City Seeks Help In Garbage Collection

Tahoka's new garbage packer truck body was received last week end, and is now in service.

The City Sanitation Department is attempting to work out a schedule whereby two pick ups a week may be made of the entire residential system, but states citizens should be patient for a while until they can get such a schedule in operation.

Citizens are being asked to replace large barrels with smaller ones and also to refrain from burning trash in garbage containers.

Many times, the larger barrels become too heavy, especially when grass cuttings and dirt are put in them that it is almost impossible for employees to lift these barrels for emptying.

Fire and hot ashes in garbage cans are also difficult to handle and also a hazard to the workmen and the packer truck.

Smaller covered cans are much more desirable for everyone, states Warren Smith of the City Sanitation Department, as they are easier to handle and prevent the breeding of flies, mosquitoes and disease germs.

Where possible, citizens are asked to build racks in which to place these smaller cans to prevent the wind from blowing them away and to prevent dogs from turning them over.

With cooperation from citizens, a much better pick-up system may be arranged, and sanitation and cleanliness may be promoted in the town, City officials point out.

The new City ordinance requiring these smaller covered cans will not be enforced until everyone has ample opportunity to make the change over. The News is informed.

O'Donnell Votes On School Issue

O'Donnell School District voters are being asked to go to the polls today, Friday, to help the board determine what to do about integration. Balloting will be at the High School building.

Problems which prompted the board to call the election are the same that all schools throughout the state and nation have been facing, states Supt. John Criner.

First, the Federal laws have called for integration of public schools based on the Supreme Court's decision. This has eliminated any legal basis for maintaining segregation.

Second, Criner says, we are faced with accreditation standards of the Texas Education Agency, which say that a school is rated by its weakest unit and that one unit not meeting the standards will cause the total school system to lose its accreditation. In order to meet these standards, the school district would have to build a new school system equal to our present system. The cost of this would be considerable plus the fact that this would not insure continued segregation.

Your board of trustees has called for this vote, for it is a problem which concerns the public and in which YOU must react," the statement concludes.

Lynn County Shows Steady Increase In Number Finishing High School

(Special to The News)
New York — The educational trend is upward in Lynn County.

According to latest Government reports, there has been a marked increase in the last ten years in the amount of schooling that local residents have been acquiring.

More of them than ever before have been completing elementary school and have been going on to high school and to college.

Today, the average resident of Lynn County, by the time he reaches age 25, is equipped with 9.7 years of formal education, which is more than he would have had ten years ago. At that time, the median number of school years completed locally was 9.1.

The figures, just released by the Census Bureau, are based on data gathered during the 1960 national tabulations.

They indicate that, despite all the criticism levelled at them, the younger generation is putting more time and effort into the educational process than it has for a long while.

Gains are noted in almost every section of the country in the number of years being devoted to schooling, with some areas showing much greater improvement than others.

Women appear to be taking full advantage of their educational opportunities. The figures show, in fact, that they tend to stay in school longer than men do even though a smaller proportion of them continue on through college.

In Lynn County, the median number of years completed by women is 10.2 and by men, 9.2.

Why are the young folk continuing in school longer than they did formerly? To a large extent, (Cont'd. On Back Page)

The children will learn to speak and understand enough English that they should be able to compete with the regular first grade students. These students will learn to understand and obey the instructions necessary to do first grade work.

Every parent of a non-English speaking child who will be six or before Sept. 1, 1962, is urged to come and get this child started in this summer program.

City Fire Loss Light So Far

"If we can get by until it rains, Tahoka has been lucky so far this year on fire losses," states Fire Marshal Johnny Raindl. So far, there have been only about $700.00 in losses in town this year.

A farm home in the New Home community, three and a half miles west and a mile north of Wayside belonging to Lee Lawson of Lubbock and occupied by a Negro family burned to the ground Wednesday night. Most of the family's household effects were saved.

Fire Chief Pat Patterson said the fire started on the outside from a butane tank, but he didn't know how the butane was ignited. John Edwards also brought the New Home pressurized water wagon to the scene. The fire had gained such headway that the building could not be saved.

Wednesday of last week, Tahoka Fire Department was called to a point between Tahoka and Wilson, where Santa Fe employees were burning grass on the railroad right-of-way and the fire got away from them and into the Spears pasture. The firemen had just barely gotten back to town and refilled the truck tank, when they were called to Lynn County Tractor Co., where a trash fire had spread to a Shipley Motor Co. used car lot and damaged two cars.

Thursday, the Department was called to Wilson, where a grass fire in the north part of town near the new Catholic church had gotten out of control.

Smith was reared on the farm west of Lamesa near the Dawson-Gaines county line, worked his way through Texas Tech, and has become a successful Lubbock businessman. He served six years as state representative from this district, followed by six years as state senator from this, the Lubbock district. By past performance, he has proven himself to this area as a middle-of-the-road, sensible lawmaker, as evidenced by the large vote given him by people of this area in the first primary.

Jimmy Turman holds three college degrees, is a former school teacher, and has served four terms in the Texas House of Representatives. (Cont'd on Back Page)

Yarborough, age 36, no relation to Senator Ralph Yarborough, is also an attorney and has come into prominence in his section of the state as a lawyer, public speaker and civic worker. He has the support of the left-wing ADA and the AFL-CIO Unions, and has expressed himself as favoring President Kennedy's radical new programs.

In the run-off for lieutenant governor are Senator Preston Smith, 49, of Lubbock and James A. (Jimmy) Turman, 34, of Goben, Fannin county.

In the run-off for governor of Texas are John Connally of Fort Worth and Don Yarborough of Houston. Neither has previously been elected to a public office. Connally led Yarborough by about 135,000 votes in the first primary.

Connally served with now Vice President Lyndon Johnson, and was named Secretary of the Navy by President John F. Kennedy. He resigned this position to run for governor of his home state. He declares Johnson and Kennedy had nothing to do with his race for governor and that he even opposes some of the New Frontier programs. He is an attorney.

AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE TO THE FARMER FOR 1962

The PANHANDLE MUTUAL HAIL ASSOCIATION has paid back to the farmers an average of 84c of each premium dollar over the last 3 years for HAIL LOSSES. The loss benefit is the important and simple crux of any insurance policy, and much sweeter than any token dividend or deviation.

SEVEN REASONS WHY PANHANDLE MUTUAL HAIL ASSOCIATION IS ONE OF THE LARGEST CROP HAIL WRITERS ON TEXAS CROPS:

- All Texas policies are reinsured by the LLOYD'S OF LONDON with billions of dollars assets.
- All liability is mapped and limited by section and township.
- Approximately FOUR AND ONE-HALF MILLION dollars paid to West Texas farmers for losses the last five years.
- A-PLUS (EXCELLENT) RATING BY "DUNNE'S FIRE AND CASUALTY REPORT."
- Required legal reserve (policy holders surplus) maintained at all times and deposits are kept in LOCAL BANKS throughout the West Texas area.
- The PANHANDLE SPECIAL cotton policy DOES NOT have the REPLANT clause and we DO NOT use the PLANT POPULATION adjustment at any time.
- We do offer the FB-10 and FB-5 cotton coverage (with replant) at reduced rates for late cotton.
- The PANHANDLE Wheat Policy is the only policy with the "Extra Harvest Expense Award" benefits, also with the 10% credit on Tascosa and beardless wheat, only 48 hour waiting period instead of 120 and a premium saving in most counties.
- Free cancellation on crop failures (See Dates) . . . arbitration clause.
- Your PANHANDLE MUTUAL HAIL ASSOCIATION wants to serve you with "THE THINKING MAN'S HAIL INSURANCE."

Be sure and talk to your PANHANDLE MUTUAL AGENT now to compare and study the coverages and rates, because of the many coverages that are now being offered, you need to know which policy fits your West Texas farming conditions the best.

Farm Facts

Agriculture today makes up only 7% of the labor force, whereas in 1862, when the U. S. Department of Agriculture was established, farmers comprised well over half the labor force.

One hundred years ago, each farmer produced enough food for five people. Today, each farmer produces enough for himself and 26 other people.

Though farmers make up only 7% of the working force, they supply over half of all the raw materials used by American industry—wool and cotton, tobacco, wood for newspapers and rocking chairs, hides for shoes and handbags, soybeans for paints and plastics.

Industry also depends on farming for jobs. Agriculture provides some 16 million non-farm jobs.

As a customer, the farmer is America's biggest buyer of petroleum products. He buys enough tires annually for 6 million cars and spends a sizable fortune every year on

English School For Latins At Wilson

Beginning June 7 and continuing through July 27, there will be a summer school for non-English speaking children at Wilson.

All Latin children who will be six next September and have never attended school before are encouraged to attend. Classes will be held from 8 a. m. to 11 a. m. in the Wilson Elementary School Building.

Children will be taught to speak and understand the English language. The school is free. All materials will be furnished. The children that attend this school usually have to spend only one year in the first grade, whereas the majority of Latin beginners must spend two years in the first grade because of language handicap.

Those who are interested, bring the child's birth certificate and enroll them in class on June 4, 1962. "We urge you to give your child the advantages and opportunities he will receive from attending this summer school," states Elementary Principal M. L. Green.

To all my Wonderful Friends: My heart is full of gratitude for the blessings that are mine that a kind Providence has spared my wife and two children from what could have been a fatal accident; and, for my friends.

My wife and children were on their way from Austin to Plainview on Friday, May 4th, when they were involved in an accident near Hamlin. The children were dismissed from the Hamlin Hospital on May 10th and on May 16th we moved Sharlene to the Plainview Hospital where she will be for some time. But, we are thankful that we are back in Plainview and in one piece.

As to the election We are very thankful to all our friends in Texas who did so much to help us. Our friends worked hard and we got a good vote, a vote we can be proud of. But, we were up against two political machines and too much money.

The Texans who voted for us were ones who wanted good, sound honest government. They wanted a progressive Texas, but they wanted their money spent wisely.

We have no suggestions to make as to voting in the run-off. We came out of the campaign on good, friendly terms with all the other gubernatorial candidates. I consider them all my friends. Texans who were intelligent enough to vote for us, are more than intelligent enough to vote wisely in the run-off campaign without my suggestions or recommendations. I do urge everyone to vote.

We carried 54 counties. We were second in many more.

Our voters were proud voters and did not have to apologize to anyone for their vote.

Again, I want to express my thanks for all that you have done—for without your help, your contributions, and your prayers I could not have begun to do the task that was before us.

God bless you and your's.
Sincerely,

QUESTIONS, PLEASE

QUESTION: WAS JUDAS INFUENCED TO THE POINT THAT HE COULDN'T HELP BUT SIN?

ANSWER: The expression is "The devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot . . . to betray him." (Jno. 13:2). The influence was just such as presents itself in the way of temptation to every individual in life. All men are tempted to do evil by the presentation of motives. Every man is tempted to steal at some time in his life to commit adultery, to kill. The devil is the author of all temptation to sin. I take it, he tempted Judas in this way. Judas was a money lover. The prospects of Jesus were under a cloud. It seemed that he was about to fail. The suggestion came to Judas that as Jesus is about to fail, you can make money by betraying Him. His weak faith, his lack of true strength of character, and his love of money caused him to yield and betray the Savior. Every other disciple was tempted as he was. They did not feel it so strongly, because they would not parley with it; their strength of character was greater. They had a truer regard for right, hence did not run in the way of temptation. We can see nothing in the influence brought to bear on Judas different from that brought to bear on any other man, that parleys with the evil. Nor do we believe Judas' sin was greater than that of any other being who deliberately betrays right for the sake of gain. There are thousands of men in the church, even among the teachers in the church, that for gain and popularity, betray the truth, do the same thing that Judas did, make for themselves the same character; only they do not show his remorse nor have the grace to hang themselves, as he hung himself; but they will share the same fate love of money caused him to

MOMENTS WITH GOD

"IT'S HIGH TIME"

"It's high time to awake out of sleep." Romans 13:11

How easy to snicker with amusement at the sight of someone described as being "higher than a kite"! In total unconcern for potential tragedy, we say: "People drink; they always have, always will."

Instead of merely shrugging it off as a social problem, we ought to recognize the immoderate use of alcohol as the death-dealing menace it is.

"It's high time" for us as Christians to call to the attention of anyone who indulges in anything to excess the warning bell which God rings in His Word!

"It's high time" for us to feel low about our sin, see its seriousness, and look in faith to Him who came to make right the wrongs of our life.

"It's high time" for us to turn to God for help and strength against overindulgence and excess.

"It's high time" for us to develop the inner controls of self-discipline by which we make use of all things in life with moderation.

"It's high time" for us to be more consistently Christian! "Let us live cleanly, as in the daylight, not in the 'delights' of getting drunk or playing with sex, nor yet in quarreling or jealousies. Let us be Christ's men from head to foot;" Romans 13:11 (Phillips translation)

O Spirit of holiness, help us to be spiritually awake at all times through faith in Jesus, our Savior. Amen.

If you have no church-home we invite you to join us in studying the Word of Life, the Bible, in our SPECIAL BIBLE CLASS in TAHOKA each Sunday at 7:30 p. m. in the W. O. W. Hall. We also encourage you to tune in on the Lutheran Hour each Sunday at 12:30 on station KCED, 1590 on the dial. You will hear a Christ-centered message.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" G. WILSON HARDER

Readers often ask if there is any way of bringing the federal budget into balance other than Congress wielding an axe to cut sharply all non-defense expenditures.

To answer this it is perhaps best to look at the record. Congressman Harold Osterberg points out that federal spending this fiscal year will reach $111 billion, a $12 billion jump over last year. Of this total $23.5 billion will be paid out in social security, unemployment insurance, highway building, and civil service pensions. The remainder, $89 billion, will be spent for a host of items.

He estimates tax collections at around the $102.5 billion mark. Of this total, the largest take is on individual income taxes, some $45 billion. Corporation incomes taxes should bring in $21.3 billion, the balance from excise taxes on automobiles, gasoline, jewelry, et al. Thus social security tax collections, which incidentally, will be almost $1.5 billion less than expenditures.

There has been some question of raising income taxes, rather than cutting non-essential government expenses.

But Congressman Richard Roudelush feels this is impossible insofar as individuals are concerned. He takes the example of the typical $5,000 per year family.

This family, he finds, is paying $300 in federal income taxes, $305 in excises taxes and $215 in social security taxes, for a total federal tax of $820. State taxes take $50 in income taxes, sales and state excise taxes take another $190, property taxes $295 and social taxes $15 for a state total of $470. The combined total is $1,290 for food, clothing, insurance, housing, heating, car expense, and all other living costs.

What about increasing corporation taxes. In the long run, this could add to the burden of the family shown above.

For example, assume the family cited above buys a breakfast cereal. On each box, the manufacturer, to stay in business must make a penny profit. But before the manufacturer can get a penny profit, he has to make 1.2 cents profit. The wholesaler needs to make a cent profit, but he too, in order to realize a penny profit, must first make a 1.2 cent profit to pay taxes, and the retailer must figure his markup on the same way. Thus, in order for the processor, the wholesaler and the retailer to meet their taxes, the consumer pays a pyramided tax that on a box of cereal probably adds 5 cents.

Thus, it is a fallacy to believe increased corporation taxes will help the consumer. Because every tax added into the production, distribution and sales of goods is reflected in the sales price.

This then seems quite self-evident.

It is high time that government start slashing expenditures right and left. The American nation can no longer afford the luxury of an expanded welfare state, foreign give aways, and other dollar consuming schemes.

ative, the last session as Speaker of the House. He is a liberal, and has been attacked for his left-wing theories of government.

In the run-off for attorney general is Waggoner Carr, 43, graduate of Texas Tech and University of Texas Law School, former Lubbock county and district attorney and former state representative. He was the third man in Texas history to be elected by his colleagues as Speaker of the House for two successive terms. He has long been a fighter for law enforcement, served on House committees which uncovered major crime in Texas, and helped create the Law Enforcement Study Commission. He is a church lay leader. His wife is the former Earnestine Story, who was reared in Tahoka, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Story, now of Austin. Politically, he is considered a moderate. Waggoner went into the run-off with almost a majority over his opponents.

His opponent is Tom Reavley, 40, prominent young Austin attorney, a graduate of Stephen F. Austin State College and U. of T. Law School and also Harvard Law School, and has taught law. He is a former assistant district attorney of Dallas county. He was Secretary of State under Governor Allan Shivers. He is likewise a lay leader in his church. Reavley has been practicing law for several years, and as such has been attorney for the Rural Coops. in Texas and has the backing of many leaders in the Co-ops. He also has the backing of the Labor unions.

By reason of the fact that Texas has not been redistricted since the 1960 census, the state is entitled to one new congressman to be elected "at-large," or by the voters of the state as a whole.

The candidates are Woodrow Wilson Bean, 44 of El Paso, and Joe Pool, 50, of Dallas.

Bean, a liberal, backed by the Labor Unions, is the controversial county judge of El Paso county who has refused to file an income tax return for the past 10 years. He is a graduate of Masonic Home School in Fort Worth, University of Texas Law School, served three terms from El Paso in the Legislature and one term as county judge.

Pool, a prominent Dallas attorney and civic worker, attended both Texas and SMU Law schools. He says he is a life-long Democrat but opposed to many of the present programs of the New Frontier, including financial aid to Communist sympathizer nations and neutrals but favors aid where necessary to friendly nations, federal aid to schools, the medicare program. He would encourage more foreign trade, but not at the expense of American manufacturers, farmers, and oil producers.

The Forest Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture has resorted to biological warfare against injurious insects.

Viruses affecting several species of forest insects have been discovered, identified, collected, and propagated. A virus spray, for example, can now be used to control the European pine sawfly in red pine plantations. Other sprays have been applied from airplanes to control insect outbreaks.

To aid in the control of several species of highly destructive insects accidentally introduced from abroad, more than 200 species of parasites and predators of these insects have been collected and introduced into this country. At least 60 species are known to be established here.

Further research on biological control of insects should make it an effective weapon in combating infestations and checking losses inflicted on the nation's forests. Losses to

Mrs. Slaton Tells Of Seattle Trip

Mrs. W. B. Slaton returned Friday night from a month's visit with her daughter, Mrs. E. R. (Lucille) Lethenstrom, and husband in Seattle, Washington.

She says she greatly enjoyed the visit, but almost wished for a West Texas sandstorm, which the folks up there could hardly believe. She says the weather was cold and damp and there was only about two days of sunshine while she was there.

Lucille and her husband, who is of Norwegian extraction, live in the Magnolia area of Seattle, the most beautiful section of town.

Mrs. Slaton was amazed by the beauty of the town, houses situated over the rocky hills, and the prolific flowers which she says are "just out of this world."

She was little disappointed in the World's Fair being held there, but she says the ride to the fair grounds from downtown on the monorail was quite a novelty. A trip to the top of the "Space Needle" was a thrilling experience. The Needle is 600 feet high, and the area at the top will accommodate 700 or 800 or more people at a time. Three or four elevators carry visitors to the top, and she said there was a long line waiting all the time. The view from the top of the city and surrounding area is magnificent.

Mrs. Slaton flew out to Seattle by jet plane and returned by train.

and Andrews counties. He is a law student in the University of Texas, has been a leader in 4-H Club work, in his church, and has "learned the ropes" while serving as assistant sergeant-at-arms two sessions of the Texas Legislature. He is a moderate, favors revision of the Sales Tax, continuing the Farm-to-Market road program, improvement of schools with emphasis on standards of excellence, a re-evaluation of the state welfare program with a view toward eliminating free loaders and strengthening benefits for senior citizens, and conservation of water and soil. He opposes Federal encroachment on the school program and other Federal interference with States Rights.

R. G. (Randy) Pendleton of Andrews, whose parents formerly lived at Newmoore and whose grandparents lived at West Point, has attended Texas Tech majoring in government and strongly opposes special interest legislation. He promises, if elected, to give the job his full time. He was likewise a leader in high school at Andrews, where he has lived 15 years, participated in athletics, and is also active in his church.

Every eligible voter is urged to make a choice and go to the polls this Saturday.

Mrs. Apolonis Vasquez is improving in the Tahoka Hospital. She had surgery last week.

it appears to be a matter of economics.

They have come to realize that if they fail to get an adequate education they will be forfeiting job opportunities and thousands of dollars in possible future income.

Reports on this subject from the U. S. Department of Labor and from other agencies have brought home to them the fact that each year of education adds a certain amount to a person's lifetime earnings.

The result has been a decline in the number of students dropping out prematurely in Lynn County and a 7 percent rise in years of schooling since 1950.

TB Can Be Wiped Out In Tahoka Through Cooperation, Speaker Says

Great progress has been made in the elimination of tuberculosis as a major cause of death, and the disease can be virtually wiped out with the cooperation of citizens in general, Dr. John Selby, Lubbock specialist in tuberculosis and chest surgery told Tahoka Rotary Club in a talk Thursday of last week.

He pointed out how Tahoka could virtually eliminate the disease. The discovery of Salk vaccine in eliminating polio was dramatic, he said. TB elimination is not so fast or so dramatic, because this is a long, slow process that depends on several factors.

A major break-through came in 1934 with the development of streptomycin, followed by INH, and since then the death rate from pulmonary tuberculosis has dropped considerably. However, these drugs have the fault that organisms build up resistance to them. The means of control are available, but cooperation of many people is necessary to elimination of the disease.

TB is caught only from people with TB. But, many people are carriers who do not know it. Others undergo treatment, but when they improve they neglect to follow through and again become carriers.

The very simple test in public schools locates some test, but children have a low incident rate and it is really their parents and grandparents who are the carriers.

He outlined five steps for a program that could result in a whole community being immunized.

1. Education. We need a program to educate people to the threat of carriers, tests, treatment.
2. Find every case possible. If we knew where every case was, we could control TB, he said.
3. Isolation. Keep those with the disease from making contact with others until they are past the danger, or carrier, stage.
4. Treatment. Methods have advanced to where TB can be rendered non-contagious in three, six, or nine months.
5. Rehabilitation. Many patients can not do the strenuous work following cure they had previously done, and must be brought back to a productive life, some times in an entirely new field.

Tuberculosis incident case is now being reduced at a rate of 5 percent per year, but we must step this up to 10 percent to eliminate the disease. Just a few years ago, 50 percent of the chest surgery cases were for tuberculosis, but today only about 5 percent are because of TB.

Incidentally, he declared that lung cancer is on the increase and most surgery cases are for cancer. He said he was positive the cause is cigarette smoking.

Lubbock has one of the outstanding Tuberculosis Associations in the country, he said, carrying out a model program. He said that Association would be glad to bring to Tahoka the same kind of program being carried out in that city.

Dr. Selby emphasized that we can do the job of eliminating TB on a local basis better and cheaper than if it were done by the State or Federal governments.

In his introductory remarks, he took a swing at President Kennedy and those who advocate socialized medicine and federal health programs. Jack thinks the Constitution says he is responsible for my health," he laughingly cracked. "Our government is about to run out of anything to give away, so the next thing to give away is medicine and doctors."

Born and reared in the East, and educated in Boston, he said Kennedy was his neighbor. But, he declared, he came to this area because it is the last stronghold of true Americanism.

We are fast running out of people who think enough of their old folks to take care of them. We like to think of this area as being made up of individuals rugged enough to take care of themselves. But, people who have the moral integrity to take on responsibility are getting to be a minority. We must quit running to the government for help if we expect to survive.

In introducing the speaker, program Otis Spears said Dr. Selby is a director of the Texas Tuberculosis Association and a member of the Research Committee.

Rural Accidents Total 113 In 1961

In Lynn County for the year 1961 there were 113 accidents reported. Of this number the Texas Highway Patrol investigated 70 percent, or an investigation rate of 62 percent. The Highway Patrol investigates every accident they are notified or aware of. The Texas Highway Patrol made 46 arrests in these investigations, or an arrest rate of 66 percent.

Other accidents that were reported and investigated by other sources were one. Accidents that were reported and one investigated were 42, or 37 percent.

The driver of a vehicle involved in an accident resulting in injury to or death of any person shall immediately by the quickest means of communication give notice of such accident to the local police department if such accident occurs within a municipality, otherwise to the office of the county sheriff or the nearest office of the Texas Highway Patrol.

The driver of a vehicle involved in an accident resulting in injury to, or death, of any person, or total property damage to an apparent extent of Twenty-five dollars ($25) or more shall within ten days after such accident forward a written report of such accident to the Texas Department of Public Safety. Any person who shall fail to make such a report shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished.

In order for the (3) E's; Education, Engineering and Enforcement to be carried out effectively, these accidents must be reported to the investigating authorities. By doing so, the traffic safety education officials can educate the citizens in proper safety defensive driving measures. The engineer will have the information necessary for designing roadways and streets in order to reduce road and street hazards. And the enforcement officials can take proper measures in enforcement action to those who were in violations.

Soil Stewardship Sermons Sunday

Local churches will observe in Sunday services Soil Stewardship Week, May 27 through June 3, according to County Agent Bill Griffin.

Governor Price Daniel, through proclamation, has officially designated the week in Texas, the outgrowth of a custom originating near Vienne, France, in the year 470 A. D., when the local Bishop called for prayer and penance on the three days preceding Ascension Day.

Sixteen years ago, a renewed interest in this observance was fostered in the Southern part of the United States by the publishers of Farm and Ranch Magazine, who suggested that religious leaders set aside one Sunday each year to remind their congregations of man's obligations to his Creator as stewards of the soil. The fifth Sunday after Easter was suggested.

All 50 states and Puerto Rico will participate in observance of Soil Stewardship Week this year.

The observance is now sponsored nation-wide by the National Association of Soil Conservation Districts.

John D. Wells of Plano is president of the Association of Texas Soil Conservation Districts, and Lynn Pittard is Extension Service soil and water conservation specialist in charge of the move in Texas.

VAN DYKE ELECTED T-ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT

Halfback Eddie Van Dyke, former San Antonio Edison star and one of Texas A&M's top backs, has been elected president of the T-Association, active lettermen's group at Aggieland. Van Dyke, back again after a campaign's lay-off, was also named publicity director of the school's Insurance Society.

He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Van Dyke of Tahoka.

Savings Bonds Sales Are High

April Savings Bonds sales in Lynn County were $22,037.00, according to A. C. Verner, chairman of the Lynn County Savings Bonds Committee. During the first four months of this year the citizens of this county purchased $168,202.00, which represents 86.5% of the 1962 goal of $250,000.

Sales in Texas for the four month period, January through April were $53,240,439, which represents 71% of the Freedom Bond Drive goal of $75,000,000.

It was a highlight of a trip that included the Seven Falls, Garden of The Gods, Pike's Peak, and the Pike's Peak area in Colorado Springs; as well as other points of scenic and historic interest in and around Colorado Springs, Canon City and Denver.

At the Royal Gorge, they crossed the world's highest bridge (1,100 feet above the roaring Arkansas river), rode the world's steepest incline railway (100 percent grade) and viewed some of Colorado's most magnificent scenery.

Sponsors on the tour were Paul Kitchens, Pete Kitchens, Mary Ellen James.

Students were Arthur Airhart, Sharon Blakney, Louise Carter, Charles Crabtree, Charlene Ed-

"The U. S. Treasury's current Freedom Bond Drive is being well received throughout Texas. Citizens of the Lone Star State realize that the purchases of U. S. Savings Bonds are a tangible contribution to the economic and defensive strength of our nation. In these trying times it is important that everyone do his part in keeping our country free. Buying an extra bond during the Freedom Bond Drive helps the Treasury meet the mounting costs of keeping the peace." Chairman Verner pointed out.

Steve R. Riddle On Project Mercury

Project Mercury (PHNOC) Steve R. Riddle, aviation electronics technician third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Riddle of Tahoka, is serving with Patrol Squadron 45, a unit which participated in the recovery operations of the "Project Mercury" orbital space flight on May 24.

The "Aurora T" space craft which carried Navy Lt. Cdr. Malcolm Scott Carpenter on the three-orbit flight was retrieved at sea by the destroyer USS John R. Pierce. The astronaut, first sighted aloft after the earth-orbiting flight by a Navy patrol aircraft, was picked from the Atlantic by a Navy helicopter which took him to the aircraft carrier USS Intrepid. He later was flown to Grand Turk Island in the Bahamas.

Participating in the recovery operation were 32 U.S. Navy ships and units which were on station in the Atlantic range area.

Vote this Saturday!

Every election is important, but we believe the outcome of this one should be of vital concern to everyone in the farming country. Nationally and state-wide, the big pitch by the politicians is being put to the city people, Union members, the Negroes and the Mexicans. Less and less attention is being given by the politicians to the farming country. Oh, they offer some "gimme" programs, but actually they're giving the farming section the old horse laugh again. The farming country is being projected in a bad light by the politicians in many ways, too numerous to discuss this week.

West Texas has a chance to turn in the key vote. But, for some strange reason, Lynn county voters seem to have little interest in the first primary, less than half the eligible voters turned out. We read where a county down in East Texas voted about 85 percent of its strength. No West Texas county we know about did such.

We just as well face the facts. The Union bosses are the biggest enemy of the farmer. They advocate higher wages, abolishment of the bracero program, unionizing farm workers and repeal of the right-to-work laws in Texas. There are five races on which we will vote in Saturday's run-off primary, and the unions have endorsed a man in each.

We will cast our vote for John Connally of Tarrant for governor. He is a clean-cut young man, slightly left of center according to past indications, but claiming to be conservative. Doubtless he has ability, since he was chosen as Secretary of the Navy, after having ridden up the ladder on the coat-tail of Lyndon B. Johnson. He has repeatedly declared he will not be a rubber stamp for the has the background, experience and record of achievement to provide the mature, responsible leadership our state must have. Join with fellow Texans from every walk of life who are rallying behind this great new leader!

JOHN CONNALLY will work for

- A better way of life for our elderly and dependent.
- New industry in small communities to provide more and better jobs.
- Improved educational opportunities for all our children.

Vote for John CONNALLY

for GOVERNOR

and you vote for a new day of unity and progress in Texas!

Kennedy-Johnson administration. He opposes some of the New Frontier measures.

His opponent we cannot stomach. Don Yarborough of Houston is definitely backed by the AFL-CIO bosses and the left-wing ADA bunch. Even if this were not true, at age 36 he has not had much experience that would qualify him for governor.

The office of lieutenant governor is possibly as important as that of governor in Texas, for it is the lieutenant governor who has the power in the Texas Senate of controlling legislation to a far greater degree than does the governor. Through appointment of committees and as presiding officer of the Senate, it is in his power to control almost any piece of legislation.

We have the opportunity of electing Preston Smith, 49, of Lubbock, who has 12 years of experience as a legislator. He is a middle-of-the-road Democrat who has been tried and proven capable. He is said to be one of the most popular men in the Senate, and would continue to command the respect of his colleagues. Preston is an old farm boy raised out in the sand west of Lamesa, married a Crosby county farm girl, knows what a dollar is and knows the farmers' problems. Incidentally, he worked his way through college and has made a success in business all on his own.

His opponent, James A. (Jimmy) Turmah, 34, of Gober served as speaker of the House, is a left-wing Democrat, and the AFL-CIO is spending a lot of money, like they are on Yarborough, trying to elect him.

We think Lynn county people should support Waggoner Carr, 43, of Lubbock for Attorney General, a clean, honest, fearless and capable young man whose wife, Ernestine Story, is a former Tahoka girl. He served with distinction as Speaker of the House for four years, and only two other men in Texas history have enjoyed this honor and distinction. He is a capable attorney, served as county and district attorney, and has been a fighter for law enforcement. He served on the House Crime Investigation Committee and the Law Enforcement Commission. He is a Methodist lay leader and Sunday School teacher.

His opponent is Tom Reavley, 43, Austin attorney, a former secretary of State, and likewise a capable man. He is also a Methodist lay leader and Sunday School teacher. He has represented REA organizations in Texas and has the backing of many of this group, but he also has the backing of the AFL-CIO in this race.

A fourth race of interest is for congressman at large. Woodrow Wilson Bean, 44, El Paso county judge, has been much in the limelight. He was endorsed by the AFL-CIO in the first primary, but the labor leaders withdrew their support when Mr. Bean admitted he had not filed an income tax return in 10 years because he was opposed to income taxes. However, this is a violation of the law, and if you or I failed to file such a return, even though we had sent in withholding taxes, we would be yanked up and probably sent to Leavenworth. The Government has failed, for some unknown reason, to explain why they have not cracked down on Judge Bean. He is a liberal Democrat, and Labor is probably backing him.

We will have to go along with Joe Pool, 50, a prominent Dallas attorney who says he is a life-long Democrat. He opposes foreign import of oil, farm products, and manufactured goods from foreign countries, opposes federal aid to education and the medicare program. He believes in local and state government and a lessening of federal interference with state and local government.

Finally, we have a home boy, Jerry Cain, candidate for State Representative from this 75th Legislative district, born and reared in Lynn county, who has had close enough touch with agriculture by having lived here, grown 4-H animals, furnished leadership in local and area 4-H work, to do a better job of representing us in Austin. Jerry is a clean-cut young man, a middle-of-the-road Democrat, and has had experience in the legislature sufficient to learn the ropes while serving as sergeant at arms in the house two sessions. He is studying law at the University of Texas, and expects to return here when he graduates.

His opponent is Randy Pendleton of Andrews, likewise a fine young man and law student with ties to Lynn county, his folks having formerly lived at Newmore and his grandparents at West Point. But, Randy is from the oil country, where they have little interest in farming, and is backed by Union Labor—at least by the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks.

Vote as you please, but vote Saturday!

In commenting on Mrs. Wilmer Smith's history of the Home Demonstration work in Lynn county, Mrs. H. F. (Joy) Lindley recalled that in 1926 she was the biscuit making champion of the county. Mrs. Lindley says Tahoka Chamber of Commerce paid her $25.00, a lot of money then, for her trip to A&M College and the state contest. She didn't win there, but she wasn't low, either. She competed in the county contest, as she recalls, against such ladies as Mrs. I. M. Draper, Mrs. John Berry, Mrs. Hammonds, and Mrs. Tunnell, all now deceased. She wonders if biscuit making is becoming a lost art.

Mrs. Wiley D. (Joy) Wildey and two daughters, who recently returned to their home in Coldbrook, N. Y., after a visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Philpot, says they get a lot of pleasure out of this column, and sent the special message to us by a friend, Mrs. Orville Havens. Thank you, Joy.

Any old timer remember Newton Wesley and Della Graham and daughter, Ruth, who was born here? The couple filed on land here, later moved to Austin, where Mr. Graham attended University of Texas Law School, and later moved to Ozona. Ruth is now Mrs. Evert White, and she and her husband own the local newspaper, Ozona Stockman.

V. L. Botkin has an answer for that JFK maize. Last year, he says, he planted Nixon maize—limber legged and fell down.

A creditor wrote a slow-payer "I've done more for you than your mother. I have carried you for 12 months."—George Dolan in Star Telegram.

Most nations have a class of citizens who are helped so much that they have become helpless. And these same folks cry for more.—Clipped.

There are two kinds of women who wait for men, the married and the unmarried.—Also clipped.

Too many women would rather mend their husband's way than his socks.

VISITS IN OREGON

Mrs. A. J. Kaddatz is visiting in Portland, Oregon, with her daughter, Mrs. Claudene Hess. She expects to return home about June 9. A. J. says he is getting pretty tired of eating his own cooking all by himself.
