The Tahoka Bulldogs made it three in a row at Coahoma last Friday night as Coach A.D. Shaver's offense started coming around with a balanced attack that produced nearly 300 yards rushing as the Bulldogs won 19-8. Tahoka, ranked as high as fourth in the state in one poll, will take this week off before playing host to Ballinger at homecoming the following

Halfback Danny Thompson scored two touchdowns and gained 113 yards in 15 carries against Coahoma to lead the Bulldog runners. Quarterback Mark Hudlin kicked two field goals--36 and 37 yards--and an extra point. Gain Yardage

Fullback Johnny Alvarado gained 70 yards on 13 carries and Halfback James Wells had 54 yards in 10 trips. Hudlin also completed 3 passes for 60 yards, with Thompson catching two of them and Daniel Garcia one. Willie Ray Mitchell gained 38 yards in six carries.

Thompson ran 17 and Alvarado bulled for 13 in Tahoka's first scoring drive, setting up Hudlin's 36-yard field goal after a holding penalty halted the drive. That was the only score in the first quarter.

Late in the half Thompson ran 1 yard for a TD to cap a 43-yard drive. Biggest gain

YEARS AGO I used to wonder how everyone could always recognize my voice on the phone. Then I heard myself on tape and I knew. My voice is high and squeaky and my wife says I mumble a lot.

After I heard myself on tape, I thought I sounded so terrible I swore I would never squeak...er, speak, again. Obviously I didn't stick to that, because you gotta communicate some way and I can't carry a typewriter with me everywhere.

Not long ago I called some guy's office and his secretary, to whom I had spoken only a few times, answered. "Izzabossairday?" I inquired politely and distinctly. "Yes, sir," she replied, and I heard her call out to her employer, "Mr. Wood wants to talk to you." This has happened many times.

Such a distinctive voice as I must have makes anonymous calling very difficult. I finally had to give up making obscene calls altogether, because as soon as I said "Hello, babe ... " the woman on the other end of the line would say something like "What do you want, Dalton?" They even recognize my breathing when I don't say a word.

Farsmymumblincerned, justcan'tseemhepit. Fortunately, I make a living more with the printed word than the spoken one.

As soon as I can get them printed up, I'm going to start carrying little cards to hand out, reading: "I have a serious speech problem. Please give whatever you can. Have a good day."

SOME SAFETY group did a nationwide survey recently and reported that all the funds spent promoting use of seatbelts in autos were mostly wasted, because people aren't using them anyway. The safety group reported that in their opinion, the promotion of seatbelts was laudable, but that use of them has declined nationally to just 11 per cent of drivers and passengers.

I used to fasten my seatbelts occasionally back when they were seatbelts only. But when they rigged them up with shoulder harnesses and mummy wrapping, I quit. Most of us don't like that tied-down restrictive feeling.

And most of us probably do as I do with the belts--poke them under the seat if possible. And many have taken a knife to those plastic things that stick up in the seat to jab unwary riders in the Yeah, I know. It's a lot safer to use seatbelts. But it also is safer not to ride in a car at all.

I certainly will never ridicule anyone for wearing seatbelts; it could save their life. But I prefer to be comfortable, so please don't bother me with a bunch of facts.

Penalty Helps On the next play, Thompson ripped off 17 more yards and a face mask penalty moved it down to the 10. On fourth and 3, Thompson scored again. The point try was short on a pass, and it was 16-0.

Roddy Williams intercepted a Coahoma pass to start another drive late in the third, and Mitchell raced 17 yards. Wells ran 15 and Hudlin passed to Thompson for 17 in the drive. Tahoka stalled, but Hudlin kicked another field goal, this one from 37 yards out, early in the fourth quarter.

Coahoma fullback Junior Yanez scored from the 3 and halfback Manuel Martinez ran for 2 points to make it 19-8. This Coahoma drive was sparked by the running of Martinez, who weighs 118 pounds.

Jeff Jennings at middle linebacker and Mitchell and Williams in the secondary turned in some good plays on defense.

are searching for a way out. It is deep and it's bottom is full of sin and shame. But, look, God's love is a rope around the chest of His only son and He is lowering Him down, down, ever down into the darkeness of this pit. Let's all grab hold to His loving hands of revelation and understand who it is who has been lowered to save man. The pressure and weight is too great as the rope around the chest of Jesus crushes the life from His lungs. Now as we stand free from the pit and mourn the death of the Son, Praise God! Jesus lives!

This simple story illustrates the message of Jesus and the well of life the world.

THE NEW ENERGY FRONTIER: Coal. America's new energy frontier. Black Thunder Coal Mine near Gillette, Wyoming, sits on part of 50 billion tons. Tapping this huge new reserve of raw energy is a job that takes a combination of resources and pioneering spirit. The kind that fuels booms of opportunity. And we're here helping.

Last year, 3 million tons of this coal was used as fuel to make electricity at Southwestern Public Service power plants. Coal is being used more now because other fuels cost too much.

In Wyoming alone, there's enough coal that some areas of Black Thunder won't be mined until the year 2013. That's a lot of electricity. Coal. It's good to know there are some things you can depend on.

The ads offer work at home opportunities to consumers. The consumer is asked to send in $35 and in return receives a free dictionary and instructions for selling at home. One such unit is the 'Kero-sun Heater" that was advertised on the Thursday Night NFL Football Game Sept. 17. Fire Marshal Robert Stokes has informed the BBB that such heaters are illegal in the city limits of Lubbock because of fire and plumbing codes. Wholesalers for the units are currently in the South Plains trying to market the heaters. Stokes states that the heaters are fine for campers and other non-permanent applications. Further information can be obtained from the Lubbock Fire Marshal's Office. Brown To Return Unspent Funds To State Treasury

AUSTIN--As the new biennium for state government begins, Reagan V. Brown, Texas Commissioner of Agriculture, estimates he will return to the state treasury approximately $600,000 in budgeted but unspent funds.

"For the second biennium in a row, I have found it possible to return unspent funds to the treasury," said

"This has been possible in part by running a tight ship. It brings the amount to $1.4 million that I have saved taxpayers since becoming Commissioner of Agriculture four years ago," he added. "We have reorganized our department into 12 districts, reduced employees, cut out unneeded expenditures and have refused to spend funds that we felt would not be spent wisely," he said.

While the department receives funds appropriated by the Legislature, "the Texas Department of Agriculture also brings into the state's general revenue fund about $2.5 million a year from fees that are collected through the enforcement of 47 agriculture and consumer protection laws," he said.

"I use my own funds frugally, and believe that I have an obligation to the people of this state to use their money in the same way," he ship in extracurricular activities. The first five Texas Excellence Award winners will be announced in March, 1982. Each award will be granted over a four-year period ($2500 per year).

To be eligible, students must rank in the top 5% of their class at the end of their junior year. Beyond scholastic achievement, students must demonstrate leadership ability. Approximately ten finalists will be selected. Following on-campus interviews, five recipients will be chosen. Announcements and awards will be made in the winners' hometowns by local Texas Exes Clubs.

High school seniors may obtain application forms from their school counselors.

In 1976, only 54.4 percent of America's eligible voters turned out for the Presidential election.

RIF Final Distribution Set Sept. 24

Our, summer '81, final RIF distribution will be Sept. 24. Books will again be given out to T.M.C's children. On this day distribution will be celebrated at 2:30 p.m. Parents of T.M.C. children, are asked to participate by coming by St. Jude's Catholic Church.
