Slight Increase For Lynn Grain Farmers

Figures received by the Lynn County ASCS show the average yield of grain sorghum in Lynn County during the period 1959-1960 has been increased from 1221 to 1282 pounds per harvested acre.

Since these yields are used to determine payment rates to be offered grain producers as an incentive to participate in the 1962 Feed Grain Program, farmers who take part in the program will receive an average increase of about $60 per acre.

Program provisions are substantially the same as those of the 1961 program, according to Charles G. Bragg, Office Manager at the ASCS office. Growers of corn or grain sorghum are offered cash payment for diverting acreage from the production of feed grains. The minimum acreage for diversion is 20 percent of the farm grain base, and will be paid for at a rate based on 50 percent of the farm yield times $1.89, the county support rate. The maximum acreage for diversion is normally 40 percent of the farm base, but varies according to the acreage involved. The second payment rate is based on 60 percent of the farm yield times the county support rate. An average farm in Lynn County will be offered $12.30 per acre for the first 20 percent diverted, and $14.50 per acre for acreage in excess of the minimum 20 percent. Individual farm rates will vary up or down according to farm production indexes.

Lynn County has a total grain and corn base of 228,956 acres. The maximum acreage which could be diverted under the program is about 95,000 acres. In 1961, 881 farms complied, reducing grain acreage by 42,374 acres, and earned a total payment of $554,905.88. Participation in the 1962 program is expected to be heavier than last year, Mr. Bragg says, due to the increased payment rates and a larger eligible acreage. Conservation Reserve "Soil Bank" contracts on 199 farms covering about 20,000 acres expired December 31, 1961. Twelve thousand acres of this land would be eligible to be diverted under the program this year.

The program is voluntary, but participation is required to be eligible for government price support on any feed grains. The sign-up period will extend through March 30, 1962. Farmers who are interested should contact the county ASCS office at their earliest convenience.

JUDGE TRUETT SMITH

Judge T. Smith Asks Re-election

Judge Truett Smith of the 106th Judicial District has announced his candidacy for re-election in the May 5th Democratic Primary.

This district is now comprised of Lynn, Dawson, Garza, and Gaines counties, Terry and Yoakum counties having been taken from the district and placed in another district since Judge Smith assumed the duties of the office in 1959.

Judge Smith has not had a single case reversed since the four-county district was established, although one criminal case was reversed from the old six county district.

Both attorneys and laymen from over the district have been high in their praise of the manner in which Judge Smith has conducted court.

He hopes to make a formal statement to the voters a little later.

Lynn Sixth In State, 13th In National Cotton Production

Lynn county is sixth in 1961 cotton production in Texas and 13th in the nation, report of ginnings prior to January 16 by the Bureau of Census reveal.

On this date, Lynn had ginned 175,511 bales, according to the report. Final report is expected next month, when adjustments will be made to 500-pound bales and to counties in which cotton was raised, regardless of where ginned. However, Lynn still had some cotton to gin on Jan. 16, particularly at Grassland, Draw, and O'Donnell.

Some interesting conclusions may be drawn from the January

16 Government census count, especially in regard to shift of cotton production in the nation from the old South to the High Plains, Arizona, and California, and also from "down state" to the High Plains.

The eight high producing counties in Texas this year were all on the South Plains, Lubbock ranking first in Texas and sixth in the nation with a whopping 280,175 bale crop. The crop was shorter than usual in the Lower Rio Grande Valley, Hidalgo county being high with 152,163 bales. Many Central, East and South Texas counties formerly high producers have dropped production considerably.

Yet, Texas had ginned 4,744,459 bales as compared to 4,269,976 in 1960, or an increase of nearly a half million bales. California, with 1,600,873 bales has replaced Mississippi (1,439,906) for second place to Texas, and Arkansas is the only other state ginning more than a million bales, 1,416,071. In fact, no other Southern state ginned much more than 600,000. Arizona now ranks fourth in cotton production with 783,404, but had a big drop from 1960.

Outside the South Plains area, only one county in the Old South was among the high 20 cotton producing counties of the nation. This was Mississippi county, Arkansas, which ginned 191,497 bales and ranked 12th nationally.

Dawson county again exceeded Lynn county due to a fine crop year, a high allotment, and increase in irrigation.

Following was the ginnings for Jan. 16 in 1961, compared to the same time for the 1960 crop, none of which will be changed materially by the final report:

County	1961	1960
Lubbock	280,175	240,847
Hockley	224,677	162,718

Gaines	67,865	43,340
Yoakum	42,004	23,215
Garza	24,822	22,647

Nationally the top 20 cotton producing counties in 1961 are listed below, in order, nine of them Texas counties, but attention is called to the fact that some of these counties are at least twice as large as Texas Plains counties, have an abundance of water and shoot for high production:

COACH J. D. ATWELL

Hewlett Seeks County Office

J. P. Hewlett of Wilson is a candidate for a full term as County School Superintendent subject to action of the Democratic Primary election of May 5.

Mr. Hewlett was appointed to the office by the Commissioners Court in September, 1959, and then was elected to a two year term, both following the resignation of Mrs. Ruth Jolly Mason.

"If elected, I will do everything in my power to help the schools of the county," is the only promise Mr. Hewlett makes.

He has had 42 years of experience in the school teaching business, most of this time as an administrator. He spent four years as superintendent at Southland and then 12 years as head of the Wilson schools before retiring in 1959.

Although a bachelor, Mr. Hewlett has raised and educated several children, and the welfare of young folks is still his major interest in his life.

New Store Opens At New Home

Mr. and Mrs. "Dub" Ewing have expanded New Home Butane, Inc. to include hardware, farm and home tools, in a new building just completed in south New Home.

They are having a formal opening of the new store this Saturday, at which time free coffee and doughnuts will be served. "This is probably the only hardware store in America that has two-way radio equipment," Mrs. Ewing told The News. This enables her to keep in touch with the "boss" or the butane trucks anywhere in the territory.

Republicans Will Hold Primary

Lynn county will definitely have a Republican primary election, Larry Hagood has informed The News, on May 5, as provided by law.

Plans are being made to hold elections in Wilsog's, Tahoka, and O'Donnell, and a ruling is expected which will permit any person desiring to enter the Republican primaries to vote in any one of these boxes wherever he lives in the county.

Although there are no local candidates filed on the Republican ticket, there are Republican candidates for State Representative and Senator, Congressman, and for most of the state offices.

Melvin Wuensche is the current county chairman, and Larry Hagood will be the candidate to succeed him as Republican chairman.

Mrs. Matilda Philpot underwent surgery in Tahoka Hospital Thursday morning, where she had been convalescing for about a week.

SPORTS

Girls Team Winner Of District Title

The Tahoka High School basketball girls, coached by J. D. Atwell, are the champions of District 3-AA, the first girls team in Tahoka ever to win that honor.

The championship was won at Stanton Tuesday night when the girls won 56-47. Another conference game remains to be played, however, on Feb. 13 with Post here.

Both boys teams were defeated at Stanton, the Bulldogs taking a 78-53 loss and the "B" team being soundly downed 70-27.

The girls bi-district game will be played some time after Feb. 23 after the district championship is decided between Alpine and McCamey. Alpine is leading at the present time, but the two district contenders will meet on Feb. 23. Winner of the bi-district game will compete in the regional tournament and that winner will play in the State tournament in March to be held in Austin.

The girls took a 19-11 first quarter lead and stayed ahead by a comfortable margin. Half time score was 30-26, closer than desired, but the girls came back in the third to widen the margin to 44-36.

Kay Halamecek had one of her better nights hitting the basket for 25 points, with Judy Thomas making 13 and Loretta Short 10. Guards also did an outstanding performance, as they have throughout the year, including Sharon Drager, Brookie Reece, and Jerre Wyatt, who also has been playing at forward position. Others seeing action during the year who are to be commended are Elwanda Teckell, Carolyn Howard, Ann Wright,

Andra Sue Carroll and Linda Thomas.

The girls go into their final conference game with a perfect 5-0 record in district competition.

The Bulldogs trailed 22-13 at the end of the first quarter, 44-33 at halftime, and 63-43 at the end of the third.

No other games have been scheduled, but probably will be in the next few days, according to school officials.

Today's MEDITATION from The World's Most Widely Used Devotional Guide

The Upper Room

Read Romans 8:31-39

Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. (Romans 8:37)

In our service for the Master, we are often too eager to see our accomplishments right away. Dwight L. Moody tells that one morning he was in his study, cast down because he could not see much fruit of his work.

One of his friends came in and sensed his gloom. The visitor asked Moody if he had studied the life of Noah. Moody replied, "No, I never studied his life particularly."

When the visitor left, Mr. Moody took down his Bible and read how Noah struggled and toiled for God many, many years, yet never got discouraged.

Moody said to himself, "Well, I ought not to be discouraged." The clouds lifted, and he could say: "Let us ask God to forgive us, if we have been discouraged and cast down; let us ask God to give us hope, that we may be ever hopeful."

If the Lord wants us to work without any fruit, let us work on for Him. God helping us, we can do our best, and leave the rest in His hands.

PRAYER: O, God, give us an unquenchable love for Thee. Grant also that we may see the challenge of helping others love Thee. Inspire us to do our best for Thee and leave the results in Thy hands. For the Savior's sake. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: If we do our work for the Master, God will not permit it to be without fruit.—Katherine Bevis (Texas)

Everyday Religion

By J. B. Thompson

We are all somewhat like tight-wire walkers. These acrobats never keep perfectly vertical and upright. Their secret is that they vary from side to side to remain balanced. Holding a balancing pole helps them to do this.

This is a parable of life. We can't stay perfectly vertical, perfectly upright and stiff at all times. Life's problems and trials push us off center—out of balance. It is perfectly normal for us to give and sway to life's blows, but the danger comes when we let these pull us off balance and throw us off the track.

We offset the temptations and the down-pull by holding on to the balancing pole. This is our trust in God and the love and goodness in life. The wire walker recently killed is said to have lost his grip on the balancing pole.

We are not capable of solving or avoiding all of the problems which confront us day by day, but we can strike a balance and keep our footing on this tightwire called life. Keep a tight grip on the balancing pole—faith in God.

Forsythe On Board of LCC

L. A. Forsythe, Tahoka farmer, is a member of the Lubbock Christian College Advisory and Development Board that will meet in Lubbock at 11 a. m. Tuesday, February 20 in the main auditorium of the college's administration building.

Meeting with the Board of Trustees, the Advisory Board will discuss the progress of the Christian liberal arts junior college now in its fifth year of operation. The annual joint meeting is held in connection with the Bible Lectureship, which each year attracts a large number of visitors to the campus. Dates for the four-day Lectureship are February 18-22.

LCC has enjoyed five consecutive record enrollments, and it is now the largest non-tax supported junior college in Texas. Enrollment for the second semester reached 400, a record enrollment for the spring session.

Presently under construction are the first permanent men's dormitory and a giant field house, which, when completed, will be the largest in the Southwest. An additional wing to double the capacity of the women's dormitory is being planned.

As an Advisory Board Member, Forsythe represents LCC by contacting prospective students, by keeping potential donors informed about the college's progress and by attending Advisory Board meetings.

Forsythe and his wife Muriel have three children: Larry, 19, Dixie Dell, 18, and Jerry, 16. Larry is presently enrolled as a sophomore at LCC.

Rev. Burnett Is Leaving Wilson

Rev. James P. Burnett, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church in Wilson since July, 1958, has accepted a call to St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Phillipsburg, Texas.

He will preach his farewell sermon this Sunday morning and will move to the new location, which is about seven miles south of Brenham, on Thursday.

Rev. Burnett is married and has one son, James David. He came to the Wilson church from seminary. While pastor at Wilson, the church was remodeled in 1960 and re-furnished with new church and altar furniture. In 1961 the church paved the street in front of the church property.

Until a new pastor is called, Rev. Leroy Deans of Slaton and Rev. F. A. Wittit of Posey will conduct worship services. During this period Sunday morning services will be held at 8:00 a. m. and Sunday School at 9:15 a. m.

Rev. Burnett stated that he is sorry to leave the Wilson church because he has come to love its people so much.

St. John's Church is in a "Preaching, Teaching, Reaching" mission, which will be continued. On March 4-8 Rev. Willfred Bigott of the Grace Lutheran Church in San Antonio will conduct services on Sunday morning and each evening through Thursday.

Terraces are being constructed on the J. W. Patterson and W. E. Pierce farms located two miles north of Draw and on the Lloyd McCormick and Charles Baker farms located four miles southeast of Wilson. The terraces will be built level and are designed to hold run-off water on the soil surface as well as control washing.

Research experiments made at the U.S.D.A. Station at Big Spring indicate that native perennial grasses can be used successfully in skip row systems with cotton. There are several advantages to using grass in cotton skip row systems in preference to grain sorghum.

1. The grass does not have to be replanted annually.
2. The problem of volunteer grain sorghum in the cotton is eliminated.

3. There is less likelihood of having trashy cotton.

4. After establishment, the grass requires little maintenance which means that costs of cultivation, etc. are reduced.

Some precautions must be observed in using perennial grasses in skip row systems with cotton. In the first place, a grass must be selected which does not require an extremely large feeding area. Plains brome, a native adopted grass, fits this requirement. Blue panic and similar taller grasses have a more extensive root system. If they are used they must be kept mowed until late August so that they do not compete with the cotton for moisture. Secondly, at least one row must be skipped between the grass and cotton if cotton yields are to be maintained. Finally, care must be exercised to prevent wind erosion in adjacent fields so that the grass does not serve to collect loose sand. If these precautions are followed, grasses can be used for erosion control in skip row systems without reducing cotton yields.

Farm Facts

American agriculture is an expanding industry in every important respect except one—the number of people required to run our farms—points out Dean Earl Butts of Purdue University's School of Agriculture.

"Our agricultural plant each year uses more capital, more science and technology, more managerial capacity, more purchased production inputs, more specialized marketing facilities, and more research than the year before.

"Although a smaller share of our total population is engaged directly in farming, the agricultural industry is big, broad and basic. Of 68 million persons employed in America in 1960, about 26 million worked somewhere in agriculture—8 million worked on farms, 7 million produced goods and services purchased by farmers, and 11 million processed and distributed farm products. Hence, almost two-fifths of all our employed people are engaged in work related to agriculture.

"Total United States agri-

Agriculture is an expanding industry.

cultural output increased by two-thirds in the past two decades, while the number of farm workers declined some 3 million. This remarkable increase in production efficiency can be matched by no other segment of the American economy."

QUESTIONS, PLEASE

QUESTION: WHAT IS THE DURATION OF HELL?

ANSWER: There are many who teach that hell will not last eternally but that it is just for a period of time which the wicked shall be purged of all their guilt before entering into heaven. There are still others who teach that the ones cast into hell will be punished and that the punishment will have an everlasting effect but that the punishment itself will not go on forever and forever. They believe that as the wicked cities of Sodom and Gomorrah were completely burned up for their wickedness so shall be the wicked in Hell. They will be completely consumed in the fire but the fire will not last forever, only its effect. As the fires of Sodom and Gomorrah have gone out but the wicked still punished so it will be in Hell itself.

The scriptures seem to indicate that the situation will be different from the above described conditions. To properly determine the duration of Hell we must decide the meaning of the word eternal or the Greek word "aiouios." The word itself indicated age long, eternal or of that which is without beginning or end.

In Matthew 25:41, 46, Jesus uses the same word, after speaking of "fire" in verse 41, to refer to both the blessedness of the saved and the punishment of the wicked (both are eternal), thus indicating, when here used in the same sentence, that both times it means the same thing—everlasting.

Topographical Map Will Be Made Of Lynn, And Other Plains Counties

Lubbock — The Board of Directors of the High Plains Under-ground Water Conservation District, during a business session held this week at the District office in Lubbock, entered into a cooperative program of topographic mapping with the Texas Water Commission (formerly State Board of Water Engineers) and the U. S. Geological Survey.

John J. Vandertulp, Chief Engineer for the Texas Water Commission, met with the District Board and explained at length the topographic mapping work which is being commenced in the High Plains by the Water Commission and the USGS.

He explained that the new mapping program will initially include work in nine counties within the High Plains Water District area; however, it will be extended to include the entire High Plains as the work progresses.

The initial counties within the High Plains Water District that are involved in the program are Lubbock, Floyd, Hockley, Lamb, Bailey, Farmer, Castro, Cochran, and Lynn counties.

The portion of Deaf Smith, Randall, Potter and Armstrong counties within the High Plains Water District will be mapped as soon as possible.

Vandertulp said, "The State's funds for topographic mapping are to be used in conjunction with water - resources investigations. Ground-water studies as well as surface-reservoir studies require good topographic maps. These maps also serve many other purposes and are a distinct asset to the area."

There will be a total of 2,540,000 acres of land involved in the initial mapping program. The Texas Water Commission will spend $200,000 in the next two years as the State's part in the cooperative project in the High Plains.

Topographic maps include, among other things, the elevations to existing wells, elevation contour lines, lowest elevation in playa lakes, roads, railroads houses and permanent structures. Maps are most useful in planning by cities, towns, utilities, and those involved in water and soil conservation work and planning, as well as individuals making plans for irrigation systems.

Members of the Board of Directors of the High Plains Water District expressed appreciation to Mr. Vandertulp and the Texas Water Commission for the work that has gone into initial planning of the program and for the interest shown in the High Plains area.

The Water District will financially cooperate in the program within the bounds of District. Similar mapping programs are planned for the areas of the Panhandle Ground Water Conservation District in Carson and Gray Counties, and in the area of the North Plains Ground Water Conservation District north of the Canadian River.

Better Cotton Goods Produced

College Station—Longer lasting collars and cuffs on men's wash-wear shirts and a single treatment that gives cotton wash-wear properties and also permanently dyes, starches and adds other finishing agents to the fabric were announced today by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

A cotton interliner was treated to give it wash-wear qualities and then bonded by an adhesive to outer layers of untreated cotton cloth to make the collars and cuffs. The finished fabric not only has wash-wear qualities similar to those of the treated interliner but also has high resistance to fraying or abrasion that is ordinarily associated with cotton. Samples made with the treated interliner were somewhat stiffer than the usual soft collars and cuffs but less stiff than acceptable starched ones. The wash-wear qualities were rated excellent.

The new multipurpose treatment involves use of divinyl sulfone derivatives. These chemicals have the unusual ability to react with cotton's cellulose molecules to produce a good wash-wear finish and at the same time attach other finishing materials permanently to the cellulose molecules. The derivatives could prove even more versatile in cotton processing. They may be capable of attaching to cotton many other chemicals, including those that give resistance to fire, heat, rot, mildew and some repellency to water and oil.

By adding both dye and starch to a solution of divinyl sulfone derivatives, the scientists obtained a permanently starched and colored wash-wear fabric. Laundering tests indicated the treated fabric was highly resistant to damage from chlorine bleach.

The new treatment can be applied with conventional textile finishing equipment. Fabric is dipped into the chemical solution, run through squeeze rolls to remove excess solution, then dried and cured at normal processing temperatures.

Research workers at USDA's Southern Utilization Research Division at New Orleans worked out the new treatments.

MR. AND MRS. CAP ROWE VISIT NORTH DAKOTA

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. (Cap) Rowe returned home Tuesday from a two weeks visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Varhaug, in Carington, North Dakota.

Cap says he just thought he had seen cold weather until this trip north. While they were there, the temperature got down to 20 to 30 degrees below zero each day. Finally, a "heat spell" of 10-below came, and the Rowe's took off for home.

While they were in North Dakota, the second worst snowstorm of the year blew in and visibility was zero. This is open country, and Cap says the winds are high making the weather even more disagreeable. One day they went out to a lake where people were fishing through holes in ice three feet thick. They skid little houses out on the ice, in which they build a fire and fish in comfort.

The blessings of salvation are made free to all by the gospel. It is the duty of all to accept them by penitent and obedient faith. Nothing prevents the salvation of the greatest sinner except his own voluntary refusal to accept Jesus Christ as teacher, Saviour, and Lord.

MOMENTS WITH GOD

TIMEWORN

"My times are in Thy hand." Psalm 31:15

The uneven, timeworn cobblestones in the ancient city of Prague make your feet hurt as you walk on them, but your heart cannot but soar as you look up and see the spires of the city's many churches pointing to God.

How did it happen that this lovely little land in mid-Europe fell under the Soviet hammer and sickle? People thought they did not need God any more and stopped looking up to Him in their daily life.

It is so easy to get tired of timeworn truths. Many a church has become empty because people became tired of hearing "the same old things."

Many modern person's life is empty and his heart is hollow because he is always looking for something new.

Is our faith sometimes shabby and timeworn?

Do we spend so much time looking for the new things in life that we forget and forfeit the truly new life which is ours from God in Jesus Christ?

In a world geared to disposable packages and paper cups and throwaway containers, may we always be aware of our never-ending need to look in faith to the timeworn Cross of our Savior, which always is able to save!

Lord Jesus, by the power of Thy timeworn Cross renew my sin-torn life. Amen.

Lynn County People Spend 56 Percent Of Retail Dollar On Food And Cars

(Special to The News)
New York, Jan. 29—Retail business in Lynn County was at a high level in the past fiscal year as local consumers, despite the unemployment that prevailed, spent freely for basic goods and services. Not all retail lines fared equally. Gains were recorded by some and not by others because of a highly selective buying attitude shown by shoppers. The new pattern that their spending has been taking reflects, to a degree, changes that have been observed in most parts of the nation. The Department of Commerce reports that the consumer today is spending 7 percent more on services than he did in 1953, 2 percent less on durable goods and 5 percent less on non-durables. His overall outlay, however, is much greater. In Lynn County, local residents spent 56 percent of their retail dollar for food and for automotive equipment and supplies in the past year. The total was $7,624,000. The figures are contained in the recent survey made by the Standard Rate and Data Service. It shows, for all sections of the country, where people spent their money and for what in the 12 months ending July 1, 1961.

The volume of business done by local food stores, exclusive of restaurants, amounted to $3,110,000.

Purchases of cars, boats and other automotive equipment came to $3,540,000.

Gas service stations took another $974,000.

Other types of stores also did well, most of them showing improvement over the prior year.

Those selling general merchandise, such as department and variety stores, accounted for $794,000. Apparel shops grossed $499,000, home-furnishings stores, $127,000, and drug stores, $390,000.

The grand total, for all local retail establishments, was $13,569,000, an increase over the 1960 fiscal figure of $13,350,000.

This spending volume was at the rate of $4,335 per household, which compares favorably with the United States rate of $4,088 per household.

According to forecasts by the National Industrial Conference Board and others, an even better year is in prospect for 1962.

Mrs. Singleton Was Pioneer

The passing of Mrs. Daisy Singleton, 82, of O'Donnell on January 30 in a Lamesa hospital, recalled a bit of Lynn county history and the establishment of the early day Slash-L ranch at Newmoore in the southwestern area.

The O'Donnell Index-Press has this to say about the Singletons: Mrs. Singleton was born Dec. 28, 1879, in Hannibal, Mo. She moved to Fort Worth with her parents as a small child, living there until she was four and moving to Colorado City. (At this time, Colorado City had just been established as the Texas and Pacific Railroad rails were laid westward.)

Her father, Samuel F. Singleton, founded the Slash-L Ranch (site of Newmoore today) in 1892. His family lived on the ranch and in Colorado City.

She finished high school in Jefferson, where she met her late husband, Hal Singleton, Sr. They were wed March 1, 1898, in Colorado City. They moved immediately to Jefferson and lived there until 1914, where he was a postmaster and later U. S. Marshal.

They moved here in 1914, establishing a lumber yard. Mr. Singleton was postmaster here for 16 years in the 20's, 30's and 40's.

Mrs. Singleton was a long time Methodist, an Eastern Star, helped organize the PTA here, and she was a member of the 1939 Study Club.

A stately, dignified pioneer, she lived during a most colorful period of history. Her father was lovingly known as "Uncle Sam" to the ranch workers.

Former Teacher At Wilson Dies

Mrs. W. L. (Delia) Forrester, 86, a teacher in the Wilson schools for 18 years, died Monday of last week in Snyder.

She was a sister-in-law of Mrs. R. J. (Aunt Becky) Roberts and Mrs. R. C. Forrester, both of Tahoka. Mrs. Forrester and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Biggerstaff attended the funeral services held in Snyder on Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Forrester had taught in Wilson from about 1919 until about 1936. Member of a pioneer Scurry county family, her husband was a druggist in Snyder from 1900 until his death in 1919.

She was survived by two daughters, Mrs. H. E. Walker of Snyder and Mrs. B. F. Killey of Sweetwater.

Mrs. Edna Stewart Dunn, owner of Dunn's Cabins at Ruidoso, N. M., and reared at Crosbyton, was here Monday visiting her old girlhood friend, Mrs. Frank Hill.

Printer's Ink-lings . . .

By F. P. H.

We think it's about time our big-wigs in Washington stop worrying so much about civil rights and integration, appeasing big labor, promoting new do-good schemes, a world court, figuring out means to gain more power for high officials and bureaucrats, and taking away more of our individual freedoms, talking soft to the Communists, messing up other nations' colonial problems, helping Communist satellites financially who don't give a darn about us, anyway. The time is long past when the United States should show a little raw-blooded guts, stand up on its hind feet and assert itself. We've been pussyfooting too long—so long that the Communists have taken two-thirds of the earth. The time is getting late. And, if the UN has no power or authority, and is too mushy-mouthed to take stands for democracy, we should throw it overboard. The same goes for our State Department. Why shouldn't we be calling the shots instead of Russia? . . . Our entire government, it seems, is getting so mealy-mouthed, compromising, and filled with so many who would "rather be Red than dead," that a lot of people are losing trust in our entire government. If you are not alarmed, you should be. Every week we hear expressions from substantial citizens who are worried! Of course, a few call The Printer a radical—and maybe we are, but we are American! We don't give a rip whether you are Democrat, Republican, Socialist, liberal or conservative. It's getting a little late for such puny ridicule!

A while back, the Supreme Court of the United States ruled that a witness taking an oath did not have to repeat the words "So help me, God." Last week, the American Civil Liberties Union bragged that Air Force ROTC cadets swearing allegiance to the U. S. no longer have to repeat "so help me, God." Also, the word "swear" in the allegiance has been changed to "affirm," which is a milder word meaning to maintain or assert. Do we no longer believe in God as a nation? Is it asking too much of a soldier to swear, not affirm, allegiance to his own country—the homeland he's supposed to defend? The course being taken by this country, which was once known for its patriots, is gradually being softened for Socialism, or even possibly Communism.

If you don't like the trend of government, you'd better get to writing Congressman George Mahon, House Office Building, Washington, D. C. You can bet your bottom dollar the ultra-liberals are putting on the pressure.

The Kennedy administration is pulling the noose a little tighter around the farmer's neck. Bracero labor must go, says the Labor Department. Now, the Administration is calling for the extension to farm workers of union bargaining rights, minimum wage, and unemployment insurance, in addition to further controls.

We haven't seen anything in the way of controls, yet! Have you been reading the proposals of President Kennedy, Secretary Freeman, and Dr. Cochrane? Better grab a hold of your hat, because if Congress approves this program you will really be controlled—and can do nothing about it. In fact, Freeman frankly says you will have to go all the way or not at all. In other words, a shotgun (figuratively speaking) will be placed at your head to force approval. Is this the American way?

One feature of the program we sorter like. This is the administration's proposal converting retired acres into recreation areas for camping and swimming, public parks, wildlife, forestry, golf, fishing, and grazing. There are considerably more than 1,000 farms in Lynn county—and just look how many places we would have to enjoy ourselves. Some farmers may even have their own golf courses.

The administration also proposes a "green belt" ten miles or so wide around urban areas to be devoted to recreational uses and to preservation of natural growth—these are President Kennedy's words, not ours. In his talk last week, he urged on Congress such a program which would authorize conservation payments and cost-share arrangements to farmers for establishment of recreational areas, wildlife and non-farm activities and uses of cropland. He also asked authority to make loans to establish recreational facilities on our retired farm acres. Mr. New Frontiersman, does this sound practical?

Mr. Kennedy and Mr. Freeman say we must take 50 million acres out of production and return this land to its natural state, or for recreation. Lynn county's 915 sections of land come to only 585,600 acres, including pasture. Therefore, it would take 85 counties in the U. S. to equal 50 million acres. The entire state of Texas had only 35 million acres in land available to crops in 1960, according to the U. S. Census of that year. Does this sound practical?

If you don't favor such a program, you better get busy writing your congressman. Mr. Kennedy says our farm program is costing away too much, and his program will cut the cost—but, like Benson and Eisenhower, he includes in this cost the school lunch program, the Department of Agriculture, vocational agriculture, surpluses given away to foreign countries, and a dozen others.

Did you know Grassland once had a hotel? The first community of the county was started away back in the early 1890's by Enos L. Seeds, later to become a wealthy Philadelphia bridge builder, who established a small store and post-office there. J. H. (Mutt) Huddleston, who came in 1916 to the place his dad, the late J. V. Huddleston, bought in 1915, located southwest of Grassland, thinks Seeds' original store was in the southeast corner of the Price Thomas home place, just across from the present Grassland cemetery. He was told this by the late Matt Williams and Eldon George, pioneer cowboys. Later, two wells were dug on the present Grassland site, and it was here that there was once a hotel. "Mutt" says when they came here, the only fence between Grassland and Tahoka was the J. B. Slaughter fence running west from the cemetery past their house.

Bob Traweck of Redwine first came to this area in 1902 with his dad, going west from the head of Moorar's Draw, where the old stage line station and Long-S tank were located in the present G. M.

Stewart lake pasture, to Roswell and Portales, N. M. They came back by old Grassland. Nobody had even dreamed of a Tahoka then.

Answering critics of the Cooperatives borrowing money from the government, Joe D. Unfred, a director of Puka-Lambro, says that in 1960 723 firms borrowed money from the Rural Electrification Administration. Of these, only 211, or 29 percent, were cooperatives. The other 512 borrowers, or 70.8 percent, were commercial firms.

Cal Farley's Boys Ranch Round-up says:

One of the newest little fellows was telling his dorm mother about his first horseback ride and he described a short gallop as "goin' a hundrit miles a hour." In an effort to correct this little fib the dorm mother asked, "Are you sure?" "Yes ma'am, I'm sure," the youngster replied enthusiastically. Unwilling to let the subject drop she asked more firmly, "Are you certain sure?" "Well," he answered slowly, "I guess I'm just maybe sure."

Cal Farley also says: Showing distrust of a boy you're trying to help is like calling a dog and then throwing rocks at him.

"Buster" Fenton writes: "Stop ad. I got letter from a man in Arkansas wanting a job. Didn't

Car Inspection Deadline April 15

Less than thirty per cent of the registered vehicles in this area have been safety inspected for 1962, according to Patrolman J. R. Whitmore. Motor Vehicle Inspection Service of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

With the April 15 deadline, for having the vehicles checked, rapidly approaching, this means there are approximately 4900 vehicles in Lynn County remaining to be inspected by the 12 approved inspection stations available.

Many motorists are going to find long lines awaiting them as the deadline draws nearer, due to the inspection stations not being able to come with this large number.

The patrolman urged drivers to have their vehicles inspected as soon as possible to avoid this last minute rush. In addition, he reminded drivers that this time of the year is noted for adverse weather conditions which prevents the inspection stations from checking the vehicles.

"Passenger cars are inspected for brakes, lights, reflectors, horn and windshield wipers; while commercial vehicles are inspected for the above plus additional items required by law," Patrolman Whitmore said. "All motorists not displaying a valid 1962 inspection sticker by April 15 will be in violation of state law."

Soil Testing Is Good Business

It's good business to anticipate the fertilizer needs of your crops before deficiency symptoms can be actually seen, according to County Agent Bill Griffin. By the time the deficiency is noticeable by observation it is generally too late to correct the condition for the particular crop and poor yields will be the unavoidable result.

The soil test is the best known guide for planning a sound program of fertilizer use and now is a good time to collect samples to be sent in for a chemical analysis. Griffin states that information on how to collect and mail samples is available through his office. The new laboratory operated by the Extension Service at the Agricultural Experiment Station in Lubbock has excellent facilities for soil testing and is now entering its second year of operation.

Following the analysis a report is returned to the farmer giving fertilizer recommendations designed to properly balance the plant food elements for the particular crop being planned.

The $2.00 fee for a soil analysis might well be the best investment you could make in the beginning of a crop year, Griffin concluded.

Rotary Club Has Assembly

Various activities of Tahoka Rotary Club were discussed in a Club Assembly held Thursday night in the City-Legion building, presided over by the head of the club, Dr. Skiles Thomas.

The president called on club members for help with the Boy Scouts, particularly with programs for meetings and in Merit Badge training. Previously, he has asked Rotarians for a list of hobbies, and as a result found a number of men who could help out the Scouts with these hobbies, such as Morse code, cooking, camping, fishing, trades, etc.

Among the other subjects discussed were a Youth Survey of the town and also a Community Survey.

The group decided to hold another pancake supper to finance the bringing of another foreign student to Tahoka this summer.

The pancake supper will be in the school cafeteria the evening of Feb. 23.

Following are the committees named for the supper:

Cooks: F. E. Redwine, Fred McGinty, Calloway Hoffaker, Lynn Seals, and Mel Leslie.

WASHINGTON AND 'SMALL BUSINESS' BY C. WILSON HARDER

The earlier producing objective of the drive to put the U.S. economy into an alliance with the European Common Market is perhaps best seen in the plan the U.S. aluminum industry would like to put across.

The U.S. industry would like to be free to enter into negotiations with the 13 aluminum exporting nations, of which Communist Yugoslavia is one, to regulate the world trade in the metal.

Under the proposal, the U.S. would guarantee these exporting nations the same share of the U.S. aluminum market as they now hold, plus a share of any increase in the use of the metal in this country.

In return, the other countries would give the U.S. a share of their aluminum market to a share of the world market.

This would result in an industry spokesman said in a method to "organize the world aluminum trade on an orderly basis."

This plan, of course, would eliminate free competition in the world aluminum market and substitute for it a monopoly composed of a partnership between private investor government ownership and in the case of Yugoslavia, communist ownership.

In addition, it would negate thoroughly and completely the American principle of free competition and would result in a government monopoly.

Back in 1776 the founders of the nation shed blood to escape from this sort of thing, and by and large in the years that followed the nation has done quite well.

Many Congressmen are astounded that any open move would ever be made to get the nation to forsake these principles to enter into such a thing as the European Common Market.

Of course, there is a facet of this European Common Market agreement that has not been brought too much to light in the U.S. That is the fact that the existing agreements provide for a free movement of labor between the signatory nations. There are no immigration quotas on workers between the nations.

If the U.S. accepted this part of the agreement it is not hard to imagine that every 50 and 60 cent per hour worker in Europe would be swarming into America.

It is, of course, a part of the current proposal to recognize that many U.S. industries would be forced to shut down as they would be unable to compete with the flood of cheap foreign imports. The plan then is to assess the taxpayers for funds to retrain all the displaced American workers for jobs in other fields.

But nobody has yet come up with an estimate on how many billions of dollars it will take to send all these millions of displaced workers through Harvard to enable them to qualify for jobs as government economists, which appears to be the only substantially growing area of employment left in the nation.

Anaheim, Calif., Bulletin: "Our government based on the Constitution of the United States must be preserved. We are the envy of every Nation in the World, and the Nation most desirable to be conquered since we are in this position. No other form of government can present this way of life nor the opportunities guaranteed by our Constitution." D. C. Carroll is a patient in Methodist Hospital in Lubbock, and is showing improvement, according to his family.

"PETE" FOSTER WRITES FROM GRANITE SHOALS Mr. and Mrs. "Pete" Foster, who formerly operated Wayside store and now operate a fishing resort on Granite Shoals Lake at Kingsland, write:

"Things are coming alive. White and black bass are hitting. Boats are buzzing on lake. Sure need rain if we have bluebonnets. Our little town is growing. Doctor's office is being built, also First Baptist Church about finished, about $80,000 in building. Come down to see us some time. We are, as ever, your friends."

Mrs. Oscar Roberts has been released from Methodist Hospital in Lubbock, where she underwent major surgery recently.
