District H.D. Meet Draws Big Crowd

Annual District 2 meeting of Texas Home Demonstration Association, held in Tahoka Tuesday, was declared a very enjoyable and successful event. Three hundred women from the 18 counties of the district were registered at the meeting, and a number of other people were present who failed to register.

Highlights of the day were the addresses on a homemaker's concern given by Mrs. Bryan Edwards, associate professor, School of Home Economics of Texas Tech, and Mrs. Sam Speir, state THDA treasurer of Austin.

During the business session, the delegates voted to use the 4-H contribution made by THDA to secure the services of personnel to assist with the Junior 4-H Leadership Workshop to be held in Lubbock, June 16-18.

A resolution was passed expressing thanks to Mayor Mel Leslie, Attorney Harold Green, the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce, Lyntegar, the Al Smith Catering Service, Southwestern Public Service, the officials of the Methodist Church, and the Home Demonstration club women of Lynn County for their assistance during the day.

The delegates also voted to charter buses to attend the state meeting to be held in Austin, September 22-23.

Assisted by representatives from the Chambers of Commerce, THDA Chairmen from Gaines and Bailey counties extended invitations for the 1966 district meeting to be held in their counties. The time and place will be determined by the district director, Mrs. Tom Box, and the district Agent, Mrs. Aubrey Russell, and announced at a later date.

Ervin Hancock Dies Suddenly

Ervin E. Hancock, 62, former school superintendent at New Home and Tahoka, died suddenly Thursday of last week at 11:20 p. m. at his home at 3312 21st Street, Lubbock.

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p. m. Saturday in Second Baptist Church with Rev. George A. Dale and Rev. Robert Heam, pastor, officiating. Burial followed in Resthaven Memorial Cemetery.

Mr. Hancock came to Lynn county in the early 1920's from Runnels county when his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Hancock, moved to the Lakeview area. He was a graduate of Texas Tech, where he and District Judge Truett Smith were roommates one year. He was married to Miss Flake Steger about 31 years ago.

He served as superintendent of schools at New Home, Anton, Petersburg, Ralls, and Brownfield, left the school business briefly to enter business, and was superintendent at Tahoka in 1944-45. For the past 16 years he has been supervisor of curriculum for Lubbock county schools.

He had long been a member of Texas State Teachers Association, was a former president of West Texas Teachers Association. He was active in the Baptist Church; and was a member of the Masonic Lodge and Lubbock Rotary Club.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, Gerre of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Rev. James Hancock of Matador; six sisters, Mrs. B. M. Hays of Idalou, Mrs. Henry Heck of Plainview, Mrs. Jack Link of Presidio, Mrs. A. D. Seth of Amarillo, Mrs. B. A. Morrow of Everton, Mo., and Mrs. George Hancock of Lubbock; and two grandchildren.

Palbearers were Henry Heck, George Hancock, A. D. Seth, Roy Royd, Truett Smith and Henry Steger.

Mrs. J. E. Ramsey was a medical patient in Tahoka Hospital from April 22-26.

CHARLOTTE MEARS
Charlotte Mears Is Lions Queen

Miss Charlotte Mears, nominee of Wilson Lions Club, was selected District 2-T-2 queen at the annual meeting in Plainview last week end, and will compete in the state contest at Beaumont on June 13.

Lions District 2-T-2 comprises 36 clubs in Northwest Texas, and there were 38 entries in the queen contest, a feature event of the convention at 3:00 p. m. on Sunday.

Miss Mears, a senior in Wilson High School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Mears.

Among those attending the Lions convention Saturday and Sunday in Plainview were: Messrs. and Mesdames Leroy Scott, Roy Lynn Kahlich, Hubert Teinert, Alfred Crowson, Floyd Wilson, and Earl Cummings, and Bob Lamb and E. L. Blankenship, and possibly others.

Leroy Scott is Wilson Lions Club president.

Mrs. Gary Watson Gets News While In Delivery Room

Although in the delivery room at Tahoka Hospital last Thursday afternoon, where her first child had just been born, Mrs. Gary (Lynda) Watson got one of the first copies of The News off the press that day, as usual.

Actually, since the new mother was not prepared to receive the paper, Mrs. Mae Hill delivered the paper to her husband at 4:15 p. m., a few minutes after the arrival of Gary Castle Jr., weight seven pounds.

Almost every Thursday, Lynda is at The News office awaiting the first copy off the press. She was not there Thursday, but she got her paper.

Honestly, The News didn't think to send Lynda a special copy, but each week Otis Hillhouse, local barber, buys papers for each hospital patient and has The News deliver them. That is how Lynda came to get her paper almost as quick as usual.

NEWS MAKES ERROR IN COUNTY CAR STORY

Last week The News erroneously stated, the county had bought three new cars for the Sheriff's department from Wayne Waters Ford for $3487.49 each with trade-in.

The word "each" should not have appeared, for the total price with trade-in was $3487.49, or about $1162.50 each.

The News regrets the error. As hard as we try to report the news correctly, errors slip in—and there will probably be others in this issue.

INSTALL AIR-CONDITIONING

Tahoka Drug last week installed a frigidaire air-conditioning unit.

Beauty Program Gaining Impetus

Steady progress is being made in Tahoka's city beautification program, reports Mrs. Hubert Tankersley, president of the Garden Club, which initiated a united long range program to improve the looks of the town, particularly the down-town section.

Many businesses have already or are in the process of installing flower and planter boxes this year, and more are planned for the future.

The Memorial Triangle on the court house square has been cleared and landscaping plans are being drawn. Mrs. Tankersley says a temporary plan may be carried out on the plot this summer with more plantings to follow, due to the lateness of the season for planting shrubs.

Landscaping has been done on the grounds of First Methodist Church, and the Garden Club has plans for further landscaping of the High School.

Individual home owners are being encouraged to put out new plantings, and many have already done so.

City of Tahoka has installed underground sprinkler systems at the City Hall and the Community Center. At the latter place, old broken-up sidewalks are being replaced. Both will be planted to grass and flowers. In fact, the City workers have been planting flowers this week at City Hall.

Plans are also in the making for hauling away old cars and other trash scattered over the town. There are estimated to be several hundred old cars on vacant lots and some on private property in the town.

In the meantime, citizens are being asked to join in a cooperative move to clean up their own lots, adjoining alleys and other property and help make the town a cleaner, more healthy and enjoyable place in which to live.

Light Showers Fall On Monday

Light rain Monday covered all Lynn county, but the heaviest reported to The News was a half inch which fell in an area north of Central Church.

Tahoka recorded .31 inch. Lightest fall reported was .15 at O'Donnell. Most of the county is believed to have received from .25 to .50 inch.

This brings the total rainfall for the first four months of this year in Tahoka to 1.71 inch, of which 1.05 has fallen this month. Normal rainfall for the first four months is 3.06 inches.

Where rainfall was heavier this month, some farmers are planting maize, particularly in the west and north areas of the county.

Also, some cotton is being planted in the north part of the county and in other irrigated areas. The News is informed.

Macky McWhirter Is "Bear Trainer"

Macky Joe McWhirter, student in Baylor University, and a fellow student from Kilgore on Tuesday were selected as "bear trainers" for the coming school year. More than twenty students were candidates for the honor.

Bear trainers at Baylor University get to make all the out-of-town football games and take with them the university mascot, a bear.

Another Tahoka young man, Gordon Smith, now pastor of the First Baptist Church at Shallowater, was "bear trainer" while in Baylor.

Colored Section Is Given 'New Look' In Clean-Up

"Grand success," is the verdict from leaders in the Negro Civic Improvement Committee project to give a face-lifting to the Northeast area of Tahoka. "But we have just started," one Colored man told The News.

There is now talk of planting more grass, shrubs and trees, repairing and painting homes in the area.

Colored citizens are doing the work, and City of Tahoka is cooperating in furnishing trucks and loaders. Jack Jaquess is furnishing a tractor, and several employees gave their Colored employees a day off Monday to work in the clean-up drive.

By Wednesday night, 48 truck loads of junk and trash, had been hauled away by the City alone. Some Negro citizens did their own hauling. Other trash had been burned, and possibly 30 old car bodies still are to be hauled away.

Although Monday had been set as clean-up day by the Civic Improvement Committee, some started before that day. The rain Monday interfered some, but work has continued through the week.

Not only has junk been hauled away, but many lots and yards have been leveled.

Tahoka City Council, headed by Mayor Mel Leslie helped the Negro citizens get their organization set up by calling a community mass meeting two weeks ago. Since then, the initiative has been with Tommy Lee Graves, chairman, Roosevelt Moore, Henry (Continued on Bac Page)

NEW TAHOKA COACH
Don Smith, new Tahoka head football coach, expects to move here from Lubbock as soon as the current school term ends. He has been assistant coach at Monterey High School since 1960, played his high school ball under "Chesty" Walker at Phillips, college ball at Texas A&M under "Bear" Bryant, and was an assistant coach, at A&M one year. He and his wife have one daughter eight months old. Smith succeeds Coach Gilbert Hough, here three years, who will be the new junior high coach at Richardson, a suburb of Dallas.

Annual Three-Day Rodeo In Progress

Burglars Enter School Again

Burglars broke into Tahoka High School building again Wednesday night, damaged a number of doors, ransacked desks, and broke open and took change from a coke machine and a candy machine.

Supt. Harold Reynolds said damage to the building and furnishings was not as heavy as during the break-in last fall.

He also said, so far as is known, no money was taken except that in the coin machines. In fact, little or no money is left at the school overnight but is deposited in the bank each day.

Entrance was gained this time by jimmying the lock on the gymnasium front door. Six other doors inside the building were damaged, including two doors to the school secretary's office, the principal's and counselor's offices, the mechanical room and a door to the rear hall.

Jackie Burnett Program On TV

Miss Jackie Burnett, Tahoka High senior, will present "Sounds of Patriotism," which has made such a hit locally, over television station KLBK-Channel 13, Lubbock, at 8:00 p. m. Monday night, May 17.

The 30-minute program tells the story of the United States in word and song, and was arranged largely through the efforts of one of her teachers in the local high school, Mrs. Stephen Thompson. Miss Jean Flippin accompanies her on the organ.

The program has received much acclaim locally. It features the songs of America down through the years, connected by fitting commentary.

Jackie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Burnett.

Sponsor of the program on television wishes to remain anonymous, at least for the present. Mrs. Thompson told The News. Confirmation of the program time was made by the television station Wednesday afternoon.

Children Ill From Monoxide Poisoning

Three children of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Torres were in Tahoka Hospital Tuesday and Wednesday as a result of carbon monoxide poisoning.

Tuesday Mrs. Torres and the children were returning home from town when three year old Mary Ann and 10-year old Mario became ill. She brought them into town where they were hospitalized, then started back home to tell her husband. On the way home another child, 12 year old Mary Helen became ill, and Mrs. Torres again returned to the hospital.

The children were released Wednesday.

Band Concert At Wilson Tuesday

(By Mrs. Ted Melugin)
Wilson Mustang Band will present its annual spring "pops concert" next Tuesday, May 4, at 8:00 p. m. in the Wilson High School auditorium under the direction of Coy Cook.

The public is invited. A small admission fee will be charged with the proceeds going to the band.

Wilson Band is having its Spring party tonight.

Cecil Hammonds was in Tahoka Hospital from Saturday until Monday under treatment as a medical patient.

Tahoka's fifth annual rodeo, kicked-off by an afternoon parade, was opening Thursday as The News went to press, and there will be performances Friday and Saturday nights.

Awards for top riding groups, floats, queen, and beard-grower were to be presented at the Thursday night performances following the grand entry.

All rodeo events are filled, and many cowboy entries had to be turned down. Even with present entries, there will have to be after-show contests to complete the competition. Bullriders have been limited to 40 entries, bareback bronc riders to 40, but more than 40 ropers will be allowed as these can be competing after show hours.

Oran Short, president of Tahoka Rodeo Association, sponsor of the show, says fans will be treated to many top performances as a number of the top cowboys of the Southwest are on hand.

Among the top entries are such riders as Jim Brock and Elson Rose of Lubbock; ropers, R. E. Josey of Post, Buttons Howard of Portales, and Bowie Wesley of Wildorado; bulldoggers Wesley and J. L. Sawyer of Garden City; and bullriders, Cratus Douthitt of Henrietta, Pete Wisshirt of Muleshoe, and Walter Stice of Tahoka.

Top girl barrel racers include Ethel Hart of Post, Deborah Whitehead of Morton, and Debbie Ferguson of Petersburg.

Local youths entered in the ribbon roping for youths 17 and under include Doug and Jiggs Taylor, Bill Griffing, Mike Chandler, Jay and Kenneth Hart, and Bobby Martin.

Stock this year is being furnished by Western Rodeo Production Co. of Hagerman, N. M., and the bucking stock is said to be unusually rugged.

Facilities at the rodeo grounds have been improved again this year, and access routes to the grounds should be in better shape, Short says. Each year profits from the show go back into improvement of the plant.

Rodeo events this year include bareback riding, bull riding, wild mare race, calf roping, bulldogging, goat sacking for kids, junior ribbon roping, and open barrel racing.

A new clown, Roy Meadow from Carlsbad, N. M., is on hand with new acts for entertainment of the crowd as well as for protection of cowboys.

Each night after the show, the Jimmy Mackey Orchestra plays for a dance in the Community Building.

Crowd Attends Local Jamboree

More than 600 people attended the big Jamboree Saturday night in the Lynn County Livestock building held in conjunction with the Tahoka Rodeo that is now underway.

Eight music groups played during the evening, including the Mystics and Moonbeams, made up of high school and younger boys, respectively. Other music groups were composed of adults.

For a first attempt at such an event to boost the rodeo, the Jamboree was an enormous success. An actual count could not be made of the attendance because of people going in and out, and there may have been more than estimated.

Several advance tickets for the three-day rodeo were sold at the Jamboree.

MRS. GAIGNAT IMPROVING
Mrs. D. W. Gagnat was reported improving in Tahoka Hospital this week and was hoping to be able to go home this week end. She suffered a heart attack about a month ago.

Lynn County Soil Conservation District News

E. P. BLAKNEY HAROLD PAYNE
WARD EAKIN BOYD BARNES
JIGGS SWANN

Skip-row farming is a good system, but it should not be used to the abuse of the land. Many farmers in the Lynn County Soil Conservation District are adaptors of various patterns of skip-row farming. Some producers have cotton and blank rows on their whole farm. Some have a lesser amount of blanks with some grain sorghum being planted. Many of these farmers are becoming aware that little organic matter is being incorporated back into the soil. On land having only cotton and blank rows a negligible amount of residue is being returned to the soil. Cotton does not produce a high amount of residue.

Many of the "skip-row" farmers have come to recognize the need and value of organic matter in the soil and have initiated the practice of applying cotton burs on the land. This is a good practice. Any type of high residue crop or materials such as cotton burs or barnyard manure are excellent in returning to the soil organic matter.

Without organic matter, both Help keep Tahoka clean!

soil nutrients and moisture soon leach out of the root zone area. The organic matter helps hold nutrients and moisture in the root zone area accessible to the growing plant. Low organic soils are characterized by being dorothy and less fertile.

Cotton burs often are not available to all farmers, but there are other methods of getting residue on the land. By drilling a late summer feed crop in the blanks the land can be protected from the winter and spring winds as well as add residue to the soil. Cover crops also prevent wind damage and add residue to the soil.

Cropping system plans for the year are being made now. Make plans to include in your operation this year as many acres of high residue and soil improving crops as you can.

Cape Canaveral was named by Spanish explorers for the canelike reeds growing there.

Words just can't express our thanks for the money, food, flowers, and most of all your prayers. You get to thinking sometimes, "What has God left you here for?" We know it is for a purpose. After all the kind words, thoughts, and prayers it makes you glad you are still alive and have known all of these pleasures. Our special thanks go to our daughters and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy (Dob) Jolly, Mrs. Thomas Jolly, and Mrs. Bobby Burkhalter, who helped my wife learn the paper route, and Dob, Betty and Genay, who are still helping out Saturday, Sunday and afternoons. SLATON SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION

BE PROTECTED AGAINST—

HAIL

AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE TO THE FARMER IN 1965:

Mr. Farmer, can you afford a partial or complete hail out? Can you meet your bills or loans or stay in business if this happens? Due to the rising cost of operating and decreasing crop income, it appears that it would be just good business management to protect your crop cost and expected income with a sound, sensible hail policy.

TEN REASONS WHY PANHANDLE MUTUAL HAIL ASSOCIATION IS ONE OF THE LARGEST CROP HAIL WRITERS ON TEXAS CROPS:

1. We offer three different types of cotton policies—Panhandle Special, FB-10, and FB-5.
2. The expiration date on all cotton policies has been extended to December 15th at no additional cost.
3. All policies will be adjusted on the old percentage method and not the Plant Population or space adjustment.
4. All policies are reinsured by the Lloyd's of London.
5. Approximately 5 millions dollars have been paid back to the farmers for losses in the last 6 years.
6. A-plus (excellent) Rating by Dunne's Fire & Casualty report.
7. Our wheat policy contains the "Extra Harvest Expense Award" benefits, also 10% reduction on Tascosa & beardless type wheat.
8. Our cash rate is 5% or more beneath the standard rates.
9. Required legal reserve (Policy Holders Surplus) is on hand and kept in banks throughout West Texas.
10. Your Panhandle Mutual Hail Association wants to serve you with "the thinking man's hail insurance."

Be sure and talk to your PANHANDLE MUTUAL AGENT now to compare and study the coverages and rates, because of the many coverages that are now being offered, you need to know which policy fits your West Texas farming conditions the best.

Three FHA Girls Get State Degree At Dallas Meet

Three Tahoka girls received their State Degree in Future Homemakers of America at the annual state meeting held in Dallas Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and Miss Marla Bray was elected to a state office, that of third vice president.

Receiving their State Degrees were Misses Judy Connolly, Karen Laws and Jackie Burnett, all senior students in Tahoka High School.

Attending the convention were the four girls, Chloe Jan Huffaker and Rhonda Littlepage, president of the local chapter, who served as delegates, and Stella Howle, area parliamentarian.

Miss Burnett was chosen to sing in the state chorus and was given a solo part, Mrs. Fred B. Hegi, sponsor, said.

The event was held in Music Hall when 4,000 girls from over the state attended. Miss Bray is one of 10 state officers that will steer the Texas FHA this coming year.

Seek Funds For Girl Scout Camp

The "Camp Rio Blanco Capital Fund Campaign" has been launched for the 18-county Caprock Girl Scout Council to improve the Girl Scout camp located east of Crosbyton. Goal for the three-year program is $155,000.

Wilton Payne is on the finance committee of Caprock Council and says that the three-year program is entirely separate from that affiliated with United Fund in that it is to be for a building program to improve the camp provided for Girl Scouts.

Payne said that there are 80 Girl Scouts in Tahoka, in addition to those at Wilson, O'Donnell and New Home.

Under the three-year program, a general drive will not be held, but supporters may pledge a certain amount to be paid in three years.

Proposed for permanent improvements at Camp Rio Blanco are a lodge and dining building, which will also include a kitchen; an administrative building with staff housing; an infirmary; and quarters for kitchen personnel.

Each summer local Girl Scouts have taken advantage of Camp Rio Blanco and it is hoped that the drive will be successful so that camping there will be more effective with additional facilities.

Those wishing to contribute or make a pledge should contact Mr. Payne.

advertising advice . . .

BY A BANKER IN AMERICAN BANKERS' MAGAZINE

"No business man in any town should allow a newspaper published in his town to go without his name and address being mentioned somewhere in its columns. This does not mean you should have a whole, half or even a quarter page ad in each issue of the paper, but your name and business should be mentioned, even if you do not use more than a two-line space.

"A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a town by looking at the paper. This is the best possible town advertising. The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and to the town. The man who insists on sharing the business that comes to town, but refuses to advertise his own, is not a valuable addition to any town . . . The life of a town depends on the live, wide-awake and liberal advertising man."

Tree Improvement Research Is Year Round Work

If you see a man scaling a pine tree like a monkey, chances are he is a part of the Texas Forest Service tree improvement team. It isn't unusual for him to spend most of a working day in the top of a pine tree. He's even patient when yellow jackets are on the move since he is usually 80 feet above ground.

His job is part of an over-all Service effort to produce high quality forest trees for Texas landowners.

Focal point of this activity is the forest genetics laboratory at Texas A & M University, headed up by Dr. J. P. van Buijtenen. The principle field laboratory is the Arthur Temple Sr. Research Area west of Alto in Cherokee County. However, all the "piney woods" serves as a laboratory to these "tree improvers."

The program is financed by both state and federal governments and by forest products industries.

Interest is centered in developing strains of pines to meet the demands of industry and forest landowners. Much progress has already been made in producing a drought resistant type. This will permit survival of planted pine seedlings on dry sites and during long periods of drought and in extending the range of pine. Also under investigation are quality trees of low and high specific gravity, and trees that are resistant to Southern pine beetles and tip moth.

Work in tree improvement is time consuming and entails much cross pollination. Since most pine tree flowers are near the top of the crown, a worker must climb each tree several times a year. First, he checks on flower growth. When flowers are about ripe, he bags them to keep out foreign pollen. Next, he applies pollen from another selected tree just as the flowers ripen. On his next trip, after the flowers are set, he removes the bags. Eighteen months later, he picks the special cones. With 50 or more flowers in each pine top to care for, this is a time consuming job.

A light sectional alloy ladder is used to climb the tall trees. A climber carries 10 foot sections of ladder with him as he climbs a tree. Near the top, however, he leaves his ladder and crawls with only limbs and a safety belt to aid him. A rope harness is used for the descent. Enroute down, he disassembles his ladder.

Some day fruits of the labor of these Texas Forest Service men will pay off for Texas woodland owners. Already benefits are on hand.

SAN JACINTO . . .

in 18 Minutes—Blessed Freedom!

At 3:30 P.M. on April 21, 1836, General Sam Houston launched his attack. So sure was Mexican Army Commander Santa Anna of his troops' superiority that he did not even post sentries during the customary afternoon siesta.

The freedom-inflamed Texans, shouting "Remember the Alamo!", sprang upon the enemy. In the incredibly short space of 18 minutes Texas' freedom was won.

Santa Anna was captured. Six hundred and thirty officers and men were killed; the rest taken prisoner. Texas lost only nine men killed or mortally wounded, with 30 less seriously wounded. When the captured Santa Anna ordered his troop commanders to leave Texas, the last threat to peace was removed. Texas was free!

FREE MEN DEPEND ON US!

Today, we cannot—with one decisive stroke—wipe out the threats to freedom that are all around us. Instead, we must join together for an almost unending task of holding at bay those who would destroy the liberty we hold so dear.

Our dollars, banded together in U.S. Savings Bonds, help keep our defenses strong—making sure that no enemy will smash through to victory over freedom.

You can be an active partner in defending freedom by buying U.S. Savings Bonds at your bank or on the payroll savings plan where you work.

(By Mrs. Edmund Wilke)
Hello again this week. I sincerely hope that you missed this column last week! I might say that we enjoyed our fishing trip very much. We had very good luck catching fish and only a few accidents. One day Edmund fell in the lake trying to replace a pin on the boat motor and the first afternoon we were there, Carolyn Zieschang accidentally threw her rod and reel in the lake and a little while later they lost a basket with 30 or 40 fish in it. The next day her husband threw his rod and reel in the lake too, but managed to fish it out. Our motor quit running and we had to have it fixed. So even though we brought a lot of fish home, each one of them cost us about $5.00 apiece. Oh well, we had a lot of fun and it is so refreshing to get away from home for a few days. I might add that I have never seen the Bluebonnets more beautiful!

Mrs. Chris Gindorf III and two daughters are flying home Monday, April 26, to be with her father, Mr. Robert Schneider, who is very ill and at present is in the Mercy Hospital at Slaton. Chris is going to an IBM school up there and will remain there until June.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Klaus have just returned home from a trip to Riverside, Calif., where they spent ten days visiting with a niece and family, Capt. and Mrs. Marvin Michaels and family. While there they visited Disneyland, Marineland, Palm Springs Aerial Tramway, Los Angeles and surrounding communities. They enjoyed the snow capped mountains and beautiful flowers and green grass on the level land. While in Sunnymead, they saw a brother and his wife from Seattle who were visiting in Long Beach at the same time.

Mrs. J. F. Räckler called me this morning and it is the first time I had talked to her since she fell and hurt herself several weeks ago. It was so good to talk to her

TAILWATER RETURN

Water is money to the Farmer! It means increased production and increased profit! Gifford Hill-Western can design and install a Tailwater Return System that can make your water produce more profit from your farm. Check these advantages:

1. 20 to 25 percent increase in additional water for irrigation purposes.
2. Use of a large head of water to get water to end of rows quicker, providing more uniform moisture penetration.
3. Improved plant growth because of warmer water temperature. Cold ground water causes a temporary cooling of the soil and reduces rate of growth for a few days.
4. Prevents ponding at lower end of field which interferes with plant development.

... 4 good reasons to learn more about a tailwater return system for your farm. Your Gifford-Hill-Western Sales Engineer or Sales Office can help you put your tailwater to work. It's the cheapest water you can pump!

Former Citizen Dies At Bowie

Bill C. Dodson, 77, former Tahoka citizen and brother-in-law of Mrs. W. E. Shawn, died suddenly of a heart attack Sunday at about 3:00 p. m. at his home in Bowie.

Mr. and Mrs. Shawn attended funeral services held there Tuesday at 2:30 p. m.

The Dodsons lived here on two occasions, first during World War II when he worked for Burleson Grain Co. They moved away for a time, and on his retirement they bought the Forsythe house east of town, moved it into Tahoka and lived here until seven years ago this month.

He is survived by his wife, who is Mrs. Shawn's sister, and eight children. One son, Raymond, lives at Post.

Average Local Family Has Assets Totaling $13,600

(Special to The News)
New York—The net worth of Lynn County residents has been rising in recent years.

As of the past year, the personal wealth (net assets) of the local population amounted to no less than $42,160,000, it is estimated, based on the latest economic studies.

Included in this total are all of their worldly possessions—money, personal property, real property and other valuables—everything, in fact, over and above their debts.

While the figure, admittedly, is not a precise one, it is derived from national surveys made by the Federal Reserve Board and others.

It takes into account the overall income in the local area and the extent to which the income is distributed among the population.

In Lynn County, where average earnings have been going higher and higher with the years, the net worth of local families has been rising proportionately.

What it amounts to now, determined by dividing the $42,160,000 total assets of the community by the number of families, is an average of $13,600 per family.

Since "average" lumps together rich and poor as well as old and young, no family is just average. The broad picture of personal wealth shows that, for any particular family, it is closely related to its earnings.

It also varies with age. A young family, just starting out, has a modest income and little in the form of assets. Its funds are used for equipping a home.

The Federal Reserve Board finds that, in general, families with annual incomes of $5,000 to $7,500 have a net worth of $15,112, those with $7,500 to $10,000 income, a net worth of $21,243, and those in the $10,000 to $15,000 bracket, $30,389.

The net worth figures combine all assets, such as the equity in a house, the value of life insurance, cash on hand and in the bank, stocks and bonds, automobile.

*RVGS: Revised-Version of the Great Society.

A Lubbock subscriber who wishes to remain anonymous writes: A man up North who doesn't know anything about our problems here in the South wrote an editorial. In effect, he said, "good deal—we are glad those Mexican workers will no longer be allowed to come into the United States. It will give our own people a chance for a job."
I replied as follows:
Your idea is good. It wouldn't hurt any of us to pay an additional half cent for a head of lettuce—or even a cent. The only thing wrong with your reasoning is this: The unemployed man in this area won't do this "stoop" labor. He would prefer to draw an unemployment check.

The place to start on your campaign is not at the farmer level. Start with the administration of the unemployment labor law. If a man is offered a job and refuses, stop his Government check. There would be a few exceptions because of physical disability to do "stoop" labor, and those should be excused.
Your article and a statement made by Secretary Wirtz reminds me of a story.
A sales manager owned a farm. It was a show place. He had a sales meeting at the farm. One of his salesman guests wandered into a pasture. He suddenly realized that a bull was following him. The salesman saw a hole in the ground. He jumped in the hole for protection from a charging bull. He immediately jumped out of the hole. The bull charged again. The man jumped back into the hole, and in a few seconds he jumped out again. The sales manager was watching from the other side of the fence. He told his salesman: "Stay in that hole until the bull wanders away." Our friend in trouble replied: "You are just like all sales managers—you don't know local conditions. There's a rattlesnake in that hole."

Thelma Waldrip, 851 W. 32nd, Yuma, Arizona, writes that she misses friends and relatives, enjoys receiving The News, agrees with the editorials most of the time but not all. She takes The Printer to task for too much criticism of the President, and questions authenticity of some facts in our "other side of the Selma troubles." She pleads for more true religion, and a return to Christ, and encouragement to our government officials, more compassion and less bitterness. We appreciate such a nice letter and Thelma's advice and counsel. We agree with most of the things she says in her letter, but we can not conscientiously keep quiet and see our country go to Socialism, to a Welfare State, without a fight. Alabama has a lot of dirty linen in regard to treatment of Colored people. So has Tahoka. We'll venture you don't give them true equality in Yuma. But, when our President sells out to the NAACP and CORE and Dr. Martin Luther King, gives the radicals' battle cry, "We shall overcome," the time has come to get alarmed. We would be just as alarmed if he knelt before the Ku Klux Klan or the John Birch Society or the Communist party in similar manner. There is no justice in condemning all people, either white or Negro, in Alabama, or Dallas or Yuma. There are Mexican peons being pushed around near your city, but we should not blame you for that. We shouldn't blame all Arizona for letting Navajo Indians starve to death in the northeastern part of that state. Fact is, a lot of the Indians can't even vote in your state because they are "wards of the Government." Why not get a bit excited about Civil Rights for Indians, too?

Another reader writes: "Hitler talked of the Great Society before World War II. Now, Johnson is falling for the same line and thinking. I believe Johnson is playing rotten politics with the Negro issue."

Excerpt from another letter: "We are still trying to buy friends and losing more friends every day. Dollars have never bought a true friend. . . . We're the folks who castigated England for a Chamberlain. Our own Government has a surplus of Chamberlains and Quislings."

Norman Williamson, 2307 31st Lubbock: "Thanks to an editor willing to print the truth about 'the other side,' I have personally checked the facts in the News' 'Cap' Rowe story, and know them to be correct. You could have made the story much stronger."

E. A. Howle, another old boy from Alabam', brought a copy of The Cleburne (Heflin, Ala.) News, his home paper, and pointed out a letter printed in Kalispell, Montana, including: "If some so-called do-gooder from Boston or any other good place marched on the capitol in Helena what would you do? We would all pick up clubs and defend Montana from invasion by mobs." Howle resents the reflections thrown on all Alabama people because of mis-deeds of some. There are plenty of good white people and plenty of good Colored people in Alabama just as there are in Tahoka or any other town.

Kelso Sturgeon, Associated Press writer: "At least three couples were involved in (blank) during the so-called prayer vigil on Sylvan Street for Rev. James Reeb." Sturgeon tells of other shocking sights he witnessed personally, but his own employers, the Associated Press, failed to carry his story on its wires.

"Why do you not edit this article (Selma story) and send it to the Saturday Evening Post, or Look Magazine, or some Northern paper?" writes Mrs. R. M. Almanrode, Munday, Texas.

Rep. Wm. L. Dickinson, R-Ala.: "The Civil Rights march from Selma to Montgomery was marked by drunkenness and sex orgies. . . . there were many—not just a few—instances of (blank) in public between Negro and whites. . . . News reporters saw this, law enforcement officials saw this, photographs were taken of this. . . . Negro and white 'Freedom Marchers' invaded a Negro church in Montgomery and engaged in an all-night session of debauchery in the church itself. The leadership of the church had to get help to have these 'Freedom Marchers' put out of their church." He also charges the Communists were instrumental in using Negroes, ministers, beatniks, and do-gooders in the drive to debase Alabama.

Use more cotton!

Garland Thornton, the new banker, is catching on fast. So is Warren Embree. Last week, Warren loaned Bank President "Pete" Hegi a dandy new trot-line. "Pete" took off on a fishing trip with the Smith Brothers, not the cough drop Smiths but the bunch headed by our District Judge Truett Smith. Thursday, "Pete" called back home to see how, he said, things were going at the bank. Thornton says, though, he knows the main reason "El Presidente" called was to brag about catching a six-pound bass on Warren's trot-line. Thornton and Embree are suspicious, though, because they have already been wised-up on the Smith Brothers. They suspect the Judge bought the fish and planted it on "Pete's" line. Soon, Smith Brothers will be in seeking some kind of big loan or some other special favor.

Kenneth Turner tells another little story on Rev. Levi Price, the one-armed Baptist preacher, golfer.

Rev. Price maintained he never said any bad words when he missed a shot, but "Where I spit, the grass don't grow back."

Mrs. C. E. Birdwell brought us this thought: IF you received 10 cents for every Smile, Good and Kind Word given, and IF you had to pay 5 cents for each Frown, Unkind, and Evil Word you have expressed, would you be RICH or POOR?"

Producers Agree On Major Legislative Points

There are still some specifics concerning cotton legislation on which producers across the belt do not agree. But, there is general agreement as to the major principles any new cotton law should contain.

The accord which has been reached to date is the result of meetings held recently by producer delegates to American Cotton Producers Associates and other producer representatives from every section of the cotton belt. Attending the meetings from the High Plains were Donald Johnson, Executive Vice President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.; W. L. Edelman of Friona, Chairman of the PCG Legislative Committee, and J. D. Smith of Littlefield, Vice President of PCG.

Donald Johnson said the six points as listed by producers at these meetings were as follows:

1. Continuation of the Agricultural Act of 1964 for at least two more years with modification of the domestic allotment section to achieve the objective of reducing cotton production on a voluntary basis. Liberalizing incentive payments of the domestic allotment section will provide cotton with its own cropland adjustment opportunities and it is estimated that plantings would be reached by approximately 2,000,000 acres.

In view of the above recommendation, cotton should not be included in the cropland adjustment section of the omnibus farm bill and we urge that it be eliminated.

2. Continued recognition that export markets are essential for U. S. cotton and that action be taken to regain a fair share of world markets as provided under Section 203 of the Agricultural Act of 1956.

To achieve this:

(a) The Commodity Credit Corporation should be required to establish a specific goal of not less than 7 million bales per year.

(b) The Commodity Credit Corporation should be required to use flexibility features in sales programs to attain established goals.

The results would be broadened markets, a substantial recovery of funds now tied up in cotton to increase dollar earnings abroad, and sizeable reductions in carrying costs to the government.

Maintain at least the 16 million acre minimum national allotment.

Cotton acreage in this country has been reduced from around 28 million acres in 1953 to 16,200,000 acres in 1965. The U. S. cotton producer has been called upon repeatedly to make the supply adjustment for the entire world. At the same time, foreign production has been encouraged by various U. S. economic development and foreign aid programs. Further reductions in the U. S. national cotton allotment would be quickly reflected in an expansion of production abroad and would represent a wasted effort by U. S. cotton farmers. The 16,000,000 acre national allotment represents the minimum acreage necessary for the achievement of efficiency on cotton farms in the United States.

4. Oppose any further reduction in the Commodity Credit Corporation loan level for cotton. Farmers have already sustained a $17.35 per bale cut in price supports within the past two marketing years. Accumulative increases in costs of items that farmers must buy to make a crop and higher costs for labor caused by the termination of Public Law 78, together with the increasing competition for workers from rural industries make it impossible for farmers to absorb further price cuts at this time.

5. Strongly oppose the substitution of direct payments to cotton farmers and basic income supports in lieu of non-recourse CCC loans.

6. Urge full implementation of the cotton research section of the Agricultural Act of 1964 to reduce production costs and improve quality. We further urge the USDA to encourage farmers to utilize research findings to accomplish these purposes.

A summary of the discussion which preceded the adoption of these principles and support for a continuation of the Agricultural Act of 1964 was released from a meeting April 20 of the Cotton Producers Legislative Committee:

"The Agricultural Act of 1964 was passed in April of 1964, and became fully effective on August 1. At the time of passage, the cotton industry was suffering from a rapid erosion of markets, largely due to inroads of man-made fibers and to the rising tide of foreign textile imports.

"As originally conceived and presented, the Agricultural Act of 1964 was designed as a four-year program. It was fully recognized that time would be required to reverse the market loss trend and to bring the 'carryover' down to a manageable level. Instead of a four-year program, however, the bill was amended to limit its life to two years. It has now been fully effective for only eight months.

"In spite of this short period of time, the Agricultural Act of 1964 has shown remarkable results. Under the stimulus of competitive prices in the domestic market through an in-kind-equalization payment made in the channels of trade, the loss of domestic markets has been checked and reversed. Estimates indicate that consumption of cotton by U. S. mills during the current marketing year will exceed that of last year by between 800,000 and 1,000,000 bales. The program has restored confidence in the future of the cotton industry and has helped to meet competition of foreign textile imports. It has also made possible an increase in textile wages, reductions in prices of cotton yarns and grey goods and an unprecedented expansion in investments for modernization and expansion programs by the U. S. textile industry. Further increases in domestic consumption are limited only by current mill capacity and the uncertainty of a continuation of the program."

WASHINGTON AND
"SMALL BUSINESS"
By C. WILSON HARDER

There has probably never been a more charming bureaucrat in Washington in all history than Mrs. Esther Peterson, the presidential advisor on consumer affairs.

Highly intelligent, most articulate, and very personable, she is a fantastically able platform performer. In fact, if in entertainment industry instead of politics, she might easily be a competitor with Helen Hayes for title "first lady of the theatre."

C. W. Harder

Of course, it is hard to imagine why the Federal government needs an office for consumers. It would seem obvious that all people are consumers of something or other. Thus compared to Senators and Congressmen who only represent a part of the people, the office must be higher than the Congress, as what Congressman can claim the whole nation for a constituency.

However, it is interesting to note some of the activities of the office for consumers. Just as invasion of advertising has to a large extent diverted the Federal Trade Commission from important tasks it is supposed to perform, advertising has become a very big thing in the affairs of the office of consumers. Last year it was attempted to get the Federal Communications Commission to issue an edict prescribing exactly how much advertising a radio or TV station can run.

The Congress passed a law prohibiting the FCC from making any such ruling.

But in a recent speech Mrs. Peterson commented on this legislation saying "Can self-regulation work in an area where there is such limited guidance from government?"

This is a very provocative and interesting statement. It means "Can the members of the broadcasting industry, largely made up of independent entrepreneurs, run their own business, or should government tell each operator how to operate?" Thus in a nutshell is expressed the entire bureaucratic concept, namely, that nobody, but nobody, is as competent to run a business as a government employee.

Actually, there are two very strong regulatory agencies working on the broadcasting industry. One is that if a station's programming becomes too clogged with advertising, then it fails to attract listeners. The second regulation is that if this happens, then it fails to attract advertisers. In other words, the law of supply and demand works quite freely in the broadcasting industry.

As a matter of fact, this law is working right now.

Because many stations have been running too much commercial content, many big advertisers are now forsaking the airways to place their advertising budgets in newspapers.

Government guidance is no substitute for the guidance contained in the profit and loss statement of any business.

Spray new Caparol when planting your cotton to control weeds.

Spray new Caparol* in a band or broadcast when planting your cotton for effective, early-season control of most annual broadleaf weeds... like carelessness (pigweed), annual morning glory, cocklebur, lambsquarter and many other problem weeds.

You'll also get control of many grass-type weeds, such as crabgrass and goosegrass.

Early-season weed control with Caparol means you'll be able to eliminate that first, slow cultivation. So you won't be plowing out or covering up young cotton. All it takes is moisture to move Caparol into the soil.

You can also apply new Caparol after your cotton is up six inches or higher, or at layby. Just direct the spray to the base of the plants and apply to weeds no larger than two inches in height.

Whatever program you decide on, you'll have no soil residue carryover to harm next year's spring-seeded crops when you use Caparol.

Ask your local supplier or custom spray applicator for new Caparol. Geigy Agricultural Chemicals, Division of Geigy Chemical Corporation, Ardsley, New York.
