Two weeks ago it was a big sandstorm, last week the rodeo, this week the election, next week a big rain, then planting, then school closing, and then maybe we can all get back into every day living without any crises for a few weeks.

Late Friday evening, Jack Alley Robinson picked us up in a new Mercury, drove us about town and pointed out each automobile agency and the cars each handle. We couldn't figure out his purpose, thought maybe he was a little tetchy in the head—that is, until he unfolded a copy of Friday's News and showed us the Comet advertisement. There, as plain as day, was the signature of Wayne Waters Ford at the bottom of the ad. Of course, Jack sells Mercurys and Comets and Ford tractors and farm equipment and Harley-Davidson Golf carts, and what have you. We're re-running the Comet ad this week with the correct dealer's name on it (we hope). Boy, when you make a mistake in a newspaper it's right there in black and white for the world to see. We apologize to the Robinsons!

Tahoka has long had a wide reputation as an automobile sales town. You can buy nearly any car made right here. In addition to Mercurys and Comets, there's Ford, Falcon and Thunderbird, and Chevrolet and Corvett, and Oldsmobile and Rambler, Pontiac and Tempest, Chrysler, Dodge, Plymouth, Valiant, and we bet we've left out one or two.

Be sure to vote Saturday!

The Printer's brother, Emmett I. Hill, a partner in The News, and wife, Frances, from University Hills, Maryland, a suburb of Washington, D. C., visited here over the week end and we had a lot of fun recalling boyhood pranks. He lived here about two years from the fall of 1923 until the fall of 1925 after our dad bought The News. Until three years ago, when he retired, he had 30 years in the Government Printing Office, the biggest in the world, and worked up from a printer to an executive position.

One year down at old Roscoe, E. I. entered the school-declama-tion contest, using one of three speeches suggested by the State Interscholastic League. World War I was on, patriotism was at high pitch, and he selected the declamation, "I Am An American." He won the local contest, the county contest, and went to the district meet at Abilene. The contestants drew for places and E. I. drew No. 13.

The first speaker walked to the center of the stage and announced his subject, "I Am An American" by Elias Lieberman. The crowd perked up. Then, the next speaker announced the same subject. There was a bit of rattle in the crowd. The third announced the same subject. The crowd became restless. The fourth came forward and announced, "I Am An American" by Elias Lieberman. The crowd began to leave. All the rest had the same subject, and when No. 13's time came, E. I. announced "I Am An American" by Elias Lieberman, and only the judges and a few parents heard him. He didn't win.

Like sourdough biscuits? Here's a recipe some one left us you might try, or see "Booger" Redwine for his recipe: Ferment a quantity of potato peels in water for 48 hours. Use yeast if desired. Use same water in mixing flour. Salt, sugar and shortening to stiff dough. Proof before baking.

Speaking of rodeos, here's a little verse on the subject of cowboys: "Most cowboys ain't handy at milkin' a cow. In fact a whole lot of 'em never learned how. What misses their vest, and their pants, and their pockets, goes up in their sleeves and runs back in the bucket."

Add this to descriptions that tell the whole story: "His feet were so big that if you saw him riding across a pasture you'd swear he was riding a mare with twin colts."

Here's an old story, but still funny to us: A bunch of men in a small town got together to form a League for the Protection of Henpecked husbands. One old boy was elected president, and no sooner had he stepped up and taken charge than his wife rushed in and grabbed him by the collar. "You come home with me this minute," she shouted. "What business have you in a place like this? Why, you're not hen-pecked."

Mrs. Gleen Phipps, the former Miss Bobie Minor, of Rt. 2, Muleshoe, writes: "I really look forward to receiving the paper each week and read it very thoroughly for news from home. There are many people who are strangers to me, but it is still the home paper. I don't get to Tahoka very often anymore since our folks are gone on, but hearing from Tahoka has a very warm spot in my heart."

Our thanks go to Mrs. James Bowlin, the former Dorothy Fulkerson, for a very nice letter in appreciation of the write-up about the recent death of her husband. A lot of local people sympathize with Dorothy in her great loss.

Odesa Powell and Johnnie Scott (the Henderson girls) out Los Angeles way, are you listening? We'd still like to have some of your reminiscences about the early days in Old Lynn.

And, George Lightfoot, down on route 2, O'Donnell, we'd like to have some more about the old ranching days, anytime. Our readers like your tales.

Crosbyton Review: Trends agree with Texas' American Legion that the U. S. should retail fully the Treaty of 1903 with Panama in which this country was given sovereignty over the Panama Canal Zone forever. In return, the U. S. pays Panama $1,930,000 a year, and in addition Panama receives the benefit of some $32,000,000 a year which its citizens receive for working in the canal zone. Add to that $121,000,000 in foreign aid from the U. S., and Panama's argument that they are not sharing in the profits of the canal get mighty slim. The Canal produces $87,000,000 in gross revenue annually, so it looks to me as if Panama is already receiving all the profits and then some.

Chemicals For Weed Control Are Available

Several pre-emergence herbicides are available for this cotton season. According to County Agent Bill Griffin, five chemicals are readily available here that have effectively controlled weeds and grass in cotton in this area. Dr. Allen Wiese, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station agronomist located at the USDA Bushland Station issued the following reports on pre-emergence herbicides for cotton, says Griffin.

1. Dacthal has been tested for three years. Toxicity of this herbicide to weeds is improved by heavy rains and soil incorporation. This herbicide is also used on many vegetables. Dacthal is formulated as a wettable powder containing 50 or 75% active ingredient. Application rates of active ingredient are 6, 8 and 10 pounds per treated acre on coarse, medium and fine textured soils.

2. Herban is an 80% wettable powder formulation. It has been tested for three years and is most toxic when heavy rains follow application. In incorporation into the soil has not appeared beneficial. Sorghum can be planted the year of application if cotton fails. Suggested application rates are 1.5, 2.0 and 2.5 pounds active ingredient per treated acre on coarse, medium and fine textured soils.

3. Karmex DL and Karmex DW are liquid and dry formulations of diuron. Karmex DL contains 2.5 pounds of diuron per gallon and Karmex DW is an 80% wettable powder. Diuron has been tested for four years and has been sold for two years in West Texas. Incorporation of diuron has not been beneficial. Suggested rates of diuron are 0.5, 0.8, and 1.0 pounds per treated acre for coarse, medium and fine textured soils. This is equivalent to 7, 9 and 11 ounces per acre of Karmex DL per acre applied to a 10-inch band.

4. Prometryne 80W has been tested for three years and has given good control with only moderate rain for activation. Soil incorporation has not improved weed control. Suggested rates of application are 1 and 1 1/4 pounds per treated acre for coarse and fine textured soils. This is equivalent to 5 and 8 ounces (dry) of prometryne 80W per acre applied to a 10-inch band (subject to label approval).

5. Treflan has been tested for two years and has given outstanding weed control when application was followed by incorporation and heavy rain. Incorporation has also increased toxicity and persistence during dry periods. Suggested rates of application for coarse, medium and fine textured soils are 0.5, 0.75 and 1.0 pounds trifluralin per treated acre. This is equivalent to 4, 6 and 8 ounces of Treflan per acre to a 10-inch band.

Candidate for Sheriff Joe Raindl is taking this opportunity to thank all the citizens of Lynn County for the warm and friendly reception given him during the past months of his campaign.

Raindl states that he knows he missed seeing some of the good people in the county but that this was not intentional. I thank you just the same.

When all of you go to the polls Saturday, I want you to give great consideration to whom you vote for sheriff. If you want a person that is a hard working Sheriff for the betterment of the county and its citizens, for carrying out law enforcement in all parts of the county, and showing no partiality and being fair to everyone, I, Joe Raindl, will appreciate your vote.

I shall be available at all times, day or night, as I have no other interest outside of the office that I am seeking. I will devote my undivided time serving the county and its citizens. This I will do as a token for living in this great county of Lynn.

May God bless you everywhere. I thank you for your vote and support in my campaign for Sheriff.

Can you afford a 16% INCREASE IN YOUR PAYROLL TAX?

That is the minimum payroll tax increase all workers earning $100 or more a week would be forced to pay if the MEDICARE bill now before Congress becomes law.

What's more the Medicare plan is morally wrong for it would compel wage-earners, and their employers, to shoulder this new tax load to provide care for millions of the elderly financially able to take care of themselves.

In other words, those least able to pay more taxes would be paying hospital bills for many who are most able to pay their own way.

Everyone agrees that all our elderly should receive all the health care they need when they need it. That's why local, state and federal programs are available now for helping those who need help in paying for health care.

And you are now paying taxes to support these programs.

No need has ever been demonstrated for Medicare, a costly, compulsory Federal Government plan.

Sunday, April 26, Mrs. F. B. Hegi and Mrs. Mitchell Williams, Sr. presented the second of a two-part series of lessons to the Senior High M.Y.F., entitled "Sex and the Whole Person." The group was divided, and Mrs. Hegi talked with the boys about what is expected in a date and eventually a wife, and more they expected from a wife. At the same time, Mrs. Williams talked with the girls.

Next week, Townes Walker, Jim Wells and Jack Edwards will present the first of a three-part series, "Know Yourself." It will enable Senior M.Y.F.s to see themselves honestly, and to examine their treatment of and attitudes toward other persons in the light of Christian love.

On Sunday afternoon, April 26, five representatives, two candidates for district office, and their sponsor attended the Brownfield District M.Y.F. meeting for the purpose of electing officers for the district year 1964-65 at Littlefield. Representatives from the Tahoka church were Chloe Huffaker, Jill Edwards, Mike Huffaker, Jack Edwards, and Rett Patterson. The candidates were John Huffaker, candidate for district vice president, and Ralph Brock, candidate for publicity chairman. Huffaker, for the past year, has served as vice president of the local M.Y.F. and president of the Spearhead Sub-district. Brock, for the past year, has been publicity chairman for the local M.Y.F. He was elected district publicity chairman, as the other two candidates were not present, though Huffaker was defeated by Pam Singleton of O'Donnell.

Letters From News Readers—

Dear Editor: Your article in last week's Lynn County News about Senator Yarborough certainly was misleading. Coming from a respected newspaper editor, one would think you should be more informed on what Ralph Yarborough has done for the farmer. You stated in your article he was not a friend of the farmer.

Mr. Hill, Sen. Yarborough has done a tremendous job representing the agricultural interests in Texas. How about the cattle import restrictions recommended by Senator Yarborough? Numerous small communities all over the state have benefitted from new post office buildings, sugar beet programs, water conservation bills, and many others.

How could you, Mr. Hill, fail to recognize the true fact, his splendid work as our State Senator, how closely he has worked with Mr. Freeman in agriculture, how hard he has worked 24 hours a day for student loans, for undergraduates, thousands of students from Texas, one in college right now made available through his efforts? He had helped welfare, relieve suffering from the poor and needy.

Mr. Hill, did you overlook his excellent legislative record? Ralph Yarborough is far more qualified for the Senate than any man from Texas. Mr. Hill, please wake up! —M. Rumbo.

Mrs. Tilda Philpot Suffers Stroke

Mrs. Tilda Philpot is in critical condition at Sparks Hospital in Fort Smith, Ark., where she has been a patient since suffering a stroke Wednesday of last week.

A resident of Tahoka a number of years, she is a native of Arkansas. Her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Ashbrook and son, Elvis Philpot, both of Tahoka, have been with her since she became ill. Mrs. Philpot is the sister of Sam, Roy and Lester Miller and Mrs. J. R. Lambert, all of Tahoka.

Waco Judges Help Appeals Court Here

The Texas Supreme Court, apparently feeling that the docket of the Seventh Court of Civil Appeals in Amarillo is over-loaded, has directed the 10th Court of Civil Appeals in Waco to lend a helping hand.

Two members of Waco Court are in Amarillo today hearing oral arguments in the cases allotted them. The two judges are Chief Justice Frank G. McDonald and Asso. Justice Frank M. Wilson.

The Texas Supreme Court in equalizing the dockets of the civil appeals courts in the state has assigned 13 of the appeals filed in Amarillo to the Waco court.

Under statute the cases must be heard in the court in which they are filed. For this reason the Waco judges are hearing arguments in Amarillo.

Elmo Payne, clerk of the Amarillo court, says the Amarillo judges heard oral arguments in nine cases on April 6-7 and currently are working on their decisions in those cases.

The Seventh Court of Civil Appeals encompasses the largest Supreme Judicial District in the State of Texas—with 46 counties, Payne explained.

At Daytona, a team of four specially equipped '64 Comets each traveled day and night 100,000 miles at over 105 miles per hour — an unequalled feat of stamina and durability.

In Africa, Comet showed its stamina again in "the wildest ride on earth"—the moon-swept East African Safari Rally. 94 cars started. Only 21 finished the run—two of them were Comets.

Route of the "wildest ride on earth"—3,188 miles through the heart of Africa.

Is it any surprise that Comet sales are up to almost double last year's? Comet proves what it can do. After 100,000 miles at Daytona, one of these special Comets has traveled another 31,000 and is still going strong. Then rally-equipped Comets slogged through 3,188 miles of African mud, rocks and jungle—the first to carry America's colors in the world's toughest car event. Want more reasons? Jim Langdon Favors Increase In Oil

Austin — Land owners were assured this week by Railroad Commissioner Jim C. Langdon that he favors greater oil production in Texas.

Although the Railroad Commission cannot consider prices (only physical waste), he said, it was logical to assume that the greater the production the bigger the royalty checks for several hundred thousand land owners in the state.

However, if production exceeds demand, then the price of oil decreases. Any excessive over-production, such as occurred in the '30's in East Texas when oil sold for 10 cents a barrel, will cut deeply into the checks received by owners of mineral rights in land from which Texas' oil and gas are produced, Langdon said.

"A market demand law prevents the production of more oil than can be sold," Langdon said. "This guards against economic waste by instituting a system of sound conservation."

Langdon repeated this week that he is opposed to excessive foreign imports, but unfortunately imports are controlled by the federal government, and not by the Texas Railroad Commission. He said he was against federal control of petroleum.

"The platform that my opponent in this race is advocating amounts to a program of deliberate waste. It is a program of anti-conservation that would depress oil prices and certainly have an economic effect in all parts of the state," Langdon said.

As for lower crude prices making gasoline cheaper to consumers, Langdon said the opposite effect would result. "Many independent operators are having a hard time staying in business at present prices," Langdon said. "We would have fewer and fewer companies controlling more and more of our oil, thereby creating a monopoly-type situation."

EARL CALHOUN

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR

Sheriff of Lynn County

Respectfully Submits these Questions to the Voters of Lynn County:

1. Should a man be Sheriff of Lynn County who does not place his name on the ballot and submit himself to the voters through our democratic processes?
2. Should an inexperienced man be our Sheriff for the next four years?
3. What was the Lynn County law enforcement picture in the period 1949-1953?
A loyal and patriotic citizen is an intelligent and informed voter. . . .
A vote for a Sheriff candidate in this race is a vote for the quality of Lynn County law enforcement for the next FOUR YEARS!

- Earl Calhoun is an experienced, dedicated law enforcement officer!
- Earl Calhoun has publicly and willingly submitted himself to the voters—on his record, his background, and his qualifications!
- Earl Calhoun wants the laws of the State of Texas enforced—STRICTLY, FAIRLY and FULLY—This is his PLEDGE!
- Earl Calhoun welcomes an investigation of his BACKGROUND, RECORD, and QUALIFICATIONS!

The laws are on the books, but LAW ENFORCEMENT is no better than the demands of the citizenry. If you want STRICT and FAIR law enforcement, if you want experience in your Sheriff's office for the next four years, if you want a Sheriff who has publicly submitted himself and his record to the citizens, then you want EARL CALHOUN as your Lynn County Sheriff.

Fellow Citizens of Lynn County And of Precinct No. 1—

It's been a pleasure visiting in your homes during this campaign, but due to the hours I have had to work five or six days a week I have not been able to visit you as much as I'd like.

But, if I'm elected, I want you to know I'll give my full time to the job and try to keep the financial situation in good standing.

In traveling over the precinct and county, I realize the dire need for good roads.

Your vote and influence will be appreciated sincerely for Commissioner of Precinct 1.

Mrs. Lucille Walker spent Friday and Saturday in Lamesa visiting her sisters, Mrs. Inez and Mrs. Doyle Terry.

Mrs. James Farmer and son James Lee of Borger have been here visiting her sister, Mrs. Billie Inklebarger. The two ladies spent Saturday in Lamesa visiting their mother, Mrs. Nellie Clifton.

Jeff Huddleston who farms some land southwest of Grassland had quite an experience one day last week. While driving around the place he picked up an old barrel top that was bent together and tossed it over into his pickup. Later in the day he discovered a rattlesnake in the back bed of his pickup. Mr. Huddleston believes the rattler was inside the folded

AMBUSH:

New Bidrin Insecticide lies in wait inside cotton—knocks out thrips, fleahoppers, aphids, mites, lygus wherever they attack tender foliage

Above: magnified cross sections of cotton leaves. In left picture, Bidrin (dark strip, top) kills cotton insect with contact action, covers and protects leaf surface. 24 hours later, Bidrin has entered leaf tissue (picture right). Insect attacking from below where spray didn't reach—sucks up Bidrin with juices. This systemic action keeps protecting 7 to 14 days.

Magnified cross sections of cotton leaves (above) show how one application of new Bidrin keeps working 7 to 14 days, rain or shine.

Bidrin is the new phosphate insecticide that kills cotton pests with both contact and systemic actions.

- It kills all major cotton insects on contact, at time of spraying—even weevils and worms.
- It enters and spreads through plant tissue, makes cotton deadly to thrips, aphids, fleahoppers, mites, lygus.
- When insects attack, they die—even if they pierce bottom of leaves where spray doesn't reach. This is systemic action. It keeps working 7 to 14 days.

Proven by growers

New Bidrin's amazing two-way action paid off for thousands of cotton growers in '63. They grew more cotton. And, thanks to early insect control with Bidrin, a higher percent of their crop was early, high-quality, bottom cotton.

Weather resistant—economical

Soon after spraying, Bidrin enters your cotton plants. Once inside, rain can't wash it off. Sun can't break it down. Bidrin has practically eliminated weather as a cause for re-spraying.

Bidrin costs little compared to insecticides that can't begin to do the same kind of job. Bidrin's long-lasting effectiveness means fewer sprays. With Bidrin you avoid buying early insect control at seeding before you know whether or not insects will come. Bidrin gives you systemic control, yet it lets you wait and see. Result: maximum insect control at minimum cost.

Get Bidrin from your pesticide supplier. Many brands available.

Always read and follow label directions. For more information write: Shell Chemical Company, Agricultural Chemicals Division, Post Office Box 2099, Houston 1, Texas.

Maintain control with endrin-methyl parathion

During squaring and fruiting, stay ahead of insects with endrin-methyl parathion. It knocks out bollworms and weevils plus many other insects—quickly and surely. Gives you maximum length of control per spray, minimum number of sprays to do the job. Send for free, full-color booklet.

Youth Choir To Present Program

"God's Trombones," a program of Negro spirituals and Negro folk sermons will be presented by the Youth Choir of the First Baptist Church at 8:15 Sunday in the auditorium of the Church.

The work was composed by Roy Ringwald based on poems by James Weldon Johnson and has been made famous by the well-known Fred Waring choral group. "God's Trombones" is an effort on the part of the writers to present the vivid imagery, the emotion, and the profound, yet paradoxically simple, message of the Negro spiritual. Several well-known and some less known spirituals are included in the presentation.

The highlight of the program is the "sermon" and the "prayer" which are given to musical accompaniment. The "sermon" and "prayer" are based on Negro folk sermons of pre-Revolutionary times which have been handed down from generation to generation to the fascination of Negro and non-Negro alike. The lead role of the preacher will be played by Eddie Howard, with Jackie Burnett taking the role of the prayer leader.

The public is extended a warm invitation to attend the program. Members of other churches are urged to come on to the program at the close of their own evening worship services.

Athletes Honored At Annual Fete

Members of Tahoka High School athletic teams were honored at their annual banquet Tuesday night in the school cafeteria. Awards were presented outstanding athletes, and Gene Gibson, basketball coach at Texas Tech, challenged the boys and girls to uphold their responsibilities that come with being athletes.

About 200 persons, including parents and other interested fans, attended the event, at which Clint Walker served as master of ceremonies.

Coaches Gilbert Hough, Mill Fitts and Marsha Scoggins introduced the football, basketball, track, volleyball and golf teams. Special recognition of individual athletes, chosen by the coaches and athletic councils, was made by Coach Jake Jacobs. The names of these boys and girls will be engraved on a permanent plaque to hang in the school gymnasium. Each category was announced by a school official and include the following:

Sportsmanship (Coach Dave Easterday): Manuella Chapa and Jesse Limon.

Scholarship (Prin. Clifton Gardner): Jean Flippin and Allen Cox.

Leadership (Supt. Otis Spears): Elwanda Tekell and Gary Grogan.

Football (Coach Hough): Gary Grogan, offense; Jim Wells, defense.

Boys Basketball (Coach Fitts): Allen Cox, offense; Eddie Howard, defense.

Girls Basketball (Coach Scoggins): Louella Tomlinson, offense; Andra Carroll, defense.

Track (Hough): Larry Jolly. A special award was made to Supt. Otis Spears, who is moving to Bovina this summer. The plaque was engraved "In appreciation to Otis Spears for his support and interest for the past 15 years, from the Athletic Department."

Coach Gene Gibson, introduced by Mr. Spears, said those boys and girls participating in athletics are a privileged group. With every privilege, however, comes a responsibility and when a person fails in his responsibility, he loses his privilege.

The field of athletics, Gibson continued, is the only place where hard discipline is practiced today, with discipline breaking down in the homes, churches and schools of the nation. Athletes must take discipline in order to compete, for participation eliminates laziness and carelessness.

Gibson stated that an athlete learns to be honest with himself. His soul is laid bare. He is the first to know his mistakes, his team mates second and fans in the stands are there to see.

He challenged the boys and girls that when they take out a uniform they accept a great responsibility, for they have more influence in a community than any other single group. He pointed out that bad influence spreads quickly, and although good influence spreads more slowly, it is the duty of every athlete to shoulder that responsibility and be proud of it.

"All anyone asks of you, your parents, coaches, or teachers, is just to be a man."

In introducing the football team, Coach Hough pointed out that only two boys will be lost by graduation, Macky McWhirter and Gary Grogan, and that 14 boys will be coming up as freshmen next year. In track he stated that more effort is put forth in this sport than any because it is on an individual basis, although less recognition comes from its success.

Coach Fitts expressed his appreciation to basketball team members and backers for their support and stated that he would be watching for their achievements in the future.

Miss Scoggins, whose volleyball team was second in district to Plains, usual state champions, reported that boys in local athletics held 41 positions of responsibility and honor in school this year, that 47 positions were held by girl athletes, and that 1 or 12 of 19 members of National Honor Society are athletes. She also introduced the girls track team which will enter two meets before school is out.

Jacobs introduced Vic Kyler, both of whom coached the two golf teams, and team members who won first and third places in district competition.

Jean Flippin gave the invocation and the welcome address was delivered by Allen Cox. Dinner music was provided by Mrs. Lillian McCord at the organ and the benediction was pronounced by Eddie Howard.

Some tourists look at the scenery, others see it.

FFA Parent-Son Banquet Is Held

Tahoka Future Farmers' annual parent-son banquet, held Monday night in the school cafeteria, was attended by 135 people, who heard a talk by Alton Cain, saw a typical FFA meeting in operation and presentation of awards to members for outstanding work.

Johnny Long, FFA president, was master of ceremonies, and other officers having a part in the meeting were: Terry Harvick, vice president; Gary Grogan, secretary; A. G. Cook, treasurer; Phil Adams, reporter; Jack Wood, sentinel; and Dean Hamilton, parliamentarian.

Awards were presented by Mike Reid, assisted by Patricia Sikes, chapter sweetheart, as follows: Leadership: Johnny Long.

Star Chapter Farmer award: Mike Huffaker.

Star Green Hand award: Leslie McCuiston.

Swine Production, Green Hand: Milton Miller.

Beef Production Green Hand: Milton Edwards.

Chapter Crop awards: A. G. Cook and Jack Edwards.

Alton Cain, the principal speaker, told something of "the business man's appreciation of the Future Farmers."

In his talk, to the amusement of the crowd, Alton compared some of the projects he had when studying agriculture such as tanning hides, making bridles, culling hens and butchering hogs. He also compared some of the farming equipment of a few years ago, such as the single-row, horse pulling go-devil, with modern farm implements.

But, he declared, everything we have today we had then, but the mind and ingenuity of man had just not developed these things—such as sound and light waves, atomic energy, better use of motor fuels, etc.

Jim Wells introduced the guests, Eddie Howard gave the invocation, and Rev. James Eford gave the benediction. Mothers cooked the meal, and Home Ec. girls assisted

FFA Parent-Son Banquet Is Held

Special music was presented by the district championship talent team, "The Sandstorms," Jack Flippin, Terry Bairrington, Dean Hamilton, and Ronnie Hudgens.

New ZIP Code Speeds Up Delivery of Mail-Townes

Use of the ZIP Code number on all outgoing mail and on return address, when possible, is not just another "gimmick" but will speed the delivery of mail and save taxpayers money, Assistant Postmaster Charles Townes told Tahoka Rotarians at their meeting Thursday.

Now in the process of being put into general use, the ZIP Code following the address is not compulsory, but is the common sense thing to do, Townes said, and eventually the Postoffice Department hopes to get most people to using the ZIP Code on all mail possible to know. Although it is impossible for a person now to know the ZIP Code number for some particular town, its use is urged when known. Also, placing Tahoka's ZIP Code, which is 79373, on return addresses helps encourage others to adopt the policy of using the number in answering mail.

The ZIP Code enables a postal clerk to quickly determine where the letter is bound without looking up the location in a book or trying to decipher the handwriting of the sender.

Too, the larger offices are installing optical scanners which by automation will read and sort up to 17,000 letters an hour.

ZIP is short for Zone Improvement Plan. The U. S. has been divided into 10 areas. Area No. 7, is Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana. Then, Texas is divided into 33 sectional centers. Thus, even an inexperienced mail clerk can memorize 33 separations easier than he can memorize the more than 2,000 postoffices in Texas alone. Texas sectional centers are numbered between 750 and 790; Lubbock center is 793.

TAHOKA, TEXAS "Heart of the South Plains" FRIDAY, MAY 1, 1964

Drop In Cancer Mortality Rate In County Is Noted

(Special to The News)
New York—A new report on the incidence of cancer in the United States shows just how Lynn County compares with other areas of the country in number of cases per year.

The figures, compiled by the U. S. Public Health Service, shed light on the entire cancer picture locally—on lung cancer as well as on the other forms of the disease. The report makes its appearance just in time for use this month, which has been designated by President Johnson as "Cancer Control Month."

Among residents of Lynn County, according to the official findings, there were 10 deaths from cancer of all types in the year ending January 1, 1963. The figures apply to residents only. Deaths locally of non-residents are not included.

Of this number, however, lung cancer was responsible for only 1, or 10.0 percent of the total.

Nationally, lung cancer amounts to 16.0 percent of the overall cancer mortality and, in the State of Texas, to 17.1 percent.

In practically every part of the country, the report shows, lung cancer has been on the rise in recent years.

Members of the First Legislature of the State of Texas were paid three dollars per diem for attendance and three dollars for each 25 miles traveled to and from the capital.

The nation's mail is increasing at the rate of 2.5 million pieces a year, Townes said.

President Don Browning, Church of Christ minister, announced he would be moving to Snyder at about the end of his current term in office, July 1. He will be succeeded by Wilton (Jim) Payne.

Browning announced the club has authorized Clint Walker, Rev. James Eford, and Dr. Gerald Wood each to attend the Freedom Forum in Lubbock on successive days.

Montie McGinty, club sweetheart, introduced the student guests for the month, Jim Wells and Jack Edwards, and announced the Western Day program at the school.

BRASHEAR CHILDREN VISIT WITH FATHER

Mr. and Mrs. Temple Brashear and Mrs. Elbert King of Tahoka and Mrs. Helen Johnson of Plainview went to Baird Sunday for a visit with their father, J. A. Brashear, a former prominent Tahoka businessman.

Mr. Brashear, now 91 years of age, fell two weeks ago while working in his flower beds and broke his thigh. He will be in the hospital another three or four weeks, but is reported to be doing fine considering his age.

The group also visited in Abilene with the son and family of Mr. and Mrs. Temple Brashear, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Joe Brashear and two sons, Mark and Craig.

Former Citizen Dies In Lubbock

Robert (Bob) Bowron, 69, of Lubbock, once a Tahoka citizen and a resident of Lubbock, 2110 66th Street many years, died Friday in a Lubbock hospital.

Rev. Alby J. Cockrell officiated at funeral rites Saturday in Forest Heights Methodist Church in Lubbock, and burial was in Resthaven Park.

Bob and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Monte Bowron, lived here in the late 1920's and was a member of the town band directed by his father. He has been in the refrigeration business in Lubbock for 25 years and was also in the well and pump business at Petersburg.

He is survived by his wife; a son, Leslie, of the home; a daughter, Mrs. Bill Eddins of Fort Worth; and his mother, Mrs. Mabel Bowron, 4408 59th in Lubbock.

Mrs. W. P. Martin Dies Saturday

Mrs. W. P. Martin, 73, longtime resident of the Martin Farms on the Lynn-Lubbock county line, died at 12:30 a. m. Saturday in a San Angelo hospital, where she and her husband were residing.

Born in Titus county, she was a former home demonstration agent in Fisher county, where she met and married Mr. Martin. In 1928, the Martins bought two sections of land from the late W. D. Nevels of Tahoka, and there he developed Martin maize which revolutionized the milo crop.

Funeral services were held Sunday at 2:00 p. m. with Dr. E. E. White, associate pastor of Lubbock First Methodist, and Rev. J. F. Williams, pastor of Cooper Methodist Church officiating.

She is survived by her husband and one step-son, W. T. Martin of Sweetwater.

All Have Share In Conservation

By DONALD A. WILLIAMS
Administrator, U. S. Soil Conservation Service

Never is there a moment in our lives when we are not sharing in some way the benefits from our land and water resources.

Our Nation, from its beginning, has drawn its strength from these gifts which God put at our disposal. Their bountiful supply has enabled our people to thrive. And there is no reason why this should not continue to be so.

God gave us authority over His gifts. We are His stewards. In the Divine plan, we have much to do with what happens to His gifts. We can destroy their usefulness or we can bring about for ourselves manifold blessings from their use.

Tillers of the soil many years ago recognized the need for soil and water conservation on their land. They recognized also that some soil and water problems did not end at the fence line—that they and their neighbors shared a problem. And so they worked together to find a solution. They were quick to realize the interdependence of adjoining tracts of land.

The adoption of soil and water conservation systems has become a community event—the responsibility for which is shared by all. As population increases and cities fan out into the country, we become less of individuals and more a part of a community. We build our community to provide opportunities to be shared by all. We recognize the interdependence between rural and urban and between farm and nonfarm, just as between one farm and another.

To accept stewardship brings great fulfillment. It brings a sense of well being when our land and waters are protected and productive, and sharing the job brings the brotherhood of man closer to reality.

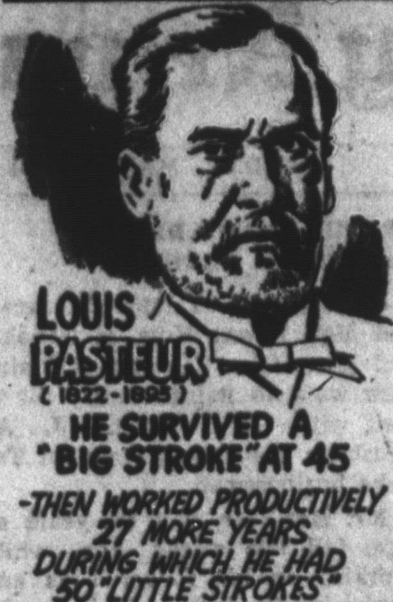

Despite their common interest and purpose the people in a community may see the land and streams with different eyes.

The farmer looks to the land for his livelihood. Industry looks to the land for a factory site and for raw products to keep its machinery in motion. Those who live within the limits of the city look to the open land for relaxation and for a chance to commune with nature. The builder looks to the land for sites on which to develop new houses. The town fathers look to the land for a reservoir site which is so sorely needed to supply water for their rapidly growing city's needs.

The alligator snapping turtle of the central-southern United States may grow to a weight of 200 pounds.

The dragonfly's head is mostly eyes with which it can see the tiniest prey far away.

Congratulations—

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Long on the birth of a boy, their third, named Fred Karl, in Vienna, Austria, on last Friday morning, where the father is doing missionary work for the Church of Christ. The mother is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McGinty of Tahoka, and the father is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Long of Abilene, who once lived in Tahoka when Gene was associated with The News. The McGintys were notified of the new child's birth by telegram. The Longs, who have been in Austria nearly three years, expect to come home in October for a two or three months' visit.

Three Choices In Cotton Program

Lynn county cotton farmers face three choices in the 1964 cotton program, according to Bill Griffin, agricultural agent. The cotton program is part of the Agricultural Act of 1964 recently enacted by Congress.

A cotton farmer can (1) plant his effective allotment, (2) plant his domestic allotment, or (3) plant his effective allotment plus up to 5 percent additional acreage for export purposes. Under the latter alternative, Griffin advises, the farmer will sign up in advance at the County ASC office and request clearance to produce cotton for export.

Under all three choices, cotton produced on the effective or domestic allotment will be eligible for price support loans (based on 30 cents per pound for middling 1-inch cotton). A farmer planting within his domestic allotment also will receive price support payments of 3 1/2 cents per pound on the basis of established normal yield and cotton acreage planted for harvest.

A farmer planting his effective allotment plus additional acreage to produce cotton for export will post a bond by June 1 to assure that the export portion of his crop is sold in the export market. This part of his crop is not eligible for price support loans or other assistance.

Crop damage by weather or other unavoidable hazard will not effect the 3 1/2 cents per pound price support payment for a farmer planting his domestic allotment, Griffin explains. This payment, made on the basis of established normal yield multiplied by cotton acreage planted for harvest, will be made regardless of whether the farmer harvests his full crop.

Lynn county cotton farmers can obtain more information on the program from the county ASC or Extension offices.

WASHINGTON AND
"SMALL BUSINESS"
By C. WILSON HARDER

There now emanates out of Washington a great plethora of figures on the subject of unemployment, and also the need for a war on poverty. Some of these computations are mighty box car in scope.

But perhaps it is most important to bear in mind the sad case of the government statistician who drew while seeking a wage across a river with an average depth of three feet.

It would seem logical before any vast sums are voted to help the poor, to refrain for employment, to do many other proposed things, that some study be made of the situation.

A continuous year long field survey on the situation started the first of the year by the National Federation of Independent Business so far seems to indicate that a great many of these who are unemployed have no skills to offer.

Unanswered, of course, are these questions: How many of these have the mental ability to learn a skill? How many are too shiftless to learn a skill?

Also, when it comes to attacking poverty with tax money, there has been no convincing studies made of the basic questions involved. What is poverty? Why is there poverty?

To some, poverty means being forced to be content with a Chevrolet instead of a Cadillac. To others, poverty means having enough to eat. Here again is a wide area where information is needed.

If unemployment and poverty is due to shiftlessness; if it is due to a fondness for staying in a fog with the aid of cheap potent, practically tax-free fortified wine; if it is due to a complete lack of individual responsibility, that is one thing. On the other hand, if it is due to a lack of opportunity, that is an entirely different matter.

If the majority of the unemployed and poverty stricken are in that position due to the lack of opportunity, then it is high time that the political forces of the nation quit stalling and face facts.

A job is only created when someone hires a person. Without an employer there can be no employee.

Huge corporate complexes, automating as rapidly as possible, are not expanding their ranks of employees. Thus rapid growth by independent business is needed to supply jobs.

But so long as the government continues to let the spirit of free enterprise which is the yeast that causes new employers to rise be hamstrung by destructive tax laws, by a Labor Relations Bureau, by hordes of other meddling bureaucrats, the nation will continue to have not only the poor who deserve to be poor, but also, unfortunately, the poor who do not deserve such a condition.

Not all so-called beavers are found in water and have webbed feet. The mountain beavers, or swellees, found in the mountains of Oregon, Washington and northern California never go near the water. They have neither webbed feet nor flat tails. Furthermore they are no more given to felling trees and building dams or houses than are rabbits.

Soil Stewardship Week Is May 3-10

Soil Stewardship Week, a nationwide observance which places emphasis on man's obligation to God as stewards of our soil, water, and other resources, will be celebrated locally May 3 to 10 according to E. R. Blakney, chairman, Lynn County Soil Conservation District. The week actually covers two Sundays to give local churches a greater chance to participate.

This year's observance with the theme "To Each Among Us — A Share", underscores the responsibility which each citizen has in meeting the responsibilities of Soil Stewardship. The Lynn County Soil Conservation District and some 2940 Companion Districts throughout the nation and Puerto Rico are sponsoring this event for the tenth consecutive year.

The Lynn County Soil Conservation District Supervisors, E. R. Blakney, Melvin Wuensche, Ward Eakin, Boyd Barnes, Harold Payne, and District Secretary Mrs. Hazel Stevens, have contacted churches in the district and distributed church program sheets and booklets created particularly for this year's observance. The materials were prepared by The National Associations of Soil and Water Conservation Districts, in cooperation with a Soil Stewardship advisory committee composed of leading churchmen in the nation.

In this year's observance of Soil Stewardship Week each citizen is asked to consider his share:

"In the great society of mankind, (since) each of us has a God-given purpose for being. In our time each among us fulfills a mission in the long progression toward the ultimate design of our Maker. To each among, God has assigned a share in the expanding brotherhood of stewards. It is a membership of service, dedicated to the husbandry of lands and waters, forests and ranges, and the fish and game He has placed at our disposal."

Early Greek literature reveals little about the practical techniques of manufacture, since Greek citizens did not engage in work and non-citizens were ignored in contemporary literature.

New Prometryne herbicide works wonders for Texas cotton

Prometryne® 80W brings a new dimension to cotton weed control in the South Plains. It offers a one-herbicide program that will take care of most weeds from planting to picking. Apply Prometryne preemergence or post-emergence or at layby, or at all three times if weed conditions so dictate.

Gets tough weeds...including carelessweed

Three years of research by State and Federal researchers in Texas proved the effectiveness of Prometryne in controlling most annual broadleaf weeds and grasses in cotton. It does an outstanding job, for example, in handling carelessweed (pigweed).

Versatility of application

Prometryne is extremely versatile. You can use it as preemergence spray at planting. You can use it as a directed postemergence spray after both weeds and cotton are up. You can spray it at layby to control weeds through the rest of the season. Use it once, twice, three times... whatever weed conditions dictate.

How Prometryne works

Applied preemergence, Prometryne is carried into the soil by rainfall or overhead irrigation. It is absorbed by germinating weed roots and soon after weeds break ground, they die. No need to work Prometryne into soil. Applied after weeds are up, Prometryne kills by direct action on weed foliage and through roots.

Safe to use

Prometryne is safe to cotton when used according to label directions. It leaves no residues in cotton seed. It is safe to handle and non-irritating to humans and animals. A fall seeded crop should not be planted in the same year following the application of Prometryne 80W.

Available this spring

Since this is the introductory year for Prometryne, only limited quantities are available. Plan to make a preemergence application to at least a portion of your acreage at planting. Then follow through with postemergence and/or layby treatments if necessary. See what outstanding, economical weed control you can have.

To order Prometryne, or for more information, contact your supplier, or: Geigy Agricultural Chemicals, Division of Geigy Chemical Corporation, Saw Mill River Road, Ardsley, N.Y.

Plains Penalized On New Cotton Law, Mason Says

(Editor's Note: The following was submitted by T. B. Mason, Lynn County Farm Bureau president.)

Lynn County Farm Bureau Directors T. B. Mason, Ward Eakin, Milton Evans and wife and Leiland White and wife attended a District 2 Farm Bureau meeting on April 24 when Hub King, state director from this district, gave his report of the recent State Farm Bureau directors meeting.

All farmers are urged to study the recently passed cotton-wheat legislation so that they may adjust their farm operations to their own best advantage.

Farm Bureau members say it looks as if West Texas farmers got the "short end of this deal." The cotton mills get a 6 1/2 cents per pound government payment to buy cotton. Cotton growers with 15 acres or less will receive 33 1/2 cents per pound price support. About 70 percent of the cotton allotments are the small acreages in Eastern Texas and cotton growing states east of here.

"We understand it is possible under the new law," members continued, "to reduce your allotted acres one-third and receive 33 1/2 cents per pound price support and at the same time apply and receive cotton acres that have been released." Thus, a farmer can maintain the cotton acreage he wants to plant and at the same time receive the high price support. This will work fine for the farmers in the Eastern cotton belt where acreages have been released for the last few years.

Here in West Texas where little cotton acreage is released, it looks as if there will be less of this re-

Control Measures For Boll Weevil

A program for the 1964 boll weevil control has been outlined by Don R. Rummel, area entomologist of the Extension Service.

Weevil populations developing below the Caprock in Dickens, Motley, and Garza counties appear to be the major threat. County Agent Bill Griffin says some cotton was planted in eastern Lynn on April 14 to check for early emergence of the boll weevil.

Mr. Rummel says an aggressive seasonal control program in these areas will be necessary to suppress populations, prevent large-scale weevil migration onto the High Plains, and increase the chances of success for a diapause control program in the fall.

The control program outlined for this season can be broken into four steps, as follows:

1. Treatment for overwintered boll weevils below the Caprock. This practice has been recommended in our state guide for a number of years and has proved effective in many infested areas. This step would involve an application of a recommended insecticide just before first squares are one-third grown, where weevils are found. This would prevent egg laying, reduce the size and slow down the development of the first generation. However, care must be taken in treatment for overwintered weevils. Spraying too late might help create an early boll-worm problem. Recommendations on overwintered weevil control are listed in the 1964 guide.

2. Late-season control below the Caprock. This step will consist of normal seasonal control based on infestation count. Control should begin when the punctured square count reaches 10%. This step is also outlined in the guide except that in order to hold weevil populations to a minimum, we recommend starting control at the 10% level instead of the usual 15 to 20%.
3. Spot treatment on the High Plains. Any weevils found above the Cap during the season should be controlled at once regardless of size of infestation.
4. Diapause control program. The diapause control program will be carried out below the Caprock since weevils are known to overwinter in this area. How much acreage above the Caprock might need to be treated will be determined by present research and surveys during the summer. The use of the diapause control program below the Cap will not only provide protection for the plains but should be of real benefit to farmers in the treated areas by reducing the next year's weevil population.

Rogers Makes Statement

To the Voters of Precinct 3:

During the past few months I have tried to visit with each resident of the precinct in the interest of my candidacy for Commissioner Precinct 3 but I feel sure that I may have missed seeing everyone.

In the event I missed seeing you please accept this as my sincere solicitation of your vote and support this Saturday.

It has been a pleasure to renew old friendships and make new acquaintances.

I make no promises if elected to this important job other than to make you a hand and devote my interest and time to administering the business of your precinct and county. In the proposal of new pavement for our precinct, I promise to do whatever is possible with money that may become available.

Again, my thanks for the kind reception you have given me.

J. G. (Ted) Rogers

To the Citizens of Lynn County:

I sincerely thank each of you for your fine support and cooperation during my first term of office as your Tax Assessor-Collector.

Even though I do not have an opponent, let me assure you that your vote and influence will be greatly appreciated in the coming election.

George D. McCracken

Control Measures For Boll Weevil

Of interest to farmers should be the administration's minimum wage bill, S. 2487 and H. R. 9824, which would eliminate from minimum laws exemptions in cotton gins, county elevators, agricultural processing, marketing and handling in the area of production.

Also Secretary of Agriculture Freeman's recent statement "that minimum wages and improved working conditions, in terms adapted to agricultural production, be extended by stages to hired farm workers on a National basis until comparability with industrial minimums is attained."

At present minimum wage rates are set by the government in the production and harvest of sugar beets. Last year it was $1.05 per hour and in 1964 it is $1.15 per hour. As the government places more crops and farm production under tighter control and regulation it seems reasonable to expect that increasing pressure will be made to place all farm labor under government control and regulation.

The Farm Bureau is opposed to minimum wage laws in agriculture. Farmers should be permitted to pay workers according to production. If high minimum wages are set up farmers can only afford the more productive workers thus leaving the less productive workers unemployed.

Farm Bureau also opposes the importation of large amounts of foreign beef as has happened the last year which has been one cause of the decline of cattle prices in this country the past year. The Farm Bureau feels that the American farmer should have the first opportunity to supply the American consumer with food and fiber and that the farmer's income should be from the production and marketing of these products rather than the farmer receiving his income by government check while foreigners are shipping large amounts of food into this country.
