Sidewalk Sale Day Draws Big Crowd

Sidewalk Sales Day in Tahoka proved to be very successful most merchants and visitors report, although the heat in the afternoon cut down on the crowd. The town was crowded until noon, and merchants report they moved a lot of bargain merchandise.

Principal objectives, however, were for entertainment and to spotlight more use of cotton products. Many people were dressed in clothes of 25 to 50 years ago, and there were clowns, live music by two string bands, free prizes, booths selling hot dogs, drinks, cotton candy, etc., and everyone seemed to enjoy the occasion.

Winning $10.00 gift certificates for the best dressed were Mrs. George (Florence) McCracken, in the ladies' division; and C. Edmund Finney, in the men's division.

Finney sponsored two orchestras in front of his place of business.

In the morning, the "Moon Beams," a string band composed of four youngsters who have been practicing only two months, furnished entertainment. These were the three children of Mr. and Mrs. Turner Rodgers, David 11, Dale 9, and Dean 8, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Warren, Martin, age 11. They play the guitars, bass, and drums.

In the afternoon, the talented Sandstroms entertained at the Finney location. In the group Saturday were Ronnie Hudgens, Jack Flippin, Terry Bairrington, Carroll Curry, and Dean Hamilton.

Attracting a lot of attention was the old photo contest at Tahoka Auto Supply by Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Short and Wade Holland. Ten pictures of as many local residents, taken 40 or 50 years ago, were to be identified.

The pictures on display, in order of numbers, were: Hall Robinson, Lum Haneey, Nettie Wells Edwards, Randy Rutherford, Pete Hegl, Wilma Brashear King, Becher Sherrard, Frankie Wells Fenton, Wade Holland, and Mrs. D. B. English.

No person was able to identify them all, but Mrs. Frank Hill identified the most for the $50.00 first prize; Mrs. Jewel Connolly won second place, $25.00; Mrs. E. J. Tanner and Becher Sherrard, tied for third, $10.00; Mrs. Velma Self and Bob Connolly, tied for fourth; $7.50; Mrs. F. C. Ashley, fifth, $5.00; and E. J. Tanner, sixth, $2.50.

The Shorts had a lot of other pioneer pictures on display that were of interest, especially to old-timers.

Winners of free subscriptions to The Lynn County News were: Rev. John W. Pistone, J. W. Jolly, Preston Buchanan, Harvey L. Pyburn, and Mrs. Marvin Wood.

Most stores of the town had bargain merchandise on sale out on the sidewalks or inside their stores.

Revival Meeting At Berry Flat

Rev. Ray Martin of Wells will do the preaching in the Berry Flat Baptist Church revival Monday, August 3, through Sunday, August 9. Prayer services begin at 7:30 p. m., followed by the evangelistic service at 8:00 week days. There will be Sunday School and church on Sunday.

Clara Aubrey will lead the song services and Cathy Franklin will serve as pianist.

Primitives Hold Meeting In City

Three hundred people from over West Texas and from other states attended the annual Primitive Baptist Association meeting held in Tahoka Thursday through Sunday in the City-Legion building.

Little Flock Primitive Baptist Church of Tahoka was the host church to the gathering, and other churches represented included Glenrose, Gorman, San Angelo, Cottonwood and Muleshoe. Association meetings are rotated each year among these six churches. Next year the meeting will be at Muleshoe.

There were also preachers and other visitors from many other communities and also from other states.

Glen Williams, county Judge of Bailey county, who is pastor of the Little Flock Church is also moderator of the Association.

Bill Corley of Wilson, treasurer of the Association, says local citizens, City of Tahoka, and businessmen were wonderful in helping them take care of the visitors.

Robert Harvick's House Is Burned

Fire gutted the Robert Harvick home at 1627 South Fifth street early Tuesday. The family was away from home, and the smoldering fire was discovered at about 2:00 a. m. by Police Chief Jack Miller.

Mr. Harvick told The News heat and smoke completely ruined the interior, all the furnishings and clothing, and builders doubt the house can be repaired. The loss was partially covered by insurance.

Mrs. Harvick and boys were in Edinburg on a visit, and Mr. Harvick, who is a salesman, was in Midland.

Several neighbors smelled smoke at 9:00 or 10:00 o'clock but did not discover the smoldering fire. Mr. Miller, on duty in down town Tahoka, smelled smoke some time before 2:00 a. m. and started driving out the streets to the west and south until he came to the Harvick residence, and called the Fire Department.

Had a door been opened before the Fire Department arrived, the residence would probably have gone up in flames immediately.

Firemen theorized the fire started in a hall closet, either from a pilot light on the water heater or from faulty wiring.

C. of C. Expresses Thanks To People

We wish to thank everyone who is helping with the Cotton Week and Cotton Month; the merchants for participating in the Sidewalk Sales Day, and to the people of the area who came out to shop and make the day a big success. Let's all keep cotton on our minds the year around, and help our farmers and ourselves by using more cotton. Thanks to everyone for your cooperation. — Tahoka Chamber of Commerce, Retha Dunn, secretary.

More than 400 area youths attended the one-day Christian Youth Conference on Saturday, July 25, which was sponsored by the local Church of Christ. Representatives from Wichita Falls, Odessa, Abilene, and Hobbs as well as local towns were present.

Afternoon activities began with a welcoming address by Larry Forsythe, followed by a sermon from Larry Shoe of Wichita Falls. A teen-age panel discussed "Dating Problems," divided classes heard speakers from Abilene and Midland, and Jerry Anderson of Odessa ended the afternoon session with a sermon.

Lubbock Christian College's male quartet, The Debonaires, entertained the youth group at a picnic held in the city park. The conference was climaxed with an evening sermon by Lanny Henninger of Odessa, based on the conference theme, "What It Really Means to Be a Christian."

Coordinator of the Christian Youth Conference was Mike Hubbard, who is currently serving as associate minister at the local Church of Christ. The program and activities were organized by the high school and college class and supervised by the local church elders.

Brother Ralph Beistle, Church of Christ minister, congratulated the youth group. "The fact that a large number of young people attended and participated is by no means the gauge of the good that resulted from this special effort."

"The entire program of activities was a fine spiritual feast. The speakers, song leaders, and panelists demonstrated depth of character and diligent preparation. Each participant entered into the worship with enthusiasm. From beginning to end the program well carried out the theme."

New Paving Job Starts Next Week

Work is expected to start next week on a small paving project in North Tahoka by Thomason Construction Co. of Denver City, according to J. M. Uzzie, city administrator.

All property owners have signed for a long block, the 2400 block of North First Street, at the extreme edge of town. Also, a half block will be paved on Ave. K between North Sixth and Seventh streets.

Petitions are out for paving of the 2300 block on North First, north of the Church of Christ, but all property owners had not signed up Tuesday of this week.

Mr. Uzzie says the contractor would be glad to have other paving contracts in the city, but to qualify all property owners must be signed for paving a proposed block and the paving must join with existing paving.

The engineer, A. C. Bowden of Lubbock, was due to set stakes this week for the program.

Mrs. Norris, 68, died in Dallas July 23, and funeral services were held Saturday there and in Waco, where she was laid to rest beside her late husband. She is survived by one son and one daughter, both of Waco.

She had visited here several times. Mrs. Norris had known she had cancer for only six weeks, but had not walked in three years after having received a broken hip.

PATTERSON IMPROVING

E. W. (Pat) Patterson, Tahoka Fire Chief and lineman for Southwestern Public Service Co., who was seriously injured in a near-electrocution accident recently, is reported to be improving nicely. Two vertebrae in his back were injured when he was thrown against the light pole by the charge of electricity, and he has been fitted with a back brace he may have to wear several months.

Showers Tuesday night brightened crop prospects over large areas of northern Lynn county, but elsewhere over the county crops are suffering for moisture.

In the northwest sector, Lakeview reported an inch, the Petty area 8 up to two inches and an average of nearly an inch and a half, and New Home had an inch, but the shower dwindled out to the east of New Home.

Parts of the Dixie area got up to an inch, and Carter's Store reported a half inch.

Wilson received only a half inch, but east of there and north of New Lynn and on up to Slaton, rain measured from an inch to two inches and even more in some areas. New Lynn reported an inch. The rain extended east to the county line and south to Grassland, where there was "a good cotton shower." From six miles station into Tahoka the rain grew lighter.

Tahoka received only .08 inch, bringing the July moisture in Tahoka to .54 inch and the total for the year to 6.76.

July of this year has been one of the hottest on record here.

High humidity the last few days has helped dry land cotton hold on a little longer, farmers say.

This week, some buildup of bollworms is reported, especially in the Grassland and Draw areas.

Savings Bonds Sales Income

Savings Bonds sales in Lynn County during the first half of 1964 totaled $128,243.00. This report was made recently by F. B. Hegi, chairman of the Lynn County Savings Bonds Committee. 55.7% of the 1964 goal has been achieved.

Savings Bonds sales in Texas during the first half of 1964 totaled $75,483,703 or 50.3% of the 1964 goal of $150,000,000.

"Owning U. S. Savings Bonds gives financial strength to every family and economic strength to the Nation. For this reason the Treasury Department is conducting a "Strong Families" campaign from Labor Day through Thanksgiving. The goal of this campaign is the purchase of a savings bond by every family. Already a great many National Organizations have pledged their full cooperation. I am confident that many of the people of our county who are members of cooperating National Organizations will join in this campaign and buy an extra bond where they work or bank," Chairman Hegi announced.

New Irrigation Well Publication

"Economics of Low-Capacity Irrigation Wells" is the title of a new Texas A&M University publication that applies strictly to limited irrigation water areas of the High Plains. The 27 farms from which data was collected are located in Lynn and Garza counties, but the area of applicability includes these counties as well as Lubbock, Hockley, Cochran, Bailey, Lamb, and Hale.

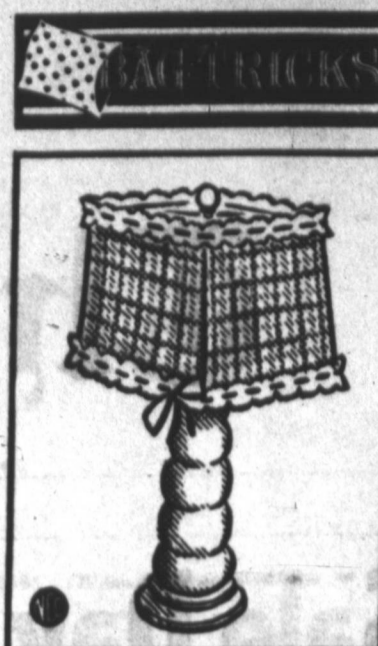

According to agricultural economists Frank Hughes and A. C. Magee, co-authors, low-capacity wells in the High Plains irrigate approximately 200,000 acres. "Continued adjustment to declining water levels in some parts of the High Plains suggests a substantial increase in the use of low-capacity wells can be expected, say the economists.

Total irrigation and related specified costs ranged from $65 to $74 per cotton allotted acre in 1962, depending on well depth. Practically all cotton in the area where the survey has application was planted in a skip-row pattern—mostly "2 in - 1 out."

Added net receipts in 1962 per irrigated cotton allotted acre ranged from $50 to $41 with fertilizer and from $18 to $27 without fertilizer. The authors point out that under "prospective development conditions" a $1 to $8 reduction per allotted cotton acre can be expected in added net receipts for the present situation.

Information contained in this bulletin (MP-710) can be most helpful in determining the route of development to follow on those farms with limited irrigation water says John J. Siebert, Area Farm Management Specialist. Adjusting to low-capacity irrigation wells can continue to be profitable, but more selectivity must be made by appropriate producers. Call or write the county agent's office for a copy of this new bulletin. Ask for publication MP-710.

J. R. Strains Will Observe Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary Next Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Jess R. Strain of New Home will be honored with an open house from 2:30 to 5:00 p. m. Sunday, August 2, in observance of their 50th wedding anniversary. The reception will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Boswell Edwards of New Home. Assisting Mrs. Edwards with the hospitalities will be the couple's other daughter, Mrs. W. G. Chapman of Borger. The sons-in-law and grandchildren will also assist. Bessie Morgan and Jesse R. Strain were married on Sunday, August 2, 1914, at the home of the bride in the County Line community in Wichita County, near Electra. Rev. W. H. Vail, now living in Sulphur Springs, performed the ceremony. The couple left following the wedding for their new home in Mitchell County in the Fairview Community, near Colorado City.

They lived in this area, where J. R. engaged in farming, until 1920. That fall, the couple and oldest daughter, Margaret, came by buggy to Lynn County. They settled southeast of Draw on a farm which they had purchased. After two or three years they moved to a farm northeast of Tahoka, where their other daughter, Thelma Ruth, was born.

In 1928, they moved to Midway and farmed there until 1935, when they bought or traded for a place at New Home. They have lived in that community ever since.

Mr. Strain is retired from active farming, but still enjoys keeping a few cows, some sudan and feed patches, and a small garden.

Mrs. Strain has been active in church and club work most of their 50 years together. They are active members of the New Home Methodist Church, and rarely miss a service.

The 38th annual meeting of the Texas Home Demonstration Association will be September 16 and 17 in Houston.

More than 800 key home demonstration leaders of the state are expected to register for the meeting at the Rice Hotel, according to Billie Carr, Home Demonstration Agent.

General theme will be "The American Woman—Her Changing Image."

Principal speaker will be Director John E. Hutchison of the Agricultural Extension Service at Texas A&M University. His subject will be "The Leadership of Women in Citizenship Areas."

An election of officers is slated. To be named for two-year terms are a president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer. They will be installed during a banquet ceremony the final night.

Workshop sessions are planned by the standing committees of THDA, says Mrs. George Hackney of Greenville, state president. These are in the fields of health and safety, civil defense, citizenship, recreation, 4-H Club work and family life.

A new program of work for the 32,000-member organization also is slated for discussion and adoption.

Officers, besides Mrs. Hackney, are Mrs. C. R. Berkley, Odessa, vice president; Mrs. L. M. Parker, Liberty Hill, secretary, and Mrs. Maynard Gaines, Coleman, treasurer. Mrs. Melton McGehee of Wayside is parliamentary.

Delegates from Lynn County THDA will be Mrs. Leland White, New Home; Mrs. W. L. Rowe and Mrs. Buel Draper, Tahoka. Alternates will be Mrs. Ruben Sanders, Wilson, and Mrs. A. M. Davis, Rt. 6, Lubbock.

Home demonstration work, increasingly called home economics Extension work in many states, is an adult educational program in better homemaking.

Tailoring Workshop Here In August

The Clothing Committee of Program Building will have a semi-tailoring workshop August 10, 13, and 14, 1968, at 7:30 p. m. in the Board room of Lyntegar.

This activity is planned for the public and all women interested in advanced clothing construction are urged to attend all three meetings.

Demonstrations will be given on pattern fitting, linings and backing, hems, zippers, pressing techniques, and how to accessorize the garment.

Each participant is urged to construct a garment at home during this week so that any problems encountered may be discussed at the workshop. No actual construction will be done at the meetings, however garments will be shown in the different phases of construction.

William Henry Harrison died on April 4, 1841, just one month after he was inaugurated president of the United States.

man have delivered them six grandchildren, and they have two great grandchildren.

Lynn Edwards asked his grandfather, "How it felt to have been married to one woman so long?" Mr. Strain replied "It's not so bad if you marry the right woman."

Following is the account of the wedding as it appeared in a Wichita county newspaper 50 years ago:

Sunday evening at six, in the community of County Line, two hearts were made to beat as one and the fond anticipations and dreams of many moons were realized, to some extent, when the solemn words were spoken to Mr. Jess R. Strain and Miss Bessie Morgan, making them husband and wife.

The charming bride was beautifully attired in a dress of white messaline over which a tunic of shadow lace fell gracefully; while the groom wore a handsome suit of serge.

Mr. Strain is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Strain of Colorado City, and is a young man of sterling character, full of ambition and numbers his friends to the number of his acquaintances.

Miss Morgan is one of County Line's charming and accomplished young ladies, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Williams.

The ceremony was performed on the front porch at the home of the bride's parents, in the presence of a large number of guests, by Rev. W. H. Vail.

ALLSUP GIRLS RECEIVE BLUE GARTER—Mrs. Louis Lynn Howard, the former Jimmie Elton McMillan, of Lubbock, is shown with Becky, Barbara, and Lisa Allsup, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis G. Allsup, 3816 53rd street, formerly of Tahoka. She presented the blue garter to the girls and each plans to wear it on her wedding day. Mr. and Mrs. Howard were married May 30th at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McMillan in Lubbock. She is a niece of Mrs. Allsup.

TO THE EDITOR:

Most of your readers may have seen this before, but I repeat it here, in the hope that "come November," they will remember it well. It was written by Josiah G. Holland, years ago, and has been repeated often since. I quote—

God Give Us Men
God give us men! A time like this demands
Strong minds, great hearts, true faith, and ready hands,
Men whom the lust of office does not kill,
Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy;
Men who possess opinions and a will;
Men who have honor; men who will not lie;
Men who can stand before a demagogue
And damn his treacherous flatteries without winking;
Tall men, sun-crowned, who live above the fog
In public duty and in private thinking;
For, while the rabble, with their thumb-worn creeds,
Their large profession and their little deeds
Mingle in selfish strife, let Freedom weep,
Wrong rules the land, and waiting Justice sleeps.

SMALL BUSINESS

There is a child's nursery book which tells the story of the Ark of Noah and relates how the animals, two by two, proceeded up the gangplank before the deluge. Some of the animals were apparently, according to this version, not too considerate of others in their haste to get aboard, as this story relates "and said the ant to the elephant, 'who do you think you are showing?'"

This is somewhat C. W. Harber's statement made by Rep. Earl Wilson, Indiana.

Now according to Rep. Wilson this billion dollar War on Poverty does not add up.

He points out that there is already $40 billion being spent to alleviate poverty, and if $20 billion is not able to do the job, how can another mere billion dollars do the job?

He finds that the nation has been spending on alleviation of poverty already the following sums: Food stamp plan, $51 million, vocational rehabilitation grants $100 million, student loan program $135 million, vocational educational acts $190 million, public works acceleration $214 million, area redevelopment administration $22 million, Indian education and welfare $20 million, donation of commodities to needy persons $204 million, public housing loans $250 million, manpower retraining $411 million, urban renewal $1.3 billion. These total $9 billion and added to this must be included social security payments now $2.5 billion.

Now inasmuch as about the same time the Dept. of Agriculture, through one of its more than 300 tax paid press agents revealed that the census shows there are only 3,481,500 farms in the nation. Rep. Dowdy is confused. In other words, there are 3,000,000 more poverty stricken farm families than farms. It gets confusing.

If gentlemen such as these keep on with such skeptical questions, it may be a decision will be reached to appropriate more money to send a special task force out of Washington to seek out poverty, something like Diogenes and his lantern looking around for an honest man. But perhaps even better would be a plan to resettle about 2,000,000 surplus burroughs on the land, and that way the nation could be covered of at least 2,000,000 poverty stricken farm families, as hands that have lived by raising taxes could probably never raise much else.

Little League Wins Consolation

Lamesa won the Little League Area II championship held in that city last week end, and Tahoka, defending champions, came out with the consolation trophy.

Tahoka Little League All-Stars went to Lamesa Thursday night and the Dawson county drouth rubbed off on the Tahoka hitters as they failed to get a base hit in losing to Crosbyton by a score of 3 to 0.

Crosbyton pitcher Morris, in addition to hurling a no-hitter, also hit a two-run homer off losing pitcher, Larry Durham. Larry pitched a fine ball game in giving up only one earned run, but the Tahoka batters were never able to touch the offerings of Morris. That was the story of the game, as Tahoka went down in defeat to drop into the consolation bracket.

In the consolation game played Saturday afternoon two Lynn county neighbors, Tahoka and O'Donnell, Tahoka came out on top by a score of 4 to 2, winning the tournament consolation title.

Each team collected seven hits, but Tahoka timed its hits well to score four times and win. Winning pitcher was Willie Brown, and Webb was on the mound for O'Donnell. Brown, however, ran into control trouble in the second inning and was relieved by Tim Walker, who went the rest of the ball game and pitching fine ball.

Tahoka scored one run in the first inning, two in the second, and one in the fourth.

Willie Brown had two doubles in two times at bat, Joe Calvillo two singles in two times up, and Jim McCord slammed a homer and a single in three times at bat to lead Tahoka hitting.

The Tahoka team was presented a consolation trophy and each boy received a Little League tournament pin.

O'Donnell played a fine game in its opener with Lamesa in a pitchers' dual before the Dawson county boys won 1-0 on a run in the second. Olvera, on the mound for O'Donnell, gave up only three hits, but his team-mates never could get their bats to work against pitcher Minnix of Lamesa.

Lamesa, after taking O'Donnell, defeated Slaton and Post, winner over Crosbyton, to take the title. The boys thoroughly enjoyed the tournament and thought it was well organized.

During the Roman domination of the Mediterranean, vineyards were uprooted in Sicily and North Africa with wheat and barley planted in their places.

Two teams tied for third place; JoBelle Robinson, Walton Terry, Harry Lee Short and Aleta Thomas making up one team, and Thomas Jolly, Mona Waters, G. W. White, and Joe Harvick composing the other.

Following the tournament, a barbecue supper was served in the club house.

Dr. Ronald Huddleston Writes About Life, Work In Tanganyika, Africa

(By Mrs. O. H. Hoover)

Dr. Ronald Huddleston, living in Tanganyika, Africa, has written several letters to his mother, Mrs. J. H. Huddleston of Grassland, telling of many of his experiences in the mission work there. Here are excerpts from some letters:

"I learned 55% of the beds in the mission hospitals at Tanganyika are furnished by missions. The Catholics have the most hospitals and I believe 57 doctors in Tanganyika. The Lutherans are second, Noravians third, and Mininities fourth. The Hindu's have a number of hospitals which are considered mission hospitals by the Government.

We awoke one night to find our floors literally black with Safari ants. Such ranting wails and yelping, you never heard. We were hopping around as if on hot coals. The children and Mrs. H. were ranting, and I was spraying with DDT. The next morning we swept the ants out in heaps.

On Monday night of last week, a lion walked across my garden. The night watchman saw him and we all heard him roar. I picked up his eyes with my flashlight, but he moved before I could get a shot. This raised my hunting fever, so I slept little the next few nights, and it paid off four nights later. Our watchdogs barked wildly. I found they had tracked a leopard, 42 steps behind the house. I now have a nice leopard skin, 6 ft. 4 in. from nose to tail."

Boll Weevil Program Is Declared Necessity Here

"This program to stop the boll weevils' spread to the cotton-rich Plains is not just a need—it's a vital necessity." This sums up the thinking of a group of the nation's leading "weevil experts" who met in Lubbock Wednesday, July 22. The experts—entomologists representing USDA, Texas A&M University, Texas Tech, and the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and Extension Service—met to finalize plans for a far-reaching boll weevil control program. (This group serves as a Technical Advisory Committee for the boll weevil control program.)

The program provides for not only keeping the boll weevil off the Plains, but also to push the costly insect further back to the east. This would have the added benefit of reducing cost of chemicals and applications for growers in counties adjacent to the Plains on the east. Dr. J. C. Gaines, Head of the Entomology Department at Texas A&M University, said boll weevil control costs in areas of Texas where the insect is a problem runs $6 to $36 an acre or more annually. In addition, up to 20 percent of the potential cotton crop is lost to the boll weevil.

A second meeting on Thursday, July 23, was conducted for the Area-wide Boll Weevil Committee and county agricultural agents representing the 23 counties served by Plains Cotton Growers Association. The county agents and committee-men developed plans for the intensive educational program that will be carried out in the 23-county area.

This educational program is a must for smooth, effective operation of the boll weevil control program in all participating counties, says Don Rummel, Area Extension Entomologist.

Several important points were explained and others clarified in the Technical Advisory Committee meeting. One of the most significant statements concerned the spray program, which will begin this fall. This phase is the "heart" of the weevil control program. The goal is to suppress the boll weevil below the Caprock to such an extent that it won't spread on the Plains. It was made clear by Dr. Perry Adkisson, Texas A&M University Entomologist, that each and every cotton grower in the area to be sprayed must participate. "Just one grower could provide a 'hot spot' which would allow weevils to survive and repopulate the area the coming spring," Dr. Adkisson pointed out. As for how fast a weevil can move in one season, Dr. Adkisson cited this example: "In Missouri, weevils moved 90 miles in just one year to invade another area—until then, weevil-free."

It was emphasized by the entomologists the weevils' ability to spread out over a lot of territory in a short time should be cause for concern. "This should be ample evidence to all Plains growers that this fight against the weevil doesn't belong solely to Plains farmers bordering the Caprock to the east," the entomologist stressed. "If conditions happen to be right and Plains growers' guard was relaxed, the weevil could soon be 'knocking on New Mexico's door' it was emphasized.

Archie Geiser of USDA's Plant Pest Control Division, and several of his co-workers, reported the initial spray program this fall would take place in Dickens, Floyd, Crosby, Oley, Garza and Briscoe counties—and possibly others if the weevils' spread warrants. The Texas Department of Agriculture will be in charge of get-

RESULTS OF MESQUITE SPRAYING ON THE T-BAR RANCH

The brush had been sprayed two weeks when the picture was taken.

Cass O. Edwards II, owner of the T-Bar Ranch, sprayed 10,638 acres of mesquite from June 3rd to June 11th under the Great Plains Conservation Program. The spraying was done by airplane using 1/2 lb. 2-4-5-T chemical, 1 gallon diesel fuel, and enough water to make a 4 gallon mixture per acre, reports Blake Lovelace, Work United Conservativist with the Soil Conservation Service.

Purpose of the spraying is to control mesquite and thereby help establish a satisfactory cover of good grasses to protect the soil and produce greater amounts of forage for livestock. The water it takes to grow one pound of mesquite will grow about 4 pounds of grass, Lovelace says.

Ray Eitelman, ranch foreman, is deferring to sprayed pas-recovery and seed. Mr. Edwards, ranch owner, plans to eventually spray all the rangeland on the ranch that has heavy mesquite infestation.

Contracts signed for each individual cotton farm. These contracts provide an agreement between the farmer and USDA, Texas Department of Agriculture, and PCG for the spray program to be carried out.

Farms in the fall spray program area will be sprayed with a chemical for overwintering (diapause) weevil control three and possibly four times. Dr. Sloan Jones, of Plant Pest Control, said the spraying will be done by private planes whose pilots will be under contract to Plant Pest Control for the spraying operation.

Thinking of the entomologists was that the first spray for overwintering weevil kill should take place about September 10. Applications will follow at about 10 day intervals.

Choice of a chemical—or chemicals—for the fall spraying program also came up for discussion. It was not decided which chemicals would best serve the purpose of being both economical, relatively safe for use in populated areas and effective. Plant Pest Control officials told the group a series of research tests were underway to evaluate several chemicals. Three chemicals—each known to be effective for such a program—are now being evaluated. Final selection of the chemical to be used will take place shortly.

Lynn County Spent $382,000 For Soft Drinks In 1963

(Special to The News)
New York—Residents of Lynn County appear to have been on a drinking spree in the past year—for soda pop, that is.

They have been putting away an assortment of fruit drinks, ginger ale, club soda, cola drinks and the like at a record rate.

Local consumption of soft drinks in 1963, according to the latest estimate, was at the rate of 266 bottles a year for every man, woman and child in the county.

By way of comparison, the United States average was 217 bottles per capita.

On an overall basis, some 2,953,000 bottles (8-ounce) were consumed by the local population. This was in addition to unbottled soda served in lunchrooms and elsewhere.

This was big league drinking. It compares with a total of 2,561,000 bottles in 1960, when a similar survey was made.

The reports on the soft drink business and its operations come from the Department of Commerce and from the industry itself. They cover the nation as a whole and each of the states.

According to the findings, it now takes more than 40 billion (yes, billion) bottles of soda pop each year to slake the American thirst for soft drinks.

Much of it, 60 percent, is purchased in food stores for home consumption. Another 15 percent is sold through vending machines. The rest is dispensed in bars and grills, in recreation places, at fountains and elsewhere.

A major part of it is consumed during the summer months, when the weather is hot and the teenagers, who are the biggest users, are out of school.

The figures show that some sections of the country go for soda pop in a much bigger way than others. Residents of North Carolina, for example, drink four times as much per person as those in North Dakota.

Nationally, the outlay in the year for bottled soda came to a cool $4.5 billion.

Post Stampede Is Next Week

Post—The Post Stampede and Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo, a combined senior-junior show, will open here at 8:00 p. m. Wednesday, Aug. 5, and continue through Saturday night, Aug. 8.

Six senior and six junior events are scheduled. Seniors will compete in bareback and saddle bronc riding, barrel race, bull riding, calf roping and team roping. Junior events, for contestants 19 and under, will include bareback bronc and bull riding, calf roping, ribbon roping and barrel race. There will be a flag race for contestants 12 and under.

This year's rodeo, which will be held in a newly remodeled arena, will be produced by the Sand Hills Rodeo Co. of Brownfield.

A street parade at 5 p. m. Wednesday, Aug. 5, will open rodeo activities. There will be a dance at the rodeo grounds every night with music by Jimmy Mackey and his All-Stars of Brownfield.

MRS. IZARD TAKES TRIP
Mrs. Corine Izard flew to Washington, D. C., July 6 for a visit with her brother, Charles Pennington and family. She visited John Kennedy's grave, the Washington Monument and other points of interest. Then she flew to San Antonio, to visit with her sister-in-law, Ruth Pennington. Mrs. Izard returned home July 18.

Lynn County's contribution to this total was approximately $328,000, which compares with its 1960 outlay of $243,000. Higher prices were responsible for some of this increase.

The sudden surge in the use of soft drinks is attributed in part by the industry to the introduction of low-calorie beverages. They have made a big impact on the weight-conscious market, the reports show.

MR. AND MRS. J. O. KING MARRIED 60 YEARS
Picture Taken On Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. King Married Here 60 Years Ago, Have Lived Here 60 Years

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. King, married 60 years, and residents of the county more than 60 years, and their children invite all friends to a reception on their anniversary in their home at Wilson Tuesday, August 4, from 2:00 to 4:00 p. m.

Most of their children and other relatives hope to be present for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. King are probably the only couple in the country who married here 60 years ago and who have resided here ever since.

They were married on August 4, 1904, at the home of her parents, the late J. W. and Bettie Luttrell, nine miles southeast of Tahoka. Performing the ceremony was a Rev. Anderson, a Presbyterian preacher from Abilene. Minnie Lee Luttrell had come to this county in 1901 with her parents.

J. O. King, raised in Montague county, had come west to Big Spring, and in February of 1904 came to Lynn county to work on the Dixie Ranch, north of Tahoka, owned by Clifton & King, a couple of Waco dentists. Dr. S. A. King Jr., one of the partners, was a cousin of J. O.'s.

When J. O. King went to work as a cowboy, Minnie Lee Luttrell was working at the ranch headquarters, and after a fast courtship the two were married about six months later.

The couple filed on a section of land at Three Lakes the next month, where they lived until selling in 1909. They spent 8 or 9 months in Terry county, the only time they've lived outside Lynn since their marriage.

Mr. King farmed some of the Luttrell land a while, then farmed east of town a year, a year at Wilson, and then bought a farm at Dixie in 1914, where they lived until retiring in 1952 and moving to Wilson. They sold the land to Archie Sims in 1954.

Both have long been faithful members of the Methodist Church.

The Kings have six children: two daughters, Mrs. Lee Taylor of Morton and Mrs. G. P. Bailey of Odessa; and four sons, Rev. Paul King of Gerary, Okla., J. Lem of Panhandle, Lonnie King of Plainview, and W. Wilson King of Oklahoma City.

Pony All-Stars Lose To Dixie

Dixie All-Stars of Lubbock won the Pony League championship last week end after having nosed out Lynn County All-Stars 6-5 in a game Friday.

The local All-Star team had advanced by reason of a 2-0 shut-out of Southwest All-Stars Wednesday when Morales pitched almost perfect ball for the Lynn county team.

In Thursday's game, the opener for Dixie, which had drawn a first round bye, the Lynn County boys were in the fray right down to the bottom of seventh, when Mike Crutcher of Dixie got a home run for the 6-5 victory.

Ken Sayles, the losing pitcher, had done a fine hurling job and was backed up by his team-mates. John Tyler had a homer, first of his career, doubled and singled to lead the hitting. Doyle Schneider had a double and two singles, and Ken Sayles and Donald Petty each singled.

Lynn County All-Stars were eliminated by reason of the second loss on Saturday, this time to Southwest by a lop-sided 12-3 score when everything went wrong

Russell Balch In Navy At San Diego

Upon completion, he will be assigned to a ship or station or receive additional training at a service specialty school.

Gingham gets its name from Gingham, a cloth woven by natives in Malaya and Java.

for the local team. Southwest scored every run but two on errors, walks and wild pitches.

Each team had to lose two in the double elimination tournament, and Dixie won the affair by a second victory over Southwestern 10 to 5 in an extra game Sunday.

Thomas Jolly managed and C. W. Armes coached the Lynn county entry.

They are among 135 students who registered for this session.

COWANS RETURN HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Don Cowan and children left Tuesday for their home in San Benito, where he is county agent of Cameron county. A visit here in the parental V. F. Jones and Winston Davies homes. Don says cotton harvest was well under way there, the crop fair but spotted. When he left there, it had started raining, something they don't want at this season in the Valley.

Guy LeMond of Snyder was a visitor here Monday. He is expected to make a tour of Europe this fall. Mr. LeMond, a pioneer of Draw community, is a former local rural carrier.

Fundamentals First!

The way merchants responded to the Cotton Week edition of The News last week was almost amazing. We hope all of you read their advertisements. The merchant, as the farmer, is vitally tied to the cotton industry—without which he can not survive. Most of last week's advertising was strictly unselfish promotion of the use of more cotton. All of us need to become conscious of cotton. Wear more cotton!

Mae Hill, who sells The News advertising, thinks Tahoka and all Lynn county has the nicest, most courteous group of merchants any area could possibly desire. She extends her sincere thanks to these people for their complete cooperation on the special edition, as well as those she calls on each week.

We dug up another old Tahoka High annual, "The Skyline," for 1924-'25, which brings back a lot of fond memories some of our readers may enjoy.

FRIENDSHIP GESTURE BETTER THAN "SIT-INS" Millions of words have been written about poor race relations in the South. In fact, the South has been put in a very bad light by Northern writers and television commentators.

Little is said about good relations between Negroes and whites in the South. Two instances in Tahoka in recent weeks point up the fact that not all Negroes are bad and not all whites are bad in their relations toward one another, and that the two races can and do live together in harmony.

Randy Scott, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie C. Scott, local Colored people, was ill with an incurable ailment three years before his death on July 10. Scores of local people, white and Colored, had given help for treatment of the youngster and were sincerely grieved by his passing, sent flowers or cards, and offered further help.

Two weeks ago, two car loads of Negroes from Los Angeles were en route to the funeral of a relative at Knox City. One of the cars broke down on US 380 a few miles west of Tahoka. A local white man, Charles Oliver, stopped to help them.

The group of Negroes thanked him profusely for his trouble in getting them on the road again, have since written him two post cards and the following letter to further thank him:

My Dear Mr. Oliver: This letter is to tell you that your courtesy to me and my relatives last week while we were in Tahoka was something that I shall never forget.

In case you are having difficulty recalling, I'll refresh your memory I'm referring to the family of people (Flye) that were stranded out on the outside of your town on that Monday night when you so graciously towed us into Tahoka and called out the mechanics. Please thank them, also.

Despite the fact that we were there for a most sad occasion, you certainly added greatly to the pleasure of our stay in that area. I cannot say enough about the kindness of you and your friends.

I hope that I may have the opportunity some day to return your kindness. Very sincerely yours, Elmer L. Flye, 1701 W. 84th Street, Los Angeles, Calif.

The annual says the boys basketball team was "unlucky from the start." Members were Clay Bennett, Barney Davis, Harley Wells, Jack Link, and Paul King. The baseball team "was quite successful" and was composed of Harley Wells, pitcher; Carr Wells, catcher; Thomas Lowe, first; Clay Bennett, second; Edward Hatchett, shortstop; Jack Link, third; Barney Davis, left field; Joe Walton, center field; and Oran Short, right field.

A highlight of the year was an operetta, "The Gypsy Rover," directed by Mae Hill, featuring Jewel Sargent, Leta Carmack, Eddie Hatchett, Don Shifflett, Brown Bishop, W. R. Lacey, Gordon King, Perle Keltner, A. B. Sanders, Temple Brashear, Mr. Blackstone, and Lawrence Sanford; and choruses with 33 voices including Ida, Alice and Maurice Small, Cubana Keltner, Mr. and Mrs. Borden Davis, Lee Roy Knight, Grayam George, Joe Bob Billman and others.

An Idea For Uncle We continually hear of plans, proposals, talk and big ideas from Washington of what Uncle Sam can do for the people. It all adds up to new ways for politicians to spend our money. It's probably radical, crazy, impractical, but we wonder if it ever occurs to these helpful planners and vote hunters that we might appreciate most some plans for leaving us more and more of our money to spend in our own way for whatever we think might be best for us. Graham Scandal Sheet.

We are getting a little tired of hearing conservatives referred to as John Birchers, Ku-Kluxers, Hitlerites, fanatics, fascists, and extremists. According to an item in the dailies recently, there are 16 Communists in the U. S. for every member of the rightist John Birch Society. Our liberal thinkers are not very exercised about Communists. When these same commentators on TV and same columnists in the newspapers mention the NAACP, CORE, Black Muslims, of Black Nationalists, they're always called "civil rights groups." When the ADA, AFL-CIO, and other such groups are mentioned, they are pictured as "progressives." One who favors constitutional government and democratic principles is a dirty name. But, a lot of people seem to fall for this tripe.

Editor Jim Russell once wrote in The Belton Journal: "Any time you have any news, call us. Even if the news isn't fit to print, we'd like to hear it."

Amarillo Globe once made this typographical error: "Miss Opal Smith won first prize for the most original costume at the Hi Jinx masquerade. Needless to say, Miss Smith was quite pickled."

And the Dallas Times-Herald once pulled this boner: "Whether the millionaires were more interested in stock or blouses, they declined to say."

One of the advantages of a democracy is that the minority has the say and the majority has to pay.—Clipped.

David Bray Speaker At Local Rotary Meeting

David Bray, recent Rotary Foundation student who spent a year in graduate study at Oxford University in England, told Thursday Tahoka Rotarians experiences and impressions gained while in that country.

Bray said his nomination by the Tahoka Club for the privilege of spending the year in England resulted in him meeting, wooing, and winning the girl he is about to marry, and therefore will have a direct bearing on his entire future life.

British television and radio, financed by the government, has no commercials, no on-spot news coverage, and broadcast few sporting events. Many programs are uninteresting to the laymen since they are beamed to hobbyists. Entertainment programs as a whole are relatively few. Some American programs, such as Bonanza, are also British favorites. But, the BBC presents more and better cultural programs than the U. S. stations. Because of the tight little island and government control, the same programs are broadcast over the country by most all stations.

He was on a TV panel show during International Understanding Week.

The national past-time, he said, seems to be forming lines—queuing. The people line up orderly everywhere, in stores, railway stations—and there's no rushing, pushing and shoving such as in New York to get on the subway. Telephone rates are much higher than here, service hot so good, and many businesses do not have a telephone. In Oxford, a city of 100,000, there are only about six pay stations.

Mail delivery in England is fast and very efficient, but postage rates are much higher.

Teen-agers have no summer jobs, depend on their parents for spending money, and many of them spend the vacation traveling. Whereas over here kids become interested in such things as rock-and-roll, in England this sort of stuff is resorted to by university students.

The British are hobby conscious, and almost everyone has one or more hobbies he follows industriously. There are thousands, such as mountain climbing, cat raising, bicycle riding, gardening, sports, madrigal singing, and they have a good time at their hobbies.

Work in the university was not too difficult, and he spent most of his time reading and writing. He had two men tutors, with whom he met twice a week for one hour. There are no classes, but discussions with these tutors.

About what the British think of us, he said they think we are social climbers, too busy to enjoy life and too money-mad. But, they admire us for our free-wheeling zest for life, and feel they have strong ties with us and have much affection for Americans. Many of them have visited the U. S., but most of their impressions are gained from visits to New York and the East. He found a lot of things to admire about the British, particularly their ability to take everything in stride and their easy-living.

He entered the Army in 1957 and was stationed at Fort Bragg, N. C., before arriving on Okinawa last February on this tour of duty.
