City Police Dog, Ringo, Is Loyal To His Masters

Following is a story compiled by City of Tahoka Police about their Police Dog and one little instance of activity that goes on while most of the town sleeps:

Ringo, the police dog working with City of Tahoka Police Department, has won the proper recognition for himself—as all German Shepherd dogs are expected to do. Ringo likes to ride in and watch from the City Police car. This he does all night long every night. If left behind, he will look for Car 5 until he finds it. If he finds the car parked down town, he will lie in watch until one of the Policemen comes to get it. If parked at the Police station, Ringo will lie at the door of the station on guard until one of the policemen leaves the office; then, he goes with the policeman and the car. During the night, New Year's Eve and morning, everything was "sort of soggy" with everyone, and Ringo was right by the side of the Chief of Police and Patrolman, Jack Miller and Joe Raindl.

At 4:00 a. m. January 1, a person stopped the patrolman, Raindl, on the street and told him a person was "cutting up" in a pick-up around his house. Raindl rushed to apprehend the subject and give him a checking over. In the process, Ringo was left in town.

The subject in the pick-up was not as cooperative as expected. Instead of stopping for the patrolman, he made a run for it, dashing from the pick-up among some house in South Tahoka. Raindl lost the subject and searched two (Continued on Back Page)

Open House For New School Is January 17

Lieutenant Governor Preston Smith will be the principal speaker at the open house and dedication ceremonies for Tahoka's new $550,000 school buildings on Sunday, Jan. 17, at 2:00 p. m., states Supt. Harold Reynolds.

The program will be brief, and patrons of the district and visitors will have opportunity to inspect the new high school building and other enlarged and improved facilities.

Plans for the program were completed at a meeting of the school board Tuesday night.

In addition to the new high school building, the old high school building was completely reconditioned and rebuilt except for basic structure. North Elementary building reconditioned, cafeteria enlarged, vocational agriculture building enlarged, and Dunbar School improved. The Jaquess property was also bought and the buildings removed.

Some furnishings for the new high school remain to be installed, and some landscaping remains to be done, both postponed until another year.

J. E. Thomas Is Heart Victim

J. E. Thomas, 73, resident of Lynn county 3 years, died suddenly Tuesday night of last week, evidently from a heart attack, at his farm home two miles north of Central Church in Garnolia community.

Funeral services were held at 3:00 p. m. Friday at Central Baptist Church, and burial followed in Grassland Cemetery under direction of Mason Funeral Home of Post.

John Elmer Thomas was born in Bosque county. After moving to the Lubbock area, he was married to Bessie Mae Clevenger at Lubbock on Sept. 16, 1924.

He was a life-long member of the Baptist Church, a veteran of World War I, and had served as Democratic Precinct Chairman several times.

On the day of his death, he visited The News for some time, received some subscriptions, and seemed to be in exceedingly good humor and did a bit of joking about some of the hard times in the past.

Survivors include his wife; two daughters, Mrs. Martha Jean Smith of Albuquerque, N. M.; and Mrs. Hazel Ray of Lubbock; five sons, W. L. of Kansas City, Oscar Ray of Post, J. E. Jr. of Alexandria, Va., Frank of Tahoka, and Vandon of Annadale, Va.; four sisters, Mrs. Claud Miles of Austid, Mrs. B. J. Evans of Salado, Mrs. H. A. Beauty of Lubbock, and Mrs. Leslie Jones of Fort Worth; three brothers, D. J. of Valley Mills, C. A. of Clifton, and Walt of Lubbock; 20 grandchildren, and one great grandchild.

New Home Work Near Completion

Although delayed somewhat by weather and the holidays, Panhandle Construction Co., the contractor is pushing the New Home sewer and water systems toward completion, states J. W. Edwards, mayor of the City of New Home.

About three-fourths of the sewer line was laid by Tuesday, and workmen expect to begin laying water mains next week. Also work has started on a 65,000 gallon water storage tank.

The contractor expects completion well before the March 2 contract deadline date, Mr. Edwards says.

Mrs. Mary Rumbo Is Invited To Ceremony By U. S. President

Mrs. Mary Rumbo will attend the inauguration ceremonies in Washington, D. C., for President Lyndon B. Johnson and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey on January 20.

Her invitation is directly from the President, and she will attend his official reception as well as other meetings beginning on January 14. She expects to stay at the Sheraton Park Hotel, site of the President's party for the inauguration.

Mrs. Rumbo was elated over receiving the invitation because, she says, most of the other invitations received by Democratic workers came from Mr. Humphrey or Mr. Yarborough.

Jasper Campbell Rites At Slaton

Jasper Campbell, 58, well-known Wilson citizen, died Sunday at 9:30 p. m. in Mercy Hospital at Slaton after an illness of a week following a heart attack the Sunday before.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 3:00 p. m. in Slaton Church of Christ with the minister, Bro. James Wilbanks, officiating, assisted by C. L. Newcomb of Perryton and Cline Drake of Gordon. Burial followed in Green Memorial Cemetery at Wilson under direction of White Funeral Home of Tahoka.

Mr. Campbell was born at Rio Vista, Johnson county, on October 19, 1906. He was reared there and married Miss Willie Mae Rose at Rio Vista on November 8, 1934. The couple moved to Wilson in 1941, and he was engaged in farming and was co-owner and manager of Campbell Grain & Elevator Co. He was a member of Slaton Church of Christ.

Survivors include his wife; one son, Chester Campbell, 3502 E. Baylor, Lubbock; three daughters, Mrs. Sue Weaver, Wilson, and Cherry and Cindy, both of the home; three grandchildren; four brothers, Pat of Wilson, Barney of Fort Worth, Harvey of Rio Vista, and Andy of Covington; and four sisters, Mrs. C. T. (Frances) Wallace of McAuloo, Mrs. J. W. (Rosealie) Rose of Dallas, Mrs. Lois (Janie) Hope of Rosenberg, and Mrs. Tommy (Anna Mae) Daugherty of Santa Rosa, Calif.

Pallbearers were Claude Roper Jr., John Henderson, C. W. Stone, Dan Cook, David Bishop, and Stephen Williams.

Lynn county cotton ginnings for 1964 passed the 100,000-bale mark, possibly reached 105,000, according to an estimate of The News made Thursday morning on receiving reports from most of the county's gins and close estimates on the others.

Tahoka ginned 17,830 bales, O'Donnell almost exactly the same, 17,800; Wilson, 16,400; and New Home and Lakeview, 20,100 bales. Petty ginned a record 6,740 bales, while West Point ginned far more than expected, 3,150. In round figures, Grassland ginned 7,900, Draw 3,000, Wells, 3,800, Newmoore 2,200 New Lynn "about 600."

The News had no report from Gordon but reliable reports indicated ginnings there were at least 2,000 bales. Half of Hackberry's approximately 5,000 bales ginned were credited to Lynn county.

Based on these figures, Lynn has ginned approximately 104,000 bales this year. It is possible that more cotton from out of the county has been ginned in Lynn this year than has been carried out to other gins.

One ginner, Weldon Martin of O'Donnell, however, doesn't think there will be any difference this year from normal. Usually, Lynn ginnings in the final report average out almost exactly on across county line ginnings.

Final government census ginning reports, usually made in March or April, will level out to 500-pound bales and to bales in the county where actually produced regardless of the point of ginning.

This year's crop, due to the drought of less than 12 inches of rain, has been about two-thirds normal on cotton production and far less than half on milo production. Price reductions in cotton have also hurt the farmer's income on the 1964 crop.

Lending agencies say a surprisingly few farmers will be closed out, or forced out of operation, although some are quitting voluntarily or because of inability to rent land. In most cases, it is the renter who is hurt the worst.

Most farm land has already been plowed, and farmers report the land is listing well. But, there is little deep moisture, and some winter or early spring moisture will be necessary for a crop year in 1965.

Attending the services were, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Curry, Mr. and Mrs. John Price, Mrs. Wiley Curry, and Dan Curry. Novice Curry and her sister, Mrs. Lorene Garwood, lived with their aunt for some time.

New Home Party Tells Of Trip To El Paso Game

Attending the Texas Tech-Georgia Sun Bowl game in El Paso the day after Christmas were Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Unfred and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe D. Unfred and three children, all of New Home.

On Sunday morning following the game, the group decided to attend the first church they saw, largely to help the children keep their Sunday Schol attendance record. Driving down the street, they came to Valley View Baptist Church. Being Baptists, they found this church just right, went in, and while at services noticed a plaque at a stained glass window which read something like "Dedicated to our former pastor, T. James Efrid." They thought this an interesting bit of coincidence. Truett Smith, brother of Aubrey, and Dr. K. R. Durham, had sat in these pews in this church and listened to Rev. Efrid preach, and he was later called by the First Baptist Church of Tahoka.

Rev. Efrid adds further interesting information to the story. While he was pastor of Valley View 1955-1959, a young Serviceman, Ray Singleton from New Jersey, attended the church. Rev. Efrid won him to the Lord, baptized him, and influenced him to enter the ministry. Rev. Efrid performed the marriage ceremony that united him to a young lady of that church. Today, Ray Singleton is pastor of Grant Avenue Baptist Church in El Paso.

Singleton was a gunner in the Airforce and was in the B-52 in the national news when a "side-winder" missile on a fighter plane got loose and the B-52 was shot down, the victim of the accident. Singleton was one of three men aboard the bomber who survived.

Joe D. didn't have much to say about the game. But he did say there was a new world's record set at that game: There were more Unfreds in the Sun Bowl than at any football game in the world—ten of them, including L. C. and Joe D's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Unfred of Lubbock, who came to the game with Glenn Hackney's party. Incidentally, Acie Bailey of Midland, Mrs. L. C. Unfred's daddy and former Lynn county citizen, was at the game.

Aubrey Smith says there's one thing about a trip like this, there's never a dull moment when you're with Joe D.

Star-spangled savings plan

Most of us think about the future in terms of paying off the mortgage, educating the children, providing a retirement income. But with the world the way it is today, it's almost impossible to make plans for your own future without considering the future of your country, too. When you buy U. S. Savings Bonds, your money takes on both jobs. It grows to build your financial strength. At the same time, it helps Uncle Sam watch over our peace and security. Why not give your savings dollars this double assignment? You'll be joining millions of American families who are investing in their country's future—and you'll probably feel pretty good about it.

Family Financial Status Changes

College Station—At least two major changes affecting the financial status of many American families have taken place during the past decade: Double paychecks and more family savings.

This observation comes from Mrs. Wanda Meyer, Extension home management specialist at Texas A&M University.

Approximately 40 percent of the families with wage earners in 1950 were receiving two or more paychecks, compared with more than 50 percent of wage earner families now receiving two or more paychecks.

The working wife is primarily responsible, says Mrs. Meyer. One out of three married women are now employed.

Average family income during the past 10 years has risen from about $3,300 to just under $6,000. The average is for the nation as a whole. In many instances, two or more paychecks have served to boost family income into the $10,000 or higher bracket.

Dixie H. D. Club Hears Mrs. Carr

Dixie Home Demonstration Club met Wednesday in the home of Mrs. A. C. Aycox with 13 members present.

Mrs. Billie Carr, home demonstration agent, brought the program on the subject, "How to Vote in Public Elections."

Next meeting will be on Wednesday, January 20, in the home of Mrs. Troy Copelin.

The U. S. Coast Guard, as we know it today, was established January 28, 1915.

Naturally, two paychecks and higher incomes have had an effect on savings. The Home Loan Bank Board, a government agency that keeps an eye on the thrift of the nation, reports that total savings of individuals are now approximately $400 billions, or nearly twice that of a decade ago.

"This works out to the equivalent of over $7,000 per family as the government measures thrift," says Mrs. Meyer.

Slaton Winner In Three Games

A strong Slaton basketball team trounced Tahoka 67-44 there Tuesday night in the first game for the local boys following the Christmas holidays. The girls lost 50-38 and the "B" girls also lost 43-28.

The Bulldogs held their own pretty well the first quarter, although they trailed 16-10, but in the second Slaton pulled ahead 41-23 and led 50-35 at the end of the third.

Rett Patterson tossed in 13 and Eddie Howard 11 for Tahoka. Mitchell Williams, out with injuries before the holidays, was able to play part of the time.

Larry Smith and Dean Hatcett each made 18 points for the Tigers with Bobby Brake adding 14 more.

The varsity girls game saw Slaton in the lead 16-8, 35-16, and 44-23 at the end of the first three quarters. Carla McNeely paced Tahoka with 20 points and Andra Carroll made nine.

Peggy Kirksey and Karen Caldwell hit the basket for 14 points each and Sharon Williams made 12 for the winners.

Girls "B" game saw Slaton control the game 13-2, 25-12, and 37-17 at completion of three quarters.

Quaydene Pool made 16 points for the local losers, but Vicki Nowlin tossed in 11, and Deborah Scott and Connie Woods 10 each for Slaton.

Some Insecticides Invite Trouble

College Station (Sp1)—"Cotton growers invite trouble when they use insecticides that are not needed," J. C. Gaines, head of Texas A&M's Department of Entomology said this week.

Strong mixtures to control fleahoppers and overwintering boll weevils can reduce numbers of beneficial insects and thereby make it easier for bollworms and budworms to develop, the scientist said. But, he added, should fleahoppers and overwintered boll weevils develop to damaging numbers, as indicated by insect counts, insecticides must be used to protect the crop.

However, Gaines pointed out, in many instances these insects do not increase to damaging numbers during the 30-day period prior to the appearance of bollworms; thus, applications of insecticides are not necessary.

In addition to the wiping out of beneficial insects, Gaines pointed out other hazards connected with the use of excessive applications of poisonous insecticides. Many soils can be contaminated and certain crops cannot be safely planted. Carrots in at least two areas of the state during the past year were found to be contaminated with endrin. This contamination is the result of several factors including insecticidal drift. Drift, he said, may also be responsible for the destruction of populations of beneficial insects and a build up of destructive pests. Drift may also result in harmful residues on food and feed crops.

The entomologist said that research information indicates that the best recommendations are to apply insecticides only when needed. To control injurious insects, except when systematic insecticides are applied as a seed or soil treatment for the control of thrips. The 1965 recommendations will be available soon in the form of the

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By G. WILSON HARDIE

Next to the fact that nearly everybody feels qualified to run a newspaper is the fact that most people consider themselves as experts on advertising. And now, it would appear that bureaucrats are deciding that they should also be experts in the field of medicine.

Recently the Food & Drug Administration seized several hundred cases of Shredded Wheat in Kansas City. Obviously, the National Biscuit Co., C. W. Hardie, a small or independent business, but regardless of this fact a principle is involved here.

The seizure was made because last May the FDA made an arbitrary ruling prohibiting the use of certain references to cholesterol content in the packing or promotion of food items. The breakfast food in question had on its package the information that too much cholesterol presents a problem which can be alleviated by a well-balanced diet not containing an excess of animal fats.

Because this ran contrary to the FDA ruling prohibiting the use of words and phrases such as "unpolysaturated," "low in cholesterol," or "ask your doctor," the FDA confiscated the merchandise.

This question of cholesterol is the subject of much research and discussion in the medical profession. It is apparently proved that too much cholesterol in the blood stream will cause heart trouble.

While independent business proprietors, voting through the National Federation of Independent Business consistently oppose raising payroll taxes for Medicare as unsound economics, there is this other consideration. If government could get into the practice of medicine, eventually some bureaucrats with more qualifications than having had the right political connections to get appointed, would be telling doctors what they can and cannot do in treating illness.

well known "Guide for Controlling Cotton Insects in Texas."

Educational programs over the past several years have given many cotton growers a good working knowledge of cotton insects. It is believed, he said, that most can by visual inspection, determine the proper time to apply insecticides. County agents and Extension specialists will continue their work in this field and survey information on the cotton insect situation will be released to the news media each week during the growing season, Gaines said.

Gaines concluded that insecticides are necessary for the economic production of cotton in many areas of the state, but that an integrated program making maximum use of natural and cultural controls is necessary to obtain the greatest benefits from an insect control program. The immediate results as well as the long range effects must be carefully considered in developing profitable and effective insect control recommendations, he said.

Help Asked On Mail Delivery

Postmaster Happy Smith today appealed to postal customers on rural routes to help their rural carriers make mail deliveries during bad winter weather.
 The Tahoka post office has 5 rural routes, covering about one-third of Lynn County.
 Mr. Smith said that at the same time he hopes all county commissioners concerned with rural routes where snow, ice, mud, and other bad weather hampers the carriers will continue their fine cooperation to help the mailmen get through.
 The Postmaster listed these points of particular concern:
 1. Approaches to rural mail boxes must be kept open by customers.
 2. Obstructions to delivery of mail on rural routes should be removed or minimized to the fullest extent possible.
 Where rural boxes pose a problem, the carrier may leave form 4056, "Your Mailbox Needs Attention," a notice to keep box approaches clear by promptly removing all obstructions, including snow, which may make mail delivery difficult or impossible. Unless approaches are cleared, it may be necessary to temporarily withhold delivery of mail, the Postmaster pointed out.

 Rural carriers are not required to perform service on foot when roads cannot be traveled with the vehicles normally used, but they are expected to make every reasonable effort to serve as many of their patrons as possible without undue physical exertion or added financial cost, he explained.
 If excessive detours are necessary to effect delivery of mail, customers should temporarily relocate their boxes on the new line of travel, arrange to receive their mail through other patrons' boxes, or make other arrangements for their mail until travel on the roads affected can be resumed.
 Cotton is the top "cash" crop.

J. R. Lambert, who received injuries to a foot in an accident on a boll puller Dec. 16, was transferred from Tahoka Hospital to a Dallas Hospital Wednesday where repair to the foot will be done.

The short crop and lower prices for farm products have hurt many Lynn county farmers and businessmen, but there have been many years in the past much worse. Local bankers and other lending agencies are surprisingly optimistic, and declare most farmers will weather the storm unless 1965 turns out to be a dry one, too.

One thing that hurts business is the fact that many farmers have had to dispense with farm hands, who have gone elsewhere to find work. One farmer expressed the opinion a few more renters will go out of business this year as other farmers take on more land. The farm program, with decreased acreages, is reducing the number of farms and farmers.

PROPERTY TAXES
Are Now Due and Payable, If You Haven't Already Paid Them!

After January 31, taxes become delinquent and subject to penalty and interest set by State law. Don't forget to see your Tax Collector during this month, or mail a check for your property and poll taxes.

Also, Don't Forget to Pay Your—
POLL TAXES

Many people who have already paid their property taxes failed to pay their poll taxes. Poll taxes must be paid in Texas as a qualification for voting in all elections except National elections.

to Medicare. As far as we're personally concerned, we're not opposed to it—or increased Social Security benefits, either. In just a few years, we are going to start drawing our Social Security payments without having paid self-employment taxes but just a few years. We are going to start taking advantage of any Medicare plan LBJ and Congress push off on us—without paying into the fund for but a short time. The way we've got it figured, in a year and a half we'll get back all we've ever paid into the Social Security fund. If we live any longer than that, you younger "suckers" are going to be paying the way. Some where down the line, you or your children are going to have to pay The Printer's and your own retirement fund. As far as we're concerned, if we live to be 83 we'll get back $10 of your money for every $1.00 we've put into Social Security. We're not worried about ourselves; we're worried about our grandchildren and their prospective life of bondage under a Socialistic state.

From The Claude News: Many old timers are going to be sadly disappointed, when and if Medicare becomes a fact.

Medicare in its present form does not cover physicians' bills or dentists' bills. It does not pay for needed drugs except when given in a hospital or a nursing home. It does nothing for those under 65 except tax them heavily to pay for it. Medicare is essentially a hospitalization plan and even here it is severely restricted. It would pay the whole bill for only 45 days.

Even sadder is the fact that Medicare will increase the tax on the lower income group without much effect on those in high income. The maximum tax to be paid is on the first $2,400 dollars. Those making above that will pay, and are able to pay, but those making below $5,000 or less it will only be an added burden they will be forced to pay with doubtful benefits later on.

Mrs. Buel Draper is another former Arkansawyer from over about Batesville who says she appreciated the recent column defending the hill people of that state. Batesville is not too far from the Ozarks. She says there's one good thing that can be said about those people—the county never has to bury anyone, they take care of their own. They may not have much money, but they get a lot of fun out of living without the high-pressures of some of us.

Some local people got a big "kick" last Friday during the Arkansas-Nebraska game when Ronnie Botkin, student body president, received the "Sportsmanship" trophy presented Texas Tech by the Southwestern Conference teams: Ronnie, a senior in Tech is the son of Roy Botkin, who farms near Hereford, and a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Botkin.

Amos Howard, who retired January 1 as postmaster at Lubbock after nearly 30 years in office, is one of the swiftest fellows we ever knew. A prominent Lubbock citizen told us a while back that Amos probably has more friends and the respect of more people than any man in that city. He is reputed to have had one of the most efficient postoffices in Texas. We've profited from having known him 40 years, and we're proud that he's Mae's brother.

While passing out flowers to the living, we'd like to record John Slover as another of our finest citizens. We've served with John on various boards and committees. We have sought his advice and he's asked ours. We've disagreed on a lot of things. But, here's a man honest, sincere and frank who will fight for the principles he thinks right. We appreciate such friends as John Slover.

Jenkin Lloyd Jones, editor of the Tulsa Tribune, says: "The true liberal, in my opinion, should struggle at social theories that degrade the human being. He should question the political practices that penalize the doers to fatten the don'ters. He should recognize that the forced production and encouragement of incompetence and irresponsibility through public subsidies will eventually produce a society in which there will be less for all. Such a liberal will, at the same time, reject the law of the jungle. Neither competence nor strength nor intelligence will be allowed to impose raw power upon the mass. He will cherish those checks and balances which halt the depredations of, as Old Joe Pulitzer put it, 'predatory capital and predatory labor.' And I might add, 'predatory government!'"

IRS Tax Table Shows Average Amount Paid For Texas Sales Tax

Texas taxpayers may use a state sales tax table as a guideline when filing their 1964 federal income tax returns. Ellis Campbell, Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue said the table is now available.

The table shows the average amount of state sales tax paid by Texas residents and may be used by taxpayers who itemize their federal income tax deductions. Similar tables have been prepared for 36 other states and the District of Columbia.

For the first time since 1960 when the tables were originally issued there has been a general revision of the amounts, Mr. Campbell said. The latest tables are based on summary idea data showing the patterns of consumer expenditures developed by the Bureau of Labor Statistics from a 1960-61 study. Previous tables were based on a 1950 study.

Previously, tables were revised only to reflect changes in sales tax rates or the commodities covered by the particular state's laws.

The recent study shows that household operations, property taxes, medical care, personal care services, education, and insurance have, for the most part, comprised a larger part of the total consumer expenditures in 1960-61 than they did in 1950. These items are not usually subjected to state sales taxes.

The new tables omit the state sales tax on automobiles purchased, thus providing a uniform treatment of this item for all states. Now taxpayers who purchase an automobile may add the sales taxes paid on the purchase

This table is based on the Texas general sales tax of 2 percent. It may be used when deducting sales tax on Form 1040. Excludes the sales tax on the purchase of automobiles and gasoline tax of 6 cents a gallon are not included in the table and must be itemized separately.

Internal Revenue reminds taxpayers that these tables are not required to be used. They are furnished as a guide for the convenience of taxpayers who itemize deductions on their federal income tax returns but who wish to use a "standard" amount for state sales tax which will not require

By C. WILSON HARDER

In the recent political campaign there was a great deal of chatter about the Social Security system. Now that the tussle and fury is over, and before the new Congress gets into session, is perhaps the time to consider Social Security.

When the system was started in 1937, it was sold to the American people as an insurance system. Since that time, before the U. S. Supreme Court, social security officials have denied that it is really insurance, and that inasmuch as no contract exists between the government and the people, it can be stopped at any time.

In view of the fact that many millions are either now, or anticipating, some protection for the money that has been taken out of their paychecks it is high time that the facts be made known.

Recently Rep. John Ashbrook of Ohio went through the entire 27 year operation of Social Security and found that over 5 years spans Social Security administrators have consistently underestimated payments out of the fund, sometimes by over 300%. In private business, of course, such people would be fired for gross incompetency.

It is high time that the facts about the system be brought out into the open by responsible technicians.

And rather than have a study made by bureaucrats, this study should be made by the actuaries and statisticians of at least ten of the nation's private insurance companies.

After all, the insurance companies of America have done quite well in forecasting income and outgo, best evidenced by the fact they are able to stay in business.

In addition, the public has confidence in their integrity and ability. This is best evidenced by the millions of dollars the public pays them voluntarily every year.

As it stands now, there are reliable non-politically slanted figures on just how the future of Social Security stands. There is great opposition including the majority of the nation's independent businessmen, voting through the National Federation of Independent Business, to tacking on a medicare plan, because nobody knows if this would bankrupt the system.

Bankruptcy of Social Security would be tragic.

And it is silly to say the difference could be made up out of general funds, because such general funds are only obtained by taxing people more.

The first pensioners of the system paid only 12c a loaf for bread. Today, that same loaf costs on an average 23c. Ten years from now, it could again double. Thus, it is time that people know where Social Security is headed, not from politically inspired sources, but from the coldly unemotional, but factual experts of the nation's private insurance companies who cannot afford to be wrong.

BERT STICES WILL FARM AT MULESHOE

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stice have moved to Muleshoe where they will farm about a section of irrigated land.

Mr. Stice has lived in Tahoka and vicinity nearly all his life and Mrs. Stice has lived here since 1936. Their children were born and raised here and the couple say they regret leaving Tahoka but could not pass up the opportunity the Muleshoe farm offers.

They will raise cotton and alfalfa there, Mrs. Stice said, on the farm that has a three-bedroom brick home.

Mrs. C. T. Tankersley Tells Of Trip North

Mrs. C. T. Tankersley returned on Wednesday of last week from Estherville, Iowa where she spent Christmas with her daughter, Nola B., now Mrs. Richard Munson, and three grandchildren.

Mrs. Munson and two of the children brought her home in their car. However, they were able to stay in Tahoka only two nights since they had to return to school. Mrs. Tankersley says there was lots of snow and the weather was very cold, as low as 30 degrees below zero. She was amazed that no one seemed to mind the cold and took it in stride.

Snow plows operated day and night keeping fresh snow off the streets and highways. She said she saw no cars slipping or sliding and no one seemed afraid. When asked when the snow would melt off, she was told "maybe by May."

Mrs. Tankersley said one of the unusual and most beautiful sights was Spirit Lake, which is about seven miles across and is one of the few really blue lakes in the world in summer. Located near the Iowa-Minnesota border, it is covered with about six feet of ice over water that is 100 feet deep in some places.

Small shelters and cabins had been built all over the lake where fishermen-out holes through the ice for fishing. Cars were driving all over the lake, she said. Her son-in-law, Dick, playfully threatened to drive onto the lake, but when Mrs. Tankersley said she would wait at the bank, he restrained. The Munsons said a car with two male passengers went through the ice recently.

Homes in Iowa are as warm and comfortable as those in Texas. Almost everyone wears boots. Mrs. Tankersley took her boots but didn't need them anywhere more than in Amarillo the night she was taken to the train by her grandson, Charles G. Bragg. There had been some snow and it was melting. The train seemed about a half-mile long and she had to wade icy water to the last coach. Mrs. Tankersley said that altogether it was a wonderful trip and visit.

Mrs. Carmack is a pioneer teacher of West Texas, Lynn and Garza counties, and has many former students over the South Plains. Her late husband was a pioneer circuit-riding Methodist minister.

Lynn Water Level Tests Are Made

The annual water level measurements of more than 800 observation wells in the High Plains Water District will be taken this month. The wells in the High Plains District are a portion of over 1,700 observation wells to be measured in a 39-county area by personnel of the Texas Water Commission, High Plains Underground Water Conservation District and the North Plains Water District.

Lynn County has 38 observation wells on which records are now being kept by the High Plains Water District and the Texas Water Commission.

The observation wells are measured annually during the month of January. January was chosen as the measurement month because the wells are allowed to rest after the heavy summer irrigation and because the personnel are more readily available to measure the wells at this time.

The wells that are used in the observation well program are measured, the level is recorded and then the data is assembled in the Lubbock Office of the High Plains Water District for distribution.

Any person who is interested in the well measurements of his county, or all the counties within the High Plains Water District can obtain a record of these measurements for the past several years through his local County Water District Office or from the High Plains Water District office.

Cotton Meeting Set March 2-3

Lubbock (SpI)—Progress and problems in producing cotton more efficiently on the Texas High Plains and in western areas will be highlighted at a conference here March 2-3, the National Cotton Council has announced.

General chairman will be Roy Forkner of Lubbock, president of the Plains Cotton Growers Association, which will be local host for the conference.

The conference program will include 21 agricultural authorities who will discuss various aspects of growing higher-quality cotton at a lower cost. Practical techniques will be emphasized.

Attendance of growers, research and education workers, and representatives of commercial companies is expected to total 500.

This will mark the first time for the conference to be held in the High Plains area. In prior years, it has been scheduled in Fresno and Bakersfield, Calif., Phoenix, Ariz., and El Paso, Tex. Pointing out the program is designed to provide growers with practical and useful information, Mr. Forkner has urged all cotton producers in the area to make plans to attend the meeting. No registration fees are involved.

Co-sponsors are the Council and the Southwest Five-State Cotton Growers Association. Cooperating in the meeting will be the agricultural chemicals industry, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Arizona Cotton Growers Association, El Paso Valley Cotton Association, Western Cotton Growers Association, land grant, colleges, vocational agriculture, and farm organizations.

Police Dog . . .

Giving up the search, Raindl went back to the office to make out his report knowing the name of the subject and where he was from. He called Lamesa to get a "wanted" and record on the man. On obtaining this information, the patrolman surmising the pick-up was stolen, Raindl wanted his man, but he could not be found.

About 6:15 a. m., Ringo, the faithful Shep, started barking and running a subject west on Lockwood street. Patrolman Raindl jumped into Car 5 and sped up to head them off, Ringo being on the heels of the subject. When the policeman overtook them, Ringo's job was done, the subject was taken into custody, and the crime solved.

If any time you should be around the City Hall or the City Police Department, give old Ringo a pat on the back and a kind word for he is all right. The Police Department thinks a lot of him. He will remain a pal and friend of Jack and Joe forever. —City Police Department.

College Students Present Program On College Life

Five college students home for the Christmas-New Year's vacation presented the program at Tahoka Rotary Club last Thursday, giving some of their impressions and experiences in college.

Mitchell Williams arranged the program and Susan Thomas, senior student in Southern Methodist University, introduced the speakers.

Craig Leslie, sophomore in Tech, gave his impressions as a freshman going from a small school like Tahoka to a large school like Tech with 13,000 students last year, 5,000 of them freshmen, the shock and frustrations of such a freshman lost among other uncertain college beginners, the difference in attending a high school class of probably 25 students and a college class of 260.

Even as confused as he was, Craig said, he thinks he had a better background to enter college than some students from big high schools like Lamar of Houston, for example.

Craig declared his training in Tahoka High enabled him to meet the challenge of his new college life and he wouldn't trade that Tahoka school training for that of any school.

Sarah Wells, sophomore Home Economic student in Tech, said work in this department somewhat isolates the student from much college activity, but the training is wonderful. She outlined the many phases of the Home Ec. course in college, but pointed out the book learning gained was a small part. Most rewarding, she said, is the practical experience gained in the courses.

She said sewing and cooking are only part of the development. More important is training in home management, recreation, moral values, child care, health, and even art.

Billy Clinton, sophomore liberal arts student in Tech, said for the student who is not quite sure about what he wishes to do he would strongly recommend a liberal arts course, from which one could branch out to almost any phase of educational preparation. He said such a course also permitted a student to get his bearings before deciding what specialty to follow.

Billy also said he had pledged a social fraternity, and life in the fraternity was helping him to learn better how to live with and get along with others.

Carol Smith, graduate of Baylor University and now working on her master's degree at University of Oklahoma, Speech and Hearing Center of the Medical School, said she also works 15 hours a week in the speech clinic.

She told of the work in teaching children with speech defects caused by cleft palates, cerebral palsy, mental retardation, etc., as well as adults with speech defects because of strokes, cancer of throat, etc., and of stutterers.

Carol said most all people with speech defects can be helped, and the fact that you have helped some one improve his speech is very rewarding.

Susan Thomas, senior elementary education major in SMU, told some of her experiences in practice teaching in fourth grade in Dallas city schools.

Mike Orr Named Farmer Of Month For January By Young Farmers

Mike Orr has been selected by Tahoka Chapter of Young Farmers as the "Young Farmer of the Month" for January.

Mike is the son of O. D. Orr. He graduated from Tahoka High School in 1961 and attended Texas Tech for two years. While in high school he was elected the "Outstanding Agriculture Student" of 1960-61. He is a member of the Church-of-Christ in Tahoka.

Mike is married to the former Miss Jan Brown, a Tahoka native and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. (Red) Brown. She attended Draughton's Business College before their marriage. She is a member of Tahoka Young Homemakers.

Mike and his father farm 655 acres in partnership. They have 260 acres of dryland cotton.

They break a portion of their land and double chisel the rest for better root and water penetration and to help control weeds. All farming is done on the contour to conserve water.

They plant their cotton two-in and one-out to increase production and help build up the soil. They do some summer fallowing and plant cowpeas on land to be planted in cotton next year. The peas protect against wind erosion during the growing season and add nitrogen to the soil. The peas are planted thin to avoid depletion of soil moisture.

They also plant small acreages of sudan, milo and rye for livestock feed.

Mike cooperates in the Mail-In-Farm Accounting Service, sponsored by State and area farm management specialists, and also with County Agent Bill Griffin. This is a type of accounting used to analyze all the various production expenses accurately. It is also a means of collecting in-put and out-put data for making decisions. It is an aid in making needed adjustment in farm enterprises.

Mike attributes this as a big factor in keeping expenses down and allowing him to live on his income without having to borrow money.

Cotton supports you. You support cotton!

She explained how Educational TV is being used effectively with young children in some subjects, and told how Spanish is taught this way. She also told something of Modern Math and how grade school children are being introduced to higher mathematics by new methods at much younger years.

President Wilton Payne announced Southwest Lubbock Club will host the Rotary District Conference April 1, 2 and 3.

Tahoka Youths In Stock Show

Fort Worth (Spl.)—Tahoka FFA has entered 52 barrows in the junior livestock department of the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, January 29 thru February 7, 1965.

Entries in the 1965 Stock Show for cattle, horses, sheep and swine are still being counted. Stock Show President-Manager W. R. Watt is optimistic over the prospect of topping last year's record number of entries in these four departments. Poultry, pigeon and rabbit exhibitors have until January 15, 1965 to submit entries.

Watt is enthusiastic, and not cautiously either, over the signing of the Judy Lynn Show as guest stars of the 1965 Stock Show Rodeo. Watt said, "The Judy Lynn troupe will provide our rodeo audiences with real first class entertainment." The Stock Show Boss signed the Judy Lynn Show for the rodeo after a special trip to Las Vegas to hear them. He said, "I was impressed with the group the minute I heard them, they have a wide repertoire which includes all types of music." The Judy Lynn Show will be coming to the Rodeo direct from extended engagements at the Golden Nugget, Las Vegas; Harrah's Reno and Lake Tahoe; and The Trade Winds Hotel, Fort Lauderdale.

Copies of the 1965 Premium List are available from the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, P. O. Box 150, Fort Worth, Texas, 76101. Rodeo tickets are available from the same address and mail orders are now being taken.

Recent visitors in the Roger Bell home have been their son, Carlton, teacher in Scotsdale Junior High in El Paso, and his girl friend, Miss Lee Strain, also a teacher; their daughter, Martha Bell, a secretary at Texas Tech; Mrs. Bell's father, C. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Craig and children visited Carlsbad Cavern last week end.

Ball Teams In Slaton Tourney

In a tournament that will pit every team against each one entered, Slaton plays host in a three-day basketball event this week end.

Entered are boys and girls teams from Tahoka, Slaton, Post and Shallowater.

On Tuesday night, Jan. 12, the Bulldogs and varsity girls open their conference season at Slaton at 6:30 p. m. in District 5-A competition.

The local girls were playing Post at 5:00 p. m. Thursday afternoon followed by the Tahoka-Post boys game at 6:15 p. m. in the Slaton tournament.

Today the Tahoka teams play Slaton at 6:30 and 8:00 p. m.

On Saturday at 5:00 and 6:15 p. m. the Tahoka and Shallowater teams meet, followed by the Post-Slaton games.

"I'M ALLERGIC"

By Dr. H. W. McIlroy

You can't eat eggs, chocolate, wheat, oats, tomatoes, or a long list of other things because if you do, you'll break out in a rash or hives, or stop up and cry with hayfever, or choke with asthma. You're allergic!

So—you're allergic. Now that you've admitted this quite obvious fact, what are you going to do about it? You can check it with drugs—an endless task—or try to find out what causes it and remove the cause to end the whole thing.

An allergy is an abnormal condition of your body. Normal people with normal bodies can eat these things with no ill effects. Our allergic body reacts in an abnormal or pathologic manner. Stimulated nerve endings in your nose, or lungs, or skin, become red hot and tender causing muscles to tighten, and blood vessels to enlarge and fill with blood, and the capillaries fill with fluid, all of which produces a hot, tender swelling which in your nose is called hayfever, on your skin is hives, and in your lungs is asthma.

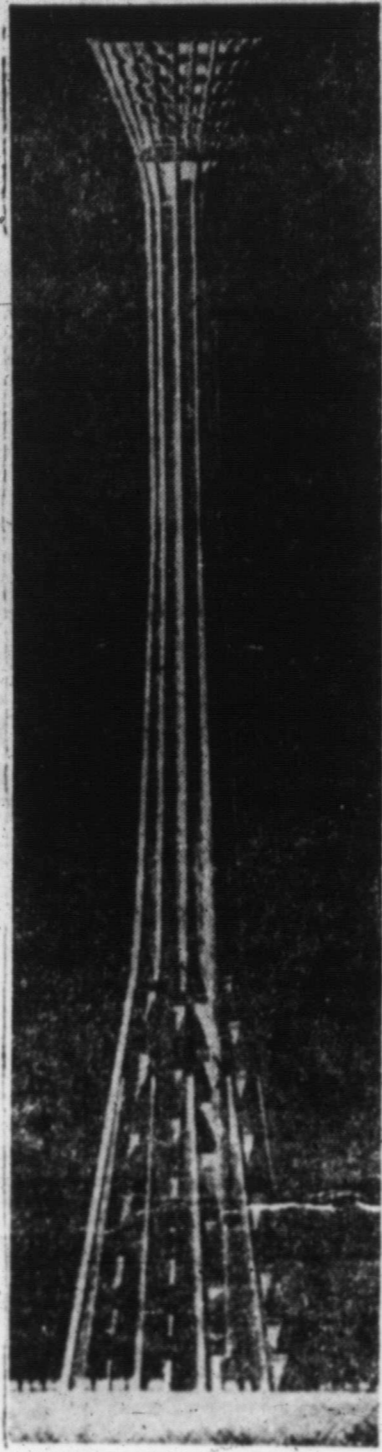

Allergies must have a cause just like everything else. Our specialty is to find and REMOVE THE CAUSE. This case, similar to many in our clinic files, is a good example of how it's done. This young man complained of a nervous allergy. His face, neck and back were covered with boils, skin eruptions and old scarred pores from previous allergic attacks. He was extremely nervous, biting his nails as he related his past history. He suffered most of the year with hayfever, asthma or head colds that kept his nose constantly inflamed and stopped up. This, together with throbbing headaches and indigestion caused him to awaken tired and exhausted from lack of sleep. He had been to several specialists and had treatments, all of which failed.

Discouraged, he came to Chiropractic upon the recommendation of a former patient and neighbor. He was examined and X-rays disclosed a spinal injury sustained during his teens, causing several nerve interferences with his central nervous system. Under corrective spinal adjustments, realignment was made and the nerve disturbance removed. His skin cleared up and his other complaints disappeared as normal function was permitted to return.

He found normal health which had been here waiting for him all the time he was in misery. Amazing to you, amazing to our critics, routine to us. Results satisfied, amazed but happy, patients speak for themselves.

You can read these case history references many times without benefit unless you investigate—do it today—you have nothing to lose except your bad health. 214 Tahoka Road, Brownfield, Texas. Telephone 637-3242. Next article in next issue.

WORLD'S TALLEST—This is the preliminary proposed design of the tower structure which will be located in the center of the 1968 "Fair of the Americas" to be held in San Antonio. It will be the tallest concrete structure in the world, with a minimum height of 650 to 700 feet stretching almost 70 stories in the air. It will be constructed with a capital investment of $4.5 million and have observation decks and restaurants at the top and intermediate levels. The illuminated tower will be visible for 100 miles when seen from the air at night. HemisFair architects are now working on the exact design and specifications which will bring to reality the future permanent Texas landmark.
