Bids Are Called On Housing For Aged

Tahoka's proposed low rent house project for aged people is being revived following a revision of plans by the Federal government and the Housing Authority of the City of Tahoka. Bids were called on the project several months ago, but these were higher than money available and were rejected.

This week, new bids are being called for on a 12-unit project, which must be submitted by 2:00 p. m. December 17 at the City Hall in Tahoka.

The project would be built on the half block immediately south of the Sunshine Inn and a block from the business section of town.

Plans call for 12 dwelling units in two buildings, a management and maintenance building, shelter and service building, and site improvements such as recreational areas, curbs, walks, utilities, landscaping, etc.

Construction would be of brick and concrete and each unit fitted for aged single people and married couples.

Housing Authority of the City of Tahoka two years ago built 14 low-rent units in three locations for white, Mexican, and Negro families.

J. M. Uzzle, manager of the project, says the project is working out fairly well. The rental units are designed to pay out in 40 years.

Carriers Taking Livestock Census

Rural mail carriers from the Tahoka post office will leave some livestock survey cards along their routes beginning November 15.

Information reported on these cards is used to set the yearly inventory of livestock and poultry on Texas farms. Rural carriers distribute the cards at random to farms along their routes.

This means that not every box will get a card. For this reason, it's important for everyone who gets a card to return it filled out so that USDA can get a true sample of the State's livestock holdings.

Carriers assisting with the survey are: Eldon Carroll, Route 1; A. C. Weaver, Route 2; Dal Carroll, Route 3; Clyde Ashcraft, Route 4; and Jess Gurley, Route 5.

Facts and figures secured in this survey are the basis for Texas and National pig crop report and inventories of livestock and poultry on farms as of the first of the year. Stockmen and many others use this information in making business decisions.

Survey results will be widely distributed through Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service releases, newspapers, farm magazines, radio, and television.

Burglars Enter Stanley's Again

Floyd Stanley, owner of Stanley Army Surplus, located on the south side of the square, reports that burglars again entered his store Sunday morning and took away about $165.00 in merchandise.

The burglars entered the building by prying off the lock on the front door. Taken were guns, knives, shells, and other smaller items.

About a month ago, burglars entered through a rear window and stole merchandise valued at $1,500, according to Mr. Stanley's estimate.

HERE FOR HOMECOMING
Miss Karen Kidwell, University of Texas student, and a university friend, Miss Judith Sullivan from Ennis, visited Karen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Kidwell, last week end and attended the Tahoka Homecoming.

Work Starts On Roadside Park

Texas Highway Department has started construction work on a second roadside park north of Tahoka and south of the present park on US 87 four-lane divided highway.

O. L. Crain of Lubbock, district engineer, told The News this park will serve north-bound traffic, while the existing park will remain principally to serve south-bound traffic.

Eugene Munsell, local maintenance man responsible for the present park will have three picnic units. However, the public can not expect it to match the other park for some time, one reason being that no provision has been made as yet for a water well.

The present park, unofficially named "Munsell Park" by Tahoka Chamber of Commerce in tribute to Mr. Munsell, is reputed to be the most outstanding in beauty and convenience of any such park in the entire Southwest. Many people from over Texas and from other states comment on its beauty.

$873 Raised For CROP In County

Wilson, New Home and Tahoka collected a total of $873.51 in its annual solicitations for the Christian Rural Overseas Program, states Rev. Robert Kamrath of Wilson, chairman of the drive.

This represents six bales of cotton that will be bought and shipped to refugees overseas to be distributed by missionaries of all churches.

Much of the collection was made by young people of the churches of the above communities who conducted a door-to-door campaign.

Wilson reported the largest collection, $365.73; Tahoka, $337.00; and New Home, $150.78.

Rev. Kamrath expressed his appreciation for everyone's help and generosity for the CROP program.

Warehouse Site Is Sought Here

Site for Texas Highway Department's proposed new and modern headquarters and shop building is still needed in Tahoka adjacent to one of the highways. District Engineer Oscar L. Crain told The News Tuesday.

Negotiations were just about complete for one site at the south edge of town, but the deal now is stalled because of failure to obtain mineral rights to the tract.

Mr. Crain says the Highway Department needs about five acres, preferably adjacent to city water and sewer.

T. R. Cathcart Has 87th Birthday

T. R. Cathcart was 87 years old Wednesday and was down town that morning greeting friends.

Although he planned no special celebration, Mr. Cathcart said he was looking forward to his 88th year. He still works around his house and yard, and has become known as having one of the prettiest yards in town.

He was raised at Eddy, McLennan county, along with the late Senator Tom Connolly, who passed away just a few days ago.

OFFICERS ARE ELECTED BY JUNIOR HIGH BAND

The Tahoka Junior High School Band has elected the following officers: Robbie Bizzarrell, president; Tim Walker, vice president; Janice Renfro, secretary; and Karen Elliott, reporter.

PROPOSED CHURCH building of First Methodist Church is shown here, expected to cost $175,000 to $190,000, which will replace present building erected in 1923-1924. The congregation Sunday morning approved the plans and authorized the Building Committee to proceed with plans for a new sanctuary and educational building. The structure will have approximately 15,000 square feet of floor space, and the sanctuary will seat about 400 people. The Finance Committee will begin plans at once to finance the new project. ## Ginnings Near 40,000, Light Frost Helps Some Cotton harvest stepped up some the past week, but the big rush is yet to come after a killing frost.

Tahoka had ginned 8,946 bales Thursday morning, an increase of nearly 3,500 bales over the same time a week ago.

O'Donnell had ginned 8,434 up until Tuesday morning, and the O'Donnell Index-Press estimated that the crop was approximately one-third complete in that area.

Based on these figures, the county has possibly ginned as much as 40,000 bales, although The News made no check of other gins this week.

Very light frost was reported last week end as the temperature dropped to a low of 36 degrees Friday morning in Tahoka and to 24 degrees Sunday morning as recorded by the official U. S. Weather Bureau gauge in Tahoka.

Scattered areas of the county from New Home to Draw reported much heavier frost which killed cotton leaves, while other areas reported no frost that killed leaves. Strangely, some fields were affected while neighboring fields were not nipped at all.

Most farmers say they are ready for a killing frost, and some say they would welcome two or three killing frosts before a hard freeze. (Cont'd. on Back Page)

Although progress seems slow, a great deal of work has been done, including all underground plumbing, etc.

The new building is part of the building program at the schools which will also include complete renovation of the old high school building, North Elementary, additions to the cafeteria and vocational agriculture building.

Bulldogs Play Sundown Today

Tahoka Bulldogs went to work again in earnest early this week in preparation with the next to last game tonight, Friday, at 7:30 at Sundown against the Roughnecks. The Bulldogs lost to O'Donnell 24 to 16 here last Friday in a game in which the boys failed to get going until the last quarter. (See story on front page, second section.)

The Bulldogs will wind up their 1963 season with the Eagles at Seagraves Friday of next week.

The team will be without the services of Gary Grogan, senior, stellar guard and linebacker.

Sundown is another rugged ball team which has improved with the advancing season. The Roughnecks led their opener to losses 9 to 26, tied Hale Center 6-6, defeated Anton 26 to 6 and Sudan 26 to 20, then lost to Morton 0 to 19. In conference play, Sundown defeated O'Donnell 24 to 13, held powerful Seagraves to 22 to 30, and last Friday fell to Wink 0 to 26.

Top ball carriers are Quarterback Jimmy Morgan, 163, and Fullback Howard Phillips, 156, junior and senior respectively. Other backs are Dale Scott, 140, and Randall Decker, 150, both seniors, and Dub Holly, 140, who sometimes plays center and sometimes quarterback.

In the line, probable starters include: James White, 163, described by his coach as a tremendous pass receiver, and Jim Gray, 138, ends; Terry Williams, 184, and Dennis Elliott, 150, junior, the tackles; John Edwards, 138, and Bill Stewart, 136, guards; and Jimmy Douglas, 146, center.

Sundown defeated Tahoka here 12 to 0 last year. Coach Max Washington is in his first year as head coach at Sundown. Due to declining enrollment, Sundown will play in Class B next year.

Three New Homes Are Started Here

Construction on three new homes in Tahoka was started this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hegl are building a home on North Seventh, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sproles on North Fifth, and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brandon, Sr. on North First.

REMODELING HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Cain are carrying out an extensive remodeling job on their two story home on North Second Street.

Mrs. B. R. Tale was admitted to Tahoka Hospital Sunday as a medical patient.

Texas voters should go to the polls this Saturday, November 9, to express their wishes on four proposed amendments to the Texas constitution.

First amendment on the ballot, if approved, will repeal the provision in the constitution which requires the payment of a poll tax in order to vote. A registration law requiring payment of 25 cents for such registration would be substituted. The poll tax costs $1.75.

Proponents of the amendment claim the poll tax law is restrictive and prevents some citizens from voting. Opponents say the difference will have to be made up in taxes somewhere else, those interested enough pay their poll taxes, and will lend encouragement to bloc voting by minorities, herded to polls by unscrupulous politicians and special interests.

Second proposed amendment of the ballot would eliminate residence requirements and allow more expenditure from state funds for needy aged, blind, children and disabled people. Legislators estimate passage of the amendment would require expenditure of an additional $5.5 million in tax monies.

The third proposed amendment would affect no county but Jefferson. It would permit that county and political subdivisions thereof to provide retirement, disability and death compensations to employees of the county.

Amendment No. 4 would extend the Veterans Land Program and add $150 million in bonds to finance the same. Increase the interest rate from 3 1/2 percent up to a possible 4 1/2 percent, extend life of the Veterans Land Fund to an indeterminate date, and limits the interest rate charged veterans to 5 1/2 percent instead of the 4 1/2 percent maximum limit now charged.

Judge W. M. Mathis says election instructions require that voters bring their poll tax receipts or be prepared to sign an affidavit they have paid their poll taxes; and that over-age people not required to pay poll taxes register.

Salvation Army Drive Nets $867

With Tahoka collections nearly complete, the Salvation Army Drive Chairman Harold Roberts said $861.95 had been turned in on Tuesday morning.

This is far short of the goal for this year although other communities in the north half of Lynn county have not conducted their drives as yet.

Since the Salvation Army funds are mostly used locally, it is hoped that those who were missed in the drive in Tahoka will mail their checks to either Mr. Roberts or to Mrs. Florene McCracken, committee treasurer.

Workers who have not completed their cards in Tahoka are asked to do so as soon as possible.

Drives at Wilson, New Home, West Point and Grassland will be conducted in the near future.

Chairmen of the drives in those communities are A. L. Holder, Wilson; L. K. Nelson, New Home; Roy Stephens, West Point; and Mrs. Roy LeMond, Grassland.

New Home Turkey Shoot Next Week

New Home Civic Club will hold its annual fall turkey shoot Friday and Saturday of next week, Nov. 15 and 16, at the target range a mile and a half west of the town.

Proceeds from the shoot will go into the building fund for the Boy Scout hut.

Turkeys and hams will be given as prizes. Low velocity shells will be used.

MR. AND MRS. C. E. GRAY

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Gray, Married 50 Years, Will Observe Anniversary This Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Gray, residents of eastern Lynn county for 46 years, will be honored by their children with an open house Sunday afternoon from 2:00 until 4:00 o'clock in observance of their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

The Grays live on their farm two miles north and a half mile west of Central Baptist Church in a relatively new home. All old friends of the family are invited.

Charles Elmer Gray was born at Cooper, Delta county, on July 6, 1881. Sadie Hand, who was to become his wife, was born at Henrietta on November 10, 1894, and she will also be celebrating her birthday on next Sunday.

Parents of the two moved to the old Retrop community, named by an early settler there named Porter, spelled backwards to get Retrop, eight miles west of Sentinel, Oklahoma.

Both attended Retrop school, where they were "sweethearts," and each day they met down at the corner of a road intersection and walked to school together, returning together in the afternoon.

They got their marriage license over at Cordell, Okla., and were married on November 9, 1913. They lived on the farm there for four years.

In 1917, the Grays came out to Lynn county to make their home, buying a quarter section of the Post Double-U lands from Frank Johnson, which they moved to on December 19, 1917, just in time to get in on the big drought. They lived in that same four-room house built by C. W. Post until last year, when they sold the old house to Dr. K. R. Durham and moved in a new one. They have long loved their home, their land, their neighbors and community, and had no desire to move to town.

Their children attended old Magnolia school, which was later consolidated with Galya, became

Only 26% Of Citizens Date Back To First War

(Special to The News)
 New York — How many of the important events of modern times have taken place within the lifetime of present residents of Lynn county?
 What proportion of the local population goes back far enough in time to remember the first crossing of the United States by an automobile, 1903? Or the year 1906, when Peary reached the North Pole? Or the outbreak of World War I? Or D-Day, when the Allies landed in France?
 A breakdown of Lynn county's population into age groups, based on Government figures, shows that only 26 percent, locally, had been born by the end of World War I.
 In 1912 the 16th Amendment was approved, giving Congress the power, for the first time, to levy a Federal tax on income. That year also witnessed the sinking of the Titanic by an iceberg, with a loss of 2,300 lives. About 30 percent of the country's residents date back that far.

 Only 37 percent could have been present when Lindbergh flew the Atlantic, in 1927.
 Not more than 54 percent had been born when the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor, in 1941.
 New generations of young people, to whom many of these happenings are purely historical, have sprung up since then in Lynn county.
 Today, the figures show, there are more of these young folk around, in proportion to the total population, than in the past.
 Since World War II, when the birth rate started to zoom upward, they have been arriving on the scene at a rapid rate. As a result, nearly half the population of the United States is to be found in the under-25 age groups at the present time.
 The influence and power wielded by the younger generation has risen just as rapidly.
 President Kennedy, who reached the White House at age 43, is a prominent example. He was born after this country had entered World War I.
 In Lynn county, the figures show, the median age of the population is 24.6. There are as many local people under that age as there are over it.
 It compares with a median of 29.5 years in the United States as a whole, 27.2 in the West South Central States and 27.0 in the State of Texas.

Improvements Made At Country Club

Several improvements are being made at T-Bar Country Club this fall, states Wade Holland, club president.
 "Shorty" Hester of Hester Pump Co. donated about five days of labor in cleaning out and pumping one of the old water wells, increasing its capacity to a 3-inch well. A new pump has also been installed in the well. Clifton Hamilton heads the pump and water well committee.
 Fairway improvements are planned a little later, when further leveling and filling-in work will be done with sod and dirt.
 Also, the greens committee, headed by Oscar Whitaker, is requesting cart owners to refrain from driving them on the fairways, at least until the dry weather is over and leveling is completed, and to use the trails beside the fairways instead.
 Mrs. Freda Townes, secretary, says there has been a full schedule of parties, mostly for children during recent weeks.
 Palmettos along the Rio Grande caused the Spanish discoverers to name the river "Rio de las Palmas."

Local Men At Rotary Meeting

About 25 members of Tabaka Rotary Club Tuesday night attended the annual Lubbock Rotary inter-city meeting in Municipal Auditorium, at which the principal speaker was Jeff Williams of Chickasha, Okla., nationally-known philosopher-humorist.

More than 500 men from 31 Rotary clubs attended the meeting, were served a dinner, and also heard the Texas Tech stage band and The Singing Plainsmen, the 40-voice Lubbock unit of the Society for Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America.

Tabaka club received special recognition when Miss Montie McGinty, local club "sweetheart" was introduced as the third of the three McGinty girls who have served the club in this capacity.

Sorghum Midge Can Be Controlled

College Station (Spl) — Grain sorghum producers of Northwest Texas are advised by research entomologists of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station that the dreaded sorghum midge can be effectively controlled by early planting and use of chlorinated hydrocarbons and phosphorus insecticides.

Investigations on the pest were conducted during the 1963 growing season at the South Plains Agriculture Research and Extension Center, Lubbock, by the Texas Station in cooperation with the Entomology Research Division, U. S. Department of Agriculture. Research entomologists N. M. Randolph, W. L. Owen and E. L. Montoya of Texas A&M University's Department of Entomology directed the studies.

The studies were two-fold. The first included a study of the biology and ecology of the sorghum midge and the second part had to do with chemical control and an evaluation of new chemicals available for use in control.

During June and July, the research entomologists made a thorough search for possible host plants of the midge. They identified seven. These were Johnsongrass, sorghum alnum, sorghum, Sudangrass, tridengrass, Indian grass and watchgrass.

The entomologists each week during the growing season kept a careful check on the midge movement. Their observations indicated that midge started moving into early blooming sorghum about June 30. They noted that the native grasses, Johnsongrass and cultivated grasses reached their peak bloom stage about July 20. By August 6 light to medium infestations were noted in sorghum fields. Heavy infestations began moving in about August 14 and considerable midge damage was observed by August 20.

These observations and dates thus point up the advantages of early grain sorghum planting as a control method, the entomologists said.

Their biological studies on the insect's life cycle were made to get comparisons with other areas. Their initial observations indicate the life cycle of the insect is completed in about 16-21 days.

Their studies dealing with the evaluation of new chemicals and the use of chemicals for control in late planted fields indicate that chlorinated hydrocarbons and phosphorus insecticides will give effective control. They pointed out that yield figures from test and check plots are not available at this time but observations indicate the successful results.

Three methods were used to apply the insecticides in other experiments — hand spraying, a hi-boy spray rig and aerial application. The aerial application included materials approved for use on sorghums. The entomologist emphasized the great importance of proper timing for the applications of the insecticide. Phytotoxicity and midge emergence were recorded after each insecticide application.

Only one insecticide application was made on the hand sprayed and hi-boy treated plots while one and two applications were applied to the aerial sprayed plots.

After the test reports have been completed, including yield information, a detailed evaluation of the results will be made available along with information and recommendations covering the use of chemicals for midge control, the entomologists said.

Texas has 72,000 miles of gas pipelines.

WARD EAKIN BOYD BARNES
MELVIN WUENSCH

A conservation plan is being processed for the E. L. Brosch farm located 3 1/2 miles west of Southland. In addition to cultural practices such as a conservation cropping system and crop residue use, the plan will include land leveling and the construction of a diversion terrace to control outside water. Approximately 20 acres will be seeded to Blue panic grass. The land leveling, diversion construction and grass seeding will be cost-shared through the Great Plains Conservation Program.

For the benefit of those who are considering applying for assistance through the Great Plains Program, it should be pointed out that all contracts processed before Dec. 31, 1963 will run one year less in duration than those processed after Jan. 1. The reason for this is that a contract must be in force three complete calendar years. Say a contract was put in force Jan. 5, it would run all that year plus three additional years. Whereas if it had been put in force any day prior to Jan. 1, it would only be in force three years plus a few weeks or days depending upon how long it was before Jan. 1 that the contract went into effect.

It would be to the advantage of anyone planning to sign up for a Great Plains contract in the near future, to do so by December 1. This will provide time to get the plan written and in force before Jan. 1.

Tahoka Ex-Student Meetings Draw Crowds To Homecoming Festivities

Ex-students were guests last Friday when Tahoka High School held its annual homecoming activities climaxed by the Tahoka-O'Donnell football game at Kelly Field.

Miss Andrea Sue Carroll, junior and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Carroll, was crowned football queen by Gary Grogan in ceremonies preceding the game. The candidates came onto the field in a convertible and were escorted to the center of a football band formation in the center of the field. The queen, whose identity was not revealed until the crown was placed on her head, was escorted by Terry Harvick. Other candidates and their escorts were Carla McNeely, Jack Jaquess; Marla Bray, Stanley Renfro; and Arnetta Wood, Macky Joe McWhirter. Allen Cox presented the queen and the three runners-up with bouquets of roses.

At an afternoon program in the high school auditorium, sponsored by the Student Council, Mrs. Charles (Myrna) Verner and James F. (Sonny) Roberts, both members of the class of 1943 which was honored on its 20th anniversary, spoke to the students and ex-students. Both told of their school days and events while attending Tahoka High School.

Mrs. Algee Fortenberry of Tahoka was awarded a free ticket as the ex-student representing the earliest class. She graduated here in 1913. Mrs. Dale Thomas, the former Miss Patsy McGinty, received a ticket for travelling the longest distance, 465 miles from Longview.

The eighth grade was presented $5.00 for having the best poster in a contest held at the school.

A salad supper was attended by about 130 ex-students in the school cafeteria preceding the football game when the group was entertained by the Rhythm Ryders, a combo. New officers of the association were elected and include Mrs. Kenneth (Macky) Turner, president; Tom Hale, Jr., vice president; Mrs. Bert (Hazel) Stevens, secretary; and Mrs. Leonard (Retha) Dunn, reporter. Jesse Dorman served this year as president.

Bray, a pre-med student, is president of his dormitory house council, and a member of the Freshman Council, the Forum Committee, and the Special Events Committee at SMU.

Men Will Attend FB Convention

At least a dozen members of Lynn County Farm Bureau expect to attend the 30th annual meeting Sunday through Wednesday in Fort Worth of the Texas Farm Bureau, the state's largest farm organization, according to T. B. (Tom) Mason, president of the Lynn county Bureau.

Delegates will adopt state policies for 1951 and approve national recommendations which will be forwarded to the American Farm Bureau Federation for consideration at the national convention in December at Chicago.

Registration gets underway Sunday afternoon. Featured speakers include Governor John Connally, Congressman Joe M. Kilgore, Marvin L. McLain of the American Farm Bureau, and Clayton Rand of Gulfport, Miss., nationally known speaker and writer.

Mr. Mason urges all Lynn county members who possibly can to attend the convention, and requests that those desiring to make the trip contact the local Farm Bureau office today or Saturday morning so transportation and reservations may be arranged.

Among those planning to make the trip are: Mason, Loyd McCormick Jr., outgoing president; Earl Cummings, secretary; Milton Evans, Leland White, Willie Nieman, Woodrow Brewer, L. C. Unfried, Elmer Blankenship, Charles Reid, J. D. Atwell, and Billy Rhoads.

Texas Revenue Shows Increase

Texas ranks 30th among the states in per capita of revenue collected locally by all units of local government—counties, school districts, cities and special districts.

The Texas Municipal League today listed this among facts indicating the comparative Texas standing nationally on matters of local government fiscal affairs. Based on the most recent national surveys conducted by the Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations, TML's report showed the following:

1. Local governments in Texas raised $106.63 per capita in 1950, contrasted with the national average of $126.78. Local revenue raised in Texas amounted to $56.30 per $1,000 of personal income for residents of the state, ranking Texas as 23rd among the states on this measurement.

2. On local government direct general expenditures, Texas was 31st among the states in per capita local outlays averaging $103.47 per individual. This amounted to $79.74 per $1,000 of personal income, placing Texas No. 29 in the nation. On the national average, local government general expenditures amounted to $187.83 per capita, and $94.64 per $1,000 of personal income.

3. Expenditures made through local government in Texas amounted to 62.3 percent of combined state and local outlays, giving Texas a national rank of 17th. The degree of Texas reliance on local government for disbursing public funds is near the national average of 65.2 percent for all 50 states.

4. Intergovernmental expenditure by state government in Texas—payments by the state to local levels of government—were substantially below the national average per capita. Texas state intergovernmental outlays amounted to $34.86 per capita compared to the national average of $51.80. This was 27.1 percent of the total general expenditures by the state in contrast to the fifty state average of 34.1 percent of state budgets going to support of local governments.

O'Donnell Band Praises Tahoka

"The O'Donnell High School 'Eagle Band' is preparing to wind up another regular marching season this month. They will present two more half-time shows during O'Donnell's two remaining football games with Seagraves (in O'Donnell) and Wink (in Wink).

On Saturday, November 16, following the game at Wink, the band will participate in a marching contest at Seagraves. The band is trying very hard to work up a show fine enough to present there. Though there is a degree of competition in a contest such as this, each band's performance is rated 1 through 5 (1 being "excellent"). This helps the band to see the standing and degree of quality in comparison to the other marching bands of the area.

Immediately following marching, the concert season will begin. Both the full high school band and the stage band will be devoting nearly all of their time to the quality of the music, due to the absence of the regular marching practices.

"As most of you know, O'Donnell and Tahoka have long been rivals. Perhaps this is the reason that our engagement with them this year was such a successful and exciting one. A fine display of sportsmanship and school enthusiasm was shown as well as a game hard fought by both teams," band representatives said.

"The 'Eagle Band' would like to congratulate Tahoka's fine band on its beautifully executed pregame and half-time shows. Their reception for our band following the game was very much appreciated by each and everyone of us. Thank you sincerely for your hospitality.

"The entire band, including our director, Mr. W. J. Buchanan, has tried their best to represent O'Donnell as well as possible this season. We offer our warm thanks to everyone, especially the 'Band Boosters' for their help in making this a successful season."

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cullifer of Brownfield, formerly of Petty, were here Wednesday visiting a few old friends.

Mrs. Hattie Yates, who had been a medical patient in Tahoka Hospital, was released Friday.

Bat Captured At Grassland Came From Oklahoma

A little over a month ago, S. B. (Budford) Mathis, who lives four miles north and a mile east of Central, caught a bat at Grassland Co-op Gin that had been banded with request report if and when found.

This week, Mr. Mathis received a letter from Bat-Banding Office, Fish and Wildlife Service, U. S. National Museum, Washington, D. C., telling him this was a male "free-tailed bat" banded at Selman's Cave, Woodward County, Oklahoma, on July 7, 1949, by Dr. Bryan P. Glass of Oklahoma State University at Stillwater.

The bat-banding project is carried out to determine habits, life migrations, etc., in order to check on diseases carried by these little mammals. The letter says a half million bats have been banded since 1912.

The letter says some bats winter in caves, other migrate hundreds of miles each year, like birds. Free-tailed bats like this one have migrated into Mexico as far as 810 miles away, and will come back home to roost as much as 150 miles. Many of them live to be 10 years old, and one has been recaptured that had been banded 21 years before.

Anyone capturing one of these bats is requested to follow instructions on the band, report same, and release the bat. Bats should be handled with gloves, as they can bite and transmit diseases.

O'Donnell Wins 24-18 Over Tahoka Bulldogs

O'Donnell Eagles are the Lynn county champions. They threw a wet towel on Tahoka's homecoming Friday night by whipping the Bulldogs 24-18 in a game that was more one-sided than the score indicates.

In fact, the young Bulldogs were never in the game until the last quarter, as their county cousins ran through, around, and over the home boys for 396 yards and 23 first downs from scrimmage. Finally, something made the Bulldogs mad in the fourth quarter, when they came to life, scored twice, made seven of the 10 first downs, and hiked their total yardage from scrimmage to 196 yards.

Few times could the Bulldogs stop completely little Jesse Lopez, 175 pounds Eagle fullback, who carried the ball 26 times for 204 yards, and pile-driving Gary Reeves, who carried 14 times for 99 yards, as the O'Donnell line ripped big holes in the Tahoka line.

For Tahoka, only Adolph Chapa with 83 yards rushing, Gary Tomlinson with 44, and Freddie Pierce with 13, ended the game with plus yardage, as Tahoka's line play, blocking and timing failed to materialize. QB Terry Harvick completed three passes, one to Ed Eddie Howard and two to Ed Macky McWhirter, one of the latter for a touchdown, and kicked three times for a 34 yard average, but had two bad passes from center on fourth down punting situations.

On receiving the kickoff, Tahoka failed to move, lost the ball on a fumble on its own 26, and Lopez carried the ball eight times in succession in an unsuccessful scoring drive. Tahoka's goal line stand at this point looked very bleak.

good when O'Donnell had a first down on the Tahoka 3, but were ret back by an offside penalty, and the visitors failed to score in four downs. Two plays gained nothing for Tahoka, then Chapa broke loose on a 34 yard run, but Tahoka bogged down, and Harvick punted 42 yards.

O'Donnell's next drive was stopped when Freddie Pierce intercepted a Fen Taylor pass, but Tahoka had to punt again. From the O'Donnell 23, the Eagles moved 77 yards on 11 plays, including one pass Taylor to Ed Charles Gardenaire for seven yards, with HB Ray Casares going the last four around left end to the end zone. Tackle Don Richardson's place-kick was no good. Score, 6-0.

Neither team could move, Tahoka got possession on its own 28. Tomlinson raced for 18 yards, and then Chapa broke through the line, cut to the right, and ran 52 yards for Tahoka's first score. Conversion failed and the score was tied 6-6.

Tahoka didn't make another first down until the fourth quarter. O'Donnell took the kickoff to the 31, and immediately moved for another score. Lopez carrying on 7 of 9 plays, including the last in which he went two yards over right guard to pay dirt. Gary Grogan blocked Richardson's place kick. Score 12-6.

The Eagles received the second half kickoff to the 33, and proceeded to march for a third score, in spite of a 15-yard penalty, with Lopez, Casares for 36 yards on one run, and Reeves bulging over the last yard for the TD. Lopez failed to run the conversion. Score, 18-6.

Ray Isham covered an Eagle fumble after Harvick had failed to get off a punt following a bad pass from center, but the Bulldogs couldn't move. On the next drive of 43 yards, ending in the fourth quarter, the Eagles chalked up their final score on an 18-yard pass Taylor to Ed Ellis Treadway and the conversion attempt was fumbled. Score, 24-6.

Wilson Plays At Ropes Tonight

The chips are down and the 3-B title is on the line when the Wilson Mustangs journey to Ropesville tonight at 7:30 for a battle with the Eagles. Both teams are undefeated in conference play.

Ropes has won over Meadow 36 to 6, Sands 40 to 6, and Cooper 18 to 12 in conference play, while Coach Doug Duncan's Wilson boys have also won three, over Sands 42 to 0, New Home 46 to 6, and Meadow 12 to 6. Only winless Cooper remains on Wilson's regular season schedule after the game with Ropesville.

The Mustangs will be defending their 1962 co-championship in 3-B. Wilson suffered a let-down last Friday, but managed to squeak out a 12-6 victory at Meadow over the Broncos. Although the Mustangs kept things under control, they had a bit of a scare.

In the first quarter, speedy back Royce Baker got away on a 68-yard touchdown run. Conversion failed. In the second, Meadow tied it up 6-6 when Fullback Don Casaroff scored from 10 yards out. Not to be outdone, Baker again scored on a 20-yard run for the final tally, 12-6. Neither team could score the rest of the way, but Wilson was happy to maintain the lead.

The Mustangs had 15 first downs to the Broncos' 11.

A large crowd will follow the team to Ropesville tonight knowing the Wilson team will have to put out its best effort to win this one.

Elephant Butte Reservoir, largest in New Mexico, is on the Rio Grande River 120 miles above El Paso.

New Home Back On Victory Trail

New Home Leopards and break-away runner Terry Brown maintained the lead in team and individual scoring on the Plains Friday night as the Lynn county boys romped over Sands Mustangs of Ackerly of Dawson county 54 to 8 before a homecoming crowd of New Home ex-students.

The Leopards will entertain Meadow Broncos tonight.

In spite of two losses, the Leopards have rolled to 298 points to their opponents' 128, and Brown now has scored a total of 136 points, more than all opponents combined. Kenneth McClung, sophomore, remains among the top ten scorers, now having a total of 85 points. But, it has not been just these two. Other boys, with the help of a few good linemen, have added to the scoring.

Against Sands, QB Elton George had 15 points. He scored once on a 4-yard run and later on a 13-yard run, kicked a conversion, ran one, passed to Brown on two scoring plays. Dave Hancock ran 64 yards for one score, ran the conversion after another. McClung ran 17 yards for a score, scored 7 points on conversions. Brown's scores were on a 60 yard run, a 25-yard pass and a 30-yard pass. Horn of Sands ran a kick-off.

Senator "Doc" Blanchard in a talk at the Rotary Club said he could remember back when there were not more than five bath tubs in Sudan. Shoot, we can remember back when the only bathtub we knew anything about was at the barber shop—which charged 25 cents a bath. We took our baths in a wash tub in the kitchen, water brought in from the windmill by buckets and heated on the wood cook stove. In summer, we had a shower rigged up under the tower which held the water barrel and some old quilts wrapped around the tower to furnish privacy. The good old days weren't so good.

Really, we had a lot of fun, though, in the "good old days." In fact, we believe young people enjoyed life more, made their own fun, and never complained about "nothing to do." Kids used to work hard and play hard. We had a lot of fun playing Wolf Over the River, shinney, football, baseball, and basketball in the backyard or on a vacant lot, plugging tops, playing "keeps," pitching horse shoes or washers, and a dozen other games. The boys rode yearlings and Mexican steers in Sunday afternoon cow pen rodeos. We raised pigeons, rabbits, chickens, pigs, and cows. We knew how to build kites and nigger shooters and sling shots and how to use them, and also prairie dog, rabbit, and quail traps and where to set them. We could shoot a gun with some accuracy, usually treated the same with respect, and knew where to find rabbits and prairie dogs and even coyotes. We really enjoyed a party or seeing Pearl White, Mary Pickford, Bebe Daniels, Charlie Chaplin, Fatty Arbuckle, and Dunston Farnum at the movies (silent). All this took place after we did our work at the shop after school, or in the field, had the stove wood cut and the stock fed. Junior didn't have a car, either. But, we really had a good time. We doubt if the young people today who have everything really appreciate playing like their parents and grandparents did.

This "trick or treat" business on Halloween is about to get out of hand in Tahoka. Most everyone enjoys treating a moderate number of little children, but it's just too much when it gets to where 15 and 18 year olds, entire families and big mobs come to the door for hand-outs and carry the same away in cars and pickups. One man counted 104 people he "treated."

We were a little disappointed that Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman failed to make his Lubbock engagement for we wanted to see what he had to say and what some of our farmers had to say to him. Although advertised as a visit so that he could get grass-roots opinion, we don't believe he could have gotten even a far-fetched view of South Plains agriculture in four or five hours. Newspapers where he has been in similar meetings previously have said his tour was largely a political junket trying to justify the Administration farm program. One said, "He didn't even get wheat chaff down his collar, tractor smudge on his hands, or actually stop and talk to any dirt farmer. Mr. Freeman or anyone else can't judge grass-roots thinking in a three-hour meeting in a convention hall." We don't especially agree with this statement, for South Plains farmers may have given him some inking, if the wheat and turkey referendums haven't, that most farmers don't want stricter controls and higher prices and fewer allotted acres at the expense of losing markets.

The following three items are from the Central Texas Moody Courier:

It is said that prosperity is something you feel, hold, and send to Washington; then the big boys send it overseas to fatten 'em up so they can send it back in complaints of not being enough.

"Teen-age boys are amazing. The same ones who are too tired to walk two blocks to school fight for the chance to run 100 yards on the football field. Now is a poor time to mention it, but this country was founded, partly at least, as a protest against excessive taxation."

The following are from "Cher" a trade publication: By the time a family has acquired a nest egg these days, inflation has turned it into chicken feed. . . . In any country, the number of cars, telephones, and bathtubs isn't nearly as important as the number of educated persons with principles. . . . When any issue becomes a political football there are lots of fumbles.

A school teacher was giving her students practice in using new words and phrases in sentences, asked the students to use "bitter end" in a sentence, and offered this one example: "They fought to the bitter end." One small boy's effort was: "The dog chased the cat under the chair and bitter end."

Stay in School, Marine's Advice

"Stay in school," this advice comes from the Commandant of the Marine Corps, General David M. Shoup.

In a letter currently being delivered throughout the nation to young men in their senior year of high school, the Marine General urged: "By all means complete high school and, if you have the opportunity, go to college." The Marine Commandant's letter stems from a number of inquiries from students in high school asking advice as to how they can best plan for their future in light of their military service obligation.

In his letter, General Shoup stated that it is true that the Marine Corps needs young men. But he added: "Not just any young men." The Marine Corps especially needs young men who have the educational background and ability to assume the responsibilities required of the modern Marine.

General Shoup said that a high school or college education is an investment in one's future. The Marine General added that the same high school and college education which increases one's opportunities for promotion, higher technical training, and positions of leadership and responsibility as a Marine will also benefit a young man in whatever civilian career he may follow.

Senator "Doc" Blanchard Discusses State Problems

Senator H. J. (Doc) Blanchard of the 26th District was the speaker at Tahoka Rotary Club last Thursday noon.

Citing the inhospitable treatment given a high official, Adlai Stevenson, U. S. ambassador to the UN, at Dallas recently when a mob jeered and spit on him, Mr. Blanchard declared this a shocking event he thought might happen in some foreign country but not in the United States.

What has happened in our country when certain elements show such disrespect? Where is our morality? Are we missing something some where? These were some of the questions he asked.

We seek freedom of speech, and yet some people deny a man the American privilege of speaking his piece. Every man has a right to his beliefs, and a high official has a right to express his beliefs, and the question of agreement or disagreement with these beliefs has nothing to do with it.

"I find over the state a fear that America is going down the wrong road," he declared. "America is not all bad. Materially, we are better off than we have ever been."

He said we need a return to patriotism, love of country. "The flag is a symbol of things I want my children to grow up to know. Let's talk patriotism; let's live it."

In State government, he said Texas will have to redistrict, and pointed out that this should have been done in the last session of the Legislature. But, there was so much opposition a redistricting bill was impossible, most of the opposition coming from the declining districts in East Texas.

He said a poll he took of this area showed about 96 percent of the people oppose a state income tax. The sales tax has permitted Texas to get in the black financially, he said.

The tourism program, he declared, is just a start and should help bring more tourists to Texas. He said the roadside park north of Tahoka is one of the finest he has ever seen.

Senator Blanchard said he voted against the proposal to abolish the poll tax as a requirement for voting. He said he was not convinced by the arguments in favor; for one thing, simple registration will encourage bloc voting and thereby possible loss of some of the good things we have fought for.

The speaker was introduced by E. L. Short, program chairman for the day, who cited the respect in which Senator Blanchard is held in the Senate by reason of the fact he was appointed to 13 important committees.

Happy Smith made a brief talk on Rotary Foundation in which he told the growth of this organization in raising funds from club members to promote student exchanges. Starting with $33,700 in 1931, the program really got underway in 1949, and last year $831,431 was contributed to the fund. Rotary has spent a total of nearly $10 million on the project.

President Don Browning announced a new scoutmaster would have to be selected to head the troop sponsored by Rotary, and a committee headed by Granvel Ayer was asked to work on the project.

He appointed Clifton Clark and Harold Roberts to lead Rotarians in the Homecoming parade.

Steve Thompson, Dr. Gerald Wood and Dr. Kenneth Durham were named head of a committee to attempt to get 100 percent attendance at the annual Lubbock Inter-City meeting next Tuesday at 7:00 p. m. in Municipal Coliseum on Tech campus when the famed humorist, Jeff Williams of Oklahoma, will be the principal speaker.

Mackey Joe McWhirter and Allen Cox, senior student guests for the month, expressed thanks to Rotary for courtesies to them.

H. L. McMillan, partner in a Plainview printing firm, was here for homecoming and to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. McMillan Sr.

SMALL BUSINESS

Fairly recently that part of the nation which takes an active interest in the maintenance of the American democracy was quite shocked when Senators J. W. Fulbright and Joseph Clark made a bitter attack on the American legislative process. It was their published viewpoint that the authority of the legislative bodies of the government should be curtailed, and more power given the administrative branch. This, C. W. Harder of course, would eventually lead to dictatorship.

Shocking as this proposal is, it is possible to see why men of the utmost goodwill would be inclined toward such a radical viewpoint out of sheer sense of frustration.

A case in point is the current handling in the U.S. Senate of the measure known as Senate Resolution No. 30, which would upgrade the present Senate Small Business Committee by giving it the authority to introduce legislation directly to the floor of the Congress.

Early in the session Senator Winston Frosty introduced this measure, along with 33 senatorial co-sponsors. Since that time 22 additional senators have gone on record as favoring the measure. The total stood at 55 until the death of Senator Kefauver, but even now there is a total of 54 of the 100 senators committed, or more than enough to pass the measure.

However, under traditional procedures, the measure is now with the rules committee, and cannot be voted upon until the chairman of the rules committee reports the measure out.

Congressional procedures were adopted to prevent a veto-proof minority from stalling pending through the Congress unwise legislation before it could be studied.

But this wise safeguard is often used to defeat the will of the majority, which negates the basic principles of a democratic form of government.

In the case of Senate Resolution No. 30, there is majority agreement that independent business, as a nation's largest employer, needs the benefits that will accrue from the Senate Small Business Committee having legislative authority.

There is no government re-organizational matter involved here. The Senate Small Business Committee is a permanent committee, and an actively functioning one insofar as the investigative and hearing work is concerned. All that is required is to permit this committee, after it has made its study of an issue, to send a bill to the floor of Congress for a vote, rather than refer it to another committee where it can be buried as is being done to Senate Resolution No. 30.

Yet despite the fact 54 senators have gone on record saying this reform is badly needed to aid the economy, a single senator is able to prevent them from voting for it. This illustrates lucidly a serious sickness of the American democracy.

AKINS VISIT HERE
Mr. and Mrs. Eual Akin of Lamesa, Gene Akin of Lubbock, and Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Akin of Midland were here last week end for Homecoming and to visit local relatives.

Talk is never cheap when you have to take some of it back.

Boll Weevil Tests Planned

College Station (Sp) — To get an answer to the question of whether or not boll weevils can survive on the High Plains, the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Lubbock has placed some 30,000 weevils in cages both above and below the Caprock in the area where infestations were heaviest in 1963.

W. L. Owens, entomologist at the Lubbock Station, is in charge of the research project. He has placed approximately 30,000 boll weevils in 148 cages at seven locations along the eastern edge of the High Plains as well as at locations below the Caprock, but not far removed from cotton growing on the High Plains.

The cages, above the Caprock, were placed in well established field plantings of sorghum alnum, on soil bank land, a likely area for winter hibernation. Installations below the Caprock were made in shinnery oak since such cover seemed to offer ideal conditions for winter survival of the weevil, Owens explained. The cage locations above the Caprock were made in the area where boll weevil infestations were heaviest in 1963, or from 10 miles west of Post in Garza County to the Crosby-Floyd county line.

Owens said the boll weevils were collected locally for all except one cage at each location. Weevils from the College Station area were used in the one cage to determine whether those on the High Plains are of a more hardy strain. The collections and installations were made from October 14-25 with 81 cages above the Caprock and 67 below it. Owens said cooperation from personnel of the Plant Pest Control and Entomology Research Divisions, Agricultural Research Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, the Texas Department of Agriculture, county agents and vocational agriculture classes aided greatly in getting the project moving.

Owens explained that the specially built cages will be checked for survival during the spring and early summer to determine winter survival at the different locations and under different types of cover. These records, Owens said, will be augmented with trash examinations to be made at various locations during the winter and early spring. The results of the research will be made available as soon as possible after the tests have been completed, he said.

Football...

(Continued from Page 1, Sec. 2) the 45, a penalty on O'Donnell, and a six-yard run by Pierce put the ball on the O'Donnell 33, but the Eagles' Reeves covered a Tahoka fumble, and two plays later Tahoka's Jim Wells covered an Eagle fumble on the O'Donnell 33. The now-aroused Bulldogs, too late, went to work. Harvick hit McWhirter with a 13-yard pass in the drive, and Tomlinson ran to the 3. Chapa made a yard, and then Pierce skirted right end for Tahoka's second touchdown. Larry Jolly's conversion attempt failed, but Tahoka had narrowed the margin to 24-12.

Tahoka's line was now charging, and two plays after the kickoff Patterson covered an O'Donnell fumble on the Tahoka 49. Chapa made two, Harvick hit Howard with a 23-yard pass, and a few plays later Harvick found McWhirter open down the east side-line, tossed him a pass complete at about the 20, and McWhirter raced into the end zone for Tahoka's final score. An attempted conversion pass was incomplete, and O'Donnell led 24-18, with 2:25 left on the scoreboard clock.

An outside kick failed to work, and the Eagles managed to run out the clock.

With pep rallies, bonfires, and ex-student activities, Bulldog fans had tried to inspire the boys to do their best; but the boys, many young and inexperienced and discouraged by losses, seemed unable to rise to the occasion.

Coaches and fans, however, are optimistic over future prospects and believe Tahoka has the making of a better ball team in the future, with such boys among the juniors, sophomores and freshmen as Chapa, Dennis Clem, Ret Patterson, Mitchell Williams, Tomlinson, Harvick, Stanley Benfro, Cal Womack, Jim Wells, Roy Isham, Jolly, Jack Edwards, Mike Curry, Pierce, Howard, and others coming along. Only Gary Ogden and Macky McWhirter are seniors.

Nothing should be taken away from O'Donnell, however. They came to play ball, to win, and this they did. Also using service in the backfield were Jimmy Barton and Tom Ed Vestal, and in the line were Lyndal Askew, Don Blair, Larry Callaway, Jimmy Martin, and others mentioned above.
