Burglars Strike Cain Hardware

Burglars hit again Thursday night of last week, breaking into Alton Cain's store here and also O'Donnell Implement Company owned by Carr Spraberry.

Work appeared to be that of professionals, officers said, and the burglars seemed to be looking for money.

At Alton Cain's, the burglars took $226.97 in cash, probably $300 or more in merchandise, but biggest damage was destruction of two large safes. The cash was taken from the unlocked cash register, a safe and a desk drawer. Among the loot taken was a .30-30 rifle, a 38-44 S&W pistol, a .32 calibre pistol, a set of Corning cookware, pocket knives, a watch, and hand tools.

Entrance was gained by use of a cutting torch on bars of a rear window. Cutting torches, chisels, and sledge hammers were used in professional manner to open the safes. Desk drawers were also rifled and papers scattered all over the office area.

City Police Jack Miller and Joe Raindl, Sheriff Carl Spears and "Son" Guinn, and Texas Ranger "Raz" Renfro of Lubbock investigated the burglaries here, and Deputies Guinn and Frank Lindsey and Renfro the O'Donnell burglary.

Officers identified pickup tire tracks, a place where the pickup was parked in the alley behind Higginbotham-Bartlett, and a spot where an outlook probably laid in the weeds back of the store. If they have any other leads, they did not reveal the same to The News.

They theorize that at least three men were involved in the burglary here, at least one of which stood guard watching for night patrolmen. Cain's is well lighted at night, some of the tools were taken from the front show window, and one of the safes was opened in front of a rear window. Night patrolmen think they passed the place more than once during the burglary and state no lights were detected extinguished, and for this reason believe they were well watched by one of the burglars, possibly equipped with a walkie-talkie.

At O'Donnell Implement Co., entrance was gained through a front door. Deputy Lindsey said the safe, desk drawers, and filing cabinet were rifled but the only things known to be missing were three or four rolls of quarters. The safe had a sign on it which said "This safe is not locked," and the burglars, therefore, did not damage it.

Tahoka has been hard hit by burglars the past few months by two break-ins at Tahoka High School, break-ins and safe jobs at McCord Motor, Tahoka Drug, and Collier-Parker Drug, and break-ins at Ed Hamilton's and Stanley Army Surplus. Two men were arrested and charged in connection with the Hamilton and Stanley break-ins.

Dyer Youth Is Killed Recently

James Bradley Dyer, nine year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Marlin G. Dyer of Pa. Porte, was killed July 10 while playing on the Little League team here, according to Mrs. Earl Morris of Slaton. His great grandparents were early day Lynn county settlers.

James was at bat and a pitched ball hit him in the lower part of his ribs. He started to run to first base, but fell and died before reaching the base. His daddy, who was managing the team, and others rendered first aid but the little fellow was pronounced dead on arrival at a hospital.

James was the grandson of Mrs. J. H. Dyer and her late husband of Lubbock. The Dyer family lived in Tahoka a number of years before moving to Lubbock, where Mrs. Dyer lives at 2609 Auburn. Mrs. J. H. Dyer and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brewer, and Mike went down for the funeral.

Mrs. Geo. W. Small Is Critically Ill

Mrs. George W. Small, 82, who came to Lynn county before the county was organized, is in critical condition in Methodist Hospital at Lubbock.

Early Friday morning she fell and broke a hip bone at LaVoy's Convalescent Home, where she has been living recently. This was followed by a light stroke, or brain hemorrhage, and a heart condition which caused her to go into a coma.

Her son, Maurice, and daughters, Mrs. Irving Stewart of Tahoka and Mrs. Jake Warnick of Lubbock, have been at her bedside most of the time since.

Young Farmers Vote Jim Williams Farmer of Year

The Tahoka Young Farmers held their monthly meeting Monday night of last week in the Lyntegar Board room.

Jimmy Williams was selected as the Outstanding Young Farmer for the Year from the local chapter and will compete in the Area II contest for the Outstanding Young Farmer of the area.

Bill Stewart, local Farmers Home Administration county supervisor, gave the program. He gave a little history of the administration and explained the purpose for its establishment. He also explained the many different loans available to the farmers and their purposes.

The program was very enlightening to the Young Farmers and promoted a better relationship between the farmers and their finances.

D. R. Proffitt Gulf Station furnished the door prize which was won by Wayne Huffaker.—Donald Williams, reporter.

MR. DAVIES CRITICAL

A. F. Davies, 88 years of age, a resident of Lubbock, remains in critical condition in St. Mary's Hospital. He was an early day settler of Lynn county just west of Southland.

Mrs. V. L. Wrestler is a medical patient in Tahoka Hospital. She was admitted July 15.

Ed Hamiltons Win Trip To Hawaii, All Expenses Paid

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hamilton flew to Hawaii Wednesday on a week's all-expense paid vacation as the guests of Zenith Corporation and Amarillo Hardware as a reward for having sold the most television sets of any dealer in a town of Tahoka's size in this area.

Flying by jet plane, they left Lubbock at 8:00 a. m. Wednesday and were scheduled to arrive in Honolulu at 3:30 p. m. the same day. Returning next Tuesday, they are scheduled to leave Honolulu at 9:30 a. m. and arrive in Lubbock at 12:30 p. m., picking up four hours on the return by time zone changes.

The award includes plane fare, hotel and food bills, tours of the Hawaiian Islands, plus cash for miscellaneous expenses. They are staying at Princess Kaiulani Hotel in Honolulu.

Two of Mrs. Hamilton's nieces, Mary and Louise Compton, 18 and 14 respectively, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin (Lois) Compton of LaPorte, are accompanying them on the trip. Mr. and Mrs. Compton brought the girls up Tuesday.

Marla Norman, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Norman of Plains, was dismissed from the local hospital Wednesday of last week where she had been a medical patient.

Santa Fe Closes Wilson Station

The Santa Fe has closed its Wilson depot after having served the area for 55 years, records and office equipment have been moved, and the building, oldest business structure in the town, has been abandoned.

Freight shipments to and from Wilson will not be discontinued, however. Wilson Lumber Co. will be agent for such shipments. This applies principally to truck shipments and carload shipments will possibly be handled through Slaton and Tahoka offices. The News is informed.

John F. Covey, Wilson station agent for more than 30 years, is temporarily retired. Mr. Covey has been in the Wilson position longer than any other Santa Fe employee in a similar position in the area. The News is informed.

Wilson's Santa Fe depot was built in 1910 when the branch line was laid from Slaton to Wilson, Tahoka, O'Donnell, and La Mesa, and this marked the beginning of Wilson as a town. The town has grown until it is now larger than ever in the past, and local people are greatly disappointed that Santa Fe reached a decision to close the station.

Last February 11, Wilson and area citizens protested the proposed closing of the station at a Railroad Commission hearing held in the Lynn county court room. But, the Commission recently approved the petition of Santa Fe to close the station.

An intermission will be held between the Talent Find and the Queen Contest, which is to follow at 8:00 p. m.

These three contests will be enjoyed by the entire family, and everyone is cordially invited to attend.

He succeeds John F. Thomas, who passed away recently, and will serve out the unexpired term ending January 1, 1967.

Cotton Doing Well But Rain Needed

LOUIS BIRDWELL Gets High Honor

Louis Birdwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Birdwell of O'Donnell, on Thursday of last week was named the Star Lone Star Farmer of Area 2 at the annual three day Texas Future Farmers of America convention in Houston.

He now becomes the top Lone Star Farmer degree holder in a vast region that covers 43 counties and extends all the way to the Big Bend country.

Birdwell is a 1965 graduate of O'Donnell High School and plans to enroll in the School of Agriculture at Texas Tech in the fall. He was Star Chapter Farmer of the district and runnerup in the area during his second year of FFA work. He was a member of the top livestock judging team in regional contest at Texas Tech last year. Birdwell has served as president of the O'Donnell Youth Council and participated in many local, county and regional livestock shows during his high school days.

The new Star Lone Star Farmer of Area 2 is already well established in the sheep business, owning Southdown and fine wool breeding ewes. He breeds many of his own lambs for show purposes. He's now farming 10 acres of cotton and owns four cows for calf production.

Mrs. Balch Helps Rest Home People

Mrs. Bill Balch and family of New Home have donated a walker and a vibrator for use of patients at LaVoy's Nursing and Convalescent Home.

"We deeply appreciate these gifts," a spokesman for the home told The News. "And feel sure our patients do, too. These items can be of great benefit to some. We think the public should know of Mrs. Balch's generosity and thoughtfulness in making these contributions."

Martin Warren Is Fourth In Contest

Martin Warren last year produced 1,025.6 pounds of lint cotton per acre on his five acres of 4-H Club contest land, but this was only good enough to take fourth place in the Lubbock area contests. But, Martin received a $75.00 premium for placing fourth.

First place in the irrigated division was won by Terry Terrell of Hale county, who produced 1257.6 pounds of lint per acre.

Warren is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Warren and a student in Tahoka schools.

MRS. HAMILTON ILL.

Mrs. John R. Hamilton of Wilson has been in the Slaton hospital since Tuesday of last week after suffering a mild heart attack. She was reported doing fine early this week and was hoping to come home.

Farmers are beginning to become concerned again about the prospects for rain as the hot, dry weather continues, the milo crop is rapidly going out, and cotton begins to fruit up heavily.

Most cotton is reported to be doing fine and timely rains soon could mean a bumper cotton crop, but continued dry weather could mean a light crop.

Last week, however, three large areas of the county received good rains that have been of material help. Good rains covered large areas of the Midway, South Ward, and Redwine areas to the southeast of Tahoka, and a large portion of the Dixie, New Home, Lakeview and Petty areas received good rains.

Then, on Thursday, heavy rain fell over a large part of the Wilson territory ranging up to two inches or more in some places.

Tahoka had received .36 on Wednesday and another .06 on Thursday.

Some damage is being reported from fleahoppers in some areas, especially where rain has caused cotton to put on new, tender growth.

Much older feed is already gone, but much young feed still has a good chance with rainfall soon. Lynn county does not have a very big acreage in irrigated maize.

Temperatures have been in the 90's except for three days since June 26. One of these days the high was 84, the other two 100 and 103 degrees.

Lubbock Weather Bureau Station Thursday morning gave no hopes for rain in the next few days.

The county has 70,000 to 80,000 acres of irrigated cotton, but irrigation farmers report they are having to hurry it up to get watered over for best results.

Most farmers just about have their crops worked out and hoed, cotton is growing rapidly, and is still in a very beautiful stage.

7 FFA Members At State Meet

Seven Tahoka Future Farmers of America and their two teachers attended the annual State FFA convention in Houston last Wednesday through Friday.

Tahoka FFA's talent team, area contest winner, competed in the state contest but failed to place. Members of the team were Ronnie Hudgens, Cal Womack, and Tommy Kidwell.

Chris Roberts was the local FFA's voting delegate, and Phil Adams, an area officer, assisted in staging the Houston meeting. Other boys attending were John Tyler and Jim Adams.

The group was accompanied by V. P. Carter and Lester Adams, local vocational agriculture teachers and sponsors of FFA here.

An outstanding feature of the meeting was a talk by Kenneth Kennedy of Kentucky, national president.

Magic Show Here Saturday Night

P. G. (Van) VanderLinden, district court reporter who is also well known as an amateur magician, will perform his feats of magic at 8:00 p. m. Saturday in Methodist Church Fellowship Hall here. Everyone in the county is invited, regardless of faith, and the show is free.

Van is noted over this area for his performances as a magician over a period of years. Kids, young and old, will enjoy his show.

This will be Van's last performance for the local people since he is retiring in September, and he and wife expect to move to Dallas.

Along about 11:00 p. m. Thursday as the four were about ready to retire for the night, a strange boy dashed in the door. The group was rather taken back not knowing him. It was Herbert Hoover and son Doyle. It wasn't long before everyone was acquainted—it had been some years since they had been together. They had a very restful night after everyone got quiet. Friday Herbert took all out in his boat to fish. They caught a few but C. A. let the big one get away, as usual.

Mrs. Inez McGrew of Lamesa spent Monday night in the home of her sister, Lucille Walker and visited her mother, Mrs. J. M. Inklebarger and Joy Tuesday morning. Mrs. Lucille Walker went home with Inez and stayed until Wednesday afternoon.

The C. A. Walkers had his mother, Mrs. Lucian Walker over Monday and helped her celebrate her 79th birthday. Many more happy birthdays to you, Mrs. Walker.

Mrs. Hoover visited Mrs. E. M. Walker Friday morning and Mrs. L. S. Turner that afternoon.

Mrs. E. M. Walker left for John Hopkins Hospital Saturday morning and was accompanied by her son, James B. Walker. She has been quite ill for some time. Her brothers, John and Howard will be close to her there in Baltimore, Md. We wish for her a speedy recovery. We just heard that she arrived there safely and stood the trip fine. Tests are being made at this time.

V. L. Melton's mother had a heart attack Tuesday. Thursday I. V. J. Melton and wife and Carlos and Jeanette McCleskey went to Edgewood to be with their grandmother.

Hulan and Darla Murray and daughter of Lamesa attended church services at the Nazarene Church Sunday and had lunch with the Bert McDonalds. Other guests were the T. J. Murrays and the James Murray family.

Vivian Campbell and Larry Dillard were honored with a wedding shower Tuesday night at the party room in the bank at Post. The serving table was covered with white lace over blue with the centerpiece being a large white wedding bell trimmed with blue flowers—and flanked with blue candles. Crystal appointments were used. Queda Murray and Norma Jean Campbell served. Mr. and Mrs. Claud Brown of New Home visited her parents, the C. M. Greens Sunday afternoon. Afternoon visitors were Alton and Steve and Ruby McClendon.

Miss Louise Gerner is spending her vacation here with her parents, other relatives and friends. Jerry Gerner is visiting his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gerner in Houston. The Gerner clan had a reunion at the home of the Rufus Gerners in Post. Mary (Gerner) Lorn and husband are here—they have been stationed in Germany the past three years. Attending were the Lee Masons, the Anton Muellers, the Ben Brewers, the Amos Gerners.

SMV Emblems Will Reduce Accidents To Farm Vehicles

The board of directors of Lynn County Farm Bureau is promoting a safety project involving a safety device known as a Slow Moving Vehicle (SMV) Emblem. This unique new safety device is designed for use on slow moving vehicles such as agricultural equipment, highway and roadside construction equipment, and all types of vehicles traveling on public highways at speeds of 25 miles per hour or less.

Traffic studies show that two out of three accidents involving SMV's are rear-end collisions; that 9 out of 10 of the collisions occurred during daylight hours on dry highways; that over 70 percent of total value of property damaged was incurred in rear-end collisions; and that two-thirds of the fatalities and injuries from MV-SMV collisions were incurred in rear-end collisions.

This safety emblem is a bright fluorescent orange solid triangle which is highly visible in daylight. At night, the reflective red border of the SMV emblem glows brilliantly in the path of approaching auto headlights. The SMV emblem is completely effective day or night, wet or dry weather.

This safety emblem is still on a voluntary basis in the state of Texas; however, several states have passed laws making the SMV emblem compulsory, and all indications are that other states will follow suit.

The SMV emblem may be seen and ordered at the Lynn County Farm Bureau office.

Barley is the world's fourth most important cereal.

New Chemical Phenomenon Ends Floor Waxing Forever

From the Research Laboratories of a pioneer chemical formulator for the Polaris Nuclear Submarines Missile and Space Industries comes a new discovery so unusual it's almost unbelievable.

Now, for the first time in history, you can take the drudgery out of floor waxing and polishing forever. Available now in this area is a new chemical phenomenon—a clear liquid plastic polyurethane coating—manufactured by PROTEX-A-COTE, INC., Newark 14, N. J., that can be safely and easily applied with a lamb's wool applicator or brush to wood and concrete floors.

The name of this back-saver is POLYTHANE; manufactured by the makers of protective coatings for the Polaris, Talos and Minuteman Missiles, Nuclear Submarines, missile bases, airports, and bridges; DuPont, General Motors, Union Carbide, Ford Motors, General Electric, IT & T, General Dynamics, Westinghouse, Republic and Grumman Aviation, Lehman Bros. Properties, Allied Chemical, National Lead, etc.

POLYTHANE imparts a high-gloss, mirror-like, non-slip, long lasting finish that never, never has to be waxed or polished. An occasional swish of a damp mop keeps your floor sparkling clean without dulling or yellowing with aging.

Your floors will be water, pet and baby-proof, resistant to SPECIAL? you bet he is!

You have to be more than just good in the National Guard. You have to be...special! That's because today's Guard is meeting the toughest challenge in its 300-year history. It takes a special kind of man. In his spare time he studies and trains so that he is ready should the nation's security be threatened. When you see him on the street, in church, at a PTA meeting, you only see a neighbor, or friend or employee. Look again, and you see the face of a man who has voluntarily taken on a tough, demanding assignment. Military skills mean very little unless they are kept up-to-date and that's where the challenge of the National Guard comes into the picture. Make no mistake. He's meeting the challenge when he's in the Guard. Get behind the Guard in your town or city.

Rep. Randy Pendleton Tells Legislative Work

There were 1,774 bills introduced, the greatest number in history, in the recent 59th regular session of the Texas Legislature, Randy Pendleton of Andrews, representative of this 75th district, told Rotarians at the club meeting Thursday.

Of this number, 762 or 42 percent were passed into law.

Pendleton reviewed the various fields of legislation, declared he thought the body did a fairly good job under the circumstances, and asked for more tolerance and understanding from citizens of the Legislature's work.

Ten proposed Constitutional amendments were approved for presentation to Texas voters, one this September, 10 in November and 16 in November of next year.

One of the most difficult problems was that of redistricting in compliance with the Supreme Court's "one man, one vote" decision, a deadline of August 2 having been set by the court.

Congressman George Mahon ended up losing some area to the south but picking up Midland county, State Senator Doc Blanchard picking up Winkler county, and Pendleton picking up Martin county.

Another big problem was in the field of education. Of the $3.6 billion total state appropriations, $1.7 billion goes to education, or 46 percent of the total budget. And, this does not include the $70 teacher raise bill.

Public schools will cost $1 billion, and most of the rest goes to 22 state supported senior colleges and 31 junior colleges.

The salary bill, a compromise between the governor's proposal which would throw most of the burden on local districts and the State Teachers Association proposal.

He also discussed briefly improvements in the mental health and retardation program, establishment of Texas Water Development and implementing of plans for conservation of rainwater in East Texas and underground water in West Texas, adoption of the Universal Commercial Code used in 29 states, revisions of the Criminal Code, requirements for labeling fresh meat imports, the new prestige license plates for cars, and the proposed investigation of auto license plate increase.

Mr. Pendleton's discussion was very interesting and informative and indicated he was well informed on legislative actions.

Harold Greea was in charge of the program and introduced the speaker.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" BY C. WILSON HARDER

Perhaps now the tumult and shouting has died, and it is possible to analyze recent events in Alabama with a logical perspective.

After all was said and done, what was accomplished? What single new job was created?

To be sure, the march demonstrated that there is a desire for an easier way to register to vote. But the Congress is working on legislation to achieve this.

After the fervor and excitement died down, what footsore member of a minority race returning home to no job, but only a continuation of existence on relief can honestly say that his basic problem was solved?

What one of the thousands of unemployed members of a minority race in the northern cities claim that this demonstration in any way solved his problem? ... getting a job?

For after all, the key to human dignity is an income from gainful employment.

On this basis, if real accomplishment was desired, it would have been far better if this energy, this fervor, had been devoted to impressing on government that steps be taken to insure independent business in this nation is able to provide more jobs.

Surveys being taken by the National Federation of Independent Business

National Federation of Independent Business show that independent business proprietors in this nation, all 4,500,000 of them who now employ 39,000,000 people, are not reluctant to expand and provide more jobs if there is a common sense approach to the problem.

Results are showing that last year the independent businessmen have created in one year almost 4,000,000 new jobs, at a cost of somewhere around $7,000 in investment per new job.

It is reported that the Federal costs of protection of a demonstration that did not produce one new job, cost $1 million. This amount of money, retained by independent business, would have created 142,857 new jobs.

So what basic good was accomplished? And unless the problem of creating new jobs is solved, there will never be good understanding. Human nature being what it is, those who are paying heavy taxes to support others on relief will never have respect and consideration for those on relief.

Thus if the government and the Congress is really sincere in a desire to promote better relations between all its citizens, it will not look too much to the south as to the teeming masses of unemployed in the north. It will not spend huge sums to finance emotional demonstrations which fail to solve the basic problems. Instead, it will speedily enact such items as the "plug back allowance" which will not only encourage, but permit, independent business to provide the jobs which will convert tax eaters into taxpayers.

Lynn County Soil Conservation District News

WARD EAKIN BOYD BARNES
JIGGS SWANN

There have been approximately 200 acres of improved pasture grasses planted in the Lynn County Soil Conservation District this year. This acreage is comprised mainly of two sizable plots. These two are on Garland Pennington's farm 4 miles northeast of Tahoka and on the A. C. Hardy farm north east of Wilson.

Most farmers who plant grass like to have it seeded by about the first of June if it is dryland. However under irrigation some grass is seeded as late as August 1. August 1 is about as late as grass can be planted and get well established before frost. Under dryland or irrigated conditions, the earlier grass is seeded better are the chances for it to get established since most of the summer rain generally comes in the early summer.

Garland Pennington is sprigging 50 acres to Midland bermuda. Mr. Pennington is developing his farm into a cattle setup. Since the farm is sandy and blowing is a problem earlier in the year, he waited until July to sprig the grass. The grass is being irrigated regularly so that maximum growth can be obtained. Most of the ground should be covered with grass by frost if conditions are normal. Mr. Pennington plans to seed additional acres to improve grasses next year.

Approximately one hundred acres of grass have been seeded on the Hardy farm, north of Wilson. Of this amount about 55 acres were planted to blue panic and about 35 acres to side oats grama. The remainder was sprigged to Midland bermuda. The bermuda was sprigged in a low area of a lake where water stands after a rain. Bermuda grass can survive under water for about two weeks with no ill effects. Mr. Hardy had a tank dug in the center of the lake to hold a big part of the water. A lake pump will be used to get the water off the grass when needed.

There were several other farmers who seeded acreages to grass this year. Grass has a variety of uses, but in the Lynn County Soil Conservation District its chief use is for livestock feed.

Current proposed cotton legislation, if enacted in its present form, could mean the beginning of the end of cotton as a major crop on the South Plains. Make no mistake, the legislation has the approval of the President.

Such laws now proposed establish principles that will deliver producers of cotton to a managed peasantry. Further reduced acreage and further price reductions are forcing the producer to depend upon a government check for survival. And, now and in the future, acreage production and payments will be adjusted to a level determined by the political planners to be fair. Soon, we will be reduced to servitude, forced to katow to Washington planners, and they will have us where they want us—at their mercy.

Sure, the bill gives you some choices. They are about like giving a man with a death penalty hanging over his head the choice of being hung, shot, or strangled.

A highly respected farm expert of the South Plains did some figuring on possibilities of some of these choices. We're not permitted to use his name, but he doesn't live in Lynn county.

The Cooley Bill figures cotton base loan price at 21 cents per pound, which would be about 18 cents here, and on the latter figure he does some "figgering".

Under the Cooley bill, unless changed, we'll take a 320-acre farm with a cotton-base allotment of 100 acres and a projected farm yield of 625 pounds (or a bale and a quarter per acre, irrigated) and the estimated market price per pound at 18 cents. There would be three alternatives under the program, cutting 15 percent to 85 acres, cutting to 75 acres, or cutting to 65 acres.

By cutting to 85, the least mandatory in the program, the farmer's gross income would be $14,203.05. This includes price support payment of 9 cents per pound, $3,656.25; land retirement payment, $984.30; and cotton lint sold at 18 cents per pound, $9,562.50. Estimated cost of production at $80 per acre for water, fertilizer, labor, interest, equipment, etc., would run to $6,800.00, and cost of working retired land at least $75.00. Thus, if expenses could be held to $6,875.00, the farmer would have $7,328.05 to live on, raise a few kids, pay for $500-per-acre land, and get drunk on Saturday night.

By cutting to 75 acres, on the same basis he could come out with a "profit" of $7,609.25, and if he cut to 65 acres of cotton he could show $7,890.45 profit—with the government paying him $2,296.70 for land retirement and the same $3,656.25 nine-cent price support payment.

One fallacy in the proposed program seems to be that the farmer could disregard the federal program entirely, plant cotton fence to fence and come out about like this: 625 pounds of lint per acre from 640 acres sold on open market at 18 cents per pound, $36,000. If production cost him only the same $80 per acre, his total costs would be $25,600. Then, he would make a profit of $10,400.

One fly in the ointment is that, if a farmer stays out of the program, the Secretary will probably run the price of cotton down with the 14 million bale carryover, as he did on feed-grains a year or two ago to force growers in line.

But, the man figured the above on highly productive irrigated land. Where would the dryland man be? If he made a fair crop, he couldn't make a living on a half section. If he made a near failure, it would be "Katy bar the door."

But, if we fail to make $3,000 income, Mr. Johnson will take care of us on his Poverty Program. The question is, who is going to pay for the poverty program?

Having mentioned Poverty Program, how many white men, or Latins, or Negroes do you think will do day labor if they can qualify for the Poverty Program, or even Unemployment Compensation? Why, we've got people right here in Tahoka living off the government by producing illegitimate children!

So, you think we can't become a Socialistic State? It won't be long now. LBJ all the way!

"I am fully aware that my youth has been spent—that my get-up-and-go has got up and went, but I really don't mind when I think, with a grin, of all the swell places my Get-Up has been."

Melvin Wuensch is a little upset on finding young puppies dumped out beside the highway north of town. Evidently, some one from town wishing to get rid of the puppies had thrown them out to starve to death or to get run over by some car. He thinks it would be much more humane to put a bullet through the pup's head. Without the heart to do this, Tahoka and Lubbock have pound men who will take the dogs and put them to sleep in a much more humane manner than turning them loose to suffer starvation.

W. C. High of Lewisville sent us a copy of "The Oklahoma Mason" we'll be using some clippings from the paper that are interesting.

Karl Prohl, now editor of two Southwestern Bell company publications at Houston, sent us another copy of one publication which has a circulation of 13,000. As we predicted, Karl is doing a fine job. He asked us for criticism of his paper, but how could we?

Mrs. Earl Echols, Wichita Falls, writes: "I enjoy reading The News to keep in touch with old friends. We were in Tahoka for the New Lynn reunion June 27. It is so good to see old friends and to see how Tahoka is growing—so many changes since I left there in 1940. It's still my home town."

The J. E. Sherrills, according to Ronald, were reared down at Salt Tank, a community northwest of Rising Star. H. R. Dabbs from over in Garza county tells us Hackberry community was so named because of a hackberry tree growing at a lake there in the early days. Which reminds us of the place—name which takes the cake—Slicknasty Tank, over in northeast Garza county. We've been told half of the first settlers in Garza were baptized in Slicknasty tank, and when a church was started over there a lot of people called it Slicknasty Baptist Church.

Mrs. L. M. Vaughn of Post told The News she thinks Tahoka should be highly complimented for the flower box program. She says she thinks this is wonderful.

Dan "Hoss" Blocker Is Becoming Legend Here

(By The Printer)

Dan Blocker came home to O'Donnell the last day of the rodeo, that night stood in the middle of the arena choking back tears, and told the overflow crowd his affection for his home, town and friends.

Obviously Saturday, July 10, was a big day for Bobby Dan, the "Hoss" Cartwright of "Bonanza", the most highly rated actor in the cast of the most highly rated TV program on the air today.

Still humble, unspoiled by notoriety, the big old overgrown Lynn county boy spilled out praise for those at home who had inspired him. The crowd loved it, and their presence was a tribute to old Bobby Dan.

Earlier, he had ridden through the streets of his home town in the parade and before and after the show he met old friends at the home of his cousin, J. D. Stewart, who operates Blocker Grocery in partnership with Mrs. Shack (Mary) Blocker, Dan's mother, who now lives in DeKalb, Bowie county, from whence the Blockers came to Lynn county.

At the Stewart home, he reminisced with "Fuzzy" Moore, Hal Singleton III, Roy Gibson from Denver City, John Saleh, and others, and all the employees from the store including several Latin-American friends.

With a heart as big as all outdoors, Dan paid all his expenses, picked up the entertainment tab, and his presence enabled O'Donnell Rodeo Association to make its annual show a financial success.

In the parade, "Big'n", as a lot of people called him as a kid, rode John Ellis' white horse, a fitting arrangement for two reasons.

First, John is O'Donnell's Chevrolet dealer, and "Bonanza" is sponsored by Chevrolet.

Second, John Ellis taught Dan to ride. Away back yonder, Shack bought his 200-pound 10-year-old horse and saddle. Mr. Ellis first adjusted the saddle to fit Dan and then threw the saddle in a barrel of water to set it. Dan nearly cried, for he thought John had ruined his saddle.

Around O'Donnell and over this entire area, in fact, Dan Blocker (Hoss Cartwright) is becoming quite a legendary character.

Born in Bowie county December 10, 1929, the nearly 300-pound six-foot-four TV star is reputed to have weighed 14 pounds at birth, the largest baby ever born in that county, weighed 105 pounds when he entered school and 200 pounds at age 12.

Moving to O'Donnell, where his late father established Blocker Grocery, Dan attended school, played football on occasion a year or two in high school. He next attended Texas Military Institute at San Antonio, then Hardin-Simmons one semester.

At Sul Ross State, he played football, majored in drama and English, received B.A. and M.A.

Gordon-Southland News

(By Mrs. Edmund Wilke)

Hi, another week has passed and it is once again time to report some news. I have a feeling that this is going to be a good week because we started it off right by going to church and Sunday School. We had missed going the two Sundays before and when we drove up to the church this past Sunday, the President of the Congregation walked up to Edmund and shook his hand and introduced himself and told us to be sure and sign the Guest Register. Of course, he is a very good friend of ours and he did this as a joke, but just stop and think—wouldn't it be terribly sad if we would leave our church or community and no one would even miss us? Anyway, as I was saying, attending Church and Sunday School is the best way in the world to start the week off right!

Rev. Ralph Cooper spent from Monday through Friday attending the Junior High Bible Church camp at Ceta Canyon. Rev. Cooper is the pastor at the Southland Methodist Church.

Mrs. Ralph Cooper and children attended the Baker reunion at Ballinger on Monday and Tuesday of last week.

The Southland Cheer Leaders for this coming school year will be going to Lubbock next week to attend a Cheer Leaders' School that will be held on the Texas Tech Campus. This will be a week long school and they plan on spending the whole week up there instead of driving back and forth. The three girls that will be attending are Jettie Crawford and Marian Eckert, who will be seniors this year, and Karen Melcher who will be a sophomore.

Terry Bryson spent last week with his Grandmother and Grandfather Scott at South Plains.

We would like to say congratulations to Miss Claudette Martin and Mr. Archie Lamb who are getting married this Friday night. Claudette lives at Hackberry, where her father is the ginier at the Hackberry Gin, and Archie is from Post.

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Hodges went to Amarillo this past week end where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pearson and children. Mrs. Pearson is the former Elsie Allbright. On Sunday the two couples went out to Buffalo Lakes near Umberger, Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Alvie Allbright, parents of Mrs. Pearson, joined the Pearsons and Hodges at the Umberger Lake on Sunday.

Mrs. Paul Winterrowd, Dahonla, Breonne, and Jerry have gone to Ft. Worth to visit with Mrs. Winterrowd's mother, Mrs. Francis Lightfoot. They plan to be gone two weeks.

Beverly Stolle was home on the week end visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Stolle. She is a student at Jessie Lee's Beauty School at Lubbock.

He turned down a pro-football contract for summer stock in Boston.

He does not especially like to ride, is too heavy for a quarter horse, and rides a Morgan on Bonanza. He says, "It's the only horse on TV with fallen arches."

Dan Blocker does not have to act his part on Bonanza—he just acts naturally.

Levin Davis, Odessa public relations man and brother of Deen Davis of O'Donnell's First National Bank, was responsible for getting Blocker from the airport in that city to O'Donnell for the show. Deputy U. S. Marshal Jack Graves of El Paso and Jim Blair, an old Korean war buddy, accompanied him.

The whole show at O'Donnell was something of a tribute to John Ellis, too. He's been head of the Roping Club and Rodeo Association for 26 years, and this one pleased him the most because happy, jovial Dan Blocker came home to help put it over.

Mrs. W. A. Hardt returned Friday from Caldwell in Burleson county, where she visited a week with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Langlotz.

degrees. Incidentally, he is now working toward his Ph.D. at UCLA. He served in the Korean war with the 45th Division, married an Oklahoma girl in 1952, taught a year at Sonora and one at Carlsbad, N. M.

He had played summer stock, went to California and made more playing a part in one "Guns-moke" episode than he had in a month of teaching, and finally landed in "Bonanza." He and wife have four children, live in Northridge, Calif.

As a young kid, the "Big'n" was known for extraordinary strength.

At 10 he worked with grown men on a grain truck.

Although good natured and liked by most, his boyhood pastime was fighting. Dan took on all-comers, some 18 to 20 years old, when he was 12. Once, they roped off the street in O'Donnell Saturday night and "Big'n" was pitted against the town toughs. Finally, fighting fizzled out for lack of competition.

One day in the store, though, Robert Harvick and Dan had a disagreement. Robert swung at Dan, the latter dodged and knocked a pile of canned goods all over the place.

Elyin Ray Moore says Dan used to sprawl out on the sidewalk in front of Ben Moore's insurance office and he and other kids would broad-jump, landing in Dan's stomach to toughen him up.

"Fuzzy" says he's seen Dan at about 10 carry a 100-pound sack of flour under each arm from the store out to a customer's truck.

We're told Ervin Sumrow once hired Dan to pull bolls, but Dan came near breaking him the first day. "Big'n" pulled only 50 pounds of cotton but ate $2.00 worth of grub.

"My dad used to say," Dan chuckles, "that I was the onliest man in Texas that wears a No. 14-plus shoe and a size 3 hat. He also said that I was too big to ride and too little to hitch to a wagon—no good for a damned thing."

We know Dan was exaggerating on this, though, because no one has ever been found with a head big enough to wear Dan's hat. Believing appearances, that big head is pretty full of brains. We're personally certain that Shack took great pride in his one and only son. Mr. Blocker lived to see his "pride and joy" reach stardom, and he and Mrs. Blocker were living near Dan in California when Shack passed away in 1962.

Dan's first acting was at Sul Ross, where he was dubbed for a part in "Arsenic and Old Lace" because someone was needed strong enough to carry the bodies off the stage.

Raymond Bagby In Mortuary School Is Featured In Paper

A feature story in the Houston Post of July 9 concerning the mortuary training schools mentions a Tahoka young man, Raymond Bagby, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bagby, student in Commonwealth College of Mortuary Science in that city.

President of the college says funeral directing is "a public service for the living, not the dead; it comes at a moment when everyone needs guidance and service."

The article tells how students are required to study in 12 months everything from embalming to accounting, one important subject being restorative art and others include anatomy, chemistry, mortuary law, administration, and accounting.

Bagby is quoted in the article as saying, "A cadaver is not something we cut for sadistic pleasure; it is taken seriously as an instrument for learning more about the human body."

I was a "teen"! At that time, the Jitter-bug was the latest dance and I might add that it wasn't quite as strenuous as these modern day dances!

The Edmund Wilke family and Dayneen Dunn attended an ice cream social at the Slaton Grace Lutheran Church on Sunday night.

Some of the farmers around the Southland community enjoyed a soaking rain last Thursday, afternoon, but it missed some of us! Hope we all get some real soon.

Jimmy Williams Named Young Farmer Of Year

Jimmy Williams has been selected as the Outstanding Young Farmer of the Year by the Tahoka chapter of Young Farmers. He is the son of Mrs. Gussie Williams of Tahoka and a Tahoka High School graduate. Jimmy is married to the former Miss Lenna Bengé, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Bengé of Grassland. The couple has four children, Jack, Bengé, Belinda and Rody. They are members of the First Methodist Church. Jimmy was selected as the Outstanding Young Farmer for his farming ability and for the way he manages farming interest. Having been selected as the Outstanding Young Farmer, this qualifies him to compete in Area II as the Outstanding Young Farmer for this year. The qualifications set by the club for one to be eligible for the Outstanding Young Farmer are: farmer had to own part of the land he is farming; and the farmer was to have improved his farm to the extent that it would show he was an outstanding farmer. Williams farms 500 acres of land of which he owns 250 acres. He has 200 acres of irrigated cotton and has some irrigated maize. He planted approximately 70 acres of maize but turned most of it under to build up the organic matter in the soil. He will plant cotton on this ground next year. He has two eight-inch and three 4-inch irrigation wells. With this amount of water he is able to cross his cotton every eight to ten days. He fertilizes all of his cotton according to what the soil analysis call for. Jimmy is following a program set up by the International Minerals and Chemical Corporation whose purpose is to obtain more profit in farming. Jimmy began farming in 1952 on 80 acres of dryland with a two-row Ford tractor. He managed to come through the dry years of the early 1950's and began drilling his irrigation wells. He has gone from the two-row tractor to a six-row tractor and equipment. This speeds up his farming operations and helps cut labor costs considerably. The Young Farmer has had an extremely high production average for the past several years and last year he had the best crop ever in his farming years. Jimmy and his neighbors have a practice of swapping their water, pipe and equipment with each other to help cross their land faster and to cut cost of irrigation. This practice has proved extremely profitable and a labor saver for him and his neighbors. He also has a dealership for fertilizer which he is developing into a pretty good business. By using scientific farming and showing good managing ability, Jimmy Williams has become an outstanding farmer in this area.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rice went to Abilene last week end to visit their daughter, Mrs. Bob Sanders, who was ill in a hospital with a severe virus. Mr. Rice returned Sunday night, and Mrs. Rice remained for a longer stay.

Lynn All-Stars Lose To Dixie

(By George Glenn)
Lynn County All-Stars lost 3-2 to Dixie All-Stars of Lubbock in the District 3 Pony League tournament at Kuykendall-Bennett field, 42nd and Ave. U. Tuesday night in an extra-inning ball game that was a pitchers duel. In the double elimination tournament, Lynn County was playing Lubbock Southern Thursday night at 8:00, and a win would keep the local boys' chances alive. Charlie Brown of Lynn County pitched a fine game, giving up six hits and striking out 14, but John Ransom of Dixie gave up only two hits and struck out 17. For three and a half innings, the game was a scoreless tie and each pitcher had allowed only one hit. In the bottom of the fourth, Thompson, Dixie lead-off batter, attempted to bunt and was thrown out by catcher Ray Chapa. Ransom singled and promptly stole second and third. McBride struck out, then Haley singled to center scoring Ransom. Dickie Ingram then laced a double into left-center to score Haley. Neil Young was safe on an error, and Ebberhart grounded out short to first to end the inning, but Dixie led 2-0. This lead was short-lived, however, as Lynn County banded back to tie the score with two runs in the fifth inning. Larry Arnold led off in the fifth by striking out. Frank Olvera walked, and Keith Wied struck out for the second out. Gregg Thomas then drew a walk to put runners on first and second. Pinch hitter Billy Curry singled to center to score Olvera from second. On the throw to the plate, the Dixie pitcher cut the ball off and threw to second in an attempt to catch Curry. The ball got away from the second baseman, Curry was safe, and Thomas scored from third. Randy Bessire then struck out to end the inning with the score tied 2-2. The game rocked on until the eighth inning with both pitchers doing a tremendous job. In the top of the 8th, Lynn's lead-off batter, Billy Curry was hit by a pitched ball, and Lynn County fans came alive as little Billy Applewhite came to the plate as a pinch hitter. On the first pitch, Applewhite squared around to bunt, the pitch was low and Curry, who led off too far from first was thrown out by the Dixie catcher. Applewhite and Gill struck out to end the inning. In the bottom of the eighth, lead-off batter Robert Vittitow walked and was sacrificed to second by Wolforth. Mike Thompson hit a scorcher toward short. Frank Olvera made a beautiful backhand stab of the ball but couldn't decide whether to go for the batter or the runner, who had come about halfway off second. By the time he threw the ball to second, both runners were safe. Brown bore down and struck out Ransom for the second out. Curtis McBride, the fancy fielding short stop for Dixie, stepped to the plate and smashed a double off the center field wall scoring Vittitow and the winning run.

STEVEN GREER of Tahoka was on the Dean's Honor List for this past semester at Sul Ross State College, Alpine, and he and his parents have received letters of commendation from Dean L. Harlan Ford of the college. A graduate of Tahoka High School, Steve is the son of Alton and Viola Greer.

Little League In Crosbyton Play-Off

Tahoka Little League All-Stars were in Crosbyton as the Stars went to press Thursday afternoon to meet that town's team in the area tournament being held there this week end. If Tahoka wins the first game, they will play again this Friday night. If the local team loses the opener, it will play a consolation game Saturday afternoon. Finals are Saturday night. Clifton Gardner is team manager and Tony Spruiell is coach. Cotton is the life-blood of Lynn county economy.
