Sale of The News Effective April 1st

After 43 years and five months under the present ownership, The Lynn County News has been sold effective April 1, Frank P. Hill, editor and publisher, announces this week.

New editor and publisher will be W. E. (Bill) Salter, 23, who for three years has been editor and manager of the Stinnett Star, up on the North Plains. Bill was reared at Idalou, however, and is an experienced news man in spite of his age.

Associated with Salter in the purchase are Wendell Tooley of Floydada and Mrs. Luther Kirk of Pampa. The new publishers announce they will form a corporation to be known as Tahoka Publishing Co.

Plan Improvements

"Several changes will be made in The Lynn County News in the near future," Salter says. "Office supply stock will be increased and office machine repair service will be offered.

"For convenience of the advertisers, publication day will be moved up to Thursday morning, printing on Wednesday night. This will afford the advertiser three days of merchandising on each week's advertisement before the Sunday break."

"The newspaper will feature offset printing for better picture reproduction and colors in both news and advertising."

A printer himself, Salter says commercial printing will continue to be featured, possibly more in the future than in the past. Except for the editor and publisher, and wife, the same personnel will remain with the plant.

Salter Outstanding

Salter is married to the former Miss Susan Denson of Anton. They will move here this week. (Continued on back page)

Rodeo Dates Are Set In Late April

Plans for the annual Tahoka Frontier Days Rodeo here on April 27, 28, and 29 were made at a meeting of directors of the Rodeo Association here Tuesday night.

Also, the Association voted to buy the 11 lots where the rodeo grounds are located from Billy Miller for $3,500. This will give the Association a permanent site and a total investment of $10,000. Ratjin Rodeo Co. will again furnish the stock, some of the wildest in the Southwest.

A queen contest will be held again this year, and applications are now being taken by officers and directors.

Oran Short is the Tahoka Rodeo Association president, and directors include Ruben McElroy, E. L. Short, Son Quinn, Lee Roy Knight, Loamuh Harston and Elwayrie Crotwell.

Wilson Teachers Get New Contracts

Thirteen classroom teachers have been re-elected by the Wilson school board, according to Supt. Leroy Scott.

Principals, coaches, vocational and others had previously been re-elected.

Teachers given new contracts by the board are: Mesdames Newman Bartley, Sandra Gaines, Billie Jean Murdock, Paula Morgan, Sammie Callaway, John Alexander, Natalie Blankenship, Dick Green, Pearl Davidson and Jane Harris, and Misses Gladys Kirtley, Pat Standafer, and Gloria Price.

Schools Close For Easter Holidays

Three Lynn county schools are observing a long Easter holiday period, while the fourth will have a shorter vacation.

Tahoka schools dismiss at the regular time today, Friday, and will not resume classes until Monday, April 3.

Wilson and New Home schools dismiss today at 2:30 p. m. and also will not reopen until Monday, April 3.

O'Donnell, however, turned out school this Thursday at 2:40 p. m., and will observe a brief holiday period as classes will resume next Tuesday, March 28.

Athletic Banquet Tickets On Sale

Bert Huffman, Texas Tech freshman football coach and popular after dinner speaker, will give the principal talk at the annual Tahoka All-Sports Banquet on Saturday, April 15, at 7:30 p. m. in the school cafeteria.

About 125 high school and junior high boys and girl athletes will be honored at the meeting this year, Coach Jim Littlefield says.

Only about 150 tickets will be available to the general public, parents and fans, and these will be on sale at $2.00 each.

Coach Huffman has appeared here several times, has a lot of homespun humor as well as some common sense advice to young people, and is always a big hit with both old and young at banquet affairs.

Coach Don Smith, who recently moved to Class AAA Perryton, expects to be here for the affair, as well as Coaches Littlefield, Robert Ryan, and Cecil Robinson. Bulldog Booster Club president, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Kidwell, is sponsoring the banquet this year.

Gasoline Fire Is Averted At Gim

A near-serious gasoline fire at Farmers Co-op. Assn. Tuesday morning was extinguished by Tahoka Fire Department, but not before there were some anxious moments.

While a transport truck was pumping gasoline into a storage tank, excess fuel boiled out, ran down the hose and caught fire when coming in contact with the hot motor. Fire spread to two of the storage tanks.

On arrival of the Fire Department, the truck of Petroleum Transport Products, Inc., was pulled to safety and water was poured on the storage tanks to cool them down and stop the flow of gasoline from them.

Damage to the truck was light, but 941 gallons of gasoline were lost, paint on the tanks and trucks damaged, and the catwalks over the tanks burned.

Fire Chief Pat Patterson says the fire could very easily have been a major catastrophe.

Albert Williams' Infant Is Buried

Infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Williams, who died at birth Thursday of last week at 9:45 p. m. in Highland Hospital in Lubbock, was buried Saturday at 3:30 p. m. in graveside services at Draw Cemetery conducted by Rev. Max Browning, Methodist pastor at Wilson.

Named Brenda Joyce, the little girl is also survived by a brother, Keith Williams and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Williams of Tahoka.

NEW EDITOR AND PUBLISHER of The Lynn County News, effective April 1st will be W. E. (Bill) Salter, reared at Idalou but editor of The Stinnett Star the past three years. He is a partner with Wendell Tooley, prominent West Texas publisher, in purchase of The News from the Hills, who have owned the paper since 1923. He will move here this week end.

State Awards Contract For $75,000 Highway Building

Contract was let last Thursday to Hunter Bros. Construction Co., of Lubbock by Texas Highway Department for erection of the new general maintenance building project north of Tahoka.

Hunter was low bidder on the building at $75,437.00.

The structure will be of tile, concrete and steel, 262 by 30 feet in size and will face south on the five-acre site now being cleared adjacent to the old drive-in theatre just north of Tahoka city limits and north of the proposed interchange on the new 4-lane US 87.

James H. King, maintenance engineer of the Lubbock division, told The News the building will be one in which the community can take pride. There will be a large paved area, surrounded by chain link fence, and the site will ultimately be landscaped.

Texas Highway Department will probably move several additional employees here in the future following completion of the new maintenance plant.

Eugene Munsell is the man in charge of the Tahoka maintenance shops.

Jim Littlefield Resigns Position

Coach Jim Littlefield, recently elevated to athletic director and head football coach for next year to succeed Don Smith, who has moved to Perryton, resigned last Thursday night at a meeting of Tahoka School Board.

Littlefield and wife, Kathy, who is public school music teacher at North Elementary School, have decided to return to Corpus Christi, from which place they moved here two years ago when Don Smith became head coach.

He will return to his old position as coach at a Junior High school in Corpus, and Kathy will teach music in the school.

Both have been very popular here with both students and school patrons.

By Wednesday, a total of 14 new members had been signed by two teams of nine men on each team, and the losing team will furnish the winning team with a steak dinner next month.

Membership in the C. of C. had dropped to about 75 businesses and individuals, and others of the town are being asked to join.

One team, headed by Harold Roberts, is made up of Meldon Leslie, Charles Townes, Herman Renfro, Maurice Small, Dayton Parker, Horace Rogers, Warren Embree, Ross Smith, and "Cap" Whorton.

J. D. Atwell heads the other team and his helpers are Garland Thornton, Clint Walker, Frank Hill, E. L. Short, Johnny Wells, Bob Haney, Calloway Huffaker, Wayne Waters, and H. B. McCord, Jr.

CUB SCOUT MEETING

Cub Scout Pack 782 will meet next Thursday, March 30, at 7:30 p. m. in Fellowship Hall of First Baptist Church instead of at the Community building. Mrs. Jackie Henry announces. All parents and friends are invited.

Thursday morning's "million dollar" rain was not enough to soak the ground very deep, but will be a big help and permit getting land in better shape, farmers say.

Tahoka received 1.13 inch, the most rainfall since mid-September.

Apparently the rain was general over most of the county, although lighter in spots and dwindling down to only a sprinkle to the southwest. However, most areas apparently received a half inch to an inch and a half.

Six miles north of Wilson on the Houchin place 2.2 inches was reported. Wilson reported 1.2 inches and 1.5 inches a mile south.

Lakeview reported .75 to an inch and a half, but Lit Moore Jr. said he had only .4 northwest of New Home. New Home reported a half to three-fourths inch.

Out east of town, the Grassland area received .7 Sunday.

Showers also fell in parts of the Redwine, Draw and O'Donnell areas. Also across the north part of the county in the New Home and Wilson areas up to a half inch was reported Sunday.

Draw and Midway reported good rains, up to 1.8 inches, O'Donnell a good shower, little rain at Wells and Newmoore, and Three Lakes.

Although not enough in most sections, the rain ended the driest six months period on record and gave hopes that more will be received before planting time.

Last substantial rain was on September 15 and 16, when 1.04 inch fell, followed by .29 on Sept. 20.

There was only .05 in October, .01 in November, a trace in December, a trace in January, and 23 in February.

The cooperative is presently in a program of having lines laid underground over much of its territory.

New directors are to be elected this year from Districts 2, 4, and 6, each for a two-year term.

Re

We've thought of a lot of things we would say when we sang our "swan song" as editor of this sheet, but when we sit down to the typewriter the "right" things just don't seem to come out.

As you've probably read on the front page, we've sold The News to Bill Salter, Wendell Tooley, and Mrs. Luther Kirk. Bill Salter, who will take our chair, is a clean-cut young man full of enthusiasm and initiative and will be an asset to our town. In fact, he and his partners already have plans underway for increasing the service and improving the quality of The News. They are putting a lot of money into The News, and have great faith in the future of our town and county. Yes, we are real happy to be able to turn our "baby" for 43 years over to our kind of people who will help move our community forward for the better.

It was 44 years ago last Christmas when "The Printer" first saw Tahoka. Bob Haynes and wife were running The News. Our dad, a lawyer, had served as a county and district attorney, and in between, had owned The Roscoe Times, where "The Printer" and brother learned the printing trade. Now living at Sweetwater, we had ideas of getting a newspaper with bigger opportunities, so "The Printer" drove out over the Caprock west of Post in a Model T, following section lines, and finally found Tahoka. Bob didn't want to sell, but a few months later, he changed his mind.

Dad made the trade in October, took over on Nov. 1, and he and E. L. Jr. and Albert Curry made up the force. The Printer, still in college, came down and helped get out the Christmas issue. On completing our college career, The Printer and Mae were married, turned down a job from the Star-Telegram, cast our lot in Tahoka, and we have never regretted the move.

There's been a lot of water under the bridge since... hard times, break downs, sickness and death, debts, a depression, one world war, a "police action" in Korea, a "holding action" in Vietnam, help problems, pied type forms, power failures—you name the troubles, we've had 'em. Once we remember working from daylight one morning, all through the next night and day and into the second night without ever leaving the shop.

There was the time a combination cam and gear on the big press broke at dusk on Thursday with two runs to print on the Christmas edition. We rushed the four pages of type to Slaton to print on the Slatonite press, then the same gear broke on their press. We called the Santa Fe shop for help, and Mr. S. A. Peavy called Chicago and got permission for the shop to make us a gear. Not long after daylight, we were back in Tahoka just in time to mail the papers on the rural routes.

There was the time an Ired reader backed The Printer up against the wall with an open knife blade at our stomach and threatened to "cut your guts out." Another time, a West Point correspondent innocently wrote a little item, and to save space said, "John Doe and Mrs. Jane Smith were visitors in Brownfield Saturday night." Shortly after the mail route ran, we looked up to see a big-towering fellow hovering over our Dad, a little man seated in his chair, and threatening his life. It took a lot of explaining, for it so happened the lady was our visitor's wife and the man, also married, happened to be known as quite a hand with the ladies.

More recently, a fine old gentleman but a loyal party man who worshipped his party as his God, came into our door, red-faced and apparently angry, and announced, "Frank, I swore I wouldn't take your blankety-blank paper another day, but I guess I'll fake it another day to keep up with happenings in the county seat. I don't like your politics, one blankety-blank bit." Then he told us how the government was taxing farmers to where he couldn't pay his bills, cutting allotments and farm prices to where he couldn't make a living, taking control of everything, confiscating our money and sending it to foreigners, and turning the country over to the Negroes and have-nots. We laughed, and said, "Mr. Blank, really we're not too far apart in our thinking, are we?" Whereupon he replied, "Frank, I guess you're right, but I still don't want you to cuss our party."

Yep, there's never been a dull moment in the newspaper business as we've known it. It's been a lot of fun, though. We have made a lot of good friends. There are better than 2,000 families getting The News weekly. We know most of them and count everyone of you a friend and member of our newspaper family. We've learned one great lesson—to love people. Nearly everyone has some good in you will just look for it, and we hold few grudges and try to overlook faults in others for we have plenty of our own.

Along with the bad times, we've had our good ones. Not only our subscribers, but our businessmen have been kind to us. We saved a little money, invested in farm land, finally got a nestegg—not big, but appreciated. For several years, we've had to pay self-employment taxes. Pretty soon, LBJ willing, we'll begin getting this back in Social Security payments. In fact, we've already figured out that in about three years we can get back all we've paid in. But, they tell us, your younger buttons will just keep on paying and paying, and we're gonna try and live as long as we can. We're sorry, young folks, but you're gonna have to pay our way after we pass 68. And, if that's not enough, LBJ may have his guaranteed income program in effect and we can draw some more from Dear Old Uncle Sam—and you ought to know who he is. If LBJ doesn't put it over and we don't make $3,000 a year, there's still the Poverty Program. So, we ain't got a care in the world.

Yes, it hurts to take off our printer's apron, lay down our make-up rule, and wash the ink off our hands and face, but we just want to step out while we're still able to have fun and enjoy living, and while we can turn the paper we have loved and nurtured so long over to younger people with the vitality to serve our community and lead it to greater days.

We may loaf a bit, but we don't intend just to sit on the front porch and swat flies.

Now, we may have some more to say next week before we throw in the sponge, but in the meantime Mae has the following words of appreciation:

Taking My Shingle Down
We never admired a quitter, but after 43 years of going in and out doors of business houses each week, selling advertising for The News, we are quitting—but not leaving, and will continue to count you our good friends and neighbors.

The business people of Tahoka and all Lynn county are tops in our book, and we want each one of you to know the high point in our life has been to know you personally and to deal with you. Your kindness and courtesy has meant much to us over the years, although it seems only yesterday we began calling on you. We, too, remember and appreciate those friends who have moved away, retired or passed on.

Sure, it hurts to "cut the tie that binds" in selling The News, but all good things must come to an end some time and we are glad we can pass the paper on to some wonderful people. The "old advertising gal" MAE HILL.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" By C. WILSON HARDER

A far greater menace to American industry and business than foreign imports or local gangsters is a disease called industrial sabotage.

The Wall St. Journal recently reported that sabotage is "a far bigger and more costly problem than many companies will admit. One manufacturer was unable to sell more than 25,000 refrigerators last June, largely because of acts of sabotage—grease and oil rubbed on cases, sand or sugar and other foreign substances dumped into C.W. Harder paint systems... have caused literally thousands of refrigerator cases to be rejected."

A short time ago, industrial spying—of one company upon the secrets of another—was thought to be the greatest hazard since the old threat of enemy sabotage in wartime. Today, security vigilance is mainly to prevent the damage caused by trusted employees.

The Journal reveals: "An employee angry at his foreman may leave a little sand in a delivery truck gas tank, a piece of metal to jam machinery, a faulty assembly job to insure a reject or a complaint."

An astounding 600 cases of sabotage were uncovered by an corporation within a 6-week period, probably set off by a new order for increased employee workloads.

Printing plants have had to enforce no-smoking rules for safety, and have been paid back by damaged equipment, scratched printing plates.

Fear of stockholder reaction deters many employers from prosecuting saboteurs, who may end up beating the charge and suing for false arrest.

Although it is a Federal offense to sabotage a defense plant, there has not been a recorded case of saboteur prosecution in 19 years.

Industrial sabotage got its name during early French industrialization, when textile workers, fearing competitive productivity of new machinery, blocked its efficiency with their wooden shoes, called sabots.

Acts of retribution by organized gangdom in the U.S. are well-remembered: the "rub-out" of the uncooperative proprietor, and "bomb-out" of his business. Although these brazen criminal acts were curbed by more sophisticated law enforcement, today syndicate crime is carried on behind the scenes.

Since the Florida East Coast Railway was struck by 11 unions in 1963, the company has recorded more than 400 acts of suspected sabotage, including 9 acts of dynamiting in 1964 alone. Even with modern railway protection.

Although automation has been proven to increase, not decrease jobs, it appears that the more complex, and efficient machinery becomes, the more it is resented by some workers. And the more expensive it is to repair or replace when damaged. Perhaps enforcement of existing laws, or new laws is in order to curb this wanton destruction of property, and in some cases, lives.

Letters From News Readers

(The News welcomes letters from its readers on any current subject, not libelous, of course. All communications must be of reasonable length and must be signed. On request, the signature will not be printed. The Editor.)

Dear Mr. Hill... We are moving back to good old Texas. Will be on our way the 21, so please hold our paper until we have a permanent address. We'll be somewhere in the vicinity of Dallas, but don't know the exact address yet. Jim (James Reego, her son-in-law) has with Collins Radio Co. and has been there since the first of January. That is located in Richardson, Texas. Thanking you sincerely, Mrs. Jewell Wells, 3096 Roberts, Largo, Florida.

Dear Editor: I want to take this time to express my thanks for the very good editorials. I first received the ciate those friends who have moved away, retired or passed on. So, from the depths of our hearts, we want to say thank you to our advertiser customers and friends.

We know you will give the same courteous attention to Bill Salter, wife, and associates, who are taking our place. Bill is 23 years old, tall and handsome, has big brown eyes and black hair, a pleasing personality and a million dollar smile.

And to our subscribers in Lynn county, across the nation, and even overseas, we extend our appreciation for your loyalty and interest in letting the paper come into your homes over the years—which has helped keep us one big newspaper family and made the advertising in our columns profitable.

No town or country in the world has such lovely and hospitable people as those to be found in Tahoka, O'Donnell, Wilson, New Home, Lakeview, Petty, West Point, Gordon, Grassland, Draw, Wells, Newmoore, New Lynn and other communities of our area.

Frank and I plan to rest a bit, play, do some traveling, and have more fun with our three granddaughters, Vicki, Becky, and Fran Jacobs of Bovina while we're still young enough to do so.

We are saying goodbye only as your home paper people, for we'll remain in Tahoka as your friends and neighbors and just as "Frank and Mae."

Sure, it hurts to "cut the tie that binds" in selling The News, but all good things must come to an end some time and we are glad we can pass the paper on to some wonderful people.

The "old advertising gal" MAE HILL.

ELMER OWENS HAROLD PAYNE

"State and local interests contributed $5 million in funds and services to soil and water conservation districts in Texas last year," according to a report released recently by H. N. Smith, Soil Conservation Service State Conservationist, Temple.

"Cities, counties, State government, special purpose districts, individuals, and private groups are supporting conservation districts more than ever before," Smith noted.

Non-Federal contributions last year included $2.6 million to speed up watershed work, $5 million to help layout and install conservation measures, $1 million for informational, educational, and other local activities and $53,000 for making soil surveys for urban uses.

"Locally about $22,000 was contributed by state and local government, by contributions of local businesses and organizations."

Also through unpaid time of the Lynn County Soil and Water Conservation District Supervisors and other individuals and private conservation contractors, says Blake Lovelace, work unit Conservationist with the Soil Conservation Service.

"SCS resources are much more effective when financial and other help are given conservation districts by State and local sources," Smith said. "We, therefore, encourage conservation districts to use all resources available to help conserve and develop natural resources."

Smith said the fact that every State in the Nation appropriated money last year for soil and water conservation districts reflects the widespread support they are getting from the public.

Advertising Sparks Local Economy To Tune of $562,000 In Lynn County

New York.—In Lynn County, as elsewhere in the country, advertising is the sparkplug of the local economy.

On the basis of figures released by the newspapers, radio, magazine and TV industries, $10.6 billion a year is being spent through them to influence consumer buying in the United States.

Approximately $562,000 of this total, it is estimated, is directed at Lynn County consumers and at the healthy $15,197,000 per year that they spend in local retail stores.

Newspapers are being used by advertisers—more so than any other medium, it is found—to produce results at the local level.

Of the $10.6 billion that was devoted to advertising in the past year, the largest share of it, $5.67 billion, went to newspapers.

Of the remainder, TV attracted $2.78 billion, magazines, $1.25 billion, and radio, $900 million. Not included in the figures are direct mail and outdoor advertising.

In the nation's newspapers, more is spent annually for automobile advertising than anything else. The total is about $100 million.

Liquor is second, with $48 million. Among the others are gasoline and oil, $32 million, cigarettes, $25 million, baking products, $23 million, beverages, $21 million, and wearing apparel, $12 million.

In general, it is shown, there is a close relationship between a community's buying potential and the amount of advertising used in connection with it. On the average, about 3.7 cents is spent in advertising for every $1 of retail business.

Applying this national average to Lynn County and to its retail sales volume of $15,197,000, the indicated advertising expenditure to produce that total is about $562,000.

It represents an outlay of $51 for every resident of the community.

In areas where the buying potential is not as great as it is locally, the amount spent on advertising is correspondingly lower.

The average, in the West South Central States as a whole, is $49 per capita.

Asked how important he thought advertising was to the economy, Luther H. Hodges, former Secretary of Commerce, said: "It is vital. Without it our national income would fall, the market for goods and services would shrink, production would drop and many jobs would disappear."

O'Donnell Boy Essay Winner

Mike Emerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Emerson and a student in O'Donnell High School, was winner of third place in the recent Lynn county Soil Conservation District essay contest. Following is his entry:

CONSERVATION IN TEXAS

Texas is growing in industry, farming and population. In the next thirty-five years the world's population will almost double. Texas will be depended on more and more to help feed and clothe the population of the world. Our soil and water resources are declining at a rapid rate.

Each year industries, highways and residential areas are taking land out of agricultural use. At the same time vast amounts of water are needed to maintain industries and newly populated areas. Because of this the people of Texas must have a comprehensive, massive plan for the development, maintenance, and use of its water resources. We have begun to conserve our water and soil by new and better methods of farming.

The people of Texas are going to need more water in the future, but if we don't use our water wisely we will be without enough to run industries or to irrigate our crops. There will be only a minimum quantity for the necessities of life and without industries and farming the land will be useless.

Until man is educated to control the weather there will be seasons of too little or too much rain. With this in mind new methods of conserving water in times of plenty is an ever present challenge.

When we realize that "over one-half the people now alive will die before their time because of malnutrition" we must concede that the conservation of water and soil go hand in hand. The state of Texas can and will help meet the mounting food demands of a swelling population the world over.

The people of Texas have been blessed with an abundance of natural resources, including enough water for present and future needs. We will keep these resources for a long time to come, as long as they are used intelligently.

Big Variance In Go-Getter Bowling

In play last week, the Showoffs won 3 games from the Bow Weevils with E. R. Blakney and Charlie Louder leading with 183 and 512. For the Weevils, Sis Blevins led with 171 and 465.

The Confederates led the Doctors 3-1 with Freddie Kiehl rolling high of 229 and 505. Don Sharp led the Drs with 163 and 485. Receiving honorable mention is Scooter Sharpe, who bowled 154 on a 104 average.

The U. and H's split 2-2 with Petty Gin, as O. R. Phifer led the Gin with 183 and 512 and Natlie Unfred led the UH with 167 and 478.

Babe Evans led the Lone Raiders 188 and 479 as they won four games from the Eight Balls. Scoring high for the EB was Scoot Lowrey with 166 and 473.

Foy Lowrey had 116 and said that it wasn't her game. Luke Halford bowled a 122 game. I'm wondering what happened! Look at THIS-Mary Norman, 105 game.

The Bow Weevils fared better this week, as they took three games from the Doctors. Kent McClintock scored high game with 202 and Sis Blevins series with 525. Don Sharp led the Drs. with 194 and 531.

Petty Gin split again, this time with the Lane Raiders. Bubba Norman led the gin with 196 and 515 and Milton Evans led the Raiders 219 and 604.

The Show Offs took four games from the Eight Balls, with E. R. Blakney leading them, 198 and 510. Scoot Lowrey scored high again for his team with 174 and 491.

The Confederates took three games to the U and H's one, as Freddie Keith led again with 166 and 470. L. C. Unfred led his team with 166 and 430.

Charlie Louder had a 122 game, but he sure didn't bowl like that when they bowled another team I know. Luke Halford bowled 111. (YOU got troubles) Freddie Keith bowled a 139 game worrying about Don Sharp.

NAVY AND YOU

On August 7, 1942, the United States Navy landed the Marines on four islands in the Solomons—Guadalcanal, Tulagi, Gavutu, and Tanambogo. With the support of the Pacific fleet's big guns and aircraft, they captured an important airstrip on Guadalcanal and quickly wiped out the enemy garrisons on the other three islands. Then the Japanese struck back, cutting the supply lines and practically retaking the islands. At this critical moment the U. S. warships broke the enemy blockade, bringing fresh troops who went on to win the campaign.

LIQUOR BY THE DRINK WILL NOT DECREASE ALCOHOL CONSUMPTION

Liquor interests are NOT interested in selling less liquor

With more availability, people will drink more.

Liquor interests are interested in selling more liquor. If the saloon bill passes, the per capita consumption of liquor will go up.* People will drink more. Now, in Texas, one gallon of liquor is consumed each year for every man, woman and child in the state. Nearby states that have liquor by the drink, consume 80 per cent more per capita than do states that have bottle only sales.

According to statistics from Iowa, which has had a 17 per cent increase in alcohol sales each year since legalizing liquor by the drink in 1963, Texas could expect a 20 to 30 per cent increase in highway deaths. (Iowa's population has not increased.) At the minimum increase, Texas could expect 606 ADDITIONAL DEATHS the first year! For the liquor industry, and related businesses, liquor by the drink in Texas would mean more profits. But what about the innocent victims?

What can you do? Write your State Representative, your State Senator, and Governor Connally. It is in their hands. Let them hear from you. Ask them to oppose the saloon bill.

Small Business Rotary Topic

"Small Business is Big Business" was the title of a film shown at the Rotary Club Thursday by Harry D. West, district manager of the National Federation of Independent Business, which has about 25 members in Tahoka.

The NFIB keeps its members informed on pending legislation in Congress, acts as a clearing house for ideas on legislation to promote small business, and keeps Congressmen informed through periodic polls of businessmen as to measures they favor or disapprove.

The picture emphasized the importance of business, particularly so-called "small business," in our national economy, in the working of a democracy, and revealed that 90 percent of all business is through these small institutions. Both Democratic and Republican lawmakers endorse the organization.

Clifton Gardner arranged the program. Charles Carpenter and Danny Coburn, were introduced by Marla Bray as student guests for the month.

Two former Rotarians, V. F. Jones and Charles Brock, were welcomed back into the club.

The club voted to again sponsor this coming summer the visit of a foreign student to Tahoka, a practice the club has carried out for 13 years.

Out of 46 clubs in the 573rd Rotary District, Tahoka has been revealed by District Governor Earl Wilbur of Dalhart as having contributed the largest amount, $268.37, during the past year to Rotary Foundation. February, it ranked 22nd in the district.

However, in spite of the fact that the local club had 90.17 percent attendance record during Cotton dyes more easily, more evenly, and with faster colors than any other fabric.

Once nematodes get at your cotton, yields go down and so do profits. But with FUMAZONE 86 soil fumigant applied at only 1 to 2 gallons overall an acre, you can take care of root-knot, sting, meadow and other nematodes—those microscopic, worm-like soil pests that attack plant roots, suck away profits.

FUMAZONE 86 soil fumigant increases yields up to 1/2 bale an acre. Many High Plains farmers just like yourself—tell us that's exactly what happened to their yields after their soils were treated with FUMAZONE 86: it can be applied right from the drum. No mixing, no diluting, no nozzles clogged with foreign material. You can use the chisel method, the plowsole method or inject FUMAZONE 86 into your irrigation water. Could you ask for greater flexibility? Sure you could. So here it is. Apply FUMAZONE 86 before planting, at planting or after planting. It's the only type of soil fumigant that can be used on living plants. Ask your Dow farm chemicals supplier about it.

(Continued from Front Page) Austin on next Tuesday of representatives from West Texas towns with leaders in the Senate and House of Representatives. The meeting is sponsored by West Texas Chamber of Commerce to acquaint Legislators and State officers with West Texas needs.

Calloway Huffaker reported the special bill permitting a Lynn county hospital district should clear the Legislature and be ready for the Governor's signature this week.

Although there will not be sufficient time this year to get in on a 1968 Hill-Burton Act grant for a hospital, Garland Thornton of the local Hospital Board told the C. of C. directors a confirmation election may be called soon to officially establish the district. Those present who expressed an opinion also thought the Hospital board should go ahead and call a bond election at the same time in order to be ready when Hill-Burton funds are available, if such funds are to be used in building a hospital.

Mr. Embree announced he would mail members committee assignments shortly and that he hoped an active year's work would be carried on.

During the past few weeks, the C. of C. has mailed out 900 of the new brochures to industrial firms which might consider a location here. Most of these have been sent to textile and related industries.

The brochures, printed by Southwestern Public Service Co. as a part of its Plains promotion program, tells just about everything about the town, county, taxes, utilities, transportation, sites available, etc., that industry might need to know.

The C. of C. also suggests that any citizen who has any idea of some firm that might consider locating here to notify Mr. Small at the C. of C. office in the Federal Land Bank building or Mr. Thornton or Embree at the bank.

Born at Brady, Salter was reared at Idalou, where he was an honor graduate from high school in 1961, following which he attended Texas Tech two years. He started work as an apprentice printer for the Idalou Beacon, at age 14. While at Tech, he worked two years for Lubbock Avalanche-Journal as assistant manager of the advertising service department.

He was with the Lamb County Leader, Littlefield, a while as sports reporter and advertisement compositor. For two years he published the Four County News at Anton, where he met his wife. The past three years, Salter has been editor-manager of The Star at Stinnett, a town about the size of Tahoka.

He is the incoming president of the Chamber of Commerce at Stinnett, the retiring Jaycee president, and is very active in Methodist Church work.

He tells The News he and wife hate to leave Stinnett, where they have made many friends, but "We are happy to get back to the South Plains, our first love, and we're going to be pushing Tahoka and Lynn county to the utmost."

Wendell Tooley, also a comparatively young man, is one of the most outstanding weekly newspaper men in Texas. He is publisher of The Floyd County Hesperian, president of Blanco Offset Printing, and holds substantial interests in The Crosbyton Review and Slaton Slatomite. He is a native West Texan, and has had his eye on Tahoka for several years.

Mrs. Luther Kirk is the wife of Dr. Luther Kirk, district superintendent of the Pampa District of Methodist Churches. She and her husband have close friends in Tahoka and have lived in this area.

News Is Old Business
Established in 1903, The News claims the honor of being the oldest business institution on the South Plains south of Lubbock.

The News was established October 8, 1903 by Inez and Otis Lilly, who operated the struggling paper for a short while, abandoned the enterprise, and a few months later Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Crie came over from Floydada, where they published a paper, and revived The News in 1905.

After publishing the paper for 13 years, they sold to James L. Dow, then owner of the Lubbock Avalanche, who sent R. B. (Bob) Haynes of Lubbock down here to run it and Mr. Haynes almost immediately bought The News from Mr. Dow.

In October, 1923, Mr. Haynes sold The News to E. I. Hill, then district attorney of the Sweetwater district but former publisher of The Roscoe Times.

Emmitt I. Hill Jr. was associated with the business from the start, then Frank P. Hill joined the firm on graduating from college on June 1, 1924. Emmett later went to the Government Printing Office in Washington, D. C., where he was an executive on retiring two or three years ago.

Frank was associate editor and publisher until taking over complete management late in 1949. E. I. Hill Sr. passed away at Christmas, 1958. Also holding interest in the business have been Miss Berta Hill of Seguin, Mrs. Myrtle Rochelle of Lubbock, and Billy Hill of California.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill have no definite plans for the future, but will continue to make Tahoka their home.
