Don Smith was elected athletic director, Floyd Tubb North Elementary principal, and Jim Littlefield boys and girls basketball coach at the regular meeting of the school board Thursday night of last week to fill the gap left by the resignation of L. Don Smith, who came here this school year from Monterey High School in Lubbock as head football coach, was given a two year contract as athletic director.

Jim Littlefield, also here his first year from Corpus Christi, where he was a junior high coach, has been coaching girls basketball and will complete the season as boys basketball coach.

Floyd Tubb has been commercial teacher in the local high school for 16 1/2 years, and has taken over Jacobs' duties in North Elementary School. No replacement has been announced by the board for the commercial teacher position.

The board approved the purchase of two new school buses for next year, one 60- and one 48-passenger vehicle.

Robert E. Abbe was given a new two year contract as tax assessor and collector of the school district.

Supt. Reynolds reported enrollment for January 6th at 1,100, a drop of 24 students since the December report, 409 in South Elementary, 303 in North Elementary, 161 in Junior High, and 227 in High School. There are 10 in the Special School for a grand total of 1,110.

Rebuilding of shower and dressing rooms in the North Elementary gymnasium has been completed at a cost of $3,067.00. The stadium improvement project is still incomplete.

Routine business was also attended to at the meeting.

Poll Tax Payments Still Lagging, Only 1,050 Paid To Date

Poll tax payments in Lynn county are still lagging, states George D. McCracken, county tax assessor-collector.

Through Wednesday 1,050 poll tax payments had been made.

This is election year, and in Texas a poll tax receipt is still required as a qualification for voting in all state, county, precinct, and school district elections.

Poll tax booths have been set up at Collier-Parker Pharmacy, Tahoka Drug and Piggy Wiggy No. 1 for convenience of many citizens in obtaining receipts.

January 31 is the last day for making poll tax payments.

Lefty Hargrave Seeking Office

E. A. (Lefty) Hargrave announces he is a candidate for Justice of the Peace, Precinct 1, Tahoka, subject to action of the Democratic Primary election in May.

Lefty has been in Lynn county for 25 years except for two years he was at Ackerley, and has lived in Tahoka since 1960. Most of his life he has spent in the ginning business, and has managed gins in Tahoka, Wilson, Close City, and Ackerley.

In this work, he has had a lot of experience meeting the public and dealing with people, has always taken an interest in public affairs, and feels his experience qualifies him to attend to the duties of the office of Justice of the Peace.

If elected, he says he will give his full time to the job and endeavor to deal fairly and justly with any and all people with whom he has business. He asks the support and vote of the people of Justice Precinct No. 1.

Arbor Day Will Be Observed Here

Arbor Day will be observed today, Friday, at 3:00 p. m. with a fitting ceremony and the planting of some trees on the lawn west of Tahoka Municipal building by Tahoka Garden Club. The public is invited.

Arbor Day was originated in 1872 in Nebraska by J. Sterling Morton, a newspaper publisher, according to Mrs. Hubert Tankersley, Garden Club president, as a beautification and conservation measure.

Texas first observed the day in 1890, but it was not until 1949 that the Texas Legislature officially designated the third Friday in January as Arbor Day. More than a million trees had been planted on this day.

STRICKLANDS MOVE BACK

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Strickland, who have been farming west of Seminole for 11 years, are moving back to Tahoka and will farm the land east of town formerly worked by H. O. Hargett. Mrs. Strickland is a sister of Happy Smith.

New Home School Head Is Leaving

Supt. H. L. Miller, head of the New Home Schools during the past seven years and credited with being largely responsible for building up a first class rural school, has resigned effective June 30. He and his wife, also a teacher, will retire to their Oklahoma ranch to take life easier.

Applications are being taken now for a new superintendent. Prospects should send written applications to Mr. Miller's office at New Home, and these will be screened by the school board and appointments set up for interviews.

Seven years ago, New Home schools were on probation by Texas Education Agency, and the district was being threatened with forced consolidation. The several demands seemed almost insurmountable when Mr. Miller became superintendent.

A new high school and elementary building had been erected, but room was still needed.

Complete and immediate integration was being demanded. The board borrowed $25,000 to erect the new homelike cottage to make room for expanded class.

Missing Great Dane Mystery Is Solved By Tahoka Search

The strange case of the missing Great Dane has been solved.

Early in December, "Sam", the huge but lovable Great Dane dog belonging to Mrs. Gene (Mary) Anderson, 4703 West 17th, Lubbock, disappeared. Last Tuesday, he was found here in Tahoka—but how he got here and why he didn't return home will never be known. Incidentally, Mary Anderson is well known by many Tahoka people, visits here frequently, but never brings Sam.

Here's the story as Mrs. Anderson tells it in a letter to The News editor:

"You may have heard about my losing a Great Dane recently.

"A Mrs. McNeely called Tuesday, Jan. 11, to tell me she had read my ad. in the Lubbock paper and that there was a big dog running loose in Tahoka that fit his description.

"It seemed like a long-shot, but I called Mabel Gurley, who in turn called Jack Miller, your Chief of Police. It seems almost everyone in Tahoka had seen old Sam.

JUDGE TRUETT SMITH

Judge Smith Asks For Re-election

Judge Truett Smith announces he is a candidate for re-election as District Judge, 106th Judicial District, comprising Lynn, Garza, Dawson, and Gaines counties, subject to action of the Democratic Primary election May 7th.

He became judge of the district on January 1, 1959, and attorneys of the area who are in position to know say that he has done a fine job in the office.

Judge Smith is almost a native of Lynn county, having come to New Home as a baby with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Sam Smith, in 1907. He served Lynn county as county clerk and county attorney, then the 106th as district attorney, was in private practice several years, and then was elected district judge. He is active in the State Bar Association, and is highly regarded in legal circles over the state.

He said he would possibly make a formal statement later.

Smith Appointed To State Board

District Judge Truett Smith of Tahoka has been appointed by the Texas Supreme Court as one of four members to serve on the new State Judicial Qualifications Commission. Governor John Connally will name four members and State Bar of Texas will name two members.

Others picked by the Supreme Court are District Judge Connally McKay of Tyler, Chief Justice Spurgeon E. Bell of the First Court of Civil Appeals in Houston, and Associate Justice Charles W. Barrow of the Fourth Court of Civil Appeals at San Antonio.

The commission was authorized last Nov. 2 by constitutional amendment to investigate complaints against district and appellate judges.

The amendment provides that judges can be removed for misconduct or forced to retire because of disability. The commission will recommend to the Supreme Court action to be taken on complaints in either category.

JAQUESS IS HOME

J. W. Jaquess returned home Sunday from a visit of about three weeks with his son Ed and family in Covina, Calif. While there a cousin he didn't know lived in California visited with him. He says his grandson, Bob Jaquess, has a fine job.

Newman Bartley was a medical patient in the hospital Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. Imogene Lynch is improving in the hospital where she has been a patient since Jan. 13.

Mrs. Claud Harper is a medical patient in Tahoka Hospital having been admitted Tuesday.

Damp weather Tuesday, snow that night, and mist Wednesday and Thursday brought a halt to the "scrapping" operations that will wind up the 1965 cotton harvest.

The News estimates that county ginnings are now well past 170,000 bales and will exceed 175,000, based on previous surveys of the county gins.

Tahoka had ginned 35,368 bales Thursday morning, and there were 430 bales on the gin yards to be ginned.

Farmers say only a very minor portion of cotton is left in the fields, and most of this will be boll piles, some of which may never be ginned.

The one and a half to two inches of snow Tuesday night and Wednesday morning brought .16 inch of moisture, drizzle Wednesday night amounted to only .01 inch and drizzle was continuing Thursday as The News went to press.

The Weather Bureau was predicting a new cold wave to move in Thursday night.

Brewer Out For County Judge

Woodrow (Ode) Brewer announces he is a candidate for County Judge of Lynn county subject to the action of the Democratic Primaries.

Presently he is County Commissioner from Precinct 2, which position he will have held 12 years at the end of this term next Jan. 1.

As a member of the Commissioners' Court over this period of years, he feels he has gained knowledge and experience in the affairs of the county that thoroughly qualify him to carry out the duties of county judge. Duties of the office are varied, but he feels he is acquainted with most of them by reason of this experience on the county governing body.

Mr. Brewer was born and reared in Lynn county. He has lived all his life except for the four and a half years he spent in the U. S. Air Force during World War II, when he spent two and a half years in the South Atlantic and Mid-Pacific.

He says he will have a formal statement to make later, but will try to see every voter possible personally before the election on May 7. In the meantime, he asks everyone to give his candidacy careful consideration and to investigate his record in office.

Hanes Seeking J. Of P. Office

D. F. (Boss) Hanes is a candidate for Justice of the Peace, Precinct 1, to succeed H. L. Roddy, who is not a candidate for reelection.

Mr. Hanes says, if elected, he will give his full time to the duties of the office. He feels fully capable by experience in dealing with people to handle the affairs of the office in a fair and just manner, and asks the voters of the precinct to give his candidacy careful consideration and vote accordingly on May 7 in the Democratic Primary.

He came to Lynn county in 1950 from Roby, farmed at Wilson six years, then farmed two miles north of Tahoka for seven years. For the past two years he has been with Piggy Wiggy No. 1 here in Tahoka.

He says he will try to see all voters possible in the precinct before election time.

W. R. Ledbetter was admitted to Tahoka Hospital Jan. 11 as a medical patient and dismissed Saturday.

Plains Economy Study Underway

Lubbock—The economy of the South Plains will be under careful scrutiny this spring as a major economic study, concerned primarily with agriculture and related industries, gets underway in the area.

According to an announcement by Dr. R. E. Patterson, of Texas A&M University, the study will result in an analysis of the agricultural situation of the South Plains and is expected to present guidelines for continued expansion of the area's economy.

Dr. Patterson is the Dean of Texas A&M University's College of Agriculture and Director of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

He said that Texas A&M, as the state's land grant university, was requested to give leadership to the project, but a number of other agencies and institutions are being asked to contribute their support to the effort.

Extension Farm Management Specialist John Seibert, of Lubbock, has been named coordinator of the study and has already begun preliminary work on it.

In an effort to get a wide range of views on the problems and opportunities facing the South Plains, he has started interviewing area economic and agricultural leaders. He expects to interview more than 150 people in this phase of the study.

Seibert is also contacting researchers, educators and others and asking them to contribute written reports on their special fields of work.

His analysis of various agricultural enterprises will be an important part of the study, Seibert said.

The project was first proposed in November when a group of about 60 area leaders met in Lubbock with Extension District Agent, Billy C. Gunter, to discuss the need for such an area-wide study.

At the meeting, the group noted that South Plains counties have many problems in common. They felt a study of the South Plains as a unit could greatly benefit the area and suggested that Texas A&M administrators be asked to back the project and lend full resources of the institution to carry it out.

A study similar to the South Plains project is currently underway in the North Plains. It is known as the Panhandle economic study and is being coordinated by Extension Farm Management Specialist Jim Murphey of Amarillo.

JACOBS THANKS PEOPLE

To the People of Tahoka and Lynn County:

As I wind up my last duties for the Tahoka School system, I would like to express to the people of Tahoka and Lynn county my appreciation on behalf of my family, for the opportunity to have lived and worked here for the past 18 1/2 years.

I owe thanks to many people and especially to all of my students and athletes, past and present, who have cooperated with me in my program. Too, many teachers, coaches, administrators, school board members, and other school personnel, you have been a great help.

Tahoka will always be home and we will be looking forward to the times that we can return for visits. If any of you are ever up our way, please drop by as you will always be welcome. Thanks again and best wishes, as we all work for the future.

Sincerely,

ple and organizations and towns in the area protested that he reconsidered and is a candidate for re-election. Hazelwood is not so well known on the South Plains, but he has been a friend to this area, too, and has worked for our interests on most issues. The South Plains should have vital interest in the return of this honest, sincere, capable, hard-working, influential State Senator.

The Printer was a college student with Old Grady, and we know whereof we speak. His wife, Audrey, was our classmate, and Grady finished college a year ahead of us but we associated with him a lot. We've watched his record closely and we're proud to have been his schoolmate and friend, and are almost certain the Panhandle will return him to office. We all need him.

Mrs. Bell (Trawsek) Woodfin of Slaton, reared at Redwine, missed two pages of The News in December containing Mrs. W. H. May's story, and we've furnished them to her for her scrapbook. She is another who is delighted with the old-timer stories, wants us to gather them up and print them in a book, and rubbed a little salve on "The Printer with your paper is the best." Thanks, Bell, and why don't you write us some memories of early days at Redwine and Draw with your family? We'll be waiting.

Once we were on a trip driving through the sheep ranch country of Wyoming, when we saw a crude hand-lettered sign hanging from a barbed-wire fence which read: "Notice to Hunters! These are NOT wild mountain sheep!"

We once visited with a near relative of Moe's up in the Poudre River canyon near Fort Collins, Colorado, who had married a rancher who was also a deputy game warden and hunting and fishing guide in season. He told us that once, for fun, he thought he'd see how crazy and how far "city dude" hunters would go to get their buck. He had an old moth-eaten mounted deer head, which on the morning of the deer season opened he hung in an evergreen tree across the river and almost against the canyon wall, where he and his wife could watch the results from their livingroom window. Sure enough, with the dawn of day, so-called hunters began to spot the deer head, would stop, take a pot shot illegally from the highway, see their error and drive on. But, one car containing two couples were "suckers". On spotting the deer head, they stopped the car, the two men got out, leveled their Better get that poll tax receipt, or you'll wish you had later in the year. There's a-gonna be some politics, state and local.

Waggoner Carr, the old Lubbock boy who married a Tahoka girl and is now making quite a success as attorney general of Texas, is opposing John Tower, our Republican U. S. senator from Texas. A lot of people who could not stomach the ultra-liberal Democratic opponent of Tower four years ago, will probably vote for Waggoner, who is neither far right or far left.

One development we're glad to see is State Senator Grady Hazelwood of Amarillo decide to run again for senator from the 31st district. He had previously announced he would retire after 25 years of service, but so many peo-

Job Corps Needs Male Trainees

The Texas Employment Commission office in Lubbock is again recruiting for Job Corps applicants. The Employment Commission is the official screening agency for male applicants for the Job Corps.

Qualifications for the Job Corps include the passing of a physical examination and certain educational level tests. In addition, a boy must be between the ages of 17 and 22 to be eligible for enrollment. Boys who are in school, as a general rule, are not eligible for enrollment in the Job Corps. In all instances the boy must be able to secure written consent of his parents or guardian for enrollment.

The Job Corps gives a boy who has dropped out of school a second chance to complete his education and to learn a trade at the same time. There are many types of training available to Job Corpsmen such as automobile mechanic, welder, radio mechanic, truck driver, clerical, butcher, and many, many more, too numerous to list.

Interested applicants are urged to visit, or write, The Texas Employment Commission, 1602 16th Street, Lubbock, Texas. Applicants are encouraged to bring along their parents when they visit the employment office to discuss the Job Corps.

The Honorable John Connally spoke to approximately 1,400 young men and women in Austin this past week end as the Young Homemakers convened for their fourth Annual State Convention and the Young Farmers 12th such meeting.

Gov. Connally gave the group a number of pointers on what those living on the farm might expect within the next four years. He discussed the changes that had come about in his life-time and the rapid pace in which our future in agriculture is changing.

Following the Governor's speech, the Young Homemakers award presentations were made with Hale Center from Area I receiving the publicity award; Kerrville, Area III, the outstanding new chapter award; and Clarendon, Area I, outstanding chapter award Debbie Kaye from Cooper, representing Area I, the State Little Sister Award.

Area II was represented by the O'Donnell chapter for all awards with one exception, that of outstanding chapter. Nineteen attended the meetings from O'Donnell.

Other outstanding speakers for the convention were Dr. Robert E. Ledbetter Jr., marriage and family counselor from Austin; Mrs. Maurine Ames, the University of Texas, and Dr. Leon Hill, a retired Baptist minister from Amarillo.

North Elementary Honors Principal

Immediately following noon last Friday, North Elementary surprised their outgoing principal, Jake Jacobs, with a short program in his honor.

As he entered the building from lunch, "footsteps" on the corridor floor directed him to the gym. As he entered, students and teachers gathered there sang "Mr. Jacobs is a good fellow". He was directed to a throne, and brief tributes were paid him by 11 students, each carrying a letter, the sum total of which spelled out, "Good Luck, L.F.J."

Then, one more student came forward, made a speech thanking Mr. Jacobs for the fine example he had set for them to follow, his leadership, counsel and training, and presented him a desk set on a walnut stand with an engraved inscription "to remember us by."

Mr. Jacobs responded with a talk of appreciation and expressed the feeling his North Elementary students would live up to the things expected of them by their parents and teachers.

Boys, Girls Win Over O'Donnell

Tahoka A team boys and girls took top-sided victories at O'Donnell Friday night, the boys winning 65 to 38 and the girls 65 to 29. One section of the split-up boys' B team was snowed under by O'Donnell-B 65 to 34, while the other section was losing at New Home 59 to 55.

Mitchell Williams played one of the most aggressive games of his career as he went on a scoring spree to bucket 39 of Tahoka's points, and in spite of spending five minutes on the bench. Larry Emerson and Jerry Haire led Eagle scoring with 14 and 12 points respectively.

The Bulldogs jumped into a quick 9-1 lead as the game opened, led 15-11 at end of the first quarter, 30-18 at the half, 51-23 at end of the third period, and then let the Eagles score one more point than they did in the final period as Coaches Jake Jacobs and Jim Littlefield, his successor as basketball coach, cleared the Tahoka bench. The entire Tahoka squad hustled all the way in this last game for their retiring coach.

Littlefield's girls' team had just scored a more top-sided win against the less experienced O'Donnell girls, winning 65-29. Tahoka led 18-9, 36-13, and 51-21 the first three quarters, and in the last quarter guards and forwards were exchanged and even Guard Chloe Jan Huffaker scored 6 points.

Theresa Mason led Tahoka scoring with 20 points. Sue Woodall had 14, and Robbie Biggerstaff 13. For O'Donnell, Fran McLaurin had 14 points.

In the B game, won by O'Donnell 65 to 34, Billy Applewhite was the only Tahoka boy in double figures with 13, while for the Eagles Brown had 24, Gruder 12, and Brewer 12.

This year's boys' squad, like the girls' offers fine prospects for the future. Rett Patterson is the only senior. Other first string boys include Mitch Williams, Wayne Thurman, and Mike Lankford, juniors; and Cliff Thomas, Doyle Schneider, Gary Brooks, Richard White, and John Tyler, all of whom are sophomores.

Tahoka's little B-team boys put up a game fight before losing by a lop-sided score of 60-39. Lewis Hise led Tahoka scoring with 15 points, and Charley Brown had 8. Tim Blair poured 21 points through the nets for the winners.

Gordon-Southland News

(By Mrs. Edmund Wilke) Today we are feeling a little bit of the winter weather that we have been waiting for. I, for one, am glad to see some cold weather, and maybe it won't be too many days until we will get some rain or snow. Granted, warm weather and sunshine is very nice at this time of year, but it just isn't what we really need.

Our new pastor, Rev. Richard son, is from Illinois and this is the first time that he has been to Texas, and he and his family just can't get over this weather. Well, it has kinda been unusual, hasn't it?

Little miss four-month-old Michelle Dowis of Lubbock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Dowis, is spending three or four days with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Becker Jr.

Mrs. Gilbert Becker and daughter from Kansas City, Mo., have been here for two weeks visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Willie Becker and also her parents at Brownfield. Mr. and Mrs. Willie Becker were in Kansas City visiting with Gilbert and family and Doris and family and when they returned home, Mrs. Gilbert Becker returned with them. They had a bad pickup wreck in Amarillo, but luckily, no one was injured seriously.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cedarholm from Post visited with Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Pennell during the week end. Also visiting was Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Pennell and Harvey Louis Pennell from Lubbock, and Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Pennell and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Callaway and children. Tracy Callaway has been staying with the Pennells during the day while her mother was working.

We were so sorry to hear that Mr. and Mrs. Larry Alford was involved in a car wreck near Lubbock last night. Mrs. Alford, Donetta, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ellis. We certainly hope that they will be alright before too long. They were riding in the back seat of the car and they weren't hurt as bad as the couple in the front seat. May God grant them a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Ed Siewert has been released from Mercy Hospital and at present time she is staying with her daughter, Mrs. Bob Camden at Slaton.

Mrs. Gertrude Stolle has also been released from Mercy Hospital and is recuperating at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Siewert at Slaton.

Mrs. T. W. Bryson entered Methodist Hospital on Sunday evening, and underwent surgery Monday. We wish for her a speedy recovery.

Bro. and Mrs. Hill and Darrell are enjoying having company this week. Their son Don and his family are here for a visit. Don is with the Air Force and has been stationed in Shreveport, La., but will be leaving for a two-year stay in Guam shortly. His wife and child won't be able to join him for about five months.

Mrs. Bess Gregg from Post and Mrs. Nell Crosby visited with Max and Ethel Davis at Cleburne for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Crosby visited with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Rodgers and family, at Crane recently. On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Neil Crosby visited with Mrs. Crosby's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Bassham at Midland.

Recently Mrs. Paul Winterrowd was visiting in Fort Worth and one day she went downtown shopping. You know how it is when you are in a big city and people all around you and not a familiar face anywhere? Well, all of a sudden Mrs. Winterrowd thought she saw someone she knew, and sure enough it was Mrs. Hansel Hallman. What a coincidence.

Our basketball teams didn't do so good this past week. Our high school teams lost to Shallowater on Tuesday night and our junior high teams lost both their games in the Roosevelt tournament. All teams will play Cooper this week and we wish them better luck.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Gary from Shallowater and Mr. and Mrs. John East from Slaton visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hargrove on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Allen and family from Denver City visited with Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Abshire and family on Sunday night. The Allens had been to Oklahoma and were on their way home. They are cousins of the Abshires.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mayberry and boys have moved to Slaton. Edmund's sister, Mrs. Bertha Betts, is back in the Methodist

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

BY C. WILSON HARDER

In early times wars were brought about by one king wishing to rob another.

After kings more or less vanished, it became the fashion to blame world-wide blood-letting on bloated capitalists. In fact, most of a n y d a y

Pravda reports how Wall Street works toward a wholesale slaughter. But nobody seems to stumble upon fact perhaps many wars are fomented by knuckle-headed self-anointed "Go gooders."

A case in point is the very interesting March 1951 publication of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

It seems there are some UN members who dislike the way that South Africa runs its affairs, although it does seem to manage without one cent of foreign aid from the U.S.

Most of this dislike for South Africa seems to stem from nations like the Congo where three, or four years ago they were feasting on American missionaries, in sort of an African pot luck dinner.

Several years ago, with Russia taking the lead, the UN voted economic sanctions against South Africa. As every American, with the possible exception of the State Dept., knows, economic sanctions are not worth the paper they are written on. This is even known by the U.S. allies who were trading with North Korea, North Vietnam, Red China, Castro Cuba.

Hospital and had leg surgery again. This makes the third time since she broke it about three years ago. We are all hoping that everything goes right this time, because she sure has suffered with it.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Becker's house burned one day last week. They live over close to Floydada. Weldon used to go to school here and his wife Mazie is a Slaton girl.

Sunday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Payton Crawford were Mr. and Mrs. James Crawford, and babies and Miss Janet Hollingsworth. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hamaker visited the Crawfords on Saturday.

We would like to extend our congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Mock who were married on Saturday night. May they share many many years of happiness together.

Mrs. G. D. Ellis held a good "old fashioned" quilting party in her home last Thursday. Each lady that could stay for lunch brought a dish and they all enjoyed a "pot luck" lunch together. Attending were Meses. Winnie Henderson, Lillie Short and Wilingham from Post; Lucille Myers, Evelyn Hill, John Leake, Nancy Belk, Elsin Crawford, Dahlene Dunn, Ed Denton, Tommy Wilson, and Ruby Ellis, all from Southland; and Meses. Yeates and Cavanaugh from Slaton.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Ellis went to Lubbock on Saturday and enjoyed some good "84" games with Mr. and Mrs. Straley, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Vernon and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Karnes.

Sounds like Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smallwood had a big birthday party out at their house on Sunday. Their two boys both have birthdays in January and they usually celebrate them together. Douglas was 13 on the 16th and Ronnie was 7 on the 4th. Those attending the big birthday celebration and dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. Davis Daniel, Leslie and Brent, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Pinkert and Janis from Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hancock, Tracy, Tonya and Timothy from the Robertson community; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Don Ross, Laurie and Jay from Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Fagan Ross, Mrs. Annie Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ross and Demetra from Slaton; Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Smallwood and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Smallwood, Terri and Julie from Southland. See you next week.

In addition, inasmuch as South Africa produces 47% of the free world gold supply, almost of all its diamonds, it is pretty hard to invoke sanctions. This is akin to kicking in the plate glass of the bank one is doing business with because one dislikes the hats the banker's wife wears.

The Carnegie Endowment for International Peace recognizes this hard economic fact. So, to keep the peace, it recommends the UN wage war against South Africa.

There is a careful analysis of the South Africa military strength and what force it will require to conquer. It is recommended that some 700 aircraft, 96 warships, and over six divisions of troops be employed in the initial assault.

But the report goes on suggesting it would be inefficient to make up this force from all the UN members, therefore the brunt should be borne by an alliance between the U.S., Russia, and West Germany. This, of course, is a great natural alliance. For some inexplicable reason, it was neglected to recommend that Ulster and Eire should also join this alliance.

The estimated cost of the initial stages of this war would be around a half billion dollars. In the same period some 38,000 would be killed and wounded, largely American boys and American boys. But such a sacrifice would be justified, it is argued, because it would keep the jungle natives happy. It is obvious this world no longer needs war makers when it has peace makers like the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. Let's have peace, brother, even if it kills you.

John Toler Tells Japan Progress

Japan and its remarkable progress was the subject of a talk at Tahoka Rotary Club Thursday noon by John Toler, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Toler, who is home visiting his parents after spending 11 years in that country. John is a local school graduate, finished at Tech, went to Japan while serving with the Army, began picking up the Japanese language and when his term of service was over remained there to become a teacher of English in a college, worked on a newspaper, and now is working for an international advertising agency at Osaka.

Japan has made great progress, especially since the war, and is now first in the world in ship building, having passed England; is second only to the U. S. in television and movies; now has a standard of living on par with France, and has the highest standard of any country in Asia.

Japan has half the population crowded into an area half the size of Texas, and much of the country is mountainous. Only 14 percent of the land is arable, but Japan manages to feed itself and export some foodstuffs. It has much water power but also uses atomic power to produce electricity, and manufacturing is increasing in great leaps.

Literacy rates second highest in the world. The school system is very similar to ours, and attendance is compulsory. All Japanese now study English, although they have trouble in pronouncing many English words.

In the past the people showed little emotion because they were taught to suppress emotion, but today they show their emotions more freely. He says they are a very hospitable people and are extremely honest and reliable.

Japan is a democracy which, following the 1868 revolution, began patterning its government after England. Since MacArthur and the war, the trend has been more toward the U. S. There are two parties, the Liberal Democrats, which are actually conservative, and the Socialists. The latter, as with Communism is making little headway because the Japanese people enjoy their freedom very much. There are dissenters, of course, but they are in the minority just as those in the U. S.

As a result of the new Constitution set up under MacArthur's guidance, there is no regular army, only a self defense force that can use only weapons of defense.

He says the Japanese as a nation are not against our Viet Nam policy, but think our action there more or less forced on us.

The Japanese people have little enmity toward us as a result of the war. In fact, he said, even Tojo's daughter is now attending an American university.

Religion there is predominantly Buddhism, which came to the country 1300 years ago. Shintoism was the state religion during the war, but is actually adhered to by a minority. Christianity, which was first introduced by Portugal 500 years ago, is making great progress. He said it is easier for a Christian missionary to gain admission to the country than any other foreigner.

Japan is a sports loving nation. Baseball is the most popular, but practically all sports are engaged in but hunting, largely because it is almost impossible for an individual to own a gun in Japan because of arms restrictions.

Ralph Belisle, in charge of the program, introduced the speaker.

War On Weevil, Proves Success

Lubbock—The 1965 High Plains Boll Weevil Control Program has been deemed highly successful by Texas A&M University entomologists who have monitored effectiveness of the project since it began in 1964.

The latest spraying effort resulted in a 99 percent reduction in overwintering boll weevils, according to Dr. Perry L. Adkisson, professor of entomology at Texas A&M and head of the research effort behind the program.

In 1964, the diapause control program resulted in a 90 percent reduction in overwintering weevils.

The greater effectiveness of the latest campaign against the cotton pest is credited to a two-phase spray program developed from research findings of Texas A&M entomologists.

The first phase of the new system featured applications at five to seven day intervals during September which, in theory, prevented female weevils from laying eggs that might have later developed into overwintering adults, Adkisson said.

In the second phase of the attack, applications were scheduled at 10 to 14 day intervals as in the 1964 effort, he said.

Adkisson presented the report Jan. 4 at a luncheon here hosted by Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. for cotton compress officials. The compress men have been instrumental in helping gather farmer's contributions for the program.

The control effort is designed to keep the weevil from attacking the rich cotton of the South Plains area. Under the program, aerial applications of insecticide are made to kill diapausing or hibernating weevils in an eight county zone bordering the eastern edge of the South Plains.

Adkisson estimated that without the last two year's control program almost 4,800 weevils per acre would have gone into hibernation in the control area this season.

Thanks to the project, an estimated 49 weevils per acre (or 99 percent less) reached hibernation. He said further reductions can be expected from winter killing.

Adkisson said the boll weevil has become well adapted to the conditions of the area and would have advanced westward if there had been no massive control effort.

The noted entomologist cited the Plant Pest Control Division of the U. S. Department of Agriculture for their efficient job of planning and executing the spray campaign.

The only hitch in 1965 program came when heavy rains in September reduced the effectiveness of the second insecticide application. The rains came at a critical time, Adkisson said, and so the cost of the program was pushed up because a wider area had to be sprayed in the later phase of the attack.

Extension entomologist Don Rummel, of Lubbock, who assisted Adkisson with the report, said in-season control efforts of farmers in the control zone contributed to the success of the effort.

"Some cotton producers spent as much as seven dollars per acre with their in-season spraying," he said.

Rummel said that another successful diapause control program this coming year could reduce weevil populations to a point where little in-season control will be required in 1967.

But the pair of entomologists said that it is quite probable that the diapause program will have to be continued even after 1967 at least on a small scale in some parts of the area.

Rummel said farmers in the area will need to continue a strong in-season control effort this coming season.

A group of area cotton producers are in the process of organizing their own in-season program. If their plans materialize it should help reduce the cost of an effective in-season control program, Rummel said.

This year's diapause control program cost almost $1.8 million, according to Plains Cotton Growers' officials. Through the growers' organization, area farmers will contribute about $100,000 and the federal government will pay the rest.

ROTUNDA, STATE CAPITOL Austin

When you visit the rotunda directly under the dome of the State Capitol in Austin you can see Texas in the past, present and future.

On the stone floor are the seals of Spain, Mexico, France, the Republic of Texas, the Confederacy and the United States. On the walls hang portraits of all Texas heads of state — presidents of the Republic and governors since 1846.

Then, looking some 300 feet straight up, one has an uninterrupted view inside the great dome. You can dream what the future has in store for Texas, as you lift your eyes.

Memories make Texans proud of their heritage. The present, too, is a challenge to continue Texas' great role in the affairs of our Nation. We all want our children to have a secure and safe future.

Capt. Don Blair, Killed In Viet Nam, Buried Sunday With Military Honors

A number of Tahoka people attended funeral rites in Canyon Sunday at 3:00 p. m. in the First Baptist Church for Capt. Donald B. Blair, 27, shot down in a Viet Cong ambush at Long Hai in Viet Nam on January 8.

Rev. Strauss Atkinson, pastor, officiated at the services and burial followed in Dreamland Cemetery at Canyon with full military rites with Cadet Colonel Bruce Kimery of West Texas State University ROTC in charge.

Captain Blair was born March 11, 1938, at Hawley. He came to Tahoka when he was six, and was a very popular and highly respected young man in Tahoka High School, where he was an outstanding fullback on the football team and also a track star before his graduation in 1956.

He was given a four-year athletic scholarship at West Texas State, where he lettered as a halfback on the Buffalo football team three years. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Blair, moved to Canyon when Don entered college and they now live at 2708 Third.

While in college, Donald married Miss Bonnie Evans at Hale Center on August 15, 1958, and she and their two children, John Scott, 8, and Sara Sue, 4, live at 1709 Sixth in Canyon. Mrs. Blair has been completing her college work while Don was overseas.

He played his football at West Texas under Coaches Frank Kim-brough and Clark Jarnagin, who said in a Canyon News interview last week: "He was a fine boy who gave his best. You wouldn't be able to find anyone who didn't like him if they knew him."

Jarnagin said Captain Blair probably played his greatest football game against Hardin-Simmons in 1957, and he is remembered best for his kickoff runbacks.

On graduation from West Texas and his ROTC work there, Blair was commissioned a second lieutenant. He served in the Army a hitch, was out a few months in 1963 selling insurance in Lubbock, but re-enlisted in the Army.

While visiting in Tahoka for two days last June en route to Viet Nam, Don declared he loved his Army work and had decided to make a career of the military.

In Viet Nam, Capt. Blair and a U. S. Army sergeant were with Advisory Team 89 training potential Vietnamese officers, and were the only Americans in the Long Hai area where he had charge of training a cadre of 300 men and had just received another 300 men at the time of his death.

He had learned the Vietnamese language fairly well and was enjoying working with these people in the military training. However, they had antiquated and almost worn out 1943 World War II tanks and jeeps and comparable weapons, and only about half of his men had any arms at all. In fact, he had kept requesting from higher ups better equipment and even rations, and relatives the orize he may have taken off for a U. S. Army supply base to try to get supplies when he was ambushed.

But, his mother told The Canyon News, "He thought he ought to be there. He was devoted to what he was doing. That was his life, and we accepted it."

In addition to his wife and children and parents, he is survived by a brother, Parker Blair of Dallas; and two sisters, Mrs. Carl Gene Spears of Tahoka and Mrs. T. N. Lambert of Hawley.

Among the honorary pallbearers were Jack Spears of Tahoka, Rev. Gordon Smith of Shallowater, Junior Fitts of Springlake, and Carlton Bell of El Paso.

Among relatives at the funeral were his uncle, B. L. Parker, and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Pug Parker, and Mr. and Mrs. Reed Parker, all of Tahoka; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Parker and son and Mr. and

Medicare Benefits Told At Meeting

Provisions of the new Medicare program were explained to about 110 Lynn people at a meeting Tuesday afternoon in Lyntegar meeting room by Gerald Schantz of the Lubbock Social Security office, County Agent Bill Griffin, E. L. Short, and Mr. Tucker of the local Welfare office.

In the principal talk by Mr. Schantz, the group was told practically everyone over 65 will be eligible for benefits beginning July 1, this year.

Anyone now receiving Social Security benefits is already covered for hospital insurance. In addition, those eligible may qualify for additional benefit, or medical insurance, on payment of $3.00 per month.

If a person is 65 and making too much to draw S.S. benefits or if he has never worked under S.S., he is still covered but must make application now, or before July 1.

Every person 65 can qualify for hospital insurance benefits. The second phase, medical benefits insurance is optional and costs $3.00 per month.

All persons in doubt or wishing information should contact Mr. Schantz who is in the county court room each first and third Tuesday morning.

The meeting Tuesday was sponsored by the local Committee on Aging, of which Mr. Griffin and Mr. Short are chairmen, and they will be available to give help and advice to any elderly person on the Medicare program.

New Home ...

The old elementary building and gymnasium dressing rooms were remodeled for supplementary classrooms.

A second teacher was employed for the Colored students, and then the school integrated, and still the State was "breathing on New Home's neck."

On the voting of $250,000 in bonds for expansion in 1963, the State finally lifted probation. The present modern, new high school and gymnasium was erected, four new elementary classrooms were built, and library books and equipment were added.

Baptist Church site was bought for the building program, the football field was moved, and this last year some more of the Smith estate was bought and the teachers moved to a site north of the football field.

During this time school enrollment has grown from 225 average daily attendance to more than 500 ADA.

The school is operating "in the black" and further equipment is being added each year. Mr. Miller thinks New Home schools are in peak condition.

Mr. Miller says he deserves little credit for the progress, for the community has been saved by a cooperative and understanding group of patrons and school board members.

Present board chairman is Dick Turner, and George Sealy is the secretary.

Mr. Miller has been teaching 38 years and Mrs. Miller, who is a first grade teacher at New Home, has been in the service 34 years.

They were at Coahoma eight years before coming to New Home.

The Millers have an improved cattle ranch of 440 acres 25 miles east of Durant, Okla., just off US Highway 70, where they built a modern brick home last summer. The ranch is stocked with Hereford cattle, and they expect to spend a lot of time there ranching, spend a little more time with their children and grandchildren, and spend a lot of time traveling.

They have bought a travel trailer and expect to see a lot of the United States they have always longed to visit.

Mrs. Dea Parker, all of Brown field; Alice Jewell Parker of Post; and Mr. and Mrs. Berry Fisher of Lubbock.

Among others from here at the services were: Messrs. and Mmes. C. W. Roberts, Wayland-Craig, Jim Fenton, Gilbert Steinhauser, Buck Cook, Lindell Wood, Glenn Anderson, H. P. Jones, Carl Spears, Bill Spears; and Mrs. Mary Rumbo, Mrs. Gladys M. Stokes, Lawrence Harvick, G. W. Grogan, Johnny Jackson and Elwayne Crotwell; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Moore of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Smith and daughter, and possibly others.

"I have never seen so many people interested in helping me find my dog. It could only happen in Tahoka, Texas."

"Not only your Police Chief helped in the search, but we also had His Honor, the Mayor, Meldon Leslie, looking too."

"Numerous personal friends of mine joined in the hunt, but Jack Miller also had 12 boys on bicycles looking too."

"Late Tuesday afternoon, our perseverance paid off. We found Sam in a yard not over one block from Mabel and Jess Gurley's house, nearly four and one-half weeks after his disappearance from our house. Small world!"

"Such interest over a dog seems incredible, and I would like to thank everyone in Tahoka for their concern and help."

CARD OF THANKS

Gil Lamb Is School Speaker

"It's smarter not to drink," Gilbert Lamb, former Tahokan and owner of KMUL radio station in Muleshoe, told Tahoka High School students in an address Wednesday afternoon in the school auditorium.

"Alcohol is no stimulant; it is a depressant, an anaesthetic. Alcohol is cunning, deceitful, powerful. There is not one thing in life that you can do better by using alcohol. Alcoholism as a disease of the mind and soul and body, and should be treated as a disease," were some of the statements from his powerful message.

Lamb told the young people his life story—how as a high school student he took his first drink, was one of the many who could not take a drink, his rise as a musician and actor with shows, only to fall to the deepest depths a failure because of drink. Finally, with the help of others with a similar drinking problem, how he was able to, with their help and the help of God, to refrain from the use of alcohol through the Alcoholics Anonymous credo of vowing "not to take a drink today."

He told his listeners to take an understanding attitude toward the alcoholic, for he is an ill person who needs help and encouragement, for the victim is the last one to realize his true condition.

He also emphasized that not all alcoholics are on skid row, for the victims are people in all walks of life, some in the finest homes, even right here in Tahoka.

Gil, since accepting his disease, has made a success in business, and is now becoming a much sought-after public speaker on the subject. Just recently, he was called to Chicago for an address

1965 Lynn Traffic Toll Was High

Memories of 1965 are slipping quietly away for most people, but for those maimed in automobile accidents and the families of others who were killed during the year, 1965 will be remembered always with dread and sorrow.

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 15 accidents on rural highways in Lynn County during the month of December, according to Sergeant A. E. Roberts, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county for the calendar year of 1965 shows a total of 82 crashes resulting in two persons killed, 45 injured, and an estimated property damage of $45,634.00.

Four of the 29 counties in the THP's Lubbock district had no traffic fatalities during 1965. These were Bailey, Kent, Terry and Throckmorton—but 77 persons were injured and property damage reached $95,975 in automobile accidents in those four counties during the year.

"It is estimated when the final reports are tabulated, we will find that less people were killed in Texas traffic accidents during 1965 than in 1964," the Sergeant stated. The final count is expected there Tuesday, he spoke to Andrews High School, and recently appeared as a speaker in Houston.

The program was arranged by Tahoka High FFA girls, and Stella Howie introduced the speaker. Following the address, the student body gave Mr. Lamb a standing ovation.

Prior to the talk, Mrs. Madeline Hegi announced Mary Ellen Wyatt as winner of the local Betty Crocker "Homemaker of Tomorrow" award.

ed to be about three per cent less than the 1964 all time high of 3,006 traffic deaths.

The patrol supervisor reminded all motorists to think about reducing the deaths even more in 1966 than in 1965. This reduction can be brought about by strict observance of traffic laws and defensive driving practices. Remember, everytime you drive you have a motive, that is, drive to live.

Mrs. Irene Hunter of O'Donnell was admitted to Tahoka Hospital Wednesday as a medical patient.
