City Drops Tax On Personal Autos, Asks Strict Observance 'Stop' Signs

Tahoka City Council, in regular meeting Monday night, voted to drop the ad valorem tax on personal automobiles on the tax rolls for the year 1965. The action does not exempt automobiles and trucks used as commercial vehicles.

The Council feels the tax on personal automobiles is an unfair tax since only a small percentage of citizens pay city taxes on cars, states J. M. Uzzie, City administrator. Also, he says, the cost of collecting such taxes is more than is realized.

In view of 11 car accidents in the past six weeks, the Council has instructed the Police Department to immediately enforce strict compliance with "stop" and "yield" signs and other traffic laws.

"Stop signs are put at the intersections for the safety of the people of our town, and we feel that they should be obeyed," a statement by the Council handed The News by Uzzie says. "The fine for running, or failure to stop, or yield right-of-way, will be $1.00 for the first offense and $5.00 for the second. The City Council and Police Department ask your cooperation in this matter.

In other action, Evon Wilson was officially appointed Water Superintendent to succeed Pat Hines, retired. The Council will sit as a board of equalization on July 5 at 7:30 p. m.

Rotary Plans Night Meeting

Incoming president Ross Smith and other new Rotary Club officers will be installed Thursday evening, June 24, at a covered dish supper on the back yard lawn of the E. L. Short home. President Wilton Payne announces. Wives of Rotarians will bring the food.

Interesting facts about the Air Force pilot training program and the work at Reese Airforce Base in Lubbock were told Tahoka Rotarians last Thursday by Lieut. Sidney Alexander while A2/c Jim Viers showed slide pictures of operations.

Lieut. Alexander revealed that the Airforce estimates the cost of training a modern day jet pilot is about $64,000. He is an instructor at Reese to student pilots learning to fly T-37 planes, each of which planes costs about $16,000, and these men spend 52 weeks at Lubbock receiving this instruction. Each man spends two to four hours in classes, plus "home study" and flying time.

When the student pilots advance to the T-38 jets, they are flying planes which cost $1.6 million. They spend 54 weeks in training on these planes.

Pilots in training are usually 26 to 28 years of age, and 90 percent of them are college graduates. He also showed slides and told of the building improvement program at Reese and its impact on Lubbock area economy. He declared that Reese has 600 civilian employees, a payroll of $13 million, and is operated at a total cost of more than $20 million a year.

H. B. McCord Jr., in charge of the program, said Lieut. Alexander was reared at Killeen, and graduated from Baylor University in 1962. Airman Viers is from Louisville, Ky.

Pioneer Reunion Plans Complete

Former Lynn county citizens living at a distance are reminded that the annual Pioneer Reunion this year is being held on Saturday, June 26, in the air-cooled and recently enlarged Tahoka school cafeteria.

President James F. Roberts has named a complete list of committees who are making preparations for the event.

Following the noon lunch, there will be a short but interesting program arranged by Mrs. Elnora Curry and "emceed" by Clint Walker.

Due to the fact that the event has been "running in the hole" the past few years, registration fees have been raised to $1.50 for adults and $1.00 for children and those attending must have registration badges to be served.

Even then, town people are being asked to contribute to the affair for miscellaneous expenses.

New Lynn Sets Reunion June 27

The New Lynn reunion is to be held this year on Sunday, June 27 at the Tahoka Community Center.

A picnic lunch is to be served at noon, and drinks will be furnished.

Addresses of out-of-town parties that may be interested in attending the reunion should be given to Mrs. Johnny (Ira Lou) Rainold. Cards and letters have already been sent and a larger number is expected in attendance this year than ever before.

Hail, rain and wind destroyed crops over a large portion of Southwestern Lynn county Tuesday afternoon.

The worst of the storm covered approximately 100,000 acres and near 25,000 acres of cotton was destroyed or badly damaged by hail, rain, wind, or a combination, County Agent Bill Griffin estimated.

Tahoka received .56 inch of rain, but most of the northern, eastern and southeastern areas received little or none.

Roughly, the damaged area extended from US 380, the Brownfield highway, east from the county line to West Point and on east to the junction with the Wells farm-to-market road leading south, and to a point less than three miles west of O'Donnell. Also, north of US 380 a mile or two, and east of the Wells paving in places for a mile or two.

Hard hit were the West Point, Three Lakes, Wells, Newmoore, and old Pride school areas.

Rain was terrific in places, Ross Smith and Fred McGinty each reporting 2.5 inches or more. Further westward, sand and high winds ranging up to 80 miles an hour or more destroyed or damaged many crops in Lynn, Terry, Gaines, and Dawson counties.

Hail was terrific in places, especially west and south of Wells, and damage was also done to houses in addition to crop losses.

At the Singleton lake, about ten miles west of O'Donnell, hail was still reported to be in drifts as much as three or four feet the next morning.

An area northeast of Newmoore, one farmer reported, looked like it had been visited by a snow storm.

Near Welch, in Dawson county, not far from the southwest corner of Lynn, a tornado is believed to have touched down and destroyed a farm house at the Ronnie Jayroe farm occupied by a Latin-American family, seriously injuring one woman and slightly injuring another woman and six children. The roof of the house was blown away and the concrete block walls crumbled, but still the family miraculously escaped.

Terrific winds extended all the way from West Point to Roswell, N. M., north and west of West Point, there was little rain but crops were burned by the wind and sand. There was little wind in the shower that visited Tahoka.

Rain extended north of Tahoka several miles but was light.

Much of the affected area will have to be replanted as soon as

Gordon-Southland News

(By Mrs. Edmund Wilke)
Hello to all of you. It is good to be back writing for you and about you, after several weeks of silence. I had a wonderful time on the Senior trip, but it was cut short for Larry and me due to the death of my step-mother, Mrs. A. B. Dozier. We had been to Six Flags, Vicksburg, Lake Charles and were in Galveston when I got the sad news, so Larry and I came right on home. I would like to say that I have never been out with a nicer bunch of teenagers than our own Southland Seniors. Even though our school is a small one, I think that this community can be proud of the training that their children are getting from it. I wonder how many of us parents take the time to thank our teachers, whether it be at Southland or any other school, for all the time and patience that they spend with our children? Next time you meet a teacher on the street, in the grocery store, at church, or wherever, stop, shake hands and say "Thanks, for a job well done!"
J. B. Rackler Jr. went to Midland last week with a group of FFA boys where they attended a meeting. They spent the night and came home the next evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roberts are here from Topeka, Kansas, visiting with Jack's mother, Mrs. Clark Barton. Jack is now out of the Air Force and they may make their home here. We hope so, because this is a nice young couple and they have many friends here.
We were so sorry to hear that Mr. Clark Barton was in the hospital. He is at home now and I hope that he is feeling much better.
Mrs. Otto Klaus spent from Monday until Saturday in the Methodist Hospital of Lubbock where she underwent foot surgery on Tuesday. Her visitors on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Werner Klaus, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Klaus and Tonda, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wilke, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Nieman, all of Wilson, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mason of the Gordon Community.

THE ALAMO'S NEW EVENING LOOK—This is the view which evening visitors to the Alamo are now seeing in San Antonio. The famed "Shrine of Texas Liberty" and Alamo Cenotaph are now illuminated by a lighting system donated by General Electric and installed by the City of San Antonio in cooperation with the Daughters of the Republic of Texas. The lighting is on from dusk to 11:00 p. m. every evening at the Alamo.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Pennell from Lubbock stayed with Mrs. Lee Fredrickson while Mrs. Opal Pennell was gone to Wichita Falls.

The WMU of the Southland Baptist Church met on Monday afternoon. The Mission Study Book "Go Home and Tell" was reviewed by Mrs. Kenneth Davies.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Callaway, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Callaway and Mr. and Mrs. Hurbert Dunn and Dayneen went to Lake Thomas on Sunday and I think that they might spend a few days down there.

Sunday visitors in the D. D. Pennell home were Charlie Williams, Richard Marlar and Harvey Louis Pennell. These three boys are Texas Tech students and have enrolled in the Summer Session at Tech.

Speaking of Texas Tech students, our oldest son Larry also registered for the summer session and spent his first day at class on Friday of last week. He is living at home for the present, but as soon as he gets a part-time job, I guess he will be moving to Lubbock. His mother, namely me, may just move up there with him when he goes, because I just can't quite seem to let go—know what I mean?

Other 1963 seniors that have moved to Lubbock are Beverly Stolle and Barbara Mock who are enrolled in Jessie Lee's Beauty School. They live in the same apartment house.

Mrs. Opal Pennell and Mrs. Gail Callaway will attend a tea in Post on Tuesday of this week honoring Miss Susan Cottrell, of Bristol, Virginia, bride-elect of Jimmy Ferguson of Post. Karen Gail is in the house party and the tea is being given in the Community Room of the First National Bank building.

A bridal shower was given recently in the home of Mrs. Pat Taylor honoring Miss Margie Harrison, bride-elect of Don H. Pennell.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. McMinn visited with the Edmund Wilkes on Wednesday night.

Delmar Wilke is home from Germany. He has received his discharge from the Army and he and his wife, Barbara, and daughter, Angie, will be living in this community until the first of next year. Delmar plans to farm.

Mrs. Arno Albrecht of Corpus Christi has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Leo Stolle. Mrs. Albrecht is the mother of Mrs. Stolle.

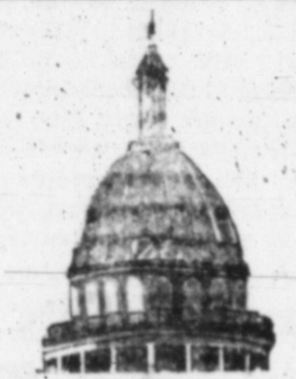

Miss Carol Stolle is home from T.L.C. for the summer. Also home from Texas Tech for the summer is Jackie Dunn.

Southland is on the "boom!" We now have two new houses—Donald Pennell is building one and a Latin American family has moved a new one in here. That makes four new houses that have been put in Southland in the past year or so. For Southland, that is pretty good!

I would like to hear from more of you this next week, so why don't you give me a call at 998-2423 and give me your news. Don't call me in the morning for this week and next week, because our Daily Vacation Bible School has started and I will be gone in the mornings.

Man Born Here Is Back For Visit

James R. Pinkley Jr. from Middlesboro, Kentucky, and family were here Monday seeking his birthplace after having been away from Tahoka for about 32 years.

The visitor says he was born on one of the G. E. Lockhart farms on May 4, 1927. A sister now living in Plainview was also born here. His father now lives in Guyton, Okla., but his mother is deceased.

Cecil Hammonds was of the opinion the Pinkleys may have lived on the Lockhart farm now owned by Sam Miller, south of the T. I. Tippitt place.

Work of Dr. Huddleston in Africa Is Told

If you remember in the past I have copied excerpts from some letters of Dr. R. W. Huddleston, a local boy, who with his wife, Maxine, are medical missionaries in Tanganyika, Africa, and is doing a wonderful work both in spiritual and physical medicine.

In one of his recent letters he tells about contributions of $12,000 he received from the Church of Christ in Lawton, Okla., with which he bought equipment, large and small for the new mission hospital in Chinala.

Following is an excerpt from a letter written by one of his helpers there and is printed just as he wrote it:

I am Robert K. Moulou and am 26 years old. Being married and having two children in my family I have been in this above mentioned hospital ever since it was opened. I am doing nursing orderly work and my main work is to give injections as well as medicines by mouth and again sterilizing both needles and syringes.

This hospital has so many sick people to be seen—that I mean African and also European and Asian. We see more than 100 per day, which is a great number and also a great job to be done.

Dr. Huddleston, who is our M. D. here at Chinala, indeed works very hard to complete such a number of patients. He has to work from morning till evening as well as his fellow workers. Nearly always we see, terrible sickness, which since I was born I have never seen. Still, the doctor has to work very hard to cure such diseases and some are being cured which is a wonderful thing. Now this hospital is not finished so the doctor can lay the patients yet. The people are very glad to have this hospital built here. I think they will be more happy when they can start to sleep here. I hope the mission will continue to do its good work to save lives here at Chinala as well as souls also—for it does both sides, hospitalism and also evangelism (copied as written).

Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Townsen visited the C. M. Greers Sunday afternoon. The Greer's daughter, Mrs. Bertha Brown, visited on Monday. Mrs. Johnnie Norman is on the sick list. We wish for her a "get well quick".

Terri Dean spent Thursday with the Crenshaw girls in Lubbock. Arthur Enloe had major eye surgery Wednesday in Houston. They think they can save part, if not all of his sight. We sure hope so.

Bobby-Patterson and Joe Carol Nichols exchanged wedding vows Saturday night in the Church of the Nazarene. Rev. Joe Webb of Brownwood performed the ceremony. They will live in Grassland. We wish for them a long and happy married life.

Luncheon guests in the W. L. Gribble home Sunday were Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Allen, the W. G. McCleskeys, the Hoolie McCleskeys, the H. C. Gribbles, the Kelly Laws, Mrs. Ritchey, Mary Ann and Reta were afternoon visitors.

Lynn County Soil Conservation District News

Now that most of the cotton and grain sorghums are planted through out the Soil Conservation District, farmers should consider what they are going to do with the odd areas and their diverted acres, says Don Reed, Soil Conservation technician.

One solution that should be considered is the use of a summer high residue, soil improving crop such as forage sorghums or summer legumes. These crops will help prevent erosion and when managed properly will improve the soil.

The addition of the organic matter produced as a result of these crops tends to have at least seven benefits:

It makes a heavy soil lighter, more crumbly and friable.

It holds the light soil particles together and helps anchor them against erosion. This increases the water-holding capacity of the soil especially in the sandy areas.

It provides some of the large quantities of nitrogen needed by plants.

It releases nutrients already in soil by turning them into soluble compounds that can be absorbed by the roots of plants.

It permits growth and functioning of micro-organisms.

It furnishes some of the elements essential for plant growth.

It provides micro-elements in more readily available condition.

In addition to other benefits listed one should consider the cash benefits and the hay and pasture benefits. Guar planted in the early summer at the end of cotton planting time can produce seed for cash and provide residue and nitrogen for soil improvement. Sorghums can produce a hay crop and still provide the needed residue to improve the soil.

Farmers must consider the use of soil improving crops in their crop rotation if they are going to maintain and improve their soil for future years. We cannot continue to only take from the soil, and not put something back, says Reed.

Hi Neighbor! What you got there?

How are you Joe? That's my new air conditioner... cools the entire house.

How does it work?

It works great! We've never had it so comfortable... sure can notice the difference when you go in the house. We sleep better at night, too.

Doesn't take up much space does it?

That's one of the things I like about it... not any bigger than a living room chair, see you can sit on it, just about the right height.

Where's the water connection?

That's another thing I like... doesn't use any water, just low cost, dependable electricity and free air. See, just one connection like your refrigerator.

I'd have to admit you're right there. We've had our electric refrigerator for over 15 years and she's still looking right along.

Well, you've got the same dependability in an electric air conditioning unit. There's just no question about it working right.

Be cool with an electric air conditioner. For more information, call your Southwestern Public Service Company manager.

SAN JACINTO . . .

in 18 Minutes—Blessed Freedom!

At 3:30 P.M. on April 21, 1836, General Sam Houston launched his attack. So sure was Mexican Army Commander Santa Anna of his troops' superiority that he did not even post sentries during the customary afternoon siesta.

The freedom-inflamed Texans, shouting "Remember the Alamo!", sprang upon the enemy. In the incredibly short space of 18 minutes Texas' freedom was won.

Santa Anna was captured. Six hundred and thirty officers and men were killed; the rest taken prisoner. Texas lost only nine men killed or mortally wounded, with 30 less seriously wounded. When the captured Santa Anna ordered his troop commanders to leave Texas, the last threat to peace was removed, Texas was free!

FREE MEN DEPEND ON US!

Today, we cannot—with one decisive stroke—wipe out the threats to freedom that are all around us. Instead, we must join together for an almost unending task of holding at bay those who would destroy the liberty we hold so dear.

Our dollars, banded together in U.S. Savings Bonds, help keep our defenses strong—making sure that no enemy will smash through to victory over freedom.

Following a wedding trip to Houston and Galveston, the couple will reside in Lubbock.

The bride is a graduate of Sunset High School in Dallas and of Texas Technological College, where the bridegroom is now a senior student. He also attended Pennsylvania State University and Gettysburg College. He is a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Weathers went to Dallas over the week end and attended the ceremony.

Carl Ingle Will Marry Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ranne Jr., who live in McCullough county, are taking this means of inviting persons in the area to the wedding of their daughter, Viola Jean, to Carl G. Ingle on June 12 at 7:30 p. m. at the First Baptist Church in Brady.

The Rannes had sent a number of invitations to relatives and friends here, and later found that the postoffice from which the invitations had been mailed had been robbed. Some of the invitations were found among the mail that had been thrown away during this robbery.

Ingle is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Ingle of Brownfield, formerly of Tahoka.

The U. S. "Regular" Army was born on June 14, 1775 when the Continental Congress, meeting in Philadelphia, authorized 10 companies of riflemen from Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania to fight in the name of the 13 colonies.

Summer Activities Planned By MYF

Tahoka MYF has planned a number of activities for the summer, states Miss Judy Glover, summer youth director for Tahoka Methodist Church.

On Sunday, June 13, the group will visit the Mission Bautista Getsemani. Rev. John Pistone, pastor of the mission, will conduct a tour through the church and tell the young people of his work among the Spanish people.

The following Sunday, June 20, MYF members will have a Father's Day banquet at the church. Judge Truett Smith will speak to the group on "Christianity in One's Business".

JUNE IS DAIRY MONTH

For the 29th consecutive year June is being observed as Dairy Month in the United States. Dairy men everywhere, says A. M. Meekma, Extension dairy specialist at Texas A&M University, play a vital role in keeping Americans well fed and the national agricultural economy strong and stable. Visit your dairymen and see firsthand how efficiently he handles his business.

We've received a big envelope full of material from Sargent Shriver, husband of one of the Kennedy girls and head of the Office of Economic Opportunity, the agency supposed to dole out help to we poor people in the poverty program. His arguments are not too convincing to us. He neglects to say how much is being paid state and area directors of the program. But, he does list a bunch of local directors administering the poverty program who draw from a minimum per year of $8,400 in Scranton, Pa., to $25,000 in New Haven, Conn. Then he compares these salaries with those of school superintendents, mayors, city managers, etc., in the cities listed. A lot of these "bleeding heart" people get well paid for "bleeding" and "sacrificing" to help administer doles to the "poor".

A recent General Accounting Office investigation reveals the Postoffice Department lost $7.5 million in four years selling government printed envelopes. This is just another "service" of our government in competition with private industry. Such envelopes are usually bought by businesses, mostly by the big corporations, and the taxpayer helps pay for them. Printers and publishers

Getting to the point States Rights doesn't mean anything. Gradually but surely Washington is taking over and running things its way. The U. S. Supreme Court is now the ruling authority put in force by the executive branch of the government. We elect men to Congress to pass state laws, many of which are "useless so far" as action is concerned. Seldom you ever hear of the Supreme Court ruling in favor of State laws.—Moody Courier.

Rattlesnake season is here, and all of us moving around outdoors, especially in fields and pastures would do well to heed proper precautions. We've just read an article from Texas Parks and Wildlife Department which advises first aid treatment should be prompt and proper. A great lot, we're told, depends on the victim of a bite. He should remain calm and quiet, not get excited or start running or walking, for only two percent of snakebite victims die and these are usually from improper attention. Any excitement, movement or body or bitten limb, use of whiskey or other stimulant speeds up spread of venom over the body. Application of a constricting band, prompt incision, and suction is recommended—and get medical aid as soon as possible. Only poisonous snakes in Texas are rattlesnakes, the most numerous; and coral, cottonmouth water moccasins, and copperheads, all almost unknown in this area.

Joe D. Unfred is all upset and aggravated at The News. He claims we Tahoka people still haven't recognized the fact New Home now is a postoffice. It seems we sent his store something addressed Route 4, Tahoka. But, he says, "I really did get a letter all the way from Washington here without it getting lost." Be patient, Joe, we're just a little slow adjusting to the fact New Home has become our sister city—officially incorporated, city water, sewer, lights, street markers, and postoffice with Zip Code 79383.

Ed Eakin over at Quanah edits one of the best weeklies in the state, and had this to say last week in his "Chief Speaks" column of The Tribune-Chief:

In our democratic fervor to stimulate free thought and academic freedom, America is allowing a miasmic atmosphere that is breeding a new brand of left-wing communistic cats. These young punks with their stringy hair and dirty blue jeans are receiving notoriety far beyond their importance. You see them on campuses, at racial demonstrations, in front of government buildings, anywhere they can fester a social, political or economic sore.

The sad spectacle is the support they receive from the so-called left-wing intelligencia, mostly college professors who are teaching a warped pinko cult to a new generation of Americans. Most of these teenage monsters are second generation Communists, born and bred and nurtured in the American freedom they are dedicated to destroy. This is a social and mental disease that is sweeping our country. And we can thank the modern "moderate" left-wingers for our nation's good-natured indulgence of this mess.

If there ever was a time for cleaning house, now is that time. And the place to start is on our colleges and university campuses. Freedom of speech and conscience, by no stretch of the imagination, includes freedom to destroy our form of government. It's still not too late to get tough with Communism, but it's getting late. And if a pip-squeak of a pinko professor protests let him write a book—while vacationing on the Black Sea.

Karl Prohl, who recently joined Southwestern Bell Telephone Company's public relations department in Houston, had the rare privilege last week of an assignment at NASA, the Space Center, during the Gemini 4 flight. Karl is the new editor of Telephone Times, employee publication with 18,000 circulation.

He also edits a slick paper magazine for PBX operators. Karl will do all right. A smile costs nothing, but it can create so much. . . . It happens in a flash, but the memory lasts a lifetime. . . . It cannot be bought, begged or stolen, but it is of no earthly good unless given away. . . . If in the hustle and bustle of life you meet someone too weary to give you a smile, leave one of yours. . . . No one needs a smile so much as he who has none to give. . . . So, every day, let us remember that we are not fully dressed until we have put on a smile.—Medina Rotary News.

Benjamin Franklin may have discovered electricity, but the man who invented the meter made all the money.—Texas Outlook.

Jack Dulins Miss Hale Center Storm

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dulin, formerly of Tahoka, now living southeast of Hale Center, were not in the path of the recent tornado that wrecked that town and killed a woman at Cotton Center.

However, Mrs. Floyd Shackelford, who died shortly after the storm, was an aunt of Marjorie Dulin, Jack's wife.

Jack told his mother, Mrs. Jim my Dulin of Tahoka, that the Shackelfords had a fine storm cellar. He had just been out to look at the cloud, came back in the house and sat down in a chair to watch TV when the storm struck. He was also critically injured.

Paskets were originated for collecting and storing grain.

W. I. Lemon says he is about recovered from injuries he received three weeks ago while visiting a son in Albuquerque. Mr. Lemon fell into a five-foot deep concrete pit and bruised badly the left side of his body. But, he says he was fortunate that he didn't land on several bolts protruding from the concrete floor of the pit.

After sorghum has emerged, spray Atrazine to control weeds and grasses.

The idea is to spray Atrazine 80W herbicide right after sorghum has emerged, but before weeds are 1 1/2 inches high. This one application, moved to the weed root zone by rainfall, will control most annual broad-leaf weeds and grasses in sorghum for the entire season.

Control of weeds and grasses in sorghum with Atrazine can greatly reduce the need for cultivating. And so your crop goes through the entire season without weed competition for moisture and soil nutrients.

The results of weed control in sorghum are higher yields and lower production costs. And you can now graze or feed forage to livestock from treated sorghum fields 60 days after Atrazine application.

Contact your local supplier now for Atrazine 80W herbicide.

Dockery Writes From Vietnam

Two letters from Sp/4 Teddy L. Dockery, graduate of Tahoka High and Texas Tech, serving in Qui Nhon, Vietnam, have been received recently by Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hagood, and they loaned them to the News.

Ted arrived in Saigon on April 28 via Illinois, Alaska, and Okinawa, and then flew from Saigon to Qui Nhon, and is scheduled to stay there until October. Qui Nhon is on the South China Sea, in a beautiful valley, and has the most beautiful beaches in the world but are off limits to swimming because of being polluted. All water in Vietnam has to be chemically treated.

Most people live in thatched huts or clay-looking houses, five or six families to the house. They are poor and dirty. They are friendly since most American soldiers give them money and other things. Women do most of the work.

Teddy's detachment is headquarters for the area, considered an important one, and handles much of the correspondence in regard to the war.

He says they live in tents, but this is not too bad, as they are cooler. Clothes stay sticky and mildew easily. Mosquitoes are bad, and nets are required over beds. Tents have wooden floors and air mattresses make the cots comfortable.

The letter written May 29 tells of arrival of new troops nearly every day, difficulty in preparing camp facilities for them. He says he is trying to learn all he can about the people, has become acquainted with one Vietnamese man, an interpreter, who helps them to hire local people for clerks, mechanics, carpenters, and truck drivers.

"He tells me," Teddy writes, "that most of the people are VC sympathizers and would turn on you any minute if they wanted to. . . . They (the people) seem to be grateful for what we stand for, but they are all out to take you for your money. Even little children are trained to work on your emotions where you will give in to them. I wish it were possible to help them more, but, as you know, they have to want to help themselves before we can do anything for them."

Teddy says he is trying to learn all he can while there, and is also taking color pictures of the country and people.

Mrs. Anastacia Narbois was dismissed from Tahoka Hospital last Thursday where she had been a medical patient.

Rev. Thompson At Dallas Church

Rev. J. B. Thompson, former Tahoka Methodist pastor who went from here to Memphis and "retired" at end of the recent Northwest Texas Methodist Conference, has joined the staff of Cochran Chapel Methodist Church at Dallas, he writes The News editor.

Rev. Thompson says "upon retiring because of Mabel's health, we have joined the staff here and have an apartment on new acreage acquired by the church for expansion."

Cochran Chapel is located at Midway Road and the Northwest Highway, near Irving but actually a part of Dallas, and is the oldest church in Dallas county.

Although founded in 1884, its roots stem from home meetings back in 1844 and probably a little earlier, and a historical marker says it is the oldest continuous church in Dallas county. "This is indeed the church by the side of the road, with creek and cemetery near in ancient fashion, sometimes referred to as 'the oldest church with the youngest heart,'" the Church bulletin says.

Cochran Chapel Church has had a tremendous growth in recent years. Rev. John C. Dvorack is the pastor, and Rev. Thompson is new new assistant pastor. Several others are listed as members of the church staff.

Rev. Thompson writes the editor that the Goodwin Brays are in this church, Goodwin being a brother of Maurice Bray of Tahoka.

Elaine DeLeon, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike DeLeon, was an overnight patient in Tahoka Hospital Monday night for treatment of a severe cut on her left foot received when she stepped on a plow.

He has also competed on teams in FFA quiz, radio broadcasting, chapter conducting, senior farm skills, and others.

During his sophomore year, Louis was Star Chapter farmer of O'Donnell, Mesa District, and was second in Area II. The past three years, he has been runner-up for the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers award and also in the Texas Southwestern Cattle Raisers.

He has won several grand championships in the sheep divisions of O'Donnell, Lynn county, and Dawson county livestock shows.

Louis at the present time has six diversified farm projects raising 73 head of sheep, 28 head of goats, nine head of cattle, three sows, 10 acres of cotton, and five acres of milo.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

To illustrate the purportedly childish mental processes of medieval man there is often used the example of the learned dissertations that took place on how many angels could dance on the head of a pin. Perhaps, as evidenced by the following, there has not been too much progress in this area.

Back in 1959 one of the soap companies on TV advertising of their shaving cream, was using before the camera a demonstration of sandpaper being shaved after being lathered with this cream.

C. W. Harder the camera a demonstration of sandpaper being shaved after being lathered with this cream.

Actually, it was rather a silly commercial. First of all, so few people are interested in shaving sandpaper as it does seem like a rather futile occupation. It probably can be assumed that the average viewer reaction was "so what?"

However, the Federal Trade Commission, for some unknown reason, became quite interested in this particular commercial and discovered that instead of sandpaper being shaved, the demonstration was "faked" with the use of plexiglass. While apparently a shaving cream will eventually soften up sandpaper, in the limited time of a commercial, it cannot act that fast, hence the use of a substitute "prop."

The original FTC examiner found that it was not too important, but the full FTC commission over-ruled him and issued orders for the commercial to stop. It was appealed to the courts, and they in turn overruled the FTC. That agency promptly took the matter to the U. S. Supreme Court.

So, eventually, after six years the august U. S. Supreme Court handed down recently a verdict upholding the FTC.

Thus, there has now gone down into the laws of the land for all time the edict that a shaving cream will not permit anybody to shave sandpaper during a minute commercial.

The fuss over this matter would perhaps be humorous if it were not for the fact that vast sums of tax money were spent to prevent anyone who wished to shave sandpaper from being deluded.

In addition, the FTC is supposed to be investigating and stopping the daily violations of the Robinson-Patman Act which is a safeguard against ruinous competition by monopolistic practices.

Unknown, of course, is how much damages were suffered by independent business while FTC shaved sandpaper.

Thus, if it is true that Nero fiddled while Rome burned, it can perhaps also be said that the FTC shaved sandpaper while many were ruined by the practice of monopoly.

Interestingly enough, it was never established if anybody actually bought the product because he was deluded into thinking it would shave sandpaper. Neither has FTC made it known, for benefit of those who may want to shave sandpaper, the best way to go about it. Perhaps sandpaper shavers should unite in a sit-in demonstration at FTC until they do reveal this information.

POWER MOWERS

Sandals, sneakers or bare feet are out of place behind an operating power lawn mower. They offer no protection should your foot slip into the blade. Many serious foot injuries occur every year, warns Extension Agricultural Engineer Henry O'Neal at Texas A&M University, because the mower operator wasn't wearing shoes heavy enough to protect his feet.

dry enough. Some cotton will be saved. For example, Clint Sikes had a half section hailed and rained out at Three Lakes, but another half section he thought might be saved.

However, high winds Wednesday were doing further damage by burning cotton in the area.

Some crops, both dryland and irrigated, were blown out in Terry, Gaines, and Yoakum counties. The News was informed Wednesday. Much of Dawson county had received barely enough rain to get crops up and the wind, rain and hail destroyed many of these. Many dryland farmers in these areas do not have sufficient moisture to replant.

Most of Lynn county, however, is in excellent condition, farmers say. Prospects at this date are good—if the wind would quit blowing and if no further storms visit the area. Most county farmers would like to have a good "cotton shower," and the time is not too far off when a good rain will be needed on all crops.
