Three Schools Open Monday Tahoka Opens On Sept. 8th

Tahoka High School students are registering Thursday and Friday in the new gymnasium, and plans are to begin classes on Tuesday, Sept. 8. Work on buildings, still incomplete, caused delay of the opening, originally set for August 31.

Harold Reynolds, the new superintendent of the Tahoka system, says the contractors expect to have enough of the work completed on the new high school building and the remodeled old high school that classwork may proceed on an emergency basis.

Furniture and equipment is being installed in rejuvenated North Elementary building this week, which is complete except for the old gymnasium.

All classes are scheduled to meet on Sept. 8, and a full day's schedule will be run off. Buses will be in operation, and the cafeteria will be open at noon.

Students attending school for the first time—first grade students—must bring a birth certificate or baptismal certificate. They must also have evidence of smallpox vaccination.

The first three weeks of school, first grade students will end their day in school at 1:00 p. m.

Tahoka Band has been holding pre-school training all this week, and indications are that there will be about 60 members in the varsity band this year, Director Vic Kyler reports.

Sixteen football boys started working out Monday of last week for the Leopard team under Coach Maurice Warren, and the boys are scrimmaging in pads this Monday.

Other boys are expected to report for training with the opening of school Monday. New Home's first game is at home on Sept. 11 with Amherst the opposition.

Wilson Opens School Term

Wilson High School students are registering today, and all students will report for classes Monday, when all buses will run their regular schedules, according to Supt. Leray Scott.

M. L. Green, formerly elementary principal, succeeds D. H. Koeninger, resigned, as high school principal; and Tom Harkey comes from Olton as elementary principal.

Other new teachers include Frank Raes, band director; Mrs. Kay Brown, home economics; Larry Brown, junior high and assistant coach; and Mrs. Sandra Aston, elementary teacher.

Special School Opening Delayed

Lynn County Special School opening has been delayed a week and will open on Tuesday, Sept. 8, the same as Tahoka schools, and not on this coming Monday as stated in The News last week.

This information has been sent The News by Mrs. Margaret Renfro, teacher of the Special School.

Mrs. Renfro says the story should have said capable and talented potential teachers from Tahoka High School will help with the school. Some girls from Tahoka High come at specified times of an hour to an hour and a half to work with the children, "which is a wonderful morale booster for the children" in the Special School.

Wilson Youth At Leadership School

Freddie Koenig, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Koenig Sr. of Rt. 1, Wilson, is participating in the 30th annual Leadership School of Sigma Alpha Epsilon at the fraternity's national headquarters in Evanston, Ill.

Freddie is a junior at Texas Tech and is majoring in park administration. He is the winner of his chapter's scholarship award and was awarded the best pledge award as a pledge.

The SAE training school, established in 1885, has become so successful that it is held in two one-week sessions in order that more undergraduates may attend. Approximately 500 members journey to Evanston each year to participate, and are housed on the Northwestern University campus.

Jeffrey Don Rodriguez, 4, had his tonsils removed Tuesday in Tahoka Hospital. He was dismissed Wednesday.

Warning Issued To Dove Hunters

With the opening of dove hunting season on Tuesday, Sept. 1, Game Warden M. T. Reinhardt cautions hunters to observe the laws, rights of landowners, safety rules, and there will be no trouble. A new law requires the retention of one fully feathered wing on dressed birds as a ready means of field identification of species.

Hunting season in this zone on mourning doves is Sept. 1 to Oct. 30. Hunting hours are 12 noon to sunset. Daily bag limit is 12 and possession limit is 24.

Shotguns must be plugged permanently to three-shell capacity and may not be larger than 10 gauge. Hunting doves with rifles is prohibited.

These laws pertain to the Northern Zone of Texas, and do not pertain to hunting white-wing doves.

Hunters are also cautioned not to kill quail during dove season.

Rain Wednesday Benefits Crops Over Parts Of Area

Blinker Lights For Highway 380

Blinker lights will be installed within the next few days at the school crossing on West Lockwood, the Brownfield Highway, according to City Administrator J. M. Uzzle.

These lights are for safety of children crossing the busy Hwy. 380 en route to and from school. The crosswalk is at the Ave. N intersection. There will be a blinker light at Ave. M for west bound traffic, and another at Ave. O for east bound traffic.

Installation of the blinker lights has the approval of Texas Highway Department.

Tahoka Adding Two Fire Sirens

Two new fire and disaster sirens will be installed in Tahoka in the near future, according to Evon Wilson of the Tahoka Fire Department.

One will be located in South Tahoka on South 6th Street a half block east of the O'Donnell highway, and the other will be located in East Tahoka, a half block south of the Post highway between Avenues D and E, just north of the Lyntegar warehouse.

The new sirens were received through cooperation with Civil Defense and will operate on 7 1/2 horse power. The present siren at the Fire Station is 3 horse power and the one in Northwest Tahoka near the schools is 5 horse power.

Slovers Are Home From Baltimore

Mr. and Mrs. John Slover flew back home Tuesday of this week from Baltimore, Md., where they have been visiting their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne (Emily) Lindsey and two children. While there, John got to see the Yankees defeat the Orioles.

While at Baltimore, the Slovers also went to Washington, D. C., where they visited the White House and the capitol building. On calling on Rep. George Mahon's office they failed to find him, but they were greeted by Mrs. Julius Walker, the former Savannah Lou Tunnell of Tahoka who is secretary to Mr. Mahon. She accompanied them through the tunnel to the capitol.

Mrs. Cecil Caraway of New Home underwent major surgery Thursday in Tahoka Hospital.

No Encephalitis Reported Here

There has been no case of encephalitis detected in Tahoka or Lynn county, states Dr. Emil Prohl, city health officer.

However, City of Tahoka this week was starting a spraying program to combat a very mild hatch of mosquitoes. The female of one mosquito breed, culex tarsalis, is the carrier of the disease.

Dr. Prohl says a number of people have become concerned because of the outbreak at Plainview, Houston, and at a few other places in the South Plains area.

Symptoms of the disease include fever, headaches, stiffness of the neck and blurring of vision; and in adults, lack of clear-headedness. It is especially dangerous to very young children, but can seriously affect others.

The City sprayed the town earlier in the summer, but there has been little need for spraying again until now.

Housing Project Completion Near

Finishing touches this week are being put on the 12-unit $120,000 housing project for the aged, located on South Second near the business section of town, according to J. M. Uzzle, administrator of the Housing Authority of City of Tahoka.

Final inspection is scheduled for Wednesday of next week, and Mr. Uzzle says he hopes plans can be worked out for an open house on the following Sunday afternoon so that the public can inspect the project.

Landscaping is being done this week and other minor details completed.

The project has 12 units, eight for single persons and four for couples. There is a small office building, a utility building, and a recreation area.

Car And Garage Burned Saturday

Fire of undetermined origin Saturday at about 2:30 p. m. destroyed a garage and the 1961 Oldsmobile in it on the Church of Christ property in west Tahoka at the home formerly owned by Oran Short.

The car was owned by G. B. Gunter, who lives in the house. A misunderstanding in the report to Tahoka Fire Department caused firemen to make a run to the new Oran Short home three miles north of Tahoka, but the fire had gained such headway before detected that the building couldn't have been saved anyway. The News is informed.

Saturday at about 1:00 p. m. the Fire Department made a run to the new high school building, where a pile of boxes and wrappings from new equipment on the south side of the building near the science department entrance had caught fire. Only damage done was scorched paint on the building overhang and a door.

Monday morning the firemen made a run to South Tahoka on a false report.

The gin was invented in 1799.

First Bale Of 1964 Cotton Is Produced By W.E. Pierce

Wayman E. Pierce of Draw ginned the first bale of 1964 cotton Monday, and the bale was placed on exhibition at the First National Bank corner in Tahoka.

The 450-pound bale was picked from 87 acres of "semi-irrigated" land on his farm at Draw, and was ginned by O'Donnell Cooperative Gin at about 6:00 p. m., according to Weldon Martin, gin manager.

Pierce had about 2,000 pounds of seed cotton in the load, which turned out 850 pounds of seed.

For the first 1964 bale, Mr. Pierce gets the $100,000 cash premium offered by Tahoka Chamber of Commerce, will probably get the ginning free and 50 cents per pound from the gin, and possibly other premiums.

Two O'Donnell Men Graduate At Tech

Two O'Donnell young men were graduated from Texas Tech at summer commencement exercises Saturday.

Lanny Joe Brewer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe T. Brewer, received the B. S. degree in animal husbandry from the Department of Agriculture.

"We hope to be finished before noon," Mrs. Hensley says. Coffee will be served.

Gilda Gandy was admitted to Tahoka Hospital Monday and had her tonsils removed. She was dismissed Tuesday.

Virginia Ann Henderson, 15, entered Tahoka Hospital Tuesday and had her tonsils removed. She was dismissed Wednesday.

Showers Wednesday afternoon and night ranging up to two inches fell over large areas of eastern and southern Lynn county, and will be of great help to cotton which had not already burned too badly.

Tahoka received 46 inch, but the shower extended only a short distance west of town. To the east the rain was much heavier.

Hail damaged a small area in New Lynn community where there is some pretty good cotton, and another area near T-Bar, where there is little good cotton.

Horace Daniel, a mile and a half east of New Lynn, was hailed out, and his neighbors had damage in varying amounts. Some of those receiving hail were Lyndell Wood, Junior Meeks, Carl Stone, and "Dub" Redwine.

Tahoka was just in the edge of the heavy rain, and most of the area east of town received an inch or more.

About an inch was reported at Edith, an inch to two inches at New Lynn, Grassland an inch to an inch and a half. John Curry reported 1.2 inches, and W. H. Norman more than an inch.

Walter Dubree reported 6 inch at his place near Redwine.

South the rain was light to midway, but a mile south of Midway Welch Flippin reported an inch. Clint Walker reported three-quarters west of Draw, and less than a half inch fell at Draw, according to unverified reports.

Southwest part of the county received heavy rains. W. R. Ledbetter reported an inch and a half and 9 at the Dr. Prohl place, Albert Curry an inch at T-Bar, up to two inches six miles northwest of O'Donnell, Wells a heavy rain.

At Newmoore, Flippin reported "the heaviest rain he had received all year," and north of there Charles Oliver reported a good rain on the Truett Smith farm.

Little of the Three Lakes area west and north received rain and West Point none.

Mrs. Glen Ward Buried Tuesday

Mrs. Glen Ward, 51, of Wilson, died Sunday at 2:00 p. m. in Methodist Hospital following a long illness.

Her mother, Mrs. Euna Mae Hillyer, 72, had been killed in a car wreck north of Wilson the preceding Monday while en route from Grants, N. M., to see her daughter. Mrs. Hillyer's son, driving the car, is recovering from injuries received in the wreck when his car ran into the rear of a Highway Department truck.

Funeral services for Mrs. Ward were held at 2:00 p. m. Tuesday in the First Methodist Church of Slaton with her pastor, Rev. W. O. Rucker of Wilson, and Rev. Billy Wilkinson of Oakwood Methodist Church in Lubbock, a former Wilson pastor, officiating. Burial followed in Englewood Cemetery at Slaton.

Melba Oleta Hillyer was born on November 5, 1912, at Bay City, but grew up at Slaton, where she was graduated from high school in 1930.

She was married to Glen Ward on November 12, 1932, and the couple had called Wilson their home ever since. Mr. Ward farms four miles east of Wilson. Mrs. Ward was a faithful member of Wilson Methodist Church.

Survivors include her husband; two daughters, Glenda Jean of the home and Myrna Dean (Deana) of Lubbock; one son, Mike, of the home; her father, A. A. Hillyer of Denver, Colo.; a brother, Wallace Mac Hillyer of Grants, N. M.; and a sister, Mrs. E. G. Robertson, Belen, N. M.

Mrs. Vernon (Wilma) Davis of Tahoka is a sister-in-law of deceased.

New Home School Finances Are In Excellent Condition

New Home Consolidated Independent School District is in excellent financial condition, according to a report issued on Aug. 5, 1964, by the Municipal Advisory Council of Texas, Austin, W. E. Tinsley, executive director.

The financial statement shows all bond payments being made on time and no record of ever having defaulted on a payment.

Assessed valuation, based on 20 percent of actual value, is $4,200,332, the 1963 tax rate at $1.51, and tax collections near 100 percent since 1958. Of the tax rate, $1.15 goes to the local maintenance fund and 66 cents to the interest and sinking fund.

Bonded indebtedness totals $450,633, and there is no floating debt.

Included in the bonded debt is the 1963 bonds of $275,000 voted for the new high school building and other school improvements, but $19,000 of this was not issued.

The New Home district, the report shows, has an area of 140 square miles, and an enumeration of 536 students in January, 1963.

The report further states Lynn county ranked 18th in the state with $20.8 million value of all farm products sold.

When The News contacted Supt.

H. L. Miller in regard to the report, Mr. Miller said he thought the New Home board, with help and understanding of school district patrons, had done a wonderful job in getting the school finances in top shape.

When he came to New Home five years ago, $8,000 was owed on school buses. Since that time, two new 60-passenger buses have been bought, and the debt paid off and the new buses were paid for last week. The school has seven buses, operates six and has one for a spare. The transportation fund is "in the black."

In fact, all school funds are operating "in the black," and no bills are owed other than current bills.

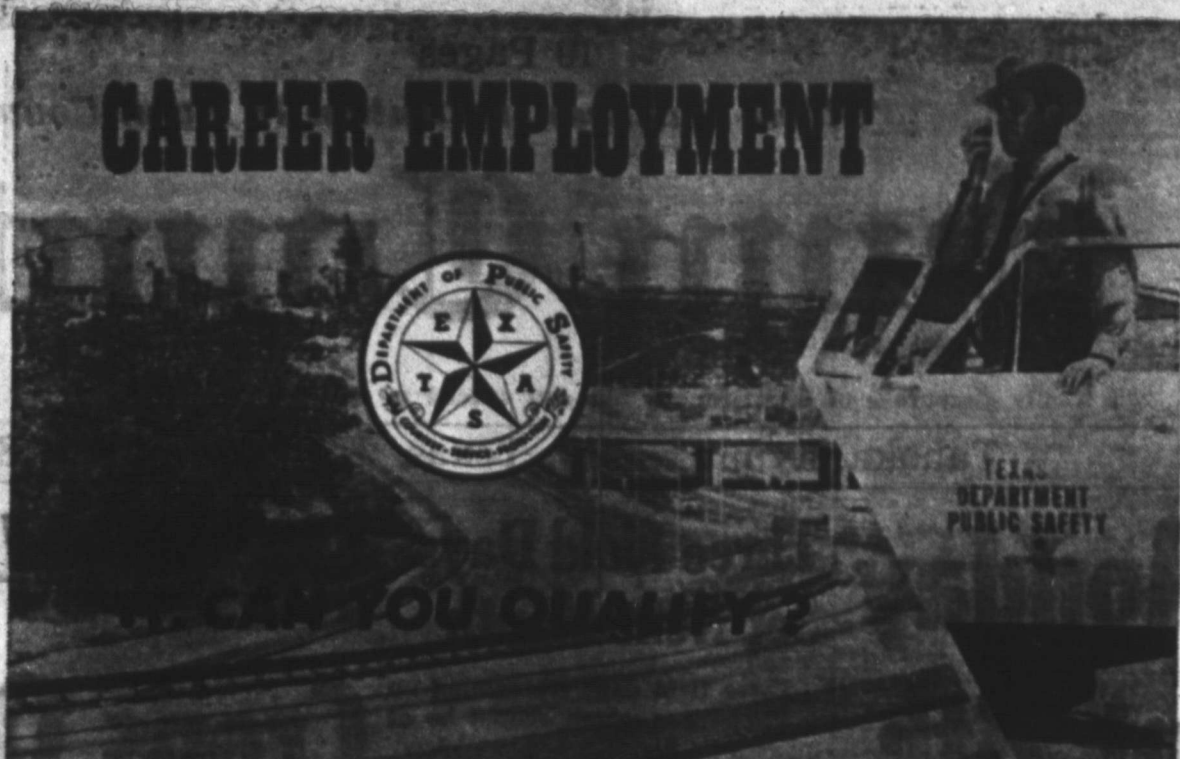

Since Mr. Miller came to New Home, the district built the new $25,000 homelike cottage, without voting bonds, and has paid for the building at $5,000 per year.

Bonds were voted for the $256,000 improvement program, which includes the modern high school building and gymnasium, a four-room addition to the elementary building, and improvement of the old school building.

Citizens have helped make it possible for the district to get out of debt, meet its obligations, and make improvements. Mr. Miller says. Help has come from the PTA for purchase of supplies, playground equipment and air-conditioning of the cafeteria. The Civic Club has helped out, also, on several projects.

Firemen Seek Public's Help

Tahoka Volunteer Firemen offer some suggestions which they say will be of great help to them in getting to fires more promptly and fighting them more efficiently.

In reporting a fire, the person making the report to the Fire Department, who is naturally upset and excited, should stay on the phone long enough to make sure he or she has told the person taking the call exactly where the fire is located.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Murray and granddaughter Janice McDonald, spent Friday night in Lamesa at the home of their son, Hulan Murray and family.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Harrison visited at the ranch home of her brother, Pat Fortenberry, and family in New Mexico, over the week end.

Mrs. Laura Mae Vaughn spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Lee of Post.

Steve McDonald, son of Ted and Jo McDonald, former residents of Grassland and Post, and now living in Washington was injured during football practice. We hope he recovers quickly.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Porterfield attended church in Tahoka Sunday night, with her mother, Mrs. D. G. Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Terry, Bruce and Jerri and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Walker spent Thursday through Sunday at the Terry cabin at Lake J. B. Thomas to rest and do some fishing. Other visitors Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Rains, Mr. and Mrs. Gary McGrew and Tammy, and Inez and Jim McGrew.

Mrs. D. G. Cook visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Porterfield Monday. The two ladies were busy preparing food for the freezer.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert McDonald and family and the W. G. McCleskeys took the two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ted McDonald back to their home in Selah, Washington last week. The W. G. McCleskeys stayed on for a longer visit, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert McDonald returned home Thursday.

Time rushes by rapidly—here it is school and football time, again.

This week we're watching on TV the Democratic carnival at Atlantic City, in some ways similar to the Republican circus at San Francisco recently. The image given the public by each is none too good. We would like to see our national parties get away from all this "hoopla" and get down to business in a little more serious and solemn manner in selecting the man, or men, who will lead our nation.

The Printer is informed that he drew some erroneous conclusions last week in our comments about the proposal of Dan Davis and Plains Cotton Cooperative Association for collecting stations of seed cotton over the Plains, where samples would be taken as a basis of paying farmers for seed cotton, and then the cotton ginned in a centrally located plant at leisure time. We said the plan would do away with gins in the small communities, and would be an advantage to Dan.

Arly Askew and E. R. Blakney are both directors of the PCGA, and say we are "all wet" and failed to read the "fine print." In the first place, both say the system would not take the place of any present gins, but would handle the overflow or backlog when local gins get snowed under and principally would benefit areas north of Lubbock where cotton hits the gins all at one time. Anyway, we're told, the proposed central gin at Lubbock would handle only 40,000 bales a year.

Furthermore, these men say, Dan Davis is strictly an employee of PCGA and would not benefit financially. Directors of PCGA have been studying the plan a long time, and at their request Dan Davis did the research. They say the movement is not a step toward more centralized control of farming.

However, Dan Davis of PCGA, in a letter dated May 11, 1964, to USDA says (quote) "Agriculture needs very badly to develop improved production and marketing systems . . . a totally new system for the processing and marketing

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

On the tax payroll, the Department of Agriculture has done 500 odd (no pun intended) press agents feverishly grinding out press releases assuring the American housewife she is buying goods at a great bargain.

There is only one drawback to all this frenzied activity. The women just do not believe it. And in addition, the farmers are getting quite queasy.

Perhaps the situation was best stated recently by Rep. Charles Brown of Ohio. In 1964 the average hourly wage of the American farmer was $1.01. In 1963 it remained the same. The hourly earnings of food store employees in this period rose from $1.63 per hour to $2.17 per hour.

The average price paid by the housewife for foodstuffs is up 5.7% (the price received by the farmer is down 5.3%).

Obviously, something is badly askew. Continued concentration of the distribution of the nation's foodstuffs into fewer hands has been one factor. The other is that both other labor leaders, have grabbed more and more control over the way that foodstuffs will be moved to market.

Thus, one evil washes the National Federation of Independent Business

NEWSPAPER AT MIDLAND COMMENTS ON TALK BY DAVID BRAY AT ROTARY

David Bray, 1963 Rotary Foundation fellowship recipient who studied in Oxford University, England, has recently spoken before a number of Rotary Clubs over West Texas, one of them being the Midland club.

Guido Pabis, Tahoka foreign student guest from Rome, Italy, accompanied David to Midland, and James and Katie Wells of Midland, formerly of Tahoka, were guests of the Midland Club that day and report both young men made a fine impression.

Mrs. Wells sent the following lead editorial from the Midland Reporter-Telegram of August 14 relative to David's talk:

America Can Sell Itself David Bray of Tahoka, a Rotary Foundation fellow who returned recently after a year's graduate study in England, brought out a number of excellent points concerning customs and conditions at home and abroad, in addressing the Midland Rotary Club Thursday.

One point was of particular interest to his listeners. It concerned the proper recognition and treatment by Americans of visitors from abroad.

"In your contacts with foreigners," Bray urged, "don't be defensive about the United States of America."

"This country can sell itself. We have only to extend the normal courtesies. Our visitors will take it from there."

The young man from Tahoka wound up this particular train of thought by advising Midland Rotarians, "Never underestimate the greatness of this country of ours."

There is food for thought for all of us in Bray's sound conclusions, particularly, "Don't be defensive about the United States of America" and "Never underestimate the greatness of this country."

Bray, having just spent a year abroad, knows from fresh exper-of lint cotton . . . It (the system) will ultimately replace some elements of the present processing industry." In his six-page letter to USDA, Dan suggests USDA help set up the system to handle 40,000 bales in 1965, but his letter cites deficiencies of our total marketing and processing system and arguments for a revolutionary central ginning system.

Cotton industry men tell us the price of cotton to the spinners just has to be competitive with synthetics and with foreign produced fibers. Also, the spinner wants a blended quality. We're no authority on the subject. Maybe we'll have to bow to progress eventually in cotton production and processing, but we still don't like a move that leads toward curtailment of the cotton ginning industry in our community, about the only industry we have.

Now, some college professors have come out with the idea that Christmas should not be observed in our schools. Don't tell the Supreme Court; it will make Christmas illegal.

Supt. Otis Spears of Bovina sent us a special edition of the Bovina Blade commemorating "Bull Town Days" there, an annual celebration and rodeo. The paper says Bovina was originally named Bull Town by Santa Fe railroad people back in the early days because the train almost habitually had to stop at the switch there to run the XIT bulls off the tracks before the train could proceed.

D. R. Adamson contributes this little story:
One day on the main street of our small town, a hard-working gentleman was stopped by the pastor of the church he attended. In the course of their conversation, the pastor asked the man if he smoked, drank or cursed. The reply was a resitant, "Well, every once in awhile . . ."
The pastor, his voice full of compassion, said, "Now Brother Smith, I don't smoke and I don't drink and I don't cuss."

To this the man seriously replied, Yessuh, Pastor, but you don't farm!"

Dr. R. also sent us this little anonymous "Ode To A Farmer":
He was old and feeble, his head was snowy white; he could hardly make it—he was a sorry sight. St. Peter told an Angel, "Go and help him in; he's old and so decrepit and no doubt full of sin, but put him in the Gold Room with others of his clan. Set up the banquet table, bring out the angel band. Stand by and feed him slowly but feed him well. On earth he was a farmer and already's had his hell!"

One secretary to another: "I can't spell the words in the first place; how does he expect me to find them in the dictionary?"

A lot of Lynn county people, especially around New Lynn and Wilson know Jerry Bartley, band director at Lamesa, the comic musician who "brought down the house" at last Spring's Chamber of Commerce banquet.

Jerry graduated from Texas Tech last Saturday night, and along with invitations he sent to a lot of friends he sent the following bit of foolishness, composed by Banker Richard Crawley of Lamesa:
"Mr and Mrs. Newman Bartley announce the approaching graduation of their son, Jerry, from Texas Tech University on Saturday night, August 22, 1964."

"For years they have anxiously watched the graduates of Tech receive their diplomas, and it appears that this will be the year for Jerry. Jerry carries with him a host of friends (three or four), 36 hours in English (of which he successfully completed 12), and approximately 300 pounds of jolly avoirdupois.
"For something old he will carry his fish cap, faded through eight delightful years in Tech; for something borrowed, he will carry his past due note at the bank; for something blue, he will carry a bottle of Ice Blue Shaving Lotion; for something new, he will carry his new executive screw driver.

"After graduation, Jerry and his bass fiddle will make their home at Box 179 in Lamesa. He will eat anywhere he is given the opportunity. He may be seen directing Lamesa Junior High Band during working hours, and, if you desire, may be touched after hours. Wherever you are, or whatever you are doing on Jerry's graduation night, please stop for a moment of silence, then join us not in saying the customary words of "God bless him," but in shouting "Thank God, he's out!"
"RSVP if you desire Jerry to eat with you as he has a pretty full stomach schedule most of the time."

MRS. VERNON ODELL PASCHAL (nee Anna Lee Biggerstaff) (Photo by Finney)

Wedding Vows Taken By Miss Biggerstaff And Vernon Paschal In Local Church

Miss Anna Lee Biggerstaff of Tahoka and Vernon Odell Paschal of Ralls were united in marriage in the sanctuary of the First Baptist Church here Sunday at 3:00 p. m. Rev. T. James Eflord, the pastor, performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Biggerstaff, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Pratt of Ralls. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown fashioned from Chantilly lace designed with a basque pointed bodice, scalloped Sabrina neckline adorned with pearls and sequins, and long petal-point sleeves. The tunic-length bouffant skirt was caught by fabric bows to drape over alternating tiers of lace. A pearl trimmed rose held her elbow-length veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade arrangement of white orchids and stephanotis.

For something old, the bride carried an Eastern Star Bible belonging to her mother; something new, her wedding dress; something blue, a garter; something borrowed, Patricia Falls' pearl necklace.

Maid of honor was Miss Patricia Falls, and Misses Judy Terry and Lynn Hendrick of Hereford served as bridesmaids. They wore aqua peau de sole dresses with bouffant skirts and fitted sleeveless bodices, elbow-length gloves and headpieces of fabric bows with aqua melene. Their flowers were cascade type arrangements with blue lace carnations surrounded by lace dollies.

Danny McDuff of Ralls served as best man; Jim Biggerstaff, brother of the bride, and Butch Phillips of Ralls were groomsmen. Ushers were A. G. Cook, Keith Pettit of Lubbock, Mickey Pettit of Abernathy, and Robert Earl Williamson of Sudan.

Denise Woodard of Lubbock was flower girl, and Chris Falls was ring bearer. Mrs. Clay Bennett, organist, played the wedding numbers and accompanied the soloist, Miss Jackie Burnett.

The ceremony was read before an archway of white gladioli with baskets of white gladioli on each side.

A reception followed in Fellowship Hall, where the main table decorations were the attendants' flowers arranged in a bouquet.

The bride chose a gray orlon suit with red accessories for the wedding trip to Colorado, following which the couple will make their home at Ralls.

The bride attended Tahoka High School and Jessie Lee's Hair Design Institute in Lubbock. The bridegroom is a graduate of Ralls High School and attended Texas Tech and West Texas State University. He is engaged in farming at Ralls.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Walton and children of Snyder spent Saturday night in New Home with Mr. and Mrs. Winston Davies.

Bulldog Mothers Elect Officers

The Tahoka High School Bulldog Mothers met for the first time Monday night, August 24, in City Park. New officers were elected for the 1964-65 school year as follows: Mrs. Elnora Curry, president; Mrs. Charles Reid, vice president; Mrs. Elmer Owens, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Skiles Thom as, reporter.

Plans were made for the five home games this season, and hostesses will be assigned for each at a later date. For the first home game Sept. 11, hostesses will be Mrs. Olen Renfro, Mrs. Charles Reid, Mrs. P. C. Coburn, Mrs. J. C. Womack, and Mrs. Elmer Owens.

Dues of $3.00 should be turned in to the secretary before the first home game. Further information can be obtained by contacting Mrs. Curry or Mrs. Owens.

Seventeen mothers were present for the meeting. Mrs. Skiles Thomas, reporter.

Crowders Observe 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. "Ed" Crowder of Wilson, were honored on their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday, August 23, with a surprise party given by their children. Hostesses for the event were their daughters, Mrs. Howard Billings of Decatur, Illinois, Mrs. Frank Benak of Lubbock, Mrs. Charles Waters of Lubbock, Mrs. Homer Campbell Jr. of Wilson, Mrs. R. N. Raymond of Abernathy and a niece, Mrs. Ruben Lambert of Idalou. Assisting in hospitalities were Mrs. Bud Johnson of Lubbock and Mrs. R. T. Moore of Wilson. One hundred guests were served during the afternoon.

Both Crowders were born in Cobb County, Georgia. They were married in Kennesaw, Georgia, on August 22, 1914, and made their home in Helena, Arkansas for three years. They then moved to Charlotte, North Carolina, where they lived two years, and Mr. Crowder was engaged in the real estate business. Then they moved until their retirement in 1957 they farmed in the Wilson community.

Ed and Lila Crowder have five daughters, and one son, Clyde, who was killed in World War II.

Miss Louise Taylor Hardin of Dallas and David Maurice Bray of Tahoka were united in marriage Saturday at 4:30 p. m. in Perkins Chapel on the campus of Southern Methodist University.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. Grady Harin, 4300 Grassmere, Dallas, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Bray of Tahoka.

Officiating in the double ring ceremony were Dr. Fred Bryson of Dallas and Dr. Sterling Wheeler of San Antonio.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress designed and hand-made for her in Naples, Italy. The floor-length white gown was fashioned of Chantilly lace and studded with seed pearls. The short chapel train was appliqued with panels of lace and pearls. Her shoulder-length veil fell from a small circlet of pearls and silk flowers. The bridal bouquet was of roses, stephanotis and small ivy, topped with a bridal orchid.

Miss Nancy Hardin, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor; and bridesmaids were Miss Maria Bray of Tahoka, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Joe Sheldon of Houston; and Miss Judy Thornton of Sulphur Springs. They wore aqua floor-length dresses and carried bouquets of varied flowers.

The bride's mother wore a blue chiffon sheath with a cropped lace jacket. The mother of the groom wore a yellow silk suit.

Serving as ushers were Ben Martin of Tahoka, Ralph Husby of Washington, D. C., and John Hill of Dallas.

Dr. Fred Gealy of Dallas, organist, played traditional wedding music.

The chapel was simply decorated with two arrangements of white flowers and only the two candles used in the chapel's Sunday services.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in SMU Student Center, where yellow decorations prevailed. In the house party were Misses Carol Craig of Houston, Judy Sullivan of Ennis, Judy Jones of Dallas, and Ellen Palmer of Shelby, N. ## Lynco Bowmen On Deer Hunt Colorado was invaded recently by Lynco Bowmen Archery Club members who traveled to the mountain state to pit their skill against the wile Mule Deer. Some of the bowmen scored while others came home with just a trip to tell about.

Eleven Lynco members made the trip along with four friends of the club.

The first group to make deer kills was the Montgomery-William party from Lubbock, who hunted the Lake City area south. Richard Montgomery accounted for a four point buck, while his brother, David, settled for a doe. Norman Williams also took a doe. A friend, Dick McClain, Memphis, Tenn. scored by taking a 4 point buck. Corp. Bill Reese, (Reese AFB) took a small buck. Lt. Grover Turner was unable to get a deer as was Corp. Reese's son Bob.

The second group of Lynco Archers hunted the Lake City North area. Lee Gilder, Lubbock, accounted for a six point buck while Herman Brumelow was unable to account for a kill.

The third party traveled to the Devil Mountain area near Pagosa Springs and was not successful in their efforts. This party was made up of Jack Roseberry and Ed Redwine of Tahoka; Don Musick, Ed Fahsholtz, Joe Leake, and Ricky Platz of Lubbock. This party saw many deer but was hampered by the fact that the full moon each night made it ideal for the deer to feed at night and bed down during the day.

Colorado pre-season will end September 13. Then Texas archers will be waiting for Texas pre-season to open Oct. 1.

Plans are still being carried out for the Club's Invitational Tournament to be held Sept. 6. We still need to know who to expect for the barbecue dinner. Beef plates will sell for $1.25 and anyone who wishes to attend the dinner may do so by contacting a Lynco Member before Sept. 1. Everyone is invited to come watch and see some of the best archers in West Texas in action.—Report.

Labor Committee In Meeting Here

A meeting of the Lynn County Farm Labor Advisory Committee was held on Thursday, August 20, at 2:00 p. m. in the Courthouse at Tahoka.

The committee consists of Judge W. M. Mathis, Rev. John W. Pistone, Frank Hill, Cleve Littlepage, and E. D. Adams. The meeting was conducted by W. H. Townsend, District Director, Texas Employment Commission, San Angelo. Also present were Joe Manahan, Farm Placement Division, Texas Employment Commission, State Office, Austin; E. G. Travis, District Office, Amarillo, and Joe Spears of the Brownfield Office.

Supplies of and demands for labor was the main theme of the meeting. The possible termination of Public Law 78, under which Mexican labor is now contracted, was discussed and it was generally agreed that unless some source of labor is found to supplement the local supply, most farms will face a severe shortage of labor, especially for irrigation.

Pre-season estimates of dry-land cotton acreage was deemed a little high, due to dry weather conditions which drastically reduced acreage in some areas. Considerable acreage has been plowed up, as not being worth harvesting.

Mr. Manahan discussed the possibility of obtaining labor from outside the local area, and expressed the appreciation of the Texas Employment Commission for the local information made available by the Committee.

National Survey Rates Lynn Farm Income Higher In 1963

(Special to The News)
New York — From the standpoint of gross income, Lynn County farms were most profitable in the past year than were farms in most sections of the United States.

Their yield, in proportion to their farm population, was better than average, according to a national survey of farm and ranch earnings.

Increasing mechanization, coupled with more intensive use of fertilizers and insecticides, have enabled them to produce more per acre than ever before.

The details, showing how local growers made out in relation to those in other areas, are revealed in the county-by-county study, released by the Standard Rate and Data Service.

It lists gross receipts of $27,353,000 from agricultural operations in Lynn County in the year. This is the gross figure, before deductions for taxes and for the cost of doing business.

Related to the number of people on local farms, it represented a gross income of $4,894 per capita.

It was a better return than was achieved in most farm communities in the United States, the average being $3,040 per capita. It also topped the $3,952 of the State of Texas.

The income figures include the cash receipts from all crop and livestock marketing, together with Government payments and the value of products raised and used on the farm, known as "income in kind."

Analysis of the local receipts from the sale of farm products, in line with Department of Agriculture findings, shows that some 94 percent of the returns were from the sale of crops and 6 percent from the sale of livestock, poultry and dairy products.

Farmers and ranchers throughout the country had to contend with a downturn in crop and cattle prices during the past year. At the same time, their operating costs were mounting.

This price squeeze prevented them from turning their increased production into added net income.

Despite the farmer's inability to keep pace with the gains being made by other sectors of the economy, his is still the nation's largest single industry. Last year, gross farm production amounted to $41 billion.

Nitrate Poison Warning Given

By James H. Valentine
Following the application of fertilizer materials to pasture grasses and forage sorghums, several precautions should be observed to avoid possibilities of nitrate poisoning of livestock.

First, remove cattle from the area to be fertilized. Should spillage occur in filling a rig, pick up the material to prevent spots of unusually high concentration. Remove bags from the field since cattle will sometimes be attracted by them.

After fertilizer has been applied and irrigation accomplished keep livestock off of the area for one week.

If forage is particularly succulent it is a good idea to not graze before 10:00 a. m. since nitrates accumulate in the plants at night and are not changed to the protein forms until sufficient light has been received.

Drought may cause nitrate accumulation under conditions where leaves wilt or roll during the day, but take up sufficient water during the night to regain turgor. Grazing of plants in drought stress should therefore proceed with caution.

Nitrate accumulation in plants may occur under certain conditions on soils that have not been recently fertilized.

The possibility of nitrate toxicity should not discourage farmers from using nitrogen fertilizers at economically practical rates recommended by the Extension Service.

Boll Weevil Fight Funds Available

Representative George Mahon advises that he was able to secure the full $1 million for the campaign in West Texas against the advance of the bollweevil in the agricultural appropriation bill which passed the House and Senate last week.

Farmers have agreed to match the federal funds. The program was strongly supported by the Plains Cotton Growers, the area-wide Boll Weevil Committee, and other farm organizations.

The agriculture money bill is scheduled to be signed by the President this week. In addition to the boll weevil money, it contains planning funds for the construction of five laboratories designed to explore ways of reducing the cost of U. S. cotton production, making it more competitive with synthetic fibers and foreign cotton. One of the laboratories will be at Texas Technological College or at the Experiment Station north of Lubbock.

The bill also included the full budget estimate of $14,744,000 for the Great Plains Conservation Program which is important in the Southwest.

Mahon pointed out that the agricultural weather service which began last year in the South Plains area in a limited way would be expanded to cover more counties this year as a result of the

Football Prospects Seem To Be Better

About forty boys are working out daily for the Tahoka Bulldogs football team, and fans seem highly impressed with the prospects for the season which opens at Lorenzo against the Hornets on Friday, Sept. 4.

Coach Gilbert Hough has more experienced personnel this year than any time recently, the boys seem to have the desire, and Tahoka could be on "the way back" to the top in football.

Major weakness could be speed, but there should be improvement in the running game over last year.

Although there are only about 15 boys on the B squad, four more reported for workouts this week and others are expected to come out soon.

Thursday night, Tahoka was meeting the Ralls Jackrabbits at 7:30 o'clock on the local field.

The coaches have tentatively placed the following boys on the A squad, although others may make a place for themselves on this squad later. (Astericks beside names indicate number of years lettered):

Robert E. Lee Is Rotary Subject

James Moore, Lubbock attorney and director of the First National Bank here, spoke at Tahoka Rotary Club Thursday on the subject, "Robert E. Lee, Soldier, Statesman, and Knightly Gentleman."

He told briefly of Lee's life and times and cited many facts about this remarkable man and told stories of his leadership of the Southern Army in the Civil War, mostly depicting his gentlemanly conduct.

Moore said Lee is recognized by military authorities as one of the seven greatest generals in the history of the world, the greatest in 300 years of American history. His tactics in the Civil War are still studied in all military colleges and armies.

General Lee, once stationed in Texas, was No. 1 in his class at the Military Academy, and is the only student who never received a demerit as such a student.

When the war between the states was impending, he was offered the position by President Lincoln as the head of the National army, but declined. Although he did not believe in slavery, when his native state of Virginia was attacked by the U. S. Army he felt his allegiance belonged to his home state and cast his lot as head of the Southern forces.

According to military authorities, Gen. Lee made only one tactical mistake in his career, and that was an error in judgment at Gettysburg, which may have cost the South the war and changed the course of history.

Tom Gill, in charge of the program, introduced the speaker.

Vice President Ross Smith presided in the absence of President Wilton Payne.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Shearer of Tahoka accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Willard Tapley of Lamesa to Amarillo to visit Mrs. Babe Cox who is in the St. Anthony Hospital, following surgery. Mrs. Cox is the Shearer's daughter, and Mrs. Tapley's sister. She formerly lived in Tahoka and attended school here.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom C. Shearer spent Sunday night in Tahoka with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Shearer. Mrs. Shearer is a former Baylor student, and will be a senior student at Texas Tech. Tom is a graduate of Baylor, and will be employed by an insurance firm in Lubbock.
