (Casey) Jones, Mrs. Bobby (Sarah Jane) Fields, and Miss Sarah K. Fields, age 14, all of Plains. Mrs. Jones said she tried to get her mother to join the Plains cheering section, of which Sarah K. was cheerleader, but Mrs. Clinton declined. Reason? Mrs. Clinton has a grandson, Billy Clinton, playing for the Bulldogs. Although 78, Mrs. Clinton attends the home games, and enjoys them very much.

ers on "wild" theories advanced in this column. But, not one person has come forward to express any kind of interest in a proposed "Golden Age" club and recreation for the elderly folks of our town and county. We still think this would be a good project for some local organization. We've heard people charge, until we are tired of hearing it, that "Tahoka never does anything." OK, here's a chance for you to do something worthwhile.

Cities have been built—for instance, in Florida, Washington and Oregon—capitalizing strictly on catering to the retired people. Tahoka has more than its share of retired people already, some with means, and it could have more if there was something to attract them. How about it, city builders?

In the Garden Club clean-up story last week, The News stated other organizations were invited to buy trash receptacles, available through the City for about $4.00. Mrs. Calloway Huffaker says this should have read $40.00. Anyway, let us all do all we can to keep our town clean.

The Star-Telegram says: Just 100 years ago people were crossing the country in wagon trains. Today we can shoot a rocket into space at 25,000 m.p.h. and nobody's looking—they're all home watching Wagon Train.

Johnnie Moore, editor of the Plains Record, is probably being called a "rabid right-wing radical and reactionary" over in Yoakum county. Writing of our free enterprise system, Johnnie says: "1. Every practical humanitarian project in the United States exists and thrives solely because of the profit system."

"2. Every so-called non-profit enterprise in the U. S. operates on gifts and funds supplied by those who do make profits."

We were sorter disappointed when Senator Ralph Yarborough announced the other day that he was not running for Governor of Texas this year, that President Kennedy wanted him to stay in Washington to vote for the liberal cause. He strongly hinted the President wants John Connolly elected Governor in Texas. We believe we could have gotten rid of Yarborough if he had run for Governor.

As this is written (Monday), Lynn county has the unusual situation of having no contests for county offices this election year—and Monday, Feb. 5, is the final day for candidates to file for the May 5 primaries. Principal interest must develop in races for state and district offices. With three filed on the Democratic ticket for State Representative—one a local young man, Jerry Cain—there have been rumors of at least two more on the Democratic ticket and one on the Republican. There are two Democratic candidates and one Republican running for State Senator; and one Democrat, George Mahon, and one Republican, Dennis Taylor of Crosbyton, running for Congressman. Lynn county is supposed to have a Republican primary this election, the first ever, but The News at this date has no definite information if such a primary will be held in this county.

It does seem that the Texas

Legislature could come up with some kind of suitable bill to control the small loan sharks in our state. Fees for small loans made by questionable firms and individuals are nothing short of scandalous. We know a case where a borrower of $50 had to pay about $90 to clear this small loan.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Minor, old time Lynn county citizens who came to this county in 1903, are not doing too well physically here of late. This week, they went out to Fort Sumner, New Mexico, to spend two or three weeks with their daughter, Mrs. H. E. (Marie) Askew.

Thanks to Mrs. H. C. Story of Austin for the kind words about "the old home paper." The Storys send greetings to all the Lynn county friends.

"Since one of the vice presidents died," the brash young clerk told his boss, "do you think I could take his place?" And the boss replied, "It's OK with me if you can arrange it with the undertaker."

Firemen may appreciate this supposedly true story told by a Nacogdoches attorney:

An excited Negro voice was heard when firemen answered the telephone in the Nacogdoches Fire Station: "Hurry, we've got us a fire!"

"Where's the fire?" asked the fireman.

"In our house!" said the Negro. "Yes, I know," replied the fireman, "but what's the location?"

"In the kitchen!" was the reply.

"Yes, yes, I know," the fireman shouted, "but how do we get there?"

There was a pause, and then the Negro said, "Ain't you got no fire trucks?"

When a Russian worker left his factory at the end of the day pushing a wheelbarrow full of straw, a guard halted him and carefully examined the straw, but found nothing. Each day the performance was repeated, and each day the guard found nothing, no matter how carefully he searched.

After a month of this, the guard said to the worker: "Look, I'm about to be sent to the Urals; so you can speak freely to me. I give you my word I won't tell. But, I'm curious—what are you stealing?"

"I'm stealing wheelbarrows!" the worker confessed.

Help keep Tahoka clean.

MRS. JERRY D. CAIN (nee Miss Sandra Sample)

Round Rock Girl And Jerry Cain Marry, Plan To Make Their Home In Tahoka

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Dean Cain have been at home in Tahoka since their marriage on Saturday, January 27. Mrs. Cain is the former, Miss Sandra Sample, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ralph White Sample. Mr. Cain is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Cain of this city.

The Hankamer-Fleming Chapel in Round Rock provided the setting for the 4 p. m. ceremony at which Dr. Cooper Waters, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Orange, officiated.

The nuptial music was provided by Miss Jo-Ann Godec, organist, of Hurley, New Mexico. Miss Beverly Bush of Shreveport, Louisiana sang the bridal solo, and the closing prayer was sung by Miss Cella Beth Waters of Orange.

The bride was given in marriage by Mr. Frank Rougeot of Orange. Her gown was fashioned of French Chantilly lace over taffeta with a full, flowing, bell-shaped skirt accented by side pleating which fell into a sweeping chapel train. Seed pearls and sequins accented the portrait neckline.

Her veil of French illusion drifted from a crown of tiny seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and traditional lily of the valley.

The bride was attended by her sister Miss Stephanie Sample, and by the groom's sister, Miss Lynetta Cain. They wore waltz length, blue taffeta dresses and carried white carnations in colonial nose-gay bouquets.

The groom's father, Mr. Alton Cain, attended him as best man. Edward Pickett of Liberty served as groomsmen. Ushers were Lynn Roloff of Victoria and Ted Pridmore of Tahoka.

Everyday Religion

By J. B. Thompson

Recent reports of the court hearings for several participants of "fixed" television shows—who said they were sorry, received suspended sentences, and kept the money—points up a moral laxity that is alarming.

We have read reports of "payola" in leading magazines picturing an epidemic of immorality in this supposedly God-fearing nation.

Look magazine, in one such article entitled, "The Age of Payola," reported sending their reporters across the country to interview hundreds of persons on their attitudes on the whole subject. The results were disturbing to say the least.

They found that less than ten per cent of those interviewed felt that honesty was a prime requisite for success. Three out of four said they would have done exactly what one man did in accepting $129,000.00 on a rigged TV show, lying to the grand jury about it, later saying he was sorry, but keeping the money. An insurance claim adjuster felt that 75 per cent of the people he deals with have no scruples at all concerning honesty. And on it goes.

This moral muddle is a challenge to the church. In a sense, the creation of, or recovery of, personal moral character rests upon the church and its spiritual message. Oil companies do not conduct Sunday schools. The creation of religious convictions is not a governmental function. Character building is not the business of a bank, although its whole function depends upon honesty and integ-

Group Opposes Import Of Oil

Midland — The Permian Basin Petroleum Association has announced adoption of a policy on the excessive imports of foreign oil into the United States.

The organization which serves all phases of the petroleum industry in West Texas and Southeast New Mexico, through its headquarters office in Midland released a statement which had been unanimously approved by its 11-member executive committee.

The statement: "The Permian Petroleum Association seeks a reasonable reduction of excessive importation of crude oil and petroleum products into the United States to prevent the permanent crippling of the domestic petroleum producing industry."

"This association recognizes the need to allow a reasonable amount of imports of crude oil, residual fuel oils and other petroleum products from nations friendly to and allied with this nation, but it will oppose importations of any such crude oil and crude oil products which are so excessive as to damage the domestic producing industry."

Domestic producer associations in the United States will attempt to adopt strategy agreeable to all participants—for the 1962 effort to curtail the steadily increasing flow of cheap foreign oil into this country, said a PBPA spokesman.

Kind words never die—they just become victims of ingratitude.

Schools and colleges may be concerned with character, but education in itself does not guarantee it.

The only institution capable of creating responsible moral personal character is the church under the leadership of its founder, our Lord and Master.

When Tragedy Hits Home!

When tragedy hits home and death is the result, it is cold comfort to hear a neighbor say, well, it comes to all of us sooner or later.

God has a purpose for each of us. We were created for a good purpose and no one knows the extent of it. When a person is killed in a traffic accident, his life purpose is not fulfilled. The driver responsible for the accident has come between the victim and God. The responsible driver has cut short the full purpose God created the victim to serve. It is true that death comes to all of us sooner or later, but God's will must not be deviated by man's carelessness.

In this total field of accident prevention, we must all increase our area of concern. We have been too content to rest our case on the premise that "the life you save may be your own." It should be remembered that the life of your neighbor, his child and the life of the person you have never met are as sacred in the sight of God as your own. This work is fundamental in preventing the needless tragic deaths which occur on highways as the result of driving errors.

The careless driver, in effect, plays God by destroying His creation—created to serve a purpose—which outlives life itself. The life you save is always the life God gave for glory.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our appreciation to Mr. Nelson, commissioner of Precinct 4, Mr. Judge and Mr. Pyburn for their help when our water pipes burst recently during the cold weather. — Mrs. Ola Reid and Sandra. 18-tfc

MOMENTS WITH GOD

"TIME TO COME"

"That your children may not say to our children in time to come: Ye have no part in the Lord." Joshua 22:27.

What parents do, children imitate. What parents plant, children gather.

It may be seeds that flower into faith, hope and love, concern, compassion and consecration, diligence, and dependability. It may be seeds that sprout into weeds of pride and prejudice, hate and envy, selfishness and greed.

An ancient word from Joshua suggests another way of saying it: Our children worship at the altars we build in our lives.

Human life is a continuous chain of "time to come," generation after generation.

What do children see in their parents? How to live for God? Or how to get along without Him?

Delinquency, like charity, begins at home—

When a mother is more interested in sharing beauty secrets with her daughters than in giving them a beautiful faith;

When a father is more intent on having his boys turn out to be good sports than grow up to be men of God.

Let us take a leaf out of the Book of Joshua and engage in a building boom of altars to God "that your children may not say to our children in time to come: Ye have no part in the Lord."

Lord Jesus, bless our home with Thy continual presence, and keep us all in Thy grace. Amen.

Lynn County Soil Conservation District News

E. W. BLAKNEY ELLIS BARNES
WARD EAKIN BOYD BARNES
MELVIN WUENSCHÉ

A parallel terrace system has been constructed on the Virgil Smith farm located 2 miles north of Hackberry. Parallel terraces are a new concept in terrace construction and this is the first set completed in Lynn county. The difference between parallel and common terraces is that parallel type are built with a uniform distance from end to end between terraces. Their advantage lies in the fact that point rows are virtually eliminated and this of course simplifies farming operations and does away with the prin-

... objection to terracing. Unfortunately, parallel terraces can not be adapted to all types of slope variations. They are suited only to fields that carry a uniform slope without too much change in degree of fall.

J. W. Pirtle who farms three miles south and one mile west of Draw is planning to seed 28 acres to Blue Panic grass for pasture. In addition terraces will be rebuilt to control washing. Terracing and grass planting will be cost-shared through the Great Plains Conservation Program. His cropping system will consist of cotton overseeded with rye.

The residue of the rye will be maintained on the soil surface to help control wind erosion. Mr. Pirtle has planted Blue Panic on land which will this year be returned to cotton. Grass is an excellent crop to be rotated with cotton for it improves the physical condition of the soil by deep root penetration. This results in better water absorption, easier tillage and deeper penetration of cotton roots.

The Baptist Faith And Message

V. JUSTIFICATION

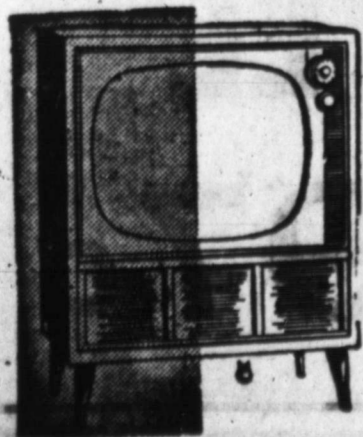

Justification is God's gracious and full acquittal upon principles of righteousness of all sinners who believe in Christ. This blessing is bestowed, not in consideration of any works of righteousness which we have done, but through the redemption that is in and through Jesus Christ. It brings us into a state of most blessed grace and favor with God, and secures every other needed blessing.

Rex Webster Is Rotary Speaker

Rex Webster of Lubbock, past district Rotary governor and presently chairman of the committee of publication of the Rotarian magazine, and Revista Rotaria, the Spanish edition, was the speaker at the Tahoka Club Thursday noon of last week.

Mr. Webster told how plans for monthly issues are made as much as a year in advance. The publication is quoted by Readers Digest in almost every issue.

The Rotarian has 400,000 subscribers and Revista Rotaria has 45,000, operate on a $1 million budget, and are mailed to 136 countries of the world. The Rotarian started publication in 1911 when there were only 16 Rotary clubs with only 3,000 members.

Today there are 11,095 Rotary clubs with an estimated 513,500 members in 124 countries and geographical regions around the world.

Twelve issues of the magazine requires 885 tons of paper, 12 tons of ink, and 95 acres of pulpwood forest are required to make the paper.

Mr. Webster is chairman of the International committee which sets the policies of the publication.

Mitchell Williams, who introduced the speaker, arranged the program in observance of Rotary Magazine Week.

President Skiles Thomas announced a Club Assembly will be held the night of Thursday, February 1, in the City-Legion building.

MRS. R. E. BLAND AND SON TAHOKA VISITORS

Mrs. R. E. (Minnie) Bland and son, Elzie, were in Tahoka Monday and saw a few old time friends. They now live on their half section irrigated farm east of Rich Lake, eight miles north and four miles east of Brownfield.

Mrs. Bland says Mr. Bland will be 92 in April but is in good health considering his age. She is 84. Jack Henry, their son-in-law, farms their land, and Mrs. M. L. Henry, another Lynn county pioneer, now 85 and bedfast, lives with Jack.

The Blands moved to their farm east of Redwine in 1916, and moved to the Terry county place in 1940 after two years at Three Lakes.

Denver, Colo., Mining Record: "Many newspapers have made a great issue out of public power. We wonder what some editors would say if the United States Government should set up its own wire service and publish its own newspapers. That time may be coming. The history of an expanding government, such as our Federal government now is, shows such government recognized no limits."

Farm Facts

The U. S. Department of Agriculture estimates that production of farm commodities in the U. S. S. R. during 1958 was about two-thirds of the U. S. level.

During 1958, the latest year for which comparisons are available, Soviet farm production made up 15% of the total world agricultural production and U. S. farm production comprised 16%.

On a per capita basis, Soviet output is about half that of the United States. The Soviet Union is placed in a favorable position by using the 1958 season (Russia's record year) to compare farm output with ours.

Although weather also was favorable in the United States during 1958, it was not as favorable as that in Russia. Soviet farm output during a year with more average weather is probably nearer 60% of U. S. farm output.

Despite a land mass 2½ times the size of the United States, the U. S. S. R.'s area of cropland, including hay land, exceeds ours only by about 40%.

Russian farm output is about 1/3 that of the United States.

In terms of land suitable for tillage, the United States probably has more. In 1960, the Soviets sowed 501 million acres of crops as compared to 329 million acres sown by the United States.

Girls Win, Boys Lose At Slaton

Tahoka Bulldogs bowed to Slaton Tuesday night 61-45 there to keep the Tigers in second place in district competition. The girls won their fourth conference game 45-29 to cinch a tie for the district title. If the girls win one of the two remaining games they will be the 3-AA champions.

Craig Leslie paced the Bulldogs with 15 points in the varsity game, but Tahoka's scoring was no match against Ronnie Jones' 25 points and Webber Tefertiller's 11.

Kay Halameick made 14 points for the winners and Judy Thomas 11. Slaton's Glenda Bownds hit the basket for 13 and Elaine Barnes 12.

Slaton "B" team took a close 47-44 victory with two players hitting in double figures, Hatchett with 16 and Pennington with 10. Three Tahoka players made 11 points, Allen Cox, Jose Cervantes and Terry Harvick.

Tahoka Winner In Post Games

The Bulldogs outplayed the Post Antelopes to the tune of 58-38 to win their first conference game after dropping three, and the girls continued their winning streak in a nerve-shattering 43-41 game. Post's lone victory of the evening came when the "B" girls won 30-15 over Tahoka.

Tahoka led the Antelopes from the beginning with quarter scores standing at 16-9, 29-20, and 40-30. Craig Leslie scored 16 points and Perry Flippin 15 to pace the Bulldogs. Leslie Acker and Dwayne Capps made 14 and 11, respectively, for the losers.

The girls won their third conference game behind the shooting of Jerre Ann Wyatt, who made 16 points, Judy Thomas with 14 and Kay Halameick with 13. Tahoka managed to stay only slightly ahead throughout the game and led 8-7 at the end of the first, 21-15 at halftime, and 28-27 at the end of the third. The team was playing without the services of forward Loretta Short, who was ill. Nita Wilson won high point honors for the Post team with 23 while Barbara Craig added 11 more.

Joyce Huey made 11 points for Tahoka's "B" team, but the girls were unable to threaten the Post six. Shirley Sappington and Becky Thompson made nine and eight points, respectively, for the winners. Half time score was 17-6.

Boys And Girls Play Here Tonight

The powerful Denver City Mustangs, looking for the district championship, come to Tahoka tonight to play the Bulldogs and the Sundown girls will meet the local team with games beginning at 5:30 p. m.

On Tuesday night, the Bulldogs, varsity girls and "B" boys travel to Stanton for conference games.

The local teams are in the second round of district play and the season is nearing an end. The last scheduled game is on Feb. 13, when Post teams come here. So far the girls are undefeated in district competition and have only one game, either Stanton or Post, standing between them and the championship. However, neither team is to be underrated and will give the local feds a run for their money.

The Bulldogs meet Denver City with a 1-4 record, while the Mustangs lead the district with a 5-0 slate.

Last night the seventh and eighth grade girls and boys were playing Slaton.

They will enter the district tournament to be held in Post beginning Monday. Games will be played on that day and also on Thursday and Friday of next week.

Alamo, Texas, News: "A labor union is negotiating for a 20-hour work week, and it is wondered if the 20 hours will include time traveling to and from work, coffee breaks, lunch period, and liberal intervals for goofing off."

Slaton Juniors Win Three Games

Slaton had a field day in Tahoka Monday night when junior teams won three out of four games. Tahoka's lone victory came when the seventh grade girls won 8-6.

Paige Verner scored six points for the winners with Sue Woodall and Chloe Jan Huffaker making one each.

The seventh grade boys dropped a 23-22 game. Milton Miller scored 12 for the losers, Wendell Medlin six, Raymond Chaps three and Jerry Jolly one.

Slaton won the eighth grade boys' game 29-20 when Tahoka scorers were Larry Jolly and Stanley Renfro, six each, Clarence Long four, Frankie Stanley three and James Brown one.

The eighth grade girls lost 16-6 when Joy Thomas scored four points and Mary Ellen Wyatt made two.

State Livestock Meet Feb. 14

College Station—Representatives from every Texas county and surrounding states are expected to attend a history-making meeting in Austin on February 14. The theme of the meeting might well be—"Atom versus the Screwworm."

The one-day meeting, 10 a. m. to 3 p. m., at the S. F. Austin Hotel, has been called by the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation to launch the screwworm control program made possible by voluntary contributions from the state's livestock producers and sportsmen.

C. G. Scruggs, chairman of the Foundation's Board of Trustees, said our goal for funds has not been reached but we have asked all county chairmen and their workers to redouble their efforts in order to reach the goal by the February 14 meeting. Progress in the program has been dynamic, Scruggs said, and teamwork at all levels has been a major factor. We appreciate this fine work but at the same time emphasize the importance of raising the funds to push the program to a successful conclusion, he said. The hard freeze, statewide, of two weeks ago gave us a big boost and immediate action is needed to take advantage of it, he said. Featured speakers for the Austin meeting will be a representative of the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Agricultural Research Service, Washington, D. C., who will give the plan of action for the screwworm control program. A Florida livestock producer will describe the benefits derived from the eradication program in the Southeast and a sportsman will follow with the possible benefits to Texas wildlife from the control program.

The luncheon speaker will be a member of the Texas Congressional delegation. Announcement will be made soon as acceptance is received, Scruggs said. He will discuss the "National and International Aspects of the Screwworm Control Program."

The afternoon session will feature a graphic presentation by a member of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service covering the status and organization of the program. Also recognition by the Board of Trustees of those contributing extensively to the program. A question and answer period, with the guest speakers making up a panel, will conclude the meeting.

Jerry Church of Wilson will represent Lynn County livestock men at the meeting.

Lynn County Citizens In Top Financial Condition, National Survey Shows

(Special to The News)
New York, Jan. 22—The average Lynn County resident is in better financial shape today than in some time.
During the past year, he has reduced the size of his installment debt and, at the same time, increased the amount of his savings.
As a result, he is now in a sound position, with a larger nest egg of cash in the bank and a relatively small indebtedness.
For the population of Lynn County collectively, the savings that have been accumulated represent a money bomb with a big potential. When the button is pressed to release it, local business will receive a powerful boost forward.

The sizeup of this progress, locally, is based on data gathered by the Federal Reserve System and by the Department of Commerce and on latest income distribution figures, covering all areas of the country.
They show that the proportions of earnings that are being put aside as savings vary widely. Among families that have less than $3,000 a year in disposable income, little or nothing is put away. They have difficulty just keeping going.
From $3,000, where minor savings become possible, it rises to 6.5 percent a year at $6,000 and then moves up rapidly, reaching 25 percent or more in the top brackets.

Applied to Lynn County, where the latest annual report shows a net disposable income of $5,166 per household, the average rate was 5.1 percent and the amount of savings in the year an estimated $265 per household.
For the county as a whole, the annual savings were approximately $829,000, compared with the previous year's $790,000.

According to the Commerce Department, the American people saved a grand total of $28 billion in the past year, or $2 billion more than in 1967.
As to consumer credit, that is down to 13 percent of the national income, points out Sidney Weintraub, prominent economist, writing in Challenge magazine.

He finds, therefore, that there is no indication that consumers are overspending. On balance, he says, the trend is in the other direction. People are spending a smaller proportion of their available cash than normally.

Help keep Tahoka clean.

Cold Check Artist Caught Promptly By Law Officials

Local officers caught a "cold checker" this last week end in short order—all because the proprietor of the local store taking the check had the foresight to write down the number of the driver's license of the person giving the check.
Wednesday of last week a lady gave Al Lehman of Levine Bros. here a check for $30.00 on a bank in a nearby town. Not knowing the lady, Al called for identification and the woman presented her driver's license.
Monday, the check came back marked by the bank "no funds."
Unable to contact County Attorney Harold Green, Al went to Sheriff "Booger" Redwine. The Sheriff called Austin, and Tuesday morning he was notified the woman had been picked up in Plainview and she had paid the officer there the $30.00 in cash to be returned to Al. Incidentally, it was learned her husband is in jail in Big-Spring on another charge.
Al thinks Sheriff Redwine and County Attorney Green are due credit for the quick and effective action they took. "Frequently," he says, "we hear people make uncomplimentary remarks about our law officers when they should be giving them encouragement and support."
He thinks a lot of this "cold checking" could be stopped if merchants would just take the time and trouble to check the driver's license or other identification papers of strangers cashing checks.

to a better working sales tax." "I want to show the conservatives of Texas," he said, "that the Democratic party is still their party."

Grimes said that, in his belief, he put "the man above the party," for issues that come before the state or nation.

Regarding the agricultural issues, Grimes said he would like to see the federal government "work its way out of the farm program."

"I want to let the general public understand what is going on," Grimes said. He added that he was for a "local awakening of the conservative ideas in this area."

While in high school, Grimes was a leader in scholastic affairs, lettered in basketball and tennis, and was district president three years of the Future Teachers of America. He failed by only one vote in being elected president of the state organization.

While in Tech, he ranked in the upper one-fourth scholastically, was a member of the freshman council, sports editor of La Ventura, and a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity. He was drum major of Tech band and a member of Kappa Kappa Psi, band fraternity. He was an officer of both fraternal organizations.

In addition to teaching at Hutchinson Junior High, he assists in coaching, and coaches the Church of Christ team in the City of Lubbock league.

Don is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Grimes of Seagraves, who are active in church and civic affairs and engage in the grocery business and farming. The Grimes family has lived in Seagraves 25 years.

He hopes to see most voters of the district between now and election day, and only asks a careful consideration of his qualifications for the office. "I would like to give this office the time, dignity and conscientious effort I feel it deserves," Grimes says.

work, where he has been in positions of leadership, serving as president of the 20-county District II 4-H clubs, on the state executive council, and as a delegate to the National 4-H Club Congress in 1955. He was also the recipient of the 4-H Gold Star award.

He is a member of the Tahoka Masonic Lodge, the First Methodist Church, Phi Alpha Delta legal fraternity, and the Texas Student Bar Association.

In making his announcement, Cain said, "Since revealing my intention to seek the office of state representative, I have received much encouragement from my friends over this district. With this adequate display of confidence which they have placed in me already, I have filed my name in the Democratic Primary.

"This office is one of great importance to the people of this district and one whose duties I feel

I am well qualified to assume. My service in the Legislature during the last four years has done much to give me the experience necessary to serve the people of this district as they want and deserve to be served in Austin.

"I believe in a sound fiscal policy for state government. I believe in clean, honest government where the people have a strong, active voice. I believe in this West Texas area, in both its human and natural resources, and in their progress, conservation, and development.

"I have the desire to devote my efforts to see that the people of this district have an active voice in their state government. My only special interests are all the people of this district, and I am sincerely seeking their votes and approval."
