Mr. and Mrs. John B. Ray, Pioneer Couple, Celebrating 60th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Ray, who have lived on the same farm in eastern Lynn county for 47 years, will celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary on August 16.

The Rays say they had a big celebration on their 50th anniversary, when they shook hands with 200 friends and relatives, and they are not planning any such event for their 60th—will just wait for their 75th.

Mr. Ray bought the quarter section in 1916 from C. W. Post for $24.00 an acre plus $10.00 an acre for the improvements, which consisted of a new four-room house, well and windmill, barn, and out-side fences. They still live in that same house, although it has been greatly improved and modernized.

Mr. Ray shipped out in a freight car with his stock and farm tools and household goods, arriving on December 24, 1916. Mrs. Ray and the children came a week later, and by that time he had the barn fixed up to live in until the house could be built.

People said anyone who came to this country and lived in a barn would never leave. The Rays have never left.

They broke out the land, but the 1917-1918 drought hit. Mr. Ray and the two older boys, Wade and Henry, went to Petersburg to head maize, bale hay, and pick cotton. Mrs. Ray and their daughter, Eva May, now Mrs. Tom Mason, and the baby boy, John Paul, stayed at home. Mr. Ray and daughter harvested the 1918 crop—all two bales of the cotton raised.

But since then, in spite of the depression, the Rays say the land has been good to them, and they are now able to enjoy more of the comforts of life in a little more leisure.

Mr. Ray was born at Nolanville, Bell county, Dec. 7, 1883. When he moved to Wise county in 1902, he met Miss Ida D. Foster, born at Greenwood in that county on April 19, 1886, and they were married the following August 18, 1903, at Sycamore.

The Lynn County News, Enclosed is a check for our paper. We really enjoy reading your paper. Although we don't know many people there, we are interested in what goes on around there.

Our daughter is married to the Church of Christ minister, Don Browning. We see his name in the paper quite often. We also have a granddaughter, Janee Browning, and we can't understand why anyone that is as sweet as that baby, doesn't make the paper once in awhile. She is the only grandchild on either side of the family, so you can see why she is so important.

We really enjoy the Printer's Inklings.

Three Local Boys At Austin Meet

Allen Cox, Jim Wells and Jack Wood will leave Friday noon for Austin where they will attend the first Attorney General's Youth Conference to be held Saturday and Sunday, according to an announcement from the office of State Attorney General Waggoner Carr.

The three young men were selected for their outstanding extracurricular activities as well as leadership and scholarship qualities. Conference participants also had to be of junior or senior standing. The Tahoka Rotary Club will sponsor the trip for the local youths.

The conference, resulting from a meeting between 100 Austin high school youth leaders and Attorney General Carr, is a new approach to combating youth crime in Texas. The idea behind the program is to give the youth of the state a big hand in solving the problem themselves.

Over 600 delegates are expected to register in the State Capitol Rotunda for the workshop meeting. The 1963 program will concentrate on six major areas: law enforcement, public awareness, community service, spare-time and recreation, employment to combat "dropout", and school administration and the delinquent.

The three Tahoka boys will go to Austin by chartered bus with other delegates from the Lubbock area. They will arrive in the Capitol about 5:00 p. m. Friday and will leave about noon Sunday for the return trip.

W. T. says they spent four days in the series of meetings, which were very instructive, and also enjoyed merchandise displays by about 150 manufacturers. This was the first national Piggy Wiggly convention they had attended.

While in Chicago, they also did some sight-seeing and saw a major league ball game, the Cubs vs. the Dodgers, which required 11 innings for the Dodgers to win.

They made the trip to and from the convention a pleasure trip. On the way up, they left here on July 30 and spent the first night in Elk City, Okla., the second in Fayetteville, Ark., the third at Bull Shoals on White River, and the fourth night in Springfield, Ill.

Returning, they came down through Indiana and Kentucky to Memphis, Tenn., then to Hot Springs, Ark., stopped off in Mena, Ark., to have dinner with the J. B. Autry family, formerly of Tahoka, and got back to Tahoka late Sunday night.

THE REVOLT AGAINST BEAUTY

Lubbock Avalanche

Sometime ago, an English scholar, writing in an American university publication, described the modern world as being in revolt against beauty. Describing the rise of the newer, brasher forms of art, Michael Polanyi, a Fellow of Morton College at Oxford University, said: "The 'poetic' has vanished from our poetry, the 'picturesque' from our painting, the 'harmonious' from our music; gone are heroes and heroines from our novels and plays. All these were rejected in the pursuit of a harsher artistic truth."

Mr. Polanyi was writing chiefly of esthetic matters, but, if he had gone further, he would have found that the revolt against beauty has been carried into almost every realm of modern life. Probably the revolt has shown its greatest manifestation in the United States, where a veritable war has been carried on against all forms of traditional beauty. However, other nations have been affected by it as well. In most places, the campaign has been waged in the name of "Progress." Anything that gets in the way of commercial development—an historic old building, a natural beauty spot, a stretch of primeval forest—must go. "Progress" must be served at all costs.

Several news stories recently have emphasized the trend. One told of an effort under way to preserve California's magnificent coast redwoods from their greatest enemy—man. Many of the redwoods have withstood the ravages of time, fire, and flood since the time of Christ. But now responsible logging threatens the tallest trees on earth. And individuals and organizations have joined forces to save them from destruction.

Waldrips Return From Washington

Returning to their home Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Waldrip spent a month visiting and sight-seeing in the northeast. They left home July 18th and went by way of Oklahoma, Arkansas, Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia, Tennessee, the Carolinas and Virginia. They were six days on the trip going, reaching Washington, D. C. July 23rd.

The Waldrip's oldest son, Hospitalman First Class Bill Waldrip, lives in Washington, D. C. The two weeks spent there were very enjoyable. Besides all the places to see in Washington, D. C., side trips were taken to Mt. Vernon, Fort McHenry in Baltimore Harbor where the "Star Spangled Banner" was written and to "Great Falls", Maryland. They also spent one day at Mayo Beach and went swimming in the Chesapeake Bay. The visits to Annapolis, capitol of Maryland, and to Baltimore, streets of "row houses" with white marble steps was a sight in itself.

Other points of interest were a visit to old Ford Theatre where Lincoln was shot and to the house across the street to the room where he died; to Stone Mountain in Georgia; to Lookout Mountain at Chattanooga, Tenn.; to Skyline Caverns in Virginia; and a short tour through part of Mammoth Cave in Kentucky. Also Natural Bridge in Virginia, it being one of the Seven Wonders of the World as well as Mammoth Cave.

While in Washington, D. C. the Waldrips heard a nephew who plays in the Navy band.

The Waldrips reported that there is no parking in Washington, D. C. as there are so many, many people.

Other highlights of the trip was camping out in Cedars of Lebanon, located in a state park in Tennessee. They also saw many other interesting parks on their return home.

They had the privilege of riding on a ferry boat across the Ohio River.

They reported having had a wonderful trip.

Gordon Arnold was admitted to Brownfield General Hospital Saturday night at about mid-night and underwent major surgery Wednesday. He is reported to be doing very well.

Elbert Crawford who farms two miles south and one mile west of Draw is carrying out a complete conservation plan on his farm through the Great Plains Conservation Program. His cultural practices include a conservation cropping system, crop residue use, contour farming and proper pasture use.

In addition, Elbert will receive cost share for building a tank for livestock water, seeding grass and building terraces.

This past spring he seeded 20 acres to Blue Panic grass. He had no grass seeding boxes available but with a farmer's usual resourcefulness he did the job by building shortening cans into regular seeder boxes. The plates were removed from the boxes and a nailed hole punched in the shortening cans. The seed were dropped on top of the ground and received a rain a few days later.

Elbert has gotten a good stand of Blue Panic and is enthusiastic about its grazing potential.

Elbert states that his native pasture, which consists mostly of Buffalo grass is not capable of carrying his livestock through the summer, but with his Blue Panic he will be in good shape.

Farmers Coop Calls Meeting

Stockholders and patrons of Farmers Cooperative Ass'n. No. 1 of Tahoka have been called to meet at 10:00 a. m. Saturday in the fair barn in southwest Tahoka, according to announcement of Manager Curtis Stevens.

Barbecue lunch will be served at noon to those attending.

The Association has just completed its 34th year of operation with a total of 13,600 bales of cotton ginned this last season.

Stevens says, "The audit report, which will be read at the meeting, shows the gins and service station have made considerable savings for farmers of this area who own them."

Door prizes will be given away at intervals during Saturday's meeting, and Stevens says it will be wise for members to be on time as one of the biggest prizes will be given away at the opening of the meeting.

Two new directors will be elected at the meeting, as terms of L. D. Howell and T. D. Dunlap expire at this time. Other members of the board are Cleve Littlepage, president, Dan Thomas, J. O. Allen, Charlie Lichey, and Lois Smelser.

"After the meeting is adjourned," the manager says, "you may want to visit our plants, in one of which new machinery has just recently been installed. Our facilities have been steadily improved until they are as good as any in this area."

"Wildcat" wells were drilled in 220 of Texas' 254 counties during 1961.

TEXAS BATTLEGROUND IS NOTED TOURIST ATTRACTION

Remember reading about the Texas Revolution and the final battle where General Sam Houston and his valiant Texas Army, thundering "Remember the Alamo", defeated the Mexican Army of Santa Anna?

Today this San Jacinto Battleground, just east of Houston, is a beautiful sight to behold.

On this "Battleground of Victory" there now stands the world's tallest stone monument. You can take an elevator up the 370-foot massive, air-conditioned, giant edifice and survey the entire battlefield.

A huge 35-foot, 220-ton "Star of Texas" rests atop the monument. It is as impressive as the majestic state it represents.

Rev. Pistone Is Home From Holy Land Tour

Rev. John Wm. Pistone, pastor of the Baptist Mexican Mission of Tahoka, returned Sunday from the Baptist Youth World Conference in Beirut, Lebanon and an extensive tour of the Holy Land.

Rev. Pistone left France by jet August 8, arriving in New York the same day and making the three-day trip to Tahoka by bus.

Rev. Pistone made the pilgrimage through the Holy Land as a part of a guided tour directed by Dr. J. B. Adair of Baylor University. In speaking of his trip, Rev. Pistone said "the problems caused by war are still fresh" citing the "sad expression" of many people as an example.

Telling of the unrest in the Middle East, Rev. Pistone said his group couldn't visit Syria because of a revolution which broke out the day they were to enter the country. He also says there is still much border trouble between Jordan and Israel with shooting incidents almost every day. In fact, the thing that impressed him the most was that to "become a Christian in the Middle East (Arab countries especially) one endangers his life, even unto death."

On the bright side, Rev. Pistone spoke of the almost unbelievable progress being made in Israel. He says the country is irrigating vast desert lands with huge pipes bringing water from the river Jordan just before it empties into the Dead Sea. In contrast, he also pointed out that some of the people live as they did hundreds of years ago with water for both animals and people being taken from a central village well.

The group inspected Baptist work all along their travels and visited sites of special Biblical events too numerous to mention, according to Rev. Pistone. Of special significance to him was standing on the very spot where Paul spoke to the crowds in Athens.

Rev. Pistone took colored slides during the trip in order to make his talks on his travels more descriptive.

IMPORTANT NEW FILM STARS PAUL NEWMAN

"Hud," an uncompromisingly realistic new motion picture, starring Paul Newman in the title role with Melvyn Douglas, Patricia Neal and Brandon de Wilde opens Sunday, Aug. 18 at the Rose Theatre.

"Hud" is the story of contemporary Texas cattle ranching—told in a powerfully dramatic manner. Paul Newman is Hud, the son of an old-line cattle rancher. Hud doesn't care about cattle or the traditions of the Southwest; he is only interested in drinking, fighting, loving, and hot-rodding over the Texas highways in his Cadillac. His attitudes bring him into sharp conflict with his father, and finally erupt into an orgy of violence.

"Hud" is adapted from a novel by cattleman Larry McMurtry called "Horseman, Pass By," produced by Irving Ravetch and Martin Ritt, and directed by Ritt. The great visual beauty of the film can be attributed to one of Hollywood's most talented photographers, James Wong Howe.

Construction Begins On New Parsonage

Construction was started this week on a new pastor's home for the Mexican Baptist Mission of the First Baptist Church. It is to be located on the corner of South Fifth and Ave. H. and will be of brick veneer construction with three bedrooms, living room, kitchen-dining room, bath and a half, and attached garage. Higginbotham-Bartlett Co. will do the building.

This is the first step in relocating facilities of the Mission which is necessary because the old Mission properties are in the right-of-way for the new divided highway to be built through Tahoka. Further study is being given to the location of the new Mission Church building to be built at a future date.

Attendance at the mission has doubled and unusual progress in every way has been experienced under the leadership of Rev. John W. Pistone, who came as pastor January 1st, 1962. He has just returned from a trip to Lebanon, Palestine and other countries of the Middle East and Europe.

Mrs. J. O. Allen was admitted to Tahoka Hospital Thursday as a medical patient and was dismissed Friday.

Boys Ranch . . . Lyntegar . . .

$100 a month for the next year, if the project is continued on a sound basis.

Frank Pugh, publisher of a rodeo magazine, pledged proceeds from program sales at the O'Donnell Junior Rodeo to the ranch.

Others also pledged their cooperation, work, and donations if a means can be found to continue. A barbecue benefit to pay off the current indebtedness was also proposed for the near future.

Mrs. Cox reported expenses of the ranch the past year had been slightly in excess of $12,000, but part of this was funds for moving and remodeling the building, installing furnishings and a water well.

Mr. Miller said there have been as high as 14 boys at the ranch during the year, and a minimum of $50.00 per month per boy is required for food, clothing, etc.

Roy Burdett, Dawson county juvenile officer and Mr. Davis stated they were highly pleased with the results of boys they had sent to the ranch, boys who were homeless and were not acceptable by orphan homes, boys they did not want to see sent to Gatesville Training School. County Attorney Adcock said he had failed to get boys in other similar homes who were taken at South Plains Boys Ranch without question.

The body went on record in praise of Jack Miller for his work with the ranch and efforts to give a home to boys in trouble or in need of a home and love and kind treatment.

The Ranch had its inception back in the fall of 1961 at Lamesa, and Mr. Miller became involved in the project. But, the promoters ran into some questionable practices and left the country. Just getting started well at that time, the project was dumped into Miller's hands, Mr. Adcock and Mr. Huffaker related.

An organization was set up. Jack Miller leased the Ranch 50 acres of the 350 acre place he had bought from the Slover estate two miles southeast of Tahoka, and had the old S. N. McDaniel home moved to the site. This house burned before remodeling was entirely complete, and the present building was bought from Highland Baptist Church in Lubbock for the low price of only $500.

The Ranch board has a ten year lease on 50 acres of the Jack Miller land at $1.00 per year, plus a ten year option and an option to purchase the property at $150.00 per acre.

State of Texas granted a charter to the organization early last year and help from the State Child Welfare department has been promised after the ranch has operated for some time to prove it is on a sound basis.

Officers elected a year ago were: Mel Leslie, president; Will Morris of Lamesa, vice president; Wilma Tyler, secretary; Milton Uzzle, treasurer, succeeded by Mrs. Cox; and Jack Miller, executive director.

Directors are: Three year term: Borden Davis, A. M. Bray, Dan Curry, Clifton Hamilton, all of Tahoka, and A. L. Holder of Wilson.

Two year term: Gene Adams and O. G. Neiman of Lamesa and Lynn West, Mel Leslie, and Calloway Huffaker.

One year term: Will Morris of Lamesa, R. W. Rutherford, J. Weidon Martin, Frank Hill, and Dr. Emil Prohl.

Many individuals and organizations over the South Plains have contributed to the ranch during the past year and a half, these contributions ranging all the way from $1,200 cash from Frontier Wholesale Co. in Lubbock, to livestock, food, clothing, household furnishings, including a $400 bedroom suite by an O'Donnell women's study club. Many backers of the project think the need is so great for a home for wayward boys in this area and the investment has been so heavy that "it would be a shame to drop the project now," as one person stated at Monday's meeting.

atmosphere and visiting engaged in by the crowd, although holders of tickets did perk up their ears when Clint Walker began calling out the names of prize winners.

Secretary G. Q. Hensley read the notice of meetings, minutes, and a brief report. President Frank Harris had a brief report, as did Attorney Harold Green and A. B. Segars, representing the auditors told the crowd the Cooperative was in good financial shape. Earl Houx of Sundown presented the report of the nominating committee.

Lyntegar has total assets of $10.7 million dollars, owes $6.7 dollars being paid back on REA loans ahead of schedule, did a business of $2.4 million last year, and reports a margin of $657,000 for 1962. Capital credits refunded to members total nearly a half million dollars.

There are a total of 12,190 connections, and the firm employs 69 people, most of whom make their homes in Tahoka.

Actually, lines extend into 13 counties in the area. They cover all the rural areas of Lynn, Terry and Dawson counties, about half of Gaines and Borden counties, about a third of Garza, Yoakum and Hockley counties, and extend into smaller portions of Cochran, Lubbock, Andrews, Martin, and Howard counties.

Lines are constantly being extended and improved, and currently an addition is being made to the headquarters office building here to house new automatic data processing equipment. The warehouse and shops are also located here.

The late John Heck, known as "the daddy of Lyntegar," and the late Attorney Tom Garrard were largely responsible for early organization of the electric cooperative to carry electricity to farming areas, and this has been a vital factor in revolutionizing rural living in this area. With the coming of irrigation farming, electricity was a boon to this phase of the farm economy, as many wells are now on electricity and the volume of business thereby increased tremendously.

Anyway, the members enjoy the annual meeting, and when Huffaker asked the crowd if they wished the meeting continued there was a crescendo of "yeas."

Mrs. Ima Gene Lynch was admitted to Tahoka Hospital Friday and had major surgery the following Wednesday. She is reported to be doing very well.

Margaret Miller, age 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Miller was admitted to Tahoka Hospital Saturday night and had an appendectomy Sunday.

tors advised that he remain overnight for further observation.

The four were returning home from a trip to Washington and the West Coast. Young Adams was driving the car when left wheels of the vehicle edged off the pavement and he was unable to pull the car back before striking a concrete culvert abutment.

Mrs. Adams' body was brought to Frank Ellis Funeral Home in Muleshoe, former home of the family, Thursday, where funeral rites were set for 3:00 p. m. today, Friday, at the First Baptist Church of Muleshoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams have lived in Tahoka about a year and a half, coming here from Lubbock when Mr. Adams was employed as manager of the Piggy Wiggy meat department.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Adams is survived by a son, Donald McDaniel and a daughter, Mrs. James Meason, both of Muleshoe, children by a previous marriage; and eight step-children.

A CARD OF THANKS
This to everyone who has helped me in any way while I was ill. Thanks so much, Dr. Prohl and nurses, thanks so much to all the funeral home people for their services and thanks so much to the many, many good friends for your visits, flowers, cards, and food—I just wish for words to express my thanks. May God bless every one of you and at last save each one—Mrs. A. L. (Dora) Solsbery. 1tp.

Cotton and Maize Insect Damage Cited By Griffin

"Insects and Crops," was the subject of County Agent Bill Griffin in a talk at Tahoka Rotary Club Thursday noon of last week. He showed slide pictures of the sorghum midge and bottled samples of bollworms, boll weevils.

The adult sorghum midge lays its eggs in the milo bloom, is very small and orange in color. The larva eats the grain, and appears mostly in late planted milo. Control is very important, especially to the irrigation farmer who has a heavy investment in his grain crop. Toxaphene is the best poison and must be applied within the short time of only about three days.

He said there are four insects doing damage to Lynn county cotton crops, bollworms, fleahoppers, leafworms, and cabbage loopers, and of lesser importance are the aphids. These insects are of major importance to Lynn county's economy, he said. Since nearly all Lynn county cotton is late, use of insecticides will be continued through September.

Contrary to the belief of some, ladybugs feed only on aphids or lice and do not rid the field of bollworms and other harmful insects. On the other hand, spiders are beneficial in that they feed on all types of insects.

The dreaded boll weevil may soon become a major threat to Plains farming. In the past, the boll weevil has not been a factor on the Plains, many believing that the climate is too cold for them, but the past two years the boll weevil seems to be migrating to the Plains. Heavy damage was reported last year in eastern Floyd and Crosby counties.

Entomologists say one cause of the spread of the boll weevil to this area is aid given by soil bank sorghum alnum fields, ideal breeding places for the weevil.

Sorghum alnum plantings have also been the greatest cause for the increase in the sorghum midge, since this insect, like the boll weevil, spends the winter in sorghum alnum and Johnson-grass.

One of the principal reasons milo and cotton have burned so quickly this year, Mr. Griffin said, is because of the fact that most farmers have had to run tractors over the land so many times, some up to seven or eight times, which has caused a hardpan. Plants have little taproot or can not penetrate this hardpan, and the roots have remained close to the surface, unable to pick up the deeper moisture.

Bob Haney, program chairman of the day, who introduced the speaker, said he worked here six months in 1954 under Griffin as a county agent in training, and returned here last year as manager of Tahoka Compress.

County agent here 16 years, Griffin is a Tech graduate, served in North Africa and Italy in World War II, and was assistant county agent of Lubbock county before coming here. He received the Distinguished Service Award of the National County Agents Association in 1956, and last year the South Plains Stock Show was dedicated to Griffin and another man.

Don Browning, club president, thanked Lynetta Cain for two years of service as club sweetheart, and she responded with a fitting talk of thanks to the club.

Montie McGinty, the incoming sweetheart, is the third of the Fred McGinty girls to serve the club in this capacity.

HANES HAS OPERATION

D. F. Hanes of Tahoka, who underwent major surgery on August 6 in Methodist Hospital at Lubbock, is reported to be doing fine. He will remain in the hospital several more days. He is in Room 800.

Printer's Inkling N. O. Townsend is a swell guy. He enjoys this column. Like The Printer, he is worried not only about the trend of government but also about other trends, which prompted him to send us an editorial from The Lubbock Avalanche on "The Revolt Against Beauty."

Mr. Townsend cites the dreadfulness of modern art, poetry, and music, and pungently asks the question, "Who started this trend to hate anything beautiful?" And, he asks another question, "Do you agree with Billy Graham that 'forgetting Christ and turning from God will lead us to war and suffering?'"

In many ways America is turning its back on the principles on which it was founded. Our forefathers left Europe to gain freedom and founded a nation on the basis of a belief in God, where free men could engage in any lawful endeavor and go as far as they may on individual initiative, without undue taxation and without too much dictation from government.

Today, there are forces at work which would take away these rights—you may call it socialism, liberalism, democracy, or what-not—but the fact still exists. Rights to teach Godliness, Christianity, and moral principles are being taken away. Rights to govern ourselves are being taken away slowly but surely, as the Executive and Judicial branches take on more powers delegated to Legislative. Gradually, we are becoming a nation of people who have no right to work unless we belong to a Union or conform to various government regulations.

Our social security system and aid to dependents programs are cutting down on the incentive of men to produce and to be responsible for their own loved ones. Taxation, virtually without representation, is becoming the order of the day. The farmer invests his hard-earned cash in land, but is denied the right to plant what he chooses, and soon he will be told how much he must pay for labor. Now, the Administration is pushing for a law which would deny a citizen the right to operate a business and serve whom he chooses. There are those who advocate, in effect, a citizen has no right to choose his associates by differentiation of race, creed, or color.

We cite you again the statement made by Norman Thomas, once a perennial candidate for president on the Socialist ticket. When asked why he quit running for president, he replied, "The Democratic Party took all my platform planks."

By the way, what ever happened to President Kennedy's demand for inspection of Cuba? What happened to the Monroe Doctrine? What have we ever gained from "talks" and "agreements" with Soviet Russia? What has happened to the respect in which the United States was held by most nations of the world? What is our foreign policy, anyway? Can you give us a plausible answer?

In a lot of West Texas towns, lack of sufficient city water this dry, hot July and August is a real problem. Tahoka has been fortunate in remaining in fair shape so far.

But, down at Quanah, where there is a real water shortage, Ed Eakin in his "Chief Speaks" column says "Baptists have gone to sprinkling and Methodists to using a damp cloth. One local wag told his creditor he didn't mail in his check because he didn't have enough moisture to wet a postage stamp."

A kind friend gave Fred McGinty three one dollar bills the other day. Fred gave the money to The News, and as a result Fred gets his subscription extended a year. We wish more people had such friends.

Gene Gibson, head basketball coach at Texas Tech, while visiting here one day recently, told The Printer prospects are bright that both the basketball and football teams at the college will be much improved this coming year. He visited here with Supt. Otis Spears and at Wilson with Supt. Leroy Scott.

We've had several requests for some more historical stories, reminiscences by oldtimers, similar to the story recently written about early days in Lynn county by Guy LeMond of Snyder. Won't some of you oldtimers write us a story? Our readers seem to like 'em, and you'll be contributing a part in preserving the history of the county.

Guy LeMond told us a story about Postmaster Happy Smith we thought funny. If anyone tells the P. O. Department about this, it just ain't so. A patron of the local postoffice had ordered a pair of shoes. Every day he would come in and ask Happy if his shoes had arrived. Finally, one day Happy was prepared for the man—he had had neatly packaged a pair of old, worn out, cut-up shoes, and when the man came in Happy told him his shoes were in. The man took the package home, spread out a sheet of paper on the floor to keep from scuffing the "new" shoes, unwrapped the package, blew his top, and went down to the postoffice and gave Happy a piece of his mind.

Another time, the late Jack Applewhite, an ardent golfer, ordered a new and expensive driver. The golf club he longed to try out didn't arrive as quick as Jack expected, and he kept asking Happy about his package. Finally, Happy got a long mesquite limb with one of those nobs on one end, wrapped it up real fancy, and delivered it to Jack. Mr. Applewhite, anxious to see his new club, unwrapped it right there in the postoffice. Any of you who remember Jack's hearty laughter can imagine he got more fun out of the prank than did Happy.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 9, 1964. SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 1 proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas, Article III, Section 1, to authorize an increase in the total amount of bonds or obligations that may be issued by the Veterans' Land Board...

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Section 46-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas, be amended to read as follows: "Section 46-b. By virtue of prior Amendments to this Constitution, there has been created a governmental agency of the State of Texas performing governmental duties which has been designated the Veterans' Land Board. Said Board shall continue to function for the purposes specified in all of the prior Constitutional Amendments except as modified herein. Said Board shall be composed of the Commissioner of the General Land Office and two (2) citizens of the State of Texas, one (1) of whom shall be well versed in real estate and one (1) of whom shall be well versed in finances. One (1) such citizen member shall, with the advice and consent of the Senate, be appointed biennially by the Governor to serve for a term of four (4) years...

The Veterans' Land Board shall provide for, issue and sell not to exceed Three Hundred Fifty Million Dollars ($350,000,000.00) in bonds or obligations of the State of Texas for the purpose of creating a fund to be known as the Veterans' Land Fund. Two Hundred Fifty Million Dollars ($250,000,000.00) of which have heretofore been issued and sold. Such bonds or obligations shall be sold for not less than par value and accrued interest; shall be issued in such forms, denominations, and upon such terms as may be prescribed by law...

When a Division of said Fund (each Division consisting of the moneys attributable to the bonds issued and sold pursuant to a single Constitutional authorization and the moneys purchased therewith) contains sufficient moneys to retire all of the bonds secured by such Division, the moneys thereof, except such portion as may be needed to retire all of the bonds secured by such Division which shall be set aside and remain a part of such Division for the purpose of retiring all such bonds, may be used for the purpose of paying the principal and the interest thereon, together with the expenses herein authorized, of any other bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board. Such use shall be a matter for the discretion and direction of said Board; but there may be no such use of any such moneys contrary to the rights of any holder of any of the bonds issued and sold by said Board or violative of any contract to which said Board is a party.

The Veterans' Land Fund shall be used by said Board for the purpose of purchasing lands situated in the State of Texas owned by the United States or any governmental agency thereof, owned by the Texas Frisco System or any other governmental agency of the State of Texas, or owned by any person, firm, or corporation. All lands thus purchased shall be acquired at the lowest price obtainable, to be paid for in cash, and shall be a part of the Fund. Such lands heretofore or hereafter purchased and comprising a part of said Fund are hereby dedicated to be held for a governmental purpose, although the individual purchasers thereof shall be subject to taxation to the same extent and in the same manner as new purchasers of lands dedicated to the Permanent Free Public School Fund.

The lands of the Veterans' Land Fund shall be sold by said Board in such quantities, on such terms, at such prices, at such rates of interest and under such rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be provided by law to Texas veterans who served not less than ninety (90) continuous days, unless sooner discharged by reason of a service-connected disability, on active duty in the Army, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard or Marine Corps of the United States between September 16, 1940, and March 31, 1961, and who upon the date of filing his or her application to purchase any such land, is a bona fide resident of the State of Texas, and has not been dishonorably discharged from any branch of the Armed Forces above-named and who at the time of his or her enlistment, induction, commissioning, or drafting was a bona fide resident of the State of Texas. The foregoing notwithstanding, any lands in the Veterans' Land Fund which have been first offered for sale to veterans and which have not been sold may be sold to Texas veterans who served in the Armed Forces above-named and who at the time of his or her enlistment, induction, commissioning, or drafting was a bona fide resident of the State of Texas, and on such terms, and at such prices and rates of interest, and under such rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be provided by law.

Said Veterans' Land Fund, to the extent of the moneys attributable to any bonds heretofore issued and sold by said Board may be used by said Board for the purpose of paying the expenses of surveying, monumenting, road construction, legal fees, recordation fees, advertising and other like costs necessary or incidental to the purchase and sale or resale, of any lands purchased with any of the moneys attributable to such additional bonds, such expenses to be added to the price of such lands when sold, or resold, by said Board; for the purpose of paying the expenses of issuing, selling, and delivering any such additional bonds; and for the purpose of meeting the expenses of paying the interest or principal due or to become due on any such additional bonds.

All moneys attributable to the bonds issued and sold pursuant to the Constitutional Amendment adopted on November 6, 1958, shall be credited to said Veterans' Land Fund and may be used for the purpose of purchasing additional lands, to be sold as provided herein, until December 31, 1963; provided, however, that so much of such moneys as may be necessary to pay interest on such bonds shall be set aside for that purpose. After December 31, 1963, all moneys attributable to such bonds shall be set aside for the retirement of such bonds and to pay interest thereon; and when there are sufficient moneys to retire all of such

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER FOUR ON THE BALLOT

The moneys attributable to a series of bonds heretofore issued and sold by said Board (a "series of bonds" being all of the bonds issued and sold in a single transaction as a single installment of bonds) may be used for the purchase of lands as herein provided, to be sold as hereinafter provided, for a period ending eight (8) years after the date of sale of such series of bonds; provided, however, that so much of such moneys as may be necessary to pay interest on bonds heretofore issued and sold shall be set aside for that purpose in accordance with the resolution adopted by said Board authorizing the issuance and sale of such series of bonds. After such eight (8) year period, such moneys shall be set aside for the retirement of any bonds heretofore issued and sold and any expenses as provided herein, in accordance with the resolution and resolutions authorizing the issuance and sale of such additional bonds, until there are sufficient moneys to retire all of the bonds heretofore issued and sold, at which time all such moneys then remaining shall be used as said Veterans' Land Fund and thereafter becoming a part of said Fund shall be governed as elsewhere provided herein.

This Amendment being intended only to establish a basic framework to be a comprehensive re-evaluation of the Veterans' Land Program, there is hereby reposed in the Legislature full power to implement and effectuate the design and objects of this Amendment, including the power to delegate such duties, responsibilities, functions, and authority to the Veterans' Land Board as it believes necessary.

Should the Legislature enact any enabling laws in anticipation of this Amendment, no such law shall be effective until its ratification.

This Amendment shall become effective upon its adoption.

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Saturday after the first Monday in November, 1964, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

FOR the Amendment to Section 46-b of Article III of the Constitution of Texas to increase the Veterans' Land Fund by $150,000,000.00; said Fund to be used for the purpose of purchasing land in Texas to be sold to Texas veterans who served in the Armed Services of the United States between September 16, 1940, and March 31, 1961; such funds to be expended in accordance with instructions and requirements that may be provided by law.

PUBLIC NOTICE Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 9, 1964. SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 1 proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas so as to repeal the provision making payment of the poll tax a requirement for voting and so as to authorize the Legislature to provide for the registration of all voters.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Sections 2 and 4 of Article VI of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended to read, respectively, as follows: "Section 2. Every person subject to none of the foregoing disqualifications who shall have attained the age of twenty-one years and who shall be a citizen of the United States and who shall have resided in this state one year next preceding an election and the last six months within the district or county in which such person offers to vote, shall be deemed a qualified elector; provided that any Constitution of the Armed Forces of the United States or suspended branches thereof, or in the military service of the United States, may vote only in the county in which he or she resided at the time of enlisting such service so long as he or she is a member of the Armed Forces; and provided further, that before offering to vote at an election a voter shall have registered, if required by law to do so. The Legislature may authorize absentee voting. This Amendment shall take effect on December 1, 1964.

Section 4. In all elections by the people the vote shall be by secret ballot. Life In Russia, Poland Related By Henderson

After the Kremlin we went to the subways and rode to several stations. They claim to have the world's finest subway system and I must admit that I can believe that. They have over seventy miles and eighty stations. As for the stations, they went all out for beauty and decorations. They are finished in fine marble all over and have big fancy chandeliers and escalators up and down. The trains are very quiet and are well ventilated. There are many paintings in every station and lots of beautiful mosaic work. About a million people a day ride the subways.

Our next stop was the Agriculture and Mechanical exhibit. It covers about one hundred sixty acres and is about like a big fair. There is a display of everything they manufacture and produce in Russia. It would take several days to see it all if you had the time. It is a very beautiful place and well laid out.

An evening at the Bolshoi Theater in Moscow was well worth while. I wanted to see their famous Ballet but it was off for the summer so I had to settle for the opera "Aida". This theater was built in 1855 and inside it is in the shape of a horseshoe with six balconies. The seats are all upholstered in red and the drapes are red.

As for the building program underway in Moscow, they are building apartments by the thousands in every direction you look. I saw lots of building work going on at night. The apartment buildings seem to be about eight to ten stories high and a block long. I don't think any of them have elevators. If they do, they don't work. The building construction is very poor. There is no reinforcement at all in the walls—just brick construction. There are thousands of people living in old log houses that look as though they are two hundred years old.

The number of soldiers you see on the streets in any town we were in is about like it was here during World War II. The people in general look worried or unhappy and no one seems to ever smile. I couldn't see anything myself to make me glad that I was there. They have really got a long way to go to reach the U.S.A. way of life. But then you can say that they never had it so good. They don't know any way of life except the past and that was so awful bad.

About their school system—everyone must go to school through the eighth grade. Then they are classified from their grades in the past. Some go on to school according to their qualifications—maybe science, physics, teaching, medicine, engineering, etc. Others go on to trade schools to learn to be plumbers, carpenters, electricians, machinists, locksmiths, etc.

There are three classes in Russia—the intellectuals, the workers and the peasants. Of course most of them end up as peasants.

In front of the hotel in Moscow some college boys who could talk English came up to me and wanted to know how much my clothes cost. I told them my shoes cost ten dollars, my suit twenty-five dollars and my wristwatch seven dollars and fifty cents. They could not understand why everything was so cheap and just shook their heads—I could not blame them! (A pair of shoes costs them thirty roubles.)

We were in Moscow for the celebration of the astronauts in Red Square. We saw Mr. K. on his way to meet them at the airport. They made quite a splash the whole evening with red flags everywhere and a picture of Lenin, about seventy-five foot square, in front of Red Square. The girl astronaut spoke about twenty minutes and so did the man astronaut. Mr. K. "let off steam" for about forty-five minutes. There were loud speakers all over the city so everyone had to hear the speech whether they wanted to or not.

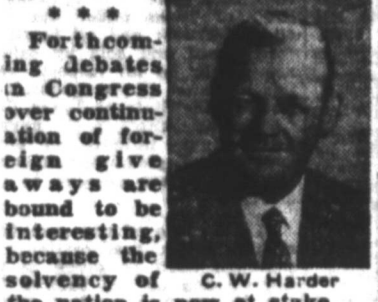

One interesting thing I noted was that in order to buy a piece of meat in Russia the people had to line up and go by the counter and see what the price was of the particular piece they wanted. Then they had to line up again and go to the cash register and get a ticket for the exact amount. Then they had to again stand in line to go to the counter to get the meat. They had no paper sacks and no wrapping paper—the people had to bring their own containers as the clerk would just hand the meat to them.

After five days in Moscow we were on our way to Warsaw, Poland—a three day drive. All the towns on our way were 85% destroyed during the war but are now all rebuilt. For instance, Minsk (Russia) which is over two hundred thousand in population was almost completely destroyed by the Germans. We were told that they executed thirty thousand Jews.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" BY C. WILSON HARDER

On several occasions on nationwide polls conducted by the National Federation of Independent Business, the nation's independent business proprietors have requested a sharp curtailment of the foreign give aways which have plagued the American taxpayer.

C. W. Harder

Forthcoming debates in Congress over continuation of foreign give aways are bound to be interesting, because the solvency of the nation is now at stake.

The gold reserves of the United States are now down to less than $10 billion, the lowest since 1933. Part of this supply is by law required to back the American currency, but if foreign creditors decided to cash in their dollar holdings now, it will take the entire pot and more. Already this year over a billion dollars has been stripped away from the supply.

It is quite easy to understand why there has been $100 billion thrown around in foreign nations in give aways. The huge American corporations, seeking cheaper labor, and a more favorable tax structure, have taken billions of dollars and invested in facilities abroad. In addition, tariff cutting has cost billions of dollars to pay for cheap foreign imports.

So far, the only measure taken to prevent the flight of gold from these shores has been a reduction from $500 to $100 on the amount of duty free souvenirs tourists can bring back from abroad. This is somewhat tantamount to trying to bail out the Atlantic Ocean with a tablespoon.

This is not the first time that there has been a gold exodus from the United States. In the early 1930's the nation was rapidly losing gold, causing panic.

A remedy applied then was to raise the price U.S. would pay for gold from $35.67 per ounce to the present $35 per ounce. This move encouraged everybody to sell gold to U.S.

Of course, this then made the American dollar worth about 57%. This in turn reduced value of insurance policies, bonds, and other items such as annuities.

But the affect of this was somewhat minimized because the nation was at bottom of greatest depression in history when prices were low, wages were low, as well as both public and private indebtedness.

Today, these factors are in the reverse. While perhaps no one can accurately foresee what would happen if the gold price was boosted further, it would seem logical to assume that this would set off an inflationary spiral which would ruin all currencies resulting in the complete economical chaos communists would welcome.

Therefore, there seems to be only one logical solution to one of the gravest crises to ever face the American Republic.

That would be to end all foreign give aways, cut taxes to encourage investment capital to stay in America, and take a realistic viewpoint on tariffs to stop the vast flow of American dollars overseas.

ent from Russia. It is more like the cities in the western part of Europe. You can buy anything you want in the stores, the buildings are all very modern, the apartment buildings are all much nicer looking and well kept up and there are a good many automobiles of all makes. These people are quite different than the Russians and they also do not care for the Russians.

I did not get to visit a collective farm but while in Warsaw I met a group of twenty-six from the U.S.A., all midwestern farmers, and they told me about one they visited in Russia. It had 40,000 acres and 1800 families lived on it. They had 2200 milk cows and were farming 7000 acres of beans, 6000 acres of corn, several thousand acres of sugar beets, etc. The women were paid one hundred twenty roubles a month for milking the cows and the men were paid sixty roubles a month for farm work. They told me that the farm machinery should have all been in a museum as it was quite antique.

This group of farmers was surely having a good time as some of them were dressed in western clothes with big hats and boots and loud shirts. No women were on this tour, which made it much better—women only want to go shopping in every town.

In Poland, where I met them, they were to visit a winery and taste all kinds of wine in storage tanks at one place. They were on a tour that was especially arranged for them.

After two days in Warsaw our tour was over—some of the party
