SLATON ALSO FORFEITS TWO DISTRICT GAMES

UIL Orders Tahoka To Forfeit Post, Frenship Football Games

By DALTON WOOD

The Tahoka Bulldogs, ranked No. 8 in the state and on top of the district football standings after two hard-fought victories, were dealt a crushing blow Wednesday morning as the District 4-AAA UIL committee ruled a Tahoka player ineligible and ordered the school to forfeit its district games.

The district committee, composed of the superintendents of the six schools in the district, ruled at a meeting in Slaton Wednesday that defensive lineman Richard Payne has been ineligible all year because of a failing grade the last semester of last year.

Tahoka Supt. Jim Coulston, who was not allowed to vote on the matter since his own school is affected, told Tahoka school board members in a called meeting Tuesday night that the student involved is classified under a federal program for students with learning disabilities. He said that since such students may not be failed regardless of what grade they make, the coaches and administrators considered him eligible for University Interscholastic League (UIL) events.

The grades of all the athletes were sent to Austin with the indication that the student in question was in special programs and therefore could not be judged according to the standards set for students not in such programs.

School officials here said that Bill Forney, UIL director of athletics in Austin, refused to consider the guidelines of the special programs set by the federal government and approved by the Texas Education Agency and said the student must meet the same requirements on grades as all other students to be eligible.

The matter then was referred to the district UIL committee, which has authority to rule on such matters.

The committee voted that Tahoka would have to forfeit the two games, and in another action, voted that Slaton also will have to forfeit its two district games this season. Slaton, which had beaten Cooper and tied Frenship, checked its own situation after hearing the Tahoka circumstances, and found a similar case.

This means that Post and Frenship now are 2-0 in district, and although Tahoka can count the last three games of the year if they win them, there is virtually no possibility of representing the district in the playoffs.

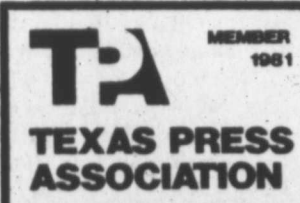

"We presented our case exactly as it happened," Coulston said Wednesday, "but the executive committee felt it was a violation of the spirit of the UIL rules." He added that the UIL has no appeal process.

Already hit by loss of a quarterback who broke his leg against Frenship, the football team will go into the Cooper game with no wins and two losses in district play.

School board members and Coach A.D. Shaver Tuesday night agreed that the school has done nothing wrong, and worried over the effect on the school, team and community of being handed an unjust and harsh penalty.

"You can't legally fail a student in the special programs," said Board President Bob Haney. "Therefore the student is passing, whether his average is 50 or 2 or whatever...to rule that he is not eligible would be saying that no student in special programs should be allowed to participate in UIL activities."

Stolen Football Gear Recovered

Eleven football helmets and some shoulder pads which had been stolen from the Tahoka High School fieldhouse were recovered last week after four teenagers were questioned in Garza County.

The four youths admitted taking the football equipment but denied breaking windows and other vandalism which occurred at the school the same night. Lynn County Sheriff Stanley Krause said the Garza sheriff's office and Tahoka school officials cooperated in the investigation. He also said the case would be presented to the grand jury in November.

Burglary of the New Home Gin office Oct. 20 was cleared with the arrest of two persons reportedly involved in gin office burglaries in Lubbock and Crosby counties. Charged in the New Home burglary was Sylvester Menafee, 25, of Lubbock. Stolen were a small TV set and some silver coin proof sets valued at about $500. Some of the coins were recovered.

The home of Bill Hale, 1501 13th St. in Wilson, was burglarized while the family was away, with articles totaling $2150 in value stolen. Among the missing items were two shotguns, a .22 pistol, gold and silver, wedding rings and cash.

Lynn County lawmen Monday arrested two Tahoka men in connection with the Sunday burglary of the Ross Smith home, southeast of O'Donnell in Dawson County. Only small items and food were stolen. Charges were filed against Antonio Aleman, 18, and Jesse Antu, 17, with bond set at $10,000 each by Justice of the Peace Ed

Hamilton. The suspects later were taken to Lamesa.

In jail during the week were the two burglary suspects, one person for theft by check and one on revocation of probation.

Tahoka police investigated a two-car accident over the past week. On Monday, a 1979 Chevrolet pickup driven by Manuel F. Garcia and a 1978 Ford pickup driven by Juan Chavarria were involved in an accident at the intersection of S. 6th and Ave. M. There were no injuries.

Police also investigated a theft of an air compressor, cutting torch, and assorted tools belonging to Clifford S. Thomas Jr. These articles were stolen from the back of his pickup which was parked at his residence during the weekend. The amount of value is unknown.

Police recovered some tools that had been stolen from Wayne Huffaker over the past weekend. No charges had been made.

Pipelines In County Get Okay

Lynn County commissioners Monday approved a pair of pipelines to cross the county and voted to put some county money into interest-bearing deposits until the money is needed early next year.

Commissioners also decided to seek bids on a lot for sale in O'Donnell, approved scheduled trips by county agents Stanley Young and Brent Drennan, and authorized Mrs. Cindy Bryan, secretary to the county judge, to sign checks on an account handling money collected through fines. The mostly routine meeting lasted for only two hours.

Pipelines requested by Gullett and Associates and by DelHi Gas Pipeline Corp. were okayed, subject to certain restrictions and provided payment is made to the county in accordance with payments made by these companies to other area counties in which they have installed pipelines.

Some lateral road funds and some tax money received by the county will be placed in interest-bearing accounts until Jan. 4.

Present were County Judge Melvin Burks, and commissioners J.C. Gandy, Eldon Gattis and Bart Anderson. Commissioner E.R. Blakney was absent.

WOODWORK

by dalton

THE GHOSTS of Halloweens Past came around this week and reminded me that Halloweens aren't what they used to be in small towns. They're better.

That statement might shock some folks who figure that kids are a lot wilder than they used to be, but so far as Halloween is concerned, it just isn't so. Maybe it's because nowadays they tear up things all year, but Halloween isn't the problem destruction-wise that it was 18-20 years or more ago. And those of us who can remember, including some of us who did some things we're not proud to remember, are glad that the destructive Halloweens of the 40s through the early 60s are gone.

Before the 40s, kids used to turn over outhouses on Halloween. Later they dreamed up pranks, mostly harmless but sometimes destructive. Still later they started tearing up things everywhere on Halloween night, and it wasn't funny. I remember one Halloween night when fires were started in the streets, cotton trailers overturned and smashed, windows broken, cars scratched up with sharp instruments and such. And of course, in even more recent years there have been reported cases of kids getting poison or razor blades in candy treats and such incredibly sick things, but these were rare, if highly publicized. And there used to be hoards of bigger kids, even teenagers, out trick-or-treating for loot.

More recently the trick-or-treaters have been mostly little kids, which is as it should be. And I haven't heard of any wanton vandalism in several years. I hope I won't have to retract that after Saturday night.

When I am home on Halloween night, which is seldom, I enjoy the little ones coming around, especially those I know.

One member of our staff was born on Halloween, and I can think of several comments which would get me in trouble. She's a modern type, though. She handles a vacuum cleaner better than she does a broom.

Lynn County voters will cast ballots Tuesday on the proposed Constitutional amendments at the voting places they have used in the past, county officials said this week.

Although some precinct voting places have been changed because of a federal court-ordered change in precinct boundaries in the county, the new voting arrangement will not be in effect until next year. For 1981 the Texas Election Bureau did not permit the use of the voting box at Poka Lambro and the county show barn. They will be used in the next election.

"It is very important to note that all voters in this section will vote in the same box they used before the 1980 precinct realignments," said Judge Melvin Burks.

Voting boxes will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m., and are as follows:

Road Work In Lynn County Set

Work in Lynn County is included in the 1981-82 Texas Farm to Market Road Program passed recently by the State Highway and Public Transportation Commission.

Acting District Engineer, C.W. Nall Jr., of Lubbock, District Five, said the program includes:

In Lynn County, from FM 1317 at Petty, South to US 380, 8.0 miles, provide relocation assistance and construct grade, structures and surface; $500,000 relocation assistance, $565,500 construction.

Statewide, the two-year program includes $46.8 million for new construction or additional financing on 260 miles of Farm and Ranch to Market Roads in the state.

County-Wide Read-A-Long Aids Library

A county-wide Read-a-long will begin next week in an effort to increase interest in reading and to increase the contributions to the Lynn County Library. Second grade through sixth grade students in the Lynn County schools will be introduced to the program by hearing a story told by a member of the Phebe K. Warner Club next week. Then any student wishing to participate in the Read-a-long will be given a reading list and an envelope to aid in his participation. The student will be instructed to solicit from friends, neighbors, and relatives a pledge for each book the student reads during the next five weeks. At the end of the five-week period, the student will return to those people who pledged a contribution and inform them of the number of books which the student read during the Read-a-long. At this time the student will collect the contribution to the Library according to the number of books the student read.

Students will be given prizes for participating in the Read-a-long and a special prize will be given to a student from each school who accumulated the most points during the Read-a-long. Points will be determined by the number of books read plus the number of dollars contributed by that student. The special prize will be a $25 U.S. Savings Bond. So all you second, third, fourth, fifth and sixth graders get ready to read during the Lynn County Library Read-a-long.

CHEERS FOR PEANUT BUTTER

Did you know that the United States leads the world in the consumption of peanuts, over 126 million pounds a year?

Not too surprisingly, since peanut butter is one of America's favorite flavors, an additional 600 million pounds of peanuts are used to make peanut butter every year.

On the average, that's over three and a half pounds per person a year!

Protein, Peanuts and Peanut Butter

Happily, peanuts and peanut butter are excellent sources of essential nutrients, particularly protein. On a percentage basis, peanut butter contains more protein than eggs, dairy products and many cuts of meat, but no cholesterol.

Keep in mind, however, that proteins from vegetable sources such as peanuts are not exactly the same as animal proteins from meat, fish, poultry, dairy products and eggs. Why? All proteins are built from 22 different amino acids. Nine of these are called "essential amino acids" because the body cannot manufacture them, and only gets them from food.

Most animal proteins are rich in all of the essential amino acids and are classified as "complete". Vegetable proteins, on the other hand, are "incomplete" because they lack one or more of the essential amino acids.

However, you can combine incomplete proteins that complement one another so that their total amino acid composition is the same as animal protein. For example, peanut butter, which is low in the essential amino acid called methionine, becomes a complete protein when you eat it with wheat bread which has lots of methionine.

Other examples of complementary proteins are beans and rice, corn meal and beans, sesame seeds and wheat.

If you do serve complementary vegetable proteins, it's important to consume them at the same meal because the body cannot store protein for even a few hours, and complete protein is needed several times a day to help the body form new tissues, regulate water balance, make antibodies and allow blood to clot.

Since peanuts and wheat grains make a great team, nutritionally speaking, why not combine them in baking? Peanut butter chips have a concentrated peanut flavor, are easy to measure and eliminate extra cleanup. The chips are made from roasted, partially defatted real peanuts. They have about 90 percent of the protein found in an equal amount of peanut butter and much less fat.

Peanut Chip Apple Crumble

1/2 cup unsifted whole wheat flour or unsifted all-purpose flour
1/4 cup packed brown sugar
1/2 cup quick-cooking oats
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 cup butter or margarine, softened
8 cups apple slices
2 cups (12-ounce package) peanut butter chips
1/2 cup milk

Combine flour, brown sugar, oats and cinnamon; cut in butter or margarine until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Place apple slices in 8-inch square dish. In small saucepan, melt 1-1/2 cups peanut butter chips with milk over low heat, stirring constantly. Pour milk mixture over apple slices; cover with crumb mixture. Bake at 375 degrees F. 25 to 30 minutes. Sprinkle remaining 1/2 cup peanut butter chips over top; serve immediately. (Makes 6 servings.)

Children can learn to work smarter, not harder -- to save time and energy, just as adults can.

They primarily learn from watching their parents and family members.

Children who learn these work principles when they're young can use them later in other aspects of life.

Along with learning the task lessons, children also can build self-confidence and form an understanding of their important place in the family by seeing that they really do have a valuable contribution to make toward the family's welfare and happiness.

Of course, in establishing good work habits, an effective plan includes a family program of regular job responsibilities for each member of the family.

Principles Of Work
On the list of work principles that children can learn are the following:

Sharing the work, organizing time, leaving out any needless part of a job, keeping everything within easy reach, sitting down to work, using the best tools, and planning the day's work.

Teaching Children
In teaching children work tasks, pay attention to how the child is trained to "make the bed, clear the table or wash the dishes," for example.

Encourage good work methods and discuss them with the child, letting him or her express ideas on improvement or alternate ways of accomplishing the task.

Work along with the child at first, then let the child work alone.

Letting a child work without direct supervision after you've worked with him for a sufficient time span will allow him to build self-confidence.

Be sure to tell him when his job is well-done -- well-deserved praise and recognition along with encouragement are marvelous to bolster a child's ego.

As you progress through his learning experiences, teach your child to critically examine certain tasks, considering the following questions:

What is the task to be completed?

Why should the job be done? Is it necessary?

Where should it be done? Could energy and time be saved if it were done somewhere else?

When should it be done? Everyone has their own unique energy cycle.

Who should do the job? Is this the best investment of time and energy? Could it be done cooperatively?

How should it be done? Are there certain tools for specific tasks?

of Texas-to-help local public libraries.

Films made available at the City-County Library were seen by 1,975 people. Statistics indicate that these West Texas Library System films were shown 64 times in Lynn County in 1980-81. In addition, 32 people saw West Texas Library System filmstrips, which were shown 6 times. Books specially selected for young adults by library consultants at the West Texas Library System were checked out a total of 179 times during the year from the City-County Library.

Besides making films, filmstrips and young adult books available, the West Texas Library System allocated $385 in 1980-81 to the City-County Library to purchase and lease new books for the library's collections. In the course of the year approximately 30 new books were purchased.

In addition to realizing benefits from the West Texas Library System, another state-funded program, the Interlibrary Loan Service, provided for library patrons materials not available at the local library. The City-County Library requested 30 books and magazine articles from the Interlibrary Loan Service, most of which were located at the Major Resource Center in Lubbock or from other such centers in the state or even from libraries outside of Texas. A special computer system is used by Interlibrary Loan to locate books and articles requested by the people who use the City-County Library. There is no charge for this service.

The Interlibrary Loan Office at the Lubbock Major Resource Center processed over 6,000 requests for interlibrary loans from the West Texas region in 1980-81. During the same period, over 500,000 people viewed films from the West Texas Library System, and a total of 13,100 new books were leased and purchased with state funds for West Texas Public Libraries.

If you have never used any of these services offered by the West Texas Library System, we hope you will avail yourself of the opportunity any time that you might need them. I will try to help you obtain any book, film, or magazine article that you might request.

Warm Weather Increases Crop Outlook

Dry and warmer weather this week increased prospects for favorable maturing of an excellent cotton crop. Although a few bales of cotton were coming into gins, harvest is still a week or more delayed.

Although frost came three days on the mornings of Oct. 23, 24, and 26, no damage was detected to cotton, not even to most tomato plants.

Rain measuring .17 inch about midnight Wednesday of last week, brought the month's total to 7.92 inches and the year's total to 21.74 inches.

Record rainfall for one month was 13.58 inches in September of 1936, and the record for October was 8.61 inches in 1941, according to records of the Tahoka Cooperative National Weather Service station.

Average date for the first cotton-killing frost or freeze in Tahoka is Nov. 7. The earliest killing frosts have been on Oct. 15, 1953, Oct. 25, 1925 and on Oct. 27, 1957. Latest killing freeze was Dec. 11, 1962, from Tahoka south. First light frost recorded here was Oct. 8, 1952.

Dogs Win Game; Lose Quarterback

By DALTON WOOD

Tahoka stayed on top of the District 4-AAA standings with a 10-6 win at Frenship Friday, but lost the services of the man who scored the four points which provided the winning margin.

The Bulldogs took the opening kickoff and drove to the Tiger 9, where Frenship held, and on 4th down from the 15, Quarterback Mark Hudlin kicked a perfect 33-yard field goal to give Tahoka a 3-0 lead at 5:33. The drive also featured a 29-yard run by Hudlin, who recovered a Tiger fumble at the Frenship 2 to put the Bulldogs in shape for another score later in the first quarter. Danny Thompson plunged a yard for a touchdown and Hudlin kicked the point to make it 10-0, with 2:45 left in the first quarter.

Hudlin Injured

But early in the second quarter, the Bulldogs were dealt a major blow when Hudlin suffered a broken leg as he ran an option play, being hit just as he tossed the ball out to Thompson, who gained 25 yards on the play. The 175-pound senior quarterback took a violent but clean shot from a Tiger defender and his left leg was fractured just above the knee. He was hospitalized in Lubbock and later underwent surgery.

Coming in to replace Hudlin and doing a good job under the circumstances was junior Tony Garcia. 140-pounder with junior varsity quarterbacking experience last season. The stunned Bulldogs never did get a lot of offense going in the rest of the game, but managed to hang on for the important district victory.

Coach A.D. Shaver and assistants this week expressed full confidence in Garcia. "He can do us a good job," said Shaver, "and the rest of the boys are behind him." In the locker room after the game Friday Garcia spoke to the team and pledged to give his very best effort.

Cooper Next

Shaver and assistants this week were working on a replacement placekicker for Hudlin, but no decision had been announced Monday. This week the Bulldogs play host to Cooper, which has not come close to any of their district foes so far, but who will bring in a better team than usual. The Pirates have a running back, Glenn Buxkemper, who is averaging about 100 yards per game, and a noseguard who once was defensive player of the week on the South Plains.

In other games last week, Post beat Roosevelt 13-9 and Slaton rapped Cooper 37-0. This week Post plays Frenship and Slaton meets Roosevelt.

In Friday night's game, Tahoka led 10-0 at halftime, but Frenship drove for a touchdown on the -Tigers' first possession on the third period, aided considerably by penalties. There were 23 penalties called on the two teams in the contest, mostly in the second half.

Frenship scored on a 7-yard pass from QB Brent Davis to End Ronnie Navarette, with the point-after kick being wide.

Frenship made no first downs in the first half, and Tahoka, which had 8 at halftime, made only one first down in the last half. In the fourth period, Tahoka missed a couple of good chances to score. Lineman Richard Payne recovered a fumble for Frenship at the Frenship 14, but the Dogs drew penalties for holding and clipping and also had an 11-yard loss, so they had third down and 53 at their own 43. They didn't make it.

Later Tony Garcia intercepted a pass and returned it 25 yards to the Frenship 1, but Tahoka fumbled at the half-yard line and Billy Linenkugel recovered for Frenship, with 3:50 left.

The Tigers made two first downs by using all four downs, but the defense, led by a Payne sack of Davis, finally stopped the Tigers and Tahoka ran out the clock.

Fullback Johnny Alvarado had 63 yards on 17 carries and Thompson gained 71 yards in 20 efforts. Payne, linebacker Jeff Jennings, defensive back James Wells and guard Greg Curry turned in good work on defense.

Santa Fe To Close Small Town Offices

Santa Fe Railway plans to establish a regional freight office at Lubbock, designed to improve service to customers and create more efficient operation. J.R. Fitzgerald, general manager, Western Lines, Amarillo, announced today.

The plan contemplates absorbing the agencies at Muleshoe, Sudan, Littlefield, Anton, Shallowater, Seagraves, Levelland, Brownfield, Lorenzo, Ralls, Crosbyton, Lamesa, Tahoka, Slaton, Snyder and Abernathy and consolidating their work at the regional office. At the same time, Santa Fe officials announced plans to maintain regional yard offices at Slaton and Snyder. The regional yard offices will be staffed with personnel to support and assist the regional freight offices in trains operations and customer services.

Santa Fe officials will hold meetings Oct. 27, 28 and 29 at Littlefield, Brownfield, Lamesa, Snyder and Lubbock to explain the new operation to shippers and city officials from the affected communities.

"These small agencies have a limited staff and are open but eight hours a day," B.K. Perry, assistant general manager, Amarillo, said at the meetings. "They are often unable to provide quick response to requests about rates, car supply or car location by having direct access to our computer, the new regional freight office will be able to respond to such questions much more quickly. The Lubbock freight office will be open an expanded number of hours each day, giving our customers easier access by dialing a toll-free number."

It is understandable there may be initial concern in a community when it first learns the local agent will no longer be physically located there," Perry said. "However, we believe we are going to serve them better and more efficiently under the new system. Technology available to us today makes this a logical, inevitable improvement."

Cub Scout Carnival Set

The annual Cub Scout Halloween Carnival will be held Saturday, Oct. 31, from 7 to 10 p.m. at the Tahoka Community Center. There will be a Spook House, Fortune Telling and many game booths with prizes. Kids are encouraged to wear their Halloween costumes. At 9 p.m. the King and Queen of the carnival will be crowned, judged on best costume.

Admission will be free and tickets can be purchased at the carnival for 25 cents to play most games.

LET'S KEEP THE WATER RUNNING IN TEXAS!

In cities and towns all across Texas, local water problems are threatening to erupt into one enormous statewide crisis. Countless communities are facing growing water supply, water treatment, sewage treatment and flood control problems estimated to cost a staggering $50 billion over the next 25 years. To make matters worse, federal funds for water projects have recently been slashed.

But on November 3, Texans have the opportunity to adopt a plan, already passed by two-thirds of the Legislature, which would harness a portion of our state's budget surplus to help shoulder that heavy local burden.

The plan is proposed Constitutional Amendment No. 4.

Passage of Amendment No. 4 would:

- Make possible the sale of more than $200 million in authorized and urgently needed state bonds to address a backlog of needed projects.
- Create a loan guaranty program to enable local communities to save millions of dollars in issuing future bonds.
- Begin to build a "nest egg" for the future from a part of the state's budget surplus to assist local governments in financing future water and sewage projects.

Texas' water needs must be met, either now or in the future. We can act now, and save money... or pay the higher price later for our neglect, with possible increased taxes. Sensible action now makes much more sense for Texas.

Favorable prospects for an unfavorable 1982-85 farm bill and the classing of cotton by instruments dominated discussion and actions taken October 21 by the 50-man Board of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock.

What the Board considers a far-too-low minimum base loan price of 55 cents per pound and elimination of the disaster payment program that has been a part of farm law since 1973 were two provisions of both Senate and House bills that drew strongest objections.

Those objections, plus other parts of the cotton section of the Senate and/or House bills that are not in accord with PCG legislative policy, led the Board to passage of the following resolution:

"That PCG reaffirm its legislative policies with senators and congressmen and advise them that, in lieu of those policies in a four-year farm bill, PCG would support a one-year extension of the current farm program including continuation of the current disaster program."

The Senate bill's "Heflin amendment" which is not a part of the bill passed October 22 by the House, also was severely criticized by the High Plains producer representatives, and the PCG staff and officers were instructed to "voice strong opposition" to its inclusion in the farm law that will later come from a House-Senate Conference Committee. The amendment would mandate that quality differentials in the loan schedule be based on a simple average of the previous year's loan schedule and recent spot market quotations, plus require the establishment of a study committee to consider alternative methods of setting quality premiums and discounts.

The committee would be made up of eight producer representatives, two from each of the four major cotton producing areas, one representative of merchants and one textile manufacturer. Both PCG's support for a one-year extension of the current farm program and its opposition to the Heflin amendment were conveyed to congressmen and senators in a mailgram October 22.

PCG President Gary Ivey of Ralls reported to the Board that USDA is considering, but is not committed to, expansion of High Volume Instrumentation (HVI) to more of its classing offices. The first such office went into operation at Lamesa in 1980.

After discussion revealed that several major textile mills already are using instruments to evaluate cotton quality and are getting good results, there was general agreement that "the time for instrument classing is here."

There was no strong consensus however on whether PCG should take the lead in seeking conversion of the Lubbock classing office to instruments or, if so, the timing of such an undertaking. Therefore it was decided only that PCG should further pursue the possibility of getting the Lubbock classing office on HVI and report its findings to the Board as early as possible.

Pythian Sisters

Lynn Temple #45 met Oct. 20 with Teddie B. Kelley presiding.

Jewel Smith was initiated into the Temple with Emma Halamichek and Darlene Gurley as Degree Staff leaders.

Three charter members were present and were introduced. They were Myrl Mathis, Florine McCracken and Helen Farr. The Temple was instituted in 1944.

For Founder's Day a history of Pythianism was given by Darlene Gurley.

Joseph E. Hill was a charter member of Knights of Pythias and worked for several years perfecting Pythian Sister rituals, emblems, capes and other paraphernalia. In 1888 the first Temple instituted was at Warsaw, Indiana with 35 members being initiated. First one in Texas was Columbia Temple # 4 at Weatherford in 1896.

The children's home at Weatherford was founded in 1906.

Eighteen members attended the meeting. Hostesses were Myrl Mathis and Mildred Sherrill. Next meeting will be Nov. 3.

Garden Club

The monthly meeting of the Tahoka Garden Club was held Tuesday, Oct. 20, at 9:30 a.m. at the Senior Citizens Center. Mrs. R.M. Stewart and Mrs. A.C. Weaver were hostesses.

Mrs. Weaver was awarded first prize for her arrangement of the month, titled "Free as a Breeze".

Dr. Mary Louise Brewer of Lubbock brought the program, an account of the famous Chandor Gardens of Weatherford, Texas.

The next meeting of the club will be Tuesday, Nov. 17, at the home of Mrs. C.E. Short.

Rotary Views Movie Program

So-called Secular Humanism "religion" versus Christianity as taught by the Bible was dealt with in a film shown at Rotary last Thursday noon by Mike Flannigan, Post Rotarian who owns businesses in Post and Tahoka.

In a talk by Flannigan and emphasized by a minister in the film, the religion of humanism is the worship of man, the individual and not of God. Both sides of the issue were included in the film.

Purpose of the show was to point out the breaking down of long accepted moral values in the nation's schools by inclusion of the theories of the Humanists in school textbooks and the lowering of the country's moral values.

"Pete" Hegi was in charge of the program.

The Legislature this year legalized bingo games sponsored by charitable, educational, religious and civic organizations.

The law also provides that sponsoring organizations must be licensed by the Comptroller's office.

Garland said local option elections to play bingo can be called on a citywide, county or justice of the peace precinct basis.

If approved locally, Garland said, the governing jurisdiction can also impose a two percent gross receipts tax on the games.

Garland said each applicant for a bingo license will be investigated to assure that the organization qualifies under the law.

"We are not going to permit any fly-by-night operations, and unauthorized games will be subject to the penal code concerning gambling," he said.

"Nothing's legal without a license from the state," he said.

He also said the new law will also limit bingo games to three a week and the amount of prizes in a single game to $500 and $2,500 for a series of games.

Garland said the Comptroller's office would be ready to issue bingo licenses to authorized organizations as soon as local option elections are certified.

Bingo Not Legal Until Early 1982

State Comptroller Bob Bullock's office warned that it will be early 1982 before Texans can conduct and play bingo and cautioned against fraudulent claims that legal bingo has already arrived in Texas.

George Garland, director of the Bingo Regulation Division, said the new bingo law also requires a local option election before games can be held.

He said because of the language in the law the earliest date a local option election can be scheduled would be Jan. 16, 1982.

"Any game before that time and before the sponsor holds a license from the Comptroller's office is an illegal bingo game--just like it's always been," Garland said.

The Wilson High School Band will have its traditional Halloween Carnival Saturday, Oct. 31, from 6 to 9 p.m. in the elementary gym. There will be a spook house, go fishing, cake walk, and many more fun things to do. Guess how many pieces of candy in the canister and win it all.

There will be a costume contest with first and second prize given for the best dressed Halloween goblin or ghost.

The coronation in the high school auditorium will be the big climax of the evening.

Wilson went down defeated by Klondike 28-0 Friday night, Oct. 23, in Mustang Stadium. Kendall Wilke gained 35 yards. For the year he has gained 961 yards in eight games. Keith Spears passed for 149 yards. He attempted 17, completed 6 and had 2 intercepted. Billy Bishop caught 6 passes for 149 yards. Wilson's total offense was 196 yards. The leading tacklers were Robert Nolte with 6 singles and 13 assists. Mark Wuensche had 2 singles and 12 assists.

Wilson is now 3 and 5 for the year and 2 and 1 in district.

During a lifetime, the average human heart beats two and a half billion times.

Thank You

We deeply appreciate all the wonderful expressions of sympathy, flowers, food, cards, prayers and visits at the passing of our loved one.

A special thanks to the First Baptist Church of Wilson and their pastor, Mark Scott, the pastor of Sweet Street Baptist Church, L.C. Landers of Tahoka, White's Funeral Home and Ray Ehlers, a wonderful neighbor.

May God bless each of you who were so helpful in a time of need.
