CONSERVATION NEWS

Most farms in Lynn County need parallel terraces says, Arvel Wooseley, Soil Conservation Technician, with the local office of the Soil Conservation Service.

The water erosion that does the most damage is called sheet erosion. A hard rain on an unprotected field can carry tons of top soil down the road ditches.

Gully erosion is an advanced state of sheet erosion. Sheet erosion is hardest to detect. Water travels fast over a wide area taking some of the top soil each big rain.

With an average rainfall of only 18 inches for the past 30 years, producers should be thinking of storing this limited amount of water. The idea is to keep all the rainfall within a few feet of where it falls. Parallel terraces built from the back side help level the land thus spreading the rainfall over a more uniform area.

Parallel terraces are designed and constructed for modern equipment, thus enabling a farmer to cultivate more acres easier than with conventional terraces with point rows.

"One of your neighbors has parallel terraces. Ask him how he likes them," says Wooseley.

One study showed that the number of trailer accidents was second only to accidents involving tractors. Falls on or from the trailer accounted for 60 percent of the injuries studied. The balance of injuries resulted when farm workers were run over or crushed between the trailer and other objects.

They may also be caused by improper maintenance of equipment, unsafe hitching practices and unskilled or careless driving on the part of the tractor operator.

Although most accidents happen while the trailer is moving, TSA points out that a safety check of equipment is essential for accident prevention.

So, before your trailer starts to roll, here are some points to check: Check rack for broken boards which can set you up for a fall, check for protruding nails which can cause puncture wounds and scratches, check stringers for cracks. Cracked stringers can break when the rack is loaded. A sudden jar also can fracture stringers as well as weak rack boards.

Check tires for wear, cuts and other damage. Weak tires can cause time consuming blow outs and present a hazard on the road. See that trailer is properly marked with reflectors and flags, or if necessary, lights. Make sure you can be seen day or night by other drivers. The new reflective Slow Moving Vehicle Identification emblem is being used successfully throughout the country for this purpose.

HITCH IT RIGHT
Safe hitching practices should be taught to everyone working with trailers. Follow these tips for safe hitching: Always use a safety hitch pin. Stand beside the wagon tongue when working the safety hitch pin. Lift the wagon tongue with your legs not your back. Keep hands clear of the clevis area while the trailer is in motion. Use a safety chain connecting the wagon tongue to the tractor drawbar if the trailer is to be pulled on a public road.

Make sure trailer cannot roll when unhitched.

PREVENT FALLS
Falls, which account for most of the injuries, frequently occur during loading operations. A sudden stop or start on the part of the tractor operator can easily throw an unprepared worker off balance, especially while he is handling materials.

Dwain Lusk, now Production Credit Association officer manager, was inducted into the club by Warren Embree.

Garland Thornton, vice president, presided in the absence of the president, Harold Reynolds.

Timely Tips For Cotton Trailer Traffic Safety

AUSTIN, Oct. 25- You can't "hitch your wagon to a star" and stay out of trouble "down on the farm."

Until recently, cotton and grain trailer accidents have received little attention for their part in the rural accident picture, but, the Texas Safety Association states that injury-causing accidents involving farm wagons are surprisingly common.

One study showed that the number of trailer accidents was second only to accidents involving tractors. Falls on or from the trailer accounted for 60 percent of the injuries studied. The balance of injuries resulted when farm workers were run over or crushed between the trailer and other objects.

They may also be caused by improper maintenance of equipment, unsafe hitching practices and unskilled or careless driving on the part of the tractor operator.

MCCLESKEY TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McCleskey have just returned from a trip to Washington and California.

They left Amarillo August 22nd and accompanied their granddaughter, Carrie and Sandra McDonald, home on the train. The girls had visited them for about six weeks this summer. They visited with the Ted McDonalds in Salah for five weeks. The McDonalds have been raising fruit for the past three years, so the McCleskeys were introduced to fruit picking in a big way. They picked pears, apples, peaches and prunes. They said they had never seen such luscious fruit. They also visited Mr. McCleskey's niece, Mrs. Hugh Buestler in Yakima.

Sandra works as a volunteer in a hospital for the mental retarded, so she took them for a tour of it. It is a sight never to be forgotten and makes you have to be thankful for. The biggest event of their visit was the grandson's (Steve) wedding, which was a very beautiful affair. They got to visit Mount Rainer National Park which was so green and had such lovely wild flowers and see the big glaciers on Mount Rainer. They picniced in one of the nice camping spots. They said they had never seen camp grounds that were so well equipped, but they didn't get to camp out over night for it was too cold.

They made many new friends and would have enjoyed staying and helping with the apple harvest but the call of home beckoned.

They spent three weeks in California with their son, Leonard McCleskey and family.

They landed at home October 17th (Tuesday) evening and were they happy to see Grassland and say hello to friends.

vey No. 487, Block No. 1 on the water of the Double Mountain Fork of the Brazos River, about two miles East of the center of the county, to the Lone Star Real Estate and Colonization Company on December 21, 1878.

The original survey was made by the East Line and Red River Railroad Company and turned in to the State General Land Office in 1877.

The L.S.R.E. & Co., Co. was headed by T. C. Reade and was doing business out of Austin at the time. They were only in business a short time however, and two days after the state granted patent on survey No. 487, they sold the section to R. E. Kelsey of Hebron, Ohio.

Kelsey's will stated that four sections of Lynn County Texas land would go to his two daughters and one son, the son to look after all land. He made a stipulation in the will that after his demise, the land would remain in estate ten years after which time the land could be sold or divided by his heirs as they chose. He paid the real estate company a total of $250.00 for the land.

In 1903, Kelsey's daughter, Isadora Millhouse, was approached by Jack Alley and B. G. Sweet to sell the land to them. The agreement was made and the section was sold for $1,920.00, nearly 8 times what her father had paid for it.

Alley and Sweet surveyed the land and cut it into plats and lots. In April of 1903, they notified county officials of intentions to dedicate the streets and alleys of Tahoka to the public for their use forever. The Court House Square was also dedicated to Lynn County Texas for a Court House Square forever.

Alley and Sweet started selling the surveyed lots to people who were moving to fast growing Tahoka. Lot 4, Block 18 was the place where the "Redwine Place" was to sit for some 60 years.

The lot was originally sold to B. H. Black in February 1904, for the consideration of $100.00. Lot 5 adjoining it on the south was sold to W. D. Knighton for $25.00 which he later sold in 1907 to Black for $50.00.

It was during this time that Black built the house that was to stand some six decades in the West Texas weather.

The house and lot were owned briefly by Hall and Ethel Robinson in 1913, and sold the following year to M. M. Redwine of the Redwine community.

Redwine, an early settler, had filed on two sections of homesteaded land three miles north of Draw. Although there is nothing there now, with the exception of a school house hall, and church, the community is still listed on some highway maps. He moved into town in 1913 after purchasing the lot and house from Robinson.

The Redwine lived there until his death in 1932 and his death in 1937. Ownership of the place became quite complex. Sons and daughters had shares in the estate as did the children of F. E. Sr. and W. B. who, by this time, had passed on.

In August 1940, the numerous heirs to the Redwine place sold the house and land to the late C. A. Thomas, father of Dr. C. S. Thomas.

The General Warranty Deed turned over to Thomas was signed by twelve Redwine heirs representing various persons. Three heirs were minors and the deed was signed by their legal guardians.

Ownership changed hands again in June 1944, when Thomas sold the estate to A. H. Moyers of Post.

Moyers sold the house and lot to C. O. Carmack in 1949 who has retained ownership until the transaction with Lyntegar Electric last week.

The house in recent years has been used as a "Labor house." Countless families have lived there in the past 18 years.

Before the house was razed last week, its paint bare walls and sagging porches stood as a sad reminder of a bygone era. If houses could talk, it could tell of children laughing and playing in the spacious room, of brick paved streets and horse-drawn carriages and hacks which roamed the streets of Tahoka, of the daily arrival of "The Bluewood Special" which disembarked passengers at the Santa Fe Depot, a block east, of the coming of Model A's and T's, of the building of a fine new courthouse, of the development of rich farming land and the coming of enterprises such as Lyntegar, whose sprawling warehouse bordered the house on the east.

The "Redwine Place" is gone now, but will be remembered by a few, at least until the "New" generations replace us and the memory of history is but a dim light.

Personally I have enough confidence in the leadership of Lynn County to believe they can and will give us the kind of management of his hospital we have a right to expect.

By the way I do not own much real estate but I do own some so I am going to have to pay my pro-rata share also.

With best regards, however the vote goes I remain,

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:
Complied below are some good reasons why Lynn County

Letters Urge Approval Of Hospital

Dear Sir:

For some time I have wanted to express my feelings in regard to the hospital issue that we are to vote on soon.

The most frequent reason I hear for not wanting a city-county hospital is the fact that it will raise taxes, and that it will not pay its way. May I answer the last reason first.

The hospital that closed here recently was built largely with borrowed money, and I have not heard anyone say it was not free of debt when it closed. Anyway the reason for its closing was not because of financial difficulties. At least it never left the doctors stranded, and I think doctors are entitled to good pay.

Now for the first reason: One of my grandfathers always said, good schools, and good roads were worth what ever they cost. I would like to add to that, that good health can fit in with that statement just fine. Now to those who oppose this issue because it will raise their taxes. Let me ask you a personal question. Are there any one among you who would refuse to give the amount of one years taxes to save the life of just one person during that particular year? I personally do not believe a man of you would refuse. Did you ever stop to think that one life could quite possibly be either your own or one of your immediate family?

Now I know that one way or another we are going to pay for this hospital and its operation whether or not we have it here. How? When Lynn County people require operations or hospitalization we will either go to Lubbock or to Lamesa, or to Brownfield for this care. We will not only pay for this service there, but those friends and relatives who help for the sick will have to be out extra money and time for going back and forth or for staying away from home.

Personally I have enough confidence in the leadership of Lynn County to believe they can and will give us the kind of management of his hospital we have a right to expect.

By the way I do not own much real estate but I do own some so I am going to have to pay my pro-rata share also.

With best regards, however the vote goes I remain,

Very truly yours,
L. D. McKee
Tahoka, Texas

Dear Sir:
Complied below are some good reasons why Lynn County

should create a Hospital District and build a hospital.

1. Because is is one of our greatest needs. Any County's greatest responsibility is to see that the health of it's people is cared for.

2. Some say, "If the old one failed, why think a new one would succeed?" In the first place, the old one didn't fail, our good doctors just decided to close it because they realized it was not equipped with modern equipment, and that they couldn't afford to spend the large amount it would take to provide that equipment. They realized no one was going to do anything about it as long as they kept the old one open. They have now left it entirely in our hands, and we must do something about it.

3. Many people complain that there are not more doctors in our county. Other doctors would come here had there been a modern open community hospital available for them, and they will come after such a hospital is built. Today's young doctors are trained to use and work in good, modern hospitals, and without one, we will have little to attract more doctors after the ones we now have are gone.

4. There has been quite a lot of discussion lately about finding new industry to locate in our county, but that will be impossible if we do not have hospital facilities to take care of their workers.

5. Some have said the tax will be too high. If we fail to build a hospital, the valuation of all our property is going to fall much more than the amount of taxes required.

6. We have many retired people living in our county and some have already said they will have to move if this project fails. Old people as well as young, need to be close to a hospital. In this day of so many heart attacks, the matter of a few minutes could mean the difference in living or dying.

7. We have many ministers in our county that have to spend entirely too much traveling to and from hospitals in other counties to visit their members who are sick.

8. Those living in "hospital districts" are naturally going to be given priority over those living out of that district. Simply because the ones living in the district are contributing to the hospital. We have already had the sad experience of having to wait for several hours to get critically ill patients admitted to a hospital and the situation is apt to get worse.

9. The question has been asked, "Can we get doctors to come to the new hospital with their patients?" There is no question but that the doctors we have here and as many others as are needed will bring their patients to the new hospital, and it is believed that some specialists will locate near the hospital.

10. We should have enough confidence in Lynn County to believe we can do anything any other county with a comparable population can do.

There are many fine hospitals in Texas with as many as 50 beds in communities even smaller than ours.

For our own sake and for generations to come, let's go forward and not leave a shambles, but instead a prosperous and going community.

Please vote YES for the District and YES for the Hospital.

SCORE BY QUARTERS

Tahoka	0	0	5	14
Coahoma	8	0	0	8

BY BILL SALTER

A touchdown and two point conversion with only 20 seconds remaining in the game, spelled disaster for the Tahoka Bulldogs Friday night at Coahoma's Bulldogs eked out a narrow 16-14 victory in a vital District 5-A tilt.

After trailing in the game since late in the first quarter, Tahoka had fought back to go ahead, 14-8, with less than five minutes remaining only to have Coahoma counter with a 69-yard scoring march, then adding the conversion to break the deadlock.

The tie which would have resulted barring the Coahoma conversion, would have been decided in Tahoka's favor as the local griders won the battle of statistics, but instead lost by the same "heartbreaking" margin which plagued Coahoma the previous week against Plains.

Even though hurting visibly with injuries which slowed key personnel and sidelined two starters, little fault could be found with the local Bulldogs' performance in the game, the final outcome boiling down to several "key" plays, all of which unfortunately worked out in favor of Coahoma.

Included in the list was a missed Tahoka scoring opportunity just before the half when a drive fizzled at the Coahoma 11-yard line, another being a fourth down needing two situations for Coahoma which went instead for 30 yards to set up the final touchdown. And, three times during the second half,

Tahoka was stopped on drives which had carried deeper than the Coahoma 30-yard line.

Tahoka received the opening kickoff, marched through two series which resulted in first downs and were one yard shy of another when an offside penalty and an incomplete pass pass set up a fourth down punting situation.

Beginning on their own 46-yard line after the kick, Coahoma scored on their first possession of the game, traveling the 54 yards in nine plays.

Working through and around the left side of their line for eight plays, Ken Gregory burst through the right side on the sixth for eight yards and the touchdown with 4:09 left in the first quarter. Dean Richters skirted right end for the two-point conversion.

In the drive, Gregory, a hard-running Senior fullback, carried the ball seven times for 44 yards, bearing strange resemblance to Hamlin's Phil Simpson. Both players wear number 24 and provided a winning margin for their respective team in Tahoka's two losses this season.

Following the touchdown, Coahoma kicked off with John Tyler hauling in the pigskin and almost breaking for the distance, slipping at the Tahoka 48 after a 40-yard runback.

From that point, Tahoka scored in eleven plays, all on the ground, with Cliff Thomas grinding out the last nine yards for the score on the first play after the quarter changed. His attempted kick for the extra point was blocked to leave the score at 8-6 in favor of Coahoma with 11:56 remaining in the half.

In the drive, Thomas carried six times to account for 32 of the yards, longest gain in the series being the nine-yarder which carried for the points.

Three exchanges of possession later found Coahoma gambling on fourth down with two yards needed from their own 47-yard line.

Calling on Gregory, the 170-pound workhorse was met nose-to-nose by Thomas and Richard White and dropped for a one-yard loss, giving Tahoka good field position.

Nine plays later, the longest a five-yard gain, found Tahoka with a first down on the Coahoma 16-yard line.

Thomas skirted right end for six more steps on the tenth play, Larry Arnold adding another yard advance before Thomas was caught for a two-yard loss.

With fourth down from the 11 and 20 seconds remaining in the half, Tyler's jump pass over the middle was deflected by a Coahoma defender and sent the teams to the dressing rooms.

At the half, Tahoka had run 44 offensive plays while limiting Coahoma to 19 and had allowed only one first down since the end of second quarter.

And, picking up the same trend in the third quarter, Tahoka went to the last play before giving up another first down, forced punts on two of Coahoma's four possessions in the stanza and intercepted a pass.

But, despite locking better offensively than their opponents, Tahoka drives came up short on three consecutive occasions in the quarter.

On their first possession, which carried to the Coahoma 29-yard line, three yards were still needed after a fourth down attempt.

On the second Tahoka possession of the stanza, set up by an interception and 21-yard return of a Coahoma pass by Charlie Brown, the stopping point was the same, the Coahoma 29. Again, a fourth down attempt came up short, this time by six yards.

On the third Tahoka try, the local Bulldogs traveled 40 yards in eight plays, aided by a 15-yard personal foul penalty against Coahoma.

Then, needing nine yards on fourth down, a halfback pass from Thomas was picked off at the Coahoma 11-yard line by Mike Childers.

Taking over from that point, Coahoma moved into the fourth quarter and to their own 40 before Tahoka defenders correctly diagnosed a fake punt, stopping Gregory three yards shy of a first down.

Not to be denied again, Tahoka tripped off the 40 yards in ten plays, Thomas sweeping right end for 12 yards and the go-ahead touchdown. Then, setting up as for an extra point kick, the ball was snapped directly to Thomas who raced around right end again, adding the two-point conversion for a 14-8 Tahoka lead with 4:36 remaining in the game.

Setting up the touchdown was a nine-yard pass from Tyler to Chris Roberts and running gains from Thomas, Arnold and Doyle Schneider.

With the bit finally in their teeth, Tahoka's Bulldogs appeared to have the game on ice, stopping Coahoma after the kickoff, despite allowing a 27-yard pass completion from Childers to Billy King.

Taking over at their own 45 after covering Coahoma passes on third and fourth down, Tahoka failed to gain an inch on two running plays and drew a delay of game penalty on the next.

With third down and needing 15 yards for a first, Thomas punted out to the Coahoma 31 yard line.

Taking over from that point with time running out, Coahoma needed two yards from their own 40 after the first three plays, springing Gregory for 30 yards on fourth down, the speedster being run out-of-bounds at the Tahoka 30 by Tyler.

On the next play, Gary Brooks nailed Gregory for a six-yard loss only to have him catch a 20-yard aerial from Childers on second down for another "big" play.

From the Tahoka 16, it took five Coahoma plays for the score, four from Gregory who dove the final three yards behind the blocking of the left side of his line.

Then, in a re-run of Coahoma's first eight points, Richters skirted his right end and spun over into the end zone for the two-point conversion and the winning margin.

With only 20 seconds left on the clock, Tahoka watched the Coahoma kickoff sail out of the endzone, getting a final "last gasp" chance from the 20 with 18 seconds.

On the first play, Tyler hit Roberts with a pass which would have been good for a 12-yard Tahoka gain except for an illegal receiver penalty which moved the ball back to the ten.

Trying to pass again, Tyler was nailed for an eight yard loss back to the Tahoka two-yard line.

Calling time out with only three seconds on the board, Tahoka hatched a play which stood the crowd on its feet. Sending Thomas in motion to his right, Tyler took the snap and faded back as if to try a pass, then handed off to Thomas as he swept back to the left in somewhat of an end-around maneuver.

Clearing the line of scrimmage at full speed, and the clock already run out of time, Thomas advanced to the Tahoka 28 before being forced out of bounds by perhaps the last man who stood a chance to lay a hand on him.

The play was Tahoka's 76th offensive effort of the night, compared to 53 for Coahoma. Cliff Thomas led all rushers with 198 yards on 38 carries followed by Doyle Schneider with 35 yards on 10 carries and Larry Arnold with 27 yards on 15 carries.

Ken Gregory paced Coahoma with 121 yards on 30 carries. Sitting out the game due to illness or injuries were Jody Edwards and David Rogers, both starters, plus Doug Taylor, Tim Walker and Bus Owens. Walker and Owens had been out since early in the season, Rogers has missed two games, Edwards and Taylor both hurt in the Kress game. Taylor, who underwent surgery last week, is out for the year.

Commenting on the game, Head Coach Jerry Taylor noted that he was "displeased with offensive blocking and backfield faking," but "still felt like we played good enough to win."

Cited for their performance by Taylor were Cliff Thomas on offense and defense; Billy Curry and Edward Smith, both on defense.

Mrs. W. E. Rudy underwent surgery Monday at Methodist Hospital, Lubbock.

THOSE HORRID AGE SPOTS*

FADE THEM OUT

"Weathered brown spots on the surface of your hands and face tell the world you're getting old—perhaps before you really are. Fade them away with new ESOTERICA, that medicated cream that breaks up masses of pigment on the skin, helps make hands look white and young again. Equally effective on the face, neck and arms. Not a cover-up. Acts in the skin—not on it. Fragrant, greaseless base for softening, lubricating skin as it clears up those blemishes. If you have those age-revealing brown spots, blotches, or if you want clearer, lighter skin, use ESOTERICA. At your favorite drug and toiletry counter. $2.99.

ESOTERICA SOAP softens skin, helps clear surface blemishes. Combats dryness.

'B' Team Downs
Post, To Play
Here Tonight

Tahoka's B-Team downed the Post junior varsity for the second time of the season last Thursday night, taking a 6-0 victory in a defensive battle. In the game, played at Post, the sole score of the game came on the opening kickoff of the second-half after the two teams had fought to a scoreless deadlock at intermission. On the scoring play, Tahoka's Jimmy McCord sailed the kickoff into the Post end zone where the ball was fumbled by an Antelope receiver and covered there by Joe Calvillo, a Bulldog guard. A running attempt for the extra points failed, neither team's offense able to cross the goal line during the game. Named by Coach Dean Andrews for turning in good offensive performances were Robert Montemayer and Larry Durham. Listed on defense were Dwayne Shuknecht, Gene Walker, Bruce Franklin, Roger Miller and Ronnie Schneider. The B-Team Bulldogs, now 5-1, will face O'Donnell here Thursday night in a 7 p.m. game. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Massengal of Borger visited with her sister and brother here last week. They are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Potts and family and Buster, Jiggs and Homer Cash. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Potts and family and Mrs. Mary Potts visited with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Potts and family in Denver City last Sunday. Danny Coburn is enrolled in Texas Tech as a freshman.

Dance Planned For After Game

The Junior Class Parents are sponsoring a dance at the community center after the football game Friday evening. Admission is $1 per person.

Junior Teams Fall To Slaton On October 17

Slaton Junior High teams scored wins over Tahoka October 17, beating the Seventh Grade, 6-0, and the Eighth Grade, 19-8. According to Coach Cecil Robinson, the Seventh Grade squad showed improvement in their game, downed earlier in the year by the same Slaton team, 14-0. Tahoka's points in the Eighth Grade tilt were put on the board by Edwin Pebsworth and Ladd Roberts, both on passes from Quarterback Jeff Atwell. Pebsworth tallied the touchdown on a pass-run play good for 50 yards. Roberts then hauling in the pass for the points after. All scoring in the Eighth Grade game was in the first half, a scoreless deadlock resulting in the final two quarters.

SANDHILLS PHILOSOPHER
Solution?

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnsgrass farm comes up with an odd idea this week, as follows.

Dear editor:

You wouldn't call me an expert on football since all I know about it is what I read in the papers or see on television, but then you can say the same for most of the experts on Vietnam who are a lot louder in saying what shouldn't be done than what should. Yet if a man is going to keep reading newspapers and watching television there's no excuse for his not forming some strong opinions on both football and Vietnam. And what's an opinion for unless you express it?

Since nearly everybody in Congress and the United Nations has spent the last week discussing Vietnam, I thought I should confine my letter this week to football.

As you know, the sportswriters of the country vote each week on who they think the top 10 teams are. They are so expert at it they even decide who the top 10 are before the season starts, before a single game has been played.

Now I have been watching these selections and I notice they change all the time. You get the notion some teams have a lack of confidence in the list. For example there was Notre Dame and Michigan in the first two places and here come a couple of un-mentioned teams and knock them off.

This however doesn't faze the sportswriters, they just say it was an upset and juggle the names, bring in the two newcomers they somehow had overlooked, and draw up another list which is then printed by newspapers all over the country.

Now it seems to me what the football teams of the country ought to do is draw up a list of the top 10 sportswriters, and every time one turns out wrong, call it an upset, kick him off, and add somebody else.

When a sportswriter calls such-and-such a team No. 1 and somebody beats it, then certainly his name ought to show up on what would be called the Bottom 10 of Sportswriters.

We ought to know not only who the sportswriters think are the top 10 football teams, but also who the football teams think are the top 10 sportswriters, even if the list changes every week. All the teams could vote every Monday, in time for their list to appear alongside the sportswriters list that week.

If you think this is a good idea, I would like to hear what your solution to the Vietnam problem is.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Phebe K. Warner

Interesting highlights of a recent trip to Europe were given by Mrs. Emil Prohl, at a regular meeting of Phebe K. Warner Club, Tuesday, in the home of Mrs. Truett Smith, with Mrs. Arvel Woosley as co-hostess.

The Prohls were guests in the homes of nine families in eight different countries, including Italy, Austria, Switzerland, Belgium, Holland, Denmark, Finland, and Sweden. This was an interesting experience in International Living. Seeing the homes, and living with the families, gave a better understanding of people and customs in these countries, and also a better understanding of their feeling toward our country and its activities around the world.

These homes were those of boys and girls who have been summer guests in Tahoka, and in the Prohl's home at various times in the past twelve years. It was very evident that the visit in our community had created a mutual respect and understanding of each other and our people.

These young people have become outstanding leaders in their communities, and are doing much to promote better understanding between our countries.

The people of Tahoka have done much for Peace thru this program of Friendship and Understanding.

The club collect was led by Mrs. Pat Brecheen. The meeting on November 14 will be a Trash and/or Treasures Sale where handcraft items, food, items, etc., will be sold.

GORDON-SOUTHLAND NEWS

Mrs. Edmund Wilke

Hi there, isn't this a wonderful time of the year? The fall colors are just beautiful. Seems like in the spring and in the fall, nature just bursts out all over. Someone once said, "Nature always wears the color of the Spirit. One of the most satisfying experiences in life is a deep appreciation of nature."

Wealth, health, friends and fame can be taken from us, but if we have a deep feeling for the beauty in nature, we can still be happy. How true!

One little boy, Frank Valdez, fell off the swings at school this morning and broke his arm. We hope that all goes well with him and that he doesn't have

Well, everyone that went to Dawson last Friday night to the ballgame, witnessed one of the best games of the season, I'm sure. It was quite exciting, from start to finish! This was their second district game and they have won both! I just don't know who was the most excited and happy, the coach, the boys, or the fans?

Information From The DPS

Those stubborn drivers who ignore traffic laws and play motorized roulette as they rocket along the highways soon will encounter more radar speed checkers and more Texas Highway Patrolmen writing tickets.

Statistics have proved conclusively that speed kills, that driving too fast for conditions is responsible for many traffic tragedies, so the Highway Patrol is going to do something about it.

The Texas Highway Patrol in coming weeks will field more men in more highway cruisers, armed with many more radar speed detectors, in order to encourage motorists to keep their speeds within legal limits, and to prevent the ever soaring number of traffic deaths from rising even higher.

Captain K. B. Hallmark, in charge of the Texas Highway Patrol in this District, points out that the plan to encourage drivers to maintain safe speeds resulted from a 1966 survey on Texas highways which showed that speeding is an increasingly common occurrence.

In the first article in this series, Major Luther C. Moore, Commander of the Department of Public Safety's Northwest Texas Region #5, told how research by university scientists and government studies proves that a driver's chance of becoming involved in a fatal accident increases many fold at speeds over 60 miles an hour. But how many drivers break the speed limit? What is the safest driving speed? Who has the wrecks? And what types of highway accidents are most common?

These questions might be asked by the average Texas motorist, and Captain Hallmark has the answers, compiled from a survey of Texas highway speeds in 1966, and a recent report by the US Department of Commerce.

When Mr. average motorist takes to the highway, about one driver in every eight he meets (actually 12.4%) will be exceeding the daytime speed limit of 70 miles per hour, says Captain Hallmark.

The figure jumps much higher at night, and veteran officers point out that this increase is directly responsible for many

Local Women Aid Christmas Seals 1967 Campaign

Mrs. A. M. Bray of Tahoka, and Mrs. and Mrs. Lou Marks of Post were among area Christmas Seal Chairman meeting Saturday, Oct. 7, to make plans for the 1967 campaign which kicks off Nov. 6.

A great deal of literature and a lot of information changed hands and heads, as Mrs. Clifford Sharp gave a brief resume of the Christmas Seals Impressive History, then invited the attending chairman to the WTTA Office for dispersal of supplies.

Giles M. "Buddy" Forbess of Lubbock is this year's overall campaign chairman, being ably assisted by his co-chairman, Joe Kirk Fulton.

Mrs. Lillian McCord and Mrs. Jean Harvick of Tahoka have been helping with the momentous task of keeping the mailing list up to date. One of the most important jobs in the handling of Christmas Seals is clearing the mailing list for each county. Not only is it necessary to see that everyone receives Christmas Seals, it is expedient that they are not sent to those who will not receive them.

Christmas Seal Workers Meet

Barbershoppers, singing parodies on all the old melody favorites, will highlight the October Board meeting of the West Texas Tuberculosis Association, Saturday at 2 p.m. in the Arnett Room of Citizen's National Bank in Lubbock.

Board Members will attend the business meeting, but a special invitation has been extended to all the workers in the upcoming Christmas Seal campaign.

Mrs. Clifford Sharp, executive director of the WTTA, anticipates a very entertaining meeting, and expresses an added wish to see everyone involved in the seal campaign at the get-together.

"In order to get the campaign ball rolling," she says, "we must have complete cooperation from all chairman on the local, as well as the county level."

There will be many campaign features and ideas discussed which will aid local workers, including the organization of volunteer work in stuffing, sticking and mailing. Sample day plans will be featured, as well as a brand new idea which Mrs. Sharp has been saving for this meeting. Mailing lists must be cleared for each locality.

Giles M. "Buddy" Forbess of Lubbock, is Christmas Seal Chairman for the 1967 campaign. Says Forbess, "This is one of the most important jobs I have ever had. Christmas Seals are a tradition with all of us, but few people realize how much good is accomplished with them. Only seven cents out of every Christmas Seal dollar goes to the National TB-RD Association; the rest remains right here in Texas."

Lynn County Has Three Accidents

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated three accidents on rural highways in Lynn Co. during the month of September, according to Sergeant A. E. Roberts Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in one person injured, an estimated property damage of $985.00.

The rural accident summary for this county during the first nine months of 1967 shows a total of 47 accidents resulting in no persons killed, 54 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $68,768.00.

fatal accidents. Captain Hallmark said the survey made on Texas highways last year shows that nearly one-third of the drivers (29.6%) exceeded the night speed limit of 65 miles per hour.

The safest driving speed, according to the government report, is the average speed of all traffic—while the highest accident rates are found at the very lowest and very highest highway speeds.

Captain Hallmark says the government study shows that passenger car drivers under 25 and more than 65 years old were involved in the greatest number of traffic mishaps. The survey also shows that drivers of older cars are involved in more accidents than drivers of newer cars—perhaps due to the low horsepower and poor acceleration of the older cars.

The most common traffic accident, according to the government survey, is the rear-end collision in which one car overtakes and strikes another car from the rear.

WATER, INC. NOTES BY JAKE STREET

In this column, let's discuss very briefly the West Texas, Eastern New Mexico and Western Oklahoma Water Import Project—the demand for Water, Inc.

First, the project area includes the High Plains of the Southwest, where virtually all municipal, industrial and irrigation water requirements are supplied from ground water stored in the Ogallala formation. Withdrawals, which have increased rapidly with more land being placed under irrigation will eventually deplete this underground storage, with resulting major damage to the area's economy—unless water can be imported into the area to replenish ground water use.

Nine possible routes for importing water from the Mississippi River system to this region are presently being discussed. Here, briefly, are three of the possible routes:

1) From the Mississippi River, at the mouth of the White River, up the navigation channel on the White and Arkansas Rivers; then westward by canal across part of Arkansas and Oklahoma, to the divide south of the Canadian River; then up that divide to the Texas High Plains.

2) From the confluence of the Red and Mississippi Rivers, where the Atchafalaya River begins, up the Red River to the mouth of the Sulphur River; then up the Sulphur to Cooper Reservoir; and then by canal generally along the divide between the Red River Basin and adjoining basins on the south to the High Plains region.

3) From the Atchafalaya River by canal to the Brazos River; then up the Colorado and Concho Rivers; and then by canal to the High Plains.

These are only three of the possible routes that are being studied. The imported water would be pumped upstream along the various routes through existing, authorized, and potential reservoirs whose construction would be required. It can be done... by using conventional engineering methods and means. But, the most important factor is that it won't be done unless the people within the Water, Inc. area join together for a unified, continuous, positive approach to our people here at home and to the people in Legislative Halls and Government offices.

This is why your membership in Water, Inc. is the best investment you could ever make.

To sum up—briefly—we are working to develop enough membership to give guidance to our efforts; to develop a central office; to develop more public understanding of our program and goals; to provide the necessary leadership; to represent this region's interest in Austin and Washington; to report by a monthly newsletter to our members on all current activity and water development projects; plus what seems to be a thousand other daily things that need immediate attention. But, whatever it takes, with enough support, our region will get Water!

4-H Group Will Discuss Grain Production Ideas

A select group of 4-H grain farmers will soon be named by the Cooperative Extension Service's delegates to the 17th annual 4-H Grain Marketing Conference, Jan. 31-Feb. 2, 1968, at the Chicago Board of Trade.

Two 4-H'ers from the state will join delegates from 11 other states in three days of intensive briefing, guided tours and demonstrations to learn how billion s of dollars worth of commodities are bought and sold annually at the world's largest trading center. To be eligible for the conference, the youth must have an outstanding record of growing and selling or otherwise utilizing grain crops. The Chicago Board of Trade sponsors the conference and provides funds to bring to Chicago the 4-H'ers and an adult 4-H leader from each state.

Among the things the teenage farmers will discuss are how grain prices are determined; when and why grain should be stored; how to use the Futures Market as a farm management tool; when and how to sell.

Besides being brought up-to-date on grain marketing practices, the Chicago visitors will see places of interest in the city, tour a large grain processing plant, and attend a dinner to which Chicago 4-H members will be invited.

States to be represented at the conference are: Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Missouri, Nebraska, Ohio, Oklahoma, Texas and Wisconsin.

In addition, the Federal government has legislated specific laws for control of narcotics and adulterated or misbranded pharmaceuticals. The various States have also passed laws dealing with labeling. With this protection-by-law, policed by pharmacists themselves through the Boards of Pharmacy, pharmaceutical standards are kept at a uniformly high level throughout the country.

Meet a 1968 "youngmobile" from Oldsmobile.

Now that you've been introduced, why not get together?

Why not take the wheel of this Cutlass 5—youngest of the "youngmobiles" from Olds. A new 350-CID Rocket V-8 delivers more power at lower operating cost. (And does it more smoothly and quietly, as well.) You say you prefer a Six? Olds has a 250-CID Action-Line 6, too. These are only openers. You can toller Cutlass 5 to your fancy and finances. 4-speed stick to stereo to sporty pinstriping. Front disc brakes to exhausts to Rally Sport Suspension. (All the new GM safety features are standard.) What it adds up to is this: If you like cars with a lot of pizzazz in the way they look—cars with a lot of moxie in the way they drive—your Oldsmobile Dealer is the man to see. They're the only kind he carries.
