Mrs. House was born Feb. 14, 1886, in Madison county, Ark., and was married in 1914 at Seymour to Burl B. House. ### Cain Presents Predictions For '63

Alton Cain gave his annual talk on predictions of things to come in the new year at Tahoka Rotary Club Thursday, a talk which has become an institution with the local club and to which members look forward.

He made his first "predictions" talk 13 years ago, and the club has requested another each year since.

This year he used the subject, "That Wonderful Year of 1963" and most of his talk was presented as though the year 1963 was some time in the past.

Covering a wide range of subject matter, mixed with humor, tongue-in-cheek stories, philosophy, and take-offs, Cain pokes a little fun at nearly everything from club members to politicians, economics to home-life, young folks and old folks, and the club members greatly enjoy his presentations.

He said 1963 was the only year when Lynn county harvested two crops, one in January and one in the fall.

Dale Thuren, program chairman in the absence of Mack Mauldin, dished out some humorous stories himself in introducing the speaker.

President Calloway Huffaker announced that the incoming district governor, Jim Wilson Jr. of Floydada, had appointed Dr. Brandon Hull of Lubbock as deputy district governor, and the latter will hold a club assembly for Tahoka and other clubs this coming year.

Dr. K. R. Durham, chairman of a committee to raise funds for a new piano for the City-Legion building, said other organizations who use the building are invited to make contributions to the piano fund.

School superintendents Leroy Scott of Wilson, J. L. Miller of New Home, and John Criner of

Reddell Finds Old Newspaper, Recalls World War I Days

In going through some old papers a few days ago, W. A. (Bill) Reddell, local rural mail carrier, found a copy of a little newspaper, "The Hatchett," published daily aboard the steamship George Washington, this issue being dated April 28, 1919.

Finding the paper recalled to his mind World War I. Bill had been in France eight months with the 426th Motor Supply Train, Co. 537, hauling supplies to the front and hauling, at times, bodies back. Following signing of the Armistice on Nov. 11, 1918, his outfit remained over there a longer time, but Bill broke his arm and got to come home aboard the George Washington, which was bringing home 6,000 troops and also was carrying Secretary of War Baker. In fact, President Woodrow Wilson was scheduled to ride the ship from Brest, France, back home but for some reason failed to be aboard. The little paper had a message from President Wilson to the editor and to the men aboard.

News of the day included the revelation that Italy had withdrawn from the Peace Conference with shouts of "Down with the Americans," in spite of the fact the U. S. had furnished them foodstuffs and was preparing to extend that country $50 million in credit.

Movies aboard ship for the soldiers included Tom Mix in "Hell-Boarin' Reform" and Bryant Washburn in "The Poor Boob." Mr. Reddell expects to retire from the Postal Service on March 1 with 42 years and three months service, not including a year in the Army.

Donkeys are the only mode of transportation in Clevely (Devon, England) high street.

O'Donnell were guests of County Superintendent J. P. Hewlett.

That's right! The completely restyled Valiant is now priced to start lower than both Falcon and Corvair. In fact, nine of the ten other compacts on the market today have higher starting prices than Valiant. For proof, see the Manufacturers' Suggested Retail Prices for the lowest priced models. See this new Valiant, examine all its fine features, and relate them to the low starting prices. You'll say Valiant is the best all-around compact that anybody has come up with yet!

last week, who says "keep up the good work"; a kindly greeting from Mrs. Tom Smith, 2424 1st in Lubbock, our old Redwine friends; and Mrs. Wm. A. (Eckie) Nevill of San Pedro, Calif., "we really enjoy the Lynn Co. each week."

John Toler gave us a copy of Butane News containing the following:

"The U. S. Chamber of Commerce campaign for economy in government has uncovered some horrible examples of imprudent federal spending, to-wit:

"In 1961, the U. S. sent Cambodia $24 million in foreign aid. The Cambodians promptly used $12 million of this money to buy U. S. Gold.

Foreign aid funds were used in Kenya to buy extra wives for Kenyan government officials.

The Census Bureau proposes to conduct a survey of "consumer buying intentions." This type of survey is already being performed by private firms. The Census Bureau project would put the government in direct competition with these tax-paying enterprises.

"We've become a nation of 'go-alongers.' We voters 'go-along' with our party, platform, and elected officials. Our representatives 'go-along' with the Congress and Legislature; 'go-along' with the questionable decisions of politically-minded and appointed Supreme Court members rendering decisions that carry the power of Congress to make laws; 'go-along' with power-hungry bureaucrats, also usurping legislative powers; 'go-along' with the Administration on questionable policies; 'go-along' with an Attorney General operating outside the authority of his office; 'go-along' with unnecessary spending programs; 'go-along' with an inept State Department. Most Lynn county people we talk to are tired of our elected representatives 'go-alonging.'"

It's a tough world for the American businessman. Every time he comes up with something new, the Russians invent it a week later and the Japanese make it cheaper.—Santa Fe Magazine.

Why we need the Liberty Amendment!

President Kennedy is either an irresponsible man or doesn't give a hoot what he does with the National economy. Does his fiscal proposals make sense to you? ... lowering taxes $13.5 billion dollars and at the same time increasing deficit spending to $11.9 billion for the year 1964 and bringing our national debt to $315.9 billion next year.

An unusual coincidence was the fact that Mrs. O. J. Jackson was buried 10 years to a day from that of Mr. Jackson.

Joe D. Unfred, distributing the new Gifford-Hill-Western calendars, points out that Lynn county again has a farm featured on the interesting and informative calendar. The picture, a beautiful one, shows "plowing time on the Plains" on the E. R. Blakney farm north of New Home.

J. L. Suits in Petersburg Journal: The belief that the Government can simultaneously spend more money, collect less in taxes, and reduce the national debt is "way out"—about as far out as that of the American Indian who thought he could lengthen a blanket by cutting one end off and sewing it to the other end.

Wilton Payne had this in the Rotary "Stemwinder": A taxpayer is one that doesn't have to pass a civil service examination to work for the government . . . and this one: Question: A man fell out of a tenth story window but was barely scratched. Why? Answer: He was wearing a light fall suit.

This would be a better world if all of us would apply the Rotary "Four-Way Test" to all our dealings with our fellowman: "1. Is it the TRUTH? 2. Is it FAIR to all concerned? 3. Will it build GOOD-WILL and FELLOWSHIP? 4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?"

We had a hard time keeping warm in the house during the recent zero weather. But, 35 Boy Scouts and leaders from Plains, Texas, went to Ruidoso on an outing to enjoy sledding and other snow sports. Friday night, they camped out in pup tents and sleeping bags in Cedar Creek camp ground in the snow, and the temperature dropped to 33 degrees below zero. However, the boys moved to the Youth Center to sleep indoors Saturday night. Maybe our youth of today are more hardy than we sometimes think.

Reminds us of this story: One cold, windy morning a neighbor saw an old man, clad only in his nightshirt, chopping wood. The amazed neighbor, putting on his boots, mittens and heavy clothing, ploughed through the snow to the old man and asked, "Why are you out here in the cold dressed like that?" Without missing a lick the old man replied, "For the last 75 years I've dressed by the fire, and I'll be da-gummed if I'm going to change at my age."

Alton Cain used the following in his talk at the Rotary Club on "That Wonderful Year of 1963" which we thought pretty good:

We cannot bring about prosperity by discouraging thrift.

We cannot strengthen the weak by weakening the strong.

We cannot help the poor by destroying the rich.

We cannot help the wage earner by pulling down the wage payer.

We cannot further the brotherhood of man by encouraging class hatred.

We cannot help small men by tearing down big men.

We cannot establish sound security on borrowed money.

We cannot keep out of trouble by spending more than we earn.

We cannot build character and courage by taking away man's initiative and independence.

We cannot help men permanently by doing for them what they could and should do for themselves.

CARD OF THANKS
May God bless each of you who were so kind and nice to us during our sorrow, for the flowers, food, cards and many comforting acts and words of sympathy expressed. Your thoughtfulness at such a time will always be remembered and treasured.—The family of Mrs. O. J. Jackson. 1tc

Dear Editor:

I do not always agree with what you say, but I defend unto the death your right to say it. I respect you for having convictions—for standing up for them. We need more people fighting for our freedoms, defending democracy, trying to stem the tide of socialistic government.

So, when some young whipper-snapper writes such abuse, just remember that there are a lot of solid citizens who are behind you. Keep up the good work. We like your paper.

We need some men in congress who will represent us instead of the give-away boys.

Reader. (Name withheld on request.)

Editor, The News:

I used to be a Democrat and proud of it. Cussed Hoover and even Benson.

But what is the Democratic party now? The party of the NAACP (Negroes), the ADA and other Northern socialists, the Labor unions, the One-Worlders and do-gooders, the Jews, Mexicans, Wops, the Southerners who bury their heads in the sand, and the boys from Halliwhald. I have nothing against Negroes, foreigners or Jews personally, either.

Some others have had their say. This is mine.

Millions of "city" jobs depend on farming.

Another 10 million work at transporting, processing, storing and selling farm products.

It is estimated that 4 out of 10 jobs in private employment are related to agriculture.

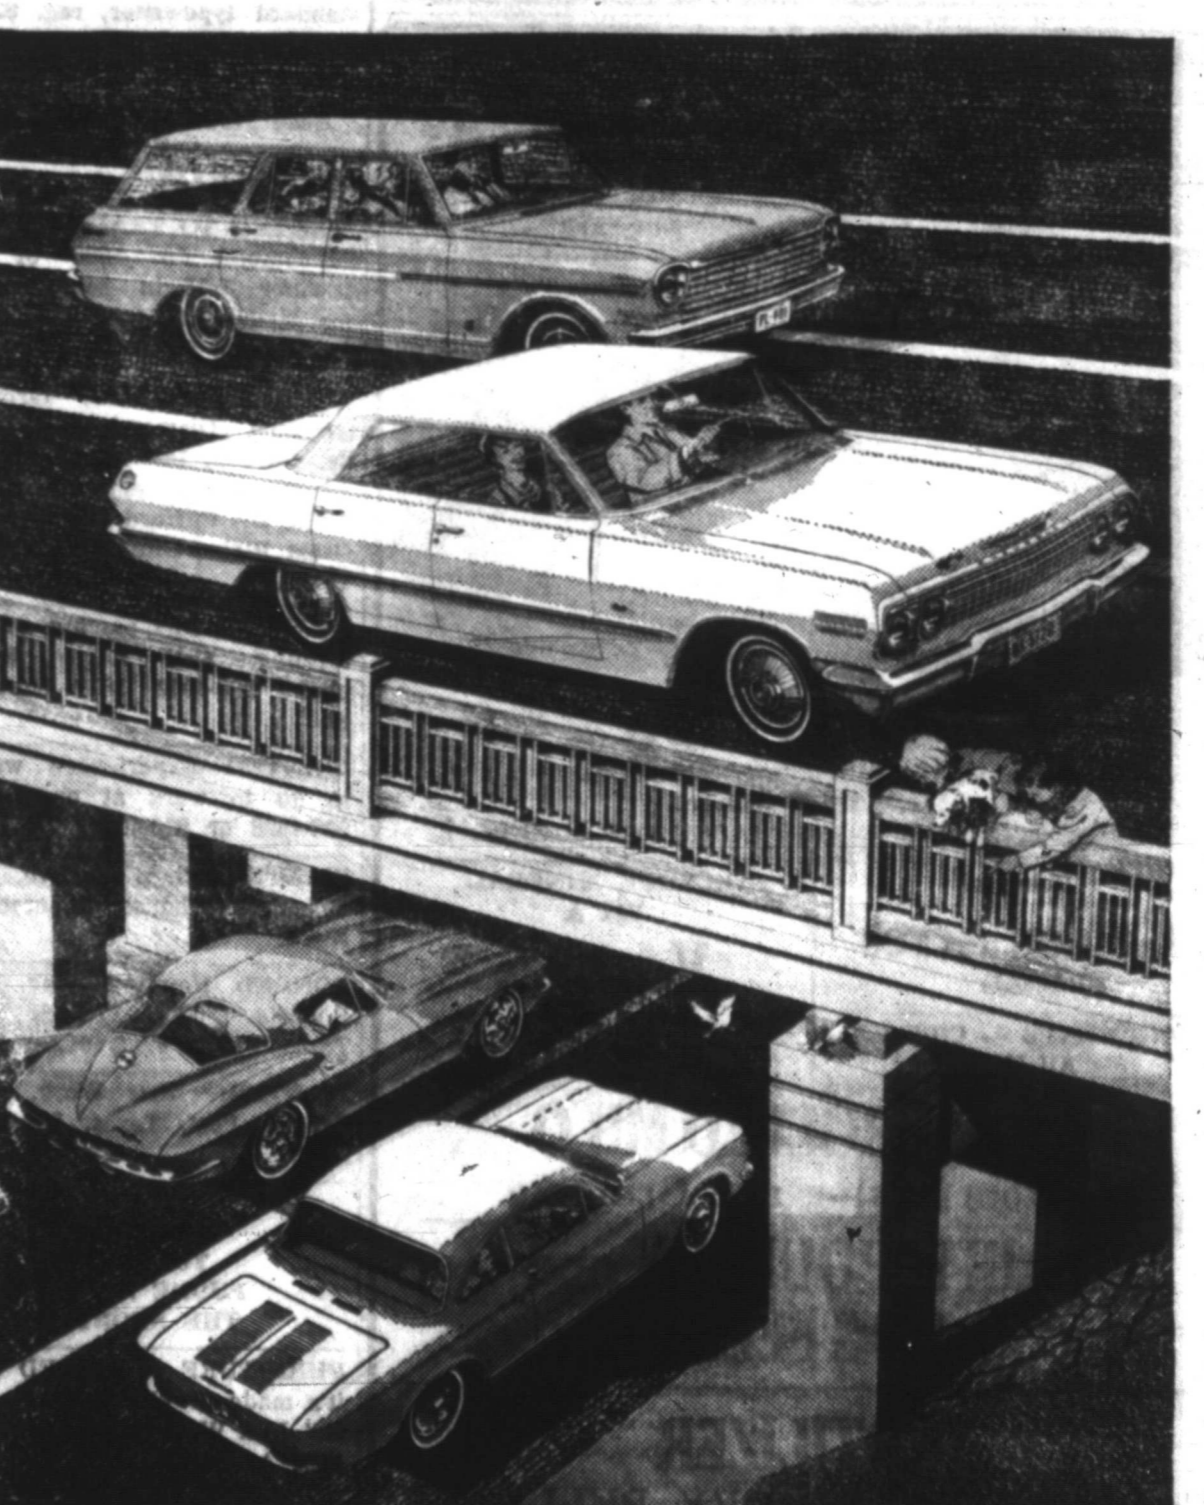

Across the nation it would be hard to find a more important customer than American agriculture.

Farm Facts

In a good year, the corn crop totals about 4 billion bushels or more. About 88% of it is fed to hogs, beef cattle, and poultry.

There are literally hundreds of uses for the remaining 15% of the corn crop. The "dry milling" industry, for instance, makes corn meal, hominy, and breakfast foods of many kinds.

Feed manufacturers take a lot of this 15% of the corn crop and put it into concentrated rations for livestock and poultry. Distillers turn their share into alcohol.

Corn refiners grind about 180 million bushels of corn a year and make starch, syrup, sugar, oil, and feeds.

Starch is one of the most important by-products of corn. According to the Corn Industries Research Foundation, about 8% of the average year's output of corn starch goes to U.S. consumers for food and laundry use.

Papermaking consumes about 23 pounds of corn starch per ton. Processing of a bale of cotton into textiles accounts for an average use of 35 pounds. Starch also is used in foundry molds, "oil well mud," asbestos board, cosmetics, insect powders, soaps, cleaners, match heads, and aspirin.

LUBBOCK LADIES VISIT SOUTH PLAINS BOYS RANCH

Mrs. C. E. Dickson and Mrs. Betty Torrance, former citizens of Tahoka, a Mrs. Gunn and Mrs. Lowe, all representing a Lubbock sewing club, visited South Plains Boys Ranch at Tahoka Tuesday and brought a quilt as a gift.

Their visit was for the purpose of inspecting the ranch and to determine needs so they could send other gifts.

The ladies also visited Mrs. H. B. Howell while here. Mr. Dickson was formerly in the insurance business here and the late Mr. Torrance operated a service station here, both back in the 1920s.

Kind words never die—they just become victims of ingratitude.

Mrs. Wilmer Smith At H. D. Meeting

Home Demonstration Club members in all areas of Texas will now be in a position to further strengthen their educational work in traffic safety as the result of a national workshop on leadership in traffic safety.

Attending the Conference January 8-10 at the University of Georgia was Mrs. Wilmer Smith of New Home. Mrs. Smith is the National Treasurer of the Home Demonstration Council.

Mrs. Smith pointed out that members of the Home Demonstration Clubs have emphasized traffic safety for a number of years and said this Conference was designed to consider the family's role in helping to solve one of the most urgent problems facing the nation today—the growing toll of personal injuries and property damage from traffic accidents.

Co-sponsors for the Conference were the National Home Demonstration Council, the University of Georgia and the Allstate Foundation.

Cited by Mrs. Smith was the fact that we need more training on traffic safety through national, state, and local conferences.

In general sessions and special discussion groups, the delegates studied emotional factors in traffic safety, family support and use of driver education programs, legal aspects of traffic safety and gaining public support for safety programs.

Mrs. Smith reported that representatives from all 50 State Home Demonstration Councils and Puerto Rico attended the workshop. Speakers included home economists, doctors, psychologists, public safety experts, traffic training leaders and officers of the National Home Demonstration Council.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Finney of Santa Anna, Calif. arrived here Monday night for a visit with his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. Edmund Finney.

Miss Linda Kay Roper Is Married Saturday To Tommy Stell In Ceremony At Slaton

In a double ring ceremony Saturday at 7:00 p. m., Miss Linda Kay Roper became the bride of Tommy David Stell in the Church of Christ in Slaton. Clive Drake of Gordon read the marriage vows. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Claud Roper of route 2, Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. David Stell of route 1, Slaton.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of white silk-faced tulle taffeta fashioned with a portrait neckline, long tapered sleeves coming to petal points over the wrists, and a fitted bodice. The sheath front skirt was accentuated by deep pleats at the sides and gathered fullness at back. Embroidered Alencon lace trimmed the neckline, sleeves and sides of the skirt, which fell into a full chapel train. The back was enhanced by two hand-made self-fabric cabbage roses and tiny self-fabric buttons that extended below the waist line. From her crown of pearls and aurora borealis crystals flowed a three-tiered bouffant veil of English silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of a white orchid and white roses with satin streamers atop a white Bible.

Miss Nelda Roper of Lubbock, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Matron of honor was Mrs. Elwyn Pierce of Post and bridesmaids were Miss Kay Stell, sister of the bridegroom of Wilson, Mrs. Billy Weaver of Wilson and Mrs. Dean Daniel of Lubbock. Miss Beverly Rackler, cousin of the bride, of Southland was junior bridesmaid. The attendants wore street length dresses of Christmas red peau de soie brocade, fashioned with hasque bodice, elbow length sleeves, shallow bateau neck, and wrapped bell skirts. Their head dresses were red cabbage roses, handmade in self-fabric, topped by circular veils of illusion. Each carried a long stem pink rose and wore short white kid gloves. The junior bridesmaid wore a dress similar to the others, but made of silk taffeta.

Serving as best man was Lynn Culp of Petersburg. Groomsmen were Claude Roper, Jr. of Wolf-orth, brother of the bride, Bobby Porter of Afton, Buddy Melton of Afton and Dean Daniel of Lubbock. Ushers included Eddie Williams of Slaton, Claude Roper, Jr., Buddy Melton, and J. B. Rackler, Jr., a junior usher of Southland.

Miss Sue Cobb of Athens, Ala. and Miss Sandra Wiggins of Roswell, N. M. lighted the candles. Wedding music was provided by the chorus of the Broadway Church of Christ in Lubbock with Horace Coffman as soloist.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Slaton Club House. Assisting with hostesses were Miss Lenora Harvey, Miss Brenda Dabbs and Miss Sharon McGehee. Also in the houseparty were Miss Pat Standfer, and Mrs. J. B. Rackler, Herman Dabbs, Robert Lee Hagler, and Johnny Gilliam. Mrs. Daisy Breedlove played piano selections during the reception.

For a wedding trip to Durango, Colo. and other points in Colorado and New Mexico, the bride chose a geranium red two-piece suit of basketweave wool, white mink trimmed hat and black and white accessories. She wore a white

Government Survey Shows County Has Low Assessment On Property

(Special to The News)
New York—For the first time since 1957, the Government has made a full-scale survey of property tax values in Lynn County and in other areas throughout the country.

It was undertaken by the Census Bureau in connection with its 1962 Census of Governments. As a result, data is now available on the 67,449,000 pieces of real and personal property that are carried on local tax rolls in the United States.

In Lynn County, it shows, the gross value of local property came to $10,956,000, as compared with the total on the books in 1957, $9,729,000. Deducing the portion that was tax-exempt locally, the net amount was $10,875,000.

This constituted the tax base upon which local tax rates were applied, but it was not the full market value of the property involved. Normally, property is assessed for tax purposes at far below its actual value.

The local assessment roll, which was the basis for tax payments due in 1962, consisted of real property in the sum of $8,583,000 and personal property of $2,292,000.

The survey shows that the property tax continues to be the major source of local government financing, accounting for nearly 90 percent of all revenue at the level.

It lists $367 billion in property available for taxation by local agencies. Not included in this to-

Alton Cain Has Been In Tahoka Half Of County's 60-Year History

This March 3, Alton Cain is celebrating his fifth year in business for himself, 30 years in Tahoka in the hardware and furniture trade of which 25 was with D. W. Gagnat.

He says he woke up to the fact a few days ago that he had been here half the time since the county was organized in the spring of 1903.

The firm was originally established by the late H. M. McCormacks in 1916, when they moved here from Maryneal, erected the block of buildings, and dealt in dry goods, groceries, and hardware and implements.

Mr. Gagnat came into the firm in 1924 when he married Viola, and after managing the hardware and furniture business for a time he and his wife became the owners. He expanded the business to include John Deere implements, selling the implement business to Gilmore & Jaquess.

Cain bought the firm from Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Gagnat on March 3, 1958, when this couple decided to retire from business.

Alton was born at Clarendon, where his late father was office manager for the Charles Goodnight ranching interests.

His parents moved to Canyon and Alton graduated from Canyon

Farm Facts

Kentucky statesman Henry Clay imported the first Hereford to America in 1817. In 1840, the first breeding herd of Whitesides was established near Albany, N. Y.

The Hereford line began with a white-faced cow named Silver in the county of Herefordshire, England. Silver was given to Benjamin Tomkins at the time of his father's death.

Several years later, one of Silver's sons was bred to two cows, Pigeon and Mottle. From this union the Hereford breed emerged in 1742.

The Hereford fame for easy fleshing and early maturity spread to the United States where cattlemen were looking for a best animal that would rustle for itself on America's plains, hills, and mountains.

In the hard winters of 1885-86, the Hereford became known because of its ability to withstand such weather and survive to replenish the Declined herd of the North and Southwest.

According to the American Hereford Association, Herefords, or cattle carrying Hereford blood, provide more than 75% of our beef supply.

Mrs. Nevill Writes From California

Mrs. Wm. A. (Pauline) Nevill writes The News from San Pedro, Calif., that she recently talked to Mrs. Glenn (Fay) Boydston in Las Almitos, Calif., who told her the elderly Mr. and Mrs. Boydston are in bad health. Most of the Boydston children live in Southern California.

Mrs. Nevill for a number of years sent The News to Mrs. Bettie Terry at Bonham as a Christmas present, but Mrs. Terry passed away last July. Pauline says Mrs. Terry always worried if her paper was even one day late.

All five supervisors from the district attended the annual convention of the Texas Association of Soil Conservation Districts in Lubbock, according to E. R. Blakney, chairman of the board for Lynn County SCD.

The supervisors heard talks by Marion Monk, president of the National Association of Soil Conservation Districts; J. D. Wells, president of the Texas Association; and H. N. Smith, State Conservation Soil Conservation Service, in addition to attending various business meetings.

Even though there appears to be a lot of cold weather yet to come, it is not too early to plant grass. If grass is seeded now it should be seeded in a cover of cotton burrs, or thick bermudagrass stubble. This protects the seed from being blown or washed out. Early rains can be taken advantage of.

WASHINGTON SLEPT HERE

(Nation's Business)
When the founders of Maryland sailed up the Potomac in 1634, Father Andrew White wrote: "This is the sweetest and greatest river I have ever seen. It abounds with delicate springs which are our best drinks."

Our first President found the river equally pleasing. He made his home beside it, and used his overwhelming influence to get a divided Congress to locate the nation's capital on the river.

But the Potomac is different up.

Signs on the shores at Mount Vernon warn sightseers to beware of the polluted water.

Senator Wayne Morse describes the Potomac as "the dirtiest, filthiest river of its size in the world."

That's how Washington takes care of its own problems. Want it to take care of your city?

Why Jaycees... And What They're Doing

In observance of Jaycee Week, Tahoka Jaycees present the following to acquaint the public with what the organization is and what it is doing:

A task force of energetic and civic-spirited young men is at work in your community. Here, as in 4,000 other communities, the Junior Chamber of Commerce prompts young men to an active role in the affairs of your city, state and nation.

You might have first noticed the Jaycees because of their work in such activities as painting parking stripes on city streets, or it could have been through their efforts to decorate the town for Christmas. But regardless of the project, you noticed that energy and enthusiasm, backed by Jaycee manpower, are a hard combination to beat.

Because the Jaycees tackle projects with their own members furnishing the ideas, labor and follow-through, each Jaycee dips into areas of knowledge and experience gained through his occupation or profession. Whether it's heading up a fund-raising drive for the Boys Ranch or handling publicity for a safety campaign, the Jaycee is broadening his experience and gaining leadership of management training.

You benefit from this training in addition to the visible civic improvements forged by the Jaycee task force.

The pool of talent is available to your community for appointive or elective positions—men hardened by the fire of projects with scope and purpose, men with public speaking ability polished by constant debate for community causes, men with unlimited pride in your community.

So, draw freely upon these young men between the ages of 21 to 35. Take notice of their vitality and enthusiasm—then arrive at your own conclusions about their goals of self-improvement and civic progress. If you agree with these responsible citizens, and you're proud of a continuing heritage, back the Junior Chamber of Commerce through work, deed and action. Help them to help your community.

Cotton Increase May Be Possible

Lubbock—As a result of a complete overhauling of zones by the Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service State Committee the High Plains has a good possibility of receiving a sizable increase in bonus acres in 1963 through release and re-apportionment on the basis of past records. Area cotton authorities have estimated that the "bonus" could be 100,000 or more acres for distribution within the 23 counties serviced by the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. This would help offset the 244,983 lost this year in the base allotments as they now stand.

A law which went into effect in 1960 permits farmers to release unplanted cotton acres to their county ASC committees and retain "history" for future allotments on their own farms. The county committee then re-distributes the released acres to farmers who have made application and who farm within the county in which the acres were released. If enough requests for additional acres have not been filled in the county office to absorb all the acres released within the county, the excess acres go to the state committee to be re-distributed in other counties within the zone in which the acreage was freed.

Since the state received its allotment based on the history of the individual farms within the state, when farmers follow this practice of releasing unplanted acres he retains history for the state as well as his own farm. Conversely, if farmers simply do not plant their full allotments and refuse to release the unplanted acres, both the individuals and the state lose history for allotments in future years. Since cotton is the state's top cash crop, these losses adversely affect the economy of the entire state.

Up to this year Texas was divided into five zones for purposes of release and re-apportionment, and this, to some extent, restricted the free flow of unused cotton acres over the state. Under the new arrangement there are only two zones. The High Plains is included in Zone II which covers, approximately, the north two-thirds of the state.

A survey of the acres now included in Zone II shows that in 1962 there were 182,173 acres released to the state ASC for re-apportionment within the present zone boundaries. Since the High Plains is always on the demand side, requesting more acres, and released acres come from other acres within the new zone, the estimate that the High Plains can get one-half, and possibly more, of these released acres is considered to be very realistic.

Indications are that there will be as many acres up for re-apportionment within the area of Zone II in 1963 as there were in 1962, even with the reduction in base allotments. As a result of an intensive educational campaign emphasizing the importance to the entire state, and to individuals, in fully utilizing the cotton allotments in the state, there were 19,843 more acres released for re-apportionment in 1962 than in 1961, even though there was a 2 to 3 percent cut in allotments in 1962.

The 23 counties served by PGC received 40,000 bonus acres in re-apportionment during 1962 and 23,500 acres in 1961.

To be eligible to receive any of the bonus acres, individual farmers must make application to their county ASC committees before the deadline of March 4th. It is important that area farmers remember this deadline date and make application early. Released acres will be re-apportioned on March 25. Additional acres received through the release and re-apportionment program do not figure in the history of the farm receiving seed acres.

feats of strength. Later he worked in grain elevators, picked cotton and did general construction work. When Dan entered Texas Military Institute at San Antonio at 12, he weighed 200 pounds and was six feet tall. He was the giant lineman on the O'Donnell football team.

"My main juvenile pastime was fighting," Dan says. "They called me 'The Big'n', and the citizens of O'Donnell roped off a part of Main Street every Saturday night and pitted all the local toughs against me."

"The Big'n" says he never lost a fight, although he was fighting 19 and 20-year-olds when only 13. Finally, the little Saturday night get-togethers fizzled out for lack of competition.

After a semester at Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, Dan went to Sul Ross State at Alpine, in 1947, on a football scholarship. He weighed 275 pounds and stood six feet four. He was only 17 years old and still growing. He wore a 58-long suit coat and size 14 1/2 shoes.

"My dad used to say," Dan chuckles, "that I was the onliest man in Texas that wears a No. 14-plus shoe and a size 3 hat. He also said that I was too big to ride and too little to hitch to a wagon—no good for a damned thing."

While majoring in physical education and playing football, Dan was approached for a non-speaking part in a college production of "Arsenic and Old Lace." It called for someone strong enough to carry the bodies out of the basement.

The experience changed his life, and Dan set out on an acting career. He changed college majors, and graduated in 1950 with a BA in drama and a first minor in physical education. He turned down a pro-football offer and played summer stock at Brattle Hall Theatre in Boston, Mass. From there he went into the Broadway production of "King Lear."

Following outbreak of the Korean war, he was drafted in 1950 and sent overseas, becoming a first sergeant with the 45th Oklahoma Division.

Upon discharge in 1952, he returned home to marry his college sweetheart, Dolphia Parker, on August 25. He returned to Sul Ross to work on his master's degree, dropped out a year to teach high school in Sonora, Texas, and returned for his MA in drama and English. Following graduation he taught public schools in Carlsbad, New Mexico, at $2,900 a year, from 1954-56.

He went to Los Angeles in 1956 to work towards his Ph. D. at UCLA. got a feature role in an episode of "Gunsmoke" and "made more money in four days in this business than I did in a month of teaching."

Consequently, he resigned from teaching and moved to California, where he lives at Northridge with his wife, twin girls and two boys (Debra Lee and Danna Lynn, both 9; David Douglas, 7; Dennis Dirk 5).

Although "Boss" is a giant, his wife is only five-feet-three. She was born in Oklahoma, on a ranch where her family raised quarter horses. Dan is too heavy for a quarter horse. He rides a Morgan on Bonanza. Of his horse, he says "It's the only horse on TV with fallen arches."

Dan rose rapidly in his new profession and played significant roles in major TV shows and several feature pictures. Last season, he made his singing debut on "Perry Como's Kraft Music Hall" and also appeared on "The Bob Newhart Show" and with "Henry Fonda and the Family."

The Texas Press Association, on behalf of its 76 member dailies and 432 weeklies, has presented "Top Texan" awards on two previous occasions. In 1961 the honor went to Paul Richards of baseball fame, a native of Waxahachie, who at the time was manager of the top-ranking Baltimore Orioles. Last year the "Texan of the Year" award went to Van Cliburn, world renowned pianist from Kilgore, Texas.

Selection of the "Texan of the Year" is made from nominations by Texas editors and publishers. Nominees must be well known Texans, outside of the field of politics, now residing beyond the borders of the state, but bringing fame to the state by outstanding accomplishments in their chosen fields of endeavor.
