Second SOS Day Is Being Postponed

Lynn county's second SOS polio immunization Sunday, previously set for October 9, has been postponed indefinitely, according to Drs. Emil Prohl and Skiles Thomas, who made this announcement following a meeting of the Five County Medical Society Tuesday night in Seminole.

"In light of the adverse publicity, even though we feel the vaccine is entirely safe after hearing the facts available, the SOS program is indefinitely postponed, pending clarification by the U. S. Public Health Service."

"However, we do plan to pick up the program where we left off at some future date," stated Dr. Prohl. "Delaying of the vaccine of the other two types, Types III and II, will in no way reduce the value of the first dose taken by 9,400 Lynn county people on August 26."

"Medical authorities have suggested that school and pre-school age children go ahead and receive Type III vaccine," the statement said, "but in the light of this adverse publicity and the reaction of the U. S. Public Health Service questioning taking of the vaccine by adults, we feel it is better to postpone giving Type III polio vaccine until 'the waters have cleared'."

Doubt was raised when several Canadians developed polio after taking the vaccine, but press reports have pointed out this was a slightly different vaccine from the one given in the U. S. and all three types, I, II and III, were mixed in one dose. Also, reports point out the incidence of polio, even then, has been one in one million, and all the cases are adults. Dr. Albert B. Sabin said Tuesday there was no evidence the vaccine caused the polio cases.

Anyway, medical men point out, Type I vaccine was for the type of polio comprising about 90 percent of the cases in the U. S. this year. This was the first dose taken in Lynn county.

Type III, however, is for the dreaded bulbar type of polio, and all children should have the vaccine when the program is resumed, and adults should have it to prevent them from being carriers of the disease. All three doses should completely eliminate polio.

"I would not hesitate one minute to take Type III vaccine, myself," Dr. Prohl told The News. "The odds of one in a million, even if true, is not nearly so great as getting into an automobile."

Never in the history of Lynn county has there ever been any program of such magnitude as the immunization on August 26, when 9,400 people took Type I vaccine in one Sunday afternoon, nor never any program in which so many people, fully 400, cooperated in one great drive and participated so willingly. These included individuals, churches, organizations of all kinds.

Further announcement will be made later as to the dates for Type III and Type II SOS Sundays.

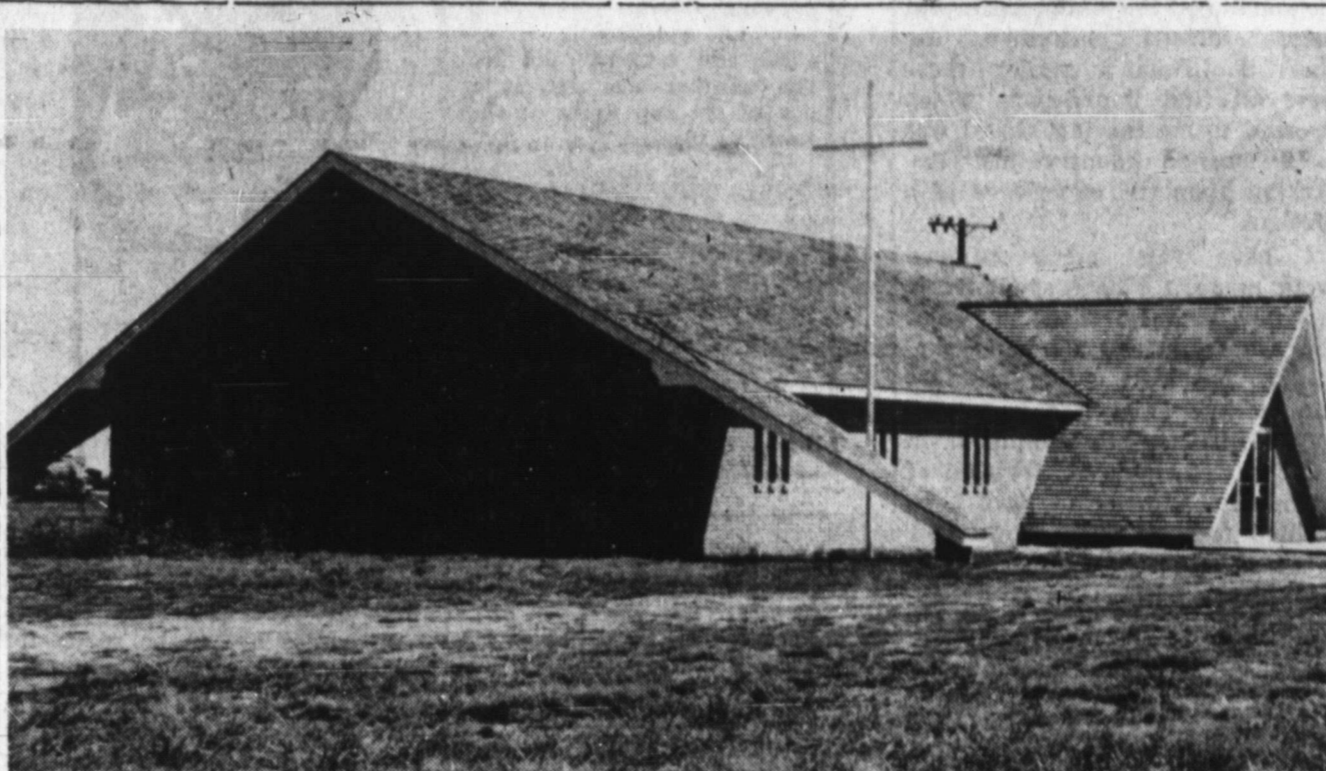

Seven Indicted By Grand Jury

Seven men were indicted on charges of forgery and burglary when Lynn County grand jury convened here Monday.

Floyd Henderson was indicted on three charges of forgery with bail set at $1,000 for each charge.

Two indictments were returned against Billy Jack Baker, Tom Whitehurst, Larry Pace and Douglas Ray Scott for burglary with intent to commit theft and bail was set at $5,000. The group allegedly entered the homes of Charlie Dabbs and Mrs. J. F. Rackler on July 8.

Emilio Flores and Alberto V. Aleman were indicted for burglary with intent to commit theft and bail set at $2,500. They are charged with entering the homes of E. E. Spruiell and Curtis Stevens on June 5.

Rev. Efirid Will Preach In Japan

The Rev. T. James Efirid, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Tahoka, has been invited to preach in a nation-wide evangelistic crusade designed to reach every person in Japan during the spring of 1963. His engagement will be April 21 through May 6.

The Rev. Efirid will preach in a revival in Sasebo, Japan, as part of the vast Japanese Baptist New Life Movement. Sasebo's population is 258,000 and is located 40 miles from Nagasaki.

A total of 147 Baptist evangelists were named to preaching assignments in the vast Baptist New Life Movement in Japan, slated March 26-May 6.

Participants in the nation-wide crusade were selected by a committee from the Japan Baptist Convention and the Baptist General Conventions of Texas. Their names were officially released for (Cont'd. On Back Page)

Soil District Plans Election

Zone 4 residents of the State's 182 soil conservation districts have an election date to keep on October 2. W. B. Griffin, County Agricultural Agent, says the election is very important and he urges all eligible voters to cast their ballot.

Zone 4 voters in Lynn County soil conservation district will elect a farmer or ranchman who will serve as their supervisor and representative on the Soil Conservation District Board for the next five years. Time and place for the October 2 balloting is Wells Co-op Gin, says Griffin.

Griffin says a qualified voter is a zone 4 landowner who is over 21 years of age or older. Wives of eligible landowners can vote and should do so since they have an interest in their soil conservation district.

The Agent points out that soil conservation districts are political subdivisions of the State of Texas and by law are charged with the responsibility of carrying out a soil and water conservation program in their district. Through them such items as technical service, equipment, leadership in small watershed projects and (Cont'd. on Back Page)

Harvest Season Is Later Than Usual

Hood Is Speaker For Homecoming

M. B. (Bryan) Hood, mayor of Plainview and Tahoka's first football coach, will be the principal speaker for Homecoming Day, October 5, instead of Leo Jackson, Irving Athletic director.

The News announced last week Jackson, also a former local coach, would be the speaker, but he later called Allen Cox, president of the Tahoka Student Council, saying he couldn't be here on account of a conflicting engagement.

M. B. Hood was reared at Central, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hood, attended West Texas State, and taught in the local high school in 1921-'22. H. P. Cavness, then superintendent, had instituted Interscholastic League competition in the local schools, and Mr. Hood organized the school's first football team.

Hood later was manager of a dry goods store here, then became a Chevrolet dealer in Plainview, and for a number of years has also served as Mayor of that city.

Crop harvest this year in Lynn county is the latest in many years, and local ginners declare there will be little cotton to gin until at least mid-October.

Principal cause is the late August rains which revived much dryland cotton, already late, which put on new growth and fruit. Another is the lack of braceros and too-high wages and shortage of domestic hands, the result being that many farmers are preparing to machine harvest cotton.

Some milo has been coming in, but the rain Sunday night and heavy dews since have delayed harvest of grain that was already ripening.

Tahoka received 45 inch in the rain early this week which ranged from a light shower up to an inch over the county.

Labor Problems Aired Wednesday

There may be a little more native labor available this fall for the cotton harvest but farmers of most areas will try to get along without braceros because of the new 70-cents per hour minimum, officials of the Texas Employment Commission told the local Farm Labor Advisory Committee Wednesday afternoon at a meeting here.

Local committee members told the TEC representatives that most local farmers did not feel like paying braceros on a 70-cent hour basis, that they would be glad to have good native labor that wanted to work at $1.50 or $1.55 per hundred, but that most of local farmers are already making plans to machine harvest rather than pay exorbitant labor prices.

Whereas 60 to 70,000 braceros came over for the harvest four years ago, virtually none are being contracted at this time.

Some more native labor is being recruited by TEC, but not near enough to fill the gap.

Joe Manahan of Austin, assistant chief farm placement director of TEC, said there is confusion of the status of the bracero program. Virtually no braceros were used this year in the Valley, none in the Brazos bottom country, a few in the rolling plains country, and very few in the El Paso and Pecos country where mechanical pickers can be used. The area west and north of Abilene, including the Plains, where most braceros are used, presents quite a problem.

Ed Dean of Lubbock, field service and labor relations man for Plains Cotton Growers, said farmers must realize we are in a transitional period in regard to farm labor. For year around hands, he thought laborers need to show a little more concern-for-their jobs and has been asking ministers and priests to help educate the Mexicans to this need. But, also, he said, farmers need to show a little more patience and concern for the laborers and help train them to do a better job.

Joe Spears, interviewer in charge of the Brownfield TEC office, declared there are a few crews available now for placement if the farmer has suitable housing and pulling ready, and requested farmers to contact him if and when they need such help.

Garvin Wilkes, Lamesa TEC office manager, presided at the meeting.

D. R. Adamson has been employed as the prevailing wage survey man for Lynn and Terry counties for this fall.

Pleas Of Guilty In District Court

Three men pled guilty in district court held here Monday and received sentences and other cases will be held on Saturday morning.

Mercy Delarosa was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary for assault with intent to murder. On Feb. 24 he assaulted a colored man, Alfred Green.

Augustine Herrera was given a two years probation sentence for failure to stop and render aid or "hit and run" and was ordered to make restitution to the parties injured east of Tahoka in November of last year, Josephine, Alma and David Nunez.

Robert M. Wynne was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail for failure to support his children, second offense.

Library Board Elects Chairman

After serving about 25 years as chairman of the Lynn County Library board, Mrs. G. M. Stewart has resigned, and the board has elected Miss Lois Montgomery to succeed her. Mrs. Stewart will remain a member of the board.

From a small beginning in the mid-1930's, the Library has grown steadily until it now has 9,500 books on the shelves, and late best sellers are being added monthly. An average of 90 to 100 books are taken out weekly by citizens to read.

Rental is free on all the books except the late ones, which are rented at a small fee until paid out. The library is open on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons from 1:00 until 5:00 o'clock.

Mrs. A. J. Kaddatz is the librarian.

Courteous Employee Contest Continues

Tahoka patrons are requested to get their votes in by the week end for the "most courteous employee" for the month of August.

Any votes not received this week end will be counted on next month's contest.

A ballot is printed in The News, which may be filled in and mailed to Tahoka Chamber of Commerce.

MRS. EDWARDS IMPROVES

J. E. (Red) Brown visited Mrs. Mollie C. Edwards, one of the T-Bar owners, in Fort Worth recently and reports she is gradually recovering from her broken leg. She sent best regards to her many Lynn county friends.

Cary Fillingim, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Robert Fillingim of New Home is a medical patient in Tahoka Hospital.

British Visitor Leaving For Home

Paul Bartlett of England, who has been in Tahoka since July 30, will leave this morning for New York, where he will begin the final lap of his journey on Sept. 23.

Bartlett has been in Tahoka under sponsorship of the Rotary Club. During his stay here he has been a guest of local Rotarians.

Included in his agenda has been a trip to meet Governor Price Daniel when he was made an honorary citizen about two weeks ago.

His last official appearance in Tahoka was scheduled for the Rotary Ann-Teacher banquet being held here on Thursday night.

Otis Spears is reported as doing very well, and is still a patient in the Tahoka Hospital.

Lady Is Surprised To See Deer Grazing In Her Back Yard

Mrs. Edward Pool got the surprise of her life Monday afternoon when she looked out her kitchen window and saw a deer grazing in her back yard.

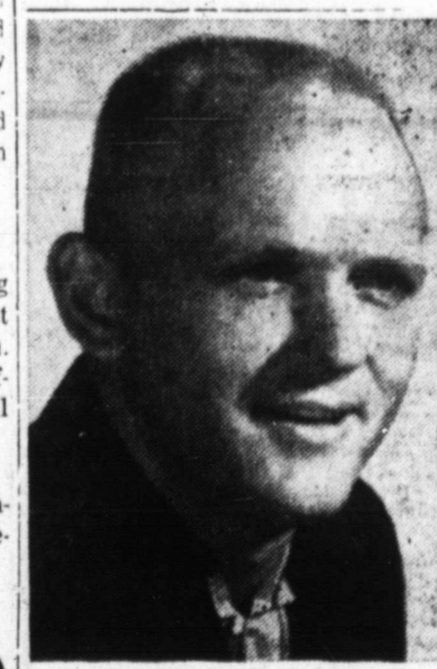

Her attention was brought to the animal when she heard the dogs barking. Thinking the cows had gotten out, she was quite taken aback to see the buck with antlers several inches long.

After investigation, she found the deer had at one time belonged to T-Bar Ranch and has recently been given to Boys Ranch southeast of Tahoka. It had strayed from the ranch to the Pool farm nearby.

Tahoka Bulldogs Go To Slaton Tonight

Tahoka's improving Bulldogs, holding an 8-0 victory over Frenship Tigers and a 6-6 tie with the tough Crosbyton Chiefs, run up against an old rival, the Tigers at Slaton this Friday night at 7:30 o'clock.

Not only will Slaton be looking for revenge for the 16-8 defeat handed them last year by Tahoka here, but the Tigers are all fired up this year under a new coach, "Bing" Bingham. While coaching at rival Post, "Bing" came to hate even the mention of Tahoka's name, and he can be depended upon to pull out all the stops in an effort to humiliate the Bulldogs in any way that is legal.

Although the Tigers lost to the powerful Wildcats 31 to 14 Friday night at the dedication of Idalou's new stadium, Slaton has much better potential than last week's score indicates. The week before, in opening the season, Slaton held Petersburg, which in turn defeated Abernathy, to an 8-8 score.

The Tigers have a dangerous passing game with three boys throwing the ball. Webber Tefer-tiller, the lanky 165-pound senior; Bruce Pember, junior; and Ronny Jones, senior. Top receivers include Jones and End Jerry Tefer-tiller.

Other outstanding boys on the Slaton club include Steve Ball, 175-pound driving fullback, lineman John George, and a host of other experienced boys who have faced Tahoka in the past.

4-H Gilt Show Held Saturday

The County 4-H Sears Gilt Show was held at O'Donnell, Saturday, September 15.

The judge was Lester Adams, Vocational Agriculture teacher of Tahoka.

Winning first place was Billy Wood of O'Donnell; second place, Roger Pennington of Tahoka; third place, Irving Line of O'Donnell; fourth place, Ricky Zant of New Home; fifth place, Danny Hale of O'Donnell.

The district show will be held at Texas Tech, September 22. Billy Wood will take a gilt and Roger Pennington will take a boar to the show.

Other Students Attending College

Some local college students were omitted from last week's report in the News of those attending school this fall.

Mrs. Dan (Marijelen) Kamp will attend Texas Tech and Don Hammonds will go to school at Lubbock Christian College.

Steve Ellis will attend McMurtry College in Abilene.

Joe Phil and Wendell Inman, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Inman, will attend Barstow (Calif.) Junior College and live in near-by Yermo with an aunt, Mrs. L. D. Weems, and also work at Mr. Weems' service station.

Two mistakes were also made in reporting the correct colleges. Larry Forsythe will attend Tech and Lester Ford will enroll in Lubbock Christian College.

INJURED IN ACCIDENT

Gary Thomas, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Thomas, received a severed fingertip Sunday morning as the family was leaving for the funeral services of Gary's grandfather. A car door was closed on his third finger, severing about a half inch of the member. He received treatment in Tahoka Hospital, where skin was grafted from his leg to cover the end of his finger.

Tim Roberts, sixth grade teacher here, underwent surgery in Post Monday morning. He is reported to be in good condition and will possibly be back in his class room at North Elementary next week.

George McCracken has been dismissed from Tahoka Hospital after having been a medical patient for a few days.

Atwell Joins Farm Bureau Insurance

J. D. Atwell has been appointed special agent of Farm Bureau Insurance Companies for Lynn and Garza counties, directors of Lynn County Farm Bureau, announced following their meeting Monday night.

His appointment was given unanimous approval by the directors, according to Loyd McCormick Jr., president, who said "we are proud to have J. D. with us."

"With his qualifications and his past sales record, Mr. Atwell surely is an outstanding young man and his future in our insurance program looks bright," states Austin Crowmover of Austin, sales director of Farm Bureau Insurance Co.

J. D. will join Jimmy Schneider of Wilson as a special agent. Charles Reid is the agency manager.

MRS. DAVIES HAS SURGERY

Mrs. Florence Davies is in a Lubbock hospital, having had bone surgery on one foot, and recuperating from a broken bone in the other foot. She had surgery Tuesday, Sept. 18. It is believed she will be fine in a few days.

How many remember last spring when it seemed the wind would never stop blowing and the dust would never settle? How many are looking forward to next spring? The winds will blow carrying valuable top soil along with it, covering up young cotton and sapping the soil of much needed moisture. All the blowing can't be stopped but it can be reduced.

There are several methods that can be used to control wind erosion, but by far the best method is the use of feed stubble or other natural cover. After the stubble is turned under it is a continuous job keeping the land rough enough to prevent blowing because after each rain the clods are dissolved and leave the land in condition to blow. Another tillage operation is necessary to get the land back into shape.

Feed stubble not only gives protection from wind erosion, it also aids in moisture penetration. The cover breaks up the rain drops and prevents crusting. Without this protection the raindrops pound the soil and dissolve it, leaving a crust that moisture cannot penetrate. The water runs off instead of soaking into the soil. Residue cover also cuts down evaporation. More moisture is lost on lay out land that is fallowed than there would be if a cover was provided.

For those who think they just want to plow a combination of cover and tillage can be used such as cross chiseling or listing to the stubble.

British Student Says "Good-Bye"

(By Paul Bartlett)

Eight weeks ago I stepped off an aircraft in Idlewild, New York City with the friendly greeting "Welcome to the United States of America" ringing in my ears. Into the city we sped in unfamiliar air conditioned luxury, on the right hand side of a modern highway carrying an amazing density of traffic. The vastness of my surroundings, the enthusiastic but helpful armed policemen, the cheerful liftman's smile; these were all first impressions which stressed to me the fact that I was in a strange country just embarking upon the experience of a lifetime.

I have very much enjoyed every moment I have spent living in your country. The fact that you are willing to accept responsibility for a complete stranger and to have him live your own way of life for two months is in itself a tremendous expression of friendship. Although I have been thrilled to have been shown how to water ski, to go to a rodeo and join in the enthusiasm of a football match, I hope that I have been successful in the more serious aspects of my visit here. Living in your homes, sharing your conversations, your meals and your friends, has taught me a considerable amount about your way of life. I hope that for my part, I have been able to correct some misunderstanding existing in my own country and that our discussions have formed the basis of some firm friendship.

I feel that many people in my own country do not understand the strong sense of individual independence which is prevalent in an important body of American opinion. In the same way I have been seriously disturbed to discover that many Americans cannot distinguish European Socialism from the evils of Communism.

In Britain most people believe that in order to assist everyone to obtain equal opportunity, a number of communal services should be provided by the government. Social security, health and education services are permitted and paid for by general taxation. In addition it is felt that certain other industries can operate more efficiently under central government control than under private enterprise. Examples of such nationalization are coal mining and the industries concerned with the production and distribution of gas and electricity. It is quite possible to denationalize an industry under our form of government. The iron and steel industry and part of our transport system were for example, returned to private enterprise because their operation proved to be less successful under government control. It is absolutely essential that a balance should be struck on the number and content of the services provided to ensure that the individual who puts extra effort into his work is adequately rewarded. This is not a feature of the Communist system. In Britain, Government policy is determined by members of the House of Commons, appointed by general adult election. A person of any political view may serve in our Parliament if he can command the electoral support of the majority of people within a particular area. Under practical Communism the same distinction is usually achieved by force and other similar means.

To make the fight against Communism our major goal in life is a very negative policy. We must aid and educate the undeveloped nations of the world and leave them capable of making their own choice. If we believe in what we stand for, a constructive positive approach will win the day and the truth will eventually dawn on the people of Soviet Russia.

I was led to expect that I should find the tempo of life in the United States much faster than in my own country. The larger cities may indeed be subject to a "rat race," but I am glad to see that most citizens of Tahoka have about as much respect for the clock as I have. The wonderful collection of gadgets found in American homes is in particular responsible for the production of more spare time. It is a good thing to have time to "stand and stare." We should all be capable of putting this to good use—to relax, to help others, and to reflect more on the problems of our day to day life.

It has been a special privilege to worship with you in a number of churches of your community. To learn what members of different denominations believe and how they worship is a method I recommend for re-examination of one's own religious beliefs. I personally believe that although we should seek unity of Christian doctrines, everyone should be free to worship God in the way he finds most stimulating and rewarding.

My time has run out. Goodbye and thank you Tahoka, friendly town of Big West Texas. I shall never forget the generous hospitality you offered me.

Farm Facts

An annual crop of 200,000 tons of raisins is produced in this country. This, according to the California Raisin Advisory Board, accounts for half the world's supply.

The industry, upon which some 100,000 persons depend for their livelihood, is located in the San Joaquin Valley of California. This is the only spot on this continent where the exacting requirements for growing raisins—a rainless summer, consistently sunny skies and hot, but not too hot, weather—are met. It is one of the few spots in the world so blessed.

The raisin vineyards, most of them growing the Thompson seedless grapes from which dark, or natural, raisins are made, are located entirely within a 75-mile radius of Fresno.

Late frost, early rain, or excessively hot weather can ruin a raisin crop. The raisin farmer gets the jitters around the first of September. He must leave the grapes on the vine long enough to sugar well; yet, if he is too late in putting them down to dry, the fall rains may catch him and ruin the crop on the ground.

Polk Robison Rotary Speaker

"I believe stronger than ever that a physical fitness program in our schools is of prime importance," stated Athletic Director Polk Robison of Texas Tech in a talk at Tahoka Rotary Club Thursday noon.

Robison outlined objectives of the sports program in building men. At Texas Tech, he said athletics are the "show window of the institution, but actually the principal concern is education and the making of men. The public is primarily interested in football and basketball, but the other five sports in the physical fitness program are given attention and the welfare of the individual boy is of first concern."

Today, he said, a boy has to be smart to play football, and colleges are seeking the top boys scholastically as well as having athletic ability. Football is a deep study today, and when the present crop of Tech athletes reported recently for football work-outs, they had been studying three football manuals all summer.

Polk thinks the reason so many have been falling out in football practice the last few years from heat prostration is the fact that they are not as well conditioned for hard outdoor work in hot weather as in the past. He thinks living, sleeping and working in air-conditioned quarters, riding in air-conditioned cars has caused their bodies not to be ready for the strenuous exercise in a blazing sun.

He thinks Tech will have an improved and interesting team this fall. He predicted the opening game with West Texas State will be very interesting, and declared "Pistol Pete" Pedro of West Texas, national scoring leader last year, is the greatest runner one is likely ever to see on a gridiron. In fact, he said Blair Cherry, former Texas U. coach, told him "Pete" is the only player he ever saw in a class with Jack Crain, the famed Texas runner.

Texas Tech basketball can not be as good as last year's championship team, but he says it will be interesting to watch.

The program was arranged by Chas. (Buddy) Bragg, who introduced the speaker.

Texas is nation's No. 1 producer of chemicals from oil and natural gas.

Texas royalty owners received $435 million from oil and gas production in 1961.

Warning Given On Defoliant Use

An appeal to producers of cotton on the South Plains has been made by Adolph Hanslik, president of the Lubbock Cotton Exchange, because of the growing importance to cotton character and fiber fineness to the spinners and users of raw cotton.

Farmers are asked to exercise caution, for their own benefit, in the use of defoliants and desiccants prior to harvest this fall. Hanslik said that most of the Central Texas crop has suffered from lack of moisture and is therefore poor character cotton. Because of this, the cotton textile mills will be in need of cotton of good character. He urges producers in this area to use caution in the use of chemicals that might affect cotton quality. Before desiccants are applied, Experiment Station tests show that cotton should be at least 60 percent open under dryland conditions and 80 percent open in irrigated fields. It has been suggested that before producers use desiccants that they ask themselves if they are ready for a killing freeze tomorrow.

According to the Lubbock Cotton Exchange, immature fibers last year cost area growers several million dollars and states, "we can't afford to damage a crop that shows promise of good character (high micronaire) with the premature use of defoliants and desiccants."

Holland is planning a massive campaign to attract American tourists.

Mrs. Bland Draper Heads Girl Scouts

Mrs. Bland Draper was installed as neighborhood chairman of the local Brownies and Girl Scouts at a neighborhood meeting held here Monday.

She succeeds Mrs. Charles McClellan. Brownie and Girl Scout troops will continue in Tahoka this year, Mrs. Draper said, although a leader has not been secured for the seventh grade troop. One new troop has been added in the Brownie program, for second grade girls of which Mrs. McClellan will be the leader.

Other troops and their leaders include third grade, Mrs. Macky Turner; fourth grade, Mrs. Mary Rowe; fifth grade, Mrs. Polly Gibson; sixth grade, Mrs. Laquita Leveritt; eighth grade, Mrs. Rosemary Moffitt.

A fly-up ceremony for the fifth grade troop was being held here Thursday. Today the seventh grade troop will meet at the Scout Hut with Mrs. Draper, who has served as leader, and all mothers are urged to attend.

A fund drive for Girl Scouts is scheduled to begin this fall with Charles Bragg heading the campaign. The quota will be about 10 percent above that of last year, or near $1,000.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Kidwell accompanied their daughter Karen back to the University of Texas last week end.

Ladies Attending State H. D. Meeting

The Texas Home Demonstration Association held its 36th annual meeting at the Baker Hotel in Dallas, September 19 and 20. Delegates attending from Lynn County were THDA Chairman, Mrs. Charles Louder, Mrs. W. C. Maekker, and Mrs. Guion Cobb. Others attending were Mrs. Wilmer Smith and Mrs. J. H. Lambright.

Mrs. Florence W. Low, assistant director for home economics with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service at the A&M College of Texas, and president of the American Home Economics Association, was the keynote speaker for the program. She used the association's theme, "Facing the Challenge of Today's Tasks," as her subject. She was introduced by John E. Hutchison, director of the Extension Service.

Emphasis at the meeting also was placed on workshops, with delegates taking part in actual demonstrations, forums and discussions that could be shared with families back home.

An election of officers—who will serve two-year terms—and the adoption of a program of work for 1962-63 was among other highlights of the annual meeting.

Featured speakers for the two-day meeting also were Dr. Earle Williams, Dallas dentist and civic leader; the Rev. Hubert Foust, pastor of First Baptist Church of Graham, and Patty Porter, a state and national 4-H Club winner in public speaking and other subject matter fields.

Workshop sessions on 4-H, citizenship and civil defense were held the first day, and sessions the final day covered recreation, family life, and health and safety.

QUESTIONS, PLEASE

WHAT IS THE CHURCH? the church (Eph. 1:22, 23; 2:16; Col. 3:15; 1:8). This could only mean that to be in the church is that realm of spiritual blessings called "in Christ."

The church is the fullness of God (Eph. 1:23). But Paul also affirmed that in Christ dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily (Col. 2:9). "Godhead" is translated from Greek "theotetos" which means "deity." But "Godhead" was derived from Anglo-Saxon "godhood" or "goodhood," the state or quality of being good. All the goodness of Divinity or God is in Christ and in His church. The church is that realm of spiritual blessings into which heaven has poured all the goodness that man needs.

If one could be saved out of the church that we read about in the New Testament, he could be saved without the fullness or blessings of God. When we use the word "church" in the sense that it is used in the New Testament we cannot refer to a man-made denomination. If a person who does not understand what the church of the Bible is should dismiss from his mind the thought of there being any kind of church in the world and then concentrate upon what the Word of God says about the church he could clearly perceive what the church of the Lord is.

The Ephesians and the Colossians whom Paul addressed in the New Testament, he were "in Christ" (Eph. 1:1; 2:13; Col. 1:2). They were in fullness or blessings of God.

You are invited to send your questions to: Don Browning Box 812, Tahoka, Texas. You are also invited to attend the services of the Church of Christ.

Don Browning may be heard Sunday mornings at 11:00 and evenings at 7:00 at 750 on your radio dial.

Life Expectancy of Lynn County People Has Jumped to 70.2 Years

New York — For the average person living in Lynn County today, the span of life is measurably greater than it was 10 years ago.

A child born to local parents at the present time has the likelihood of living 20 years longer than he would have, were he born then. His life expectancy now is 70.2 years.

A person just emerging from his teens, who had the prospect, formerly, of reaching age 71.3, can now look forward to living to 72.8, or 1.5 years extra.

One who is 45 years of age now, will live to age 74.7, having picked up a full year on his counterpart of ten years ago.

The figures, which are based on a report of the Public Health Service and on current life tables, are average ones, covering both sexes. Actually, it is noted, women are living six years longer than men.

The bonus years have been made possible by the achievements of medical science, by improvements in sanitation and by better living standards generally.

The gains have been greater in some areas than in others. They depend upon local medical facilities, health conditions and other environmental factors.

Age is also a factor. In Lynn County, according to the latest survey, the median age of the population is 24.6 years, compared with 29.5 years for the nation as a whole.

At the local median age, the average extension of life in the last ten years is 1.4 years per person.

This average gain, applied across the board to all local residents, amounts to 15,280 years, which is the added lifetime expectancy to which the present population may look forward.

Americans of all ages and in all parts of the country are living longer than people did formerly. Last year, for the first time, the number who reached the 85-year mark passed one million. This is now the fastest growing age group in the nation.

Medical research gives promise of a still further lengthening of the life span during the next few decades. A breakthrough in the control of diseases of the blood vessels would make a big difference.

Brown's Mother Dies Sunday

Mrs. Nancy S. Brown, 89 year old mother of Urban Brown, died at the home of a daughter in Plainview Sunday, Sept. 9. Funeral services were held on Tuesday of last week at 2:00 p. m. in the Samnorwood Baptist Church near Wellington with Rev. J. B. North, pastor, officiating.

Lutheran Hour Starts Sunday

Initially aired by a 32-station network, The Lutheran Hour begins its 30th broadcast season Sunday, Sept. 23, over 1,200 stations which virtually blanket the United States and bring the program's message into 120 lands around the world.

Head locally at 12:30 Sundays on station KCBT — 1590, "The Lutheran Hour ranks as the world's largest non-government radio operation.

Dr. Oswald Hoffman, starting his eighth year as Lutheran Hour speaker, will address the worldwide audience on the topic "Faith for the Space Age."

An estimated 15,000 persons will attend a Lutheran Hour Rally in Fort Wayne's Memorial Auditorium commemorating the 30th season opening. Dr. Hoffman will be the speaker.

Founded on May 31, 1930, at the Lutheran Laymen's League convention in Chicago, the first Lutheran Hour broadcast originated from WHK, Cleveland, at 10 p. m. (EST) on Thursday, Oct. 2, 1930.

Within a few months The Lutheran Hour was receiving letters from listeners at the rate of 2,500 a week. Soon more than 13,000 gold crosses, the lapel pin which has become closely identified with the program, had been mailed in answer to listener's requests.

Response to broadcasts continues to mount. To date more than 6,000,000 gold crosses have been distributed, and the worldwide radio mission now receives approximately 650,000 pieces of mail annually.

Cost of the initial broadcasts was approximately $5,000 a week. In contrast, today's global operations of The Lutheran Hour require almost $2,000,000 — nearly $5,500 every day of the year. An estimated 400,000 individuals plus thousands of congregations and other groups annually support the work of Bringing Christ to the Nations with their voluntary contributions.

Guy LeMond Tells of Early History Of Draw And Southeast Lynn County

Draw community had its first school in 1907, states J. E. (Guy) LeMond of Snyder, who was inspired to tell The News a little history of the southeast part of Lynn county as a result of Mrs. Earl (Mattie Dyer) Morris' recent article.

The J. N. LeMond family had just settled in Lynn, coming up here from the Rabbit Country (Coke county) in 1907. Mr. LeMond having bought a section of land at Draw.

Several others came to Draw about that time, and the settlers got together and built a one-room school building, in which union Sunday School and church services were held on Sunday. The Methodist Church was organized that same year, and Redwine Baptist Church was formed.

First School
Mr. Duckworth was the first school teacher, and Charles Nunnally, who died recently down in Borden county, was the second teacher. Guy says there were possibly thirty students enrolled the first year.

Mrs. John Berry, a very liberal and public-spirited lady, donated the land for the first school, first church, and first cemetery.

At this time, Tahoka was just a small village. Lubbock had only about 1,500 people, and there was no O'Donnell, Wilson, Post, or Slaton.

Most of the land was in grass, and farmers were just beginning to break out small fields. Antelope still roamed the area, sometimes in large herds.

Cemetery Started
Mr. LeMond recalls that the first death in the community after they arrived was the Givens boy. He was the first buried in Draw Cemetery, and Guy was sent to Tahoka for posts to build a fence around the burial plot. He says those same posts are still standing around the present Draw Cemetery.

Mail was received by Star route about twice a week. The nearest railroad was the T&P at Big Spring and Colorado City, and Lubbock had no rail line. The freight and mail line ran from Big Spring to Gail, Draw, Grassland, Tahoka, and Lubbock. People of the community, including his dad, frequently hauled freight and supplies up from Big Spring.

Dispute Over Road
Mr. LeMond, Guy's father, was one of the early day county commissioners, serving along with J. H. Milwee, a pioneer of the New Home area. He recalls that there were many complaints about the difficulty in getting across the muddy lake bed just east of Tahoka. The Court finally decided to build a dump across this lake, which cost maybe $2,000, and then some citizens raised quite a "stink" about this improvement.

Among the early day families of Draw and the southeast part of the county were W. A. Waller, J. D. Crawford, J. W. Givins, T. J. Williams, Ed Brewer, Harve Henderson, Bob Traweek, the Redwines, Lit Moore, and a little further away the Tredways, Suits, Eiters, Streets, Schoolers, J. B. Miles, A. R. Kimbrell, John and Jim Parker, Ed Baldrige, the Luttrells, A. R. McGonagill, Rains, Beaches, Burdetts, Currys, and a lot of others he couldn't recall instantly.

Strangers Welcome
In those days the latch string was always out for strangers and there were no locks. If a traveler needed a place to stay and the people were not at home, the stranger was expected to make himself at home, and leave a note but no money. Meat was hanging on the mill or in the smoke house.

Guy recalls that they had a literary society out at Draw school which nearly everyone attended. He got to courting Miss Mollie Calaway, and her dad, the late H. W. Calaway, would "deal them fits" at the society meetings kidding them.

"When one of my younger brothers was born," Mr. LeMond says, "Bro. Waller and wife and Father waited on Mother, as I had gone to phone (the nearest phone was five miles away) for Dr. Hannabas at Gail at 4:00 a. m. It was sleeting and hailing, and the Doctor got to our place around 12 o'clock driving an old Reo car, chain drive, and then there was snow on the ground."

Tragic Accident
A tragic accident of the area was the death of Walter White, first husband of the present Mrs. R. W. Lewis of Tahoka. The couple, married a year or two before, lived on a section of land they had bought below Draw in Borden county. There was an old hand-dug well on the place, but not much water. Mr. White decided to drill another well beside this one and tunnel over to it from the hand-dug well, hoping to get more water.

Mr. White went down in the well by ladder too soon after a dynamite blast had been set off, became faint from "damp" and was climbing out when he evidently fainted and fell 60 feet to the bottom of the hole. A 17-year-old nephew helping him ran for help, and a neighbor, Bob Hurley, went down in the hole, tied a rope around Mr. White and he and other neighbors pulled him out. The couple's son, born in 1907, died in 1920.

After the railroad came in 1910, a lady from back east was en route on the train to West Texas to inspect some Lynn county land she owned. She had never been to the West, and people on the train told her wild stories about the dough cowboys who they said "might shoot up the train when it got to Tahoka." The lady drank the stories in, and wired the Sheriff at Tahoka to meet her at the train.

First Rural Carriers
Guy says D. A. Parkhurst was the first rural route carrier out of Tahoka. Mr. LeMond was the second, and carried the mail on Route A, now Route 2. J. B. Walker was then postmaster.

LeMond started carrying the mail here in 1920, later moved to Snyder, where he has lived the last 34 years. He retired on November 1, 1950. He said the Snyder oil boom "got him." After the boom hit, he had as many as 1,000 families on his route at Snyder, 125 families getting their mail at the last six homes.

However, the "oil boom" was good to Mr. LeMond, as oil on his farm made him financially independent. Mrs. LeMond passed away in November, 1957.

Two of the children of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. N. LeMond still live here, Mrs. A. Z. Sewell of Draw and Roy LeMond of Grassland. Grady lives at Lovington and Tom at Austin.

Guy is proud of his three daughters, and says all of them are college graduates and are happily married. Mrs. E. W. Babb Jr., whose husband is an architect, lives in Midland; Mrs. Weldon Kincaid, whose husband is a salesman, also lives in Midland; and Mrs. Chas. M. Betts, whose husband is a wealthy retired business man, lives in Santa Fe, N. M.

St. Paul Lutheran Sponsors Devotional

"Day by Day With Jesus" is the title of the five-minute devotion being sponsored Mondays through Fridays by the St. Paul Lutheran Church in Wilson over Radio Station KCAS in Slaton.

Junior Teams Defeat Frenship

Tahoka seventh and eighth grade Bulldogs rolled over the Frenship Tigers here Tuesday night for their second wins of the season, the seventh graders taking a 18-0 victory and the eighth graders winning 30-16.

The teams will travel to Slaton next Tuesday night for games beginning at 6:00 p. m.

Milt Fitts' seventh graders held the Tigers scoreless while Fullback Cliff Thomas scampered 55 yards for the first touchdown and went over the line for the second. John Tyler ran across for a conversion and two extra points. Two more points were picked up when Quarterback Chris Roberts tackled a Frenship player behind the goal line for a safety. Playing outstanding defensively were Center Gary Brooks, Tackle Charles Isbell, and Wingback Doyle Schneider.

The eighth graders, coached by Dave Easterday, controlled their game and had no trouble handing a defeat to the visitors. Quarterback Mitchell Williams scored two touchdowns and a conversion, Halfback Raymond Chapa went across the goal line for two touchdowns and a conversion, and Fullback Charles Dotson was successful in scoring a conversion. The offensive line blocked very good during the game and Charles Dotson and Guard Mike Chandler were impressive on defense.

The team was undefeated last year as a seventh grade ball club and looks as if it will be handing out misery to its opponents this year. The seventh graders of 1962-'63 also seemed determined to keep their record clean and have started their season in good form.

Help keep Tahoka clean.

The revivals will be preceded by five area-wide crusades in major metropolitan areas in Japan, with television and radio expected to take the Gospel message into nearly every Japanese home in the nation.

About 300 Baptist laymen and musicians will be named to participate in the effort within the next few months by the Japan Crusade committee.

Dr. K. Owen White, chairman of the committee and pastor of the First Baptist Church of Houston, said the crusade is one of the greatest campaigns in the history of Christianity.

Evangelist Billy Graham will be one of the major speakers in the five area-wide crusades.

Campaigns in the 145 Japanese cities will be held during a one-month period, with about 40 revivals each week. The teams of American evangelists will be in Japan for about two or three weeks.

The Far East Broadcasting Company in Manila has agreed to broadcast crusade sermons in nine languages throughout Asia, including major portions of Russia and Red China.

Evangelist Graham recently said concerning the crusade, "I doubt there is a greater spiritual need in the world than in modern Japan. After the war, we took away their faith in the emperor, but as yet we have not been able to replace it with another faith."

"There is an emptiness, frustration and spiritual vacuum in Japan that is frightening," said

Dr. Graham. "If Japan goes Communist," he said, "I do not believe the United States could resist the economic pressures without international revolution." The Baptist New Life Movement is jointly sponsored by the Baptist General Convention of Texas, the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board, and the Japan Baptist Convention.

Bulldogs Tie Crosbyton 6-6

Tahoka Bulldogs and the Crosbyton Chiefs battled to a 6-6 stalemate here Friday night before a large crowd of Tahoka's first home game.

The game was just about as close as the score and statistics indicate, although Tahoka early in the game moved to the Crosbyton 10, moved to the visitors 16 at the half, and late in the game put on another scoring threat that moved to the 10 yard line. Except on the Chiefs' lone scoring drive, the fighting Bulldogs never allowed the visitors inside the Tahoka 34-yard line, which point they reached twice. The first half was scoreless, Tahoka scored in the third period and Crosbyton early in the fourth.

Boys Improve

Tahoka fans were heartened by the hard running of Fullback Andy Bray, who carried for a total of 90 yards, an average of 4.5 yards a carry; Tony Spruiell, recently converted to quarterback, to help Jose Cervantes; the pass snatching of Craig Leslie and Billy Clinton; dangerous running of Steve Greer, Billy Miller, and Adolph Chapa; and stout defensive play of Cervantes, Leslie, Clinton, Jack Woods, Spruiell, Gary Grogan, Harlan Curry, Birger Ollrogge, Larry Jolly, Dickie Davis, Macky Joe McWhirter, Johnny Rogers, and others.

For Crosbyton, Fullback Calvin Brints was the big gun, carrying the ball 16 times for 94 yards total; HB C. P. Roberts, and QB Travis Surza. But, for the visitors, End Jodie Ogle was a thorn in the side of the Bulldogs all night, and other defensive standouts were End Chuck Perkins and Tackle Mike Moore. Coach Deane Wright, former Tahoka assistant, has a fine ball club at Crosbyton.

Tahoka received the opening kick-off, moved to the 44 but failed to make a first, Bray kicked short to the Chief 42. Brints got (Continued on Back Page, Sec 2)

O'Donnell Takes Ralls 26 to 20

O'Donnell Eagles of District 5-A, who journey to Wilson tonight for a battle with the Wilson Mustangs of District 3-B, managed a 26-20 victory Friday night at Ralls against the stubborn Jackrabbits.

The Eagles had lost their opener in the mud 14 to 6 at Crosbyton the week before.

O'Donnell scored first at Ralls in the first quarter when Speedy HB Fernando Lopez ran a Ralls punt back 50 yards for six points. The conversion failed.

There was no more scoring until the third quarter, when Ralls put over a score to tie the ball game with FB Elvin Verett plunging for the last three yards. However, the Eagles bounced right back on a scoring drive with QB Fen Taylor scoring on a keeper. In the fourth, Lopez scored again on an 8-yard run around end to make it 18-6.

But, the wild fourth quarter had just started. Ralls scored quickly on a 39-yard pass play QB Jim Parks to HB James Jester to make it 18-12, and the next time the Jackrabbits had the ball they scored again. Verett going five

O'Donnell Is At Wilson Tonight

Wilson Mustangs take on another tough assignment this Friday night at home with their south-country brothers, the O'Donnell Eagles of Class 5-A.

The 1961 3-B champion Mustangs again met defeat last Friday 34 to 12 loss at Amherst of 2-B. Amherst took the Mustangs 29 to 0 last year, but Wilson went on to win its district before losing to Anton 20-14 in bi-district play. Coach Travis Rector hopes his Wild Horses, however, may come along gradually correcting mistakes and take the crown again this season.

Actually, fans say, the Amherst game was closer than the score indicates. HB Gary Pigg scored first for Amherst on a 54-yard run. Wilson came right back to tie it up 6-6 on a drive ending with a 15-yard pass QB Don Webb to End Charles Walton. Then, Wilson took a 12-6 lead on a 20-yard pass play Webb to Walton. Amherst took a 13-12 lead in the second quarter, and the score held with the Mustangs unable to punch across the goal until the fourth quarter, when Amherst broke loose for three TDs. Pigg ran 20 yards for one, QB Bobby Hedges ran 52 yards for another, and late in the game Pigg intercepted a Wilson pass and raced 65 yards for the final score. Several Wilson boys showed up well and gave much promise, but Charles Walton, all-district last year, was a stand-out.

Capital expenditures by the Texas chemical industry totaled $719 million (23 percent of U. S. total) in 1961, the major part of which represented expenditures in the petrochemical field.

Texas drilling in 1961 totaled about 66 million feet of hole.

Texas' 58 refineries processed 799 million barrels of crude oil in 1961, an amount equal to 85 percent of state crude production.

Texas has 66,000 miles of oil pipelines—36,600 miles of trunk lines, and 29,400 miles of gathering lines.

Tahoka seventh and eighth grade football teams started the season off with a bang here Saturday morning by defeating the Plains teams.

The eighth grade team, coached by Dave Easterday, was undefeated last year and took a 20-6 victory in the opener. The seventh graders, coached by Milt Fitts, in their first encounter on the gridiron, rolled up a 14-0 score.

Quarterback Mitchell Williams scored two touchdowns for the eighth graders, and a pass to End Milton Miller accounted for another. Following the first touchdown, Charles Dodson ran across the two extra points. Defensive standouts were Tackle Milton Edwards and End Mike Chandler.

With only 13 boys on the seventh grade squad, the local play-plains. Halfback John Tyler hit pay dirt the first time Tahoka had the ball and later Quarterback Chris Roberts went over the goal line to score. Cliff Thomas carried the ball across for two more points. Gary Brooks and Gary Gunnels were outstanding defensive players.

O'Donnell had time left for one more score, though, and FB Rex Graves scored from eight yards out, and Lopez ran over the conversion for the 26-20 win.

The Eagles had 175 yards rushing and 61 passing, while the Jackrabbits ran the ball 139 yards and passed for 55.

Printer's Ink-lings . . .

By F. P. H.

Mrs. J. V. Huddleston, 85 this coming January, one of the last of the pioneer Grassland settlers we've known for about 38 years, is not one to sit around and whine during old age. She manages to keep busy. A daughter reports that this summer, as soon as Mrs. Huddleston got through with the house work and the yard work, she has gone to the field and hoed Jeff's cotton. She's an amazing lady.

We guess everyone who knows her, loves and admires Mrs. S. R. Kemp, another of our elderly ladies who will be 87 next month.

Although a little "infirm and crippled-up", she still takes her daily walk when she can, is still interested in life and people, and waves a friendly "hello" to all passers-by.

Mrs. W. A. (Hattie) Yates was 94 years of age Monday, and she still rides to town almost daily with her daughters. Mrs. Tom Hale or Mrs. John Fulford, parks at the curb and visits with old friends who pass by. She loves people, and people love her. When we first came to Tahoka, we remember Mrs. Yates and her late husband lived 15 miles from town, but many times they would be in town to visit friends by the time The Printer came to work in the morning. Mrs. Yates told us Friday she had remained "young" by hard work and keeping on the go.

We'd like to be able to maintain the good nature, optimism, and interest in life and friends these ladies have when we reach their ages—but we're afraid the candle will burn out long before that time comes.

We've enjoyed having Karl Prohl, a major in public relations at North Texas State University, with us the past month getting some practical experience on a newspaper. Karl has a fine personality, is unhappy if he doesn't have something to do, and we predict he will go a long way in his chosen field.

Some say the rugged individualists of pioneering days are about all gone. Not quite. There's Roy Stephens, for instance. We get a big kick out of visiting with Roy. You don't have to ask him a second time what he thinks on any given subject, and whether you agree with him or not makes little difference. We need more people with Roy's frankness who have definite convictions of their own.

To say the least, the recent press report issued by the State Board of Education inferring accreditation was about to be taken away from Tahoka, O'Donnell, and other schools was ill-timed and misleading. The high and mighty State Board based its release on an inspection made a year ago at the peak of the harvest season, did not take into consideration most of the recommendations it made months ago had already been complied with, complained of picky-minor things, and put local schools in a bad light, probably purposely. Probably, this is the State Board's first volley in building up the groundwork to force integration.

Anyway, this is just another example of the reason we don't like big government. We give up individual and community freedoms to raise standards. Then, big government starts dictating what your standards must be, starts making mountains out of molehills, starts saying, "do this or that—or else."

We accept federal aid for vocational training, and then the Federal government starts telling the local school districts a vocational teacher can not be required to keep a study hall, or help with other school activities such as other teachers have to do to keep a school program running smoothly—even though they draw higher salaries than some other teachers who work just as diligently.

We give the Secretary of Agriculture an inch and he takes a mile, and soon we have no freedom in the operation of individual farms, although no two farms can operate exactly alike to utilize to best financial advantage on a over-all program dictated for the whole nation. First thing we know, here comes the Secretary handing down an ultimatum, with permission of Congress, that you either vote for this feed grain program or I'll dump surplus grain on the market and depress the price.

Going further afield, we find Federal bureaus making laws never passed on by Congress, making them stick by publication in the Federal Registry; we find the Supreme Court getting into the field of law-making by stretching the interpretation, or flat abuse, of intentions of our Constitution; we find our President trying to go over the head of Congress, calling on blocs of voters to put pressure on Congress; we find our State Department, Congress, and bureaus aiding Communist nations directly or indirectly, spending our money for foreign aid with no consent from the people they represent. It will be a sad day when we have federal aid for education, for soon there will be no federal aid without dictation and politicians, however worthy their purpose, will be in charge of the minds of our children. The best government, we believe, comes from the grassroots—but that day is long gone unless we stand up on our hind legs and write our opinions to those who represent us in government. Sometime, we wonder if we have lost our guts to have convictions of our own, to stand for them, to fight for them—but just sit idly by and lose all our freedoms.

A publication, Petroleum Engineer, says: "Do you realize that—of over 2,500,000 U. S. bureaucrats, only five are answerable to the voter at the polls: the President, Vice President, two Senators, and one Representative. People are being governed by bureaucrats whom they never see, who they will never vote for, whom they cannot recall with their vote, and who are not responsible to the people for their actions."

Pardon us for bragging about kinfolks, but we think one of the greatest men we ever knew is our uncle, Dr. Joe A. Hill, president-emeritus of West Texas State, with whom we lived five years. Anyway, Uncle Joe at 84 years of age is still up and at 'em. Though retired, he writes a weekly newspaper column, travels a lot, fills some speaking engagements, and in between writes books. He is working on a couple of books now, and in between them he has come out with a delightful little book entitled, "I Hold the Key, or My Success Depends on Me," which he calls "a booklet of inspiration for all who dream dreams," containing quotations from some of his speeches and quotations from others. We don't think we'll get sued for violation of copyright laws, but we intend to run some of the quotations here over a period of time.

Mae says this one applies to The Printer: "Some people are easily entertained. All you have to do is sit and listen to them."

Unhappiness is in not knowing what we want and killing ourselves to get it.—Don Harold.

Judge C. A. Clem tells of a justice up in Wyoming who had his own special reason for seeking re-election. Stated the Cowboy state JP: "My sole purpose for running is that I'm on a strict diet and the salary of the office will keep me there."

Someone sent this in: "Roosevelt proved we can have one for life; Truman, that just anybody can get the office; Eisenhower, that we don't need one very badly; and Kennedy, that it's dangerous to have one."

Sign in an office: "If you could kick the person responsible for most of your troubles, you wouldn't be able to sit down for six months."

Money may talk for some, but the only thing it says to us is "goodbye."

A young co-ed was asked by a professor why she had selected the college she did. "Well," she said, "I come here to get went with, but I ain't yet."

Man against the sky

The telephone lineman is another active symbol of service at General Telephone. He climbs a pole with spur-like "climbers" strapped to feet and legs, and is silhouetted against the sky held firmly by his safety belt. With the tools hanging from his belt he installs new wires and cables, and repairs lines when storms, wind and ice damage them. He is one of many folks at General Telephone who suggest the convenience of another telephone in your home, now that the busy Fall season is here. They save steps, are available in many colors, cost pennies a day. Call the Business Office now.

Tough new '68 Chevrolet Trucks are here!

...THE ONES THAT WHIPPED THE BAJA RUN...TOUGHEST UNDER THE SUN...
TO SHOW THE WORTH OF NEW ENGINES, FRAMES AND SUSPENSIONS!

Sometimes the caravan crept along for hours in low gear. It took 17 days to go 1,066 miles! This is the road near Loreto.

Millions of years ago nature fashioned a proving ground for trucks that man can never duplicate. Today it is known as the Baja (bah' hah) California Peninsula, Mexico. These pictures give you only a bare idea of the place. The road is fine for 140 miles below the U.S. border. Then the beating begins. Rocks and hard-baked ruts bang, jab and jerk the trucks from stem to stern. Loose sand makes them struggle and strain. Dust chokes them. Heat roasts them. Rivers drench them. The Baja Run took this Chevrolet truck caravan 17 days to go the 1,066 miles. All the trucks performed magnificently. Not one was forced to drop out because of mechanical difficulty. Trucks that can take this kind of beating can take on your toughest truck jobs. Come in now and see tough quality-built '68 Chevrolet trucks with all their new improvements.

Tie Game ...

in a 13-yard run and one for eight in moving to the Tahoka 34, and after Roberts lost two, punted over the Tahoka goal line.

Tahoka Threatens

Greer and Bray moved the ball only nine yards in three plays, and Bray punted 29 yards to the Chief 42. Back to pass, Sursa lost nine when he fumbled and recovered, then the Chiefs punted 29 yards to Miller on the Tahoka 42.

On the second play, Bray threw a long one down field which End Billy Clinton hauled in and was stopped 37 yards away on the Crosbyton 18. Tahoka had a break when a Chief jumped offside placing the ball on their 13 yard line. On the next play, on a keeper, QB Tony Spruiell scooted to the Chief 5, but Tahoka was offside and that put the ball back on the 18. Greer made one, and then Bray bulled his way down to the one-yard line, but both teams were offside. Crosbyton again was offside. Greer lost one, gained one, Miller made three, and Bray made only a yard on fourth down and the ball went over at the Crosbyton 10, ending Tahoka's first good scoring opportunity.

On the first play, Brints got away on a 24 yard gallop, and the Chiefs rolled up three first downs in moving to the Tahoka 46, where the Bulldogs held and the Chiefs punted 22 yards to the Tahoka 24. Greer, Bray, Chapa and Spruiell alternated in carrying upfield to the opponents 43, Spruiell hit Chapa with a 7-yard pass, but Tahoka's drive was stopped on a fumbled pitchout an 8-yard loss, and Bray again kicked over the goal line.

The visitors made one first, then as Leslie put a jarring tackle on a Chief ball carrier Spruiell recovered his first of two Chief fumbles on the Chief 30-yard line. Cervantes tossed a 9-yard pass to Leslie, two more were incomplete, then Cervantes made a first on the Crosbyton 18. With just seconds remaining, Leslie was back to try a field goal, the ball was blocked, but Bray picked it up and ran to the 16 as time ran out.

Second Half

Following fine halftime performances by Crosbyton and Tahoka bands, Tahoka kicked off, Crosbyton made one first down, and then a fumble by Sursa was covered by Spruiell on the Chiefs' 45. The Bulldogs were now off on their lone scoring drive with new determination.

Greer made four yards, Bray 15 in three tries, Greer another five, Bray nine, and then Tahoka drew an offside penalty. A pass to Clinton was incomplete, but Spruiell then hit Leslie for 9-yards, Bray and Miller moved to the 12-yard line in three plays, and on fourth down and needing three yards Spruiell carried six yards to the six. Greer put the ball in scoring position on the one, and Spruiell sneaked the ball over the goal line. The attempted conversion running resulted in a fumbled ball. Score Tahoka 6, Crosbyton 0.

Crosbyton Scores

Not to be denied, the Chiefs took charge, Ogle brought the kickoff to his 39, Roberts ran for 15 through the middle, and three plays later, Sursa passed 10 yards to Roberts, and two more plays moved to the Tahoka 29. Here, Harlan Curry received a leg injury, Tahoka failed to call time out and got charged a five-yard penalty for too many men on the field. Roberts made nine yards in two carries, and early in the fourth Brints made seven to Tahoka's eight yard line, Tahoka was offside and drew half the distance to the goal, four yards.

The Bulldog defense looked vicious as Sursa was thrown for a three yard loss, then a two yard loss back to the nine, but then the Bulldogs were caught asleep as Sursa dropped back to pass, spotted Ogle wide open in the end zone and flipped the ball to him for a touchdown. Brints missed the place-kick conversion, and the score was 6-6.

Bulldogs Threaten Again

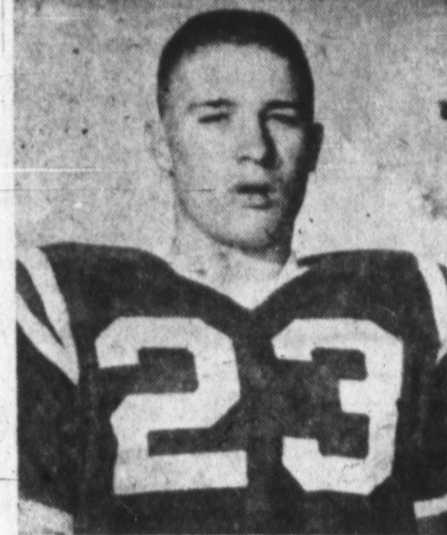

Miller brought the kick-off to the 28, and then the Bulldogs moved across midfield with the help of a 7-yard pass Bray to Greer, but on fourth down and two to go, the ball went over on the Crosbyton 42 when Tahoka fumbled.

Crosbyton started another drive that moved to the Tahoka 34, but here Clinton intercepted a Sursa pass on the 29 and ran it to the Chief 47. Bray made seven yards and the Bulldogs seemed to have the Chiefs demoralized momentarily, but on the next play Bray's pass was intercepted on the Chief 23 by Rickey Edwards. The Chiefs made nine yards on three plays, but fumbled on fourth down and Spruiell again covered on the Chief 32 to give Tahoka still another scoring chance, although time was nearly out.

Greer hit right guard for seven yards, then Spruiell made 10, Crosbyton drew a five yard penalty to put Tahoka on the Chiefs' 10 yard line, but on the final play Spruiell lost two on an attempted pass play to end the ball game.

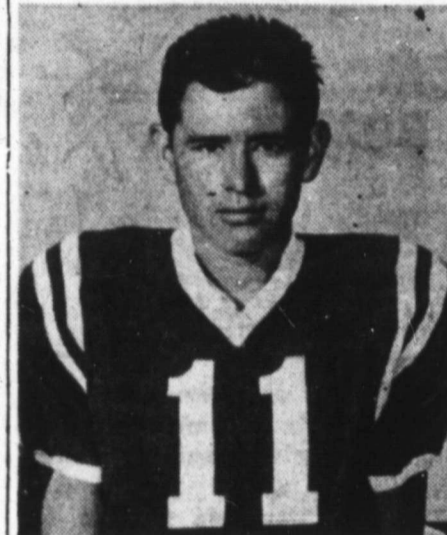

Coaches Gilbert Hough, Dave Easterday, and Milt Pitts had reason to be proud of the battle put up by their boys, several of them freshmen, who are improving with each game. If they can keep up the never-say-die spirit, the Bulldogs are due to win some more ball games this season.

About 30 percent of Texas, or more than 50 million acres, is under lease for oil and gas exploration.

Texas had 119 trillion cubic feet of natural gas reserves at end of 1961 (44.8 percent of U. S.).

Texas has 201,952 producing wells in 7,294 fields.

New Home Leopards were entertaining the O'Donnell B team Thursday night to fill an open date in the schedule, and will have an open date next week end.

Friday night, the Leopards opened the season with their usual hard luck, not only losing to Whit harrel 40 to 0 but losing one of the top boys. On the very first play of the game, John Lynn Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Edwards and a key senior man on the squad, broke his wrist in somewhat of a freak accident when he fell on it. He was replaced by a 120-pound freshman, Randy Un-fred.

Although the new coach, Paul Kitchens from Mississippi State, faces a pretty rough season this year with only two seniors now left on the squad, he declared last week that the boys are eager and willing and prospects for the future are much brighter. On his young squad he has five juniors, two sophomores, and 10 freshmen.
