Serving Tahoka and Lynn County Since 1903!

Record Crowd At Lyntegar Meeting

The largest crowd in the history of Lyntegar, 4,633 people, were served a barbecue dinner at the 26th annual membership meeting of the electric cooperative held Tuesday night in the Tahoka football stadium.

One of the largest and most successful electric cooperatives in the nation, Lyntegar has grown tremendously from a very small beginning in 1938 as the "dream child" of the late John Heck of Wilson, the first president, Tom Garrard, the late attorney, and Garland Pennington, manager almost from the beginning.

Originally designed to serve Lynn, Terry and Garza county rural areas, Lyntegar lines now extend over half of Garza county, all of Dawson, half of Borden, a portion of Martin, more than a half of Gaines, half of Terry and Hockley counties, and over into Lubbock county. Originally serving farm homes with light, it now serves hundreds of irrigation wells.

At the meeting Tuesday night, members and their families mostly enjoyed visiting friends, the dinner, music by "The Rockies," a band from Brownfield directed by Mrs. Dea Parker, elected two directors, and stayed on-hand until the last of the electric door prizes valued at more than $750.00 were distributed. Some even listened to the necessary business session.

Kenneth Furtell of Brownfield and G. Q. Hensley of Draw were re-elected to the board of directors. Following the meeting, Frank Harris of Dawson county was re-elected.

Geo. Lightfoot Pioneer, Dies

George W. Lightfoot, 83, resident of O'Donnell, route 2, since 1918, and a pioneer South Plains cowboy, died Monday morning apparently of a heart attack. Following his attack, he was rushed to Methodist Hospital but was pronounced dead on arrival there.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 10:00 a. m. in Welch Baptist Church with the pastor, Rev. W. C. Wright, and a former pastor, Rev. C. R. Blake, officiating. Burial was in Pride Cemetery, between O'Donnell and Welch.

A native of Sumnerfield, Kansas, Mr. Lightfoot was born September 29, 1876, and came to West Texas as a young man. He worked on many of the early day ranches in this section, and several times wrote about some of his experiences during the early days for The News.

Survivors include his wife, Fannie; five daughters, Mrs. Pearl Cathey and Mrs. O. R. Shaw of Lubbock, Mrs. A. B. Landess and Mrs. C. D. Tipton of Borger, and Mrs. Essie Hodges of Brownfield; and five sons, J. A. and O. W. of Amarillo, Billie of O'Donnell, Leo of Lovington, N. H. and Wayne of Welch; 28 grandchildren, 23 great grandchildren, and five great great grandchildren.

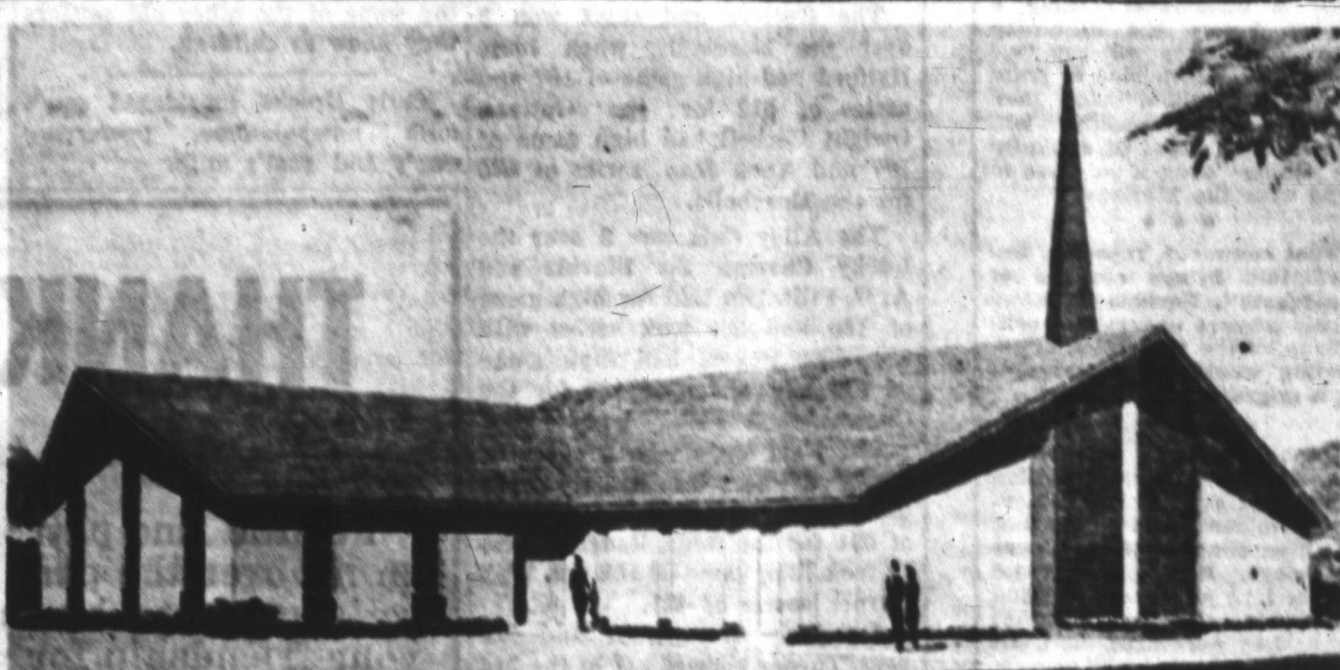

Pipeline Contract Gets Approval

Approval has been given by the Bureau of Reclamation in Washington of a contract award to R. H. Fulton Co. of Lubbock for construction of the Canadian River pipeline project to Slaton, Tahoka, O'Donnell, Lamesa, Levelland, and Brownfield.

Fulton's low bid on the line was $9,785,519. One other contract remains to be awarded, for a water line to Borger and Pampa. The main line is under construction from the damsite on the Canadian River to Amarillo and Lubbock.

When completed in 1967, the pipeline system will serve 17 Plains cities. Work on the dam will be completed next year.

Tahoka's water will be processed in a plant being built by the City of Lubbock.

NEW CHURCH BUILDING for Gethsemani Baptist Mission, pictured above, has been authorized by First Baptist Church for erection at Ave. H and South Fifth streets. Estimated cost of the building is $28,000.

Taylor Knight Is Award Winner

Taylor Knight, 18, of Tahoka, won the all-around junior cowboy honor at the Post Stampede Saturday night, and was presented a hand-tooled saddle and a sterling belt buckle with gold lettering.

The all-around cowboy title is one honor every rodeo cowboy seeks to win and one which many never achieve.

Incidentally, Taylor won the Texas High School roping contest held at Amberst last year.

Helping him win the all-around title at Post was his winning top horses in the Brahma bull riding contest. This was the first time he had ever tried to ride a Brahma in rodeo competition. The silver buckle was for this win.

Taylor, a local high school graduate who will be a sophomore in Tech this fall, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy Knight. He has been riding since he was big enough to sit in a saddle, and has been competing in rodeos for years, principally as a calf roper.

Charlie Elmer of Draw was third and Bill Griffin of Tahoka was fourth in the junior flag rope Saturday night.

Football Squad Starts Work-Outs

Tahoka Bulldogs will begin football workouts early Monday morning in preparation for the opening game with the Lorenson Hornets there on Sept. 4. First home game will be with Crosbyton here on Sept. 11.

Coaches Gilbert Hough and Dave Easterday expect a large group to report Monday, and hold high hopes that this year's squad will turn in a better record than in several years.

Hough says the boys appear to be eager to go, most have been keeping in condition through the summer, and are ready to put in some really hard work for the coming season.

Monday, the backs, punters and receivers will report for work-out at 6:30 a. m., and the rest of the candidates will report at 7:00 a. m. In the evening, all boys will report at 6:30 p. m. for picture taking for the football programs, and this will be followed by another work-out.

First B team game is with Plains here on Sept. 10, and first Seventh and Eighth grade games are with Frenship here on Sept. 13.

Cassey Are Injured In Lubbock Wreck

Mr. and Mrs. Wood G. Cassey and two children of 3412 30th street, Lubbock, were injured in a two-car collision in Lubbock Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Cassey is the former Miss Peggy Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Huggie Smith of Tahoka.

Pat and one, Todd, remained in Methodist Hospital Thursday and were reported in fair condition, although both were injured more seriously than at first believed. Her husband and daughter, Cathy Jo, were also treated for injuries and released.

New Church Building For Local Mission Is Planned

First Baptist Church, in business meeting Sunday night, voted to construct a new building for the Church's Mexican Mission, Mission Gethsemani Bautista. The new building will be located on the corner of South Fifth Street and Ave. H, in front of the new Mission parsonage which was completed last year.

Plans are being drawn by Architect Adam A. Bliss of Dallas. Construction will be under the supervision of E. O. Hartwell, pastor-builder, employed by the Direct Missions Department of the Baptist General Convention of Texas. Estimated cost of the building is $28,000.

Construction will begin about October 1, as soon as Mr. Hartwell completes a similar building in Lubbock for a new Mexican Mission sponsored by the Highland Baptist Church. Mr. Hartwell has been building mission churches since 1947, and uses much donated labor to help lower the cost of construction.

This is the final stage in relocating the mission facilities made necessary by the new highway to be built through Tahoka. This will be the third location for the mission since it was established in 1948. It was first located on South Third street, just two blocks north of the new location. In 1950 the property on South First Street was purchased from the Church of Christ and is presently being used by the mission. This was the historic site of the first building for First Baptist Church. The highway right-of-way did not leave sufficient ground space for the continued growth of the mission, which has experienced a forty per cent growth in eighteen months.

The new building will be an attractive brick and tile structure to provide for 183 in educational facilities and an auditorium for 175 which will be expandable to a capacity of 270.

Rev. John Pistone, pastor of the mission, has served the congregation since Jan. 1, 1962.

Plans Committee for the new building included Everton Nevill, J. C. Womack, Lynn West, Garland Pennington, Walthal Littlepage, Mauro Mares, Julian Gutierrez, John Pistone, and T. James Eldred.

Construction Committee is composed of Walthal Littlepage, Garland Pennington, J. T. Miller and Mauro Mares.

Housing Project Near Completion

Tahoka's housing for the aged project will be completed early in September and applicants for rental units should check now with J. M. Uzile, administrator, Housing Authority of City of Tahoka.

Mr. Uzile says there are plenty of applications on hand to fill the 12-unit project, but those who made application need to check with him again at City Hall.

Actually, there is one unit available for a couple. Other single persons may also make applications for rental units, since some of those who have applied may not qualify or may not still desire such housing.

There has been a slight change in the minimum rental price, he says, by the Public Housing Authority in Washington, raising the minimum rent from $18.00 to $19.50 per month. Rent prices increase accordingly when a person's income goes over $1420.00 annually.

Funds set aside for the project totaled $158,000, but the builder is erecting the 12 unit project on a low bid of $124,350. There are eight units for single people and four for couples.

Very attractive and modern brick and concrete construction, the project is in the 1700 block of Second street, south of Sunshine Inn, and in walking distance of town and the postoffice.

Every modern convenience for aged are included, there is a laundry area, a recreation area, an administrative building, and the grounds will be landscaped.

The laundry building is plumbed for a washer and dryer, and Mr. Uzile says the project needs some civic organization or individual to donate a washer and dryer for the use of the occupants.

Completion is expected some time between Sept. 1 and Sept. 15. Housing Authority of the City of Tahoka also operates housing units for whites, Negroes, and Latin-Americans.

Cotton Growers Meeting Tuesday

Two directors will be elected and cotton problems will be discussed at a Plains Cotton Growers meeting of farmers and business men next Tuesday night, 8:00 p. m., in Lyntegar conference room.

Terms of Bertice Askew of O'Donnell, farmer director, and Winston C. Wharton of Tahoka, business man director in the Plains area organization expire at this time.

Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., representatives from Lubbock will be present to discuss the boll weevil situation, cotton legislation, and other problems and to report of progress of PGC research and promotion.

Everyone interested in the welfare of cotton is urged to be present. Refreshments will be served.

4-H Beef Tour Held Thursday

The annual Lynn County 4-H Club Beef Tour was being held here Thursday of this week.

Interested people met at the Man and Myra Bartley demonstration, southeast of Tahoka, and visited calf lots of Dean and Rex Hamilton, Jim Adams, Bobby Martin, Danny Brewer, James White, Kent Wood, Larry and Mike Emerson, and Harold Besire.

4-H Club boys and girls have 34 steers on feed for the 1964 spring livestock show, state county Agent Bill Griffin.

MISS LA NITA WOOD

O'Donnell Girl District Winner

LaNita Wood, 15 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wood from O'Donnell, was selected as one of the top four contestants in the District II 4-H Club Dress Revue last Friday, August 7th, according to Billie Carr, Home Demonstration Agent.

This entitled LaNita to participate in the State Dress Revue which is held in conjunction with the State Fair in Dallas in October.

The Dress Revue is one of the annual highlights in 4-H and is a very elaborate occasion which is held in the beautiful ballroom of the Student Union building on Texas Tech Campus. The Plains Co-op Oil Mill was host for the four course fille mignon banquet. (Continued on Back Page)

Record Set In Water Usage

July was a record month in water usage, 22 million gallons being run through customers' meters, states City Administrator J. M. Uzile.

Another record was made on Thursday of last week when city water customers used 1,080,000 gallons. Since the rain on Friday night, usage has let up a bit.

At least these are records since the City of Tahoka installed a master meter several years ago.

Since a number of citizens have private wells for watering lawns, the usage went much higher than these figures, but naturally there is no record of the amount pumped by private wells.

So far, the water supply has held up very well and there has been no curtailment of water usage here, but the City facilities have been almost taxed to capacity several days.

John Toler Sells To Herman Renfro

Herman Renfro this week announces he has bought the oil, gasoline, butane and diesel business of John F. Toler Co., which he has combined with his own firm and will operate the oil business under the name Renfro Butane Co. in the future.

Mr. Renfro has been with Continental 28 years and the Conoco agent for 15 years in Tahoka. Lewis Phillips and Marvin Locke, who have been with Toler, will join Roger Barnes to form the service crew for Renfro.

Mr. Toler has been in business here for 15 years as Coaden dealer, and before that he was Magnolia dealer at Idalou for 20 years.

Mr. Toler and wife have their home here and expect to remain as citizens of Tahoka. He has no plans for the immediate future except "to rest a little."

Showers the past week have been some help to a few crops, but most of the South Plains remains dry.

Many dryland crops have gone out entirely, while other farmers report some cotton holding up remarkably well.

Thursday of last week was the hottest day of the year, 105 degrees in Tahoka, but showers that night cooled the weather off. There was a hint of autumn in the air Thursday morning when the low temperature was 64 degrees.

During Friday night, Tahoka received 1.21 inch of rain and an area north of town a short distance received similar moisture. Wilson reported a half inch, Wayside 2.35, New Lynn from .75 to .9 in spots, and Three Lakes up to .8 in limited spots.

The rain played out east at Six Mile Station, two or three miles to the south, and a similar distance to the west.

Tuesday night, O'Donnell received up to .3 inch. Some farmers are already plowing up cotton under the domestic allotment plan, an aid to drought-stricken farmers. Originally, deadline for compliance in this program was set at August 15.

Local ASCS office was notified last Friday of a slight change in this rule. Farmers now have 15 days to sign-up and plow-up from the date that they receive their notice on original measurement.

Maize which has burned and will not mature, may be shredded. Application has been made by the local ASCS for grazing permission of these acres, but this will have to await approval from higher authority.

Most irrigated cotton is doing well. Many farmers with limited water, however, are having a hard time keeping up and some irrigated cotton is suffering.

There will be very little dryland maize this year and a limited amount of irrigated maize.

Estimates of the 1964 cotton crop in Lynn county this year range from 100,000 to 125,000 bales, 80 or 90 percent of which will be irrigated cotton.

Farmers Co-op Meets Tuesday

The 35th annual membership meeting of Farmers Cooperative Association No. 1 of Tahoka will be held next Tuesday at the Lynn County Fair building in southwest Tahoka.

The meeting will open at 10:00 a. m., and a barbecue lunch will be served at noon.

About $19,000.00 will be distributed to patrons of the service station, about $21,000.00 in cash from ginning will be distributed, and about $42,000.00 in old stock will be retired. Also, money from the regional cooperatives will be passed out.

The auditor will report on the financial condition of the Association. Two new directors will be elected, as the terms of J. O. Allen and Lois Smelser expire at this time. Adoption of amendments to the charter will be considered at this meeting.

Door prizes will be awarded at the beginning of the session and at intervals during the meeting. C. W. Stevens, gin manager, says everyone is invited.

United Fund Meet Called For Monday

United Fund board of directors will meet Monday night, August 17, at 8:00 o'clock in the Ruddy room of Southwestern Public Service Co., according to Dr. Gerald E. Wood, chairman.

Purpose of the meeting is to discuss the fall campaign and to approve the prospects list. Dr. Wood urges all members to be present.

Social Security Rotary Subject

Various phases of the Social Security program were discussed by Maudie King of the Lubbock office Thursday at Tahoka Rotary Club.

Of the 10,914 people in Lynn county by the 1960 census, he declared a total of $33 are receiving payments from Social Security, 46 from disability and 787 from retirement as survivors funds.

These payments total $46,000 per month, or $552,540 per year, he revealed.

There are 18 million people in the nation receiving benefits from the program.

The speaker explained how the program is set up to insure most of our citizens will be guaranteed an income on retirement. Advocates of the program believe most of the aged people need these benefits and many rely entirely on Social Security income on reaching the age of retirement.

He said the program helps hold fatherless families together and gives a sense of security to those approaching and reaching retirement age.

Some say the program should be voluntary, but he pointed out there would be no program if such were the case, because, human nature being what it is, most people would not come into it.

He also gave an answer to the charge that there is a $300 billion deficit in the Social Security funds. He said the program, unlike insurance programs, is set up so that new people coming into the work force each year contribute to those now on Social Security, and in turn, other will be providing funds when these people reach retirement age.

Although money in the fund is loaned to the Federal government, the interest from these loans just about pays the administration of Social Security.

A disability trust fund is kept entirely separate from the other funds, and from this payments are made to persons who become totally disabled before reaching retirement age.

The speaker was introduced by Tom Gill, who was in charge of the program.

The club charge was given by Wynne Collier to two new members, Binie White of Lyntegar and Ralph Beiste, the new Church of Christ minister here.

President Wilton Payne announced the club is again back up to 51 members after two members had moved away recently.

A. M. Bray introduced the foreign student here for the summer as a guest of the club, and the student responded with a brief talk in which he expressed his thanks for the opportunity and told of the wonderful time he was having meeting Americans. He declared he liked America very much.

He is Guido Fabris, 22, from Rome, Italy, the son of an attorney, a personable young man with a deep knowledge of many subjects who enjoys people, conversation, and learning more of our way of life.

Tahoka's ZIP Code is 79718.

SMALL BUSINESS

WASHINGTON AND
BY C. W. HARDER

Minister still happen. News- men have achieved bi-partisan con demnation.

Not too many years ago they were accused of bias as fatted loafs of selfish capitalistic inter ests. Now another party is hating them also, and simultane ously, least said is soonest mended.

There was a time when candidates wrote their own speeches, and thus were pre pared to answer plainly and clearly any questions arising from them. Those candidates devoted their energies to be laboring each other instead of seeking to see which could claim more bias on the part of the news media.

But today no important poli tician takes to the hustings without a corps of press agents and speech writers. The former assiduously court news media to obtain free space and time for their candidate. Then they boast foul play if the reporting does not follow the guidelines carefully prepared for news men in the form of advance copies of speeches.

Any competent soul, but per haps better say newsmen now that they are considered sans soul, wades through these col lections of high sounding phras es and well worn cliches seek ing to find something that will be of interest to his public. Consider a typical speech on peace. The candidate talks about peace, promises peace. But the newsmen want to re port specifically how he intends to achieve peace.

That comment, reported, im mediately brings charges of "mis quote". Fortunately news media owners understand poli ticians or the pretensions of re porting would be as rampant as a migratory fruit picker.

In the Roosevelt era, before his death, William Allen White, the sage Emporia Kan sas, publisher, pointed out that the then charges of bias were ridiculous. He said that no matter how publishers opposed Roosevelt on the editorial page, they permitted the front pages to be loaded with reports of his activities, those of his family. Without this coverage, he claimed Roosevelt would have not been able to carry elections by such large major ities.

So perhaps news media have a perfect way to avoid charges of bias. Instead of the news cov erage, with its appreciable loss to readers or viewers, merely report "Candidate Doe again states a large group in Civil War today. He expressed the same views he has present ed many times before during present political campaign."

We made a little private poll here at The News office recently in regard to Foreign Aid in which we asked citizens as they came in to the office what they thought about this Federal program. Two citizens thought the program very necessary. Two were luke-warm. About thirty were opposed to giving away our tax money to help support other nations of the world. About eight or ten nearly blew their tops.

But Congress doesn't pay much attention anymore to the man on the street, and we're going to keep on spending huge sums to bolster the economy of nations around the world, even to the Communist and Communist-leaning countries, so they can compete in the world market with American producers.

Many Congressmen keep talking about economy in government, for home consumption, we suppose, and keep spending more and more money over protests of many citizens. The Federal debt has grown from $43 billion in 1940 to over $300 billion in 1964—just 24 years. But our leaders brush this off by citing our "economic growth" and our growth in "gross national product," which the boys in Washington tell us are cutting taxes.

Congress went right ahead and passed a tremendous foreign aid bill, another exceedingly high defense spending bill, now a Poverty bill, and proposes to increase Social Security spending and add on other spending programs. Wanting a raise for themselves, and probably a bit embarrassed about the effect on voters, they just passed an across-the-board increase in pay bill for all government people, including congressmen of course. Oh, well, we'll all soon be working for the government, anyway.

But, it's hard for the average Lynn county citizen to see where his taxes are being reduced by increased Federal spending — at least, it is hard for The Printer to see, when his taxes keep getting higher and his profit margin declining toward the zero point.

Howard Draper has been down in his native county of Williamson, and says the cotton there this year is the finest he has ever seen. In fact, a copy of the Georgetown paper he brought us says it's a "top crop" in a streamer headline. But, another "Bulletin" from Washington on the same page says "Williamson county has been designated an emergency area due to hail and drought damage" and farmers and ranchers, unable to obtain credit from local sources, will be able to borrow from FHA at the low rate of 3 percent.

Another reader sent us a card with a picture showing LBJ with his arm around Bobby Baker, taken several years ago, of course, and quoting the President: "Bobby Baker is my strong right arm. He is the last man I see at night and the first man I see in the morning." . . . and another LBJ quotation, "You say I am not a liberal. Let me tell you I am more liberal than Eleanor Roosevelt, and I will prove it to you." (NY Herald-Tribune, Dec. 1, 1963.)

Tahoka school custodians are due thanks of our community for the fine job they've done this summer keeping the grass on the school campus in such good shape this hot, dry summer. The campus is still littered with building material, but when the building program is complete our school campus is going to be one of the most attractive on the Plains.

The custodians and others have quite a chore cut out for them late this month—moving desks and other equipment back into school rooms and getting ready on an emergency basis for opening on August 31. There will be some inconveniences, and Supt. Harold Reynolds asks the public to be patient with the force for a while until the job is complete. The

Two farmers were talking. One said, "I want my son to learn how to milk a cow." The other said, "I want my son to learn to do something that a calf can't do better."

Some gems Rev. James Efrid picked up: Living in the past has one thing in its favor—it's cheaper. . . . A rumor is about as hard to unscrew as butter. . . . Life is like a gun—it can be aimed in only one direction at a time. . . . It isn't hard to make a mountain out of a holehill—just add a little dirt. . . . The trouble with political jokes is that they sometimes get elected.

CHICKENS COMING HOME TO ROOST
Edgar Hays in Lockney Beacon: It is no surprise to us that there have been race riots in New York and probably our readers likewise are not surprised. These are not the first race riots for the North and probably will not be the last. Some years ago, there occurred a race riot in Detroit that would make anything that has happened in the South look like a Sunday School picnic. The big metropolitan press and the news services have consistently played down this sort of thing in the North while playing it up in the South. But now it has become so obvious and so much a part of the race problem that they can no longer ignore the matter. We would predict, not hopefully but sorrowfully, that there will be more and larger troubles of this kind in Northern cities. Because you see recent events and legislation has served to encourage and foster lawlessness and violence instead of discouraging and hampering such things. These people are invited to take whatever steps they deem necessary, within the law or without, to make their demands, sometimes highly unreasonable, known to the general public. Some of our government officials have issued their invitation.

Admitting that perhaps a majority of the mobs are the lawless element, and that most self-respecting, honorable colored people have no part in these riots, yet it is obvious to all that the rioting and looting has been encouraged, unintentionally of course, by the actions and words of national officials who condone the sit-ins, the massive demonstrations, and other acts which are on the borderline of lawlessness though perhaps not actually illegal. "Chickens come home to roost" is the old saying and that is what is happening in New York now.

$35 1/2 BILLION IN SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS PAID

More than $35 1/2 billion monthly social security benefits has been paid out to wage earner's dependents and survivors during the past 25 years, Anthony J. Celebrezze, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, said today on the 25th anniversary of the amendments to the Social Security Law adding protection for the families of workers.

The original Social Security Law, enacted in 1935, provided only retirement benefits for workers with only a lump sum payable to the worker's estate in case of his death.

Following up on recommendations of the Committee on Economic Security, appointed by President Roosevelt in 1934, and taking note of the experience gained in administering the retirement benefit program, the Congress, in the summer of 1938, enlarged the scope of the Nation's social security program, making it a program for the whole family.

Siging the legislation on August 10, 1938, President Roosevelt described it as "Another tremendous step forward in providing greater security for the people of this country." The expanded program, he said, would now give "Lifetime family security instead of only individual old-age security to the workers in insured occupations. In addition to the worker himself, millions of widows and orphans will now be afforded some degree of protection in the event of his death whether before or after his retirement."

The 1938 amendments also provided benefits for the wives and children of retired workers and for the aged dependent parents of deceased workers. Further, the date for the first payment of monthly benefits to retired workers and to the newly added categories of survivors and dependents was moved ahead two years—from 1942 to 1940.

Jones Horses Win In Races

Buford Jones of Gordon community, farmer and race horse owner, writes that he has had three horses in the winner's circle this summer, three seconds, and two thirds.

Dusty Dan, a grey six-year-old, won the Big John Powers of California handicap purse in July.

Tuy Tai, a black mare, won the same week.

Prompt Notice ran a third the same week.

Then, last week Chance Bar, a bay horse, won first, and Prompt Notice ran third.

Dusty Dan was injured in his stall and was scratched, but will be back on the track in two weeks.

"Good horse racing!" is Buford's justifiable brag.

Lynn County Soil Conservation District News

E. R. BLAKNEY HAROLD PAYNE
WARD EAKIN BOYD BARNES
MELVIN WUENSCHÉ

Thousands of acres in the Lynn County Soil Conservation District have been left bare due to the present drought conditions. If these acres remain bare, wind erosion could toll heavy with next spring's windy season. Now is the time to prevent next spring's wind erosion says Larry Dobbs of the Soil Conservation Service.

If moisture is received within the next few weeks, probably the best way of getting a good soil cover is to drill in German millet or one of the forage sorghums such as sudan grass, Dobbs explained. Millet or forage sorghums will develop quick growth and then die with the first frost. One advantage of these summer crops is their ability to hold winter moisture instead of using it for growth.

If moisture is not received within the next few weeks, it would be best then to drill in one of the small grains such as rye. It is recommended that small grains be planted between August 15 and Sept. 15, but can be planted in October. An advantage of the small grains, along with being a good cover crop, is their value for winter grazing and could then be harvested next June.

The cover crops can be planted for as little as $2.00 per acre, yet a good cover crop is worth much more in soil and moisture saved. If land is left bare there may not be enough moisture to chisel or break to control wind erosion.

Consequently, the SCS is heartily encouraging the planting of small grains such as rye or forage sorghums such as sudangrass as a means of getting cover on the land. If you have diverted acres or bare acres of cropland, we urge you to use cover crops to prevent erosion and conserve valuable moisture, Dobbs says.

Water Cut-Off Date Is Near

Stick to the recommended water cut-off date for your area and come out dollars ahead in the long run. This is what research at the South Plains Research and Extension Center shows.

Based on research findings by Shelby Newman, Agronomist at the Center, application of irrigation water late in the season has several bad effects. One of these is lowering of quality—that results in a decrease in net returns per acre. Though total yield per acre may be increased in some years with late irrigation, the resultant lowering of cotton quality usually means decreased net returns, plus added costs of the late irrigation. Late watering also encourages rank cotton growth—which delays maturity and decreases the efficiency of once-over stripper harvesting.

County Agent Bill Griffin says results of many years research at the Center shows cotton grown in the Lubbock, Plainview, and Brownfield areas have different responses to late irrigation.

In the Plainview area, tests show August 20 as the most optimum cut-off date. For the Lubbock area, no adverse effects have been shown when the water cut-off date is as late as August 28.

Griffin points out late irrigation in combination with excessive nitrogen tends to aggravate the excessive growth problem. This is all the more reason for strict attention to a cut-off date for your farming area. Irrigating late in the season will also contribute to increased boll set. These bolls, in normal years, haven't matured by frost (or harvest) and thus cause a lowering cotton quality.

With the pricing program for cotton partially based on micronaire, plus the critical need for increasing the areas overall staple length, this means producers should be more conscious of water cut-off dates than ever before.

Land Bank Will Pay Dividend

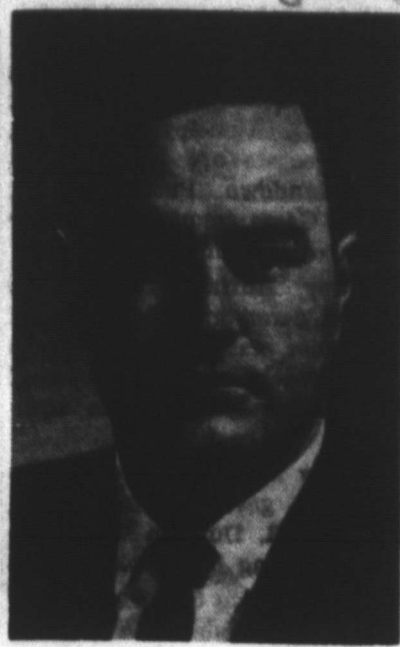

Dividend payments totaling approximately $12,000.00 will be paid to members of the Federal Land Bank Association of Tahoka, Manager Ross Smith announced today. Smith said the dividend checks would be mailed immediately to the Association's 461 farmer-rancher owned associations in Texas served by the Federal Land Bank of Houston.

The local association makes Land Bank loans in Lynn, Garza and Borden counties. The directors are Fred McGinty of Tahoka, Pres., Avery Moore Jr. of Post, Vice Pres., and Vernon Willhoit of Tahoka, J. D. McCampbell of Post, and L. A. Forsythe of Tahoka.

CARD OF THANKS

Please accept our sincere thanks for the many thoughtful and kind expressions of congratulations on the occasion of our 60th wedding anniversary. You, our friends, helped make the day a wonderful one. May God richly bless each of you.—Mr. and Mrs. J. O. King. 1tp

Co-op Meeting Is Next Wednesday

Twelve hundred or more farmers and their families are expected to attend the big August 19 joint annual meeting of the three regional cooperatives with headquarters in Lubbock. Included will be members of Plains Cooperative Oil Mill, Farmers Cooperative Compress and Plains Cotton Cooperative Association.

The meeting will be held in the air conditioned Municipal Auditorium on the Texas Tech campus. It will be called to order at 10:00 a. m. by Howard Alford, prominent Lubbock County farmer and president of the Compress and Marketing Association.

Headlining the fast moving program will be Horace Godfrey, Administrator of all price support and acreage allotment programs of the Department of Agriculture and Executive Vice President of Commodity Credit Corporation.

Lieutenant Governor Preston Smith will welcome the group to Lubbock and Wilmer Smith, president of the Mill, will respond. Ethel Mabry and Larry Karrh, Hale County 4-H Club members, will present their illustrated cooperative demonstration which was judged tops in Texas.

A barbecue lunch will be served at noon for members and guests. In the afternoon, each of the three cooperatives will hold its business session, reviewing financial statements, hearing reports of its officers and electing directors for the new year.

Some 20,000 cotton farmers grouped around more than 100 cooperative gins own and use the Mill, Compress and Marketing Association. Through their chosen directors they control these businesses, each of which has maintained a healthy growth. Plains Cooperative Oil Mill is completing its 28th year. The Farmers Cooperative Compress is 16 years old and Plains Cotton Cooperative Association has operated for 11 years. The three regional associations are reporting earnings of more than $3,500,000 to their stockholders and patrons as a result of the year's operation. Twenty thousand farm families will share in this increased purchasing power.

First 1964 Milo Is Received Here

First loads of 1964 milo have been received in Tahoka the past week, but those that follow will be slow and far between, since production will be very light.

R. C. Ray of Graessland brought in the first load of dryland milo Wednesday last week to Tatum Bros. Elevators.

Monday of this week, V. F. Jones Seed and Grain weighed in two loads from irrigated fields, both of high quality. Walter Williams of Draw brought the first load, from a field of about 30 acres that should make about 3,000 pounds per acre. The same day W. H. McNeely brought in a load from the Bill McNeely farm at Dixie, harvested from an 80 acre field he thinks will average 3,500 pounds.

elected president; W. H. Moore, of the same county, vice president; and G. Q. Henaley, secretary. Other directors are Bob Alexander of Sundown, Partell, H. R. Dabbs of Garza county, and Roger Blakney of Wilson.

Calloway Huffaker served as master of ceremonies and ran off the business session as quickly as possible, which included reports of officers, attorneys, and the auditor.

Rev. Ray Martin of Wells Baptist Church gave the invocation, and Dr. E. R. Durham welcomed the huge throng to Tahoka.

Vann's Catering Service of Lubbock did a fine job in serving the multitude in short order.

Prior to the program, County Agent Bill Griffin presented Bill Guster of the Boll Weevil Control Program, who explained the set-up and necessity of fighting the weevil's migration to the Plains now.

Mrs. Lois Greathouse, in charge of public relations for Lyntegar, said capital credit refund checks totaling $350,672.23 for the years 1951 and 1952, will be mailed members due them shortly.

The crowd present for the meeting this year broke all records by about 600.

President Harris, in his report printed in the program folder, cites some facts about Lyntegar's progress.

He says more kilowatt-hours of electricity were sold in April and May this year than in the entire year of 1958. A hot-line bucket has been bought, which permits the line crew to change out poles, crossarms, insulators, etc., without interrupting service.

He cites change over to data processing equipment in the headquarters office here, replacing old billing equipment, which improves efficiency. Lyntegar built an addition of 1,000 square feet of office space, plus a basement the same size, for this equipment, and records storage; and a shed was built at the warehouse for protection of heavy equipment.

Lyntegar employs more than 70 workers in Tahoka.

Mr. Roy B. Davis, manager of the Co-op presented the awards. Robble Brown from Howard County was the mistress of ceremonies. Robble placed second in the State 4-H Dress Revue last year.

The South Plains Maid of Cotton, Reah Brishow, was the featured guest. She modeled seven of her all cotton costumes. Mr. Bob Poteet narrated and explained that the purpose of the Maid of Cotton contest was to promote the sale of cotton.

The finish of the cotton fabric used in Miss Brishow's costumes varied from a very soft chiffon to a fiber finished to look like leather. Thirty yards of the soft white chiffon were fashioned into a beautiful floor length formal by Miss Brishow and her mother. The bodice was sheered with a beaded empire waist and had a full flowing skirt. The simulated leather fiber was shown in a high fashion double breasted suit with tapered skirt.

Thirty-six girls participated in Junior and Senior divisions of this event. Lynn County was represented by Janice Renfro in the Junior Division and was awarded a white ribbon.
