Mass Immunization For Polio Is Planned

Plans for a mass immunization against polio of at least 9,000 Lynn county citizens were made at a meeting of 125 citizens from nearly all communities in the court house here Friday night.

SOS (Sabin Oral Sunday) has been set for August 26, and a great county drive will be launched to secure at least an 80 percent response.

The program initiated at the meeting Friday night was proposed, explained and will be underwritten by Drs. Emil Prohl and Skiles Thomas of Tahoka and Dr. Noble Rumbo of O'Donnell. Helping with the initial meeting were H. B. McCord Jr., Lynn county chairman of the National Foundation, and other interested citizens.

Further plans were worked out by leaders in another meeting Sunday afternoon. The program here will be similar to those being carried out in the Dallas-Fort Worth and Houston mass immunization programs. Nearly one million people took the simple oral vaccine in Houston.

To be successful, the drive must have the cooperation of all civic clubs, women's clubs, churches, doctors and nurses, and community leaders. A lot of volunteer helpers will be needed on SOS day.

Two clinics will be held in Tahoka and O'Donnell, supervised by doctors and nurses, which is required. The oral vaccine is given in three doses, each six weeks apart to immunize against all three types of polio. The second SOS day will be six weeks from August 26, the third 6 weeks later.

Only a few seconds are required to take the vaccine with proper (Cont'd on Back Page)

Lynnetta Cain Is Rotary Sweetheart

The Rotary Club has been happy to share their Sweetheart with the FFA Boys of Tahoka High School when she was chosen as their Sweetheart. She was also selected as the Most Beautiful Girl in Tahoka High School and was featured in the Kennel.

Lynnetta will be a senior and head cheerleader this year.

Farmers Receive Compliance Pay

Checks totaling $56,112.30 are being mailed 373 Lynn county farmers for compliance with Soil Conservation practices, Charles G. (Buddy) Bragg of the local ASC office has been notified by the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas.

Farmers should begin receiving these checks in the next few days. The checks represent about half of the budget for Lynn county for these practices. Most of the remainder of the budget has been signed up, but payments have not yet been scheduled.

Payments are for such practices as terracing, chiseling, underground irrigation systems, bind weed control, and deep plowing.

Meeting Tonight On Brucellosis

All Lynn county livestock producers should attend a meeting tonight, Friday, at 8:00 p. m. in the county court room at which the Brucellosis program will be discussed, states County Agent Bill Griffin.

"Not too many producers understand this program," Griffin says, "but it is vital to everyone. Under the new livestock marketing law pertaining to brucellosis in cattle, which went into effect June 15, cattle in areas not exempt from tests, which includes Lynn, will be marked and the places to which they can be moved are limited. Eventually, Lynn will be forced into the program if producers do not enter the program voluntarily."

Mr. Griffin says Terry and Garza counties are not having cattle tests leading to certification as brucellosis "clean" counties. Virtually all counties to the south of Lynn are already in the program.

Thus, the new law affects the movement of cattle, which may soon affect the price received by the producer.

For a county to become certified as a "Modified Certified Brucellosis Area," 75 percent of the producers on the tax rolls having at least 50 percent of the cattle in the county must have been approved as being free of brucellosis.

There are other important and complicated provisions of the law which producers need to know.

Officers Elected By Legion Post

The American Legion elected officers for the coming year at its regular meeting last Monday night. Those elected are Leonard Crawford, commander; D. R. Adams, sergeant-at-arms; George Glenn, adjutant; Bobby Carroll, vice-commander; and Red Brown, service officer.

Rumbo Enlarges O'Donnell Clinic

(O'Donnell Index-Press) Dr. Noble Rumbo, our home town physician for six years, announced this week his plans for remodeling his present clinic here.

Plans call for an expenditure of approximately $50,000 to include the purchase of the LaGrone Building adjoining to the north.

Plans call for the conversion of the present clinic into a hospital unit with an attractive front on Baldrige St.

The hospital will include seven beds, a delivery room, a recovery room, a modern lab room, an X-ray and dark room, a nurses' room as well as a kitchen and a utility room.

The present LaGrone building will be remodeled into doctors' offices, a business office, a reception room and two consulting and examination rooms. The front of this building will also have an attractive front. Public entrance to the hospital will be by the 8th St. entrance.

Construction is expected to begin within the immediate future and completion in time for the fall business.

Berry Flat Will Have Meeting

ALVIS BRYAN SPEAKER AT CHURCH OF CHRIST Alvis Bryan, minister of the Church of Christ in Montpelier, Vermont, was to speak at the local Church of Christ Thursday night at 8:00 p. m., according to Don Browning.

The local church supports the mission work at the Vermont church. Bryan is going from here to Seagraves to conduct a gospel meeting.

Johnny Reeves of Temple visited her college schoolmate, Ruby Nell Denzy, a week here. Mrs. Denzy gave a barbecue dinner and dance in her honor before she left.

Jerry Slover, stationed at Camp Roberts, Calif., is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Slover.

The rains finally came—just in the niche of time to save many Lynn county crops—rains which will mean millions of dollars to the county's farm economy.

Showers which started last week turned into heavy downpours this week in many sections, and indications Thursday morning were that there may be more rainfall.

Some areas have received up to six inches or more, and the entire county is pretty well soaked—except for two sections. These include a part of the Draw community and an area from Gordon south to Central. However, these two areas have received sufficient rainfall to help a lot.

Rainfall in Tahoka since Sunday has totaled 2.65 inches, bringing the total in town to 3.97 for the month of June and to 8.47 for the year so far.

Most farmers say this rain will almost guarantee a normal cotton crop if more rain can be had about mid-August. The rains should also insure a good grain sorghum crop.

Very heavy rainfall has been reported from some areas, New Home, Lakeview, Dixie, Petty, Wayside and Crossroads reporting up to six inches or more in spots. Other areas reporting similar amounts are parts of the Three Lakes, Wells, and Newmoore communities, the area four to six miles east of Tahoka, an area west of Tahoka, and possibly other sections.

All the Wilson area has reported plenty of rain, as well as the New Lynn, Morgan, and Southland areas.

From Gordon south several miles, the rain has been light. For example, Rual Smith, two miles east and one mile north of Central has had only about one inch, 80 Tuesday. Grassland—has had fair rains. Parts of the Edith and Redwine areas could use a little more water.

Part of the Draw area has not had enough rain. J. E. Sherrill reporting only 1/8 in the Monday and Tuesday rains, but the Midway, Joe Bailey and O'Donnell sections have sufficient rainfall.

Mrs. Florence Davies reported up to six inches or more in parts of the New Home community, Ted Rogers and A. W. Snider reported 2.5 to 4 inches at Newmoore.

Tahoka received 10 inch 3/4 on Monday when heavy showers covered parts of the county. 1/2 inch Monday night and Tuesday morning, 1.04 Tuesday night and Wednesday morning, and 90 lbs Wednesday evening for its total of 2.65 inches. Tahoka had received 36 inch on July 3, 15 on July 9, and .81 on July 11.

County Agent Bill Griffin estimates that the crop is two weeks later than the crop a year ago. Much dryland cotton and feed was barely holding on, and has been delayed further by the dry weather.

Mr. Griffin warns that a heavy bollworm infestation is likely this year and that farmers should be on the lookout for worms. Bollworms are now in feed, and he says the next generation will likely move to the cotton fields.

BERRY COMING HERE Desmond Berry, Republican candidate for congressman-at-large, will be in Tahoka Monday morning, according to Larry Hagood, who says everyone interested is invited to meet him at a coffee at 9:30 a. m. at the A. L. Smith Cafeteria.

Pony All-Stars Lose At Hobbs

Lynn county Pony League All-Stars lost to Hobbs, N. M., 6 to 5 Wednesday night in the opening game of the double-elimination tournament being played at Hobbs.

The local boys play again Friday night at 7:30 in Hobbs, meeting the loser of the Hobbs-Lovington game being played this Thursday night. Only three teams are engaged in the double-elimination, Lovington having drawn a bye in the first round. Each team will have to lose twice to be eliminated.

Winner of the tournament will play in the sectional tournament being held at Denver City beginning August 1, and winner there goes to the regional meet in Lubbock.

Jesse Olivia pitched the first four innings, and was relieved by Britt Robinson, who went the last three.

Local fans declare the home boys put up a real good battle, but they just lost the ball game.

BREAKS ANKLE H. B. McCord Sr. broke his left ankle last Saturday morning while at work. He was in the Tahoka Hospital until Wednesday. He is reported to be in good condition.

QUESTIONS, PLEASE

QUESTION: WHAT IS THE CHURCH OF CHRIST? No. 1.

ANSWER: Due to many questions along this line and also because many people do not understand what the church of Christ is, I would like to write a series of articles explaining what the church of Christ is.

How many churches did Christ build? The Bible clearly teaches that Jesus built only one church. Jesus said "Upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it" (Matt. 16:18).

What church did Christ build? The Bible teaches that Christ built His church which is called in the Bible the church (literally; the called out), the body of Christ, the kingdom of Christ, the church of Christ (Romans 16:16). "So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another" (Rom. 12:5). "For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body; so also is Christ" (I Cor. 12:12). Speaking of Christ, Paul writes by inspiration: "And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all" (Eph. 1:22,23).

When did Christ build His church? The Bible teaches that He built it on Pentecost fifty days after the day Jesus was raised from the dead by the power of God. On that Sunday or Lord's-day Peter first preached the resurrected Jesus as Christ, the Messiah and Saviour: "Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ" (Acts 2:36).

When these who heard this marvelous news realized that they had killed the Saviour, they said: "Men and brethren, what shall we do?" Then Peter told them what to do to be saved, now that they believed in Christ: "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost" (Acts 2:38).

Then the Lord added these saved persons to the church. "And the Lord added to the church daily such as would be saved" (Acts 2:47).

Who is the head of this church? The Bible teaches that Christ is the only head of the church He built. "And he is the head of the body, the church; who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence" (Col. 1:18). "But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ..." (Eph. 4:15).

Thus, friends, we see the beginning of the church of Christ as the Lord established it and set forth the conditions of salvation which when complied with puts on into the church and into a saved condition.

You are invited to send your questions to: Don Browning Box 812, Tahoka, Texas. You are also invited to attend the services of the Church of Christ.

Don Browning may be heard Sunday mornings at 11:00 and evenings at 7:00 at 750 on your radio dial.

Republican Candidate For Governor Is Honored By 175 At Dinner Here

The first time in the history of Lynn county, a Republican candidate for state office, Jack Cox of Breckenridge seeking the governor's chair, was honored in Tahoka Saturday night at a $5.00-a-plate dinner attended by 176 people.

Cox, a former Democrat who polled 600,000 votes in a race against popular Governor Price Daniel, has since that time switched to the Republican party and is now making a bid against the Democratic nominee, John Connally, in the November general election. He was accompanied to Tahoka by his wife.

He was born and reared at Breckenridge, is engaged in the independent oil business, and has delivered 2,500 talks over the nation on Americanism.

The only speaker at the meeting, Cox opened his address by stating he was "an American first, a conservative second, and a Republican third."

Making no mention of his opponent and delving only slightly into partisan politics, Cox declared, "If we really want freedom, progress and a future in these United States for future generations, it can only be had through a conservative philosophy and not through a more powerful federal government."

He thinks the people are ready for office holders with a more conservative philosophy of government, and says he can not go along with the ultra-liberal element in either party. Although the AFL-CIO has endorsed his Democratic opponent, he does not believe union members will kow-tow to the dictates of the union leaders and bosses.

One can be a conservative, Cox declared, and still believe in progressive schools, better education, progress in every field, including agriculture.

He outlined the basic principles of democracy, which he declares are necessary to our survival as a great nation.

Comparing the trend of our government today with those that have failed in the past, he traced the rise and fall of the Roman Empire, which fell because of the great number on the federal payroll and big government.

In interviews with newsmen, he says he thinks people are tired of big spending programs and waste of tax dollars on the state and national levels. He thinks we should be concerned about oil imports from foreign countries that are hurting our home companies and our economy. He also decries our present policy of putting foreign farmers into competition with American farmers.

Cox denies membership in the John Birch Society, as charged by Mr. Connally, but instead is active in the highly reputable Valley Forge Freedom Foundation.

He says he wears the brass collar of no individual or group, is obligated to no organization or individual.

Larry Hagood, Lynn county Republican chairman, was in charge of the meeting. Dr. K. R. Durham gave the invocation. The speaker was introduced by W. A. (Dub) Fulford of Brownfield, formerly of Tahoka.

Several out of county visitors were present from Lubbock, Brownfield, and other towns of the area.

MRS. THOMAS HAS VISITORS

Mrs. Sid McCubbins of Amarillo, niece of Mrs. W. O. Thomas, spent a week with Mrs. Thomas recently. They went to Dallas for a visit with Mrs. Mabel Land. Mrs. Land returned with them to visit here for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hill and Jennie of Corpus Christi visited with Mrs. W. O. Thomas also. Mr. Hill is retiring from 20 years service with the Navy and plans to live in Lubbock.

Inita Gandy was an overnight patient in the Tahoka Hospital Tuesday.

Local People At Raindl Services

Among those from this area attending the funeral services for M-Sgt. Jim Raindl, 241 Forbush Road, San Antonio, on Tuesday of last week were: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Raindl, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Raindl, and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Raindl; Mrs. Claudia Raindl, Felix and Robert Macha, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brosch and girls, and Mrs. Thomas Zeick, all of Lubbock.

Jim passed away on July 14 in Brook General Hospital from leukemia after having been hospitalized only five days.

He was a dental technician in the Army stationed at Fort Sam Houston. He had been in the service for 22 years, seeing duty at Guam, Guadalcanal, Trieste, Italy, and Germany. He was the son of Mrs. Claudia Raindl of New Home.

JAQUESS ON VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jaquess and children returned home Tuesday night from a 10-days vacation trip during which they visited relatives at Gatesville.

They also went deep sea fishing at Galveston, and Jack and Mrs. Jaquess each caught a shark about four feet long to enliven the trip.

Jack says he found out how to keep a wife busy on vacation. He says when Christine put several shoe boxes in the car as they started to leave on vacation, he told her she wouldn't need all those shoes. Later, he found the boxes were filled with savings stamps, and he declares his wife spent a lot of her vacation time pasting stamps in stamp books. But, he hints, it's mighty nice to have such an efficient mate.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Smith spent last week sight-seeing and "just resting" up in Colorado.

Crusade For Adequate Light for 1962-63 Announced by Women's Federation President

Washington, D.C. — Women's clubs affiliated with the General Federation of Women's Clubs will soon receive details regarding the Federation's 1962-63 National Crusade For Light, Mrs. Dexter O. Arnold, Federation president, announced today.

"The 1962-63 edition of the Federation's National Crusade For Light, offering 41 awards established by Reader's Digest, has many new features," Mrs. Arnold announced to state presidents and junior directors.

New features mentioned by Mrs. Arnold, which were not contained in the two previous programs, include: establishment of four classes of participation for community protective lighting and one class for highway lighting; a First Prize of $150.00; a Second Prize of $125.00; a Third Prize of $100.00; a Fourth Prize of $75.00; and four Fifth Prizes of $50.00 in each class; a Grand Award of $250.00 for the report judged best of all submitted; broadened scope to include applications of outdoor protective lighting in addition to street lighting.

Mrs. Arnold introduced the Educational Director of the Street and Highway Safety Lighting Bureau, Edmond C. Powers, who spoke to the Washington meeting by closed circuit from his office in Cleveland, Ohio.

The Lighting Bureau was selected as consultant to the General Federation of Women's Clubs and the Reader's Digest because it is the only organization dealing exclusively with the safety of the public after dark.

"Police officials report that modernized lighting of streets, school and playground areas, hospital and other parking lots, curbs, night crimes of violence, acts of vandalism and traffic accidents by more than 50 percent," Powers said.

"The public service character of the General Federation of Miss Mary Katherine Barnes of Charleston, West Virginia, 1960-62 National Safety Chairman, General Federation of Women's Clubs and Edmond C. Powers of Cleveland, Ohio, Educational Director of the Street and Highway Safety Lighting Bureau, in the latter's Cleveland, Ohio office.

Women's Clubs lighting crusade of $50.00 can be realized," he said, "when it is known that night crimes and traffic accidents cost the nation at least $10 billion annually.

"Increasing determination of women's clubs to curb night crimes and traffic accidents is evidenced by comparing the 1961-62 and the 1960-61 programs. Three times as many clubs participated in the second, and the number of states represented was 25, compared with 9.

"Nothing deters criminal acts like the fear of being seen. By sponsoring the National Crusade For Light, the General Federation of Women's Clubs is rendering the nation a tremendous public service," Powers concluded.

Mrs. Arnold said that many new aids are planned for women's clubs participating in the lighting crusade. Among these is a new 13-minute film, a guide for club action, and special displays for club meetings.

Mrs. Arnold assumed presidency of the 11-million member women's organization recently.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" By C. WILSON HARDER

It may not be necessary for a career bureaucrat to not know what he is talking about, but it seems to be helpful.

A case in point is the recent testimony given by Paul Dixon, current chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, in opposing one of the fair trade bills. Ever since he graduated from law school, Dixon has been a respected government lawyer. He is intelligent.

There is no question, either of his honesty according to all observers. Thus, his completely fallacious statements before the Congressional committee are all due to ignorance of how business is transacted in these United States, a common malady among bureaucrats.

Apparently ignoring the fields where fair trade laws would be the most beneficial, Dixon chose to confine his remarks to the grocery business.

He made a great fuss and bother over the high percentage of volume done by the major chains on their own private brands. He then asserted that if food items were fair traded, the independent grocer, unable to get private label brands, would have to sell national brands at fair trade prices, while chains would cut under these prices with their own private brands.

It was an eloquent presentation. Only one thing was wrong. It was not based on facts.

First of all, any independent grocer but the very smallest can have his private brand on practically any item he wants from bleach to coffee. He can get prices lower than the national brands, and the packers of "Joe's Market Tuna" of whatever the stores name happens to be, will not only run the product under Joe's label, but will warehouse it until Joe has room for it in the store. This is done every day.

But by and large, independent grocers find they do little business on private label because the consumer wants national labels.

In addition, Dixon warned against a danger that cannot happen.

Major chains refuse to buy a fair-traded item. And no packer can afford to turn his back irrevocably on potential chain store sales, as without chain store distribution, he is practically closed out of many, many markets.

The historical chain position in this respect is quite easy to understand. Chains feel when they stock a brand, they not only promote it, but also lend prestige to a brand. If they cannot sell it for less than their independent competition, they would then be doing nothing but helping that competition.

Thus, Dixon jumped on his horse and galloped off on much the same basis as if Paul Revere had warned the Patagonians were coming. He sounded a solemn warning on a situation that cannot happen as any food packer, food salesman, or food broker could have told him. If government lacks anything, it does lack in its ranks practical, experienced businessmen who know how business is done.

Two Tahoka Boys On Greenbelt Bowl All-Star Game Roster At Childress

Childress, Tex. (Special)—Saturday, August 4th, in Fair Park Stadium, the 13th Annual edition of the Greenbelt Bowl Football Classic will unfold. Report of players who have accepted the invitation to attend, indicate that it will be a hard fought, head knocking brand of football. The 44 boys that will make up the two squads, the East Team and the West Team, are the best talent in this area.

Each of them has been either an all-district, all-regional, or all-State selection. They are experienced and will show a lot of speed.

This classic will be the first of the bowl games to be played in North Texas and the Panhandle and will attract a number of scouts and coaches from all over the area.

Morris Higley, President of the Classic, states that he feels it is going to be the best game that we have ever seen played in Childress. Mrs. Carolyn Bowen, in charge of ticket sales, reports that tickets are going good and that large blocks of tickets are being purchased in surrounding towns.

Jake Lawson, in charge of promotions, states that he has a big surprise this year for the customers and urges a good attendance.

Each of the players has selected a young lady as a Queen Nominee and these young ladies will be entertained at a tea at the Woman's Department Club on Friday afternoon. On Friday evening Buddy Wilcoxson will be in charge of entertaining the players, their parents, the queen nominees and their parents at a picnic in Rotary Bowl in City Park, after which the young ladies will go to the Elks Hall where they will be presented to the people of Childress and the parents and visitors. After this presentation there will be an informal party for the group.

Alton Landrum has extended an invitation to all players and their queen nominees to be his guest at the swimming pool in Childress during the entire week. R. J. Cordell will entertain the players at the Palace Theatre at one showing.

Golf will be available at the Country Club and fishing in Lake Childress and Baylor Lake.

A full week of work and entertainment is in store for the players of the Greenbelt Bowl Classic.

Dub Nelson, the originator of the Classic and now a resident of Dallas, Texas, has worked up a high school reunion of all students that have graduated from Childress High School. They will hold their first meeting in the Community House in the City Park on Saturday afternoon and will attend the Greenbelt Bowl Football Classic. On Sunday all ex-grads will have a picnic in City Park at the Rotary Bowl. Nelson hopes to get an ex-grad organization started and hopes they will elect officers at this meeting.

Greenbelt Bowl Football Week is one of Childress' top celebrations and Mrs. Sam Carmack and members of the PTA have arranged to have the town decorated for the occasion. The public is invited to celebrate with the people of Childress on this big event.

Cecil Park, in charge of the selection of players, has announced that the two teams are composed of the following boys: East Team, Dale Hensarling, Jacksboro; Robert Rhode, Silvertown; Monroe Page, Wheeler; J. B. Darland, Jr., Electra; Jim Wilson, Altus, Okla.; Don Gailey, Memphis; Billy Lane,

Tahoka Team Reaches Finals

Tahoka Little League all-stars lost out to Post all-stars 4 to 2 Saturday night in the finals of the area play-offs at Slaton. Post thereby won the right to represent this area in the district tournament at Slaton starting Thursday night of this week. This left Tahoka the winner of second place.

Tahoka had defeated Slaton Friday night 7 to 6 to enter the finals, after these two teams had drawn a bye in the Thursday night first round of play.

The opening night, Post won over O'Donnell 17 to 0, and Lamesa eliminated Crosbyton 7 to 0. Friday night, Post advanced to the finals in a 7 to 6 win over Lamesa.

In Tahoka's game with Slaton Friday night, Kenneth Sayles and Mike Burke did the pitching. Sayles slapped out a homer with no one on in the second, and in the third Gary Brooks got a grand slam homer.

However, going into the bottom of the sixth, Tahoka was trailing 5 to 6. Doyle Schneider flied out, pinch-hitter Roger Pennington walked, and then pinch-hitter Jim Huey sacrificed Pennington to second. John Tyler beat out an infield hit, and Eddie Glass singled through the middle to load the bases. Cliff Thomas drew a walk to score a run and tie up the game, and then Ken Sayles likewise drew a walk for the game winning run.

In the finals Saturday night, Cliff Thomas slammed out a home run in the first inning with one man on for Tahoka's only scoring. On Thursday North Lynn defeated the Reese team 21-7, then on Friday, they edged past Shallowater, 2-1.

The North Lynn team consists of boys from Wilson, Cooper, and New Home. They are as follows: Gary Crews, Dennis McCullough, Delton Womack, Gary Moore, Johnny Arms, Jimmy Hardin, Lenro Brieger, Ronnie Schaffner, Keith Burkett, Stanley Gill, Jimmy Farr, Dennis Moore, Rudy Nova, and Leland Zant.

The team will play in another little league tournament at Slaton this Thursday and Friday. The team is managed by Charlie McCullough.

WARD EAKIN BOYD BARNES
MELVIN WUENSCHÉ

Horace Strickland, who farms the C. C. Coffee farm, plans to sprig Midland Bermuda grass on about 30 acres. The area to be sprigged is a lake area which makes it a suitable site due to the extra moisture.

Along with the Midland Bermuda, Horace will seed about 150 acres to blue panic. The blue panic will be seeded in rows of 20 inches or less to protect the steep slope from erosion and furnish more cover to prevent the high lime soils from blowing.

When the Midland Bermuda and blue panic are established the entire half section will be in grass as Horace has already established about 140 acres to blue panic grass.

The farm is divided into three pastures and a rotation grazing program will be set up.

Besides establishing pastures, Horace will construct a farm pond to supply water for livestock.

Cost share will be received for both pasture planting and pond construction through the Great Plains Conservation Program.

T-Bar Club Is Improving Course

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of T-Bar Country Club on July 19, four couples were voted in as new members.

The Greens Committee is proceeding with plans for improving the golf course for summer play. Any member who has a cart and desires to build a cart house is requested to meet with the Board to discuss plans and location before beginning construction at the club.

Members of the board reported many complaints still being received on the "rabbit drives" on Saturday, Sunday and holidays. The Board agreed to make another appeal to all golfing members to stop the drives or drastic measures would have to be taken. This final request is being made in fairness to other members of the club, and visitors, who like to play golf and are being inconvenienced and abused by a few golfers who continue this practice.

Peggy Elliott and G. W. White are making plans for the Club Tournament to be held in August.

THE AMERICAN WAY

Strange How the "Liberal" Mind Works

Polio Drive...

The immunization will be free to anyone not able or wishing to pay, but donations to the program will be welcomed and encouraged. Some places are charging 25 cents a dose, actual cost of the vaccine in quantity. The total program will cost local people approximately $4,500, therefore, all who can should pay. Some farmers have already indicated that they are willing and anxious to cover expense of immunizing their employees and family members.

What is Sabin oral vaccine? Dr. Thomas says it has proven to be 100 percent effective as far as medical science can determine; it is tasteless, odorless and harmless; it is given anyone from age three months on up; it can be given regardless of a person's physical condition, except in event of acute diarrhea, vomiting, fever, or a tonsillectomy within the last two weeks; it is harmless to a pregnant woman and an unborn child; it has proven effective for eight years, and the immunity may be permanent.

Who should take the Sabin oral vaccine? Everyone, with exceptions noted above. Those who have had Salk vaccine are only 90 percent safe; even if they are immune, they still may be carriers of the disease and pass it on to others. Sabin prevents the possibility of being a carrier and immunizes against all strains of the disease. Sabin oral vaccine has been under test for at least eight to ten years, and several hundred doses have been given people in Europe and America who have taken it without any sign of adverse effect.

Dr. Prohl states that for some strange reason 57 percent of all polio cases in the nation this year have been in Texas, practically all Type 1 polio, the dreaded paralysis type. Most disease can virtually be stamped out if 80 percent of the people will only take the vaccine.

This is a rare opportunity for people to take the vaccine at virtually no cost. Taking the vaccine individually will be much more expensive, and besides such vaccine may be hard to get later on.

At a meeting last Friday night, a film of the mass immunization at Phoenix, Arizona, was shown, where 750,000 people took the Sabin vaccine, the youngest person being a three months old baby and the eldest was 116 years of age.

Another meeting of workers and others interested will be held this Friday night at 7:30 o'clock in the City-Legion building.

The three doctors are taking the lead in the drive and giving their services free of charge. H. B. McCord Jr. of the National Foundation is finance chairman, Rev. James Efrid has agreed to head the pastor's committee, and E. L. Short is publicity and promotion chairman. Other committee chairmen and members will be named as needed.

An attempt will be made to give the vaccine on one Sunday afternoon within a four-hour period, 1:00 to 5:00 p. m., in Tahoka and O'Donnell. SOS is August 28th!

Tom Hale Jr. was dismissed from the Tahoka Hospital Wednesday.

Dewey L. Nicholson, 64, formerly of Tahoka and living at 280 37th in Lubbock, died Thursday last week in Methodist Hospital following an illness of eight years.

A retired insurance man and owner of Nicholson Insurance Agency in Lubbock, he had moved to Lubbock from Tahoka in 1938. He was a member of Asbury Methodist Church in that city.

Funeral services were held Saturday at 2:30 p. m. with Rev. Clarence Collins and Rev. George Tyson officiating, and burial followed in Resthaven Memorial Park.

Survivors include his wife, Elena; two sons, D. L. Jr. and Buddy, both of Hobbs; three sisters, Mrs. J. A. Jaynes of 1627 9th Street, Lubbock; Mrs. W. P. Meeks, Tahoka; and Mrs. J. T. McGee, Austin, and seven grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cowan of Richardson spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Winston Davies, and Mr. Davies in New Home. Returning home Sunday they were accompanied to Dallas by Mrs. Mary Ellen James and her daughter, Mrs. Harold Crooks. Mrs. James went to the Wadley Blood Research Center for examination and diagnosis. Lynn County Citizens' Buying Power Above Average, Survey Shows

(Special to The News)
New York—Lynn County stands out as a strong market, with a buying power that is better than average. The finding is based on a national economic survey covering the past year's business activity.

Despite the fact that the nation was just emerging from a depression, which carried over to the early part of 1961, business locally showed a rapid recovery.

The copyrighted report, which gives figures on income and spending for communities in every part of the country, has just been issued by Sales Management.

It shows that income in Lynn County was high in the year. After payment of personal taxes, there was left a net of $17,037,000.

How much this amounted to, at the family level, was determined by dividing the income by the number of households. The average per household was $5,496.

What was done with all this money? For several months local consumers continued spending cautiously as they had during the depression.

Then, as the signs of the upturn became more convincing, they began to loosen up. Toward the end of the year, when the economy was again in full swing, they were spending freely.

The vigor of this late wave of buying turned the year into a good one for Lynn County's retail stores. Their sales volume reached $12,984,000, exceeding the 1960 total of $12,938,000.

The rise, 0.3 percent, compares with an 0.3 percent drop in the United States and an 0.2 percent rise in the West South Central States.

The survey gives each community a rating as to market strength, taking into account such factors as income, retail sales and population. The composite figure is called an "index of buying power."

Lynn County is given an index rating of .0053, which means that it is considered capable of producing that percentage of the nation's total retail business.

Since more than that was done last year, .0059 percent, it is apparent that some of the local business comes from outside the county.

Economists are predicting that the nation's consumers will continue spending at their present rate for some months to come, barring unforeseen events on the international front and instability at home.

Littlepages Make Visit To Colorado

Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Littlepage and daughter, his father R. L. Littlepage, and two youths from Boys' Ranch, Max Downing and Donald Ray Richards, returned Saturday from a trip to Cleve's ranch in the San Luis Valley southeast of Alamosa.

At this time of year, Cleve has his herd of sheep high up in the mountains on summer range at about 13,000 feet, above timberline, above the Platoria Reservoir.

By previous arrangement, they met the camp tender at Platoria Reservoir, at which point they delivered salt and groceries to him to take up higher to the sheep camp, where the herder had remained with the sheep.

Cleve says they were delayed about ten days this year getting their sheep to the high elevation range because of the heavy snows of the past winter which were late in melting sufficiently for grass to come out. In fact, there still is snow in the high mountains.

He says the trip was quite an experience, especially to the two youths staying at Boys Ranch.

Kind words never die—they just become victims of ingratitude.

Farm Facts

In 1941, according to Melvin R. Banks of the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Statistical Reporting Service, the average American ate only seven-tenths of a pound of frozen vegetables. By 1961, this had multiplied about 15-fold, to about 11 pounds per person.

From 1941 to 1961, the vegetable freezing industry boosted its production from 106 million to 2.2 billion pounds.

In 1941, the nation's freezer storage rooms held an average of 74 million pounds of frozen vegetables on the first day of each month. In 1961, the average was more than a billion pounds—about 31% of the total weight of frozen food in storage.

Total holdings of frozen vegetables reached an all-time high of 1.3 billion pounds in 1961. New storage records were set for frozen lima beans, green beans, broccoli, carrots, cauliflower, corn, peas, spinach, and French fried potatoes. Records were set also for frozen fruits, poultry, and frozen orange concentrate—599 million pounds, 550 million pounds, and 50 million gallons, respectively.

O'Donnell Lady Is Heart Victim

Funeral services were held Saturday at 3:00 p. m. in Lamesa First Baptist Church with Rev. Milo Arbuckle officiating, assisted by Rev. Calvin Partain of O'Donnell and Rev. J. W. Edwards of Lubbock.

Survivors included four daughters, Mrs. Don Hackney and Mrs. Tommy Gibson, both of Lamesa, Mrs. Wayne Carroll of O'Donnell, and Mrs. Don Kendal of Dallas, six sisters, and eight grandchildren.

MRS. W. R. GOLLEHON, 88, DIES AT CLOVIS, N. M.

Mrs. W. R. Gollehon, 88, former resident of western Garza county and well known by many eastern Lynn county people, died Wednesday of last week in a Clovis nursing home.

Funeral services were held Saturday at 2:30 p. m. at House, where she had lived 18 years, in the First Baptist Church, and burial followed in the House Cemetery.

Survivors include one son, Gene of House; one daughter, Mrs. Roy Mason of Anaheim, Calif.; a step-daughter, Mrs. W. E. Karver of Abilene; a sister, Mrs. Lilly Layton of Gorman, and six grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack C. Porter from Waco visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Taylor. Mrs. Porter is Mrs. Taylor's sister.

Fallout Shelters From Cellars

College Station.—Many of the tornado and underground vegetable cellars in Texas can be made into good fallout shelters, says W. S. Allen, extension agricultural engineer.

However, there are several points that must be kept in mind when remodeling these shelters to provide adequate fallout protection. They are: (a) adequate shielding, (b) a protected entrance, (c) positive ventilation, (d) storage facilities for supplies, (e) and installation of a radio antenna for radio reception.

The most economical means of providing the additional shielding needed is with a layer of soil to a depth of about 3 feet over the entire cellar roof. Most cellars will require additional reinforcing in the roof in order to hold this extra weight. A steel reinforced, six inch thick concrete slab cast over the roof may be used instead of the soil cover. A local contractor can tell you the amount of steel necessary for your situation, but for most cellars 1/2-inch steel bars laid on 12-inch centers in both directions will be sufficient.

A right angle entrance into the cellar, essential to protection from fallout, may be made by building a partial wall inside the existing cellar. If the cellar is not large enough to permit this wall inside then a new entrance should be constructed with the necessary right angle in it.

A mechanical blower should be installed to provide positive air exhaust in time of disaster, and an inlet and outlet vent provided. The blower should provide a minimum of 5 cubic feet per minute per person. A filter is not necessary for the average home shelter. There should be enough shelves and storage space to hold the recommended amount of supplies and a radio antenna should be installed to receive CONELRAD broadcasts. Be sure that your battery powered radio will work in the shelter and will connect to the antenna.

Fallout shelter plans are available from the Extension Service Office, Office of Civil Defense, and other organizations concerned with civil defense.

CARTERS HAVING TIME ENTERTAINING GRANDSON

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Carter are entertaining their little grandson, Todd Beckham of Lubbock, for ten days. "Cotton" has helped him build a rustic tree house at their home from cedar posts, and the little fellow has been entertaining his friends in the la Tarzan in the tree. The boy even had breakfast in the tree one morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter and Todd visited last week end with Mrs. Carter's mother, Mrs. F. L. Emanuel, in Iowa Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Marti Cawman of Tahoka are on a 10-day vacation trip in Seattle, Wash., visiting Mrs. Cawman's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lee Tredwill. While they are in Seattle, they plan to attend the World's Fair. On their way home they will go to Clovis and Fresno, Calif., and visit other relatives.

Cotton Growers Elect Officers

Cotton mills are finding that Plains cotton spins better than cotton of comparable length from other areas, Wilmer Smith told those attending the Lynn county unit meeting of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Friday night in Lyncar conference room.

As a result of reactivation of the pilot spinning plant at Texas Tech, made possible by Plains Cotton Growers, experiments have shown a good elongation factor in our cotton. The crinkled fibre stretches out longer and doesn't break so easily under spinning condition. As a result, our cotton is finding a better market with the spinners.

Mr. Smith also declared that much cotton will be lost after this year by Central Texas counties due to failure of farmers to plant their allotments. As a result of farmers down state giving up their allotments, this acreage will be spread out over the Plains and may give us a slight increase in acreage.

Tom Mason, who presided at the meeting, was re-elected chairman of the Lynn county unit.

Wilmer Smith, currently vice president of Plains Cotton Growers, was re-elected the farmer member of the board from this county, and Winston C. Wharton was elected the businessman member of the board to succeed E. R. Edwards.

Mr. Mason said attendance at the annual meeting was light.

Printer's Ink-lings . . .

By F. P. H.

If you come to work six or seven days a week, week in and week out, you really enjoy a vacation—and The Printer and Mae had a wonderful 10 days trip to colorful, cool Colorado at quaint, unique and historic little Lake City, where Jake and Pat and three girls, Vicki, Becky, and Fran, operate the also historic Lake City Drug during the summer months.

Lake City was born of the silver rush of 1874, then came the magic word "gold," the town boomed for a while, almost died away, flourished again, and today is a shadow of its lusty past—waiting for a new boom. The natives tell us there is much gold, silver, lead, tin, zinc, antimony, copper, uranium, and a dozen other minerals still in those mountains, but the high price of labor makes mining unprofitable. Back when a man worked a full day for a dollar, mining was profitable, but today with wages at $1.15 to $3.00 an hour mining is impossible. "Brick" Griffith, about 75 and born in Lake City, told us his father had a top job as engineer at the Ute Mine, walked two miles over mountain trails to work, and drew $2.40 a day.

But, Lake City today has found a new gold—the tourist, who comes to see the wonderful scenery, rest, or fish in the 500 miles of streams, Lake San Cristobal, or a dozen other lakes hidden high in the surrounding mountains. Lake City, population about 300, plus about 20 tourist courts and dude ranches, is nestled in the Lake Fork of the Gunnison, 8,684 feet altitude, but surrounded by 14,000-foot peaks, adjacent to vast wilderness areas scarcely touched by human foot. Snow on the mountain tops is visible the summer around. In fact, we were snowed on while up in the "hills"—the middle of July. The forests of pine, spruce, Douglas fir, and aspen abound in game such as deer, elk, bear, bighorn sheep, turkey and grouse.

By the way, did you know there are 29 peaks in Colorado higher than Pike's Peak, 54 peaks over 14,000 feet, 830 more than 11,000 feet high. Lake City is surrounded by seven of these 14,000-foot peaks and scores of them about 11,000 feet, the highest being Uncompagrade, 14,306, sixth highest in the state. This is the famed San Juan Range, with 56 peaks higher than Old Baldy out at Ruidoso.

You come to Lake City from Texas over Spring Creek Pass (10,901), the Continental Divide, where you see the water on one side starting out for the Rio Grande, the Gulf of Mexico and the Atlantic. Just a few feet the other side, water flows to the Gunnison, Colorado, and Pacific Ocean. Then comes Slumgullion Pass, 11,361 feet high, and your car drops by switch-backs nearly 3,000 feet in nine miles to Lake

"The Power to Tax Is the Power to Destroy"

City. Only other access by car is up the valley from Gunnison, with no mountain passes.

This summer, The Printer took that jeep trip which Pat wrote about last summer to the top of Engineer Mountain through courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Boynton of San Angelo (he is a retired map-maker), who spend their summers in Lake City. The trip was led by Lee Harlan, of San Diego, retired Naval commander, and wife. There were five jeep loads on the trip, including two couples from Oklahoma City, and a young Oklahoma University graduate student, Tommy Thompson, writing a book of history and folklore on the region. The trip was everything Pat said it was. Like a trip through Carlsbad Cavern, there are no words to describe the sensational beauty of the high country, the view from atop the peak, 2,000 feet above timberline, across mountain tops and more mountains beyond, a view clear over into Utah on the west, nearly to New Mexico on the south. If mountains had no been in the way, we might have seen old Kay Moore at Red Barn down near Durango riding his pony lickety-split, waving at tourists aboard the Denver & Rio Grande narrow gauge excursion train as it returned down the Las Animas canyon from Silverton.

Incidentally, "Lit" Moore Jr. of New Home last year, on a bet with brother Kay, drove his pickup over Engineer and Cinnamon Passes from Silverton to Lake City. Not many have ever accomplished this feat. But, back in the old days, there was a stage line over the mountains from Ouray to Lake City.

Our trip to Engineer Mountain was up Henson Canyon, past abandoned and working mines, old ghost towns such as Henson and Capitol City, once a flourishing town that made a bid in about 1879 for the capital of the state, past Rose's cabin, and then up above timberline. Up Lake Fork are other ghost towns such as Sherman, White Cross, and Carson. At Capitol City is the ruins of the famed Lee Mansion, reputed to have cost a dollar a brick to build. Lee, a wealthy mine superintendent, had an elaborate home for such a secluded place with basement, salorium, a music room and baby grand piano for his wife gave Sunday musicals and had top musicians there from Denver and elsewhere. In contrast, high on top of a mountain may be seen, through field glasses, a miner's hut, Wager's Diggins; perched on the rimrock, where wood and water had to be brought up possibly 2,000 feet by mule, mute evidence of the hardships man underwent in the 1870's in his quest for gold.

As we stood on top of the world and scanned the magnificent view for possibly a hundred miles around, we wondered how a Supreme Court could deny little children the right to repeat a prayer in school—any prayer. How insignificant is mere man? How pickyish can man get in trying to solve little problems? Then, again, we thought of the people who had been to such places as Colorado Springs and thought they had been to the mountains. Why, even the people who had stopped off in Lake City had not really seen the mountains.

On the way down, we had picnic lunch at the abandoned Chicago mine, and then took a side trip up to Hurricane Basin for more scenery and to see the flowers. At this time of year, the high mountains are covered with flowers such as columbine, the state flower, larkspur, daisies, Indian paintbrushes in seven colors, delphinium, wild geraniums, bluebells, magenta, asters, lupine, and others. Higher up near the snowbanks and glaciers, we saw the small moss flowers. Wild strawberries are now ripening, and raspberries and elderberries will be ripening soon.

As we indicated above, Lake City came into being as a result of the silver "rush," and shortly by gold and lead, was incorporated in 1875, had a railroad from 1882 to 1932, became famous because of many mines, the more noteworthy being the Golden Fleece and the Ute-Ulay. At one time (1877) there were 15 lawyers, seven saloons, two banks, four sawmills, four Chinese laundries, smelters, brick kilns, and a newspaper, The Silver World, a few early copies of which we were permitted to read.

Still standing are a few of the old buildings, including the Presbyterian Church, oldest Protestant Church on the Western Slope, established in 1876, in which there is an old organ hauled over the mountains from Ouray in about 1878. Other old and colorful churches are the Catholic and Baptist Churches, and a newly-built Episcopal Church. The old courthouse still stands, as does the old school, remodeled, an 1880 hotel, bar, bank building, and others. If these old buildings and the two streams, Lake Fork and Henson, could talk, many a tale would unfold.

One of the tales the natives tell visitors is of the Packer Massacre, which we related last year, but which is so colorful we'll repeat briefly. Alfred Packer and five other prospectors crazed by "gold fever" came up the valley in the fall of 1873, against advice of Chief Ouray of the Utes. A terrible blizzard blew in, the group was marooned in the mountains, and Packer killed and ate his five companions during the winter. Coming out in the spring fat and sleek, he was caught, escaped, caught again and tried in Lake City 10 years later. The town drunk was present when the judge pronounced sentence, ran down to the nearest saloon, where a crowd was awaiting the trial's outcome, burst into the room and yelled, "The Judge sentenced Packer to hang because he et the only five Democrats in Hinsdale County." But, sob sisters won him a reprieve and Packer is reputed to have died years later a confirmed vegetarian.

Don't ask us about our fishing, because we don't want to be tempted to tell a fib. Besides, our family was there, and so were, a part of the time, the Jack Fentons, Al Gardners, the Rual Caseys (Patsy Smith's in-laws), and the "Dude" Nettles (Roy's brother), the latter operating a tourist court. Anyway, we didn't get the fishing fever, Becky was pretty sick, and Jake had to come back to Tahoka on school business while we were helping keep the store going. But, we'll say this, we never saw as high a percentage of people come in with their limit of trout. Fishing there has been great this year.

Advertising doesn't cost, it pays.

Incidentally, we saw the S. G. Anthony's of 1005 Sunset, Amarillo. A lot of people will remember Mr. Anthony as a former Wilson school superintendent. He had a heart attack a few years ago and had to quit work, but it doesn't seem to have bothered his fishing. Mrs. Anthony teaches in Amarillo.

A Tahoka High graduate, Gordon Suits, and family were camping on the lake. He is teaching in Amarillo and has a TV program of his own in that city. His parents, the A. A. Suits, former Tahoka and Post mail carrier, live in Plainview.

While our granddaughter, Becky, was a pretty sick little girl, our third grandchild, Fran, age four, was saying her prayers, which included: "Dear God, please help Becky to get well. And, dear Jesus, you help God out because He is so busy!"

No person is indispensable. This we learned while we were gone, for The News came out as usual under the direction of Rogers Curry, who is a former publisher. Linda Renfro, Larry Thomas, Tony Spruiell, and Gary Thomas. We think they did a fine job.

An Oklahoman told us this story: On a TV quiz show, the winner of first prize got a free trip to Texas for one week. Second prize winner got a free trip to Texas for two weeks.

Elvin Ray Moore of O'Donnell says we should add the names of three more Lynn county boys to the list of those who have made doctors. They are Dr. Carl Page, now at Lubbock; Dr. Glenn Payne, Slaton; and Dr. Sam Singleton Jr., Mineral Wells. All are O'Donnell graduates. Are there others?

YOUR JOB EXISTS BECAUSE OF PROFITS

It may be "smart politics" to attack profits.

But it is bad economics. The reason Americans are the most prosperous people in the world is that private citizens have been free to earn profits—with no government interference other than the administration of basic justice under constitutional law.

Your job exists because of profits. America's ability to survive foreign competition depends on our having a modern efficient industrial plant. (Some of industry's machines are almost museum pieces.) Military defense is built on modern technology and equipment.

Whether we have an up-to-date productive capacity or not depends on whether business and industry can earn adequate profits.

Leave it all to government? Without taxes on profits, without taxes on citizens employed by profit-making businesses, the government would have no money to provide anything.

We don't know why attacking profits should be so popular with politicians; not American politicians.

Is it popular with you? Your answer is important. It could be that when they attack profits, they're attacking you—where you live.—James McCloskey.

D. F. Reddell, Bell Engineer, Places First Direct Dial Call To Tahoka

Tahoka had a hand, although minor, in a historic and revolutionary conversion to direct distance dialing by telephone on July 15, during the Dallas Taylor cut-over in the Bell System, the biggest instantaneous central office cut-over ever made.

D. F. (Dave) Reddell, equipment engineer on the mammoth project, called his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reddell, in Tahoka by direct distance dialing, the first such call ever to come into Tahoka.

According to Dallas press reports, this was possibly the largest cut-over of its kind in the nation, and the affair was Dave's "baby."

D. F. is a 1939 graduate of Tahoka High School, attended Texas Tech, spent four years in the Air Force, and since 1946 has been with Bell. In this time, he has advanced to his present high position in the company.

The $8 million project represents the largest single order of Number 5 Crossbar equipment ever filled by Western Electric.

and Reddell has been largely responsible for supervision of the task for Bell Southwestern which required nearly 200,000 man-hours for installation, followed by three months of equipment testing. Equipment for the 33,500 telephone customers of this exchange in Dallas required 64 train car loads weighing 1,545 tons.

Since the Dallas cut-over, similar cutovers are now being made in Pampa, Borger, Amarillo, Odesa, and Midland. Others will follow in Dallas' other exchanges and then in other cities and towns over the Southwest.

Direct dialing means exactly what the two words indicate—that a person in one telephone exchange can dial on his own phone any telephone patron anywhere else in the nation with a call record being made automatically by the equipment.

Tahoka can take pride in the fact that one of its sons is having a major hand engineering these installations in the southwest.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" By C. WILSON HARDER

Millions once laughed as Fiber McGee's catchall closet door opened to spill the better-kelter mess hidden inside.

While causing no mirth, today's Fiber McGee closet is becoming the Social Security system; the catchall for vote seeking politicians.

This is a reason 77% of the nation's businessmen, voting through the National Federation of Independent Business, disapproved additional Social Security taxes for aged hospital care.

By 1969, if no further frills are added, the combined SS rate paid by employers and employees will be 9 1/2%. Rep. Herlong has introduced a resolution for a constitutional amendment to freeze the maximum permissible tax at 10%.

While this measure is probably better than no limit at all, there is a question if the limit should not even be lower.

SS tax increases pose an economic paradox apparently obvious to all but to the socialist element of lunacy along the Potomac.

Every time the employer half of SS taxes are raised, labor cost increases. This increases his costs and prices at a time when inflation at home, non-competitive pricing abroad, are pointed out as grave national problems.

Yet, a strong case can be made for SS benefits for employees. Millions of employees, either unable or unwilling to make provisions for their future, are thus kept from being eventual burdens on society. In addition, that part of their earnings paid in SS taxes is not being spent now on goods, increasing inflationary pressures. Thus, employee contributions are anti-inflationary, while employer taxation increases inflation.

It also seems obvious that a poll of employees would find majority heartily in favor of Social Security. They would say it is good for them, a point of view which is logical.

Thus, why is it not logical for employees to pay entire amount for their future security payments. After all, employers are not expected to pay half their fire insurance, auto insurance, other life insurance.

In fact, if the employees of the nation were permitted to vote in a nationwide referendum, on the subject, there could be interesting results, especially if it were made plain and clear that from that point on, the full Social Security tax would be paid by the employee. It is quite possible that the employees of the nation would vote an even higher tax on themselves to finance larger benefits.

But continual increases in SS taxes on employers is merely increasing inflation, eroding through higher prices the benefits that employees expect to receive. Actually, if politicians were honest employees would undoubtedly realize that instead of Peter being robbed to pay Paul, Paul is being hijacked, too.

Telephone Wage Dispute Settled

Final settlement in labor contract negotiations between General Telephone Company of the Southwest and Communication Workers of America was reached Saturday morning, July 21. Agreement substantially was reached early Friday evening but a Saturday morning session was necessary to complete the wrap-up details.

The new contract covers wages and working conditions for some 2,700 employees working in the five-state area of Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Arkansas, and Louisiana.

The principal item of settlement was a general wage increase which amounted to somewhat better than five and one-half cents per hour as averaged for the total bargaining unit. The Company has estimated that the direct annual payroll cost will amount to approximately $290,000 and taking into account Social Security and other directly related cost overhead will increase the amount to approximately $321,000. Increases for individual employees range from two to nine cents an hour depending upon specific job classification, and length of employment service.

Other items of settlement were related to contract language improvements, shortened period of time during which an employee may perform work in a higher job category before wage rate re-adjustment, one-year extension of a special area wage differential for Perryton, Texas, employees, and clarification of procedures involved in classifications, and re-classifications, of employees according to job duties.

The new contract will be a primary term of one year, running from July 21, 1962, through July 20, 1963. The new wage schedules were effective Sunday, July 22, 1962. Although final settlement has been reached, formal signing of the new contract will not occur until sometime this week after the document has been prepared for execution.

Negotiation sessions were begun on June 19, and were conducted in the General Offices of the telephone company located in San Angelo.

The Communication Workers of America represent some 300,000 communications employees working in the United States and Canada in addition to those workers for General Telephone Company of the Southwest.
