"Dogie" Joplin Died Recently

S. W. "Dogie" Joplin, 81, old-time citizen of Lynn county, died Thursday, June 28, in a Lordsburg, N. M., hospital following a brief illness.

Funeral services were held there on Monday, July 2, at the First Methodist Church.

An account of his death was sent to Mrs. F. E. (Vesta) Redwine, and Mrs. Redwine brought the information to The News.

Born in Granbury on June 22, 1880, one of 11 children, he came to Lynn county when Tahoka was a young town, and worked on the Tahoka Lake Ranch.

He was married here on June 22, 1907, to Miss Florence Porter, and their two children were born here. He served as deputy sheriff of Lynn county under the late Sheriff Ed Redwine.

The Joplins moved to Amarillo in the 1920s and operated a tourist court, moved from there to Truth or Consequences, N. M., to operate a similar tourist court. Mrs. Joplin died in July, 1956, and he was married again on June 30, 1958, in Lordsburg to Mrs. Olla Williams.

Survivors include his wife; one son, Seth W. Joplin of Port Arthur, Texas; one daughter, Mrs. Margaret White of Meadowbrook, Penn.; two sisters, Mrs. George Jones of Slaton and Mrs. Hattie Olive of Irving; three brothers, Jess of Slaton, J. R. of Levelland, and Ben of Littlefield; and six grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Treadaway and daughters attended the funeral services Sunday at the Methodist Church in Bandera, her home town. One other son, Rolland of Pampa; two other grandchildren, three brothers, and a sister survive.

The fast pace of modern living has much to do with the high cost.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" By C. WILSON HARDER

The action of the Canadian government in reducing the value of the Canadian dollar as compared to the U.S. dollar by 7 1/2% promises more trouble for weird U.S. farm programs.

Theoretically, the U.S. and Canada are in competition. For example, Italy imports large quantities of hard winter wheat needed for the macaronis and other pastas. While Italian officials will say they would rather buy U.S. wheat, they cannot pay the higher price. The competitive margin is now widened.

U. S. farm price supports will probably continue. The result is that the storage costs of wheat, they cannot pay the higher price. The competitive margin is now widened.

In the meantime, there is widespread hunger around the world. Wheat, the oldest foodstuff known to mankind, is acceptable to all people. Thus, there is a good product, and one that many people need.

It seems obvious that no one will say that the government handling of surpluses has been anything but a failure. Some of it has been given away on foreign give away schemes such as communist Tito's Yugoslavia and Moscow loving Nehru's India. But there seems little doubt that if these rulers had to, they would have bought wheat to avoid revolt.

There is a market for this one third of the crop, but not at the prices American farmers must have to remain solvent. After all, the average national rate for farm labor is now 95 cents per hour, or about twice Italian factory wages.

Thus, even if tariffs on all imports from Italy are eliminated, to give Italy more dollars, that does not mean, as claimed, that more U. S. farm products will move into export.

Because Italians, or any other people, are not simple. When they buy wheat, they are going to buy where it is the cheapest, whether that be Canada, Australia, or South America.

Nations will all accept the American dollar in exchange for their wheat. Thus nations like Italy will merely buy where they can get the most bushels for the dollar. And for example, with the recent Canadian government action on their dollar, an American dollar costs 46 lira more than a Canadian dollar. Thus, it seems quite difficult to understand propaganda being issued that a new trade law cutting U.S. protective tariffs will open new markets for American farm products unless it is anticipated that the American farmer will be forced to sell at the same price as foreign farmers.

Kind words never die—they just become victims of ingratitude.

B. H. JONES REPORTS HAVING HECTIC TIME

B. H. (Buford) Jones reports he and his wife have had a hectic (but enjoyable) time the past few weeks, and Monday night they were alone at supper-time for the first time in nearly a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Grosz and six daughters of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, visited them for two weeks, leaving Monday of last week. Mrs. Grosz is their daughter. Naturally they had a great time with the granddaughters, especially.

And, then, last week they went out to their Ruidoso cabin and took with them Mrs. Violet West for a week's vacation. Of course they watched the horses run, and Buford claims he "paid expenses". Anyway, the Jones have some race horses of their own, four of them now at the track and doing right well.

Junior Montemayor will leave Saturday for Fort Polk, La., for two weeks Army training. Junior is a specialist fourth class in the Reserves.

Nancy Norman, Iris Howell, Peggy Bevers, and Nancy Robinson. They also visited the Alamo and other points of interest.

Jan West has been visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Thomas for sometime. She and Nancy Norman visited each other a lot while she was here.

Air Conditioning experts agree... WATER cooling is BEST!

Youngsters learn mighty early about the cooling effect of water when the weather's hot. And air conditioning engineers know that water cooling is far more efficient than air cooling. The reason is simple... 85° water can absorb more heat from your home than 100° air.

That's why ARKLA-SERVEL Sun Valley's GAS air conditioners are WATER cooled! Water cooling, plus Sun Valley's "no moving parts" principle, gives you two big advantages unavailable with other air conditioners. One, a Sun Valley gives you CONSTANT EFFICIENCY, while air cooled units lose as much as 15% efficiency. Two, Sun Valley operating COSTS REMAIN CONSTANT, while air cooled equipment operating costs rise as much as 23%.

KING-SIZED FILTER
Sun Valley's double filtering case-stops ALL HOUSEHOLD ODORS! It even tames cigar and fish odors, giving your home Spring-like freshness all year long.

NO MOVING PARTS
... in the heating or cooling cycles of the Sun Valley... nothing to wear out or break down! Sun Valley is year-around comfort for the mortgage life of your home!

CONSTANT EFFICIENCY
Sun Valley has no comfort-robbing friction to run up your operating costs. It doesn't cost a penny more to operate the Sun Valley for an hour when it's 115° than it does when the temperature is 90°.

Huffaker Takes Rotary Reins

Calloway Huffaker, new president of Tahoka Rotary Club, succeeding Dr. Skiles Thomas, was in charge of his first meeting last Thursday, announced his committees and plans for the year's work.

ALLOWAY HUFFAKER

Harold Green, chairman of the International student committee, announced that Paul Davie Bartlett will arrive here from England about July 30th.

J. P. (Pete) Hewlett, club treasurer, reported on club finances for the past year.

Dr. K. R. Durham, first secretary of the club, praised Dale Thuren as the best secretary the club ever had since he has kept complete records of all club affairs and a scrapbook of activities, and suggested he be named club historian.

The program for the day consisted of a film, "This is Mexico," loaned the Tahoka club by the Rotary Club of the City of Mexico. The film presented Mexico's latest progress in the fields of government, education, industry, and farming.

Among other things, the film pointed out Mexico's population is growing at a rate of one million people a year, income has increased five fold in 20 years, death rate has decreased 50 percent since 1930, great progress is being made in industry, 20 percent of the national budget goes to education and only 6 percent to the military.

An economic frontier, Mexico offers tremendous possibilities. Somewhat surprising are the facts that Mexico had the first printing press and the first university in the Western Hemisphere.

Mexico and the United States have 1,600 miles of common border without a fortress.

Mrs. Carolyn Dyess and little daughter of Long Beach, Calif., visited here last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wynne Collier.

Bollworm Control Getting Tougher

College Station—Is the cotton bollworm becoming tougher and more resistant to insecticides in Texas? Because some farmers had trouble controlling bollworms last year, it seems they might be developing a tolerance to commonly used chemicals.

But, according to test results contained in Progress Report 2236 of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, bollworms show no resistance to the insecticides used for their control.

Bollworm larva for the tests were collected over the state and reared on cotton leaves and an artificial diet. They were then treated with various insecticides at different dosages and the rate of kill recorded.

The insecticides used were DDT, endrin, Sevin, toxaphene-DDT (2 to 1 ratio), and Strobane-DDT (2 to 1 ratio).

The bollworms collected in El Paso, College Station, Eagle Pass, and Laredo showed a good rate of kill from the treatments. However, there was some evidence of tolerance to DDT in bollworms from LaGrange and Rosebud, and Eagle Pass during August. But these data do not show a real resistance of the bollworm to DDT, according to the report.

During the study, it was found that the population of tobacco budworms was unusually high and therefore data were kept on both insects as both attack cotton in a similar manner.

Comparative toxicity tests with the bollworm and the tobacco budworm showed the bollworm to be more susceptible to DDT. This agreed with previous findings the tobacco budworms are harder to kill than cotton bollworms.

The study indicates that bollworms may be controlled with the usually recommended insecticides but if tobacco budworms are present DDT alone will not provide sufficient control.

For more information on the study write the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, and request a copy of Progress Report 2236.

JACK COLLIER IS HOME FROM MONTH IN CAMP

Jack Collier, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wynne Collier, returned home Saturday from Western Life Camp, near Las Vegas, N. M., where he spent a month.

Jack says he received training in such things as archery, riflery, hiking, and swimming. He got caught in a rain while on a hike to the top of Hermit Peak.

It's a strang thing, but you can't drive a car down the street without meeting everybody you owe.

The automobile has proved to be a great moral force in America. It has stopped an awful lot of horse-stealing.

Double Uncle Of R. E. Bagby Dies

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bagby recently attended funeral rites for his double uncle, Rev. E. M. Daily, 82, retired Methodist minister, who died in a Waco hospital on June 26 and was buried at Mexia on June 28.

Rev. Daily was a brother of the late Mrs. E. F. Bagby, and Mrs. Daily, who is seriously ill in a Waco hospital, was a sister of the late Mr. E. F. Bagby.

Born in Alabama and reared in Hill county Texas, he attended North Texas State, the University of Texas, and SMU, taught school, and had been a Methodist minister in the Central Texas Conference for 30 years. Since retiring, he had lived in Mexia since 1951. He was the last of ten Daily children.

Cecil Hammonds Is Aboard Submarine

Norfolk, Va., (FHTNC)—Cecil W. Hammonds, sonarman third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil I. Hammonds of Route 2, Tahoka, Tex., is serving aboard the submarine USS Cubera, which returned to Norfolk June 15, following an extensive anti-submarine warfare exercise in the North Atlantic.

The submarine spent 40 days at sea and was submerged about half of that time. Crew members spent hours drilling, exercising and training at their jobs aboard ship. The exercise was conducted on a simulated wartime basis.

Kind words never die—they just become victims of ingratitude.

New Home Boys Seek FFA Degree

Two representatives from the New Home FFA chapter will attend the state FFA convention in Fort Worth this summer and receive the highest FFA awards given in Texas.

Both boys are seniors and have raised swine, cotton and milo. They were on a dairy judging team that went to state this year, also.

John Lynn Edwards of New Home, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Edwards, and Ronnie Mouser, 3413 60th St., Lubbock, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Mouser, will receive Lone Star Farmer degrees during the convention.

Edwards is FFA president and president of the student council at New Home High School. Mouser was FFA vice president. He transferred to Monterey High School this year.
