Oil Is Big Benefit To Lynn County Economy

Lynn County's producers and royalty owners are marketing some $1.7 million in crude oil and natural gas a year, according to statistics released by Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association this week.

Ranking 150th among Texas' oil and gas producing counties, Lynn County in 1963 received some $1.7 million from wellhead sales of oil and an estimated $7,000 from natural gas. County production of oil was approximately 559,000 barrels; natural gas, 55 million cubic feet.

Farmers, ranchers and other mineral owners share in a $208,000 distribution of oil and gas royalty payments annually.

The Association based its annual study of this county's oil and gas output on statistics compiled by the U. S. Bureau of Mines for 1963. Production data for 1964 would be approximately the same.

Statewide, Texas oil and gas wells produced an estimated $3.6 billion in income; $2.9 billion from oil, $730 million from gas.

An important indicator of activity is the amount expended or drilling of wildcat wells seeking new fields and those wells drilled to develop fields already located. The Association estimates that in 1964 approximately $1 million was risked by Texas oil and gas operators on drilling ventures in Lynn County. About 80 per cent of this expenditure, or $800,000 went into dry holes.

A tabulation by the Oil and Gas Journal shows 10 wells drilled in the county in 1964: 2 oil and 8 dry holes. A total of 74,000 feet of hole were drilled—10,000 for development wells and 64,000 for wildcats.

In addition to local school and county property taxes by oil and gas operators, taxes on production from Lynn County flowed into the State Treasury at the rate of about $77,000 a year.

Warning Issued Owners Of Dog

As a result of many complaints, City of Tahoka is cracking down on stray dogs. After today, all dogs not bearing 1965 City Dog tags and having had vaccination for rabies will be subject to confiscation and destruction within three days.

A veterinarian will be at City Hall today, Friday, from 2:00 until 6:00 p. m. to vaccinate dogs for rabies. At the same time, dogs will be vaccinated for distemper, if desired by owner. Dog tags are $1.00 per year.

Harry Hudlin, animal warden, has been given authority to pick up all untagged dogs and dogs with delinquent tags. The News is informed, if not redeemed within three days, on payment by owner of 50 cents per day for board, such dogs will be destroyed.

City of Tahoka this week completed erection of a modern, sanitary dog pound quarters where dogs may be given proper care. The frame and stucco building has a concrete floor which may be washed daily, four compartments for dogs, one of which may be used to segregate an ill dog, an exercise pen, and a gas chamber. The gas chamber is recommended humane method of destroying ill or stray dogs impounded.

Citizens of Tahoka who own dogs are asked to give their full cooperation to the program for the protection of all. This will be last chance this year to have dogs vaccinated locally.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Huffaker returned to Austin Tuesday after visiting here several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calloway Huffaker, other relatives and friends. Mrs. Huffaker is the former Miss Becky Gregg of New Home. Gerald is attending law school at the University of Texas.

Grand Master Hinsley stressed the importance of attendance by all Lodge officers and emphasized that other Masons are welcome.

Bulldogs Will Get Test At Crosbyton Tonight

Tahoka Bulldogs face a more severe test tonight at 8:00 when they meet the rugged Crosbyton Chiefs of District 4-A at Crosbyton, a team that took the local team 32 to 12 here last year. Tahoka opened the season with a 14-7 victory over Lorenzo of 4-A last Friday here. (See story on front page section 2.)

Crosbyton, coached by Deane Wright, a former Tahoka assistant, thinks it has the best team in its history and is ready to challenge Petersburg for the title in that district. The Chiefs won at O'Donnell 47 to 13 last Friday.

Tahoka has a young and inexperienced team this year, but the boys have a lot of desire, showed a lot of ability last Friday, and are due to come along fine barring key injuries.

Gary "Butch" Tomlinson, the Bulldog's driving halfback, received an injured left hand in last Friday's game that may keep him out of offensive action tonight.

Coaches Don Smith and Jim Littlefield were encouraged by the boys showing against Lorenzo, are working on mistakes made in the opening game, and expect the boys to continue showing improvement.

Coach Jim Tollett, who scouted the O'Donnell-Crosbyton game, says the Chiefs are big and quick, but believes the Bulldogs may be able to move against them.

Prospects For Normal Crop Now Excellent, Farmers Say

Fifty Men On Local Farm Tour

About fifty farmers and business men made the annual Soil Conservation and Crop Demonstration tour Tuesday morning sponsored by Lynn County Soil Conservation District and the Extension Service.

The group left Tahoka shortly after 8:00 a. m. and ended the tour at noon when a barbecue dinner was served at St. John's Lutheran Church by ladies of the church. Jake Mueller and Melvin Wuensche cooked the barbecue.

Following were the places visited:

B. R. Taylor farm, where a sprinkler gathering system was observed, water being pumped from small wells into a tank and then being put under pressure into sprinklers.

Robert Warren farm, cotton variety test plots.

Edward Bartley farm, systemic insect control and fungicide control.

George Sealy farm, cotton infested by nematode, and fumigant applied for control in cotton.

Joe D. Unfred farm, forage sorghum on diverted acres for soil improvement.

L. C. Unfred farm, land leveling and parallel terracing for efficient irrigation.

Melvin Wuensche farm, grass seed production and grass rotation with cotton to increase production.

Student Guest Jaycee Speaker

Tahoka Jaycees enjoyed a program Tuesday night presented by Miss Olga Aivazis, 17, of Athens, Greece, sponsored here this summer by the local Rotary Club and brought to this country through the Experiment on International Living.

She talked to the men about her country and told of her plans to attend a university to study law. She graduated from her class in high school as the top-ranking student.

An election was held after the program to fill two vacancies. Jerry Cain was elected the second vice president, and Charles Brookshire was elected to fill a director's office.

Interim Pastor At First Baptist

Rev. Bertis Hollis of Lubbock will serve the First Baptist Church in Tahoka as interim pastor until a new full-time pastor is called. Rev. Hollis is assistant principal of George R. Bean Elementary School in Lubbock, in charge of the school for retarded children, which is located at Bean Elementary. He was in the pastorate for twelve years, with his latest field of service at Carlisle Baptist Church.

The former pastor of the local church, Rev. T. James Efrid, has assumed the pastorate of Whitehall Baptist Church in Columbus, Ohio. A pulpit committee, composed of Dub Kenley, chairman, Robert Edwards, Stephen Thompson, Mrs. Truett Smith, and Mrs. Garland Pennington, is now at work securing a new pastor.

Set United Fund Drive For Oct. 19

Plans are being made to kick-off the second annual Tahoka United Fund drive on October 19, according to UF officers.

Harold Roberts, local manager for Southwestern Public Service, will be the drive chairman, and will have a number of helpers to contact citizens of the community.

United Fund in Tahoka supports four agencies in one big drive, the Red Cross, Salvation Army, Boy Scouts, and Girl Scouts. Donors may give to all or eliminate any one of the four.

The organization was set up last year to conserve manpower among drive workers, to cut down on the number of annual drives, and to give people a chance to budget their donations by spreading them out over the year.

Leighton Knox is the local UF president; Garland Thornton is vice president; Steve Thompson, secretary; and Warren Embree, treasurer.

Prizes Given Away On "Bulldog Day"

Winners of the Savings Bond prizes last Friday afternoon at the "Back the Bulldogs" event sponsored by Tahoka Chamber of Commerce were: Mrs. Leslie Hamilton, $75.00; Mrs. Leslie Paris, $50.00; and A. A. Greenwood, $25.00.

Patrons had been invited to register at places of business of C.C. members that day, and a number of merchants had some special prizes for the day.

Following close of school, the band and student body staged a pep rally down town, and at 8:00 p. m. Johnny Wells and Clint Walker presided over the drawing for gifts.

Prospects are now good for an almost normal yield from this year's crop in the county as a whole, local agricultural experts and farmers declare.

Guesses on cotton production are now running from 140,000 to 160,000 bales, although the weather from now until mid-November can have a lot to do with the total harvest.

Some farmers in dry areas would like to see rain, but most would now like to have hot dry weather and a late killing freeze.

Almost unprecedented August rains which ranged from almost nothing in spots up to 3.39 inches in Tahoka and up to five or six or more inches in other areas have saved a lot of cotton, added to the production of other fields, and also assured a fine late maize crop for many.

Limited areas in the east part of Lynn county and in the southwest part had cotton which had burned so badly that rains came too late to help.

On the other hand, farmers tell The News, there are many dryland farms that will produce a bale to the acre.

Early maize produced little or nothing, but there will be a surprising amount of late maize that produces well, a local elevator man informs The News.

Light Vote In Election Here

Although Lynn county favored the proposal to enlarge the Texas State Senate membership nearly four to one; the state rejected the proposal about 130,000 to 80,000, principally on the big city vote.

As over the state, voting was extremely light in Lynn county, with only 256 citizens bothering to go to the polls. This represents possibly about eight percent of the eligible Lynn county voters.

The vote was 204 for the amendment and 54 against.

As a result, no special session of the legislature will be necessary to redistrict the state on a population "one-man, one-vote" basis, seven present State senators will lose their seat because 13 districts will be combined into six to comply, and rural areas will lose heavily in representation.

Longer Vehicles Due On Roads

The Legislature has seen fit to allow the operation of longer vehicles on Texas highways. These vehicles can be maximum of 65 feet. The present length for a combination of vehicles is 50 feet. The law has been changed as a result of the trucking industry seeking to improve the efficiency and quality of service to the public.

These combinations commonly known as "double-bottoms," although used extensively, are virtually unknown in many areas of the country. Texas has been one of those areas. However, beginning September 1, 1965, we will begin seeing the "big-rigs" on our roads.

Our purpose in this article is to acquaint the motoring public with the fact that the bigger and longer vehicles will be on our roads. And, though we occasionally see a long truck, mobile home, or some oil field equipment on the highway and we need to drive accordingly—these are not too numerous. The "double-bottoms" will be there day and night, especially on our thru highways.

In the past a vehicle combination of this type would have required a permit and would not have been allowed on the road way at night.

Since the picture is changing, Texas motorists will need to change some driving habits. Look for these longer and larger vehicles at night.

Naturally your question is, can they "fit" into present day traffic? Let's look at the turning movements of these 65 feet length "double-bottoms." According to Traffic Safety, a National Safety Council publication, the Department of Commerce says that, after tests they ran, the 65 feet combinations have less off-tracking than the 50 feet, five-axle tractor semitrailers.

"For a 90 degree turn, such as a city street intersection, the 65 feet 'double' has a track width 27 feet narrower than the 50 feet tractor semitrailer."

Turning on the cloverleaf intersections of the Interstate System, the Department of Commerce tests show the "doubles" are 1.2 feet narrower than those of the smaller combinations.

Another question, and equally important, is it safe to pass a "double-bottom"? We again refer to the Department of Commerce report showing a 10 m.p.h. speed differential (car at 60 and truck at 50 m.p.h., for example) it takes 15.17 seconds for the car to pass a 55 feet long combination on a two-lane road. If the truck being passed is 65 feet long, the passing time is 15.75 seconds, only two-thirds of a second more.

Mainly, we will need to allow just a little more time and distance in passing these vehicles and look forward to seeing them on our roads day and night.

This week marks an anniversary—the writer of the news. It's been one year since I began trying to gather the news for the Wilson Community. I have enjoyed each week thoroughly, although mistakes have been made, everyone has been so understanding. I know anyone could do a much better job than I, but may I state with such wonderful people in this area, no one could enjoy working with and for the people more than I. Also with such wonderful publishers as friends, how can anyone throw in the towel?

So with the citizens of the community cooperating with me, and believe me it takes the readers, I will continue to try to gather the Wilson news to the best of my ability.

Cotton is the life-blood of Lynn county economy.

Jerry Cain Is Rotary Speaker

Jerry Cain, one of the newest members of the club, spoke on some of the principles of Rotary at the weekly meeting of Tahoka Rotary Club Thursday noon.

"Rotary is less than a way of life; more than just an hour's program—a concept hard to define," he declared, and explored in his talk some of the things that makes the program work here in Tahoka and has worked successfully for 29 years for betterment of the community and individual members.

Although just starting out as a young attorney, Jerry has had close affiliation with Rotary most of his life as the son of a Rotarian, a frequent visitor at the club, and as an attendant at one international convention.

Dr. K. R. Durham, in charge of the program, introduced the speaker.

Two student guests were present for the first meeting of the new school year as the club has long had a policy of inviting two senior boys each school month as guests. The guests for September are Phil Adams and Stanley Renfro, introduced by Ralph Beistle and E. L. Short.

President Ross Smith complimented Ralph Beistle on the fine job as the new editor of "The Stenwinder," he having succeeded Rev. James Efrid in publishing the club bulletin.

Mrs. Stokes Visits Historic Site

Mrs. Gladys M. Stokes recently made an interesting trip down to Houston, accompanied by Gary Gardner, student in Tech, to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Gardner, who recently moved there from Lubbock. Mrs. Gardner is the former Donna Sue Milliken, daughter of the "Bud" Millikens and niece of Mrs. Stokes.

Al is in the home building business at Houston and currently is working on the Candlelight Plaza subdivision. Mrs. Stokes says the Gardners live in the northwest outskirts of the city on Alabonson Road in an old home, partially rebuilt, in the most beautiful setting she ever saw.

Returning home, they came by Old Independence and Brenham, where her late husband, Joe Stokes, was raised, an historic site in the early days of Texas.

Farm Income High Last Year, But No Lynn Record Was Set

(Editor's Note: Following is another of the special stories on Lynn county written by Park Row News Service of New York City. A lot of readers will question the accuracy of some of the statements, along with the News editor. For one thing, we don't believe last year's Lynn county farm income was the highest on record, because several years have hit in the neighborhood of $30 million.)

(Special to The News)

New York—Acre for acre, farms in Lynn county produced more in the past year than ever before.

Their output broke previous records, despite the fact that a considerable amount of land was out of use, in conformance with the government's cutback program.

Because of this increase and because of the somewhat higher prices that their products brought, local farmers ended the year in better shape than they had in 1963. Such was not the case in every part of the country.

The results of the year's operations, locally and elsewhere throughout the United States, are detailed in a survey released by the Standard Rate and Data Service.

It shows that Lynn county farmers chalked up gross receipts from all sources in the amount of $25,930,000.

The bulk of it represents money received from the sale of crops, livestock and other farm products. The rest is made up of Federal payments and of so-called "income in kind," which is the value of items grown and consumed on the farm.

Of the cash receipts from farm marketings, Department of Agriculture figures indicate that about 94 percent of it was from the sale of crops and 6 percent from the sale of livestock, poultry and dairy products.

Related to Lynn county's farm population, the gross income of $25,930,000 that was accounted for locally was at the rate of $5,084 per capita. It compared with $3,246 per capita in the United States and $4,131 in the State of Texas.

Government payments to farmers for acreage reduction have also been rising, the figures show. Compared with 1963, when such payments aggregated less than 1/20th of the gross income of American farmers, they reached 1/16th last year.

The government's efforts to shrink the surpluses of various farm products are being nullified by the bumper crops now being produced.

The intensive use of fertilizers is listed as a determining factor in the huge output. With fertilizers,

Marshall Norris Buried Friday

Marshall B. Norris, 67, a Lubbock policeman for 22 years and formerly of Tahoka, died Wednesday of last week in a hospital there, and funeral services were held Friday at 3:00 p. m. in Colgate Church of Christ.

Born in Stephens county, Okla., his wife was the former Ida Scott, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Scott of Tahoka and a half sister of Mrs. N. W. Smith, Norris lived in Tahoka several years and worked for Burleson Grain Co. here.

He joined Lubbock Police force in 1943, and was well known there by reason of patrolling the area downtown in the vicinity of Lubbock National Bank. He was scheduled to retire Dec. 31.

He is survived by his wife of 2816 2nd Place; three daughters, Mrs. J. F. Ricketts Jr. and Mrs. Morris Cope, both of Riverside, Calif., and Mrs. Jerrell Northcutt of Lubbock, and four grandchildren.

In this week's bowling, New Home Gin drew a bye and Zana Sanford had high game and series of 163 and 421.

Petty Gin won three from Farr's Texaco. For the gin, Babe Evans bowled a 166 game and Adrina Clem a 470 series. Sis Blevins led Texaco with a 178 game and 504 series.

ers, farmers have raised their yield to the point where they are turning out more on their restricted acreage than they did prior to controls.

The Department of Agriculture estimates that they are grossing $3 in increased sales for each $1 invested in fertilizers.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

One of the unfortunate aspects of this era of mass hoopla is the hold a slogan can exert on the public, without deep knowledge of what is involved.

An example is the recently passed Federal aid to education bill. Most people do not want to be viewed as opposed to education, and it was on this basis that the Federal bureaucracy that has long sought to get into the educational system more deeply, depended.

The nation's independent business proprietors, voting through the National Federation of Independent Business, supported by a two-thirds majority a bill that was presented by Rep. William Dorn of South Carolina that would have forced the Federal government to turn back to each state 5% of the tax collections from that state to be used for education.

This was opposed by the Washington bureaucrats on the grounds that it would not be fair to the less prosperous states as their 5% of the Federal taxes paid by their residents would not equal that received from such a plan by the healthier states. Of course, the real issue here was who would control the money.

But despite all the pious protestations against the alleged inequities, it is interesting to note how this matter was handled in the bill finally passed.

The bill provides that out of the funds Washington will give more money to a school district in which the majority of the parents have incomes of $2,000 per year or less, than to "more favored" districts.

Somehow in the bureaucratic mind, there is confusion as to the source of school taxes.

Individual incomes and assessed valuation of property have very little in common. In an area where there is a highly valued oil well, other mineral resources, or where there is located some heavily assessed utility installations, the local population may be largely low income workers, or even hordes on relief.

But this does not alter the fact that the schools are supported by the taxes paid the highly valued property.

On the other hand, there are many suburban areas in the nation where the residents earn twice of much, but the districts are entirely devoid of any highly assessed property.

The children of these families will now be discriminated against in the allocation of these Federal funds, while children living in districts of high property valuations but low family incomes will have thrown at them more educational money than they knew what to do with.

During the war the men in service had a standard expressed "SNAFU", which translated "situation normal, all fouled up." And it seems that anytime anything needs to be fouled up, all that is necessary is to get Washington bureaucrats in the act. They are experts in that field.

Gerald Wayne Tippit Leaves TV Show For Other Work

Gerald Wayne Tippit, Tahoka native doing television acting in New York City for several years, has asked to be replaced in his role as Jerry Ames in "The Secret Storm" show of CBS. His last appearance will be on September 29th.

In a personal letter to The News editor, Wayne says the show is conflicting with his other professional activities and something had to go. He does not, however, intend to leave the television acting field.

"I'm writing this letter to thank everyone for their kind words and letters. They have meant a lot to me.

"And to tell you the truth, I'm a little tired of crying for six years. I'd like to laugh a little more in the future.

"I sincerely hope to be seeing you again soon through the TV tube. Thanks again for everything."

Gerald Wayne and family live just across the Hudson River from his work in the big city at 315 Cedar Hill Ave., Wyckoff, New Jersey.

NATURE NOTES

Did you know that the Cobras in India are not charmed by the music of the flute, by the snake charmers. They rear up, spread their hood and weave to get in line with the Hindu for a strike. The snake charmer also weaves to make the snake look as if it is dancing, while he is out of the snakes range, in case he does strike.

Lynn FHA Loans Total $354,860

Over 39,766 families of farmers, ranchers and rural residents in Texas benefitted from Farmers Home Administration loan services during 1965. This is an all-time high according to L. J. Cappleman, State Director for the agency.

Loans made or insured by the Farmers Home Administration in Texas during the fiscal year ended June 30 totaled a record $88,289,430.

State Director Cappleman said that the Farmers Home Administration preserved its long-standing record for keeping its various lending programs in a sound position during fiscal 1965. Repayments of principal and interest by borrowers totaled the largest volume collected in the agency's 30-year history.

"This good credit record signifies the initiative and integrity displayed by the people of rural Texas in their vast self-help effort which these loans represent," Cappleman stated.

Included in the number of Texas rural people benefitting from these programs are the members of 28,245 families forming rural groups that use Farmers Home Administration credit. Most of these groups borrowed funds to develop rural community water systems.

State Director Cappleman emphasized that loans to strengthen family farms and build new rural homes continued as the agency's largest programs in fiscal 1965.

During 1965 fiscal year, $354,860 was loaned in Lynn county for operating loans, $95,050 for farmers ownership loans, $14,000 for a rural housing loan, $4250 for a soil and water loan, and $593,810 for emergency loans, making a total of $1,061,970.

Lee Owens Old Red Furnishes Cheer To Orphan Children

For 17 years, Lee Owens' American saddle horse, Old Red, has been one of the attractions at the annual fun day at Tipton Orphans Home sponsored by Southwest Church of Christ of Oklahoma City.

Mr. Owens recently took Red to Tipton, Okla., for the day's program, a 510 mile trip from Tahoka he has been making since moving here three years ago.

The Fun Day is enjoyed by 150 to 180 children each year, and many of the little ones get to ride Old Red and many share their candy, apples, and snow cones with the horse. Red seems to enjoy the event as much as the children, Mr. Owens says.

The event was started at the orphans home 19 years ago. Mr. Owens was then living at Tipton. In fact, he joined Cicero Smith Lumber Co. there in 1916 and worked for the firm there until 1956. Two years after the fun day was started, Mr. Owens acquired Old Red and began taking him to the event. He moved to Vernon in 1959 and continued the practice, and when he came here three years ago he decided to take Old Red back each year as long as he could.

He says Cicero Smith Co. lets him off for two or three days each year to make the trip.

Mr. Owens and Old Red are also popular with many children up in the north part of Tahoka who get their first experience in horsemanship from the pair.

But, Mr. Owens says we should give some credit to Troy Warren, who furnishes Old Red quarters and part of his feed.

"Tahoka Polka" New Song Hit?

"Tahoka Polka" is the title of a new song written by a Lynn county native which will go on sale next week as Shew-ming Label record, according to the author, W. K. Shewmake, whose professional name is D'Fleming.

Mr. Shewmake and wife were here Tuesday from Dallas and are preparing to open a music store in Lubbock.

They expect to attend the next Tahoka Hootenanny, when he will sing "Tahoka Polka" and have some of the records for sale.

Shewmake says he was born here August 15, 1928, on the J. R. Strain farm near Midway, and he was named for the late Rev. W. K. Thorne, Baptist minister.

His dad, Rev. Amos W. Shewmake, was the preacher at Bethel Baptist Church, and he attended school at Joe Bailey and Draw before the family moved away in 1941.

He has been in the singing and song writing field all his adult life from Hollywood to Nashville to Dallas, and has had 51 records cut. But, he says he had a hard time getting his first published song until he wrote one called "God Is My Santa Claus."

Elwyn Beard Is Critically Injured In Dallas Blast

Elwyn Beard, 34, born and reared here, was critically injured Thursday morning of last week in a couple of explosions that almost wrecked Welders Supply Co. plant in Dallas which he manages.

Two sisters, Mrs. J. C. (Jean) Dyer of Tahoka and Mrs. Yvonne Petty of Lubbock, visited him in a Dallas hospital over the week end and report he is still in critical condition. Also, his wife was to enter the hospital this mid-week for a caesarean section.

The firm which Beard manages stores bottled oxygen, hydrogen, and acetylene, and has several large storage tanks.

Thursday at about 5:30 or 6:00 a. m. when he opened the plant and started up a motor, he soon noted some defective equipment and an alarm was supposed to go off when temperature reached 150 degrees. Noting failure of the equipment, he began cutting off valves and had started to get water to cool down the engine when an explosion knocked him down and inflicted cuts to his face and hand.

He had barely gotten up when a second explosion knocked him off the dock and he was buried under a brick building wall which was caved in by the blast. Unable to see and critically injured, he in some way clawed out of the wreckage, was detected by a man across the street, and Beard managed to crawl to the fence and handed the keys to this man who rescued him and sent him to the hospital.

Beard received broken ribs, arm, and collar bone, but most serious damage is to the eyes. Something had penetrated his left eye and caused hemorrhaging behind it, and the blast caused a cataract to form on the other. Sunday, when bandages were removed temporarily, he was able to see light dimly. Doctors told Mrs. Dyer they hope to save his right eye, at least.

Beard moved from Tahoka to Dallas in about 1955 or 1956. He has two sons living at Midland.

Farm Course At New Home

A farm management short course for adult farmers and their wives will be held Sept. 13 to 16 under sponsorship of New Home High School Vocational Agriculture department, according to H. L. Miller, superintendent, and Leonard Wilson, teacher of vocational agriculture.

Carl G. Anderson Jr., farm management specialist with the Vocational Agriculture division of the Texas Education Agency and the Department of the Agricultural Economics at Texas A&M University, will do the instructing in the course.

The course at New Home is scheduled to begin Monday at 7:30 p. m. in the vocational agriculture building. Other meetings in the series of four will be Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. During the dates the course is in progress, Mr. Anderson will be available to assist farmers with individual problems and to provide on-the-farm instruction, according to Ronnie Dulin of the Young Farmers.

Chris Dyer's Foot Will Be Saved

Chris Dyer, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dyer, whose foot was almost severed in a motor scooter accident on August 9 in Lubbock, was able to come home from the Methodist Hospital Friday. His doctors now think he will be able to walk again in a few months.

A multiple break of the left leg about four inches above the ankle left the foot hanging by only a piece of hide on the front. In a four-hour operation, his mother says, the doctors performed a near miracle in sewing the foot back on and it now is healing nicely.

Chris was riding on a motor scooter driven by a friend, Charles Carpenter, 17, grandson of Mrs. J. C. Carpenter, when they were in collision with a car at the intersection of 42nd street and Knoxville Ave. in Lubbock.

The time is here to start planting small grains for cover crops to control blowing this winter. To obtain the best results small grains should be planted between now and the last of October, says Don Reed of the Soil Conservation Service.

The purpose of a cover crop is to provide a protective vegetative cover on areas subject to erosion during periods when major crops do not furnish adequate cover and to maintain or improve the physical, chemical and biological condition of the soil.

The effectiveness of the cover crop depends a great deal on proper management, says Reed. There are certain management guides that should be followed:

Seed may be harvested provided all residues are left on the land.

Grazing may be done at any time, provided enough growth is left to protect the land at all times.

On dry cropland, growing cover crop or crop residues should be left on the land until about April 1st. On irrigated, the cover crop should be grown at least until land preparation for pre-irrigation and seedbed for the following crop or about January 1st.

The cropping system should generally provide for following the cover crop with late planted crops where possible.

Bulldogs Win 14-7 In Opening Game

Tahoka Bulldogs opened the football season here Friday night in a performance refreshing to local fans by whipping Lorenzo Hornets 14 to 7.

The Bulldogs completely dominated play for three quarters and had run up 18 first downs to 2 before the Hornets came to life and gave the local boys a battle the rest of the way. In that final quarter, the visitors scored a touchdown, threatened another, and made five first downs to one by Tahoka.

The Bulldogs ran for 212 yards, passed for 78 more and rolled up a total of 19 first downs, with Halfback Gary "Butch" Tomlinson running for 112 and Fullback Danny Coburn for 74. Quarterback Mitch Williams ran the team with confidence, mixed his plays fairly well, and passed well—to End Phil Adams for 40, 10, and 12 yards, to HB Stan Renfro for 7, and got credit for another on pass interference. The line proved very adequate on defense, and Tahoka's pass defense also stood out.

Lorenzo had gained only 32 yards rushing and had completed only one pass, for 38 yards, until the fourth quarter, largely due to Tahoka defense. Then, the fine all-state quarterback nominee, 180-pound Joe Reed, caught the Bulldogs a bit tired, or let-down or overconfident, and broke loose on a 70-yard scoring spree. The game ended with Reed running for 136 of Lorenzo's 156 yards rushing, plus 64 yards passing.

There were a lot of mistakes, but Tahoka fans were so jubilant they had almost forgotten them when the game was over.

Almost everything had been so pleasant—a fine performance by some new boys and some experienced ones, newly installed lights, improved turf, new band and director, a happy cheering section and crowd, pleasant night, and three new coaches here for the

Bulldogs Control Ball

Lorenzo took the kick-off, and couldn't move, punted. Starting from the Tahoka 45, Tomlinson and Coburn alternated in carrying for three successive first downs to the Hornet 29. Then, Reed intercepted Williams' pass on 12.

The Bulldogs held tight, and Reed had to punt, got off a short one to the visitors' own 30. That's all the local lads needed, and six plays were required for Coburn and Tomlinson to plow to the Lorenzo 4, from which point "Butch" went over right guard for the first score with 3:07 left in the first quarter. Then, Sophomore Fullback Cliff Thomas, who lettered as a freshman, drilled the ball with authority through the uprights for the conversion. Score, 7-0.

The visitors got five yards in three plays, and this time Reed got off a 39 yard punt, but Tahoka drew a penalty on its first play. Williams ran for 8 on a keeper, and a pass was incomplete.

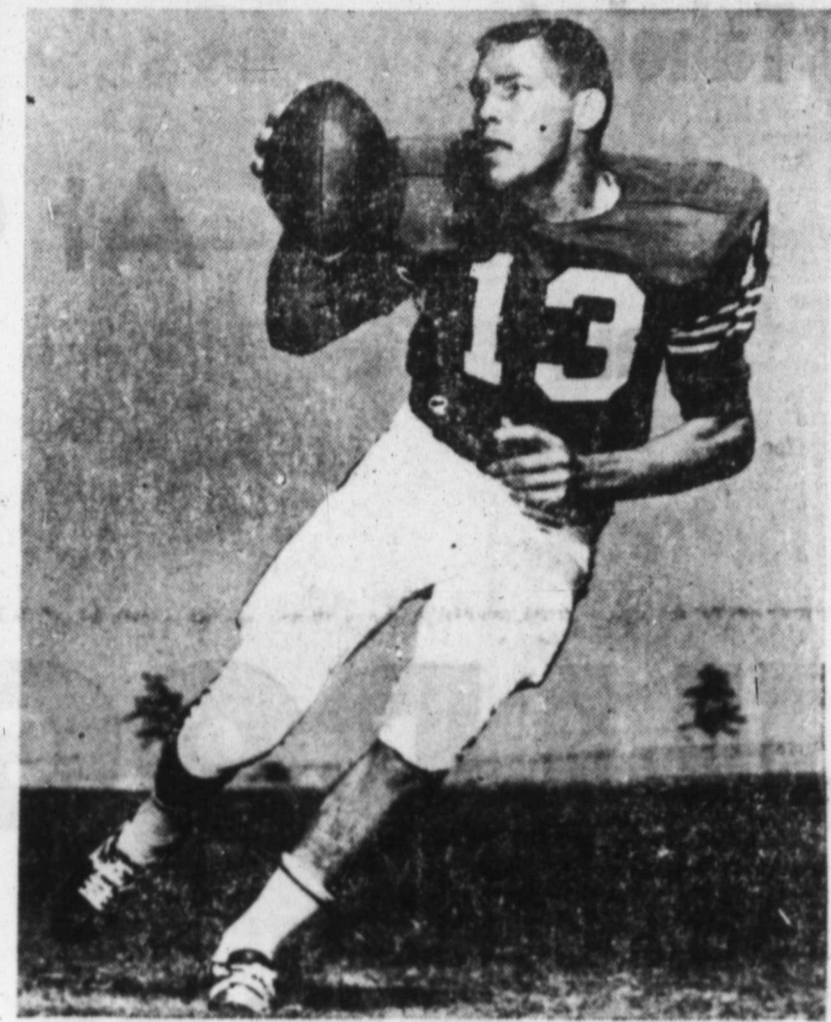

Disaster almost hit the Bulldogs here, opening the second quarter, as a bad pass from center sailed over the head of Mike Davis, converted from fullback to tackle, but Mike recovered the ball and ran it out to his own 15.

Lorenzo now had its chance. Reed made 5, FB David Condron 3, Reed 1, and Tahoka was off-sides and the ball moved to the 3 for the Hornets first first down of the ball game. Reed drove to the 2 on a keeper around right end, but on the next play fumbled and Bulldog Center Rett Patterson saved the day for Tahoka by covering the ball on the one.

99-Yard Tahoka March
From right there, Tahoka marched 99 yards in 14 plays to score again, despite two 5-yard penalties en route. After Williams, Coburn and Tomlinson had moved out to the 20, Mitch tossed a 7-

Mustangs Open With Lazbuddie

Wilson Mustangs open their 1965 football season tonight at Lazbuddie with high hopes they can again come up as a title contender in District 3-B, a position they have held almost habitually.

Last year, Wilson defeated Lazbuddie 26-18 during a season in which they won seven, lost two and tied one game and finished in a tie for the District title.

New Coach Bobby Davis, former assistant at Lockney, faces a dim prospect with only four returning lettermen, center Gary Williamson, guard David Tucker, end Jimmy Koenig and halfback Dennis Verkamp. But Wilson fans point out, don't ever sell the Mustangs short; they've faced such prospects before and ended up in the driver's seat.

Lost were such players as top South Plains scorer Sammy Crowson and almost as good Royce Baker and linemen such as Delbert McCleskey and Mike Holder, plus Joe Mason and Johnny Nava and others.

Possible starters in the back field include: Dennis Verkamp, 145, or Gary Moore, 110, quarterback Johnny Scott, expected to start in a few weeks with a foot injury, and Dennis was moved to the spot from halfback. Other backs include Kenneth Corley, 180; Lupe Guzman, 135; and Gary Crews, 155.

Williamson, 130, will start at center; David Tucker, 150, and Lenro Brieger, 150, guards; Mike Ward, 200, David Koslan, 150, or Leland Zant, 150, at tackles; and at end Jimmy Koenig, 150, and Mike Coleman, 145.

B-Team And Junior Games Are On Tap

Tahoka B-team Bulldogs were meeting Plains B-team Cowboys here this Thursday at 6:00 p. m., after The News went to press this week but before the paper reaches most readers.

Next Thursday night at 6:00 p. m. the B boys will play at O'Donnell.

Next Tuesday evening, Seventh and Eighth Grade teams will be playing at Frenship, and Frenship will return the games here Sept. 28.

Bulldog T Club Elects Officers

Tahoka Bulldogs held their first "T" Club meeting of the year Friday, Sept. 3.

The first thing which was done was the election of officers for the 1965 football season. They are as follows: Gary Tomlinson, president; Rett Patterson, vice president; Mitchell Williams, secretary-treasurer; Milton Edwards, parliamentary; and Stanley Renfro, reporter.

Coach Smith then gave the boys a talk on the efforts that they would have to put out to stop the Lorenzo Hornets.

The coaches then left the room, and the boys talked over the situation of the game that night and left with the attitude that they were going to win.

For the boys that weren't present, the dues were set at $2.50. —Stanley Renfro, reporter.

yard pass to Renfro and on the next play a 10-yarder to "Satchell" Adams. Thomas came in to run for 6 yards, Butch hit for 7, and then Mitch tossed a long one to Adams again, who sacked up the pigskin for a 40-yard gainer on the Lorenzo 16. Tomlinson ended up with a fake handoff two plays later 7 yards over right guard to score, and Thomas again converted with 3:28 left in the half. Score, 14-0.

Near the end of the quarter, Lorenzo got its second first down on a 38 yard pass from the great Reed to FB Condron, but the Bulldogs stopped the passing attack cold, took over the ball and ran out the clock.

Bulldogs Threaten
Opening the second half, Renfro brought Reed's kick-off from the 10 to the 29, and from there Tahoka marched 70 yards to the 1, where another score seemed certain but the ball was fumbled and HB David McDaniels recovered for the Hornets.

The drive had featured 2 to 8 yard gains by Bulldog backs to the Hornet 16, but the locals lost 4 on the next play, then Williams hit Adams in the end zone for an apparent TD, nullified by an illegal procedure penalty. On the next, Adams caught another for 12 yards, and the next play Tahoka got 9 on a pass interference penalty, placing the ball on the Hornet 4. Tomlinson made 1, Coburn was stopped on about the 3-inch line. Williams failed to gain, and then McDaniels recovered the Tahoka fumble back on the 3.

Two plays later, Reed's quick kick went only 19 yards, but Tomlinson was alert and took the ball on the fly at the 27 and ran to the 20. Opening the fourth quarter, Tahoka moved to the Hornet 9 in two plays, lost a couple on a fumble, then lost the ball on another fumble, covered by the Hornets' big center, Cam Lawson, on the 12.

Reed Goes Wild
Reed made 3, then 5, passed to End Eddie Jones for 10 to the 30 for Lorenzo's third first down (Continued back page, Sec. 2)

Bulldog Boosters Sign 170 Members

Future meetings of Bulldog Booster Club will be held in Tahoka Community Center Mondays at 7:30 p. m. when films of the previous Friday game will be shown and a review by coaches of the upcoming game will be made.

At Monday evening's meeting, President Sam Edwards announced 170 memberships had been reported sold, but several workers had not reported.

First object of the club is to buy a whirlpool treatment device for boys' injuries, principally sprains and bruises.

Coach Don Smith showed pictures of the Lorenzo game, pointing out good points and bad and stating he was pleased with the boys' efforts although much work remains to be done to make a polished team.

Asst. Coach Jim Tollett, who scouted the 47-13 victory by Crosbyton over O'Donnell, outlined the Chief offense and defense and declared Coach Deane Wright has a very fine ball club, tough, agile, and powerful.

Bryan Wright Is New T-Bar Head

A new president and three new directors for T-Bar Country Club were elected at a membership meeting and spaghetti supper held Monday night when about 45 members attended.

Bryan Wright was named president of the Club and three new directors are Ray Adams, Wayne Waters and James Brookshire. They succeed Clifton Hamilton, out-going president whose term as a director expired. Mrs. Irving Dunagan and Wade Holland. Hold over directors include Willis McNeil, Mrs. Norma Thomas and J. D. Atwell. Mrs. Bill (Eloise) Griffin is secretary of the club.

Wednesday night other officers were elected and committees named for the year.

Mr. and Mrs. David Weathers of Abilene were here over the week end visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Tunnell, and his mother, Mrs. R. P. Weathers, and other relatives and friends.

New Home Is At Amherst Tonight

New Home Leopards open the football season tonight at Amherst, and fans at the Lynn county town have a gleam in their eyes that indicate their boys may have it this year.

In fact, some say New Home could be a big surprise to 3-B teams this year under a home town product, new Coach Larry Brown.

Possible starters this year are: Randy Unfred, 155, quarterback; Dickie Turner, 195, fullback; Kenneth McClung, 160, Donald Gosdin, 160, or Robby Talley, 150, halfbacks.

Most likely starters up front are: Steve Lisemby, 165, at center; Rickey Haley, 155, and Rickey Zant, 140, or Ggy Zant, 130, both freshmen, guards; Duane Wyatt, 185, and Mickey Hedges, 180, tackles; and ends Kenneth Timmons, 140, and Wayne Fillingim, 145.

BOTKIN VISITORS

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Botkin were Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Loston of Houston and Mr. and Mrs. Willie Turner of Hamilton county. Mr. Turner and Mrs. Lofton are twins and brother and sister of Mrs. Botkin. While here they went up to visit Roy Botkin and family at Hereford and were amazed at the fine maize in 20-inch rows, carrots, and cotton.

Cotton can be made stretchable with a high twist of yarns.

O'Donnell Loses To Crosbyton

O'Donnell Eagles entertain the Ralls Jackrabbits tonight at 8:00 p. m., another team from Crosby county expected to be nearly as tough as Crosbyton.

Last Friday, the Crosbyton Chiefs ran over the Eagles in the home opener 47 to 13 as Gaylon Wheelless and Jim Flournoy and mates ran wild.

In spite of the rout, the Eagles showed moments of great promise, and fans said, barring injuries, they can develop into a dangerous outfit. The Eagles have only three seniors on the starting line-up.

Gary Evans, junior halfback, scored both of O'Donnell's touchdowns.

The Chiefs were just too big, powerful and experienced.

Mrs. George Wright says castor bean seed are deadly poisonous, and the leaf is also dangerously poisonous. With so many castor beans now being grown in the area, she thinks the public needs to be informed of this since some child or even an adult might eat some of the seeds, or cattle might graze on the leaves.

Paul Crume in The Dallas News chides we "old fogies" for criticizing long-haired boys, Beatles and modern teens. He points out that away back yonder "the red, red robin that came bob, bob bobbin' along about the time of bell-bottom trousers and Eaton jackets was not a deeply philosophical song . . . but it probably made more sense than the three little fishes in the itty-bitty pool, or those songs that were punctuated by poop-poop-a-doop."

Hoofay for old John White! We have never been too high on our Texas Commissioner of Agriculture, but we're sure for him on this! He has ordered a halt to movement of Mexican-grown cotton across the Texas-U.S. border to be shipped to East Coast and world markets. Reason for the order, White says, is Mexico is planting winter cotton, in violation with an agreement with Texas and therefore this importation becomes a great pink bollworm and boll weevil threat. However, there's another important reason why Mexican cotton shouldn't be shipped from U. S. ports such as Brownsville. We furnished about 92 percent of the cost of Falcon dam and lake. Mexico gets 60 percent of the water. On this side of the Rio Grande, strict acreage allotments are in force. On the Mexico side, that country has 50,000 acres, almost solid, cotton raised on water from our dam, and we are such dupes we allow them to ship it from Brownsville as American cotton at prices which prevent our farmers from selling abroad. Good old Uncle Sam had rather help somebody else than help his own farmers!

In fact, the smart boys in Washington have already said "something will have to be worked out." You know what that means.

The News last week received a complimentary copy of "Texas Government Almanac and Business Guide for 1965" which sells for $4.90. The 256-page book is a valuable source of information on Texas and Federal government the various branches thereof, elected officials, political parties, election results, and a county guide to all 254 counties. Although strictly an advertising promotion put out by the Texas Republican Finance Committee, the book is one we are glad to have for reference and, so far as we can see, contains little political bias in favor of one party or the other.

We think it's a credit to our local Negroes and white people that the integration of our schools last week went off without a hitch and there was no sign of anything but understanding acceptance. As a whole, our Colored people are trying to maintain even tempers and keep their feet on the ground as racial hatred is stirred up in some other areas. We hope hot heads from both sides stay away from Tahoka.

Bob Tate was yanked up down at Comanche before moving to Tahoka near about fifty years ago, but he still takes the Comanche Chief. A recent issue had special interest for him since it had a long story about a real pioneer, "Uncle Mart" Fleming, from whom Bob bought meat as a kid. Of local interest, "Uncle Mart" was an older brother of the late "Uncle Jimmy" Fleming, a man all pioneer Tahoka people knew so well. Anyway, the elder Fleming, now dead 37 years, was recently honored by having an historical plaque placed on the Comanche square designating "The Fleming Oak." The story goes that on his first trip in 1854 to what is Comanche today he slept under that oak tree. Seventy years later, when the county proposed cutting the tree down to make way for a paving project, Uncle Mart defended that tree with his gun—and it still stands today.

The old man's life fascinates us. Born in 1838, he was seven weeks old when his family moved to Texas. He was seven when Texas became a state. As a youth, he listened to stories of Big Foot Wallace, Gov. E. M. Pease, Deaf Smith, Sam Houston, knew the latter personally, and later his home was a gathering place of old Prisoners of Miers. He lived two years with friendly Indians. He was a Texas Ranger before the Civil War. He went to battle for the South in that war. Disillusioned by defeat, he went to Mexico, later was reconciled and returned to Texas, and later came to Comanche in 1873 to reside permanently and hauled the lumber of his house from Waco. The paper says all his life he helped young boys and became one of the most beloved men of the town. Bob Tate was one of the boys that was raised in his shadow. "Uncle Jimmy" Fleming, as local old-timers know, was something of a character, too.

Our thanks to Mrs. L. Lumsden of Wilson for writing down her memories of early days in Lynn county as a contribution toward preserving our history. We expect to publish Mrs. Lumsden's story soon. We wish a lot of other pioneers would write in their own words their family-stories. Maybe they don't seem important now, but in years to come they can mean a lot in preserving the story of our past.

Mrs. J. E. Mayberry of Douglass, down in the Piney Woods, sends in her renewal to The News and says, "Can't do without it; when one is away from home, it's nice to get the news from home."

Two things we like better and get less of—watermelons and cantaloupes. Mrs. Willis Pennington has furnished The Printer and Mae some of both. She and Willis this year raised watermelons that weigh up to 80 pounds. They also have a lot of fine corn, cashews, beans and other vegetables from the farm. At their home here in town, they have other garden truck, peaches, and flowers. Between the sidewalk and street, they have flowers, turnips, radishes, and even cotton.

Last week, Winston Wharton furnished us cantaloupes. Winston is proving that produce can be raised here as a second crop. But, he warns, vegetable raising commercially takes a terrific amount of hired labor, and there are many hazards to the crop.

From Texas Outlook: One teacher to another: "Not only is he the worst-behaved child in school, but he has a perfect attendance record." . . . The man who enters a cage of ferocious lions impresses everyone but a school bus driver. . . . Engineers calculate the number of blasts that will come from auto horns in a traffic jam is equal to the sum of the squares at the wheel.

Tahoka Wins ...

(Continued from Page 1, Sec. 2) of the ball game, but not the last. A pass was incomplete; then Mr. Reed, who should be made mayor of Tahoka, took the pigskin, went to the left, found some congestion, cut to the right end and raced 70 yards as three tacklers barely missed catching him en route to score standing up. "Mayor" Reed then kicked the conversion. Score, 14-7.

But, that was not the end, for Mr. Reed and his mates really gave Tahoka something to worry about as the Bulldogs, with their tongues hanging out, tried to hold on.

Benny Limon ran a long kick-off out to the 19, but the aroused Hornets now had their stingers out and stopped the Bulldogs on their own 21. But, Davis now got off a 39 yard punt a Hornet ran back to the Tahoka 46.

Reed, a fine passer as well as runner, had one incomplete, but three running plays carried to the Tahoka 32, HB Coy Keene lost 3, and the alert Bulldog defenders stopped three passing attempts.

Fans breathed easier, as Tomlinson made 8, a gambling pass was incomplete, the Butch ran for 11 and Coburn 5. On the next play Hornet defender Bobby Bryant covered a third and possibly crucial Tahoka fumble, with less than two minutes left in the game. Hornets Threaten Again

Reed ran right end for 9 to midfield, and on the next play pass interference was called on Tahoka at its own 44. Reed went for 5, Condron 2, Reed almost got away over right guard for 14, then made 4 to the Tahoka 19 with 23 seconds left on the clock. He hit a teammate with a 10-yard pass for 10 to the Tahoka 9. On the next pass attempt, Chris Roberts, Tahoka's fine little defender, made a great play to knock the ball from a pass receiver's hand. There were 7 seconds left. Reed, probably figuring Tahoka would be looking for a pass in the end zone, kept the ball and attempted to circle right end, but alert End Dean Hamilton would not be fooled and stopped him cold to end the game.

Line Looked Good

The Bulldog line, almost always overlooked by the headline writers, was the key to the fine defense and offense. Anchored by Center Rett Patterson, Guards Roy Isham and Tommy Kidwell, Tackles Milton Edwards and Mike Davis, and Ends Dean Hamilton, Phil Adams, and Chris Roberts, looked fine. Among the others were Wayne Thurman and Jodie Edwards, up-and-coming players, Lasiano Soliz, Richard White, Doyle Schneider, others mentioned above and possibly others the writer didn't catch.
