New Home Plans Incorporation Vote

An election has been called at New Home on next Wednesday, July 31, for the purpose of determining whether or not the people in the townsite wish to incorporate as a town.

County Judge W. M. Mathis called the election Friday when he was presented a petition bearing the names of 25 qualified voters in the limits of the proposed town. Dick Turner was appointed judge of the election, which will be held in New Home High School building.

Limits of the proposed town cover one square mile of territory, one-half mile in each direction from the traffic light at the farm road intersection in the center of town.

J. W. Edwards, one of the New Home citizens proposing incorporation, says New Home has fully 200 people. Minimum limit for incorporation under Texas law is 200 citizens.

If the election carries, another election will be called for the purpose of electing a mayor, five aldermen, and possibly a town marshal.

The News was unable to find out when the building was erected, but some say about 1908 and others say much later.

Tahoka Little League Wins Area, District Meet Opens

Farmers Needing Cotton Showers

Hot weather and high humidity a part of the time has featured the weather for the past week, and the temperature hit a high of 100 degrees Tuesday by the official Weather Bureau thermometer.

Cotton, for the most part, is doing well, farmers report, although some farmers say they would like to have rain. Much of the older seed and some of the younger is suffering for moisture in the hot weather.

Some "cotton showers" soon and some more the last of August would assure a good crop, farmers declare, but time is still too early to predict the outcome this fall. Also, production of much late planted cotton will also depend on the freeze date.

Most farmers have been busy hoeing cotton and cultivating both cotton and milo. A shortage of hoe hands has caused much cotton to get very weedy, and this cotton has to compete with the weeds for moisture.

Mr. Smith has a broken collar bone, shoulder, hip, and four broken ribs, one of which punched into his lung.

Harley told The News by telephone his dad was on the lease when he attempted to make a quick turn. He crawled on his stomach about 200 yards to a point where the pickup came to a stop, but was unable to get through a gate. About three hours later, some neighbors found him and took him to the hospital.

FAMOUS LIVE OAK TREE IS NEAR ROCKPORT

You won't believe it until you see it yourself.

It's the largest live oak tree in the world, and it's located by Goose Island State Park near Rockport, in Aransas county, on the Gulf Coast.

This majestic symbol of the ages is more than 2,000 years old, having burst into life a hundred years before the birth of Christ.

From its majestic trunk, the branches spread forth 118 feet to shade the approximate area of a city block.

FORT WORTH HAS THE TIME

Texans have a big time. They also have a big timepiece. Fact of the matter is, it's the world's largest. It's the clock that's atop the 30-story Continental Bank Building in Fort Worth.

Time is controlled by a microwave radio from the U. S. Observatory in Washington, D. C.

The clock itself is five stories high. It weighs 77 tons and the numerals are so large—25 feet and nine inches wide—that the clock can be read from a distance of five miles.

Kind words never die—they just become victims of ingratitude.

WASHINGTON AND 'SMALL BUSINESS' BY G. WILSON HARDER

If anyone finds themselves unable to pay their note at the bank, pay their utility bills, pay wages, pay suppliers, or perhaps even pay taxes, they should explain to their creditors that their inability to meet their obligations shows they are operating with great strength.

And there is authority to back up this position.

For as Congressman John Ashbrook points out, operating at a deficit is now considered a measure of strength.

He quotes no less an authority than Walter Heller, the government's chief economic advisor. Mr. Heller, who has more than a medium of what used to be called "book learning" is not at all concerned about proposed budget close to $100 billion creating an estimated deficit of $11 billion.

In fact, his reply to this matter perhaps will go down in history as a classic bon mot of left economics.

He merely says this deficit, as well as the estimated $7 billion deficit for the fiscal year just ending are "deficits of strength."

This is a wonderful phrase. It is too bad for people in past that Heller's statement was not issued in an earlier era.

Think how it would have warmed the hearts of the people in the old fashioned county of National Federation of Independent Business.

poor houses who could have pointed to their condition as a position of strength.

Think how many bankrupts could have faced their creditors with the greatest of sang froid just by pointing out to them that they were now in a position of strength.

The only fly in this delightful confection is that if Mr. Heller had been around to make such an utterance forty to fifty years ago the men in white coats would have picked him up.

It is a question as to how long a people can remain moral with an immoral government. History shows that people have maintained their moral standards for quite some time despite the example set by their government. But eventually, there has always been an explosion created by the people finally losing their own moral standards.

The Hellers, the Galbraiths and the rest of these orbiting theorists have apparently not yet succeeded in destroying the moral fiber of all the people.

The best evidence of that is the nationwide surveys of independent businessmen taken by the National Federation of Independent Business.

Even though the independent proprietors of America not only want, but badly need a reduction in taxes, they have strongly expressed themselves that they only want a tax reduction if there are slashes in government spending. They had to recognize that there is strength in tax deficit. This government has not yet destroyed the morality that built America, despite its consistent efforts.

One out of every four gallons of U. S. major oil products is made in Texas refineries.

Texas refinery capacity is 2.6 million barrels of crude oil daily, 26 percent of U. S. total.

Texas' 36 refineries processed 799 million barrels of crude oil in 1961, an amount equal to 85 percent of state crude production.

Texas royalty owners received $435 million from oil and gas production in 1961.

The oil industry spent $1.8 billion on production equipment and supplies during 1962 in Texas.

Texas is the nation's No. 1 producer of chemicals from oil and natural gas.

Plans were also made for the members to attend a style show on August 8 at Municipal Garden and Art Center in Lubbock. Members are to meet at the home of Mrs. Billy J. Dunlap in order to leave by 1:15 p. m.

These two activities will replace the regular August meetings. Refreshments of fruit salad and punch were served by the hostess.

FARM FIRE CAUSE

The eight major causes of farm fires, according to the National Safety Council, are defective chimneys, chimney sparks on combustible roofs, unsafe stove and furnace installations, inadequate lighting protection, improper use of electricity, spontaneous ignition, misuse of gasoline and kerosene, and carelessness with matches.

GOOD ENUF FOR COMSTOCK

Springs that provide 116,000,000 gallons of water per day should be good enough for anybody.

People in the Southwest Texas town of Comstock decided long ago that such springs were good enough for them, so they named them "Good Enough Springs."
The springs are located just south of Comstock, in Val Verde county, and their fine waters feed the Rio Grande River.

TEXAS HAS TAJ MAHAL LOCATED IN GOLIAD

The Misison La Bahia del Espiritu Santo, located in Goliad, north of Corpus Christi, often is called the "Taj Mahal of Texas." Established in 1749, the mission stands proudly today in rare and enviable beauty—a reverent beauty that is only bestowed upon the great during the ages.
Near the mission is the site of the infamous massacre of General Fannin and his Texas soldiers by the troops of the Mexican General Santa Anna.

"Wildcat" wells were drilled in 220 of Texas' 254 counties during 1961.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" BY C. WILSON HARDER

Dauntless Senator Harry Byrd of Virginia has long led the fight in the upper chamber to bring government expenditures in line with reason. In House, Rep. Wilbur Mills has long carried on this fight.

Yet the bureaucrats merely shrug their shoulders and ask how this can be done without cutting down on defense and thus endangering American safety.

The nation's independent businessmen, now voting through the National Federation of Independent Business, are quite heavily urging these welfare cuts to be cut to provide for a tax cut.

Yet at the same time, because of unemployment, and lack of job opportunities for young people, there is under consideration a Youth Corps, similar to the old prewar OCC.

Tied in with this is the fact that in 11 years nation's welfare expenditures have climbed from less than $14 billion, to almost $38 billion, or an increase of 170% soaking up money that would have been invested to produce jobs.

It seems quite incredible that some of the socialistic welfare minded bureaucrats have not come up with the perfect solution for taking care of the future of the nation's youth with NO cut in taxes.

Such a movement could be launched with banners, seals, all carrying the slogan "Fatherhood for Progress."

The plan would be for government to encourage all young men on reaching age 18 to marry some girl ready, willing and able, and to set up a production schedule of a child every ten months.

While for the first twelve years, it could conceivably be tough making ends meet, by the time the young man reached the age of 30, his problems would be over.

For by that time, he would have accumulated some 14 children, and in most states, between payments made up by local, state and federal taxes, he would draw welfare payments of between $800 and $1000 per month and not need a job the rest of his life.

And of course, in case he had formed an unbreakable habit during the first 12 years, he would not have to retire from "Fatherhood for Progress" either, because the more he progressed, the bigger the monthly welfare check.

Of course, as usual, there are always people ahead of their leaders, hence in the nation today there are many who have been practicing "Fatherhood for Progress" since they were in their teens, and on what might be called a volunteer basis without being stimulated by the bureaucrats, but given time the bureaucrats will catch up with this trend.

In fact, in some states where "Fatherhood for Progress" has developed into quite a sizeable voting bloc, the political influence is quite great.

It is rapidly getting to point where only the underprivileged work to pay taxes.

AT FAMILY REUNION—Ten members of the Jack White family, which homesteaded on the South Plains in the early 1900s, got together at a family reunion in New Home Sunday. Pioneer Family Holds Reunion

Children of the late J. W. (Jack) White and Mrs. B. E. (Mother) White, and other relatives and friends enjoyed a reunion Sunday, July 21, in New Home Civic Club building, the first meeting of the clan in eight years, and stories flowed freely of the early days on the Plains.

Ten children were among the 82 relatives and guests gathered for the family affair, some from as far away as California.

Stories from the early 1900s, when the family homesteaded on the South Plains, were highlights of the reunion.

Delivered Own Daughter

One such story took place in 1906 when the family was "snowed in for three weeks," according to Mrs. N. G. (Dell) Thomas, a daughter from Lubbock.

"Dad couldn't get help and was forced to deliver my sister during a blinding snowstorm," recalls Mrs. Thomas.

"Another time, when dad was in Amarillo for supplies, heavy rains blocked the route home and by the time the freight wagons arrived the community where we lived was pooling our food to have enough," said Mrs. Thomas.

Mrs. Thomas said she can remember many prairie fires and dust storms, and she added, "I can remember using cow chips for heating fires in the winter."

The Jack Whites came to Lubbock in 1896, and the late Judge George R. Bean gave him two lots on which to build their first home. These lots were worth 75 cents each. The family homesteaded near Wolforth in 1900.

They acquired their Lynn county land in 1902 out of the old Deuce of Hearts ranch belonging to Van Sanders and J. K. Milwee. This place was sold to Milwee in 1906, before the Whites moved to Presidio county, near Marfa.

When the Whites returned to Lynn county in 1910, Mr. White bought the George Shumake farm, which is now the B. E. White Estate and owned by eight of the ten White children.

Jack White died in 1939, his wife in 1956.

Mrs. Buford (Mittie) Ater, a daughter told The News the reunion was held at the suggestion of a cousin, Oscar Tibbets, of McLean, Gray county. She and Mrs. Mae Aycox and Miss Virginia Cobb visited Mr. Tibbets on June 26 to gather wild plums to make jam and jelly. In the conversation, Oscar remarked that he would rather see Fred White, brother of Mittie Ater, than anyone in the world. They decided at once to set a date and every effort made to get all the White, Tibbets, and other cousins together, including the Cobb cousins, Browns, Lackeys, and Biffles.

July 21, the date when Jack White would have been 91, was set, and correspondence started at once. Two White sisters from Denver came a week in advance, Fred White and family came on Friday from Ft. Morgan, Colo., Gay, as did E. O. White from Lakewood, Calif., who came by jet plane. The latter's wife was the only sister-in-law absent because she had adverse ideas about flying.

A cousin, Jake Biffle of Gainesville wrote that he couldn't possibly come but said he remembered each cousin in his prayers at night and wished each would help make this a better world in which for better people to live.

Mrs. Ater says the noon meal at the reunion was "fit for a king." Everyone registered by families, and there turned out to be 75 relatives and 23 friends who called during the afternoon.

Joe D. Unfred brought his camera and made a lot of pictures, which Mrs. Ater says they greatly appreciated.

Following were those present: Mrs. Mittie Ater, Meadow; Mrs. Bertie Marcy, 111 Hub

Homes, Lubbock; son Bill and wife Dorothy, and children Randy, Kay and Barbara; and daughter, Mrs. Freddie Stanton, all of Lubbock.

Mrs. Grace Estes, 1861 Orchard Drive, Denver 21, Colo.

Fred White and wife, Helen, and son, Bob, Fort Morgan, Colo.

Wallace White and wife, Dora, and son, Bob, all of route 4, Tahoka; and son Travis and wife Shirley and children, Travis Ray, Carolyn and Jerry, all of route 1, Ropesville.

Delbert White and wife, Bobbie, son Leland and wife, Barbara, and children, Mike and Debbie, all of route 4, Tahoka.

Mrs. Della Thomas and husband, Nathan, 2102 Oxford, Lubbock; and son Nathan Lee Thomas and wife, Dorothy, and children, Shirley and Terry, Lubbock.

Mrs. Louise (Toodie) Bledsoe, 4549 Winona Court, Denver, Colo., 80212.

J. A. (Bill) White and wife, Yuton, daughter Peggy, route 4, Tahoka; and son Garger and wife, Othelda, and daughter Sherri, 1612 43rd St., Lubbock; and daughter, Georgie Gay Timmons, and husband, Howard, all of route 1, Ropesville.

Spray Is Aid In Cattle Protection

College Station — To protect their $3 million investment in the screwworm eradication program, stockmen are encouraged to prevent further worm infestations by spraying their animals on a regular basis, says L-603, a new leaflet of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Spray and Protect Your Investment" explains that the success of the eradication program in the Southwest depends greatly on the cooperation and assistance of the livestock producers and others who contributed mightily to it. It further says that producers can also help their own cause by avoiding the movement of infected animals and by reporting all suspected infestations immediately.

Sprays recommended by the publication are Co-Ral and Korlan. Wetting the animal thoroughly with from one to four quarts depending on their size will prevent the development of screwworm cases. Screwworm flies must have fresh or bloody wounds in which to lay their eggs and untreated scratches or wounds of any type are open invitations to the pests.

The cost of a single application of insecticides is about 10 to 40 cents per animal, depending on size. But the producer gets more than screwworm protection by the use of these sprays, says the leaflet. They will control horn flies, ticks and lice, and decrease the numbers of stable flies, house flies and other external pests. A regular spray program will also reduce anaplasmosis and pinkeys problems by eliminating the insects which spread and irritate the conditions.

As most producers agree, spraying livestock pays dividends, not to mention the protection it gives their large investment in the screwworm program. For a copy of L-603 see your county agricultural agent or write the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

GONZALES HONORS LONE STAR FLAG
 A plaque commemorating the making of the first battle flag of Texas hangs on the walls of the museum at Gonzales, in South Texas, the town where the flag was made.
 It was the first flag on which the now famous "lone star" was used.

This flag carried the words, "Come and Take It," in answer to the Mexican Army's demand for return of the Gonzales cannon. The cannon had been given to the Texans by the Mexicans for defense against the Indians.
 "Wildcat" wells were drilled in 220 of Texas' 284 counties during 1961.

The benefits of the abundant moisture that we received in May and June are rapidly disappearing and irrigation wells have begun to run again to replenish the root-zone supply.

It is during the irrigation season that we are reminded our supply of irrigation water is not endless and that it must be conserved just as our soil must be conserved. If our irrigation water should be depleted our prosperous area would swiftly decline to that of a marginal economy for many farms. This would not only affect the farmers directly concerned but the people of the entire area as well.

Unfortunately it seems that many users of irrigation water do not realize these facts. It is not necessary to look far to see tall water running off fields and see it stream down roadside ditches. This is an utter waste of a resource that should receive the same care as money in the bank, for actually it amounts to the same thing in many respects.

Every farmer that uses irrigation water is encouraged to ask himself the following questions:

- (1) Are my rows running on a slope that is too steep?
- (2) Are my runs too long?
- (3) Am I trying to cover more land than my wells can adequately irrigate?
- (4) Do I allow tail water to irrigate the Johnson grass in the road ditch?

Capital expenditures by the Texas chemical industry totaled $719 million, 23 percent of the U. S. total, in 1961, the major part of which represented expenditures in the petro-chemical field.

KARL PROHL HOME

Karl Prohl, graduate student in North Texas State University, was home over the week end visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Emil Prohl. This fall he expects to enter Boston University, one of the few schools in the nation offering graduate work toward a degree in public relations, which field he plans to enter.

ERRORS IN NEWS STORY

Last week's story about the death of R. E. Lee contained several errors. His first name was Riley, not Robert; he was 84 instead of 83; and he was married Oct. 5, 1919, instead of Oct. 15. The News regrets these errors, but it's sometimes a little hard to get all the facts exactly right in such cases.

Slaton Praises Local Tournament

Slaton, Texas
July 24, 1963
Charles Reid
Area 4 Tournament Director
Little League Baseball
Tahoka, Texas
Dear Charles,

I wish to express our thanks and appreciation for the manner in which the Area 4 tournament was held in your fair city of Tahoka.

We were treated real nice and everything was in tip top shape as far as we were concerned. The boys on the All Star team thought you had the field in good shape and had some of the best umpiring we have seen in a long time. We feel that when the boys are satisfied we, the grown-ups, should have no gripes coming and the boys were satisfied all the way.

We hope your district tournament is as big a success as the area tournament was and we will be rooting for Tahoka all the way to victory.

We feel that one Charlie Brown pitched himself one fine ball game against us and we know he will continue to help Tahoka win district. Charlie is a fine boy and a competitor all the way. Your whole All Star team is a bunch of boys that we feel anyone should be glad to support as they are fine sports and good ball players; of course, this is to be said of All Star manager and coach also.

Again we say thanks for showing us a nice time and a good tournament.

Charles, the only thing we did not like was the fact that you beat us, but after all who likes defeat?

We hope Tahoka goes all the way and will be backing you 100%.

See you at the district tournament.

Very truly yours,

became wild when cautioned by an umpire for stepping off the mound, and was relieved by Randy White, who went all the way for a 4 to 2 victory.

Randy gave up only two hits, one in the third and one in the sixth, although he and Larry gave up six walks between them. Post scored one run in the first and one in the sixth.

On the mound for Post, Darrell Oden gave up six hits and allowed no walks. Applewhite, Arnold, and Brown scored on a Tahoka rally in the third inning, and White added a run in the fourth. Each pitcher fanned six batters.

Post had drawn a bye in the first round of play.

Slaton 10, O'Donnell 0

In the second game Friday, Slaton breezed past O'Donnell, which had also drawn a bye, 10 to 0, as the O'Donnell boys got off to a bad first inning start and were victims of the jitters.

Terry Vaughn had hard luck as the starting O'Donnell pitcher as Slaton jumped into a six-run lead on two hits, walks, and fielding errors. He was relieved by Jesse Benitez, who did a creditable job but gave up three runs in the third and one in the fourth.

Winning pitcher, David Todd turned in a superb performance for Slaton, giving up only one hit and was backed-up by fine teamwork.

Lamesa 3, Crosbyton 2
In the consolation game Saturday afternoon, Lamesa downed Crosbyton 3 to 2 in a fine ball game. Keith Mills, winning pitcher, gave up three hits, while losing pitcher, Phil Morris, relieved by Tracy Jordan, gave up five hits.

Lamesa scored its three runs in the second inning on two walks, an error and one hit; Crosbyton its two runs in the fourth.

Post 3, O'Donnell 4
Saturday night, Post took third place over O'Donnell in a 9-4 ball game.

Hard-luck O'Donnell had ten hits off winning pitcher, Bill Alexander of Post, but couldn't get the scores around, although the O'Donnell team committed only one error. Lynn McGruder, the losing pitcher, was relieved in the third by Maurice Fowler. Between them, they gave up nine hits and walked eight. Richard Brueger helped Post's cause with three hits.

Tahoka 3, Slaton 1
Tahoka took the championship in the final game Saturday night by playing errorless ball while Charlie Brown, pitching, gave up one hit, struck out 10 of the 20 batters he faced, and walked only two, while he and his mates were picking up three runs on five hits.

Slaton pitcher, Claude Strickland, gave up only five hits and two walks, and also fanned 10 batters. But his team-mates committed four errors. Johnny Pettie got the only Slaton hit, a single in the fourth inning.

All the scoring was in the first inning. Hobby Chapple, Slaton's first batter, drew a walk, stole second, went to third on a passed ball, and came in home on a passed ball.

Starting the bottom half, Gregg Thomas was thrown out at first. Billy Applewhite got a single, Mike Glenn struck out, and Charlie Brown got a single to put two on. Larry Arnold hit a long one to right field, muffed by the Slaton boy, and Applewhite and Brown came in to score. Ruben Cazares hit a single, went to second on an error, and Arnold came in to score the final run.

From then on, the game was a pitcher's battle, although Tahoka threatened in the second as Applewhite and Glenn each got hits before the side was retired.

Fans were highly complimentary of the umpiring by Robert McSpadden, Russell Sill, and Jim Schillingburg, all of Lubbock.

Many people, including Jaycees and wives, helped Charles Reid, tournament director, stage the tournament. Reid said special thanks were due Turner Rogers and H. B. McCord Jr. for taking care of concessions, Manager Clifton Hamilton and Coach George Glenn, businessmen, and all who helped get the field in shape.

Members of the Tahoka All-Star team are: Larry Arnold, 1b and pitcher; Bill Curry, M; Jim Adams, T; Michael Glenn, ss; Gregg Thomas, 3b; Reuben Cazares, c; Charlie Brown, p and cf; Billy Applewhite, 2b; Ray Chapa, cf; Steve Roberts, rf; Randy White, lf; and H. Jody Edwards, rf; Tommy Spears, cf; and Ira Ray Collins, cf.

Former Resident Views Eclipse

Mrs. Ruby Cloe, formerly of Tahoka, now living at 612 East 12th in Anchorage, Alaska, writes interestingly of the recent eclipse of the sun:

Today we were privileged to view the eclipse without leaving our yard. Although the total eclipse was in effect approximately 120 miles from here, we still got quite a thrill from what we saw.

A few minutes before 10:00 a. m. we noticed the atmosphere changing. The sun though still shining was not quite so bright.

For weeks now all we've heard is "Be careful while viewing the eclipse." So armed with our white cardboard over-exposed negatives we went out to look.

By looking through two thicknesses of negatives you could see the sun in a crescent shape similar to a quarter moon. All this time the air was getting colder and it was getting darker. We took a white table cloth and spread it on the ground beneath a tree where the shadow of the leaves would hit it. The cloth was covered with little crescent shaped shadows. It was fantastic. Then, too, by taking a white piece of cardboard putting a pin hole in it and holding it where it's shadow hit another white cardboard you could see the exact shape of the sun at that time.

This went on for about 30 minutes in all, however it never got completely dark here in Anchorage. However our nights are not real dark here anyway since the sun sets about 9:30 p. m. and rises shortly after 2:00 a. m.

Needless to say we enjoyed it immensely.

CARMACK VISITOR
Miss Kathy Dysart, 11 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cabot Dysart of Roswell, New Mexico, is in Tahoka to visit her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Carmack.

She also plans to spend some time visiting her two cousins in Brownfield, Lee and Fran Fulford, and a Lamesa cousin, Heather McPhaul.

Pony All-Stars Drop Close Ones

Lynn County's Pony League All-Stars suffered two heartbreaking losses Tuesday and Wednesday nights in the District I, Section III Tournament held in Lubbock.

It was anybody's ball game in the Tuesday night match but a dropped ball in the outfield resulted in a 9-8 loss for the local team. Southwest was considered one of the tougher teams in the tournament but the Lynn boys played them a good game, going into the seventh inning with an 8-5 lead.

Lynn county came up with nine hits with Pedro Gurferez having a 3 for 4 night. Mitchell Williams hit a three run homer plus a single. Buzze Barnes pitched five-innings, relieved by Dennis McKenzie in the fifth, but was charged with the loss.

Tuesday night's bad luck seemed to plague the team again on Wednesday night as the Northern Lubbock team slipped past Lynn 9-7. The Lynn boys went in to the sixth inning behind 7-2 and fought back to tie up the game until the bottom of the seventh when a long fly to right field bounced out of the fielder's glove

Duane Wyatt started on the mound for Lynn to be relieved in the first inning by McKinzie, who was also relieved in the first by Gutterez. With the bases loaded and five runs across for Lubbock, Gutterez gave up only two more runs until the final inning. Gutterez was charged with the loss. Dwight Crawford had a three run homer for Lynn and Gutterez picked up two hits.

Manager Thomas Jolly and Coach James Hollars praised the boys highly for their fine performances both nights and felt they played very well.

Playing for the Lynn County All-Stars were Dickie Turner, Dwayne Wyatt, Jimmy Kosals, Rudy Nava, Kenneth Vestal, Dennis McKenzie, Gary Evans, Billy Barnes, Dwight Crawford, Creath

Single Men Outnumber Women In Lynn County

(Special to The News)

New York — Calling all single women. Now hear this. Lynn county is loaded with single men.

The surplus of bachelors is such that there are 144 single men locally for every 100 single women.

The findings are based on the latest marital figures, gathered from all parts of the country by the Department of Commerce. The reports indicate that the male-female ratio varies considerably from region to region.

They show that the number of single men and boys in Lynn county over the age of 14 amounts to 801, while the number of single women and girls in that age bracket is only 556.

These figures do not include men and women who have been divorced and widowed.

The ratio of single men to single women, 144 to 100, is higher than it is in many areas of the country. The average is 134 to 100 in the United States and, in the State of Texas, 137 to 100.

The news that the county is a good man-hunting preserve seems to have gotten around. The marriage rate locally, after a temporary lull, appears to be on the rise.

The figures show that 73.7 percent of the men and women of marriageable age in Lynn county are now married.

That is quite a sizeable proportion. Throughout the United States as a whole, the range is from 44 percent to more than 80 percent.

The trend toward early marriages, which started about 25 years ago, is now in full swing. Teen-age marriages have become commonplace, with nearly half the girls taking their vows before they are 20. The majority of them become brides at 18.

For men, also, the average age at first marriage keeps dropping. It is now around 22.

In many cases, the young newlyweds go on with their education, aided by financial assistance from their parents. Often, the bride quits school and takes a job while her spouse remains to get his diploma or college degree.

The report also notes the number of Lynn county residents who were formerly married. Of the men, 94 are listed as widowed and 43 divorced and, of the women, 358 widowed and 37 divorced.

Mrs. W. A. Hardt accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Joe Caruana and her family to Ruidoso recently. They left on July 14 and spent a week in the resort city. The Caruanas live in Lubbock.

"Family Security"

U. S. Savings Bonds form a good background for family security. That's the little family's message to Americans. Regular saving through risk-free Savings Bonds can give any family something to fall back on. And that basis of security can be strengthened even further with extra bonds purchased during the 1963 Freedom Bond Drive. Nearly everyone has someone to care for—some sort of family. Savings Bonds can help a great deal in fulfilling responsibilities to loved ones, and in maintaining an atmosphere of family, and national, well-being.

Rice Farming Is Rotary Subject

"Rice Production in Arkansas", was the subject of a talk, illustrated by color slides, at the Rotary Club Thursday by Thomas Bormann, a native of Stuttgart, Ark., a junior in McMurry College, Abilene, and this summer the youth director at First Methodist Church.

Bormann said Arkansas is one of four states in which rice production is a major crop; the state has 442,000 allotted acres, and his county, Arkansas county, has 78,000 acres. His father has a 500-acre farm, about 250 acres in rice.

Good farmers get a yield of 100 to 150 bushels per acre, and the government support price is $2.00 per bushel. But, a so-called small farmer needs about $50,000 worth of equipment to grow the crop.

About 33 inches of water are required during the growing season. Water is used from rivers, lakes, bayous, reservoirs, and from 6-inch to 30-inch irrigation wells. Some dam up streams. Soil must be light-textured with a tight sub-soil.

Many use airplanes to seed their land from April until June. Water is kept on the rice field three or four inches deep during growing season, kept in the level field by levies, which are walked daily to see that the water does not break out. Water is kept on eight weeks, drained and fertilized, then flooded until shortly before time for harvest, when the field is drained again. In the meantime, helicopters are used to spray for killing coffee beans. Much more powerful combines are needed to harvest the grain than used for milo or wheat.

Crop rotation practices are carried out, some using soy beans, ipespedeza, blank rotation, and fish farming. In the latter, the field is flooded for two years, stocked with fish such as crappie, bream, and channel cat, and these fish fertilize the field. He said this

Savings Bond Sales Nearing County Goal

During the first half of 1963, a year ago, reflecting a 10.5 per cent gain. As of June 30, 1963, the total amount of outstanding E and H Savings Bonds, according to a report received from A. C. Verner, chairman of the Lynn County Savings Bond Committee, 80.6 per cent of the county's 1963 goal has been achieved.

Savings Bond sales in Texas during the first half of 1963 were $76,246,599 or 50.6 per cent of the 1963 goal of $150,600,000.

"It is encouraging to note that Savings Bonds sales nationally are setting a new peace-time high. Bond sales during the first 6 months of 1963 were $2,517 million as compared to $2,277 million

V. F. Jones' Visit In South Texas

Mr. and Mrs. V. F. Jones returned last Thursday from a trip to San Benito in deep South Texas where they visited their daughter, Mrs. Don Cowan and her family. Cowan is the local county agent there.

Prior to the South Texas trip, Mrs. Jones attended a family reunion in Eden on July 6 and 7 and visited relatives in that area until Jones joined her on July 12.

They report the climate and agriculture in South Texas is quite different to that of the Plains.

McGinty's Write About Austria

Mrs. Fred McGinty and daughter, Montie Ruth, are on an extended tour of Europe, and are now visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. Roy (Mariana) Long, whose husband is a Church of Christ missionary in Vienna, Austria.

A recent letter to another daughter, Mrs. Dale Thomas of Longview, was passed on to Fred, and thence to The News.

Knowing how much Mariana has always enjoyed music, Mrs. McGinty suggested they have their radio repaired. But, Mariana told her she would have to pay a fee of four or five dollars a month for the privilege of tuning in a program. Government cars cruise the city, and if they detect anyone using a radio or TV without a permit the person is subject to arrest.

"A nearby furniture dealer decided to stage a big sale," she writes, "and clear out his stock, so he advertised reduced prices. The law moved in and told him that he was being unfair to his competitors, so they closed his doors and locked them. He opened up his warehouse and proceeded with his furniture sale. The law moves in and closes and locks his warehouse and jails the man."

"Socialistic governments are for the birds! For four days Mariana has been trying to get a doctor to check about her sore foot... so she called her baby doctor to get him to recommend a foot specialist. He told her to give him time to inquire about and call back. Each time she would call back she would be told that he was out or that he was busy. Finally, in desperation, she went to the hospital, saw his car at his office and went in and asked to see him, only to be told that he was out. She says if she were an Austrian and could report herself as a number instead of as an individual—that she could get through the gate... I am going to be a street preacher and start talking against socialized medicine for good old America."

She says they lock every door everytime they leave the apartment. Locks are on everything. If something is taken from a home in Vienna, the law is called, and if every door, even between rooms and to closets are not locked, they mark it off as your misfortune.

She says, however, not everything is bad about Austria. Nights are cool, no sandstorms, few thunderclouds, parks are beautiful and Austrians have hundreds of flower boxes in windows, on roofs, and in every conceivable place.

Housekeepers scrub the halls of the apartment buildings down on their hands and knees with elbow grease, and daily some tenant is seen out back beating her rugs with a heavy rug beater.

Main form of entertainments for guests in an Austrian home is to take them walking, for hours, through the beautiful parks, which are very beautiful with not one square inch of unkept area—rocks, streams, waterfalls, shrubbery, bird life.

Weren't our Little Leaguers great in the tournament last week end? We were proud of these kids. They went out to play ball—and took Lamesa, Post, and Slaton in successive games and the right to advance to district—while exhibiting a fine type of play, tremendous pitching, cool-headedness, and good sportsmanship. Charles Reid, Clifton Hamilton, George Glenn, all the boys, and all the many workers are to be congratulated on the fine way in which the tournament went off. We were proud of the conduct of the visiting boys from O'Donnell, Lamesa, Post, Slaton, and Crosby—all real sportsmen. Little League was on display at its very best here last week end. We'll see some more of the same this week and when Tahoka battles it out with Lubbock and Wolforth for the district title.

We do not receive or read the Daily Worker, American Communist newspaper. But, we're told this newspaper supports just about all of President Kennedy's liberal proposals, including civil rights, medicare, expanded help to low income groups, and foreign aid. There no longer is a Socialist Party—the liberal Democrats have stolen their thunder by taking over all of the Socialist's party platform planks.

The News experienced recently a small instance of the evils of an all-powerful central government such as we are gradually building up in the United States. Two representatives of Federal Crop Insurance Corporation blew into The News office with a long "blurb" about this branch of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The News was told that if we would run the "blurb," actually advertising, we would get some paid advertising later. We ran a part of the story, that which seemed most newsworthy. When the paid advertising failed to come through, we wrote the agency a pretty hot letter. We got the advertising.

Last presidential election, voters had little choice. They either had to vote for a liberal Democrat with little proven ability in affairs of government, reared with a silver spoon in his mouth, or vote for a colorless "me-too" Republican, also of questioned ability. One flaw in our democracy is that the people really have little or no say in selection of the nominees. We start out with a precinct convention, usually attended by one to five percent of the voters and controlled by one to three or four men. From then on, it's the boys who practice party politics as a hobby, ride with the group in power, or seek some end for selfish reasons. We don't know how to improve the system, except to urge all citizens to attend precinct conventions, which does not work, either.

Right now, our present Democrat Administration is not too popular among people in this section. Several Tahoka farmers have told us recently, they have never crossed party lines, but will do so next time if the Republicans put up anything like a conservative candidate.

But, Republicans are split, too, between liberal and conservative factions. As we see it, Rockefeller would be some more of the same. We don't see how the Republicans can hope to win if they go with Rockefeller, whose only argument could be that he would be able to do the job better than Kennedy.

Some local people say they think Goldwater is a better Democrat than the type we have in power. If his popularity continues to rise in the Midwest and South, it is entirely possible that Goldwater could give Kennedy a loss-race.

The drive for "civil rights" is loaded with dynamite in more ways than one. In the first place, we're told by better authorities than this writer that all the laws needed are already on the books. But, the Administration has to make a big play—for the looks of things—and white people and Negroes both may lose more freedoms while gaining one.

Rep. George Mahon, who declares he will oppose the accommodations provisions of President Kennedy's sweeping bill, says "I am opposed to the provision which would authorize the U. S. Attorney General to bring suits in behalf of individual citizens in civil rights cases."

Gov. John Connally also came out Saturday in opposition to the President's bill, stating, "I cannot accept nor support the proposition of violating one person's rights to bestow privileges on another person regardless of color or creed. . . . You cannot bestow education by administrative edict; neither can you assure economic opportunity solely by legislation."

If a man says he can save money these days, that's jawbone. If he says he's trying to save money, that's wishbone. If he really does save money, that's backbone.—Clipped.

We possibly did Dr. John Selby of Lubbock an injustice last week. He is the man who volunteered as a public service to the people of Lynn county to give TB X-rays free to our citizens who had positive reactions. The Doctor never dreamed that people would flood his office all at once. Then too, according to information relayed to us, he had a very ill lady patient causing people to have to wait. Mrs. Lillian McCord, local school nurse, says the Doctor gets not one penny for this service, and is furnishing his own time and staff and use of X-ray equipment, reports to the person's physician, all free of charge as a public service. Incidentally, about 150 Lynn county people had received free X-rays in his office last week end.

Tom Suits, who once worked for The News, in his Petersburg Journal says merchants in that town are having a good business in sale of shotgun shells and gun oil. It seems a "window peeper" is active in that town, and citizens are getting prepared to give him a little dose of bird-shot.

J. Lance Suits, Tom's daddy, with whom we once worked down at Snyder back in the early 1920's, writes an interesting column in The Journal headed by these words: "Uncensored—We cut our timber where we find it and let the chips fall where they may."

Here are a few quotes from J. L.'s column: When money talks, it doesn't matter about the kind of grammar it uses. . . . Old Dobbin had his faults, and they were many, but an entire family was never wiped out in a buggy accident. . . . It's strange that in the same month the Russian government sent a woman into orbit, a woman sent the British government into orbit. . . . A preacher says playing golf makes him think. But being a preacher, he doesn't say what it makes him think. . . . A small boy went in a stationery store, browsed around, and then asked awkwardly, "Have you got any blank report cards?"

The Teamsters Union magazine

this month has these: When some people say they will do anything for you, then mean anything that can be done without sacrifice or effort. . . . To parents a miracle drug is any one the kids will take without screaming. . . . Money is a wonderful thing; you can take a dollar and buy 35 or 40 cents worth of anything you want. . . . An office girl we know says she sure did enjoy the two weeks' vacation her boss has just returned from.

A certain young fellow named Beebe wished to marry a lady named Phoebe; "But," he said, I must see what the clerical fee will be before Phoebe be Beebe."

Agriculture Has Major Role In State Economy

College Station—The value of Texas' farm and ranch production is exceeded by only one other raw material, oil. The value of the state's total yearly agricultural production exceeds the payroll for manufacturing, or the total of construction awards or the payroll for retail trades, points out John McHaney, extension economist.

Farm and ranch production each year has a total value of just under 2.5 billion dollars, but, explains McHaney, agriculture adds much more to our total economy than just income from the sale of products. Business firms which assemble, process, distribute, transport wholesale and retail the products of Texas' farms and ranches employ about 20 percent of the labor force of the state and add about 3.9 billion dollars to the business economy. Their primary concern is to get the agricultural products to the final consumer in the desired form and at the right place and time.

Simple addition, says McHaney, shows that the sale of agricultural products plus the costs of processing and distributing them annually adds to the state's economy about $6.3 billion. The economic destiny of most Texas counties, the economist adds, hinges primarily on the agribusiness economy.

And commenting upon the future of the Texas agricultural industry, McHaney emphasizes the future will belong to those people and states which work to keep their agricultural economy competitive with other areas of the nation and world. Agriculture, he adds, is no longer a way of life but rather a big competitive business. He's strong for keeping the industry in Texas in a strong competitive position.

VISIT IN EAST TEXAS

Mr and Mrs. Steve Thompson and little baby left Saturday to visit relatives in East Texas. In fact, the lawyer's father, who lives in Kilgore, had written that the fish were biting, and Steve couldn't resist the temptation to go down there "visiting."

THE NEWS

New Grain Cars

Good news for grain shippers is coming from Cleburne, Texas, where Santa Fe Railway crews are producing three specially-equipped cars a day on an assembly line. Nearly 450 are being built, featuring a double-plug door with a leak-proof gasket, instead of old-style doors that must be backed with a removable grain door or liner to keep loss to a minimum. The small upper portion of the door is used for loading and provides access for sampling by grain inspectors, while the bottom remains tightly sealed until unloading. The new door expedites loading and virtually eliminates loss in transit, the railroad reports.

"OLD RIP" STILL ON DISPLAY AT EASTLAND

Everyone, young and old, has read about "Old Rip."

He has traveled as a dignitary all over the USA and even visited President Calvin Coolidge in the White House. (Which, incidentally, is pretty good for a little old "Horny Toad.")

What made Old Rip famous? This little horned frog slept 31 years in a dehydrated state in a little tin box in the cornerstone of the courthouse in Eastland, Texas.

You can see him today in his plush casket at the Eastland Courthouse and read his fabulous story again.

Kind words never die—they just become victims of ingratitude.

About 5,500 persons visit the White House daily.

Editor Hits At Farm Labor Act

As if the farmers didn't have enough problems, a new one is on the way. Deskin Wells, editor of The Wellington Leader, writes:

The embattled farmers of the nation might well take note of a bill that is being pushed by the Administration and on which hearings are now being held in the Senate. Here are some of the provisions of the Farm Labor Recruitment Act:

1. Gives the Secretary of Labor authority to fix minimum wages for farm workers at any level he chooses.
2. Authorizes a compulsory program of recruitment at the discretion of the Secretary of Labor.
3. Gives the Secretary of Labor authority to compel a "closed shop" in agriculture, actually allowing labor unions to come in and take over.
4. Authorizes the Secretary of Labor to write labor-management contracts.
5. Gives the Secretary dictatorial powers to decide which prospective employees are willing, able and qualified workers; to determine that transportation, meals, housing, insurance and medical care provided by farmers are adequate; to determine what records will be kept by farmers; to decide what areas need additional workers; to decide when farmers have violated any provision of the law, and to establish substantial contractual responsibility by farmers with no comparable responsibility by workers.

Take another look at that last clause: "And to establish substantial contractual responsibility by farmers with no comparable responsibility by workers." Better write your Senators and Congressmen today.—Cecil Waggoner in Claude News.
