Number 36

Farmers Still Busy Rains Delay Some

Showers Sunday night covered a large area of Lynn county. Tahoka received .33 inch, but some areas considerably more. An area northeast of O'Donnell is reported to have received up to an inch and a half.

Much cotton and maize is up to a stand, but many farmers have had to plant a second time, especially in the west and southwest areas, where rain, wind and sand did damage.

East and southeast, some farmers could not get into wet fields until last week and many are still planting this week.

Most farmers now have hopes of keeping crops that are up, but the weather has remained a bit unsettled and threatening. Winds are also drying out some land more than farmers would like.

The News is informed there are still a few dry spots in the county, a strip east of Wilson and south from Slaton, another northwest of New Home, and a small area west of O'Donnell.

For the most part, however, Lynn county has received more rain than any county on the South Plains. A total of 4.94 was measured in Tahoka for May by the U. S. Weather Bureau gauge, some areas of the county, especially south and southeast, have received much more, and some have received less.

Most of Dawson county is reported to have had barely enough rain to get cotton up, western Garza county is reported in good shape, northern Terry is reported short on moisture as are most of Yaakum, Gaines, Lubbock, and Hockley. Andrews has had very little rain. People in these counties say the drought is not yet broken.

Two new farm-to-market road projects for Lynn county were announced this week by Texas Highway Department, both rebuilding jobs, plus three miles of new pavement.

The State is taking over and rebuilding the county road to the Midway community. This stretch, badly worn, extends from a point on US 380 about 3.5 miles east of Tahoka for seven miles. From the south end, the State will build three additional miles on southward to connect with FM 213, the east-west paving from Draw to US 87.

New grade, structures and surfacing is estimated to cost $170,000 and construction will be under the supervision of A. W. Partain of Lamesa, resident engineer.

The other project is a 19.136-mile rebuilding job on the New Lynn and Draw roads. These roads will also be completely rebuilt by the State and will include grade structures, base and surfacing.

First unit of rebuilding is along FM 1656, beginning at a point 4.5 miles south of FM 211, at the "jog" in the present road, or northwest of New Lynn, and extending south to US 380 at Six Mile station.

Second unit extends from US 380 south through Draw to the Borden county line, this being designated as FM 1054.

Texas Highway Department is advertising for bids on this project to be submitted by June 22.

Still another Lynn county rural paving project is that of Precinct 3, where Commissioner Beatrice McLaurin is paving a four mile strip of farm road directly west of O'Donnell along the county line west from US 87 to FM 2053, making a more direct route into town from the west for many people.

Jackson West Dies In Lubbock

Jackson R. West, 60, of Lubbock, formerly of Lynn county, died Tuesday at 7:05 a. m. in Methodist Hospital following an illness of several months. He lived at 204 Country Club Drive in Lubbock.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 4:00 p. m. in First Baptist Church of Lubbock with the pastor, Dr. J. Ralph Grant, officiating, assisted by the assistant pastor, Rev. J. T. Bolding, and Rev. George Dale, retired, former Tahoka pastor. Burial followed in City of Lubbock Cemetery.

Jackson was born at Richland Springs, San Saba county, August 15, 1904. He came with his parents to Lynn county in 1917, when they bought the farm land west of Wilson and nine miles north of Tahoka on the highway. His father, W. J. West passed away in 1920, and his mother, Mrs. Iona West died in 1959.

He was married in December, 1936, at Spur to Miss Gladys Gilbert, then teaching at O'Donnell. They farmed one year on the West farm, and then moved east of New Deal (Monroe), Lubbock county, to the farm he bought there. Nine years ago they moved to Lubbock.

Mr. West was a long-time worker in the Baptist Church, a deacon, secretary of the Sunday School, and a member of First Baptist in Lubbock at time of his death.

Survivors include his wife; one daughter, Miss Caroline West of Waco; one son, Ray West, who farms north of Tahoka; one brother, Lynn West, also of Tahoka; and two sisters, Mrs. Herbert Hunt of Claude and Dr. Ann West of Dallas.

Mrs. Jennie Ellis, 86, is a medical patient in Tahoka Hospital. She was admitted on Monday and members of her family report she is in serious condition.

City Employees Are Honored

City of Tahoka held its second annual dinner meeting Thursday night in the Community Center to honor City employees for past service, and Water Superintendent Pat Hines, retiring after 42 years and five months of service, received principal attention.

Nearly fifty people, including workers and officials and their wives attended the meeting presided over by Mayor Meldon Leslie.

W. T. Kidwell, member of the Council, presented a 15-year service pin to A. C. Davis and expressed appreciation for his work. He presented Warren Smith a 10-year service pin for his work as head of the sanitation department.

Mayor Leslie expressed appreciation of the Council and the public for the service rendered by all employees. He declared Tahoka is fortunate in having the type of men it does have who actually make Tahoka's city government and its services work. He said the Council receives very few complaints. He also praised the men for their dedication to duty in maintaining City equipment and by improving City property.

There followed a testimonial session in which many of those present paid tribute to the work and devotion of Pat Hines to his job and the backing of his wife Opal.

Other Council members got in on the act with praise for Pat and wife. In addition to praise, R. W. Rutherford presented the couple a pen and pencil set, Mayor Leslie presented Pat a watch; Alton Cain presented Mrs. Hines the large bouquet of flowers, centerpiece at the head table; H. B. McCord Jr. presented them a huge plaque bearing a glowing tribute; and Jack Jaques presented them a miniature plaque attesting to the fact that the City was giving the couple paid-up water, sewer and sanitation service for the rest of their lives.

City Administrator J. M. Uzzle paid Pat high tribute when he said he had worked "under him" for seven years and nine months, had received great help from him, been impressed by Pat's knowledge of detail in all city property, lines, meters, wells, etc.

The water superintendent's successor, Evon Wilson, working under him seven years, paid high tribute to Pat for helping him in many ways, particularly in preparing him to take his place, but more especially as a man.

A. C. Davis told of the 15 years he had worked with Pat and the (Continued on Back Page)

Rollin McCord Jr. Family Narrowly Escape Death

The four member J. R. (Rollin) McCord Jr. family underwent a terrible ordeal last Friday in which each narrowly escaped drowning in a mountain stream in New Mexico, and the eldest daughter, Brenda Gayle, 8, was given credit for saving the lives of her mother, Sue, and little sister, Tonya, 4.

The family lives at 2216 47th street in Lubbock and he is manager of Grandview Electronics. Friday they had gone on a week end camping trip to the Pecos River, in the mountains near Cowles.

They were finishing supper when Tonya announced she was going for a walk. Minutes later, Brenda went to see about her, found her footprints near the stream, and saw where she had slipped down the steep bank into the stream, a raging torrent from melting mountain snows.

Brenda cried out the alarm. When Rollin saw what had happened and could see no signs of Tonya in the water downstream, his first frantic thought was that his baby was drowned and he must run for help. He rushed to the car and took off to find some one.

In the meantime, also frantic, Mrs. McCord and Brenda started running downstream looking for Tonya. A quarter to half mile downstream were some beaver dams, and as the two approached they heard Tonya calling, "Mommy, Mommy."

There, at the water exit on the far side of the river, they saw little Tonya's head barely above the swift water, her tiny hands clinging to a log to keep her body from being washed into the torrent below.

The mother, now desperate, plunged into the water, and she was swept into the near-side beaver dam outlet, where she too grabbed a log.

Now, everything was up to Brenda. She ran toward the road yelling for help. Almost providentially, she encountered a man, name unknown, who had come up the mountain road to see about his cattle.

The Good Samaritan rushed to the site, and since Mrs. McCord was nearest, he ran to her aid, crawling across the logs of the dam. But, he was unable to pull her out of the brush and barely able to hold her head out of the water.

In some unknown fashion, Brenda got across second beaver dam to her almost unconscious little sister still clinging to the log, got down into the water, managed to push her up on the beaver dam, and moved her out to safety.

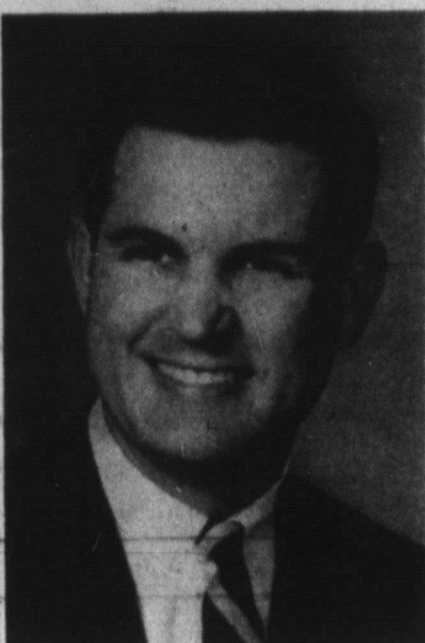

After notifying officers, Rollin rushed back to camp, ran down the river to the rescue site, and on seeing the situation threw a rope to the man holding his wife's head above the water. The rope was tied around Mrs. McCord, but about that time the man lost his grip on her and she was swept underwater.

Rollin dove into the cold water, in some way managed to pull her loose from the logs in which she was wedged, brought her to the surface and safety as he himself was almost overcome.

Men arriving gave the girls and Sue emergency treatment and took the family to a Santa Fe hospital, where they all received treatment. Little Tonya was covered with body bruises, Brenda's back was cut and bruised, Sue had cuts and bruises and mild shock, and Rollin also had bruises.

Believe it or not, they were released that night and were able to come home Saturday night. Rollin called his mother here, Mrs. Lillian McCord, and Sue's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller, but they did not know all the facts until the Rollin McCords returned to Lubbock, although Police Chief Jack Miller had checked on them through New Mexico officers.

Rollin says Brenda Gayle, after her mother got in trouble, probably saved both lives by her quick, clear thinking and action. The hand of the Supreme Being must also have had a part, relatives say.

One of Tahoka's earliest settlers, Mrs. Harriett Elizabeth Sanders Henderson, 82, of Rising Star, died Sunday, May 23, in a nursing home at Killeen, according to a newspaper clipping sent The News by Mrs. Charlie (VeNoy) Sanders of Ralls.

Youth Program At First Baptist

Sunday has been designated as "kick-off day" for the summer youth program at First Baptist Church. The church youth committee, which has been leading in planning the summer's activities, is anticipating a busy, enjoyable, and fruitful summer with several projects planned to help meet these goals.

The most ambitious project being planned is the sending of the church's youth choir to Lima, Ohio, to participate in a revival meeting there the week of August 8-15. While in Ohio, the choir will lead in the music for the revival, hold fellowships for the other young people, make house-to-house visits, and help in any way possible. The young people of the church will be working all summer to prepare for this work and to raise expense money for the trip. Leading in preparation for this project are Mary E. Wyatt, Nancy Parker, and Mrs. Truett Smith. The first rehearsal for the choir will be at 5:00 p. m. Sunday.

As another means of preparing for the Ohio revival, the young people and intermediates of the church will sponsor a prayer meeting each Sunday morning at 9:15 under the direction of Robert Adams and Dub Harvick. Also, each Sunday evening during the summer the youth committee plans to have a different young person reading the scripture passage prior to the evening message. Max Bartley and Robert Edwards are responsible for this phase of the summer program. Immediately following the evening worship service Sunday, the church will sponsor the first of a series of fellowships. Jimmy Billman and Hilton Wood will lead in planning these social hours.

Sharing the spotlight with the August Ohio crusade as the highlight of the summer, will be the annual Youth Week, July 11-18. During this week, the youth of the church traditionally assume Chapa allowed only one runner to reach base on an error by the short-stop. He chalked up 18 strikeouts for the game. Chapa and Charlie Brown got three hits each with Chapa getting an inside and the park home run.

Beistle Holding Colorado Meeting

Stan Harbour of Oroville, Calif., a senior student majoring in Bible at Abilene Christian College, will do summer work with the Tahoka Church of Christ assisting the minister, Ralph Beistle.

Bro. Beistle and family left Saturday for Mancos, Colorado, where he is conducting a meeting this week and Mrs. Beistle is conducting a Vacation Bible School.

Miss Margaret Cruce had intended going with them, but instead Miss Karen Alfred, daughter of Mrs. T. L. Gaines accompanied the Beistles.

Also accompanying them to Mancos to help with the services there were Harbour and his friend, Wayne Bissell, also from Oroville, Calif., a senior at ACC, and a summer student there.

It took Gutenberg five years to complete the first Bible printed from movable type.

Pat Hines' Aunt Is Buried Sunday

Mrs. David Moseley, 68, aunt of G. H. (Pat) Hines of Tahoka, died Friday afternoon in a hospital at Friona and funeral services were held at the Methodist Church in that town Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Hines were unable to attend the services on account of the open house plans already completed and set for Sunday afternoon here in honor of his 42 years with City of Tahoka.

Mrs. Moseley, who had lived in Friona since 1926, is survived by her husband, one daughter and two sons.

Dr. Emil Prohl reports his son, Karl, writes that he is highly pleased with his new work in Houston as editor of a house organ for Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. He has an assignment to visit the Space Center, considered a rare privilege.

Help keep our town clean!

Mayor Discusses Tahoka Progress

The Rotary Club honored Pat Hines, retiring after 42 years with City of Tahoka, and heard a talk on city progress by Mayor Meldon Leslie at last Thursday's meeting.

Dr. K. R. Durham, charter member of the club and a Council member or mayor a total of 14 years, presented Mr. and Mrs. Hines a plaque and expressed appreciation of the club for the long and valued service to citizens.

Mayor Leslie reviewed the Canadian River project as it applies to Tahoka, including discussion of lower rates made possible by savings by the contractors and by the treatment plant at Lubbock costing less than expected. Most of this information was carried in The News last week.

He said Tahoka's water rates were raised two years ago in anticipation of expenses involved in connecting on to the CRMWA lines at the city limits, and this fund has built up to about $25,000 invested in bonds. Tahoka's reservoir to be built at Ave. P and 8th, on property bought from the late Joe VanDyke, at the extreme northwest city limits. This reservoir is estimated by engineers to cost $25,000.

The Canadian River Authority is also considering building a larger reservoir here to serve O'Donnell and Lamesa.

The mayor expressed the City's full cooperation in the flower box and city beautification program. "We are all working toward the same objective—to have a better town, a more desirable place in which to live," he said, "and our present Council is behind any such movement 100 percent."

Tahoka has been fortunate in having assistance from the J. W. Elliott Estate, funds from which go into a special Park Fund because they can be used for nothing else or for any service not for the direct benefit of the public.

City of Tahoka has recently set up a definite budget to go by, and this budget is being adhered to rigidly, he said.

The City's property and equipment is being improved constantly, he said, credit for which is due largely to efforts of Pat Hines and other employees of the City.

Winston Wharton arranged the program and introduced the speaker.

Harold Green, foreign student committee chairman, announced that the guest for this summer has been changed and a girl from Athens, Greece, has been selected. The original guest selected developed an allergy and can not come to this section of the U. S.

There have been several complaints lately of a growing population of stray dogs. Dogs in flower beds have raised the ire of a few ladies. If your dog is running loose, better check on him or he may end up in the pound or the place where bad little doggies go.

"Why don't you say something about the junk cars scattered over our town and especially on the highways and streets?" a reader wants to know. Well, we don't like to look at 'em, either. Now, we've said something.

One of the groups to which President Johnson sold out in order to make sure of his election is the Union bosses. Now he is repaying Union bossism by requesting repeal of the Right To Work section (14b) of the Taft-Hartley Act. And, we suppose Congress will fall down on its knees before the great "Allah" and bid his beck and call as it has rubber-stamped just about all of his demands.

Section 14b merely permits the various states to decide whether or not they wish to outlaw compulsory union membership. If the act is repealed, the states or individuals have no choice. Another personal freedom is gone. If an individual's line of work is unionized, the worker must belong to that union. He must join the union or lose his job.

Maybe it's the Printer that's all mixed up. But, we wonder why we teach agriculture in our schools, how to raise more and better crops; have a county agent to promote every means of higher production; have a soil conservation program to help farmers save their soil and make it produce a maximum amount per acre; have an ASCS program that pays farmers to deep break land and plant soil building crops so this land will have higher productivity; have a Farmers Home Administration to loan farmers money to raise more and better crops. Then, some of our farm "experts" in Washington turn right around and say we should not plant, skip row because it causes us to produce too much per acre. Under our system, we pay for building up land and then pay for not planting it. These are some of the reasons why our city cousins get a bit bitter in their opposition to government in farm programs. And, we must admit, there seem to be some inconsistencies in the way the thing is handed out to us from the great "experts" in the marbled halls and carpeted offices of Washington.

Any erroneous reflection on the reputation or standing of any individual, firm, or corporation that may appear in the columns of The Lynn County News will be gladly corrected when called to our attention.

another thing we can't understand. In one speech, we're told the small, marginal farmer must be helped. Another day, we hear a speech from a Washington "expert" who says we've got two and a half million too many farmers.

One thing the city people overlook is the fact that farming is still a basic factor in the nation's economy. In fact, the things produced from the ground and sea and air are the basis of all economy. Without growing things and making things, all humans would die in a few weeks. But, when we get the price of labor all out of proportion to other things, we're in trouble. We give supports or subsidies to one element and there becomes a need for another subsidy.

Myrna Verner, here for the City Employee banquet, said Charles lived in Tahoka 17 years and always spoke of Greenville, South Carolina, as "home," but after only a year in Lubbock he now calls Tahoka "home." She says one would have thought they were moving to a foreign country when they moved to Lubbock if you had listened to Mother and Dad (Viola and D. W. Gaignat) and now they are out home about as often as when they lived right here in Tahoka.

Bob Connolly says when his parents moved to Tahoka in 1922, his dad, the late James Connolly, applied for city water service and was told he lived too far out to get city water. Their house was only about two blocks from the present City Hall. Refused service from the city, they carried water in buckets from a neighbor's windmill.

Pat Hines says he wants to set the record straight about our complaint in this column last week about the power always going off back in 1923 or 1924 about the time The News went to press. He says we just should not have persisted in printing the paper on Thursday because that was the day set aside by women of the town for ironing. He never told us back in those days, though, that a few electric irons would overload Tahoka's power plant.

This is supposed to be a true story: A lady dressed in slacks was working in her yard when she suddenly decided to make a trip to town on a quick errand, put the two kids in the car, and took off. On reaching down town she felt something up her britches leg, realized instantly it was a lizard, braked the car to a stop, jumped out and was doing a fancy jig on the sidewalk trying to shake the lizard out. A man observing her curious dance thought the lady was having an epileptic fit, rushed to her aid, threw her to the sidewalk, and thrust a pencil in her mouth thinking that would keep her from swallowing her tongue. By this time the two kids were yelling bloody murder. A second man, driving down the street, saw and heard the commotion, stopped his car, rushed to the couple, yanked the Good Samaritan away

The production of an abundant amount of forage is necessary in any cattle enterprise. Most all the pastures and native range were greatly weakened in 1964 due to the extreme dry conditions. Supplemental grazing fits nicely into a program of resting permanent pastures and furnishing good-tonnage during this period, says Larry Dobbs, S.C.S. technician.

Most pastures are still low in vigor and time will be required to regain strength and replenish the roots. These pastures will make a quick comeback and produce more total production by resting the plants and allowing the roots to be strengthened.

The use of improved varieties of forage sorghums is good to produce summer grazing. These sorghums have been selected for tonage production and will produce more total tons of forage than permanent grasses or legumes. Many cattlemen have come to rely entirely on supplemental grazing during the summer and then use permanent pastures for winter use. This allows the permanent grasses to develop growth and make seed before being grazed, Dobbs says.

Cattlemen should not overlook the value of supplemental grazing in their total grazing program. Moisture conditions are pretty good in the Lynn County Soil Conservation District at the present time.

After sorghum has emerged, spray Atrazine to control weeds and grasses.

The idea is to spray Atrazine 80W herbicide right after sorghum has emerged, but before weeds are 1 1/2 inches high. This one application, moved to the weed root zone by rainfall, will control most annual broad-leaf weeds and grasses in sorghum for the entire season.

Control of weeds and grasses in sorghum with Atrazine can greatly reduce the need for cultivating. And so your crop goes through the entire season without weed competition for moisture and soil nutrients.

The results of weed control in sorghum are higher yields and lower production costs. And you can now graze or feed forage to livestock from treated sorghum fields 60 days after Atrazine application.

Contact your local supplier now for Atrazine 80W herbicide.

GRASSLAND NEWS

(By Mrs. O. H. Hoover)

I did so catch some fish. Of course the big one got away and took my hook and part of my line with him. We got a little of Wichita Falls' hailstorm, some stones as large as golf balls, but luckily not many.

Bro. Ray Forbes preached his last sermon at Grassland Methodist Church Sunday. We hate to see this fine family move but do wish for them the best of success in their new charge which will be McAdoo and Dickens. Our new pastor will come to us jointly with Wilson. His name is Max Brownling and we want to extend to him and his family a hearty welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Huffaker had lunch Sunday with the J. F. Moores. Other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Mac Ritchey.

The W. L. Gribbles and the Hoolie McCleskeys attended a big singing in the Slaton First Assembly of God Church Saturday night.

Luncheon guests Sunday in the James Murray home were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Murray, the Bert McDonald family and the Hulan Murrays of Lamesa.

Carlos McCleskey's landlord, Mr. and Mrs. Roby Childress of Whitewright visited them Sunday afternoon.

Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Allen of Lubbock, the W. L. Gribbles, the J. W. Warricks of Lubbock, and Karen Laws all had lunch Sunday with the Hoolie McCleskeys.

Mrs. Lucy Cunningham had lunch Sunday with the W. G. McCleskeys and accompanied them to Slaton to a big singing.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Huffaker and children of Lamesa spent Sunday afternoon with their parents, the H. E. Huffakers and attended church at the Nazarene Church Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Walker visited the Jim McGrews and the Doyle Terrys Friday afternoon and had lunch with the Terrys.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy LeMond, Mrs. H. W. Edwards and Mrs. O. H. Hoover spent Sunday in Littlefield with Mrs. Lura Hoover who is in the Medical Arts Hospital. She is slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Cooper and daughter of Slaton and Margie Julian of Post visited Saturday evening with the Kelly Laws.

Mrs. Grace Thomas attended graduation exercises at Texas Tech Saturday night when her daughter, Betty Grace Hall, received her degree. Mrs. Thomas spent the weekend in Lubbock with her daughter's family, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Young, Mrs. Hall and Tommie.

We are glad to report Mrs. E. M. Walker is gradually improving. Mrs. Cordie Laws and grandson Terry visited in the Enloe home Saturday afternoon.

Friday the C. L. Coopers had a small family reunion in their home. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Burl Baker and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Bostick and children of Carlsbad, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. Pete Cooper and children of Slaton, the Ray Rinkers of Post and the L. A. Enloes of Grassland Saturday they all came out to the Enloes, including a bunch of young people from Post for a bar beque in the Enloes' back yard. Don't we have fun.

Rev. J. E. Yeats of Spur, a former pastor of the Methodist Church, visited in the community last week.

Kenneth Gerner of Houston and Louise Gerner of Dallas spent the weekend here with their parents, the Amos Gerners.

The Enloes leave this week to take their son, Arthur, to Houston for a check on his eyes, the appointment being for Monday. Chin up, Arthur, we are all pulling for you. L. A. will stop on the way back and go through the clinic at Temple. Good luck, L. A.

Mrs. G. H. Spears is doing real well. Her daughter, Rosebud Watson, tells us she takes her mother down town and that she is using her cane. She walks around quite a lot. Bully for her—how many of us would make an effort like that.

MIAMI CORAL PARK Senior High School in Florida is one of five school buildings in the Miami area for which fallout shelter was especially designed. The library (lower photo) is part of a central core of rooms protected from radiation on all sides and above by corridors or classrooms and providing shelter space for 1,850. Small windows and an attractive exterior baffle wall (top photo, at center) shielding the main entrance corridor from radiation are added fallout-protective features. The technique of providing a radiation-shielded central core area containing the school's service facilities has been praised by school officials. Miami Coral Park is one of 34 structures cited in "New Buildings With Fallout Protection" (TR-27), a newly issued publication of the Defense Department's Office of Civil Defense.

FALLOUT SHELTER at no extra cost is inherent in the basic design of the $2.8 million East Central Senior High School now under construction at Tulsa, Okla. The nearly-windowless building's concrete floors and heavy masonry double walls not only make for better air conditioning and muffling of nearby airport noise, but also result in excellent fallout protection on three floors of the central core and the ground floor of the far wing. It is one of 34 structures described in "New Buildings With Fallout Protection" (TR-27), a new publication of the Defense Department's Office of Civil Defense, now available from the U.S. Army AG Publications Center, Civil Defense Branch, 2800 Eastern Blvd., Baltimore, Md. 21270.

in the Tahoka Hospital but is now at home.

Control most annual broadleaf weeds and grasses in cotton with new Caparol* herbicide. Simply apply as a directed spray to the base of your cotton when it is six inches or higher.

You'll get good knockdown of weeds and grasses that are less than two inches high... plus some killing action through the roots of later-germinating weeds.

The cost of this treatment, when Caparol is applied in a 10 inch band, can be as little as 85 cents per acre. Compare this with the $2-3 per acre it would cost you for hoe hands.

Later on in the season, you can go in and make a layby application of new Caparol to control weeds until the cotton is high enough to shade them out.

With new Caparol, you'll have no reason to worry about soil residue carryover to harm next year's spring-seeded crops.

Ask your supplier for new Caparol.

influence he had exercised on him. Bobby Hamm expressed similar sentiments.

City Judge Maurice Small and City Attorney Mitchell Williams, guests Mr. and Mrs. Charles Verner of Lubbock and The News editor also told of experiences with Pat and wife in connection with their service to the city.

Mrs. Hines expressed her deep appreciation for the honors.

Mr. Hines responded with some reminiscences about his service. He said when he went to work for the City January 1, 1923, he was hired on a six months trial basis and right up to date 42 years and five months later his job has never been made permanent.

In the early days, this was a one-man job, equipment and facilities were poor, but all through the years he said he had enjoyed his work. In all these years, he said, he had never had a mayor or a council he didn't get along with.

Pat said there is only one man living from the Council that hired him in 1923, and that man is G. M. Stewart.

The dining hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and a steak dinner was served by Al Smith catering service.

Among others well known here are Rev. John A. Rakestraw, at Amarillo Pleasant Valley; Rev. James E. Price, at Plainview Trinity; Rev. Claude R. LeMond, Stanton; and Rev. Lloyd V. Hamilton, Big Spring district superintendent moving to St. Luke's in Lubbock.

traveling east. When the truck hit a dip the trailer was jarred loose from the truck, the latter rolling across the road, and at this instant the loaded trailer reared up in front and came down on the McKenzie car, crushing it. Also, a car driven by Roland Hill of Lamesa plowed into the wreckage. Neither Wicker or Hill was injured.

Mrs. McKenzie was thrown out of the car, Olan was crushed in the front seat, and little Tommy was also pinned in the car back seat. Part of the car had to be cut away to release them.

Mrs. McKenzie underwent surgery in the hospital after suffering a fractured leg, skull injuries, and severe cuts and bruises. Tommy suffered skull lacerations and severe bruises.

Lonnie Olan McKenzie was born near O'Donnell on November 11, 1927, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie McKenzie, now of Loop, and had lived in the O'Donnell, T-Bar and Wells areas all his life until moving to a farm eight miles northwest of Seagraves a year and a half ago when his father-in-law, Russell McSwain, died of a heart attack.

He was a veteran of World War II and a member of the Baptist Church.

Olan was married November 11, 1947, at Grassland to Miss Dorothy Louise McSwain.

He is survived by his wife, son Tommy and two other sons, Dennis and Teddy; two brothers, Bill of route 2, O'Donnell, and Marvin of Lubbock; and one sister, Mrs. Jean Willis of Goldsmith.

Many Lynn People Have Surplus Funds In Banks

(Special to The News)

New York—There is a treasure trove of money on tap in Lynn county, available for the operational needs of business firms and of the local economy in general.

The volume of money in circulation is greater than it has been for a long time. Its size is indicated by the amount on deposit in commercial and savings banks and by the flow of that money as it is put back into the economic stream in the form of loans to individuals and to businesses.

The funds on deposit in Lynn county banks, as of the end of the last fiscal year, amounted to $13,003,000, as against the total two years ago of $12,554,000.

The findings are by the Federal Reserve System, which has just issued its biennial report on the nation's money distribution, following a survey of all the banks in the country.

Locally, the amount of money in bank accounts was at the rate of $1,160 per resident. It compares with $1,120 per person two years previously, when the former survey was made.

To the business community, the importance of substantial amounts on deposit in local banks, commercial banks in particular, is that these banks may extend loans up to about five times their required reserves.

The volume of this checkbook money and, therefore, the amount available for financial services to business, agriculture and consumers, is a major factor, the Federal Reserve notes, in determining how well the economy performs.

Riddle Graduates, Gets Commission

Duey O. Riddle received his degree and commission as a second lieutenant in the Army at the 73rd annual graduation exercises of Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene.

In accepting the commission as one of 13 completing their advanced ROTC training in HSU, Duey will be assigned to the Quartermaster Corps and will report for duty at Fort Lee, Virginia, next January 1.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Riddle of Tahoka, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Riddle of Wilson, attended the baccalaureate services on Sunday and the commencement exercises in Abilene.

Mrs. Era Balch of New Home is spending some time in Galveston with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George (Billie June) Davis.

The demand for bank credit comes from many directions. Consumers want to borrow in order to buy a car or a house, farmers want to borrow to buy seed or tractors, business men need money to enlarge their stock in trade or to expand their factories.

The report shows that the $13,003,000 in Lynn county banks at the year-end consisted chiefly of time deposits (savings accounts) of $2,090,000 and of $9,714,000 in demand deposits (checking accounts) of individuals, partnerships and corporations.

In addition to this total there was an undetermined amount of other money in local circulation. This was the cash in the vaults and cash registers of business concerns and the pocket money that people carry around for their current needs.

Ed Hamiltons Are Celebrating As Last Kid Finishes School

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hamilton feel like kicking up their heels and doing a little celebrating.

For the first time in 29 years, they have no child in school. Their youngest daughter, Vicky, graduated from Texas Tech Saturday night and will teach in Lubbock city schools this next year.

For 13 years, they have had a son or daughter in College. They also helped a son-in-law go to school.

Eddie Lois was the first to start to school back in 1936. She is now Mrs. Charles Whitfield of Lubbock, has two children, Charles Eddie, a senior at Monterey High School, and Larry, in Junior High. Charles is principal of A. C. Jackson Elementary School and Eddie teaches in Bayless Elementary School.

Eddie and Charles worked here, then at Lubbock while attending Tech, got their B.A. degrees, then their M.A. degrees. Actually, they are still going to school nights working on Ph.D. degrees.

Harold and Joy finished high school together, Harold went through Tech, served as an officer in the Service and he and family are now in Durham, N. C., in the textile industry. He has two children, Margaret Ann, 3, and Paul, 1.

Joy married J. W. Rainey, they have three little girls, Misty, 7, Windy, 3, and Sonny, age five months. They took the farming route and have a 640 acre irrigated place at Spring Lake.

Ed and Opal think they have reason to celebrate a bit—before the grandchildren start to college.

Sunday Program Honors Hines

A large crowd of friends honored Mr. and Mrs. G. H. (Pat) Hines Sunday at a reception and program from 2:30 to 5:30 in Community Center, the occasion being his retirement after over 42 years as Tahoka City water superintendent.

The building was almost filled for the program at 2:30 p. m., and others came and went during the afternoon.

Dr. K. R. Durham, former mayor and council member, was the principal speaker for the occasion and recounted much of the history of Tahoka during Pat's service, many of the humorous incidents, and paid tribute to Mr. Hines.

Johnny Wells, Chamber of Commerce president, presented Pat a plaque and paid tribute to him for his service to the community.

Binie White, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, presented the honoree a beautifully framed set of resolutions paying high tribute to him.

Mayor Mel Leslie and Clint Walker, who served as master of ceremonies, also added tributes to Pat and wife.

Previously, Mr. Hines had been presented plaques by the Permian Basin Water and Sewer Association, City of Tahoka, and the Rotary Club.

Tahoka Eastern Star had a big "birthday" cake topped with red roses baked in honor of the couple bearing "congratulations to Pat from citizens of the community," and served refreshments of cookies, punch and coffee to guests. Among out of town guests present were the Hines' son, Truman and family of Silver; Mr. Hines' brother, Herschell Hines and wife of Amarillo; her sister, Mrs. G. R. Rhodes and husband of Colorado City; and her brother, Nelson Welch and family of Levelland.
