Tahoka-O'Donnell Battle Is Tonight

Football battle of the year takes place tonight at 7:30 before a homecoming crowd in Tahoka as the Bulldogs attempt to pluck their south-county rivals, the O'Donnell Eagles, and avenge a 9-0 defeat handed them last year at O'Donnell.

O'Donnell is usually at its best against Tahoka, while several times in the past the Bulldogs have taken the Eagles lightly, to their sorrow. Even some local fans are picking the Eagles to pull the Bulldogs' teeth.

The Eagles have won four of seven starts, while the Bulldogs have won only two of eight ball games this year. But, if they can win this one they will have had a better record than in the past several years.

Comparative scores usually mean little in this battle. But, it's interesting to note O'Donnell lost to Crosbyton 28 to 27, while Tahoka won from Crosbyton 15 to 6. On the other hand, O'Donnell whipped Rails 20 to 7, while Tahoka lost to Rails 9 to 13. Tahoka won over Frenship 14 to 12 and O'Donnell won over the same team 20 to 8. Plains defeated Tahoka 14 to 6 and O'Donnell 27 to 6, but O'Donnell was playing in this game without the services of their star quarterback, Ken Taylor.

In addition, the Eagles won over Wilson 21 to 12 and Spur 28 to 6, but lost to Sundown 13 to 24. Tahoka has lost to Station 15 to 16, Sulphur 9 to 13, and Wink 9 to 21.

"Beat Tahoka" has been the slogan at O'Donnell all week; in fact, the Eagles have been looking forward to this one a long time, and they may do it if Tahoka can't contain speedster Jesse Lopez.

Only one Casts Absentee Ballot

Only one absentee vote had been cast Tuesday in the Constitutional Amendment election of Saturday, November 9 at the County Clerk's office here.

Indications are that voting will be very light in the election as not much local interest is in evidence. Four proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution are to be voted upon, 1, repealing the poll tax, law as a qualification for voting and substituting registration of voters; 2, eliminating residence requirements and allowing increased expenditure for needy aged, blind, children and disabled persons; 3, permitting Jefferson county to give special compensation to appointive officers and employees; and 4, increasing the Veterans Land Fund by $150 million.

Although the Stearman plane was almost a total wreck, Cleveland received bruises only. Lynn Retirement Benefits Up 61 Percent In Three Years

(Special to The News)
 New York — Because of the changes that have been made in the Federal pension system in the past three years, many more Lynn county residents are now receiving retirement benefits each month.
 Also, the total amount going to them is 61.2 percent greater than it was then.
 The findings are contained in reports made by the Social Security Administration, giving detailed figures for each county in the United States.
 Nationally, they show, the amendments written into the law have added 1 1/2 million men, women and children to the rolls and have increased benefits by $1.8 billion in the last year alone.

In Lynn county, payments to local residents were at the rate of $640 per year, as of January 1, 1963. Three years earlier the average was $602.
 These pension payments, to retired or disabled workers and their families, are based on the amounts that the workers paid into the system's trust funds over the years through social security taxes.
 The steady growth in the number of Lynn county residents who have become eligible for financial protection is brought out in the official reports.
 As of the beginning of this year, they show, there were 749 local people receiving monthly checks, as against 493 three years ago.

Rod Duff Dies In Car Wreck

L. R. (Rod) Duff, 36, prominent young Plains businessman who was reared at Southland, was one of three killed in a head-on crash of his pickup with a car a half mile west of Plains at about 9:00 a. m. Saturday.
 Also killed in the wreck were Dickey Dean Farquhar, 2, and Rhonda Ann Farquhar, and their mother, Barbara was critically injured and their father, Royce Dean Farquhar, 23, less seriously injured. They were from Ropesville.
 Duff had driven up to his delinting plant but didn't stop and the pickup veered out onto the highway into the path of the Farquhar car. His brother, Buford, witnessed the crash. Later, a medical examination and other evidence revealed Rod had suffered a heart attack immediately prior to the accident.
 Duff lived at Southland several years, the son of J. J. Duff, well known in the county. He attended Southland schools and SMU in Dallas. He owned an implement firm and a delinting plant at Plains.
 Duff was a close personal friend of Rogers Curry of Tahoka, and he and family frequently visited them here. Mr. and Mrs. Curry attended the funeral services Monday in Plains High School auditorium and burial rites in Tech Memorial Park in Lubbock. Mr. Curry was one of the pallbearers.
 Duff is survived by his wife, three children, his mother, two brothers and three sisters.

Rating and with average payments higher than ever before, the amount of money involved has gone up proportionately and has reached a level that is of economic importance to local business men.
 The latest figures indicate that no less than $478,000 a year is entering the county via the social security rolls. This compares with $297,000 in 1959.
 It represents a jump of 61.2 percent, topping the United States rise of 59.8 percent and that of the State of Texas, 54.5 percent.
 What plans, if any, are under way for liberalizing the benefits next year, have not yet been disclosed. Since 1964 is an election year, some changes may be expected, judging from past experience.
 The records show that Congress, over the last 20 years, has done something along that line in every election year.

Don't you read before you buy?

Most people do. They read an advertising in print to give them the information they need on products, the amount of money involved, and the price... and prices, for example.
 People not only read about products and prices, they also read about the company that makes them. They read about the company's history, its products, and its service to the customer.
 When you add it all up, print advertising—the kind you read in the pages of this newspaper—makes sense.
 And because it measures up to the buying habits of most consumers, print makes sense. Most people read—and then buy. Don't you?

Boll Weevil Is Economic Threat To All People Of Area, Griffin Says

Lynn county's newest problem, the boll weevil, was discussed by County Agent Bill Griffin in a talk at Tahoka Rotary Club last Thursday noon.

The speaker said the problem is of direct economic importance to every person in the county, whether he actually farms, is in business, or is an employee, for cotton is the basis of our economy and the boll weevil is a threat to our only major profitable crop.

The insect has put vast areas of the South and of Texas out of the cotton production business, and can do the same thing here.

Two years ago, boll weevils migrated up into Floyd and Crosby counties. This year they have been found across an area near the caprock from Silverton on the north, to Daugherty and Floydada, Ralls, Gordon, Grandland, Draw, and as far south as Aberly in Dawson county.

Last week, they were found near New Lynn and within three miles of Tahoka.

A study committee has been set up to watch the progress, recommend procedures, keep agricultural experts advised of the threat, and conduct a hibernation testing program through the winter.

Nearly 250 locations for cages containing boll weevils under varying conditions are being put out over the area to determine if the boll weevil can hibernate on the Plains through the winter.

If he does not winter here, Mr. Griffin says, we are all right, and will be able to control the insect in the diapause stage through four summer sprayings along a barrier area.

If he can winter here, we have a real problem. This year, major infestation has appeared late in the year, so late that the crop in Lynn county has not been damaged materially.

But, if the weevil over-winters on the Plains, in the Spring he will come out of hibernation and go to work early on cotton squares. In this case, poisoning is almost prohibitive for the dry land farmer.

In order to control, all farmers would have to cooperate, spray a minimum number of 14 times, every five days, at a cost of about $3.00 per acre each spraying.

Griffin explained how the boll weevil punctures squares or bolls, deposits eggs therein, seals the puncture. After the egg hatches, the insect eats out the locks inside, squares drop from the stalk, and on reaching adult stage the weevil emerges from the boll and repeats the life cycle.

Maurice Bray reported on activities of his son, David, Rotary Foundation fellowship holder studying a year at Oxford University in England, and conveyed David's thanks to the club for past favors.

Frank Hill, chairman of the Rotary public information committee, also spoke on National Newspaper Week and the place of the local paper in the community.

President Don Browning announced the Lubbock inter-city meeting on Nov. 3, and the coming visit of Governor Jim Wilson Jr. to the local club. He welcomed Dr. Emil Prohl, out for several weeks with a broken hip, back to club meetings, and expressed regret on illness of Ernest Herrings, who recently underwent an operation of his eyes.

Turner Rogers was in charge of the program.

SMALL BUSINESS

Many ask what good has been accomplished by huge sums of U.S. tax money thrown around in Latin America.

Probably nothing. In fact, there is perhaps quite valid evidence that nothing has been accomplished beyond confusing the people of Latin America.

Some interesting comments are made in a publication titled "Mexican-American" published in Mexico City by Hugo Salinas Price. We do not know Senior Price, but his writings are interesting.

He reports that recently an American economic professor, a John F. Poveleson was sent down to lecture at the National University in Mexico.

Senior Price reports that the Mexican newspapers covered his talk in this fashion.

"The economist Poveleson spoke on monopolies. He considers them in some cases necessary. The existence of great enterprises and even of monopolies, is necessary and not a negative factor in the economic development of the capitalist countries." He is then quoted as referring to the convenience of establishing large enterprises in Latin America without fear of monopolies.

This caused Senior Price to write "If the U.S. has such strict antitrust laws, why does an American economist advise us of the convenience of establishing large enterprises in Latin America?"

Former Citizen Masonic Honor

George C. Price of Levelland, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Price of Tahoka, was selected for one of the highest honors in Masonry when he was named to the Knights Commander Court of Honor, a group from which 33rd Degree Masons are chosen.

He is one of 16 men in the El Paso Scottish Rite District selected for the honor in a recent Washington election, according to Leo Lockwood, Waco sovereign grand inspector general of Texas, who informed Price of the election.

The Levelland man was raised in Tahoka, graduated from high school here and is now an undertaker. He has been an active citizen of Levelland, serving as president of the school board among other things.

He was chosen for the honor along with Lt. Gov. Preston Smith of Lubbock, U. S. Representative, Ed Foreman of Odessa, and Leonard M. Ellington, a banker from Brownfield.

Price, 45, has been an El Paso Scottish Rite Mason since April 24, 1958. He became a Master Mason on March 20, 1954, and is a district representative Scottish Rite.

Five of the men so honored were elevated to 33rd Degree at the same time.

Hanes Is Re-elected By Irving Board

Contract of Supt. W. T. Hanes, school superintendent at Irving and formerly of Tahoka, has been extended to June 30, 1969, according to a clipping from The Irving News-Texas sent Evon Wilson by his father-in-law, Cecil Todd, who is employed by the school system there.

The story says Hanes' salary will be increased $500 this year and to $20,000 in 1969, "making him one of the top-paid school administrators in the state." He served successively at Harmleigh, Tahoka, and Cameron before going to Irving in 1956 to iron out a community dispute over its school system.

Since then, the schools have made tremendous progress and growth in "Texas' fastest growing city," and are now recognized as one of the top Texas school systems.

The News-Texas says Hanes this year received the American Education's Award from the Freedom Foundation of Valley Forge, Pa., is past Rotary district governor, past chairman of the Texas Textbook Committee, past member of the Steer Conference on Education, member of the Accreditation Commission for Texas Public Schools, was a member of the White House Conference on Education in 1955, and has received nationwide acclaim for the pro-

Bond Sales Are Beyond Quota

Through September, Lynn county ranked 14th in Texas in percentage of quota on 1963 sales of U. S. Savings Bonds, according to A. C. Verner, County Savings Bonds committee chairman.

With 105.4 percent on its quota of $230,000, Lynn's citizens had purchased $242,549 in Savings Bonds, of which September sales amounted to $14,398.

Savings Bond sales in Texas in September were $11,860,120 which is 18.5 percent increase over sales in September 1967. Texas Savings Bonds sales for the first nine months of 1968 totaled $111,504,654. This figure represents 74 percent of the state's 1968 goal of $150.6 million.

"Savings Bonds not only provide an excellent means of family thrift, they contribute to the economic stability of our nation, and thus to the preservation of our freedom. Every Bond buyer can take satisfaction in the knowledge he has contributed to his nation's defense. Savings Bonds may be bought at your bank or through the payroll savings plan where you work." Chairman Verner said.

Boy Scout Fund Drive Scheduled

Tahoka's annual Boy Scout drive will get underway here next Thursday, Nov. 7, and about 50 workers have volunteered to help with the campaign, states L. A. Forsythe, finance chairman.

A "dawn to dusk" campaign will be conducted in nearly all communities served by South Plains Council, Boy Scouts of America and will give every person the opportunity to share in the financial program of the organization.

"To train all boys through 'learn-by-doing methods' and to extend benefits derived through the Scouting program to more boys shall be achieved by the use of money through these campaigns," Burnett Roberts of Littlefield, chairman of the Council finance campaign, said.

Boys may be Cub Scouts from eight through 11 years; Boy Scouts from 11 through 13 years; and Explorers from 14 through 17 years of age.

The aim and purpose of Boy Scout training, for all boys, is citizenship training and character building. Boys are taught to be physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight.

Mrs. Hines Guest Speaker At WSCS

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met Monday at the Methodist Church when Mrs. M. L. Hines of Lubbock, president of the Northwest Texas Conference W. S. C. S., spoke to the group.

The occasion was "Called to Prayer and Week of Denial." Mrs. Hines participated on the program both in the morning and afternoon. Mrs. W. E. Cantrell, Spiritual Life leader of the local group, was in charge of the program and also had a part, as well as Mrs. R. M. Stewart, Mrs. G. M. Stewart, Mrs. R. H. Gibson, and Rev. Aubrey White.

Those attending brought a sack lunch.

Offering from the observance this year will go to India in the National division and to the Wesley Community House in Fort Worth, Campbell Friendship House in Gary, Indiana, and to Susannah Wesley Community Center in Honolulu, Hawaii in the Home division.

The worship center, provided by Mrs. R. M. Stewart, consisted of white and pink chrysanthemums flanked by white candles atop a white satin cloth.

The first power-producing public utility was built in New York City in 1882.

Pythian Sisters Hold Hobo Party

The Pythian Sisters turned out 53 strong for their hobo party this week.

In rags, tags, and curious attire, the Weary Willies and Wandering Maudies marched in single file through the wooded path leading to their secret meeting where they assembled by the railroad track, switch No. 45.

Leading the way with gay songs and hilarious cries, they gave the password, played games and judges passed on the best dressed Willies and Maudies. As they settled around the old camp fire the hobos told of their favorite freight train while eating their hobo lunch.

The group broke up by gradually drifting back through the wooded path to catch the next freight out. Only little Maudie was left resting.—Reporter, Lucy Brice.

Sharon Patterson Gives MYF Program

The MYF program for Oct. 27 was presented by Sharon Patterson and Rev. Aubrey White entitled "Twenty-Four Hour Pass," and concerned problems in the modern teen-ager's life.

The topic will again be dealt with by Dr. Moss of Lubbock at the District MYF meeting Nov. 9 at Sundown.

The program for the local MYF for Nov. 3 is to be presented by Retta Patterson and Jimmy Billman. The subject, "Where I Stand," tells of the teen-ager's stand on dealing with teenage problems from a Christian point of view, and the Christian stand on alcoholic beverages in particular.

The first permanent iron works was built in Massachusetts in 1645.

Young Homemakers Plan Party Soon

Due to a name conflict, the Young Homemakers Club name has been changed to Tahoka Home Demonstration Club, according to Mrs. Hilton Wood, reporter.

The club is making plans for a tupperware party on Thursday, Nov. 14, at 3:00 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Wood, and anyone interested should contact some member of the club. The regular Nov. 7 meeting has been canceled and will be combined with the second meeting for the tupperware party.

The meeting on October 3 was in the home of Margaret Pinkston with 12 members and three visitors present. The meeting was opened with recreation.

Margaret Owens, president-elect for next year, appointed the following committee chairmen: Finance, Wanita Kelley; Recreation, Jean Bell; 4-H Club, Precious Johnson; Yearbook, Adelta Hagen; Education, Expansion and Exhibit, Pat Hall.

The second meeting of the month on October 18 was held in the home of Mrs. Wanita Kelley. Mrs. Patsy Dunlap led the 10 members and four visitors in recreation. The visitors were Mrs. Bob Haney, Mrs. Billy Tomlinson, Mrs. Ana Dell Johnson, and Mrs. Barbara Brewet.

Mrs. Dunlap told members anyone wishing to donate canned goods to the Rainbow girls should contact Kay Warren or Mrs. Eldon Gattis.

Alton Terry In Army Air Lift

Pfc. Alton L. Terry of the 2nd Armored Division, popularly known as "Hell on Wheels," has written his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Terry, from Frankfurt, Germany, about the Big Lift from Fort Hood, Texas, to Germany.

He says they left Fort Hood at 4:30 a. m. and had a smooth trip in a fine plane, got to Germany at 11:00 p. m., and were the first group to land. A bunch of "big wheels" were on hand to greet them in Germany and to ask many questions about the Big Lift and the trip over.

Alton says the weather is cold over there, skies cloudy, and they are living in pup tents. But, he says the scenery is wonderful. They were expecting to leave their holding area pretty soon for some sight-seeing.

He expects to return home in time for Christmas.

Juniors Split With Frenship

The undefeated seventh grade football team ended its season Tuesday night in keeping a clean record by defeating Frenship 6-0 there. The eighth grade team dropped its closing game to the Tigers 6-0.

Coach Milt Fitts' seventh graders won on a scoring play when Larry Arnold crossed the goal line for the only tally. The team wound up the year with seven victories and no losses.

Coach Dave Easterday's eighth grade team, although losing the last game, had a successful year, winning four games, losing two and tying one. The team defeated Slaton twice, Post and Frenship once each, lost to Post and Frenship and tied Plains.

However, no district competition was played this year and no championship declared. The seven-game schedule for the junior teams was made up of the above named schools.

This is the third year in a row that the seventh grade team has been undefeated.

Wanda Fay Smith was an overnight medical patient in Tahoka Hospital this week.

School...

included in the new school, which will remove another area of weakness.

The present high school will be completely renovated for use as a junior high school, grades 7-9. This school, because of its proximity to the high school, will use the high school library. By removing the seventh and eighth grades from what is now called the North Elementary School, the overcrowded condition found in the lower grades can be remedied.

The North Elementary School will be completely renovated, and with the South Elementary School, can provide sufficient classrooms to take care of present enrollments without overcrowding.

The Dunbar School, an eight-grade school for Negro pupils, has new improvements which include one room enlarged and remodeled to include a place for pupils to eat their lunches, a new concrete slab porch, new lighting equipment, and a new coat of paint inside and out. An additional teacher made it possible to reduce class size so that there are no overcrowded classes at this time.

Negro students in grades 9-12, which formerly were transferred to Slaton, are now attending the regular school program for white pupils.

The school made provisions this year for a full-time counselor, but, unfortunately, it had not been possible to employ a qualified individual at the time of the 1962 accreditation visit.

A one-half unit in vocational Homemaking was added for 1963-64.

Principals in all the schools were supervising principals; no principal taught any classes.

The teacher who supervises the library has had her class load reduced so that she spends four periods daily in the library and teaches two classes of General Mathematics.

Fire extinguishers have been provided for all building floors and the tags indicated that they have been inspected recently.

Deficiencies Noted

Other deficiencies noted by previous visiting teams still exist. As reported above, some of these, such as overcrowding primary grades and the drabness of all schools excepting Dunbar and South Elementary School will automatically be removed when the present building plans are completed.

Areas still needing attention are as follows:

1. Lack of instructional aids in nearly all curricular areas, especially in grades seven through twelve.
2. New library materials for the separate classrooms in the lower grades and for the central library in the upper grades.
3. A deficiency in science equipment and apparatus necessary for carrying out a planned program in science at all grade levels.

Make Recommendation

Recommendation: It is recommended that the Tahoka Independent School District be advised of the necessity for continuing and completing improvements needed to meet accreditation standards fully, but because of the time required to complete the improvements now planned or under way, it is further recommended that the district not be revisited again until the 1965-66 school term.

New Oil Wells In Lynn County

One new oil well and a prospective producer have created some interest in Lynn county this past week.

Cities Service Oil Co.'s No. 3 Lindsley in the Mound Lake Fossilman field on the Lynn-Terry county line flowed 140 barrels of oil in one and a half hours on a drillstem test last week, indicating this will be the best of three wells in the field.

The well is on the mound in Mound Lake, just over the line in Terry county and adjacent to the Orca Roberts Ranch. It is 860 feet from the south and 1,960 feet from the east lines of Section 45, Block E, EL&RR survey. Total depth is 11,470 feet.

Incidentally, Kansas Masonic Home owned 72 acres undivided interest in minerals under the Lindsley lands. They are in Tahoka School District.

Early this week, Cities Service started another project set for 11,500 feet in the same section 1,960 feet from the north and east lines Section 45.

On the north outskirts of Wilson, adjoining the townsite, Gould Drilling Co. of Midland's No. 1 Miriam Greene reported shows of oil in core tests with oil and gas bleeding from a five-foot section from 4,820-25, the Glorietta.

This wildcat is located 3,681 feet from the north and 2,669 feet from the west lines of League 4, Wilson county school lands and is one-half mile northwest and one mile west of dry holes.

Three new oil tests have been announced in the extreme southwest corner of Lynn county in the Welch San Andres field, all by Adobe Oil Co. of Midland, the No. 1 Golden in Section 11, Block C-41, PSL survey; the No. 3 Schumaker A in Section 15, and the No. 4 Schumaker A, in the same section, block and survey.

120-pound tailback; the punting, ball-handling and running of Quarterbacks Fen Taylor, 163, and Tom Ed Vestal, 153; and the running of Halfback Jimmy Barton, 180, and Fullback Jerry Reeves, 162.

O'Donnell has some big boys in the line, including Center Terry Phillips, 170; Guards Lyndol Askew, 182, and Don Blair, 148; Tackles Larry Callaway, 210, and Don Richardson, 210; and Ends Charles Gardshire, 160, and Ellis Tredway, 157.

Coach Allen Holliday, from McMurry College and former assistant at Colorado City, has 10 lettermen from last year's team. Among the starters are six seniors and five juniors.

Coach Gilbert Hough and his two assistants, Dave Easterday and Milt Fitts, have a young squad with only two seniors among the starters, a sprinkling of juniors, several sophomores, and one or two freshmen who will see action.

They have been progressing and learning, but looked pretty impatient against a strong Wink team in losing 41 to 6 last week. Several fine players have been lost to injuries and grades, but morale of the crew is good, Coach Hough reports, and prospects are bright for future years.

Tonight's game could determine if the boys can put out all the way with their very best efforts.

Enthusiasm in tonight's game is at a high pitch here this week, and a big pep rally, parade and bonfire late Thursday evening has increased this enthusiasm among students and fans. Mayor Leslie proclaimed this week as "Bulldog Week" Monday morning.

Playing before a homecoming crowd, the Bulldogs may be expected to give their best. In fact, the boys say they are going to win this one.

A message from the Treasury of a free people

How to speak out for freedom today

Free men have never gone in much for silence. Even before the first thirteen States became United States, men were speaking for freedom loud and clear.

Today Americans speak out for freedom many ways—in Congress, in local government, in neighborhood activities. Some speak out for freedom in other languages, in other lands. And millions of Americans speak out for freedom every time they buy U.S. Savings Bonds.

Every Savings Bond you buy is an investment in freedom.

While you're saving money for your own family's future, you're helping Uncle Sam tend to the business of keeping men free today.

Perhaps you don't speak out for freedom in the same tone of voice when you buy a Bond as Patrick Henry did in his famous speech. But you speak every bit as surely. And every bit as proudly.

Why not speak out for freedom now? Buy Bonds at the bank or on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.

Keep freedom in your future with

Wink Clobbers Bulldogs In Rugged Game 41-6

Tahoka Bulldogs ran into a gang of wildcats at Wink Friday night and lost their second District 5-A game by a lop-sided 41 to 6 score to a fired-up ball club playing before a homecoming crowd.

From the first play, the Bulldogs ran into trouble, and were never able to recover. As Coach J. T. King said after the Tech-Texas rout, "Our boys lost their poise." But, even with good luck, the local boys probably would never have had a chance, as they were completely outclassed by a big, rugged ball team that was without doubt the best club the Bulldogs have met this season.

Wink used about 22 boys, and their team was weakened little or none when second stringers were in the game. Many of the Wink boys looked like college players, particularly "Butch" Price, half-back and the big Negro, 190-pound Frank Lane, and Amalio Losoya, both backs, all of whom were demons on both offense and defense.

Tahoka received the opening kick-off, and knowing they would have to pass and run the ends against the big, tough line, tried a pass on the first play, intercepted on the 37 QB Gary Wolf. In only three plays and less than a minute of the game, Price went the last 14 yards off right tackle for Wink's first score, and Price passed to also rugged Amalio Losoya for the two point conversion.

Tahoka couldn't move, punted, and Wink marched 62 yards on 10 plays for another score as Price skirted right end for the last nine yards, and he then proceeded to kick the conversion and make the score 15-0 with the first quarter only half gone.

Next time Wink had the ball, Tahoka stopped another possible scoring drive, temporarily, when Dennis Clem covered the fumble of a completed Wink pass on the Tahoka 8. From here, Tahoka seemed to have a drive going as Adolph Clapa went 34 yards on three carries before the Bulldogs had to punt early in the second quarter. But, Ken Herring hauled in the ball on the Wink 21 and behind almost perfect blocking raced 79 yards for Wink's third TD. Conversion failed.

Later in the quarter, a Tahoka pass was intercepted by Wayne Conway on the Wink 25, and then Price hit Herring on a 75-yard pass and run play for the fourth score, Joe Martinez kicked the extra point, and Wink had a 28-0 halftime lead. Tahoka made two first downs in the quarter, and Wink only one but scored two touchdowns.

Still later, another Tahoka pass was intercepted by David Bruton, but this came to naught.

The third quarter was scoreless, during which Eddie Howard intercepted a Wink pass on the Tahoka 5, and three plays later Terry Harvick got off a bombing 58-yard punt. Harvick's punting was great in this game, his average being pulled down to 36.5 on eight kicks by one 19-yarder out of bounds in Wink territory.

But, early in the fourth, Wink marched 80 yards, with Price breaking over left guard, cutting to the right and running 24 yards to score, and Martinez kicked the conversion.

Tahoka then put on its only successful drive of the game, as Chapa, Gary Tomlinson, and Mitch Williams, helped by a 15 yard pen- (Continued back page, Sec 2)

Wilson Victor Over New Home

Wilson Mustangs punctured the New Home Leopards' bubble Friday night 46 to 6 as the feature attraction of Wilson's homecoming, and the Mustangs now have won two 3-B conference games and New Home has won one and lost one.

The game was pretty close the first half, as New Home scored first on a drive as Terry Brown crashed over from the three. Wilson bounced back to take an 8-6 lead on Royce Baker's 20-yard scoring scamper and Sammy Crowson's two-conversion plunge.

In the second period Wilson's John Nava ran the last eight yards to make the half-time score 14-6. Wilson broke the game wide open in the third as Baker ran 80 yards and Crowson bucked over from the one on another TD. Crowson ran the first conversion and Baker the second.

In the fourth, Guard Tommy Swann intercepted a New Home pass and raced 50 yards to score, and Joe Mason hit Crowson with a 40-yard scoring pass play, Baker passed to Darrell Bishop for both conversions.

The Leopards put up a game fight, but were outmanned by the Mustangs.

A large crowd from the two towns witnessed the clash, which was followed by a meeting of Wilson Ex-Students in the school cafeteria.

In pre-game ceremonies Miss Kay Stiel, senior at Wilson, was crowned the 1963 football queen and Tommy Swann the 1963 pep squad beau. Runners up for queen were Janet Gindorf and Lois Baker, and for pep squad beau were Royce Baker and Gene Herzog.

Following the game, attended by a crowd of about 1500. Ex-students gather for coffee and doughnuts. Two hundred exes registered at the event.

STATE AWARD WINNER—A. M. Bray, local Chevrolet dealer, (left), last week end was presented a Thanksgiving turkey as one of three winners in a contest conducted by the Texas Automobile Dealers Association. Bob Barclay, Austin, (right) state representative of TADA, came here to make the presentation.

Each year, the state-wide association of franchised automobile dealers publishes a list of 25 member-dealers of the state, and invites contestants to complete the form by filling in the names of the towns where these dealers operate and the line of cars they sell. This year 243 dealers over the state sent in entries, and Mr. Bray's entry was one of the top three in the state.

Wilson Plays At Meadow Tonight

Wilson Mustangs will seek to preserve their perfect 3-B conference record at Meadow tonight against the Broncos.

Meadow early in the season lost to Amherst 13 to 0, the same team that won over Wilson 13 to 6, and Meadow won over Whiteface 20-0, while Wilson took that team 42-0. Meadow beat Whitharral 29 to 6, and has lost to Lorenzo 20 to 0, to Bovina 14 to 0, and to Ropesville 30 to 0. Last week, the Broncos took Cooper 31 to 14.

Wilson has lost to O'Donnell 21-12, and has won over Lazbuddie 34-6, Anton 32-6, Sands 42-0, and New Home 46-6.

First steam railroad was in 1830 between Baltimore and Ohio.

Sands Will Play At New Home

New Home Leopards expect to bring in another victory tonight as they entertain Sands (Ackerly), after having lost Friday to Wilson 46-6.

Sands has lost to Loraine 20 to 0, Lamesa B 18 to 0, Robert Lee 72 to 0, Trent 42 to 0, Wilson 42 to 0, and Ropesville 40 to 0.

But, New Home, remembering the loss to Lazbuddie 12 to 0 and smarting under the loss at Wilson, will probably be taking nothing for granted, although they have rolled over Christ the King 60 to 0, Whitharral 40 to 20, Roosevelt 68 to 6, New Deal 46 to 23, and Cooper 18 to 8.

About 5,500 persons visit the White House daily.

O'Donnell Loses To Plains Team

O'Donnell Eagles, Tahoka's foe this Friday, went down before the onslaught of the Cowboys at Plains Friday night 27 to 6 in District 5-A play. This was the second conference victory for Plains and the second loss for the Lynn county boys.

Plains scored twice in the first five minutes for a 14-0 lead as the Cowboys Roland Faires broke a way on a 32-yard scoring run. O'Donnell fumbled on the next series, Plains tried a field goal, blocked by an O'Donnell player, but Plains' Alvie Faulkenberry picked up the ball and ran it across for six points. Jack Lowe kicked both conversions.

The Cowboys scored in the third period on a sustained drive, John Robertson crossing into the end zones, and Lowe's kick was good again.

O'Donnell's lone tally came in the fourth as Sophomore Quarterback Tom Ed Vestal sneaked over from the one-yard line. Conversion failed. Late in the game, Robertson intercepted an O'Donnell pass, ran it back to the one, and then scored. Lowe's kick was no good.

We've never gotten worked up into a lather over the necessity for repeal of Texas' poll tax law as a qualification for voting. In the first place, $1.00 of the tax goes to the schools and this will just have to be made up somewhere. In the second place, most of those opposing repeal of the requirement have selfish political motives in mind—principally making it easier to herd Latins, Negroes, and also illiterates to the polls in controlled and bloc voting efforts. A citizen not interested enough in the welfare of government and community to spend $1.75 for a poll tax receipt, in many cases, isn't concerned enough with the public welfare to be entitled to a vote.

their annual meeting here voted two to one "to sell farm products to Communist countries on a cash basis." Some argued that the Communists are going to get grain from Canada anyway, and we just as well get in on the deal. In other words, if a man is going to rob a bank and has no shotgun, we just as well sell him ours as for him to get one somewhere else to do the job. If we've got to dispose of our surpluses to help a country whose major purpose is "to bury us," we'd just rather give them away to friendly nations or let them rot. As for us, the almighty dollar is not that important. But, we don't believe the farmers meant to be quite so dollar-wise.

Furthermore, we doubt that Russia will ever pay in full for the grain. Bobby Kennedy has already said he thinks we can sell the grain to Russia on a deferred payment plan. Bobby usually speaks for his brother. Russia still owes us money we let them have during World War I and World War II, and since, refuses to pay its UN dues, which organization it almost controls and for which we pick up the tab.

Condy Carmack, once a Tahoka high school principal, adds a little to that column we had two weeks ago about Tahoka in the fall of 1963, when The News was acquired by the Hills.

One of the teachers here was Helen Stevenson, reared down at Lorraine, whose brother-in-law operated a variety store. George Mahon, our congressman the past 30 years, was a student in Simmons University, frequently came up to see Helen, and wistfully and impatiently waited around town on the street corners until his bride-to-be got away from school.

Tahoka was supposed to play football at Big Spring one Friday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock. Cecil Peoples, then just fresh out of Clarendon College and now president of Lon Morris College at Jacksonville, was the coach and had named our team the Bulldogs, some mascot at Clarendon. Condy furnished one car and was carrying Pete Edwards, Jess Lockhart, and maybe Sam Floyd, Karr Wells and others to the game. But, it rained and the roads were so muddy they got no further than Acherly and had to return home. After much sliding and slipping and pushing, they made it back home by nine or ten o'clock that night.

A trade publication we get says: The average man's body is made up of 66 pounds of muscle and about three pounds of brains . . . which explains a lot of happenings.

Dr. Conrad Lam of Detroit, an old Tahoka boy who grew up in Craft's Tailor Shop, writes: "Marion Flippin sent me a copy of The News and I certainly enjoyed reading your account of the situation in Tahoka in 1923. It was a pleasure to see all these names, most of whom I remember very well. I still remember with pleasure my last visit to Tahoka."

For those who don't know, Conrad is one of the nation's most famed heart surgeons, was a key factor in developing open heart surgery methods, and is surgeon-in-charge, Division of Thoracic Surgery, Henry Ford Hospital, in Detroit, Michigan.

For those young people who think they don't have a chance and can't get a college education, Dr. Lam's life should be a challenge. We remember personally how he struggled to succeed. He was from a very fine family, but like a lot of us they had little of the world's goods. In spite of a physical handicap, he worked in the tailor shop through high school, borrowed money to enter college and got a job in Ahilene pressing plants so he could go to Simmons. He made his own way all the way, played in the Simmons band that went to Europe and England on a grand tour, then worked his way through medical college. Too much praise can not be given men like Dr. Conrad Lam.

Just to keep the record straight, Mrs. Milton Wied, not her husband, is secretary of the Wilson Ex-Students Association, contrary to what we've said in our news columns the past two weeks. Old Milton wouldn't do that much work! We should've known better.

We don't know a happier couple than Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Gray, who will celebrate fifty years of married life Sunday week.

Peggy Elliott showed us a picture of her seventh grade class, taken in 1938. We're sorry it was too faded to make a "cut," but we were shocked as it seems only a little bit since that class was just a bunch of kids.

Some more of those "Gus Says" from the Graham Rotary paper: We ought to be proud of ourselves because this country started from nothing and now we've worked ourselves up to $300 billion less than nothing . . . You can't keep people from having a bad opinion of you, but you can keep them from being right about it. About the best thing to do behind a person's back is to pat it. . . It's a whole lot easier to forgive an enemy after you've gotten even with him.

Old Newspaper Tells Of Hanging

Robt. A. Lamb of Wilson recently brought The News a copy of the Waxahachie Daily Light of April 17, 1915, he found in a trunk of his mother, Mrs. J. W. Lamb. The Lambs came from Waxahachie, where R. A. was born.

Streamer headlines of the issue proclaim "Joe Larkins gives life on gallows to atone for murder of Jack Jones," there's a picture of the Negro murderer and also of the throng of thousands who witnessed the hanging.

Entire front page and two or three inside pages of the paper deals with the murder and hanging. A former minstrel man with a circus and a former baseball player, Larkins admitted and was convicted of brutally murdering and mutilating a young white man in a Waxahachie garage, while the latter was trying to protect the property of his employer.

Among other stories, the newspaper recounts reports of Pancho Villa raids in Matamoros, Russians were fighting the Germans, the Turks had shelled an Allied war ship, and Londoners were fearing a possible Zeppelin airship attack from Germany.

but the rest is FLABBERGASTING

A strong claim? Maybe so. We only know what some of the people who have seen the '64 Plymouth have said. One word used to describe Plymouth's beauty and performance was "Flabbergasting." You might have an even better word for Plymouth when you drive it. Then words of praise come easy!

Mrs. Veda Reed Writes of Alaska Trip And Troubles On Road Back Home

Mrs. Veda Reed has written the following interesting account of her recent trip to Alaska:

When I arrived in Alaska on August 18, I wrote about my trip out on the plane. It was very thrilling and enjoyable, but traveling on the Alcan was something else.

My brother and family really showed me a wonderful time. I had only been there a few days when they took me up to his place at Big Lake to fish, hunt and see the sights.

We had been on the road only a short time when out dashes the biggest and ugliest cow moose, the first one I had ever seen.

Arriving late, we decided to get a good night's rest and get up early to fish. It was so beautiful at this place! Very little fishing I have ever done, and I saw for the first time hundreds of red salmon. Of course, the red salmon weren't any good as they had come there to spawn and die. But the grey salmon were big and good to eat.

We ate our lunch and then started up to the high country—a most beautiful sight—mountains and trees as far as the eye can see. By the road, at times, comes flowing the clearest and coldest water. Since it had started raining, we decided to go back home, but we were prepared, if we saw a moose or bear, to hunt some.

Later, Rubie, Stevie and I went to see the Portage Glacier and other interesting sights. I took a lot of pictures so I would have them to show and to put in my Alaska scrap book.

In Alaska grow the prettiest flowers, all sizes and colors! I saw cabbage weighing 44 pounds or more. But, prices are really high out there.

We left Anchorage in the morning on Sept. 28 in a fine mist of rain. We all were a little anxious to get started on the road. Bud, Ruby, Stevie and Susan had traveled it before, but I was going over it for the first time. It is so beautiful along the road, with trees of all shades and snow on the mountains, with clouds hanging around them, the sun shining down through—it's so beautiful!

You have to drive fairly slow on the Alaskan Highway, but when you hit the Alcan, even though it isn't paved, it's a good road. Since places to lodge along the road are far apart, we stopped the first day around 4:00 p. m. and spent the night at Tok Junction, Alaska. Having been over the road before, my brother knew where to stop each night. They really have nice places along the Alcan.

We had been on the road four days and had just come down the Steamboat Mountains, 14 miles of it, when the left rear tire blew out. My brother stopped and when he opened the door he could see the tire was on fire and hollered for us to get out fast.

While he and I tried to put out the fire, the rest were trying to save our clothes and other belongings. Having very little water in the car and nothing but rocks over the highway, it was gone in a matter of minutes.

A bus coming from the opposite way stopped and the drivers ran down with their fire extinguishers to help us, but they said it was too late to fight it. In a matter of minutes, it blew up and was gone. Even if we did lose the car and most of our clothes, etc., we were nearly 4,000 miles from home, we were thankful we got out of the car with our lives.

We then boarded the bus and were taken back to Steamboat Lodge to spend the night. When we reached there we were told there were no vacant rooms. My brother hired a boy to take us on to the next place, 50 miles, to Fort Nelson, B. C.

On our way, we stopped at the scene where the car had burned as a Royal Mounted Policeman was there. We told him what had happened, and he took Stevie, Susan and I with him as the other car was so crowded. They took us to a lodge, where we spent the night.

My brother had to meet with the Canadian authorities so we wouldn't have any trouble going through Canadian customs. We were then ready to board a bus to take us to Seattle, Washington. We rode the bus 1200 miles, which took us 40 hours, reaching Seattle Friday at 5:30 a. m.

My brother and Stevie started out to find us another car. Buying one and packing what things we had left, we started on our road home.

Traveling 5,000 miles and seeing eight different states, plus Canada, we made it home in ten days, even with our bad luck. We arrived in Tahoka around 4:30 a. m. Tuesday.

The trip home was such a beautiful sight we enjoyed it, except the bad luck that we had. I only wish my family could have been with me and enjoyed it like I did.

A few nights before we were to leave for Texas, my brother called us all out in the yard. This was the most magnificent thing

I have ever seen—the Northern Lights performing and changing into all the most beautiful colors, dancing from this way to that! Seeing the Great Northern Lights really clinched my trip to Alaska.

Hints Given On Buying Turkey

College Station — It's almost gobbertime again and every homemaker should know some of the basic rules for buying turkey.

The first consideration when buying ready-to-cook turkeys is the amount of turkey to buy and whether to buy a whole turkey or a turkey roll. Whichever the choice, the homemaker should consider cost on the basis of the edible portion of the pounds bought to get a true picture of the cost of each.

When deciding the amount of turkey needed, she must also take into consideration the number of people to be served and whether she wants to have left-overs. When buying whole turkeys allow about 2 to 3/4 pound per person, and about five to eight ounces of unstuffed turkey roll or five to six ounces of cooked roll per person.

Quality and wholesomeness is the next consideration in buying turkey. The bird should have a broad breast, large drumsticks, and bulging thighs, be well covered with fat over the body and be fully fleshed. It should be free of defects such as torn skin, bruises, and broken bones, and should be free of pinfeathers.

Wholesomeness means the condition of the bird as to cleanliness, freedom from disease and completeness of processing. If processed under USDA supervision, tags on the wings of the birds will show their grade and that they have been inspected for wholesomeness.

Turkeys vary in price because of differences in quality, wholesomeness and in some cases because of special sales at holiday seasons.

ally on Wink, moved from the Tahoka 15 to the Wink 44. Here Williams found End Macky McWhirter open away down field, threw a long pass to him, McWhirter took the ball on about the 20, evaded a tackler, and raced into the end zone. Attempt at running the conversion failed.

Wink came right back to score again, however, on a 50-yard march with Losoya going the last 12 for the final score 41-6.

Tahoka had another pass intercepted by Bruton, but the game ended before Wink could put another drive together.

The Bulldogs probably missed more tackles in this game than in any two games previously and blocking for ball carriers was poor, but Wink had a lot to do with both these features. Tahoka linebackers, especially Gary Grogan, turned in good performances.

Tahoka's young ball club, with only two seniors, still shows promise, if they can keep up their morale, as many of the younger players are developing. At times, all the boys seeing action looked good, some of those in addition to those named above being Gary Grogan, Rett Patterson, Dennis Clem, Freddie Pierce, Mike Curry, Larry Jolly, Roy Isham, Jim Wells, Cal Womack, Jack Jaquess, Jack Edwards, and Stanley Renfro. Also making progress are Dean Hamilton, Milton Edwards, the Limon boys, Mike Reid, and the Limon boys, Mike Reid, Robert Medlin, and several others.
