An underground sprinkler system is being installed to water the lawns at each building, the work being done by city employees.

PATTERSON HAS SURGERY

Building Started By Lumber Firm

Ground was broken early this week for the new Higginbotham-Bartlett Company lumber yard on the former Ross property on Lockwood street, or US Highway 380, a block east from the intersection of Highway 380 with US 87.

Right-of-way for the new four-lane divided US 87 highway through Tahoka a block east of the square, took a major portion of the present yard of Higginbotham-Bartlett, forcing the firm to a new location.

Complete plans for the new buildings are not yet available in Tahoka, but a building permit for $15,000 has been taken out from the City, and work is starting on an office building and warehouse. Everton Nevill is the contractor.

The office building will be 36 feet wide and 82 feet deep and will face west on Avenue H, formerly known as Alley Street, fronting west, will give the firm's customers more parking space and safety than would be the case if the opening fronted on U. S. Highway 380. The office building front will be brick-faced.

One warehouse 300 by 91 feet in size is being started at this time, but Mr. Nevill says he does not have complete plans for the entire new layout.

Right-of-way for the new highway through town is almost complete. The News is informed, except for some tracts which may have to be acquired through condemnation. Also, many of the buildings along the route have already been moved and the lots cleared.

Property for the new highway has been bought 50 percent by the State of Texas, 25 percent by City of Tahoka, and 25 percent by Lynn County.

Property of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Ross, or rather that part remaining which was not taken by the new right-of-way, was purchased by Higginbotham-Bartlett several months ago.

Higginbotham-Bartlett is one of the older firms in town. Maurice Small, whose father, the late G. W. Small was the first manager, says the yard was established in 1910 soon after the railroad came here and the present west shed was built in 1912, the east in 1916, and the present middle office building in 1920 while G. M. Stewart was manager.

E. T. (Thurman) Wells joined the firm soon after Mr. Small, and later became manager of the O'Donnell firm, which position he has held continuously.

A. R. Milliken has been the manager for nearly 20 years.

Back in the early "teens", lumber was hauled from the local yard to Brownfield and all the way over into New Mexico, until the railroad was built a few years later to Brownfield and Seagraves.

City Beautification Program Kicked-Off By Civic Leaders

Further plans for a proposed Tahoka Beautification program were discussed Tuesday afternoon at a meeting of 12 civic club leaders, city and chamber of commerce officials at Tahoka City Hall. Mrs. H. R. Tankersley, president of Tahoka Garden Club and sponsor of the move, presided.

Decision was made to launch a program immediately:

1. Install flower boxes in down town Tahoka with all merchants who will do so participating.
2. Urge beautification of Memorial Triangle and the Court House lawn.
3. Seek installation of flower boxes, flower beds, and further beautification of homes in the residence section.

4. Launch a clean-up, paint-up campaign in both the business and residence sections and along the highways entering town.

The general idea is to make Tahoka more attractive for benefit of its own citizens, to promote community pride, and to generate business through such a beautification program.

Inspiration for the program came from the recent showing of a film on "The Flower Box City," Neosho, Missouri, at a mass meeting of interested citizens a week before.

Flower and planter boxes would be installed on sidewalks in front of business institutions, and a few are already constructing such boxes. Most business men contacted have expressed enthusiasm in the proposal. The News is informed.

Garden Club ladies suggest such flowers as petunias, geraniums, phlox, calladiums, cannas, verbennas, periwinkles, coleus, as well as moss, ivy, evergreens, etc. are suitable for such plantings in planter boxes and in vacant ground adjacent to buildings. Compost or peat moss should be used in the boxes to insure healthy growth.

The Missouri town, as well as some other towns, have gained national prominence and publicity from such a program, and the same could happen here with simple cooperation of citizens at very little cost, leaders in the movement declare.

Both home owners and business people are being asked to join in the move.

Elsewhere in this issue is a coupon, or pledge, citizens are requested to sign and mail to Tahoka Beautification Program, Box 1388, Tahoka, for more information.

Later, if the project goes well, the steering committee hopes to select some more definite name or motto for the Tahoka undertaking.

In the meantime, sponsors are seeking to rush up the project to make a showing this summer, as spring is already here.

Attending Tuesday's meeting were: Mrs. Tankersley and Mrs. J. D. Martin of the Garden Club, Mayor Meldon Leslie, County Judge W. M. Mathis, Mrs. Truett Smith from Phebe K. Warner Club, Eugene Munsell from the Highway Department, Blake Lovelace of the Soil Conservation Service, Johnny Wells and Mrs. Retha Dunn from the Chamber of Commerce, Horace Rogers representing business men, Frank Hill of the newspaper, and two or three others.

Future Homemaker Officers Installed At Annual Mother-Daughter Banquet Tuesday

Installation of officers for the 1965-66 school term was held at the annual Mother-Daughter Future Homemakers of America banquet in the school cafeteria Tuesday night.

Rhonda Littlepage, current president, was mistress of ceremonies. She and Jackie Burnett, first vice president, made presentations to guests and various FHA members.

A salad supper was served following the invocation by Jill Edwards. Rhonda gave the welcome address, and Mrs. E. A. Howie, the response.

Four girls who have submitted applications for State Degrees in FHA, the highest achievement a member can make, were recognized by Mrs. Madeline Hegi, FHA sponsor, including Judy Connolly, Karen Laws, Rhonda and Jackie. She also presented a long-stemmed red rose to Jean Flippin, who is deserving of much credit although she was unable to complete her degree because of other obligations.

Mrs. Hegi said that from over 40 degrees submitted to the state from Tahoka over the years, one has never been turned down. She told of the tremendous effort required in service to the girls' homes, churches, school and community to obtain the high award. Chapter degrees and junior degrees were presented to a large group of girls. Along with chapter degrees went a long-stemmed red rose and a gift.

Long-stemmed red roses were also presented several ladies attending the event who have contributed to the success of the local FHA chapter.

Jean Flippin opened the program with a vocal solo and led the group during the evening in FHA songs.

Mothers were introduced by the girls and a rose was given to Mrs. T. R. Riddle, who is now seeing her fifth daughter through the FHA chapter. Also introduced was Mrs. H. B. Cox of Garnett, Kansas, mother of Mrs. Hegi, who was here to attend a Mother-Daughter banquet for the first time. Mrs. Lester, homemaking teacher here, was also recognized. A special tribute was made to Marla Bray, new State FHA officer, and to Stella Howie, Area II parliamentarian and new chapter president.

The installation ceremony was held following a ritual when officers told the purposes of FHA. As each purpose was repeated, each officer placed a red rose in a crystal bud vase, and the array formed a semi-circle on a table covered in a linen cut-work cloth. Miss Littlepage installed the officers and presented the gavel to the new president, Stella Howie.

Other officers include Marla Bray, first vice president succeeding Jackie Burnett; Chloe Huffaker, second vice president, succeeding Karen Laws; Mary Ellen Wyatt, third vice president, succeeding Judy Connolly; Joy Thomas, fourth vice president, succeeding Jean Flippin; Davaughn Evans, fifth vice president, succeeding Stella Howie; Karen Autry and Brenda Foster, treasurers, succeeding Janis Bairrington; Barbara Orr, recording secretary, succeeding Jan Whitaker; Lexi Adams, corresponding secretary, succeeding Mary Ellen Wyatt; Frances Chapa, historian, succeeding Rhonda Lawrence; Jeri Ashcraft, parliamentarian, succeeding Davaughn Evans; Elva Jo Edwards, pianist, succeeding Marla Bray. Jan Roberts was installed as executive assistant, a new office.

Assisting with the serving were boys who have aided Miss Bray in the presentation of a devotional for several occasions, including the recent Area meeting in Odessa, Jack Edwards, John Huffaker, Richard White, Ralph and Bill Brock, as well as the FHA Beau, A. G. Cook.

Lynn County Soil Conservation District News

E. E. BLAKNEY HAROLD PAYNE
 WARD EAKIN BOYD BARNES
 JIGGS SWANN

Conservation is beauty in our towns as well as on our farm lands.

Conservation is the flowers, green grass, trees and shrubs in our yards, parks and along our roads.

Conservation is needed to preserve these areas from ugly erosion and becoming unpleasant areas of obnoxious plants. Conservation in these areas provides us with clean and wholesome places for recreation, relaxation and enjoyment, says Mrs. H. R. Tankersley, chairman of the Tahoka Garden Club.

Planting of cover crops on bare areas such as on the south side of the Brownfield highway entering Tahoka and other vacant lots and around homes helps beautify Tahoka. Such would also reduce wind erosion and the dust it creates, the stuff that is impossible to keep out of our homes and sinuses. Mulching with cotton burs, planting grass and windbreaks are also effective in protecting the soil, said Mrs. Tankersley. When we destroy nature's cover, we must protect and beautify our soil again with other conservation measures.

We all treasure our hours of recreation which includes golf, hunting wildlife, fishing in ponds and lakes, boating, and picnicking. We tend to take it for granted that all these forms of recreation will always be here. But increases in population, intensified land use, more land going into urban areas, roads, and business developments will put more pressure on recreation facilities and decrease the area available.

Wildlife will decrease unless there is interest and effort to maintain it. Ponds and lakes will silt in if our soils are not protected. Our water can become polluted if not protected from the waste and by-products of our society, said Blake Lovelace of the Soil Conservation Service.

We are all dependent on our soil and water resources. The National Association of Soil Conservation Districts reports that in 1950 we had 3.1 acres of cropland per person; by 1975 we will have 2.2 acres; by the year 2000, we will have only 1.6 acres per person on which to produce many of the necessities of life.

Conservation on the farms and grasslands of our community and country is necessary for a continuing strong and profitable agriculture; also a continuing economy for all of us. Conservation is an insurance that our children and their children will have good soil and water from which the food they eat and the fiber they use will be produced, said Lovelace.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Roper and Miss Nelda Roper of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rackler had dinner in the home of Mrs. J. F. Rackler.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dyess and children visited in Spur over the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Dyess.

There will be a Quarterly Convention meeting this Wednesday evening at the Southland Methodist Church. A Pot Luck Supper will be enjoyed by the members and then the officers for the coming year will be elected. A revival in this church will begin this coming Sunday evening, March 28 through April 4, with services beginning at 7:30 each evening. Rev. Raymond Riley of Abilene will be conducting the services. Everyone is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rackler attended the Fat Stock Show in Lubbock on Tuesday. J. B. Jr. had some hogs entered in the show.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Thornton from Fairfield visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Callaway on Sunday. He is a Baptist minister and preached in Lubbock on Sunday.

Edmund and I talked to Buford Jones the other night. Buford had been on the sick list for quite a while and it sure was good to see him up and going again. He said that he was feeling pretty good and we certainly hope that he stays that way. Mr. and Mrs. Jones are two of the friendliest people that I know. They always seem to have a cheerful word for you. It is wonderful when we don't let our own troubles and problems keep us from spreading a few cheerful words, and deeds among our fellowmen.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Bryson, Dan, Kathy and Terry spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Scott of South Plains.

SAN JACINTO . . .

in 18 Minutes—Blessed Freedom!

At 3:30 P.M. on April 21, 1836, General Sam Houston launched his attack. So sure was Mexican Army Commander Santa Anna of his troops' superiority that he did not even post sentries during the customary afternoon siesta.

The freedom-inflamed Texans, shouting "Remember the Alamo!", sprang upon the enemy. In the incredibly short space of 18 minutes Texas' freedom was won.

Santa Anna was captured. Six hundred and thirty officers and men were killed; the rest taken prisoner. Texas lost only nine men killed or mortally wounded, with 30 less seriously wounded. When the captured Santa Anna ordered his troop commanders to leave Texas, the last threat to peace was removed. Texas was free!

'FREE MEN DEPEND ON US!

Today, we cannot—with one decisive stroke—wipe out the threats to freedom that are all around us. Instead, we must join together for an almost unending task of holding at bay those who would destroy the liberty we hold so dear.

Our dollars, banded together in U.S. Savings Bonds, help keep our defenses strong—making sure that no enemy will smash through to victory over freedom.

You can be an active partner in defending freedom by buying U.S. Savings Bonds at your bank or on the payroll savings plan where you work.

GRASSLAND NEWS

(By Mrs. O. H. Hoover)
I think some one left the gate open last week. All at once it was so cold! I spent the week in Plainview with Nina Belle and Thursday and Friday it snowed all day. It melted nearly as fast as it fell, but boy, did it look cold.

There is nothing between Plainview and the North Pole but a barbed wire fence. I guess we will just go out of winter into summer, with no spring at all.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Lee and Mrs. Lucian Walker were visitors in the C. A. Walker home Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Ivy Young had a heart attack Sunday morning. She was under oxygen Sunday and Monday until late afternoon. She is in Garza Hospital at Post and seemed better late Monday. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Luttrell attended the John Deere show in Tahoka Saturday and also visited in LaVoy Nursing Home with Mrs. King, Mrs. Spears, Miss Walker and Mrs. Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis McKay's daughters visited them Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wilson and children of Lamesa and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gillespie and daughter of Kermit.

Mrs. Lucy Cunningham has returned from a three month stay in Modesto, Calif., with her son and wife. She reports nice, sunny weather nearly every day but cold enough you needed a coat nearly every day. She said she enjoyed her visit very much but good old Texas sure looked good, sandstorms and all. Variety is the spice of life and we sure have it in the weather in West Texas.

Mrs. Billie Joe Wall Carroll, husband and son of New Home, visited Mrs. Carrie Wall Sunday. Her daughter, Faye Ramsey, visited in the afternoon.

Mrs. O. F. Haley had an accident last week that could have been serious. She was alone but it seems she blacked out, fell and hit her head, but fortunately not too bad. She seems all right now, thank goodness.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Murray visited the W. G. McCleskeys Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gribble had lunch Sunday with Mrs. Lucy Cunningham.

H. E. Huffaker, Gene Parrish - Tahoka's ZIP Code is 79373.

and Mr. Riddle of Tahoka went fishing in Falcon Lake from Monday until Friday. They caught about 150 fish.

Rev. and Mrs. Allen had lunch Sunday with the M. C. Ritcheys. Rev. Allen is supplying for the Church of the Nazarene in O'Donnell until assembly in May.

Company for lunch in the Huffaker home Sunday were Rev. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Laws and children, Hoolie, Lavern and Delbert McCleskey and three of the Huffaker grandchildren. Ollie said she fed them fish.

Rev. and Mrs. Ray Forbes' son, A/2 Class Ronnie Forbes and bride, who have been honeymooning in the home of his parents, left Friday afternoon, spent one night on the road, and arrived at Clearfield, Utah Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Appling spent a week in East Texas visiting their children and grandchildren. They visited Killeen, Milano and Bryan, Texas. Mrs. Appling reports it was cold there, same as here. No rebuds or bluebonnets in bloom yet.

Mrs. A. Z. Sewell spent the day Sunday with the W. T. Luttrells. Mr. and Mrs. Danny Enloe have moved to Justiceburg and are running a Texaco service station on the highway. They spent the night Thursday with his parents, the L. A. Enloes.

The small son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Enloe is ill with the flu and we wish him a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Jim McGrew spent Wednesday and Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Lucille Walker, then Thursday night Lucille went home with her and was an overnight guest.

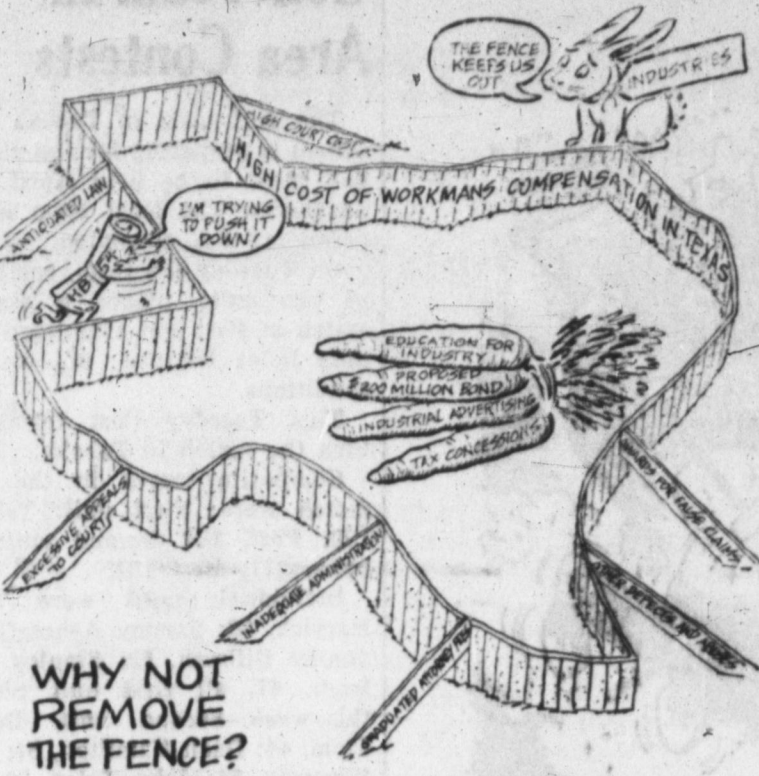

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Cooper and children of Slaton spent the day Thursday with the L. A. Enloe family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Slover of Tahoka spent the afternoon with the C. M. Greers. Mrs. Grace Thomas was also a visitor.

Mrs. Betty Grace Hall and daughter of Lubbock spent the day Sunday with Mrs. Grace Thomas.

JOB AND BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY AT STAKE

The "fence" must be torn down if Texas is to get its just share of new and needed industrial growth and expansion. Texas must have industrial growth if our economy is to expand and provide more job opportunity. Farming, mining, and manufacturing are the three main foundation piers that support our basic economy. Farming and mining as sources of employment are growing weaker. Manufacturing (or processing) must be strengthened to bear more and more weight or the economy will topple. Special lures to industry, though temporarily appealing, are not the answer. A good business climate, as reflected through governmental intent, will provide the appeal that will secure the stable industries essential to the long-range growth of the economy. House Bill 54, now pending in the Legislature, would, if enacted, remove a major defect in the Texas business climate by amending and up-dating the antiquated Texas Workmen's Compensation laws. House Bill 54 is being opposed by a "vocal few" who, either because of selfishness or lack of understanding, want the law to remain in its present inadequate, antiquated form. Will these few be permitted to impede the progress of the economy and the resultant benefit to the many? This is the question the Legislature must answer. Job and business opportunity is at stake.

O'Donnell Ladies Holding Hat Sale

O'Donnell Order of Eastern Star invites all ladies of O'Donnell and surrounding territory to attend a "come and go" hat sale party at the home of Mrs. S. M. Clayton Jr. on Saturday, March 27, from 9:00 a. m. until 5:00 p. m.

There will be 100 hats on display which will sell no higher than $3.98. These are nice hats which Come early, girls, while the selection is good, and buy yourself another Easter bonnet!

Mrs. Abbie Whorton Moves To Lubbock

Mrs. Abbie Whorton, after living here more than 20 years, has accepted a position in Lubbock and traded her home here for a nice new residence on 68th street in that city.

She went to work March 15 as bookkeeper for the H. L. Lowe Estate, which has an office on the 15th floor of the Great Plains Life building.

Her husband, J. T. Whorton, died last spring from injuries received in a car accident which also critically injured Mrs. Whorton and J. T.'s brother, Joe Whorton of Albany. She recently closed out her ladies shop here.

Mrs. Whorton says she is leaving Tahoka with deep regrets but is glad she can remain close by her old friends here. However, both her son and daughter are in Lubbock and she can now spend more time with them.

Drive Renewed On Screwworms

Lynn County Screwworm Eradication Committee is laying plans for this county's participation in a concentrated drive to raise $300,000 from the Texas livestock industry for the Screwworm Eradication program.

The fund drive will begin Monday, March 29, and will be concluded Monday, April 12. A meeting of all Texas county committee chairmen in Austin Friday, March 26, will officially kick off the drive.

Donations can be made to members of the local screwworm committee, who include George Claud Wells, Cleve Littlepage, Melvin Wuensche, Mel Leslie, Bertice Askew, Edmund Maeker, and Leighton Knox.

Necessity for additional production funds was announced earlier this month by the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation which, along with the State of Texas and the U. S. Department of Agriculture, is conducting the eradication program.

The program needs approximately $1.1 million to operate through April, May and June, Geo. C. Wells explained. The Texas Legislature has already voted $250,000 and Congress is expected to appropriate $550,000 of the three-month period. These government funds cannot be spent, however, unless produced money is also made available, the county chairman stressed.

The screwworm fly has been eradicated from the Southwest, but a barrier of live, sterile flies must be maintained along the U. S.-Mexico border to prevent fertile flies from Mexico reinfesting the U. S. Approximately 100 million sterile flies will be needed each week during April, May and June. If funds are not made available, the Southwest stands to lose the gains that have already been made.

W. B. Griffin, county agricultural agent, said in the three years the program has been in existence savings of more than $168 million have been realized by producers. He said no screwworm infestations were detected in this county last year.

Congress is considering a USDA request for $5 million which would make the program financed entirely by the Federal government beginning July 1.

Golf Association Elects Officers

Officers were elected at a luncheon meeting of the Ladies Golf Association of T-Bar Country Club Tuesday and Mrs. Charles Townes will serve as president of the organization, succeeding Mrs. Irving Dunagan.

Vice president is Mrs. James Brookshire; secretary, Mrs. Wayne Waters; social chairman, Mrs. Robert Harvick; and play day chairman, Mrs. Bert Stevens.

Winners in golf play on Tuesday were Mrs. John Thomas, first; Mrs. Bryan Wright, second; Mrs. Robert Harvick, third; Mrs. Clifton Hamilton, fourth; Mrs. A. L. Holder, fifth; and Mrs. Wayne Waters, sixth.

The flag tournament was postponed until next Tuesday if the weather permits. Tee-off time will be 10:00 a. m.

The first play day of the South Plains Ladies Golf Association will be held at Lubbock Country Club April 6.

Rest Lawn New Burial Facility

The News pulled a terrible boner last week in the advertisement of the 'new Rest Lawn Mausoleum and Chapel, just completed at Wolforth, on Highway 62, southwest of Lubbock.

Instead of Rest Lawn, The News had it "Rest Haven," which is entirely incorrect in name.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brown and daughter are the owners of this beautiful new "resting place for the departed," unique in that the mausoleum is all built under ground.

They invite visitors to inspect the facilities.

ENTERS AIR FORCE

Marshall Peyton, son of Mrs. Margiree Evans, left last Friday from Amarillo to enter the Air Force. He is stationed at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio.

Mr. and Mrs. Winston Davies of New Home visited in Richardson Saturday night and Sunday with their son, Dan Cowan, wife and baby, returning home Sunday night.

Mrs. Travis (Sue) Inman, radio dispatcher at Lyntegar, underwent major surgery Tuesday in Methodist Hospital.

Golf Team In Area Contests

The golf team in Tahoka High School is preparing for the district golf meet to be held April 5 in Seagraves. The local team is the defending 5-A champion.

On Tuesday the team, composed of two units, played a practice match at Post and completed only nine holes because of weather conditions.

This Tuesday Post teams return the match in Tahoka.

Composite scores in the first match were: First unit: Tahoka, 192; Post, 188. Second unit: Tahoka, 211; Post 181.

Individual scores were Terry Harvick, 50; Sammy Ashcraft, 43; Jimmy Billman, 52; Stanley Renfrow, 47, all first unit players this week. Second unit, Dennis Clem, 44; Dean Hamilton, 54; Jack Edwards, 54; John Tyler, 50.

Coach Jake Jacobs said that according to the scores there will probably be some "shake-ups" in the units for next Tuesday's match.

Tom McNeely Wins Plainview Contest

Tom McNeely, 14 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill (Shorty) McNeely and an eighth grade student in Plainview, was the first place winner in a modern math contest held last week for that district's junior and senior high school students.

He is the recipient of a $100.00 scholarship and a $25.00 savings bond as a result of making the highest grade of all students, both junior and senior high students, in the district event.

The contest was held Saturday morning at Wayland College.

Tom's parents are graduates of Tahoka High School. His mother is the former Miss Jean Henderson. His grandparents, all of Tahoka, are Mr. and Mrs. Harley Henderson and Mr. and Mrs. Bill McNeely.

Last year Tom won the second top honor in a science contest held at Plainview.

Other Side Selma Story Is Told By Tahoka Man

Would you like to hear some of the true facts from the other side about the Selma, Alabama, racial disorders?

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. (Cap) Rowe returned home Friday night from a visit with his two sisters in that city, and while there saw some of the sights pictured in the newspapers and on television, visited personally over the area in question.

"Cap" declares the news services, most represented by biased northern reporters, magazine writers, and television cameramen, as well as the President of the United States, have grossly misrepresented the situation or told half-truths.

His two sisters are Mrs. W. M. Elbert, wife of a physician, and Miss Emma Faye Rowe, a dental technician, and both have lived in Selma many years.

The facts which follow were gleaned from personal visits by "Cap", information furnished by his kin, and from the local newspapers, three copies of which, the Selma Times-Journal, he brought The News.

Selma is an old Southern town 100 years old, having a population of 15,000 Negroes, 14,000 whites. The Negro schools are the best in town, and there are two fine Negro Colleges here.

Until recently there has been little racial hatred, although segregated most white and Colored people are friends and have lived in harmony. Most Colored people are of the better class, but there is quite a group of uneducated, ne'er-do-wells who won't work, and many of them are lawless. Even during this strife, the better class Negroes have "no truck" with the racial disorders, are going about their business, and he saw and met many of them in stores.

Like most Southern states, Negroes did not vote until a few years ago, 1962, but all qualified have been allowed to register according to state laws, the same as whites, and those qualified have not been denied a vote.

Trouble started some time back when Rev. Martin Luther King came to town from Montgomery in a U.S. Government car, escorted by U. S. Government men. Sheriff James G. Clark, Public Safety Director Wilson Baker, and later Governor George C. Wallace, questioned the use of a Government car by a Civil Rights agitator. This got into the national press, and King and Government officials were embarrassed. As a result, Rev. King told them he would make Montgomery, Selma, and Alabama sorry they gave him trouble over the Government car use.

He kept his promise. For nine weeks Selma has been under siege by mobs, mostly white people from other parts of the nation, about 600 most of the time, and many of these ministers, rabbis, priests, and nuns. Over fifty percent of the marchers are white.

These outsiders—Cap Rowe saw with his own eyes—are staying in the Negro "red light" district of a Negro slum area, where they (Continued back page, Sec 2)

TAHOKA, TEXAS "Heart of the South Plains" FRIDAY, MARCH 26, 1965

J. O. Allen Was Buried Friday

Funeral services for J. O. Allen, 67, were held at 2:00 p. m. Friday in the First Methodist Church with Rev. Aubrey White, pastor, Rev. DeWitt Seago of Brownfield, and Rev. T. James Efrid, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating.

Burial was in Tahoka Cemetery under direction of White Funeral Home.

Mr. Allen died Wednesday, March 17, at 11:55 p. m. at his home in Tahoka, where he and Mrs. Allen had lived the past four months. They moved to town from the Dixie community, where Mr. Allen had farmed since coming to Lynn county in 1922.

Among survivors are his wife; one son, Johnny, of Wichita Falls; three sisters, one brother and two grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Claude Carter, Othell Meeks, Maurice Huffaker, Maurice Bray, Curtis Stevens and Mike DeLeon. Honorary pallbearers were members of the Downtown Men's Sunday School Class.

Tahoka Scouters Attend Banquet

Six Boy Scout leaders and their wives attended the annual Quannah Parker District Appreciation Dinner held in Brownfield Friday night.

Troop 721 of Tahoka received advancement recognition awards presented by Joe Spikes of Lamesa.

Attending the event, when Joe H. Collyns, director of public relations of General Telephone Company, was the speaker, were Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Gaither, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Jaquess, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Curry, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Harvick, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. McCord, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Rush Dudgeon.

Rotary Club Elects New Directors, Sees Skits Presented By Juniors

Skits from the Junior Class play, "Who Killed Aunt Caroline?", were presented by cast members at the Rotary Club Thursday noon. Paul Douglas Kenley introduced the numbers.

Mrs. Ray Adams, co-sponsor with C. L. Rogers, explained that plays such as this are extra-curricular activities in the Tahoka Schools, and students practice for the presentation after school hours. Formerly, she said, students had time for such in off-periods, but with the stepped up school program this must now be done all on the students' time.

James Hollars, Jackie Burnett, and Eddie Howard formed a vocal trio to present several numbers. They also performed between acts at the play.

Clifton Clark, in charge of the program, introduced the group. Prior to the program, in a brief business session presided over by club president Wilton Payne, three new directors, club secretary and club treasurer were elected.

In fact, Robert Abbe was "steam-rolled" back in as secretary. "Pete" Hewlett as treasurer and Harold Roberts and Dr. Gerald Wood as directors. One new director, Harold Reynolds, was elected. The new and old boards were to meet this week and select the incoming president.

Holdover directors are Steve Thompson and Dayton Parker, and Ross Smith is the current vice president.

Payne appointed a committee composed of Leighton Knox, Fred McGinty, and E. L. Short to select a candidate for rodeo queen to be sponsored by the club.

Student guests for March, A. G. Cook and Mike Huffaker, were introduced, respectively by Clint Walker and Frank Hill.

In observance of National Secretaries, associates or employees of Rotarians were to be guests this Thursday and present the program.

Mrs. Myrtle Connolly has been in California for two weeks visiting her daughter, Mrs. Maxine Conrad. She will remain there until about May 1.

Mrs. Marihelen Kamp Honored At Tech

Mrs. Marihelen Kamp was among Texas Tech students receiving special recognition at the annual All-College Recognition Service held Sunday afternoon in the Tech Union Ballroom.

She is the former Miss Marihelen Reid, daughter of Mrs. Etta Lorene Reid of Tahoka, and is a graduate of Tahoka High School. Her husband is Dan Kamp, formerly with the Soil Conservation Service here, and now Superintendent of Parks in Lubbock.

Mrs. Kamp received an individual honor for scholarship in agriculture. She also received a scholarship for honor graduates from District I, Garden Club.

Although she has made the Dean's List every semester at Texas Tech, this is the first time she has made the All-College list.

Marihelen received her bachelor's degree in January and is continuing work on her master's degree. She also is a student lab instructor in horticulture at Texas Tech in the agriculture department.

Mr. and Mrs. Kamp have one daughter, Holly, who is three years old.

26 Lost Drivers Licenses In 1964

Twenty-six persons in Lynn County had their driver's license suspended during 1964, according to a Texas Department of Public Safety report.

Suspensions for the failure to file or show proof of financial responsibility when involved in accidents accounted for 16 of the suspensions.

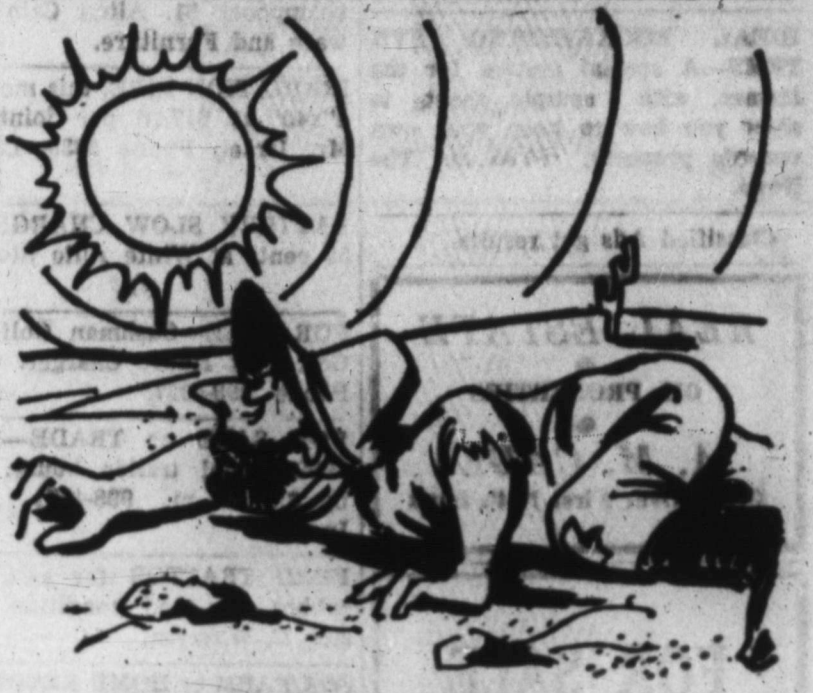

The other 10 suspensions were for violations, with eight being for driving while intoxicated and two for habitual violation.

An additional 11 persons were denied renewal of driver's license during the year. Seven of these denials were for conviction of DWI, two for having committed aggravated assault with motor vehicle and one for negligent homicide.

PLEDGES FRATERNITY

Lubbock—Texas Tech fraternities have announced the pledging of 268 men for the spring semester. Pledging from New Home is Richard Max Blakney, Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

PLAY IT SAFE!
2307 JULY '63 M.P. 23
Farming holds certain financial hazards, but fortunately, many of them can be eliminated by means of a well-planned program of insurance. Why gamble when you can play it safe?

There are so many unpredictable hazards in farming that it is impossible for any man to foresee what the future may be. We do know the best policy is to play the financial game conservatively, prepare in advance for possible backsets, and maintain the best credit rating possible. We're glad to help when we can. Chevelle Malibu Sport Coupe

No matter how you look at it, this car makes a lot of sense. If you're interested in value (and who isn't), the eleven features above give you a good idea why more intermediate-size car buyers are thinking Chevelle.

If you're looking for a wide power choice, Chevelle starts out with a standard 120-hp Six, an ideal city performer. After that you may order from a variety of engines that turn it into an even greater highway performer.

Room? Large door openings. Wide curved side windows for extra shoulder room. Great front and rear leg room. Those four, five or six passengers have it made. And so do you. Chevelle may seat like a big car but it handles like a smaller car.

Comfort? Thick wall-to-wall carpeting in Malibu models. Foam-cushioned seats. Easy-to-read instrument panel. The whole interior looks like those in cars costing far more.

Come on down to our showroom and take a drive soon. Chevelle begins to make even more sense after you've gone a couple of miles.

Well known to all people in close touch with our Tahoka schools, for some reason there is an atmosphere of unrest and insecurity among many faculty members. This is not good.

We hope no present school board member, or any candidate for a place on the board, has any personal prejudices, axe to grind, or special privileges to seek that will prevent him from making a "top hand" in the business of providing the very best school possible for ALL the community.

Texas Association of School Boards publishes some little booklets that every patron, as well as school board member, should study diligently. They help give an understanding of the place of the school board in representing the community and the board's place in setting general school policies. They are entitled "Local Leadership for Public Education" and "So You're a School Board Member," and the latter contains a "Code of Ethics for School Board Members" that deserves serious study and consideration.

During his short time here, Supt. Reynolds has made a fine impression on most citizens. The administration, the faculty, the board, the patrons, the students working together can make quite a team!

Harold Sanders of O'Donnell calls attention to some new Lynn county organizations becoming a vital part in the present and future life of our county—Young Farmers and Young Homemakers organizations at Tahoka, O'Donnell, and New Home. Here's an important cog in the future of our agricultural life: These young people are doing a fine work. They will be our leaders in a few years. Give them a pat on the back—as our young people go, so goes the nation.

Carl Gene Spears says it is so dry that the Baptists have started sprinkling and the Methodists are using a damp cloth.

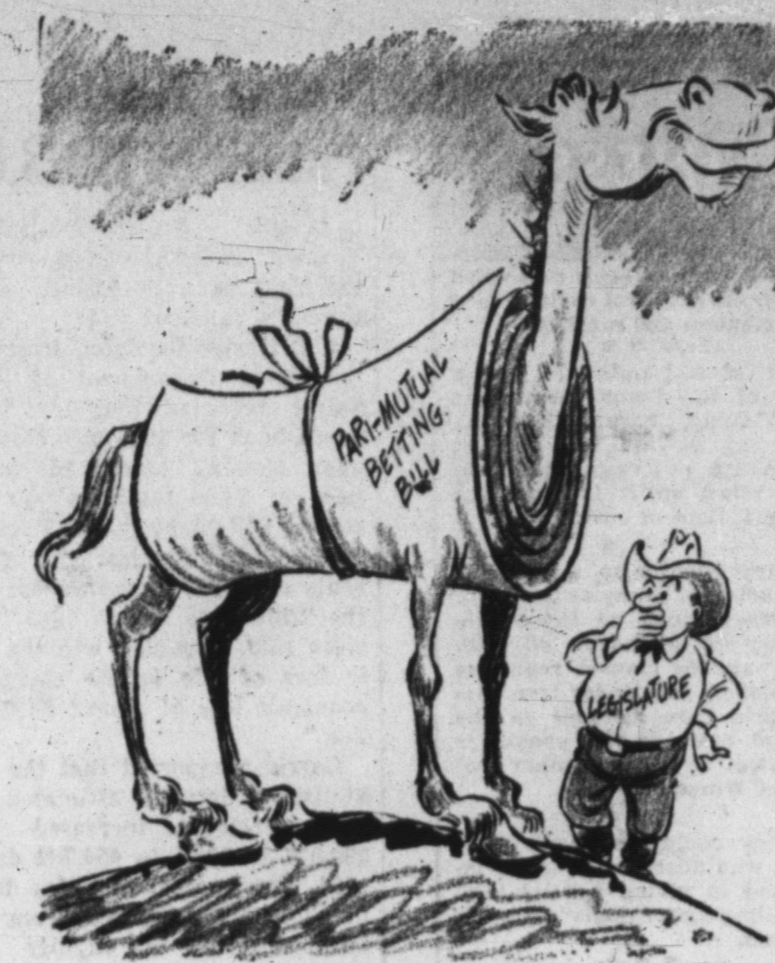

A lot of people have expressed shock and disappointment at some of President Johnson's statements and objectives on farming, civil rights, voting, poverty, etc. We don't understand why, if one paid any attention to the Party platform, convention and campaign speeches, and other signs of the times.

His voting rights bill "to help rid the nation of racial discrimination" is drastic, sweeping, and could erase the last vestige of responsible government and the free enterprise system in the United States. It could relegate any opposition to the "establishment" to a small minority.

If we are to wipe out all voting requirements such as "ability to read and write, understand, or interpret any matter," all "tests and devices" to determine a person's ability to vote intelligently, all qualifications as to "good moral character," along with racial discrimination, then we are throwing the country wide open to the "have nots." We will become a one-party nation. One party rule leads to the "iron fist," which is already being shaken at us people who don't conform. The "booted heel" is already being stomped on the neck of the opposition. You say it can't happen here?

What's going to happen with welfare programs? Even the illiterate and other people not even interested enough to register or pay a poll tax, will surely vote to extend welfare programs. Will non-property owners be permitted to vote on any kind of bond issue to be paid for by the property owners?

We believe every literate person with enough education to read and write and to inform himself, who is also interested enough in his country's welfare to pay a poll tax, should have a vote—white, black or red. But, we are not in favor of President Johnson's move to turn things wide open to promote his political power.

Neil VanZant in his Gaines County News wonders what would happen if a West Texas newspaper were to handle stories in the manner Nothern wire service writers do when they cover demonstrations in Southern cities. The Southern sheriff is often described as "pot-bellied," and a county official as "beady-eyed." It's all a part of the national campaign, aided by LBJ, to discredit the South.

One of our lawyer friends chided us a few months ago for some criticism of our Supreme Court justices. Early last week when President Johnson delivered his voting rights bill message before the Congress in the presence of many top government officials, Supreme Court Justices, headed by Justice Earl Warren, were shown on television vigorously clapping their hands in apparent agreement and glee. These are the very men who will doubtless pass on the constitutionality of this law. But, before the law is even passed, they have already expressed themselves — constitutional or not. In many instances, the courts deserve criticism—and this is one of them!

What would you think if our district judge attended a trial in county court and cheered when the guilty verdict was brought in, knowing that the case might be appealed to his court? Not too much difference!

Dayton Parker heard this one at a banquet in Lubbock last week: Dr. Martin Luther King didn't get the Nobel Peace Prize because of his contribution to humanity; he got it in the field of mathematics for developing the new formula: "I is equal to you."

A long time ago someone proposed this as the shortest poem ever written:

Charley Didway in Post Dispatch: The Bobby Baker case proved one point. It's hard to get to the bottom of some things without getting too close to the top.

V. P. Haley called in Friday and said, "Get that ad. out of there; I think the first man who read the paper bought my irrigating pipe I had advertised, and they're still calling."

M. S. Renfro, who has quit farming and moved to Ash Grove, Missouri, where he has bought a stock farm, writes: "I am way back here in the hills and don't get much news. Please send your Lynn County News to me. Things sure look good here. We have had lots of rain and snows. The grass is beginning to get green. We have lots of deep moisture. Fishing is real good."

Joe Harrison reports in his "Editor's Corner" of The Texas Spur that Golfer W. D. Blair was having all kinds of troubles. His tee shot landed away out in the rough. He took a swing with a 5-iron but the ball hit a rock, bounced back and socked him on the chin. Blair was heard to mumble something like: "When they start hittin' back it's time to quit."

"Uncle Zeb" in Claude News: Most folks think that Social Security is a form of insurance which one buys from the government with money withheld from their earnings during their working years. . . . This is not the facts of the case. . . . It is rather a tax we pay during our employed time which in turn is used by the government to pay a specified amount to those above a certain age or under specified conditions. . . . If we understand it rightly one is not accumulating toward a paid-up balance. Rather we are taxed to help others and have the hope that someone else will be taxed later to pay our own security.

Thanks to Mrs. Lawrence Harvick for a nice note of encouragement to this column. Like a lot of others, she's exercised about the way the Government throws around the taxpayers' money. A specific example is Mrs. Angier Biddle Duke, socialite wife of our new ambassador to Spain, who is demanding $120,000 of U. S. taxpayers' money to spend to remodel the embassy mansion because she doesn't like the decor. Ruby, we've hollered ourselves hoarse, and even our own Congressman Mahon can't hear the cry of the people. He just recently opposed President's Johnson's plea for help and then relented and "went along", and Congress has approved giving a lot more of my money and yours, without our consent, to old Nassar, who spits in our face and embraces the Communists.

A farmer says he wants all his plowbearers to be bankers as they have carried him so long they might just as well carry him the rest of the way.

Coorigan, Texas, Times says: It's a peculiar world. Washington takes our money, and then threatens to cut off our dole if we don't comply. Foreign nations can trample our flag, wreck our embassies, tell Uncle Sam to go jump in the lake, and still they receive foreign aid with no strings attached. Some things are hard to figure out.

Selma Story . . .

In the same "red light" district is a Negro cafe, where one Rev. James Reeb, a white Unitarian preacher from Boston, was clubbed to death by a white citizen of Selma, accompanied by four other white men. The man wielding the lethal club has a crime history of 25 arrests, and both he and his associates were dubbed as "bugs."

Outsiders, even some of the white ministers, are quoted as saying they were sent to Selma on orders not to associate with white people at all, not even to eat in white restaurants or stay in white hotels. Even the Nuns are housed in the slum district.

Cap saw the church headquarters where the protesters meet to get their orders. In this church, a Negro minister made a statement requesting outsiders to "be careful with our Negro girls and women because, if you don't, there will be too many of them pregnant when you leave."

Negro marchers joining in the protests, principally the ne'er-do-wells from the slums, try to get arrested because they are paid $7.50 for each arrest by the NAACP.

These Negroes spit on, curse, throw stones at, and taunt State troopers and police—and Rowe saw some of this—to try to make the officers attack.

Probably, some officers lost their tempers and were rough on marchers at times. Spectators have roughed up some, especially outside agitators.

An officer was pictured in the nation's press with a billy club raised over a Negro woman, and caption lines said he was beating her. Other pictures available locally in Selma showed the women beating the officer with the club, which he had just wrested from her hands when the publicized picture was taken.

If it were not for the State troopers, however, "Cap" says, the lives of the outside agitators would be in danger from local hot heads, for principal heat locally is generated by the coming of the outside white agitators. Local people are not bothering local Negroes, with whom they are friends, except for the lawbreakers.

Alabama's law requires all people to be literate, to be able to read and write and to have reached the fourth grade level in school. New York state requires an eighth grade level to vote. Both white and black must register, according to law, on certain days.

No Negro who can qualify has been denied the right to register or to vote—according to both Cap's information and statements in Selma papers—except when mobs stormed the registration places to make such registering impossible.

During January registration days, registrars were not even busy most of the time. This extended into February. Then, Negro marchers began flooding the registration places at given times. Naturally, all could not register at once. At other times, none appeared.

When time was extended 10 days for new Negro registrants, only 16 showed up. As quick as the time was over, the mobs stormed the registration places again.

Many Negroes have registered. Many do not want to register, just make trouble.

No person, white or black, has been asked to quote the Constitution. No such tests are given or required in Alabama.

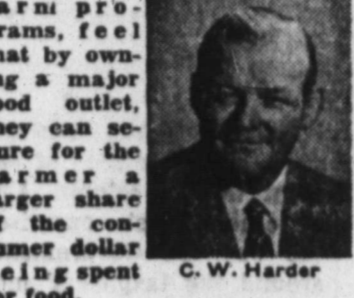

"Cap" was pretty well convinced Selma is not mistreating anyone that is not asking for trouble or

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

The drive launched by the Ohio Farm Bureau to get the Farm Bureau Federation to buy out one of the nation's major cooperative food chains is a most provocative topic.

It is reported that the farmers, disenchanted with the results of the long years of government farm programs, feel that by owning a major food outlet, they can secure for the farmer a larger share of the consumer dollar being spent for food.

C. W. Harder

This, of course, is a laudable ambition. The question is whether or not this is logical.

After all, the nation's biggest chain, doing some $5 billion per year in sales, only ends up with a profit of about 1%. It is difficult to see how an additional $50 million spread around among the nation's farmers would substantially benefit them, even if the change of ownership resulted in no loss of volume, or profit margin.

But it is perhaps well farmers are studying the wide disparity between what they receive for their products, and what the public pays for them.

A deep study of the situation could well lead them to the conclusion that they have sold their birthright for a mess of pottage. In other words, they have been kept pacified up to now by subsidies, while organized labor has been permitted to create artificial costs in food distribution and marketing.

Bread and milk are just a few of the items they could well study, learning how the cost of moving the product from the processing plant to the retail outlet is often the biggest item of cost.

They could also well study the effect of many of the labor contracts, such as those providing for birthdays off with full pay, for clauses requiring employers to pay for free psychiatric care as well as the added costs to the consumer created by many other so-called fringe benefits.

They could also well study just who absorbs the costs involved in giving special "under-the-counter deals" to some outlets.

But above all, they could well study the great impact on food marketing that has been attained by the virtual labor monopoly in many areas, and they would then understand why there is so great a difference between what they get and the consumer pays.

In fact, if they dig deep enough into the situation, it is not inconceivable that sometime in the distant future, somewhere in America, there would stand a monument in front of some grocery store.

And inscribed in the granite would be: "Twice here the embattled farmers stood When they routed the last Hoffa hood."

Texas Traffic Fatalities Hit 3,000

Austin — Traffic fatalities in Texas exceeded the 3,000 mark for the first time in history during the 1964 calendar year.

Col. Homer Garrison, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety reported that the traffic death book for 1964 was closed at noon Monday, March 15, with a total of 3,006 fatalities on the streets and highways of Texas.

"The total for last year represents a 10 per cent increase over the 2,729 lives lost in 1963," Garrison said. "Coupled with this tragic loss of life is the staggering economic loss of almost $487 million."

Garrison reported that the DPS Statistical Services estimated that traffic accidents increased from 399,917 in 1963, to 454,762 during 1964. The number of miles driven in the state increased from 52.3 billion in 1963 to slightly over 55.6 billion last year.

The death rate (the number of fatalities for each 100 million miles of travel) was 5.4 during 1964, compared to 5.2 during 1963. The 1964 figure was the highest death rate since 1957, when it reached 6.0.

"Each month throughout the year," Garrison stated, "more than 200 fatalities were reported to the DPS. For six of the months, the total exceeded 250 deaths per month."

"We are well into the 1965 driving year, and statistics indicate that fatalities are far ahead of last year's tragic record. Unless each driver accepts the responsibility of operating a motor vehicle properly, we can only look forward to an even greater total of death and suffering for the present year."

Garrison said that acceptance of responsibility and the resolution on the part of each driver to follow the rules of safety could aid materially in reducing tragedy during 1965 and the years to come.

attempting to force trouble. He says Alabama can handle the situation easily if the agitators get out, because all upright Negroes want peace and know they can register when qualified.

Furthermore, no Negro is denied entrance to a hospital, as charged, but on the contrary, his brother-in-law says Negroes are treated by him and others just the same as the white people in Selma hospitals.

He told us about many observations and instances for which we do not have the room here.

But, he came home greatly disturbed, and very disillusioned about the trend of times, the inciting of riots under Government supervision and protection, the stirring up of racial prejudice, and the unjust and untrue publicity.
