Don't Forget To Honor Veterans On Their Day

Veterans Day, November 11. Once again we celebrate an observance of significance to all Americans, and honor the memory of veterans of all wars.

We should reaffirm our pledge not to forget the dead who have served this great Nation. Their contributions can never be forgotten. And may the citizens of America remember the sacrifices and contributions of all living veterans who conducted themselves with gallantry and courage in wartime.

Thanksgiving Supper Held Monday By VFD

The annual Thanksgiving Supper for Tahoka Volunteer Firemen and their families was held on Monday night at the fire station with approximately 65 persons in attendance.

Sponsored by the Women's Fire Auxiliary, the event featured a smoked ham supper with all the trimmings, prepared by the Auxiliary members.

Following the meal, a regular meeting of the women's organization was held with Mrs. Larry Monk elected as president. Mrs. Jerry Ford as vice-president and Mrs. Billy Miller as secretary-treasurer.

Outgoing officers of the Auxiliary are Mrs. J. E. Redwine, president; Mrs. Jackie Henry, vice-president; and Mrs. Troy Havens, secretary-treasurer.

Just as the supper was concluding, firemen were called to perform their duty, extinguishing a bedding blaze at the city jail, located in the same building as the fire station.

The minor blaze occurred when a prisoner accidentally caught bedding on fire with a cigarette. No injuries or damage to the building was reported.

to preserve our heritage of freedom, and further that we pay tribute to those valiant soldiers who are still striving to attain the ultimate goal of world peace.

In the last week, fifteen thousand servicemen and women have become veterans, swelling the number of living veterans we honor today to more than twenty six million.

Have you ever counted up to twenty six million? Of course not. Undoubtedly, no human being has. Someone has estimated it would take twenty six weeks of eight-hour counting days, and no coffee breaks or week ends off, just to count to twenty six million.

Then how do you honor twenty six million veterans? Obviously not individually, much as we might like to salute each veteran personally, from the youngest veteran of Vietnam to the oldest campaigner of the Spanish American War, and give him our share of the nation's gratitude for patriotic services rendered.

We must never allow the figure of twenty six million living veterans to become commonplace.

Since we can never hope to meet and greet that many individuals, individually, let us study other ways of coming closer to them.

Our veterans live in all the 50 States and the District of Columbia, 130 Thousand live in outlying areas of the United States; in Puerto Rico, the Canal Zone, Virgin Islands, American Samoa, Guam, and in the Philippines, 41 Thousand veterans live in other countries.

Three out of four of our veterans live in cities or suburban areas. One out of five lives in a rural, nonfarm area. One out of twenty lives on a farm.

With their families and dependents, veterans make up about half our national population.

If public concern expresses the heart of our democracy, how much more so do our veterans themselves! In all, since our founding days, some thirty eight million men and women have participated in our national conflicts, through September 31, 1966. A million and two thousand of them made the supreme sacrifice. The twenty six million we salute today remain the living symbol of the life pulse of our democracy.

To them, in the name of all who served, we can today stretch out the hand of gratitude... and we do that today.

And since all battles for freedom are in a sense the same battle we say thanks for Lexington and Concord... for Bunker Hill, for Valley Forge, San Juan Hill... Verdun... the Argonne Forest... Chateau-Thierry... Belleau Wood... Corregidor... Guadalcanal... the Coral Sea... Tarawa... Saipan... Anzio Beach, Cassino, the Bulge... for Inchon Landing, Pork Chop Hill... Heartbreak Ridge and Hill 409... for the fighting in the everlasting name of freedom, in Vietnamese rice paddies without names...

Our very democracy pulses with the stout hearts of the veterans who fought that it might endure. We owe them far more than this Day of tribute. We owe them this day, which we ourselves are living, and enjoying!

There is no typical veteran. He is a young man who perhaps has not voted yet, just back from his tour of duty in Vietnam. Or he is in his upper eighties, sitting on the front porch, dreaming of long-ago cartridges. He is a World War One veteran, citizen-extraordinary now retired.

Our veterans are preparing themselves for ever greater responsibility... on scores of civil life fronts. They are making their young but experienced voices felt in the deliberations of great national veterans' organizations... demanding peace with honor and a stronger America, too. They will yet see to it, I have confidence, that their fallen brother of every conflict, shall not have died in vain, that their comrades among the twenty six million shall not have lived in vain.

Together, young and old, veterans are the stout heart of our democracy. Their hearts beat with the pulse of freedom fought for and maintained. They are very special citizens indeed.

CONFUSED ?

You think that DST, then back to CST, is confusing? Did you hear about the young man who went into the station business to make some money?

He was very eager to get started on the so-called "Road to Prosperity". He only had two driveways at his small station. Soon his first customer drove in. About that time another stopped in the other driveway. That was fine - both driveways full at once. He was alone and dashed out to give "Quick Service" when a third car stopped in front of the first car. That seemed a little odd to our new manager, as one of them would have to back out before the other could leave after being serviced. As he was trying to figure this out, a fourth car stopped sideways across both driveways.

Business was booming when a fifth car sounded a loud blast on his horn to speed up the servicing of five cars at once. Now here is what really confused the Young Dealer: Car #1 stopped to use the telephone and "visited" an old friend via the "phone system". Car #2 just drove in to see if Car #1 really had a friend - they didn't need any gas; Car #3 needed some water in a clean pan to water his dog traveling with him to be "company" on the long West Texas roads. The driver of the 4th car, parked sideways, with motor still running, called out to the Young Dealer asking how to get to the Old John Doe Farm that Mary Brown used to own before Mr. Smith had moved from the So-and-So Farm. He was a little embarrassed not to be able to answer so simple a question. She was very polite and smiled as she said, "You don't know many people around here; do you?" and started to leave, but the 5th car was behind her, as she'd parked illegally. Being a Young Dealer, he ran over to see if he could be of any help and they let him know in a cold tone of voice that he was not welcome.

Owner of Car #1 had just finished his 20 minute visit when the phone rang and our Young Dealer dashed in to answer. It was the wholesale agent asking him to change the price of gasoline on his pumps, as gas had gone up 7/8 of a cent per gallon and he would have to lose the 1/8 of a cent.

By the time this was explained to him he had a headache and the driveways were clear and he hadn't sold a gallon of gas. However, Car #5 did come back in and told him to call the wholesale agent and have him just leave a case of oil at the station for him. He said he had a barrel of gas at home.

Things picked up after that, as he was clipped for $10.00 on a check that bounced, given for cash. The Young Dealer's widow has remarried.

WATER, INC. NOTES
BY JAKE STREET

Every citizen of the Water, Inc. tri-state region stands to gain or lose in a way tangible way on whether or not we get additional water supplies. Our region must have water to expand our economy. Maintaining the present economy is not enough—and is not possible. Change is constant. Either forward or backward, like a car going uphill. If the motor ever stops—watch out below!

And in our economy, water is the motor. It is the indispensable ingredient which makes possible continuing growth in our area.

Only in a dynamic, forward-moving economy can the citizens earn higher wages, improve living standards, and enjoy the benefits of a prosperous environment. For this reason Water, Inc. is a "people project". We stand to gain or lose not only dollars, but in living convenience as well.

Consider that everytime you take a shower you're using from 10 to 20 gallons of water. If you take a tub bath, you deplete water supplies to 30 to 40 gallons during one washing-machine cycle; and 10 gallons for one wash of dishes. And if you happen to have a leak in the toilet bowl, you can write out a receipt for use of 35 gallons a day. Begin to get the idea?

Well, other uses consume water at a similar astonishing rate: It takes 10 gallons of water to make one gallon of gas. Over 70 gallons to make one gallon of aviation gas, in case you're flying. And if you are throwing a party, remember it takes 25 gallons of water to produce one gallon of beer.

Matter of fact, it even takes water to publish this newspaper you're reading (besides that the staff uses): It takes 188,500 gallons of water to make one ton of newspapers.

Like it or not, each of us are involved in water. Inc. proposals to get additional water supplies. Just don't say "Thanks". Send us your check for membership now!

Nitrogen Is Main Topic Of Meeting

CANYON—Nitrogen, number one among soil nutrients, received a considerable amount of attention at the Southern Great Plains Agronomy Symposium held recently at Canyon.

About 250 fertilizer dealers, agronomists, researchers and educators attended the day-long parley at West Texas State University.

In discussing nitrogen transformations in the soil, Dr. John Strauss, chief agronomist with Tulsa of Tulsa, Oklahoma, said that nitrogen plays a key role in feeding soil microorganisms which he called "soil livestock." "Nitrogen applied to the soil causes these microorganisms to increase, thus breaking down organic crop residue more rapidly into nitrogen which the soil can use," he pointed out.

Available humus and crop residue should be incorporated into the soil as it provides a source of energy for these microorganisms which are active in mobilizing ammonia into usable nitrogen, Strauss said.

Strauss added that certain factors which slow down the work of microorganisms include low soil temperature, lack of other nutrients beside nitrogen, acid soils and excess moisture.

Other discussions at the symposium included fertilization practices of wheat, grain sorghum, cotton, sugar beets and vegetables.

"What producers should consider both the grain and forage production route," pointed out Dr. Alex Pope, chief agronomist with Occidental Chemical Co., Houston, "About 60 pounds of nitrogen per acre is required for each ton of forage anticipated," he said. "Of course, if the crop is grown for both grain and forage, more fertilization will be required since more nutrients are being removed."

In addition to sufficient, high quality forage, the quality and protein content of the grain produced is also dependent largely on an adequate supply of nitrogen, Pope added. Furthermore, adequate fertilization will provide wheat with more resistance to adverse weather conditions and the ability to make better use of available moisture.

Turning to grain sorghum, Dr. Norman Nossaman, chief agronomist with Western Ammonia Corp., Dimmitt, said that "about two pounds of nitrogen should be applied per acre for each 100 pounds of grain anticipated." He stressed the importance of fertilizing for a specific yield potential and balancing nutrients with available moisture.

Nossaman pointed out that

THE
LYNN COUNTY HOSPITAL DISTRICT AND BOND ISSUE

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 11

CONSIDER THE REASONS:

1. We have a county of over 11,000 residents, with no hospital facilities. In the case of a severe heart attack, you have five minutes to obtain treatment, and numerous other emergency situations make this hospital a must for Lynn County and the communities therein.
2. Young doctors will be attracted to a new, modern, and fully equipped hospital. The District's goal will be to obtain at least three additional doctors for Lynn County.
3. Hill-Burton funds will pay for one-half the cost of constructing and equipping the new hospital.
4. The scarcity of hospital beds in the area makes it imperative that each county or district provide facilities for its own citizens. Difficulty is already being experienced in admitting emergency cases from Lynn County to hospitals in other counties. Conditions in the very near future will force counties such as Dawson and Lubbock to give priority to their own residents.
5. The proposed District hospital will be able to admit any qualified physician to practice. Doctors from other cities would also be able to operate in our hospital if their Lynn County patients so desire. No doctors are allowed to office in District hospitals.
6. The Lynn County Hospital District will be governed by an elected Board of Directors, from Lynn County, whose only responsibility will be to provide medical facilities for the district. A professional hospital administrator will be hired to manage the day to day affairs of the hospital.

Wilson Edges Amherst, Remains At Top Of 2-B

Wilson's Mustangs remained in the picture for the District 2-B championship last Friday night by sneaking past the Amherst Bulldogs, 28-24, in a thriller.

The two teams had held identical 4-1 district records before going into the tilt and in addition to Meadow, were tied for the top spot in the conference.

With Meadow's defeat of Anton (the team which handed Wilson their only conference loss), the district in all probability boils down to a race between Meadow and the Mustangs, each with 5-1 records. But, Wilson handed the Broncos their district loss, giving the Lynn County team somewhat of an upper hand at the present. All other teams in the district have at least two conference losses.

In the Amherst game, both teams failed to score in the opening quarter, but Wilson got on the scoreboard first in the second period on a six-yard run by Quarterback Johnny Scott with the point try failing.

Then, Amherst countered with a six-pointer and a two-point conversion to take the lead, 8-6.

Bouncing back with a 32-yard pass from Scott to Gary Moore as the climax of a 56-yard drive, the Mustangs raced back into the lead, 14-8, after Scott passed to Moore for the extra points.

Still in the second quarter, Amherst rallied on a two-yard effort after a 49-yard drive, then added the points after on a pass to lead, 16-14, at the half. Punting their lead with eight more points early in the third quarter, Amherst seemed to have the game sewed up, but were unprepared for a fourth quarter surge from the Mustangs which put two touchdowns on the board and wrapped the game up for Wilson.

First of the scores came when Scott passed 12 yards to Moore for a touchdown, then hit the Senior end on the extra point play to narrow the gap to 24-22, still in Amherst's favor. Winning touchdown in the game for the Mustangs came when Scott passed 38 yards to Keith Weid, leaving the tally at 28-24 after the extra points try failed.

For the night, Scott completed 15 of 20 passes for 226 yards, 11 of the aeriels caught by Moore for 187 of the yards,

B-Team Drops Second Game To Seagraves

Seagraves' B-Team overpowered the Bulldog junior varsity by a 36-2 count in a game played there last Thursday night.

The loss was the first since the season opener for the Tahoka B-Team, that loss also at the hands of Seagraves, leaving the locals with a 6-2 record, and one game remaining.

Tonight (Thursday) the junior varsity will face Plains at 7 p.m. on Kelly Field to close out the season.

In the Seagraves game, the B-Team Eagles led 30-2 at the half, the second half of the tilt a defensive battle. Tahoka got their two points in the game when a Seagraves hike from center sailed over the punter's head and out of their end zone for a safety in the first quarter.

Cited for good performances in the tilt were Larry Durham, Martin Warren and Jimmy McCord on defense, plus Robert Garza and McCord on offense. Weather conditions in the game were the worst of the season with high northerly winds which caused difficulties in the lighting system of the Seagraves field, the gam-called with several minutes left in the final period due to the lighting troubles.

Both Junior Teams Beaten By Post, 8-0

Tahoka Junior High teams dropped their tilts to Post last Thursday night by identical 8-0 margins.

The games were originally scheduled for Tuesday but were rescheduled due to bad weather, only to be played in even worse weather Thursday night as high northerly winds made the game miserable for fans and participants.

Post scored their touchdowns in the first half of both games, no scoring in the second half of either game.

Young Farmers Hear Cotton Talk

The Tahoka Young Farmers met Thursday evening in the Lyntegar Board Room when Levon Pray, of the Agricultural Extension Service brought a program on cotton qualities and varieties.

In his lecture, Mr. Pray brought out the fact that Ackia was not a cotton for hot dry weather. He stressed the fact that its yield will drop considerably on a hot dry year, whereas on a year such as we have had, it will do as good as any cotton.

He also stressed the importance of water practices in developing good quality cotton. Farm and veterinary medicine will be the top of next month's meeting.

10,000th Texas GPCP Contract Signed Recently

The 10,000th Great Plains Conservation Program contract in Texas was signed last week by Louis E. McCarthy, Route 2, Iowa Park. Other parties signing the contract included the Soil Conservation Service and the Wilbarger- Wichita Soil and Water Conservation District.

McCarthy plans to install a grassed waterway, parallel terraces, concrete lining of irrigation ditches, and other soil and water saving measures on his 515-acre livestock farm. He also plans to rest his rangeland each summer.

GPCP was authorized by Congress in 1957 to speed-up conservation work in the erosion-prone Great Plains area. Producers sign three to ten-year contracts with SCS and the local conservation district, agreeing to apply all needed conservation work on their land in exchange for guaranteed cost share help needed to complete the job. SCS technicians help producers plan and install needed conservation measures.

The 10,000 conservation contracts signed up date in Texas cover about 13 million acres in 39 counties. About 300,000 acres of cropland unsuited for cultivation have already been converted to a protective grass cover under the program.

In the Lynn County Soil and Water Conservation District, there have been 197 contracts on 119,094 acres of land signed since the program began, reports Blake Lovelace, work unit conservationist.

Rev. and Mrs. Hugh B. Daniel returned home last week from Merkel, where they held a revival with Mrs. Daniels' doing the special singing and Rev. Daniels' doing the evangelistic work.

BY BILL SALTER

After two weeks of frustration, Tahoka's Bulldogs returned to their winning ways Friday night in a large way, marking up their highest point output of the season with a 42-0 rout of the O'Donnell Eagles.

Scoring twice in each of the first two stanzas and once in both the third and fourth quarters, the Bulldogs made the win look easy despite the efforts of a fired up bunch of O'Donnell Eagles who had held a bonfire in preparation for their Lynn County neighbors.

But, despite the wide margin in the score, O'Donnell still managed quite a bit of offense and in fact, were pressing for the Tahoka goal line when the final whistle blew.

Three Bulldogs, Cliff Thomas, Larry Arnold and John Tyler, accounted for all the Tahoka points, led by Thomas with 24, boosting his total to 142 for the year.

Arnold crossed the Eagle goal twice with Tyler running for one touchdown and passing to Thomas for another.

And, it was the Bulldog senior field general who put the first points of the game on the board, dashing around his own right end for 30 yards after a pass interception by Thomas had set up the opportunity on the Eagle 48.

After Tyler's scoring jaunt, Thomas added the first of four extra point kicks of the night, making the tally stand 7-0 with 6:20 remaining in the first quarter.

Preceding the touchdown, Tahoka had muffed their first opportunity of the game, fumbling on the sixth play following the opening kickoff after advancing to the 38-yard line. Eagle Jerry Franklin earned credit for the recovery.

Kicking off after the touchdown, Tahoka stopped O'Donnell's Randy Bessire on the Eagle 38 after he had stepped out a 33-yard return, then regained possession of the ball on the next play as Bulldog Michael Glenn pounced on an O'Donnell fumble at the 36.

From that point, it took the Bulldogs five plays to carry the pigskin on in, with Arnold bursting off his right tackle for eight yards and the touchdown. A fumble occurred on the snap from center for the attempted point after, the kick never getting into the air, leaving the score at 13-0 with 4:02 still remaining in the quarter.

Setting up the tally were gains from Arnold, Thomas, Tyler and Charlie Brown, who filled in for halfback Doyle Schneider during part of the game. Schneider saw limited action in the tilt, but was still not at full speed after sustaining a knee injury a couple of games ago.

Kicking off for their second time of the night, the Bulldogs allowed the Eagles one first down to their own 35, before taking over on the second of five fumble recoveries.

On the play, Eagle Quarterback Bessire was met with a jarring tackle by Randy White, the ball squirting free to be grabbed at the 29 by Brown. Thomas ripped off 10 yards to the 19 on the first play following the recovery, but three attempts later the ball was still at the same point due to a determined effort from the Eagle defense.

Facing fourth and ten needed, the Bulldogs attempted a field goal with a setdown point at the 25-yard line. Thomas' kick off to the right of the goal. Starting from the 20, the Eagles racked up one first down due to the efforts of their big three, Danny Brewer, Lynn McGruder and Bobby Ewing, before being stopped at their own 32.

Nailing McGruder on the third down play which set up the game's only punt was Freshman Guard Gene Walker who turned in a fine performance in his first varsity game of the year.

Taking over on their 31 following the 31-yard kick and a two-yard runback, the Bulldogs marched 63 yards in nine plays with Arnold carrying over most determined effort of the tilt, driving from their 21 to the Bulldog seven in 17 plays before Roberts picked off a fourth down Eagle pass in the Tahoka endzone for the touch-back.

With one minute left in the game, Tahoka tried for a "quick" touchdown on a third down pass play. Only to have McGruder snare the pass on the Bulldog 32, running it back to the Tahoka 14 before being brought down.

With the seconds ticking off, Brewer picked up seven and then Ewing added five, leaving the Eagles dangling on the Bulldog goal line as the final gun sounded.

For the night, Cliff Thomas led all rushers with 208 yards on 19 carries, touching the ball only six times in the second half. Thomas added another 40 yards on two pass receptions. The yardage boosted his rushing total to 1,281 yards on 184 carries for almost a seven-yard (6-96) per carry average.

Following Thomas in yardage output for the Bulldogs were John Tyler with 56 yards on eight carries, Larry Arnold with 53 on 12 carries and Chris Roberts with 33 yards on three pass receptions.

Pacing O'Donnell offensively were Lynn McGruder with 85 yards on 15 carries, Danny Brewer with 70 yards on 20 carries and Bobby Ewing with 67 on 12 attempts. Brewer added an additional 73 yards on three kickoff returns.

Commenting on the game, Head Coach Jerry Taylor cited a "fine overall effort," on the part of the entire Bulldog team and expressed that he was "pleased that some of the younger players got to see some action."

Taylor also added that on defense he "felt like Gene Walker (freshman guard who started the game) had a good night as did Gary Brooks." Offensively, Taylor mentioned the blocking of Jody Edwards, Junior tackle who returned to action last week, and the running of Cliff Thomas and Larry Arnold.

Robert Hampton, Lubbock, visited the Jack Ausburn Family, last Thursday.

From there, it was all Thomas for the distance to the goal line, the Senior star picking up two yards, then 13 before ripping off 35 yards on a dodging course before being downed at the one.

Knifing off left tackle for the remaining yard, Thomas then booted the extra point at the 2:47 point to close out the first half scoring at 28-0.

In the closing minutes of the half, McGruder intercepted a pass from Brown to thwart yet another Bulldog drive.

O'Donnell received the kickoff to open the second half and marched to the Bulldog 30 before Tyler picked off an Eagle aerial at the Bulldog 11 on a fourth down, O'Donnell gambled.

From that point, Thomas again applied his "magictouch," reeling off a sparkling 73-yard touchdown gem four plays later and booting the point after for a 35-0 advantage with 7:10 left in the third quarter.

After the touchdown, Thomas' kick went into the endzone to give O'Donnell a starting point from their own 20, but the Eagles still were having difficulty holding onto the ball, Mike McDonald picking up an Eagle fumble on their first play.

Taking over at the Eagle 18, the Bulldog second string offense moved to the six, but were unable to punch across the touchdown, O'Donnell taking over after stopping a fourth down Bulldog attempt.

After a two-yard gain, O'Donnell unreeled what would have been their longest running play of the night as McGruder raced to within the Bulldog ten-yard line before being overhauled from behind by Tim Walker. But, the 80-yard plus gain was wiped from the books due to an Eagle clipping penalty back downfield, resulting in only an eight-yard gain.

Five plays later, the Eagles fumbled away possession for the final time on the night, McDonald again coming up with the pigskin.

But, the recovery proved to be an exchange, the same fate awaiting the Bulldogs four plays later to set up an Eagle drive which carried 34 yards to the Tahoka 12 before running out of downs and still needing a yard.

Starting from there, 14 plays were required for the final touchdown drive of the game, Tahoka also having to offset 30 yards of penalties received on the touchdown march.

After passing to Roberts and to Thomas for crucial first downs in the drive and running for 13 yards himself, Tyler found Thomas all alone behind the Eagle secondary and fired a 31-yard bomb for the touchdown.

After crossing the goal line without a scratch, Thomas kicked the point which proved to be the last of the game.

With 6:42 left in the game, O'Donnell took over for their

Mini-Comments

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm is bound to be headed for trouble, if he's going to discuss women's fashions, as he does this week.

Dear editor:
This is entirely out of my field, like a Congressman voting to economize in his own district, but in a completely idle moment the other day I was flipping through the pages of a newspaper a man had handed me in Littlefield the day before I think to get rid of me, and without realizing it got over into the woman's section and couldn't help noticing some of the current styles, which I understand are called mini-skirts. Like Dean Rusk when asked a question on a delicate phase of Viet Nam diplomacy, I have no opinion on this matter, but I got to thinking. Surely, I said, while everybody knows women will wear whatever the designers decide they should up to a certain point, what'd I'd like to know is can they be hornsogged into buying mini-rain coats to match their mini-skirts?
I'd no sooner thought of it than up jumped a fashion picture of a woman in a mini-rain coat.
What in the world do they do when it rains, I wondered, stay half-wet? The thing was getting more preposterous.
Then I looked again. You're not going to catch a fashion designer missing a sales area. The woman was wearing hip-boots. The article under the picture explained what any clod-hopper should have guessed, the rain falls not only on the just and the unjust but on the bottom half as well as the top half, and a mini-rain coat calls, if you want to be in the height of fashion and not half-wet, for hip-boots to match. It's pretty hard to out-smart a woman, unless you're a fashion designer.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Ann Davis, CHDA Says:

Holiday Food Buying

Don't wait until Thanksgiving for turkey or a special occasion for chicken. Both are plentiful now and are good buys—but look and compare prices.

At a glance at price tags of fryer breasts, fryer legs, roasters and whole fryers, it looks as if whole fryers are the least expensive and breasts the most expensive. But look again on a cost-per-serving basis.

Fryer breasts, one pound serving three, costs about 49¢ per pound, and costs about 16¢ per serving. Compare these 2 persons per pound, at 33¢ per pound, and costing an average of 29¢ per serving.

To get the most for your money when buying a ham, buy it either whole or half. That way you know you'll get those meaty center slices. According to the ### U. S. Department of Agriculture, a ham half must be exactly that. A piece of ham labeled but or shank "end" or "portion" means the butcher has removed the center slices. He probably sold them separately.

Should electric blankets be dry cleaned? No, report U.S. Department of Agriculture electric specialists. Also, it's best not to use dry cleaning fluids on electric blankets because the fluids can damage the insulation on the electric wiring.

Mr. Bill Salter, Editor
Lynn County News

Dear Mr. Salter:

The importance of passing the proposed hospital district and bond issue cannot be overstressed to the citizens of Lynn County.

As in any issue, there are people against it. I feel personally that these people do not have valid reasons for voting against the issue at hand. The most common excuse for being against creating the district is that taxes would be raised. People don't mind paying for a new school facility, but scream at paying for hospital facilities.

The average taxpayer in Lynn County will scarcely feel the tax bite. Those with substantial holdings will naturally feel the dig into the pocketbook but not to the extent feared. Mr. Average Lynn County citizen will pay less than $25 in taxes for the bond issue.

Another excuse is, "Look at Post's hospital, it's closed now and $60,000 in the red." What these people fail to add in their conversation is the fact that there was extreme friction between the doctors and county officials in Post. There was a County Hospital run by the Garza County Commissioners Court. Ours will be a General Hospital controlled by an elected board whom we, as tax-paying citizens, will elect.

Another excuse is, "The taxpayers of Lynn County will have the added burden of paying for charity cases caused by indigent people of this county who could work, but won't, and who are content to live off the fat of the welfare rolls." True, we will pay, BUT WE ARE ALREADY PAYING THEIR BILLS IN NEIGHBORING HOSPITALS. Charity patients who use the facilities of other hospitals have their bills paid by Lynn County.

To look at the situation objectively, let me point out that anytime illness occurs in a family, someone is going to be out a lot of money. There are countless Lynn County people who will tell you of relatives who have had occasion to be confined in hospitals in adjoining counties.

These people are out money for gas, lodging, meals, plus wear and added tear on the nerves. The extra money spent for the above mentioned expenses could easily cover the cost of the proposed tax raise.

A person could die of a heart attack between here and Lubbock. For one thing, it's going to take at least 30 minutes to get from here to Methodist Hospital. Then the patient has to be admitted and they don't especially care who you are.

By having our own hospital, precious time needed to save a life need not be wasted, and by regular use of the hospital, the staff would know you and your condition before admittance. Admittance in most cases would be immediate! This fact alone could be instrumental in saving lives.

Young doctors do not like to open practices where they know all the load will have to be carried by them. They prefer to start where a physician or physicians are already established. By having two fine doctors already established here and then combining their practices with a fine new hospital, we have the magnet with which to attract more medical help.

If your child was poisoned, or badly injured in a home accident, would it be worth it to you to know that medical help was only minutes away? I think it would, despite the cost! (Name withheld at writers request)

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Green and family returned home last Sunday, from Waco where they visited Mrs. Green's mother, Mrs. D. L. Richardson and attended the Baylor Homecoming.

Amendment No. 1 on the ballot proposes to authorize county commissioners to put all money in a single general fund, doing away with the present practice of keeping separate funds corresponding to tax levies for each of four constitutional purposes.

Amendment No. 2 would permit municipalities and other political subdivisions within a hospital district to participate in the establishment and operation of mental health, mental retardation and public health services. This responsibility is now exclusively within the jurisdiction of hospital districts.

Amendment No. 3 purposes a revival of the veteran's land program and authorizes issuance of $200 million in state bonds for loans to veterans. This is a self-liquidating program and would not involve revenue raised by taxation.

Amendment No. 4 authorizes counties to pay medical, doctor and hospital bills of law enforcement officers for injuries suffered in line of duty and to continue salaries of injured officers during incapacitation.

Amendment No. 5 authorizes the Parks and Wildlife Department to issue and sell general obligation bonds in the amount of $74 million to finance acquisition and development of land for parks and recreational areas. The plan is to use receipts from admission fees to state recreational facilities to service the bonds.

Amendment No. 6 permits non-elective state officers and employees to serve in other non-elective positions under state and Federal governments where no conflict of interest exists and where such service would prove beneficial to the State of Texas.

the fullest advantage. Run power sweeps, off-tackle plays and traps, also featuring a strong passing attack built around left-handed quarterback Joe Beal who prefers a "drop-back" type of pass with John Lowe and Alton McGinty as favorite targets.

Other members of the Plains backfield include Tony Salas (156) and Russ Jones (135).

The Cowboys also "flip-flop" their line to take advantage of Guard Bill Taylor (201), Tackle Dan Field (201) and End Mike DeVries (192), putting all three on the same side to provide a formidable blocking wall for their runners. Field was all-district and All-South Plains in '66.

Other members of the Plains starting lineup are not especially large, although one other 200-plus player is listed on their roster.

Plains was originally picked second in the district and features lettermen back from a 7-3 team last season. One of their wins a 17-6 decision over Tahoka.

Prices for this year's crop so far are ranging from 100 to 300 points over loan values for the shorter staples to 1300 or more over the loan for some of the longer staples grown in this area.

Trade sources to date report that no weakness in prices has developed in either category, and there's some indication of additional strength in the longer staple market.

PCG's first quality report, issued November 1 and covering 23,099 bales classed through October 26, shows the longest staple average, highest strength and best micronaire ever recorded. Grades, too, were above previous years.

But it has to be noted that most of these early-season gainers were varieties commanding sufficient market premiums to warrant hand-picking or harvest by selective, spindle-type pickers. And this virtually invalidates any direct comparison with quality factors shown on the first quality report from previous years.

The first quality report in 1966, for example, covered 115,000 bales and was not issued until November 17. It naturally included a much higher percentage of the shorter-stapled varieties harvested almost exclusively by roller or brush-type strippers.

Nevertheless, it is obvious that the additional acreage of improved varieties on the Plains this year will help average as the season progresses. Some 34 per cent of the area's acreage this year was planted to cottons with the genetic potential to produce staples an inch or longer.

Of this year's first 23,099 bales, 82.8 per cent stapled an inch or more and the average staple came to just over 1 3/32 inches.

Micronaire average was 3.9 with over 88 per cent above the 3.5 tenderable limit, Pressley, or fiber strength, measured in pounds per square inch, average 39,000, and 92.3 per cent measured above 75,000 pounds.

PCG compiles a comprehensive semi-monthly report on the grade, staple, micronaire, pressley and elongation of High Plains cotton. The report is furnished free of charge to members of the cotton trade, textile industry and others.

Cooperating with PCG is this joint marketing and quality improvement effort are the three area cotton classing offices, the Textile Research Laboratories at Texas Tech and Tech's Computer Center.

Most men, if asked for a general definition of "Women's Clubs," would probably come up with something like "groups of women who hold meetings and deal in matters which are none of our business."

And, generally, they might be closer to right than wrong.

But in the case of the Women's Cotton Clubs being put together on the High Plains, they couldn't be more mistaken.

To our knowledge six such clubs have been organized in five Plains counties since February, 1965. The first was in Crosby County, and there are now two in Lubbock County and one each in Hale, Lynn and Yoakum counties.

Their meetings and what they are doing are very much "our business," because they are aiming (with considerable success) at larger stocks of cotton in this area's retail stores, greater public awareness of cotton, more widespread knowledge of cotton's problems and cotton's importance to the economy.

They describe themselves as non-social, non-political and non-profit groups with but one purpose - to promote our own product and to be of service to our cotton industry.

The programs at their meetings feature slides, movies and displays that show why cotton and cotton consumption are so vitally important to farmers, businessmen and the whole economy of West Texas.

They are sponsoring Sew It With Cotton contests, County Cotton Queen contests with the winner going on to state competition, and all-cotton style shows.

They are working on automobile window stickers boosting cotton and a central newsletter containing cotton information to be published in Lubbock and mailed to members of all clubs.

Starting it all in Crosby County was Mrs. L. E. McDowell, and to her goes much of the credit for organization of other clubs. She has worked tirelessly and spent much of her own money to keep the movement going.

The Crosby County Club began with 86 members, now has about 500.

Mrs. McDowell believes, as do the women of all the clubs, that thousands of organized, well-informed women promoting, asking for and buying cotton will bring substantial and lasting benefits to the cotton industry.

We at Plains Cotton Growers think so too, and we're behind them all the way.

October estimate, the largest boost given any county in the area for that reporting period.

Subfreezing temperatures last week throughout the area brought "defoliating weather," with the harvest expected to be in peak operation before the end of November, barring adverse weather conditions.

Meanwhile, farmers are finishing up what is believed to be the largest grain sorghum crop ever produced on the South Plains, agricultural officials agreeing that bumper yields on both dryland and irrigated farms will send the final output to record high proportions.

Also, Bob Poteet, executive vice-president of the Lubbock Cotton Exchange, said the area "probably has more open cotton, percentage-wise, for this time of season than in any year since 1956."

each tilt, 42.0 and 34.0 respectively.

But, also comparing statistics, Tahoka owns the better defense, giving up 87 points this far, compared to Plains' 104 and shutting out four opponents while Plains has been scored on in all but two of their tilts.

Offensively, Plains holds a scoring edge, 256 points compared to 232 for Tahoka.

Other Cowboy wins have been over the Ropesville 41-6, Sundown 26-6, Farwell 20-16, Bovina 21-16 and Sudan 28-12.

Leading the Cowboys' offensive punch is Gregg Jones, a 160-pound Senior halfback who is second in scoring in the South Plains with 158 points and has already cracked the 1,500 yards rushing mark this season by a substantial margin.

And, in fact, the game will set up a personal duel between Jones and the Bulldogs' Cliff Thomas who follows Jones on the scoring list with 142 points.

Jones, who is averaging 30.35 carries per game this season, is actually lined up as a fullback in the Plains offense which features a "strong set" with all backs on the same side.

The Cowboys, using Jones to

The November 1 estimate of 1967-68 cotton production on the High Plains, jointly compiled by Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. and the Lubbock Cotton Exchange and covering the 23 counties represented by PCG, comes to 1,247,000 bales.

This compares with final production last year of 1,205,000 bales and is up 16,500 bales from the estimate compiled a month ago. Standing acreage is the 23 counties is now estimated at about 1,256,000.

Harvest of the crop is rapidly getting underway. As of November 3 classing offices at Lmesa, Brownfield and Lubbock had classed just under 50,000 bales, with receipts averaging upwards of 5,000 per day.

This pace, weather permitting, will pick up quickly now that the entire area has had frost-producing temperatures. Stripping operations are expected to be going full blast in most counties by mid-November, with the peak harvest period probably falling between November 20 and December 20,

Bill Griffin,
County Agent,
Says.....

With so much emphasis at present on the production of quality cotton, farmers in Lynn County should examine closely their harvesting operations, says Bill Griffin, county agricultural agent.

The agent lists the following pointers as key factors for a proper harvest:
1. Lint moisture should be down to about eight per cent. This point is reached when the relative humidity in the field is 60 per cent or below. Moisture can also be checked by collecting a few locks of cotton and squeezing them together in the palm of the hand. If the cotton balls up, it is too moist. If it fluffs out, it is dry enough for harvesting.

2. Strippers should be checked carefully to assure that they are properly adjusted and green boll separators should be operating efficiently.
3. Seed cotton should not be stored on trailers if the moisture level is above 12 per cent. Seed quality will also be reduced drastically if stored with a high amount of trash.
4. Seed cotton should be grouped or separated when any difference in quality is suspected. Grouping should be based on variety, irrigation or dryland, disease or insect damage, hail damage, lint moisture and planting date.

All these items make for more orderly, efficient ginning as well, points out Griffin. Such problems as mix-packs or two-sided bales, over-drying and ginning at improper moisture levels can thus be minimized. Ginners, thusfar, have been doing a commendable job with the block ginning program, he adds.

All in all, with farmers and ginners working closely together, the outlook for quality cotton production in Lynn County looks promising, contends Griffin.
