Cotton Crop In '62 Totaled 160,301

Late revised figures of the U. S. Bureau of Census, received by The News last week end, give Lynn county's 1962 total ginnings as 160,301 bales of cotton, compared to 175,678 in the previous year, 1961.

As a result, Lynn's 1962 crop ranked sixth on the High Plains, eighth in Texas, and 16th in the nation. Lubbock county led the state in cotton production with 296,148 bales ginned in 1962, compared to 280,554 in 1961. Lubbock's production was sixth in the nation, being exceeded only by three large irrigated counties in California and two in Arizona. Kern county, California, led the nation with 525,447 bales.

Crosby county barely nosed out Lynn for sixth place on the Plains, but Lynn far outstripped both Dawson and Terry counties. Only two counties in down-state off the Plains, exceeded Lynn's production and were among the highest cotton producers.

Following are the revised figures for South Plains counties:

County	1962	1961
Lubbock	296,148	280,554

C of C. Meeting Plans For Year

Turner Rogers, new Chamber of Commerce president, held his first board meeting Wednesday night, when plans were discussed for continuing work on several projects and several new projects were discussed.

Rogers reported six new members had been signed by the C of C. in the past two weeks.

Cherry Norman of Grassland was endorsed as the body's candidate for queen in the Tahoka Rodeo in May.

Mrs. Retha Dunn, secretary, reported on expenses of the recent County Livestock Show and the Farmer-Businessman banquet.

Other projects discussed included securing of an additional doctor for Tahoka, another state roadside park north of town on land set aside for such, location for a State Highway Department warehouse, securing at least two historical markers, moving the "lomo" hall, the anti-solicitation program, and others.

Several letters and calls of thanks from FFA and 4-H club members receiving prizes and bonuses in the recent stock show were acknowledged.

Week's Showers Are Some Help

Showers ranging from a sprinkle up to three or four inches last Saturday and Sunday fell over much of Lynn county, and this Thursday morning an east wind and cloudy skies were arousing hopes for more rain.

Rains last week end were very spotty, but possibly half or more of the county received sufficient moisture to help. Heaviest fall was northwest of Tahoka, between town and Dixie and Crossroads, where a very heavy shower ranged from an inch and a half to three inches or more and put water in several lakes.

Grassland, Redwine, and much of the Draw community, all on the east-southeast, received little rain. Also, to the west and northwest, at West Point, Petty, Lakeview, and New Home the rain was light. Most of the remainder of the county received from a half to two inches.

New Lynn and Wilson areas received an inch to two inches, as did much of the south and southwest part of the county. Rainfall in Tahoka officially measured .70 inch, bringing the year's total to 1.46 inches, and the total for the last five months to 2.64 inches.

A cool front moved in Wednesday, and Thursday morning prospects seemed good for more rain. Most of the county has been broken this year, and soaking rains will be needed for planting crops. Sub-soil moisture from last October's rains remains remarkably good some farmers report.

Former Citizens Killed In Wreck

Tahoka Hospital has received word that Jim Cain, former technician here, his wife, and at least two of the couple's three children were killed in an airplane crash in central Mexico about the middle of September.

The information was not known here until another member of the family wrote the hospital for records in which to file the Cain family income tax. The letter referred to a living child, giving reason to believe only two children were killed.

Cain was technician here for some time, leaving here last summer. His family, however, lived in Lubbock while he was employed at Tahoka Hospital.

Further details of the tragedy were not learned.

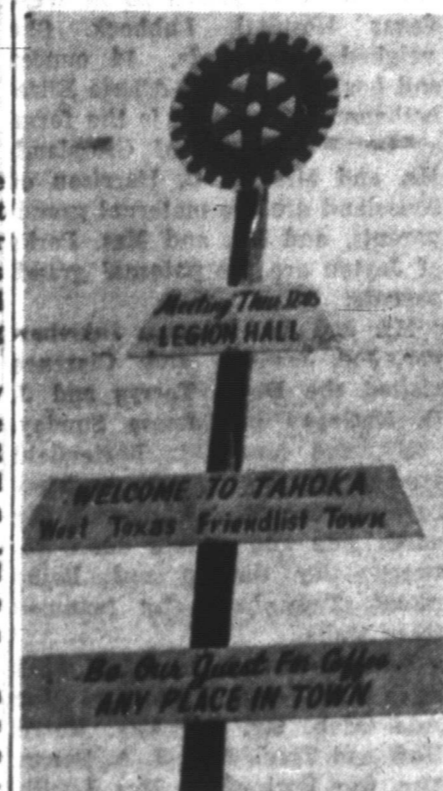

R. C. Wells underwent major surgery in John Sealy Hospital, Galveston, Monday morning and is reported to be in serious condition. After undergoing treatment there he will return to his home in Lubbock.

Tuberculosis Tests Offered Free To People Of County

Lynn county people are being offered free tests for tuberculosis, similar to the recent Salk polio program, in the county court house here on April 16, 17, and 18 from 8:00 to 9:00 p. m. through sponsorship of Tahoka Jaycees, school nurses, and State health authorities.

The very latest Heas-gun tuberculin test, used in local schools the past three years, will be given to all free of charge. Persons having positive reactions will not necessarily have TB, but for further checking will be given X-ray tests free of charge when the State Mobile Unit comes here at a later date.

All adults and children of the county should take the tests, not just for their own protection but due to the fact that they may be carriers and transmitting the disease to others, states Mrs. Lillian McCord, local school nurse.

Shown above is a picture of one of Tahoka Rotary Club's road signs put up in its efforts to promote this as a friendly town. A mis-spelled word on the sign struck C. Edmund Finney as being funny, and he took the above picture. The word misspelled is "friendliest." Finney, with tongue in cheek, asks if this means "friend-less" or "friendliest"?

Church of Christ Starts Meeting

April 7th marks the opening day of an eight day Gospel meeting beginning at the Church of Christ. According to Don Brown, minister, the series of lessons will be conducted by Bob Barnes of Sheridan, Wyoming.

Probably everyone recalls that Mr. Barnes was the local minister here for the church before his accepting the ministry work in Sheridan two years ago. Everyone will enjoy seeing Bob again and being able to hear him preach the Gospel of Christ.

Services will be conducted daily at 10:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. during the week. On Sundays the time will be 10:00 a. m. for Bible School and 11:00 a. m. for worship, and in the evening the services will be at 7:00 p. m. Congregational singing will be enjoyed by all those who are present.

"We feel that it is a privilege to be able to invite each of you to attend this meeting and to be able to share the Gospel of Christ with you," states Browning. "Please come and be our guest. A warm welcome awaits you."

Mrs. M. T. Wyatt entered Tahoka Hospital Monday as a medical patient and was dismissed on Wednesday.

School Trustee Contests In All Lynn County Districts

Garden Club Renewing Drive On "Litterbugs" In Tahoka

Tahoka Garden Club is renewing efforts on its year-old Litterbug program, organized last spring by the organization when receptacles were placed in down town Tahoka by various organizations.

In addition, the club is again asking all citizens to clean up their premises. Members state, "We have some places down town that are a disgrace and eyesore. If these places are not voluntarily cleaned up, members of the Garden Club will go before the City Council and seek their support. These spots are not only an eyesore, but are fire hazards. Save yourself the embarrassment of being asked to clean up."

The objectives of the Litterbug program are (1) to create a public awareness of litter; (2) to stimulate public participation in cleaning up existing litter; (3) to stimulate future litterbug education, public opinion pressure and law enforcement.

Members state the club will try to carry out these objectives. They ask the cooperation of the City, County, Chamber of Commerce members and officers, civic clubs, Boy and Girl Scouts, and all citizens. The program has been presented before the students and all are asked to use receptacles when throwing trash away.

In a further move, the Garden Club has ordered stickers for car bumpers and litter bags for automobiles, and these will be available in the near future.

High Honors For Tahoka's Band

Two Tahoka High School students, Montie McGinty and Paul Kenley, helped bring home the honors from the Region I University Interscholastic League concert band contest held Saturday in Plainview.

Entering student conducting for the first time in the local band's history, both won first division rating. Montie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McGinty and Paul is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dub Kenley.

The band also received an "excellent" rating for the concert performance and a certificate for distinguished performance in the sight reading competition. Vic Klyer, director, reports Tahoka ranked "right among the top" of the 19 bands in Class A.

In addition, a plaque was presented to the band as a result of the first division rating received at the UIL marching contest in October.

Jaycees Are Selling "Shaving Permits"

W. H. McNeely, new president of Tahoka Junior Chamber of Commerce, presided for his first meeting in Jaycee Hall Tuesday evening.

Marian Sue Milliken was selected as the Jaycee entry in the Rodeo Queen contest. Also in connection with the fourth coming Rodeo, it was announced the Jaycees will sell shaving permits for $1.00 each. All "cowpokes" not sporting whiskers or carrying a shaving permit will get a trip to the "dipping tank" courtesy of the local Jaycees. Permits may be obtained soon from any Jaycee.

In other business action, plans were made to help sponsor the TB tests on a county-wide basis. The tests will be given from 6:00-9:00 p. m. on April 16, 17 and 18 at the Courthouse.

Present for the meeting were 28 members and one new member, Loyal Wooten of Wayne Waters Ford Co. Members are reminded the meeting time has been changed to 8:00 p. m. on the first and third Tuesdays.

Telephone Co-op Has 2400 Phones

Poka-Lambro held the annual membership meeting last Thursday with over 200 in attendance. Wilmer Smith of New Home addressed the group.

Lee Bartlett presided over the regular schedule of business which was highlighted with the board of directors election. V. H. Whetley of Brownfield, Herbert Green of Lamesa and C. W. Roberts of Tahoka were the three directors whose terms expired this year. All three were re-elected. The hold-overs on the board are Lee Bartlett of Meadow, Irvin (Bud) Snell of Lamesa, George Sealy of Tahoka and Joe D. Unfred of New Home.

In other business, members heard a report from the auditor, Darrel Knight, a CPA from Abilene. The invocation was given by Gerald Paden, minister of the New Home Church of Christ.

Poka-Lambro, which in 1952 was servicing 25 members, distributed new directories this week to approximately 2400 members, according to Emery Cantrell. The new directories feature a colored cover with a picture of the local headquarters building. They will be sent to 15 rural exchanges which cover all or part of seven counties.

The board of directors met Thursday in a scheduled meeting to elect new officers.

Wheat Program Study Is Made

County Agent Bill Griffin and co-workers from some 20 other wheat producing counties will meet in Lubbock on Friday afternoon, April 5, to obtain detailed information on the approaching wheat referendum.

Similar meetings will be held in six other Texas cities, all conducted by a panel of A&M College specialists headed by John E. Hutchison, director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

In this series of meetings, agents will receive training and material which will prepare them to conduct needed educational programs that are designed to acquaint producers with all aspects—pro and con—of the referendum, the director said.

As in the past, county Extension agents will take no sides in this issue, but will present factual, unbiased information so that wheat growers can decide for themselves whether they wish to

DOWN WITH THE LITTERBUG
The Litterbug is a public pest who scatters rubbish to east and west.
He leaves a trail of paper and tin,
Defacing the beautiful land he's in.
He tosses his trash and garbage about;
He's a person we'd gladly do without.
So let's get busy and do our best
To see the litterbug laid to rest!

Rev. Tad Corbet Rotary Speaker

Rev. Tad Corbet, Lubbock Baptist minister, was the speaker at the Rotary Club Thursday, giving a two-part talk, the first humorous, the second of a serious nature.

Having spent much time in Louisiana, Tad related a humorous story in Cajun dialect.

Then, using the subject, "Everybody Has a Price," he pointed out that man in given situations, under pressures, is subject to betrayal of trusts, religion, and moral values, his country, and his friends. He pointed out some of the things that money can not buy, true friendship, health, moral values, and all the other fine things of life.

The program was arranged by Urban Brown, who introduced the speaker.

Turner Rogers was introduced as a new member of the club.

Dale Thuren announced the farmer guest day will be held on April 12, when each Rotarian will bring a farmer as a guest.

Don Browning stated plans were underway to put new life in the friendship program initiated by President Calloway Huffaker.

Taylor Knight, high school senior, thanked the club for the privilege of attending meetings for a month.

Dr. Skiles Thomas, club vice president, was in charge of the meeting in the absence of the president.

Tahoka Junior Athletes Are Honored At Banquet Tuesday

Junior High athletes and their parents attended a banquet in their honor Tuesday night in the school cafeteria when Gilbert Hough, head football coach, was the principal speaker.

Recognized for outstanding performance were the seventh grade football team, undefeated district champions, and basketball team, undefeated in district play for the championship, both under the tutelage of Milt Pitts; the eighth grade football team, co-champions under Dave Easterday, and basketball team coached by Hough; the seventh grade girls basketball team, tri-champions in district, coached by Mrs. Irene Spears; and eighth grade girls basketball team coached by the varsity girls coach, Miss Marsha Scroggin.

Trophies were presented the seventh and eighth football teams and the seventh girls basketball team by Athletic Director Jake Jacobs, who served as master of ceremonies.

In speaking to the future athletes of Tahoka High School, Coach Hough told the boys and girls they must, like the Boy Scouts, "Be Prepared" at all times for classroom work as well as sports. He said they would learn the meaning of sacrifice during their years of competing on athletic teams, pointing out the fact that being a good student always comes first.

"An athlete must be humble and tolerant of others' mistakes," Hough continued, "but should not become so humble and tolerant that he cannot succeed in highly competitive athletics or in the competition of life." Third, Hough told the boys and girls that they would be required to learn the meaning of self-discipline in order to become a good athlete, who disciplines himself in many ways for his own betterment, for that of each teammate, and for the team as a whole.

Jacobs, in outlining the program of athletics in the Tahoka schools, said scholarship comes first, and athletics then enter into development of better men and women through competition and physical development. He declared parents and fans must realize the coaches must think not only of individual students but also of the team as a whole.

Miss Marla Bray gave the invocation and Milton Edwards the benediction. Both are eighth grade students.

Entertainment was provided by the "Wanderers," a seventh grade choral group composed of Janice Swinford, Quaydene Pool, Brenda Drager, Beverly Falls, Loretta Webb, Jan Roberts, Zan Ashcraft, Elva J. Edwards, and Vicki Jacobs. With Debbie Wright at the piano and also announcing the numbers. Mrs. Vic Kyler is director of the group.

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

It has been written that there is nothing new under the sun. The present tax proposals bear out this old adage.

In the various city-states of Ancient Greece, on through Ancient Rome, and all down the long corridor of history, there is found a continuity of strategy which eventually destroyed the nations adopting it.

These governments, to maintain their own extravagances, catered to the masses to keep manpower on their side, and to the segments of great wealth to keep economic resources on their side as well.

Eventually, something has always had to give. In all cases the middle class, from which all independent enterprise develops, has been destroyed. And freedom has never survived without a successful middle class.

And history shows without this successful middle class, a nation eventually deteriorates until the condition of the masses is far worse. That is why history presents the paradox of many leaders who were cheered in the arena as great humanitarians, living long enough to be jeered as tyrants.

There is no question but that reduced income taxes have a great popular political appeal. Neither is there any question reduction of taxes will help the economy.

But the full package on tax-

National Federation of Independent Business as presented gives the masses and the big, almost monopolistic corporations quite a boom. But the middle class is again being penalized.

It is the American middle class who buy the better homes and pay on long term mortgages, who buy the appliances, the automobiles. The middle class also buys more medical service, and also is the backbone of charity drives as well as state and local tax structures. Limitations on the deductions this middle class can take for interest, charity, medical costs, state and local taxes, can serve no purpose other than weaken the middle class.

Thus, it appears this is but a canny move to avoid cutting out the waste in government, and at the same time keep the factions on either end of economic spectrum fairly happy.

This is not to be inferred that there is a villainous plot afoot to destroy the American middle class, despite the fact for over 20 years "left wing" advisors in government have propounded this idea.

Most oppression by government throughout history was not motivated by malevolent intent, but rather through sublime ignorance of the true facts.

Whether or not the American nation will follow the historical path of middle class destruction and eventual doom is a moot question. The big counter balance to such a trend in the United States is the fact that there is a Congress. Thus, it might be said, that as long as people exercise their Constitutional right to express their views to their Congressmen, American democracy will continue to live.

Essay And Poster Contests Set

The Tahoka Garden Club is sponsoring a Litterbug essay and poster contest and all high school students, sixth, seventh and eighth grade students are eligible to enter. Deadline for entries is May 1, and these will be numbered and registered in the office of High School.

Two divisions have been set up, for high school and elementary. In the high school division, a $10.00 award will be given for the first place essay and $5.00 for second best; $5.00 for the first place poster, and $2.50 for second place poster.

The elementary student winning first in the essay contest will be awarded $10.00 and second place $5.00; $5.00 for the first place poster and $2.50 for second place poster.

No names will appear on any essay or poster submitted. These will be numbered when entered at the high school building and a group of three ladies who are not members of the Garden Club will be the judges.

A packet of material is available in the High School library on the subject, or other material may be ordered from Extension Loan Library, University of Texas, Austin; or Keep America Beautiful, Inc., 99 Park Ave., New York 106, N. Y.

The essays and posters entered in the event will be used by the Garden Club in the publicity and educational campaign against littering.

The fast pace of modern living has much to do with the high cost.

DDD Will Go Into Effect Here Sunday, April 7th

Direct Distance Dialing — an electro-mechanical marvel that allows telephone customers to dial their own station-to-station long distance calls without the assistance of an operator — comes to Tahoka and Wilson Sunday, April 7.

In the early morning hours of that date, General Telephone technicians and workers in Brownfield—the master office serving this area—will set the phone company's new central office equipment in motion, signalling the beginning of a new era in telephone communications for five cities in the South Plains area. Other area towns joining the DDD network along with Tahoka, Wilson and Brownfield are Denver City and Seagraves.

The coming of DDD marks another step in General's long range plan to modernize telephone services in this area. The first major step occurred in 1956 when Tahoka's dial telephone system was placed in operation. Then, some eight months ago, Wilson's old dial central office was replaced and the new system made ready for the coming of Direct Distance Dialing.

The two cities will realize still another improvement in coming months. Construction is now under way on a 200 foot tower which will be used to connect Tahoka and Wilson with the Brownfield to Lubbock Microwave radio network. Microwave radio transmission of long distance calls eliminates the need for open wire or cable long distance circuits, thus greatly reducing the number of service outages resulting from elements such as ice, wind, snow and rain.

Jack and Mark Flippin rode the bus to Abilene last week end and spent two days and nights as guests of Perry, met the plane when Paul Harvey arrived, and also enjoyed an airplane ride.

Microwave towers will also be constructed at O'Donnell and Lamesa, and will ultimately link those cities, along with Tahoka and Wilson to the Brownfield microwave network. The Lamesa-Tahoka - Brownfield microwave hookup is scheduled for completion this month.

W. A. King of Lamesa, General Telephone's district manager in this area said that Direct Distance Dialing directories had been mailed to all Tahoka and Wilson customers earlier this week. The 15-page booklet explains the steps to be taken in utilizing the DDD network, and lists several hundred dialable points throughout the United States and Canada. King pointed out that customers will be able to dial only station-to-station calls direct. Person-to-person and credit card calls, plus calls placed from pay stations must still be directed through the long distance operator.

"Direct Distance Dialing is easy, fast and economical," King said. "Station-to-station calls dialed over the DDD network carry the same rate as the station-to-station calls you now place through the operator."

Pooling Of Oil And Gas Drilling Sites Is Vital To State

Houston — Those who are actually concerned the most seem to be paying the least attention to proposed legislation which would require the pooling of oil and gas drilling units in Texas to conform with spacing patterns for fields as set up by the Railroad Commission.

That is the opinion of Jim Clark, well-known Texas oil historian, author and columnist.

Mr. Clark was commenting on House Bill 510, pending in the Texas Legislature, which would provide for the pooling by law of acreage into drilling units. He thinks such a law has long been needed in Texas. Twenty-six of the 29 states with some oil and gas production have pooling statutes.

"By eliminating unnecessary wells and cutting costs per barrel of oil produced, the domestic industry can more effectively meet the competition of foreign crude," Mr. Clark said. He pointed out that imported oil is priced at about half the prevailing cost of United States crude.

The situation is being complicated even more by the Soviet Union, which is dumping oil on the world market in large quantities," Mr. Clark continued. "Their strategy is designed to take advantage of high American crude prices. Their goal, obviously, is the United States domestic oil industry which they regard as the backbone of America's energy-based economy."

Opponents of the pooling measure charge that it would mean additional regulation and too much power for the Texas Railroad Commission, which would administer it.

"The alternative, however, is federal control which would be far more restrictive, with the base of regulatory power moved from Austin to Washington," Mr. Clark believes.

Opponents also contend the proposed law would slow down drilling in Texas and cost many workers their jobs.

"The opposite is true," says Mr. Clark. "Drilling in Texas is falling off rapidly as money turns to other states where 'per-well' allowances are larger because unnecessary wells are not permitted. The enactment of HB 510 would encourage drilling. Money being spent on unnecessary wells would be diverted to 'wildcat' exploration. This would mean that millions of acres owned by farmers and ranchers, school districts and State institutions would be tested, and many new fields brought in.

Most important of all is the "moral issue" involved in HB 510, says Mr. Clark:

"At present, small-tract operators are permitted to drain other tracts. This is similar to a small farmer being permitted to confiscate part of an adjoining farmer's crop to assure himself of a profit.

"Recent court decisions prohibit the drilling of many small tracts, but they offer the small-tract owner little protection. He would be protected by a fair pooling law, such as HB 510 would provide. At the same time, adjoining owners would be protected from confiscatory drainage of their oil and gas."

Jaycees Install New Officers

Morris Bingham was given a standing ovation when presented the "Outstanding Jaycee of the Year" award at the annual installation banquet of Tahoka Jaycees Saturday night in the City-Legion building.

In awarding the plaque, outgoing President Jesse Dorman remarked, "This award is given to the Jaycee who has done so much for the Club, one who had worked diligently and faithfully without receiving recognition due for outstanding service to the club and to the community."

The presentation came as a complete surprise to everyone after a secret committee had made the final selection following a review of the merits of each club member.

Steve Thompson "emceed" the program, attended by 78 Jaycees, wives, and guests.

Jim Proctor of Lubbock, past president of Lubbock Jaycees and current Senator in Jaycees-International, installed the following new officers: W. H. McNeely, president; Harry L. Short, first vice president; Wayne Huffaker, second vice president; John Redwine, secretary; Charles Osborne, treasurer; J. D. Atwell, State director; and directors Clayton (Ike) Carter, Dan Lockaby, Bert Stevens, Binie White, and Jesse Dorman.

New President McNeely also presented the outgoing head, Jesse Dorman, a plaque for his outstanding leadership the past year.

Jerry Sanders, of Levelland, principal speaker for the occasion, used the Jaycee Creed for his topic, outlining each tenet and illustrating each with examples from his personal experiences.

Harold Roberts introduced the speaker.

"Exhausted rooster" pins were presented E. L. Short, Harold Roberts, and Jimmy Dykes, "senior" Jaycees.

Special guests included Mayor and Mrs. Mel Leslie, Chamber of Commerce President and Mrs. Turner Rogers, past C. of C. President and Mrs. E. L. Short, Rotary President and Mrs. Calloway Huffaker, County Clerk and Mrs. C. W. Roberts, Lubbock Jaycee Tom Davis, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reynolds, parents of the new president's wife.

Holland Has New Cleaning Product

Bill Holland of Lubbock, formerly of Tahoka and brother of Wade Holland, of Tahoka Auto Supply, has placed on the market a new cleaning product, called Kleen All.

He sent The News a sample quart, and it seems to do everything Bill claims it will. To wash windows, one simply sprays the cleaner on the glass and wipes dry with a cloth. He says it will remove dirt, grease, grime, rust, water spots, tar, heel marks, chewing gum and stain from all glass, tile, bath tubs and toilets, carpets and upholstery, wood work, plastic, and a dozen other surfaces and materials.

Rearred near Southland, Bill formerly operated a food store here.

Lynn Taxpayers Paying Federal Kitty $2 Million

(Special to the News) — NEW YORK, Mar. 25—How much will Lynn County residents be turning over to Uncle Sam, on or before April 15th, in income taxes?

Unless the old gentleman has gone awry with his revenue predictions, the local returns should be hefty.

On the basis of overall income in the county during the past year, payments should be even larger than they were in April, when they amounted to approximately $1,675,000.

That is the estimated total paid on the previous year's earnings. It includes taxes collected through the withholding process and direct payments made on other income.

The amount is based on an official breakdown of collections in the State of Texas, listed at $1,861,000,000 by the Internal Revenue Service, and on local income.

The figures show that residents of Lynn County contributed 0.09 percent of the entire amount collected in the state.

This year, the Federal budget is primed for personal income tax payments of $45 billion, in view of the rise in earnings during 1962. That would be about $3 billion more than was received last year.

Lynn county's contribution toward this goal, on the strength of preliminary figures showing income totals for the past year, will be nearly $1,916,000, a rise of $241,000.

As for the business picture ahead, the President and his advisers see 1963 as a year of "continued moderate expansion." They expect the gross national product to reach $578 billion, which would be $26 billion more than last year.

More than half of this increase, $15 billion, will come from consumer spending, they estimate. This forecast assumes, however, that a tax cut will go into effect soon enough to bolster this sector of the economy.

As for the remainder, $8 billion is to come from added Federal, state and local government spending for goods and services, and the remaining $5 billion from increased business spending.

Counting on these developments, the new Federal budget sets personal income tax collections for next year at $49.3 billion, up $4.3 billion.

Incomes in Lynn county will have to rise by more than 9 percent this year if local taxpayers are to continue meeting their present quota.

Mrs. W. C. Harvick, Sr., who has been ill, is reported to be over her illness and doing fine.

Cutting Costs Goal For Cotton

College Station—Cutting cotton production costs should be the goal of stepped up cotton research, says the USDA's Cotton Research and Marketing Advisory Committee.

At its annual meeting held recently, the committee proposed more study on breeding, weed and insect control, cultural practices and seedbed preparation, soil and water management, harvesting equipment, ginning and related processes, and storing cotton and seed cotton.

The unattractive appearance of the American cotton bale was criticized and the committee advised the use of new lightweight cotton bagging materials, standardization of the bale and better methods of sampling the bales.

Research on improving the wash-and-wear properties of cotton were recommended. New developments with stretch cotton, flame resistant cotton, and cloth that resists rot, heat and weather promise to increase the use of cotton, the committee says.

The committee sees a need for more work on uses for cottonseed oil and a better cottonseed meal, with an accompanying improvement in the processing techniques of cottonseed.

The Cotton Research and Marketing Advisory Committee is made up of some of the nation's leaders in the industry and has two Texans among them. They are Otto Goedecke, president of Otto Goedecke Inc., Hallettsville, and Wilmer Smith, a Lynn county cotton grower.

Lynn County's Average Family Income Is $7,434

(Special to The News)
New York — For the average taxpayer living in Lynn county, what are the odds against his Federal income tax getting a thorough going-over this year by the Internal Revenue examiners? What determines whether his return will get no more than a once-over lightly? To an extent, the luck of the draw will decide. A certain proportion of all returns, taken by lot, will be scanned closely. The proportion will be greater this year than last because the IRS has a larger staff and more high-speed equipment at its command. The examiners will have before them, also, certain guides. A principal one concerns the amount of deductions listed in a return in relation to the amount of income reported. If the ratio seems to be unusually high, the return will be set aside for detailed checking. In such cases, the taxpayer may be called in to explain and to substantiate the deductions. What is "normal" for deductions? A study made by the Commerce Clearing House, an authority on tax and business law, on the basis of the 25 million returns in which deductions are itemized, gives the answer as it applies locally. It shows that most families in the United States that have gross incomes of the size reported by the average family in Lynn County, $7,434 a year, list deduction of $1,430. It is made up of contributions totaling $244, interest payments, $452, taxes of $429 and medical expenses, $205. Local families with larger incomes have more leeway in the amount of deductions they may claim without causing IRS eyebrows to raise. At the $12,000 income level, the deductions may total $2,050 without exceeding the average. Families in Lynn county with incomes of only $4,000, which is below the local average, may claim not more than $625 to stay within the normal. The Commerce Clearing House emphasizes that the figures are averages only. Conforming to them does not mean that a return will not be challenged nor does exceeding them mean that it will be disallowed. Adequate records must be available to back up all claims.

TAHOKA, TEXAS "Heart of the South Plains" FRIDAY, APRIL 5, 1963

Half of Texas Agricultural Lands Are Under SCS Cooperative Programs

"More than half the agricultural land of Texas is now under cooperative agreement with soil conservation districts," says H. N. Smith, State Conservationist, Soil Conservation Service of Temple. More than 150,000 farm and ranch operators have completed conservation plans for more than 60,000,000 acres. An additional 47,000 operators are in the process of completing their plan on another 26,000,000 acres according to reports from soil conservation districts over the state. During 1962, 14,000 operators completed their plans for more than seven and one-half million (7,500,000) acres, continued Smith. In addition, more than 8,100 farmers and ranchers revised their conservation plans during the year to bring them up to date to include changes in land use and treatments. The State head of the Soil Conservation Service said that a conservation plan is like a blueprint for a house to be built. It charts a sound and practical course of action for the operator and the agencies assisting the landowner to apply a conservation program on his land. The objective of farmers and ranchers in developing a plan for applying conservation on their land are well expressed in a basic policy adopted by the National Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts. Smith cited the policy in part: "There is a need for a complete conservation plan for every farm and ranch in the nation to provide a conservation and land use program fitted to the resources of each operating unit. As a matter of good business, a farmer or rancher can do a better job of farming or ranching with a conservation plan than without one. Piecemeal and uncoordinated efforts cannot be fully effective. When each acre is protected to its individual needs, the most of production is reduced and per acre yields are normally increased." Landowners and operators are assisted in developing complete conservation plans for their units with technical assistance from the Soil Conservation Service provided through their local soil conservation district. There are now 182 such districts in Texas, which include 98.7 percent of the land area of Texas, as reported by Arthur Leese, Chairman of the State Soil Conservation Board. When a farmer or rancher requests assistance from his district, a technician of the Soil Conservation Service goes over the unit with the operator. The soil, water, and plant resources are studied in

ASC Approves Lake Pumping

The High Plains Underground Water Conservation District has received word from the State Office of Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation that the State ASA Committee has approved the expenditure of federal funds for construction pits in wet-weather lakes, and for installing pipelines from lakes to cropland. Lester Young, Chief of the Agriculture Conservation Practices Division of the State ASC Office in College Station, in a telephone conversation with the Water District office, stated that funds could be made available immediately by local ASC County Committees. They will need only to amend their county handbook to include such practices. He said that any county that presently has Practice C-14 (construction of pits for channeling lake water to recirculating pumps; and where Practice C-12 (irrigation system construction) is available, it may be supplemented to include the construction of permanent pipelines from recirculating pumps in the lake back to the farm's irrigation system. The State Committee's action culminates several years efforts by the High Plains Water District and others to make fund available for salvaging rainwater and irrigation run-off water that collects in the lakes. The State ASC Committee consists of Frank Moore, Plainview; E. B. Smith, Lampasas; W. W. Poole, Sinton; Ralph Price, Bryan, and Jim Goad, Rosebud.

Bond Sales Lag In Lynn County

February Savings Bond sales in Lynn county totaled $18,893.00. This announcement was made recently by A. C. Verner, chairman of the County Savings Bonds Committee. Sales for the first two months of 1963 were $42,537.00 which represents 18.5% of the 1963 sales goal. Bond sales in Texas for the first two months of 1963 were $28,367,297 and 18.8% of the 1963 sales goal of $150,600,000 has been achieved. "According to a report just received, hundreds of civic, fraternal, business, labor, professional and women's organizations are assisting the Treasury Department in urging all Texas families to buy a Savings Bond before the Fourth of July. Lions, Civilians, Kiwanis, VFW, Texas AFL-CIO, American Legion Auxiliary, and Texas Federation of Women's Clubs are only a few of the clubs that are cooperating in this year's Freedom Bond Drive," Chairman Verner advised.

detail, and the conservation problems and needs are analyzed. Alternative treatments are developed that would result in getting the needed protection and desired production on the land. Information from all sources is considered in developing the alternatives. Research data of the Texas Experiment Stations and research foundations, and the experiences of the operator and his neighbors are used in developing possible solutions. Financial assistance available from various sources, such as the cost-sharing of the Agricultural Conservation Program and loans from the Farmers Home Administration are considered in the ways and means of applying the plan. Crop allotments are important in developing possible cropping systems. Some of the soil conservation districts have equipment, seed, and other materials that may be made available for the conservation job. In the Great Plains area of 95 counties in the northwestern part of the State, cost-sharing assistance may be available for certain permanent-type practices through a contract arrangement with the Soil Conservation Service, stated Smith.

From the alternatives or possible solutions, the cooperators elect those treatments that best fit their individual needs and resources. Decisions made by the operator are recorded into a conservation plan, which is the blueprint for doing the job. The cooperator signs an agreement with the local soil conservation district, which indicates his willingness to apply the plan with assistance from the district. A conservation plan encompasses many things, Smith said. It considers increasing agricultural income and efficiency through proper land use and treatment; protecting land against all forms of soil deterioration; rebuilding eroded and depleted soils, building up soil fertility; stabilizing critical runoff and sediment-producing areas; improving grasslands, woodlands, or wildlife lands; developing recreational areas; conserving water; proper agricultural drainage and irrigation where these are needed; and reducing floodwater and sediment damage. Farmers and ranchers who have developed plans and are applying conservation programs on their land are dedicating themselves to the well-being and betterment of their family, community and nation. If we are to remain a strong and leading nation of the world, we must conserve our natural resources, concluded State Conservationist Smith.

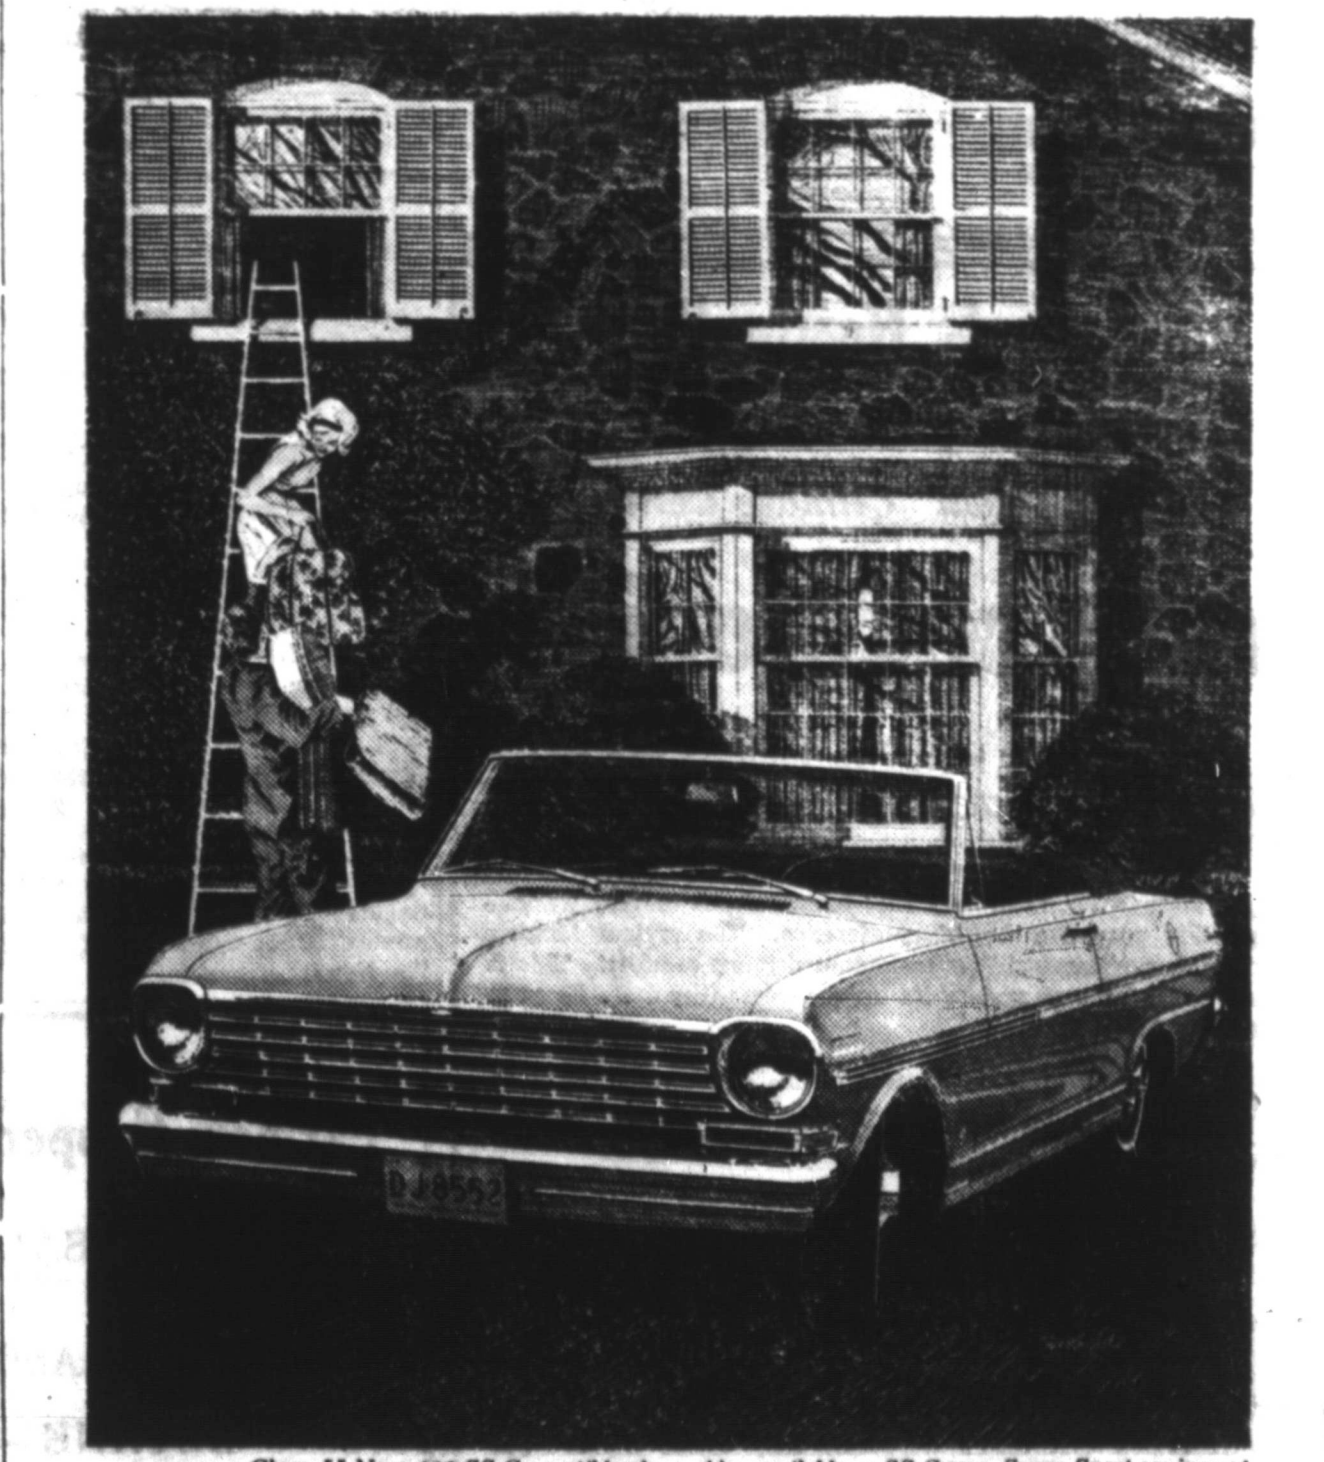

A good soils test requires several thousand dollars worth of equipment, a trained technician, and at least a day's time to run it.

The News has mailed out a number of these brochures. We've had favorable responses from California, New York City, Dallas, Houston, and a few other places. We have sent them to a lot of advertising agencies, and a lady with Campbell-Ewald Co. in Detroit writes, "I knew West Texas was a tremendous sales potential, but I was astounded to find such a modern little city in far away West Texas."

A reader sent us the following bit of verse written by Cecil Terrell of Lubbock, called "My Southern Little League," which seems appropriate to all Little Leagues as the summer season approaches:

The boy sits there upon the bench beside the diamond wide. He's so hurt and despondent, there are tears he has to hide.

His suit is for a bigger boy—that's why he has to sit—if only he could get a chance to see if he could hit!

He goes to practice every day, at least there he can play. He always keeps on hoping Coach will let him try next day.

His team has won most every game—for that the boy is glad. But, always his place is the same—on the bench, and looking sad.

Yes, he's a Southern Leaguer. I know that sounds real fine. But you know how much it hurts if your boy sits like mine!

Evangelist Billy Graham says: "I find a greater understanding in the South of the Negroes than in the North. There is a basis of friendship in the South that does not exist in the North. The situation is far more tense in Chicago than in Atlanta."

If that department of Urban Affairs President Kennedy proposes to help the cities of the nation is so important, why is it that Washington, D. C., operated under direct supervision of the Government, has the most crime of any city in the nation, is beset with gang wars, and has slums in throwing distance of the Capitol building and White House? It's probably the only city in America where the Fire Department had to be called out to quell a gang fight at the annual Policeman's Ball. Can the Federal Government do things better than local self government?

We talk a lot about our wonderful Republic and its democratic form of government. Really, it's gotten to the point where the people actually have little or no voice in government. With the Executive branch, the bureaucrats, and the judicial branch all making laws, rules and regulations, much of the power and authority of Congress has been taken away. Even our Congressmen cast many very vital votes that are contrary to the thinking of their constituents. A case in point is the vote to pack the House Rules Committee in order to give our liberal President more of what he wants. Others include unnecessary appropriations, much of the foolish foreign aid, funds for waste by the military, and the refusal of Congress to take any steps to balance the budget.

Our Congress recently voted H. R. 284 which appropriates another $503 million to underwrite the Commodity Credit Corporation's give-away program made legal by Public Law 840. Before this latest appropriation, we had already given Communist Yugoslavia $600 million and Communist Poland $590 million in food and other commodities under PL 840.

Congress is building a swanky new House office building in Washington which, we are told, will bring the cost of office space for each individual member of the House to approximately $250,000—two and a half times as much as the Lynn county court house cost.

Mrs. Annie M. Smelser of Plain view writes, "Tahoka has certainly made a lot of changes since I left. The improvements are wonderful." She says she looks forward to The News each week.

Mrs. M. C. Thomas of Denver City writes: "Please keep The News coming to our address. We still call Tahoka home and miss not living in Lynn county. However, we are liking Denver City; it's a nice town."

The popularity of the automatic dishwasher is due to the fact that most husbands would rather buy than be one.—Cheer.

God never closes the door in a man's face without opening a window.—Chinese Proverb.

Taxes On Business Are Taxes On You

This is a funny joke to newspaper men: Doctors, dentists, and lawyers say they don't believe in advertising—it's not ethical. Yet, did you ever meet a member of these professions, or ever hear one of them get up to speak in public, that he didn't pretty soon let you, his listeners, know in no unmistakable terms what his profession is?

A six-year-old girl submitted the following composition on "people" to her teacher:

"People are composed of girls and boys, also men and women. Boys are not good at all until they grow up and get married. Men who don't get married are no good either."

"Boys are an awful bother. They want everything they see except soap. My mama is a woman. My papa is such a nice man that I grown up girl with children. My papa is such a nice man that I think he must have been a girl when he was a boy."

The man who lives only for himself runs a very small business.—Aron.

Borden Davis Is No New-Comer

Borden Davis Hardware is a relatively new name in Tahoka business circles, but the operators are not new here and have had a big hand in the development of the town and county.

Borden was born in Desdemona (Hogtown), migrated with his parents to Whiteflat, Nolan county and then to Tahoka in 1919. In high school here, Borden is remembered as the town's first "great" basketball player.

Since marrying Minnie Curry in 1924, he has spent most of his time in the hardware and funerals business, working successively for G. W. Small, W. M. Harris, and J. K. Applewhite. He attended Smith School of Embalming, and has been a licensed embalmer and funeral director since 1925, which profession he has followed through the years along with other businesses, and is now associated with the Martin Whites in White Funeral Home.

Borden also operated service stations and a tire store several years before buying out W. M. Harris Hardware in August, 1961. He has long been active in the First Baptist Church, Baptist Brotherhood, was a member of Tahoka Volunteer Fire Department many years, and is an outgoing City Councilman.

Minnie, daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Curry, was born at Meridian, moved to Tahoka in 1921, finished high school here in 1924 and married Borden. She is active in First Baptist Church work and in the Primary Department of the Sunday School. She is a past matron of the Eastern Star.

Louie Weathers, member of a pioneer Lynn county family, was born in Celeste, but came here in 1907, attended the local schools, and worked in the First National Bank a number of years before going to the hardware and furniture store, where he has had 25 years experience. Louie operated W. M. Harris Hardware & Furniture a number of years during Mr. and Mrs. Harris' illness. He is active in the Methodist Church, and has served as president of the Down Town Men's Sunday School Class and the Methodist Men.

Mrs. Jack McPhaul and four month old daughter, Heather, and Mrs. Ray Orson and daughter, Jenny, all of Lamesa, spent Monday with Mrs. McPhaul's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Condy Carmack. Washington was the only President ever to receive the entire electoral vote, (1789). New Hampshire originally was called the Province of Laconia.

THE LOSS OF FREEDOM IS NO LAUGHING MATTER

Does it shock you to know that in Russia and Cuba most all business and industry, including electric service is owned or rigidly controlled by the state?

No, it doesn't—because you really expect that of a dictatorship.

But, here's a fact that will shock you! In 1935, YOUR federal government produced less than 1% of America's electric power. TODAY THIS FIGURE HAS CLIMBED TO 15%—and advocates of government-in-business press constantly for more.

Is it wise to let your federal government continue on a course that promises not less but MORE government ownership and control?

The loss of freedom is no laughing matter.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY

Applewhite Firm One Of Oldest In This Section

As Lynn county celebrates its 60th anniversary, J. K. Applewhite Co., local International Harvester (Farmall) dealer, is observing 41 years of serving the farmers of the county and area.

The story of the Applewhite family is almost the story of the county during this period, the transition from farming with mules and horse-and-buggy living to modern power farming and modern living.

Reared in Mills county, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. (Jack) Applewhite were married at Ballinger, and Jack was employed by the Higginbotham's, then a large chain of general merchandise stores in West Texas.

They first came to Lynn county in 1916, and Jack worked for Jap Adams Hardware and Furniture here until 1918. They returned in 1922 to make this their permanent home, when Mr. Applewhite purchased an interest in the G. W. Small Hardware and Implement Co. W. M. Harris bought Small's interest in 1926, and the firm became Harris & Applewhite, dealers in hardware, implements, appliances, and also operated an undertaking business.

In 1936, the firm divided its business, Mr. Applewhite taking the International Harvester business and expanding the same in the present location on the east side of the square in Tahoka.

Lynn county farmers were converting from team farming to tractors, and Mr. Applewhite thought he saw great opportunity in this field. His judgment was correct.

In approximately 120 days, from Sept. 1 to Dec. 31, 1936, Mr. Applewhite sold exactly 100 Farmall tractors, an almost unheard-of achievement in the annals of International Harvester Company dealers.

He surprised the manufacturer by ordering 66 tractors, twelve freight car loads—which proved later not to be enough.

"When those 66-odd tractors arrived and were lined up around my place of business," he told an IHC representative, farmers would pop in and say 'Jack, have you gone crazy; what are you going to do with all those tractors?' My answer invariably was, 'Do with them? Those are sold. I've got that many more coming.' An aggressive canvassing and individual demonstration resulted in the sale of those 66 tractors, plus 34 more in three months. Then, he had to dispose of horses and mules and old equipment, most of which went "back East," and the day of "modern farming" arrived in Lynn county, and Applewhite became one of the biggest dealers in the nation.

Jack Applewhite was long one of Tahoka's leading citizens, and his happy laughs brought him business.

He headed nearly every drive for the progress of the town and county, served as Chamber of Commerce president, organized the Tahoka Luncheon Club, forerunner to the Rotary Club, headed charity drives, worked for better roads, better schools and churches, and served as chairman of the school board and later the county school board. He was an avid sports fan, and backed all school athletics.

Then, death took him away as he would like to have gone, on a Friday night, Sept. 22, 1950, at

Tahoka Places In Crosbyton Meet

Tahoka track team made 30 points in the Crosbyton Relays Saturday, and although the meet was rained out, prospects were good for Tahoka to place in the top teams.

This Saturday the varsity, freshman and junior high track teams are going to Sundown to compete in the District 3-A Interscholastic League meet.

At Crosbyton Craig Leslie won second and Larry Jolly sixth in the shot put; Jolly second and Leslie fourth in discus; Leslie third and Steve Greer fourth in broad jump; Greer came in second in 220 yard dash and fourth in 100 yard dash; Jose Cervantes tied for third in high jump; Hugh Jack Norwood sixth in 440-yard dash; and the 440 relay team, composed of Leslie, Greer, Norwood and Macky McWhirter, came in third.

Teams competing in the district event this week end will be from O'Donnell, Seagraves, Wink, Plains, Sundown and Tahoka.

a football game in Morton between Tahoka and the Indians.

His son, Jimmy, (J. K. Jr.) and son-in-law, Prentice Walker, succeeded him in operation of the firm, and Jimmy still heads it.

Like his father, Jimmy has been active in civic affairs, as well. He has served Tahoka as Mayor, (1951-1953) and the present beautiful City Hall was built then, and succeeded his father as chairman of the Lynn County Board of Education. A graduate of Tahoka High School, he joined the firm on graduation, is a Scottish Rite Mason, Khiva Temple, member of the Baptist Church, Chamber of Commerce, Lynn County Farm Bureau, American Legion, having served in the Army during World War II, T-Bar Country Club, and Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association, and is a commercial licensed pilot.

His mother, known to friends as "Bob" and to old-timers as Beulah, has long been a "power behind the throne. Last Sept. 24, she was married to O. P. Rutledge, long a prominent businessman of Floydada. "Bob" has likewise been a leader, a civic worker, a helper with charity cases, and most of her life the night has never been too dark for her to go to the funeral home when death came to some local family, and the saying got to be "You can depend on Beulah."

She has long been active in her church, the Baptist, where she played the piano for many years, and has been active in Tahoka Garden Club, Phebe K. Warner Club, and Eastern Star, of which she is past matron. Because of her interest in young folks, she has long worked with the Order of Rainbow Girls, served as Grand Visitor of Texas, and is a member of the Grand Executive Committee, Grand Assembly of Texas Order of Rainbow Girls.

She has five children, Helen, J. K. Jr., Greta, and Dorothy Jean, and finds time for her grandchildren and mother, Mrs. Sallie Kemp.

Following Jimmy in the business is J. K. (Jackie) Applewhite III, whose pleasing personality is an asset to the firm. Reared here, he attended San Angelo College before joining the firm for full time work in 1950.
