Three Lynn Schools Are Ready To Open Aug. 31

Registration will begin Friday, August 28, for the students at Wilson High School.

A schedule has been set up as follows: Seniors, register from 8:00 until 10:00; Juniors, from 10:00 until 12:00; Sophomores, from 1:00 until 2:30; and Freshmen from 2:30 until 4:00. Football boys can register any time during the day. Elementary and Junior High students will register the first day of school.

A faculty meeting will be held Thursday, August 27, at 9:00 a. m. according to Leroy Scott, superintendent.

All high school girls interested in being in the Pep Squad should meet at the high school Monday, August 24 at 9:00 a. m. for the purpose of checking on the uniforms needed with the sponsor, Mrs. Pearl Davidson.

Insurance will again be provided for those wishing to take it out on their school children. For 24 hour coverage, the fee is $12.00 for the school year. For hours at school only, the fee is $6.00. Money may be turned in to the home.

Wilson School Will Integrate

Wilson schools will be integrated this term, the school board decided Tuesday night, and seven Negroes will attend the previously all-white school.

In view of circumstances, the board saw no other alternative, Sept. Leroy Scott told The News. Signing of the Civil Rights bill on July 20 makes the move ultimately mandatory, coupled with the threat of discontinued Federal aid on lunchroom and vocational programs.

Principal immediate reason for the action now, however, is the fact that States, which has been taking Wilson Negro students, is refusing to take those students this year and will not run a bus for them into the Wilson district.

Bill Rowland Death Victim

W. W. (Bill) Rowland, 73, New Lynn ginnee, whose home was at 3120 30th street in Lubbock, was found dead Wednesday in his car west of Roscoe along Interstate Highway 20. A Roscoe justice of the peace ruled the death from natural causes.

Funeral services have been set for 2:00 p. m. today in First Methodist Church of Lorraine with the pastor, Rev. Gene Greer, officiating, and burial will follow in Lorraine Cemetery.

Born in Tanglewood, he lived at Lorraine many years prior to living at New Lynn and later at Lubbock. He is survived by his wife; two daughters, Mrs. C. W. Spikes of Kermit and Mrs. E. V. Pratt of Cloverdale, Calif.; three brothers, C. Rowland of Roswell, Carlos of Kansas City, and J. J. of Tahoka; two sisters, Mrs. E. B. Ellis of Fort Worth and Mrs. Wm. Erickson of Skiatook, Okla.

Among the new teachers this year are Mrs. Mary Williams, first grade, and Mrs. Lillian McCord, school nurse, both of Tahoka.

Mrs. Blevins, 77, Rites Thursday

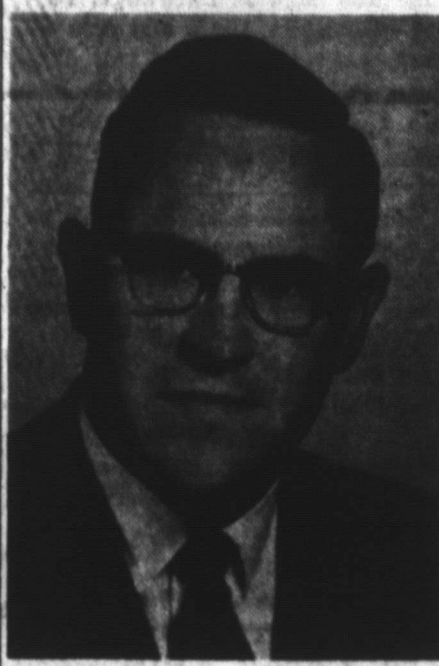

Mrs. Owen (Maud L.) Blevins, 77, formerly of New Home and Wilson, died Wednesday at 12:35 a. m. in University Convalescent Home in Lubbock, where she had been several months. She had been in ill health for about ten years.

Funeral services were held Thursday at 2:00 p. m. in First Baptist Church of Wilson with Rev. John H. Johns of Lubbock and the pastor, Rev. H. F. Scott, officiating. Burial followed in Green Memorial Cemetery at Wilson under direction of White Funeral Home.

They moved to Wilson in 1934, and to New Home in 1945. On retiring, the couple moved to Lubbock three and a half years ago, and Mrs. Blevins passed away from a heart attack there on January 6, 1963.

Kaye Dean's Fiance Critically Injured

Roy Perryman, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Perryman of Afton, and fiancee of Miss Kay Dean of New Home, was critically injured Monday morning when he was working cattle on their farm near Afton.

His horse stumbled over a small calf, throwing Perryman head first into the rocks, and then the horse falling partially on him. He was rushed to Crosbyton Hospital, then immediately transferred to Methodist in Lubbock. He is reported in critical condition, suffering head injuries, and is not expected to live.

Perryman and Miss Dean had planned to wed Sept. 5 in New Home Baptist Church. All arrangements have been cancelled.

Tahoka Team Prospects Better

Tahoka Bulldog football workouts started Monday morning with light scrimmage the very first session, and the boys have been really "knocking heads" since at both early morning and late evening sessions.

Coach Gilbert Hough refused to let a broken leg hamper him too much, and is with the boys each session, along with his assistants Dave Easterday, C. L. Rogers and Don Gresham.

Hough is highly pleased with the condition in which the boys were when they reported for work and freely predicts this squad could give a lot of teams trouble this fall.

First game is scheduled with Lorenzo there on Friday night, Sept. 4, the Friday before school opens here, and the first home game will be with Crosbyton on Sept. 11.

Forty boys are working out this week and most of them are fairly rugged.

Tahoka will scrimmage Ralls here next Thursday night at about 7:30 o'clock.

Short Sells Auto Supply Business

E. L. Short this week announces the recent sale of Tahoka Auto Supply to Claud Hendricks and Claud Blakeley, both of Lubbock. Sale date was effective on August 1.

Wade Holland will remain with the firm.

Mr. Short, on behalf of himself and wife, Dink, in an advertisement elsewhere in this issue thanks customers and friends for past associations, and commends the new owners as men who will continue to render the highest type service.

Short has farming and other business interests to which he will now be able to devote more time.

Opening Of Tahoka Schools Is Delayed Until Sept. 8th

Cotton Growers Elect Directors

Farmers and businessmen elected two directors to Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Tuesday night in a meeting at Lyntegar conference room.

Winston C. Wharton was re-elected the businessman director, and Larry Hagood was elected the farmer director. Bertice Askew was elected county chairman.

Ed Dean of Plains Cotton Growers was present and discussed the bollweevil control program and gave a run-down on PCG research and promotion in the interest of Plains cotton.

Farmers of the area, he said, will be assessed 50 cents per bale at the compress, unless otherwise directed. Funds raised in this manner will be matched by the Federal government. However, the producer has another choice; he could spend the 50 cents now or it could cost him $50.00 later. Cost to farmers on an individual basis would probably be about $30.00 per acre.

The program is designed to halt the migration of boll weevils to the Plains. The battle plan calls for killing the weevils in the fall, before they hibernate, while in the diapause stage. Spraying of affected areas along the Caprock or elsewhere will be under direction of Federal and State Plant Pest Control.

Jno. B. Ray, 80, Dies Monday

John B. Ray, 80, prominent retired Lynn county farmer who had lived here 48 years, died Monday at 1:40 a. m. in LaVoy's Convalescent Home here, where he had been for about 10 days.

Funeral services were held at Tahoka Church of Christ Wednesday at 2:00 p. m. with Ministers Ralph Beistle of Tahoka, Ernest McCoy of Post and O. J. Stanley of Grassland officiating. Burial followed in Tahoka Cemetery under direction of White Funeral Home.

Mr. Ray was born Dec. 7, 1883, at Nolanville, Bell county. In 1902, he moved to Wise county, where he met Miss Ida Dennis Foster, to whom he was married on August 16, 1903. After farming there a year, they moved to Bell county and farmed until moving to Vernon, Wilbarger county in 1910.

In 1916, Mr. Ray bought a quarter section home place north of Central, in the old Magnolia school district, and arrived there Dec. 24, 1916, followed by his wife.

Scattered Showers Fall Over County

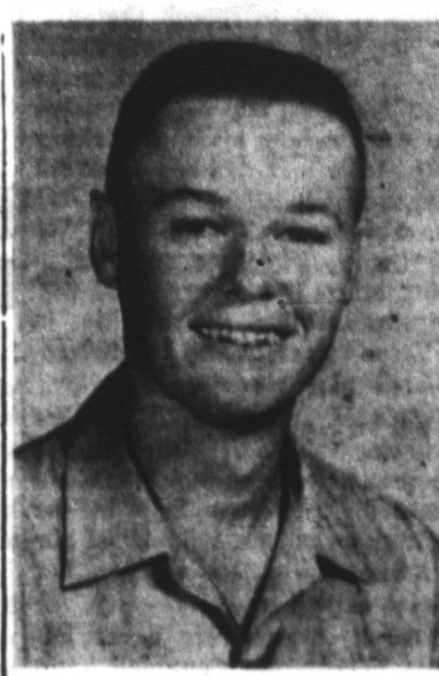

Light scattered showers have fallen over portions of the county the past week, Tahoka receiving .07 inch on Sunday and .10 on Tuesday.

Slightly cooler and longer nights, high humidity, and morning dews have been of some benefit in helping some droughty cotton to hold on, farmers declare. Most irrigation farmers are still pouring on the water as fast as possible but expect to shut off their wells soon. The News is informed.

RONNIE DULIN

Ronnie Dulin Is Top Farmer

Ronald Leo (Ronnie) Dulin, 24, has been selected as the "outstanding young farmer of the year" by New Home Young Farmer Chapter, and will be entered for the area honor at the Area II Young Farmers convention in Midland on Sept. 5.

New Home Chapter will also compete in the New Chapter and Publicity contests, according to Leonard Wilson, vocational agriculture teacher at New Home and advisor to the Young Farmer Chapter.

Ronnie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Dulin of Tahoka, and is married to the former Miss Virginia Smith of New Home. They have two little girls. Part of his farm operations are in partnership with his father-in-law, Jim Bob Smith, route 6, Lubbock.

Dulin rents 715 acres of land, has 230 acres in irrigated skip-row cotton, 300 acres in grain sorghum, 20 acres of sudan, and 50 acres of rye.

Improved crop practices used by Dulin include use of commercial fertilizer.

THS Band Will Start Practice

Tahoka High School band will have its first pre-school marching rehearsal Monday at 5:00 p. m. according to Director Vic Kyler. Students are asked to meet on the practice field south of the new high school building.

All band students should report, including high school band students, eighth grade students and those coming up from the sixth and seventh grade band, and any students who were not in a band last year but who are interested in joining the Bulldog Band.

There will be no conflict between band and eighth grade girls athletics, as was previously thought by some students. If any student is interested in being in the band but has not been in it before, these rehearsals will help a great deal, Mr. Kyler says.

All students are to attend as many of these rehearsals as possible since this will be the only preparation the band will have before the first football game on Sept. 4.

With a beautiful new band hall almost complete, along with new band uniforms, plus an increase in the band's size over last year, Mr. Kyler is very enthusiastic about the coming year, which should be the best year in the history of the Bulldog Band.

Mr. Kyler says he and the Bulldog Band wish the Bulldog football team the best of luck this year.

Opening of Tahoka Schools for the 1964-'65 session will be delayed until Tuesday, Sept. 8, to allow more time to get the new buildings in shape, the board decided in a meeting Tuesday night.

However, all high school students will register as scheduled on next Thursday and Friday, Aug. 27 and 28, in the new high school building.

Seniors will register Thursday morning beginning at 8:00 o'clock, and juniors will begin registration Thursday at 1:00 p. m.

Sophomores will register Friday at 8:00 a. m., and Freshmen at 1:00 p. m.

All other school students, all grades, will enroll the first day of school on Sept. 8, the day after Labor Day.

Tuesday night, the board approved the classroom portion of North Elementary and the cafeteria addition, with certain reservations, and work has begun moving furniture into these rooms and preparing them for school opening. Remodeling the old gymnasium in North Elementary will be started after the move is complete.

By Sept. 8, the new high school building and the rebuilt old high school, being converted into a junior high, will be more nearly complete and most of the buildings except for the auditorium can be put to use. In fact, they are almost ready now, but there is just not enough time left to install furniture and equipment.

Supt. Harold Reynolds said the delay in opening school will not have much effect on the year's schedule. Christmas holidays will be from Wednesday, Dec. 23, until Jan. 5.

Joe Van Dyke Is Buried Thursday

Joe Van Dyke, 70, a resident of Lynn county nearly 50 years, died of a heart attack Tuesday morning at 9:30 in Tahoka Hospital.

He became ill that morning at his home at 2126 North Fifth and at 8:20 a. m. called his wife, Bess, who was at LaVoy's Nursing Home, telling her his chest "feels like it is on fire." He was rushed to Tahoka Hospital, where he seemed to be responding to treatment when stricken with the fatal seizure.

Funeral services were held Thursday at 10:00 a. m. in First Baptist Church with the pastor, Rev. T. James Efrid, officiating. Burial followed in Tahoka Cemetery under direction of White Funeral Home.

Jodie Lee Van Dyke was born on February 8, 1894, in Bell county. He came to Lynn county in 1915, and farmed for 16 years in the Midway community south-east of Tahoka. He had lived in town a number of years and was engaged in the custom combining business.

Van Dyke was married in Tahoka on April 22, 1917, to Miss Virginia Bess Cowan, member of a pioneer family here.

He is survived by his wife; two sons, George James Van Dyke of San Antonio and Danny Lee Van Dyke of Duncan, Okla.; two sisters, two grandchildren, and one great grandchild.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Hill, critically injured in the wreck near Slaton August 4 which took the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Short, are improving in Methodist Hospital. Mrs. Hill is showing continued improvement, and Mr. Hill is slightly improved but still "has quite a way to go, yet," according to their son, Kelley Hill.

John Tyler, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Graham Tyler had his tonsils removed Friday in Tahoka Hospital. He was dismissed Saturday.

Special School's Program Of Training Is Unusual

Lynn County Special School will open for its eighth year on Monday, August 31, the same date that other schools in the county open, states Mrs. Margaret Renfro, teacher.

"Parents should bring their children to school on the first day so that we will know how to plan our curriculum and get the special supplies for them," Mrs. Renfro says.

"We understand that some people think that there is a costly fee attached to the Special School. There is no fee for attendance or for supplies. It is a free public school, the same as regular elementary and high schools. Any child in Lynn county who needs special help, even if only temporarily, is entitled to attend and will be welcome," she explains.

Mrs. Renfro is highly qualified as a teacher of handicapped children and holds professional life and State of Texas certificates in the following fields: Art, all grades, high school and elementary; deficient vision; orthopedic handicap; deaf and severely hard of hearing; mentally retarded; elementary and high school; and private piano music.

In the Special School, she says, "Besides the academic work, we teach these precious children that they are loved, needed, wanted, and that they are contributing. We help them to reach their highest potential academically, spiritually, mentally, communicatively, physically, socially, and in etiquette, and in every other way. We give thanks for our food and our many other blessings and allegiance to the flag every day. We stress speech therapy, music, arts and art crafts.

"We have three rooms. First is the reception room, also used as our music room. Besides the usual furniture, there is a refrigerator, telephone, tape recorder, tape reader, record player and television. We sing and march to music, and use music and the tape recorder in speech therapy.

"The second room is the class and home room. Here every child has his or her own private seat and desk. Here, too, we have a sand box, growing plants, art supplies and other needed supplies, and the room is air-conditioned. Sometimes, we have live fish, birds, an ant garden, and other small pets and plants that the children bring to school. We study and talk about them all. This gives each child confidence and is an aid to speech therapy.

"The third room is our work shop. Here the children make many beautiful and useful articles. We have a bow making machine. With it we make ribbon bows for Christmas and other occasions. We also have several hand tools. We use these and other supplies in doing art crafts. Every child participates in all of the activities in all three rooms and in the fenced-in back play yard.

"Capable and talented teachers from the Tahoka High School and the mothers of the Special School Mothers Club often help in the work shop and on field trips, picnics, birthday parties, and on other special occasions.

"These children are never left alone. They are guarded and guided every minute of the day."

Mrs. Renfro has been spending the summer in Santa Fe, N. M., with a sister who has been with the First National Bank in that city for 20 years.

Jackie Burnett Is Winner At Lubbock

For the past two weeks the West Texas Museum, located on the Texas Tech campus, has been sponsoring a Speech Clinic. There were nineteen students enrolled ranging from the seventh to the twelfth grades.

During the clinic such phases of speaking as eye contact, knowing your audience, speaking moods and methods, and correct pronunciation were discussed. Each pupil gave four speeches during the clinic on topics ranging from submarines to the Senate. On the final two days a three to five minute speech was given by each student and no notes were allowed.

After these speeches were completed, the class voted on the top speakers. Winning first place speaker was Miss Jackie Burnett of Tahoka, second place speaker was Miss Sharon Salit of Lubbock, and third place went to Paul Clover also of Lubbock. Tom Whiteside was elected as the best listener of the class, and Sharon Campbell was elected as the most improved, both of Lubbock. PRINTER'S INK-LINGS

There's no such thing as a free lunch. One equal is an obnoxious Communist theory—lets have never made work. Pretty soon, work to the top, some privileges, some have others.

American democracy greatest system yet. Every man has opportunity to do so himself, and his life depends largely on his efforts. It's true that environment, intelligence and other factors are the opportunity is the same.

In America, a teen son from the breaks county, Texas, can be president of the United States. Though the means vary, it's in this case. Or, it could have become a cedar posts or a chair.

GAS does more

There's no such thing as equality—it's all an ideal. Making every one equal is an objective of the Communist theory—but the Soviets have never made the theory work. Pretty soon, some people work to the top, some get special privileges, some have more than others.

American democracy is the greatest system yet devised by man. Every man has the same opportunity to do something for himself, and his life's success depends largely on him and his efforts. It's true that natural ability, environment, intelligence, luck, and other factors are involved, but the opportunity is there just the same.

In America, a tenant farmer's son from the breaks of Blanco county, Texas, can become president of the United States, although the means was a bit dubious in this case. Or, the same man could have become a cutter of cedar posts or a charcoal burner.

We know people all around us here in Lynn county who have achieved success and position, who have pulled themselves up by the bootstraps. But, still we are not all equal. We are not always treated equal under the law—even though we're supposed to be so treated under our system.

Take Joe Louis and Jack Dempsey, for example. Both made tremendous money as prize fighters. Both spent their money freely and failed to pay income taxes. Internal Revenue Service belatedly cracked down on each, could collect little, finally settled for a portion of the taxes due. If an "ordinary Joe" in Lynn county fails to pay, he's threatened with Leavenworth and his future earnings probably will be confiscated until the whole bill is settled.

What we're trying to say is that no matter how great our system, equality can not be legislated, and even if it is, the human factor enters the picture and some people are given preference over others through influence, standing, knowing the right people, foibles of the judicial system, power, financial position, etc.

Dan Davis, general manager of Plains Cotton Cooperative Association, is a fine young man but leans to the liberal side and has come up with a "cock-eyed" plan, in keeping with Secretary Freeman's desire to control all agriculture, which would centralize ginning under the free enterprise system and would probably work to Dan's advantage in promoting his marketing association.

In brief, Dan proposes to do away with cotton gins scattered over the area. He would have receiving stations in the various communities over Lynn county, where farmers would dump seed cotton as soon as harvested. The seed cotton would be cleaned, dried, and baled, a sample taken and delivered to a central laboratory, analyzed, valued, and a check sent the farmer. Baled seed cotton would be shipped to a central warehouse (probably Lubbock). A central gin, operating the year around, would then gin the cotton at its leisure using a year-around force.

Dan's Co-op proposes to furnish

WASHINGTON AND 'SMALL BUSINESS'

There are some who say Chief Justice Earl Warren should be impeached. Others say he should be hanged. But it is difficult to find a sound legal base for either one of these proposals; neither do such suggestions reflect a good American image.

Several states have already approved a move to amend the Constitution to set up a new type of supreme court.

Many states, when setting a limit on the number of justices of the U. S. Supreme Court, have not done so in order to protect the rights of minorities.

Viewed objectively, and realistically, there is only one conclusion to be reached in reviewing the recent Supreme Court decision on the election of state legislators. The Warren Court has sown the seeds of anarchy in the United States.

The nation was never set up as a simple pure democracy, whereby the will of 51% of the people could demand and enforce anything. Rather, to protect the rights of minorities and of property, a republican form of government was established. The United States Senate was set up to represent property rights, but without the power of taxation. The House of Representatives set up to represent all people, was given the power to initiate tax and spending measures.

When the Constitution was drafted, this concept did not come easily. The Jeffersonian group argued for a simple pure democracy. Alexander Hamilton opposed this idea, once declaring heatedly, "The people, sir, are a great beast."

Hamilton's feelings were borne out but a few years later during the French Revolution.

It is also largely forgotten that Hitler proceeded on a perfectly legal basis under the Weimar Constitution which provided no checks or balances. As a forceful demagogue he acted with majority of Germans voting for him.

But now the U. S. Supreme Court, in its decision, has more in the field of writing a new constitution, rather than interpreting it, has declared this system illegal. And this is done at a time when law is being disregarded by mob demonstrations, with even some people defending the destruction of property and the maiming of people as expressing the will of the majority.

Thus, the U. S. Supreme Court now emerges as the great enemy of modern man. And if the court is to remain consistent in its pattern of promoting anarchy in these United States, it should now declare the United States Senate illegal.

the warehouse system, magnetic tape computing system, fiber testing laboratory, marketing system, gin plant, and the country sites and land, office and scales for receiving seed cotton. He proposes that the Department of Agriculture furnish equipment for these country receiving stations; unloading, cleaning, drying, sampling, and baling equipment; miniature gins for taking seed cotton samples, equipment for determining percentage lint and seed; equipment for blending and feeding the seed cotton into the central gin; and scientists for research.

Secretary Freeman and the Department of Agriculture are said to look with favor on the plan. From past experience, we all know the Department looks with favor on nearly any plan that would further centralize control in Washington. Admittedly, there are advantages to the plan—on paper. There also may be advantages to a plan which would consolidate all small farms in Lynn county into one big farm, under one control, for more efficiency—like Russia is trying to do. Maybe you think it can't happen, but it could!

If you would like to know more about the plan, you may read a letter at the local Farm Bureau office explaining the plan in further detail.

Securing the Hanes cotton mill for Lubbock and the South Plains is a feather in the cap for Charles Verner, Tahokan who recently became president of the First National Bank in that city. Charley was largely responsible for putting over the deal. This and the plant being established at Ralls, in which Wilmer Smith has an interest, will help promote our area cotton industry.

Connie Hale says Beecher Sherrod is hunting a job teaching school. Some time back Beecher, Clint Sikes and Clyde Thomas were on a fishing trip, met a couple, and the lady said her hobby was guessing the vocation of strangers. She said she knew Clint and Clyde were farmers but couldn't figure out what Beecher does. Clyde told the lady Beecher was a physics teacher. The lady was a bit skeptical, but accepted the statement.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Birdwell were coming through Roscoe the other day, and Mrs. Birdwell remarked, "This is a real old town, I know, because Frank Hill came from here." Lynn thought this was funny. The Printer doesn't see a thing funny about the remark.

Most of our hard-hit farmers retain their sense of humor. We asked Gene Payne of Wells how his crop was doing. He replied, "It was doing well until it died."

An old mountaineer and his son were sitting in front of the fire smoking their pipes, crossing and uncrossing their legs. After a long silence, the father said: "Son, step outside and see if it's still raining." On looking up the son said, "Why don't we just call in the dog and see if he's wet?"

Russian: "Not quite. The basic idea is to make your neighbor divide everything with you."

A stranger sauntered up the sidewalk before a modest, new ranch house in the city. "Nice house you got here," he observed to the owner. "I bet it cost $30,000."

"Nope," retorted the owner, "it's worth every cent of $33,000. Are you looking for a place to buy?"

"No," replied the stranger, jotting something in a notebook, "I'm just the new tax assessor."

DURWOOD HOWARD AT COLLEGE STATION MEET

Durwood Howard of Tahoka and Jack Condra of Levelland, field office managers of the Lubbock Production Credit Association, will attend a land appraisal conference to be held at Texas A&M University August 24-28.

Sponsored by the Department of Agricultural Economics and Sociology of the College of Agriculture at Texas A&M, the coming session is the second of two week-long conferences held for employees of the 36 Production Credit Associations of Texas.

Representatives of 18 of the home-owned and operated agricultural financing institutions are expected to attend the session beginning August 24. Instructors will include A&M professors, representatives of the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank and Federal Land Bank of Houston, and other tax and land appraisal authorities.

Accurate land evaluation and appraisal practices have become increasingly important in agricultural financing. Lubbock PCA General Manager Alton Strickland pointed out, whether the land is involved in a direct transaction or is being used as collateral in an operating loan.

The Lubbock Production Credit Association provides more than $20,000,000 in agricultural financing to farmers and ranchers in Cochran, Crosby, Gaines, Garza, Hoekley, Lubbock, Lynn, Terry and Yoakum counties.

The first session of the appraisal conference, attended by 18 Texas PCAs, was held August 10-14.

GAIL MAN WANTS TO KNOW ABOUT STORY

Eugene Smoot of Gail writes The News inquiring why the daily press failed to report a recent incident on Monday, Aug. 3, in which six young Negroes, age 18 to 20, attacked, beat up, and robbed two white men of $100 while the two men were sleeping in their car at the lake near Big Lake.

The News can not answer the question, but there could have been any one of several reasons.

The two white men were Bob Graston of Wolfforth and Tommy Schroeder of Ropesville, were en route to Del Rio, and were "beaten unmercifully" and later carried to a Big Lake hospital for treatment.

According to the Ozona Stockman, a copy of which Mr. Smoot sent The News, the six Negroes, from Midland, were arrested in Ozona by Sheriff Billy Mills. The Negroes had in their possession a .22 pistol and billfolds, money and papers belonging to the two white men. One Negro was a member of the University of Nebraska football team.

The type of harness now used for horsedrawn vehicles originated in Europe in the 12th century.

OKLAHOMA ARKANSAS

Prescott-Vacation Headquarters

Situated in Southwest Arkansas, the bustling city of Prescott is the center of many scenic attractions. Eight miles away is ARKLA VILLAGE, an authentic re-creation of a typical frontier town of the mid-1880's, where there's fun for all the family. In another direction you take a ride on the Possum Trot Line of the READER RAILROAD driven by an old-fashioned steam engine. Go another way to a real DIAMOND MINE where, for a small fee, you can dig for your own diamonds (one woman found a $15,000 stone). Then there's OLD WASHINGTON, a famous roadside inn, which around 1830 was the last outpost before reaching the wilderness of the West. To these attractions add NARROWS and WHITE OAK lakes, and you have a wonderful vacation spot — another of the many places to go and things to see in General Telephone Country.

Woman Killed In Car Wreck

Mrs. Euna Mae Hillyer, 72, mother of Mrs. Glenn Ward of Wilson, was killed Monday at 4:15 p. m. when the car in which she was riding ran into the rear of a dump truck on FM Road 400 between Slaton and Wilson.

She was riding with her son, Wallace Mac Hillyer, 40, a school teacher at Grant, N. M., and the two were en route to the Ward home east of Wilson to see her daughter, Mrs. Glenn (Melba) Ward, seriously ill. Mr. Hillyer was injured and was reported in fair condition at Mercy Hospital in Slaton.

The Hillyer car, traveling south, rammed the rear of a Highway Department dump truck, also headed south, driven by Clarence Proctor of Tahoka, a Department employee. Proctor said both vehicles were moving when the accident occurred.

Mrs. Hillyer had lived on the Plains since the early 1900's, and had lived at Lubbock, Plainview, Hale Center and Slaton before moving to Grants in 1958. She was a charter member of Forrest Heights Methodist Church in Lubbock.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2:00 p. m. in Forrest Heights Methodist Church in Lubbock with Rev. Billy Wilkinson, formerly of Wilson and now pastor of Oakwood Methodist Church, officiating. Interment was in Resthaven Mausoleum at Lubbock.

In addition to the son and daughter, she is survived by another daughter, Mrs. E. G. Robertson of Belen, N. M.; three brothers, three sisters, seven grandchildren, and 10 great grandchildren.

Jack Reynolds Suffers Stroke

Jack Reynolds of Comanche and formerly of Tahoka, suffered a stroke on August 9. He was in very critical condition. Two days later surgery was performed and several blood clots were removed. Mr. and Mrs. Junior Marret of Tahoka, his daughter and husband, have been there this week. Mr. Marret returned home Sunday and reported Mr. Reynolds improving in room 413, St. Joseph Hospital, Fort Worth.

Dr. R. Huddleston Hunts Big Game

(Mrs. O. H. Hoover)
 Dr. Ronald Huddleston, living in Mbeya Tanganyika, East Africa, recently went elephant hunting.

It took him three or four shots to bring down the two to three-ton best, as he had to shoot behind it's foreleg. The elephant's brain is so small, it is hard to kill one with a shot in the head.

The Huddlestons were told the trunk was good to eat, but they declined, and left the carcass there for wild animals. The lovely ivory tusks, which they saved, weighed 164 pounds.

The families from the mission go up on the plains to kill their meat.

On a recent hunt, they killed a Cape Buffalo weighing 2,000 pounds and had a horn spread of 43 inches. Also killed in the hunt was a Topi, a Zebra, (which is supposed to be very good meat), an Impala, and 2 Elands (like antelopes) weighing 1500 pounds each. So, you can see, the people there have quite a variety of meats.

We hope to have more stories about Dr. Huddleston later on.

Big Crowd At Co-op Meeting

Members of Farmers Cooperative Association of Tahoka, one of the oldest and most successful farmer-owned organizations in the area, attended the 35th annual meeting Tuesday in the county exhibition building.

About 1,200 checks were issued members, $115,962.04 in gin margins and $20,672.37 in station and butane funds. The gin retired $42,000 in stock.

Manager Curtis W. Stevens reports 13,855 bales of cotton were ginned this past year.

Robert Warren and Othell Meeks were elected new directors to succeed J. O. Allen and Lois Smelser. Other directors are Cleve Littlepage, L. D. Howell, Daniel Thomas, T. D. Dunlap, and Charley Lichey.

C. E. Boies of the Marketing Association made a short talk, and Harold Douglas presented the auditor's report.

President Cleve Littlepage presided at the meeting and Vice President L. D. Howell conducted the election. Door prizes valued at more than $100 were given away throughout the meeting.

A barbecue dinner, one of the best ever served at the annual meeting was participated in by the largest crowd ever to attend the Co-op's annual meeting.

Irrigation Water Salt Analysis

It's poor business to guess at the quality of your irrigation water. Rather than be in doubt as to possible harmful effects of the water on future soil productivity, County Agent Bill Griffin suggests you have the water evaluated by a chemical analysis. The ideal time to collect samples is during the highest period of water use.

This need is particularly acute with new wells and in instances where wells are deeper than average for the area. Griffin says it is known that common salt in high concentrations may exist below the red bed formation. If wells extend into this strata, there is a greater possibility of dangerous salt levels in the water.

Soils vary widely in their ability to tolerate salt without being harmed—and some crops are more tolerant than others. Clays, where the water intake rate is already slow, can be made even less porous by a water high in sodium. Obtaining stands can become a problem on the lighter soils due to sodium accumulation that "seals" or crusts the surface.

Water samples may be submitted to the Soil Testing Laboratory at Texas A&M University, College Station, Texas. Samples must be accompanied by the complete Information Sheet D-817, available through the office of County Agent Griffin. The present fee is $5.00 per sample.

10 Rural Wrecks In Lynn County

The Highway Patrol investigated ten rural traffic accidents in Lynn County during the month of July, according to Sergeant A. E. Roberts, Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These wrecks accounted for five persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $4,910.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for Lynn County from January through July shows a total of 38 crashes resulting in four persons killed, 21 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $16,075.00.

Yes, it is hard to believe here in the middle of August that school days are almost here again. Do not be surprised if in a few days when you round that curve or top that rise of meeting a big yellow school bus. The Sergeant reminds all motorists of the state law regulating traffic in regard to school buses. "The driver of a vehicle upon a highway outside the limits of any incorporated city or town upon meeting or overtaking from either direction any school bus which is stopped on the highway for the purpose of receiving or discharging any school children shall stop the vehicle immediately before passing the school bus, but may proceed past such bus at a speed which is prudent, not exceeding 10 miles per hour, with due caution for the safety of such children."

Commenting on the upcoming Labor Day week-end facing Texas motorists, the veteran patrol supervisor said, "Many Texas families will be taking advantage of this last long summer week end to take trips prior to the opening of school. Many of these families will be trying to cover too many miles. As a result, the possibilities of traffic crashes will be increased."

Because this holiday is mostly a family affair, more persons will be occupying cars. Thus, any traffic accident might result in several casualties. This has been evidenced several times on Texas Highways in recent weeks. During the 72 hour Labor Day week end last year, 31 crashes claimed the lives of 44 persons.

James Gill, Native of Tahoka, Has Become World-Famous As Artist

Local people may be surprised to learn that a native of Tahoka, James Francis Gill, 28, now of Los Angeles, has become recognized as one of the world's famed contemporary artists.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gill, 402 S. Pierce, San Angelo, who visited here Monday and Tuesday with Francis' brother, Santa Fe Agent Tom Gill, while en route to Albuquerque, N. M., to visit the two men's aged mother.

Francis graduated from high school here in 1933 and the same year was married to Elizabeth Crie, granddaughter of the former publishers of The News, the late Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Crie. The couple lived here until 1941. Francis working for Boullion's, and their three sons were born here. Francis went to work with the Santa Fe in Slaton and has been with the railroad ever since.

Elizabeth brought The News magazine and newspaper clippings which tell of James' rapid rise in the art world to the pinnacle. And, James Gill is evidently proud of his Tahoka birth and heritage because brief biographies, for example, one in the January, 1964, issue of Cosmopolitan Magazine, cite his place of birth as Tahoka, Texas.

His works appear in most major collections such as the Museum of Modern Art in New York, and Landau Gallery of Los Angeles, and have been displayed in one-man shows in New York, Los Angeles, Rome, and other American and European cities.

James was married last September in Malibu, Calif., to Antoinette Bower, English stage and screen actress, who has appeared in a number of movies and also television shows such as "Alfred Hitchcock Presents," "Perry Mason," "Have Gun Will Travel," and "Twilight Zone." He is a graduate of San Angelo Central High and San Angelo College and was a draftsman at Odessa before breaking into the big time as an artist.

The Gills' second son, Don Crie Gill, 28, is in the real estate business in San Angelo, and he and his wife have two sons and a daughter.

Their third son, Stan Gill, 27, is with the engineering and sales department of Graphic, Inc., lives in Poteau, Okla., and has one son.

Their daughter, Ricci, 22, born at Slaton, was married a few months ago to Fayette Yates of the Marfa and Alpine ranching and oil family.

James and wife hoped to meet his parents in Albuquerque this week for some fishing in the Northern New Mexico mountains.

Winston Davies On Vacation Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Winston Davies of New Home, and Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Davies and Randy of Lubbock, returned Saturday night after a tour which took them through 11 states. One of the interesting places visited was the Black Hills of South Dakota where they saw the busts of presidents, Jefferson, Theodore Roosevelt, Washington and Lincoln, the largest carvings ever made by man.

On Sunday evening they saw the Passion Play, featuring Jose Meier, world famous Christies player, and a cast of 250 players, as they reconstructed the dramatic events of the last seven days of the life of Christ. In Aberdeen South Dakota, they drove by the new home being built for the Fisher family, whose quintuplets are the trade mark of Aberdeen.

In Spring, Mo., they saw the home of former president Harry S. Truman, and the Truman Library. Many other interesting and educational places were visited, and each seemed to have its own dry, hot weather.

John Huffaker And Ralph Brock Sell of State Youth Conference

John Huffaker and Ralph Brock, Lubbock High School juniors who were sent by the Rotary Club to the Attorney General's Youth Conference in Austin a few weeks ago, reported on the objectives of the youth program at the club last Thursday noon.

Huffaker said this was the second conference since Attorney General Waggoner Carr initiated a meeting a year ago. Following that year's conference on youth problems, youth had organized 50 units in Texas to study and deal with these problems.

This year, every county in Texas is represented by 1,800 youth delegates. The two young men are giving support in setting up a local conference to combat juvenile delinquency, school drop-outs, law enforcement, and to promote better training, vocational guidance, recreation, etc.

Huffaker said one million students will leave high school this year before graduation. There are a variety of causes for drop-outs, including poor scholastic records, marriage, pregnancy, maladjustment, lack of interest, home environment.

Some drop-outs may be prevented by a program calling attention to the importance of the education person securing all the education he can through assembly and civic club programs, use radio, television and newspapers, career conferences, etc. Students need to be made more aware of the training required to get a job.

Our school programs, he says, can give more recognition to the individual in many fields, furnish counseling, and help the student find more interest in his school work.

In reporting on other phases of the program, Ralph Brock told of the Law Enforcement seminar at Austin. There were 400,000 auto thefts last year, 17,000 in Texas, up 20 percent. Our crime rate has gone up 87 percent in 10 years. Teen-age drinking is on the increase. And, he declared nearly half of the students in the third grade will not graduate from high school.

He also told of the Vocational Education seminar, citing the need for more and better vocational training and direction, in addition to Vocational Agriculture and Home Economics, or better preparation of more students for a larger variety of jobs. He told of the distributive education program, wherein a student attends school a half a day and works in some line of business the other half as a part of his training.

Brock said local students plan a local conference, and asked the support and encouragement of Rotarians and the community in promoting all youth activities.

The program was arranged by Tom Gill, who introduced the young speakers.

Ross Smith, vice president, presided at the meeting in the absence of President Wilton Payne, who was called out of town.

O'Donnell Man In Peace Corps

Phil Hardberger, an O'Donnell High graduate and son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hardberger, has been appointed deputy director of the Peace Corps' public information office in Washington.

He will direct the dissemination of Peace Corps news to newspapers and magazines and will serve as liaison with writers and publishers.

After graduation at O'Donnell, Hardberger graduated from Baylor University and the School of Journalism at Columbia University. The past three years, he has attended Georgetown Law School in Washington, D. C., and will receive the LL.B. degree next May.

A former reporter on the Waco News-Tribune, he has done freelance writing, served as associate editor of a book publishing firm in New York City, and has been with the Peace Corps two years as chief of the information office's magazine and book section and has traveled widely over the world.

"Hardberger brings a vast amount of experience to this job," says the Peace Corps head, Sargent Shriver. "He has been with the Peace Corps since its early days and has worked in several different capacities. His knowledge of the Corps operation plus his background in the publication field make him particularly well suited for the job."

Pete Hegi's Brother Here, Honored For 40 Years As Police

Capt. Walter E. Hegi, head of the Glendale, Calif., Police Department's detective bureau, and wife arrived Tuesday for a visit here with his brother, "Pete" Hegi, executive vice president of the First National Bank, and family and with other relatives at Petersburg.

Brother "Pete" furnished The News a copy of "Scene", a California magazine section dated August 9, with a two-page spread of pictures and story honoring Capt. Hegi for 40 years on the police force at Glendale, which force he joined on July 11, 1924.

The story tells how he advanced from patrolman, operating on foot, bicycle, motorcycle, patrol car, and up the ladder to head of the detective bureau. One of his achievements has included setting up the juvenile bureau.

Also told are some of his harrowing experiences as an officer, his work in civic and church affairs of the city.

The news feature is headed, "The Tall Texan of the Glendale Police," and there are pictures of W. E. at various stages of his career and also of his family. The Hegis have a son, two daughters, and eight grandchildren.

The story says Hegi's success has been due to the Golden Rule and "just plain old fashioned horse sense I learned from my Dad down on a Texas farm."

GRASSLAND NEWS

(Mrs. O. H. Hoover)

I made a statement last week I will have to retract. I said it had forgotten how to rain. This Monday morning we had a half inch, and it was nice, of course. We need more, but since it has begun we may get all we need. I have my fingers crossed.

The children of Mrs. G. H. (Lawson) Spears are all coming to her home in Grassland the last of this week for a reunion, that is all except Ben Hur and Smith. Here now are Mr. and Mrs. Gene Lawson and daughter, Virginia, of Portsmouth, Va., Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ward and daughter, Alice, of Lufkin, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Melton of Crane, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Watson of this community, Mr. and Mrs. Loy Lawson will be here the last of the week. Loy has his master's degree and is working on his Ph. D. at A&M University—another home boy who has made good.

We extend our sympathy to the family of John Ray, who passed away Sunday night in LaVoy Nursing Home in Tahoka. He had been ill for some time.

Mrs. Frank Williams has been ill for some time and is in Methodist Hospital in Lubbock. We are glad to report she is improving.

Luncheon guests in the G. C. Watson home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Spears, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Lawson and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ward and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Watson visited their former pastor, Rev. L. R. Poind, in the hospital at Midland. He pastored the Redwine Church at one time.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Porterfield, Jim and Janet and two children, Don and Amy, spent a few days in Colorado recently attending a reunion of the Porterfield family. They all stayed at the Mountain side Lodge in the YMCA area of Estes Park. Fifty-six relatives attended, coming from eight states, Texas, Arizona, California, Idaho, Wyoming, and Colorado. The oldest one was 83, the youngest three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hoover and two sons of Lubbock, Duane and Gary, spent the day Sunday with his mother, Mrs. O. H. Hoover.

Mr. and Mrs. Floy Cline of Gruver visited a few days in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Smith recently.

Mrs. W. L. Gribble and Mrs. Lucy Cunningham visited the John Warricks in Lubbock last Wednesday. Mr. Warrick is in bed most of the time now with rheumatism, we are sorry to report.

R. L. Bosworth of Alice visited his sisters, Mrs. J. F. Moore and family and Mrs. Mildred Eubank, and some nieces for several days.

Mrs. Rayburn Fitts' mother of Peacock visited here last week.

Mrs. Ritchey's sister, Mrs. Hatie John, visited in the Ritchey, C. O. McCleskey and W. L. Gribble homes this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Greer had a pleasant surprise last Thursday. Without planning, all their children just happened to come to spend the day. What a nice time they had visiting!

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sherrill spent the week in Rising Star visiting his sister.

Mrs. Martha McKay has been real sick but is much better.

Mrs. Mattie Jackson has been in the hospital in Tahoka for several days. She is at home now and improving.

Visiting in the Bob Jones home are two of their granddaughters from California.

Mr. and Mrs. Dodd of Albuquerque, N. M., visited Mrs. A. Z. Sewell last week.

Rev. and Mrs. Ray Forbes' eldest son, Lonnie Ray, is home on leave. He is stationed at Hill Airforce Base in Utah. He will stay about 15 days and is classified A-3C. The Forbes had lunch Sunday with the Jim B. Porterfield family.

Beulah Tew spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Gladys Fox.

Mrs. W. A. Doen has returned from a five week trip to California. She visited her sister, Mrs. Belle Brammer, at South Gate; and brother, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Large, at Carono; her niece, Mrs. Ganell Watkins at Whittier; and nephew, Truett Babb in Hollywood; also other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Short went to Bonarton Sunday to a homecoming. Bert lived there nine years and finished school there. They enjoyed visiting old friends. About 900 ate lunch Sunday, catered except for what the Home Demonstration Club furnished. They visited in Seymour Friday and Saturday with Mrs. Short's late Uncle Charley McCord's family. They had two inches of rain and it was cool and pleasant there.

Williams' Brother Is Heart Victim

Fred Williams, 61, brother of Carl Williams, died suddenly of a heart attack Wednesday of last week at his home in Stephenville. He had visited here a number of times.

Attending funeral services there Thursday were: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Williams and Messrs. and Mmes. Donald Gene, Jerry, Billy and Jimmy Williams and families, all of Tahoka, and Mr. and Mrs. Terry Killman of Lubbock.

Fred Hegi Will Be SMU Cheer Leader

Fred Hegi, who will be a junior student in Southern Methodist University this fall, leaves this week end to attend a week's cheer leader school at the school.

Last year, he was elected one of the SMU cheer leaders to help back the Mustangs this fall.

Following the cheer leaders' school, he will attend the biennial convention of Phi Gamma Delta, national men's fraternity, in French Lick, Indiana, Sept. 2 to 5.

Lem King of Panhandle, who attended the reunion of his parents' family, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. King, at Wilson a week ago Sunday, was accompanied by George and Mary Kay. The last two names were left out of the story last week.

Many Lynn People Are Holding Public Positions

(Special to The News)
New York—How many people are on public payrolls in Lynn County?

How does the number of public employees in the local area compare, in proportion to population, with the number in other communities?

A comprehensive report on the subject has just been released by the Census Bureau, based on data gathered from all sections of the country as part of its 1932 Census of Governments.

It lists the number on the payroll of each local governmental division—county, township, municipality, school district and special district. Federal and state workers are excluded.

In Lynn County, it shows, there is the equivalent of one full-time employee for every 45 residents.

Compared with the rest of the country, this is a small operating force. The average, nationally, is one such employee for every 42 residents.

It is also below the ratio found throughout the West South Central States, one employee per 43 people.

The actual count locally reveals a total of 274 on the various government payrolls, 215 of them on a full-time basis. The remainder, who are part-timers, were translated into their full-time equivalent to permit comparison with other localities.

From the standpoint of salaries and wages, residents of Lynn County have been paying less for the conduct of their local government than have people in most parts of the United States. Whether they got more for their money or less is not taken into account.

Their total payroll, during the month for which the figures were taken, came to $94,000. This cost amounted to $2.82 per capita for every local resident.

Elsewhere across the nation, the cost of meeting local payrolls averaged $10.50 a month per capita.

In the State of Texas it was $9.17 per capita. The report shows that local governments account for somewhat more than one-half of all civilian public employment in the United States. Of the rest, the Federal Government employs 29 percent and the states, 17.5 percent.
